THERE IS A GROWING, PROLIFERATING NEED, FOR OUR PEOPLE TO KNOW THEIR RACIAL AND SPIRITUAL IDENTITY IN THE PLAN OF GOD! Millions of our White Christian Caucasian people are yearning and searching, thirsting and fainting for a deeper meaning for their life!

They are searching to find the meaning behind their existence and being as the Children of Light upon this earth. Why was I born? Where did I come from? Why am I here? Where am I going? What is my ultimate end? Who were my ancestors? What is God's will for my life?

These and many other questions are gripping the hearts of many of our young people! Behind all of this unrest, uncertainty, confusion, frustration and bewilderment, lies the unmistakable truth that our people are searching for their Ancestral Roots, they are searching for their Identity.

All Too Many Are Being Led to False Gods, Because the Clergy of Organized Religion, Evangelists, and Teachers Have Failed the Commission, They Claim, Was Given to Them by Almighty God and the Lord Jesus Christ; but Their Works Prove, That Is a Lie, Their Works Prove They Are Really Working for Satan!

America has almost lost two generations! The present living Christian White people are a people who have been separated and estranged from their history, their culture, and their heritage in Jesus Christ.

I will never be able to understand how those who teach in Organized Religion, can know so many Scriptures, by heart, but never come to a realization or understanding of just what the Bible truly is.

Then when the Truth is presented to them they will simply close their eyes and stop their ears so that they cannot see or hear that Truth! And begin to cry out to high heaven - I do not wish to clutter my mind with such Racist Trash - thus denying Almighty God, His Word, the Lord Jesus Christ and the History of their people Israel.

"For the Lord hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets [Clergy] and your rulers [Government and Church Leaders], the seers [Pastors, Ministers etc.] hath he covered. And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned [Clergy, Pastors, Ministers, Teachers etc.], saying, read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot; for it is sealed—Wherefore the Lord said, For as much as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me—therefore— their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent [cautious] men shall be hid." (Isaiah 29:10-14)

"But they refused to hearken—and stopped their ears, that they should not hear. Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the Lord of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the former prophets—" (Zec. 7:11-12)

That truth being: the Holy Bible Is the Book of Adam's Race, the White Anglo-saxon, Germanic, Celtic, Scandinavian and Kindred People of the World!

"This is the book of the generations of Adam [his race]. In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made he him; Male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called Their name Adam, in the day when they were created." (Genesis 5:1-2)

Thus it is very clear, the Holy Bible, is the Book of Adam's Race. This is the declaration made in Genesis 5:1. The Bible is the family of one race, the race of Adam. This is what the Bible states about itself! So we must come to the realization that this fact becomes one of the most important of all our Christian pre-suppositions. They Have Been Robbed, and Stripped of Their Racial, and Spiritual Inheritance by the Culture

Distorting Enemies of Christianity. Our People Are Lost, They Have Been Blinded from Recognizing the Truth, Their Minds Have Been Negated, and They Have Lost the Ability to Think Conceptually, the News Media, Public Schools, Denominational Pulpits, the University and College Classrooms, Have Cut off, and Blacked Out of the Minds, of Our People, All Truth and Knowledge about Their past Heritage, Duty and Purpose in the Plan of God. Our Christian Caucasian People, Have Been Robbed and Fleeced Out of Their Racial and Spiritual Heritage, They Have Become Chattel Slaves to the Elite Money Masters of This Nation, and the World.

The Time Has Come for the Anglo-saxon, Celtic, Germanic, Scandinavian and Kindred People to Rise up and Claim Their Birthright Under Jesus Christ!

It becomes a foundation of truth upon which we build our faith! The implications of this Biblical Presupposition, this beginning point in our Christian thinking and understanding of the Holy Bible, is crucial to the preservation of our Christian faith and of the race of Adam: the White Race!

When we understand what this Divine Truth means: "This is the book of the generations of Adam [his race]," we will see a rebirth of our Christian Faith take place in a world which denies both Jesus Christ our savior and the Bible!

Since the declaration of the Scripture is that the Bible is "—the Book—of —Adam—" it becomes imperative that we explore, ponder and investigate all we can about the man Adam. Our first great clue to understanding the man Adam is to know the meaning of his name.

The Word Adam is translated from a Hebrew word "aw-damn" or "aw-dam." (#119 and #120 in Strong's Concordance) The word "Adam" means "Ruddy" (#120), "to Show Blood (in the face), Flush or Turn Rosy, Be (made) Red (ruddy)." This clearly shows, the Hebrew meaning of the word "Adam" identifies him as a White Man. Adam was ruddy—he could blush—he could show blood in the face. Adam was the beginning of the White Race upon this earth. Therefore, the Holy Bible is the History of the White Race; Later to become known as "Anglo-saxons" after Isaac as the Scriptures relate. For God said:

"in Isaac Shall Thy Seed Be Called." (Genesis 21:12)

"And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying—and They [children of Israel and others] Shall Put My Name [Christ - ian] upon the Children of Israel; and I will bless them."
(Numbers 6:22, 27)

The Bible Is Not the History of Any Other Race, and Anyone Seeking to Make the Bible a Multi-racial Book, Is Teaching Doctrine Contrary to What the Bible Itself Teaches.

