

Cinderella

A Bible Story

by Sheldon Emry

Cinderella

Israel in Disguise

CINDERELLA is that old, old Saxon folk tale about the poor little girl in rags and ashes who married the Prince of the realm and lived happily ever after. It has come down to us generation after generation, and it is still cherished and enjoyed.

The story of the little girl with the glass slipper has been printed in numerous books in uncounted versions of the original story. It has been made into plays, movies, cartoons, and television productions; and still the magic of Cinderella lives on. Perhaps it is the hand of God because, you know, there really is a Cinderella, there really is a Prince, there really will be a wedding, and they really will live happily ever after!

Cinderella Story — A Parable

The story of Cinderella is a magnificent, prophetic parable of the Prince of Peace and Israel. As we go along through the story, we shall attempt to explain the real-life characters that fit in this ancient, yet still unfinished, story, which has survived so long in Anglo-Saxon folklore.

According to the original story, the pretty little girl's mother died and her father remarried. Soon after the stepmother and her two grown daughters moved in, the father left on a long trip. All three of the women were very hard and cruel to the little girl.

She was treated as a servant girl in her own house. Whenever anything went wrong, she was blamed for it and accused of being lazy. When something she made or did deserved praise, the stepsisters took the credit and the praise for it. She was not even given a bed to sleep in and slept near the open hearth to keep warm.

As a result, she was covered with ashes and the mocking sisters called her “Cinder-ella,” or cinder girl. In her trouble and sorrow she wanted to reach her father, but she did not know how to find him to tell him of her degraded and cruel situation.

Cinderella's Disguise

Before we go further in the old story, I would like to suggest the real-life players in this drama, so that seeing you will see, and hearing you will hear and understand the Bible story so cleverly hidden, yet so simply revealed, in this ancient tale.

The Women Are Identified A clue is given to the identity of the women in the first part of the story. As the father took his leave, he asked the two stepdaughters and Cinderella what they wanted him to bring them from the fair. The eldest asked for beautiful dresses, the younger for pearls and jewels. Cinderella asked only for the branch of a tree.

If we put Cinderella in the role of castoff Israel, literally beyond the visible protection of her Father, we see the eldest daughter as the corrupt, false church of the middle ages with all its pomp and ceremony. Its beautiful dresses, and its desire to keep all under its sway in poverty and rags, mark it as the Roman church.

The other daughter, desirous of riches, is the evil, gold and debt-money system, which has so cruelly ruled most of the nations of the civilized world for so long. It brings poverty, strife, and tears yet proclaims itself as the source of prosperity and good times, just as the stepsister demands all praise to herself.

That leaves the old mother, and we find her in Revelation 17. She has the identity of both daughters, they being her offspring, and she is described thus: And the woman was arrayed in purple and gold and precious stones and pearls (the younger daughter's request), having a golden cup in her hand (the gold debt-money system— see Jeremiah 51:7) full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication (Revelation 17:2). Then Revelation 17:4 names her — MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

She works her evil on Cinderella Israel through her two corrupt daughters, religion and finance. All three combine to rule over Israel.

John writes of her, ".And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus (verse 6). And the Angel answered. The woman which than seest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth," (verse 18)

The "Branch" Comes To Cinderella

But perhaps you are not satisfied with my identification of Cinderella as Christian Israel. Let's follow her a little more closely. Her father brought home the branch of a tree and Cinderella thanked him, and went to her mother' s grave and planted the branch on it.

The Saxon sage who wrote the tale of Cinderella, said the cruel stepsisters laughed at her because of the branch, but that she wept so much that her tears fell down on it and watered it. It grew and became a handsome tree. How does this fit Israel? In prophetic Scripture Jesus Christ, who was the Word made flesh, is called The Branch.

Isaiah 11:1 reads, "And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots."

Zechariah prophesied, "Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold the man whose name is the BRANCH: and he shall grow up out of His place, and He shall build the temple of the LORD" (Zechariah 6:12)

What happened when the Father sent Jesus, the BRANCH, here in the flesh? Hardly a ripple on the pages of then current history! Only a few score thousand of the tens of millions who lived at that time saw Him or even heard of Him.

