Dear Readers,

Proxy War in Ukraine Hotting Up

Above: A Ukrainian serviceman fires a British-supplied NLAW anti-tank weapon. © AP / Vadim Ghirda

There is currently much disinformation regarding the Ukraine, but by comparing independent reports and from contacts in the area, it is possible to get a semblance of what is really going on.

While the Western press is reporting the Russians in retreat having suffered heavy losses, the opposite is the reality. NATO is busy replenishing manpower and weapons contrary to the Minsk Treaty. Boris let slip during a visit to India that Russia might win, of course this was not widely reported in the MSM!

Russia warned America and Europe and Boris in particular, that if they persisted in using British and NATO forces in the Ukraine, they would be playing with fire! Indeed, that is precisely what happened. On Saturday 16th March, Easter weekend, strange fires and fireballs in the sky started being reported. A huge fire with explosions was reported. Causing the closure of the M4 for most of the day. The official version of the fire was that it was caused by a fireworks store near Newbury catching fire. The only problem with this is that there is no record of a fireworks store near Newbury and the fire was to the North of the M4. However, in the near vicinity is RAF Welford with the second largest store of munitions in Europe.

More recently, fireballs have been seen along the Welsh border area close to the Hereford SAS HQ and Shrewsbury area with a strange fire at Silsden Hill Farm in Yorkshire, not far from the UK's Missile defence radars. Source

News is coming in that during Boris's recent visit to the Ukraine to order Zelensky not to negotiate a cease fire with the Russians, provided Zelensky, his family and staff with British passports - another indication of lack of confidence in the Ukraine winning the war!

A subscriber to this magazine, reported that at a tea and coffee morning, where 2 Ukrainian refugees were welcomed, the attendees were gob-smacked when they said they were escaping from the Ukrainian Government and hoped the Russians would win! Praise Yahweh, the truth is slowly getting out!!

The Chronicles of the Migrations of the Twelve Tribes of Israel From The Caucasus Mountains Into Europe (2) By Pastor Eli James

Chapter One: A House Divided I Kings 11:26-42.

2⁶ AND JEROBOAM
NEBAT, AN EPHRATHITE OF

ZEREDA, SOLOMON'S SERVANT, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow woman, even he lifted up his hand against the king.

27 And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon built Millo, and repaired the breaches of the city of David his father.

28 And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon seeing the young man that he was industrious, he made him ruler over all the charge of the house of Joseph.

29 And it came to pass at that time when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field:

30 And Ahijah caught the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelve pieces:

31 And he said to Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee:

32 (But he shall have one tribe for my servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel):

33 Because that they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon, and have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in mine eyes, and to keep my statutes and my judgments, as did David his father.

34 Howbeit I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand: but I will make him prince all the days of his life for David my servant's sake, whom I chose, because he kept my commandments and my statutes:

35 But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it unto thee, even ten tribes.

36 And unto his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a light alway before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there.

39 And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not for ever.

40 Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam. And Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, unto Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 And the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon?

42 And the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.

The controversy between Solomon and Jeroboam of Ephraim precipitated the division of All Israel into Two Houses. (The Biblical expression, "All Israel," always refers to all Twelve Tribes taken as a single nation.) Yahweh caused the prophet Ahijah to show Jeroboam what would happen. Verses 30- 32 explain the division along tribal lines.

Verse 35 tells us that this eventuality is Yahweh's doing. All of these shortly came to pass, after the prophecy was given.

I Kings 12 tells the story of Rehoboam, son of Solomon. Representatives of All Israel (all 12 tribes) assembled in Jerusalem to make him King. But Rehoboam refused to accept the elders and advisors that he had inherited from Solomon. Instead, he chose a bunch of “Whiz Kids,” who made new regulations, contrary to God’s Law.

In order to implement his new policies, he laid a heavy burden of taxation upon All Israel. But these taxes did not benefit the Ten Tribes in the north. They only benefited Rehoboam, his administration and palace.

When Rehoboam sent a tax collector, Adoram, into the north country, they stoned him to death. Just like people today, the ancient Israelites did not like tax collectors! The rebellion, very similar to America’s Civil War, had begun; but in this case, the North seceded from the South. When Jeroboam, the Ephraimite, learned that Solomon had died, he returned from Egypt to fulfill Ahijah’s prophecy.

II Kings 12:20-21.

20 And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

21 And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

These two verses declare the historical breach. They contain the first mention of two different Houses, the House of Judah and the House of Israel. The House of Judah is defined as the two southern Tribes of Judah and Benjamin. The House of Israel is defined as the Ten Northern Tribes of Israel.

They have separate histories and separate destinies, but they will eventually be joined back together into one House.

In verse 24, Yahweh declares that this division of Israel into Two Houses is His Will: “For this thing is from me.” So, we had better pay attention.

Neither the Jewish rabbis nor the Judeo-Christian priesthood teach about the very important distinctions between these two Houses. Since they are either ignorant of this subject matter or give it short shrift, their usage of such words as ‘Israel,’ ‘Judah,’ ‘Jew,’ and ‘Gentile’ is extremely deficient.

These deficiencies have given rise to mountains of doctrinal error. Unravelling this mountain of error is an absolute prerequisite to knowing the Truth, for you cannot tell the good guys from the bad guys, unless you understand the language of the Bible.

Rehoboam and Jeroboam

For example, the Jews use the word ‘Gentile’ to mean “non-Jew.” But the Latin word ‘gentilis’ means “kinsman,” which is the exact opposite of the sense in which the Jews use it. But, since the Jewish people aren’t Israelites, it doesn’t matter how they use the word. What matters is how the Hebrew prophets and the Israelite writers of the New Testament used the words goy and ethnos.

These are the words which have been erroneously translated into the word “Gentiles,” which has no proper place in Scripture. It should never have been used to translate these words, for it causes much confusion. Throw that word out and never use it again. None of the Bible writers used it.

We must reject the language of the false priests and recognize the proper categories of people, as they are presented to us in the Holy Scriptures. Anything short of this leads to nothing but error and confusion. The reason the Christian world is today completely baffled by the history and prophecies of Scripture is because they have not paid attention to these clear categories of people.

Chapters 13 and 14 of I Kings give us more history of those days, culminating with this statement: "And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam in all their days." (Verse 30.)

Not to be overlooked is the fact that there is also a third House declared by Yahweh. That is the House of David; and that House is the Davidic King line, which Yahweh has declared to reign in Israel as long as there exists a planet called Earth.

"I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant, thy seed will I establish forever, and build throne to all generations." - Psalm 89:3-4.

"My mercy will I keep for him [David] forevermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him. His seed also will I make to endure for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven." - Psalm 89:28-29.

"My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips. Once have I sworn by my holiness that I will not lie unto David. His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me." - Psalm 89:34-36.

Has the sun disappeared? Children of Israel, these prophecies cannot be spiritualised. They clearly teach that the "seed," or offspring, descendants of Israel - All Twelve Tribes - will exist forever and the Davidic Throne will also last forever. The Book of Revelation tells us that, when the Kingdom comes, the Bride of Christ will consist of All Twelve Tribes:

"And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will show thee the Bride, the Lamb's Wife. And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me that great city, the Holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, having the glory of God, and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as a crystal;

And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels and the names written thereon, Which Are the Names of the Twelve Tribes of the Children of Israel." - Rev. 21: 9-12.

Since the "Holy Jerusalem" comes down from heaven, it cannot be the literal city of Jerusalem in Palestine. Rather, it comes down from heaven to rest upon "the twelve tribes of the children of Israel" and upon planet earth, in order to renew it.

If we assume that the Jewish people are the Tribe of Judah, which is what many people teach, then where are the other 11 Tribes? Neither Judaism nor Judeo-Christianity can explain these verses, so they must pretend that the Bible doesn't mean what it says. I will show you that the Bible means exactly what it says.

"Word for Word" Exodus Part 5

Translation by Stephen Howard Anderson

Chapter 7

[Note - In the Hebrew, Chapter 7 has 29 verses, not 25, as in the K.J.V. and others. This work will use the Hebrew format of Verse numbering, so it will not match up at the end with some other versions, nor will Chapter 8 that follows.]

1. Said Yahweh to Mosheh, "See, I have made you as an elohiym 430 to Par'oh: and Aharon your brother shall be your prophet 5030.
2. You shall speak all that I command you: and Aharon your brother shall speak to Par'oh, so that he sends the children of Yis'rael out of his land.

3. I will harden 7185 the heart of Par'oh, and multiply My signs and My wonders in the land of Mits'rayim.

4. Will not listen to you Par'oh, so that I may lay My hand upon Mits'rayim, and bring forth My hosts, My people the children of Yis'rael from the land of Mits'rayim by great judgements 8201.

5. And shall know the Mits'rayim that I am Yahweh, when I stretch forth My hand upon Mits'rayim, and bring forth the children of Yis'rael from their midst."

Moses and Aaron before Pharaoh

6. Did Mosheh and Aharon as Yahweh commanded them, so did they.

7. And Mosheh was eighty years of age, and Aharon eighty three years of age, when spoke they to Par'oh.

8. Spoke Yahweh to Mosheh and Aharon, saying,

9. "When speaks to you Par'oh saying, 'Show a wonder for yourselves:' say you to Aharon, 'Take your rod, and cast it before Par'oh, and it shall become a serpent 8577.'"

10. Went in Mosheh and Aharon to Par'oh, and did so as commanded Yahweh: cast down 7993 Aharon the rod before Par'oh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent.

11. Called then Par'oh the wise men 2450 and the sorcerers 3784. did in like manner 3651 the magicians 2748 of Mits'rayim with their enchantments 3858,

12. because cast down every man his rod, and became they serpents: but swallowed up Aharon's rod their rods.

13. Was strengthened 2388 the heart of Par'oh, and did not listen to them; as had said Yahweh.

14. Said Yahweh to Mosheh, "Heavy 3515 is the heart of Par'oh, he refuses 3985 to let go the people.

15. Go to Par'oh in the morning, he goes forth to the water; and you shall stand by the river's bank to meet him; and the rod which was turned to a serpent 5175 you shall take in your hand.

16. You shall say to him, 'Yahweh Elohey Ibriym 5680 has sent me to you, saying, 'Let My people go, that they may serve Me in the wilderness: and behold, before now you would not hear.'

17. Thus says Yahweh, 'In this you shall know that I am Yahweh': behold I will smite with the rod that is in my hand upon the waters that are in the river, and they shall be turned 2015 to blood 1818.

18. And the fish that are in the river shall die, and the river shall stink 887; and the Mits'rayim shall become weary 3811 trying to drink of the water of the river.'"

19. Spoke Yahweh to Mosheh, "Say to Aharon, take your rod, and stretch out your hand upon the waters of Mits'rayim, upon their streams, upon their rivers, upon their ponds, and upon all their pools of water, there will be blood throughout all the land of Mits'rayim, both in vessels so that they become blood; and of wood, and in vessels of stone."

20. Did so Mosheh and Aharon, as commanded Yahweh; and he lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Par'oh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river turned to blood,

21. and the fish that were in the river died; and the river stank, and the Mits'rayim could not drink of the water of the river; and there was blood throughout all the land of Mits'rayim.

22. Did so the magicians of Mits'rayim with their enchantments 3909: and the heart of Par'oh was strengthened, and he did not listen to them, as had said Yahweh.

23. Turned Par'oh and went into his house, and changed not his heart because of this either.

24. Dugged 2658 all the Mits'rayim all around the river for water to drink; because could not drink they the water of the river.

25. Smitten seven days was the river by Yahweh, and was fulfilled.

26. Spoke Yahweh to Mosheh, “Go to Par'oh, and say to him, ‘Thus says Yahweh, ‘Let My people go, so that they may serve Me.

27. If you refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all your territories 1366 with frogs 6854:

28. and the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into your house, and into your bedchamber, and upon your bed, and into the house of your servants, and upon your people, and into your ovens, and into your kneading troughs 4863:

29. and the frogs shall come up both on you, and upon your people, and upon all your servants.’”