Now that we have identified the Bible to be the Book of Adam's Race and have documented that Adam was Ruddy, could blush or show blood in the face, and was a White Man, we must continue on and examine the implications of this.

But first let us look and see further, that we are speaking of the White Race and see how God describes King David and the Lord Jesus Christ. David is described as:

"And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, There remaineth yet the youngest, and, behold, he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Send and fetch him: for we will not sit down till he come hither. And he sent, and brought him in. Now he [David] Was Ruddy, and withal of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look to..." (1 Samuel 16:11-12)

Then:

"And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but a youth, and Ruddy, and of a Fair Countenance." (1 Samuel 17:42)

The Lord Jesus Christ is described as:

"My Beloved Is White and Ruddy..." (Solomon's Song 5:10)

"Nazarites (See Matthew 2:23) Were Purer than Snow, They Were More Ruddy in Body than Rubies..." (Lamentations 4:7)

Now back to the Presupposition of our Faith for it is related: the Holy Bible Is the Book of Adam's Race and Adam Was a White Man. The implications of this presupposition are as follows:

FIRST: Since the Holy Bible is the Book of Adam's Race, it means that the White Race of Adam was made the custodians of the Sacred Scriptures [not the Jews]! The White Race was given the stewardship of Divine Truth [though many will deny it and cry out, That Is Racist, I don't want to hear it. Thus fulfilling Isaiah 29:10-14 and Zechariah 7:11-12].

The Bible Is Not the History of the Other Races!

Moreover, we must not cause the Scriptures to be violated or broken by involving other races as principals of the Holy Bible. For we have no authority from the Words of the Lord Jesus Christ or Almighty God to make the Bible anything more than what God's Word declares it to be!

It Is the Book of the Race of Adam, Nothing More, Nothing Less! It does not belong to the other races, for they have and will receive their blessings through the Race of Adam!

"And in thy [Abraham's] seed shall All the Nations of the Earth [other races] BE BLESSED—" (Genesis 22:18)

It is nothing less than blasphemy for one to seek to make God's Word more or less than it declares itself to be. For Christ declared: "Give not that which is holy unto the dogs [Jesus said the Canaanites were dogs (Matthew 15:22, 26), Esau Married Canaanite women (Genesis 36:2) Esau is Edom (Genesis 36:8) Edom is in modern Jewry (Jewish Encyclopaedia) - thus Jesus made it very clear and commanded us not to give that which is Holy unto the Jews!!!], neither cast ye your pearls before swine [the heathen races], lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you [as the black is always doing when they kill Missionaries in the most revolting and sickening ways possible, as reported in the news recently of a family in Africa]." (Matthew 7:6)

Can you not see - open your eyes, so that you might see; open your ears, so that you might understand: All Missionary programs designed to take the White Man's Religion and his book; The Holy Bible, and his relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ to the non-white races is pure blasphemy before Almighty God!

Moreover, this is proven by the record of history which shows that (Genesis 5:1-2) it has been tested and proven by centuries of historical development [the slaughter of the Missionaries recently by the blacks in Africa is what happens all too many times when White Men mistakenly take Christianity to them].

Christianity has been carried in the genes of the White Anglo-Saxons since his creation, almost six thousand years ago. Wherever the White Man has wondered over the earth, he has taken his book [his family history] the Holy Bible [the foundation of his faith] with him! With a study of history it will be found: Christianity Thrives Only in Those Areas of the World Where the White Man Lives. And to Brand This Presentation as Racist, as Many Will Do, Is Only to Deny the Truth Being Presented.

There is a movement that is catching the attention and awakening an increasing number of people across America commonly known as "Christian-Israel Identity," "Christian Identity," "Israel Truth," or simply as "Identity."

It is cutting across denominational lines, touching the corners of the so-called "extreme" (That's the liberals and Jews name for someone that is honest, patriotic, believes in God and in a future resurrection) fringe groups, drawing elements of the disenchanting unchurched and many church people who are truly searching for the truth, and offering hope, purpose and spiritual encouragement to the many American patriot Christians who have suffered from the lawless power of the present Jewish controlled government.

Note: For an introductory study on the Christian history and law of our country, the gross violations of the Constitution, and the remedies left to the people of God, you are referred to the book “One Nation Under God, Revolution for Righteousness and Justice,” by Lawrence Blanchard. The Christian-Israel Identity movement is steadily being received by an increasing number of Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Scandinavian, Celtic, Nordic, Slavic and kindred people in America with great joy and encouragement. Christian-Israel Identity, and the basic theology that it represents, offers a resurrected look at the interpretation of the Bible based on the contemporary Identity of Israel, the physical descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob/Israel.

Challenging the widely accepted false teaching of the Judeo-Christian churches that those who call themselves Jews today are Israel, Christian-Israel Identity demonstrates it is the Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Scandinavian, Celtic, Nordic, Slavic and kindred peoples that are the True genetic descendants of the Biblical patriarchs.

