Calling The True Israel Peoples

Editorial

Dear Reader,

Turkey Coup and False Flags Galore

As we go to press, we are hearing of a coup in Turkey followed by a counter coup, the out come being that Turkey is allying itself with Russia to the consternation of the West.

Reports are coming in of American military being held hostage at the giant NATO base at Incirlik.

However, the situation is still fluid and we will have to wait and see how things pan out.

The enemy is going into overdrive as more psycho-ops., false flag, terror events hit the headlines round the world such as the recent Nice (France) massacre and the Munich (Bavaria Germany) shooting hit the headlines. These are now so poorly staged that within hours, the events are being shown up as a hoax on the Internet, for example, the “Hollywood” bullet hole stick-on’s on the truck that supposedly run over and killed many people in Nice. Likewise the Munich shooting has been shown up as another hoax.

While all this has been going on, reports are coming in from Texas, where a white lady being molested by 4 Muslims was rescued by 2 shop-keepers in the near vicinity who, seeing what was going on, and took out their guns and shot the 4 Muslims dead. Following that a number of mosques were burnt down - but not a word of this in the mainstream media! No doubt because this is not what is supposed to happen - the Muslims are supposed to be killing off the Christian white people!

The strategy of the enemy is not going to plan and for this we give thanks to Yahweh and pray that this will be a window of opportunity for his servant people in their white homelands to awaken, repent and return to keeping His law, much of which is enshrined in our Common Law, which the enemy has replaced with their UCC (Universal Commercial Code or Admiralty Law). We praise Yahweh for His protection, although so undeserved!

Old Jerusalem to be a Curse to All the Nations of the Earth

BUT just so the same Bible students understand with perfect clarity that God has now forsaken the old city of Jerusalem and will never rebuild His temple there, turn to Jeremiah 26:1-3. Again Jeremiah is ordered by the Lord to stand in the entrance to the temple in Jerusalem and say, "Thus saith the Lord: If ye will not hearken to the words of My servants the prophets, whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened; then I will make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth." This is a double warning to the city and a promise of what the old city of Jerusalem would be at some time in the future.

Christ Confirmed These Promises

"Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers" (Romans 15:8). Now these fathers here were the people of Israel, of course. And so we find Christ confirming this end of the temple and of old Jerusalem as the place where His Name would be.

We read in Jeremiah 7:11, "Is this house, which is called by My name, become a den of robbers in your eyes?" This was followed by the promise to make it as Shiloh. In Matthew 21:12, 13 we read that Christ personally entered the temple at Jerusalem, overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and said, "It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves."

[Eli here. Solomon's Temple was the House of Yahweh. It is not true that the Judahites believed that the Name of Yahweh was "too holy to be pronounced." That is a Jewish/Talmudic teaching which has no place in our history and cannot be found in the Bible. What happened was that Judea, Samaria, Galilee and the surrounding territories were conquered by Alexander the Great in 332 BC. During the virtually continuous occupation of Judah and Benjamin by the Greek and Roman Empires, the Temple rituals were either outlawed or restricted by various kings and commanders of these two Empires; and Greek or Roman gods were promoted by their respective leaders.

The Temple priests could not pronounce the Name of Yahweh in public without incurring the wrath of these heathen invaders. Ultimately, the Temple High Priest would only whisper Yah's Holy Name when he was inside the Holy of Holies. When the Idumean (non-Judahite), Herod, was put over Judah by Rome, Herod slaughtered the indigenous Sanhedrin, and replaced them with his Idumean stooges, the Pharisees. (Antiquities of the Judahites, Book XIV, Chap. IX, Para. 4.) It was these very same Pharisees who desecrated the Temple with their money lending, as Jews have always been moneylenders.

Josephus confirms the Gospel record of this usurpation by the Pharisees when he states, "...the Pharisees have delivered the people a great many observances by succession from their fathers, which are not written in the law of Moses..." (Antiquities of the Judahites, Book XIII, Cha. X, Para. 6.) What more proof do you need that Judaism is NOT the religion of Israel or Judah? Judaism did not exist before the Pharisees imposed their traditions upon the Holy Scriptures. Hence, Judaism BEGAN as Talmudism. I state this categorically and defy anyone to prove this wrong: It is simply NOT TRUE, as is taught by virtually the entire world of Jewish, Christian and secular scholarship, that Judaism already existed before the Idumean Pharisees invented it.

Judaism has always been CONTRA Moses. A mere perusal of the Talmud exposes this as a fact. Just because a rabbi makes a claim does not mean that it is true. On the contrary, one should always presume anything a rabbi says to be a lie, unless further investigation proves otherwise. The suppression of the Holy Name was begun by the Greek Seleucids, followed by the Romans, and then by the Pharisaic Jews under Herod. Josephus records the fact that Herod worshipped Canaanite gods and even built a temple in their honour. Herod's actions against the law of Moses are detailed in Book XV, Chapters VIII - XI. It was by reason of this continuous occupation by non-Judahites why, in the New Testament, the Name of Yahweh is rarely mentioned. Even Yahshua, for fear of the Jews, referred to Him in public as "the Father."]

After spending some time teaching in the temple, he then left the temple and later pronounced on the city of Jerusalem, "Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord" (Matt. 23:38-39) Two verses later we read His sentence on the temple, "Verily I say unto you, there shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down."

Christ never went back to the temple, it was destroyed and burned to the ground in 70 A.D. The temple became "as Shiloh," and Jerusalem as "Ichabod." The promise of God, through His prophet Jeremiah, was confirmed by Christ, and history verifies its fulfilment. Not only is the Lord's name (Christ) [YAH-shua, Eli] not there any more, but with much of the world's intrigue and tension centred in the Jewish state called "Israeli," the old city is now becoming "a curse to all the nations of the earth" as God had prophesied! Ministers who still insist the Jews will rebuild the temple (which they may) and that God will bless it (which He will not) have "seen a vain vision", and "spoken a lying Divination."

This Foolish Preaching That the Jews are Israel

A great part of this absurd teaching about old Palestine is caused by the erroneous belief by ministers that the Jews are Israel and that the Jewish state of Israeli is the regathering of the tribes of Israel. I wonder how many preachers have stopped to think that there are about the same number of Jews now in old Palestine as there were Israelites in the Exodus from Egypt over 3,300 years ago (3 millenniums ago!). And if there was any one thing God promised Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, it was to multiply their seed!

According to Genesis 48:4, God said to Israel, the father of the twelve men who became the twelve tribes of Israel, "Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a multitude of people." [It does NOT say, "His seed shall become a multitude of ghettos!!!" – Eli] And in verse 19, speaking of Ephraim, one of Joseph's sons and Israel's grandson, Israel prophesied of this one man alone that, "his seed shall become a multitude of nations." Ephraim's descendants alone were to become many nations!

In Genesis 28:3 is God's prophecy to Jacob-Israel, "And God Almighty bless thee, and make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, that thou mayest be a multitude of people." Moses, speaking to the two million or more Israelites in the Exodus, said to them, "The Lord God of your fathers make ye a thousand times as many as ye are and bless you as He hath promised you" (Deut. 1:11).

Solomon is estimated to have had more than fifteen million Israelites in his kingdom over 2,500 years ago and yet preachers today would have us believe that less than fifteen million Jews in the world today constitute this "multiplied" seed of Israel (14,334,195 is the 1976 estimate from the Jewish Statistical Bureau, Dr. H. S. Linfield, Exec. Secretary, 1976 World Almanac, page 214).

Ministers who teach that the two million or so Jews in Palestine are fulfilling Bible prophecy of the regathering of Israel are completely ignoring the promises God made to Abraham of the immense numbers of descendants who would be in that regathering.

Their teaching is actually an affront to God, yet millions of church goers believe and support this foolish preaching. Jeremiah was truly right when he said of our day, "The prophets prophesy falsely and My people love to have it so" (Jer. 5:30-31).

Gospel to be Preached Beginning at Jerusalem

After His resurrection, Christ taught the disciples, and it says in Luke 24:45, "Then opened He their understanding that they might understand the Scriptures." Solomon said, "Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding" (Pr. 4:7). Since we can see how important understanding is, what was it that Christ gave the disciples to understand?

In the verses after Luke 24:45 above, we read, "And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His Name among all nations beginning at Jerusalem." Not ending at Jerusalem, but beginning at the city of Jerusalem, and not beginning 2000 years later when a people who call themselves "Jews" occupy the city, but beginning right then. "And ye are witnesses of these things. And, behold, I send the promise of My Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high."

This is verified by the account in Act 1:8, "But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto Me, both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth." In Acts 2 is the great story of Pentecost, the pouring out of the Holy Spirit on Israel, beginning at Jerusalem. Peter called it, "this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel" (vs 16). Then he quoted Joel 2:28, which of course was a prophecy to Israel.

Feed My Sheep (The House of Israel)

Let us compare Christ's instructions after His resurrection with instructions He gave His disciples during His ministry. After His baptism, Jesus instructed the twelve disciples to go "to the lost sheep of the house of Israel" (Matt. 10:6). The word "lost" here is translated from the Greek "apollumi," which means: "apo" ("put away") and "ollumi" ("punished"). It signifies a voluntary losing, which of course is correct, since God deliberately put Israel away into the Assyrian captivity as a punishment (see 2 Kings 18 & Hosea). "Apollumi" is used 13 times in the New Testament, and every time it is used in connection with the house of Israel. (See Strong's Concordance #622).

Then after His resurrection, Christ told Simon Peter three times, "feed My lambs ... feed My sheep ... feed My sheep" (John 21). Now if Peter and the others were to obey Christ and feed the "sheep of the house of Israel," they would have to go to where the sheep of the house of Israel were, would they not?

So, the question here is - and you cannot understand the difference between the old Jerusalem and the new Jerusalem unless you have the correct answer to this question - did the disciples obey Christ's explicit instructions to "go to the lost sheep of the house of Israel" and "feed My sheep," first in Jerusalem, then in Judea, then in Samaria, and then to the uttermost parts of the earth, or did they not? I say they did!

Christian History - The Unfolding of Israel Prophecy

History and scripture verify that the disciples preached the Gospel first in Jerusalem, then in Judea, then in Samaria, and then to the uttermost parts of the earth where the Israelites had gone. British, Roman and other European historical records show that some of the disciples who had known Jesus in the flesh went directly to the British Isles.

Paul preached in Spain, France and England. Joseph of Arimathea established a church in England within 5 years of Jesus's death. Others who went to England were Mary Magdalene, Mary (mother of Jesus), Maximin, Trophimus, Lazarus, Simon Zelotes, Clements, Martial, Sidonius, Zacchaeus, and Mary (wife of Cleophas).

Timothy, who had been ordained by Paul, baptized his own nephew, the British King Lucius, on May 28, 137 A.D. That same king then declared all England Christian in 156 A.D. at the National Council at Winchester! (For a more complete study of this fascinating subject see my "Paul and Joseph of Arimathea, Missionaries to the 'Gentiles'").

Information such as that in the above paragraph has been completely expunged from our school, church, and seminary textbooks. Christians do not know their race's Christian history! If they did, they would begin to realize that they are Israel. Our race reacted just as Christ said His Israel sheep would. We heard His voice, and we followed Him. Our race became known as the "Christian peoples" and are now the great Christian nations of the world, including our own United States of America. We are the only race which has reacted to Christ in this manner.

It was not until about 1500 A.D., after the entire White Race had had the opportunity to hear the Gospel of Jesus Christ, that the Lord moved upon Israel, the Anglo-Saxon and kindred peoples, to then carry it to the heathen, as He had said they would. They obeyed.

Christ Said Jews are Not of God

Ministers who preach that the Jews are God's chosen people defy the plain teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ. Speaking to the Jews, Christ said, "He that is of God heareth God's Words; ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God" (John 8:47). And to make it very certain we understand the Jews are not His sheep, it is recorded in John 10:26 that He said to the Jews, "But ye believe not, because ye are not of My sheep."

Then after Jesus told the Jews they were not His people, he described how His true Israel sheep would react when they heard His Word: "My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me." What race has followed Jesus to the exclusion of all other gods? There is only one - God's true Israel, the Anglo-Saxon race.

No, my friends, the disciples did not go to some heathen race. They obeyed their Master and went to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. The New Testament calls us "Gentiles," which means tribes or nations. We were the Gentiles among the Gentiles, the lost tribes of Israel after the dispersion.