And when He was to be arrested and put to death He was so little known that His enemies had to have a Judas to identify Him. And what happened to this Branch when it was planted? Well, the true believers, Christian-Israel, wept, while the religious priests and Jewish rulers scoffed and derided, knowing not what they had done. The immediate persecutions that followed (see Book of ACTS) began the tears that watered the BRANCH of Israel.

Acts 8 says, “And at that time there was a great persecution against the church— and they were all scattered abroad— (and) went everywhere preaching the Word!”

The “Comforter” Comes To Cinderella

The inspired writer of Cinderella, also, tells us that a white bird lived in the tree that grew from the branch on her mother's grave; and the bird talked to her and comforted her when she was tired from work or weak from the beatings at the hands of her cruel taskmasters.

This white bird is, of course, a symbolic portrayal of the Holy Ghost that came upon Israel after the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, the Branch. Jesus, in speaking of His leaving, said to His Israelite Disciples in John 14:16:–

“And I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever.”

Then in verse 26,

“But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in My Name, He shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.”

In all four Gospels, the Spirit of God descending on Jesus is described as a dove descending out of heaven.

The Book of Acts then tells how the Holy Spirit of God was given to the multitudes of Israelites as they believed on Jesus. As the white bird was the comforter of Cinderella, so was the Holy Spirit the comforter of Israel!

Theologians, Please Read

Spirit Came To Israel 1900 Years Ago Many modern theologians do not realize that the Holy Spirit actually-did come to Israel long ago. They see that the Jews, whom they believe to be Israel, have rejected both Christ and the Spirit, and so they think the Holy Spirit instead came to a non-Israel gentile people, the Caucasians. Let us see what the Scriptures say. Turn to Acts 2 — that great chapter about the Holy Ghost at Pentecost.

Cinderella's Disguise

After the Holy Ghost came on these men, some standing nearby thought they were drunk, as we read in Verse 13:—

“Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.”

And then in verses 14-16:—

“But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words: For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day. But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel.”

And then Peter quotes the prophet:—

“And it shall come to pass in the last days, (the time after Christ) saith God, I will pour out of My Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: And on My servants and on My handmaidens I will pour out in those days of My Spirit.”

He was quoting Joel 2:28, and Joel prophesied to whom? To Israel, of course! Both Joel and Peter knew the Spirit was to be poured out on Israel, yet most modern preachers preach that the Jews of today (who do NOT have the Spirit) are Israel! (We'll show from this story why they preach that falsehood).

They say that when Christ returns, the Jews will recognize Him as their Messiah and He will pour out His Spirit on them, and then they quote Joel 2:28 as proof. Yet Peter said Joel 2:28 began its fulfilment in his presence over 1900 years ago! The Holy Spirit came to Israel over 1900 years ago to begin its work of converting them to Christians, as are their descendants.

Read Acts 11:26. Those who were not of Israel rejected Christianity and retained Judaism. (See my OPEN LETTER to Ministers who teach "The Jews are Israel")

Invitation For A Future Bride

As we go on with this fascinating Saxon tale that defied the ages, as if God had ordained it to be told to all Anglo-Saxon children, you will recall the invitation to the great Ball for the Prince to choose a bride.

Everyone in the realm was invited, and the evil stepmother and her two cruel daughters hastened to make ready. They prepared their wardrobes and devised cunning plans to dance with the Prince and perhaps entice him to propose marriage with one of them. Cinderella was forced to sew for them and spend her days in creating costumes and finery with which they could impress the Prince.

When she ventured a hesitant wish that she might attend, she was cut short with sneers and ridicule that she was not fit, that she had nothing to wear, and, besides, a "servant" girl could never be considered a bride for the Prince of the Kingdom. And then they beat her and made her work harder than before, and her tears watered the branch and made it grow.

The “Dark Ages” — Israel In Bondage

She was not allowed anything that might provide her with an excuse to attend the Ball. And it was true in Europe after the first growth of Christianity that Papal Rome, usurping religious power over the ruins of Pagan Rome, thwarted all attempts to spread the true Christian gospel. Copies of Scripture were confiscated and burned, and anyone caught with copies was in danger of imprisonment and death.

