IN VIEW OF THE FACT THAT THE AFRICAN NATIONAL CONGRESS (ANC) CAME OUT SO STRONGLY FOR SADDAM HUSSEIN before the Gulf war, surely the U.S. will not continue to support financially this terrorist organization any longer. Is the American public aware of the fact that shortly before the war broke out that the ANC burned the American flag???. Actually this should not be so surprising since from the first the ANCN had communist connections with Moscow. Way back in 1927 as the elected general secretary of the ANC travelled to Moscow, he was given a hero's welcome and in return, Gumede hailed the USSR as, 'The New Jerusalem.' Even today as Communist ideology is on the ropes throughout most of the world, still Lenin's useful idiots, are unfortunately still very much with us here at home.

General H. Norman Schwarzkopf Jr. spent part of his boyhood in Iran, where his father was an Army General in WWII. The Iranians greatly admired General Schwarzkopf Sr. Perhaps this was one reason why the Iranians kept a low profile in operation 'Desert Storm', where this man's son was commander? In Vietnam 'Storming Norman' acquired two purple hearts, and 3 silver stars and a MARKED DISTASTE for the way the war was run. Loving his soldiers as he does brought out his famous temper at the way men were sacrificed instead of using American technology and weapons.

He came home convinced that the U.S. Military did not lose the Vietnam War, no the country suffered a political defeat. In operation 'Desert Storm' he was determined that this would never happen again, and the Commander in Chief turned him lose to make this a military victory. Now; the big job is to win the Peace, and not lose there to a Political defeat. As we have said many times, there will be no Peace in that area until the Israeli question is settled. This is the hard question and will demand determination on the part of the Administration before progress can be made.

In typing up the Old Book of 1813, which we have mentioned before, I came across the following pertaining to the River Euphrates which has figured in the events of the past, and now also in 'Desert Storm'. As to the Scriptural meaning of 'The Drying up of the Euphrates' this is of course a symbol of a great power which was to be dried up and according to the Old Book its meaning is that 'THE POWER OF THE PEOPLE WHO INHABIT THE BANKS OF THE EUPHRATES RIVER IS TO BE CRUSHED IN THE BEGINNING OF THE MILLENNIUM.' Did we see some of this fulfilled in 'Desert Storm' as the Aryan influence moves back into that old area? Remember that this is not a region of True Mohammedan religion anymore, only man made splinter groups of religious beliefs, and Saddam Hussein is a confirmed atheist.

The Euphrates River starts in Turkey-Armenia, and along its banks today the majority of the population is now termed Muslin. However at one time in History the people located there were Aryans. We learn also that Ezra 8:15., knew where the Israelites were for he sent into the Caspian Mountains, and invited some of them to come to Jerusalem and help in the rebuilding of the city and the Temple.

As we viewed the carnage of the retreating Iraqi's we thought of the passages in Ezekiel 39, and according to the old book, the word 'Isle' has been misused in interpretations, since it signifies any place there is water. There also was no city or town in old Palestine by the name of Hamonah. Saddam Hussein would not come to bury his dead, he did not respond to requests to do this, and British troops and others two weeks after the retreat did this burying in a mass grave.

One of the Museums which was ransacked and destroyed by the Iraqi was on Faylakah Island, and here was held a collection of antiquity which was very rare. This was the site of the easternmost establishment of the Empire of Alexander the Great in 321 B.C. These items of course are irreplaceable. Iraq took all of value and the more perishable they destroyed along with burning of the building when possible. In Kuwait much of the fragile Jewellery and glassware dated from the 7th, century, and were probably damaged in the moving. However 114 pieces from this Museum out of 7000 were on exhibit in Leningrad at the time of 'Operation Desert Storm' and those articles were saved, if the Russian's return them.

The Supreme Court is now asked to settle the dispute as to whether a prayer can be part of a graduation exercise. Will America stand for this?

The Calendar says it is time for the start of a Presidential election campaign. The Media is spoiling for a fight, but the missing ingredient as yet is an issue to challenge, and of course a candidate. From events lately, is Racism again to be an issue?? Using Video Cameras which can move so fast that the eye can hardly follow, is this what we are now seeing as ways to take over cities??

In the Political field watch the Louisiana Governor's race. Buddy Roemer a democrat has switched over to the Republican side. Prior to Roemer's switch, Republican activists were worried that David Duke a Republican, might win the run-off position in October, and then possibly capture the State House in November.

From the Grass-roots it looks as though Roemer is an opportunist, he is denounced by the Conservatives as a 'tax and spend' Governor, and the picture is not complete as yet for Republican Rep. Clyde Holloway, has been exploring a race for governor since his land slide election last fall. We do not think that Roemer will come over to the Republican side of the Affirmative action hiring goals. Duke appears closer to President Bush and the National GOP on this issue than Roemer.

As of now Congress is trying to ram through the congress the Ted Kennedy backed 'Civil Rights Restoration' Bill which imposes quotas in the guise of advancing affirmative action. This practice is seen as putting white males out of jobs and giving those jobs to minorities, and quietly, behind the scene there is anger brewing. Louisiana's governors race may see some of this anger explode and we will get a feeling for how much there is out Can Syria's Assad be trusted is the next question coming out of the Gulf war. Syria seems to want to be taken off the Terrorist sponsors list, perhaps for an access to western credits. This is just one more headache for the Administration as it tries to win the Peace, which seems to be so illusive.
