Dear Reader,

Is The New World Order in Terminal Decline?

WE HAVE SEEN A CHANGE of UK puppet leader, with Theresa May replacing David Cameron. There will also, soon be a change in the USA with Obama being replaced by Hillary Clinton? Or Trump? Or maybe neither!

The Hillary rumours regarding her health and the possibility that she is already dead continue apace. The increasing use of Hillary doubles, including the use of doctored tapes of her speeches apparently fully recovered, lend credence to her being dead or very seriously ill.

Many of the Clintons' dirty dealings are coming to the surface including allegations that vast sums allocated to the Haitian earthquake relief went straight into the Clinton Foundation, not to mention many other allegations too numerous to enumerate.

It is surprising these allegations have been allowed to surface even onto parts of the mainstream media which leads one to suspect that the enemy has dissension within its camp and that the thieves are falling out with one another! This is further evidenced by Deutsche Bank refusing so far to pay a large fine imposed on it by the Bank of International settlements, both part of the Rothschild central banking system.

The enemy is still suffering from the blow of the Brexit vote, despite heavily manipulating the results, the outcome was still to leave the EU!

The spectacle of tottering Hillary in the picture on the left, having to be aided up the steps, is symptomatic of the New World Order as it too is tottering and about to fall. For this we praise Yahweh and may His coming to execute judgement and to remove the tares be soon! Praise Yahweh!

The Old Jerusalem is Not the New Jerusalem Pastor Eli James Comments on Sheldon Emery's Classic (4)

Where Are We Today?

What we have just read is not yet complete, however. It will not be finished until after the return of our Lord Jesus Christ. So let us turn to one of God's prophets to see where we are in present world history. God gave all of His prophets visions of His kingdom, but we will finish this study with Micah 4.

"But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the Lord [and remember that "mountain" is prophetic for nation, so Micah is speaking of the nation of the house of the Lord] shall be established in the top of the mountains [above all nations], and it shall be exalted above the hills [small nations]; and people shall flow unto it. And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord."

What did Zechariah say New Jerusalem would be called? "The mountain of the Lord of Hosts." (Zech. 8:3).

The Nation of New Jerusalem

Reading on in Micah 4: 2, "Let us go up to the mountain [nation] of the Lord, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem." [Only Christian Identity is teaching that the Whole Law of Yahweh (without man-made dogma, see Deut. 4:2), with the New Covenant amending the Old, is to be obeyed. -- Eli] That is where we started our study. And we are not in the old city of Jerusalem! Then in verse 7, "And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation . . ." Who was cast off? Israel was cast off into the Assyrian captivity, and then was driven north and west into Europe to become the great Christian nations of Europe.

Then representatives of all the tribes were gathered into the great melting pot nation, the greatest nation that has ever existed in all recorded history, the only one founded by those who believed in the Lord Jesus Christ as the virgin born Son of God, the United States of America!

God has made us a "strong nation: and the Lord shall reign over them in mount Zion, from henceforth, even for ever. And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion [not the old mother; the daughter!], unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion . . ." And what will come? "The kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem!"

America - Not Israeli

Yes the United States of America is that great nation promised to the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (Gen. 18:18 and others). It is that great nation spoken of by Christ, when He said to the Jewish priests in old Jerusalem, "The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof." [The Jews of Christ's time had usurped the Throne of Israel via Herod just as the Neo-Kahns have usurped America's government today, hijacking it for their sinister, Zionist purposes. -- Eli]

Let us review a few of the names and Scriptural terms used to describe New Jerusalem, or the Kingdom: the Bride of Christ, the holy city, the city of the great God, New Jerusalem, the burdensome stone, this stone, a city that angels measure, the towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein, the city of truth, the mountain of the Lord of hosts, the great Zion, a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof, and on and on. Is that the old city of Jerusalem we see in Palestine under the Jews? Is it that old city at any future time? No! What you see in old Canaanland, in old Palestine, is the city "that killest the prophets," the city that is now "as Shiloh!"

Even Our Troubles Testify of Our Identity

With all we have read in mind, and considering the present situation of the United States of America, surrounded by the nations under the control of World Communism [No, communism is NOT DEAD. It simply goes by another name: Zionism, globalism, New World Order, United Nations Organization, etc.. -- Eli], our government infiltrated by and under the control of anti-Christ people, let us read the rest of Micah 4. We will see this prophecy is now America's current history.

Verse 9, "Now why dost thou cry aloud? Is there no king in thee? Is thy counsellor perished?" We certainly seem to be without good counsel in government! "For pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail. Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail." Something is going to be born out of all this trial and tribulation we are going through. "For now shalt thou go forth out of the city [forsake God's laws], and thou shalt dwell in the field [in anarchy, civil disorders, revolution, and violence], and thou shalt go even to Babylon." [Boy! Are we in Babylon!!! We are rolling in it like pigs in slop! -- Eli]

This always stumps those who do not know the correct identity of the "daughter of Zion." It simply means we will come under the control of the international money powers known in the Scripture as "Mystery, Babylon The Great, The Mother Of Harlots And Abominations Of The Earth" (Rev. 17:5) (That is a study in itself - see my "Billions$ for the Bankers$ and Debts to the People").

Deliverance Comes at the Moment of Defeat!

But at the very time when the anti-Christ international conspirators think they have us in their grasp, we will be saved! "And thou shalt go even to Babylon, there shalt thou be delivered: there the Lord shall redeem thee from the hands of thine enemies [see Luke 1: 68-71]. Now also many nations are gathered against thee [all prophets prophesied this], that say Let her be defiled [They want to defile the White Race by miscegenation, and our people have fallen for it! -- Eli], and let our eye look upon Zion." All the nations of the earth are being gathered against the United States of America, God's great Zion nation.

But God goes on through His prophet, "But they know not the thoughts of The Lord, neither understand they His counsel: for He shall gather them as sheaves into the floor." Then we are ordered to battle, "Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion; for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the Lord, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth."

The Last Battle

We will close this study of the two Jerusalem's with that, for it is not my purpose here to describe the battle in which God's Israel people in New Jerusalem will be saved from their enemies. I have done that in "The Bible says: Russia Will Invade America." [Remember, this was written in 1976. Most of us in Identity today identify Gog and Magog with the Jewish Khazar Communists/Zionists, who originated in the territory of old Magog (descendant of Japheth), who lived in the steppes of western Asia. The Synagogue of Satan! Soviet Communism is still in the process of being replaced by the New World Order of the Illuminati. -- Eli] But most Bible students know that all prophecy points to a time when there will be a war fought between Israel and Israel's enemies, between Christ and anti-Christ, the great battle often called "The Conflict of the Ages." That that battle will be fought here on this great North American continent is abundantly clear to those who understand both history and prophecy. For we, the White, Anglo-Saxon, Celtic, Germanic, and kindred peoples, gathered here in the United States and Canada, are those Israel people.

The victorious conclusion of that battle under the banner of Jesus Christ will usher in God's great Kingdom on earth, the millennial reign of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. And His Kingdom is not limited to any one nation, for when "out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the Word of the Lord from Jerusalem," then "The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of His Christ, and He shall reign for ever and ever." (Rev. 11:15).

Why Christians Have Not Known This?

I realize that this Bible study has uncovered many things that some Christian readers have never heard. So I must make it clear that, while I do disagree with much of present day preaching on Israel and the two Jerusalems, I blame the erroneous teachings more on the seminaries than on the preachers. I have read or seen book after book used by seminaries, and they are filled with thousands of pages of treatises, themes, essays, demands, arguments, studies and "proofs" that the people known today as the Jews are God's Chosen People Israel. It is simply not so; but I cannot entirely blame a minister who was brought up in a church that taught this error, then went to a seminary that gave him hundreds of hours of instruction in this error, and then turned him out to associate with other preachers who have also been taught the same error.

Henry Ford, a great Christian layman, in his monumental and almost forgotten book, "The International Jew", wrote, "The reading of the Scriptures which confuse the tribe of Judah with Israel, and which interpret every mention of Israel as signifying the Jews, is at the root of more than one-half the confusion and division traceable in Christian doctrinal statements. The Jews are not the Chosen People, though practically the entire Church has succumbed to the propaganda which declares them to be so."

He wrote that in 1921. Our seminaries are the victims of "certain men who crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation." (Jude 4). [There is simply no doubt that the Scofield Reference Bible was a Rothschild/Illuminati project, as is the entire "Judeo-Christian" oxymoron that is being preached by Zionist-stooge televangelists. – Eli]

The Holy Spirit

Paul explained how we were to know the things of God. "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned" (1 Cor. 2:14). God makes His Word plain to those who ask Him for understanding, and Jesus Christ explained to us how we would understand future events through the Spirit. "Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself: but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come." Future! Future history will be shown by the Holy Spirit. How? By visions and signs and wonders? No! God reveals Himself through His Word - interpreted by the Holy Spirit. So please ask the Holy Spirit for guidance, instead of asking a minister who repeats only what he has been taught in the seminary. And read your Bible!!

Israel Identity the Key to Proving the Bible

As Christians and parents, how can you convince your children of the Truth of the Bible, and the faithfulness of our God, unless you teach them the truth of our Israel Identity? Ministers tell millions of our young people that the Jews are "God's Chosen People", that there are supposedly fewer Israelites today than there were over 2000 years ago, and that the Old Testament is about other people, the Jews. They are totally unable to show the relevance of the Scripture to our race, our nation, or our time, when the truth of the matter is that the Scripture is primarily about our race, our nation and our time! "Hear, ye deaf; and look ye blind, that ye may see. Who is blind, but My servant?"

Let's tell our children the truth about Israel, that we the Anglo-Saxon, Celtic, Germanic, and kindred peoples are the true descendants of the twelve sons of Israel, and that our great nation and the great Christian nations of Europe are the nations promised to the seed of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Let us prove to them that we have a covenant keeping God, that the Bible is the Word of God, that it is true, and we have been Redeemed by the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. As a minister, I can say that nothing will open up the Bible, or prove its Truth, like the true identity of Israel today!

Old Jerusalem to be Occupied by the Enemy at the End of the Age

We have already seen that God was to make Jerusalem as Shiloh. One of the things that was to happen to Shiloh was, "and thou shalt see an enemy in My habitation" (1 Sam. 2:32). This did happen to Shiloh, and if God's Word is True, it must happen to the old city of Jerusalem.

Ezekiel saw the same thing, for we read in Ezekiel 36:12, "Also thou son of man, prophesy unto the mountains [nations] of Israel, and say, ye mountains of Israel, hear the Word of the Lord: Thus saith the Lord God: Because the enemy hath said against you, Aha, even the ancient high places are ours in possession." Now, who possesses the places of worship of ancient Israel? Not the true Israel people, but the Jews. God goes on to say, "Surely in the fire of My jealousy, have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea [Edom], which have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with spiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey."

The Jewish Encyclopaedia, Vol. 5, page 41, 1925, says, "Edom is in Modern Jewry." Again, who has old Jerusalem, Palestine, and the "ancient high places" in their possession?

[Know for a certainty that the Jewish State is the Abomination of Desolation. Judaism/Zionism is the Beast that has deceived the whole world (Rev. 12:9) via its pretense of Scriptural origins. The Edomite Jews under Herod the Great wrested political and religious control from the people of Judah in those days. Then, having brought in priests from old Babylon to combine the Mosaic Law with their perversions, they invented Judaism ("the tradition of the elders") and have been pretending to be "G-d's Chosen" ever since. Still believe that lie? "Beware the leaven of the Pharisees." Luke 12:1. -- Pastor Eli James]

Leviticus 20:27 – “A man also or woman that hath a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones: their blood [shall be] upon them.”