For a thousand years, Rome and despotic kings controlled the individual, family and national life on the European continent. Cinderella-Israel could not receive, read or accept the "invitation" in the Word. The two stepsisters ruled under the cruel stepmother, and Cinderella-Israel had her only pleasure in secret visits to the tree on her mother's grave and the comfort of the white bird, the Holy Spirit!

The Tears of Christian Israel

Secular and church histories estimate that in the first two centuries after Christ's death and resurrection, central and northern European Saxons, Celts, Angles, Gauls, Swiss, Romans, and other Christians were brought in chains to Rome by the hundreds of thousands and put to death for naming Christ as their Saviour.

They were drawn and quartered, tied to stakes and burned, eaten by wild beasts in the coliseum, and crucified as was their Lord. Many died with His Name on their lips and a prayer of forgiveness for their tormentors in their hearts. The suffering of the living and dying is almost beyond description.

Medieval scholars estimated that six million Christians are buried in the catacombs of Rome; and how many other millions spilled their life's blood on that bloody peninsula, is known only to God. And these were not Jews; these were Christians! Today, the rulers of Christian Israel pay homage to the Pope with never a thought of those who testified with their dying breath of their love for their Saviour, the coming King of Israel. Surely, the blood and tears of Christian Israel have watered the Branch of His planting.

Two "Cinderella" Martyrs

The story of two nieces of St. Paul is told on a small memorial plaque still on the site of the ancient "Palace of the British" in Rome, now known as the Church of St. Prudentians. This was the house where Paul, while in Rome, lived with his half brother: the Roman Senator, Prudens, and his wife, the British Princess Claudia, both of whom are mentioned in 2 Timothy 4:21.

It is their daughters (Paul's nieces) who are commemorated on the small plaque, which reads, "In this sacred and most ancient of churches, known as that of Pastor (Hermes), dedicated by Sanctus Pius Papa (St. Paul), formerly the house of Sanctus Prudens, the Senator, and the home of the holy apostle, repose the remains of three thousand blessed martyrs, which Prudentiana and Praxedes, virgins of Christ, with their own hands, interred.”

Can you safe-and-sound Christians imagine these teen-age girls, orphaned after their own father and mother were martyred, burying three thousand of the beloved brethren in Christ with their own hands before they too were martyred? Their tears, also, watered the ground of Christian Israel.

Reformation In The Realm

The invitations to the Ball were, as we have seen, invitations in the Holy Word to believe on Christ. In the 16th and 17th centuries A.D., the newly invented printing press poured out thousands of copies of the Bible and the story of Jesus.

Reformation swept northern and western Europe as the Saxon-Israel people began to accept the invitation of the Prince. Both the sincere and the liars came, for as Jesus had warned in Matthew 24:5,

“----many shall come in My Name, saying I am Christ; (orally claiming to be Christians) and shall deceive many.”

We know from history that the enemies of Christ often claim to be Christians and attempt to control people through false doctrines.

In the ancient tale, the wicked stepmother and her daughters tried to make themselves the "belles of the ball." But Cinderella was there, too, although unknown to them, in her beautiful gown provided by the white bird; and lo and behold, when the Prince saw her, he went straight to Cinderella and danced with no other!

The stepsisters and the old mother were dismayed and furious. They did not recognize Cinderella in her garments of the Holy Spirit, and all their efforts to attract the attention of the Prince failed. All of His interest was on the beautiful Cinderella-Israel.

They had not understood when the Prince instructed His messengers to go “—to the lost sheep of the house of Israel” (Matthew 10:6). Even if they had, they were so intent on usurping the place of the bride, that their own greed blinded them to the truth.

Cinderella Disappears

From what we can see, the Ball itself represents the Reformation, Cinderella-Israel's joyous meeting with the Word. Cinderella was having a wonderful time at the Ball, but her two wicked stepsisters and the evil stepmother were pushed aside.

The Prince of the realm, symbolizing Jesus Christ, her Lord, had eyes only for her. (The Reformation was only in the Anglo-Saxon, Celtic, Germanic, and Scandinavian lands — the abode of the scattered and lost sheep of the house of Israel.)

