THE REPUBLICANS AT THEIR CONVENTION IN 1968 INCLUDED THE FOLLOWING PLANK IN THEIR PARTY PLATFORM: "Nations hostile to this country will receive no assistance from the U.S. We will not provide aid of any kind to countries which aid and abet the war efforts of North Vietnam."(1)

Republican Presidential candidate Richard Nixon also addressed himself to this plank when he told the American Legion Convention in September, 1968: "There should be no aid or credits of any kind with any country, including the Soviet Union, that aids the enemy in Viet Nam." (2)

Candidate Nixon's campaign literature repeated the Republican Party's concern in this matter. One of his campaign flyers covered this issue: "The United States should not provide anything that could be treated as, or classified as, aid to those {Communist bloc} nations if they persist in trading or aiding the enemy in North Vietnam."(3)

(g) To this we could add Granada, Panama, Desert Storm, Somalia, and now Bosnia. None of these military actions have been for the protection or benefit of the United States, but have poured billions into the pockets of the Shadow Government, while tightening their control over our people and preparing them for the New World Order.

Supporting Pollard: Although former Secretary of Defence Caspar Weinberger said that he should have been executed, so seriously damaging were his activities, convicted spy Jonathan Pollard has widespread support in the Jewish community... Some of the activity on behalf of Pollard includes: The Central Conference of American Rabbis calling upon the entire Reformed Jewish movement to express support for Pollard; on April 15, 1992 a group of rabbis and others participated in a Passover "freedom seder" in front of the maximum security prison where Pollard is held, with one Rabbi, Avi Weiss, referring to Pollard as a "Jewish Political Prisoner;" and a Justice for the Pollards Committee was formed, which portrays Pollard as a victim of a vindictive and "anti-Semitic" Justice Department {which at the time was run by ultra-Zionist Ed Meese}.

U.S. Congressional Record, 76th Congress, Steps Toward British Union, a World State, and International Strife-Part I, Remarks of the Hon. J. Thorkelson of Montana, in the House of Representatives, Monday, August 19, 1940.

Mr. Thorkelson. "Mr. Speaker, in order that the American people may have a clearer understanding of those who over a period of years have been undermining this Republic, in order to return it to the British Empire, I have inserted in the Record a number of articles to prove this point. These articles are entitled 'Steps Toward British Union, a World State, and International Strife.' This is part 1, and in this I include a hope expressed by Mr. Andrew Carnegie, in his book entitled 'Triumphant Democracy.' In this he expresses himself in this manner: 'Let men say what they will, I say that as surely as the sun In the heavens once shone upon Britain and America united, so surely is it one morning to rise, to shine upon, to greet again the reunited states - the British-American Union.'

This statement is clear, and the organizations which Mr. Carnegie endowed have spent millions in order to bring this about. This thing has been made possible by scholarships, exchange professors, subsidies of churches, subsidies of educational institutions; all of them working for the purpose of eliminating Americanism as was taught once in our schools and to gradually exchange this for an English version of our history.

These organizations were organized to bring about a British union, a union In which the United States would again become a part of the British Empire. However, this has been upset to some extent by the attempt of the internationalists to establish their own government as an international or world union. And there is, therefore a conflict between the two, for England wants a British union, with America as a colony, and the international money changers want a Jewish controlled union, in order to establish their own world government.

It is, therefore, best for us to stay out of both of these, in order to save what is left of this Republic as it was given to us in 1787, by a people who knew more about international intrigue and the real problems that confronted the world, than we know today. These early founders not only understood the problems, but in drafting the Constitution they provided an instrument for us to follow, so that we could remain secure from foreign double-dealing and intrigue. Had we adhered to the Constitution as it was given to us, we would have been secure and safe today.

Therefore, it is our duty, in the interest of our people and in the interest of this Republic of the United States, to ponder seriously and to give fullest consideration to solving the problem which now confronts the world. In doing so, I am rather inclined to believe that the real American people will decide without hesitation, to return to those fundamental principles that were set forth In the Constitution of the United States. Let no one tell you that this instrument is not as valuable today as it was in 1787; for the fact is that it is much more valuable today - so much so that complete disintegration of this Republic cannot be avoided should we fail to return our Government to the principles set forth therein.

I shall now quote an article by Andrew Carnegie, which he wrote at the request of the London Express, and which appeared In that paper October 14, 1904, entitled 'Drifting Together. "Drifting Together - Will The United States and Canada Unite?" (Written by request for the London Express, October 14, 1904, by Andrew Carnegie)

Britain and America being now firmly agreed that those who attempted to tax the American Colonies against their protest were wrong, and that in resisting this the colonists vindicated their rights as British citizens and therefore only did their duty, the question arises: Is a separation forced upon one of the parties, and now deeply regretted by the other, to be permanent? I cannot think so, and crave permission to present some considerations in support of my belief that the future is certain to bring reunion of the separated parts, which will probably come about in this way: Those born north and south of an imaginary line between Canada and the United States, being all Americans, must soon merge. It were as great folly to remain divided as for England and Scotland to have done so.

It is not to be believed that Americans and Canadians will not be warned by Europe, with its divisions armed, not against foreign foes, but against each other. It is the duty of Canadians and Americans to prevent this, and to secure to their continent internal peace under one government, as it were the duty Of Englishmen and Scotsmen to unite under precisely similar conditions. England has 7 times the population of Scotland; the Republic has 14 times that of Canada. Born Canadians and Americans are a common type, indistinguishable one from the other. Nothing is surer in the near future than that they must unite. It were criminal for them to stand apart.

Canada's Destiny: It need not be feared that force will ever be used or required to accomplish this union. It will come; must come, in the natural order of things. Political as well as material bodies obey the law of gravitation. Canada's destiny is to annexe the Republic, as Scotland did England, and then, taking the hand of the rebellious big brother and that of the mother, place them in each other's grasp, thus reuniting the then happy family that should never have known separation. To accept this view, the people of the United Kingdom have only to recall the bloody wars upon this island for centuries arising from Scotland and England floating separate flags, and contrast the change today under one flag.

The Canadians and Americans may be trusted to follow the example of the Motherland and have but one flag embracing one whole race in America. Present petty jealousies melt away as the population north and south become in a greater degree born Americans.

Even if this blessed reunion came as early as the end of the next decade, say 16 years hence, Canada and the Republic - the Scotland and England of America - would embrace 115,000,000 of English-speaking people, probably 7,000,000 of these In Canada. By the end of the present decade, 8 years hence, their population will be close to 97,000,000 - 8,000,000 of these in Canada. The Republic added to her numbers the past 14 years more than, the total population of Australasia or than that of Canada, the immigration having been enormous. One of these years it almost reached a million.

Cecil Rhodes: The peaceful union of Canada and America would lead Britain to a serious view of her position, resulting in the conclusion that Cecil Rhodes reached - it will be remembered that he was at first a strong British imperialist. Mr. Stead recounts that Mr. Rhodes went to Lord Rothschild and laid that scheme before him, who replied - This is all very well, if you can get America to join - if not, it amounts to nothing!" This led Mr. Rhodes to a study of the subject, and the result was he saw clearly that Lord Rothschild was right.

British federation would leave Britain as a member of the smaller part of her own race, and out of the main channel of progress; instead of sitting (with race imperialism accomplished) enthroned as the mother among hundreds of millions of her own children, composing all but a fraction of English-speaking men. Hence he abandoned the scheme and thereafter favored race federation, and left to America more scholarships than to all other lands. He saw that it was to the Republic, not to British settlements, his country had to look for the coming reunion of his race, with Britain in her rightful place as parent of all. A few figures will leave no room for dispute about this. In the last decade, 1890- 900, Britain, Canada, Australasia, and New Zealand, combined, added to their population 4,500,000 - America 13,500,000. Canada only added 508,000, the Commonwealth of Australasia only 660,000. In the 4 years since 1900 America added more than the total population of either Canada or Australasia. During the present decade, 1900-1910, at the same rate of increase to date, she will add more than the present total white population of Canada, Australasia, New Zealand, and South Africa combined. So fast does the Republic grow, so slowly the Empire.

Increase of Population: The United Kingdom itself increased last decade more than three times as much as Canada and Australasia combined. It is not to her colonies, therefore, that Britain can look for much increase of population or of trade. The growth of Australasia, small as it was in the last decade, so far as reported in this decade is even less. Canada is growing faster only in the far northwest, which is separated by a thousand miles of barren land from the English-speaking Province of Ontario. Last decade Ontario Province (English) actually declined in British population; Quebec Province (French) slightly increased. The census of 1900 shows fewer British-born residents in all Canada than that of 1890.

The wheatfields now reached by rail are being settled by Americans who cross the border, selling their American farms and buying new farms in Canada at one-tenth of the price realized for the old. Except for this influx, about 70,000 so far, the rate of increase in Canada will be about as last decade.

When we come to the population of the United Kingdom, we find already in England and Wales 658 to the square mile. What thoughtful man could wish much further increase, even if it were possible? A denser population must cause deterioration. The density of population in England and Wales is not reached by any European country, except the small state of Belgium. France has only 188, Germany 270 (or one-half), Italy 290. Japan has only 296. The authorities agree that England and Wales are fully populated. Ireland proves that it is so by the small increase. Scotland has increased steadily for some decades, but little scope is left for further increase. Substantially, Ireland and Scotland have today all they can maintain in comfort.

Mark the contrast. America has only 21 people per square mile, one-sixteenth that of the United Kingdom. one for every 26 in England and Wales. These figures include Alaska, which resembles most of Canada, and is not likely to support many people. Excluding Alaska, the American population is 28 per square mile, one-twentieth that of England and Wales.

It is evident that Green was right when he wrote years ago that the home of the English-speaking race was not to be on the Clyde and the Thames, but upon the Hudson, the Delaware, Ohio, Mississippi, and St. Lawrence. There is not room for it in the dear old home, but there is, fortunately, in the new lands of her children in Canada and America. When we note the development Britain has attained industrially, we are amazed. It is wonderful almost beyond belief: we doubt and investigate to assure ourselves that we have the facts. This little kingdom has today more shipping, and about as many spindles turning as all the rest of the world. She is the richest of all nations per capita. She makes more iron and mines more coal per capita than any nation. Marvellous! Nothing comparable to her in history! She positively dwarfs all previous records - a dwarf more powerful than most giants. Who is there, then, who can expect her to do more, what she has accomplished being scarcely credible?

Physically Impossible: It is physically impossible that much further Increase can come to Britain, and in addition to this, conditions otherwise are unfavourable to further development. Other nations by the use of her inventions, are more and more supplying their own wants, and will continue to do so. They will also compete with her more and more, especially in iron and steel, and in cotton manufactures, owing to her lack of the cotton plantations and of needed iron stone. If Britain succeeds in maintaining present production in these fields great will be the credit due to her captains of industry. As with population, therefore, so with industrials - much increase is impossible.

This is the age of consolidation, industrially and nationally. Consider the recent consolidation of Italy and the more recent consolidation and rapid growth of the German Empire. Who can imagine that the process has stopped? On the contrary, we are on the eve of further consolidations in Europe of great extent. The successes of the American Republic, 45 States consolidated into one Union,, with free trade over all, and that of Germany with its Zollverein, are too significant to pass unheeded.

The day of small nations is passing. Their incorporation with larger areas is to be hailed by lovers of progress, provided always that one point be carefully preserved. The national sentiment of the small powers should not only be guarded, but fostered in every way, so that, as in the American Union and in Britain, the Virginian and the Scotsman remain as intensely Virginian or Scotch as ever. Pride in and loyalty to the wider empire do not supplant but supplement love of the part where he was born. He loves the part and is proud of the whole.

What will Britain do? The day is coming when Britain will have to decide on one of three courses. First, shall she sink - comparatively to the giant consolidations into a third- or fourth-rate power, a Holland or Belgium comparatively? Here note that we do not postulate her actual decline, but the increased growth of other powers. Or second, shall she consolidate with a European giant? Or, third, shall she grasp the outstretched hand of her children in America and become again as she was before, the mother member of the English-speaking race?

Assuming that other powers are to increase their present population (as Germany and Russia have yet room to do), or by further consolidation, it being evident that there is not room in the 120,000 square miles of the little, crowded United Kingdom for further increase of moment, then the conclusion is inevitable that one of these three courses is the only possible alternative, for Britain has no adjoining territory she can annexe.

Some have been disposed to regard British federation as a possible fourth alternative, but the figures given, which convinced Rothschild and Rhodes, we submit, compel its exclusion, especially to such as seek for my motherland, as I do, a destiny worthy of her - a future commensurate with her glorious and unparalleled past. Let us rejoice that this is open. Her Canadian and republican children across the Atlantic will hail the day she takes her rightful place in the high council of her reunited race - that race whose destiny, I believe with faith unshaken, is to dominate the world for the good of the world." According to writer Allan C. Brownfeld, the above is only a portion of the support that a traitor to the United States is receiving in Jewish circles. It was reported on April 17, 1994, p. 2, of the Herald Journal, Logan, Utah that J. Robert Openheimer {a Jew} and other U.S. scientists gave the Soviets information on their efforts to build the first atom bomb, a retired Russian spy said in his memoirs quoted in Time Magazine.

The information passed on during World War II "significantly altered the direction of Soviet nuclear research," says Pavel Anatolievich Sudoplatov, who plotted the assassination of Leon Trotsky for Josef Stalin. Excerpts from "Special Tasks: The Memoirs of an Unwanted Witness a Soviet Spymaster" appear in the April 25 issue of Time Magazine.

Sudoplatov writes that members of the American science team who shared information with the Soviets included Nobel laureate Enrico Fermi and Neils Bohr {both Jews}, who worked with Oppenheimer on the Manhattan Project. Sudoplatov also had moles working in the Manhattan Project labs in Los Alamos, N.M., Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Chicago, he said.

