Lost Israel? Or Just Blind Sheep?

WE SEE HERE IN THE SPRING OF 1994, AFTER WE HAVE JUST PASSED RESURRECTION DAY, NOW CALLED EASTER, that we still remember this day as the Resurrection of our Saviour, although many things have been added to the Celebration, and we are thankful for this. We remember the 1960's and the message of the Swift Ministry pointing out this leftward drift of the organized church world in this fulfilling of prophecy as the 'falling away' from the true Faith. We remember the preaching of World brotherhood; love everybody, do your own thing, get along with everyone by joining them, and love not war.

We also remember that many of our young as well as some of the older folks fell for this line thus being casualties of those time as well, while others were able to keep their feet planted in the path they had been taught to follow, and even though some strayed a bit, still some returned in adulthood to their roots and picked up the mantle of knowledge and became good fathers and mothers of the future generation. That is the type of people which keeps this race alive to do their work for the building of YAHWEH'S Kingdom here in earth.

In our world today the oppressor has been very forthright in the practice of hiding doctrines, traditions and so forth until many, many of this race have lost their identity, not as to who Jesus is but as to who they are, and why they are here.

Some talk of the 'Lost Tribes' of Israel, how they were swallowed up in history and swallowed up in World Brotherhood. But no my friend, the tribes of Israel were never lost, it is our race which just lost track of them as they went into their migrations to find their permanent homes in the west, as YAHWEH had ordained that they should do. They are still in their same marching orders around the 'House of Jacob' which is now found in the West with the Jacob Stone under the Throne Chair in Westminster Abbey in England.

Many are the witnesses to this westward march if people would just read. Two good witnesses as to this migration westward are: .1. The Behistun Rock Inscription which has been photographed by many and translated for Israel's dominate tracing of their history. The book "The Missing Link" by Raymond Cap carries a good picture of this Rock inscription and the interpretation as do several other books of history of that era.

It shows the House of Israel going into captivity and the work of Darius the King of Persia, and the land unto which they were taken, and from which they were freed to move on in destiny.

In the book "America B.C.", the author Barry Fell finds the Israelites must have come on into America as the Celts, Angles, and so forth and that they brought the Ogham inscriptions of their writings to America.

In New Mexico is an example of this early Hebrew script and it also resembles Phoenician writing which goes back into the days before Christ, a long way back. But in New Mexico is an inscription on the face of a large stone and it consists of 9 lines, it is a summary of the 10 Commandments. And the English Translation reads:

1. I am YAHWEH thy God that brought you out of the land of Egypt.
2. You shall not have any gods beside me.
3. You shall not take the name of YAHWEH in vain.
4. Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.
5. Honour your father and your mother so that your days may be long in the land which YAHWEH, your GOD is giving to you.
6. You shall not murder.
7. You shall not commit adultery.
8. You shall not steal.
9. You shall not testify against your neighbour as a false witness.
10. You shall not covet your neighbour's wife, nor anything of your neighbour's.

Now; we are also told here that the name YAHWEH appears for God three times, and the name Elohim also appears in this connection twice. A comparison of the Archaic Tetragrammation revealed in column 10., of the 100 B.C., Habakkuk Commentary from Qumran cave I., with the Los Lunas inscription vouches for the authenticity and age of the latter.

The second witness as to the westward push of these tribes of Israel, is found in the writings of Esdras (Ezra) who wrote 70 books for his people, so they would not all forget their heritage.

II Esdras 13:39-45; 'And here as thou sawest that he gathered another peaceable multitude unto him; these are the 10 tribes which were carried away prisoners out of their own land, in the days of king Hosea, whom Shalmaneser the king of the Assyrians led away captive, and he took them across the river and into another land. but they formed this plan for themselves that they would leave the multitude of the nations and to a more distant region where mankind had never lived, that there at least they might keep their statutes which they had not kept in their own land. And they went in by the narrow passages of the Euphrates river, for at that time the MOST HIGH performed signs for them and stopped the river until they passed over.' (Delayed the annual flood time until they had passed over). Through that region there was a long way to go, a journey of a year and 1/2, and that country is called Arzareth, meaning 'another land'.