Teaching Error is Very Serious

My Christian friends, there is another serious side to this unscriptural teaching that we are not Israel. If your minister teaches that the Jews are Israel, the chosen people of God, and that the Anglo-Saxon, Celtic, Germanic, and other European Caucasians are not, then your minister is saying that all of the disciples disobeyed their Lord Jesus Christ and that the Gospel prospered in disobedience! That is not Scriptural. In fact, it is a very poor way to demonstrate obedience to Christ.

[Since the Jews have always rejected Christ utterly, Jesus would not have the Apostles and disciples waste their time trying to preach to those who would sooner kill them than listen to "Christian" preaching. This is still true today. The Jews still utterly reject Yahshua Messiah! It is amazing how Christian Zionists bend over backwards pleasing the Jews, who hate their very Lord and Savior with a passion!! These duped Christians apparently never read Paul's admonition, "Be not unequally yoked with unbelievers"!! (II Cor. 6:14) -- Eli]

The Samaritan Woman

To continue our study on Jerusalem, turn to John 4 for a very symbolic meeting between Christ, the Redeemer of Israel, and a Samaritan woman. They met at a well, identified as "Jacob's well" in verse 6, and the woman identified herself as a descendant of Jacob in verse 12 by asking Jesus, "Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well?" "Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again: But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life."

She immediately answered, "Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw." This is not the response of a Jew to Christ; neither is it the response of a heathen. It is the response of an Israelite.

Before we go on in John 4, I will quote what the concordance in the back of my Bible says about the Samaritans at the time of Christ: "The Samaritans were a mixed race, composed of imported colonists and the Israelites who remained when the bulk of the ten tribes were carried into captivity. They had a temple to Jehovah [Yahweh -- Eli] on Mount Gerizim, their sacred mountain, they accepted Moses as their lawgiver and the Pentateuch as their law, but they rejected the traditions and rules of the Pharisees. They observed the rite of circumcision, the requirements of the Sabbath, and refused to accept Jerusalem as the one place where the temple of Jehovah should stand."

So Israelites lived in Samaria, they worshipped Jehovah, the God of Israel, but knew enough about prophecy to refuse to accept the Jewish priesthood with its traditions or worship at Jerusalem (Would to God ministers knew that much today!). This woman was an Israelite, and in this meeting she is symbolic of all Israel meeting Christ, their Messiah.

In The Name of Yahweh By Andrew Carrington-Hitchcock Part 10

The laws regarding the ritual after childbirth.

REGARDING circumcision, this law seems to have been done away with Jesus Christ's sacrifice, see Galatians:

Galatians 5:2 – Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

Galatians 5:3 – For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

Leviticus 15:1 – And Yahweh (the LORD) spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying, Leviticus 15:2 – Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When any man hath a running issue out of his flesh, [because of] his issue he [is] unclean.

Leviticus 15:3 – And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue: whether his flesh run with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it [is] his uncleanness.

Leviticus 15:4 – Every bed, whereon he lieth that hath the issue, is unclean: and every thing, whereon he sitteth, shall be unclean.

Leviticus 15:5 – And whosoever toucheth his bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even.

Leviticus 15:6 – And he that sitteth on [any] thing whereon he sat that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even.

Leviticus 15:7 – And he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even.

Leviticus 15:8 – And if he that hath the issue spit upon him that is clean; then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even.

Leviticus 15:9 – And what saddle soever he rideth upon that hath the issue shall be unclean.

Leviticus 15:10 – And whosoever toucheth any thing that was under him shall be unclean until the even: and he that beareth [any of] those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even.

Leviticus 15:11 – And whomsoever he toucheth that hath the issue, and hath not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even.

Leviticus 15:12 – And the vessel of earth, that he toucheth which hath the issue, shall be broken: and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

Leviticus 15:13 – And when he that hath an issue is cleansed of his issue; then he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.

Leviticus 15:14 – And on the eighth day he shall take to him two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before Yahweh (the LORD) unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and give them unto the priest:

Leviticus 15:15 – And the priest shall offer them, the one [for] a sin offering, and the other [for] a burnt offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him before Yahweh (the LORD) for his issue.

Leviticus 15:16 – And if any man's seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even.

Leviticus 15:17 – And every garment, and every skin, whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the even.

Leviticus 15:18 – The woman also with whom man shall lie [with] seed of copulation, they shall [both] bathe [themselves] in water, and be unclean until the even.

Leviticus 15:19 – And if a woman have an issue, [and] her issue in her flesh be blood, she shall be put apart seven days: and whosoever toucheth her shall be unclean until the even.

Leviticus 15:20 – And every thing that she lieth upon in her separation shall be unclean: every thing also that she sitteth upon shall be unclean.

Leviticus 15:21 – And whosoever toucheth her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even.

Leviticus 15:22 – And whosoever toucheth any thing that she sat upon shall wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even.

Leviticus 15:23 – And if it [be] on [her] bed, or on any thing whereon she sitteth, when he toucheth it, he shall be unclean until the even.

Leviticus 15:24 – And if any man lie with her at all, and her flowers be upon him, he shall be unclean seven days; and all the bed whereon he lieth shall be unclean.

Leviticus 15:25 – And if a woman have an issue of her blood many days out of the time of her separation, or if it run beyond the time of her separation; all the days of the issue of her uncleanness shall be as the days of her separation: she [shall be] unclean.

Leviticus 15:26 – Every bed whereon she lieth all the days of her issue shall be unto her as the bed of her separation: and whatsoever she sitteth upon shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her separation.

Leviticus 15:27 – And whosoever toucheth those things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe [himself] in water, and be unclean until the even.

Leviticus 15:28 – But if she be cleansed of her issue, then she shall number to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean.

Leviticus 15:29 – And on the eighth day she shall take unto her two turtle doves, or two young pigeons, and bring them unto the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

Leviticus 15:30 – And the priest shall offer the one [for] a sin offering, and the other [for] a burnt offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for her before Yahweh (the LORD) for the issue of her uncleanness.

Leviticus 15:31 – Thus shall ye separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness; that they die not in their uncleanness, when they defile my tabernacle that [is] among them.

Leviticus 15:32 – This [is] the law of him that hath an issue, and [of him] whose seed goeth from him, and is defiled therewith;

Leviticus 15:33 – And of her that is sick of her flowers, and of him that hath an issue, of the man, and of the woman, and of him that lieth with her that is unclean.

The laws regarding personal hygiene

Note that the priestly offerings are left in, this is so as not to break up this set of verses. Israel now need no intermediary between themselves and Yahweh, and therefore priestly offerings are largely ignored in this book.

Leviticus 18:1 – And Yahweh (the LORD) spake unto Moses, saying, Leviticus 18:2 – Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, I am Yahweh (the LORD) your God.

Leviticus 18:3 – After the doings of the land of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not do: and after the doings of the land of Canaan, whither I bring you, shall ye not do: neither shall ye walk in their ordinances.

Leviticus 18:4 – Ye shall do my judgments, and keep mine ordinances, to walk therein: I [am] Yahweh (the LORD) your God.

Leviticus 18:5 – Ye shall therefore keep my statutes, and my judgments: which if a man do, he shall live in them: I [am] Yahweh (the LORD).

Leviticus 18:6 – None of you shall approach to any that is near of kin to him, to uncover [their] nakedness: I [am] Yahweh (the LORD).

Leviticus 18:7 – The nakedness of thy father, or the nakedness of thy mother, shalt thou not uncover: she [is] thy mother; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

Leviticus 18:8 – The nakedness of thy father's wife shalt thou not uncover: it [is] thy father's nakedness.

Leviticus 18:9 – The nakedness of thy sister, the daughter of thy father, or daughter of thy mother, [whether she be] born at home, or born abroad, [even] their nakedness thou shalt not uncover.

Leviticus 18:10 – The nakedness of thy son's daughter, or of thy daughter's daughter, [even] their nakedness thou shalt not uncover: for theirs [is] thine own nakedness.

Leviticus 18:11 – The nakedness of thy father's wife's daughter, begotten of thy father, she [is] thy sister, thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

Leviticus 18:12 – Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's sister: she [is] thy father's near kinswoman.

Leviticus 18:13 – Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister: for she [is] thy mother's near kinswoman.

Leviticus 18:14 – Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's brother, thou shalt not approach to his wife: she [is] thine aunt.

Leviticus 18:15 – Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy daughter in law: she [is] thy son's wife; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

Leviticus 18:16 – Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy brother's wife: it [is] thy brother's nakedness.

Leviticus 18:17 – Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, neither shalt thou take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; [for] they [are] her near kinswomen: it [is] wickedness.

Leviticus 18:18 – Neither shalt thou take a wife to her sister, to vex [her], to uncover her nakedness, beside the other in her life [time].

Leviticus 18:19 – Also thou shalt not approach unto a woman to uncover her nakedness, as long as she is put apart for her uncleanness.

Leviticus 18:20 – Moreover thou shalt not lie carnally with thy neighbour's wife, to defile thyself with her.

Leviticus 18:21 – And thou shalt not let any of thy seed pass through [the fire] to Molech, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I [am] Yahweh (the LORD).

Leviticus 18:22 – Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it [is] abomination.

Leviticus 18:23 – Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it [is] confusion.

Two Confusing Words Part 2

John Trotter - Winmalee, Australia

THIS ARTICLE will deal with the word Gentile. Like the word church, there has arisen considerable confusion due to the misbelief that these words are of Greek origin. The shepherds of the flock over the centuries have set down the meaning of these words and the people have believed the accepted meaning.

It must be clearly stated that you do not have to be a Hebrew or Greek scholar to realise that the accepted understanding is incorrect. I am convinced that the vast majority of people who attend church do not have in their possession basic research material, like that of Strong's Concordance, a Greek - Hebrew lexicon and a Septuagint, just for starters. Most people do not study the Scriptures, they only read them in accordance to the interpretation by the church. I see little difference between this situation and the dark ages of Europe.

Now for the word Gentile, which is not of Greek origin but comes from the Latin word gentilis, which means "of or belonging to a family, or nation of the same clan". So often you will read that the meaning of this word, "has come to mean" or "but acquired a restricted sense by usage". It is because of this acquired view that the world is divided into 2 groups: Jews and Gentiles. The assumption is that the Jews constitute Israel. The word Gentile, because it is of Latin origin and therefore did not appear in the original Scriptures, is not a true translation of the word goyim (Hebrew) or ethnos (Greek). Like in so many other points the Latin Vulgate by Jerome has corrupted many of the words.

Lexicons are more definitive with the meaning of a word, than that of a concordance. Thayer says of the words goy and ethnos, "A multitude (whether of men or beasts) associated or living togetherof the same nature or genus". Vine says, "Denotes firstly a multitude or company, then a multitude of people of the same nature or genus. It is used in the singular of the Jews for example, Luke 7:5 and 23:2. Vine goes on to show that Gentiles is used in Scripture of both Jews and non-Jews". The use of the word goy (read as Gentile) is seen in the following number of uses. In the Hebrew 374 as the word nations, 143 as heathen, 30 as Gentiles and 11 as people.

In the Greek the word ethnos is used 64 times as nation, 5 times as heathen, 93 times as Gentiles and 2 as people. One can understand why confusion arises when you do not study but only read the Scriptures. There are many other examples like this throughout the Bible, like the word stranger. Another example showing how the word Gentile is incorrectly used is with the word Hellene (Strong's Greek 1672). These Hellenes were of the Southern House who had left their place of captivity in Babylon and were living in the Anatolia area. They were speaking Greek at the time.

If we are to assume that the word Gentile is a nation who is not of Israel, or not Jewish, then we arrive at some silly conclusions. As there are many verses that can be used to show this conclusion a few will be chosen : Genesis 12: 1, 2; 17: 5; 25: 23; 48: 19; Jeremiah 31: 36; Luke 7: 5; John 11: 48 - 50; and Acts 10: 22.

There are many things in life that we all can change, but there is one thing that none of us can change, and that is our ethnicity. Even though Israel as a people sinned and were eventually cast off and became Lo - Ammi or not my people (Hosea 1: 9) , they did not change God's plan for His people. It is true that many did intermingle with certain strangers that Israel was told not to do, but the eternal promises and covenants that God had made with Israel show not only God kept His part of the deal but also Israel as a people will always exist down to the end of time.

I would like to make it quite clear that my reference to Israel is not referred to the State of Israel but rather to the many millions that mostly live in the Western Nations. It is true a small number of Jews are Israel but not the majority. Not only will Israel exist but God has promised that a remnant will be faithful to the Covenants. Finally Christ will set up His Kingdom over His people Israel and those of the Ecclesia or separated remnant.