Chapter 7 Notes

Verse 1 - has “elohiym” describing Mosheh’s relationship with Par’oh. This does not put Mosheh in a status like a pagan “god”, but means Yahweh will speak to Mosheh, Mosheh will relay the words to Aharon, and Aharon will speak like a prophet to Par’oh. This is to teach Par’oh the lesson that whatever Mosheh said, it had come directly from Yahweh, and he better listen. This is an example of the style of writing then. It makes Mosheh a “person of importance”, as the word elohiym has multiple meanings, not just divine being. A judge was an elohiym, as used in Ruth, and has been mistranslated “God”. Metaphorical usage is common in the Old Testament, and the literal reading all the time leads to error. Literal reading applies only part of the time, and extensive study of the original language, and idioms of the times is needed.

Verse 9 - 8577 tanniym can figuratively mean “crocodile”, as living on land, and also water, and can mean serpent, dragon, sea-monster as well. The crocodile was the symbol of Par’oh, and a “god” of Mits’rayim. Reference - Word Study Dictionary, Old Testament, Page 1237.

Verses 11,12 - Rod of Yahweh, not Mosheh or Aharon, therefore it could swallow up the rods of the “magicians”, who were using powers of fallen angels, which were not equal to the power of the Supreme Deity, Yahweh. It was just a stick until Yahweh made it something else. Neither Mosheh nor Aharon had the power to change the stick. Refer to the Book of Jasher 79:36. Originally the rod had become a serpent, at the burning bush, and Yahweh had said “I will become whatever I please.” The rod also became what Yahweh wanted as well.

Verses 13,14 - “Hardened” is incorrect, strengthened is the correct term. The term “hardened” has been used generically in the K.J.V. and others, and I will use the correct term depending on the Hebrew word used.

Verse 15 -Ex. 4:3;

Verse 17 - Revelation 16:4;

Verse 18 - “Loathe” is incorrect, “become weary” is correct. The Egyptians had to wear themselves out trying to find a drink of water.

Verse 20 - Yashar (Jasher) 80:3

The Crusades (Part 2)

By
Willie Martin

URBAN II (ABOVE) GAVE THE CRUSADERS TWO GOALS, both of which would remain central to the eastern Crusades for centuries. The first was to rescue the Christians of the East. As his successor, Pope Innocent III, later wrote:-

How does a man love according to divine precept his neighbour as himself when, knowing that his Christian brothers in faith and in name are held by the perfidious Muslims in strict confinement and weighed down by the yoke of heaviest servitude, he does not devote himself to the task of freeing them?...Is it by chance that you do not know that many thousands of Christians are bound in slavery and imprisoned by the Muslims, tortured with innumerable torments?

"Crusading," Professor Jonathan Riley-Smith has rightly argued, was understood as an "an act of love;" in this case, the love of one's neighbour. The Crusade was seen as an errand of mercy to right a terrible wrong. As Pope Innocent III wrote to the Knights Templar, "You carry out in deeds the words of the Gospel, 'Greater love than this hath no man, that he lay down his life for his friends.'"

The second goal was the liberation of Jerusalem and the other places made holy by the life of Christ. The word crusade is modern. Medieval Crusaders saw themselves as pilgrims, performing acts of righteousness on their way to the Holy Sepulchre. The Crusade indulgence they received was canonically related to the pilgrimage indulgence. This goal was frequently described in feudal terms. When calling the Fifth Crusade in 1215, Innocent III wrote:

Consider most dear sons, consider carefully that if any temporal king was thrown out of his domain and perhaps captured, would he not, when he was restored to his pristine liberty and the time had come for dispensing justice look on his vassals as unfaithful and traitors—unless they had committed not only their property but also their persons to the task of freeing him?

—And similarly will not Jesus Christ, the king of kings and lord of lords, whose servant you cannot deny being, who joined your soul to your body, who redeemed you with the Precious Blood—condemn you for the vice of ingratitude and the crime of infidelity if you neglect to help Him?

The re-conquest of Jerusalem, therefore, was not colonialism but an act of restoration and an open declaration of one's love of God. Medieval men knew, of course, that God had the power to restore Jerusalem Himself; indeed, He had the power to restore the whole world to His rule. Yet as St. Bernard of Clairvaux preached, His refusal to do so was a blessing to His people:

Again I say, consider the Almighty's goodness and pay heed to His plans of mercy. He puts Himself under obligation to you, or rather feigns to do so, that He can help you to satisfy your obligations toward Himself—I call blessed the generation that can seize an opportunity of such rich indulgence as this.

It is often assumed that the central goal of the Crusades was forced conversion of the Muslim world. Nothing could be further from the truth. From the perspective of medieval Christians, Muslims were the enemies of Christ and His Church.

It was the Crusaders' task to defeat and defend against them. That was all. Muslims who lived in Crusader-won territories were generally allowed to retain their property and livelihood, and always their religion.

Indeed, throughout the history of the Crusader Kingdom of Jerusalem, Muslim inhabitants far outnumbered the Catholics. It was not until the 13th century that the Franciscans began conversion efforts among Muslims. But these were mostly unsuccessful and finally abandoned. In any case, such efforts were by peaceful persuasion, not the threat of violence.

The Crusades were wars, so it would be a mistake to characterize them as nothing but piety and good intentions. Like all warfare, the violence was brutal (although not as brutal as modern wars). There were mishaps, blunders, and crimes. These are usually well-remembered today. During the early days of the First Crusade in 1095, a ragtag band of Crusaders led by Count Emicho of Leiningen made its way down the Rhine, robbing and murdering all the Jews they could find.

Without success, the local bishops attempted to stop the carnage. In the eyes of these warriors, the Jews, like the Muslims, were the enemies of Christ. Plundering and killing them, then, was no vice. Indeed, they believed it was a righteous deed, since the Jews' money could be used to fund the Crusade to Jerusalem. But they were wrong, and the Church strongly condemned the anti-Jewish attacks. Fifty years later, when the Second Crusade was gearing up, St. Bernard frequently preached that the Jews were not to be persecuted:

Ask anyone who knows the Sacred Scriptures what he finds foretold of the Jews in the Psalm. "Not for their destruction do I pray," it says. The Jews are for us the living words of Scripture, for they remind us always of what our Lord suffered—Under Christian princes they endure a hard captivity, but "they only wait for the time of their deliverance."

Nevertheless, a fellow Cistercian monk named Radulf stirred up people against the Rhineland Jews, despite numerous letters from Bernard demanding that he stop. At last Bernard was forced to travel to Germany himself, where he caught up with Radulf, sent him back to his convent, and ended the massacres.

It is often said that the roots of the Holocaust can be seen in these medieval pogroms. That may be. But if so, those roots are far deeper and more widespread than the Crusades. Jews perished during the Crusades, but the purpose of the Crusades was not to kill Jews. Quite the contrary: Popes, bishops, and preachers made it clear that the Jews of Europe were to be left unmolested. In a modern war, we call tragic deaths like these "collateral damage." Even with smart technologies, the United States has killed far more innocents in our wars than the Crusaders ever could. But no one would seriously argue that the purpose of American wars is to kill women and children.

By any reckoning, the First Crusade was a long shot. There was no leader, no chain of command, no supply lines, no detailed strategy. It was simply thousands of warriors marching deep into enemy territory, committed to a common cause.

Many of them died, either in battle or through disease or starvation. It was a rough campaign, one that seemed always on the brink of disaster. Yet it was miraculously successful. By 1098, the Crusaders had restored Nicaea and Antioch to Christian rule. In July 1099, they conquered Jerusalem and began to build a Christian state in Palestine. The joy in Europe was unbridled. It seemed that the tide of history, which had lifted the Muslims to such heights, was now turning.

But it was not. When we think about the Middle Ages, it is easy to view Europe in light of what it became rather than what it was. The colossus of the medieval world was Islam, not Christendom. The Crusades are interesting largely because they were an attempt to counter that trend. But in five centuries of crusading, it was only the First Crusade that significantly rolled back the military progress of Islam. It was downhill from there.

When the Crusader County of Edessa fell to the Turks and Kurds in 1144, there was an enormous groundswell of support for a new Crusade in Europe. It was led by two kings, Louis VII of France and Conrad III of Germany, and preached by St. Bernard himself.

It failed miserably. Most of the Crusaders were killed along the way. Those who made it to Jerusalem only made things worse by attacking Muslim Damascus, which formerly had been a strong ally of the Christians. In the wake of such a disaster, Christians across Europe were forced to accept not only the continued growth of Muslim power but the certainty that God was punishing the West for its sins.

Lay piety movements sprouted up throughout Europe, all rooted in the desire to purify Christian society so that it might be worthy of victory in the East.

Crusading in the late twelfth century, therefore, became a total war effort. Every person, no matter how weak or poor, was called to help. Warriors were asked to sacrifice their wealth and, if need be, their lives for the defence of the Christian East. On the home front, all Christians were called to support the Crusades through prayer, fasting, and alms.

Yet still the Muslims grew in strength. Saladin, the great unifier, had forged the Muslim Near East into a single entity, all the while preaching jihad against the Christians. In 1187 at the Battle of Hattin, his forces wiped out the combined armies of the Christian Kingdom of Jerusalem and captured the precious relic of the True Cross.

Defenceless, the Christian cities began surrendering one by one, culminating in the surrender of Jerusalem on October 2. Only a tiny handful of ports held out. The response was the Third Crusade. It was led by Emperor Frederick I Barbarossa of the German Empire, King Philip II Augustus of France, and King Richard I Lionheart of England. By any measure it was a grand affair, although not quite as grand as the Christians had hoped. The aged Frederick drowned while crossing a river on horseback, so his army returned home before reaching the Holy Land.

Philip and Richard came by boat, but their incessant bickering only added to an already divisive situation on the ground in Palestine. After recapturing Acre, the king of France went home, where he busied himself carving up Richard's French holdings. The Crusade, therefore, fell into Richard's lap. A skilled warrior, gifted leader, and superb tactician, Richard led the Christian forces to victory after victory, eventually re-conquering the entire coast.

But Jerusalem was not on the coast, and after two abortive attempts to secure supply lines to the Holy City, Richard at last gave up. Promising to return one day, he struck a truce with Saladin that ensured peace in the region and free access to Jerusalem for unarmed pilgrims. But it was a bitter pill to swallow. The desire to restore Jerusalem to Christian rule and regain the True Cross remained intense throughout Europe.

The Crusades of the 13th century were larger, better funded, and better organized. But they too failed. The Fourth Crusade (1201-1204) ran aground when it was seduced into a web of Byzantine politics, which the Westerners never fully understood. They had made a detour to Constantinople to support an imperial claimant who promised great rewards and support for the Holy Land.

Yet once he was on the throne of the Caesars, their benefactor found that he could not pay what he had promised. Thus betrayed by their Greek friends, in 1204 the Crusaders attacked, captured, and brutally sacked Constantinople, the greatest Christian city in the world.

Pope Innocent III

Pope Innocent III, who had previously excommunicated the entire Crusade, strongly denounced the Crusaders. But there was little else he could do. The tragic events of 1204 closed an iron door between Roman Catholic and Greek Orthodox, a door that even today Pope John Paul II has been unable to reopen. It is a terrible irony that the Crusades, which were a direct result of the Catholic desire to rescue the Orthodox people, drove the two further; and perhaps irrevocably, apart.

The remainder of the 13th century's Crusades did little better. The Fifth Crusade (1217-1221) managed briefly to capture Damietta in Egypt, but the Muslims eventually defeated the army and reoccupied the city. St. Louis IX of France led two Crusades in his life.

The first also captured Damietta, but Louis was quickly outwitted by the Egyptians and forced to abandon the city. Although Louis was in the Holy Land for several years, spending freely on defensive works, he never achieved his fondest wish: to free Jerusalem. He was a much older man in 1270 when he led another Crusade to Tunis, where he died of a disease that ravaged the camp.

