Although Christian churches and Bible College institutions of today have many things correct concerning the scriptures, the whole foundation upon which they base their premise is completely unfounded.

False Foundations

Richard Porter

I would like to begin this message with a quote from a movie that really got my attention during it's viewing. The movie series of which held as it's central character, Indiana Jones aka Dr. Vendyl Jones. He made a statement concerning organized religions, he said,

"Religions can be likened to Rat Poison, 99% sweet cookie, 1% arsenic --- and 1% arsenic kills --- Most religions give you 99% truths and feel good messages --- but the 1% lies can kill you"

I thought this quote very applicable as I began to think about the false teachings that pervade our Christian churches and Bible College institutions of today. They have many things correct concerning the scriptures but the whole foundation upon which they base their premise is completely unfounded.

From the very beginning we find the history of creation and the re-creation, and the placing of Adam in the garden that begins the entire foundation "plot" of the Bible. Why these accounts have been turned into a nursery rhyme style, fairy tale, storybook adventure for children I cannot comprehend. These subjects are taught from the pulpits of today's churches by whore-master preachers to grown adults as if they are still in Sunday school and they need a picture book to understand!!!

When someone teaches that all the races originated from 2 persons, (that being Adam and Eve), and that the downfall of mankind is due to Eve choosing to eat a literal piece of fruit from a literal tree, we establish a basis of falsehood that leads us to a complete and gross misunderstanding of, not only the following chapters in Genesis (which is the foundational book of the Bible), but it also leads to a gross misunderstanding of the remaining 65 books of the Bible.

Most of the time when you bring up the subject of the 6 days of creation to someone they see in their mind a little story, as some book would render it, as the whole earth being created as a beautiful place for 2 people to live in perfect harmony with everything around them...only two people on the entire planet living in paradise... all alone...and all this in ONLY six literal days (as we know them).

When we even bring up the subject of Adam and Eve, most of the time, people's minds go to a picture book in their head with visions of 2 naked people, standing there talking to a literal snake and pondering whether or not to eat an apple. Seeing a cartoon character, fable, or fairy tale—instead of realizing the severity of this account or its real happenings—i.e. the partaking of the “forbidden fruit”.

To have a correct understanding of the scriptures, it is imperative that we understand it's foundational truths. We know as Yahshua himself taught us the importance of a laying a solid foundation. We have Him teaching in Matt. 7:24-27 and He gives an example of laying a solid foundation. Yahshua states:

24 Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: 25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.”

I don't know about you, but I want my belief in Yahweh and His word to be Rock Solid. I don't want a “sandy”, shady, weak, unfounded, false foundation!

James wrote to the 12 “tribes which were scattered abroad” in his letter (quoting from James Ch. 1 vs. 5) saying:—]

5 If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord. 8 A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

Do you want to be like a wave in the sea, tossed to and fro? Do you realize that what we believe in our minds, what our faith is based upon, affects our actions? Therefore like James said, we become unstable in all of our ways...not having a true and solid foundation does not cause us to just be a little “off” in some of our ways but James said IN ALL our WAYS!

It is not just a matter of knowing an historical account in the Bible and being able to prove it as being true with correct interpretation for the sake of being a good student, but this foundation that we must understand is a matter of life or death.

Why do I say this is a matter of life or death? Because false doctrine is a killer!

We are to act upon the Word of Yahweh, not just read it. And if we don't understand what it says, then we must conclude that we cannot possibly be acting according to what He has said. If we are not acting upon His word, then how can we say we are obeying His word? We cannot!!!

Most preachers and teachers today do not want to address the subject of race for many reasons. One reason is that it is not ‘popular’, if you can have all people attending your church, then obviously you will have greater numbers, which in turn brings a larger offering, which in turn builds a bigger bank account. Another reason is that we have politically correct preachers today instead of Scripturally correct preachers. And also, for fear of the Jews, they dare not preach the truth concerning race and the satanic seed line that is spoken about in scripture from Genesis to Revelation. We dare not depict them as the one's who killed Christ. We dare not make a differentiation concerning the different races that are blatantly and obviously different...or we may be called a “racist.”

Like the preacher who heard another preacher state, “I believe all the different races are the same!” The other preacher responded, “Then why did you call them different?”