We start off with Yahweh warning Moses that Israel are not to have any dealing with Molech, the heathen deity of the nation he is taking them into.

After that this text deals largely with penalties for sexual sin, including homosexuality.

Interestingly there seems to have been years of debate in the churches as to whether homosexuality is a sin, well, just to save them wasting any more time discussing this issue, I draw their attention to the 33 words that comprise:

Leviticus 20:13 – If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood [shall be] upon them.

The text then touches on the food laws and finally points out that wizards and mediums are to be put to death.

Mediums and spiritualist churches are fascinating aren't they? Almost everyone knows someone who knows someone who knows someone, who got in touch with a loved one who had died. That deceased loved one then told the person through a medium, things that loved one could only have known, so spiritualism must have some validity, mustn't it?

Well, let's examine the evidence.

Have you ever heard of a spirit praising Yahweh or Jesus Christ?

Have you ever heard of a spirit that named the people who are secretly running the world for their own personal profit, so they can be exposed and brought to justice?

Have you ever heard of a spirit that offered a cure for any disease?

Have you ever heard of a spirit who warned of an impending natural disaster or terrorist attack?

I certainly haven't, although I have heard of those that send “love,” from the, “other side,” and do so want everything to be peaceful and wonderful, without advising how this can be achieved of course.

I do believe that spirits exist, they are demonic entities that pretend to be people who they are not, in order to deceive people struggling with bereavement in the same way Alcoholics Anonymous deceives people struggling with addiction.

There are many satanic people, entities and societies in this world, and they all have the same purpose: to direct Israel away from Yahweh in the same way Satan directed Eve away from Yahweh (in the words of the Mossad motto), by way of deception.

All of Israel need to be on their guard, if someone offers a solution to a problem that does not conform to Yahweh's laws, reject it and reject them.

If any member of Israel has a problem, they need to take it directly to Yahweh in prayer. In my experience Yahweh helps those who help themselves by following Yahweh.

Leviticus 24:15 – “And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curseth his God shall bear his sin.”

Leviticus 24:16 – “And he that blasphemeth the name of Yahweh (the LORD), he shall surely be put to death, [and] all the congregation shall certainly stone him: as well the stranger, as he that is born in the land, when he blasphemeth

the name [of Yahweh (the LORD)], shall be put to death.”

Have you ever said, “O God!” when something has gone wrong. In the past I have and on that basis it appears under Yahweh’s law I am to be put to death.

However before I jump to such a conclusion, would it not make sense to clarify this by looking up, “blaspheme,” and, “curse,” in a dictionary?

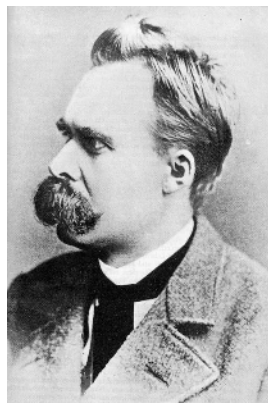

When you look up blaspheme, it says to treat a religious name irreverently, irreverently means lack of reverence, and reverence means deep respect. Therefore to blaspheme is to treat Yahweh with the opposite of deep respect, which can only mean deep hatred.

On that basis, someone who treats Yahweh with deep hatred is to be put to death. What is the alternative? Allow him to encourage others to treat Yahweh with deep hatred until so many are caught up in hatred for Yahweh, they turn everyone away from His laws?

When you look up curse there are a few definitions, one of them being, “profane exclamation.” However another, which is more accurate in this case is, “invocation of destruction or punishment.” Invocation means, “calling on in prayer.”

See how the word curse can be misinterpreted from verbalising expletives at someone to praying for their destruction. It is quite understandable that the penalty for calling for the destruction of Yahweh is death, yet sadly the Israel nations we live in today act on the basis that Yahweh is dead.

Psychology and philosophy have replaced scripture in teaching us how to live our lives and thus we are now taught to follow the, “God is dead,” proclamations of Friedrich Nietzsche, a heretical madman who spent the last decade of his life under the care of his mother and sister, unable to communicate as he lay dying of syphilis.

Going back to the definition of cursing being, “praying for destruction,” we should clarify:

Exodus 21:17 – And he that curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

Again someone who calls for the destruction of their parents are to be put to death. Obviously if the parents have committed a sin with which the law requires such punishment, this would not be the case.

I will point out that I do not advocate anyone saying, “O God,” in anger, but I am not prepared to lie to the reader by omission and not admit to having done that myself in the past.

Equally I regret saying it, and feel any reader who has also should feel them same, but I wanted to point out what blaspheming and cursing actually meant, which goes beyond careless words.

When studying the reasons why, “Yahweh,” had been removed from the scriptures, and replaced with, “God,” or, “Lord,” I did consider that this could have been to prevent blasphemy against Yahweh, as if people said, “O God,” in anger, they would not actually be blaspheming, because they were not saying Yahweh’s name, only His title.

However, if this assumption were to be true, and we apply that formula to prayer, then if someone prayed to God, wouldn’t that person’s prayer also be ignored?

I considered this: Exodus 3:15 reveals Yahweh is His name forever. Exodus 20:1 indicates Yahweh is speaking, then in Exodus 20:2 He states He is “Yahweh thy God,” then in Exodus 20:3, the first commandment, “Thou shalt have no other gods before me.”

It is on that basis, I believe those who choose to address Yahweh as God risk their words being unheard, as they are not calling on His true name.

What And Where Is Zion?

Lloyd Palmer

ZION, MEANING SUNNY MOUNTAIN, had been an impregnable citadel of the Jebusites when captured by David. He expanded the site into the City of David - becoming the ruling seat of his government of Judah and Israel that was eventually incorporated into Jerusalem. (2 Sam. 5:7)

In Psalm 110, David makes plain that this ancient site is connected with Melchizedek and that it wields considerable authority even when symbolically located in the midst of thine enemies. Verses 1 and 2 are Davids' commentary on Jesus.

Its well known opening words that begin: "The Lord said unto my Lord,..." identifies and also associates Him with the subsequent verses of Psalm 110, verses 2-5

The Lord shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies. Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth. The Lord hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek. The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.

Clearly, Zion, in subsequent biblical use, applies as well to other, future ruling power structures and leadership, favourable to and for, Israel.

Its characteristics prophetically apply to a type that would follow in the end of the age. In I Corinthians 10:11, Paul explains this typing of historical events as having a purpose; confirming that we must examine in minute detail, all elements of the Bible, "precept, upon precept." Now these things happened unto them for examples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

Many people have thought that the symbolic "Zion," and the "daughter" of Zion are synonymous terms. Not so, as a thorough study of the Bible terms shall reveal. In our study we will discover many attributes of this Zion nation. These attributes will point the finger directly at the modern day Zion, which is the United Kingdom.

Isaiah 66:7-8, speaks of the birth of the "manchild." This "man-child" is a nation, whose children came forth as Zion travailed. The children brought forth from this travail are called Jerusalem (v: 10). Consider also, Isaiah 38:11, which refers to— the land of unwallled villages...at rest...dwelling safely— Where is such a land today?

In Psalms 48, we have another description of prophetic Mount Zion. In verse 2, she is described as being "on the sides of the north." Verse 3, tells of her palaces. The United Kingdom is famous for her stately manor houses and palaces. America never had them. In verse 7, we read of the breaking of the ships of Tarshish (Spain) with an east wind.

This, of course, is exactly what happened when the Spanish Armada tried to invade the British Isles in 1588. They were divinely destroyed by an unusual, vicious east wind from the North Sea!

In Micah 4:2, it's recorded that "the law will go forth from Zion." Who can deny that American law is completely steeped in English Common Law? In fact, nearly all of our early laws came directly from the Magna Carta, or the eminent English jurist, Sir William Blackstone, (1723-80). Continuing on in Micah 4:7, we see that the Lord says he will continue to “reign over them in mount Zion, from henceforth, even forever.” This confirms that the British crown will rule until Christ claims it; as we have shown before in this book.

Now in verse 8 of Micah 4, a new player comes on the scene:

And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom [of God] shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

Notice that Zion now has a daughter. This daughter of Zion is none other than the ruling capitol of the United States.

Also take note, and NEVER FORGET, what it said in the last part of this verse. “...the “kingdom” shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.” I can assure you this doesn’t mean the “old mother.”

If you continue reading Micah 4:9-13, you’ll see this daughter of Zion will lose her way, and be “captured” by Babylon, and that many nations will be gathered against her. But, in verse 12, the Lord promises her that he is in charge of the situation and will resolve this daughters’ problems.

Then in verse 13, he commands the daughter to: Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the Lord of the whole earth.

So there you have the ancient and the modern identity of Zion, and the daughter of Zion. I pray this will help those of you who are befuddled by these Bible terms. From THE TWO CREATIONS by Lloyd Palmer

Whatever Is “Satan”? Part 3 Arnold Kennedy

“EVIL” SPIRITS.

THROUGH THE OLD TESTAMENT, as mentioned, there is no mention of “devils”, but there is of evil spirits. Note well: These are sent by God, not “Satan”. It is about an attitude.

Judges 9:23 Then GOD SENT an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech:

1 Samuel 16:14 But the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit FROM THE LORD troubled him.

1 Samuel 18:10 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the evil spirit FROM GOD came upon Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house: and David played with his hand, as at other times: and there was a javelin in Saul’s hand.

1 Samuel 19:9 And the evil spirit FROM THE LORD was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his javelin in his hand: and David played with his hand.

Ezekiel 14:9 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I THE LORD have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

WITCHCRAFT

The multiple forms of witchcraft are declared by the Bible as being contrary to God’s Word and will, and they are specifically defined as rebellion against God.

Deut. 18:10-12 There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee.

1 Sam 15:22-23 And Samuel said, Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from being king.

Nahum 3:4-5 Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the well favoured harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts. Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts; and I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

Believing in lying wonders is against the Kingdom of God since acting upon these influences defiles people and the Kingdom. The word “witch” comes from the concept, “to twist”, “to turn”, and “to rebel” having a differing set laws which are man-made.

NB. Even religious persons in “Christian” churches who claim the Ten Commandments, the Statutes and Judgements of the Law of God’s Kingdom no longer apply to the redeemed, likewise are in the witch category because they keep these things covered up and thus are in darkness.

Quoting Spurgeon again, “The heart is like a dark cellar, full of lizards, cockroaches, beetles, and all kinds of reptiles, which in the dark we do not see. But the Law takes down the shutters and lets in the light, and we see the evil”.

SORCERERS.

The sorcerer, like the magician, deceives people by trickery, convincing them that the illusion produced is reality. By diverting the attention of God’s people, he succeeds in luring them from God’s Word to turn them from the faith.

Isaiah 47:9 But these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy SORCERIES, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

Acts 13:6-8 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain SORCERER, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Barjesus: Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God. But Elymas the SORCERER (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith..

Another means of creating illusions is by the use of drugs.

Although music, instruments and clapping are Scriptural, their use in worship is the spontaneous product of what arises from a clean heart. When these things are used in order to arouse emotions in people without cleansed hearts, particularly in mass meetings, people who claim to “feel the presence” in such meetings may be feeling the product of sorcery.