After St. Louis's death, the ruthless Muslim leaders, Baybars and Kalavun, waged a brutal jihad against the Christians in Palestine. By 1291, the Muslim forces had succeeded in killing or ejecting the last of the Crusaders, thus erasing the Crusader kingdom from the map. Despite numerous attempts and many more plans, Christian forces were never again able to gain a foothold in the region until the 19th century.

One might think that three centuries of Christian defeats would have soured Europeans on the idea of Crusade. Not at all. In one sense, they had little alternative. Muslim kingdoms were becoming more, not less, powerful in the 14th, 15th, and 16th centuries.

The Ottoman Turks conquered not only their fellow Muslims, thus further unifying Islam, but also continued to press westward, capturing Constantinople and plunging deep into Europe itself. By the 15th century, the Crusades were no longer errands of mercy for a distant people but desperate attempts of one of the last remnants of Christendom to survive.

Europeans began to ponder the real possibility that Islam would finally achieve its aim of conquering the entire Christian world. One of the great best-sellers of the time, Sebastian Brant's The Ship of Fools, gave voice to this sentiment in a chapter titled "Of the Decline of the Faith":

Our faith was strong in th' Orient,

It ruled in all of Asia,
In Moorish lands and Africa.
But now for us these lands are gone
'Twould even grieve the hardest stone....
Four sisters of our Church you find,
They're of the patriarchic kind:
Constantinople, Alexandria,
Jerusalem, Antiochia.
But they've been forfeited and sacked
And soon the head will be attacked.

Of course, that is not what happened. But it very nearly did. In 1480, Sultan Mehmed II captured Otranto as a beachhead for his invasion of Italy. Rome was evacuated. Yet the sultan died shortly thereafter, and his plan died with him.

In 1529, Suleiman the Magnificent (above) laid siege to Vienna. If not for a run of freak rainstorms that delayed his progress and forced him to leave behind much of his artillery, it is virtually certain that the Turks would have taken the city. Germany, then, would have been at their mercy.

Yet, even while these close shaves were taking place, something else was brewing in Europe; something unprecedented in human history. The Renaissance, born from a strange mixture of Roman values, medieval piety, and a unique respect for commerce and entrepreneurialism, had led to other movements like humanism, the Scientific Revolution, and the Age of Exploration. Even while fighting for its life, Europe was preparing to expand on a global scale.

The Protestant Reformation, which rejected the papacy and the doctrine of indulgence, made Crusades unthinkable for many Europeans, thus leaving the fighting to the Catholics. In 1571, a Holy League, which was itself a Crusade, defeated the Ottoman fleet at Lepanto. Yet military victories like that remained rare. The Muslim threat was neutralized economically. As Europe grew in wealth and power, the once awesome and sophisticated Turks began to seem backward and pathetic; no longer worth a Crusade. The "Sick Man of Europe" limped along until the 20th century, when he finally expired, leaving behind the present mess of the modern Middle East.

From the safe distance of many centuries, it is easy enough to scowl in disgust at the Crusades. Religion, after all, is nothing to fight wars over. But we should be mindful that our medieval ancestors would have been equally disgusted by our infinitely more destructive wars fought in the name of political ideologies. And yet, both the medieval and the modern soldier fight ultimately for their own world and all that makes it up.

Both are willing to suffer enormous sacrifice, provided that it is in the service of something they hold dear, something greater than themselves. Whether we admire the Crusaders or not, it is a fact that the world we know today would not exist without their efforts. The ancient faith of Christianity, with its respect for women and antipathy toward slavery, not only survived but flourished. Without the Crusades, it might well have followed Zoroastrianism, another of Islam's rivals, into extinction.

The Fall and Rise of Abraham's House (Part 14)

Armageddon

ARMAGEDDON, THE PLACE OF MIXED THROGS, this cross references to Joel. Joel 3:1 begins with setting the stage of our captivity. In verse 2, God gathers all the nations (recall Matthew 25 and Revelation 16:16) into the dale of Jehoshaphat. Jehoshaphat means 'God's dooms', ie. God's judges. Dale or Valley of Jehoshaphat means, a pleasant land of God's judgement. God's judgement or doom denoting a land of God's Laws, or a land of His inheritance.

These lands, God dooms/judges in a special way, a way to put right the lawlessness of His Israelite folk. A dale is hedged about by mountains. The word implies a land area shielded, fenced off. Think of the Kalash, folk of the Dales.

Technically, we are ail folk of the dales, we can be called Kalash! The words 'garden', 'town', 'borough,' 'haven,' or in Dutch garde, tuin and burg, hof, all mean 'and enclosed area, a protected or shielded area. Hence the true English word for citizen is 'burgess', one who lives in a borough or 'burger' in Dutch and German, meaning also a 'freeman'.

In an enclosed area, a dale, a garden, where the mindset of God is. there is freedom: there live freemen, the burgess, the Kalash; paraphrasing 2 Corinthians 3:17 hence the Garden of Eden. We read in verse 2 of Joel 3, that God dooms/judges the Israelites by using the heathen or nations which he brings into our 'dales' or pleasant lands, then when He is done with us, He dooms/judges the heathen. God dooms us to cleanse us, not to wipe us out, but He dooms the heathen because they overstep the length of time they are allowed to keep us in servitude (remember we were sold into their hands - the law of restitution), but they enjoy the plunder over us too much.

And so in verse 12, "Let the heathen be wakened and come up to the 'pleasant lands of God's doom' (valley/dale of Jehoshaphat) for there I will sit to judge all the heathen round about. Put ye in the sickle (for the wheat company, the church goers of the church age see parable of the Tares and the Wheat), for the harvest is ripe, (they've reached the end of their age), come get you down for the press is full (the wine press crushes the Israelite grape company, those Israelites that do not know God in any way), the vats overflow (there are plenty of them), for their wickedness is great.

Multitudes, multitudes in the valley (dale) of decision (decision here means threshing, dale of threshing means the lands of the wheat harvest. Only Saxon lands have the wheat company, ie Judeo-Christians of Israelite stock), for the day of the Lord is near..." When is it near? When it is lime for threshing. We know when it is the right time because the title 'dale of threshing' is only apt when all the nations are gathered in our lands. So let's end that verse, "is near in the valley/dale of 'threshing'/ decision."

In verse 16 we read this is good news for His folk, the children of Israel. In verse 17 we see the outcome of Matthew 25, "—and He shall separate the Ethnos (nations)." In other words He will undo the multi-racialism / culturalism "—then shall (new) Jerusalem be holy (in a state of apartness or fully under apartheid) and there shall no strangers (zūwr) pass through her any more."

The same point is made very clear in Jeremiah 50:35-37. "A sword is upon the Chaldeans saith the Lord (Chaldea was by then multi-cultural as you'll see)—and upon the inhabitants of Babylon—and upon All the Mingled People that are in the midst of her.—" The fall of old Babylon sets the pattern for that of Neo-Babylon (which has overstepped her allocated time that she can lawfully hang onto us.)

We can see from all this that the Identity teaching is the 'prophet of Elijah' that has a special message for Israelites only.

A message that comes about in the lands of our Saxon-Celtic-Israelite kin, those who are Abraham's kin, those who live in the dales and the gardens. Those who await the deliverance out of the hands of those that hate us. It is not enough to know this, as over comers we are called to take part in spreading the Elijah teaching, after all, it is all Israel that needs turning, not just those Israelites who know that they are Israelites.

Turn your hearts to the children, teach your children this so that they will turn their hearts to our fathers. Like the Pharaoh in Egypt, Babylon has hardened her heart God did this. Why? So that Babylon, as Egypt before, would overstep her right to hold us captive. This means, Babylon is stealing, she steals because our sentence is over.

Now Babylon must go into captivity and pay restitution. Like our forefathers left Egypt taking Egyptian spoils, we too can lawfully do unto Babylon "double as she has done unto us" when God delivers us. (Revelation 18:6)

What a great and wonderful King we have. The monarchy or Presidents will never do this for us, namely, set us free from our captors and then let us lawfully plunder them double as they've done unto us. "Great and wonderful are thy works, Lord God Almighty, just and true are thy ways, thou King of the called-out ones..." Revelation 18:3.

Chapter 14

Abraham's Seed: Now and Forever?

CAN THE WORDS, "FATHERS", "ABRAHAM", "ISAAC", "JACOB", AND "ISRAEL" IN THE NEW TESTAMENT BE SPIRITUALISED? Based on the booklet of the same name by Arnold Kennedy and adapted for "The Fall and Rise of Abraham's Kin" by Adam de Witt with permission. My apologies to Arnold Kennedy should parts adapted be displeasing to him, though all care has been taken not to make changes other than to make his booklet fit snugly into the format of my writ. (Italicised text by Adam de Witt)

The popular view is that the names, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Israel now have spiritual meanings in their application, since the promises made to these 'fathers' are now meant to apply to those of every race who "accept Jesus" or are "born again" in the popular but wrong language. These of every race are meant to be "The Church" as a new identity.

It is not until we make a list of all the 150 New Testament verses with the words, “Fathers”, “Abraham”, “Isaac”, “Jacob” and “Israel” that we can see these are all used in the historical application. We have to ask why they are all not commonly accepted in the way the New Testament uses them.

There are only 19 verses that could even remotely be taken to having spiritual meaning only, or of extending the application beyond Israel. How could any of the 19 over-ride the 131 other verses, yet that is what the churches try to do. In the list to follow, these 19 verses are printed with a star ♦ for quick find. The answer to each of these 19 verses is answered in the book, “The Exclusiveness of Israel”, (available from CIM).

It is recommended that the reader reads right through all this list, because there are a multitude of points that deny the popular universal evangelistic way in which some of these 19 verses are interpreted and applied.

For instance, when we read how that, “the promise which was made unto the fathers, God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children”, where ‘children’ means offspring, ask yourself how this could include any but offspring of Israel, as those children.

There is a huge weight of evidence through the Bible against the popular acceptance. The whole 150 verses show that Israel, as a folk is still very exclusive (Holy) in the sight of the Lord. There is no place for mixture or of a “spiritual Israel” and a “natural” Israel co-existing.

Our unchanging God could not have changed from the time He said: “The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob hath sent me unto you (the Children of Israel) this is my name forever...” Exodus 3:15 We can see that this carries on through the New Testament, e.g. “I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob...” Matthew 22:32

So let us look through all the New Testament verses with the words, “Fathers”, “Abraham”, “Isaac”, “Jacob” and “Israel” therein to see if anything really is changed in the New Testament. Then make up your own mind! The critical words are highlighted in bold print so that they can not be missed. Think through the implications of what the words in bold print mean as you read.

Harold Stough Notes The Gospel According to Paul. (Rom. 6:4; Col. 2:12)

I AM AN ENVOY FOR CHRIST - II Cor. 5:20 (Moffatt).

Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God. Rom. 1:1 (M)

"The God who had set me apart from my very birth called me by His grace ... He chose to reveal His Son to me, that I might preach Him to the Gentiles" - Gal. 1:15

"He hath chosen us in Him (in Christ) before the foundation of the world" - Eph. 1:4

Faith

"Faith meant a confidence that God would fulfil His promises. This was the root idea of the Abraham story. ...it is but a single step... to the idea of faith as a practical force for life, an act and attitude of self commitment to a God Worthy of all trust. 'To him', says Principal Cairns (The Faith that Rebels, 206) 'faith is the great fundamental human virtue, the indispensable condition of all salvation and life and blessing'.

"Faith was not so much a confidence that God's promises would some day be fulfilled, as a recognition that it had been fulfilled already, and fulfilled in a way that claimed the surrender of a man's life in love and gratitude and obedience." "For all the promises of God in Him and yea, and in Him Amen, unto the glory of God by us"- II Cor. 1:20.

Reconciliation

"What makes sin an essentially lonely thing is not the separation of the sinner from his brother men or even from his own best self: is it his isolation from God.

This is what Paul calls 'alienation'. 'You that were sometime alienated, and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled'. He charges his converts that they 'walk not as other Gentiles walk— alienated from the life of God'.

