Calling The True Israel Peoples

Editorial

Dear Israelite Reader,

My Response to Henry Jackson's Capitulation to the Devil (Continued)

{(My responses are in brackets)}

EVERYWHERE we look, we see the Jews and their collaborators promoting racial integration for the destruction of Christianity and the White Race. Today, the apostate churches have joined them in this genocidal war of the Edomites against the Caucasian Israelites.

Henry Jackson sounds like a collaborator. What about those Whites who are being brutally murdered and raped without any discussions about how much time they have before they get dispossessed of their lives and freedom? 3.) In Matt. 13:10-17, Jesus clearly states that the Gospel is not intended for all people. That's why He spoke in parables, so that the enemies of Israel 'SHOULD NOT BE CONVERTED.'" 4. The Covenant that the Boers made with Yahweh God is being broken by anyone who suggests that non-Whites can be part of that Covenant. It is precisely because the Whites of South Africa have listened to their enemies that the current anti-White genocide is occurring. "Learn not the way of the heathen." (Jer. 10:2.) 5. White South Africans are being genocided today precisely because they have given up the Dominion Mandate that was given to the White Race in Gen. 1:26 and confirmed at Gen. 12:1-3. There is a REASON why Yahweh has selected us as His Chosen People. Whenever we disregard this special relationship with Him, He punishes us. 6. Corruption, rape, murder and genocide are the result of White South Africans giving up this Divinely-ordained Law of Segregation.]

Are these Jesus instructions to us or are they not! {Are we commanded to love the enemies of God or does "Love your enemies" apply only to the Israelites within our community, with whom we have legal or moral disputes? Since the Gospel was written exclusively to Israel, the author is comparing apples with oranges. We are not to love an invading army! That's ridiculous! If that were the case, the Israelites would have never gone to war against the Canaanites. If Jackson's interpretation of Scripture were true, Jesus would not have instructed the Apostles to arm themselves. (Luke 22:36.) This is why the Founding Fathers of America insisted upon writing the Second Amendment into our Constitution. Henry Jackson is arguing that we Israelites should simply capitulate to any invading army! This invading army has been organized by the Devil himself! (Luke 19:27 also applies here.)

Why do I see so many Christians with such deep racial hatred and bitterness boiling inside them? {The author's version of "Christian love" excuses crimes committed by Blacks against Whites. Amazing! Yet, he admits that the Blacks that came to dispossess him are also full of racial hatred. He does not preach to them about giving up THEIR hatred, does he? Rather, he excuses the injustice of government thievery.} Are we not to be sons and daughters of our Heavenly Father, emanating His godly character.

{Yes, segregated from non-Whites. There is no hatred implied by segregation. This Yahweh's Law.} What witness do we portray if we respond with seething anger, In what sense are we better than the world?

{Pslam 45:7 tells us that we are to HATE wickedness, not embrace it as Henry Jackson teaches. The author is suggesting that Christians should never defend themselves. How then is Christianity supposed to survive? The devil himself could have written these words, in order to destroy Christianity. With advice like this, there will be no Christians left in less than a generation. The early persecutions of Christianity failed precisely because Christians, despite the attempts to exterminate them, outlived their persecutors.

Psalm 139: “Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: depart from me therefore, ye bloody men. For they speak against Thee wickedly, and Thine enemies take Thy Name in vain. Do not I hate them, O Yahweh, that hate Thee? And am not I grieved with those that rise up against Thee? I hate them with a perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.” - 19-22.

Henry Jackson thinks that God loves those that He has clearly stated are deserving of His hatred. Nowhere does the Bible approve of Jackson's gospel of appeasement!}

When I met Philemon the next day he was still just as nervous as he had been the previous day – sitting on the very edge of his chair. I said to him, Philemon, as much as I have nowhere to go, and you have taken my life-long dream away from me in one day, I am not going to be bitter or angry with you. I want to bless you as you come onto this farm. I will assist you wherever I can. I want you to enjoy this farm as I have enjoyed it. He responded positively to that and gave me more amazing concessions. “You can take anything you want off the farm, and if you are willing to leave anything I will pay you for it,” he said. We shook hands and parted as friends.

The Scripture says that, “The anger of man does not achieve t h e righteousness of God.” (James 1:20) { N e i t h e r does the man who does not oppose the Devil.} We have to see the bigger picture and not hold so tightly onto the few earthly possessions that we have. {(The bigger picture is to obey His Commandments, which include racial segregation. “If you love Me, KEEP my commandments.” (John 14:15-21; 15:10.))} Our Heavenly Father is well able to supply our needs, and if we hold onto earthly things with an open hand He is able to both take out and put in at His will. {(The Father does not hear the prayers of sinners. This is why Henry Jackson is being judged.))} Not even a sparrow falls down without Him knowing it. Can He not supply my need for a home and a place to milk the cows? Of-course He can! Why then should I allow my heart to be filled with hatred for a man for whom Jesus died? Rather I would like to see this man and his violent friends brought into the kingdom. You will never win the racial hatred battle with hatred. {(Nor can you win it by race-mixing. That is a total violation of God's laws!)} It can only be won with love and forgiveness. {But not towards enemy nations! We can't be the City on the Hill if we fraternize with the heathen of the valley! Furthermore, forgiveness is given only to those who REPENT OF THEIR SINS. Since when has the ANC repented of its terrorist activities! Henry Jackson, you have capitulated to terrorism, in the name of Christ!} The most powerful force in the world is love with humility. {To which the communist's answer is a bullet in your head!} Did He not say, “The humble will inherit the earth!” {Mr. Jackson, your logic is embecilic! How can we inherit the world if we’re DEAD? Furthermore, He was speaking to humble Israelites, who are humble enough to OBEY HIS LAWS! It is not humility to capitulate to an invading army. It is stupidity!} Don’t underestimate to enormous power of simple humility – where we say, “Not my will but Yours be done.” {Mr. Jackson, you have no idea what His will is. He has a specific destiny in mind for True Israel; and you are totally clueless about it! The vast majority of Whites who take your advice are being cut to pieces by those Blacks and communists who hate your “gospel.” You and your ilk have failed to impress God’s laws onto the hearts of those who are killing you. After 200 years of missionary work, you do not see how miserably your evangelization has failed? Your non-White enemies neither love you nor do they obey His laws! Surely, you are drunk, but not with wine! You are drunk with your own, self-flattering delusions! Jesus promised us that, when He returns, He will destroy the evildoers off the face of the earth. (Rev. 19:11-16). He will come to MAKE WAR against them. (So much for “Jesus loves everybody”!) Why are you empowering the very evildoers He intends to destroy? What you do not realize, Mr. Jackson, is that Yahshua is testing His own people, in order to identify the traitors among us. Be afraid, Mr. Jackson. Be very afraid.}

Of-course what they have done is illegal. {You are condoning illegality.} I can win the case should I take it to court. {No, you can’t. Satan controls the courts too, thanks to your capitulation.} But at what cost? With more hatred, with intimidation and violence against my workers, and terror to my dear wife! No, a farm is not worth that. I will not pursue a piece of land and thereby endanger and terrify my precious wife. She is worth far more than a farm. {Your Race is worth FAR MORE than your wife or farm! And the TRUTH is that if you don’t love your own race, then you don’t love the Creator who made it.}

As it stands right now I have nowhere to go. Jesus disciples asked Him, “Where are you staying?” His reply was, “The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head.” I kind of feel that I am in good company! {Do you really think that Jesus wants you to end up on a cross? He did it to redeem Israel for her past sins and to establish the New Covenant, which was exclusively for True Israel, and no one else. (Jer. 31-31-37; Hebrews 8:8-13.) He didn’t do it so you could be a traitor to Israel. The martyrs of Christendom died for HIM, not for this gospel of appeasement. You belong in a mental institution, along with the lunatics who have a Messiah complex!} But I have an absolute supernatural peace and confidence that my Heavenly Father has something much better for me than what I had. {So did the Chinese Christians who were persuaded by the evangelical missionaries that they would be “raptured” before the communists enslaved, imprisoned and murdered them.} He is closing one door, only to open another much bigger door. {Has this "something much better" transpired yet? Henry Jackson is deluded. He imagines that all attackers will be persuaded by his attitude. Most of the Whites who are being slaughtered by rampaging Blacks believe just as he does. They are throwing their Inheritance away, having giving it to the people who are now murdering them. The “bigger door” that Henry Jackson references is nothing other than the grave.} TO BE CONTINUED

The Word "Spirit" (Part 3)

Arnold Kennedy

WHAT IS OUR PART?

LET us look at the matter of responsibility and look at ourselves to see if our measure of "spirit" could be increased. This "measure" also includes things such as "wisdom", "understanding" and "knowledge of God". Healing, insight and a sense of well-being can be experienced!

How can we increase our measure in a practical deliberate way? Peter tells us that it is ourselves who have to be diligent to make additions to our original faith. We have that responsibility. We have that choice.

2 Peter 1:1. Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

If we are not diligent in making these additions, we are travelling backwards in the wrong direction towards the left hand side box! We can note the active verbs!

Heb.10.39, "But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul".

These additions are all practical things we have to choose to do, or we miss out. They demonstrate choices to control our actions and thus "spirit". Again our responsibility is demonstrated in these verses below. These demonstrate personal responsibility. The norm in churches is to ask God to do what God requires them to do themselves.

Romans 6:13 Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God. For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid. Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

We must note the phrase, "alive from the dead". This is the process of shifting from the left hand side to the right hand side of the graphical illustration.

Acts 5:32 Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also (the) Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him (God).

This demonstrates the relationship between "spirit" level and obedience. We move further to the right on the graph "spirit"-wise as we yield ourselves to obey God.

WE HAVE REWARDS ACCORDING TO WHAT WE DO, THAT IS, AS WE ARE “DOERS OF THE WORD”.

The churches usually present the idea that our rewards are given to us when we “get to heaven”. There is a passage that has to do with the word “spirit” we can look at. It may appear to have no connection at first glance, but it is about every transgression and disobedience receiving a just reward. That is, it shows that every action we do has “spirit” value, either positive or negative.

Heb 2:1 Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip. For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward. How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?

The word “neglect” is about letting something flow past and not grabbing hold of it. Drifting carelessly is the path of death. Churches actually may cause people to not take earnest heed in their “not of works” doctrinal emphasis.

Everything we do or say has spiritual values or consequences, which in the old English is called a “reward”. Looking at this more closely, we can see that the context is about neglecting anything at all about what we have heard and understood. We should be struck by the seriousness of all this.

The word “transgression” in this verse in the Book of Hebrews is not the word “anomia” that is used of breaking God’s Law in the sense of Lawlessness, but rather it is about violating something by disregarding it. The word for disobedience here is “parakoe”, a word that means inattention rather than doing something wrong by design.

James 1:25 But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

Thus the onus is on us. As said earlier, the consequences or reward of our actions and words may be positive or negative. Paul said, in 1 Cor 14:10 “There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification. Everything we do, say or hear in this regard has significance, or end result, somewhere.

Even in everyday living there is a cause and effect process going on all the time. Say we smile at a person, we are liable to receive a smile in return. If we do not smile, we are unlikely to receive a smile as a response. Look at the next passage and observe the consequences of actions.

Proverbs 15:1-5 A soft answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger. The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit. A fool despiseth his father’s instruction: but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

The consequences of these actions are “spirit” consequences. Prudence is our option! It is our call! We do not expect God or “The Holy Spirit” to do what God has asked us to do!!

We do not have to look far to find a multitude of such passages. It might well be summed up by:

Gal 6:7-10 Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

Next follows the matter of “spirit; this again shows (the) “spirit” connection with our decisions and actions.

For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to (the) spirit shall of (the) spirit reap life everlasting. The ‘SHALL’ is very definite!

WE WILL BE JUDGED “ACCORDING TO OUR WORKS”.

This is the teaching that is mishandled by the churches, on the whole. The idea that a person is “covered by the Blood of Jesus” purely by asking and worship activity alone, is contrary to the “if”s in:

1 John 1:5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

Here is a summation of the consequences of our actions. For the Blood of Jesus to cover us, once we have been converted, we have to be “walking in the light”. This is not about walking in the light other people have, but it is about walking in whatever light we have individually.

There are several thousand “if”s in Scripture, even if churches pretend they are not there! There is a great abundance of Scriptures that tell us our works judge us after conversion. In practical terms this is often ignored in the sense of “works” having anything to do with God’s Law. (Note: Here the reference is to those three parts of the total Law Abraham had the faith to obey – this was the “faith of Abraham”). God’s word is replaced in churches by:

- “Acceptable church standards”, “values” or,
- The average moral standard of the congregation.
- Emotion.