In other of the old books we read that as these Israelites prepared to leave they swept through all that area to see if any other Israelites of the Judah and Benjamin group wanted to go with them, and many of them did. Only those who were to go back to Jerusalem to fulfil that part of the story stayed in the east, the rest would follow those before them who had gone on ahead, even though these Israelites did not realize that to any great extent. But the Almighty was moving His people west and all would move as destined.

In this migration westward, the different branches of the tribes sometimes fought each other, and some times they would settle in the cities already started and maybe stay 100 years, until they became crowded them on they would go, westward always in their migrations.

After the Crucifixion and Resurrection the rest of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin who were still in Palestine would also ask for permission of Rome, and when granted they also went west. In this latter migration we find Lazarus, the Virgin Mary, Martha, Mary Magdalene, Marcella, Maximin, St. Philip, and Joseph of Arimathea. They had been driven out of Judea and escaped on a ship of the Arimathean line. After reaching Marseilles, France, Philip stayed to delay their message, while the rest went on to Glastonbury in England and were received by the King and Queen, for she was a sister Joseph of Arimathea, and the land was given to this group for a permanent settlement. The Roman's were never allowed to penetrate this area of England.

Here the first Christian Church was built to replace this little Wattle Church that Jesus and His students had built back in the days when He was preparing a place of safety and rest for Mary the mother of His physical body. No wonder the Romans were not allowed to penetrate this area of England, for it had protection from above.

In 1850 A.D., clay tablets were found in the Assyrian Royal Library at Nineveh, and here also was a missing link as to what happened to the Lost Sheep, for these clay tablets, some were dated at about 707 B.C. These were placed in the British museum and not translated until in the 1930's.

And then not much attention was paid to connect them with lost Israel, for the Assyrian called them by other names. Today the interest is once more growing in the Biblical history and we see much coming out about these so called Missing Sheep.

Is it not interesting to find that some of our race played such a great part in this drama that saw YAHWEH, himself, come to earth as YAHSUA, Saviour, came also as a tiny babe just as the Children of the Kingdom came into earth, and into the physical. Here were the people who suffered much but performed their part in this great drama so little understood in our world today. And we find that actually these were very close relatives, so better acquainted with each other.

Joseph of Arimathea was the younger brother of the father of the Virgin Mary. St. Paul, we find, salutes the Household of Aristobulus, and that man was the father-in-law of the Apostle Peter and it was his wife that was the subject of the miracle recorded in the Bible, and he became later a bishop in the British church and Glastonbury.

Even King Arthur was of the Arimathea lineage, he came on the scene later, thus the Arimathea family was very powerful and well known in Britain at that time, connected to the King Line by marriage. King Arthur is also buried at Glastonbury.

Bishop Usher always defended the so called legend of the coming of Joseph of Arimathea, and the earlier stories of Jesus coming on the ships of Joseph of Arimathea to Britain, and teaching in the Universities and so forth. Bishop Parker in his letter to Calvin concerning the proposal for the joining of all Protestants reminded him that the Church of England would retain the Episcopacy; but it did not come from Pope Gregory who sent St. Augustine to Britain, but from Joseph of Arimathea who came with his companions to Britain about 36-37 A.D. and located at Ynys Avalon the seat of Druic Core. Here they built the first church to replace the Wattle Church built by Christ and his students, before that.

Today there seems to be no interest in the old records. They are too busy arguing about the separation of Church and State, when there is no room for such an argument. These two offices were joined at the time of Abraham, then re-established as joined in the family of YAHWEH-YAHSHUA who was of course the Great Priest-King Melchizedek.

In ancient Britain it was out of the Tudors that a line of sovereigns came who were head of both church and state, and they joined kinship with Christian righteousness and this line comes on down in Britain to Queen Elizabeth whose husband Philip Mountbatten is a descendent of the Kings of Greece.

Thus we remember: "I will not fail David, his seed will I make to endure forever, his throne as the days of heaven. (Ps: 89) This Imperial British branch of the race sprang from David then down through the female line and into Queen Elizabeth.

Col. Totten did much work for the congress of the U.S. tracing our lineage so as to design our U.S. Seal. He also reported that Ollam Falla (Jeremiah) brought to Ireland the laws of Moses. These were the laws of the two tables of stone. The work Ollam in Hebrew means the Possessor of 'Hidden knowledge', and Fala in Hebrew means 'Wonderful'. In Celtic it means 'Revealer'. Thus the two together describe a Hebrew prophet.

