THE BIBLE IS THE BOOK OF THIS ONCE CHRISTIAN NATION. It staggers the mind at how many of our brothers and sisters, who call themselves “Christian” and know absolutely nothing about the Bible or who it is about and who it is to. When confronted with some scripture they always, ALWAYS attack the one who has tried to give them some knowledge. But you will see they never, one time, state what they believe to be the truth. Only that the writer is in error and is all sorts of an evil person. Which only shows their ignorance.

Oh they say they will pray for that evil person, so that their god will lead them in the path to go, but they do not pray to Yahweh they pray to a false god; one who has already led them astray. For they have been led by and listen to Jewish fables which the Scriptures tell us that will turn a man/woman away from the truth.

“I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. for the Time Will Come When They Will Not Endure Sound Doctrine; but after Their Own Lusts Shall They Heap to Themselves Teachers, Having Itching Ears; and They Shall Turn Away Their Ears from the Truth, and Shall Be Turned Unto Fables.” (2 Timothy 4:1-4)

Those who try to teach the truth to the lawless and deceived, those who are still in the world hate them with an undying passion, because that one points out their own failures, and for that, because of their own pride which will not allow them to see the truth, will hate him just as the world hates Christ.

“For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. Not as Cain, Who Was of That Wicked One (Satan, the Jews father), and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous. Marvel Not, My Brethren, If the World Hate You. We know that we have passed from death unto life, Because We Love the Brethren (The White Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Scandinavian, Celtic and kindred people). He That Loveth Not His Brother Abideth in Death." (1 John 3:11-14)

Which goes to show exactly what Yahweh was talking about when He was speaking these words:

“My People Are Destroyed for Lack of Knowledge:

And why are they destroyed for lack of knowledge? “Because Thou Hast Rejected Knowledge, I Will Also Reject Thee That Thou Shalt Be No Priest to Me:

This is in reference to what Yahweh said in Exodus 19:5-6: “Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine: And Ye Shall Be Unto Me a Kingdom of Priests, and an Holy Nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

“seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children. As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glory into shame. They eat up the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their iniquity.

And there shall be, like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them their doings. For they shall eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the LORD. Whoredom and wine and new wine take away the heart. My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.” (Hosea 4:6-12)

When told that, they grow even more belligerent and say I read everything; and that is the problem they read it, and do not understand a thing about what is written. It is beyond them, and slips by in the night so-to-speak.

There is a growing, proliferating need, for our people to know their racial and spiritual identity in the Plan of God! Millions of our White Christian Caucasian people are yearning and searching, thirsting and fainting for a deeper meaning for their life!

They are searching to find the meaning behind their existence and being as the Children of Light upon this earth. Why was I born? Where did I come from? Why am I here? Where am I going? What is my ultimate end? Who were my ancestors? What is God's will for my life?

These and many other questions are gripping the hearts of many of our young people! Behind all of this unrest, uncertainty, confusion, frustration and bewilderment, lies the unmistakable truth that our people are searching for their Ancestral Roots, they are searching for their Identity.

All Too Many Are Being Led to False Gods, Because the Clergy of Organized Religion, Evangelists, and Teachers Have Failed the Commission, They Claim, Was Given to Them by Almighty God and the Lord Jesus Christ; but Their Works Prove, That Is a Lie, Their Works Prove They Are Really Working for Satan!

America has almost lost two generations! The present living Christian White people are a people who have been separated and estranged from their history, their culture, and their heritage in Jesus Christ.

We will never be able to understand how those who teach in Organized Religion, can know so many Scriptures, by heart, but never come to a realization or understanding of just what the Bible truly is.

Then when the Truth is presented to them they will simply close their eyes and stop their ears so that they cannot see or hear that Truth! And begin to cry out to high heaven; I do not wish to clutter my mind with such Racist Trash, thus denying Almighty God, His Word, the Lord Jesus Christ and the History of their people Israel. "For the Lord hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets [Judeo-Christian Clergy] and your rulers [Government and Judeo-Christian Church Leaders], the seers [Judeo-Christian Pastors, Ministers etc.] hath he covered. And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned [Clergy, Pastors, Ministers, Teachers etc.], saying, read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot; for it is sealed--Wherefore the Lord said, For as much as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me--therefore--their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent [cautious] men shall be hid." (Isaiah 29:10-14)

Zechariah told us:--

"But they refused to hearken--and stopped their ears, that they should not hear. Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the Lord of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the former prophets..." (Zechariah 7:11-12)

That truth being: the Holy Bible Is the Book of Adam's Race, the White Anglo-saxon, Germanic, Celtic, Scandinavian and Kindred People of the World!