Let us look at a few of these verses, noting what is emphasised. We will see that there is a clear position established that, after conversion, we are judged according to our “works”- (sometimes translated as our righteousness, or “right living”).

2 Cor 5:10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things (done)in (his) body, according to that he hath done, whether (it be) good or bad.

From the Greek grammar, they are as true in the present as they will be in the future

Psalm 62:11 God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto God. Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work.

Note the words “work” and “works” in these verses and those following.

Matt 16:27 For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

Romans 2:1- Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things. But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things. And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God? Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; Who will render to every man according to his deeds:

“Render” here is the same word translated as “reward” in Matthew 16 we just read.

Continuing on with this passage:

To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:

But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath, Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile; But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile: For there is no respect of persons with God.

So here we find two groups within God’s people. One group will have no oil (spirit) in their lamps.

Why? Again it is because they are contentious about obeying unrighteousness rather than truth. There is no positive “spirit” consequence in their actions.

Isaiah 3:10 Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

As always, there are two groupings. We see this again in the next two verses.

Galatians. 6:7 Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

Col. 3:24 Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ. But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

Rev 3:23 And I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

Rev 20:13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

Rev. 22:12 And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

Matthew 12:33 Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.

O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.

But I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

1 Kings 8:32 Then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

Heb 2:1 - Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

For if the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward; (A CONSEQUENCE) How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of (the) holy ghost, according to his own will?

What do some of the words in this passage mean? Let us have a look. (Please note, in quoting Mr. Strong we need to realize that concordances may be in error in that they record the way translators have translated words, rather than lexicon meanings, but at least they give an indication). Transgression = G3847 parabasis par-ab'-as-is From G3845; violation: - breaking, transgression.

Disobedience = G3876 'parakoe par-ak-o-ay' From G3878; inattention, that is, (by implication) disobedience: - disobedience.

Just = G1738 endikos en'-dee-kos From G1722 and G1349; in the right, that is, equitable: - just. Reward = G3405 misthapodosia mis-thap-od-os-ee'-ah From G3406; requital (good or bad): - recompence of reward.

Neglect = G272 ameleo am-el-eh'-o From G1 (as a negative particle) and G3199; to be careless of: - make light of, neglect, be negligent, not regard.

In all these passages, we can see that “works” are what we are judged on after “being justified by God”.

WHY ARE THERE FEW SIGNS, WONDERS AND MIRACLES IN THE CHURCHES?

In talking to church people we soon find that almost all are aware that something is missing, not only in doctrine, but also that something is missing in the way of healings and manifestations of the working of “spirit”. They may quote Zechariah 4:6, “Not by might, nor by power, but by (my) spirit, saith the LORD of hosts” and then try to raise an emotional high by praise and worship, with some cranking up their noise machines at the same time. In the early-church days, the apostles had the evidence of healed persons present with them to back up their message.

Acts 3:16 And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

Continuing down in this earlier quoted passage in the Book of Hebrews, we come to what subconsciously most Christian people know is lacking in their experience.

Heb 2:4-8 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of (the) Holy Ghost, according to his own will?

What are the differences between gifts, signs, wonders and miracles? Do people really see that there are such differences when reading the Word? These “signs following” are the consequence of progressing towards the far right hand side of the graph. We will look at some of these words from Strong’s dictionary to see that there are differences.

Signs = G4592 semeion say-mi'-on. Neuter of a presumed derivative of the base of G4591; an indication, especially ceremonially or supernaturally: - miracle, sign, token, wonder. Wonders = G5059 teras ter'-as Of uncertain affinity; a prodigy or omen: - wonder Miracles = G1411 dunamis doo'-nam-is From G1410; force (literally or figuratively); specifically miraculous power (usually by implication a miracle itself): - ability, abundance, meaning, might (-ily, -y, -y deed), (worker of) miracle (-s), power, strength, violence, mighty (wonderful) work. Gifts = G3311 merismos mer-is-mos' From G3307; a separation or distribution: - dividing asunder, gift.

Subjection = G5293 hupotasso hoop-ot-as'-so From G5259 and G5021; to subordinate; reflexively to obey: - be under obedience (obedient), put under, subdue unto, (be, make) subject (to, unto), be (put) in subjection (to, under), submit self unto.

To come = G3195 mello mel'-lo A strengthened form of G3199 (through the idea of expectation); to intend, that is, be about to be, do, or suffer something (of persons or things, especially events; in the sense of purpose, duty, necessity, probability, possibility, or hesitation): - about, after that, be (almost), (that which is, things, + which was for) to come, intend, was to (be), mean, mind, be at the point, (be) ready, + return, shall (begin), (which, that) should (after, afterwards, hereafter) tarry, which was for, will, would, be yet.

But these signs, wonders and miracles are not for the future. They are for the present! These are what people know are missing in the churches.

Matt 16:20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

John 15:26 But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even (the) Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me: And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

Acts 2:32 Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of (the) Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

Acts 4:10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

Acts 14:3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

Romans 15:18-19 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of (the) spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

1 Cor 12:4-11 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all.

But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

- To another faith by the same Spirit;
- To another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;
- To another the working of miracles;
- To another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits;
- To another divers kinds of tongues;
- To another the interpretation of tongues;
- But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

1 Cor 6:18-20 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body. What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

Romans 6:12-19 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof. Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God. For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid. Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you. Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness. I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

Heb 12:12 Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees; And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.

Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord: Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright. For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

Who Is Gog? (Part 3)

By

Pastor Eli James

THE reality of the times was that very few Benjaminites intermarried with the Judeans because they lived to the north of Judah, on the other side of Samaria. I believe that Yahweh deliberately put distance between the Benjaminites and the Judeans so as to keep them pure. It is a historical fact that Jesus picked all of His Apostles from the tribe of Benjamin, except for the one who betrayed him, Judas. Judas may have been a Judahite – although it is possible that he was a half-breed Idumean-- from the town of Kerioth, which was in southern Judea at the border of Idumea. From Scripture alone, we cannot tell whether Judas was a half-breed or a pure-blooded Judahite. We do know for sure, however, that he was a traitor; and his behavior resembles that of Jewish hippie!

Regarding the ten-tribed House of Israel, Ezekiel (Chapters 33-48) and other prophets tell us that they would be removed into the wilderness and resettled into lands far away. Once they were resettled, they would never move again. The earth has practically run out of wilderness. One description of the resettlement is a place described as the “land of unwalled cities.” (Ez. 38:10.) Children of Israel, there is one country on the face of the earth that most certainly fits this description: the United States of America. (Other countries created by True Israel may also qualify for this description.) All other countries of the “old world,” at one time or another, have had walled cities. And since the old city of Jerusalem is itself a walled city, the Jerusalem of Ezekiel and the New Jerusalem of Revelation cannot possibly be the same as the old Jerusalem. Israel is to live in a land of “unwalled villages,” not in a land of old-fashioned walled villages.

Ezekiel, Chapter 34, describes a time among the Israelites when the shepherds (priests) will abandon their flock (Christian Israel) to the wolves. “Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of Yahweh: As I live, says Yahweh God, because my sheep have become a prey, and my sheep have become food for all the wild beasts [Black “evangelists”], since there was no shepherd; and because my shepherds have not searched for my sheep; therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of Yahweh: Thus says Yahweh God, Behold, I am against the shepherds.” -- Vs. 7-9. The modern, false priests of Churchianity that so boldly declare “the Law has been nailed to the cross and we are all forgiven and there will be no Judgment Day for us” had better pay attention, for Yahweh God holds them in contempt.

Ezekiel is describing the modern Judeo-Christian heresy. This heresy began to be taught somewhere in the middle of the Nineteenth Century, when the House of Rothschild hired Samuel Untermeyer to issue new “bibles” that would redefine the Jews as “Israel” so that Zionism would have a biblical basis for its eventual takeover of Palestine. “Extra! Extra! Read all about it. The Jews are Israel.” Untermeyer then proceeded to employ a family-deserting stooge and scoundrel by the name of CI Scofield to produce this new “bible,” with the necessary false identifications between the Jews and Israel. Up until this time in history, it was mutually agreed that Jews were one group of people and Christians were another; and all Christians were White. The evangelisation of non-Whites had not yet begun.

Before this time, it was clear to all that Judaism was one religion and Christianity another. No one thought that the Jews were Israel; and no one had ever heard of a “Judeo-Christian tradition.” That idea had to be developed and promoted by the Zionists. Since the Jews have always rejected Christ, and still do, the idea that Judaism and Christianity might be compatible was considered idiotic. That idea is still idiotic; but we now have a public “education” system that creates more and more idiots. Because of the Scofield conspiracy, the false shepherds fool the sheep by teaching the lie that Jesus was a Jew. They also began to teach that the Jews are the “chosen people,” another lie. These and other lies became commonplace in the shepherd’s pulpit; and the pulpit has become the domain of the Anti-Christ.

At the same historical time, the House of Rothschild hired another family deserter by the name of Karl Marx, a son of a rabbi, to write a book entitled “Das Kapital.” It was Marx’s job to create an opiate for the proletariat. The Jewish press would take care of the rest. Between Marx and Scofield, the International Jew has molded and shaped the thought processes of billions of people.

The false priesthood of Judeo-Christianity has achieved its greatest success on television. They are the “televangelists” of the Jewish-dominated “Christian” broadcasting networks, all of which spout the same line: “Bless the Jews and g-d will bless you.” (Genesis 12:3). Please open your Bible to see how I just misquoted Gen. 12:3. This is how the Jews misquote it, but that’s NOT what it says! Since the word ‘Jew’ derives from the words ‘Judah’ and ‘Judean,’ Abraham could not possibly have been a “Jew.” Furthermore, the first mention of the word "jew" in the KJV is on page 535, in the 12th book of the Bible. Isn’t it odd that this word is not even found in the Torah (the first Five Books also known as the Pentateuch)? The coming of these false priests is, in fact, the fulfillment of Ezekiel 34:9,10. They are the epitome of the “wolves in sheep’s clothing.”

All educated people should know that the Jews are, in fact, Edomites and Khazars. They never were nor can they ever be Israelites. The fact that they call their terrorist state, “Israel,” is further proof that they are liars without equal. In addition, they have deceived the world with an equally great lie: the hoaxocaust. The sheep have been taught this lie, first by the Jews, then by the shepherds who should be protecting the sheep, not turning them over to the wolves for slaughter.

With regard to this terrorist state of “Israel,” Ezekiel 36 says: “...thus says Yahweh God: I speak in my hot jealousy against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, who gave my land to themselves as a possession with wholehearted joy and utter contempt, that they might possess it and plunder it.” - Vs. 6.

The intellectual barbarian may wear a suit and tie, but his heart is full of murder and deceit. Indeed, he is the offspring of Lucifer. The Talmud calls him Sammael. The book of Enoch calls him Gadriel. The New Testament calls him

Satan. Genesis Chapter 3 calls him a Serpent. This is the g-d of the Jew.

The Jewish Encyclopedia, 1925, Volume 5 admits to those who care to read it, “Edom is in Jewry.” (p. 41.)

Now, the Edomite Jews have twice fulfilled this prophecy, namely, giving the land of Judah to themselves without authority. The first time was under Herod with Rome’s help. The second time was under the Zionists with the aid of the British. Harry Salomon Truman sealed the treachery when he recognized the Zionist state in 1948. The first instance was a takeover by Sephardic Jews from Idumea. The second instance was a takeover by Ashkenazi Jews from Khazaria.

In the 8th Century, A.D., the Talmudic rabbis (Edom) converted the whole nation of Khazaria to the Jewish religion. At that point in time, Khazaria was a mixed nation comprised of Mongols, Turks, and Japhethites. (Japheth was the brother of Shem and Ham, Noah’s sons.) As a result of this conversion, and because of their superior numbers and because of Rothschild’s trillions, the Khazars eventually came to dominate the Sephardic Jews of the Middle East. In essence, the Khazar people are a mixture of Japhethite, Mongolian, Hittite (Turkish) and Edomite blood. From this witches’ brew of genetic material, the “European Jew” was hatched. Can you feel the genes fighting against each other? No wonder the Jews are the most genetically diseased people in the world! Like Dr. Frankenstein, the rabbis created a monster they couldn’t control; and the monster has body parts from different people!! From this genetic monstrosity, the philosophies of communism and Zionism emerged to wreak havoc on an otherwise innocent planet.