Other religions take it for granted that God is the one who requires to be reconciled. Ritual acts and offerings are prescribed through which the offended deity may be placated. ... Is this the conception with which Paul is working? When he speaks of reconciliation, is he thinking of a change in the attitude of God? .— 'Or is it man-not God at all—who needs to be reconciled'.

With one voice the pagan creeds declare that man must take steps to reconcile his God, and so restore himself to favour. Christianity cuts clean across this, and declares the exact opposite. God Is the Reconciler. God has taken the initiative, has broken into the atmosphere of man's hostility, and has thrown down every estranging barrier that guilt and hopelessness and dull resentment can bring— it is God who reconciles, man who is reconciled.

"All things are of God, who hath reconciled us to Himself by Jesus Christ" - II Cor 5:18. God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself"- II Cor. 5:19. "If, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of His Son, much more, being, reconciled, we shall be saved by His life". Rom 5:1

"A God who needs to be reconciled is not the apostolic God of grace. He is certainly not the God and Father of Jesus Christ.

Propitiation

'Being justified freely by His grace, through the Redemption that is in Christ Jesus; Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in His blood" Rom. 3:24.

"He is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world" – 1 John 22. "Herein in love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us, and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins". - I John 4:10

It is now coming to be generally accepted that the Greek Word () as used by Paul in Romans 3:25 is not a noun at all, but a masculine adjective agreeing with – "Whom God hath set forth with propitiatory power".

It cannot be too firmly emphasized that the whole idea of propitiating God is radically unscriptural. It plays havoc with the Bible's fundamental tenet, which is the Divine initiative. When Paul affirms that Christ possesses 'propitiatory powers' he is careful to remark that it is God Himself Who has 'set Christ forth' in this character ...'

Wrath

What Paul means by the wrath of God... is the totality of the divine reaction to sin, your outlook is not Gods but man's – Matt. 16:23 (Moffett)

I Corinthians 13.

"Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels"- Religion as ecstatic emotionalism. "Though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge"- Religion as gnosis, intellectualism, speculation.

"Though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains" - Religion as working energy. "Though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor" Religion as humanitarianism. "Though I give my body to be burned"- Religion as ascetism.

All these one-sided and patently inadequate representations of the Gospel, Paul expressly repudiates.

Treason Committed by the UK Police

Sir ____, Within this current manufactured crisis, we have witnessed disturbing actions undertaken by the Government’s phalanx of underling enforcers whether controlled directly or indirectly.

One of the most enthusiastic enforcers of this New World Order (NWO) ethos being the UK Police. On numerous occasions, within the last two years of misery, innocent people have suffered whilst attending lawful demonstrations expressing their legal right to protest plus importantly to lawfully petition the Government about its own ongoing legally suspect activities.

This most visible NWO oppressor repeatedly exercising brutal conduct and jettisoning a once globally respected policing reputation. These paramilitary style operations are repeatedly televised to a worldwide audience. This is indicative of a dystopian government working in conjunction with an indifferent police service management having voluntarily decided to sacrifice this reputation.

Situations have degenerated into grotesque spectacles of people hauled violently from peaceful marches by caricatures of third world paramilitaries. A caricature that reflects the new thinking by this global cabal to conduct itself in a manner clearly alien to the ‘policing by consent’ philosophy our democracy had developed. When their policing operation does not apprehend prey there is the intimidatory sight of semi-military adorned scowling functionaries lurking for testosterone fuelled ‘action’ whilst they strut around the public as if overseeing a cowered slave colony.

This unnatural situation, alien within a mature democracy, has undermined the moral standards to which law enforcement agencies were formerly held.

The Police Federation’s own publication available to all their staff titled: “The Office of Constable the bedrock of modern-day British policing” states upon its opening page:

“Every constable is an independent legal entity; the public’s guarantee of impartiality...”

Page two of this document further explains: “On appointment each police officer makes a declaration to “faithfully discharge the duties of the Office of Constable”.” Further stating:

“Each sworn constable is an independent legal official and each police officer has personal liability for their actions or inaction.” Page two of this document further states:” It is from the Office of Constable that each officer derives their powers.”

Here is clear reference to their expected behaviour, obligations and responsibilities plus referencing the combined role of being a lawfully operating Constable plus a legally empowered corporation police officer. The underlying Office of Constable must remain untainted as being the base from which the derivation takes place to then provide for policing officer powers.

Within this Government's so-called pandemic has there been something most basic and important overlooked that undermines their whole pantomime? Are we witnessing within their obscene haste to worship at the feet of their Big Pharma Baphomet (above), conflicting positions within the long-mangled role of a Constable and a Police Officer by an ignoring of law?

The Constable oath of office

'I...of...do solemnly and sincerely declare and affirm that I will well and truly serve the Queen in the office of constable, with fairness, integrity, diligence and impartiality, upholding fundamental human rights and according equal respect to all people; and that I will, to the best of my power, cause the peace to be kept and preserved and prevent all offences against people and property; and that while I continue to hold the said office I will, to the best of my skill and knowledge, discharge all the duties thereof faithfully according to law.'

Point 1: 'solemnly and sincerely' is an absolute.

Point 2: To break an oath is an act of perjury.

Point 3: 'well and truly serve the Queen' is an absolute.

Point 4; 'fairness, integrity, diligence and impartiality' is an absolute.

Point 5: 'upholding fundamental human rights' is an absolute.

Point 6: 'prevent all offences against people' is an absolute.

Point 7: 'according to law' is an absolute.

Following on, the law of the Act of Union 1707 – Article 4 contains absolute rights to unhindered travel unless otherwise expressly identified within that Act.

The Act of Union 1707 – Article 4

"That the Subjects of the United Kingdom of Great Britain shall from and after the Union have full Freedom and Intercourse of Trade and Navigation to and from any port or place within the said United Kingdom and the Dominions and Plantations thereunto belonging. And that there be a Communication of all other Rights, Privileges and Advantages which do or may belong to the Subjects of either Kingdom except where it is otherwise expressly agreed in these Articles."

Point 1: Refers to 'Subjects' and not 'persons'.

Point 2: Refers to 'United Kingdom of Great Britain' as a geography not a PLC (i.e. in capitals).

Point 3: Therefore, it refers to the common people of this Land.

Point 4: 'full Freedom' is stated as an absolute.

Point 5: 'any port or place' is an absolute.

Point 6: 'thereunto belonging' refers to rights already existing and is an absolute.

Point 7: 'thereunto belonging' refers to existing Common Law rights and privileges as an absolute.

Point 8: 'except where it is 'otherways expressly agreed' is an absolute.

Point 9: 'in these Articles' defers to no other law, regulations or guidelines and is an absolute.

Point 10: 'Communication of all other Rights, Privileges and Advantages' is an absolute.

Point 11: It is the foundational document for the UK plus the basis of the Crown's authority.

Point 12: Is a recognized internationally Treaty and remains un-amended and an absolute.

Point 13: A Constable oath of Office is to uphold the law and is an absolute.

Point 14: A Constable oath of Office is vitiated if the absolute of upholding law is violated.

Point 15: A Constable oath of Office is to serve the Queen and is an absolute.

Point 16: A Constable oath of Office is vitiated if the absolute to serve the Queen is violated.

Point 17: A Crown organization, individual or servant that violates this Article is potentially treasonous.

Point 18: Any Crown organization, individual or servant that violates this Article vitiates their authority.

Therefore, has this continued use, or misuse, of the Office of Constable by the NWO enforcers resulted in both lying under oath plus treason by these individually responsible legal entities?

The violations of the constitution of this land plus their own sworn oath thereby vitiates the fundamental underlying authority of those constables. Those who have willingly chosen to enforce, whether knowing the correct law or not, are conflicted.

By having elected to just follow orders of government guidance, rules or, mandates instead of the actual law and henceforth restrict travel for lawful protesters, petitioners, and travellers they have voluntarily taken a contrary position to their sworn oaths to serve the Queen solemnly and sincerely.

The question: have the two extremely serious crimes of a perjurious breach of oath, therefore lying, with its potentially unlimited sentencing length, alongside the criminal act of treason with its similar incarceration possibilities now accelerated the potential for a newly cleansed and purged Constable service operating within common law jurisdiction and not the piratical mercantile maritime subterfuge for the long term benefit of the law-abiding men and women? Hopefully so. Yours truly, Colin: of the family Foster'

Update on Defending the Union of the UK, Ending the Northern Ireland Protocol

Dear Sir and Fellow Pro-unionists___As disappointing as it is, the Court of Appeal's judgement was not a surprise. We had never expected the matter finally to be decided in Belfast. The Supreme Court was always our end destination and that is now where we are heading.

But the rulings in Belfast have been revealing.

First and foremost it has now twice been decided that crucial aspects of the Act of Union 1800 have been set aside to make way for the Protocol. Justice Colton concluded they had been impliedly repealed. The Court of Appeal, aware of the political sensitivity of repealing the Act of Union, settled on claiming it to have been subjugated for as long as the Protocol remains in place. Either way, the Protocol has robbed Northern Ireland of its rightful place in the United Kingdom.

The Court of Appeal argued that Parliament clear sightedly gave the Protocol this effect. I challenge any MP to declare they thought they were voting for Northern Ireland to be removed from its union with Great Britain. There will not be a single one prepared to make such an outrageous declaration. The Court is wrong.

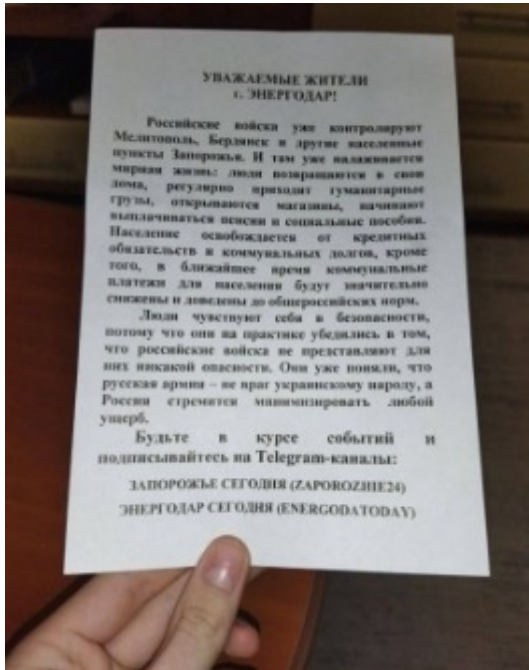

Second, the Court put paid to the consent mechanisms set out in the Belfast Agreement. It concluded these could be ignored and the Protocol, with its new constitution, could legitimately be foisted on Northern Ireland without its people's and/ or cross community consent. The Belfast Agreement is of no benefit to Unionists.

Third, the human rights of British citizens living in Northern Ireland are unaffected by foreign laws being imposed on them without any right to vote on these or object to them.

In short, it has been adjudicated that the Protocol is legal in its contempt of the union of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and its people.

All the while Her Majesty's Government sits idly by. So the Supreme Court it is. We shall not rest until this battle is won. Yours truly, Ben Habib, UK.

Report From The Ukraine - 27-3-22

Sir___, Russia is writing off all consumer and utility debt of people in areas of Ukraine controlled by the Russian Army. Russia is also paying all pensions and other government payments.

People in those areas will also now pay the same for natural gas, electricity and gas as people in Russia.

Ukrainians pay 600% more for natural gas than Russians, 250% more for gasoline, and around 100% more for electricity.

The mass of people might revolt and overthrow the Zelensky dictatorship without Russia having to fire a shot, if Russia prints these posters by the millions and drops them by air on Kiev, Lviv, Kharkiv, and all other cities; posts it on all social media websites; and broadcasts it on all their news channels.

The common worker in Ukraine is close to impoverished by the cost of utilities and gasoline with stagnated or even falling wages in the last few years.

In the winter many Ukrainians had to choose between buying food or paying their utility bill. It was so bad for Ukrainians that one incentive Ukraine's government gave to join the military before Russia's Special Operation, was to forgive all utility debt in exchange for enlisting in the Army. Yours truly KH, West Midlands, UK.

What Is Wireless Technology?