"This is the book of the generations of Adam [his race]. In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made he him; Male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called Their name Adam, in the day when they were created." (Genesis 5:1-2)

Thus it is very clear, the Holy Bible, is the Book of Adam's Race. This is the declaration made in Genesis 5:1. The Bible is the family of one race, the race of Adam. This is what the Bible states about itself! So we must come to the realization that this fact becomes one of the most important of all our Christian pre-suppositions. It becomes a foundation of truth upon which we build our faith! The implications of this Biblical Presup-position, this beginning point in our Christian thinking and understanding of the Holy Bible, is crucial to the preservation of our Christian faith and of the race of Adam: the White Race!

When we understand what this Divine Truth means: "This is the book of the generations of Adam [his race]," we will see a rebirth of our Christian Faith take place in a world which denies both Jesus Christ our savior and the Bible!

Since the declaration of the Scripture is that the Bible is "—the Book—of-Adam—" it becomes imperative that we explore, ponder and investigate all we can about the man Adam. Our first great clue to understanding the man Adam is to know the meaning of his name.

The Word Adam is translated from a Hebrew word "aw-damn" or "aw-dam." (#119 and #120 in Strong's Concordance) The word "Adam" means "Ruddy" (#120), "to Show Blood (in the face), Flush or Turn Rosy, Be (made) Red (ruddy)." This clearly shows, the Hebrew meaning of the word "Adam" identifies him as a White Man. Adam was ruddy—he could blush—he could show blood in the face. Adam was the beginning of the White Race upon this earth.

Therefore, the Holy Bible is the History of the White Race; Later to become known as "Anglo-Saxons" after Isaac as the Scriptures relate. For God said:

"—in Isaac Shall Thy Seed Be Called." (Genesis 21:12)

"And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying—and They [children of Israel and others] Shall Put My Name [Christ - ian] upon the Children of Israel; and I will bless them." (Numbers 6:22, 27)

The Bible Is Not the History of Any Other Race, and Anyone Seeking to Make the Bible a Multi-racial Book, Is Teaching Doctrine Contrary to What the Bible Itself Teaches. It contains the nation's history; it records the story of the origin of the people who comprise the nation, and tells of their organization and training. It proclaims their establishment as a “kingdom of priest and an holy nation;” the word “holy” being used with the distinct meaning of “set-apartness,” to coin a word. It records the giving of a Divine Constitution and Code of Laws, consisting of the Commandments, Statutes and Judgments of Yahweh, to be regarded and used as the basis of administration and management of its national affairs.

The Bible tells the story of other nations insofar as they come into contact with “the nation,” and only so far as their history impinged upon the history of Israel; for Israel was, and is, the nation of which the Bible is the national possession.

The New Testament records the story of the redemption and salvation of Israel and not any other nation or people on earth. Day by day we proclaim: “Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, Who hath visited and Redeemed His (Israel) people,” (Luke 1:68) and that the Redeemer came to be “a light to lighten the Gentiles (Israelites), and the Glory of His people Israel.” (Luke 2:32)

We read of the eager inquiry of the disciples of the Redeemer, “Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?” (Acts 1:6), and note that the fact of the restoration was not denied, but only the time period of the ultimate happening withheld.

We note the triumphant declaration of Paul, “God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew” (Romans 11:2) and realize the inner meaning of the further statement:

“If the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fullness?—If the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?” (Romans 11:12, 15)

We go on to that great day when this same Israel, at last alive to their destiny and responsibility, will have, by the grace of Yahweh, and through the power granted by Him, helped to bring about that Glorious Eventuality when the Kingdoms of the world shall become the Kingdoms of our God and of His Christ, and He shall reign for ever and ever. We are quite ready to agree that God does not love us more than any other nation because of any intrinsic merit of our own. We remember with humility the statement of Moses to Israel of old, still applicable to us today:

“The Lord did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest of all people: But because the Lord loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers.” (Deuteronomy 7:7-8)

There is the root of the whole matter. God made a covenant with our forefathers. That covenant He ratified and confirmed to three generations, and then He ratified it again by an oath, in order (as the writer of the Epistle to the Hebrews so clearly states) “that by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation.” (Hebrews 6:18)

Among the many things that belong to our national inheritance, there is nothing of greater importance than this same Abrahamic Covenant, which is the basic charter of our race.

Through it we are the inheritors of the promises made by Yahweh to the fathers, and by virtue of that heritage we are charged with the responsibility of acting in accordance with the Divine will and purpose. The covenant is unconditional. No conduct of ours can alter its terms. It is irrevocable, because God is the party of the first part, and God does not change.

But to return to the national aspect of the Bible. It is this phase of the Book which, as we have already stated, proclaims the fact of the Israel nation as the servant race; that is, the Israel peoples who, distinct from and not to be confused with the Jewish people (as is so often done), are represented today by the Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Celtic peoples of the world who, particularly through the English-speaking section, hold a position in the world today, which is the exact and literal fulfilment of the promises contained in the Abrahamic Covenant, that the descendants of Abraham through Isaac were to become a nation and a company of nation” and “ a great people.” (Genesis 35:11)

Leaving the land of their exile, as related by the Prophet Esdras, the House of Israel, by long and arduous journeyings, taking hundreds of years to accomplish, made the great trek from Assyria to the Isles of the West at the uttermost part of the earth. There, over the years, they developed into the empire, which is the modern representative of Daniel’s Fifth and Stone Kingdom.