This movement draws from the evidence of the heraldry of Europe and the Untied States of America: the post-captivity migrations of the house of Israel; the numerous comparisons of language, law and culture between Biblical Israel and Europe and America that defy the law of coincidence; and, of course, an overwhelming preponderance of Biblical evidence (Evidences of Israel’s Identity Seminar, by Lawrence Blanchard, includes a 120+ page notebook and 5 audio tapes with nearly 8 hours of teaching documenting the true identity of Israel today) supporting the claim that the white Race of European stock, and not the Jews, are God’s “peculiar treasure.” (Exodus 19:5) His chosen people to rule with Him (for “Israel” means “he will rule with God”), and the subjects of the New Covenant in Jesus, the Messiah (Jeremiah 31:31-34 and Hebrews 8:7-12)

It is inevitable, of course, that once a movement like Christian-Identity Israel begins to grow and gain in popularity, that the de facto government the Judeo-Christian (This particular type of Christianity maintains that the foundation of Christianity is based on the Jewish religion called Judaism.

Judaism is based upon the Talmud which came out of Babylon and at the time of Christ was known as the Tradition of the Elders) church and media establishment will attempt to probe, ridicule and denounce it. Indeed, it has already come to pass that those in Christian-Israel Identity have been called a “cult,” a bunch of “racists,” “bigots,” “White Supremacists,” “anti-Semites,” and progenitors of the “gospel of hate,” among many others. Unfortunately, the intention of many is simply to smear Identity with the standard buzzwords used to create fear, animosity and misunderstanding in people’s minds, (so they will not look closely at it and see the truth in what it teaches).

Some critics of Identity are simply uninformed regarding the basic belief system due to an inadequate foundation of evidence and education. Others are so brainwashed by the Judeo-Christian false shepherds, writers, radio and TV personalities, that their premise that the Jews are God’s Chosen People becomes an almost insurmountable barrier to open, honest and rational examination of the evidence to the contrary. Yes, Identity has become the new target of the cult watchers, the politically and religiously correct, and the simple-minded.

The Jews Are Not Israel They Are The Descendants of The Khazars of Russia

Encyclopaedia Americana (1985): "Khazar, an ancient Turkic-speaking people who ruled a large and powerful state in the steppes North of the Caucasus Mountains from the 7th century to their demise in the mid-11th century AD.—In the 8th Century it's political and religious head—as well as the greater part of the Khazar nobility, abandoned paganism and converted to Judaism...(The Khazars are believed to be the ancestors of most Russian and Eastern European Jews)."

Encyclopaedia Britannica (15th edition): "Khazars, confederation of Turkic and Iranian tribes that established a major commercial empire in the second half of the 6th century, covering the south-eastern section of modern European Russia--In the middle of the 8th century the ruling classes adopted Judaism as their religion."

Academic American Encyclopaedia (1985): "Ashkenazim, the Ashkenazim are one of the two major divisions of the Jews, the other being the Shephardim."

Encyclopaedia Americana (1985): "Ashkenazim, the Ashkenazim are the Jews whose ancestors lived in German lands--it was among Ashkenazi Jews that the idea of political Zionism emerged, leading ultimately to the establishment of the state of Israel--In the late 1960's, Ashkenazi Jews numbered some 11 million, about 84 percent of the world Jewish population."

The Jewish Encyclopaedia: "Khazars, a non-Semitic, Asiatic, Mongolian tribal nation who emigrated into Eastern Europe about the first century, who were converted as an entire nation to Judaism in the seventh century by the expanding Russian nation which absorbed the entire Khazar population, and who account for the presence in Eastern Europe of the great numbers of Yiddish-speaking Jews in Russia, Poland, Lithuania, Galatia, Besserabia and Rumania."

The Encyclopaedia Judaica (1972): "Khazars, a national group of general Turkic type, independent and sovereign in Eastern Europe between the seventh and tenth centuries AD During part of this time the leading Khazars professed Judaism--In spite of the negligible information of an archaeological nature, the presence of Jewish groups and the impact of Jewish ideas in Eastern Europe are considerable during the Middle Ages.

Groups have been mentioned as migrating to Central Europe from the East often have been referred to as Khazars, thus making it impossible to overlook the possibility that they originated from within the former Khazar Empire."

The Universal Jewish Encyclopaedia: "The primary meaning of Ashkenaz and Ashkenazim in Hebrew is Germany and Germans. This may be due to the fact that the home of the ancient ancestors of the Germans is Media, which is the Biblical Ashkenaz—Krauss is of the opinion that in the early medieval ages the Khazars were sometimes referred to as Ashkenazim—About 92 percent of all Jews or approximately 14,500,000 are Ashkenazim."

The Bible: Relates that the Khazar (Ashkenaz) Jews were/are the sons of Japheth not Shem: "Now these are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth: and unto them were sons born after the flood. The sons of Japheth;—the sons of Gomer; Ashkenaz—" (Genesis 10:1-3) Therefore, the Bible proves that the Ashkenaz Jews [Khazars] are not the descendants of Shem and cannot be Semite.

Kimyarite King Adopts Judaism and Converts His Army and People: "Kimyarite (Himyarite) see Sabeans (Jewish Encyclopaedia, p. 403) Sabeans: The inhabitants of the ancient kingdom of Sheba in southeastern Arabia, known from the Bible, classical writers, and native inscriptions.