Just as Christ's enemies thought they had finally rid themselves of the Saviour and Redeemer, by His death on the Cross, so God has allowed the word Gentile to fulfil His plan and purpose for Israel. This is an incredible paradox of prophecy, just as is the Cross. From death comes life. The assumed understanding of the word Gentile has largely kept Israel blind. The final scene of the final act is yet to show not only the majesty of God but also be used to bring back Israel to her inheritance and destiny for the ushering in of her role within the Kingdom of Christ on earth.

In Romans 11: 25 - 27 we read "blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles (nations) come in". Read Isaiah 45 especially verse 17. Without going into all the details the blindness refers to the Southern House and the fullness refers to the Northern House of Israel. Once the predetermined number of the Northern House is gathered in, then the eyes of the Southern House will be opened. In Isaiah 42: 19 we read: "Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf as my messenger that I sent ? Who is blind as he that is perfect (complete) and blind as the Lord's servant? "Isaiah 42 and 49 need to be read to show the condition of Israel as a whole. It is true that the oracles were given to the Southern House, therefore they had the greater responsibility to teach the Law and the Words of God. Their blindness caused them to not understand the teachings of Christ.

As Israel was scattered amongst the many non - Israel nations they became like them (Jeremiah 9: 16, Ezekiel 12: 15). In Deuteronomy 28: 64 we are told that they would be scattered amongst all people and they shall serve other gods. By becoming like other nations Israel lost any understanding of what God had intended for them, namely to be set apart because by being set apart they were to be an example to all peoples.

God's dealings with Israel is a mystery. God is allowing world events to happen so as the Lo - Ammi feature of His people can be turned around to a relationship where we will be called "the sons of God" (Hosea 1: 10). Every attempt by man to create a just and peaceful kingdom on earth will fail. God's plan will win through for one day we shall all be gathered together as one people (Romans 11: 15); there shall be one head appointed and that is Christ. No more shall we be gentilised as the other nations. The revelation of who we are will be revealed to God's glory (Psalm 22: 27, 28). No more will Israel be scattered but re-sown in the appointed land; no more will the heathen rage; no more confusion of the nations; the identity and inheritance of Israel will be revealed and all peoples of all nations on earth will be blessed. Great Will Be The Day Of Jezreel Or God's Sowing Of His People. May That Day Be Soon.

The Trojan Origins Of European Royalty! (Part 5)

John D. Keyser

Odin in the New World!

Where did Odin go after establishing his people in Northwestern Europe? Where was this Faraway Land across the seas?

To find the surprising answer we must go to the sacred writings of the ancient Quiche Maya people in Mexico! In the Popul Vuh, a rare codice that has been preserved down to this day, we find recorded the migrations and wanderings of the ancestors of the Maya. The Popul Vuh clearly shows that they Traveled Westward across The Atlantic Ocean to Mexico!

Writings and traditions from other Indian tribes show similar origins of a people crossing a great body of water from the northeast to reach their present land!

Notice what the writer of the Popul Vuh records: "They also multiplied there in the east...All lived together, they existed in great numbers and walked there in the east...There they were then, in great numbers, the black man and the White Man, many of many classes, men of many tongues....The speech of all was the same. They did not invoke wood nor stone, and they remembered the word of the Creator and the Maker..." (English version by Goetz and Morley, pp. 171-172).

The record of the Maya continues: "...they came from the east...they left there, from that great distance....they crossed the sea" (ibid., pp. 181, 183). When the rulers of the ancient Maya sought to establish their kingdom "they decided to go to the east...It had been a long time since their fathers had died....And starting on their journey, they said: 'We are going to the east, there whence came our Fathers.' Certainly they crossed the sea when they came there to the east, when they went to receive the investiture of the kingdom" (pp. 206-207).

Herman Hoeh asks the question: "To what line of great kings in the east were these Quiche Maya journeying? To the successors of the Great Ruler who conducted them, about 1000 b.c., to the Usumacinta river in Mexico."

And who was this "great ruler" that led the ancestors of the Quiche Maya across "the sea" to their new home in Mexico?

The Maya claim that their kingdom was founded by a Great Ruler named Votan or Oden or Dan by various tribes. He was a White Man who came by sea from the east and settled them in their new land. The Time of their migration, according to [Spanish historian] Ordonez, was ten centuries before the present era. This Votan -- who was also worshipped as a god -- was famous for having himself journeyed to a land where a great temple was being built.

Do we have a king in Europe, living at the same time Solomon's Temple was being built (around 1000 B.C.), who had dominion over the seas, who was worshipped as a god, and whose name sounded like Votan? Indeed -- Woden, or Odin, king of Denmark from 1040-999. He was worshipped later as a great god. Scandinavian literature is replete with accounts of his distant journeyings which took him away from his homeland for many months, sometimes years.

Just as King Odin or Danus gave his name to Denmark -- Danmark-- so Odin gave his name to the "Forest of Dan" in the land of the Quiche Indians. (See pages 549 and 163 of volume V, Native Races of the Pacific States, by Hubert H. Bancroft.) "Dan...founded a Monarchy on the Guatemalan plateau" (Bancroft, vol. I, p. 789). His Capital, built for the Indians and their White Suzerains, was named Amag-Dan.

Here we have the records of Danish Kings, as early as 1000 years before the birth of Christ, sailing to the New World and planting colonies of red men from Europe in the Yucatan and Guatemalan highlands. -- Compendium of World History. Vol. II, pp. 90-91).

Where did these "red men" Odin planted in the New World come from? Notice! "Julius Firmicus, an early writer, stated that 'in Ethiopia all are born black; in Germany, white; and in Thrace, red.' Thrace was north of Greece and originally populated by the children of Tiras, son of Japheth (Gen. 10:2). it was from Thrace that Odin led the Agathyrsi and other tribes to North-western Europe when he founded the Danish kingdom.

"Many of the warriors employed by the early princes of western Europe were fierce, of swarthy skin, naked and often tattooed and painted. Strabo, the Roman geographer, wrote that areas of Ireland and Britain were inhabited 'by men entirely wild.' Jerome, writing in one of his letters in the fifth century, characterizes some of them as cannibals: 'When they hunted the woods for prey, it is said they attacked the shepherd, rather than his flock; and that they curiously selected the most delicate and brawny parts, both of males and females, for their horrid repast.'" (Compendium of World History, Vol. II, p. 86.).

Where some of the Quiche Maya originally came from is even more surprising, and totally at odds with most modern accounts of American Indian origins! Once again, the annals of the Indians in the New World reveal the truth about their ancestors:

The Annals of the Cakchiquels -- Lords of Totonicapan -- contains direct reference to the racial descent of the nobles who led and governed the natives to the New World.

"These, then, were the three nations of the Quiches, and they came from where the sun rises, descendants of Israel, of the same language and the same customsWhen they arrived at the edge of the sea, Balam-Quitze (a native title for one in a religious office) touched it with his staff and at once a path opened, which then closed up again, for thus the great God wished it to be done, because they were the sons of Abraham and Jacob. So it was that those three nations (the "mixed multitude" of Exodus 12:38) passed through, and with them thirteen others called Vulkamag -- meaning the 13 tribes. Israel had altogether 13 tribes including Levi.

"We have written that which by tradition our ancestors told us, who came from the other part of the sea, who came from Civan-Tulan, bordering on Babylonia" page 170. Page 169 says they "...came from the other part of the ocean, from where the sun rises." (Translated by Delia Goetz; published by the University of Oklahoma Press, 1953.)

Was the mysterious Civan-Tulan -- meaning in Indian dialects a place of caves or ravines -- the region of Petra, where Moses led the children of Israel? Petra is famous for its caves. Canaanite Hivites, mixed with Egyptian stock, dwelt at Petra, or Mount. Seir, at the time of the exodus. (Genesis 36:2, 20, 24). They lived at peace with the Hebrews.

This settlement of Hivites was a region dominated by Midian. A high priest who visited the land of Midian and Moab in Moses' day was named Balaam -- almost the exact spelling in the Quiche-Maya title Balam used for priests!

The people led by Odin or Votan across the Atlantic to the New World were not exclusively the sons of Tiras from Thrace; some tribes were called Chivim, reports Ordonez the early Spanish writer. It is the very Hebrew spelling used for the English word Hivites, some of whom once lived in Mt. Seir, the land of caves, near Babylon! So the Mexican Indians were a mixed people. -- Compendium of World History, pp. 92-94

Archaeological evidence of the Jewish presence in Mexico has been forthcoming over the years, showing the annals of Mexico to be accurate in all details. A stone has been unearthed in Campeche, Mexico, showing the side view of a scowling man wearing a large Mayan earring. According to William F. Dankenbring: "The earring, archaeologists were astonished to learn, contains the Star of David in its design. Also it contains a lantern-like object which illustrates an ancient Phoenician anchor. The combination of sailing ship and Star of David is also found in a figure on a Jewish tomb at Beit-Shearim, Israel, dating from the second or third century B.C." (Beyond Star Wars. Triumph Publishing Co., Altadena, CA. 1978, p. 87).

In the ruins of ancient Chichen Itza, in the tomb of a High Priest, another amazing artifact was discovered:: "One after another, magnificent relics were exhumed from the debris littering the floor of the crypt. Scattered about were shells inlaid with mother-of-pearl, pottery vessels, and a ceremonial flint blade that Thompson described as resembling "the votive stone sickles of the ancient druids...." (Maya: The Riddle and Rediscovery of a Lost Civilization, by Charles Gallenkamp. Viking Penguin, Inc. N.Y. 1985, p. 176).

The Druids were the priests and lawmakers commonly believed to have been associated with the Celtic peoples of Gaul and Britain. The Encyclopaedia Britannica states: "Of the officials themselves, it seems most likely that their order was purely Celtic, and that it originated in Gaul, perhaps as a result of contact with the developed society of Greece; but Druidism, on the other hand, is probably in its simplest terms the pre-Celtic and Aboriginal faith of Gaul and the British Isles that was adopted with little modification by the migrating Celts." (1943. Vol. 7, p. 678).

The uncovering of the ceremonial flint blade at Chichen Itza shows that the Mayan people came from Northwestern Europe before settling in Mexico.

The story of Barbara Palmer, Countess of Castlemaine Mistress of King Charles II

By Jane Lark

Editor's Note: This is a very important article as it shows that as a consequence of King Charles affair with Lady Castlemaine (left: agent for the City of London) the money power giving them a hold over Charles II who was between a stone and a hard place, that is the papal party and those representing the reformation party, behind whom was the City of London Money power! King Charles dalliance with Lady Castlemaine resulted in the British monarchy losing real power to the House of Commons!

I THOUGHT I'd tell a story from the era of King Charles II and reveal some more of the scandalous behaviour which went on at court.

King Charles II was known for his insatiable appetite with women. He had many mistresses and rarely one at a time but the lady whom I am going to speak of today was one who kept his interest for several years. She was Born Barbara Villiers she was the only child of the 2nd Viscount Grandison who died during the Civil war. His death left Barbara and her mother penniless as his lands were confiscated and all his money had been invested in supporting King Charles I. Her mother remarried, taking her father's cousin as a husband, but they still had very little money. Yet they stayed loyal to the Royals and when King Charles was executed turned their allegiance to his son who was at the time in hiding in The Hague where the Stuart's had retreated for safety.

There is a tale told about Barbara's family that each year on Charles II's birthday they crept down into their dark unlit cellar and toasted his health in secret. If this is true it would seem that his image was romanticised in Barbara's eyes from an early age.

Barbara Palmer, Countess of Castlemaine

Barbara was described by diarists of the time as tall and voluptuous, with thick auburn hair and blue/violet eyes, her beauty was said to be striking. It was no wonder then that she traded on her looks from a young age when she had no dowry to commend her. The first man she is known to be romantically linked to is Philip Stanhope, 2nd Earl of Chesterfield but he wanted a wealthy wife and would not marry her. Barbara married Roger Palmer on 14th April 1659, before Philip Stanhope wed, and one rumour which abounds about her is that her first child was Chesterfield's but this child was born during her affair with Charles II and Charles did acknowledge the child as his.

It was only a year after her marriage that she became mistress to Charles II in 1660. He was still in exile in The Hague at the time. Barbara had sailed there with her husband who was a Catholic, to join the out-placed court of supplicants who still sought Royal favour.

It sounded as though Roger Palmer's father had the measure of Barbara because he'd told Roger not to marry her and claimed she would make him one of the most miserable men in the world. They were living separately by 1662, despite Charles II favouring Roger for his wife's generosity with two titles, Baron Limerick and Earl of Castlemaine.