Mark Playne

WIRELESS TECHNOLOGY IS ANY MEANS OF SENDING INFORMATION OR ENERGY THROUGH SPACE WITHOUT WIRES. It includes: satellites, radar, radio, television, cell towers, cell phones, cordless phones, microwave ovens smart meters, WiFi, Bluetooth, fitness trackers, smart watches, baby monitors wireless keyboards, mice, printers, headphones and speakers, wireless security systems, wireless car keys, wireless garage door openers, wireless battery chargers, remote controls, wireless microphones RFID chips in credit cards and driver's licenses, radio collars and chips in wildlife, cattle and pets, chips in home appliances wireless hearing aids, assisted listening devices, medical alert pendants, chips in medical implants, wireless pacemakers autonomous vehicles, drones, and robots numerous other radio-enabled devices that are proliferating in today's world.

Every one of these devices, without exception, emits radiation. What's wrong with wireless technology? By substituting radiation for wires, we are swimming in an ocean of artificial electromagnetic fields that are interfering with life itself.

We are in effect electrocuting ourselves, our children, our pets, the insects, birds, animals, trees and plants around us and all of living creation. We are killing our planet. This is about long-term exposure, right? Cancer that takes years to develop? No. The effects are rapid. Heart rate changes immediately. Blood sugar rises in minutes. Having wireless devices on in your house interferes with your sleep and your memory. Using a cell phone destroys brain cells in minutes to hours, and can cause a stroke or a heart attack. Studies show that even cancer can develop within months of first exposure.

When a cell tower is turned on, birds leave the area immediately. Insects disappear. Even slugs and snails vanish. Most of this takes no time at all. What types of radiation are used in wireless technology?

All frequencies of radio waves, microwaves, infrared radiation, visible light, lasers, sound waves, even nuclear radiation. Most home devices use microwaves. Isn't microwave radiation natural? Don't microwaves come from the sun and stars? Almost all the radiation we receive from the universe is the light and heat from the sun, not microwave radiation.

The microwave radiation a person receives from an average cell tower is millions of times stronger than all the microwave radiation from the sun and stars.

The microwave radiation a person's brain receives from their cell phone is billions of times stronger than the microwave radiation from the sun and stars.

And at any particular frequency it is trillions of times stronger than the microwave radiation he or she receives from the sun and stars at that frequency. And the faint microwaves from the sun and stars are not pulsed and modulated.

It is the pulsations and modulation that cause much of the harm. Aren't light and microwaves both electromagnetic? Therefore isn't microwave radiation safe?

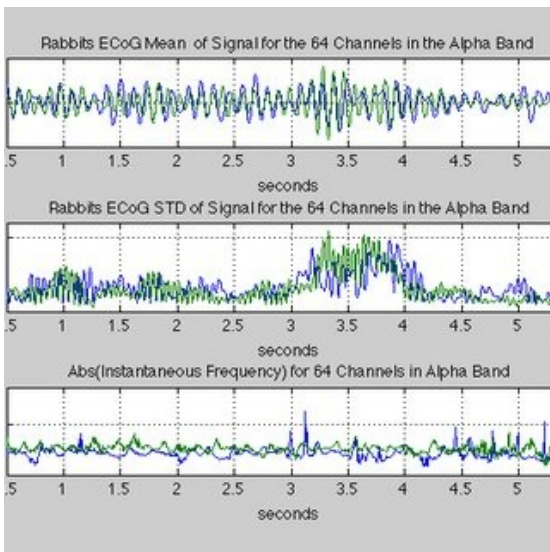

No. That is like saying arsenic is safe because oxygen and arsenic are both elements, or that cyanide is safe because water and cyanide are both chemicals. But oxygen and water are necessary for life, while arsenic and cyanide are deadly poisons. It is the same with electromagnetic radiation. Visible light is necessary for life. Microwave radiation is a deadly poison.

Aren't toxic chemicals more harmful than electromagnetic radiation? Electromagnetism is more complex and more fundamental than chemistry. Electromagnetism shapes the sun and stars.

Electromagnetism Animates Life.

Electromagnetism is behind chemistry. There is no "chemical force" in the universe. Outside of atomic nuclei, there is only gravity and electromagnetism. Electromagnetism guides everything we see, including ourselves. Chemistry is an effect, not a cause. Can't we find safe frequencies? Won't that solve the problem? That is looking at both wireless technology and life too simplistically.

Most wireless technology has only one goal: to transmit information to computers, information of great complexity and variety. It is not simple, constant radiation of one amplitude and one frequency: such radiation would carry no information.

Instead, it is multiple large frequency bands, each divided into hundreds, thousands, and millions of individual frequencies of all different bandwidths, overlapping and interacting, pulsed at an enormous variety of intervals, in an enormous variety of shapes, patterns and durations, all over the world.

Even a single signal from a single device has a variety of amplitudes, frequencies and pulsations, and is modulated in complex ways in order to carry all the information needed to be read by a cell phone or computer.

Life has to also carry an enormous, almost infinite complexity of information in its nervous systems and its meridians, and to store and process this information in its cells, organs and chakras, and in its DNA which is shared and circulated among trillions of individuals of 50 million different species, all connected to one another and to the earth, sky and universe in a grand circuit of energy and information. The artificial cloud of energy and information is interfering with, overpowering and destroying the natural, living circuitry of energy and information. It cannot be otherwise.

What about LiFi? If light is safe, why not use light instead of microwaves? Light is a nutrient. We absorb it with our eyes, and into our blood. It is necessary for health. It regulates our biorhythms. Green plants need it for photosynthesis. We absorb more of the pulsations and modulation frequencies when they are carried into our bodies by light than when they are carried into our bodies by microwaves.

LiFi is more harmful to life than WiFi. Cell phones are much smaller than cell towers. Doesn't that mean they are safer? Doesn't it mean the radiation does not travel as far? Cell phones and cell towers emit the same radiation; size has nothing to do with it.

The main difference is that a cell tower emits as many signals simultaneously as there are cell phones communicating with it at that time, whereas a cell phone only emits one voice channel and one data channel.

A cell tower therefore emits stronger radiation than a cell phone, but by the time it reaches your body, its radiation is much weaker than the radiation from a cell phone that you hold in your hand, near your body. And a cell phone emits signals that a cell tower does not: Bluetooth, WiFi, GPS and other signals. The radiation from a cell phone travels just as far as the radiation from a cell tower. The radiation from a cell phone will reach all people, animals, birds, insects and plants in line of sight with it, no matter how far away. It will reach a cell tower 90 miles away.

It will reach a satellite 22,300 miles away. It will reach Mars 200 million miles away. With 15 billion mobile devices on the Earth, we are polluting not just our homes, our neighbourhoods and our planet, but the entire solar system. My cell phone does not make me sick.

Why should I stop using it? Your cell phone is damaging your health whether you are aware of it or not. It is damaging your blood-brain barrier -- the barrier that keeps bacteria, viruses and toxic chemicals out of your brain tissue; the barrier that maintains the inside of your head at a constant pressure, preventing you from having a stroke. Since brain tissue has no pain receptors, plenty of damage can occur without pain. Instead, it will cause memory loss, difficulty concentrating, anxiety, depression, sleep disorders and so forth.

In rats, damage to the blood-brain barrier can be detected after just a two-minute exposure to a cell phone. After a two-hour exposure the damage is permanent. There is no reason for it to be different in humans. The radiation from your cell phone is also slowing your metabolism -- your ability to digest sugars, fats and proteins. This causes either obesity or weight loss, depending on your genetic makeup. It also causes diabetes, heart disease and cancer.

Wireless technology is the cause of more obesity, diabetes, heart disease and cancer than any other factor. The people who are aware of the damage in real time are the people who can feel it in their nervous system or their heart. That is maybe one-third of the population. It feels to them like they are being electrocuted. And they are, but so is everyone else.

The few who have heard of such a thing call themselves “electro-sensitive.” Those who have not heard of it think they are suffering from anxiety, or that they have a neurological or cardiac disorder. Isn’t a flip phone safer than a smart phone? Both are digital and both emit pulsed, modulated microwave radiation.

And despite what many people think, flip phones can emit as much radiation, or more, than smart phones. But safety is not determined by power level. Damage to the blood-brain barrier is greatest at the lowest power level, at least in laboratory rats. The bandwidth is more important than power level. Smart phones use more bandwidth than flip phones.

The bottom line is that cell phones have been killing people since they were invented. In each city in the United States where 2G “flip phone” (above) service was turned on for the first time in 1996 or 1997, mortality rose immediately, on the day it was turned on in each city. And the overall health of the population was damaged permanently. At least ten thousand Americans died from the radiation within three months after 2G “flip phone” service was turned on in various cities in 1996 and 1997.

Whether more people died from their new phones or from the new cell towers is impossible to know: the radiation comes from both. Isn’t a cell phone safe to use as long as you hold it away from your head? About 20 years ago someone started promoting the idea of the “near field plume” which was supposed to extend out six inches from a cell phone, and that if you held your phone more than six inches from your head, you were safe. That is a complete fiction.

There is no such thing as a near field “plume.” It does not exist. The region very near to a source of radiation, where the electric field and the magnetic field are separate and complex, is called the near field. The space very far from the source, where the electric and magnetic fields are tied together and diminish with distance, is called the far field. The near and far fields blend into one another. There is no dividing line where one stops and the other begins. And it is certainly not true that the radiation stops at six inches. If that were true, the radiation would never reach a cell tower and the phone would not work.

And if it were true of a cell phone, it would also be true of a cell tower, which emits the same radiation. Then a cell tower would be safe if you stood more than six inches away from one. How absurd! And your body is a conductor, so if you are holding the phone in your hand, no matter how far away from your head, the microwaves are conducted into your hand and throughout your body, and your arm is an extension of the phone and is part of the radiating antenna.

If you put the phone on a table in front of you and do not hold it, then the microwaves are just irradiating you and not being conducted into you. But since for some types of harm, for example damage to the blood-brain barrier, the damage increases with distance, that does not protect you either. If the radiation levels from cell phones and cell towers were reduced, wouldn't that make them safe?

No. It is the informational content, not power level, that causes the harm. A cell phone exposes the brain to microwave radiation at roughly 10 milli-watts per square centimetre. At power levels one trillion times lower than that, microwave radiation has been shown to affect ovulation, the immune system, plant growth, human brain waves, and the structure of DNA.

Don't we need more studies before we know if microwaves are dangerous? No. We already had 10,000 studies by 1980. Today we have at least 30,000 studies. There are more studies showing harm from microwaves and radio frequency radiation than from any other pollutants except tobacco smoke and mercury.

How long has this been going on? How long have we known that wireless technology is harmful? For as long as wireless technology has been around. At Marconi's first public demonstration of radio in Salisbury Plain in 1896, spectators described various nerve sensations they experienced. When Marconi turned on the first French radio station in Wimereux, one man who lived nearby "burst in with a revolver" because the waves were causing him sharp internal pains.

Above: A Memorial To Marconi - The Needles Isle of Wight

On the evening of January 22, 1901, when Marconi fired up a new, more powerful transmitter on the Isle of Wight, Queen Victoria, in residence on the island, had a stroke and died. Within a few years, 90 percent of the bees on the island had disappeared. Marconi himself suffered from recurring fevers from the time he began experimenting with radio and for the rest of his life.

He suffered nine heart attacks, the last one killing him at age 63. Even prior to Marconi, in the early 1890's, Jacques-Arsène d'Arsonva published the results of experiments on humans and animals showing that high frequencies affect blood pressure and profoundly alter metabolism.

Do telecommunications company officials know their products are harmful? Are they doing this to us deliberately? They all use cell phones like the rest of the world and are as much in denial about them as everyone else. The denial, which runs deep in society, goes back to the beginning of the development of electricity in the 1700's. I keep my phone off except in emergencies.

Doesn't that protect me and others? A cell phone leaks radiation from all of its resonant circuitry, even if it is turned off, as long as the battery is in it. So does a modem or router that has WiFi, as long as it is plugged in. I have measured radiation coming out of modems in which the WiFi was disabled. I can always tell when someone is carrying a cell phone because I can feel the radiation, even if it is turned off and hidden in their pocket, even from across a room.