The genealogies of Genesis give three pedigrees for Sheba, the eponymous ancestor of the Sabeans, who is variously termed:-

(1) the son of Raamah and the grandson of Cush, (Genesis 10:7; 1 Chronicles 1:9; comp. Ezekiel 27:22; 38:13)

(2) the son of Joktan and a great-great- grandson of Shem, (Genesis 10:28; 1 Chronicles 1:22) and

(3) the son of Jokshan and a grandson of Abraham by Keturah. (Genesis 25:3; 1 Chronicles 1:32) There seem, therefore, to have been three stocks of Sabeans: one in Africa, (comp. the Ethiopian city of Saga mentioned by Strabo, 'Geography,' p. 77) and the other two in Arabia.

The Outline of History: H. G. Wells, "It is highly probable that the bulk of the Jew's ancestors 'never' lived in Palestine 'at all,' which witnesses the power of historical assertion over fact."

Following is the story of the conversion of a tribe of people in Russia to Judaism and is the origin of more than 95% of the Jews of Eastern Europe. Facts Are Facts, By Benjamin Freedman. "Without a complete and accurate knowledge of the origin and history of the 'Jews' in Eastern Europe—it is quite impossible for [Christians] to intelligently understand the harmful influence the Jews have exerted for ten centuries—"You will probably be astonished as many Christians were years ago when I electrified the nation with the first publication by me of the facts disclosed by my many years of research into the origin and the history of the 'Jews' in Eastern Europe.

My many years of intensive research established beyond the question of any doubt, contrary to the generally accepted belief held by Christians, that the 'Jews' in Eastern Europe at any time in their history in Eastern Europe were never the legendary 'lost ten tribes' of Bible lore. That historic fact is incontrovertible.

Relentless research established as equally true that the 'Jews' in Eastern Europe at no time in their history could be correctly regarded as the direct lineal descendants of the legendary 'Lost Ten Tribes' of Bible lore. The 'Jews' in Eastern Europe in modern history cannot legitimately point to a single ancient ancestor who ever set even a foot on the soil of Palestine in the era of Bible History.

Research also revealed that the 'Jews' in Eastern Europe were never 'Semites,' are not 'Semites' now, nor can they ever be regarded as 'Semites' at any future time by any stretch of the imagination. Exhaustive research also irrevocably rejects as a fantastic fabrication the generally accepted belief by Christians that the 'Jews' in Eastern Europe are the legendary 'Chosen People' so very vocally publicized by the Christian clergy from their pulpits—" The American People's Encyclopaedia for 1954 at 15-292 records the following in reference to the Khazars: "In the year 740 A.D. the Khazars were officially converted to Judaism. A century later they were crushed by the incoming Slavic-speaking people and were scattered over central Europe where they were known as Jews.

It is from this grouping that most German, Polish and Hungarian Jews are descended, and they likewise make up a considerable part of that population now found in America. The term Ashkenazim is applied to this round-headed, dark-complexioned division."

Nathan M. Pollock has a beef with the Israeli government. His elaborate plans to celebrate this September the 1000th anniversary of the Jewish—- Khazar alliance were summarily rejected. An elderly, meek-looking man who migrated to Israel from Russia 43 years ago.

He has devoted 40 of his 64 years trying to prove that six out of ten Israelis and none out of ten Jews in the Western Hemisphere are real Jews' Jews, but descendants of fierce Khazar tribes which roamed the steppes of Southern Russia many centuries ago.

For obvious reasons the Israeli authorities are not at all eager to give the official stamp of approval to Pollock's theories. "For all we know, he may be 100 percent right," said a senior government official. 'In fact, he is not the first one to discover the connection between Jews and Khazars. Many famous scholars Jews and non-Jews, stressed these links in their historical research works. But who can tell today what percentage of Khazar blood flows in our veins..." (San Diego Union, August 28, 1966, Leo Heiman: Copley News Service)

From the above, we can clearly see that the Jews fully understand their Khazarian heritage as the third edition of the Jewish Encyclopaedia for 1925 records: "CHAZARS [Khazars]: A people of Turkish origin whose life and history are interwoven with the very beginnings of the history of the Jews of Russia. The kingdom of the Chazars was firmly established in most of South Russia long before the foundation of the Russian monarchy by the Varangians (855).

Jews have lived on the shores of the Black and Caspian seas since the first centuries of the common era [after the death of Christ]. Historical evidence points to the region of the Ural as the home of the Chazars. Among the classical writers of the Middle Ages they were known as the 'Chazars,' 'Khazirs,' 'Akatzirs,' and 'Akatirs,' and in the Russian chronicles as 'Khwalisses' and 'Ugry Byelyye'".

The Encyclopaedia Judaica:, Vol. 10, (1971) relates the following about the Khazars (Chazars): "Khazars, a national group of general Turkic type, independent and sovereign in Eastern Europe between the seventh and tenth centuries A.D. During part of this time the leading Khazars professed Judaism." (Encyclopaedia Judicia, Vol. 10, (1971))

The Universal Jewish Encyclopaedia: "Khazars, a medieval people, probably related to the Volga Bulgars, whose ruling class adopted Judaism during the 8th cent. The Khazars seem to have emerged during the 6th cent., from the vast nomadic Hun (Turki) empire which stretched from the steppes of Eastern Europe and the Volga basin to the Chinese frontier. Although it is often claimed that allusions to the Khazars are found as early as 200 AD., actually they are not mentioned until 627—Most Jewish Historians date the conversion of the Khazar King to Judaism during the first half of this century {A.D.}—"

The primary meaning of Ashkenaz and Ashkenazim in Hebrew is Germany and Germans. This may be due to the fact that the home of the ancient ancestors of the Germans is Media, which is the Biblical Ashkenaz—Krauss is of the opinion that in the early medieval ages the Khazars were sometimes referred to as Ashkenazim—About 92 percent of all Jews or approximately 14,500,000 are Ashkenazim.