Churches can thus be involved in sorcery to create a false sense of security or acceptance by God, that has little to do with repentance or keeping what the New Testament calls “The Commandments of God”.

RACIAL ADVERSARIES [SATANS].

We can read that people can be perverted sufficiently for them to form a habit of doing evil. This is the purpose and habit of the Jews. In Matt. 3:7, 12:34, 23.33 and in Luke 3:7, Jesus and John the Baptist say that the Jews are “a generation [a descendancy] of vipers”. Devilry is always manifested in these descendants of Esau, known as the serpent race. So opposition to God is manifest in the Jews who are of this line.

Through racial intermarriage, the descendants of Esau [Edom] became mixed with those who descended from Cain. Hence Jesus could say “The Jews” descended from Cain, and that the Jews’ originating father was symbolised as “the devil”. Their fleshly nature which is their lawgiver is always an adversary or a “satan”. Evil can be incarnated in races being “planted by the devil”, that is, they are born to be adversaries. This symbolises their origin. As Paul says, who are we to argue why the Potter makes different peoples. God does make differing vessels for differing purposes -[Rom. 9:2 1] - even if the ‘Church of Everyone’ denies this.

The word “devil(s)” has also been translated as “hairy”, “goat”, “spoiler”, and “slanderer”, the first two connecting with what Esau is, and the second two with what Esau does. Remembering that Esau’s descendants [Edom] is symbolised by a goat, note that the Jewish Encyclopaedia says, “The modern Jew is Edom”, that is, their leadership descends from Esau and not from Isaac. Through Scripture we are told, “In Isaac shall thy seed be called”[Gen. 21:12, Romans 9:7 and Hebrews 11.18].

These Jews therefore cannot be Israelites. God hated Esau before Esau was born, and He does so for all generations-[Malachi 1]. Now we can see how “hairy” fits in. Remember how Esau was born hairy? A conclusion might be reached that the Edomite Jews are devils!

We have spoken about, “Beelzebub, the prince of the demons” as being an idea of Judaism, but we have to consider the fact that Judaism has a Prince, or King of the Jews who reigns over “The Learned Elders of Zion”, with various ranking Cahilla [secondary leaders] members below them. Does this in effect make their Prince equivalent to a “Prince of Devils”?

Did not Jesus say of the Jews, “You are of your father the devil”? Yet most churches will not accept this statement, and instead claim the phrase “The Jews”, who came from Esau rather than Isaac, represents Israel. Such churches are adversaries or “satans”.

THE TEMPTATION OF JESUS

Matthew 4:1-11 Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred. And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple, And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone. Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

In these verses we see the intimate connection between the words “Satan” and the “devil”. One has to wonder why the translators put a capital

“S” in “Satan” with no capital “d” in “devil”. In the account of the “Gadarene demonic” in Mark chapter five, there are some peculiar differences in the use of the singular and the plural regarding “unclean spirit(s)” and “devil(s)”. There must be some difference the translators could not reconcile with their doctrinal understanding.

Where we read, “the devil ‘AND’ Satan” it is not the devil ‘OR’ Satan”, is it? If we think this through we can see the doctrinal nature of the translators’ conflict. In this paper we are concerned primarily with the word “Satan”. “Devils” and “unclean spirits” can be dealt with in another paper, since they are different subjects.

Perhaps it was the Edomite Jews [devils] in the wilderness who tempted Jesus to become an adversary, but Jesus was able to say, “get thee hence satan”. But yes, Jesus was tempted by the same temptation we have, namely to disbelieve the Word of God, yet He never yielded to it, or against it as many churches do.

And speaking of Jesus we read again about Him being tempted:

Hebrews 4:15 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. The lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes and the pride of life are part of the kosmos or world of what is symbolised by “the devil”. The fact of temptation is a reality, but we are to walk “as He walked”.

1 John 2:15-17 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world pass eth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

1 John 2:3-6 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments. He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him. He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

Tough and real words these are, but they are not popular church doctrine that infers that Jesus did all the “walking” (and dying) on our behalf. As for “if we keep His commandments”, the churches reject this. They have invented the phrase “legalism” to try to get around this. True, law without love is “the letter” which kills, but did not Jesus say, “If ye love me, keep my commandments”? Jesus proved His son-ship by doing what He saw His Father doing. Keeping “My commandments” is the consequence of love to God. Paul said obedience was the proof, and:

Rom. 5:10 Much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life [zoe].

NOTE: Redemption is certainly not through the Law. The Law reveals the corruption of the fallen human heart and the need to repent from having broken God’s Laws. Then, as we walk in the light the Blood of Jesus Christ cleans us from all sin – and only then!

People become adversaries [“satans”] when they do not walk in son-ship. In symbolic form, when they yield to the fleshly evil heart, ‘devils’ “enter in” to people, i.e. there is a tangible effect. Many verses in the New Testament show that these “devils” [daimonion] relate to sickness, want of strength, weakness, inability to understand. Strongs 1142 points out that “In the opinion of the Jews demons had entered, and so held possession of them as not only to afflict them with ills, but also to dethrone the reason and take its place themselves; accordingly the possessed were wont to express the mind and consciousness of the demons dwelling in them; and their cure was thought to require the expulsion of the demon”.

So we can see where from, and how, the Judeo-Christian churches have obtained their Babylonian ideas.

We read, “Then entered satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve”. But Judas already thought as an adversary, he came from that stock.

John 6:70 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?

Here the word for “devil” is diabolos for which Strong gives, “prone to slander, slanderous, accusing falsely, a calumniator, false accuser, slanderer, or applied to a man opposing the cause of God”

When Jesus was dealing with the man possessed with the devil in Mark 5:15, we read of the consequence:

Mark 5:15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

The consequence was a sound mind in that person!

OUR TEMPTATION

John 7 For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.

In this verse the word “confess” is homologeō which comes from homo = “the same” and logos = “the Word”. Few churches will use “confess” this way. Our temptation is to not agree with God. We are tempted to think that God is not sovereign; that there is another authority called “satan”. In other words, believing in the existence of “Satan” is a denial of God’s absolute sovereignty. We must totally erase every concept of a figure with horns, cloven hoofs, a tail and a pitch-fork, or anything else at all, as interpreted by traditional religion. This concept is the Judeo-Talmudic version about “Beelzebub, the prince of the demons”, and this includes the Eastern Serpent system or religion and every equivalent.

THE SERPENT OF GENESIS 3.

This account is literal history emphasised by the use of figures of speech. As an example, when the Tribe of Dan is called a serpent in Genesis 49:17, we are not to believe that this Tribe had all been reduced to snakes. King Herod is referred to by Jesus as a fox and so on. When doctrine is called “leaven” we know that something greater is implied. The same applies to the “King of Tyre” in Ezekiel 28,11-19.

So when we take something figurative and make it something literal we are making a mistake.

Today we have a saying about “a bright idea” and Nachash or “Serpent” means “bright” or “shining”. When we “say” wrong things in our hearts that may likewise seem like “bright” ideas to us, may be an adversaries or “satans” to God.

OTHER ISSUES.

Some may want to raise the following issues:

There are expressions in Scripture we have to consider, such as “Lucifer”, “the Devil”, “the Anti-Christ”, “Abaddon”, “Apollyon”, “The Dragon” and “That Old Serpent”, which appear from tradition to be personalities, or parts of the one personality.

1. Revelation 9:11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

2. Revelation 20:1-3 And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. And he laid hold on the dragon [drakon], that old serpent [ophis], which is the Devil, [diabolos] and Satan [satanas], and bound him a thousand years, And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

When we remember that the Book of the Revelation is a book of symbols, it is easier to follow. “Abaddon” and “Apollyon” are words indicating destruction.

* to cause to stray, to lead astray, lead aside from the right way.

* to go astray, wander, roam about.

* to lead away from the truth, to lead into error. to deceive.

* to be led into error and sin.

* to be led aside from the path of virtue, to go astray,

* to sever or fall away from the truth.

All of these words, “drakon”, “ophis”, “diabolos” and “satanas” which are described as "him", are aspects of the same thing. Jesus and the Apostles used words that were used and could be understood by the culture and common usage of the day. They understood the peoples' mindsets.

“Power” appears to be expressed as a reality as we can see in the expressions: “The power of darkness” Luke 22:53. -Col. 1:13.

“The Prince of the power of the air” -Eph. 2:2.

“Him that hath the power of death, that is, the devil” Heb 2:14.

When we look at this carefully, we see that out of the hearts of those who are adversaries to God’s laws proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies, as Jesus tells us. These empower rulers, governments and the establishment to have sway over people. It is called “darkness” because mans’ laws are not a light - not even a candle.

The following are similar symbols:

“The Prince of this world” - John 12:31. -John 14:30. -John and 16:11.

“The accuser of the brethren” - Rev. 13:12.

“The beast and his kingdom” - Rev 16:10.

This connects with:

Eph. 6:12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

The churches say we could not wrestle against something that is non-existent. They create in their minds a being they call “Satan” to fight against. But in reality what we are fighting are ideas and all those evils that proceed from the heart of man expressed through leaders. “Spiritual” = pneumatikos [Strong 4152] relates to the human spirit, or rational soul, and “wickedness” relates to evil purposes and desires. High as in “high places” is used often in the Old Testament to indicate an elevated position. It symbolises the seat of authority or governments. Churches refuse to fight this good fight of faith against “high places”. Instead they support and encourage support for governments in these high places.

FEW WILL AGREE WITH GOD TODAY.

King David had adversaries. Look at the wealth of detail in the verses below concerning the genetic line from Esau.

Psalm. 109.6-13 They compassed me about also with words of hatred; and fought against me without a cause. For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer. And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.

Set thou a wicked man over him: and let Satan [i.e. an adversary] stand at his right hand. When he shall be judged, let him be condemned: and let his prayer become sin. Let his days be few; and let another take his office. Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow. Let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg: let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places. Let the extortioner catch all that he hath; and let the strangers spoil his labour. Let there be none to extend mercy unto him: neither let there be any to favour his fatherless children. Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let their name be blotted out. Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

No denomination would pray like this today. Why not? Because it does not fit in with their “love everyone” doctrine. Instead they try to convert to their doctrine those whom Jesus says cannot hear compassing land and sea, and what they produce are two-fold more children of hell as themselves! -[Matt. 23:15].

Where they make a mistake is talking about “confessing Christ” and “going forward” in an occult way as if this was ritualistic. As already pointed out, the word “confess” is homologeō which comes from homo = “the same” and logos = “the Word”. It is when we cease to speak anything different from what God says, we cease to be adversaries. If most denominations do not speak the same word as God, they must be adversaries or “satans”.

Nothing is likely to change in the churches if they persist in using Bibles which are not translations. The NIV is not a translation. It is claimed to be a “dynamic equivalent”, and this is written in such a way as to perpetuate dualism, or the supposed tug-of-war between God and “satan”, as well as other traditions that are written into it. The latest popular presentation [deception] advertised is the video “The Visual Bible” which is claimed to be “Word-for-word from the NIV”; that it is “The word – the whole Word – and nothing but the Word”. Really? Never!

Modern versions and paraphrases are couched in such a way as to follow New Age thinking and traditional Babylonian doctrines. Even in the KJV, not only has the capital “S” in “Satan” been maintained, but those Bibles with footnotes follow these patterns. Recourse to Bible Dictionaries and such will not help our understanding when the given meanings are based upon usage and tradition. Such may perpetuate error. Following church traditions still renders the Word of God of no effect.