I have never been wrong. For whatever reason you have a cell phone -- any kind of cell phone -- all of the world's cell towers have to be there in order for it to work when you want it to. No matter how rarely you use the phone, all the cell towers have to be there. If you use it "only in emergencies," that is even worse, because you are likely to be using it in remote places where there are no cell towers and service is not good.

Every call you make from a location where there are no towers is recorded as a request for service, and your provider will eventually put up a cell tower there in response to those calls. When I am at home I use my cell phone connected by an ethernet cord to a modem. Doesn't that protect me? It does not protect you because it is still emitting radiation. It does not protect others because when you are not at home you need all the cell towers to be there and you are irradiating everyone around you simply by carrying the phone around.

There are no landlines available where I live. I need my cell phone. Unless people get rid of their cell phones, there will soon be no land-lines left anywhere. The existence of land-lines depends on demand. The existence of cell phones depends on demand. No one is doing this to us. We are doing it to ourselves.

Is fibre the solution? Fibre enables 5G. 5G antennas are connected to each other and to the Internet by fibre optic cables. Wireless companies are spending hundreds of billions of dollars laying fibre all over the world for 5G. When a fibre company or a city lays fibre optic cables, wireless companies pay for the right to use it. After the fibre is laid, they stick antennas into it and broadcast 5G.

How is 5G different from 4G? 5G can use much higher frequencies (millimetre waves). But the biggest difference is that 5G towers and 5G mobile devices aim narrowly focused beams at each other instead of sending the radiation in all directions. If you are holding a 5G phone in your hand, the nearest 5G tower is tracking you and aiming a beam of radiation directly at your body. This is called phased array technology and it results in greater penetration of the radiation into your body, even at millimetre wave frequencies, than previous wireless technologies.

5G towers also send radiation in all directions because they are constantly scanning the environment looking for devices to connect with. Is 5G a weapon? No. 5G can use millimetre waves. There are also crowd-control weapons that use millimetre waves. But the weapons are a thousand times more powerful and they are not modulated and carry no information.

They are different technologies that were developed by different people for different purposes. Are there devices that can protect us from these frequencies? There are many companies today that prey on the gullibility of people who are desperate to protect themselves from an assault that is coming from everywhere.

They sell "protective" chips to put on your cell phone or computer, pendants and bracelets that will "neutralize" or "harmonize" the radiation, devices to plug into your wall that will "protect" an area hundreds or thousands of square feet around your house.

Some advertise that they are "quantum" devices, or are based on "scalar" technology or "torsion" fields, which are sexy words that sound scientific but mean nothing. You cannot "neutralize" or "harmonize" radiation. These devices, without exception, are ineffective and most will harm you. Many of these devices emit a 7.83 Hz signal which is supposed to duplicate the first Schumann resonance of the Earth.

These are point sources that cannot duplicate a natural frequency that bathes us from all sides.

They make some people feel good for a couple of weeks, and they can be addictive, just like the frequencies from a cell phone or computer can be addictive, but they will harm you. What are the alternatives?

The alternative is wires. Wired phones. Wired computers. There is no need to reinvent the wheel, wires are what we had before wireless and are superior in every way. Wires carry the same voices, but clearer. The same information, but more securely. And the information is contained in the wires, instead of being broadcast all over the earth in a cloud of radiation. Wireless is convenient, but for the sake of convenience we are killing ourselves in real time and destroying our planet.

Abraham Lincoln and the Rothschilds (Part 2)

By Father Charles Coughlin

PART TWO

AS THE CIVIL WAR ENTERED THE CRITICAL DAYS OF 1862, President Lincoln was in dire need of money to carry out the obligations of the Government in that conflict. He was offered loans by the banking interests, but in December 1861 the banks had suspended specie payments.

A bill passed Congress on February 25, 1862, whereby the Government could issue $150 million, which would be full legal tender for every debt in the United States and was an achievement for Lincoln. However, the banking interests were furious.

In July, 1862, the Bank of England (which was, and still is, dominated by the Rothschild family) issued the notorious Hazard Circular, which was judiciously circulated among the banking interests of America. It said:

"Slavery is likely to be abolished by the war power and chattel slavery destroyed. This, I and my European friends are glad of, for slavery is but the owning of labour and carries with it the care of the labourers, while the European plan, led by England, is that capital shall control labour by controlling wages."

"This can be done by controlling the money. The great debt that capitalists will see to it is made out of the war, must be used as a means to control the volume of money. To accomplish this, the bonds must be used as a banking basis. We are now awaiting for the Secretary of the Treasury to make his recommendation to Congress. It will not do to allow the greenback, as it is called, to circulate as money any length of time, as we cannot control that."

The term "greenback" was employed by the banking interests to deceive the masses. Ridicule and derision was attached to it for the simple reason that it bore no interest or tribute to the bankers and was simply non-cancelable United States currency issued by the Government.

Gold Holders Dictate Revision of Money Law

On two other occasions, — July, 1862, and in March, 1863 — Congress issued a total of $300 million of United States Notes, or greenbacks, but the bankers saw to it that they carried the following restrictive clause: "This note is legal tender for all debts, public and private, except duties on imports and interest on the public debt." This reservation permitted the Rothschilds, who had a corner on the gold, to make a market for their gold. Had the "greenbacks" been permitted to retain their full legal tender value, there would have been no need for Rothschild gold with which to pay import duties. The price of gold rose to approximately $2.85 measured in greenbacks.

All importers were obliged to go to the banking interests to buy gold to pay duties on their goods, and the Wall Street financiers held the power to fix the price.

The Civil War was still raging. Lincoln was teaching the people that bonds were unnecessary and that paper money, issued in proportion to the country's wealth, debt-free at its source of origin, was the only kind of currency that should be permitted.

However, the restrictive clauses of the two later issues of greenbacks seriously crippled the President's efforts for an honest money system, and Mr. Lincoln was forced, in the heat of the Civil War, to permit -- because he could not stop the evil machinations of the money manipulators -- the "National Banking Act" of February 25, 1863, which gave private banks a national charter to issue and lend money. In brief, it permitted private corporations to coin and regulate the value of money.

But Lincoln was determined to end this situation as soon as peace could be secured. He was determined to have a Constitutional money system because he saw that financial slavery was only less subtle than chattel slavery, a little more refined, but in the end, the cruel exploitation of the American people.

Rothschild Letter Reveals Whole Scheme

On June 25, 1863, the Rothschild Brothers sent a letter to Messrs. Ikleheimer, Morton and Vandergould at No. 3 Wall Street, New York, which said the following:

"Dear Sirs: A Mr. John Sherman has written us from a town; in Ohio, U.S.A., as to the profits that may be made in the National Banking business under a recent act of your Congress, a copy of which act accompanied his letter. Apparently this act has been drawn upon the plan formulated here last summer by the British Bankers Association and by that Association recommended to our American friends as one that, if enacted into law, would prove highly profitable to the banking fraternity throughout the world.

"Mr. Sherman declares that there has never before been such an opportunity for capitalists to accumulate money, as that presented by this act and that the old plan of State Banks is so unpopular, that the new scheme will, by contrast, be most favourably regarded, notwithstanding the fact that it gives the National Banks an almost absolute control of the national finance.

The few who can understand the system, he (Sherman) says, 'will either be so interested in its profits, or so dependent on its favours, that there will be no opposition from that class, while on the other hand, the great body of people mentally incapable of comprehending the tremendous advantages that capital derives from the system, will bear its burdens without complaint and perhaps without even suspecting that the system is inimical to their interests.'... Awaiting your reply, we are,"

Here we have an admission that the national banks are to have almost absolute control of the country's finance; that the richer class will not question this method of having private banking corporations issue money, while the poor "incapable of comprehending the tremendous advantages -- will bear its burdens (they admit that somebody must carry and pay the burden of debt) without complaint" or even suspicion that they are being fleeced --by an unjust money system.

But the greenbacks- were still in demand. They were not legal tender for all debts, public and private, on account of the restrictive clause. The bankers were buying the greenbacks on Wall Street for 35 cents on the dollar for gold, which they controlled.

When the $450-million of greenbacks were exhausted, and the necessity arose for more money, the Rothschilds demanded that United States notes or greenbacks no longer be issued in the form of dollars, but in the form of bonds. The $450 million "exception clause" greenbacks were converted into $1-billion, 640-millions of bonded indebtedness. Ever since that day, the American people have been in debt through bonds and their usurious yield.

Gold Bankers Reap Big Profit on Deal

Here was the banker's point of view: He saw an original Lincoln greenback of the year 1862. He read the frightful words, "This note is legal tender for all debts public and private."

There was not a dollar [a dollar's worth of interest – Editor] to be made privately on this kind of money. The shrewd banker immediately started his two-fold campaign. One was to substitute interest-bearing bonds for these legal tender notes.

The second was to qualify the legal tender provision by exempting the legal tender properties.

1880 100 Dollar Bill Legal Tender Note, Abraham Lincoln

Consequently, on the second and third issue of Abraham Lincoln's legal tender notes, we find the substituted language, "This note is legal tender for all debts and private except duties on imports and interest on the public debt."

Gold would now be demanded for interest on the public debt and the source of the gold would be the duties on imports which must be paid in gold. Now the banker had his crooked scheme perfected.

The next issue of bonds was that of $500 million. It brought interest at the rate of 7 per cent. The bonds fell in value below 70. But let us assume that on the particular day, the banker invested a million dollars in bonds.

The million dollars was paper money, Abraham Lincoln's greenbacks. They bought precisely one million, four hundred twenty-eight thousand, five hundred seventy-one dollars' worth of bonds.

The bonds, we repeat, drew interest at the rate of 7 per cent or $100,000 per year. But this one hundred thousand now was payable in gold. Yet gold in relation to greenbacks was at times 240 and even higher.

That meant that the banker who invested the million dollars bought a million, four hundred, twenty-eight thousand, five hundred seventy-one dollars' worth of bonds, yielding one hundred I thousand in gold or $240,000 in paper money. The interest was 24 per cent.

It was to the advantage of the banker to depreciate the legal tender notes, to depreciate the bonds, and to make interest payable in gold.

War Left America in Debt to London

No wonder Mary E. Hobart, in her book The Secrets of the Rothschilds said: "How then was it that this Government, several years after the war was over, found itself owing in London and Wall Street several hundred million dollars to men who never fought a battle, who never made a uniform, never furnished a pound of bread, who never did an honest day's work in all their lives?"

—The fact is, that billions owned by the sweat, tears and blood of American labourers have been poured into the coffers of these men for absolutely nothing. This 'sacred war debt' was only a gigantic scheme of fraud, concocted by European capitalists and enacted into American laws by the aid of American Congressmen, who were their paid hirelings or their ignorant dupes.

That this crime has remained uncovered is due to the power of prejudice which seldom permits the victim to see clearly or reason correctly: "The money power prolongs its reign by working on prejudices." Lincoln said."

No wonder Abraham Lincoln was moved to say:

"As a result of the war, corporations have been enthroned, and an era of corruption in high places will follow, and the money power of the country will endeavour to prolong its reign by working upon the prejudices of the people until wealth is aggregated in the hands of a few and the Republic is destroyed.

"I feel at this moment more anxiety for the safety of my country than ever before, even in the midst of war."

Lincoln was well aware of the vicious money system which the bankers had foisted on the American people by bribing Congressmen and deceiving the American people.

AMERICAN GOVERNMENT MUST BE DESTROYED

In 1865, the London Times printed the following editorial which let the cat out of the bag completely:

"If this mischievous financial policy [the United States Government issuing interest-free and debt-free money] which had its origin in the North American Republic during the war (1861-65) should become indurate down to a fixture, then that Government will furnish its money without cost.

It will pay off its debts and be without a debt. It will have all the money necessary to carry on its commerce. It will become prosperous beyond precedent in the history of civilized governments of the world. The brains and the wealth of all countries will go to North America. That government must be destroyed or it will destroy every Monarchy on the globe!"