The best place to start reading a book is at the beginning, would you not agree? How many books do we read and start from the middle half of it? Have you ever bought a book and then flipped to the middle and began to read it from there to the end? You say “That's silly, if you did that you would not understand fully what is going on.” This is my point exactly. So why should the Bible be any different?

Let’s begin with the creation: The Genesis of things, or the Beginning of things.

We find in Chapter 1 of Genesis the verses from 1-23 dealing with the creation of the heavens and the earth. He divides light from darkness and the earth from the sea. Yahweh is indeed a God of division. People today have this concept that division is wrong, that everything is somehow just supposed to dwell together and mix together like soup. Yahweh has always established boundaries throughout His word. A boundary is a divider, is it not?

Speaking of soup: Soup is not a solid food is it? Neither is milk.

Isaiah 28:9 tells us “Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.”

If you are ever going to grow in the grace and knowledge of Yahweh, and understand His word, and if you are ever going to be strong in understanding, you must at some point in time move on from drinking milk...and begin to eat meat!!!

Paul admonishes those who he wrote to in his letters of the same thing. We must study to show ourselves approved. Many people read the Bible, some read it a lot, but very few actually STUDY it.

Let us continue in our study:

After He creates the heavens and the earth, which is the dry ground and the waters or the seas, we see then that He creates the grass and the trees, the vegetation. Notice he creates everything, kind after kind. We then find that He creates the stars of the heavens and then the fowls of the air and the fish in the sea. Notice once again when creating living things, they are all created kind after kind.

Now, this brings us to the 6th day. This is where most teachers and preachers say that Yahweh “created” Adam and Eve. (Notice the emphasis I placed upon the word “created.” We will find most certainly as we study the scriptures that this was not the record of Adam and Eve being brought into the earth.

Let's read what it says, verse 26:–

26 And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

29 And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat.

30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

31 And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

That concludes the 6th day and the record of creation. For as we read the next verse which begins Chapter 2 we find it FINISHED, And then Yahweh resting on the seventh day. The number 7 is a very significant number throughout the scriptures and it denotes completion. It was complete, it was finished.

2:1 Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

2 And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3 And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.

We find in our study of the scriptures that Yahweh created male and female at the same time on the 6th day and the original words denote plurality. “Male and female created he THEM.”

This is where we will find Adam to be an 8th day creation, or to put it in better terms, he was formed on the 8th day. Just as the number 7 in the Bible denotes completion, the number 8 is the number of “new beginnings.”

In verses 4 thru 8 we read:

4 “These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,

5 And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.

6 But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

7 And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

8 And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

We see here that “male and female” had already been created prior to Adam.

Now there could be a lot of discussion as to this subject but it is plainly clear in light of the order of creation that the other races were created prior to Adam. Even some mainstream denominational churches teach that there was in fact a Pre-Adamic world and there were Pre-Adamic races.

At this point we must back up to the very beginning in Gen. 1:1 and 1:2 to gain a fuller understanding concerning the original creation.

Something catastrophic happened between verse 1 and verse 2. Why do we know that? Because we know that when Yahweh created things, He created them in order and in a goodly fashion, not in some chaotic state of confusion, not in a state of desolation, not in a state of ruin. We see in verse one that He created the heavens and the earth. When you study this out you will find that the Original creation was made perfect and inhabited. Verses 1 and 2 are not referring to the 6 days of creation. These events happened prior to the re-creation. Then in verse 2 we find that “the earth was without form and void”.

The phrase “without form” comes from the Hebrew word “tohu” meaning waste, and desolation. The original Hebrew word used for VOID is “boho” meaning empty and ruined. The word “was” in vs. 2 is from the verb to “to become”, not the verb to be, which proves that the earth BECAME a wasteland through a catastrophe. In the proper context, these words used in conjunction shows a chaotic world due to some event.

Well what happened to cause this catastrophic ruin? Was this judgment? What caused this? Why was the earth in this chaotic condition?

Jeremiah gives an account of his vision of this in Jeremiah 4:23-27 : It reads:

“I beheld the earth, and lo, it was without form and void, and the heavens, and they had no light. I beheld the mountains, and lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly. I beheld, and lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled. I beheld, and lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the Lord, and by His fierce anger. For thus hath the Lord said, The whole land shall be desolate; yet will I not make a full end.”

We see that there the earth was indeed inhabited with fruitful places, birds and cities which obviously had to have been built by men.