19). The Jewish state of Israel, demanded and obtained forgiveness for billions of dollars they had received in loans and loan guarantees they had received in the '60s, '70s, and early '80's.

20). In 1991, the Jews were finally successful in tricking America into destroying one of their most feared enemies, Iraq. America had no interest in fighting Iraq but due to the Jewish controlled press, the people of the United States were convinced that Iraq was America's enemy.

"Why should we believe in God? We [Jews] Hate Christianity and Christians. Even the best of them must be regarded as our worst enemies. They preach love of one's neighbour, and pity, which is contrary to our principles. Christian love is a hindrance to the revolution. Down with love of one's neighbour; what we want is hatred. We must know how to hate, for only at this price can we conquer the universe--

The fight should also be developed in the Moslem and Catholic countries, with the same ends in view and by the same means."(5); "One of the finest things ever done by the mob was the Crucifixion of Christ. Intellectually it was a splendid gesture. But trust the mob to bungle the job. If I'd had charge of executing Christ, I'd have handled it differently. You see, what I'd have done was had him shipped to Rome and fed him to the Lions. They could never have made A Savior out of mincemeat!"(6); "Judaism and Christianity are two worlds, Between you Christians and us Jews there lies an unbridgeable gulf--

There are two life forces in the world: Jewish and non-Jewish--I do not believe that this primal difference between Christians and Jews is reconcilable--The difference between us is abysmal--You might say: 'Well, let us exist side by side and tolerate each other. We will not attack your morality, nor you ours.' But the misfortune is that the two are not merely different; they are opposed in mortal enmity. No man can accept both, or, accepting either, do otherwise than despise the other."(7)

International gangsters close entire factories [11 automobile plants were closed by General Motors in November 1987, putting thousands out of work - then General Motors opened NEW plants in Mexico and is now importing cars into the United States, where is the union? For it was strangely quiet; while all this is going on the closed automobile factories are being made unfit for making defensive war equipment and their previous workers are left to subsist on food stamps and other welfare programs].

God is being trampled. Men are perishing from and by decrees from company board-rooms where the destruction of Christian America is being planned and carried out; morality is ridiculed and mocked, while honest citizens have become a laughingstock. The J.D.L. [Jewish Defence League], A.D.L [Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith] have put America, Germany and the Western World on a mind-depressing guilt trip with their constant barrage of deception and lies.

21). In December 1992 the ADL [Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith] were caught red-handed and were exposed acting as a "Secret Police Force!" The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith (ADL) has long been suspected of subversive, criminal and illegal activities. However, up to this time, solid evidence had been minimal. Now Americans are confronted with the evidence, "A national police force, operating above the law, not only in one or two locations, but across the entire country!" It has been discovered that the ADL operates more than 42 regional offices across the United States, in addition to offices in Jerusalem, Paris, Rome and Ontario, Canada.

In addition to that, they have a national office at 823 United Nations Plaza, New York City. Testimony has been taken stating that ADL offices across the United State are involved in illegal criminal activity. It has been reported that illegal files were collected and kept on more than 12-million Americans, with more than 12,000 in the San Francisco area alone. What's more, the files were illegally obtained by Bribing police officials in both San Francisco and Los Angels.

"We know the powers that are defying the people—Our Government is in the hands of pirates. All the power of politics, and of Congress, and of the administration is under the control of the moneyed interests... The adversary has the force of capital, thousands of millions of which are in his hand...He will grasp the knife of law, which he has so often wielded in his interest. He will lay hold of his forces in the legislature. He will make use of his forces in the press, which are always waiting for the wink, which is as good as a nod to a blind horse--Political rings are managed by skillful and unscrupulous political gamblers, who possess the 'machine' by which the populace are at once controlled and crushed." (8)

Court documents released in March (1993) by the San Francisco District Attorney showed the ADL paid a full-time informer $170,000, between 1985 and 1993, for spying on over 10,000 people and 500 political and ethnic groups. The avowed goal of the ADL, American Jewish Congress and other Jewish organizations is as follows:

They were instrumental in the passage of the Geneva Law which established a National Bankruptcy Contract under "Silent Judicial Notice" to include all U.S. citizens in a fraudulent Social Security scheme, previously declared illegal under the law of nations.

Passage of H.J. Res. 192 which removed the U.S.A. from the Gold standard and made it impossible for the Nation to "pay" its debts. Set up a Credit Commune with "limited liability." "Taxation without Representation" exacted by U.S. officials as an extortion payment to the Federal Reserve (a private Jewish banking syndicate) and other agencies of the U.N., a front organization for the World's Ruling Elite. In other words paying: Tribute.

Utilization of taxpayer-supported agencies such as OPIC and AID to export American resources overseas in an expatriation of jobs and industries.

Regionalization of 30 of the 50 states by removing boundary descriptions from the State Constitutions - a Destruction of State and National Boundaries.

The signing of International trade agreements such as GATT (General Agreement on Trade and Tariffs) and NAFTA (North American Free Trade Agreement) to destroy "Nontariff Trade Barriers" and create an economic merger among Pan American Countries. And is doomed to fail. A Welfare State Immigration policy that attracts non-contributing undesirables to destroy the Standard of Living and provide a future inducement toward a communist type revolution and slavery for all American citizens - especially the promotion of crime and slave labour through alien immigration against Christians.

In this speech, Congressman McFadden exposes the actual mechanics of the theft of America's gold by the international bankers, just as predicted many years beforehand in The Protocols Of The Learned Elders Of Zion. U. S. Congressional Record, Wednesday, January 24, 1934, "Franklin D. Roosevelt, The Apostle of Irredeemable Paper Money."

Mr. McFadden. "Mr. Chairman, a citizen of the United States has asked me to explain for his benefit and for the benefit of other United States citizens the real meaning of the Roosevelt gold bill, the bill which the House passed last Saturday by 360 votes to 40, with 32 Members not voting.

Mr. Chairman, a law against the Constitution is void. The gold bill creates a nullity. Old John Marshall said that the words of the Constitution are not to be twisted out of their plain, everyday meaning. The Constitution says Congress shall have power to coin money and to regulate the value thereof. This, Mr. Chairman, means that Congress has power to make coins of metal and to stamp the true value upon each one of them. It does not mean that Congress shall refuse to furnish the people of the United States with an adequate coinage, and it does not mean that a theoretical amount of uncoined metal shall be called a coin. A coin is an object which may be seen and felt and even heard if one tests the ring of it.

Mr. Chairman, the gold bill attempts to cut out, delete, and destroy that part of our great written Constitution pertaining to the power of Congress to coin money and to regulate; that is, to stamp on the metal coin the value thereof. The bill is unconstitutional on its face because it seeks to nullify the Constitution. Moreover, it is a bill which is contrary to the common law and to the law of custom upon which the common law rests. It attempts to legalize robbery. It attempts by force to deprive the people of the United States of their right to the currency of the Constitution. It gives the international bankers power to send the gold belonging to the people of the United States to a place of deposit reserved to themselves in Europe. Mr. Chairman, the gold bill cannot become a valid law by any constitutional means.

Now, Mr. Chairman, let us look at the bill to see if the legal hirelings of the Bank of England and their agents, the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks, have been able to disguise its purpose. Let us see if they were able to clothe the grisly skeleton of their greed with echoes of glib religiosity, moral precepts, economic jargon, and shop-worn tags of speech, according to the fashion set by the present administration. The first thing that meets my eye is the title. We read: 'A bill to protect the currency system of the United States, to provide for a better use of the monetary gold stock of the United States, and for other purposes.'

It is indeed a bill to protect the present currency system of the United States, but it is a bill to protect it from the just wrath of United States citizens. It is a bill to save for the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks their gigantic monopoly of a special paper currency which they steal from the Treasury and upon which they charge the people of the United States a heavy toll of interest. It is indeed a bill to provide for a better use of the monetary gold stock of the United States if better use means the issuance of two sets of obligations against one piece of security. It is indeed a bill for 'other purposes,' and those are purposes which the proponents dare not mention.

Among the purposes of the gold bill not mentioned in the title is that of pretending to take into the Treasury the gold now held by the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks and a great effort has been made to have it appear that the Federal Reserve banks are unwilling to surrender the gold they now hold to the United States Treasury. This effort is dishonest for two reasons. First, the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks have already made a profit of some billions of dollars out of the President's gold seizures and those billions were stolen from the people of the United States; and, second, the transfer is fictitious. The President sought to convince Members of Congress that the Federal Reserve banks were resisting his efforts to have the Treasury take possession of the gold, but one of the members of the Federal Reserve Board spoiled that argument by declaring that the Federal Reserve Board has asked the President to have the Treasury take the gold.

You see, Mr. Chairman, under this bill the United States Treasury has to pay for the gold. Although the gold belongs to the people and was taken away from their bank deposits and their cash registers and their pocketbooks in the first place and put into the Federal Reserve banks, and although the Federal Reserve banks tricked and fooled the people into giving it to them for Federal Reserve currency, which they now refuse to redeem, and although that gold does not belong to the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks, the United States Treasury has to pay the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks for it. Well, how does this bill propose to pay the Federal Reserve outfit, how does this bill provide that the Government shall take over the stolen goods? It provides that the United States Government shall give the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks new gold certificates to the full value of the loot. The gold certificates will give the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks legal title to the gold, and the United States Treasury will be nothing more than its physical custodian. The Secretary of the Treasury will give the Federal Reserve banks gold for their new gold certificates whenever they ask for it. It is a fraudulent transfer.

When the individual citizens of the United States were required to surrender their gold they were required to surrender their gold certificates as well as their gold coin and bullion. The Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks are private corporations, but they did not obey the gold orders. They did not surrender any gold coin, gold certificates, or gold bullion. On the contrary, the gold which was commandeered from the people was given to them as a free gift, and now, after they have taken into their possession all the gold belonging to the people they are ready to make a pretended transfer of that gold to the Government. Evidently there is law for the common man and no law for the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks. The common man must toe the mark, but the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks are the agents of the Bank of England, and the law, it seems, does not apply to them. Many of the officials of the Federal Reserve outfit have had charges of impeachment brought against them, but those charges have not been investigated.

The Federal Reserve outfit now has in its possession gold coin, gold certificates, and gold bullion. But this bill does not require them to surrender their present holdings of gold certificates. After this bill becomes law, if such a catastrophe should occur, the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks will still hold their present gold certificates. They may exchange those gold certificates for gold between the time this bill becomes law and the day the President makes his proposed devaluation proclamation. Is not this gift of over $1,000,000,000 in gold a great treasure to bestow upon the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks - the corrupt and sinister organization which has bankrupted the country? Does this not make favourites of the financial crooks who control it?

Mr. Chairman, all the gold in the possession of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks belongs to the people of the United States. During the last 20 years, under the vicious Federal Reserve Act, they have taken it from the people in exchange for Federal Reserve currency and it has not cost them one penny. Now they come forward to make a pretended transfer of the people's gold coin and bullion to the United States Treasury. Not one penny of the gold they pretend to transfer to the United States Treasury is owned by them; every dollar of it belongs to the individual citizens of the United States. The United States Treasury is to buy it on credit and to pay for it with new gold certificates. How does this transfer title to the United States Treasury? Can the Congress lend itself to such a transaction?

Last May I stated that, in my opinion, the people's gold, unjustly impounded in the Federal Reserve banks, should be placed in the people's Treasury, but I did not state that it should be placed there as the property of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks, to be withdrawn by them with gold certificates and to be made exportable from the United States Treasury to the Bank for International Settlements in Europe. What this bill proposes to do in connection with the President's message suggesting that this United States gold may be sent to Europe to be kept in the Bank for International Settlements with the loot of the central banks of other countries is one of the greatest fiscal frauds in history. It is one of the biggest swindles of all time.

Again, Mr. Chairman, as you very well know, the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks had paper currency outstanding to the extent of about $5,000,000,000 when the present administration came into power. That currency was redeemable in gold. It constituted the people's title to all the gold held by the Federal Reserve outfit. It constituted a first and paramount lien on all the assets of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks. Instead of taking over the gold and the assets of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks, including the great hoard of United States wealth which they have hidden in foreign countries, and honestly administering those assets for the benefit of the people who had been defrauded by the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks, the President of the United States unlawfully relieved the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks from their legal liability to redeem their Federal Reserve currency in gold, or in lawful money convertible into gold, and from the surrender of all their assets.

Every dollar that was unlawfully taken from the people of the United States by Roosevelt's gold order was given to the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks in preparation for this great steal, this wholesale robbery of the masses for the benefit of the privileged few. And now that American citizens have lost their gold, an entirely fictitious transfer has been arranged to deceive the people. Mr. Chairman, the President may underrate the mental capacity of the American people as much as he likes, but I venture to say there is no man in the United States so dumb that he cannot understand how this bill tricks and deceives him. The Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks have profited to the extent of $5,000,000,000 or more by being released from their obligation to redeem their outstanding $5,000,000,000 of paper Federal Reserve currency in gold. They have profited by having had over a billion dollars in gold certificates saved to them. They have profited during the last 20 years by the criminality of the Federal Reserve Board, which never charged them one penny in interest on the great mass of Federal Reserve currency they have taken from the Government. They have profited from their own wrongdoing by the unlawful creation of fictitious claims against the United States Government and the giving of those claims to foreigners, and they have profited by their control of all the public revenues.

And now they come forward with a scheme to sell the gold they have taken from the American people to the Treasury for new gold certificates which will give them a legal title to that gold and permit them to do as they please with it. An era of corruption is culminating in one of the greatest crimes that has ever been perpetrated against the people. Mark my words, Mr. Chairman, there will be trouble here if this bill becomes law.