And then came midnight. The white bird had warned Cinderella she must leave before 12 o'clock; and she just made it, leaving behind a tiny slipper, the only clue to her identity. Cinderella-Israel disappeared.

She went back to her bondage, subject again to Mystery, Babylon The Great, Mother Of Harlots and abominations of the earth. The wicked daughters, representing the corrupt world church and the evil, debt-money system, began anew their persecution and oppression of Cinderella-Israel.

In Europe, after the Reformation, corrupt and evil men began to re-infiltrate the church, twisting its offices and doctrines to fit their own design for power. The money lenders, through subversion, blackmail, and war, took over the Bank of England, France, and other countries and began the issuing of specie and credit as a debt against the government, and therefore against the people. Kings and nations were put in bondage to them through debt. War followed war with its personal pain, material destruction, moral degradation, and crushing taxes.

By the 1600's, despair for The Old World (Europe) led many believers to The New World (America) to seek both religious freedom and release from economic bondage. It was as if the watchmen in Israel had cried, “Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the Lord our God.” (Jeremiah 31:6). They came to Zion (America) with singing, and the wilderness and the solitary place was glad for them and the desert blossomed as the rose.” (Isaiah 35).

Cinderella's Disguise

God settled America with believing Israelites to fulfil his promise, “And I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and bring you to ZION: And I will give you pastors according to Mine heart, which will feed you with knowledge and understanding.” Jeremiah 3:14

GOD'S children are like stars that shine brightest in the darkest skies; like the chamomile, which, the more it is trodden down, the faster it spreads and grows.

"The glories of Christianity in England are to be traced in the sufferings of confessors and martyrs in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries; and it was under the influence of Christian principles, imbibed at this very period, that the Mayflower brought over the band of Pilgrims to Plymouth.

—We should never forget that the prison, the scaffold, and the stake were stages in the march of civil and religious liberty, which our forefathers had to travel, in order that we might attain our present liberty—

“Before our children remove their religious connections— before they leave the old paths of God's Word— before they barter their birthright for a mess of pottage— let us place in their hands this chronicle of the glorious days of the suffering Churches, and let them know that they are the sons of the men 'of whom the world was not worthy, and whose sufferings for conscience sake are here monumentally recorded.'"

— John Overton Choules, August., 12, 1843 — Preface to the 1844 reprint of Neal's "History of the Puritans", 1731.

Ministers Preach To Israel

The writer of Cinderella, with his inspired pen, told of her trials and punishment at the hands of the sisters and mother. But, he, also, told that the Prince, after the ball, sent messengers throughout the realm seeking Cinderella. From city to village to farm they went, telling everyone the Prince sought her for his bride. With them they carried the slipper, the one positive identification of Cinderella.

The messengers, of course, were the Christian ministers, who carried God's Holy Word to all of Europe and America preaching from the Bible the story of Israel and the coming marriage of the Lamb (REVELATION 19:7), to be held after He found His bride.

The slipper was the Scriptural identity of true Israel. It would fit ONLY the future bride of the Prince of the Kingdom.

Old "Babylon" attempts To Deceive Messengers When the old woman and her daughters realized that, eventually, Cinderella would be found, they began to plot ways to deceive the messengers into thinking one of them was the bride the Prince sought. Then, they reasoned, they, and not the true bride, would move into the Palace and rule the Kingdom. When the messengers of the Prince came, the elder - whom we have identified as Ecclesiastical Babylon, the corrupt world church - was presented as the bride being sought.

We have heard her preaching for centuries, saying in a hundred different ways that she is "the true church, the Bride of Christ." The messengers listened and almost believed; but when they pulled out the slipper, representing the Scriptural and prophetic description that could fit only Cinderella-Israel, it did not fit.

At this point the old mother, Mystery, Babylon The Great, stepped in and told the older sister to say it was the younger who was the one. And what have we heard from the organized church for the last century?

"The Jews are Israel, the Jews are God's Chosen people, Christ will come and convert the Jews and they will rule with Him in His earthly kingdom, etc, etc."

In the story of Cinderella, the prophetic author tells us that the old mother, recognizing the slipper was the wrong size, even cut the toes off the younger sister's foot; and all three exerted all their efforts, straining at the bloody foot to force it to fit the slipper.