Gog is described as, at the time of the end, a “king of the north.” This kingdom will attack Israel (America and the other Anglo-Saxon nations) from the north (Ez. 38:14-16), but Yahweh will destroy the invasion force and save Jacob/Israel out this potential catastrophe (Ez. 38:19-23). Gog is another name for the Khazar kingdom, which is comprised of Khazar/Ashkenazi Jews who, for most of their existence were located in and around Meshech (Moscow) and Tubal (Khazaria). Gog, with its collection of mercenary armies, will invade America from the north. Canadians, take heed! Ezekiel says that many other nations will be confederate with Gog against America (Israel of the unwallied cities) when this invasion occurs.

For many years now, I have been teaching that the ultimate goal of the Zionists/Khazars is to enlist the military power of the Red Chinese and have them attack America in order to destroy White Christendom in America. Although White Europeans are more savvy politically than Americans, the fact is that Europe is utterly powerless to combat Zionism. As Zionist strategy against America becomes clearer and clearer, there is very little doubt about this any more. The Zionists know that we, American Israel, are the final obstacle standing in the way of their goal of world dominion. This is nothing else than the historical working-out of Satan’s attempt to thwart Yahweh’s Plan to replace him with Adam. The race against the Judgment Day is Gog’s attempt to destroy Israel before we completely wake up to our Identity as Israel. The Khazar Jew knows full well that his charade is over when the Anglo-Saxon people realize how we have been so thoroughly deceived for so many centuries. There will be an unprecedented backlash which the International Jew can only avoid by arraying a number of enemies against American Israel. He hopes to organize this attack before the backlash can proceed.

America is the most powerful nation the world has ever known. America, as an isolationist country, became prosperous and powerful while it obeyed God’s Laws, from 1776 to 1913; and the Constitution of the United States is a reflection of biblical and Common Law. Our nation suffers now to the extent that we ignore both God’s Law and the Constitution.

The Zionists have put White Christendom through two World Wars in order to exterminate us and they started World War III on September 11, 2001. Their main goal in the first two World Wars was to destroy Germany because Germany understood that the Jews are our sworn, implacable enemy. The Talmudic Khazar Jew will not rest until he destroys us. This is a WAR OF EXTERMINATION, children, except that our people think of it only as a cultural dispute or economic dispute, if they think at all. This Jewish, anti-White race war is a continuation of the “enmity” of Genesis 3:15, which describes a fatal, blood hatred between the “seed of the Serpent” and the “seed of the woman,” Eve. The Bible also tells us that Esau “hated” Jacob/Israel. When the Jews were plotting to kill Christ, they said “Come, let us kill him and seize His inheritance.” (Matt. 21:38, Mark 12:7; Luke 20:14.) The Pope, another pulpit bastard, has also sided with Gog.

Having infiltrated our government, media, churches and schools, the Khazar Jew is using his influence in our institutions to destroy every last vestige of White civilization. He is putting our White soldiers into more useless wars to continue the extermination process while at the same time he is using us to subdue his other enemy, Islam. He finances wars between Islam and Christendom in order to 1.) profit from these wars and 2.) get his two main enemies to destroy each other. This he does while posing as a “pious, g-d-fearing Jew.” He props up straw men like Osama bin Laden and Saddam Hussein in order to deceive us, whipping our jingoistic, materialistic and Fundamentalist nationalists into a war frenzy. In our government, he parades puppets like Hillary Clinton and George Bush, who parrot Zionist demands like so many lackeys. These puppets are cast aside like rags when no longer useful. Then a new puppet, pretending to be the adversary of the last puppet, emerges. This is the game as played by the Democrats and the Republicans, Zionist Left and Zionist Right. Anyone who thinks that either of these parties is “American” is a fool. Arnold

Leese put it best when he said: “The demagogue rules the mob. Gold rules the demagogue. And the Jew owns the gold.”

If this Christendom versus Islam scheme fails to destroy the White Race, then Gog’s last trump card will be to pit the Chinese against us. The Book of Revelation describes an army that consists of 200 million men. Only Red China has such a standing army. The Israelis, for the past twenty years and more, have been secretly transferring nuclear and other military technology to the Chinese and have been buying them off with Most Favored Nation status. Forget the fact that Red China is the world’s largest and most oppressive communist regime. The Zionist Jew does not care about the politics of those with whom he does business. Communist labor comes cheap since it is slave labor; and cheap labor is here for the exploitation of the International Jew. The International Jew has been transferring Western technology to China at an alarming rate in order to play his trump card. This trump card he will hold until America has exhausted itself militarily and economically in the current useless wars against Islam. The International Khazar Jews and their business partners are the only ones who benefit from this master chess game. White Christendom invites its own destruction by not perceiving the strategy of this game (part of the “strong delusion” of II Thessalonians).

The Book of Revelation also tells the story of 8 Beasts, the last of which is described as an “empire of merchants.” In historical order, these 8 Beasts are 1.) Egypt, 2.) Assyria, 3.) Babylon, 4.) Medo-Persia, 5.) Greece, 6.) Rome, 7.) Napoleon, 8.) the House of Rothschild. The House of Rothschild is the “empire of merchants” which has deceived the whole world by pretending to speak for the “chosen people.” The House of Rothschild is of Khazar origin. They are the financiers of Gog. Remember, ‘Canaanite’ means “merchant.” Their invasion of Palestine was based on the pretext, pretense, and impersonation of the House of Israel, God’s chosen people. All people should know that the Jews are NOT Israelites. They are, rather, Canaanites, Edomites, and Khazars. The House of Rothschild created the United Nations Organization after having failed to establish a One World Government at the Congress of Vienna in 1815, the very year in which the Rothschild-financed army of Commander Wellington dethroned the 7th Beast, Napoleon. Including the League of Nations, and other attempts at destroying national boundaries, they have been striving to replace nations with their One World Government ever since 1815.

Evil Exposing Evil

Isaiah 5:20-25

John Trotter

As I prepared this article it became obvious that the title could be quite different from the above. My thoughts almost aloud me to entitle it , “Satan’s Counterfeit Religion”. It is often overlooked that Christ’s enemies are very studious in the Scriptures and therefore can quote them at will when it is beneficial to their cause.

When evil exposes evil, and what is exposed is considered good, then society is in the death throes of its final hours. Yet these throes of painful spasms have been persisting for some decades. The body politic refuses to die. Nevertheless, it is inevitable that the financial injections, like the antibiotics, that have been fed into the arterial canals of society will eventually kill both the good and bad organisms that form the framework of a decaying civilisation. Why the good organisms, you might ask?

My short answer to this question is found in Genesis 2:17 and 3:5-6 which mentions the “tree of the knowledge of GOOD and EVIL”. Genesis 3:5-6 says as follows: “For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. And when the women saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat”. It would appear from the above that once the fruit was eaten, Adam and Eve knew not only the difference between “good and evil” but they performed acts of good and evil. But this goodness is not from the “tree of Life” which was also in the midst of the Garden (Genesis 2:9). Nowhere does it say that the fruit of the “tree of life” could not be taken, only that of the “tree of knowledge of good and evil”. It is my opinion that these 2 trees are not literal, but rather represent 2 types of living either that of obeying or disobeying the Laws of God which were present from the beginning. They could be shown to be the narrow and broad way that is mentioned in Matthew 7:13-14.

During recent decades there has been an increased number of violent reactions by the younger generation towards the banks and monopolies. I do have some sympathy concerning their indignation because such institutions are not benefiting the masses. They are contrary to God’s economics in helping to equitably distribute the wealth of this planet. These evil institutions are totally relying upon a financial system that is debt based. This evil system is just not a C21st issue for even James in chapter 5:1-7 aptly describes the position of the rich and poor in his time. Please read chapter 2 for further concerns that James has regarding these matters.

The passion of the youth mentioned above, I certainly endorse, but they are only cannon fodder for Satan’s MINISTERS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS. (2 Corinthians 11:14-15). As Jesus Christ said, “If you are not for me, you are against me” (Luke 11:23). These people are certainly not for Christ, so therefore I conclude they are unknowingly servants of Satan’s ministers. The light they follow is the Light of Satan as mentioned in the verses of 2 Corinthians. Many of them worship a very different Christ, the “anointed” Son of Satan.

It is my opinion that the vast majority of these misguided servants do not realise just how far they have fallen for the deceit that emanates from those who are pulling the strings of both the “good and evil” aspects of this false knowledge. The religious fervour of those who know the source of their belief is that “of a roaring lion who walks about seeking whom he may devour” (1 Peter 5:8). One of the leading socialists of his day George Edward Moore is quoted at saying: “In the beginning was matter, and matter begat the devil, and the devil begat God”. Oscar Wilde is also quoted as saying : “the whole truth is the Devil”. These 2 quotes are taken from the book, “Keynes at Harvard” by Z. Dobbs. The faith of these masters of deceit relies purely on the science of Socialism. It is an act of faith for the cause of Democratic Socialism. Even though the drive for Democracy is an example of the good aspect of this tree of knowledge of “good and evil”, by definition Democracy is power to the people, and therefore is an expression of the wisdom that was promised after Adam and Eve took of the forbidden fruit.

In the above mentioned book by Dobbs on page 135 he says the following: “It has been recognised by historians and scholars for several thousand years that subjective immoral conditioning has a degenerating effect on philosophic, religious and political judgments”. It is therefore not surprising that the solutions offered by these servants of Satan in no way reflect the teachings of Scriptural economics that pertain to the Kingdom of God on earth. One has only to look at the rubbish left behind by these agitated youth to realise that for many the anti-social behaviour is more of an opportunity to be seen on television.

In the book “The Reappearance of the Christ” by Alice Bailey we have the following quote: “Humanity in all lands today awaits the Coming One - no matter by what name they may call Him. The Christ is sensed as on His way. The second coming is imminent and from the lips of disciples, mystics, aspirants, spiritually minded people and enlightened men and women, the cry goes up, “Let light and love and power and death fulfil the purpose of the Coming One”. These words are a demand, a consecration, a sacrifice, a statement of belief and a challenge to the AVATAR, THE CHRIST, who waits in His high place until the demand is adequate and the cry clear enough to warrant His appearance”. (Please read this quote again).

The above book is essential reading if you want to understand how you can quote the Scripture on almost every page and yet believe in THE CHRIST that is NOT the Scriptural Christ. Also as a result of reading the above quote I obtained the film AVATAR. It was in this film that the meaning of an Avatar was better understood, namely a supernatural incarnation; a type of saviour who saves the world from imminent danger. One of the central features of this film was a giant tree, like that of the “tree of the knowledge of good and evil”. Both the above film and book by Alice Bailey clearly show how evil today ,is exposing evil.

Throughout this book the author constantly quotes Scripture. It is a great pity that such people can quote Scripture so often to put across their point of view more often than many Christians who say they study the Scriptures. You may not know that Alice Bailey was a prominent member of the Theosophical Society who believed in the Christos. It is of interest that the above book was written in 1948. It is of relevant interest that the word “Theosophy” means “god - wise” or “one wise about god”. One dictionary says that theosophy is “any system of philosophy or religion that claims to have a special insight into the divine nature through spiritual self-development”

In light of the above quote the words of Isaiah 5:20-21 are so relevant : “Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter. Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight”.

The book, “The Hidden Agenda: a look beyond the Emerging Church” by Jan Voerman is essential reading in understanding to what extent the occult has become accepted within the teachings of the modern day church. This book is full of many quotes and information on this vital subject. The following is from page 100: “Right now- more than any period in the Christian church - the body of Christ is experiencing an overkill of spiritual deception that is so fine-tuned it is becoming difficult to detect. Christians are suffering from toxic levels of compromise and causing other Christians to stumble. Silver-tongued wolves have sheepishly grinned and smiled their way into the Christian Church by paying lip- service to Jesus Christ, while being an intrinsic part of the New Age Movement at the same time”. Read Psalm 55 to show that the above is just not a modern day problem. Whilst I am not a supporter of the Seventh Day Adventist teachings I would still recommend this most valuable book.