Academic American Encyclopaedia:, Deluxe Library Edition, Volume 12, page 66 states: "The Khazars, a turkic people, created a commercial and political empire that dominated substantial parts of South Russia during much of the 7th through 10th centuries. During the 8th century the Khazar aristocracy and the Kagan (King) were converted to Judaism."

The New Encyclopaedia Britannica, Volume 6, page 836 relates: "Khazar, member of a confederation of Turkic- speaking tribes that in the late 6th century A.D. established a major commercial empire covering the southeastern section of modern European Russia—But the most striking characteristic of the Khazars was the apparent adoption of Judaism by the Khagan and the greater part of the ruling class in about 740—

The fact itself, however, is undisputed and unparalleled in the history of central Eurasia. A few scholars have asserted that the Judaised Khazars were the remote ancestors of many of the Jews of Eastern Europe and Russia."

Collier's Encyclopaedia: Volume 14, page 65 states: "Khazars [kaza'rz], a semi-nomadic tribe of Turkish or Tatar origin who first appeared north of the Caucasus in the early part of the third century—In the eighth century Khaghan Bulan decided in favour of the Jews and accepted Judaism for himself and for his people—"

New Catholic Encyclopaedia, Volume VIII, page 173 relates: "The Khazars were an ethnic group, belonging to the Turkish peoples, who, toward the end of the 2nd century of the Christian Era, had settled in the region between the Caucasus and the lower Volga and Don Rivers.—At the beginning of the 8th century, dynastic ties bound the Khazars more closely to Constantinople, which led to a limited spread of Christianity among them.

They also became acquainted with Judaism from the numerous Jews who lived in the Crimea and along the Bosphorus. When the Byzantine Emperor, Leo the Isaurian, persecuted the Jews in A.D. 723, many Jews found refuge in the Khazar kingdom, and their influence was so great that, around the middle of the 8th century, the King of the Khazars and many of the Khazar nobility accepted the Jewish faith.

The Cadillac Modern Encyclopaedia, page 822, states: "Khazars (khah'-zahrz), a S Russian people of Turkic origin, who at the height of their power (during the 8th-10th cent., A.D.) controlled an empire which included Crimea, and extended along the lower Volga, as far E as the Caspian Sea. The Khazar royal family and aristocracy converted to Judaism during the reign of King Bulan (768-809 AD) And Judaism was thereafter regarded as the state religion.—"

The Jewish author, Arthur Koestler, relates the following concerning Jewish history: In his 1976 best seller The Thirteenth Tribe, the Author of Darkness at Noon, Promise and Fulfilment, and The Roots of Coincidence dropped another bombshell by proving that today's Jews were, for the most part, descendants of Khazars, who converted to Judaism seven centuries after the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 A.D.

This, of course, is inspired by the story of the Covenant in Genesis; and it implies that the Khazars too claimed the status of a Chosen Race, who made their own Covenant with the Lord, even though they [Khazars] were not descended from Abraham's seed—He cannot, and does not, claim for them [the Khazars] Semitic descent, he traces their [Khazars] ancestry not to Shem, but to Noah's third son, Japheth, or more precisely to Japheth's grandson, Togarma, the ancestor of all Turkish tribes. 'We have found in the family registers of our fathers,' Joseph asserts boldly, 'that Togarma had ten sons, and the names of their off-spring are as follows: Uigur, Dursu, Avars, Huns, Basili, Tarniakh, Khazars, Zagora, Bulgars, Sabir. We [Khazars] are the sons of Khazar, the seventh...' (The Thirteenth Tribe, Arthur Koestler, pages 58-82))

The Jewish author Alfred M. Lilienthal relates the following concerning Jewish history: "—The existence of [The State of] Israel is not founded on logic. It has no ordinary legitimacy. There is neither in its establishment nor present scope any evident justice - though there may be an utter need and wondrous fulfilment.—

Arthur Koestler answers this question with an emphatic 'NO!' In his 1976 best seller The Thirteenth Tribe, the Author of Darkness at Noon, Promise and Fulfilment, and The Roots of Coincidence, dropped another bombshell by proving that today's Jews were, for the most part, descendants of Khazars, who converted to Judaism seven centuries after the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 AD

—Therefore, the great majority of Eastern European Jews are not Semitic Jews at all, and as most Western European Jews came from East Europe, most of them also are not Semitic Jews. Thus, maintains Koestler, the veins of 45 percent of Israelis (save only the Arab and the Sephardic Jews), plus a big majority of Jews around the world, are utterly vacant of corpuscular links to the tribe of Moses and Solomon--The Koestler thesis, however startling, is in no wise a new one. The genetic Khazar derivation of most Jews, only the Sephardic may be accounted Hebrews by blood, has been long if not widely known--The home to which Weismann, Silver, Ben-Gurion and so many other Ashkenazim Zionists have long yearned to return has most likely never been theirs--[it is an] anthropological fact, many Christians may have much more Hebrew- Israelite blood in their veins than most of their Jewish neighbours!