We also read of this event from the prophet Isaiah in the 24th Chapter of Isaiah verse 1. ‘Behold, the Lord maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

Once again we see that it WAS indeed INHABITED prior to the re-creation...i.e. the restructuring, or reformation of the planets surface out of its chaotic state.

Peter addressed the fact that in the last days there would be scoffers who would not believe the true account of Yahweh judging the heavens and the earth. The sad part is he mentions those, not who are ignorant because they don't have evidence...but rather those who are WILLINGLY ignorant.

2 Peter 3:5-8 “For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old and the earth standing out of the water and in the water; Whereby the world that THEN WAS, being overflowed with water perished. But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. But beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that on day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.”

This judgment was due to Lucifer's rebellion and fall from his glorious state. Due to his rebellion against Yahweh judged the heavens and the earth as a result.

Isaiah 14:12-14 Reads, “How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! How art thou cut down to the ground, which did weaken the nations! For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High. Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.”

This should bring a fuller understanding of at what point the 6 ages (i.e. an “unspecified amount of time) of creation begin. For at the time of the prior creation and the destruction, we could call this the dateless past.

The six days of creation are not “days” as in a 24 hour period of time. The original denotes the word day as AGE. If we read the Fenton translation, he translated this word as “age” instead of “day.” These are ages, or periods of time of unspecified length. These six ages are not where we begin our chronological time of Adam's race. It is not until the 8th age that we find Adam and his placement upon this earth. Once again, we see the number 8 as denoting a new beginning --- which is when I believe our current time frame began, and NOT with the beginning of the dateless past.

Continuing, now, on into the subject of male and female who were created during the 6th age...we must look at what they were commanded to do by Yahweh.

Now after he had created “male and female” we find that he told them to REPLENISH the earth. To “re”-plenish something is to re-fill it, obviously you cannot refill something that was not filled in the first place. Once again, this shows that there was a creation even prior to them being created.

Anyone who knows anything about the history, or ancient civilizations, know that the Asiatic or Mongoloid race has been here for hundreds of thousands of years, and the Negroid or black race has been here for tens of thousands of years. We have ancient artifacts showing different races inhabiting various parts of this planet that date back thousands and thousands of years. I have read some estimations of the Negro race having notable history going back some 73,000 to 75,000 years and some that say even longer than this.

The Asiatic races have kept quite old documentation of their history and we have much evidence of their existence and habitation on this earth for hundreds of thousands of years.

Any Bible scholar will pretty much agree that Adam’s lineage is traced back about 7,500 years ago...and no further. So how can we say that Adam’s race has anything to do with these other races, or their beginnings? We can’t, and they don’t.

Adam was not created as the other male and female races upon this earth. He was formed and then PLACED in a garden IN Eden. Most everyone has a habit of saying that Adam and Eve were created in the Garden OF Eden. That is NOT what the Bible says. The scriptures clearly state that Adam was formed and then PLACED in a garden IN EDEN. Let’s read verse 8 again:

8 And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

Now, this is the first record we have in scripture of Adam’s race upon this earth.

We find in Gen. 2 The Adam man, (in singular) formed by Yahweh. This word Adam comes from the Hebrew word “Awdawm.” Awdawm defined means: “To show blood in the face.” This obviously does not refer to or resemble the dark races who we know are much older than the white race to begin with...and that CANNOT show blood in the face neither can they blush. Adam was indeed the father of the white race upon this earth...and the white race ONLY!!!

Is Adam’s race special just because of the colour of their skin? You say that is superficial. You are right. It is not just a matter of skin colour. For we know that when you study out the different races, that they are completely different from the skin to the bone. The physical, mental and spiritual make up is entirely different. From the bone structures, to the brain, to the inner workings of the organs, we will find differences. So, you are right in saying it is not just a superficial matter. It is not just skin deep. It is RACIAL—and they are as racially different from the white Adamic race as the day is different from the night.

The main point is not to say that the white race is more superior because of intellect, which this has been proven, and really does not take a rocket scientist or a historian to see this is true. For the white race has proven throughout history to be intellectually superior that the other races, and all the great empires which were established were developed by the white race only. The main point is not to say that we are culturally superior, which is also happens to be true...but the real difference comes into play when we realize that Adam was the ONLY one in whom Yahweh breathed the breath of life (SPIRIT) into Adam... which caused Adam to become a living soul or a “life containing soul.”