Barbara bore Charles five children which he acknowledged.

Lady Anne Palmer (who was later renamed Fitzroy) born 1661

Charles Palmer (who was later renamed Fitzroy) born 1662

Henry Fitzroy born 1663

Charlotte Fitzroy born 1664

George Fitzroy born 1665

Barbara Fitzroy, the sixth child, was born in 1672 but Charles's never actually acknowledged her.

(The surname Fitzroy comes from the meaning son of the King)

Her period of greatest favour with the King was in 1662 when she gave birth to his son at Hampton Court, showing no desire to hide her child's parentage, while the King was on his honeymoon. On his return he appointed her Lady of the Bedchamber to his wife, Catherine of Braganza. For obvious reasons his wife complained about it. She had fallen in love with Charles on honeymoon and was destroyed when she returned to find his lover encamped at Hampton Court.

Why would she wish her husband's mistress attending to her in her bedroom? It is well recorded that Charles frequently favoured Barbara over his wife, making a fool of Catherine and even arguing with her and tricking her into acknowledging his mistress while Barbara gloated over her influence. Charles's interest in Barbara soon slackened after 1662 although clearly their affair continued as they had more children, and diarists of the time record the on off affair. But Charles's favourite of 1663 was Frances Stuart, whom Barbara had on one occasion mockingly married for a joke. In this year

Barbara converted to Catholicism. We can only guess at her reasons, but perhaps it was to try and regain the king's favour.

In 1670, with Barbara's affair with Charles drawing to a final close, as Barbara grew older and the king turned to younger lovers, Charles made her Baroness Nonsuch as she was the owner of Henry VIII's Nonsuch Palace, he also named her Countess of Castlemaine and Duchess of Cleveland, unusually declaring her Dukedom of Cleveland would pass to her first son, Charles Fitzroy, on her death.

All honours for favours served of course and perhaps parting gifts. This was the rumour running through the court at the time.

John Churchill who built Blenheim Palace

While King Charles II took lower status lovers, particularly thinking of the actress Nell Gwynne who is commonly romanticised as an orange seller. So did Barbara, building up a reputation for promiscuity. One of her lovers was an acrobat, Jacob Hall, and it was well known that her lovers benefited financial from her arrangements with them. Equally as Charles's lovers got younger so did Barbara's and she became quite the Cougar. Barbara Fitzroy, Barbara Palmers daughter, born in 1672, is believed to have been fathered by Barbara's second cousin John Churchill who built Blenheim Palace when he was much older.

There is a mock-up of the court intrigues scenario in the upstairs rooms of Blenheim Palace if you visit there, with Barbara in the bed, the sheets covering her naked body, while John Churchill is hidden in the wardrobe as the King knocks on the bedroom door coming to his mistress. It is a true scenario although I think by this time the King probably cared very little what Barbara did and merely used her bed when he wished to. Barbara was also a lot older at the time than she is portrayed in this scene.

The story at Blenheim indicates John seduced her and my guess would be it was the other way about. She may well have even deliberately timed the liaison to try and make the king Jealous. I think that would have been pointless too when Charles had his pick of beautiful woman at court and beyond. My assumption that Barbara seduced John is supported by the fact he benefited handsomely from the liaison, by the sum of £5,000 no less, which was a fortune at that time.

Blenheim Palace, called a palace as the land it's built on was donated by the crown and is still owned by the Queen.

What I find quite amusing though is that John must have favoured Barbara's style of personality, it is said she was bad-tempered and dominant, but equally in her own brash way, the life of the party. John later married a woman of a very similar temper who most men could not get on with but he seemed to adore her. Again if you visit Blenheim they have a display about John's wife and the sharp way with which she managed the architect and builders of Blenheim Palace while he made his name fighting wars abroad communicating regularly with her and they wrote to each other in very honest appraisal.

Certainly Barbara's affair with the King was long over by 1676 when she went to Paris and lived there for four years with four of her children.

Like many women of history who spend their younger days living on their beauty through promiscuity the story of Barbara's latter years grow much sadder as her looks fade.

Charles's Death

After Charles's death in 1685 Barbara had an affair with an actor who had a notorious reputation for using women. Barbara even bore him a child in 1686. In 1705 Barbara's husband Roger Palmer died and then Barbara fell pray to a fortune hunter. By records of her later divorce this relationship was extremely tawdry and Barbara had tumbled to the lowest point of her life. The stories recorded at the time describe Barbara as lustful with a strong sexual appetite, and so when this young man paid her court she was very willing to take up with him and then marry him, believing him devoted. The only thing he was devoted to was her money. The man she married was Major General Robert “Beau” Fielding. He was known as “Beau” in recognition of his good looks and he was unscrupulous.

While Beau was married to Barbara he had two actresses as mistresses and not only them, when one of Barbara’s granddaughters fled to her dissipated grandmother for protection after her marriage failed due to an affair, Beau set up a relationship with the Barbara’s granddaughter too, in Barbara’s own home. Once this granddaughter left the house the affair continued for a few more months unknown to Barbara and the granddaughter bore Beau a child, although the affair had already ended by the time it was born.

This all came out in the end and was recorded in divorce records of the time and detailed in scandal columns as finally it came to light that not only did Beau have mistresses but he also already had a wife. He had bigamously married

Barbara only to obtain access to her wealth. Barbara died at the age of 68 on 9th October 1709. What a sad bitter ending to her life when she had known so much earlier acclaim as King Charles II’s mistress. Barbara’s portrait still hangs in Hampton Court among the group of Ladies in Waiting King Charles II had painted by Sir Peter Lely. The pictures were known for being particularly risqué with a strong sexual indication and the image of Barbara has her bodice slack, so you might almost see her nipple, while her eyes are heavy-lidded in a come hither look and her left hand grips a sword.

To learn more of Barbara you can read Pepys diaries on the intranet. This link leads to the tale of the war between Barbara and Charles II’s wife recording how Barbara manipulates Charles into not only disgracing his wife but treating her with appalling cruelty.

The Biggest Secret of World War II By T Stokes

DURING WORLD WAR II Litzi Friedman was quite a big fish in London’s Jewish underground. The first wife of Russian spy Kim Philby was linked via millionaire Phil Share and Abram Games to Herbert Morrison, the British Home Office minister, Winston Churchill and Churchill’s mentor, Lord Victor Rothschild, who was himself a very senior MI 5 agent.

Rothschild was then what was called a “black bag man”. This was because any operation on British soil first had to be approved by the Home Office while the Foreign Office had to give its approval for operations abroad. Failing official approval meant it then had to be secretly funded. Which meant that Rothschild, being in charge of secret funds for covert ops – the so-called black bag – knew the details of each and every operation.

Still, Litzi Friedman with a security file of over 70 pages was married to top British intelligence officer, Kim Philby, and yet no one suspected anything?

With hindsight this obviously seems suspicious but at the time the press devoted virtually no attention to it.

Meanwhile there was a very serious military threat from Russia, in contrast to Germany where Hitler did not want a war with Britain.

Lord Rothschild in true Socialist style was a flamboyant intellectual who drove an expensive Bugatti racer, wore a solid gold initialed watch and drank the best champagne. As a supposedly devout Jew, Rothschild should have avoided homosexuals, yet he surrounded himself with them. Especially inviting them to join the “Cambridge Apostles”, supposedly a socialist debating group whom fellow Russian spy John Cairncross said were known as the Poofter Boys.

To keep tabs on the group, Lord Rothschild even bought them a house, next door to where he himself lived in Bentinck St. This enabled his wife and he to listen through the wall to the homosexual parties, chatter and goings on. This group of 12 inner Apostles (actually there were closer to 30 members) was under the master himself, who thought it was amusing to play the role of Jesus.

At that time homosexuality was seen as an awful abomination, and an easy target for blackmail. Maurice Oldfield, the “M” of James Bond films, was Director General of M.I.5 from 1973-1978, allegedly had a taste in young street boys, called by the Apostles ‘delicious catamites’

Margaret Thatcher told the House of Commons in 1987 that he had been asked to stand down over the blackmail threat of his sexual tastes.

The King’s brother, the Duke of Kent, Prince George (right), who was boyfriend to Sir Anthony Blunt and Noel Coward, and was actually arrested with Maurice Oldfield during the war when a policeman rounded up what he thought were 3 drunken street whores, only to find they were not just men, but among the HIGHEST in the land.

Prince George was appointed Rear Admiral in Naval intelligence and was one of a group along with Admiral Barry Domville who wanted to negotiate for peace with Germany. Churchill however had other ideas and he had the Duke of Kent murdered in the same way he killed General Wladyslaw Sikorski.

The Queen Mother claimed that Noel Coward told her he was abused as a child, and was genuinely sexually disturbed, and this was why he was thrown out of the army in W.W. I. She was particularly close to Sir Anthony Blunt, her personnel art advisor who passed top wartime secrets to Moscow, including her letters to Adolph Hitler and this allowed the Soviets to pressure her into unwise circumstances.

Churchill blocked Coward’s knighthood for his sexual activities; Coward lived the high life during wartime austerities continually travelling to the Rockefeller building in the U.S.A.

These 3 men, Maurice Oldfield, The Duke of Kent and Noel Coward all had links to Victor Rothschild. Rothschild was Churchill’s mentor; he made Churchill’s decisions, including the bombing of the food trains into the concentration camps, and the continued strafing of the inmates. Rothschild is on record as saying;

“There will be no room in the new country for shnorrers” (poor Jews)

He only wanted the rich powerful and influential for the new land, the rest were to be sacrificed. Rothschild told the Apostles that the world map was being re-drawn and a World socialist government was coming, and those that helped would be given positions of great power in this “New World Order”. Rothschild went on to give prime secrets, referred to in the Spycatcher book as “The Crown Jewels”, to the Russians and later to Israel.

In the Russian Intel archives Lord and Lady Rothschild are codenamed “David and Rosa”. Stalin ordered Lord Rothschild to get Soviet agent and homosexual clown Guy Burgess to marry Churchill’s daughter Clarissa. What must be remembered is that Rothschild and Churchill were inseparable in W.W.II. The bankers bought Churchill’s services for W.W.II for a recorded 50,000 pounds to lobby for total war with Germany, and even in W.W.I Churchill had a bank account in the name of Colonel Arden, to accept these secret donations.

This is tantamount to saying that Churchill recently voted Britain’s greatest Englishman in a rigged newspaper poll, was a Rothschild puppet in two world wars had served a foreign master, Britain’s enemy.

And that I say is true.

Whatever Is “Satan”?

Arnold Kennedy

INTRODUCTION

THE BIBLE always makes it clear that we are all responsible for our actions; that we must reap what we sow, and that in the end we have to give account to God for those things “done in the body”.

2 Cor 5:10 “For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.”

But the churches commonly present a conflicting message about this:

[a] That what we do “in the body” is what they call “works”, and is somehow irrelevant after being “justified by faith”.

[b] That what they call “Satan” [an un-translated word meaning “adversary”] is to be blamed for everything bad in this world. This view is not valid! To show this we shall firstly consider the word “Satan”.

THE WORD “SATAN”

From the “Dictionary of Bible Symbolism” by B.A. Hunter, we read about “Satan”.

Literally, "adversary;" "opponent." The Hebrew word "Satan is not a name, but merely a transliteration, meaning simply "an opponent or adversary". In the O.T. it is transliterated as though it were a proper name (Satan) 19 times, with 14 of these occurrences in Job. Other O.T. passages correctly translate it as “adversary”, or “be an adversary”, “resist”, or “withstand”. In the N.T., the translators have rendered it as a proper name, in spite of the fact it is the same transliterated Hebrew word which in no way implies a supernatural being such as is conjured up in the modern mind.

The only time the Hebrew word Satan" is applied other than to mortal man is when it is twice applied to God Himself !! The first occurrence of this application is in Numbers 22:22, in which passage it has correctly been translated as "adversary". Again, in I Chronicles 21:11 it is God Himself Who is referred to as Satan," as is illustrated by the parallel passage of 11 Samuel 24:1.

In the Greek Septuagint, the word is the New Testament equivalent of “devil”, and is also found in Esther 7:4, Psalm 108:6, as well as the other commonly known places where “Satan” is found translated as such from the Masoretic Text. What follows comes from the latter text. The important things to note are, “The Hebrew word "Satan is not a name, but merely a transliteration, meaning simply "an opponent or adversary".

Strong 7854 confirms the Hebrew, “adversary (in general - personal or national)” and Strong 4567 confirms the Greek, “adversary (one who opposes another in purpose or act).