Why, Mr. Chairman, this fiscal fraud, this crime is so stupendous that the instigators and manipulators of it did not dare to have all the transactions performed by one man. Each man did his part and then got out of Washington pretending that he disagreed with the President's money policy or pretending that he was ill. William H. Woodin, who sat beside Albert H. Wiggin on the board of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and who acquiesced in and helped to perpetrate the financial misdeeds which bankrupted the country, is now hiding in a western sanitarium. Dr. Sprague, the tool of the international bankers and an employee of the Bank of England, was, in my opinion, put into the Treasury to resign at a certain time and to create uncertainty in the minds of the people by the manner of his going and his subsequent articles pleading for sound money.

Mr. Chairman, all the bickering and the resignations and the artful propaganda that has been thrown around the monetary policy of Franklin D. Roosevelt cannot disguise the fact that he was selected by the international bankers to carry on the work they started with the great depression; that is, the pauperization of the masses and the seizure of American property for their own use and benefit, and that he has lent himself to their schemes by unconstitutionally demanding and assuming the dictatorial powers which will enable him to carry them out.

Another purpose of this bill not mentioned in the title is the transference of a very large quantity of United States gold to the Bank for International Settlements. One of the chief objects of the gold policy of the present administration is the sending of gold taken by force from its lawful American owners to the Bank for International Settlements in Europe, where it will be kept with the property of the central banks of the world. According to the Hague convention, under which the Bank for International Settlements was formed, gold deposited in the vaults of the Bank for International Settlements is safe from seizure.

Our gold, when it goes there, will certainly be safe from seizure by the United States. The Bank for International Settlements is dominated by the Bank of England. It is not on American soil. It is in Europe. American gold, therefore, will be kept in Europe. It will be placed where none of the wage slaves of the United States will ever be able to acquire any of it. It will be the capital and means of oppression of that international superstate, that financial superstate, which has been after Uncle Sam's gold money ever since the wealth of this country attracted the attention of greedy European bankers and brought them flocking over here to set up the suction pumps of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve banks.

The Bank for International Settlements is an international bankers' bank. It is a central bank of central banks. The international bankers, who brought about the depression, have been drawing gold to themselves from the common people of every land. It is their intention to use that gold for their own purposes. They propose two kinds of money; Gold, the real money, is what they intend to have for themselves, and paper money, which has no intrinsic value in itself, and which is made out of nothing and is worth nothing unless it can be redeemed by the holder in gold; that is for the common people, or, as they call us, the peasants.

George Washington said: 'I never have heard, and I hope I never shall hear, any serious mention of a paper emission in this State; yet such a thing may be in agitation. Ignorance and design are productive of much mischief. The former is the tool of the latter, and is often set at work suddenly and unexpectedly.'

While he was here in Congress, Daniel Webster, in 1832, made the following statement: 'Of all the contrivances for cheating the laboring classes of mankind, none have been more effectual than that which deludes them with paper money. This is the most effectual of inventions to fertilize the rich man's field by the sweat of the poor man's brow. Ordinary tyranny, oppression, excessive taxation - these bear lightly on the happiness of the mass of the community compared with fraudulent currencies and the robberies committed by depreciated paper. Our own history has recorded for our instruction enough, and more than enough, of the demoralizing tendency, the injustice, and the intolerable oppression, on the virtuous and well disposed, of a degraded paper currency, authorized by law, or in any way countenanced by government.'

Franklin D. Roosevelt, the high priest of repudiation, the apostle of irredeemable paper money, and the man who intends to send United States gold out of the United States to a place where no American citizen can claim it, this Franklin D. Roosevelt characterizes all those who do not agree with his monetary policy as mules. If that is true, what an awful mule President Wilson must have been. Concerning Andrew Jackson, Wilson said: 'He had no idea of allowing the country to undertake the fatal experiment of an irredeemable paper currency.'

This is the fatal experiment Franklin D. Roosevelt has undertaken. This is a part of his policy of 'bold experimentation.' Not long ago he told the people at Savannah that George Washington, like himself, was an experimenter. Mr. Chairman, there are no points of remembrance between George Washington and Franklin D. Roosevelt, experimental or otherwise. George Washington did not take orders from money changers. He did not rob the people of their gold. George Washington abhorred dishonour in all its forms. He would have died before he would have violated his oath of office or tampered with the Constitution of the United States in the manner of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

In 1837 the New York Herald described the crime of suspending payments in specie, that is, in gold or silver, on demand, as follows: 'The general suspension of specie payments is a terrible fraud upon the community that will end in destruction to all concerned. This fraud is heightened into crime of the deepest dye, from the fact that it is done to send gold and silver to England by the actual plunder, at the point of the bayonet, of the great mass of the people here ...Such an act is a phenomenon in the annals of crime, without a parallel in the history of tyranny, violence, or bad government, from the remotest ages of the world down to the present day.'

Now, Mr. Chairman, let us hear the true purpose of the $2,000,000,000 fund which this bill proposes to set up. I quote from the prophecies of Henry Morgenthau, Mr. Baruch's Secretary of the United States Treasury, as shown by the following article which appeared in the Washington Times of January 16, 1934: 'Treasury sees United States need of Blue Chips; When you play poker you want just as many blue chips as the other fellow.' That, in a man's language, was the gist of Secretary Morgenthau's summing up of the Roosevelt proposal for a $2,000,000,000 stabilization fund to protect the currency of the United States.

In other words, the American Government is engaged in probably the greatest gamble of all time. The stake is the credit of the United States. To Equal British: When asked why a figure of $2,000 millions for the stabilization fund had been asked, Morgenthau said: 'e figured we might need an amount substantially equal to the British stabilization fund. We want every piece of machinery the other countries have. We want to be in a position to buy gold and to sell gold.' The 2,000-million stabilization fund will be derived from the Government's profit on the debasing of the value of the dollar to from 50 to 60 percent of the normal valuation.

Fund From Profits: If the debasement is 50 percent, the profit to the Government will be $4,000,000,000 in round numbers. A 60-cent dollar will mean about 2,666 millions in profits. Out of these profits will come the stabilization fund to be administered by the Secretary of the Treasury, the remainder being available for any Government expenditure. Morgenthau said: 'It is possible that the mere existence of the fund will be sufficient to carry out the law which requires that the Secretary of the Treasury maintain all lawful money of the Government on parity with gold.' The Secretary of the Treasury is charged with the responsibility of administration of the fund to carry out that purpose. If any particular type of currency issued - United States notes, for instance - should become depreciated in value, the Treasury would go into the market and buy a sufficient quantity of that currency to maintain its parity. Operations in the foreign markets to protect possible depreciation of the dollar would be similar.

Let this quotation from Morgenthau go down into history. Long from now some curious investigator of the present age of witchcraft and magic in the White House may unearth it and reconstruct the financial history of the 'new deal' from it, as science from a single part reconstructs the entire animal.

Mr. Chairman, it is not the gambler's voice in Mr. Morgenthau's confession which most deserves political attention. We are becoming accustomed here to gambling terms as they are employed by the executive branch of the Government, and we can well understand that the Executive and his favorites must of necessity speak the lingo of their kind. This is a gambler's administration, and all the 'big shot' gamblers are here to revel in it. Mr. Roosevelt does not deny his gambling propensities. He is a 'new dealer.' He is 'on his way,' but he 'doesn't know where he is going.' He is for a policy of 'bold experimentation,' just as Samuel Insull was for a policy of bold experimentation. He has not been Ben Smith's patron all these years for nothing. But, Mr. Chairman, there is something apart from the vice of gambling to be observed in Mr. Morgenthau's utterance, and that is its entire untruthfulness. He would have us believe that the United States is on one side of the fence and Great Britain on the other.

That, of course, is not the case. The United States has been placed in a position of financial servitude to Great Britain, and Mr. Morgenthau's loud-sounding propaganda is designed to conceal that fact from the people. Great pains have been taken to conceal it. It would be very damaging to this administration if certain people in the United States should find out about the great sums of United States money which have been sent to England during the past summer. Those funds were appropriated by Congress for the people of the United States.

Mr. Chairman, why should tax money paid by American citizens be sent to London? When England makes her periodical gesture of insult toward the United States by paying a small instalment on the war debt she owes us, she pays us in debased coins, in 'token' coins, to be exact. But when Mr. Roosevelt sends American money to England he sends it in gold or its equivalent. When Mr. Morgenthau obtains his 'kitty,' for this, I have been told, is what he called the proposed stabilization fund at the White House a week ago last Sunday evening, American funds will be fed to Europe more expeditiously and with less secrecy than such operations now require. If Congress puts the people's property into a 'kitty,' someone, if he cannot be the knight of the bedchamber, can at least pose before royalty as the knight of the 'kitty.'

Mr. Chairman, understanding that Henry Morgenthau is related by marriage to Herbert Lehman, Jewish Governor of the State of New York, and is related by marriage or otherwise to the Seligmans, of the international Jewish firm of J. & W. Seligman, who were publicly shown before a Senate committee of investigation to have offered a bribe to a foreign government; and to the Lewissohns, a firm of Jewish inter-national bankers; and to the Warburgs, whose operations through Kuhn, Loeb & Co., the International Acceptance Bank, and the Bank of Manhattan Co. and other foreign and domestic institutions under their control, have drained billions of dollars out of the United States Treasury and the bank deposits belonging to United States citizens; and to the Strauses, proprietors of R. H. Macy & Co., of New York, which is an outlet for foreign goods dumped upon this country at the expense of the United States Government, which is compelled to issue paper money on the said foreign goods of the Strauses.

Mr. Morgenthau is likewise related or otherwise connected with various other members of the Jewish banking community of New York and London, Amsterdam, and other foreign financial centres, and that he has as his assistant, presiding over public funds, Earle Bailie, a member of the firm of J. & W. Seligman, bribe givers as aforesaid, it seems to me that Henry Morgenthau's presence in the United States Treasury and the request that Congress now give him a $2 Billion 'kitty' of the people's money for gambling purposes is a striking confirmation of the statement made by me on the floor of the House on May 29, 1933. (See pages 385 through 388) Mr. Chairman, do you not see in this 'kitty' bill the identical features outlined in the Protocols of Zion? Do you not see the Protocols of Zion manifested in the appointment of Henry Morgenthau as Secretary of the Treasury? It is not by accident, is it, that a representative and a relative of the money Jews of Wall Street and foreign parts has been so elevated?

Why, Mr. Chairman, this 'kitty' bill takes the hitherto obscure young Henry Morgenthau and makes of him a central bank of the United States. It makes of him a central bank, an institution which Jefferson declared is one of deadly hostility to the free institutions of the United States. It exalts him above all other men. Under the powers to be granted him, his conduct is not subject to review or control by any other officer of the United States Government, not even the President.

What this 'kitty' bill really does is to slide into the hands of Henry Morgenthau the emergency powers which Congress granted to the President. Those powers will not lapse. Instead, they are being slyly and dishonestly transferred to the bankers and after the bankers, in the person of Henry Morgenthau, have exercised them long enough to get the gold of the United States into their exclusive possession and to transfer it to their den of thieves, the Bank for International Settlements, Congress may take back its constitutional power over the currency, but it will have nothing left to exercise it on. The monetary gold of the people of the United States will, like the sons of the people, be buried in a foreign field.

Mr. Chairman, if you, as one of the party in power, are thinking of remaking the world so that the old America we knew and loved is to be no more; if you are one of those who is countenancing the placing of this country under the British Crown and the pooling of all American resources with those of England and Soviet Russia; if you are one of those to whom a title of nobility appears to be more desirable than plain citizenship in the Republic founded by George Washington, I trust that you will some day descend from the Speaker's chair and let us know the reasons for your preference. If, on the other hand, you are not what these words depict, I trust that you will come down to the floor, and tell us how constitutional government is to be maintained in this country if the plutocratic managers of the Democratic Party continue their efforts to destroy it. You, if anyone, should be able to give the people of the United States an answer to this question.

Under this administration the result of the American Revolution has been reversed. The United States has become an economic vassal of Great Britain. The once proud Republic of the United States with its great charter of human freedom, the Declaration of Independence, and its written Constitution, which had kept it free and independent for over 140 years, and its flag first made by the hands of Betsy Ross in Philadelphia, and its national anthem, born within earshot of the British guns that shelled Fort McHenry - all these, like the American dollar, were brought down from their high estate. 'Oh, say, can you see by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?'

Mr. Chairman, you know very well that you cannot see that flag there as it used to be. Others started very cautiously to pull it down. But it was Franklin D. Roosevelt, in his unlawful and unconstitutional assumption of dictatorial powers, who finally lowered it and tore it from its standard." (9)

These wholesale repudiations of governmental accountability to the people under Article 6 of the U.S. Constitution should be construed as a hostile takeover and Act of War.

Subversion of the Constitution by International Treaty: Passage by Congress of unlawful (i.e., under Colour of Law) legislation designed to overturn the Constitution. The following list contains highlights from U.S. legislative history.

The Federal Reserve Act of 1913 (Abrogated Article 8, Sec. 8, clauses 5 & 6).

H.J. Res. 192 (1933) (Suspended the Gold Standard and Gold Clause).

The Arms Control and Disarmament Agency under P.L. 87-297 and described in State Department Document 7727.

The net effect of these seditious legislative changes has been to overthrow the National Spiritual and Common (Biblical) Law heritage of a once Great Republic.

The Savings and Loans, banking, and stock market manipulation of the so-called junk bonds which robbed many elderly (And a lot of them Jewish - but even they were proud of the actions of the Michael Milken, Boskies and etc., because it robbed so many Christians of their life savings.

This is the result of Congress giving the Jewish money powers a virtual monopoly of underwriting the issuance of stocks and bonds by prohibiting regular commercial banks from underwriting them. The investment bankers, almost all Jews, underwrite the issuance of most of the "good" corporations in America today.