The reference to the wolves in the above quote is most relevant to the methods and teachings of the Fabian Society. One of the emblems of this society is a wolf wrapped in the fleece of a sheep. A number of the founding fathers of the Fabian Society were well versed in the Scriptures and therefore it is no wonder that they took the words of Christ as uttered in Matthew 7:15 in a very literal way. For many years a stained glassed window in a church, in Surrey, England showed off the above coat-of-arms with the words “Pray Devoutly ; Hammer Stoutly”. One of the best books on the matter of how the Fabians have esoterically entered through the back door of almost every level of learning is “The Great Deceit” by Zygmund Dobbs. The Fabian Society was named after a Roman General who used delaying methods to overcome his enemy. It is the method of one step backwards then two steps forward that has allowed so many from the Fabian Society and the London School of Economics to have so much influence in the affairs of the world. It is often overlooked that Karl Marx, due to his background , was also well versed in the Scriptures.

The religious and philosophical beliefs expressed in the song “Imagine” by John Lennon clearly shows a close parallel to the New World Order of the Socialists. No more countries , no more religion, citizens of the world are but indicators of a world where there is no more private property, no more family as we know it and no more right to think as individuals. By applying the art of dialectics, that is the clash of what appears to be opposites (thesis, antithesis) the masses have come to believe that there is a genuine choice in the world of party politics. The clash of these two opposites in the form of an election is the synthesis, but in reality the battle for the control of the soul and mind just continues on as before. Behind all this politicking is a religious struggle between the god of evolution or the God of Creation (Genesis 1:1)

There are so many areas in which evil is presenting itself as the solution to the problems of the world. The h o l i s t i c philosophy of the New Age movement and the push for ecumenicalism are all moving in the same direction . One of the main reasons why all these movements are heading in the same direction is that they are planning to replace “the Christ of Scriptures”, with another christ or “anointed one”. Even Prince Charles of the Royal family endorses the phrase, “Defender of the Faiths” (plural). The only faith that we are to contend (struggle) for is the faith once delivered unto the Saints (Jude 1:3). This is truly a spiritual battle over the hearts and minds of the people. Our faith must be reassured in the words of Romans 2:16 which say: “In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my Gospel”. The wisdom and religious beliefs of the world’s leaders will come to nothing when they realise that there idols do not speak or hear.

The lack of understanding of the people is shown in Malachi 2:17 when it says: “Ye have wearied the Lord with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied Him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the Lord, and he delighted in them: or where is the God of judgment?”. It is true that the anger of the people is justified , but there is no vision therefore the people perish (Proverbs 29:18). There hope lies in the next election or in the belief that at the end of the rainbow is a pot of gold. I have heard it said that today’s problems will be dealt with in my grandchildren’s generation or even science will have all the solutions.

Even for those few “conservative, patriotic” individuals in society who believe they can turn the tide, there is no chance , for unless they have the Christ of Scriptures and the perfect Law of God as their central theme , all there good and goodness will be as the dew in the morning. It is true we need men and women to fill the gap as stated in Ezekiel 22 where the prophet describes the condition of the people and their leaders. It is no wonder that God’s wrath was poured out upon Israel. Nevertheless God has outstretched His hand throughout history to a degenerate people as stated in Isaiah 5:25.

In a world that is showing strong signs of instability and little chance of any recovery, we must look to the meat of the Word at stated in Hebrews 5:14. It will be only then that our senses will be able to discern between good and evil. It is interesting that in Revelation only the Tree of Life is mentioned. In a world where reality and fantasy , wants and needs are confused we need to prayerfully consider the Words of Scripture especially when it gives us assurance not only on a personal level but nationally. The words of Micah 7: 18-20 are most relevant :who is a god like unto Thee, that pardoneth iniquity and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? He retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy. He will turn again, He will have compassion upon us; He will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old. .

Assassination Monopoly

Who Are They?

There Can Be Only One Obvious Answer!

By John Kaminski

THEY murdered 8 U.S. presidents, 5 Russian Czars, the kings of England, France and many other countries, and are still killing.

Remember my children, that all the Earth must belong to us Jews, and that the Gentiles, being mere excrements of animals, must possess nothing. — Mayer Amschel Rothschild on his deathbed, 1812

The official history of presidential assassinations depicts them as random events performed by lone nuts who blow their tops and start shooting. But when we look at the pattern of murdered U.S. presidents, a disturbing pattern emerges.

All the U.S. presidents who died in office were all killed by the same mysterious people for the same mysterious reason — control of the money supply.

John F. Kennedy, in 1963, was jacked for challenging the hegemony of Israel, the mob, and the Federal Reserve; William McKinley, in 1900, was gut shot for opposing creation of the Federal Reserve; James Garfield, in 1881, was shot in the back shortly after uttering the assessment that bankers controlled everything; and Abraham Lincoln, in 1865, was unceremoniously terminated for creating an independent currency, as Kennedy did a century later.

In addition to the four well-known murders of American presidents, four other assassinations — William Henry Harrison (1841), Zachary Taylor (1850), Warren Harding (1926), and Franklin Roosevelt (1945) — are well documented outside the mainstream record of history, which is controlled by the people who hire these assassins.

All were liquidated for opposing the plans of the international bankers who have controlled the world since history began.

When you correlate the corpses of national leaders and their cause of death to their public statements, you discover the identity of the killers in every single case is Jewish, even if the actual assassins are non-Jewish proxies. This even includes the killing of promising presidential candidate Huey Long in 1935, by a Jewish doctor named Carl Weiss. <http://www.hueylong.com/life-times/assassination.php>

When it comes to non-presidential assassinations committed by Jews, the numbers run into the thousands. Some significant Judeo hits, all of which involved control of the money supply or suppression of other Jewish crime schemes, include Rep. Lewis McFadden in 1933, Treasury Secretary James Forrestal in 1949, and pop superstar Michael Jackson in 2009, all for trying to warn us about the Jewish takeover of the world.

But this horrible phenomenon extends far beyond the United States.

Four of five Russian Czars of the 19th century (as well as a fifth in 1917) were assassinated by Jews — the same perfect record Jews own with American presidents.

Track this recurring political tool back as far as you like in history and you'll find the same circumstances pertain to the assassinations of King Charles I of England and King Louis XVI of France, as well as innumerable kings of countless other countries, as far back in history as you care to look.

The Assassination Of All 8 U.S. Presidents Was By Jews!

The first attempted U.S. presidential assassination occurred in 1835, when our 7th president, Andrew Jackson, successfully shut down the national bank, by which the European Jewish bankers controlled America. Would be assassin Richard Lawrence fired twice, but both shots misfired. Jackson promptly beat him with his cane.

Assassination No 1.

1841: William Henry Harrison, our 9th president, killed by doctors.

An official report at the time stated Harrison died not of pneumonia, which is the mainstream story, but really died from the treatment he was subjected to for “an ordinary winter cold.” In the Currier lithograph depicting Harrison's death bed scene, Daniel Webster is shown giving an enthusiastic thumbs up. The August 1841 edition of the Boston Medical and Surgical Journal, published just a few months after Harrison's death, suggests that it was the medical treatment that Harrison received, and not any virus or bacteria, which caused his demise. Vice President Tyler then broke all Harrison's campaign promises and became a pariah to both parties.

Assassination No. 2.

1850: Zachary Taylor, our 12th president, poisoned by a bowl of cherries and milk.

Hero general of the Mexican war, Taylor disagreed with the Democrats over the concept of a strong national bank and opposed the extension of slavery. They exhumed Taylor's body in 1991 and found traces of arsenic in his bones. Vice President Fillmore reversed all his policies. Remember, 1848 was the year Karl Marx wrote the Communist manifesto and didn't mention the Rothschilds.

Assassination No. 3

1865: Abraham Lincoln, our 16th president, was shot in the head and murdered in Ford's Theatre, Washington. The popular mainstream version is that Lincoln was assassinated by John Wilkes Booth (a Jew) for opposing the plans of Rothschild bankers who were funding the Confederacy. Alternative versions of the story include the Jesuits had him killed out of revenge, Secretary of State Edwin Stanton arranged it, and the Lincoln was really the son of a North Carolina Jew named Springsteen. The key fact seems to be the Greenbacks currency Lincoln created when the bankers wanted 36 percent interest on loans to finance the North in the War Between the States.

Assassination No. 4

1881: James Garfield, our 20th president, shot down in a Washington railroad station, after saying bankers ran everything from behind the scenes. "Whoever controls the volume of money in any country is absolute master of all industry and commerce." Two weeks later, Garfield was shot in the back by a delusional named Charles Guiteau, who supposedly was miffed about not being named ambassador to France. By the time Garfield died after 2 1/2 months of agony, his doctors had turned a three-inch-deep, harmless wound into a 20-inch-long contaminated canyon stretching from his ribs to his groin and oozing more pus each day. After Garfield's death his physicians submitted a bill of $85,000 to the Senate. The Senators authorized a payment of only $10,000. Many of them referred to the doctors as quacks.

Assassination No. 5

1900: WILLIAM Mckinley, our 25th president, shot at point blank range in Buffalo, N.Y. by a Jewish anarchist who got his gun from the notorious Emma Goldman in a Brooklyn Workingman's Hall. Polish Jew Leon Czolgosz pumped two slugs into the president's stomach at the World's Fair while the president shook hands with citizens. Afterwards, a speech by Goldman was found in the assassin's pocket. Bro. Nathanael Kapner writes: ". . . McKinley was known as a "hard money" man. This was because he advocated a gold standard. Unlike his opponent, William Jennings Bryan, McKinley was against "easy money" with no backing — printed by Jewish lenders at interest to the borrower — namely the US government. But by fighting against "easy money," (translate Jew-coined & printed-at-interest money) McKinley sealed his death warrant. A death warrant signed, sealed, and delivered by the powerful House Of Rothschild, criminals in bankers' suits."

Assassination No. 6

1923: Warren G. Harding, our 29th president, died in San Francisco after being poisoned for opposing Simon Guggenheim's oil-related land grab in Alaska. Robust and healthy at age 57, Harding was the first U.S. president to visit Alaska. On the way back, he developed food poisoning. After lingering for a week in a San Francisco hotel room, he suddenly died. Four doctors attending to him could not agree on his cause of death. He was embalmed within the hour. Rumors blamed his jealous wife for avenging her husband's infidelity, but Harding is most infamous for his complicity in the Teapot Dome scandal, after which his Interior secretary Albert Fall went to jail for selling multibillion dollar oil rights to oilman Harry Sinclair.

Assassination No. 7

1945: Franklin Delano Roosevelt, our 32nd president, was murdered by his top adviser, Henry Morgenthau, for refusing to drop atomic bombs on Japan and his alleged reluctance to support the creation of the state of Israel. One week before his death, in a letter dated April 5, 1945, Roosevelt promised King Saud that he, as president of the United States, would take no hostile action against the Arabs and that the United States would not change its basic policy toward the Palestine issue without prior consultations with both Arabs and Jews.

Roosevelt's policy was reversed by his successor, Harry Truman, who later recognized the State of Israel 11 minutes after it declared itself a nation.

Other numerous reports claimed FDR shot himself. "My mother always claimed that she was shopping in Bloomingdales in NYC at the time the news of FDR's death was announced. She said that the announcement over the store intercom that day, right after it happened, clearly stated that he'd shot himself in the head. She also said that not long after, the story given out by the news media suddenly changed to his death having been of natural causes."

Assassination No. 8

1963: John Fitzgerald Kennedy, our 34th president, gunned down in Dallas by multiple unknown assailants. The nation's only Catholic president, Kennedy was snuffed by a corrupt coalition of many (including Lyndon Johnson and George H.W. Bush) for Israel, the mob and the Federal Reserve. Jennifer Lake writes: "Suggested reading on the JFK assassination: the book FINAL JUDGEMENT by Michael Collins Piper (downloadable)

Piper makes a case that JFK was thwarting the nuclear-weapons ambition of Israel. He writes "Israel achieved its nuclear weapons capabilities precisely because of the assassination of President Kennedy." He notes an American Free Press headline: "New Evidence Ties Israel's Nuclear Weapons Program to the New Orleans Connection in the JFK Conspiracy". And then there was also the not-so-little matter of his creating currency in an attempt to disempower the Federal Reserve."

In addition, there were failed assassination attempts against presidents Andrew Johnson, Theodore Roosevelt, FDR, Gerald Ford, and Ronald Reagan, all attributed to 'lone nuts.'

But this well-documented historical pattern of Jewish homicidal mania against leaders who refused to knuckle under to bribes and blackmail extends across much of the world throughout history.