In the 20th century we are deluged with propaganda about how "the Jews have always been persecuted," and how "Hitler killed 6 million Jews." Although where he got the 6 million still remains a mystery, as there were only 550,000 in Germany in the 30's and only 5.5 million in ALL of Europe in 1938! But, phony death and persecution stories are used by both minister and Jew who twist and turn both Jewry and Scripture, desperately trying to make us believe that one fits the other!

Cinderella Found — Israel Identified

Up to this point the ancient Saxon writer has brought us to the twentieth century. What we have already related is history, and the rest of the fascinating tale is prophecy. Eventually, the King's messengers turned from both daughters, saying it was obvious their feet did not fit the slipper, and asked if there were other young women in the house.

The old mother insisted not, but the messengers spied Cinderella in her sackcloth and ashes going about her servant duties and demanded she be brought out. The two sisters attempted to stop them but were unable to do so. Cinderella was seated in a chair, and the slipper tried on. It was a perfect fit. Cinderella, the bride of the Prince, had been found!

And so we find it today. Independent Kingdom ministers, using the Holy Scripture's description of Israel, can preach that "Israel, the bride of Christ, has been found." The historical and prophetic description of Israel fits ONLY Anglo-Saxon, Celtic, Germanic, Scandinavian, and kindred Christian nations.

While the organized church denominations continue to protest that the younger daughter of Babylon, Jewry, is true Israel, Cinderella-Israel sits quietly, wearing sackcloth and ashes (repentance and humility) before her Lord. The slipper (Scripture proof of her identity) fits.

Sackcloth And Ashes — When?

To those who do not see the White, Christian West in sackcloth and ashes, the author can only suggest you be patient for a few more years. The Christian West is under assault from forces far beyond her power to resist. Mystery Babylon has planned the destruction of Israel; but before she will be able to complete it, the messengers from the Prince will recognize God's true Israel. And in her extremity she will be in sackcloth and ashes.

Hosea wrote God's promise to Israel:—

“And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me Ishi, (Husband) and shalt call me no more Baali (Lord)—and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely, and I will betroth thee unto Me for ever; yea, I will even betroth thee unto Me in righteousness, and in judgement, and in loving kindness, and in mercies. I will even betroth thee unto Me in faithfulness: and thou shalt know the LORD.”

Those who have eyes may see, and those who have ears may hear. Jesus Taught In Parables Most of you know that Jesus Christ used what he called parables to teach His disciples the Mysteries of the Kingdom. After telling one of these stories to the multitude, we read in Matthew 13:10, “And the disciples came, and said unto Him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables? He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.”

In verse 13 He explains why He hid the kingdom truths from the multitude in these seemingly-simple stories.

“Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand, and seeing ye see, and shall not perceive: For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.”

So Christ preached in parables so His disciples would understand, but those who were not fully committed to Christ would not understand. You wonder why today so few see the coming Kingdom Age and the Israel truth? Well, it's because their ears are dull, and they've closed their eyes to the Word of God. They still do not understand the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed Are Your Eyes

I quoted from Matthew 13 to show why Jesus hid the mysteries of the kingdom from the multitude in parables. You have heard a parable in "Cinderella." Then in Verse 16, still speaking to His Disciples, Jesus said,

“But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear. For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things, which ye hear, and have not heard them.”

Babylon Destroyed

I want to end this Cinderella story as it will end some day in the not-too-distant future. The folk tale says the wicked stepmother and her daughters were driven out, and then Cinderella was taken to the castle and fitted with a white wedding gown.

My Bible tells me in Revelation 17 and 18 of the destruction of Mystery, Babylon The Great, Mother of Harlots and abominations of the earth. "And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all." (Rev 18:21)

That Babylon will never again have anything to do with the Prince and His Cinderella Bride is foretold in Verse 23,

"And the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee. The crimes of that great city will be known to all the Kingdom, For thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth." (Vs.. 23-24) Cinderella-Israel's deceivers and tormentors will be no more!

Israel Married

Then comes the marriage in Revelation 19:7,

"Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to Him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and the wife hath made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: (Cinderella's white gown) And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God."