With that monopoly the Jews have been able to take over more and more of America's wealth and have caused untold numbers of workers, including those in top corporate positions, to lose their jobs. The junk bonds, which is a high yield commercial bond issued by a small corporation; and since it is riskier, it pays much higher interest, as much as five to six percentage points higher than the safer bonds that are usually issued by large corporations.

Even though, it will be pointed out, that Jewish firms like Drexel went into bankruptcy, they have now "recovered," and the Jews who put it into bankruptcy are now richer than ever, because of Jewish judges like Kimba Wood, who reduced Michael Milkens' prison sentence and is involved in various ADL indoctrination programs directed at school children across America. With this manipulation of the American economy in full swing, who will suffer the most? Pension funds, mutual funds, insurance companies, savings and loan banks and the whole economy will go down the tube. The economy of America is about to collapse because of the Jewish money powers who have loaded corporate America down with so much high interest debt that it cannot pay it off. Our criminal Zionist controlled government will eventually declare martial law so that they can launch a "military enforcement action" to confiscate firearms from all law abiding citizens.

The merger of U.S. and Soviet forces into a "New World Army" which will signal the final step in bringing about total and "Unconditional Unilateral Disarmament and Surrender" of all global peons in preparation for World Totalitarian Rule.

"The warning of Theodore Roosevelt has much timeliness today, for the real menace of our republic is this Invisible Government which like a Giant Octopus sprawls its slimy length over city, state and nation. Like the octopus of real life, it operates under cover of a self-created screen. It seizes in its long and powerful tentacles our executive officers, our legislative bodies, our schools, our courts, our newspapers, and every agency created for the public protection. It squirms in the jaws of darkness and thus is the better able to clutch the reins of government, secure enactment of the legislation favourable to corrupt business, violate the law with impunity, smother the press and reach into the courts.

To depart from mere generalizations, let me say that at the head of this Octopus are the Rockefeller-Standard oil interests and a small group of powerful banking houses generally referred to as the International Jewish Bankers. This little coterie of powerful International Jewish Bankers virtually run the United States Government for their own selfish purposes. They practically control both parties, write political platforms, make Catspaws of party leaders,(13)use the leading men of private organizations and resort to every device to place in nomination for high public office only such candidates as well be amenable to the dictates of corrupt big business.

They connive at centralization of government on the theory that a small group of hand-picked, privately controlled individuals in power can be more easily handled than a larger group among whom there will most likely be men sincerely interested in public welfare. These international bankers and Rockefeller-Standard Oil interests control the majority of the newspapers and magazines in this country. They use the columns of these papers to club into submission or drive out of office public officials who refuse to do the bidding of the powerful corrupt cliques which compose the invisible government." Chapter Ten In Conclusion

In conclusion we present you with the following actions of the United States on the International and Domestic scene. Each and every one of the following can be traced to Jewish manipulation from behind the scenes. We could provide documentation for each one of these but that would take thousands of pages and I will not spend the time and energy to provide them.

US Congressional Record, 4/30/39 "Fractional reserve" banking is the Achilles' heel of the moneychangers. Their fatal weakness, as it were. This fraudulent system is inherently unstable, because it is nothing more than a cleverly concocted scheme of theft, designed to enrich the very few [the bankers] at the expense of the many [the working people of Europe and America]. The actual mechanics of the theft is carefully concealed behind a high wall of smoke & mirrors: M1, M2, velocity of money, etc.,etc., usque ad nauseam. But because the wealth of the world is being silently and surreptitiously siphoned off ["interest" on the various national debts is never borrowed into existence, as the various "money supplies" themselves are], recurring stock market crashes and subsequent hard times are built right into the system - hence its intrinsic instability.

Congressman Thorkelson recognized this, and inserted this great speech into the permanent record of U.S. Congressional debate, at the tail end of America's "Great Depression") "The President and the Bankers Went into a Huddle" U.S. Congressional Record, April 20, 1939, Hon. Jacob Thorkelson of Montana. Mr. Thorkelson. "Mr. Chairman, there seems to be a great deal of confusion in regard to terms. I have here a statement from the Treasury Department that I am going to insert in the Record, and

I ask all Members to read it. There is no relationship between our currency at home and the currency that is used abroad for the simple reason that the international dollar is secured with 15.521 grains of gold and the domestic dollar is not secured with gold. The international dollar is stabilized, therefore, upon its gold content and needs no stabilization fund in order to keep it stable.

Here is another fact we must bear in mind; that is, that $35 buys 533 I-3 grains of gold and $20.67 bought 533 I-3 grains of gold before 1933. So you are not buying any more gold with $35 than you bought with $20.67. The stabilization fund was set aside to be used by the President and the Secretary of the Treasury. It was not to stabilize the international dollar. The reason the fund was set aside was because it must be used in order to stabilize our securities that may be dumped on the foreign market. The Congress should realize that no securities or bonds are secured by gold. When such securities leave the United States to be liquidated in a foreign market, they are then paid in gold and the stabilization fund is to take care of and liquidate such securities in the foreign market.

Mr. Patman. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. Thorkelson. I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. Patman. Is not the gentleman talking about the open-market operations of the Federal Reserve bank rather than the stabilization fund?

Mr. Thorkelson. There is really no difference.

Mr. Patman. No difference?

Mr. Thorkelson. No difference; and I make that statement for the reason that when our securities or bonds are dumped on a foreign market they are payable in gold.

Mr. White of Idaho. What class of security does the gentleman refer to?

Mr. Thorkelson. I mean our bonds or credit. Even the commodity dollar is paid for in gold outside of the United States, in spite of the fact that it is not paid in gold within the United States.

Mr. Patman. Is not the gentleman mistaken about $12,000,000,000 of gold certificates outstanding?

Mr. Thorkelson. No. It is in this statement.

Mr. Patman. Show it to me.

Mr. Thorkelson. This comes from the Treasury Department.

Mr. Patman. Read it to the Committee.

Mr. Thorkelson. I will be glad to do that. 'Title to all gold held by the Treasury, now amounting to 15.5 billion, is vested in the United States. A large part of this gold (12.9 billion on April 17, 1939) is held as security for gold certificates (or credits payable in gold certificates)..'

Mr. Patman. Or credits. There is only $2,000,000,000 plus in gold certificates, with $10,000,000,000 plus in credit; just a pencil-mark transaction.

Mr. Thorkelson. Let me continue: 'issued to and held by the Federal Reserve banks pursuant to the Gold Reserve Act. Such gold certificates may be redeemed in such amounts of gold bullion as, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Treasury, are necessary to settle international balances.'

In order to reply to some of the questions which have been asked on the floor of the House, I present the following illustrations for explanation. An ounce of gold will only exchange another ounce of gold, so it follows therefore that the price does not fluctuate except in its exchange rate.

In 1932 the dollar contained 25.8 grains of gold. Today the dollar contains 15.521 grains of gold, and as we carry this on, we find that in 1932 it required 25,800 grains of gold to buy $1,000 of credit. Today, it only requires 15,521 grains of gold to buy $1,000 worth of credit. This is the reason for gold's coming to the United States.

Now, let us carry this transaction through: The English fish merchant, in order to buy an automobile worth $1,000 in the United States, customarily would take 25,800 grains of gold, or approximately 200 pounds in English money, to his bank and establish a credit for $1,000 in the United States. Today the same English merchant takes 15,521 grains of gold, or approximately 200 new pounds, to his bank in England, and establishes a $1,000 credit in the United States, to buy the same automobile that he bought in 1932.

In 1932 the American manufacturer would present a draft on the exchange bank in New York and would receive for his automobile 25,800 grains of gold, or $1,000. Today he takes the same draft to the bank and receives 15,521 grains of gold, or $1,000. The difference is not in the dollar, but it is in the amount of gold the dollar represents. This picture is not entirely true, because the manufacturer in the United States receives $1,000 in commodity or unsecured money and no gold, for domestic money is not payable in gold to us. The bank, however, receives $1,000 in credit from England, or 15,521 grains of gold, in stead of 25,800 grains of gold which it received in the same transaction before 1933.

This loss is taken by the United States manufacturer, who is actually selling his automobile for $600 in gold as compared to $1,000 in gold before our dollar was depreciated. This is also the reason why foreigners buy United States bonds and securities. The ounce of gold today buys $35 of securities, whereas the same ounce bought $20.67 worth of securities and bonds before 1933.

This is a good investment for foreign nations, particularly in view of the present trouble now raging in Europe. English capital is safer in the United States than it is in England, especially if England should lose a war or if her currency should collapse. So these same people buy United States securities because the interest is payable to them in gold, and the bonds and securities themselves are also redeemable in gold when they ask for such redemption.

The United States, therefore, becomes a depository for foreign nations, because their money is reasonably safe in the United States; and on top of that we pay them an interest payable in gold. This is the reason for the flow of gold into the United States. This is also the reason why business is upset and turmoil exists in every country in the world.

We cannot go back to the old gold standard and liquidate American securities in dollars based upon the old gold standard, because in such event we would pay 40 percent more gold for the liquidation of them than we received in the sale of such stocks and securities. This would deplete the United States Treasury and leave us hopelessly bankrupt.

Treasury Department, Washington, April 20, 1939. Hon. J. Thorkelson, House of Representatives. "My Dear Mr. Thorkelson: This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of April 18, 1939, addressed to Mr. Harry D. White, Director of Monetary Research, requesting information regarding money in circulation, etc.

1). The total money in circulation and the demand and time deposits of all member banks as of December 31, 1938, were a follows:

Total money in circulation outside Treasury and Federal Reserve banks:
$6,856,000,000.

Cash in vaults of member banks: $746,000,000

Demand deposits (all member banks) (adjusted): $22,293,000,000

Time deposits (all member banks): $11,369,000,000

Demand and time deposits of nonmember banks amounted to $17,525,000,000 on September 28, 1938.

2). Our laws require that a 40-percent reserve in gold certificates be held against Federal Reserve notes in circulation and a 35 percent reserve in gold certificates or lawful money against deposits of Federal Reserve banks.

3). The total deposits of national banks and their reserves on deposit with Federal Reserve banks for the dates requested are shown in the following table:

June 30-	1926	1932	1936	1938
Total deposits	17,092	15,206	20,986	21,866
Reserve with Federal Reserve banks	1,381	1,151	3,521	4,618
Percent	8.1	7.6	16.8	21.1

4). Two billion dollars of gold was set aside for the exchange stabilization fund. Of this amount $1,800,000,000 has remained on deposit in the Treasury in the form of gold, and $200,000,000 has been transferred to a special account with the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, to carry on the operations of the fund. A complete audit of the fund as of December 31, 1938, is enclosed.

5). Title to all gold held by the Treasury, now amounting to about $15,500,000,000, is vested in the United States. A large part of this gold ($12,900,000,000 on April 17, 1939) is held as security for gold certificates (or credits payable in gold certificates) issued to and held by the Federal Reserve banks pursuant to the Gold Reserve Act. Such gold certificates may be redeemed in such amounts of gold bullion as, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Treasury, are necessary to settle international balances or to maintain the equal purchasing power of every kind of United States currency.

The remainder of the gold held by the Treasury is accounted for as follows:
Gold reserve--held pursuant to law as a reserve against United States notes and Treasury notes of 1890 $156,000,000

Allocated to the stabilization fund.....$1,800,000,000

Gold in general fund (against which gold certificates or credits have not as yet been issued)- (a) Balance of increment resulting from reduction in the weight of the gold dollar.....142,000,000

(b) In working balance.....525,000,000

Very truly yours, Herbert E. Gaston, Assistant to the Secretary.

Mr. Chairman, today we are considering whether or not we should extend the power to control our gold until 1941 to the President of the United States. Congress had no right to give the President the power in the first place and there is certainly no excuse for its continuation today.

On April 17, 1939, the chairman of the Rules Committee, the distinguished gentleman from Illinois, very pompously tried to find some excuse for the extension of this power, but, true to form, he spoke on his pet topic, the Hoover administration. I dislike to refer to the past; in order to keep the record straight, I cannot refrain from replying to the gentleman's erroneous remarks.

In 1920 the national debt was approximately $28,000,000,000 and the purchasing power of the dollar was 64 cents, which is equal to a 36-percent inflation of currency. On Inauguration Day, March 4, 1921 there was $6,207,000,000 in circulation. On September 1, 1922, this had been reduced to $4,393,000,000, which was equal to the amount of gold in the United States Treasury. This established a balance, for there was no more currency in circulation than there was gold in the Treasury, and the dollar value was restored to 100 cents in gold. This brought the commodity prices down, so that in 1926 the dollar had a gold and purchasing value of 100 cents. It is for this reason that 1926 has been designated by this administration as a normal year.

During this period from 1921 to 1929 the Government lived within its income, and in addition to that, saved enough from its income to reduce the national debt about $8,000,000,000. From 1928 to 1933 the national debt remained about $20,000,000,000, but the value of the dollar was equal to $1.67, which, of course, meant that prices on commodities had dropped in the same proportion. This was not serious, for it was brought about by the withdrawal of money from circulation. The depression of 1931 and 1932 was premeditated by the same power largely instrumental in the repudiation of gold securities. The point to bear in mind, however, is this: All securities including money were backed by gold in the United States Treasury. We were on a gold standard and business was essentially sound in spite of the fact that there were ten or eleven million people unemployed.

In March 1933 the bankers and the President went into a huddle which terminated later in repudiation of all gold-bearing securities, and the use of gold-secured currency in the United States. In 1934 Congress enacted the Gold Reserve Act for reasons best known to itself but certainly unnecessary and destructive to industry.

It was supposed to be an act 'to protect the currency system of the United States, to provide for better use of monetary gold stock of the United States, and other purposes.' This act is not, as the title infers, 'to protect our commodity or managed currency,' because our domestic dollar is not secured or redeemable in gold in the United States. The dollar we are using here is spurious because it lacks standard value. It is for that reason bound to collapse, as sure as we are sitting here today, unless it is secured by gold, which alone is recognized as a standard of value.