After the U.S., the second-most glaring example of the persistence of Jewish killers is what happened to Russia in the 1800's. Jewish anarchists killed all but one of five Russian czars in the 19th century, and culminated their murderous rampage by butchering the last czar and his whole family during the Bolshevik Revolution in 1917, which was wholly the work of Jews funded by well-known Jewish bankers, principally Jacob Schiff, an agent of the Rothschilds.

1801: PAUL I

Catherine the Great was a German woman who engineered the killing of her husband Tsar Peter III and birthed Paul, whose father was her court lover. Paul first married the daughter of the Landgrave of Hesse, who furnished troops to England to suppress the American revolution. Nevertheless, Paul was a sincere king, who was eventually killed by his mother's corrupt co-conspirators, as well as his own son. His big mistake appears to have been changing the rules of succession, depriving the nobility of its privileges, and prohibiting women from ever again being named monarch.

1825: ALEXANDER I

Catherine's favourite grandson conspired in the murder of his father and, according to official records eventually died of typhus. But Count Cherep Spirodovich reveals that he was poisoned during a lunch with Jews, and never recovered. (p. 114, The Hidden Hand). Shortly thereafter, Nathan Rothschild tried to foment revolution in Russia, as his children did in 1830 and 1855.

1855: NICHOLAS I

England, France and Germany (by this time, all taken over by Jews: Disraeli in England, the poseur Napoleon III in France, and Bismarck in Germany) all joined together to prosecute the Crimean War in the south of Russia. It failed, but two years later, the Czar, who had been called a demigod by a number of English writers, was poisoned by his own Jewish doctor.

1881: ALEXANDER II

Perhaps the saddest of all was the fate of a handsome prince known as the Tsar Liberator. He freed the Russian serfs in 1861, four years before Lincoln did the same. Most notably, he answered President Lincoln's call for help and sent ships to San Francisco and New York to help save the Union during the War Between the States. Later he gave Alaska to the U.S. for practically nothing. He survived seven assassination attempts before being blown up by the Jews he did his level best to liberate. And it took two bombs to do it: while Alexander was riding in his carriage, a bomb went off devastating a whole neighbourhood. The king leapt out to help the survivors, and as he did, another bomb killed him.

1917: NICHOLAS II

Russia's last Czar and his family were foully murdered by the Jews who were sent from America by the Jewish banker Jacob Schiff. It was the same thing the Jews had done to Russia for hundreds of years, only this time they succeeded in taking over the whole country. They created the Soviet Union, which killed 66 million Russian natives. The moral nature of Judaism is so insane that almost a hundred years after the man called a demigod, Nicholas I, was poisoned by his Jewish doctor, the very savage who killed more Russians than any other, Joseph Stalin, was himself poisoned by a Jewish doctor when he was of no more use to the Hidden Hand.

In practically every nation on this Earth, the Jewish Hidden Hand has killed legitimate leaders and replaced them with Rothschild-manipulated phonies. This story does not even include most of the world and the sabotage of legitimate governments and monarchies. The list would be too long for one story.

As much as I'd like to write more about the Jewish subversion of the 500 year old Habsburg Dynasty, or the intrigues of ancient Greece, Rome and Egypt, let's just consider two more signal examples of this unending Jewish murder scheme.

1793: KING LOUIS XVI OF FRANCE

The ugliest revolution of all was the French Revolution, in which people all over France killed each other for reasons they themselves did not understand (a situation about to happen today in the United States). International Jewish money-lenders plotted and planned the Great French Revolution of 1789, exactly the same way as they had plotted and planned and financed the English Revolution of 1640-1649. The descendants of these same International Jewish Financiers have been The Secret Power behind every war and revolution from 1789 onwards. The king and his wife, the much maligned but thoroughly slandered Marie Antoinette, were eventually beheaded by Rothschild's subversives, and France has never been the same since. A recent president of France, Sarkozy, was an actual CIA Mossad agent.

1645: KING CHARLES I OF ENGLAND

Jews were expelled from England in 1290, both for typical usurious criminality and for killing Christian children and draining them of their blood for Talmudic rituals. But in the 1600s, Dutch Jewish bankers bribed Oliver Cromwell to overthrow a weak King Charles I, and by manipulating the parliament, Cromwell succeeded. Charles was beheaded. The financial takeover of the world by Jews had begun, and the principal Jewish criminals of the world set up shop in the City of London, where they now coordinate the ruination and enslavement of the entire world.

Count Cherep-Spirodovich, who had been a major general in the czar's army, reveals many things in his 1926 book, "The Secret World Government, or 'The Hidden Hand'". Among those secrets were:

"The first Jesuits were Jews; that mysterious Russian Diplomacy, which so alarms Western Europe, is organised and carried on by Jews ; that mighty revolution (of 1848) which is at this moment preparing in Germany, is entirely developing under the auspices of Jews, who almost monopolise the professional chairs of Germany".

"From all these numerous proofs that the Jews are the organizers of all the bloodshed, as CHRIST pointed it out (St. John, VIII,44) could we not deduce without the smallest doubt, that it will be Jews, who will plunge the United States into an ocean of blood in the nearest future, unless the Americans open their eyes and drop their blind groundless optimism...."

"Since the American Revolution the Jews have also been the real rulers of America and their power is constantly growing and becomes deadly in every sense, as the Jews themselves confirm it."

So there you have the basic story of the greatest assassins the world has ever known, who have destroyed all the great nations of the world by their manipulations and corruptions. Today, under the white noise coma of public media completely controlled by Jews, we have two U.S. presidential candidates whose staff are dominated by warmongering Israeli Jews and corrupt Hebrew bankers. The world has been poisoned, and most societies destroyed, by the most evil people ever to walk the Earth — Talmudic Jews.

Until the Jews are utterly destroyed, and all traces of their perfidy and perversions totally erased, the world will never know peace.

Reminder: The author of this article is banned by most websites, publications and radio shows for his forthright honesty about the world's most forbidden topic. As most media outlets — even those pretending to be anti-Jewish — are funded (many covertly) by Jewish money, they are too cowardly to directly address this evil cause of virtually all the world's problems. Harold Stough Notes

Who Was Shakespeare?

FROM their very inception, the Shakespearean works were shrouded in a mysterious web of secrecy—so mysterious and secret that both the historical and literary evidence strongly show that everything we think we know about the works of “Shakespeare” are the result of several highly organized conspiracies having to do with the Shakespeare myth. This article shines light on the essential elements of those conspiracies and the myth.

Rise of the Stratfordians

At the time the 1623 Shakespeare Folio was being published, a mysterious monument featuring a bust of “Shakespeare” was erected in the Holy Trinity Church of the English village of Stratford. No one knows who arranged for its construction or who paid for it. Ostensibly, the monument’s purpose was to direct the reader of the Folio to Stratford. A brief eulogy of Shakespeare written by the poet Leonard Digges makes a strange allusion to “thy Stratford Moniment”. Digges’s eulogy appears to have been tacked-on toward the end of the Folio’s dedications as an afterthought suggesting that the monument was built prior to the publication of the Folio, and that Digges’s eulogy was added so that the reference to the Stratford Monument would not be overlooked. However, considering how intricately the language in the “Monument” and the Folio are carefully contrived and intermixed, it is more likely that the actual construction of the Monument occurred sometime after the Folio’s publication.

Another peculiarity about the monument is that the bust of “Shakespeare” bore no resemblance to the Folio’s “Droeshout engraving”. Moreover, there was nothing about the image to suggest any connection to literature. Instead, the bust depicted a rustic looking man with a stern face and a drooping mustache clutching a sack of grain—a fitting representation, considering the mysterious man from Stratford was known to have been a grain merchant in his latter years.

After a century of neglect, the original bust was removed and replaced (1748) by a completely different looking bust that remains to the present day. Author Alfred Dodd offers an apt description: “The effigy which stands in place of the ‘curious original’ is in general outline the same, but a cushion takes the place of ‘the bag’ and a large quill pen is placed in his hand. His hands no longer suggest that he hugs his money bag or wool sack in an almost miserly fashion, and the smirking, doll-like face is very different from the shrewd, hard-faced man who knew excellently well how to drive a bargain.”* The reason we know about the original bust is due to an engraving of the Stratford Monument which appears in Sir William Dugdale’s book “Warwickshire,” published in 1656.

Original “Shakespeare” Bust

Despite the existence of the Stratford Monument, people remained largely unaware and unconcerned about the Shakespeare authorship for nearly one and a half centuries.

In 1769, the celebrated London actor David Garrick traveled to Stratford to pay homage to a man he erroneously thought (based on the wording in the Folio) to have authored the Shakespearean work. Upon his arrival, Garrick found the Stratford citizens to be profoundly oblivious to who “Shakespeare” was. The village was ravaged by filth and decay. All vestiges of the mud wall houses in which the “Shakespeare” family allegedly dwelled were long gone. But Garrick the actor became Garrick the entrepreneur. He saw an opportunity to turn Stratford and “Shakespeare” into a profitable enterprise. Thus, Garrick (wittingly or unwittingly) cashed in on the nebulous legacy of the 1623 Folio—and the Stratfordian myth of the man the world came to know as “William Shakespeare” was born.

Shakespeare Bust as it appears today

Almost instantaneously, Garrick began to use his celebrity to attract outside visitors (with money to spend) to his Stratford “jubilees” in which he produced and starred in virtually all of the Shakespearean plays. Other profitable jubilee attractions included guided tours of “Shakespeare’s” alleged birthplace and souvenirs of furniture and other miscellaneous items supposedly owned by “Shakespeare”—along with plenty of food and ale.

“Shakespeare” of Stratford had become a cottage industry. In many respects, it was a forerunner of the modern Renaissance Faire. But more importantly, as the popularity of the Shakespearean work increased, the Stratford myth of “Shakespeare” gradually worked its way into the hallowed halls of orthodox history. Eventually, biographical books about the life of a man named “Shakespeare” (who, technically, never really existed) began to materialize out of sheer invention and supposition. On this, author Ross Jackson states “Many books were written about Will Shaksper, and an uncritical and unquestioning public consumed them with great interest. What the public did not notice was that these books invariably started out with the unstated but tenuous assumption that the man from Stratford wrote the works. These biographies were not based on the known facts of Will Shaksper’s life... but consisted mainly of speculations about how ‘he must have done that’, how ‘he must have traveled there’, how ‘he must have known this person’, how ‘he must have been proficient in this language’, and how ‘he must have been the greatest genius that ever lived’, with little or no evidence to back up the assertions. Generations were brought up to accept this myth about Will Shaksper without question.”*

Amazingly, by the onset of the nineteenth century, the Stratfordian version of “William Shakespeare” the author was generally adopted as gospel among historical and literary academicians. Most learning institutions in Britain and America were busily teaching the Stratfordian hypothesis to a naïve and uninformed public. In essence, the Stratfordian myth is little more than a complete sham designed only to serve the ambitious interests of a select group of ivory tower elitists driven only by their need (and greed) to hang on to David Garrick’s specious legacy, regardless of the truth.

The first known published statement questioning the authorship of the Shakespearean works appeared in Life and Adventures of Common Sense by Herbert Lawrence in 1769. By the mid nineteenth century, many prominent writers and scholars had begun to scrutinize the Stratfordian doctrine. They discovered glaring holes and inconsistencies in the traditional story. One Shakespearean scholar, Delia Bacon (not related to Francis Bacon) wrote a book titled The Philosophy of the Plays of Shakespeare Unfolded (published 1857) in which she proposed a carefully documented thesis showing the Shakespearean works to be the product of an elite group of writers led by Francis Bacon. Not to be undone, the Stratfordians launched an all-out attack on Delia Bacon, denouncing her as “the woman who hates Shakespeare.”

Delia Bacon

Many prominent people in the academic world such as Nathaniel Hawthorne, Ralph Waldo Emerson, and Thomas Carlyle, responded to the Stratfordian abuse of Delia Bacon with supportive words in her defense and proclamations of advocacy for the new Baconian doctrine concerning the Shakespearean authorship. Most notably, Mark Twain became the staunchest anti-Stratfordian (and Baconian supporter) with his book Is Shakespeare Dead? in which he severely lampooned the Stratfordians as mindless “Troglodytes.” Regarding the Stratfordian biographies, Twain writes “we set down the ‘conjectures’ and ‘suppositions,’ and ‘maybes,’ and ‘perhapses,’ and ‘doubtlesses,’ and ‘rumors,’ and ‘guesses,’ and ‘probabilities,’ and ‘likelihoods,’ and ‘we are permitted to think,’ and ‘we are warranted in believing,’ and ‘might have beens,’ and unquestionablys,’ and ‘without a shadow of a doubt,'—and behold! Materials? Why, we have enough to build a biography of Shakespeare."* He then compared the Stratfordian myth of Shakespeare to a Brontasaurus skeleton which was on display at the New York Museum of Natural History. The enormous skeleton only had nine actual bones, the rest of the colossal structure consisted of plaster.