Ironically enough, too, Volume IV of the Jewish Encyclopaedia (as of the time of research, 1952), because this publication spelled Khazars with a 'C' instead of a 'K,' is titled 'Chazars to Dreyfus.'

And it was the famed trial of Captain Alfred Dreyfus, as interpreted by Theodore Herzl, that made the modern Jewish Khazars of Russia--forget their descent from converts to Judaism--to establish the State of Israel.

—And with out the hue and cry, ‘Anti-Semitism,’ pray what happens to the Zionist movement? Khazar conversion was not unique--Who can say for sure that many Christian readers of this book might not in fact have a better claim, which they do not choose to exercise, to go back ‘Home’ to Palestine than Hannah Semer, Menachem Begin, or Golda Meir? Queen Victoria herself belonged to an Israelite society that traced the ancestry of its membership back to the Lost Tribes of Israel.

When the word 'Judaism' was born, there was no longer a Hebrew-Israelite state. The people who embraced the creed of Judaism were already a mixture of many nations, races, and strains, and this diversification was rapidly growing--" (The Zionist Connection II, Alfred M. Lilienthal, pp. 759-768)

There are hundreds of other books one could make reference to that tell exactly the same story, but these should suffice. But if it is not sufficient for you then go to any large city or university library and look up the books listed here and look up the word “Khazar” or “Chazar.” An accurate understanding of the beginning of the Bible and its premises is critical to a proper interpretation of the rest of the unfolding story as the Scripture presents it. Adam is the focal point in the Account of God's creation in Genesis chapter 1-5, since he alone is formed in the "image" and "likeness" of God. (Genesis 2:7-8) Therefore, the study of Adam will be the starting place for this study.

Adam, the first White man, was Formed in God's "image and likeness." "And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul. And the Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed."

The Hebrew word translated "man" or otherwise translated "Adam (Genesis 2:19-21) is Adam (pronounced aw-dawm.' Strong's Exhaustive Concordance #12)) This word is derived from Adam (pronounced aw-dam,' Strong's #119) which, according to Strong's means "to show blood (in the face) i.e., flush or turn rosy." The name "Adam" is descriptive of the appearance of Adam. He is one that "blushes" or turns "flush" or "rosy."

This fact is further supported by other scholarly theological works. The New Brown-Driver-Briggs' Gesenius Hebrew-English Lexicon renders Adam (Strong's #119) "be red—ruddy—reddden, grow or look red—emit redness." The Theological Wordbook of the Old Testament also refers to the use of #119 in Lamentations 4:7 as describing "the colour of skin:"

"Her (referring in the context to the 'daughter of Zion' who were Israelites) Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk they were more ruddy (#119) in body than rubies..." (R. Laird Harris, Gleason I. Archer, Jr., Bruce K. Waltke. The Theological Wordbook of the Old Testament, (Chicago, Ill Moody Press, 1980), p. 11)

Notice that the same "Nazarites" were "whiter than milk" and also "ruddy in body" in their appearance. This same volume adds the following about Adam (#120): "Although the etymology of (Adam) cannot be explained with certainty—the word probably relates to the original ruddiness of man's complexion—" (R. Laird Harris, Gleason I. Archer, Jr., Bruce K.

Waltke. The Theological Wordbook of the Old Testament, (Chicago, Ill Moody Press, 1980), p. 10)

So, it seems quite clear that the name “man” or “Adam” refers to the colour of his complexion. He maintains a red, ruddy appearance or, as Strong’s explains, he is able to blush red in the race.

What race of people is able to blush red in the face? Is it not the White Race? Can a Black of the African race blush? Can an Asian blush red? Can an Indian turn flush in the face? Simple observation answers, “No!” Charles Weisman, in his book, “The Origin of Race and Civilization,” quotes author William C. Boyd, Ph.D., “Races of People” (1955), pp. 43-45 as to the scientific explanation for this phenomena of the differences in racial cast: “The colour of normal human skin is due to the presence of three kinds of coloured chemicals, or pigments.

The most important of these pigments is melanin, a dark-brown substance—The second of the three pigments is carotene. This is a yellow substance which is present in carrots (from which it gets its name) and egg yolks as well as human skin.

The third pigment is haemoglobin, which is the red, colouring matter of blood—the haemoglobin occurs in the blood vessels beneath the skin, so that very little can show through.

The presence of fair amounts of either melanin or carotene in the skin covers it up completely. Haemoglobin does show up however in the skin of white men, particularly in those of light complexion. It is the haemoglobin that accounts for pink cheeks and the ability to blush. On the bases of these differences in colouring, mankind is sometimes divided into

- (1) a “Black Race,” high in melanin,
- (2) a “Yellow Race,” low in melanin but high in carotene; and
- (3) a “White Race,” low in both melanin and carotene.”

Adam was A White man low in the melanin and carotene pigmentations in order to render him able to blush red in the face. This was his distinguishing feature in appearance, thus differentiating Adam from other races which God had created.