As Jeremiah came to Ireland he found that Baal worship was trying to creep into the Druid worship, and the Druids were of course Hebrews. But Jeremiah was able to point out their error, and it is said that he ran the Snakes out of Ireland, and established these laws:

1. Let no man (Adamite) slay his fellow man.
2. Let no man (Adamite) take the belongings of another.
3. Let not the lips utter what the mind knoweth to be false.
4. Let man be merciful.
5. Let man be merciful.
6. Let man do even as he would be done by.

Then Ollam added:

7. Son of Eri, honour and respect thy father, and thy mother; love, honour and respect and tenderly cherish all the days of thy life of thy mother who bore thee.

Then later added more laws and by those laws the nation of Eri was ruled for 1000 years. Thus the laws governing ancient Ireland, came with the Hebrews, and the Sythians who were also Hebrews as were these the Sacae, the Maassagetae, and others who acquired different names in their migrations.

In his book "The passing of the Great Race", Madison Grant says that the Sacae were the blond people who carried the Aryan language into India. One of the most fertile tracts of land in Armenia was called Sacasene after them, and the Sacae had been before this the Sakka, and the Gimiri in the Babylonian records.

For further detail, the writers Tacitur, and Paliny are now supported by modern Archaeological research which states that all the tribes dwelling along the North Sea coast from Holland to Denmark were also of a single ethnic group which they called the Ingaevones. The Historians also name the Frisians, the Chance, and the Cimbrei as one of that stock, not only of Cimmerian but originally of Israelite origin as they arrived on the shore of the North Sea about 300-250 B.C.

Later at about 50 B.C. a change of pottery indicates the arrival of new immigrants from the east, perhaps Anglo-Saxon, Celts, or Gaul, as the Romans called them. About 280 B.C. history records vast numbers of Gauls from Central Europe invaded western Asia Minor. Thus these were not Lost Israel, but the same people now moving in destiny and today in a blinded state. Our people are not interested in facing facts.

In that westward movement these people brought with them certain things which mark their identity, and one of these was their laws. The Almighty was to ask: "What nation had statues and judgments like I have set before you?" In this westward trek they brought with them the "The Sepher ha Torah" the book of the Law from YAHWEH which was infused into the nations that they built. Thus in that very early time it became the Law also of Ireland, placed there by Jeremiah who also in that country built a school with residence or a 'School of the prophets' as had always been maintained in the old lands.

The "Lya Fail" or The Stone of Ireland was also brought by Jeremiah to Ireland, and placed at Tara. Tradition has it that as soon as one was born to be King in Ireland stood upon this stone that its shouting noise could be heard through out the Kingdom from sea to sea. Many kings were crowned upon this stone, and the stone remained for a long time in the Palace at Teraga (Tara). Then from Ireland to Scotland went this famous stone with the king of Ireland and his son Fergus who became the King of Scotland. Many Scottish kings were then crowned upon this stone, until King Edward I of England took the stone of England and placed it in Westminster Abbey where it became known once more as Jacob's Stone.

For you will remember that this wondrous stone was Jacob's pillow long before as he saw heavens opened and people coming and going up and down this ladder into the heavens in his dream. Then he realized that he was a part of that on going story of a Saviour who would come to earth. This stone had been carried by the Israelites from that time of Jacob's dream until it found its place in Westminster Abbey, in London.

But on its journey it has stopped off in Ireland and the great King Hereman of Ireland was crowned upon this stone at the time he was married to Tea Tephi. the granddaughter of Jeremiah. Great was the catastrophes that occurred on this westward trek, but this was a people moving in destiny and on they came by land and by sea, to the land where the sun went down, in search of their brethren who had gone before them. In an earlier time some of them of the tribe of Zarah had shipwrecked on the Isle now called Ireland, then later would come this ship bearing Jeremiah and his granddaughter and this stone. Tradition tells us that this ship also wrecked at the same place on the same shore, but this time 'The Stone' brought them safely ashore. Another coincidence? I think not.