Thus anything in any way that is an adversary to God or to Man is “a Satan”.

The transliterated Hebrew word in no way implies a supernatural being such as is conjured up in the modern mind.

The word “Satan” can also be applied to God! [This is important to understanding of what the word “Satan” actually means].

In the O.T. it is transliterated as though it were a proper name, whereas it is not in fact.

For generations, the wrong transliteration of the word “Satan” into the proper noun “Satan” by translators has created a non-Biblical doctrine. This suggests that there are two gods, one good God and one bad god who are fighting each other for supposedly “immortal souls”. This idea is what most churchgoers perceive because it is subtly presented to them this way.

This happens from Sunday School, e.g. the ditty “This little light of mine, I’m going to let it shine”Don’t let Satan blow it out” etc. The “Satan” concept has been instilled in children from a very early age!

This basic idea behind all the world’s heathen religions has infiltrated the churches. Translations and traditions cause this to be virtually standard teaching, the origin of which we shall consider further on. Most churchgoers are brought up with this idea and it has become deeply ingrained into their subconscious minds.

WHERE DOES EVIL ACTUALLY COME FROM?

Now, having looked briefly at the word “Satan”. We can consider exactly where the evil actually comes from.

Jeremiah 17:9-10 “The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.”

Genesis 8:21 “For the imagination of man’s heart is evil from his youth.”

Hebrews 3:12 “Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.”

Note that the New Testament and the Old Testament are in exact agreement about the “evil heart” and the consequences of what we do! Jesus confirms the source of evil:

Matthew 15:19 “For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

Now the questions these verses raise are:

1. If there is nothing worse than the human heart, and if all evil proceeds from the human heart, could there possibly be some being supposedly worse called “Satan”?

It is clear that the answer to the first question is that the evil comes out of the heart, there being no mention of a “Satan” as a personal identity or “Satan” as an adversary.

2. Do we “say” things in our hearts, or do we blame “Satan” for thoughts and words that originate evil, as churches infer?

Let us consider together a few verses concerning the second question taking notice of the phrase “said in his heart”. In them there again is no mention of a “Satan” or “Satan”.

Genesis 17: 17 “Then Abraham fell upon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him that is an hundred years old? and shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear?”

Genesis 27:41 “And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then will I slay my brother Jacob.”

Psalms 10:6-13 “He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity. His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and vanity. He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes are privily set against the poor. He lieth in wait secretly as a lion in his den: he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net. He croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by his strong ones. He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: he hideth his face; he will never see it. Arise, O LORD; O God, lift up thine hand: forget not the humble. Wherefore doth the wicked contemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it.

Psalm 14:11 “The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good.”

Obadiah 3 “The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?”

Luke 12:45 “But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken.”

Now, there are hundreds of verses in the Bible referring to the human heart that do not bear any reference to “Satan”. [There are some 46 New Testament verses referring to “the devil” which we will come back to later]. So when religious persons blame “Satan” for evil in people, they are passing on religious tradition and are generating untruths. It is simply passing blame for the actions of their unregenerate and wicked hearts onto another supposed entity.

This is the vogue today, even in our law courts, where blame is passed on to someone or to something else. This is denying responsibility and accountability. It is the false, “the devil made me do it”, trip we often hear about. It is somewhat like people who are dying through having smoked tobacco for years, blaming the tobacco growers or tobacco manufacturers for their condition, as we find them now doing.

Yes, it is always our just God who is sovereign, not “Satan”.

John 12:40 “He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them. These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.”

Prov. 16:4 “The LORD hath made all things for himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil. Why?”

Prov. 16:6 “By mercy and truth iniquity is purged: and by the fear of the LORD men depart from evil.”

Honesty demands that we should admit our part in yielding to temptation.

James 1:13-16 “Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man: But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Do not err, my beloved brethren.”

Let us no longer err about this in blaming “Satan”, as the churches do!

NONE OTHER GODS.

The churches effectively have two gods before them, despite what the Bible presents:

Deuteronomy 5:7; “Thou shalt have NONE OTHER gods before me.”

God emphatically denies the two-god concept. Please note the capitalized words in the next verse

Psalm 83:18 “That men may know that thou, whose name ALONE is JEHOVAH, art the most high over all the earth.”

Isaiah 37:16 “O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou ALONE, of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made heaven and earth”.

Isaiah 44:24 “Thus saith the LORD, thy redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb, I am the LORD that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth BY MYSELF.”

1 Cor. 8:4-6 “As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that THERE IS NONE OTHER GOD BUT ONE. For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,) But to us there is but ONE GOD, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.”

Ephesians 4:6 “ONE GOD and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

James 2:19 “Thou believest that there is ONE GOD; thou doest well:”

So if we have any concept at all in our minds about there being two Gods [or more] we are not doing well!

Quoting Charles Spurgeon, “There are certain doctrines called Calvinistic, which I think commend themselves to the minds of all thoughtful persons for this reason mainly - they ascribe to God everything”.

THE WORD “ADVERSARY”.

As soon as we put the right meaning as “adversary” onto the word “Satan”, that is “adversary (in general - personal or national)” and, “adversary (one who opposes another in purpose or act) - Strongs 7854 and 4567”) we can start to get a glimmer of light on this subject. Remember that Jesus called Peter “Satan” when Peter was being an adversary to Him. Yet Peter could not have been the literal “Satan” pictured by the churches.

The following passages exemplify the alternatively rendered word to illustrate the fact that the meaning of the word “Satan” has been distorted. We should read “adversary” where “Satan” is written.

Num. 22:22 “And God's anger was kindled because he went: and the angel of the Lord stood in the way for an adversary (i.e. a satan) against him....”

1 Sam. 29:4 “And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him; and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, Make this fellow return, that he may go again to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he be an adversary -(i.e. a Satan) to us....”

Note: Because “adversary” is the same word as that translated as “Satan” elsewhere, in this verse, David is called a “Satan” to the Philistines.

2 Sam 24:1 And again the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he moved David against them to say, Go, number Israel and Judah.

Note: This passage specifies that it was God who moved David. It is parallel to the following passage in Chronicles which states God was an “Satan” [opponent].

1 Chron. 21:1 “And Satan (i.e. God as an adversary of Israel) stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel.”

Ps. 38:20 “They also that render evil for good are mine adversaries (satans); because I follow the thing that good is.”

Ps. 71:13 “Let them be confounded and consumed that are adversaries (satans) to my soul; let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek my hurt.”

The word “adversaries” is “Satan” in the Hebrew in these two verses, as in many others.

Psalm 109:4-6 “For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer. And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love. Set thou a wicked man over him: and let Satan [an adversary] stand at his right hand.”

The word translated as “adversaries” [7853] in this verse is a different form of the same root word translated “Satan” [7854] at the end of the verse. Note how the translators wrongly put in a capital “S” as they have in so many places to try to make Scripture fit their beliefs.

Next we shall see that the New Testament confirms the Old Testament.

Matt 16:22-23 “Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee. But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.”

Note: The word “offence” means “the trigger of a trap”. The things that are “of men” are the adversary nature and what comes from the evil heart of fallen Man.

Mark 1:13 “And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan [i.e. adversary]; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.”

2 Thess 2:8-9 “And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan [i.e. adversary] with all power and signs and lying wonders.”

Revelation 2:9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan [i.e. of adversaries].

Revelation 3:9 “Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan [i.e. of adversaries], which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.”

Again, these verses have a capitalised “S” wrongly inserted by the translators.

There Are Two Crowns Operant In England, One Being Queen Elizabeth II. By Mark Owen

ALTHOUGH EXTREMELY WEALTHY, the Queen functions largely in a ceremonial capacity and serves to deflect attention away from the other Crown, who issues her marching orders through their control of the English Parliament.

This other Crown is comprised of a committee of 12 banks headed by the Bank of England (House of Rothschild). They rule the world from the 677-acre, independent sovereign state know as The City of London, or simply 'The City.'

The City is not a part of England, just as Washington, D.C. is not a part of the USA.

The City is referred to as the wealthiest square mile on earth and is presided over by a Lord Mayor who is appointed annually.

When the Queen wishes to conduct business within the City, she is met by the Lord Mayor at Temple (Templar) Bar where she requests permission to enter this private, sovereign state. She then proceeds into the City walking several paces behind the Mayor.

Her entourage may not be clothed in anything other than service uniforms.

In the nineteenth century, 90% of the world's trade was carried by British ships controlled by the Crown. The other 10% of ships had to pay commissions to the Crown simply for the privilege of using the world's oceans.

The Crown reaped billions in profits while operating under the protection of the British armed forces. This was not British commerce or British wealth, but the Crown's commerce and the Crown's wealth.

The Temple Bar Church (The Temple)

As of 1850, author Frederick Morton estimated the Rothschild fortune to be in excess of $10 billion [today, the combined wealth of the banking dynasties is $300 trillion]. Today, the bonded indebtedness of the world is held by the Crown.

The aforementioned Temple Bar is the juristic arm of the Crown and holds an exclusive monopoly on global legal fraud through their Bar Association franchises. The Temple Bar is comprised of four Inns of Court. They are; the Middle Temple, Inner Temple, Lincoln's Inn and Gray's Inn. The entry point to these closed secret societies is only to be found when one is called to their Bar.

The Bar attorneys in the United States owe their allegiance and pledge their oaths to the Crown. All Bar Associations throughout the world are signatories and franchises to the International Bar Association located at the Inns of Court of the Crown Temple.

The Inner Temple holds the legal system franchise by license that bleeds Canada and Great Britain white, while the Middle Temple has license to steal from America.

To have the Declaration of Independence recognized internationally, Middle Templar King George III agreed in the Treaty of Paris of 1783 to establish the legal Crown entity of the incorporated United States, referred to internally as the Crown Temple States (Colonies). States spelled with a capital letter 'S,' denotes a legal entity of the Crown.

At least five Templar Bar Attorneys under solemn oath to the Crown, signed the American Declaration of Independence. This means that both parties were agents of the Crown. There is no lawful effect when a party signs as both the first and second parties. The Declaration was simply an internal memo circulating among private members of the Crown.

Most Americans believe that they own their own land, but they have merely purchased real estate by contract. Upon fulfilment of the contract, control of the land is transferred by Warranty Deed. The Warranty Deed is only a 'colour of title.' Colour of Title is a semblance or appearance of title, but not title in fact or in law. The Warranty Deed cannot stand against the Land Patent.

The Crown was granted Land Patents in North America by the King of England. Colonials rebelled at the usurious Crown taxes, and thus the Declaration of Independence was created to pacify the populace.

Another ruse used to hoodwink natural persons is by enfranchisement. Those cards in your wallet bearing your name spelled in all capital letters means that you have been enfranchised and have the status of a corporation. A 'juristic personality' has been created, and you have entered into multi-variant agreements that place you in an equity relationship with the Crown.

These invisible contracts include, birth certificates, citizenship records, employment agreements, driver's licenses and bank accounts. It is perhaps helpful to note here that contracts do not now, nor have they ever had to be stated in writing in order to be enforceable by American judges. If it is written down, it is merely a written statement of the contract.

Tax protestors and (the coming) draft resisters trying to renounce the parts of these contracts that they now disagree with will not profit by resorting to tort law (fairness) arguments as justification. Judges will reject these lines of defence as they have no bearing on contract law jurisprudence. Tort law governs grievances where no contract law is in effect.

The Crown

These private agreements/contracts that bind us will always overrule the broad general clauses of the Constitution and Bill of Rights (the Constitution being essentially a renamed enactment of English common law). The Bill of Rights is viewed by the Crown as a 'bill of benefits,' conferred on us by them in anticipation of reciprocity (taxes).

Protestors and resisters will also lose their cases by boasting of citizenship status. Citizenship is another equity agreement that we have with the Crown. And this is the very juristic contract that Federal judges will use to incarcerate them. In the words of former Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter, "Equity is brutal, but we are merely enforcing agreements." The balance of Title 42, section 1981 of the Civil Rights Code states, "citizens shall be subject to like punishment, pains, penalties, taxes, licenses, and exactions of every kind"

What we view as citizenship, the Crown views as a juristic enrichment instrumentality. It also should be borne in mind that even cursory circulation or commercial use of Federal Reserve Notes effects an attachment of liability for the payment of the Crown's debt to the FED. This is measured by your taxable income.

And to facilitate future asset-stripping, the end of the 14th amendment includes a state of debt hypothecation of the United States, wherein all enfranchised persons (that's you) can be held personally liable for the Crown's debt.