The act further provides for better use of the monetary gold stock which is a misnomer. I believe the people in the United States realize today that the monetary power given to the President by Congress is the most contemptible capitulation of the New Deal to the international money power.

The President's emergency power and control of money has destroyed business and sent idle people walking the streets. In justice to those we are supposed to represent, let us restore the people's rights by placing an embargo on the gold, so that it may be used for security of the money we are using here at home. If anyone is entitled to be secured, it is our own people, so let us give them a break. If you do so, you will correct an injustice, and the people are entitled to that much consideration.

I am sure the people back home expect us to protect them and we can do so by resuming our constitutional power to 'coin and regulate the value of money.' After having done so, and upon returning home, we will at least not be ashamed to meet our constituents face to face. It has been said, 'Whoever controls the money of a nation controls that nation.' This power has been recognized for a long time. Mayer Anselm, the father and founder of the Jewish house of Rothschild, said: 'Permit me to issue and control the money of a nation and I care not who makes its laws.' This is the power the President asked for, and which Congress bestowed upon him in 1934, when the Gold Reserve Act was passed. The question now is. Do you want to continue the control of money to the President, to the Secretary of the Treasury, and the gang that was in the huddle in 1933?

Before you decide let us size up the situation as it is today. We have a national debt of over $40,000,000,000. We have unsecured currency,, and a dollar with no stable purchasing value which is unredeemable in gold in the United States. In other words, our people are consigned to the use of a commodity or managed dollar until it finally collapses, or until the majority in Congress changes its attitude and denies the President the control of money.

Congress alone has the constitutional power to control money, and that is as it should be, because it represents the people and the money belongs to the people. In spite of this the Seventy-third Congress set aside $2,000,000,000 in gold for the President and the Secretary of the Treasury, without even allowing an officer of the United States to ask for an accounting of it. This, of course, is a violation of the power as defined in the Constitution.

The purpose of the stabilization fund is not to stabilize the value of the international dollar for that is stabilized upon its gold content of 15.521 grains. It is not to stabilize our commodity or managed money for that has no relation whatsoever to gold. Our commodity money is no more than scrip or stage money, only worth what it can buy. The stabilization fund is, however, for one purpose, and that is to maintain a fixed value on United States bonds in foreign countries; otherwise they would not be acceptable, because they carry no gold value. Foreigners refuse to deal in worthless securities. In other words, Congress, at the public expense, has provided the President and the Secretary of the Treasury with $2,000,000,000 in gold, which they may use for call money on the stock market to protect the international money ring when they are called upon to liquidate United States bonds and other investments, which are unsecured at home but payable in gold to foreign countries.

With $2,000,000,000 in gold fabulous wealth may be accumulated by gambling alone. I wonder if Congress intends to continue this folly until 1941. But whether it does or not depends upon the vote of the majority of this House. It depends upon those who have gone along with the President for 7 years, because I do not believe that there is even one Republican who will subscribe to this so-called emergency.

I do not believe that my colleagues feel in their own hearts that they were fair and just to our people when they passed the Gold Reserve Act, which deprived them of equal rights with foreigners. I shall vote against extending further monetary power to the President and the Secretary of the Treasury, because I prefer instead to give the Nation's gold back to our people so that they may be secured by gold, a property which rightfully belongs to them. We have worked for it and it is ours and the people's right and privilege to enjoy the benefit of it. ARE we better off than we were yesterday or the day before?

The answer is 'no,' for we have made a complete failure of everything. We have as many unemployed people today as we had 6 or 7 years ago. If we include those who are now employed unnecessarily on the Federal pay roll, we have more unemployed people today than we have had at any time in the past. The Members of the House very well know that we have about 120,000 on the Federal pay roll in Washington alone.

Many industries have been closed and many more will close, because no sane and sensible businessman will put up sound securities to borrow unsound and spurious money. No one in his right senses will even begin or attempt to engage in business today, not knowing what this 'fly-by-night' administration is going to do tomorrow. I do not believe there is even one Government-owned corporation which is earning enough to pay its own expenses. As a matter of fact, to judge by appropriations made by Congress for the various Federal business ventures, it appears that all of them are operating at a deficit, no different from that of the Federal Government.

It is, indeed, a discouraging condition for which there is no necessity, and which Congress can correct today by resuming its rightful power to control and regulate money.

The first requisite for operation of industries is a sound and stable monetary system. If Congress fails to provide this, there will be no recovery or decrease in our unemployed. Do not deceive yourselves, gentlemen, business is not on a strike, as the administration insinuates, but business is instead discouraged and disgusted with an unreliable majority in Congress. Even the columnists in our daily papers recognize this. One of them said last night that the Supreme Court is encouraging Congress to neglect the Constitution. Inasmuch as it is recognized in the newspapers, it is well for Congress not to neglect it.

There will be no recovery until business can operate free and unmolested from Federal snoopers, or until the various Federal bureaus cease to demand complicated reports. Such things are unnecessary and expensive, and add to cost of production.

I actually believe that labour itself is beginning to realize that we cannot borrow money and hand it out in order to bring about consuming or purchasing power. It just does not happen that way. Purchasing power can only remain in the community in which industry is operating steadily, so as to provide a regular weekly pay roll. Under such conditions money always remains in circulation in the particular community where such business or industry is operating, but this is not the case when the Federal Government is spending money, because it is neither creative nor remunerative. The Federal Government cannot bring about purchasing power by spending money on various projects, for this reason: Money always returns to the source from which it came.

When the Federal Government borrows money it is from the Federal Reserve banks, and all money spent in different localities throughout the United States returns to the Federal Reserve banks or remains there until the Government borrows again. Money cannot remain in circulation unless it is used in private industry. Such money must realize sufficient profit not only to meet the overhead of such industry but, in addition to that, pay reasonable taxes. If this can be done, prosperity will prevail in such community. If destroyed, poverty takes its place.

Gentlemen, this is the condition the country faces today: Federal destruction and usurpation of private business and industry. Disraeli, the Jewish Prime Minister of Great Britain said: 'The world is governed by very different personages from what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes.' It occurs to me that this invisible government is present in all countries, but it is my opinion that its influence is particularly pernicious in the United States today, and it is no doubt the power that the majority in Congress has followed innocently; for I do not believe there is one Member in this House who would wilfully and maliciously deprive the people of their rights." (15)

Walther Rathenau, the Jewish banker behind the Kaiser, writing in the German Weiner Frei Presse, December 24th, 1912, said: "Three hundred men, each of whom knows all the other, govern the fate of the European continent, and they elect their successors from their entourage." (16)

Confirmation of Rathenau's statement came twenty years later in 1931 when Jean Izoulet, a prominent member of the Jewish Alliance Israelite Universelle, wrote in his Paris la Capitale des Religions: "The meaning of the history of the last century is that today 300 Jewish financiers, all Masters of Lodges, rule the world." (17)

If you doubt the accuracy of this statement then look it up for yourself. But be prepared to read thousands of pages of documents in the libraries of some of the largest cities, such as Dallas, Houston, Ft. Worth, Chicago, Los Angeles, New York and the Library of Congress. We have done that but we did not copy the papers simply because we did not have the finances nor the time to do so. So believe it or not, that is for you to decide.

Chapter Eleven

How The Jews Have Repaid America and Its People For Giving Them Safe Refuge From A World That Hates Them

Attacks On Christianity Previous to the formation of the Kehillah and the Jewish Committee, this sort of attack on the rights of Americans was sporadic, but since 1906 it has increased in number and insistence. Under cover of the ideal of Liberty we have given the Jews liberty to attack Liberty. What America has been tolerating is intolerance itself. Let us look rapidly down the years and see one phase of that attack. It is the attack upon Christianity. Here are a few items from the record. They are recorded over a period of years following the rise of Jewish power in America.

1899 - 1900. The Jews attempt to have the word "Christian" removed from the Bill of Rights of the State of Virginia.

1906 - 1907. The Jews of Oklahoma petition the Constitutional Convention protesting that the acknowledgment of Christ in the new State constitution then being formulated would be repugnant to the Constitution of the United States. The Jews force "The Merchant of Venice" to be dropped from public schools in Texas and Ohio.

1907 - 1908. Widespread demand by the Jews for the complete secularisation of the public institutions of this country, as a part of the demand of the Jews for their constitutional rights. Supreme Court Justice Brewer's statement that this is a Christian country widely controverted by Jewish rabbis and publications. Jews agitate in many cities against Bible reading. Christmas celebrations or carols in Philadelphia, Cincinnati, St. Paul and New York met with strong Jewish opposition.

1908 - 1909. Protests made to Governor of Arkansas against "Christological expression" employed by him in his Thanksgiving Day proclamation. Professor Gotthard Deutsch protests against "Christological prayers" at the high school graduating exercises at Cincinnati. Jewish community in Tamaqua, Pennsylvania, defeats resolutions providing daily Bible reading in schools. Local Council of Jewish Women of Baltimore petitions school board to prohibit Christmas exercise. Boycotts were instituted in New York against merchants who opened on Saturday. Special efforts at this period to introduce the idea of the Jewish Sabbath into public business. Jews refused to sit as jurors in court, thus postponing case.

1909 - 1910. On demand of the Jews, the school board of Bridgeport, Pennsylvania, votes to discontinue the recitation of the Lord's Prayer in the school. In Newark, New Jersey, the rabbis ask the night schools to discontinue Friday evening sessions, because the Jewish Sabbath begins at sundown on Friday. The work of introducing the idea of Jewish national holidays into public life especially active.

1910 - 1911. An attempt to have Hebrew officially recognized was frustrated by Supreme Court Judge Goff. Chicago Jews have election date changed because the official date fell on the last day of the Passover. Jews oppose Bible reading and singing of hymns in Detroit schools. Rabbis force Hartford, Connecticut, school board to drop "The Merchant of Venice" from reading list. New York Kehillah does two contradictory things; favors bill to permit Jews to do all kinds of business on Sunday, and pledges itself to co-operate in the strict enforcement of the Sunday laws.

1911 - 1912. Jews in Passaic, New Jersey, petition school board to eliminate Bible reading and all Christian songs from schools. At request of a rabbi, three principals of Roxbury, Mass., public schools agree to banish Christmas tree and omit all references to the season from their schools. A Jewish delegate to the Ohio Constitutional Convention suggests that the Constitution be made to forbid Christian religious references in schools. The Council of the University Settlement, at the request of the New York Kehillah, adopts this resolution: "That in the holiday celebrations held annually by the Kindergarten Association at the University Settlement every feature of any sectarian character, including Christmas trees, Christmas programs and Christmas songs, shall be eliminated."

1912 - 1913. Jews at Jackson, Tennessee, seek an injunction to prevent the reading of the Bible in City schools. Annual Convention Independent Order B'nai B'rith at Nashville, Tennessee, adopts resolution against reading of the Bible and singing Christians songs in public schools. Chicago Board of Education, scene of much Jewish agitation, approves recommendation of sub-committee to remove Christmas from the list of official public holidays in schools.

1913 - 1914. The energies of the Jewish powers were concentrated on the task of preventing the United States from changing the immigration laws in a manner to protect the country from undesirable aliens.

1914 - 1915. More Kehillah attempts to secure modification of the Sunday laws.

1914: World One began because the International Jewish Bankers did not wish Germany to build a railroad from the middle east to Germany, through most of the Arab countries. But the Jews made it appear that World War One started when the nations went to war to avenge the assassination of the Archduke Francis Ferdinand, the heir to the Habsburg Throne, so on June 28, A joint proclamation of emergency government a neutrality was issued by the American, Japanese, British, French and Czech Commanders in July and our party remained until late August.

1914: Walter Scott, the secretary of the new England Education League, has a bill introduced in Congress {H.R. 12247} "to create an international board of education and a fund for international or world education."

1915 - 1916. Jewish opposition to various movements towards making the schools free to use the Bible.

1916 - 1917. Jews busy carrying out an immense campaign against the "literacy clause" of the Immigration Bill. On demand of the Jews the New Haven, Connecticut, Board of Education prevents the reading of "The Merchant of Venice," and extends the prohibition to "Lamb's Tales from Shakespeare."

Please remember to keep in mind the fact that the Jews have been in total control of The Soviet Union, since their revolution in 1917!!!

1917: In January the Jewish President Woodrow Wilson, re-elected president in late 1916 on his promise to "keep us out of the war," and maintain strict "Neutrality," told Congress he earnestly wanted to remain at peace with Germany (But a careful study of history proves that, he, like his brother Jew FDR did a few years later worked heaven and earth to get the United States into the war), But on April 2, 1917 America went to war "to make the world safe for Democracy."

"But a study of the racial history of Europe indicates that there would have been few wars, probably no major wars, but for the organizing of the Jewish peace-propagandists to make the non-Jews grind themselves to bits. The supposition is permissible that the Jewish strategists want peace, AFTER they subjugate all opposition and potential opposition. The question is, whose peace or whose wars are we to 'enjoy?' Is man to be free to follow his conscience and worship his own God, or must he accept the conscience and god of the Zionists?" (1)

In August the project expanded, when 7,000 men were landed in Vladivostok and remained until January 1920, as part of an allied occupation force. In September 1918, 5,000 American troops joined the allied intervention force at Archangel, in support of the Bolshevik Forces, suffered 500 casualties and remained until June 1919.