Colonel Totten in his work of tracing the journey of Tea Tephi of Tara fills in most of the story of the wedding of King Heremomm and Tea Tephi, showing that the kings in the west were also from the Royal line of Hebrew-Israelites, and the coming of Tea Tephi was just the fulfilling of the prophecy of the "Tender Twig".

The 17 Chapter of Ezekiel gives us the riddle as to what was to come to pass, and what was thus fulfilled by the coming of Tea Tephi to Ireland as history records. Verse 22 tells of the tender twig which was Tea Tephi, and she was to be taken to the nations of Israel and now they were in the west, thus she comes to Ireland to fulfil the prophecy of the Dry tree of the west being now made green as the throne line in the east is dried up. Later on down the line would come in Britain the man called 'Constantine the Great', for he was with his Royal British Mother Helena the 8th., in descent from Bram the Blessed, the son of Lear and Penardim, sister of Beli, whose mother was Anna, cousin of the Virgin Mary, and you see how this lineage came on down in our story.

The Tudor Ancestor of the present Royal Family thus has descended from two lines from the Davidic Princess Anna, a sister then of Joseph of Arimathea, and also of the Priest Ione which came to Britain. We have thus maintained that this was a close-knit family relationship for the actors in this great drama of Christ's work in earth. We thus find that the grandson of Joseph of Arimathea born in Britain named Heli or Beli, was the son of Anna, the cousin of the Virgin Mary, and the sister of Joseph of Arimathea. Anna then figures in this ancestral line of the Tudor Prince line, the founder of this present British Dynasty. Thus as Joseph of Arimathea and his group came to Britain after the Resurrection, they were more than welcomed for Britain had been in the heart of this story for many, many years.

We are interested in the writings coming out in the books today, to find that the authors are saying that the next century will see the youth accepting and rejoicing over these facts now neglected.

Church and state by these pedigrees was under one head, descended both from David and Aaron and it remained such on its westward trek, and we would say even into these United States and into our Constitution, for there is nothing in our constitution to suggest that they are separate. That is merely the work of the oppressors which we have allowed to happen.

There is also another story of a hero King, Odin was his name, and it is said that he rode a White Horse and led his people out of Armenia, through Germany, Norway, and Denmark and into Sweden. He was also of this king line of Britain. He was the son of Tea Tephi and Herremon of Ireland, but the Saxon Kings of England also bore their badge of the White Horse, and this symbol has been cut in the turf of many a chalk hillside to mark the way of these people.

Stephen the Norman displayed on his shield a Centaur, a human head and the body of a horse, a white horse, and its rider all in one, like the one in the Star Bible, and this Centaur has a bow like the one the Star Bible. The White horse shows up again later in the Royal House of Hanover as marking their Saxon origin. Odin's only recorded granddaughter bore the name of Judith, the daughter of Seaxnot, son of Odin. The name Judith is pure Hebrew meaning. A Lady of Judah.

Another favourite name for Princesses' in the line descending from Odin himself, as also descendent from Judah, is Matilda, for we find that if the male line of a dynasty gave out a female, took over and renewed the line. The present Queen is thus descended from the House of David, through both sides of the House of David, and also Prince Charles would descend from, Heli, the father of the Blessed Virgin, who is the brother of Joseph of Arimathea, and Hanna her mother was taken to Judea to have her child, so she would have that connection. There Hanna died, and the child, the Virgin Mary was prepared at the school of the Prophets for her part in the Divine story,

Thus there are then many symbols used in the telling of this story and even in the days of George Washington. The White Horse was the mount of a leader, thus coming down from the days of the Aryan conquerors. On the side of a hill in England still today is one of these symbolic White horses. The Scandinavians in their traditions they still speak of this lineage from the House of David and of Odin who came from the Zarah-Judah line, telling that Queen Elizabeth and Prince Charles are descendants from the line of the Scarlet Thread as well as the House of David. Today we see our people carry their bibles, and we think how remarkable it is that with all the definite and positive assurances in the WORD as to Israel's continuance forever as a nation, there has never been any continued or persistent effort on the part of most Bible believers to find them that they have been content to let them fade away and vanish into nothingness is surely a deep reproach on all true Christians.