Myths and legends are hard to deal with. Once they get started, they take on a life of their own. This phenomenon is commonly called "The Liberty Valance Effect." You know, from the old movie "The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance" in which John Wayne shoots the menacing outlaw Liberty Valance then makes it look like

Jimmy Stewart did the deed. Even Jimmy believes he killed Valance. The townspeople treat him like a hero. Thereafter, Jimmy's character moves up in the world as a very important man. Years later, he finds out the truth. But it's too late. The legend has become history. He tells the real story to a prominent news reporter who has no interest in seeing history revised, even though it is contrary to the truth. The reporter says "When the legend becomes fact, print the legend"... and so it is with the Stratfordian legend of "Shakespeare"! To be continued

A Prophecy From George Borrow Published in The "British Lion" 1930

O England! Long, long may it be ere the sun of thy glory sink beneath the wave of darkness! Though gloomy and portentous clouds are now gathering rapidly round thee, still may it please the Almighty to disperse them, and to grant thee a futurity longer in duration and still brighter in renown than thy past.

"Or, if thy doom be at hand, may that doom be a noble one and worthy of her who has been styled the Old Queen of the Waters! May thou sink, if thou dost sink, amidst blood and flame, with a mighty noise, causing more than one nation to participate in thy downfall.

"Of all fates, may it please the Lord to preserve thee from a disgraceful and a slow decay; becoming, ere extinct, a scorn and a mockery for those self- same foes who now, though they envy and abhor thee. still fear thee—nay, even against their will honour and respect thee.

"Arouse thee whilst there is time and prepare thee for the contest of Life and Death! Cast from thee the foul scurf which now encrusts thy robust limbs, which deadens their force and makes them heavy and powerless. Cast from thee thy false philosophers who would fain decry what, next to the love of God, has hitherto been deemed most sacred—the love of the Motherland. Cast from thee thy false patriots who under the pretext of redressing the wrongs of the poor and weak, seek to promote internal discord, so that thou mayest become only terrible to thyself. Remove from thee the false prophets who have seen vanity and divined lies; who have daubed thy wall with un-tempered mortar that it may fall; who see visions of peace where there is no peace; who have strengthened the hands of the wicked and made the heart of the righteous sad.

O do this and fear not the result, for either shall thy end be a majestic and an enviable one or God shall perpetuate thy reign upon the waters, thou old Queen." George Borrow, "The Bible in Spain." End OS21041

Letter to The Archbishops of Canterbury And York

My Lord Archbishops

It is patently obvious that you know nothing about the English Constitution, if you did you would be aware that you are here to look after the moral health of this Kingdom. This is something you have singularly failed to do or we would not now be discussing allowing one deviant pervert to marry another deviant pervert. You would also know that it is not only not your job to interfere in government policy which has no bearing on religion, it actively is not your job to tell government how when and where they can commit acts of High Treason against the Constitution and people of this Kingdom.

York

You are not English and though you live here and hold high office in the English Church what makes you think you have any say over treaties this Kingdom signs with other countries, particularly when the English Constitution over which you have insufficient knowledge. If you knew anything at all about it you would be aware that every EEC/EU Treaty has been an act of High Treason against the English Constitution which now because you are actively pushing treason means that you should be aware that at some time we the English will want to discuss your treason whilst you stand in the Dock. At which time you will need friends in heaven for it is certain you will have none in England.

Canterbury

You were born and bred in these islands and though I realise you are Welsh but none the less that is no excuse for breaching the English Constitution a Constitution which applies in Wales, I took one look at you on your appointment to Canterbury and thought God help us for this one surely wont. You have been you are probably the worst holder of your office I for one have ever heard of. I would like an explanation from you as to why you are actively betraying this Kingdom. You also will have no friends at your trial so for your sake I hope the Almighty will forgive you for the English never will.

I would recommend you read the 1559 Act of Supremacy and the 1689 Bill of Rights, that way at least when you hang you will understand why.

Albert Burgess

The Balfour Declaration

Sir—Your readers might be interested in this letter I came across in an old 1931 edition of the British Lion:

Whitechapel and the Jews.—I must confess to a feeling of satisfaction that the Zionist pandering to the Jewish electorate in Whitechapel on the part of the Conservative candidate met with the complete failure which it deserved. Two facts must be borne in mind as regards this incident. It was, of course a Conservative politician, Lord Balfour, who was the author of the fatal Palestine Declaration which practically committed the British Government to the iniquitous policy of trying to dispossess the Arab population of Palestine in order to colonize the country with imported Jews. It is one of the few actions which stand to the credit of the present Government that they expressed publicly the utter injustice and impossibility of carrying into effect the extreme wishes of the Zionists in interpreting this infamous and disgraceful declaration which has already, as might have been predicted, resulted in bloodshed and civil war. The fact is—and it would be well to face it at once—that no British Government could ever have the moral effrontery to enforce the declaration, whatever the Conservative candidate might bring himself to promise to the Jewish electors of Whitechapel. The fact is also that the majority of Jews, at any rate in this country, although the idea may appeal to their racial pride, have no intention of availing themselves of the alternative nationality which the declaration offers them, and are content to remain British citizens, in which capacity they can continue to rely on the goodwill and good fellowship of their Christian fellow-subjects. J. R. Harris, Bournemouth.

Olympic False Flag

Lee Hazledean is a filmmaker and investigative TV journalist. He has also been involved in major stories on the IRA and how British Army infiltrated the organisation and carried out false flag operations. He has managed to get undercover as part of the security team at the 2012 Olympics with G4S. He has found there is a media blackout on all major news outlets to do with the Olympics unless the story is broken in a newspaper or foreign news agency it's unlikely to see the light of day. Security training and officers are so appalling that the safety and security of the London 2012 Olympics are in jeopardy.

A few examples: The security training is woefully inadequate run by a training company called Contemporary International. Lee has been assigned to work in a PSA (Pedestrian Screening Area) the main security for the stadiums. During an exercise he was asked to pose as a would-be terrorist and managed to get knives, guns and IED's through security screening on every occasion and every exercise. The X-Ray operators have only two days of training, they aren't trained properly and miss the most obvious prohibited items guns, knives, IED's, ammunition etc. Bag and physical searchers again are missing dangerous weapons, trainees can't use vital security equipment like the HHMD (Hand Held Metal detectors) they can't even communicate properly with the public on a basic level.

Worryingly the 'Rapiscan' walk through metal detectors don't work properly and aren't sensitive enough to pick up large knives, ammunition and other metallic threats. He was told that they would be set to go off only after 50 people have walked through to limit queuing time and to get spectators into the venue. So a Terrorist if they basically queued up would probably get through wearing a suicide vest. G4S are dragging the job centres to recruit the long term unemployed for security officers regardless of how suitable they are for the role. In classes there are drug deals going on, people can't speak any English whatsoever and others who find people with disabilities offensive and are constantly making disabled jokes. People with no security experience are being rushed through training for their SIA licenses. People who haven't even completed their SIA licenses yet are being picked to be Team Leaders over highly trained security officers, ex-soldiers and ex-police.

Being a team leader is an important role as the first and last line of defence. Lee is concerned that weapons or worse will be getting into the games. However, what's more disturbing is that uniforms are already going missing or being stolen from the uniform distribution centre/training facility. The training facility is an accurate mock-up of the actual security measures at the Olympic venues. Lee has witnessed several people taking photos on their mobile phones in the training facility and whilst they have been a few people caught by trainers most aren't noticed. Even when they are caught they are just told to delete the photos and they continue on the training. We know that terrorists take surveillance photos to gain intelligence.

Contemporary International claim that they have mobile phone 'jammers' in the facility, however trainers admitted to Lee that there were no 'jammers' at all, it was a verbal deterrent. The training facility is a non-sporting Olympic venue and a terrorist target. Therefore G4S can't even secure a school let alone the Olympic Venues. Also there are plans for the evacuation of London G4S are going to be at the forefront, as well as 100,000 troops coming in via Woolwich barracks made up of regular British Forces, American regular army and European troops. Lee was not told why there would be any need for an evacuation of the whole of London, they just said it was to be a "defining moment in the history of London". This could just be a precaution but the public should be made aware of the foreign invasion which is taking place right now.

The troops are being held across London in various barracks once they've been through Woolwich barracks. I also have this information confirmed by an army doctor who was shocked at all the foreign troops coming into London. There is also a shipment of what are being described as casket linings, each casket can hold four or five people and 200,000 casket linings have been delivered we believe from America. This could all be precautionary in the event of a major terrorist attack. Also we were shown videos of drones attacking targets in Afghanistan and were told that drones will be patrolling the skies over London during the Olympics carrying out surveillance and search and destroy missions if necessary. Lee believes there is something fundamentally wrong with how the security for the Olympics is being implemented by G4S. With exactly 4 weeks to go until the games Lee feels he needs to expose the inadequate security in place in the hope that it can be improved so that the London 2012 Olympics can be a safe environment for spectators and Athletes alike, and not a cause for national and international embarrassment for Great Britain.

"HATED BY ALL HUMANITY!"
TWO-THOUSAND-YEAR-OLD TRUTH
CONCERNING JEWDOM
"Aliquis" in the "Volkischer Beobachter" Munich 1932.
(Translated by C. Pownall)

IT is a wholesome thing for us, living as we are in this present Jewish world of deceit and pretence, with its fearfully corruptive influence on our culture, to cast a glance back into the grey ages of the past. If we do so, we find that on many occasions, famous men of ancient times spoke fearless and unmistakable words straight from their hearts concerning the common danger to the rest of humanity arising from Jewdom. As first witness may be cited the celebrated Roman historian, Tacitus, who speaks of the Jews as "objects of loathing to the human race"—taedium generis humani—and continues:

"Everything which is sacred in our eyes they mock at; and conduct which we denounce as criminal they regard with approval. This nation is the most degraded of all the nations and is, on that account, a danger to all."

Further on, in his Histories (V, 1-8) he writes: "Every rascally spendthrift brings business to the Jews, and pays tribute to them in the form of usury, and this is the reason why their power has become so great. They do not eat the flesh of the swine because they, blame that animal for the leprosy which afflicts them."

In the Annals (II Book) the full hatred of the Roman historian flashes forth once more when he writes: "If the Jews were to succumb to the unhealthy climate of Sardinia and disappear, it would not matter, for- these people are of no account."

* * * *

Justus calls the Jews Odium generis humani, that is: "Hated by all mankind."

* * * *

And then, no one less than the great Cicero himself- expressed his detestation of the Jew rabble, again in quite unmistakable language, when speaking in defence of Flaccus:

" As the Jews make a practice of gradually exporting the money out of. Italy and the provinces to Jerusalem, the. Pro-Consul Flaccus issued an edict prohibiting this kind of smuggling."

Is there anyone who would- not consider such a prohibition praiseworthy under the circumstances? To oppose this alien and unnatural people is, in- fact, a proof of character and it is a sign of great moral earnest-ness on the part of the acting Pro-Consul not to have gone in fear of this Jewish nation, which struts about with such emotional importance at our popular meetings—this nation of rascals and deceivers." Cicero went on to remark in the course of his speech—and this is- particularly significant considering that he was at the time the leading Roman advocate—that he would now lower his voice so that none but the jurors should hear him, for they all knew how great the power of the Jews was, how closely they held together, and what they were capable of in the way of agitation at popular meetings, and that even he—Cicero—

This Cartoon appeared in the September, 1931 edition of the British Lion - and John Bull still hasn't woken up, although one might detect a slight stirring!

was apprehensive that they—the Jews—would inflame public opinion against him. In his speech "de prov. cons." (V. 10) he once said: "Syrians and Jews, who are only fit to be slaves."

St. Augustine, in his Cit. De., (VII, II) quotes from Lucius A. Seneca the Roman philosopher, as follows: "These pestilential people (the Jews) have known how to acquire such influence that they, the vanquished, dictate laws to us, the victors." (In Germany at the present moment precisely the same picture as 2,000 years ago!)

The poet Ovid describes the Jews as being "corrupters and tempters, and highly inventive in everything concerning the lower forms of sensual pleasure."