Here is public admission of the bankers through their controlled press that debt-free money is not only practical, but would be successful to the extent of becoming "prosperous beyond precedent in the history of civilized governments of the world." Their admission confirmed the ideas of Lincoln that the founding fathers had the foresight to establish an honest money system and incorporate that doctrine into the American Constitution with the words: "Congress shall have the power to coin money and regulate the value thereof, and of foreign coins."

And if further proof were needed that Lincoln understood money, we have the uncontradictable fact that the $347 million of United States notes issued by Abraham Lincoln are still in use and they bear absolutely no interest. The interest alone on $346-million, figured at 3 per cent, amounts to over $809 million during the last 78 years. This sum was saved the American people by Lincoln issuing this money in accordance with the dictates of the American Constitution. It could still be done today if we had a Lincoln as President who not only promised, but executed his promises with fearless action.

Lincoln was assassinated by John Wilkes Booth on April 14, 1865.

Ukrainian Update

By
Paul Craig Roberts

Russians and part of Russia herself until Soviet leaders transferred it, like Crimea, into Ukraine for their reasons.

When the US overthrew the democratically elected Ukrainian government in 2014 and took control over Ukraine, the Crimean and Donbass Russians voted overwhelmingly to be reunited with Russia. The Kremlin accepted Crimea but not Donbass.

This was a strategic blunder demonstrating a lack of awareness on the part of the Russian government. Immediately the neo-Nazi remnants in west Ukraine, whose forebears had fought for Hitler against Russia in WW II, began abusing the Russian population in the Donbass region in the east. The American puppet government in Kiev followed up by banning the use of the Russian language.

To protect themselves, the Donbass Russians declared their independence in the form of two republics, the Donetsk and Luhansk Republics. Ukrainian troops and neo-Nazi militias began attacking these “breakaway republics.” They have been shelling with artillery Donbass villages, towns, and cities for 8 years, killing thousands of civilians, and the Ukrainian forces, although twice defeated by hastily assembled forces in the Donbass, managed to gain control over large areas of the breakaway republics.

It was the deployment of a 100,000 or more Ukrainian force on the shrunken borders of Donbass for an invasion to reconquer the territory that provoked the Russian intervention. Washington’s refusal to give the Kremlin a security guarantee was a second reason for the Russian military intervention.

Russia told Washington in completely clear language that Russia would not permit Ukraine to be a member of NATO. Nevertheless, Washington persisted in its provocation. Most of Russia’s military intervention in Ukraine is focused on clearing Ukrainian and neo-Nazi forces out of Donbass. This is the reason for Putin’s go-slow war that rules out heavy weapons use on civilian areas.

JUST AS EVERYTHING YOU WERE TOLD ABOUT COVID BY THE MEDIA AND HEALTH AND GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS WAS FALSE, so is everything you have been told by the same propagandistic liars about Ukraine.

Americans have had nothing but lies since the assassination of US President John F. Kennedy, of his brother, US Senator Robert Kennedy President-in-Waiting, Martin Luther King, the Vietnamwar, 9/11, Saddam Hussain's nonexistent “weapons of mass destruction,” Assad’s “use of chemical weapons,” Iranian nukes, the extraordinary lies about Kaddafi, Covid pandemic, Russian invasions.

The entire Western World lives in The Matrix, a world created by propaganda. The vast majority of people in the West have no idea of the reality in which they live. This makes them impotent and completely unable to protect their freedom. They are sitting ducks for tyranny which is fast enclosing around them.

Take the Ukraine narrative, for example. The story as presented to the public by the Western media has no relationship to reality. The Ukraine narrative has collapsed as completely as the Covid narrative. There will be no going back to it. The narrative will simply be dropped as the next crisis—inflation perhaps or a newly released pathogen—takes the front page.

There was never a Russian invasion of Ukraine. Russian military focus was on the Donbass region in east and south Ukraine. Inhabited by

The civilians are Russians, and, as Putin said, “we went in to liberate these people, not to kill them.”

The Kremlin is confident that Russia can achieve its objectives without destroying Ukraine. This is true militarily, but I do believe that the Russian government is too gullible to be successful in negotiations. Russia still has a moral fibre and mistakenly inputs one to the West. The West does not have any moral fibre.

Russians do not know how to negotiate with Satan. Remember Hugo Chavez’s speech at the UN. Remember the Jewish-American Secretary of State saying on national TV that America’s murder of 500,000 Iraqi children “was worth it.” Yes, worth it for Israel’s dominance of the Middle East.

The West’s media whores and government officials misrepresent the Russians’ intention of avoiding the death of Russian civilians as a sign of a “stalled Russian invasion,” as CNN and the NPR whores proclaim. Some of the Western media whores go even further and say it is a “Russian defeat.”

Americans, British, French, Germans, Japan, all of the US empire do not understand how they have been betrayed, how they have been implicated in monstrous crimes, how they have been brainwashed by lies from a media that they stupidly trusted, how Washington has destroyed the reputation of the United States, or why most of the world hates America.

If there is a Russian defeat, it will happen in negotiations, not on the battlefield. Russians are too trusting to be negotiators and never do well. The battle field has a higher standard of performance.

Neither do the dumb fools understand that the American Empire is at its end. What the sanctions have done is to destroy the dollar-based world that allowed the Americans to impose the financing of their huge trade deficit, due largely to US corporations off-shoring their production for the US market, on the rest of the world. Russia, China, central and east Asia will now create their own methods of payment separate from the West. This will destroy dollar hegemony and American power.

Before any Russian troops entered Donbass, the Ukrainian military infrastructure, air force, and navy were completely destroyed. The Ukrainian army is incapable of action. It has no communication, no air cover, and is cut off from supplies.

Russia’s reason for the peace negotiations is to avoid destroying the Ukrainian troops that the neo-Nazi commissars require to fight to the last man. Russia doesn’t seem to understand that they are negotiating with a “government” that is not in control of anything.

We have come full circle. The American hubris created an arrogance that could not prevail over Russian, Chinese, and Indian determination to exist as sovereign nations. American globalism, Washington’s method of exercising hegemony, is collapsing. The idiots in Washington have themselves collapsed their ruling system by mindless sanctions that are driving the East out of the dollar system.

The Russians have deployed 200,000 troops against Ukraine’s 600,000 soldiers trained and armed by the US and UK. The Ukrainian army, which outnumbered the Russians 3 to 1, was destroyed as a fighting force even quicker than the Russians destroyed the US and Israeli armed and trained Georgian army that invaded South Ossetia in August, 2008.

Russia has only one problem. Russia’s problem is internal. The problem consists of elements of the intellectual and upper class and financial system who see their interests allied with the West. These traitors, tolerated by the Kremlin, are de facto Western agents created during the Yeltsin regime by the American overlords. In the Russian government their most powerful person is the head of the Russian central bank whose policies serve the West and not Russia. Putin, despite the warnings from Russia's only economist, Sergey Glazyev, trusts the pro-American head of the Russian central bank with Russia's future.

The Russian central bank, which has never served Russia, is Washington's greatest asset in its hopes to defeat Russia. It is Putin's blindness to this threat that is the dagger at Russia's heart.

Street Lights Have Been Weaponised

By
Paul Gregory

Street lights have been weaponised
Wireless radiation can make targets feel suicidal

THE PURPOSE OF THIS ARTICLE IS TO CREATE GREATER AWARENESS OF THE NEW WEAPONISED LED (LIGHT EMITTING DIODE) 5G STREETLIGHTS. People really need to understand what is going on here.

Looking on Facebook, there are at least fifty 'Stop 5G groups'; every major town and city has one - they understand how dangerous it is. I have been personally affected by these new streetlights since Birmingham City Council Lighting Department tested the 5G function of them in December 2019.

They are situated in front of my house and in the roads around the estate. I am electro-sensitive, which means that I am able to feel and am adversely affected by radiation from mobile phones and masts, as are nearly a million other people in the UK.

I immediately felt this radiation when it was turned on. The effects were instant whenever I answered the front door or went near any windows in my house. The immediate depressed mood, desire to commit suicide was intense. Exposure in line with the streetlight during the day for only a few seconds would produce these effects.

When I moved away, they would pass in about ten minutes, and I would be back to normal. This would happen several times a day before I learned to avoid this exposure. I phoned the Street lighting Department, and the result was they turned the 5G RF radiation function off for all the streetlights in the vicinity of my house.

Wonderful! I was back to normal life until they came on again on January 1, 2020. This time the Department said responsibility had been passed to the firm Amey who had the contract for maintenance with the council. I contacted them but they didn't respond.

This situation has continued for the last two years. The effects of the radiation have resulted in my only being comfortable to relax or read in the cloakroom/toilet of my house. Often, I have to take my meals in there as I can suffer in both the lounge and the dining room. I cannot go into the garden for more than 10 to 15 minutes, even while wearing a full protective suit made of anti-5G fabric.

Barrie Trower, former Royal Navy microwave weapons' expert, has stated that radio frequency radiation (RFR) is the same as the radiation emitted by mobile phone masts and by the 5G-emitting streetlights that have been recently installed across practically every city, town, village and hamlet and many motorways and secondary roads in the UK. 5G involves the use of ever higher radio frequencies - up to 60, 100 and 1,000 GHz, compared to the 2.45 GHz that is used by WiFi routers. Britain’s 5G network is to include new equipment installed on road signs, bus shelters and traffic lights according to the Daily Mail Online on February 9 2022.

It was when reading the statements below, made by experts in microwave weapons about what can be done with them, that I recognised my own symptoms. Says Barrie Trower, British military, retired, expert in microwave weapons: “If you are targeting demonstrators (with Radio Frequency radiation), you make them suicidally depressed.

They don’t care about demonstrating any more because they are too upset. With one pulse frequency you can make people so suicidal they cannot be bothered to act like a demonstrator anymore. All they want to do is sleep or lay in bed all day.” If you have new streetlights in your road, you need to consider when they were turned on and what unexplained symptoms you or your family might have developed as a consequence.

A Weaponised Street Lamp From Gateshead

If you do have symptoms, you must reduce the radiation that is under your control, i.e., turn off phones, smart meters, ditch smart watches, wireless personal alarms, cordless phones and wifi routers, and unplug all new electrical appliances when not using them. Get everything switched to ethernet cable to get on the Internet. Any computer shop can help you do this. In fact, many are going further, getting rid of ‘smart’ phones. These new weaponised streetlights have been fitted in the area where I live, and unsurprisingly I am suffering the very same symptoms described by Barrie Trower including sudden onset depression and the desire to commit suicide, upset stomach, itching skin, painful joints and muscles, extra systole heart beats, heart arrhythmia, tinnitus, profound lack of motivation, etc. The ‘Global Smart Street Lighting & Smart Cities’ market forecast (2019-2028) indicates that ‘street-lighting was previously viewed as a major cost - up to 40% of a city’s energy budget - streetlights are now viewed as a “revenue opportunity”.’

Nearly 200,000 scientists, doctors, engineers, citizens and organisations have signed an international appeal to stop 5G. A copy of the petition was handed to Downing Street on January 22 2020. The best article to explain the dangers of EMF/RFR (Electromagnetic Fields/ Radio Frequency Radiation) to date is, ‘Are You Swimming in an Invisible Sea of EMFs? Here’s What to Do’ by Dr Joseph Mercola.

He says, “the telecommunication industry has manipulated federal regulatory agencies, public health authorities and professionals through powerful and sophisticated lobbying efforts leaving consumers confused and unaware of the health risks associated with EMFs.” If you have new streetlights in your road, you need to consider when they were turned on and what unexplained symptoms you or your family might have developed

The End

The Hidden History of the Incredibly Evil
Khazarian Mafia (Part 2)
By Preston James, Ph.D

THE KM ROTHSCHILD PRIVATE FIAT COUNTERFEIT BANKSTERS PLOT ETERNAL REVENGE AGAINST THE AMERICAN COLONISTS AND RUSSIA who assisted them for losing the Revolutionary War: When the Rothschilds lost the American Revolution, they blamed the Russian Czar and the Russians for assisting the colonists by blockading British Ships.