Because so many students of the Bible have failed to see these things, much harm has been done. The practice of what is misnamed “spiritualising” the clear matter-of-fact statements of the Bible has resulted in the development of a theory which dishonours God and destroys man’s faith, and thus has produced the “falling away” so prevalent nowadays.

Those who are the proponents of this theory state, as has recently been said, that God found that His original plan would not work; that in consequence He was obliged to break His promise to Abraham, Isaac, Israel and David: and that, having broken those promises, He transferred all the blessings of the Israel covenants, but not the curses, to the Christian Church.”

Such a Theory Dishonours Yahweh. It impugns His truth. It suggests that He breaks His promises, a suggestion which, if it were true, destroys all possibility of faith in Him, for if any promise of God were to be broken, who can say which of them will stand? It has been stated:

“If God has broken His oath to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob/Israel; if He has broken His oath to David; if He has broken anyone promise which He ever made, how can we be sure that He will not break his promise again?

How can we trust God to keep His promise of everlasting life to those who believe in His Son? Obviously if we admit into our minds any doubt whatsoever as to the power, or the will, of God to keep His promises, we immediately began to undermine the very foundations, on which the Christian faith is built up—The ‘spiritual Israel theory’ states that it was possible for God to lie and to break both His promise and His oath. True Christians will hesitate to blaspheme God by accusing Him of perjury. They will find that the whole Bible is opposed to this theory; that the New Testament flatly contradicts it, and they will remember that Jesus Christ our Lord declared, ‘The Scripture cannot be broken.’”

We have a splendid illustration of the national message of the Bible in relation to Israel in the parable given by Yahshua, as recorded by Matthew, Mark and Luke. In Luke’s Gospel the story is told as follows:

“A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come. But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds. And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities. And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds. And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities. And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow. And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow: Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury? And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds. (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.) For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him. But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.” (Luke 19:12-27)

The Nobleman going into a far country was, of course, our Lord Himself, who was about to leave this earth in order to sit down at the right hand of the Majesty on High, there to remain “expecting till His enemies be made His footstool;” (Matthew 22:44) that is, until the time should come for Him to return as King. The citizens who hated Him were evidently the Jews of His day, whose hatred was so intense that they put Him to death on the stake (and note, these citizens sent a message saying, “We will not have this man to reign over us.”) (Luke 19:14)

No pounds, or goods, as Matthew states, were given to the citizens, because it had been said to them:

“The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.” (Matthew 21:43)

But the ten servants representing that “nation” received the ten pounds of goods, and by the way, these “goods” are clearly described by Paul who, writing to the Romans, declares that His kinsmen according to the flesh are Israelites:

“To whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises; whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever.” (Romans 9:4-5)

When the Nobleman returns He first reckons with the ten servants and then with those who said, “We will not have this man to reign over us.” Thus Israel the nation has been entrusted with a tremendous responsibility and a glorious privilege.

To her has been committed the heritage of the Kingdom of God, with the command, “Occupy till I come.” The Throne of the Lord over Israel, the Kingdom of God on earth, the Law of the Lord, the truth of the sacred scriptures, all these Israel must maintain without loss and with profit until the greatest nobleman of all time returns from the far country to claim His Kingdom, and to establish it with judgment and with justice henceforth even for ever.

That is the national message of the Bible. It is not nationalism in the sense in which the term is sometimes used. It is the Good News of the Kingdom of God, and it is the Gospel, which Yahshua proclaimed. True citizenship in the Kingdom (and this is something of which we must never lose sight, and is part of the Gospel of the Kingdom) can only be attained fully by the acceptance of Yahshua as Redeemer and Savior.

This full Gospel, the Gospel of the Kingdom, the message of the whole Bible, is the only message, which can satisfy the need of man today. The present period is a turning point in history. The days in which we live are momentous. Never before has Christendom faced such a tremendous crisis. There is truly “upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity—men’s hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth.” (Luke 21:25-26)

Thinking people want to know what lies behind our present state, as well as what the future holds in store. Well, the Gospel of the Kingdom, when proclaimed in its entirety, provides this information. It is the one message of comfort and of hope which men need. It proclaims the fact that behind the shadows is God, and that His plan and purpose are being worked out among us today. The prophets of old proclaimed that message. Yahshua confirmed and ratified “all that the prophets have spoken.” Let us search diligently to know and discern the meaning of their prophecies, so that we may indeed walk in ‘the light that shineth in a dark place, until the dawn and the day star arise in our hearts.’ (2 Peter 1:19)