Essentially in practice the churches deny what Jesus points out in Matthew 15:19 “For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies”, although the churches may not recognise what they are doing and the implications of doing it.

In blaming “Satan” with a capital “S” they seek to justify themselves before men.

Luke 16:15 Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

Here again Jesus brings the matter back to the “heart”. This is the heart of the matter!

Israel's Five Senses

John Trotter, Winmalee, Australia

SOMETIME BEFORE 300 B.C. Aristotle stated that the human body has 5 senses. The normal order is that of sight, hearing, taste, smell and touch. Whilst more details relating to these senses are now accepted, it is still generally agreed that Aristotle's list is correct. For the purpose of this article I will be reversing the order. A certain amount of written licence will be used to express related thoughts. As I believe that the Bible is primarily about Israel, who mostly live in the Western Nations, the five senses are to be related to these people. Nevertheless, the thoughts expressed in this article can be applied to all other nations.

Let us start with touch. The understanding of this sense is the ability to feel or perceive through the sense of touch. In Hebrews 4: 15 we read, "For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities: but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin". It is interesting that the word touched and feeling is the same Greek word. It means, "to feel sympathy, have compassion or touched with a feeling". In simple language we have a High Priest who is able to sympathise with our weaknesses, moral frailties or feebleness. Christ who touches us, is able to emotionally empathise with our human frailty. The comparison is made with Christ who even though sinless was tempted in all points. Paul then instructs us in verse 16 where it says, "Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace (unmerited favour) to help in time of need".

As for smell I have read that this sense can raise more memories than any of the other senses. The smell of a rose or the smell of stale milk during our early school years can resurrect many lost memories. The Bible is very clear about what memories we are to forget and what we are to remember. Read the following Psalm 109: 15, Isaiah 26: 14, for memories we are to forget and for memories we are to remember Psalm 145: 7 and 1 Corinthians 15: 2.

The first time the word smelled is used is in Genesis 8: 21 where it says, "And the Lord smelled a sweet savour, and the Lord said in His heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake: for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more everything, as I have done". The Ferrar Fenton translation says, "and the Ever-Living perceived pleasant sweet perfume . . . "This sweet perfume was from the altar that Noah had built after the flood had subsided. In Isaiah 3: 24 we read that in place of a sweet smell there shall be a stench. Isaiah 3 is writing about the result of disobedience by those who are the daughters of Zion. In Philippians 4: 18 we read of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well pleasing to God. May our sacrifice be acceptable and bring fruit (Philippians 4: 17 ) like that of Noah's in Genesis 8.

They say, "to taste is to experience". Life is full of many experiences that can be favourable or unfavourable. It is hoped that we can learn from all experiences and be wise in our own decision making. If you go to a restaurant and the taste of the food leaves a bad reaction then you will possibly pass on that experience to others. The outcome can be the loss of customers to that restaurant. Taste can be a useful sense in reminding us not to repeat the same mistakes. May the following verses remind us of the importance of taste as we walk with the Truth and search for truth. Psalm 34: 8, "O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in Him"; Psalm 119: 103, "How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth"; Hebrews 6: 4, 5, " For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost , And have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the world (age) to come"; and finally 1 Peter 2: 3 , "If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious". May we taste the wine that is made from water (John 2 : 1-9).

As far as the word hearing the majority of times it is used to mean, to understand or perceive. Someone might say, "Do you hear what I am saying?", the inference being "do you understand?". It is obvious that the physical part of hearing is implied.

In a world where there are so many noises and sounds it would be tragic to not hear and react to a situation that a deaf person might find themselves in. At times it could be a life or death outcome. When you look to Strong's Concordance you soon realise the complexity when hearing the Word and understanding its message. To hear is not just a physical matter but as stated in Romans 10: 17 it is also a spiritual or faith (belief). Isaiah 42: 19 refers to the deaf messenger. The Septuagint says that the messenger refers to the leaders of Israel. This maybe so, but they are still His people Israel.

One of the many promises pertaining to Israel is that the deaf will one day hear (Isaiah 29: 18) the Words of the Book. In Isaiah 35: 5 we read that the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. These two verses can only take place when Christ's Kingdom is here on earth. The work to restore the 5 senses will then begin. May those who can discern with Wisdom look to the words of Isaiah 50: 5 where it says, "The Lord God hath opened mine ear and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back".

To lose ones sight, in my view, would be the greatest loss. For those who are physically blind, apparently experience an acuteness of the other senses. The outcome of being blind is clearly understood in Matthew 15: 14 where it partly says, "And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch". On a personal note the importance of sight is so essential as the many bushwalks in the Blue Mountains provide the opportunity of seeing so much beauty.

In Isaiah 42: 19 we read that God's Servant is blind and in Isaiah 56: 10 we read that the watchmen are not only blind but they are also, "ignorant, they are all dumb ( mute) dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber". We see this today, for even the elect have been deceived (Matthew 24: 24). What is it that His Servant cannot see? In Matthew 13: 14-16 we read of a fulfilment of prophecy from Isaiah chapter 6. Whilst it is specifically referring to the Southern House, I believe it is reasonable to expand this deafness and blindness to the whole Nation of Israel. This spiritual condition has caused the Western Nations to forego their inheritance, there role of being a Servant and finally to lose their special relationship with the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. In short we have not only lost our way but lost our will to live. At a national level we search for solutions and wisdom in only manmade inventions and imaginations of the mind which eventually become the very image we then worship.

Because we have willingly lost the use of our 5 senses, God has handed us over to the desires of evil alliances. The leaders of the world have united as one against the Lord and His Christ (Acts 4: 25, 26). We have taken upon ourselves the meaning of Ichabod, where there no glory shines. Where there is taught the Gospel message it has mostly been ecumenicalised with the world. But all is not lost for we read in Isaiah 42 16 the following: "And I will bring the blind by a way that they know not: I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them and not forsake them".

In conclusion 1 Corinthians 12: 14 - 31 shows that all parts of the body have to work together. Not all parts are equal but when any organ of the body functions in balance all the different parts of the body carry out their respective functions. As stated in verse 25 "all members should have the same care one for another". It is only when the 5 senses come together that all the members rejoice ( Verse 26 ) and we begin to understand that we are not only members of His Body, but also of His flesh and bones ( Ephesians 5 : 30 ).

Mind Blowing Facts About Sugar From Our Midlands Correspondent

SUGAR IS BAD FOR YOU. You know it and still give into those temptations and cravings. But maybe, some myth-busting and fact-checking might help you rethink. Turns out, sugar is only good for wildflowers, but terribly damaging for mortals like us. Find out more by reading these mind-blowing facts about sugar.

1. Eat Less Sugar And Live Longer

Who would have thought that sugary beverages contributed to over 180,000 deaths globally? A study conducted in 2013 showed that all these people died because of high consumption of all things sweet, and were at the risk of chronic diseases like cancer, diabetes, and heart disease. It's time to take care of yourself and those you love by keeping a check on the sugar intake.

2. Sugar Can Break Your Heart

We all know that an overdose of sugar can heighten the threat of heart disease. In a recent study done in 2013, however, it was found that the damages are far more serious than we earlier realized. The way sugar impacts your heart's machinery poses a high risk of heart failure. GIP in sugar affects the muscle protein a pumping heart, eventually causing heart failure and death within five years.

3. Can Cause Cancer

When your insulin doesn't work because of high sugar intake, your body wants to rebel. There is much evidence to show the link between cancer and insulin resistance, A study conducted in 2013 showed that sugar is responsible for the creation of the GIP hormone containing  $\beta$ -catenin that, in turn leads to a rise in the insulin levels. It's been proven now that this protein may play a role in making the cells vulnerable to cancer formation. Moreover, cancer patients with high levels of sugar often struggle more to survive the disease.

4. Sugar Can Increase The Risk Of Dementia

Increasingly, research indicates that a diet heavy in sugar can be responsible for increased risk of Alzheimer's disease. A study conducted in 2013 found that high insulin resistance along with high level of blood glucose were strongly connected to the risk of neuro-degenerative disorders.

5. Kills You, Slowly and Silently

Do you keep on gaining weight Without a clue about what's happening? Slow down and look at the amount of fructose you've been accumulating in your body. A study conducted in 2008 shows that the more fructose you have in your system, the higher are the chances of developing a condition called leptin resistance. Leptin make sure that you know when you no longer need to eat. If this hormone malfunctions, you are at a risk of eating more, gaining weight, and ultimately, becoming obese. What's worse is, there are no warning signs or symptoms.

6. Depression And Anxiety

Feeling the blues? It may be because your blood sugar levels are fluctuating. It's great when the levels go up after eating a chocolate donut. But, as they say, there's always a downside. The minute that rush is gone, the feelings of anxiety, irritability, and moodiness suddenly settle in. In fact, foods rich in sugar also negatively affect the neurotransmitters responsible for stabilizing our mood and may lead to depression.

7. Don't Remember? Blame The Sugar

Sugar may taste sweet, but it's not doing any favours to your brain. A study conducted in May 2012 revealed that consuming food that contains high levels of fructose, over the course of time, weakens your brain's capacity to process and recall information. Excessive consumption lowers the insulin levels in the brain, thus causing great damage to our cognitive abilities.

8. Sugar And Hyperactivity Aren't Connected.

Didn't they always tell you about the sugar rush and how kids become hyper after eating lots of sweet things? Well, turns out they were wrong. A study published in the New England Journal of Medicine shows that a diet high on sugar isn't damaging our children's behaviour. Funnily enough, when another study was conducted by the National Institutes of Health, parents seemed to automatically associate high levels of sugar intake with their children's hyperactivity without realizing that the experiment actually used a placebo.

9. Brown Sugar, White Sugar - All The Same

For the last few years, we have been associating all brown things with goodness. Bread, rice, and what have you. But, brown sugar isn't all that great. How is it made? They just add molasses to refined white sugar. Molasses do contain minerals, but the amount used in this process doesn't really make it worth consuming all those calories.

10. There's More Sugar In That Brown Bread

Yes, brown bread contains healthier ingredients as compared to white bread: whole wheat, folic acid, vitamins B6 and E, zinc, manganese, and copper. But another fact that is often not highlighted is that brown bread also has a kind of added sugar that you won't find in white bread. Even though the manufacturers say that this is done only to remove the bitterness of whole wheat flour, don't fall into the illusion of the wholesome healthiness of brown bread.

11. Wildflowers And Sugar Get Along

Who knew that adding some sugar to a green field will make those pretty wildflowers grow? Research published in the Journal of Vegetation Science shows that adding sugar to the soil nurturing wildflowers can help battle the more aggressive grasses that usually don't allow wildflowers to last. The sugar positively interacts with the microbes, causing the grasses to grow much slower and the beautiful flowers to stay for longer. So, the next time when you want those wildflowers to stick around, just add a little sugar.

12. Worse Than Cocaine

Think cocaine is more addictive than sugar? Think again. In his research, David Ludwig found that addictive substances such as cocaine activate the same areas in your brain that are stimulated by high sugar intake. According to the study done in 2007, when rats were exposed to sugar, cocaine, and water, they all chose sugar. Even more amazing is the fact that those who were already addicted to cocaine also chose sugar when given the option. You better watch out for that sugar addiction.