The Crown views our participation in these contracts of commercial equity as being voluntary and that any gain accrued is taxable, as the gain wouldn't have been possible were it not for the Crown. They view the system of interstate banks as their own property. Any profit or gain experienced by anyone with a bank account (or loan, mortgage or credit card) carries with it - as an operation of law - the identical same full force and effect as if the Crown had created the gain.

Bank accounts fall outside the umbrella of Fourth Amendment protection because a commercial contract is in effect and the Bill of Rights cannot be held to interfere with the execution of commercial contracts. The Crown also views bank account records as their own private property, pursuant to the bank contract that each of us signed and that none of us ever read.

The rare individual who actually reads the bank contract will find that they agreed to be bound by Title 26 and under section 7202 agreed not to disseminate any fraudulent tax advice. This written contract with the Crown also acknowledges that bank notes are taxable instruments of commerce.

When we initially opened a bank account, another juristic personality was created. It is this personality (income and assets) that IRS agents are excising back to the Crown through taxation.

A lot of ink is being spilled currently over Social Security. Possession of a Social Security Number is known in the Crown's lex as 'conclusive evidence' of our having accepted federal commercial benefits. This is another example of an equity relationship with the Crown. Presenting one's Social Security Number to an employer seals our status as taxpayers, and gives rise to liability for a reciprocal quid pro quo payment of taxes to the Crown.

Through the Social Security Number we are accepting future retirement endowment benefits. Social Security is a strange animal. If you die, your spouse gets nothing, but rather, what would have gone to you is divided (forfeited) among other premium payers who haven't died yet.

But the Crown views failure to reciprocate in any of these equity attachments as an act of defilement and will proceed against us with all due prejudice.

For a person to escape the tentacles of the Crown octopus, a thoroughgoing study of American jurisprudence is required. One would have to be deemed a 'stranger to the public trust,' forfeit all enfranchisement benefits and close all bank accounts, among other things.

Citizenship would have to be made null and forfeit and the status of 'denizen' enacted. If there are any persons extant who have passed through this fire, I would certainly appreciate hearing from them.

Harold Stough Notes

The Brahan Seer Of Scotland

THE BRAHAN SEER is undoubtedly the most famous of all Celtic seers although the reality of the 17th Century Coinneach Odhar Fiosaiche or Kenneth Mackenzie is hidden deep in legend. The roots of these legends may have come from a holy man in the 1600's, about whom legends have grown with the years. It has also been surmised that Kenneth may be an amalgamation of several seers from the 16th Century and beyond and that the prophecies have been changed and adapted over the centuries from numerous sources.

The Highlands of Scotland have a long history of seers and those gifted with the second sight. The possible earliest written reference to the Brahan Seer is found in the Bannatyne's 'History of the Macleods' from 1832. Hugh Miller's 'Scenes and Legends of the North West of Scotland' from 1874 mentions that he was labourer near the Brahan Castle, born in Baile na Cille on Lewis. He is reputed to have used a white stone with a hole in it to see into the future. (Stones with natural holes were once believed to have magical properties, and have a long history of folk use).

He worked at the castle for the Seaforth Mackenzies and offended Issabella the Countess of Seaforth who had him tried for witchcraft and burned alive in a barrel of tar at Chanonry Point in Fortrose between 1665 and 1675 (or 1577 in some versions). He suffered this terrible fate because he told the countess of a vision in which her husband was in the arms of another woman.

Before he died he is reputed to have made a prediction about the fall of the Seaforth Mackenzies. The curse/prediction is basically that the last Laird Mackenzie would be deaf and mute, that he would die after his sons, that the lands would be inherited by a white hooded widow from the East who will kill her sister, and that all this would come to pass in the time of four great Lairds: 1 buck toothed, another hare lipped, the third half witted and the fourth with a stammer.

The curse was reputed to have been played out in 1816 when Francis Humbertson Mackenzie (who was hard and reluctant to talk after contracting scarlet fever) outlived his son, and the four Lairds of Chisholm, Grant, Raasay and Gairloch were all as described in the prophesy.

In some ways the Brahan Seer can be seen as Scotland's Mother Shipton in that many of the prophecies were published after the fact, and in some cases are vague enough to be adapted to a number of situations and events, although his most famous one about the fate of the Seaforth Mackenzies is supposed to have been known well before the 19th C. The most detailed version of his prophecies were published in 1899 in Alexander Mackenzies: The Prophecies of the Brahan Seer.

There is no real evidence that the Brahan Seer existed as a single person and there is a similarity between his prophecies and the sayings of other seers such as those from the Islay Seer: Am Fiosaiche Ileach. Prophecies have always had the power to intrigue and the ones of the Brahan Seer are so specific to Scotland and Scottish culture that they have survived and been adapted over the centuries to what we have today. Of course these are now subject to the sometimes twee romanticisms of the tourist industry.

The legend still has enough endurance to affect decisions today. I have talked to people who will not use the Ferry named the Isle of Lewis Ferry because they believe that it was prophesied that the Isle of Lewis would sink by the Brahan Seer and they have taken this to be the Ferry rather than the island.

When there are 7 bridges over the Ness Inverness will be consumed with fire from Black rain and tumble into the sea. Sheep shall eat men, men shall eat sheep, and a black rain shall eat all things. This prophesy is supposed to cover the period of the Highland clearances although the black rain part of this has been the subject of speculation for many years.

His many supposed predictions include Straffpeffer becoming a Spa town, and the Highland Clearances of the 1800's. Here is an abridged version of one of the prophesies:

What Happened? (Part 2)

By Monica Stone

THE EDUCATION OF CHILDREN and college students are riddled with Political Correctness, Cultural Marxism, equality and misinformation. If the student dare to question he will not be allowed to earn his degree and will be ostracized never to be able to find a job. So to appease the Vampire, we keep on teaching untruths and the castle is getting bigger and bigger and heavier built on sand of nothingness. This is going on for so many years all the information being fed to the students became a way of life, we all became used to it. "It was always like this" is the answer, nobody ask a question, all just accept and so we slide through the ages as idiots. Becoming more idiotic as time goes by. To sift through truth and lie is becoming more and more difficult as the one is flowing into the other, like the Aegean stable we will have to use drastic measures to clean all this up.

In the medicine world our doctors who should have been healers, after all they made a promise to save lives, to heal and to help. Not so, our doctors became liars, hopeless in diagnoses and using humans as guinea pigs, not saving, but, destroying. How many died at the hands those who should have been healed? We would never know.

Our justice system became a nightmare, there is no justice, only law enforcement, enforcing the law of the vampire. Long gone those days when a policeman (political incorrect word) gave his hand to help, now the hand holds a gun and is used. Judges are corrupt, the prison system became a money making industry. How many innocent men/women are incarcerated, no one knows, they just rot in a cell somewhere, all forgotten. This also is not new it comes as long as Cultural Marxism is established, not always under this name, sometimes it is called a "revolution" of the one or other political party or despot pushing his will on the people. Galileo went to prison, because he was politically incorrect, only centuries later was it proven he was correct. The list goes on and on.

Coming back to the situation in South Africa, mudslinging and blame are being laid at the feet of the African National Congress, all the ills befalling the population are blamed on the leaders. This is true, but what happened and why did we get to this situation where everything we held dear is falling apart?

One of the reasons of why South Africa is in this dire situation fighting for our very survival is the lack of knowledge about the modus operandi of the Vampire. I listen to so many White leaders of today and there is no lack of amazement how they blunder on from one side to the other. It is so true in Hosea 4:

For want of reflection My people will perish; For you have rejected all thought from yourselves. So I reject you from the Priesthood to Me;- And having abandoned the Laws of your God, I will abandon your children Myself!- As against Me they sinned in their power, To contempt I will change all their honour. (Ferrar Fenton).

Is this what happened, we in our stupidity, thinking we can fight this war against the Vampire all by ourselves why we are failing in any attempt for these ages gone by to destroy the enemy? With selfishness, lack of insight we brought this now out of control situation on ourselves. How many centuries have we gone to war against our own brothers, how many of our own perished through the ages with such a lot of blood spilled we did not get anywhere, but fed the Vampire who lives on the blood of the Aryan Race. We have lost the best of our Race through senseless wars, we are standing on the precipice of annihilation by the beast of the field, the foot soldier of the Vampire. The beast is driven by his hatred towards everything that is orderly, civilized and beautiful, he has none of these attributes in his make-up as he never accomplished anything. Because of his vicious, murderous behaviour he is an excellent tool in the hands of the Vampire with their hatred since the beginning of time towards the Priesthood of the Most High God.

We have to understand it is not only the material gain, the accumulation of property, be it human or real estate, it goes beyond this, it is far more complex than this. These Vampires are the offspring of Lucifer/Satan who are still rebelling against the Most High God, the Creator of the Heavens and the Earth. Satan has to destroy the Aryan Race as he wants to rule over all creation and we the Aryan Race is in his way. In our lack of knowledge and understanding we are the most treasured helpers to Satan-Lucifer-Vampire command centre in the Universe.

What will it take for the Aryan Race to come to their senses before we are completely destroyed by this evil force? Maybe a major planet catastrophe never before experienced? With the Vampire in full control of all the Aryan and non-Aryan armies, the media, all walks of life, there is no chance in any way any nation or leader for that matter can stand up and change the course of our direction to get out of this death cell, death wish and hold the darkness has over us.

Maybe these word from HABAKUK (Ferrar Fenton) describes our situation the best. What is astonishing that Habakuk's ministry was about 626 BC, nothing has changed for too many ages, if it does not change and for the better we might as well put off the light on the Aryan Race's existence on planet earth, here follows the burden that Habakuk, the Preacher saw:

*How long, LORD, shall I shout, - and You not attend t my cry?
To You I shriek out when oppressed but You listen not!*

*Why do I see passion and sin?
With bribery ad wrong in my presence - and contention, and strife rising up?
For the law is relaxed, and the right never wins,
but the wicked encircle the good,
so the criminal gains the decree!*

*Nations! Look and reflect, and observe for a work I will do in your days, you will not believe if it told!
I will raise up the Kasdim, a nation ferocious who will march from a country afar, to seize dwellings that are not their own.*

*And with them are Terror and Fear, they make a law and rules for themselves;
their horses are swifter than leopards,
and fiercer than ravening wolves!
Their proud cavalry rich from afar,- they come, - they fly on like an Eagle that rushes along to devour!*

All of them came on for plunder!-

*Greedy faces as the wind of the east, and they gather up slaves like the sand!
They scoff at Kings, laugh at the Princes, and they jeer at all fortifications,
for they take them by heaping up dust!
As the tempest sweeps by, and it passes,
so he sees by his trust on his God.*

*But are YOU not LORD from of old? - my HOLY GOD! We shall not die, -
You appointed him LORD by Decree, and, My Rock, You empowered him to punish!*

*Your pure eyes never sanction the wrong, and oppression You will not endure, - then why do You look on the traitors, - and are dumb when the bad rob the good?
And make men like the fish of the sea,
and like reptiles with no one to rule?
He pulls them all out with his hook, sweeps his net or collects in his drag, -
He therefor can laugh and rejoice, so worships his net, burns sweets to his drag,
for he prospers by them on good food.
Should he not therefore spread out his net, and continually Nations destroy?*

I think we can really relate our situation with what Habakuk wrote so many centuries ago. So in studying and accumulating the knowledge of why we are in this death knell, what are we going to do about it? Are we going to sit talking at meetings, conferences, lamenting, complaining about such and such and putting the blame on whatever and whomever we find handy, instead of going back into our souls to determine when and where we chose the wrong path. Our Father never left us, we turned our back on Him when we chose to follow the Son of Morning Star.

Even in this ONE MINUTE before midnight strike for the complete annihilation of the Aryan Race, there is always HOPE and we must NEVER forget that. We had so many prophets telling us, warning us, let's NOW change our attitude and start listening.

In the case of the Boers in South Africa, we made a Covenant with the Most High God before the Battle of Blood River on December 16, 1838. We have to bow our heads in shame, as our Father kept His promise and gave us the victory over the Zulu impis, but true to our nature, after the victory we just went our merry way and forgot about it. Now it is time to renew this Vow and then stand by it, honour it, our God will be with us, He has always been, we have to repent and return to Him, follow His Laws, not man-made Laws or as the preachers of the day make the laws as they go. The first and foremost is to LOVE OUR GOD, WITH ALL OUR HEART, there is nothing beyond this, no compromise or make believe. We have become so shallow we really make ourselves believe that we love God, it is only lip service. Let us believe God that He truly will be with His Children and then we can fight and be His Battle axe and once and for all in this last battle against His ages old adversary be Victorious and defeat this old devil called Satan and his minions. Without our Most High God and Heavenly Father we cannot, we are not able to do this on our own. The time has come to admit we failed miserably through the ages, we do not have the luxury to think we can do this alone any more.