These are a few selections from recognized great Roman writers, who were not afraid to speak out their detestation of the Jews. What are we, on the contrary, about when we quietly stand and allow our morality and culture to be destroyed in a still more brutal fashion by the corruptive tricks of this satanic nation? Formerly men, like Tacitus, Cicero and Flaccus, roused by genuine patriotism, denounced the Jewish plague. To-day we only hear of the "equality" of all men and "international reconciliation"; our ears are deaf to the warnings of these great Romans, and we have learned nothing from the fate of the once great and prosperous Roman nation.

The intrusion of the Jews into all ministerial and civil-service positions in Germany is nothing less than a direct attack upon the spiritual and moral attitude of the German nation. Jewish Judges, barristers and solicitors on all sides; Jewish play-writers, theatre agents and film-directors dominate the cultural life of Germany, and Jewish professors introduce German youth to the sciences.

Two thousand years ago the proud and mighty Roman people opposed Judah only in the end to be poisoned morally by the Jewish bacillus. Is the same hateful destiny awaiting us now? Germany awake! Think of ancient Rome! "Aliquis."

A GREAT-BUT STIFLED- PROBLEM Gentiles and Jews

A problem of increasing importance to-day, but one which has existed for thousands of years, is that of the relations between Gentile and Jew. Yet it is surprising that the subject is scarcely ever mentioned in England, or if raised, is treated with ridicule such as suggests that anybody who takes it seriously does not deserve to be taken seriously himself.

It is therefore particularly welcome that Mr. Capel Pownall should have translated Theodore Fritsch's great book, "The Riddle of the Jews' Success" into English, and everyone who wishes to understand how much the Jews have done for Germany should read this book.

Although originally issued in 1913 it has not been necessary to make any alterations, but some very useful information has been added regarding the conduct of German Jews during the war. It should be clearly understood that Fritsch does not make any attempt to fasten "war-guilt" on the Jews—or on anybody else—but he does prove fairly and openly that the Army contracts- of Germany were one glorious profit-making ramp for the Jews.

A well-known Jewish ship owner his services in business rendered nugatory by the British fleet— placed them at the disposal of the Government and was allowed to organize a colossal State Purchasing Company which kept its orders very closely within Jewish circles. What is more, it presently developed no less than three hundred subsidiary companies! As Fritsch remarks, the feelings of a Prussian officer of the old type going to Berlin to requisition stores may be imagined when he was ushered, not before a military quartermaster, but before a civilian Jew with a gang of Hebrew clerks!

Fritsch's book has become a classic in Germany, and England owes a debt to Mr. Pownall for translating it. It is issued by the Hammer Publications, Archery Cottage, Horsell Park, Woking, Surrey, and we trust its sale will be sufficient to encourage Mr. Pownall to translate Fritsch's other book, "The False God." Ross.

ED.: This letter from the British Lion, of 1932 shows many were aware of the machinations of the Jews - the fact that such a letter could be published in a National Newspaper in those days - just shows how successful the enemy has been, that today no national newspaper would dare publish such a letter.

Socialism Kills

Sir,—There are two major political parties in the disunited kingdom, the Cons, which is the correct way to describe them! And the socialists. These are certainly not the Labour Party, they are not friends of the working classes. When Blair was forming "New Labour" one prominent socialists stated that their core voters (the working classes) where no longer relevant. Of course this was proved in 1947 when they passed the, C o m m o n w e a l t h citizens act, which allowed all 800 million in the Empire to fly in tubes flying through the air to the detriment of our lower paid workers. This has recently been admitted in my comic of preference – the Daily Mail.

But I have been aware of this for a long time. At the end of my seagoing career I carelessly contrived to be down and out in London town, just like George Orwell. It is a very good experience. Instead of looking at society and life up and down from the middle, one has the delight of looking at life from the very bottom. A most educational experience.

At first I was homeless and dossing, one however you can live by attending the charity vans on the embankment in the evening. Then I moved up slightly and got a dry roof over hot accommodation in a government doss house with fairly good meals. Then I got a kitchen porter's job. One of my colleagues was Mr Brittain ex British Army and Irish. He was very polite and called me "Sir". He told me that his major studied names and he informs Britain that his name went back to 600 BC. "Good Lord," I said "I am Viking and my family only arrived in Britain about 800 AD. You are 1400 years senior to me and I should call you sir!" Mr Brittain laughed so heartily I had to join in! Mr Brittain told me that when he left the Army he earned six pounds a week as a kitchen porter and he was better off then than the hundred £50 weekly wage we were both earning. Such is the fate of the pounds (Stirling!!) And the only beneficiaries of this real reduction in wages other foreigners such as Mr Forte.

A down and outs experience is thoroughly recommended for every young man at the beginning of his career not at the end! Yours etc., Ancient Mariner

Edinburgh - Jerusalem In The North (Part 4)

By Comyns Beaumont

Solomon's Palace: After completing the Temple, Solomon erected his own house or palace near the Mount of Olives. It was not only a residence but also the seat of administration and a court for the hearing of causes and pleas. It had two quadrangular wings joined to a central hall and portico, a chapel with massive pillars and a court of prodigious size, wherein the King, seated on a throne of ivory, delivered judgment (Jos., Antiy., VIII, v, 2, 3). Called the House of the Forest of Lebanon, probably because it was mainly built of oaks and cedars of Lebanon, it was Solomon's "own house." (I Kings vii, 1.) The Jewish Targum places it near the city. The gardens of this palace lay alongside the Mount of Olives and were watered by the brook Kedron. Nothing in the environs of Jerusalem can answer to this palace or its gardens, but Holyrood House is situated exactly where it meets the description of Solomon's House. From time immemorial here was a royal domain. St. David, Edinburgh's patron saint, as is most fitting, was reputed to have built an abbey on the site of the later Holyrood House, which he dedicated to the Holy Rood, because of a miracle related to a huge stag near Arthur's Seat, whereby, when the stag charged him, by some extraordinary means a fragment of the Holy Rood was placed in his hands and the beast turned and fled!

Hinnom and Golgotha: The Valley of Hinnom, west of Jerusalem, had an evil reputation, for here stood a "high place," a Hivite altar, where Solomon had erected reeking altars to the deities Astarte, Chemosh, and Milcom (II Kings xxiii, s). Josiah, when reproached, had them thrown down and defiled: "And he defiled Tophet, which is in the Valley of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or daughter to pass through the fire to Moloch" (verse 10). Hereabouts were buried the corpses of the vast army that was besieging Jerusalem at the moment when the Almighty from on High destroyed them by a mighty Blast. It was first called the Valley of Slaughter, and appropriately so; "The days come that this place shall no more be called Tophet or the valley of the sons of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter" (Jer. xix, 6). I have described this shambles previously, with the graphic description of Ezekiel of the stench occasioned by their bodies in the Valley of Rephaim or Giants, and, he adds, they "shall call it the Valley of the multitude of Gog." Here, it might be added, was appropriately the Jewish Sheol or Hell region, and why the lands outside the Edinburgh area, including Lanark, were named Damnia and the Damni, or the Damned.

This valley of Hamon-Gog, valley of Slaughter, valley of the Rephaim, subsequently given the name of Golgotha, the place of Gothic skulls—Goths, the invaders beloved of Moses or Zalmoxis on whom he intended to bestow the lands of Judah—were regarded as Goths in the age which buried their thousands, and Golgotha it became for good and all, the place where the skulls and bones of these grim reminders of a dramatic and terrible past were often dug up in later times and reburied.

The main road from Edinburgh to Falkirk (Hinnom) reaches Corstorphine Hill, about two miles out of the capital of Scotland, on one's right, now the middle of a golf course, originally, there is little doubt, Tophet, the place of sacrifice. Another two miles along the Falkirk Road, and we reach Gogar—Gogar Mount, Gogar Village, Gogar Burn, and other landmarks bearing the name Gogar. The antiquity of the name is supported by the fact that the Romans called it Gugernum, a mere latinised variation of Gogar—and they maintained a cohort of troops here.

Its importance to our world of to-day--if Christ, and His example, and His willing sacrifice to die for a better world is of interest to our modern world, as many begin to doubt—HERE IS THE ORIGINAL GOLGOTHA, WHERE HE WAS CRUCIFIED. To this spot four miles from Edinburgh did He bear the Cross on which they nailed Him.

Hinnom: The original name, Hinnom, Valley of Hinnom, which occurs in the Scriptures, implies that there was a town of that name. It is known to-day as Falkirk. The Iter Antoninus terms the fifth fort or town going along the Antonine Wall from the Firth of Forth to the Clyde Estuary by the name of Hunnum, differing from Hinnom in only the vowel letters. Ravennas, less reliable, terms it Onno. Gildas mentions it in connection with Caer Eden (Edinburgh), and says the Picts called it Pen Fal, head of the river Fal. It was a most important military post, for Camulodunum or Camelon lay adjoining, and from its ancient docks, discovered by Gen. Roy, ships carried cargoes to and from the Forth, as well as transacting a large transport trade to the Clyde. Many fragments of Samian and Roman ware have been found on the site of this great fortress.

One further point may be mentioned. When the intractable Jews in 134 proclaimed their Messiah in Bar-Cocheba, "Son of the Star," and the Chief Rabbi, Akiba, publicly anointed him King of the Jews, placed a crown on his head, and then, as his Master of Horse, followed him into the field at the head of 24,000 horsemen, we may applaud their reckless courage, and we should recognise it as in fact a Silurian rising against the Roman tyranny. Coins were minted bearing Bar-Cocheba's name, inscribed, "First Year of Redemption," and on the reverse they bore the insignia of the Scottish Thistle.

When Hadrian destroyed Jerusalem, he forbade the use of the name and the new city which arose was called Ælia. The fortress on the north boundary of Edinburgh, near Abercorn, now Kinneil, was formerly named "Pont Ælii" (Antonine, Iter, lxiii). The Ælium or Ælia of which it was the boundary bridge could only relate to Edinburgh. These are stern facts to ignore.

Footnotes - Appendix C

1) Camulodunum was built by Ostorius (c. A.D. 48) in the Silurian regions in that part of Britain already conquered, as a check to rebels. (Tac., Anna& , xii, 32.) The Silures (Illyrian) were really settled south of the Forth, although many dwelt in Wales, Somerset, and Cornwall. Wales was Galilee.

2) The names Cadeni and Cadytis afford a further link with the descendants of Cadmus who traditionally quitted Cadmeian Thebes and settled with the Encheles in Illyria. (Ante, pp. 80—I.)

3) According to Dion Cassius (lxix), 580,000 were cut off by the sword besides an infinite number who perished through famine, fire, and disease in Hadrian's war against the Jews.

6) "Then shall the Lord go forth . . . and his feet shall stand in that day upon the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the Mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south." Pasteurised Milk A National Menace (Part 4)

By

Late James C. Thomson 1943

IMPLANTING DISEASE—AND THE GENTLE ART OF THE FAKER

Q. There is a good deal of bite in that Liverpool affair. According to Mr Mabane (in a reply for the Ministry of Food) 76% of Liverpool's milk is pasteurised. From this it is evident that "26 out of 27 doctors" went to some trouble to obtain their supply unpasteurised.

We get all our milk raw from a local farm and the children thrive on it. Several of our children are from doctor's families, and it has always intrigued us that none of the parents expressed curiosity about milk, pasteurisation, etc. We are pretty sure that some of them know the facts, and now we feel we know the answer. What a shame that doctors are not free to tell the public all they honestly believe.

Is there any real objection to certified milk? I have heard it denounced as the most dangerous of all.

A. If the inspection of the herd is honestly carried out it may be quite satisfactory. At the same time several investigators have claimed that certified milk is particularly dangerous because it is freely given to infants and invalids without a daily count of its bacterial content. Personally I think this unimportant so long as the cows and their surroundings, etc., are satisfactory. The "swarming with tubercle bacilli" claim has already been answered. (See also item P16 re Marian E. Snydergaard.)

One aspect of certified milk, however, tends to render it unreliable. The extra pennies per pint bring the usual political repercussions. Even the doctors who are hamstrung can take adequate precautions within their own homes and send their children to schools where the milk is unprocessed, etc.

The doctors may say that they dare not voice their individual beliefs. A humiliating situation for the practitioners, but dangerous for those who consult them. It can mean ailing and dying children in the homes of the parents who have been misled. To pretend that this knowledge is of no importance while they themselves act upon it is immorality in its lowest form.