13. Hiding in Non-Sugar Foods

There's no reason to believe that only sweet stuff contains sugar. Check out that ingredient section to find added sugars, disguised as syrup, sweetener, words with - "ose" at the end. For example, even tomato sauce, crackers, tonic water, and similar unsweetened foods also contain high amounts of sugar.

14. Refined Sugar Isn't Worth It

Refined sugar may be cheaper, but the cost you will have to pay to consume it daily is much higher than what you originally spent. Although sugar is important for our body, refined sugar contains no minerals that actually make sugar consumption worthwhile. Moreover, it sucks out the essential vitamins and minerals from your body by being highly demanding when it is processed within your system. If there are no benefits and only damages, there is no reason to buy it just to save a little.

So, the next time you purchase food, remember to check the label and ensure that you put those items back on the shelf. It's definitely not worth it!

Harold Stough Notes

The Coming Of Elijah

From A Lecture Given In Northern Ireland 1980

THE MEANING OF ELIJAH, according to Strong's Concordance, is "God of Jehovah," and no one of the men of faith in the Old Testament was more worthy because of his life of faith and service, than the man who could stand before the priests of Baal, and the King, than Elijah the man. Surely he was the foremost of the prophets, in the strict sense of the word, for prophet means speaking forth for God.

He showed no fear when he challenged and taunted the priests of Baal, and yet he was caring in the raising of the widow's son. In contrast he was fearful when threatened by Jezebel, fleeing to Horeb, forty days and nights without food, where God spoke to him telling him that He had seven thousand who had not bowed the knee to Baal.

He could rebuke Israel for her sins and, for punishment, shut up the heavens for three and a half years, 'that it rained not.' In narrating this James tells us (5:17) that 'he was a man and subject to like passions as we are.'

Yet he was the personification and representative of the prophets, as Moses was of the Law. The law and the prophets' is also identified as church and state and it was Moses and Elias who appeared with our Lord at the Mount of Transfiguration representing the Kingdom of God with Power' as they were all with Holy Spirit-power before the eyes of the three Disciples.

So highly esteemed was he that the scribes and people generally, based on the prophecy of Malachi, anticipated his return and asked John the Baptist and our Lord if they were Elias. The answer was an emphatic No, but our Lord did say: If ye will receive it, this is Elias, which was for to come' (Matt 11:14). In Matt 17:12 He said that Elias is come already and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Like wise shall also the Son of man suffer of them'. So both John and our Lord could have fulfilled Malachi's prophecy had the people repented and heeded John's warning and our Lord's salvation.

In Matthews Gospel (17:11) Jesus clearly stated Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things'. That is a firm promise. But which Elijah? The man in Old Testament history bearing the sacred name? Or the Man Himself, the God of Jehovah. He is the returning One as He has promised, I will come again (John 14:3). He is the Name in reality - not the prefiguring one.

What are the all things to be restored? If the Elijah is the Old Testament prophet of Israel, the all things' were all part of the Israel economy. AND THEY ARE NOT TO BE RESTORED! For instance (1) There is to be no temple (Rev 21:22) (2) There is no Aaronic priesthood (Heb 7:11, (3) There are no more ordinances of worship (Col 2:14) The Law is not to be written on tables of stone, but in our hearts (Jer. 31. Heb:10).

This interpretation if not of the generally taught views of the physical reappearing of the man Elijah, and I am conscious of the fact that I differ from other teachers, including colleagues. Orthodox Jewry also accepts interpretation of Elijah's return, having an extra chair at the Passover Feast, for his use.

Perhaps we should go back to the source of the prophecy and ask who is Malachi? As he is the only prophet, as far as we can discover, who specifically mentions this expectation. Reference books do not help much as they all resort to probabilities.

Lumen, in his The Date of Malachi, published in 1907, suggests that Malachi was not the last of the prophets, writing in the period of Esra and Nehemiah, 500-400 B.C. More likely he was the first! Witnessing at the time of the accession of Rehoboam, and the division of the Kingdom of Israel. The burden of the word of the Lord to Israel by Malachi'. Not to the House of Israel nor to the House of Judah, and therefore before the division was complete. He argues from internal evidence that there is no mention of the Temple or its destruction as there would surely be if the temple of Solomon had been destroyed and Zerubbabel 'was a-building', that much mention is made of the Edom might and power which was destroyed by David and Solomon but which would be unknown at the time of Esra.

He suggests the date of 960 circa, and that the 'man of Judah' who was sent to Jeroboam warning of God's judgments for his making of sacrifices to false gods (I Kings 13) might well have been Malachi. If Malachi had existed in Esra's time united Israel would have been divided and the House of Israel some 300 years into captivity!

Thus Elijah the prophet who had not yet commenced his ministry, must be a type of 'God of Jehovah' Who, in both revelations, warns the nation of judgments for unfaithfulness but it is the 'God of Jehovah' who brings restoration, as later prophets confirm.

But much more than that! He is the Creator-God! He is the Triune Godhead! He is the Eternal Son, to be the Word Incarnate! He is the Jehovah King! He, the second Adam, who restores all that the first Adam lost. He restores and He makes all things new! He the Creator-Christ makes a New Heaven and a New Earth!

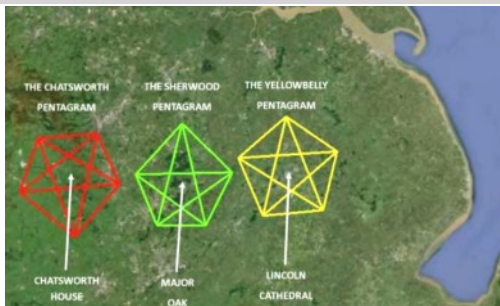

How wonderful is this restoration is revealed in the victories of the Over-comers as promised in Rev. chapters 2 and 3 and the New Jerusalem reign of the One Who upholds all things by the Word of His Power.

The El - God the Creator and Judah the Jehovah-Judge-Saviour returns to bring reconciliation to generations past and present.

Paul's letter to Titus sums it up: Looking for that Blessed Hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; Who gave Himself for us that He might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto Himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works' (2:13,14)

The Landscape Speaks – Discoveries Through Dowsing From Our Lincolnshire Correspondent

The Chatsworth Pentagram

THE CHATSWORTH PENTAGRAM is an inverted pentagram which is centred on Chatsworth House in the Derbyshire Peak District, built in Tudor times by Bess of Hardwick and her husband, William Cavendish.

The NW tip of the pentagram is Peveril Castle near Castleton and Mam Tor in the Peak District. The NE tip is Norton near Sheffield, where there is a large obelisk outside St. James Church.

The E tip is the former Knights Templar site of Temple Normanton near Chesterfield. The S tip is Kirk Ireton and the W tip is Longnor where there is a hill known as "The Dragon's Back".

Tony Peart of Templar Mechanics (see www.templarmechanics.com) has found landscape geometry based on 5.151 miles (10,000 megalithic yards) surrounding both Chatsworth and Temple Normanton.

At Chatsworth we find the estate village of Edensor, where many of the Dukes of Devonshire (Descendants of Bess of Hardwick) are entombed, and which is visited by the male dragon current accompanying the Equinox Line (see Section 2). The gates to the village are guarded by a lodge which looks very much like the Tour Magdala in Rennes-le-Chateau.

Extending the lines that make up the Chatsworth Pentagram takes us to some interesting places.

The Longnor to Temple Normanton line extends to Lincoln Cathedral

The southward facing tip of the Chatsworth Pentagram points to Tennyson Down the western edge of the Isle of Wight where there is a monument to the Grail poet Tennyson who lived nearby at Farringford.

The NE facing tip of the Chatsworth Pentagram at Norton points to the former Knights' Templar Preceptory of Temple Hirst in North Yorkshire, itself the centre of further landscape geometries (see Section 4).

The Chatsworth to Longnor line of the Chatsworth pentagram extends to Biddulph Grange in Staffordshire which is visited by earth energy "dragon" currents accompanying both the Belinus Line and the Equinox Line (see Section 2).

The Longnor to Norton line of the Chatsworth pentagram extends to the former Templar port of Faxfleet opposite the point where the River Trent spills into the River Humber. Faxfleet also forms part of the Landscape Cygnus (see Section 4).

The Sherwood Pentagram

The Sherwood Pentagram is an upright pentagram centred on The Major Oak in Sherwood Forest. It is the first landscape geometry that I discovered and takes up virtually the entire Sherwood Forest OS Landranger Map.

The N tip, or crown, is Blyth Priory Church, 5 miles NE of Worksop. The E tip is Woodcoates medieval village, 3 miles east of Tuxford. The SE tip is Southwell Minster, 5 miles west of Newark. The SW tip is Newstead Abbey, 5 miles south of Mansfield. The W tip is Bolsover Castle, 5 miles east of Chesterfield.

There is also Templar Mechanics 5.151 geometry surrounding Southwell Minster Extending the lines that make up the Sherwood Pentagram take us to some interesting places:

Extending the Bolsover Castle to Newstead Abbey line takes us northwards to Rosslyn Chapel and southwards to Temple Church in London.

The Bolsover Castle to Woodcoates line extends westwards to Chesterfield Crooked Spire and Chatsworth House in Derbyshire and eastwards to Lincoln Cathedral, forming part of The Equinox Line with its associated male and female earth energy dragon currents (see Section 2).

The Yellowbelly Pentagram

Unlike the Chatsworth and Sherwood pentagrams, the Yellowbelly pentagram is near perfect in that it has interior angles of 108 degrees and is oriented to true north along the Roman Road Ermine Street.

The centre is Lincoln Cathedral. The N tip, or crown, is Caenby Corner. The E tip is at Wragby where the ruins of an old Church exist just behind the more recent All Saints. The W tip is falls in a field close to Dunham-on-Trent where a Toll Bridge affords passage over the River Trent. The SW tip is not far from Stapleford All Saints and the SE tip falls near Rowston All Saints.

A centre line drawn vertically south from Caenby Corner passes through Lincoln Cathedral and down to St. Peter's Church at Navenby, close to where the remains of a henge have been uncovered.

The male earth energy current, Peter, that accompanies the Equinox Line (see Section 2) passes through both Wragby and Dunham-on-Trent.

The lines of the Yellowbelly Pentagram extend to some interesting places including Blyth Priory Church (N tip of the Sherwood Pentagram), Newstead Abbey (SW tip of the Sherwood Pentagram),

The Boston Stump (on the Greenwich Meridian), Whitby Abbey (part of the terrestrial winter triangle – see Section 3), Pendle Hill (also part of the terrestrial winter triangle), Glastonbury (part of the terrestrial summer triangle – see Section 3), Bury St Edmunds (also part of the terrestrial summer triangle), Norwich Cathedral, Cambridge, Stamford, Oxford, Hereford Cathedral, Birmingham Cathedral (through which the Belinus line goes), Chesterfield Crooked Spire (on the Equinox Line – see Section 2), Chester Cathedral (also on the Equinox Line) and Lancaster Cathedral.

Links between the 3 Middle Lands Pentagrams

The three Middle Lands pentagrams are all on slightly different axils, but all actually link into one another when the various lines are extended. The links are shown as long purple lines on the graphic below. The Templar Mechanics 5.151 mile geometry surrounding Chatsworth, Temple Normanton and Southwell Minster is also shown.

The fact that these three pentagrams are all subtly linked as well as involved with the Templar Mechanics (TM) geometry convinced me they weren't just a figment of my imagination.