May our Heavenly Father be with us all, give us the understanding, knowledge and insight to do what must be done. So let it be said, so let it be done.

BOOK OF SCROLLS

These are the words spoken by the Great interpreter,

Who through the powers inherited by him from above and by the powers now in his keeping,

all freely bestowed upon him by the grateful hearts of his people below, will lead us the Fields Of Everlasting Glory.

O Exalted One, intermediate between gods and men, what we now do for you, you do for us.

Let

Your deeds and your words become our words, thus, it ever was and thus it will ever be, while mortal beings make pilgrimage through

This valley of tears.

The Legal Fiction - How They Control Us

Roger Hayes

THROUGHOUT the ages mankind's ingenuity has allowed one group of people to control others. The creation of the legal fiction is a superb example – it is the very foundation of how we are controlled today and yet the knowledge of its existence eludes all but a tiny few of us.

Judges know how the legal fiction applies to each of us, but barristers, solicitors, Magistrates and politicians mostly do not – it is a closely guarded secret. Our courts impose their will on us using the legal fiction and it is through this imposition that governments are able to control every facet of our lives. Without the 'legal fiction' governments and an array of authorities have no power over us whatsoever and with this in mind it is perfectly clear that understanding the legal fiction is a prerequisite to understanding how the world around us really works as distinct from how we think it does. Knowledge and understanding of the legal fiction is the first step on the road of freedom. So What Is The Legal Fiction & How Does It Impact On Our Lives?

If you tried to explain the concept of the 'legal fiction' to the average individual in the context of how it applies to them, there is a high degree of probability that they would stare back at you as though you were quite mad—explanation rarely attracts a demand to know more, which it should, generally people find comprehension beyond their scope of understanding and they prefer therefore to dismiss it as an absurdity. The creators of the legal fiction knew this and have used our own ignorance to further their aims to control and dominate us, their ultimate weapon being plausible deniability. But suddenly we are waking up to what is really going on and as we do the shackles of control are starting to loosen.

Imagine having a conversation in the 10th century in which you were describing a mobile telephone to an audience— they would to a man and woman think you were a complete lunatic— despite being able to explain the science behind it, and so it is with trying to explain the 'legal fiction' today. Fortunately, thanks to people like John Harris, Winston Shrou, Robert Arthur Menard and others, the secret of the 'legal fiction' also known as the 'strawman' has been laid bare and as a consequence those of us who are prepared to learn are now able to take advantage of this very important knowledge.

But bear in mind this— the powers-that-be have a vested interest in us not knowing how they effect their control over us... and this translates into them being adamant that you must not know of the existence of the legal fiction, never mind understand it.

So if you are thinking about writing to the government and asking them to confirm the existence of the legal fiction, may I suggest that your time would be better spent writing to the mafia and asking them to confirm in writing that they are indeed engaged in organised crime. Please let us know if you get a reply.

The legal fiction is described briefly as 'a means by which something can be done in law, which, without the legal fiction, would not be possible.' Look it up in a law dictionary. There are many applications of the legal fiction concept and only through study will you get to grips with the extent of its functions. It is not complicated, just confusing and understanding it requires that you resist the urge to dismiss it as a nonsense. Because we have limited understanding of the origins of the universe, that does not mean that it does not exist - and so it is with the legal fiction.

A Company Is A Legal Fiction

If we assume that your name is Roger Hayes—you could create a legal fiction called 'ROGER HAYES LIMITED' which you could own lock, stock and barrel. You could lend the company money and it in turn could buy and own plant, machinery and stock and build up an array of assets and wealth through trade - all of which would then belong to the company—but not you. Yes you would own the company, but the company would own the assets. If on behalf of the company you sold some stock, you would be required to put the proceeds into the company's bank account and not your own private account. The company would be obliged to pay back the money that you lent it, but apart from that the only way that you could take any benefit from the company would be if it paid you a wage as a manager or a dividend as a shareholder and if the company went bust with net liabilities, you would not be liable for its debts.

It is easy to see then how despite you being the only owner and thus the controller of the legal fiction 'ROGER HAYES LIMITED' that it remains an entirely separate entity to you. You could sell the company and somebody else would then control it, despite it keeping your name. Now to deliberately confuse you... this entity was also given the generic name person and yes, it is meant to confuse you. In legalese (the language of law) the word 'person' means company or corporation; it does not mean man or woman. In an ordinary dictionary 'person' is described as an individual human being. In a law dictionary 'human being' is described as a monster. Do you think they were trying to bring clarity to the meaning of words or do you think they were trying to create confusion? Obviously it was the latter and it was both deliberate and calculated.

When you were born (still assuming that your name is Roger Hayes) and your parents registered your birth, the government set up a company which they called ROGER HAYES. If you look at all your official documents you will see that they are all represented with capital letters as a means of distinction. It is important to remember, that as it was the government that created this company, it is they that own and control it – despite it having your name. The deceit was in the fact that they did not tell you, nor did they want you to know, that they would use this company (person) as a tool to attach liabilities to the real you.

Thus, ROGER HAYES the company was created and existed alongside Roger Hayes the flesh and blood boy created and named by your parents. But in the absence of the knowledge of the existence of the former everybody was led to believe that everything applied to the latter – as devious a plan surely as selling land on the sun to the unsuspecting.

When officialdom then asks the question 'Are you Roger Hayes?' What they are really asking is 'Do you accept the liabilities for ROGER HAYES the company (i.e. the person)?' and when you say YES – you are unwittingly accepting the liabilities placed upon the 'person' (company) that they own and through which they establish their authority over you . How very clever and devious is that?

Roger Hayes is a flesh and blood man. ROGER HAYES is a person (company) – and they are separate entities. You control you, they control the person, if you accept the liability of the person – then they control you.

All Acts of Parliament are applied to the 'person' (the company), and not the man or the woman. This is self-evident in that the words man or woman are never used in Acts of Parliament. So Acts do not therefore apply to the flesh and blood man or woman, if they did, they would say so. Acts of Parliament extend to you the man or woman only if and when (through your ignorance) you accept the responsibility and liability of the 'person.' When a policeman or a judge asks you for your name – they are tricking you into accepting their authority over you, because you have unwittingly assumed responsibility for the legal fiction (despite them also being ignorant of this fact) and the fact is that they must get you to acknowledge 'the name' i.e. 'the person' i.e. the 'legal fiction' 'ROGER HAYES' before they can assume their authority over you.

When you say YES my name is ROGER HAYES, you are submitting/consenting to their authority, and conversely if you deny the liability of the corporate entity then you deny them the control that they need to enforce their penalty charge notices upon you. Denial of consent is denial of authority which means no penalties. It is as simple as that.

So now you know - government secures its authority over you by simply asking your name, or by getting you to fill in one of their forms. If you understand this then you can start to adjust the way in which you respond to their demands. Learn how to respond to this deceitful tyranny and your life will change; you will become freer in mind, in spirit and in reality. And the more of us pushing them back the faster we will take back control of our nation.

By denying the control that the legal fiction creates, you will be making an enormous stride in securing your freedom.

The fact remains that the Government and its institutions, i.e. the police, the courts, the taxman have authority over you by virtue of you unwittingly giving them your consent. But, whilst statutes (Acts of Parliament) apply only to the legal fiction – common law most definitely applies to YOU - the flesh and blood man or women. Be very careful to understand the difference. Common law which the police monitor as peace officers (constables) protects our natural rights, common law are the rules that govern how we behave towards our fellow men in order that we can all to live in peace and harmony with others without the threat of harm or loss.

So speeding, parking, council tax, VAT, PAYE etc all apply to the 'legal fiction' which you have an absolute right to reject if you so choose, but if standing up for your rights is too much trouble, you can chose to continue to remain compliant and obedient. Take your choice.

I have no objection to paying my fair share towards running a system of which we are all beneficiaries, but I will not be dictated to. If refusing to pay my council tax, speeding and parking fines is the way to bring about change that will benefit us all, then that is what I am going to do. Hopefully many more people will start thinking and acting like free men and women, the sooner we do then the sooner we will close down the tyranny and the sooner our lives will start to improve.

BUT—and there's always a but, the 'legal fiction' has benefits as well as liabilities. The NHS, schooling, child benefits, land and home ownership, bank accounts etc, all come to you courtesy of the 'legal fiction.' If you want to dump the liabilities, you are potentially going to have to dump all the benefits as well. So you have to have a clear understanding on what it is you are letting yourself in for before you start messing with the system.

Dear reader, our controllers are not stupid... they have been working their scheme for a long time. They have devised a system that gives as well as it takes and it has been a careful balance of both of these that has allowed them to maintain their control. So if there are benefits as well as liabilities and we do not want to throw the baby out with the bath water, where do we go from here?

The answer to that dilemma is simple. The system can be used for our overall benefit. The bad guys have taken control of it and they are quite deliberately using it for their benefit at our expense. They are using it to fine us excessively and needlessly to feed their greed, to tax and persecute us; keeping us on a tread mill of servitude and making our lives a misery in the process. We have a right to take the benefits and reject the liabilities when the balance has been distorted to our detriment – which clearly it is.

The writer has been in court (on numerous occasions) denying the liabilities of the legal fiction – to date 100% successfully. There have been some feisty moments - it has been an interesting journey during which compliant servants of the system have watched in bewilderment (and ignorance) as we (many friends and activists) have turned up at court and said NO—we do not accept your authority.

The shock to authority is palpable; they respond by shouting, barking orders for us to obey, they use threats, intimidation and occasionally they call their security guards and the police to try and force us into submission – all to no avail. We have stood our ground and witnessed the weakening of their resolve and have watched as they have instead slowly started to submit to our authority. In court now, we ask the questions and they do the responding. They become particularly more compliant when we remind them that the courts belong to the people—not them.

The flesh and blood man is considerably more powerful than their legal fiction controls; it is just a matter of discovering how it is that we can demonstrate our authority over them. It has been and will continue to be a bumpy ride, made smoother with the support of those who attend courts as witnesses.

The British Constitution Group is pushing the tide of tyranny back slowly but surely, we do it with the knowledge that we are right and they are wrong as evidenced by their gradual submission to our demands. But we still have a long way to go. The more of us that join the fight, the faster we will take back control. We do not need elections or referendums or any other controlled mechanism to free ourselves from corrupt government be it in the UK or in Brussels, we just need the spirit, determination and courage to stand up and say NO.

We, the British people have right to govern ourselves, we have a natural instinct to want to preserve our sovereignty and our independence... but we have been lulled into thinking that we need the permission of a powerful elite to secure it—we do not.

We have become confused about our identity and our nationhood - we no longer understand the purpose of our constitution and the rule-of-law. Some of us have been fooled into thinking of ourselves as European, a universal description with as much meaning as calling ourselves earthlings.

We are British – English, Scots, Welsh and Northern Irish. We have amongst us people from every country on earth, here to share in what is unique to these islands and the British people – a nation of tolerance, compassion, fortitude, fair play and justice. We have taken these values to the world – and it seems that the time has come to do so again.

Our future will not be determined by a political party, it will not be determined by puppets like Clegg, Cameron or Brown (remember him?)—our future will be forged by those amongst us who find the courage to stand up for our rights and declare them to the world.

The tyranny that has been built up around us will crumble when we stand up and defend ourselves. This is a game of numbers... when there are more of us than there are of them... the job will be done.

The EU and Sovereignty

Sir—A letter of mine concerning the EU

Dear Mr Howarth, Thank you for correcting me regarding my suspicion that Lord Kilmuir's letter had been removed from the House.

I read the Hansard debate which you kindly directed me to.

What I found remarkable in that debate about parliamentary sovereignty, was that although it was mentioned several times that the real sovereignty rested with the people, no one mentioned that this sovereignty was established through time and is our common law.

Giving away our sovereignty to another state is treason. It really is that simple. Endless arguments over parliamentary sovereignty just result in long debates during which much misinformation is circulated and confuses the population.

The bottom line is that all treaties with the EU are against our common law. You accept that no parliament can bind a future parliament. This is because our common law is superior to parliamentary law as was evidenced last year in the Supreme court who rejected statutory arguments because they were contrary to the superior common law.