A handful of Marines took part earlier in a British landing on the Murman Coast {Near Norway} but only incidentally. Max Nordau, a Jew, speaking at the Zionist Congress at Basle in August 1903, made this astonishing "prophesy": "Let me tell you the following words as if I were showing you the rungs of a ladder leading upward and upward: Herzl, the Zionist Congress, the English Uganda proposition, The Future War, the peace conference, where with the help of England a Free and Jewish Palestine will be created." (2)

All these operations were in support of the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia and were partly supported by Bolshevik elements who participated at times with us, but no war was declared, and ALL operations were under the personal direction of then President Woodrow Wilson {A Marrano Jew. When the family lived in Germany and were openly Jewish, they spelled the name Wolfson. Then when they moved to England they followed the Jewish custom of altering their name occasionally, to make it sound more Western, and it became Wohlson. And, then, when they moved to the United States, they changed it again, and this time it became Wilson}. Why? Britain desperately needed help, so the Zionist Jews offered U.S. wealth and manpower in exchange for Britain's promise to give Palestine to the Jews. This promise was engineered by Lord Balfour {a Jew}, and thus called the Balfour Declaration.

1918-1919: The Treaty of Brest-Litovsk, signed March 15, 1918, between Russia and Germany removed Russia from the side of the Allies, added to the political chaos within Russia, and caused additional political and military problems for the Allies.

On June 2, 1918, the Allied Supreme War Council voted for military intervention at Murmansk and Archangel in North Russia by a force of mixed nationalities under British command. The original objectives of the expedition were limited: to establish a rallying point for those Czech troops inside Russia who were still loyal to the Allies, to guard the supplies sent to the northern ports for the Imperial Russian Army, and to prevent the establishment of German naval bases at the northern ports. On July 17, 1918, President Woodrow Wilson (3) agreed with his Jewish advisors to furnish American troops for the intervention of this plan. On August 9, 1918, the 339th Infantry Regiment, 1st Battalion of the 310th Engineers, 337th Field Hospital, and 337th Ambulance Company, all elements of the 85th Infantry Division, were officially designated the "Murmansk Expedition."

On August 27 the expedition, consisting of 143 officers and 4,344 enlisted men under the command of Lt. Col. George E. Stewart, sailed from Newcastle-on-Tyne in England and arrived at Archangel on September 4 where, with other Allied forces, it became part of the command of Maj. Gen. F.C. Poole, British Army.

American troops soon began to deploy along the front 450 miles long, extending from Onega in the west to Pinega in the east, and at some points 200 miles distant from Archangel the site of Head-quarters, AEF, North Russia, and also Allied Headquarters. Between September 1918 and May 1919 troops of AEF, North Russia, suffered over 500 casualties {mostly Americans} in combat against the Russian 6th and 7th Armies.

In addition to the troops composing AEF, North Russia, there were two other American contingents in the area. The American Military Mission to Russia, headed by Col. James A. Ruggles and including several assistant military attaches, reported on significant political and military events to the War Department and to David Francis, U.S. Ambassador to the Provisional {Bolshevik} Government of the Northern Provinces.

The North Russia Transportation Corps Expeditionary Forces, consisting of the 167th (Operations) and 168th (Maintenance) Companies, Transportation Corps, were sent to Murmansk in march and April 1919 to operate and maintain the Murmansk Railway so that a line of withdrawal for the icebound Allied force at Archangel might be kept open.

Maj. Edward E. MacMorland commanded this contingent, which operated and maintained the Murmansk Railway from its headquarters at Soroka. Early in 1919 President Wilson and his chief advisers decided it was time to withdraw all American forces from North Russia.(4) During May 1919 Brig. Gen. Wilds Richardson, who had assumed command of all U.S. forces in north Russia on April 9, began to concentrate AEF, North Russia, around Archangel preparatory to return to the United States via Brest, France. By June 27 the last of AEF, North Russia, had left for Brest. On July 28 the North Russia Transportation Corps Expeditionary Forces left Murmansk for Brest, and on August 5, 1919, Headquarters, AEF, North Russia, was discontinued.

1918 - 1919. Provost Marshal Crowder, in charge of the Selective Draft U. S. Forces, had issued an order to all medical examiners, under direction of the Surgeon General, stating: "The foreign-born, especially Jews, are more apt to malingering than the native-born."

Louis Marshall, head of the American Jewish Committee, telegraphed demanding that the "further use of this form shall be at once discontinued." President Wilson ordered the excision of the paragraph. The United States shipping Board sent an advertisement to the "New York Times," calling for a file clerk and stating that a "Christian" was preferred - by which is meant always a non-Jew - the paper rejected it. Louis Marshall again went into action and protested to Bainbridge Colby, Woodrow Wilson's Secretary of State, demanding "Not because of any desire for inflicting punishment, but for the sake of example and the establishment of a necessary precedent this offence should be followed by a dismissal from the public office of the offender, and the public should be informed the reason."

Attention is called to the tone which the American Jewish Committee adopts when addressing high American officials in the name of Jewry. It is not to be duplicated in the address of any other representative of any other race or faith. The Plattsburg Manual, published for officers in the United States officers' training camps, contained the statement that "the ideal officer is a Christian gentleman."

The A.J.C. at once protested against "Christological manifestations," and the manual was changed to read "the ideal officer is a courteous gentleman." The Anti-Defamation Committee claimed that 150 American cities had excluded "The Merchant of Venice" from the public schools.

1919: Dalmatia. U.S. Forces were landed at Trav at the request of Italian authorities to police order between the Italians and Serbs.

1919 - 1920. The Kehillah was so successful in its campaign that it was possible for a Jewish advertiser in New York to say that he wanted only Jewish help, but it was not possible for a non-Jewish advertiser to state his non-Jewish preference. And so it goes on, year after year, right up to the present day. The incidents quoted are typical not occasional. They represent what is transpiring all the time in the United States as the Jews pursue their "rights." There is no interference with Jewish ways and manners. The Jew may use his own calendar, keep his own days, observe his own form of worship, live in his own ghetto, exist on a dietary principle all his own, slaughter his cattle in a manner which no one who knows about it can approve - he can do all these things without molestation, without the slightest question of his right in them. But, the non-Jew is the "persecuted one." He must do everything the way the Jew wants it done; if not he is infringing on Jewish "rights."

1919-1920: After many months of prodding by America's Allies and top advisers in the State Department, President Woodrow Wilson agreed in early July 1918 to permit limited U.S. participation in an Allied expedition to Siberia. Among the reasons Wilson gave for this move by the United States were: to extricate Czechoslovak Armed Forces from Siberia who had been attempting to reach the Western Front; to guard allied military stores at Vladivostok; and to aid the Russian {Bolshevik} people themselves in "self-government and self-defence." Soon after Wilson's announcement, the War Department made speedy preparations for the transfer of the 27th and 31st Infantry Regiments from the Philippine Islands to Vladivostok.

In addition, Maj. Gen. William Graves,(5) who was designated commander of the expedition, received orders to select an additional 5,000 men and officers from his 8th Division stationed at Camp Fremont, Calif., to supplement these two infantry regiments. On August 3, 1918, orders were sent from the Adjutant General in Washington to the two regiments in the Philippines and to Graves in California to embark for Vladivostok, where they were to establish American Headquarters. The bulk of the expeditionary forces landed in Siberia between August 15 and September 2. Immediately upon arrival, elements of the 27th and 31st Infantry Regiments took up guard duty along the Ussuri Railroad line from Vladivostok to Nikolsk.

During late August and September the remainder of the 27th Infantry under Col. Henry Styer participated in an Allied offensive that pushed back Russian forces in the Spasskoe-Ussuri region. By November most of this fighting had subsided, and the primary tasks of the AEF in Siberia became railroad garrison duty, care of prisoners of war, and guarding Allied supplies at Vladivostok.

In the Spring of 1919, an inter-Allied agreement on guarding the Trans-Siberian Railroad resulted in the assignment of American forces to several widely separated sections of the railroad line: Vladivostok to Nikolsk-Ussuri, Ugolnaya to the Suchan Mines, Spasskoe to Ussuri, and (1,700 miles further west) Verkhne-Udinsk to Mysovaya. During the period May through August 1919, the garrisons at Ugolnays, Ussuri, Razodolnoe, the Suchan Mines, and Shkotovo sustained the heaviest casualties of the expedition because of strikes, riots, and Russian guerrilla activity. Conditions were so bad that American forces were removed from Shkotovo and the Suchan Mines in August.

Other American garrisons, however, maintained their stations until January 9, 1920, when the War Department ordered the entire AEF in Siberia to assemble at Vladivostok in order to return to Manila.(6) On April 1, 1920, General Graves closed his headquarters, and the last American units departed from Siberia.

1919: Honduras. A landing force was sent ashore to maintain order during an attempted revolution.

1919: The Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) was established to promote Communism and implementation of the evil objectives of the original Illuminati.

1918/1919: Mexico. After withdrawal of the Pershing expedition, our troops entered Mexico in pursuit of bandits at least three times in 1918; in August 1918 American and Mexican troops fought at Nogales. and six times in 1919.

1918/1920: Panama. For police duty according to treaty stipulations, at Chiriquial during election disturbances and subsequent unrest.

1918/1920: Soviet Russia. Marines were landed at and near Vladivostok in June and July to protect the American Consulate and other points in the fighting between the Bolshevik troops and the Czech Army which had traversed Siberia from the Western Front.

1920: China. A landing force was sent ashore for a few hours to protect lives during a disturbance at Klukiang.

1920: Guatemala. To protect the American Legation and other American interests, such as the cable station, during a period of fighting between Unionists and the Government of Guatemala.

1920/1922: Russia {Siberia}. An American Marine guard to protect the United States radio station and property on Russian Island, Bay of Vladivostok. Thus prohibiting the use of the Radio Station from being used by anti-Bolshevik elements.

1921: Panama/Costa Rica. American naval squadrons demonstrated in April on both sides of the Isthmus to prevent war between the two countries over a boundary dispute.

1921: A famine in the Ukraine, where Stalin murdered more than 7-million kulaks by starvation. This caused famine throughout the Soviet Union and America sent them over $74-million in food through a so-called conservative by the name of Herbert Hoover. However, this help was sent under the guise of "Belgian Relief." Which must have been quite a shock to the Belgians who had just made one of the greatest harvests of food in their history.

1922: Turkey. A landing force was sent ashore with the consent of both Greek and Turkish authorities, to protect American lives and property when the Turkish Nationalists entered Smyrna.

1922/1923: China. Between April 1922 and Nov. 1923, marines landed five times to protect Americans during periods of unrest.

1924: Honduras. To protect American lives and interests during election hostilities.

1924: China. Marines were landed to protect Americans and other foreigners (Read that Jewish International Banker's interests) in Shanghai during Chinese factional hostilities.

1924: "We intend to remake the Gentiles -- what the Communists are doing in Russia." (7)

1924: The power of the Bank of England and of its governor was admitted by most qualified observers.

1925: China. Fighting of Chinese factions accompanied by riots and demonstrations in Shanghai necessitated landing American forces to protect lives and property in the International Settlement.

1925: Honduras. To protect foreigners at La Celba during a political upheaval.

1925: Panama. Strikes and rent riots led to the landing of 600 American troops to keep order and protect American interests.

1926: China. The nationalist attack on Hankow necessitated the landing of American naval forces to protect American Citizens. A small guard was maintained at the disposal of the consulate general even after Sep. 16, when the rest of the forces were withdrawn. Likewise, when Nationalist {anti-Communist} forces captured Klukiang, naval forces were landed for the protection of foreigners.

1926/1933: Nicaragua. The coup d'etat of General Chamorro aroused revolutionary activities leading to the landing of American marines to protect the interests of the United States and the Inter-national Jewish Banking interests. U.S. Forces came and went, but seem not to have left the country entirely until January 3, 1933. Their work included activity against the outlaw leader Sandino in 1928.

1927: China. Fighting at Shanghai caused American naval forces and marines to be increased there. In March a naval guard was stationed at the American Consulate at Nanking after Nationalist {anti- Communist} forces captured the city. American and British destroyers later used shell fire to protect Americans and other foreigners. Following this incident additional forces of marines and naval vessels were ordered to China and stationed in the vicinity of Shanghai and Tientain.

1928: America sent Russia the money whereby they were able to change from a so-called "agrarian" to an "industrial" society, Standard Oil contributed over $20-million, with healthy contributions from General Electric. While at the same time Averieell Harriman, Sr. was sent to Moscow by our government to put their mines back into operation again. 1930: During the 1930's the United States built their automobile industry and the steel industry at Gorki, modeled after our plants at South Bend, Indiana. Only five times as large. While at the same time the American government was using taxpayer dollars built the Russians the world's largest hydro-electric plant on the Dnepr River.

1932: China. American forces were landed to protect American interests during the Japanese occupation of Shanghai.

1933: Cuba. During a revolution against President Genardo Machado naval forces demonstrated; no landing was made.

1934: China. Marines landed at Foochow to protect the American Consulate.

1935: The American government sent grain and medical help to Russia during a time of intense famine. It is almost certain that the Communist government would have collapsed at this time without this help, as there were food riots over the entire Soviet Union. "Germany is the enemy of Judaism and must be pursued with deadly hatred. The goal of Judaism of today is: a merciless campaign against all German peoples and the complete destruction of the nation. We demand a complete blockade of trade, the importation of raw materials stopped, and retaliation towards every German, woman and child." (8)

1939: The Communist Government under Stalin's rule, was so shaky the Russian Army was on the verge of being defeated by tiny Finland; one of America's most staunch friends. And with the diversion of just a tiny fraction of the millions of tons of war equipment being shipped to Europe daily, could have saved Finland and dealt a sever blow to Stalin and a death blow to Communism. But due to the efforts of Roosevelt no supplies reached them.

1940: At the beginning of World War II, Franklin D. Roosevelt, along with his Jewish advisors came to the aid of the Soviet Union once again, which was a much greater threat to our safety than the Nazis could ever have become. During the war we sent them over $11-billion in Lend Lease at a time American men and boys were dying in the Pacific for lack of supplies, because our available ships were transporting some of these war materials to the Soviet Union. The Soviets never returned the "Liberty" ships we loaned them to ship much of this material in.