The line from Longnor to Temple Normanton extends to Lincoln Cathedral

A line drawn from Peveril Castle, through Norton (the two N tips of the Chatsworth pentagram) goes through Blyth Priory Church (the N tip of the Sherwood Pentagram) to Caenby Corner (the N tip of the Yellowbelly pentagram).

A line drawn from Kirk Ireton (the S tip of the Chatsworth Pentagram) goes through the TM geometry of Southwell Minster and becomes the entire bottom line of the Yellowbelly Pentagram.

The line from Longnor to Chatsworth carries on to Caenby Corner (northern tip of the Yellowbelly pentagram).

The SE-NW line of the TM Southwell Pentagram goes directly to Peveril Castle

The line running from Chatsworth to Lincoln Cathedral is also the centre line of the Sherwood Pentagram which runs from Bolsover Castle to Woodcoates forming the Equinox Line (see Section 2).

Ancient Graffiti Proves Spain's Irish links

Alex Dunham

Despite the dominance of Latin, there are plenty of Gaelic traits still present in Galicia,” James Duran, academic expert on minority languages at the US's Stanford University, told La Voz de Galicia.

An ancient inscription discovered on a 14th century church in Spain's Galicia region has been identified as Gaelic; the first written evidence of the northern region's Irish and Scottish heritage. For centuries it has gone unnoticed, weathered by Galicia's incessant drizzle but still visible to those with an eagle-eye.

On one of the granite walls of Santiago church in the small town of Betanzos, a small previously unintelligible inscription five metres above ground kept historians and epigraphists, or people who study ancient inscriptions, baffled for decades.

Researchers working for a private association called the Gaelaico Project now believe they've finally deciphered what it reads: "An Ghaltacht" or "Gaelic-speaking area".

"If our interpretation is right, the inscription isn't related to religious matters, but rather to the language that was spoken in Galicia at the time," Proxecto Gaelaico head Martín Fernández Maceiras told local daily La Voz de Galicia.

"It seems logical that the inscription was made while the church was being built (in the 14th century)."

Up to now, Galicia, along with Asturias and northern Portugal, have been informally considered part of the ancient Celtic nations (Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Brittany, Isle of Man and Cornwall) due to cultural and historical reasons rather than because of written proof.

Although researchers are hoping to get a second opinion from expert epigraphists on whether the inscription does indeed read "Gaelic-speaking area", the chances of it being the first written evidence of Galicia's Celtic past are high.

Section of the church pillar highlighted where the graffiti was found and close-up below.

It could be that everyone's a little Spanish, too. That's because the culture that has made Ireland as well as Scotland and Wales what they are didn't originate there, but in Bronze Age Central Europe in the second millennium BC – and recent genetic studies have confirmed that the migrations of the Celtic tribes led them first to the Iberian Peninsula, centuries before some headed north to the British Isles.

It was so far back in the mists of time that the main areas of Celtic Spain – in its centre, west, and especially north – don't have the kind of remains that, for example, the Roman Empire left centuries later. But what little they do have, mostly in northwestern Galicia and some in next-door Asturias, makes for fascinating visits indeed – and the Celtic traces in the living local cultures are even more apparent.

The notoriously warlike and hierarchical Celts (as reported by the Romans who later went against them in battle) established themselves especially across the north of Spain but also penetrated farther down, to areas such as today's Aragón and Castile, including Soria, Burgos, and La Rioja. In many cases they mixed with the Iberian peoples who had already been there since the Neolithic, creating distinct societies that came to be known as Celtiberians.

Their religion was based on forces of nature, such as the cult of the moon, sun, earth, and fertility, and altars to all have been found by archaeologists. Celtiberian funerary rites were particularly interesting, including cremation and burial with troves of metal objects, especially arms and decorative items, and they created necropolises as sacred zones sometimes containing thousands of tombs.

Some of these necropolises, as well as entire towns for the living, can be seen in the hills and mountains of the north, a centre of what is termed Castro culture (castros and oppida being forts, and towns called citânias); fortifications took maximum advantage of natural topography and formations in creating defences against incursions. The thatched stone dwellings were generally round because the Celtiberians believed that absence of corners kept away evil spirits (you can more recent examples of these in towns like O Cebreiro, Galicia). Many of them are located near or on the sea, adding extra drama to the surrounding panoramas.

Some of the most notable sites of castro culture which can be visited include:

The Kissinger Betrayal Plan For Rhodesia Eric. D. Butler - The New Times November, 1976 With Comments By Monica Stone South Africa

C. H. DOUGLAS observed that International Finance has at its service the best brains which money can buy. John Maynard Keynes, the economist who so skilfully perverted the challenge of Social Credit with his deficit spending and “controlled inflation” programme, was not lacking in brains. While Dr. Henry Kissinger may not be quite the genius suggested by the public relations men who laud him, the Jewish refugee from Germany was seen by the Rockefellers and associates as a man with the capacity to serve them well. Dr. Kissinger’s betrayal plan for Rhodesia, the last of the betrayals of the West {South Africa followed in 1994}, has the warm approval of International Finance, which has consistently worked to create the much-published “One World.”

The question of whether Dr. Kissinger is, or was, a KGB agent is of academic interest only. Kissinger has, in a number of statements, made it clear that he believes that the One World can only come through international control of the raw materials of the world. International control must be extended also to food supplies. Such international control means increasing links with International Communism.

A former American naval director Admiral Umwelt, reports that he was present at a briefing meeting at which Dr. Kissinger said: “The day of the United States is past and today is the day of the Soviet Union. My job as Secretary of State is to negotiate the most acceptable second-best position available.”

In more robust days an American Secretary of State who expressed views like that would be, at the very least, hounded from office as a traitor. But after a long series of betrayals including the Helsinki Agreement which formally declared the Christian and civilized Captive Nations of Eastern Europe permanently under Soviet control, Dr. Kissinger will probably retire to obtain an estimated $1 million for his memoirs and to continue his treacherous activities as an academic. A new political puppet, Mr. Jimmy Carter, is moved to the front of the world stage, advised by men working for the same masters for whom Dr. Kissinger rendered such noble service.

The superficial observers of the constant betrayal of the West muddy the situation by suggesting that the Kissingers and their backers are at worst confused and do not understand what they are doing. The question is asked, "But surely, the Rockefellers, the Rothschilds and their international financial groups will also lose if the whole of Southern Africa with its vast untapped minerals resources, is lost to International Communism?"

The masters of International Finance have never believed that they lose by aiding and abetting Communism. They financed those two brilliant revolutionaries, Lenin and Trotsky, neither of them in the dull class, to seize control of Russia. They have financed the Soviet Union ever since. The biggest industrial complex in the whole world today, the Kalm River heavy truck enterprise is being built by Western industrial organizations and financed by the Rockefellers and their associates.

Mr. David Rockefeller has not established his Chase National Bank in the Soviet Union and China for nothing. If Mr. David Rockefeller can express the view that Communist China is engaged in the most "successful social experiment" in the history of mankind, then why should a man who thinks like that be concerned about the fate of the Europeans, or the Africans, in Rhodesia under a Communist take-over?

THE LONG VIEW

The international bankers believe that, in the long run, they can handle developments in Southern Africa as they have controlled them elsewhere. The retreat by the Vorster Government became obvious after the 1973 visit of Mr. David Rockefeller to South Africa. The threat of oil sanctions against the whole of Southern Africa, the sudden depression of the price of gold by the International Monetary Fund, and other financial pressures were all used to force Prime Minister Vorster and, through him, Prime Minister Ian Smith, to accept the Kissinger ultimatum for Rhodesia. Dr. Kissinger also threatened the loss of the U.S. vote at the U.N. But it must never be forgotten that not only the loss of South African support forced Rhodesians to start trying to negotiate the best surrender terms possible.

A major factor was the cowardly action of Western Governments, including "anti-Communist" Governments in Canberra and Wellington, in subsidizing the Marxist Governments of Mozambique to close the border with Rhodesia, and to indirectly encourage increased terrorist attacks upon the Rhodesians. Words are inadequate to describe one's feelings concerning the revolting behaviour of a "British" Socialist Government permitting a criminal terrorist, Robert Mugabe (above), to participate in a conference allegedly concerned with constitutional government in Rhodesia. And why did Dr. Kissinger feel that it was necessary for the Communist-backed Governments of Angola and Mozambique to be consulted about the best type of Government for Rhodesia?

Can it be that Dr. Kissinger has sufficient influence with the Soviet to have it stop supporting its agents in Southern Africa? There is no evidence whatever that the Soviet is going to agree to any settlement in Rhodesia which does not completely eliminate all possibilities of any type of responsible Government.

Just as Dr. Kissinger made it clear that he believed that the ultimate victory of Communism in Vietnam was "inevitable" he has adopted the same attitude towards Rhodesia and South Africa. As his policy has the support of International Financiers, it is clear that they are taking the long view of the situation and are satisfied that irrespective of what happens, they will be playing the decisive role in the exploitation of Southern Africa's vast mineral reserves.

CAN RHODESIA YET SURVIVE?

But it is one thing to plan for the creation of the "One World", it is another to make the plan operate. Rhodesia could still prove a major stumbling block to the grand design. I have never been numbered amongst those who have seen Prime Minister Ian Smith as a conscious traitor. I have studied him closely over many years, and while I am well aware of his limitations, a captive of his own liberalism and financial orthodoxy, he has certain attributes which make him a hard man to neatly categorize. Harold Wilson never really understood the man he was dealing with. I do not think that Ian Smith had much basic understanding of what he was taking on when he and his Cabinet declared complete independence from Great Britain on November 11, 1965.

But Rhodesia has survived for eleven years primarily because of the resourcefulness of a highly intelligent European population, the flexibility which is possible only with a small nation, and the type of leadership which Ian Smith provided. Ian Smith's surrender address to Rhodesia, and the world, on September 24, is not the type of address I would have given. But there was a typical doggedness about it, which in essence said, "I have been forced to go to Geneva by Dr. Kissinger, but having been forced to go, I am determined to insist that the Kissinger plan is adhered to."

Whatever one may feel about Mr. Ian Smith, it cannot be said his Minister for External Affairs Mr. P.K. Van Der Byl, the man who took over from Mr. Smith when he left Geneva to go home, does not have some understanding of the realities of the international power game. The African,

"Nationalist leaders" have behaved at Geneva exactly as Mr. Smith and his colleagues must have anticipated. They are all impatient for power – now.

So long as the Rhodesians insist that the Kissinger agreement must be adhered to, it is Dr. Kissinger and his backers who are in a situation from which it is difficult for them to extricate themselves. The recent second major counter-strike by the Rhodesians into Mozambique has demonstrated that the Rhodesians still have plenty of will to fight back.

The Cubans in Angola are finding it difficult to subdue the Africans as witnessed by recent developments. Prime Minister Vorster has agreed that Prime Minister Ian Smith is right in insisting that the Kissinger plan must be adopted at Geneva. Mr. Vorster can hardly feel too comfortable with an increasingly restive electorate, which realizes that a collapse in Rhodesia opens the road to a direct assault on South Africa.

The Southern African situation is one in which every ounce of moral support should be given to the South Africans and Rhodesians to hold on. And at the same time every pressure should be applied to Western politicians to press for an easing of the pressure on Rhodesia and South Africa. It would be one of the truly ironic events in history if Dr. Kissinger, having carried all before him in serving the "One World" concept over so many years, was finally thwarted by little Rhodesia at the very moment it appeared to be completely defeated.