They swore eternal revenge on the American colonists, just as they had when the Russians and their allies crushed Khazaria in 1,000 AD. The Rothschilds and their English oligarchy that surrounded them plotted ways to retake America, and this became their main obsession.

Their favoured plan is to set up an American central bank, featuring Babylonian money magic and secret counterfeiting.

The Rothschild KM attempts to retake America in 1812 on behalf of the Khazarian Mafia but fails, once again because of Russian interference: This failure enraged the Rothschild KM, and they once again plot eternal revenge against both the Russians and the American colonists and plan to infiltrate and hijack both nations and asset strip, tyrannize and then mass-murder both nations and their populace.

The KM's attempts to set up a private American central bank are blocked by President Andrew Jackson, who called them Satanic and vowed to route them out by the grace and power of Almighty God.

The Rothschild banksters regroup and continue their covert attempts to install their own Babylonian money-magic bank inside America.

Finally in 1913, the Rothschild KM succeeds in establishing a major beachhead inside America — and an evil enemy of all American enter the gates of America:

In 1913, the Rothschild KM was able to establish a beachhead by bribing crooked, treasonous members of Congress to pass the illegal, Unconstitutional Federal Reserve Act on Christmas Eve without a required quorum. The Act was then signed by a crooked, bought off President, who was a traitor to America, like the members of Congress who voted for it.

Our Little Ponzi Scheme

The Rothschild KM then create an illegal taxation System in America: The KM put an illegal, Unconstitutional tax system in place, in order to make sure that Americans would have to pay for high-level USG spending, approved by a bought-off, crooked Congress and Presidential puppets, put in place by corrupt KM campaign finance. It is easy for the KM to garner enough money to a bank that is a secret major counterfeiter, you have all the money made for you that you desire. At about the same time that they created their illegal tax system in America, they also bribed members of Congress to approve the Internal Revenue Service, which is their private collection agency incorporated in Puerto Rico.

Soon afterwards, they set up the Federal Bureau of Investigation to protect their banksters, to serve their cover-up needs and prevent them from ever being prosecuted for their child sacrifice rituals, paedophile networks; and to also serve as a covert Intel operation on their behalf. Note that the FBI has no official charter, according to the Library of Congress, and has no right to exist or issue paychecks.

The Rothschild KM deployed the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia to extract incredibly savage, bloody revenge on innocent Russians, which they had plotted for many years, ever since Khazaria was destroyed:

The Rothschild KM pre-staged and engineered the Russian Revolution by using its central banks to pay for the Bolshevik infiltration of Russia and their Revolution on behalf of the Khazarian Mafia (KM).

The Bolsheviks were actually created and deployed by the Khazarian Mafia (KM) as the essential part of their long planned revenge on the Russian Czar and the innocent Russian people for breaking up Khazaria in about 1,000 AD for its repeated robbery, murder and identity theft of travellers from countries surrounding Khazaria. This little known fact explains the extreme violence taken out on Russia as long standing revenge by the Rothschild controlled Khazarian Mafia (KM).

In an well-planned savage and inhuman blood-letting that stunned the world, the Bolsheviks were unleashed in full fury on behalf of the KM to gain revenge on the Russians. This had been planned since the destruction of Khazaria. The Bolsheviks, at the direction of the Rothschild KM, raped, tortured and mass-murdered approximately 100 million Russians, including women, children and infants. Some of the torture and bloodletting was so extreme, we are not going to mention it here in this article.

The Bolshevik Cheka

But readers who want to know can do some in depth Internet research on the "Red Terror" or the "Bolshevik Cheka" or watch the classic movie "The Checkist" which is available on You Tube The Rothschild Khazarian Mafia (KM) once again decided to sheep-dip themselves and infiltrated and hijacked all Judaism:

The Rothschild KM created a master plan to control all of Judaism and mind-control Judaics. The Rothschild KM has hijacked Judaism, patterned it off of Babylonian Talmudism (Luciferianism or Satanism), and gained control over the banking and Wall Street professions in general, Congress, the major mass media; along with most wealth and economic means of success.

Thus, the Rothschild KM could pass out wealth and success to those Judaics who drank their Kool-aid and use them as cutouts, assets and Sayanims. In this manner, the Rothschilds hijacked Judaism.

Their financing of the Israeli Knesset and construction of it using Freemason occult architecture displayed their commitment to the occult and Babylonian Talmudism and all the evil accompanying it, including child sacrifice to their secret god Baal. They set up a NWO system called World Zionism which taught and inculcated susceptible Judaics with a paranoid group delusion of racial superiority, which assumed that all Gentiles were intent on mass-murdering all Judaics.

Freemasonry architecture was used in the building of the Knesset and the Israeli Supreme Court, viewed through windows. They called this racially-paranoid mass Judaic delusion of world conquest, "World Zionism", which is really a form of covert Babylonian Talmudism or Luciferianism that had been unknown to mainstream Judaics.

The system was designed to use Judaics as cover, but also to anoint them with Babylonian money-power, in order to use them as cutouts, and to later be sacrificed to Lucifer in two stages.

The first stage would be a their planned WWII in Nazi work camps, cut off from supplies, resulting in the deaths of about 200,000 Judaics from starvation and disease, along with about 90,000 non-Judaic inmates from the same causes, according to respected Red Cross official figures.

Auschwitz Concentration Camp

This number is 5% of what the Khazarian Mafia (aka the World Zionists) claim. The second great sacrifice would be a final one, when their New World Order Luciferian King would be placed into power, and when all three Abrahamic religions would be eradicated — especially Judaism, which would be blamed for all the wars and destruction of the world.

By then, the Rothschilds would once again morph themselves into a complete new identity not associated with Judaism in any form, not even World Zionism.

It is important to realize that the Rothschild KM took Germany down to nothing after WWI, created a vacuum for Fascism, and then rebuilt it, creating Naziism and installing Hitler as a counter-force to their Russian Bolshevism.

Hitler became a problem for the KM when he broke free and began acting in the interests of the German people and the free people of the world, and developed his own banking system free of the Rothschilds.

Hitler introduced a financial system that was free of usury and beneficial to the working class. This mandated the utter destruction of Germany and the German people, because the Rothschilds and the Khazarians could never allow an economic system that did not depend upon usury to exist.

We see the same thing today with the Khazarian war against Islam, because Islam forbids usury. That is why Israel is so vocal and aggressive about destroying the Islamic people of the world. The KM expected this to be a large WWII and when they supported both sides, this could be used to industrialize the whole world and maximize their bankster money-power.

The Rothschild KM then bribed and induced Members of Congress to send American Soldiers to their pre-stage and engineered WWI:

As a continuance of their well-proven pattern of financing both sides in any war to maximize profits, the acquisition of more federal tax monies and increased international power, the Rothschild Khazarians once again bribed, blackmailed and induced members of Congress to declare war against Germany in 1917.

This was facilitated by a KM false-flag attack with the sinking of the Lusitania.

The Rothschild KM has since developed the usual pattern of covertly staging false-flag attacks as a standard operating procedure for inducing Americans to fighting wars for the Khazarian Mafia.

After WWII was finished, the Rothschild KM deployed the Cold War, and used this as an excuse to bring Nazi scientists and mind-control experts to America under Operation Paperclip.

This allowed them to set up a worldwide spying and espionage system that far exceeded any of their prior efforts.

Under this new system, they continue to infiltrate and hijack all American institutions, including the various American church systems, Freemasonry (especially the Scottish Rite and York Rite, the US military, US Intel, and most private defence contractors, the Judiciary and most agencies of the USG, including most State governments, and both major political parties as well.

Rothschild Banking Meme

The Rothschild KM sets up Nazi Work Camps as a pretext to later manipulate the Allies into granting them their own private colony in Palestine, using land stolen from the Palestinians: The Rothschild KM was able to use their self mislabelled, so-called "holocaust" to serve as a mind-control trigger to thwart and resist any criticism of their Zionist ways. The truth of the matter was that the Rothschild KM set up the Nazi work camps to make huge profits for their corporations that ran their work camps and supplied their Nazi war machine.

Once the Rothschild KM gained their own private homeland in Israel in 1947 through their covert political manipulations, they began to secretly view all of Palestine as their New Khazaria, and began plotting how to genocide all the Palestinians and steal all of Palestine for themselves.

Their plans include their fantasy of constructing a "greater Israel" by taking over the whole Middle East and manipulating dumb American Goyim to fight and die on their behalf, taking all the Arab lands for Israel and the Khazarian Mafia (KM), so they can asset strip their wealth and natural resources, especially their crude oil.

Recent peer-reviewed Johns Hopkins genetic research by a respected Judaic MD shows that 97.5% of Judaics living in Israel have absolutely no ancient Hebrew DNA, are therefore not Semites, and have no ancient blood ties to the land of Palestine at all. By contrast, 80% of Palestinians carry ancient Hebrew DNA and thus are real Semites, and have ancient blood ties to Palestinian Land. This means that the real anti-Semites are the Israelis who are stealing Palestinian lands in order to build Israeli settlements, and it is the Israelis who are the ones tyrannizing and mass-murdering innocent Palestinians.

Khazaria

The Rothschild KM decides to morph again and expand their ranks: In the meantime the Rothschild KM realized that they could not stay hidden much longer from the public unless they morphed again and expanded their secret leadership.

So they worked hard to further infiltrate and hijack Freemasonry and its secret offshoots, and inducted top members into their paedophile network and child sacrifice rituals.

Also, key members of Congress were inducted into their secret satanic network by giving them special power, high USG, military and Intel positions, accompanied by great monetary rewards and high status.

Massive KM espionage fronts using Israeli-American "Israeli-first" dual citizens as cutouts were set up inside America to funnel the Khazarian banksters' counterfeit money to politicians for their election campaigns, in order to own and control them when elected.

Why Do We Have Wars

The Rothschild KM decides to Mind-Control the American masses to make it much easier to manipulate them into approving their illegal, Unconstitutional unprovoked, undeclared, unwinnable, perpetual wars needed to make huge profits and gain more world power:

The Rothschild KM decided to gain complete control over all public education by setting up the Department of Education and creating globalist and socialist curriculums based on political correctness, diversity and "perversion is normal" teachings.

Fluoride is added to the public water and toothpaste, and dentists are mind-controlled to believe that fluoride prevents cavities, and is not harmful to brain function or thyroid function, which it is.

The addition of fluoride to the public water supply and to toothpaste is to dumb-down Americans by on average lowering the operational IQ and making folks much more docile than they would normally be. Programs to develop and deploy vaccinations to dumb-down children and create huge numbers of future chronic health problems were initiated.

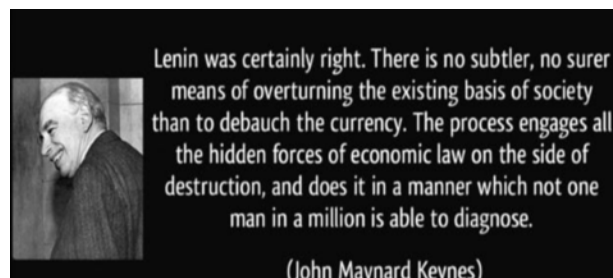

Doctors have been mind-controlled and misled by biased research that was cherry-picked, ignoring any studies that were negative — and that included most of them. All vaccine cell lines are contaminated with SV40, a known carcinogenic slow-acting virus.

The KM used its monetary power to gain control over all of the allopathic medical schools, and set up and controlled the American Medical Association and other medical societies, in order to make sure their agenda based on lies and deceit was continued.

Part of this massive plan to dumb-down and mind-control the American masses was the KM's buying up and consolidating all the American mass media into six controlled major mass media (CMMM), owned and controlled by their cutouts on their behalf.

The CMMM functions as an illegal news cartel, and it should be broken up under antitrust laws and for inflicting espionage and illegal propaganda as a weapon of war against the American people.