For home use it is infinitely better to deal with a well-run dairy which is clean, well ventilated and where the cows are of good stock and have plenty of pasturage, rather than from one which relies upon tuberculin-testing. For the test a quantity of tuberculin is injected into the neck, rump, or tail of the animal. The theory is that if the cow is tubercular there will be a rise in temperature and a local swelling known as the "reaction".

Thus even the cows which do not react are receiving constant implantations of diseased matter. Furthermore this mode of Inspection is temptingly open to trickery. If tuberculin is injected into an unhealthy cow there is a rise in temperature followed by a subsidence after which, for a period of some weeks, the cow will not respond to another test. When it is known that an official test is to be made, the owner of the diseased cow, ten days before the anticipated inspection, has his sickly cow "plugged" with a secret dose or rubs some of its own droppings into a cut. If the timing is right, a week or two later he is given a certificate that the cow is immune. By this technique the most tubercular of cows can be passed into a "certified herd."

A simpler plan in more common use is to rub the site of the injection vigorously with alcohol within an hour of the operation. In very unhealthy animals this usually disperses the toxic matter so that there is no reaction.

But the test, however carefully made, is too erratic for the findings to constitute a true test of anything.

According to many farmers, in cows which are exceedingly tubercular or otherwise ill, the reaction is less likely to occur, or if it does, it is slow.

As many official tests are considered complete within forty-eight hours; the delayed reaction is not observed. So the more seriously ill the cow the greater the probability of success in the "test"

THE WORST CASE I EVER SAW

This item of confirmation comes in a private letter from a Sanitary Inspector:—

"The worst case of T.B. I ever saw in my life was in a cow that had been Certified as free from disease for four years by the Health Department. It would not have been discovered only the animal broke her leg, and the Veterinary Surgeon said she was so badly infected that she would not react to the test." —P.B.T. (F.R.San.I.)

OF TWO EVILS CHOOSE "T.T."

Safety lies in healthy, un-tampered with milk—a mixture from the output of several healthy cows. The milk itself to be as fresh and as clean as possible. If the choice must be between pasteurised milk and T.T. milk, then by all means accept the latter. Unfortunately even "T.T." milk is now being "heat-treated." That is a trap for the unwary—pasteurisation under another name. The only hope is to keep agitating for clean dairies and healthy cows. Tell your neighbours why and keep telling them. Vox populi is still a powerful force in our land.

BIG BUSINESS IN U.S.A

Much may be learned from the following short history:—A few years ago some four thousand farmers presented themselves at the Iowa State Capitol representing the farms in the State. They were all protesting against the corruption which had arisen out of the compulsory tuberculintesting of milk. Encouraged by the American Medical Association, the State and National Departments of Agriculture had passed laws and made regulations which completely demoralised their own officials.

Despite the farmer's opposition two directors of Chicago packing companies had been given high positions in the Iowa Department of Agriculture, and the whole State, they claimed, was being looted. As one protestor put it:

"The manufacturers of tuberculin make millions of dollars from their filthy muck, the vets. get ten dollars a day for injecting it but the meat packers do best of all. They buy hundreds of thousands of cows at condemned prices and sell the meat to the public at full rates."

Their complaint was not economic but ethical. Although compensated by the State for any condemned cattle, they resented being made part of a racketeering machinery. The taxpayers and the consumers were the victims.

They claimed that on every farm healthy cows were being condemned, while tubercular cows were passed as 100 per cent. O.K. There was a reason. The healthy animals after being condemned were sold to the packers as "tankers" (for use as manure, etc.). Arrived at the collecting points the cattle were "discovered" by Government inspectors to be perfectly healthy. The meat was then canned and sold in the ordinary way. In less healthy animals, tubercular glands were removed and the meat sold to the public.

Out of these handsome profits the meat-packers paid high fees to professional bodies whose members were willing to aid and abet, to say nothing of the high awards to ensure "loyalty" from Government Inspectors, etc.

The final point made by the farmers was that State Inspectors made the tests positive or negative just as they wished. By first putting the needle into barnyard dirt and dust they could cause swellings to appear in the healthiest of animals, or if an empty needle was used the test came out negative. Even by the way he inserted the needle an expert could induce swellings.

Many farmers testified that examination of the animals did not give the same result as the tuberculin test. Tests had been made on the milk, and the cattle had been killed and examined. By both of these methods the tuberculin test was proved to be utterly unreliable.

As a climax to their case, that year an Iowa farmer's daughter, Marian E. Snydergaard, was chosen as the "Healthiest Girl in the United States". Out of a possible 100 her score was 99.7. Meantime it was "proved" by the tuberculin test that all seven cows on the Snydergaard farm—whose milk Marian drank regularly—were tubercular.

Either way this was a most awkward contretemps. The organisers could not have it both ways. Either the tuberculin test was useless, or alternatively, milk from tubercular cows. was highly beneficial. From a logical point of view it is difficult to see how their propaganda could have met this disaster. The facts, in every respect, ran counter to their expensive advertising.

As usual, however, the press and the radio proved their loyalty to the great vested interests. No national newspaper and no film or Broadcasting Company gave any publicity to the disturbing facts. Marian was main page news but no mention was made of the scandalous fact that she drank milk from tubercular cows.

The A.M.A., the serum manufacturers and the packers won. With their control of the law, the newspapers and the radio they could not fail. In the U.S.A. as in Great Britain they have efficient techniques for silencing opposition.

Whatever else we may deduce from all this, one fact stands out beyond question. It was not the people who were protected by tuberculin-testing and "Certified Herds."

However, our public is beginning to learn. Here is a fairly telling indication:-

36,000 PREFER RAW MILK!

"Todmorden (Yorks) Sunday.—Six Calder Valley farmers were back in their homes tonight, waiting to hear if they had persuaded Colonel Llewellyn, Minister of Food, to allow the children in their area to drink raw milk. . . . "The deputation represented 250 farmers . . . They took with them figures showing that 99% of the 40,000 people In the area had voted by sealed ballot for raw milk."—Daily Express (22: 1 :45).

SPECULATION OR STATISTICS?

Q. "I am told that during the past year in Britain over 3,000 children have died of bovine tuberculosis caused by drinking unpasteurised milk. How are these figures obtained and is there any answer?"

A. The statistics of bovine tuberculosis are based upon assumptions and speculations. Commonly the figure is placed at about 1,500.

In 1882 the German biologist, Robert Koch, announced his discovery of the tubercle bacillus as the cause of tuberculosis. In the same paper he stated his famous "four postulates." To be accepted as the cause of any disease:

- 1. The micro-organism must be present in all cases of the disease.
- 2. It must be cultivated as a pure culture.
- 3. Its inoculation must produce the disease in susceptible animals.
- 4. It must, if injected into healthy animals, produce the same disease.

The effect was immediate. Koch was hailed as the greatest scientist of the day. Compliments and honours showered in upon him from all parts of the world.

Then a few years later, he added to his stature. He had found exactly the same bacillus in the sores of tubercular cows and in their milk. This was crucial. It was considered to offer a solution to the whole problem of tuberculosis—the cow was the culprit. She was not a friend of little children; she was their worst enemy.

Next Koch announced that an injection of chopped-up T. B. would cure tuberculosis. His tuberculin was to sweep the civilised world clean of the disease.

The result was utter frenzy. Throughout the medical world the name of Koch was spoken as that of a deity. He toured Asia, Africa and the United States, explaining how he had made his discovery and just how it worked.

Unfortunately it did not work.

The Promised Land of Organized Crime. (Fake "Israel") From Skip Baker - David Duke's New Videos

ISRRAEL, The Promised Land of Organized Crime. It is a powerful, factual documentary that exposes the incredible hypocrisy of the media that has caused most of the world to have deep and false associations of organized crime with Italians, while the true identity of the world champions of organized crime are shielded and covered up by the mass media.

This documentary shows that while Hollywood and the Jewish controlled media incessantly depicts organized crime as an Italian creation, the biggest gangsters of the 20th and 21st Century have not been Italians but members of another ethnic group that has possessed the media and government power to cover up its crime dominance. The biggest criminal in 20th Century America was not Al Capone, it was Meyer Lansky who plagued our nation for most of the century.

The most murderous crime organization in American history was not an Italian Mafia outfit, but the overwhelmingly Jewish, Murder Incorporated. The most powerful and dangerous criminal organization in this the 21st Century is not the Italian mafia, but the so-called Russian Mafia the most murderous and ruthless organization in world history. One that controls not just drugs and rackets but banks and media!

Even the Jewish media-created term, "Russian Mafia" is a double lie. These criminals are not led by ethnic Russians but by ethnically conscious, internationally-networked Jews. The Russian people are now being smeared by the media just as Italians were in the 20th Century. As the video also documents, Jewish gangsters have been shielded by mainline Jewish organizations all over the world. By exposing the media lies and suppression of truth by the Hollywood and information media, this video offers conclusive proof of the Jewish control of the media and the fact that they use this control to lie and to suppress information vital to the public welfare.

My documentary shows how a Wikileaks hacked cable from the American embassy in Israel warning America of danger from Jewish organized criminals was deliberately suppressed by the Jewish controlled media! Julian Assange stated clearly in an interview that he gave thousands of cables exposing Israel to the mass media such as the NY Times, but they suppressed the files that exposed Israel because of "Jewish sensitivities." Wikileaks embarrassed America and dozens of other nations, but the only nation shielded by the media was Israel!

Not only is the information in this video completely documented and irrefutable, it is presented in the most professional and exciting way possible with state of the art video and documentary techniques.

Israel, Promised Land of Organized Crime is in 3 parts, be sure watch every second of these three dynamite videos, and you will probably watch them many times to absorb all of their fascinating information. (David Duke)

The United States In WWI Was The First Country In History To Use Poison Gas Against Its Enemies

Brigadier General
Amos Fries

As head of the Division he was appointed be the director of the First Gas Regiment.

No records that are in private hands give information on how the Gen. and his troops used their poison gas during WW I against their enemies.

However, we know that Adolf Hitler was gassed during WW I and was hospitalised in an effort to recover.

A biography of Gen. Fries admits that his division conducted "gas" operations during the war.

He retired from the Chemical Warfare Division in 1929.

After WW I, Gen. Fries became involved in patriotic work and was director of the American Association of Patriotic Societies which united and worked with 29 different patriotic groups.

He wrote two books Communism Unmasked and Sugar Coated Communism.

The question is who came first the chicken or the egg?

At the time of WW I, Adolf Hitler was a despatch messenger on the and in fact gassed by Gen. Fries division. So the argument that the Nazis and Hitler were the first ones to develop and use poison gas [which they in fact never did use in WWII] just doesn't hold water. So who were the bad guys—the Americans in 1917 to 1919 or the Germans during WW II?

If someone were to ask you which country first experimented with and used poison gas as a weapon of war and then answered "Germany"—they would get a zero on their test score.

It will be a great surprise for most Americans to know that the first country to experiment with the use of poison gas warfare—was the United States of America.

A man named Amos Fries was born in Wisconsin in 1873 and in 1898 he graduated from West Point and was assigned to be an engineer in the Philippines under the command of Capt. [later Gen.] John J. Pershing.

He rose through military ranks to the rank to Brigadier General. In 1917 he was assigned to be an officer in the American Expeditionary Forces sent to serve in Europe.

Gen. Fries was appointed to head the newly formed Chemical Warfare Division, Overseas Unit.

Ever since WW II the Jews have carried in their propaganda war claiming the Germans used gas "chambers to kill millions" when they didn't. However, in WW I the United States did use gas against her enemies—and this is a fact never brought up in the media.

Before finishing his military duty Gen. Fries was promoted to the rank of Maj. Gen. Gen. Fries died in 1963

Ulster's Solemn League and Covenant.

Being convinced in our consciences that Home Rule would be disastrous to the material well-being of Ulster as well as of the whole of Ireland, subversive of our civil and religious freedom, destructive of our citizenship and perilous to the unity of the Empire, we, whose names are underwritten, men of Ulster, loyal subjects of His Gracious Majesty King George V., humbly relying on the God whom our fathers in days of stress and trial confidently trusted, do hereby pledge ourselves in solemn Covenant throughout this our time of threatened calamity to stand by one another in defending for ourselves and our children our cherished position of equal citizenship in the United Kingdom and in using all means which may be found necessary to defeat the present conspiracy to set up a Home Rule Parliament in Ireland.