Our Father is the one who gave us this life. He is the one who put HIS Spirit inside of us. No other race can say that Yahweh placed a Spirit inside of the—and neither does Scripture!!! No other race can call Him their Father, because he is the “Father” of only ONE race of people—ADAMITES!!! Luke 3:38 tells us that “Adam was the son of God.” Adam was literally Yahweh’s son. And if Adam was the son of Yahweh...then it stands to reason that all of Adam’s descendants were also “sons of Yahweh”—therefore we, the members of the White Adamic race, are the ONLY ones that can call Him “Abba” Father.

Adam was to be Yahweh's representative upon this earth, to administrate over it...and all of His creations. Another Hebrew word for man other than Awdawm, which Adam was, is the word Enosh. This word implies weakness, both physically and morally, and thus "differing from the more dignified Adam" (Strong's Concordance) and is used in a derogatory manner in scripture. It is always used in reference to NON-Adamic, i.e. NON-WHITE people, those which were pre-Adamic.

To give you an example of how this word differs from the other uses of the word man in the original Hebrew, I will use the original word in the following passages of scripture.

Ezekiel 34:3 reads, "And ye, My flock, the flock of My pasture are AWDAWM, and I am your God, saith Yahweh." And in Psalm 115:16 we read, "The heavens, even the heavens are Yahweh's, but the earth hath He given to the children of AWDAWM."

The Enosh were wicked, and are spoken of in Deut. 13:13. "Certain Enosh, the children of Belial, are gone out of their city, saying, Let us go and worship other gods, which ye have not known. "

Then we come to another word that is used in scripture that is "Beast."

When we read the second chapter of Genesis we find Yahweh looking for a suitable wife for Adam. He brings every beast of the field to see if one is suitable for Adam. Now do we really think that God in His wisdom and knowledge had to consider a cow or a pig in looking for a help mate for Adam? Of course NOT!

When we look to the root words here we find Khah-ee Khaw-yaw. Both denoting living creatures, which would include everything thing that breathes air, from tiny microbes to the 2 legged variety of His created animal, or beast, creation. This could just as well read, "The creature of the field or the creatures in the country or earth."

Gen. 2:7 says, "And Yahweh formed AWDAWM from the dust of the ground, and placed into him a spirit life force and the AWDAWM became a living man with a spiritual life force. It really is just that simple!!! Nothing difficult at all about it!!!

The Khaw-yaw beast of the field or earth or country, are actually the non-white, non-adamic races.

It is unfortunate that as Yahweh defined and classified the different races with distinctive and descriptive terms, the translators lump together all these and indiscriminately call them “men.”

So as we study through history and through the scriptures we will find that Adam was indeed the father of the white race, that he was a son of God whom Yahweh would place here to begin the family of God, His family, His chosen people, the people whom would be given His laws, His promises, and be heirs to His kingdom.

That is why it is so important that we study to find the truth concerning our heritage, and our family. For Yahweh placed us here to be a special people, a Holy people, above all the rest. We were supposed to, and are supposed to, show Yahweh to the world and enforce His laws amongst His people.

Eve was the mother of all living, yes, all living AWDAWM, all Adam-kind, but not the mother of all races, and certainly not all living creatures. We are a chosen generation, a chosen race. Common sense should tell us that two white parents cannot produce anything but a white child. When our holy seed is mixed with the dark races, it becomes just that...dark. There is no turning back from this sin. Once it is done, it is done...and Yahweh will NOT put a spirit into anything or anyone that is not a pure blooded Adamite!!!

Let us be that holy nation, for we are called to separate ourselves, and come out from among them. Yahweh did not ASK us to do this He COMMANDED us to do this. What fellowship does light have with darkness? Yahweh is indeed a God of separation, and NOT integration! He is a very discriminating God as you will find by reading and studying the scriptures.

Let us live up to the expectations of our great and mighty Father, and never allow that holy seed which he planted in the earth to become mongrelised by the other races. He never asked us to “get along” with the other races to the point of mixing with them and having them rule over us. This, my friend, is an abomination in the sight of Our Father.

He calls us kings and priests, he calls us special, and he chose us before the foundation of the world. May we learn the history of our father’s, and realize that we have a special place upon this earth, and an enormous responsibility before Him. Let us pray that His kingdom come and may we prepare to be fit for His kingdom as we work out our own salvation with fear and trembling.
