The Death of Britain

By Richard Porter

I WAS BORN IN THE EASTSIDE OF LONDON within the sound of Bow bells so I am what used to be called a Cockney. Shortly after my birth my parents moved to Brixton in south London. Here I grew up and went to school, apart from a period spent in Padstow, Cornwall as a wartime evacuee. One day in 1950 while walking along Coldharbour Lane on my way home from school I saw something I had never seen before that greatly astonished me. I saw my very first Black man. Now if I walked down Coldharbour Lane I would be astonished if I saw a White man. Now 50 years later Brixton is more like an African township and has been nicknamed "Little Jamaica".

Recently, I visited my old school in Sussex Road with two of my children. Today, 80-90% of the pupils are Black. Brixton Market, where I once worked for the barrow boys on a Saturday for ten shillings is now like an Eastern Bazaar. Indians, Chinese, Blacks, Turks, Greeks, the human assortment is as varied as the variety of strange food for sale. Brixton was once a peaceful and agreeable place in which to live. Now it is dirty and rundown and elderly folk are afraid to go out at night for fear of being mugged.

On a visit to the market, a young Black shot past me like a bullet out of a gun, arriving on the High Street. I saw a young White man with blood pouring from his face. "What happened?" I asked. "A Black tried to snatch my wife's handbag", he replied, "I managed to stop him but got punched in the face".

Mugging was once an unknown crime in London. When I first heard the word, I didn't even know what it meant. Mugging and drug dealing are now commonplace. In London, nearly all muggers are Black and most of the victims, who are usually elderly, are White. Thanks to the Lib. Lab. Con. traitors you elect to Parliament, London today is a multiracial hell-hole. It is no longer an English city. It is a modern Babel of tongues and religions. A menagerie of every race, creed and colour under the sun in many parts of London the British are already a minority in their own capital city. Many of the British, like a man from Greenwich I spoke to have moved out. They are outraged at what the politicians have done to London. But many don't have the means and are trapped in a city that has been transformed into a festering swamp of crime, degeneracy and racial and tribal all sorts.

If you think that what has happened to Brixton is unique, think again. In a thousand locations across this land vast hordes of coloured races have moved in transforming forever a whole way of life and an identity stretching back over a thousand years. A lady who lives in Colne in Lancashire has seen her childhood home and the surroundings she grew up in transformed into a teeming suburb of Calcutta or Karachi. The change has made her physically ill and she gets terribly depressed. The coloured invasion forced on the British by bought and corrupt politicians has not only resulted in an epidemic of crime it has piled stress on the British and affected them deeply, making many ill. Years ago a London Policeman told me of the pressure tactics (some too vile to print) brought against the British by the new arrivals to force them out of an area. Now in places like Burnley and Bradford the Asians are attempting to establish "No Go Areas" for Whites.

The Colne lady told me of two White youths who unwittingly wandered into such an area and were savagely attacked by a gang of Asians. One was beaten to death and the other was only saved because an Asian family pulled him into their house. Such cases as this are never reported in our lying and deceiving National News. They are too busy in their unending coverage of the Stephen Lawrence story. It is absolutely true that there is an escalating number of racial crimes, but most of them (over 90%) are Black on White not vice versa.

Why has vastly overpopulated and overcrowded Britain been swamped with millions of Negroes, Asians, Chinese and every sub division of mankind against the wishes of the real British? The answer is so staggering that most of the British – subjected as they have been to years of mind bending propaganda by their alien controlled media will not believe it. It will seem too incredible and too far-fetched. But I can assure you it is 100% true.

The final goal is no less than the TOTAL DESTRUCTION OF THE CELTIC-ANGLO SAXON PEOPLES IN THESE ISLANDS AND THEIR REPLACEMENT BY THE COLOURED RACES. Believe the evidence of your own eyes as you see this happening by a process of gradualism. Consider what has happened during the last 50 years. An estimated 15 million plus (could be much more) coloured immigrants have been imported into Britain. Project this into the future a few more years and, the British will become first a minority in their own country and then they will disappear forever. Britain will become a melange of races, a coffee-coloured nation of racial hybrids and mongrels without identity, history or purpose. The tools and puppets of the master manipulators operating secretly behind the scenes.

Recently, the government has admitted that the number of immigrants coming to Britain during the past ten years is about equal to the population of one of the larger English counties. Lying governments always falsify figures so the real figure is likely to be double this.

The truth is Celtic-Anglo-Saxon-Britain is now being rapidly and irreversibly destroyed. A third of the population of Britain is already Afro-Asia-Oriental. Is this why we fought two world wars and sacrificed so many lives? Britain has been sold out by the politicians you elect to parliament. There has never been a peaceful multiracial society throughout all of human history. Multiracial societies are violent societies. Multiracial societies are degenerate societies--

Multiracial societies eventually destroy the host nation—England could lose most of its real countryside within a single generation according to 'The Campaign to Protect Rural England'. More of the English countryside is being destroyed to create housing for the flood of new arrivals. Eventually there will be a racial explosion in Britain and the predictions of Enoch Powell, who predicted Race War, will come true. What the Bible proclaims is a certainty for Britain: 'For they have sown the wind and they shall reap the whirlwind!'