MY COMMENTS

Of course all is history now, Rhodesia became Zimbabwe and the criminal Robert Mugabe is still ruling and ruining a once great country. South Africa followed in 1994 and a once great country is falling apart. The Kissinger plan is bearing fruit and he is still alive and well and planning the next attack to bring all under the "One World".

Now the Western Governments who applied sanctions against white Rhodesia and South Africa, instead of giving support to their own kith and kin, they made the decision to share in the demise of Southern Africa, are themselves now under attack by the same international forces. Now is the question will Europe go the same way as Southern Africa, destroyed, ruled by African despots, criminal terrorists, or will Europe fight back to live another day and become even greater? Only time will tell and this luxury Europe does not have.

Race is nothing new, let us learn by educating ourselves who the enemy is, it only makes us stronger. Let the Aryans stop fighting each other and concentrate on our common enemy the Jew.

Letters And Views

How The Voting System Is Used To Enslave You To THIS Private Corporation

Sir—, In the USA (and indeed the UK and other nations), many Americans are watching the 2016 Presidential Debate, so they can make an “inform” decision to vote for the candidate that they believe is the best to lead their country.

What most Americans do not realize is that all presidential candidates are “actors” applying for a job of a corporation called the United States.

After being hired, they are trained to be professional actors and liars, so that they can fool the American people to support the United States, Inc., and help spread its franchise throughout the world.

The word franchise means “the right or license granted by a company to an individual or group to market its products or services in a specific territory”.

But did you know that the word franchise can also mean “the right to vote”?

Like any corporate employee, when a presidential candidate wins an election and is sworn into office, he or she becomes an employee of the United States, a federal corporation.

Do you need evidence of this? Under title 28 U.S. Code § 3002 subsections 15 and 15(A), “United States” means — (A) a Federal corporation.” It is right in their laws!

Why do you think the United States has a president and a vice president? It has to do with corporate law. This is why every major corporation (i.e., Walmart, Target, McDonald’s) has a president and a vice president.

Under corporate law, corporations are required to have a “president” and “vice president”. The Corporate United States is no exception. It is right in your FACE and hidden in plain sight!

As an employee of the United States, Inc., the President has to follow the rules of the United States or the President will be “fired”. Unlike a traditional employee, the President can only be fired by his or her “board of directors”, also known as Congress.

Because the United States is a corporation, it also has shareholders, which are the leaders of the New World Order. Some people like to refer to them as the Elites or the Banksters.

I like to refer to them as the Dark Magicians or the Controllers. Because the United States, Inc. has shareholders, its top priority is to make sure its shareholders are happy.

The United States’ most profitable business is WAR, which is why it has been constantly at war with other countries. Read this informative article titled America Has Been At War 93% of the Time – 222 Out of 239 Years – Since 1776 and you will know what I mean.

These wars are Engineered by the Controllers of the New World Order to make money and spread tyranny throughout the world. Why would anyone with a soul wants to support the United States, Inc and the New World Order?

Why Most United States Politicians are a Disgrace to Life, Liberty, and Freedom.

Nearly all politicians in the USA are traitors to the American people and the human race, because they swore an oath to a privately owned foreign corporation known as the United States. This private and foreign corporation resides in Washington D.C., also known as the District of Columbia.

The United States is controlled by the United Nations, an organization controlled by the New World Order (NWO).

Washington D.C. is also a privately owned foreign corporation. Washington D.C. is NOT part of the USA (the country), just like Vatican City is not part of Italy.

To find the evidence proving that nearly all politicians in the USA are traitors to the American people and the human race, you need to be aware of Title 8 U.S. Code § 1481.

Under Title 8 U.S. Code § 1481 it says:

(a) A person who is a national of the United States whether by birth or naturalization, shall lose his nationality by voluntarily performing any of the following acts with the intention of relinquishing United States nationality —

(2) taking an oath or making an affirmation or other formal declaration of allegiance to a foreign state or a political subdivision thereof, after having attained the age of eighteen years; (4)(A) accepting, serving in, or performing the duties of any office, post, or employment under the government of a foreign state or a political subdivision thereof, after attaining the age of eighteen years if he has or acquires the nationality of such foreign state; Because Washington D.C. is not part of the Continental United States (the land mass), it is a foreign city-state with respect to the Continental United States. A state is also a corporation. The United States resides in Washington D.C. and is also a foreign corporation.

Remember what Title 8 U.S. Code § 1481 said about swearing an oath to a foreign state? If you do not remember, here it is again:

(a) A person who is a national of the United States whether by birth or naturalization, shall lose his nationality by voluntarily performing any of the following acts with the intention of relinquishing United States nationality —

(2) taking an oath or making an affirmation or other formal declaration of allegiance to a foreign state or a political subdivision thereof, after having attained the age of eighteen years; To connect the dots, when candidates take an oath of office of the United States and become its employees, their citizenship is relinquished and therefore they become foreign agents.

This happens because these candidates swore an oath to the foreign UNITED STATES, INC. and the foreign organization that controls it.

By now you should know why nearly all politicians in the USA are a disgrace to life, liberty, and freedom. Most politicians throughout the world are also a disgrace to life, liberty, and freedom, because they work for the New World Order.

The picture above is a disgrace to humanity, life, and freedom. Anyone who goes to a U.S. presidential debate is pretty much “spitting” on the graves of the people who died fighting for freedom.

In the next picture, the people protesting and waving the United States flag are making a fool of themselves. They are protesting against the tyrannical actions of the U.S. government, but yet at the same time are worshipping the flag of the Corporate United States.

In other words, they are acting like ignorant hypocrites who do not know the difference between the country called the Continental United States and the corporation called the Corporate United States. No wonder nothing really changes in the USA.

The flags in the picture below do NOT represent the Continental United States (the landmass or country). They represent the criminal United States, Incorporated.

If you have a flag of the United States, Inc. in your home or yard, you might want to remove it and throw it away. This flag does not really represent freedom because it is the flag of the United States, Inc., a corporation controlled by the New World Order (NWO).

The NWO is a secret organization controlled by secret societies. Its main goal is to enslave the human race under a fascist and Nazi-type one-world government.

Did You Know the “Right” to Vote in the United States is a Fraud?

Here is an excerpt from my article titled Why the Right to Vote in the United States is a Fraud that explains why the “right” to vote is a big fat scam!

“In legal terms, your right to vote is actually a privilege because to be a United States Citizen means that you are a legal person, also known as a corporation.

A corporation is a fictitious entity that has no right. So, when politicians tell you that you have the right to vote as a United States Citizen, they are already lying to you.

“Every time you vote, you are giving your consent to be governed by treasonous politicians. These politicians do not care about you because they work for the Banking Elites, which are the International Banksters who own the United States, Inc.

“The right to vote in the United States is a FRAUD, because your vote does not really matter and the voting system is rigged, just like a casino. Furthermore, when you vote, you are voting for a president of a FOREIGN corporation known as the United States, Inc.

“One thing you need to know about the U.S. voting system is that the presidential candidates are chosen by the International Banksters and they control both of the Republican and Democratic parties. The idea that we have choices when it comes to electing presidential candidates is an illusion.

“As an American, when you vote you are basically committing TREASON against the country called The United States of America (Major), which is made up of 50 separate nation states operating as a nation on the land jurisdiction. The United States of America (Minor) or the United States, Inc. is operating under the international jurisdiction of the sea, which is based on Admiralty Law (the Law of the Sea).”

The Occult Definition of the Word Vote and How the Voting System Drains Your Energy. The word vote is defined as “a formal expression of opinion or choice, either positive or negative, made by an individual or body of individuals” or “the means by which such expression is made, as a ballot, ticket, etc.”

These two definitions of the word vote only show you the overt meanings of the word vote. To find the occult meanings of the word vote, you need to use the art of phonics to help you see the relation among words.

Phonetically, the word vote sounds exactly like the word volt. Where do voters go vote/volt at? In a voting booth or a polling/ poll-ing booth.

The word poll sounds similar to the word pole, which is defined as “either of the two regions or parts of an electric battery, magnet, or the like, that exhibits electrical or magnetic polarity”.

In other words, a pole is the electric battery pole of positive (+) or negative (-).

This is why when you go vote, you go to the polls/poles, so that you can place your vote/volt on the candidate that you want to see put in charge.

Once the votes/volts are counted, the politician or “pole-itian” that receives the most votes/volts is the person who will be elected into the position of power.

Maybe this is why it is called power politics. Every time you vote, you CONSENT to give your electrical energy to the Dark Forces, so that they can use it to power their corporations and New World Order. It is all about tricking you to give up your energy.

The presidential election is nothing more than a con game created by the Dark Forces to con you to agree to be a human “battery“, so that they can drain your living energy to power their dead matrix and corporations (“corpses”).

This is why before they can summon you to go to court, they need to charge you first.

The Top of the Pyramid: The Rothschilds, the Vatican and the British Crown Rule World.
Yours Truly, Gordon.

THE STRANGER

The Stranger within my gate,
He may be true or kind,
But he does not talk my talk –
I cannot feel his mind.
I see the face and the eyes and the mouth,
But not the soul behind.

The men of my own stock,
They may do ill or well,
But they tell the lies I am wanted to,
They are used to the lies I tell;
And we do not need interpreters
When we go to buy or sell.

The Stranger within my gates,
He may be evil or good,
But I cannot tell what powers control –
What reasons sway his mood;
Nor when the gods of his far-off land
Shall repossess his blood.
The men of my own stock,
Bitter bad they may be,
But at least, they hear the things I hear,
And see the things I see;
And whatever I think of them and their likes
They think of the likes of me.

This was my father’s belief
And this is also mine:
Let the corn be all one sheaf –
And the grapes be all one vine,
Ere our children’s teeth be set on edge
By bitter bread and wine.

Yours truly Monica Stone

Racist and Anti-Semitic Leaflet Sent to Remote Public Printers

Sir—, I found this interesting item on the Southend Patriot website:–

There's a bunch of bright minds in Daily Stormer's new IRC channel and I wanted to take a little time out of my day to show them how easy it is to make the world move with as little as a bash one-liner. I have used bash one-liners to do a lot of things, like shift the market cap of publicly traded corporations by the billions. The key to making impact in the world is not being the smartest or knowing the most. It's about operating asymmetrically at scale. Expend the least amount of effort for the most amount of things happening.

In our chat I asked aloud a simple question: how many printers are there on the open Internet? I wasn't sure of the answer at the time. It turned out to be upwards of a million devices. That's a lot of things to print to. The sheer volume of paper one can generate with a single command is impressive. An average pulping tree produces 8330 sheets of paper. That is a very small fraction of the number of devices we can print to on the public internet.

I thus embark upon a quest to deliver emotionally compelling content to other people's printers. After a little investigation it seemed that to print to a printer with port 9100 exposed, all you have to do is netcat a postscript file to that port.

I elected one of the Daily Stormer crew to make some postscript for us to push to printers. The final postscript draft rendered to this:

The above twitter user wanted me to do A. Wyatt Mann cartoons instead of that postscript, but that's a bad idea. Everything in the postscript we used was actual characters (there is, of course, a unicode swastika character). If we started rendering bitmaps it would make the postscript significantly more complex. When you're printing on the scale of tens or hundreds of thousands of printers, every increase in complexity makes more printers reject the message. With scale you should prefer elegance over complexity, and what could possibly be more elegant than the inherent beauty of the swastika?