All of the speakers in the debate should make a joint point of order to the speaker asking him to rule on the lawfulness of each EU treaty. He would be bound to agree with Lord Kilmuir's assessment. It would follow from that that parliament would have to go back to the time in 1972 when our sovereignty was first given away. Debating the issue invites others to use the Lisbon treaty to try and escape. That effectively means accepting that the Lisbon treaty is a lawful treaty. It is not. Yours truly, John Timbrell, Drybrook, Glos.

Golden Milk

Sir—, I came across this interesting recipe for a drink with many health benefits:

We will reveal the recipe of one magnificent drink that offers numerous health benefits.

It is called “Golden Milk” and should be regularly consumed in the morning. Turmeric is the main ingredient of the golden milk. The primary component of this fantastic spice, curcumin, has been found to have 150 different therapeutic properties, including anti-inflammatory, antioxidant, and anti-cancer properties.

These are some of the most important health benefits of the use of turmeric:–

Reduces Triglyceride levels regulates high blood pressure. Strengthens the immune system Helps in the case of neurological disorders Maintains cholesterol levels Stimulates digestion Regulates the metabolism and promotes weight loss. Treats various skin issues. Improves the memory and the brain function. Has anti-inflammatory, anti-oxidant, antiseptic, analgesic properties. Detoxifies the liver.

If you mix turmeric with black pepper, you will improve the bio-availability of turmeric by 1,000 times. This is a result of a substance in black pepper, called piperine, which raises the body's absorption of turmeric by 2000%!

Golden Milk- Recipe Turmeric Paste: Ingredients:

1/4 cup of turmeric powder
1/2 cup of filtered water
1/2 teaspoon of ground pepper

Method of preparation:–

Place all ingredients in a small saucepan and mix them well. Place the saucepan over medium heat and stir the mixture frequently until you obtain a paste. Leave the paste to cool and then place it in a small jar. Refrigerate.

Golden Milk: Ingredients:

1/4 teaspoon or more of turmeric paste
Honey(to taste)
1 cup of almond milk (you can also use hemp or coconut milk)
1 teaspoon coconut oil

Method of preparation:–

Add all ingredients, apart from honey, in a saucepan. Heat them over medium heat, and stir constantly. Remove it before it boils and add honey to it.

A woman from Bristol, England, had her cup of golden milk every day, and she noticed some amazing results within a month! Her chronic inflammation reduced, and she experienced an instant metabolism boost. Sources: Yours Truly, DJ, USA

Celtic Culdees

Sir___, Columbanus brought twelve Celtic Culdee Disciples to re-enforce our churches in Europe. One was Saint Gaul. We have in each place the best Celtic artwork still ongoing in Europe.

This one example of Saint Gall's Gospels in Switzerland, where the church finally rose up against Rome some centuries later when they tried to ban marriage for clergy. Zwingli and Kaiser-Schlosser, that's my mother's surname, all had risen up against these papal bastards and kicked them out of Switzerland.

In retaliation they then burned the Priest Kaiser-Schlosser at the stake, which started the real protestant wars. These wars were a continuation of the Waldensian and Culdee wars, also Zwingli etc was all before Luther.

For many centuries these were very devastating one-sided victories where simply the orthodox (culdee etc) were burned alive, and Rome declared crusades against them. These histories from the time of Columbanus till the reformation are sparsely documented, but they had their protection for centuries by Bishops of Lyon as Culdee Waldensians, who later fled to Britain and Scotland for religious freedom.

This Luther era protestant war of Zwingli achieved that they must pay reparations to the surviving orphans of Priest Kaiser-Schlosser. This became a major German family of protestant theologians, and consecrators of German Kings generations. These protestants were chosen to anoint the King for many centuries, rather than being anointed by Rome's pretender bishops.

This family which stood against Rome over many centuries, has remained victorious as can be counted throughout the centuries, although remaining in the minority. It will not be a minority for ever. Anyhow enjoy the artwork - example, left. CELTIC SWITZERLAND CULDEE ELDER WARRIORS. Yours truly, SM, The Netherlands.

Success Against The IRS

Sir-- ,This is the conclusion of my 3 year battle with HMRC regarding imposing penalties (£1475.77) on me for 2 late Self Assessment Tax Returns.

On the advice of John Timbrell I sent the CEO of HMRC the following notice by email. This is a Notice and has legal standing. The wording and use of 'i' instead of 'I' is deliberate and not a typo.

Below this notice is HMRC's reply - you will love this! Jack Having taken legal advice i hereby serve you this notice.

i tried using reasoned argument with your employees because the late entry of the Self Assessment Tax Form was beyond my control. i now take advantage of the common law which is superior to the statute law which you claim is your authority to issue penalties.

To the CEO of Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs.

Notice

i reject your request to pay a penalty because HMRC must first:-

1) demonstrate that there is a contract between the HMRC and myself the living man john lewis and not MR. JOHN LEWIS a person and corporation.

2) That the HMRC have given full disclosure as required by common law re the services being offered and these have been accepted by me for value so stated.

3) That you can demonstrate manifestation of intent by way of my signature on a contract between us.

4) that the terms and conditions of any contract are lawful under common law not according to statute law.

5) That any liability order if it is to be sought is to be against the legal fiction MR. JOHN LEWIS, a person and corporation by HMRC a corporation being of equal status as required by law and not against john of the family lewis a living man and thus of superior status to a corporation which would render the proceedings unequal in law and thus invalid.

6) That the penalty is lawful.

i am informing you that I do not give my consent to hearings being conducted in a court de facto and should you continue to pursue me i require this matter be dealt at a court de jure under common law and that judgement be made by a jury of my peers.

i require the legal team of the HMRC to be aware of the status of magistrates courts or administrative courts as being a branch of the Ministry of Justice which is a registered corporation, and as such conducts it's business under Admiralty Jurisdiction whose rulings on dry land are invalid without the consent of both parties to any hearing. i john of the family lewis will not give my consent to such proceedings under Admiralty Jurisdiction.

I write without ill will vexatiousness or frivolity.

Yours sincerely,

signed electronically as allowed under the civil procedure rules.

john of the family lewis, Residing at-

Date 11 January 2016

Dear Mr Lewis,

Thank you for your email of 3 January 2016 to our Chief Executive.

I have been asked. as Customer Service Manager for PAYE and Self Assessment, to reply to you. You are concerned because we initially refused your appeal against the penalties we charged you for the late filing of your 2011.12 and 2012 -13 tax returns, I am sorry for the worry this has caused you.

After careful consideration, I have decided to cancel all the penalties. I have updated our records to show you have nothing to pay.

You are due a tax refund totalling £5.04. including interest. from your 2009-10 and 2010-11 returns. We used this to reduce the penalties you were due to pay. However as the penalties are no longer due, I have arranged to send you a cheque for this amount. You should receive this shortly.

If you have any follow up questions arising from this response, please write to Carlyne Vosilius at: Complaints Service PAYE and Self Assessment HM Revenue and Customs BX9 1AB or telephone her on 03000 513370. Carlyne will be happy to help.

If you would like more information about our complaints procedure, please go to www.gov.uk/complain-to-hm-revenue-and-customs or phone me if you are unable to access the internet. Yours Sincerely.

Yours truly JL. UK.

The Government Just Admitted It Will Use Smart Home Devices For Spying

Sir __, Many Readers are wholly unaware that the smart devices making their home more custom and responsive are making data that can be hacked or collected.

This product image provided by Amazon shows the Amazon Echo speaker. The biggest feature in Amazon's Echo speaker is a voice-recognition system called Alexa that is designed to control Pandora, Amazon Music and Prime Music services as well as give information on news, weather and traffic. (Amazon via AP)

Amazon Echo sees when you're sleeping. It knows when you're awake.

If you want evidence that US intelligence agencies aren't using surveillance abilities because of the rising use of encryption by tech companies, look no further than the testimony on Tuesday by the director of national intelligence, James Clapper.

As the Guardian reported, Clapper made clear that the Internet of things – the many devices like thermostats, cameras and other appliances that are increasingly connected to the Internet – are providing ample opportunity for intelligence agencies to spy on targets, and possibly the masses. And it's a danger that many consumers who buy these products may be wholly unaware of.

US intelligence chief: we might use the Internet of things to spy on you "In the future, intelligence services might use the Internet of things. for identification, surveillance, monitoring, location tracking, and targeting for recruitment, or to gain access to networks or user credentials," Clapper told a Senate panel as part of his annual "assessment of threats" against the US.

Clapper is actually saying something very similar to a major study done at Harvard's Berkman Centre released last week. It concluded that the FBI's recent claim that they are "going dark" – losing the ability to spy on suspects because of encryption – is largely overblown, mainly because federal agencies have so many more avenues for spying. This echoes comments by many surveillance experts, who have made clear that, rather than "going dark", we are actually in the "golden age of surveillance".

Privacy advocates have known about the potential for government to exploit the Internet of things for years. Law enforcement agencies have taken notice too, increasingly serving court orders on companies for data they keep that citizens might not even know they are transmitting. Police have already been asking Google-owned company Dropcam for footage from cameras inside people's homes meant to keep an eye on their kids. Fitbit data has already been used in court against defendants multiple times.

But the potential for these privacy violations has only recently started reaching millions of homes: Samsung sparked controversy last year after announcing a television that would listen to everything said in the room it's in and in the fine print literally warned people not to talk about sensitive information in front of it.

While Samsung took a bunch of heat, a wide array of devices now act as all-seeing or all-listening devices, including other television models, Xbox Kinect, Amazon Echo and GM's On Star program that tracks car owners' driving patterns. Even a new Barbie has the ability to spy on you – it listens to Barbie owners to respond but also sends what it hears back to the Mothership at Mattel.

Then there are the rampant security issues with the Internet of things that allow hackers – whether they are criminal, government or something in between – to access loads of data without any court order, like the creeps who were eavesdropping on baby monitors of new parents. Just a few weeks ago, a security researcher found that Google's Nest thermostats were leaking users zipcodes over the Internet. There's even an entire search engine for the Internet of things called Shodan that allows users to easily search for unsecured webcams that are broadcasting from inside people's houses without their knowledge.

While people voluntarily use all these devices, the chances are close to zero that they fully understand that a lot of their data is being sent back to various companies to be stored on servers that can either be accessed by governments or hackers.

While Clapper's comments are generating new publicity for this privacy worry, the government has known about the potential to exploit these devices for a long time. The then CIA director David Petraeus made clear that intelligence agencies would use the Internet of things to spy on people back in 2012, saying:

Items of interest will be located, identified, monitored and remotely controlled through technologies such as radio-frequency identification, sensor networks, tiny embedded servers, and energy harvesters – all connected to the next-generation Internet using abundant, low-cost, and high-power computing.

As Wired put it, Petraeus was expressing excitement the CIA would soon be able spy on you through your dishwasher.

Author and persistent Silicon Valley critic Evgeny Morozov summed up the entire problem with the Internet of things and "smart" technology in a tweet last week:

While Internet-connected devices are not going away – it's a certainty they will only get more prevalent – it's important that companies make them as secure as the end-to-end encryption the FBI director loves to complain about, and that we press the government to enact strict new rules to prevent our privacy from being invaded thanks to the weakest link among televisions or dolls or thermostats that line billions of homes around the world. Your Truly, Trevor Timm.

POLAND – Polish Church Calls For Christianity to "Return to Jewish Roots"

Sir____, While Poland is often depicted as a most catholic country, it is also the catholic country which has been the most deeply and thoroughly subverted by the Jews, Jewish thinking, Judaic poison.

One of the greatest attack against Christianity has come from Poland: Jacob Frank. Even though the name of this crypto-Jew is not mainstream among gentile households, it should be as he is the man who struck one of the deadliest blow at Catholicism.

Redemption Thru Sin: everyone should be familiar with this Judaic concept which was first diffused into Polish Catholic Church and society before it spread all throughout the Catholic world. Not only has he made kosher everything that used to be considered sinful, he went further by destroying all moral barriers known to man, unleashing all the Judaic demons out into the Catholic world.

Back then as it is now, children became the most sought after prize and this, in my opinion, may explain how the Catholic Church became infested by (crypto-Jewish) pedophilic priests.

Edward Ćwierz, who helped found the Cenacle Church of Kielce in south central Poland in 1992. He is also a senior pastor of their sister-church, the Cenacle Tent of David in Warsaw, which organized the "March of Support for Israel" on January 10th. The march, intended to show support in the face of rising European anti-Semitism, was well-attended, with hundreds of Christians coming from all over Poland to show their support for Israel. Your's truly, R.