The ancient Saxon scribe ended his prophetic story with two white doves singing to the Prince and Cinderella as they ride off: "Turn and peep, turn and peep; No blood is on the shoe. The shoe is not too small for her, the true bride rides with you." The tale ends, as it were, on a note that tells us the entire parable was of the long, and finally successful, attempt to IDENTIFY THE TRUE BRIDE OF THE PRINCE - for on the correct identity of the Bride of Christ hangs ALL UNDERSTANDING OF THE PROPHETIC SCRIPTURES.

Scripture States Plainly Israel is The Bride

For those whose ministers still preach the Jews are Israel and the church is the kingdom, or that the church is the bride, let's read Revelation 21:2, "And I John saw the holy city, NEW JERUSALEM, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband (emphasis added).

And then to be sure you understand who the true bride is — that it is not the church, as so many preach — let us read Revelation 21:9-12,

"And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will show thee the bride, the Lamb's wife. And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like Jasper stone, clear as crystal: And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of The Twelve Tribes of The Children of Israel:" (emphasis added).

Israel is the Bride. She is the Israel of the dispersion, "the lost sheep of the house of Israel" (Matthew 10:6) within whom the Holy Spirit has lived and worked since Pentecost! — an Israel cleansed of all her sins and iniquity, turning to Jesus Christ and His Word. She is Israel to whom God said, "Again I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel." (Jeremiah 31:4) Israel is the virgin Bride of Christ! Cinderella has been Found!

Deception Yet Remains

The massive deceptions which have prevented the White Race from knowing their origin in Israel will continue.

Opposition to this fundamental Truth of Identity, without which the Bible remains a mystery, comes not only from the Roman Church, the National Council of Churches, and Jewry, but, also, from "fundamentalist" evangelists and denominations.

Their continued opposition to the Israel Truth serves to mark them as enemies of Israel, and as "daughters" of the unholy mother, MYSTERY BABYLON. God warns His people, "Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD'S hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; (lies) therefore the nations are mad (deceived)— My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD—" (Jeremiah 51:7,45; Revelation 18:4).

Their Day is Done

Thank God that the day of the MOTHER OF HARLOTS and her evil daughters is about over. The identity of the Anglo-Saxon and kindred peoples as the Israelites is being revealed. Along with that comes the realization of our great sin in turning from Jesus Christ and from His Holy commandments.

With our repentance will come our deliverance from our enemies, followed by the marriage of the Lamb and the great Kingdom age. Jesus has paid the price, has shed His Blood for our sin, and has purchased us for Himself and for His Kingdom. Christ Himself said:—

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through Him might be saved." (John 3:16,17)

The New Day is Coming

The Holy Spirit of God is, and will continue to be, poured out upon His People. When you understand that the Blood of Jesus Christ suffices for all, even for you who may be dead in trespasses and sin, and that Jesus is calling YOU to repent and turn from your sins, and to faith in and obedience to His commandments, then you will understand the real meaning of that prayer, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

That kingdom on earth is coming; join with us in prayer for the opening of the eyes of the many lost sheep who are still in darkness. And tell your friends that now you know Cinderella is not a fairy tale; it is a true story.

May God bless all who have read this little book, in Jesus Christ.

Isaac Watts (1674-1748) knew the Anglo-Saxon Race was Israel. He wrote this poem as a prayer

Israel's Poem

Now may God of power and grace
Attend His people's humble cry;
Jehovah hears when Israel prays
And brings deliverance from on high.
The Name of Jacob's God defends,
Better than shields and brazen walls;
He, from His sanctuary sends
Succour and strength when Zion calls.
Well, He remembers all our sighs;
His love exceeds our best deserts;
His love accepts the sacrifice
Of humble groans and broken hearts.

In His salvation is our hope.
And in the Name of Israel's God;
Our troops shall lift their banners up,

Cinderella's Disguise

Our Navies spread their flags abroad.
Some trust in horses trained for war,
And some of chariots make their boast;
Our surest expectations are
From thee, the Lord of heavenly hosts.
Now save us, Lord, from slavish fear;
Now let our hopes be firm and strong;
Til thy salvation shall appear,
And joy and triumph raise the song.

