Feed The Children

I was listening to one of the ads for money to feed the poor children of the world. And over the years having read many reports of people who received those food and medicine that could get by the thieves who kept 95 cents out of every dollar sent in.

And every single one of them praised "THEIR" gods for the food and medicine. They did not and would not honor our God for the food and medicine. I had never really thought about it until this morning, when it hit me.

WHY SHOULD WE GIVE THEM FOOD AND MEDICINE WHEN THEY WILL NOT HONOR HOUR GOD WHO WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR THEM GETTING THE SUPPLIES IN THE FIRST PLACE.

Even feeding them has not done them any good, for just as the blacks in this country, it has just made them dependent upon the governments of the world for food and supplies instead of themselves. America sent thousands of well meaning young people who gave the best years of their lives, which should have been dedicated to helping their own race, and people, helping a people who cannot be helped.

The memebers of the so-called "Peace Core" would dig wells and put pumps on them so the people could get water. And what did they do, they used the pumps until they broke down and then moved on begging for a well that would give them water.

The "Peace Core" would give them tractors, gas and supplies to farm with, and even plant the first crops. What did they do, they eat the crops and let the tractors, trailers and etc., rust and ruin because they didn't have the intelligence to run the equipment nor the desire to do so.

So with all the billions of dollars spent in trying to help the blacks in Africa, and the blacks in America all we have ever gotten for our trouble is that we don't do enough to help them. They are not worth the help for there are only a few of them that will try to help themselves.

No with all our help all we have done is make matters worse. For now the African blacks cannot even hunt for their own food as they did once and so are starving to death and dyeing of disease, and all we get is hatred and cursing for our help.
