

A Visit To Arnold Leese's House

Andrew Carrington Hitchcock

Elizabeth Leese

A Visit To The Home Of The Late Arnold Leese In Guildford, Surrey

By
Andrew Carrington Hitchcock

TODAY, SATURDAY APRIL 16 2016, I travelled to Guildford with my girlfriend to do a bit of shopping and at the last minute grabbed my copy of Arnold Leese's 1940 book, "Gentile Folly: The Rothschild's."

For those of you who have this excellent book that I recommend as a companion to, "The Synagogue Of Satan - Updated, Expanded, And Uncensored," you will note that at the bottom of the Preface page it states, Arnold Leese, White House, Pewley Hill, Guildford - 28 February 1940.

Once I arrived at Guildford train station it was relatively easy to find the road, which was about 15 minutes walk away.

After a tiring walk up this steep hill, imagining how Arnold must have had to tackle this on a regular basis till his death in 1956. I struck gold.

Now off up the hill to see if the house still exists

I then thought I would knock on the door and see if there was anyone in, to establish if they knew of the house's former occupant. After I rung the bell a pleasant elderly lady opened a downstairs window to see what I wanted, I showed her the address in my copy of Gentile Folly and she invited me in.

The author standing outside “White House” home of the late Arnold Leese, — Pewley Hill, Guildford, Surrey.

She knew of Leese but only sketchy details, having bought the house in 1975 long after Mrs Leese had passed on. She believes the house had two owners between her and the Leese's and all she had regarding the Leese's was an article about Mrs Leese she had framed from a 1962 newspaper.

I filled her in on the details regarding the importance of this house. How Leese wrote much of his ground-breaking material here. How he was arrested here after the police raided the house to jail him under Regulation 18B that many of our Jew-wise forefathers found themselves jailed under (including Archibald Maule Ramsay), for the duration of World War 2. She was pleased to know more about Leese and I have also agreed to send her his autobiography, "Out Of Step," that has many details of what happened in this very house.

Finally she let me take a photo of the lounge (left) and the garden (below).

Left: The cover of the book: Out Of Step, the auto-biography of Arnold Leese.

The People - Sunday, August 12th, 1962

To The Neighbours Mrs Leese Is The Dear Old Lady In The Big House.
What A Pity That She Is Also Lady Bountiful To The Nazi Gang!

This Elegant House With A Secret—it is the home of a sweet faced old lady who supports Britain's Nazi-style gang.

The many friends of kindly old Mrs May Leese will wish her a speedy recovery in the hospital where she is recovering from an operation for a stomach complaint.

I join in these wishes, and I would not write anything which I felt might retard the convalescence. But I must say this – I hope when she returns home she will have found the wisdom to disown these strange associates she has known and encouraged for many years.

For it will be a shock to Mrs Leese's friends in Guildford Surrey, who know her only as the lady in the big house on the crest of exclusive Pewley Hill, to learn that she is – one of the main financial supporters of the gang of Nazi style storm troopers who call themselves Britain's National Socialists. These are the people who wear – quite openly Nazt styled uniforms complete with jackboots.

These are the people who openly proclaim! "Hitler was right"

These are the people who welcomed in Britain and America's self-styled fuehrer George Lincoln Rockwell.

A far cry indeed from the kindness and peace of ultraconservative Guildford –

But Mrs Leese, 75 years old and a widow, is proud of the part she has played in the organising of these Hitler loving hooligans.

Rent Free

In fact when, some time ago, I asked her about her connections with 74, Princesdale Road, in London's race conscious Notting Hill, she talked and talked with obvious enthusiasm.

She is the landlady of this three storeyed shop fronted building which now carries the name "National Socialist movement."

And when I talk to her in her attractive detached home in Guildford she admitted to me that she allowed the National Socialists to use the premises rent-free and that she paid the rates out of her own pocket. She also "contributed whatever I could" whenever this fascist group wanted more cash – cash for more jack boots and for more printed propaganda to stir up hatred against Jews and coloured immigrants.

Now, I don't suppose that Mrs Leese has ever been a poor woman. The house in which she lives indicating that clearly.

But she did admit that her total financial aid for the National Socialists would certainly be well over £11,000 each year – a big sum even for a woman with few financial worries.

Why should this old lady with the sweet face be prepared to give such help to the gang which says its leader suspended Coventry schoolmaster Colin Jordan will one day drive from our land, democracy as we know it?

Her husband who died in 1956, was one of the most notorious pre-war British fascists – Arnold Ebenezer Leese, a publisher and founder of the extremist Imperial Fascist League

He was a Jew hater extraordinary. An outspoken supporter of Hitler in everything the German dictator ever said or did.

During the war he was detained under the 1011 regulations. After his release from prison he was the leading light in a scheme to help German prisoners of war. For that he was jailed for 12 months.

Ugly Riots

In those days Mrs Lees like any good life would do, stood firmly by her husband in all his setbacks.

But with the passing of the years and especially since his death. I can't help wondering why time has not brought for her and increase in wisdom – and a change of heart. Especially when she must know of the recent ugly riots which these Nazi-style organisations have provoked.

To find out if these events had made her begin to wonder, I called John Jordan.

In his first-floor office, we talked—with a background from the room above of recorded Nazi marching songs and the stamping of Jordan's followers going through their daily military training

"Yes", he told me, "Mrs Leese is still one of our staunchest members. Of course, she is not as active as she was in her younger days."

"But whenever she feels up to it she makes the journey from Guildford to headquarters to be with us at our meetings." Headquarters, I gathered, was 74, Princedale Road.

Jordan continued "frankly, I don't know what we would do without the generous support of Mrs Leese. That's why headquarters is still named Arnold Leese House."

Cared For

But perhaps third time in a hospital bed may have given Mrs Lees the chance to think about past associations with Jordan's Jew-hating gang.

One thing which might help to bring her new wisdom—in the hospital there is a little dark haired nurse who knows Mrs Lees rather well.

And she is proud to say "yes, I am Jewish. But to me all patients are alike people in need of help and kindness"

Your friends, Mrs Leese would have you hate the nurse who is caring for you in your sickness.

I'm sure you do not need to entertain any such feelings. Could that be the beginning of your new wisdom?

Roy East.

Books By Andrew Carrington Hitchcock

Click here for details and to purchase

Bücher Von Andrew Carrington Hitchcock Auf Deutsch

Klicken Sie hier für weitere Details und zum
Kauf

THE NEW CHRISTIAN CRUSADE CHURCH

CALLING THE PEOPLE OF BRITAIN

At last the bible makes sense!

At last we know its meaning.

Its the book of the RACE