There are at least two issues that should be addressed at this point. First is a rather reactionary but subconscious guilt issue created by the well-coordinated, monopolistic public information “system.” The issue arises when confronted with the fact that Adam was a White Man.

It is an extremely difficult concept to accept in today’s modern society, especially among White people they have been made to feel guilty for being White because the government/media propaganda machines (now also passively supported by most Judeo-Christian churches) have constantly told them that they have no business thinking they should be different from other races.

They have been told that they, especially White Christians, are the real cause of the ills of society (never realizing that the Jews have caused most of the problems, and most people mistakenly think they are white, but they are not; they are a mixed breed of people from all the races); from the injustice of “prejudice” and “bigotry” to the “environment.”

They have been told that unless they conform to the New World Order ideas of “equality for all” and “tolerance” of all others, as well as promote “diversity” in “multi-culturalism” and all forms of integration and miscegenation, the white people are nothing more than “White Supremacists” and people of “hate.” (Why is the White man the only focus of the so-called “hate crimes?” Could it be that those who really want to control the world understand that the White man must be subjugated in order for them to succeed?)

Who would want to be tagged with such politically and religiously incorrect images? So today, any perception of Adam as being exclusively a White man is considered an anathema. Because of the brainwashing the Jews have done with their ownership of the media; radio, television, movies, stage plays, and the newspapers, magazines and periodicals.

The second issue arises from an objective and honest question, “If Adam was a White Man, then where did all the other races come from?” the Judeo-Christian assumption has been that all races came from Adam.

There have been many theories purported as to how this came about. Most, however, require interjections forcing an interpretation of Scripture. For example, it has been believed that, after the flood (Genesis 7 and 8), God miraculously changed the skin colour and features of the Adamites at the time when He confused the languages at the tower of Babel. (Genesis 11)

The problem is that the Bible does not say that He did this! Of course, if the Bible does not reveal this, then some contend, the skin colour and features changed from that time in an evolutionary manner. However, this conjecture is not provable and is really beyond any scientific reason. How could Adamites change in skin colour and physical features so radically into Blacks and Asians within a matter of even a couple thousand years, much less a couple hundred years!

Nevertheless, the unfounded theory that God did such things or that evolution has taken place seems to placate the majority of people interested in answering the question of the origin of the races.

The secular world does not have a very good answer either as to the origin of the races. Like some creationists, they too attempt to advance the evolutionary theory. Though evolution is unfounded by scientific examination, scientists do have a good deal of archaeological substantiation for the belief that there were other races before Adam.

There were humans that existed thousands of years before Adam was formed. It is not surprising that secular scientists are quite mystified and shake their heads at the Christian creationists who insist that Adam was the first “human being.” (The author uses the phrase “human being” here as most people would use it, i.e., in a very generic sense applying to the entire “human race.”)

However, the author distinguishes between the phrase “human being” and “man” or “man-kind.” The phrase “human being” literally means “coloured” (hue) “man.” “Man” or “mankind” refers to Adam or Adam kind) The evidence proves otherwise. Except for the interposition of evolution, the secular scientists are quite right in asserting that there were other “human beings” in existence before Adam.

If God did create other races of human beings before Adam, it is not clear in the Genesis creation account, although some contend that they are mentioned as a part of God’s creation (for example in Genesis 1:25). However, is it possible that God, through His Word, simply did not reveal it?

Recall that Adam as the crowning creation of God and, as will be shown, the Bible is the book about Adam and his generations. Perhaps other races of humankind were not the subject matter of the Genesis account at all. It is possible, and even probably that, even though there is an absence of Biblical evidence in light of the scientific documentation, the other races were Created before Adam. (The author again cites Charles Weisman’s book, “The Origin of Race and Civilization,” see footnote 5 for an excellent and documented compendium of facts that there were races of humans before Adam)

Returning to the point of this section, the first premise that Adam was a White Man Formed in God’s image is founded on biblical evidence and authority. It may not be correct by “private interpretation,” according to man’s own reason and society’s rationale based on universality, but it is Scripturally accurate.

Adam, a white man, was formed to have “dominion” over all the earth. It was apparently the purpose of God to give Adam the charge and responsibility to take “dominion over—the earth.” The earth as obviously a part of God’s creation and His Kingdom. He is the Sovereign Owner and ruler of it. “The earth is the Lord’s, and the fullness thereof, the world, and they that dwell therein.” (Psalm 24:1)

Though God could have ruled over the earth personally without any help, He, in His providence appointed Adam and his descendants to rule over it as His stewards.

The Hebrew word translated “dominion” is radah (Strong’s #7287) which means “to tread down, i.e., subjugate—prevail against, reign—rule.” In other words, Adam was to rule and reign over god’s Kingdom on earth. This was the job God appointed Adam to do as Psalm 8:3-6 confirms:

‘When I consider the heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; What is man, that thou art mindful of him? And the son of man, that thou visitest him? For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour. Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet.

In verse 4, “the son of man” is the “son of Adam” (Strong’s #120) It is the “son of Adam” that god “madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands’ and “hast put all things under his feet.” The word translated “dominion” in Psalm 8 is mashal in Hebrew (Strong’s #4910) which, although different from #7287, is substantially rendered the same meaning. Adam, a White man, was commissioned to rule in God’s Kingdom on the earth.