Yet perhaps this was YAHWEH'S will and purpose. "For I would not brethren that ye should be ignorant of this mystery but ye should be wise in your own conceit that blindness in part is happened in Israel, until the fullness of the nations be come in." (Romans 11:25)

You will remember that in another land YAHWEH promised Israel he would once more speak comfortably unto her "and bring her again under the bondage of the covenant, so that it shall come to pass, that in that place where it is said unto them, Ye are not my people, IT SHALL BE SAID UNTO THEM, YE ARE THE SONS OF THE LIVING GOD. (Hosea 1:10)

After all when the God of Israel came into earth he declared: 'I come not but unto the Lost Sheep of Israel': (Matt: 15:24)

In this long period of migration and the building of the nations of Israel in their new homeland, Peter wrote an Epistle to 'the stranger's scattered abroad, through-out Pontur, Galatic, Cappadocia, Asis, and Bithynia. (1 Peter: 1:1)

James then wrote: 'To the 12 tribes which are scattered abroad.' (James 1:1). Thus the Apostles knew where the 12 tribes were located and they went to them with the message that Messiah had come, they were redeemed, and they were under the new covenant. But they also knew that they were in their march of Destiny, establishing the 'many nations', and the company of nations (the Commonwealth of Great Britain with colonies and daughter nations until America asserted herself as possessing the Birthmark of Joseph, and today identified as the 13th, tribe, Manasseh, where as today a representative of all 12 tribes.

Concerning the Biblical and Archaeological evidence of the identity of the Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Scandinavian, Celtic and kindred people as long Lost Israel, still many who hear this message will treat the knowledge with indifference saying: What good does it do you to know we are Israel? How does that benefit me since I don't need this knowledge for salvation? I would reply: what good is it for us to know the history of Abraham and his family, that Joseph was sold, that Israel passed through the wilderness, with Moses as their leader, that David lived as did Solomon his son, and he built a temple unto our God, that Jonah was disobedient, or that there was such a day as Pentecost? If these things are written for our edification and the knowledge of these things are useful, and for a purpose written, surely the children of God, whom HE chose for a purpose to establish HIS KINGDOM ought not to be indifferent to this part of HIS WORD.

The Restoration of Israel is one of the grand objects which YAHWEH as YAHSHUA will bring about for the enhancement of HIS Glory, the fulfilment of that promise will expose the purpose of their coming into earth in the first place. It will not be a temporary restoration, this is to be a restoration to Divine Favour.

"Arise and shine, for thy LIGHT is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee, for behold the darkness (lack of knowledge) shall cover the earth and gross darkness the people, but the LORD shall arise upon thee. And the Gentiles (nations) shall come to thy light and kings (rulers) to the Brightness of thy rising. (Isaiah 60:1-3)

Now: according to the Companion Bible, there was an appropriate and recognized style of prophetic address, and of the introduction of special prophetic utterances. Therefore chapter beginnings and chapter ending are of little use in helping you to distinguish separate and distinct prophecies.

In Jeremiah the formula was generally: 'The Work of the Lord cam', or 'thus saith the Lord', or 'The Word that came'. In Isaiah the prophetic utterances have two distinct forms, as to Israel, the chosen people, they open with these commands, or appeals such as: "Hear, Listen, Awake, Arise and shine, Behold!" Where as considering the nations surrounding Israel and even some of Israel as they disobeyed the words then are "Burdens, of Woes."

Most commentators make chapter 35 commence a new prophecy, but obscure the great issue of this prophecy which begins in chapter 34 with the call: -"Come near ye nations and hear, and so forth." This then is to witness YAHWEH'S judgment on Edom, and this of course would issue in the salvation of Israel. For in chapter 35 the people of YAHWEH are to enjoy the inheritance, of what Edomite (Jews) took from them, and even the wild beasts or 'Beasts of the field' are also gone for they were much the cause of this judgment.