Now all I needed was hosts with port 9100 open. For this I fired up masscan, but any of you so inclined could accomplish this easier with a little bit of money if you use Shodan instead. I am dirt

Eastern European poor but have rootshells at carrier hotels, so I opted for masscan.

I fired up my shell script and went about my business for the day. After a bit I checked up on this and noticed that every once in a while a netcat had a tendency to hang, so I made another loop to clean up stale old netcats:

After that it ran quite smoothly. I wasn't even convinced this was working at all until the tweets started coming in.

Someone printed a white supremacist recruitment flyer to my office printer.

LIBERALS AND DARKIES ON A WITCH HUNT FOR THE EVIL OFFICE RACIST LOL. Nothing will red-pill white men faster than this. Yours Truly, Jon Owen, Chelmsford, UK

FROM SOUTH AFRICA

You stood aside, where were you when,
Our nation was betrayed,
You were alone, we stood by you.
When you once begged for aid.
The Workers Reich you warred against,
And when you stood alone,
We here remained your family,
That you would soon disown.
Your kith and kin,
You're mired in sin,
And this won't be forgotten
England, you're a Jewish whelp,
And you are misbegotten.

Now you're at bay, enjoy the fray,
Same hordes are at your door,
This time we can't assist you,
As once we did before;
You betrayed your family~folk,
Your guilt has made us weak,
You never stood for kith and kin,
For us you wouldn't speak;
The sun will rise but not your day,
You stabbed your kind,
What guilt you weigh,
Now you are on your own, I say,
This is the price you pay.

Eliseg's Pillar Wales
From The Gentleman's Magazine
1909

IN an excursion into Denbighshire, last summer, I visited the spot where the celebrated pillar of Eliseg is situated, of which I send you a Drawing made at the time, which I do not doubt you will think worthy a place in your Museum of Antiquities. This Pillar is said to give name to the Vale of Crucis; it is in a field near the beautiful remains of Valle Crucis Abbey (seen to the left in the View), on this tumulus of considerable height, on the road side, about two miles from Llangollen.

This Pillar is of great antiquity, and was erected in memory of Eliseg, by Concenn, his great grandson. This Concenn was the grandson of Brochniail Iscthru; the same who was defeated in 607, at the battle of Chester.

The inscription is now illegible; but it was copied by Mr. Edward Llwyd, a celebrated antiquary, and may be seen in Mr. Cough's Camden. The present height of the Pillar is not 12 feet, though it is said to have been 12 feet in its original state.

This Pillar remained till the Civil Wars, when it was thrown down and broken by some furious fanatics. After these commotions it was neglected for more than a century, when the remains of the Pillar were again placed on the pedestal, as appears by the following inscription cut on the Pillar:

Quod hujus veteris Monumenti

Britain's Muslims Learn Fast

By T. Stokes

THE LATE publisher Robert Maxwell, recounted the real story over a magnificent lunch at his home at Headingham Hall some years ago, of how the I.R.A. bombing campaign in British cities was halted.

Many people have asked why if the Irish terrorists were allowed to kill and bomb and maim willy-nilly, while the government did nothing.

However, on the basis of an Alistair Campbell's cooked up "dodgy dossier", we went into needless war on Iraq.

The most powerful of the U.S. dynasties, the Kennedy clan, were so pro-Irish and anti-British that the father of J.F.K, Joseph Kennedy, gave wartime information to Hitler's ambassador, Joachim von Ribbentrop. He was later quietly replaced.

But this same information emerged again from Russia during the Cold war.

Maxwell was connected to the London gangsters the Kray twins through the Jewish underground, and recounted the tale, that the Krays contacted the I.R.A leadership and told them that if another bomb exploded on British soil, the criminal underworld would bomb every Irish club and pub the length of the British isles.

The bombs stopped over night

A source high in the Muslim communities has said that if Israel had won the war on the Lebanese people, every Jewish business and synagogue world wide would have been at risk from reprisals. And this is why Muslim politicians have been told to rein in Muslim disapproval and “extremism” in Britain, while no mention of Zionist warmongering through Blairite activists, and the New World Order agenda.

A photographed list is currently circulating in London of “stay behind” Israeli troops in Lebanon, disguised as Lebanese, who will radio back any info that can be used to commit more IDF attacks on the local population.

In the first week in August 2006 a senior Q.C lawyer, in what is known as a “walk in” operation, gave information right from the top of Blair’s new Britain to intelligence chiefs in London, who reluctantly have to toe the Blairite line.

The Blairite seizing of the legal apparatus has meant one new law each day has been implemented since Blair took office, 3,023 since he became leader.

That Britain’s laws are made outside Britain would not surprise many people, but that they are designed to entrap, hamstring and handcuff its own people, prior to the coming I. D. cards, is a peculiar evil to perpetrate on your own kind, and makes Blair a mega-traitor alongside Blunt and Philby.

We in Britain have allowed huge numbers of anonymous foreign nationals onto our soil. If they object to us killing their people world wide, we may have instigated a major 5th column problem. I wonder if in bringing in all these people, those in power were just stupid or something more sinister.

Whatever way, the Muslims are copying the Jews, and buying their own politicians. They sure learn fast.

Hemp Seed: The Most Nutritionally Complete Food Source

By Anna Hunt

HEMP, OR CANNABIS SATIVA, has been called the world’s most versatile and useful plant for many reasons, one of which is because it benefits the human body. Hemp seeds are becoming a welcome addition to the diet of many health-conscious individuals, who have let go of the delusion that anything related marijuana or cannabis is bad, a common misconception imposed on the public over the last 80 years of federal cannabis prohibition.

The simple fact is that hemp seed is one of the most nutritionally complete foods available. Take a look:

1) Hemp seed food products, depending on how they are processed, offer some or all of the following: the ideal ratio of Omega-3/Omega-6 fatty acids, all 10 essential Amino Acids, digestible protein, calcium, potassium, phosphorous, riboflavin, vitamin A, vitamin E, vitamin B12, folic acid, vitamin D, magnesium, iron, and zinc.

2) Hemp refers to strains of cannabis sativa that have been bred specifically for fibre used for clothing and construction, oils and topical ointments, nutritional benefits, and a wide and growing variety of other purposes that don't involve intoxication.

3) There are different varieties of hemp – a plant grown for seed isn't necessarily the best plant for fibre.

It's about time that the mass public breaks free of anti-cannabis drug-war programming, which used the slang word marijuana to instil fear of "pot-smoking Mexicans." Here are 7 categories of how you can start consuming hemp and reap the health benefits of this amazing plant.

Hemp Food Products

1. Hemp Seeds

Hemp seeds are often sold shelled, so you can eat them right out of the package. They offer easily digestible protein and all the essential Omega-3 and 6 fatty acids needed by the human body. Hemp seeds are also rich in antioxidants, fibre, various minerals, and many vitamins including a hefty dose of vitamin E. They have been used to reduce dry skin and hair, help with muscle regeneration, reduce inflammation, ward off heart disease, and improve immune system function.

These nutritious and healing seeds are starting to be a favourite among vegans and health fanatics, and are often added to smoothies, cereals, oatmeal, and on top of salads.

Recommended products:

Organic Hemp Hearts
Organic Shelled Hempseed

2. Hemp Milk

Hemp seeds can be blended with water to make a healthy milk substitute, a nice option for people with nut and soy allergies, although the flavour of hemp milk is less sweet than raw almond milk or cow's milk. It can be used in baking or to make some homemade hot chocolate. You can buy hemp milk in a box, which may have added sweeteners (for example, the recommended product below is sweetened with brown rice syrup), but it is really easy to make. Take half a cup of shelled hemp seeds and 2 cups of water, blend for about 3-5 minutes and then strain through a nut-milk bag or cheesecloth. It's that easy!

Recommended products:

Hemp Milk
Vanilla Hemp

3. Hemp Seed Oil

Unlike the medicinal cannabis oil high in intoxicating delta-9 tetrahydrocannabinol, hemp seed oil is cold-pressed from hemp seeds and can be used in many recipes such as sauces, dips, spreads, marinades and salad dressings. It is typically nutty in flavour and has a light green colour. It does not give you buzz, aside from infusing your body with rich omega-3 fatty acids and the more rare 'super' polyunsaturated fatty acids, notably gamma-linolenic acid (GLA) and stearidonic acid (SDA).

Recommended products:

Organic Hemp Oil
Unrefined Organic Cold Pressed Hemp Seed Oil

4. Hemp Protein Powder

Hemp protein powder is typically made by cold-milling hemp seeds. This results in a product that has less fat than hemp seeds, thus the final product has mostly the natural protein found in the seeds. Lean sources of protein are beneficial for digestion, they boost metabolism, and they promoting a healthy, lean body mass. Three tablespoons of hemp protein powder contains roughly 90 calories with only 3 grams of fat but 15 grams of protein. Some hemp protein powders are also supplemented with fibre for people looking to increase their overall fibre consumption.

Recommended products:

Organic Hemp Protein Powder, Vanilla Flavour,
Organic Hemp Pro Fibre Protein Supplement

Remember: Hemp food products are different from what you will find in medical cannabis baked goods. So putting hemp seeds on your sweet potato casserole won't get you high. Now, you can purchase an alcoholic Hemp Ale, compliments of the Humboldt Brewing Co, although it's not likely to pack the same nutritional value as the hemp seed products above the "high" that you'll get from medical cannabis baked goods.

5. Hemp Supplements

You may not always have access to your favourite hemp foods, especially when you are travelling. Hemp oil supplements are a great option to continue benefiting from the nutritional value of hemp seed oil while on the go.

Recommended products:

Vegan Hemp Oil Capsules
Hemp Oil Soft Gels
Hemp Extract Oil Blended Kids Formula
Hemp Beauty & Personal Care Products

Both women and men can benefit from ditching traditional body products which can be laden with various potentially dangerous chemicals. Here is a list of a few body care applications for hemp-based products:

6. Hemp Seed Oil

Hemp seed oil can be used topically in many different ways: as a skin moisturizer, anti-wrinkle treatment, massage oil, etc. It can be used to treat eczema, acne, psoriasis, and skin inflammation. The ideal balance of Omega 3 and 6 fatty acids in hemp seed oil stimulate the skin and improve the overall function of cells, muscles, tissues and organs. And don't forget the skin is our largest organ!

Hemp seed oil can be used directly on the skin or you can use it as a carrier oil mixed with a few drops of essential oils that also benefit the skin, such as geranium or frankincense essential oils. This makes for a great skin moisturizer that is paraben free, gluten free and 100% vegan. You can also purchase pre-made body moisturizers enriched with hemp seed oil.

Recommended products:

Pure Organic Cold Pressed Hemp Seed Oil

Hemp Seed Body Mist, Nag Champa,

Hemp Seed Glow Oil,

Herbal Body Moisturizer

7. Hemp Soaps and Shampoos

As more people in the world learn about the benefits that hemp seed oil has on the skin and body, more producers are using hemp seed oil as an ingredient in their personal care products. In addition to replenishing the skin, hemp seed oil also stimulates hair growth, fortifies hair against damage, and moisturizes the scalp.

Recommended products:

Organic Castile Liquid Soap, Peppermint
Leatherwood Honey & Hemp Seed Oil Shampoo
Bar
Shampoo and Conditioner Set + Exfoliating
Body Wash, Sulfate Free.
Indian Hemp Hair and Scalp Treatment

Hemp oil, labelled GOOD OIL, can be purchased in the UK from Waitrose and some Tesco stores.