1941: Netherlands {Dutch Guiana}. In November the President ordered American troops to occupy Dutch Guiana, by agreement with the Netherlands Government in exile, while Brazil co-operated to protect aluminium ore supplies from the bauxite mines in Surinam.

1941: Germany. Sometime in early spring of 1941, the President ordered the Navy to patrol the shipping lanes to Europe. By July U.S. warships were convoying Allied ships and by September were "Attacking" German Submarines. This was done with no authorization of Congress or Declaration of War. In November, the Neutrality Act was partly repealed to protect and allow military aid to Russia and Britain.

1941: On November 18, the Pearl Harbour tragedy was invited when Hull rejected the Prime Minister of Japan's sincere and humble request to meet personally with President Roosevelt and discuss and adjust the problems confronting the two nations in a mutually satisfactory manner.

1941: December 4, 5, 6, Army intelligence and the United States Navy cipher experts intercepted Japanese code messages that plainly revealed the very time Japan would strike Pearl Harbour! (9) The officials at Washington knew exactly what was going to happen. But no word, no alert, no warning was allowed to be sent to the Commanders at Pearl

Harbour until the senders knew the message would be received After the attack was made. (10)

1941: December 7, at 7:50 A.M., the United States Pacific fleet was anchored, unprotected, unprepared, never warned, never alerted. Result: 200 planes and 5 big battleships were totally destroyed, 3 other wrecked. 1941/1946: President Roosevelt, re-elected on promises to keep America out of the European war, tried repeatedly to entice German submarine commanders into sinking our unarmed merchant ships which were hauling millions of tons of war supplies to Germany's enemies. Although it is still a closely guarded secret, a British Submarine, disguised as a German U-2 Boat, was captured firing upon an American Ship and was taken to Norfolk and then quietly released. "We are not denying and we are not afraid to confess, this war is our war and that it is waged for the liberation of Jewry... Stronger than all fronts together is our front, that of Jewry.

We are not only giving this war our financial support on which the entire war production is based. We are not only providing our full propaganda power which is the moral energy that keeps this war going. The guarantee of victory is predominantly based on weakening the enemy forces, on destroying them in their own country, within the resistance. And we are the Trojan Horses in the enemy's fortress. Thousands of Jews living in Europe constitute the principal factor in the destruction of our enemy. There, our front is a fact and the most valuable aid for victory."(11)

1945: On April 26, 1945, representatives of most of the civilized nations of the world met in San Francisco to create an organization of nations which would become a pattern for world government and, it was hoped by its sincere supporters, insure lasting peace to a world long weary of war. The conference was completed on June 26, 1945, with the adoption of the U.N. Charter.

1946: Treaty. President Truman ordered the augmentation of U.S. Troops along the zonal occupation line and the reinforcement of air forces in Northern Italy after Yugoslav forces shot down an unarmed U.S. Army transport plane flying over Venezia Giulia. Earlier U.S. Naval units had been dispatched to the scene.

1948/1949: China. Marines were dispatched to Nanking to protect the American Embassy when the city fell to Communist troops, and to Shanghai to aid in the protection and evacuation of Americans.

1950: January: State Department White Paper issued declaring that the United States would not defend South Korea or Formosa if they were invaded. The bait was accepted: On June 9, 1950, South Korea was invaded. America entered a war that was to cost it 117,000 American lives. 1950/1953: Korea. U.S. responded to North Korean invasion of South Korea by being ordered to go to its assistance by the United Nations; Congressional Authorization was not sought. The Korean fiasco aroused American voters who were offered, the Jew, Dwight D. Eisenhower for President, a soldier who they thought would surely win that ridiculous war. Eisenhower did end the war, but not by winning which could easily have been done, but by yielding to Communist terms and insults he provided the festering sore of a divided Korea; "We will have a world government whether you like it or not. The only question is whether that government will be achieved by conquest or consent." (12)

1951/1955: China. Naval units evacuated U.S. Civilians and military personnel from the Tachen Islands.

1952: In 1952 the Jews had become so powerful at influencing Christian thinking into accepting Jewish teachings that they actually bragged about their power within the pages of the American Jewish Yearbook. Where they stated; "Arrangements have been completed with the National Council of Churches whereby the American Jewish Congress and the Anti-Defamation League will jointly...aid in the preparation of lesson materials, study guides and visual aids...sponsored by Protestant organizations. You can call these tactics anything you want to. You can even say smear. We prefer to say 'education.'"

1954: Agents of Israel's Mossad firebombed the U.S. Consulate and other facilities in Egypt. They planned to blame it on the Egyptians and thus drive a wedge between that country and America. One of the terrorists was Phillip Nathanson, who let an incendiary device go off in his pocket. That drew the attention of Egyptian authorities, and the resulting scandal was called the "Lavon Affair." Its political aftermath caused Israel's first Prime Minister (David Ben-Gurion) to resign. In Brown v. Board of Education the Supreme Court decided segregated schools were unconstitutional. The federal legal brigade aiding Brown and NAACP was heavily Jewish. The result has been unending racial tension, mind boggling costs for bussing students and remedial programs for Blacks, and trillions of hours lost in the education of White children.

"We must realize that our party's most powerful weapon is racial tension. By pounding into the consciousness of the dark races, that for centuries they have been oppressed by whites, we can mold them into the program of the Communist Party. In America, we aim for several victories. While inflaming the Negro minorities against the whites, we will instill in the whites a guilt complex for their supposed exploitation of the Negroes. We will aid the Blacks to rise to prominence in every walk of life and in the world of sports and entertainment. With this prestige,, the Negro will be able to intermarry with the whites and will begin the process which will deliver America to our cause." (13)

1954: February 23: U.S. Senator William Jenner of Indiana refers to the Supreme Court's Missouri v. Holland (1920) ruling regarding treaties, and to the High Court's Pink decision, as he speaks in support of the Bricker amendment which would have prevented any treaty from overriding the U.S. Constitution {But the amendment failed to pass by one vote. All the Jewish members of Congress left no stone unturned in their efforts to defeat it}.

1956: Egypt. A marine battalion evacuated U.S. nationals and other persons from Alexandria during the Suez crisis.

1958: Lebanon. Marines were landed in Lebanon at the invitation of its government to help protect against threatened insurrection supported from the outside.

1959: Cuba. With the connivance of the Jewish controlled U.S. State Department and the American News Media. Fidel Castro overthrew the government of Cuba and installed a Communist dictatorship ninety miles from our Southern Coast.

1959: January: The New York Bar Association publishes a paper, "Peace Through Law," by Secretary of State {World Brotherhood member} John Foster Dulles, in which he declares: "To accomplish peace through law will take patience and perseverance. It will require us at times to provide an example by accepting for ourselves standards of conduct more advanced than those generally accepted...There is no nobler mission {peace through law and world government} that our nation could perform."

1959/1960: The Caribbean. The 2nd marine ground task force was deployed to protect U.S. Nationals during the Cuban crisis.

1960: February 18: Secretary of State CFR member Christian Herter delivers a speech in which he calls for disarmament, "to the point where no single nation or group of nations could effectively oppose this enforcement of international law by international machinery."

1961: The United States Government trained and transported Cuban exiles for the recapture of their homeland. Then were deliberately abandoned to Castro at the Bay of Pigs. This was just another of the psychological acts performed by our Jewish- owned traitorous leaders to install, in the American's mind a feeling of helplessness against Communism.

1961: April, Our government understood that Castro would allow Russia to destroy us from Cuban bases. To avert this inevitable destruction, an invasion was planned, financed, and controlled by the United States State Department and Central Intelligence Agency. The President of the United States approved the plan and promised air support to the invaders. Two United States carriers, loaded with fighter planes stood by in easy striking distance. Secure in the assurance of absolutely necessary air support, 1400 brave, armed men, landed on the shores of Cuba. In the ensuing battle Castro's forces suffered heavy losses. Castro's tanks coming into the battle could have all been completely destroyed by air support. Confidently, the little, patriotic, invading force waited for the promised air support to arrive.

Our President had faithfully assured them of that support. It was part of the pre-invasion planning. A small but potent force of B-26's was sitting in readiness on an airstrip 500 miles away waiting to take off to help the brave invaders at the Bay of Pigs. But those planes did not take off. The brave young, freedom-loving, patriot martyrs were lied to and betrayed and forsaken and allowed to die awful deaths by the most powerful and most highly respected nation on earth.

At their darkest hour, our government broke its word, and its sacred honor and allowed those brave men to suffer, bleed and perish. This is one of the dirtiest blotches in American history. Just before the planes took off -- we were again informed by our CFR United Nations Communist bosses that: we were not a sovereign nation; that we were no longer living under The United States Constitution, but under The United Nations Charter; that we had no right to take any military move not even to defend ourselves from invasion or aggression, or even to put down internal rebellion and revolution except upon the orders or with the permission of the "Under-Secretary of Political Security and Military Affairs" of the United Nations; and that he demanded the United States to stop the invasion and to be sure not to allow the planes to leave the ground.

1962: Cuba. President Kennedy instituted a so-called "quarantine" on the shipment of offensive missiles to Cuba from the Soviet Union. He also warned the Soviet Union that the launching of any missile from Cuba against any nation in the Western Hemisphere would bring about U.S. nuclear retaliation on the Soviet Union. Thus, a negotiated settlement was achieved a few days later.

1962: Thailand. The 3rd marine Expeditionary Unit landed on May 17, to support that country during the threat of Communist pressure from outside. The Jewish Communist Bosch, with U.S. support, was elected president of the Dominican Republic.

1962/1975: Laos. After years of subsidizing an anti-Communist Laos, Kennedy abruptly ceased all aid. Landed troops which supposedly were to support the government, but were removed and aid restored "only after" the Troika Government was installed including one "Communist" and one so-called "Neutral" who was favourable to the Communists.

1963: Dominican Republic. The military seized power from Juan Bosch, the United States immediately severed diplomatic relations.

1964: Congo. The U.S. sent four transport planes to provide an airlift for Congolese troops during a rebellion and to transport Belgian paratroopers to rescue foreigners.

1964: Communist China tested its first A bomb on October 16, 1964, and its first H-bomb on June 17, 1967, because of the treachery and treason of Jewish spies.

1964/1973: War in Vietnam. U.S. military advisers had been in South Vietnam for a decade {10 years}; They were first sent to Vietnam by then Jewish President Eisenhower, and their numbers were increased as military positions of the Saigon Government became weaker. This war was because of the rich off shore oil fields which the Jewish oil companies wanted to develop.

1966: The American government sent Russians the IBM equipment which was necessary for their rocketry program. Our American government also sent them the world's largest magnet, which many believe is being used against us in their "weather modification program." It is well known they are engaged in intensive research along this line.

1967: Congo. The U.S. sent three military aircraft with crews to provide the Congo Central Government, which has proven over the years to be Communistic - with logistical support during a revolt.

The U.S.S. Liberty was deliberately attacked in International Waters as it monitored communications during the Six-Day War. Israel used U.S.-donated equipment to jam the ship's S.O.S., hoping to sink it and murder all aboard before word could get out. 34 sailors were butchered and 170 wounded in this blatant Act of War. The Liberty was part of the Sixth Fleet, a powerful group of men and ships paid for by U.S. Taxpayers to protect the Israeli's. What do the Jews think of our American Service Men, the descendants of the men who pulled their chestnuts out of the fire in World War II? Read the following for just a sample of the many slaps in the face they give our military!

Israeli's Attempt to Sink the U.S.S. Liberty: An eyewitness report from the U.S.S. Liberty, by John Hrankowski: "June 8, 1967, was a bright, sunny day in international waters off Egypt. A breeze tracked our electronic-laden vessel, the U.S.S. Liberty, cruising under orders of the U.S. Navy. As an engineer I was not on deck, but when several jets began buzzing us I bounded to the main deck. My shipmates waved, laughed, and joked. Among the planes was a Piper Cub, clearly marked with the Star of David. The plane flew so low and so slowly that we could see its camera turret as it snapped our picture. Over our communications equipment we could hear the aircraft identify our ship as the U.S.S. Liberty. These were our allies, our friends, the Israeli's.

Several hours later, about 2 P.M., the jets returned and made five to seven passes over us, machine-gunning and rocketing our lightly-armed ship. More planes arrived, this time Mirage Jets, and loosed bursts of bullets and cannon fire as well as napalm into the ship. In the initial attack, nine of my surprised comrades died, scores more were lying everywhere, wounded, horribly burned, moaning, dead or dying. I was seriously wounded by rocket shrapnel. This, however, was not the end of the two-and-one-half hour ordeal. Israeli torpedo boats streaked toward our stricken ship and fired five torpedoes. One hit home, bringing violent death to 25 more American crew members. Preparing to abandon ship, some of my shipmates dropped rubber rafts into the sea. It seemed like a horrible, slow motion movie as we watched the {Israeli} Torpedo Boats circle back and Fire Machine Guns at the helpless survivors on deck and in the rubber rafts already in the sea! One curious torpedo boat skipper even picked up an empty raft -- perhaps to keep as a souvenir.

To prevent the Liberty from communicating with other vessels and navy communication centres, our radio was jammed. This, we later learned, could only have been accomplished by a 'FRIENDLY' nation who knew our radio frequencies--For 19 {This report was published in 'The Washington Report on Middle East Affairs,' December, 1986} my shipmates and I have been trying to get out the truth about the attack that killed 34 Americans and wounded 171 others.

All of us agree that the attack could not possibly have been a mistake! The Israeli aircraft that came within 200 feet, the messages giving the ship's name, the two large U.S. Navy Flags billowing in the breeze, the big GTR-5 stenciled on the bow -- characters well -- known to friend and foe as a U.S. Navy designation -- all clearly identified us.