Now; 'The Beasts of the Field', who are they? they are distinct and different from the Beasts of the earth, and even distinct and different from the enemies of Israel, but they are used by your enemies to destroy YAHWEH'S people by their efforts to mongrelize this race. "And the ransomed of the LORD shall come to ZION (New Jerusalem), to this knowledge of this plan and purpose of the Almighty. This will become the way of holiness, no unclean shall come in, no Lion (of Judah or the Christ) will be with those termed unclean." "But the redeemed shall walk on this path to Zion." (35:8-9)

Now; you see how the beauty of this passage would be obscured if you do not start in the earlier chapter to reveal this prophecy. This is true also of the other prophecies. The Companion Bible refers you to appendix 82, but it also tells you that this refers to the FUTURE. then refers you to appendix 6 which is again to remind you, or wake you up, or to call your attention to things to come, and call your attention also to the conditions of the nations just before Israel's future glory shines forth. Thus you are talking about the conditions of the nations round about as Israel comes into her Glory.

And then: Isaiah 62:4-12, 'no longer will Israel be termed desolate, your land shall be called Beulah (Married to YAHWEH), and you a holy people, the redeemed, a city (New Jerusalem) not forsaken.'

The Lord then speaks out in Zeph: 3:20 and says: "For at that time I will bring you again, even in the time that I gather you, for I will make your name a praise among all people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity (under Satan) before your eyes, saith the LORD'. To ignore these promises to Israel is to tempt or - yes- mock YAHWEH by DISBELIEVING HIS WORD. You are thus told to search for the truth, to prove all things and to hold fast things your spirit tells you that are true. Remember that the Bible is full of evidence confirmed by archaeology that America is a part of 'regathered Israel' to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the Glory and the covenants, and the giving of the Law, and the service of God, and the Promises.' (Romans 9:4)

If we are not Israel, then where is Israel??

"Bring forth the blind people who have eyes, and the deaf who have ears. Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled; who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? Let them bring forth their witnesses that they may be justified, or let them hear and say, it is truth. Ye are my witnesses saith the LORD and my servants whom I have chosen, that ye may know me and believe me, and understand that I am HE; before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me. (Isaiah 43:8-10)

Thus again we ask: Who is this Israel? where is Israel? If you cannot find her in the Western Christian nations, where then is she? Over in that little land of Israeli? How could that be when those people fulfil none of the prophecies?

Many are the different writers telling the story for you to find the truth: Sir T. Nicholas sums it up this way: "The researches of modern historians unequivocally favour the opinion that under the names of Keltai, Galatai, Gauls, Gaels, Ggyddils, Celts, Cimmerii, Cimbri, Cymry, Brythous, Lloegrians, Scots, and Picts, only one race under different tribal names, or clan divisions, political organizations, and periods of existence is spoken of, hence ONE PEOPLE.

King James VI of Scotland, King James I of England claimed the LORD had made him King over Israel, and upon the gold coin of his day (the Jacobus) he had inscribed in Latin the prophecy of Ezekiel 37:22; "I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains (nations) of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all; and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all." Read the rest of that chapter, remembering that David is the symbol at this time of the Administration of the Kingdom, by this race, over the earth.

Dr. Wesley A. Swift

Dr. Wesley A. Swift, the son of a Methodist minister, was called to preach in his teens. He was a dynamic, inspired speaker who taught uncompromising Biblical truths ignored by modernist ministers.

His anointed preaching brought forth a high spiritual dimension of understanding to the Kingdom Identity message, giving “life” and “power” to the Sacred Word. Even the antichrists acknowledge that, “Wesley Swift is considered the single most significant figure in the early years of the Christian Identity movement in the United States.”

Dr. Swift founded the Church of Jesus Christ – Christian in the 1940’s, a ministry that spread the Kingdom Identity message nation-wide to YHVH’s Children, the White spirit-race known Scripturally as “sons of God”. By teaching these truths to true Israel, this warrior-priest put fear in the hearts of the enemies of Christ. Following Dr. Swift’s death in 1970, his widow Lorraine Swift faithfully carried on the Church of Jesus Christ – Christian. We are highly honoured to be able to continue Dr. Swift’s work, by placing those works that we have in print here on our web site ...preserving and earnestly contending for “the faith which was once delivered unto the saints”...for any and all to read.

We, at the Covenant Church of Yahweh hope that you will study, enjoy, and appreciate Dr. Wesley Swift’s works.

CALLING THE PEOPLE OF BRITAIN

At last the bible makes sense!

At last we know its meaning.

Its the book of the RACE