The Kingdom of God, that is, God’s rule and reign, is the major theme of the Bible. This is uncontested by the majority of Biblical scholars even though there might be different views on it. From Genesis to Revelation, the Bible is the story of God’s unfolding plan to establish His Kingdom in righteousness and justice and this plan clearly and directly involves Adam and his generations as Psalm 145:11-13 points out:

“They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power. To make known to the sons of men (Adam - Strong’s #120) his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom.

Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations. (The word “generation” is the Aramaic term dhar (Strong’s #1859) that corresponds to #1755 (dhor) which means ‘revolution of time, i.e., an age of generation, posterity.’ This has to do with a race or class of men as it relates to a period or cycle. In this context, god's Kingdom was present within and during the generations of the race of Adam)

The Biblical premise of Adam's appointment to dominate the earth is not a very popular idea either. Since the Civil War era, the White man in this country has been subdued into submission to the equalitarian doctrine of communism. He must not even consider a thought that would make him think he is somehow different than other races.

Although it is difficult to suppress the mass of history and daily evidence that the white Race is responsible for the advancement in every area of civilization this fact is frequently overlooked or ignored in the present politically and religiously correct world of thinking. Consider the following testimonies of the observations of history:

The moral and intellectual character we find to be in unison with his (the Caucasian form of man's) structure; the reasoning powers outstripping the mere process of comparing sensations, and showing, in volition, more elevated thought, more reasoning, justice, and humanity; he alone of the races of mankind ("mankind" used generically) has produced examples of free and popular institutions, and his physical characteristics have maintained them in social life.

By means of his logical intellect, he has arrived at ideas requisite for the acquisition of abstract truths, resorting to actual experiment, he fixed bases whereon to build demonstrable inferences, when the positive facts are not otherwise shown; he invented simple arbitrary characters to represent words and musical sounds, and a few signs which, nevertheless, denote, in their relative positions, all possible combinations of numbers and quantity.

He has measured time and distance, making the sidereal bodies unerring guides to make locally and give nautical direction; he has ascended to the skies, descended into the deep, and mastered the powers of lightning. By mechanical researches (he) has assuaged human toil, multiplied the results of industry, and created a velocity of locomotion superior to the flight of birds. By his chemical discoveries he has modified bodily pain, and produced numberless discoveries useful in medicine, in arts and manufactures. He has found a sound and connected system of the sciences in general, and acquired a critical literature, while, for more than three thousand years, he has been the principal possessor of all human knowledge and the assessor of fixed laws.” (Lt. Col. Hamilton Smith, “The Natural History of the Human Species,” (Boston Gould & Lincoln, 1851), p. 361)

“The physical differences among men are as great as usually form specific differences in animals. In the Caucasian nations, generally, we see the rights of woman acknowledged and established; enlightened governments, just laws, a rational system of religion, commerce, agriculture, art and science in the highest known perfection.

In the Mongolian races, woman is a slave, an article of merchandise, government despotic, religion idolatrous, laws unjust and bloody, commerce, agriculture, in a low state; all the arts of life little advanced, and stationary for ages. In the American races (American Indians), the state of things is worse still; and in the African, at the lowest point. (S. Kneeland, Jr., Introduction, “The Natural History of the Human Species,” Lt. Col. Hamilton Smith, p. 7)

“The Caucasian variety—is so named, from Mt. Caucasus... those races in which intellect, both native and cultivated, has produced the mightiest results; those races, whose history would be the history of civilization and of Christianity—” (S. Kneeland, Jr., Introduction, “The Natural History of the Human Species,” Lt. Col. Hamilton Smith, pp 15-16)

“The leading part in the history of the world has been, and is still, played by the Aryan nations. The Caucasian presents us with the highest type among the five families of man; the Aryan branch of the Caucasian family present us with the noblest pattern of that highest type—it is the Aryans—

—that have reached the highest point of intellectual development, as shown in their political freedom, and in their science, literature, and art.” (Henry W. Ruoff, “Book of Races and Peoples,” The Circle of Knowledge, (Boston: The Standard Publication Company, 1916), p. 277)

“The testimony of history, and the results of philanthropic experiment, are the data upon which the ethnologist must institute his inquiries, if he would arrive at conclusions instructive to humanity--Let us take for illustration the white and the black races, supposed by many to represent the two extremes of the scale of gradation.

The whole history of the former shows an uninterrupted progress; that of the latter, monotonous stagnation. To the one, mankind owes the most valuable discoveries in the domain of thought, and their practical application; to the other, it owes nothing--” (H. Hotz, Analytical Introduction, Arthur de Gobineau, “The Moral & Intellectual Diversity of Races,” (Philadelphia: J.B. Lippincott & Co., 1856), pp. 32-33)

Time after time scientific and historical study after study, from past centuries to the present, reveal the same conclusion that the White Race is different from the others. Again, the modern sensibilities will most likely be offended and recoil that such commentary is nothing more than sowing the seeds of “racism.”

Nevertheless, the facts of history and experience make it undeniable that the white Race on the whole possess special inherent qualities. Could this be commensurate with the account that Adam, a White man, was formed in the “image” of God so that he could have the capability and capacity to rule over His Kingdom on earth?