For years our crew was puzzled, and incredulous, when Israeli authorities claimed our ship had been mistaken for an Egyptian freighter. Of it all I believe it was no coincidence that the Israeli attack took place on June 8, and that the next day Israel invaded Syrian territory, capturing the Golan Heights, an area it still holds years later and which it now says it has annexed for permanent retention.

The Liberty was a navy electronic 'ferret' research vessel, listening to communications from both sides in the Six Day War...Very little of this information has ever reached the American public. Even Congress, importuned for decades by survivors to at least investigate the reasons behind the attack on a U.S. Military Vessel, up to now has refused to do so. After the attack, when the surviving crew members were still together aboard the ship, we were officially warned not to talk to reporters. The Navy has never been willing to release, even to us, a list of crew members so that we can mobilize them to tell our story...

I speak frequently in the upstate New York area, and I find people invariably shocked that they have been kept ignorant of this incident. The fact that the American public remains largely unaware of what happened at the hands of a so-called ally proves that the press has failed to exercise its mandate to keep the American People informed. The American public will believe and support us, when they learn Americans like themselves who joined the Navy to serve their country, when we produce irrefutable evidence that the attack on June 8, 1967, could not have been an error. It was, in fact, an attempt to sink an American Ship that might have alerted the world to an {Senseless and Murderous} Israeli Act of Aggression.

Americans should know the facts so they can judge the readability and reliability of a nation that wants us to believe it is 'our closest ally.' The American tax payers should know because they bought the planes, the boats, the bombs, rockets, torpedoes, and napalm that struck us. At one time we surviving crew members hoped official naval inquiries would elicit all the facts. But we have given up on that. Those inquiries, we're convinced, were part and parcel of the American Government Cover-up: evidence was concealed, key crew witnesses were never interviewed; The Israeli Government's conclusions were never really queried or published...' I just cannot accept the explanation that the attack was a case of mistaken identity,' Admiral Thomas H. Moorer, said. 'I think, without a doubt, that those 34 men who were killed in the sneak attack on the Liberty were killed {Murdered} Deliberately.'..."

Is it not strange that on June 8, 1967, Israeli Jews viciously attacked the American ship U.S.S. Liberty, leaving 34 American sailors dead and 171 injured, yet to this day the Jewish owned media has ignored it and the American Congressmen have congenially and wittingly forgotten about it! The attack was deliberate, lasting almost 2 hours, and due to political orders the U.S. Military would not come to the aid of the U.S.S. Liberty. Even as you read this, the Israeli military is murdering Palestinian women and children with military equipment supplied by American taxpayers and churches.

President Johnson and the U.S.S Liberty incident: The weekly newspaper "Christian News" is published by the Luthern Church movement. In their issue of June 15, 1987, a very interesting article regarding the U.S.S. Liberty incident was published. The title of the article was, "LBJ gave the order to let the USS Liberty sink and let all hands on board drawn."

Some very important information was revealed in that article that is very relative to our survival today as a Christian Nation. The article revealed: "In a private interview of U.S.S. Liberty survivor Commander {Ret.} David Lewis, who was in command of the scientific mission of the ship which was the gathering and dissemination of intelligence data. He told me that the order to abandon the USS Liberty and her crew to the attacking Israeli planes and Torpedo Boats came from President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Two days after the rescue of the survivors, and after Commander Lewis had regained his eyesight, he was hit by an exploding torpedo, Admiral and Commanding Officer of the Mediterranean Fleet Larry Geis called him into his quarters and said to him, 'Commander, we received your calls for help, and we attempted to send our planes to the rescue. But in the event that something happens to me, or if I am blamed for not answering your call for help, I want you to know exactly what happened. As soon as we received your radio call for help I deployed our fighter-bomber planes and radioed the Pentagon of our action.

A few minutes later I received a call from Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara ordering me to recall the planes because they were carrying nuclear arms. So I called them back. I immediately rearmed another squadron with conventional weapons, deployed it, and reported to the pentagon. A few minutes later I got another call from McNamara ordering me to recall these planes too. I was angry and mystified, and exercised my prerogative to go to the next highest level of authority so as to have McNamara's order reversed. Seconds later President Lyndon Johnson was on the radiophone, and I made my case to him. I told him that the USS Liberty had been under attack for an hour, and had radioed for help, and that I had sent out a squadron of fighter-bombers armed with conventional weapons to the rescue. Then the President said to me, 'I don't care if the ship sinks and every man on board drowns, we are not going to fight against our allies {Israel}'."

1968: In the late 1960's the American government sent the Soviet Union 164 ball bearing machines, which make the ball bearings they use in the guidance systems of their IBM's. This is the only way they could make their intercontinental missiles so accurate. So accurate that they can be fired from Soviet soil, travel 7500 miles, and then split into ten warheads, which can virtually destroy ten cities. They are so accurate, using the technology the American government gave them and that which they have stolen from us through Jewish spies, that they can hit within 100 yards of ground zero after a flight of 7500 miles.

1971: In November of 1971, Michael Fribourg completed a deal with the Soviet Union, through Nickolai Belousou, the Chief of Exportkheld, the Russian grain-purchasing agency; for 900,000 tons of American surplus barley and oats, 2-million tons of corn, and 282-million bushels of wheat. The total figure was something in excess of 18-million metric tons of grain sold to the Soviet Union. This tremendous sale was financed by a combination of U.S. guaranteed credits and U.S. subsidized prices. So once again the Soviet Union was saved and the American farmers and taxpayers had been ripped off again.

1972: America built for the Soviets the worlds largest truck factory on the banks of the Kama River, which produces more trucks than all the American truck factories combined. This plant, built by the American government, with American taxpayer funds, which supplied the trucks to the North Vietnamese and Vietcong during the Vietnam War.

We could have presented another hundred or two instances where the U.S. has sent our military men to defend the interests of the International Jewish Bankers and Oil Interests, but we believe these should suffice to prove our point. And as we said you can accept it or not, it is not for us to try to convince you of anything or to change your mind about the events of history. You believe what you will.

"Zionism was willing to sacrifice the whole of European Jewry for a Zionist State. Everything was done to create a state of Israel and that was only possible through a world war. Wall Street and Jewish large bankers aided the war effort on both sides. Zionists are also to blame for provoking the growing hatred for Jews in 1988." (14); "Israel won the war [WW I]; we made it; we thrived on it; we profited from it. It was our Supreme Revenge on Christianity."(15)

The following is what the Jews have in mind for American Christians if they can succeed in disarming them. This is a very brief description of what the Jews did to 50-million Christians in the USSR after they took over Russia in 1917: "The Jews were now free to indulge in their most fervent fantasies of mass murder of helpless victims. Christians were dragged from their beds, tortured and killed. Some were actually sliced to pieces, bit by bit, while others were branded with hot irons, their eyes poked out to induce unbearable pain. Others were placed in boxes with only their heads, hands and legs sticking out. Then hungry rats were placed in the boxes to gnaw upon their bodies. Some were nailed to the ceiling by their fingers or by their feet, and left hanging until they died of exhaustion. Others were chained to the floor and left hanging until they died of exhaustion. Others were chained to the floor and hot lead poured into their mouths. Many were tied to horses and dragged through the streets of the city, while Jewish mobs attacked them with rocks and kicked them to death. Christian mothers were taken to the public square and their babies snatched from their arms.

A red Jewish terrorist would take the baby, hold it by the feet, head downward and demand that the Christian mother deny Christ. If she would not, he would toss the baby into the air, and another member of the mob would rush forward and catch it on the tip of his bayonet. Pregnant Christian women were chained to trees and their babies cut out of their bodies. There were many places of public execution in Russia during the days of the revolution, one of which was described by the American Rohrbach Commission: "The whole cement floor of the execution hall of the Jewish Cheka of Kiev was flooded with blood; it formed a level of several inches. It was a horrible mixture of blood, brains and pieces of skull.

All the walls were bespattered with blood. Pieces of brains and of scalps were sticking to them. A gutter of 25 centimetres wide by 25 centimetres deep and about 10 meters long was along its length full to the top with blood. Some bodies were disembowelled, others had limbs chopped off, some were literally hacked to pieces. Some had their eyes put out, the head, face and neck and trunk were covered with deep wounds. Further on, we found a corpse with a wedge driven into its chest. Some had no tongues. In a corner we discovered a quantity of dismembered arms and legs belonging to no bodies that we could locate." (16); "There is a Jewish conspiracy against all nations; it occupies almost everywhere the avenues of power - a double assault of Jewish revolution and Jewish finance, revolution and finance. If I were God, I'd clean this mess up and I would start with cleaning the Money Changers out of the Federal Reserve."(17); "When the conspirators get ready to take over the United States they will use fluoridated water and vaccines to change people's attitudes and loyalties and make them docile, apathetic, unconcerned and groggy. According to their own writings and the means they have already confessedly employed, the conspirators have deliberately planned and developed methods to mentally deteriorate, morally debase, and completely enslave the masses. They will prepare vaccines containing drugs that will completely change people. Secret Communist plans for conquering America were adopted in 1914 and published in 1953. These plans called for compulsory vaccination with vaccines containing change agent drugs. They also plan on using Disease Germs, Fluoridation and Vaccinations to weaken the people and reduce the population."(18)

The Rabbis of Judaism understand this just as do the leaders in the Christian movement. Rabbi Moshe Maggal of the National Jewish Information Service said in 1961 when the term Judeo-Christian was relatively new, "There is no such thing as a Judeo-Christian Religion. We consider The Two Religions so different that One Excludes The Other."(19)

Judeo-Christian Heritage a Hoax: It appears there is no need to belabor the absurdity and fallacy of the "Judeo-Christian heritage" fiction, which certainly is clear to all honest theologians. That "Judeo-Christian dialogue" in this context is also absurd was well stated in the author-initiative religious journal, Judaism, Winter 1966, by Rabbi Eliezar Berkowitz, chairman of the department of Jewish philosophy, at the Hebrew Theological College when he wrote: "As to dialogue in the purely theological sense, nothing could be more fruitless or pointless. Judaism is Judaism because it rejects Christianity; and Christianity is Christianity because it rejects Judaism. What is usually referred to as the Jewish-Christian traditions exists only in Christian or secularist fantasy."

There is no doubt this is true! And the fantasy exists in Christian and Secularist minds only because it was implanted there by the persistent propaganda of the masters of intrigue of the ADL-AJC Network. Nevertheless, there can be no doubt that knowledgeable theologians, Jewish and Christians who constantly allude to "our Judeo-Christian heritage" are for their own specious purposes perpetuate a grotesque and fantastic hoax.

Boston: A Harvard Divinity School professor, John Strugnell, was removed this week as chief editor of the Dead Sea Scrolls not only because of his poor health, but because of a tirade against Israel and Judaism, his colleagues said. The remarks, in which he called Judaism "a horrible religion" that "should have disappeared," came as a surprise to some colleagues working with him to decipher the ancient texts of the Old Testament. Strugnell made the remarks in a recent interview published in Haaretz, a Tel Aviv newspaper.

In the Haaretz interview, Strugnell, 60, said he was not against Jews but their religion, according to an account soon to be published in the Biblical Archaeology Review. "I can't allow the word anti-Semitism to be used," he is quoted as saying, "Anti-Judaist, that's what I am."

Many wonder why our Congressmen and Senators do not resist the Jews and their antics to destroy Christian America? There are two reasons (1) Each and every single Representative and Senator who has had the courage to resist the Jews, have been assassinated - and the American people never knew what was happening because their preachers and clergymen and women were blinding with lies about the Jews being God's People; and (2) Those who go along with the Jews are so enriched with money and fame that most simply cannot resist this type of bribery.

This is how the Jews have rewarded America and its Israel People!

3. A Marrano Jew whose name when the family lived in Germany and were openly Jewish, they spelled the name Wolfson. When they moved to England they followed the Jewish custom of altering their name so it would appear Western in origin, it became Wohlson. Then when they moved to the United States they changed it again, and this time it became Wilson.

5. General Graves's troops on various occasions gave active support to the Bolsheviki, Social Revolutionists, and other rebellious elements which were fighting Kolchak in his rear. Colonel John Ward, of the Middlesex Regiment, who was connected with the Allied troops in Siberia, gave an impartial account of the damaging and anti-Russian policy adopted by the United States expeditionary force commanded by General Graves. This writer revealed the fact that American army officers, who were ostensibly sent to Siberia to resist disorder and support order, instead had established a sort of 'entente cordiale' with the Red forces operating in the rear of the Omsk armies. He also stated that he 'could not believe that America had come to Siberia to make' Admiral Kolchak's 'task more difficult.' On the other hand, however, there was but little ground for optimism. 'It was common talk,' remarked Colonel Ward, 'that a conference between the Red Guard Commander and General Graves...was actually arranged, but was dropped when the Supreme Governor's representative in the Far East declared to General Graves personally that his proposed conference with the enemies of the Russian Government would be considered as a hostile act.' Nor was there much encouragement in the fact that 'our of sixty liaison officers and translators with American headquarters, over fifty were Russian Jews; some had been exiled from Russia for political and other offenses, and now returned as American citizens, capable of influencing American policy in a direction not that of the American people.' (Colonel John War, With the 'Die-Hards' in Siberia, pp. 276-277, Geo. H. Doran Co., New York, 1920). Will the Russian people ever forget, will they ever forgive, the conduct of the French general, who, after having guaranteed by his word of honor Admiral Kolchak's personal liberty and safety, thereupon delivered him to the Irkutsk Social Revolutionists; the worthy co-partners of the Bolsheviki? Will the Russians forgive that after Kolchak's safe conduct was guaranteed by the banners of five great nations; America, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan, he was murdered in cold blood by a revolutionary mob under the very folds of these banners? This was the way in which the Allied Governments sought to consolidate the Eastern Front." (The World At The Cross Roads, Boris Brasol, pp. 101-103).
