Calling The True Israel Peoples

Editorial

Dear Reader,

Eurofolk Radio & The New Ensign

EURO · FOLK · RADIO

A Voice For European People Worldwide

Those involved with the New Ensign production are grateful to eurofolkradio for now making it possible for listeners and visitors to the eurofolkradio website to view and download the latest edition of the new Ensign magazine direct from this site, including past editions back to the first issue.

During the last week of February this year, a number of the New Ensign readers, who are part of a Skype chat group, were honoured to be on eurofolkradio with Andrew Carrington-Hitchcock as host. Those members taking part were all given an opportunity to say what they got out of the chat group and a little bit about themselves and their interests.

All were in agreement, that the Skype chat group was a great opportunity to speak to like-minded people, especially, as so many people in the identity movement have nobody in their locality or indeed in their family to whom they can speak about identity matters, world events from an identity perspective.

Unlike the mindless clones of other religious denominations, it is generally true to say, that while adhering to basics, those in identity all have a slightly different view from one another and accordingly makes a good basis for discussion. In contrast with those in other denominations who rarely discuss the Scriptures, for fear of stepping outside the belief restrictions placed upon them.

The only restrictions placed on the New Ensign participants is that no foul language shall be used or the name of Yahweh denigrated. There have been a few participants in the past who have endeavoured to restrict the group from discussing certain subjects, but were not successful and they left the group of their own accord.

Andrew Carrington-Hitchcock, the host on eurofolkradio, is hoping to have the new Ensign chat group interview again in the not too distant future, with a view to giving other members who were not able to take part last time an opportunity to participate. It is difficult to get everybody together all at once because participants are in many time zones, in different parts of the world from Australia, Russia, South Africa, Germany, the USA and Canada.

We praise Yahweh, for the widening opportunities for spreading the Message of his Kingdom! Praise Yahweh.

What Is Salvation? (Part 2)

By Pastor Eli James

Salvation In The New Testament

CONTRARY TO prevailing notions that all races can be “saved,” the New Testament uses this word only with reference to Israel. Other peoples and races get blessed or cursed, according to Gen. 12:1-3. But the word, salvation, is never applied to any other species. Of course, it must be understood that the word ‘Gentile’ has been falsely translated to mean “non-Jew,” thus creating a false dichotomy between Israelites and non-Israelites. This false definition has fooled all Judeo-Christians into believing that Paul was the “apostle to the non-Israelites.” The Latin word ‘gentilis’ is the source word for “Gentile.” Gentilis means “of the same tribe, race or nation.” If that is the case, how did this word come to have the EXACT OPPOSITE connotation? Simple: that’s how the Jews choose to define it. Why do we accept Jewish definitions of Latin words? Because we’re gullible, that’s why! Also, Judeo-Christian theologians would lose their jobs and status if they didn’t kowtow to the rabbis. They’d get thrown out of the Divinity schools, too!

The fact is that all of the New Testament is addressed exclusively to the only two groups of Israelites then in existence: The Judahites and Benjamites of Judea (House of Judah, the “circumcision”) and the tribes of the Dispersion (House of Israel, the “uncircumcision”). The Epistle of James is addressed to the Twelve Tribes of the Dispersion at James 1:1. Open your Bible and read it for yourself.

Now you understand the True Dichotomy of peoples in the New Testament: The House of Judah in Judea versus the House of Israel in the Dispersion. Since no other group had any expectation of a Messiah, only Israel is being addressed in any of the Gospels. In fact Yahshua goes out of his way to stress that there are those to whom the “good news” is NOT to be preached!!! (Matt. 13:34-43.) The Bible keeps excluding people from the Covenants, yet the churches keep trying to give our inheritance away by bringing strangers in!

The Great Commission states: But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. – Matt. 10:6. He does not instruct the Apostles to go to all nations. Rather, He instructs the Apostles to go into all nations to seek out the Lost Sheep.

Speaking to the Canaanite woman, who asked for her daughter to be healed, *But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel. – Matt. 15:24. He gave her crumbs, but not the inheritance!!!

Furthermore, He tells us, *For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost. – Matt. 18:11.

The word lost in all three cases comes from the Greek word appolumi, which means “put away in punishment.” The best one word translation of appolumi into English is “exiled.” No other group of people on the planet had been put away in punishment (for refusing to obey Yahweh’s laws). Only the Two Houses of Isaac fit this description. Therefore, these verses apply only to the Twelve Tribes, most of whom were in the exile of the Dispersion at this time.

The Greek word for “salvation” is soteria, meaning, “safety, soundness.” Again, there is little spiritual significance to this word. Any spiritual connotation must be derived from the context, and there are very few such verses. If anything, the spiritual preservation of Israel cannot be divorced from the physical preservation of Israel, as I will show later.

The following verses prove that the Israelites of Yahshua’s time understood that He was coming for them and to no other people.

Luke 1:69-77: *And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David [this is Israel exclusively!]; *As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets [Israelites and Adamites, exclusively], which have been since the world began: That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us [We Israelites are to be saved from OUR enemies!!!! Those that hate us get destroyed, not saved!]; To perform the mercy promised to our fathers [Abraham, Isaac and Jacob!!!], and to remember his holy covenant [to WHOM were the Covenants made?]; The oath which he sware to our father Abraham [Since both Ishmael and Esau were cast out of the Covenant, so that only Isaac's descendant could inherit the promises, who else could possibly be included?], That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, In holiness and righteousness before him [not in "grace" and false beliefs!!!], all the days of our life. [Here, Zacharias is speaking for himself, as long as he lives, and for Israel, as long as we exist as a people... which is forever, by the way.] And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways; To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins."

Now, again, Class, WHO ARE HIS PEOPLE?

Luke 2:30 - And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him. And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ. And he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law, Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said, Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word: For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people; A light to lighten the Gentiles [people of the same race, tribe or nation], and the glory of thy people Israel. And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him. And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against;

Luke 19:9 - And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forso much as he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost. And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

Edom

John 4:22 - Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews. [I threw this one in as a trick question. Ioudaios = a citizen or resident of Judea. Judea had two distinct ethnic groups living within its boundaries: Judahites and Edomites. Class quiz: Are we talking about the House of Judah, or are we talking about the Edomites of Judea, who call themselves "Jews" today? Is salvation of Judah or of Edom? If you get this one wrong, you fail. See also Rev. 2:9, 3:9 and 12:9.]

Acts 13:26 - Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent;

Rom. 11:11 - I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles [Dispersion], for to provoke them to jealousy. OK, Class. Do you remember who the "Gentiles" really are?

It is evident, even from the New Testament, that the physical preservation of True Israel is an integral part of the meaning of the word, salvation.

Salvation Is Conditional

Again, contrary to prevailing notions of the meaning of salvation, the New Testament stresses the fact that PERSONAL salvation is something that is a work in progress.

First of all, we must not confuse the concepts of Redemption and Salvation. Redemption is redeeming that which was lost, stolen or sold. Salvation concerns the preservation of that which was redeemed. We were redeemed at the Cross. Yahshua redeemed us with the price of His Blood, thus wiping out our past sin debt. (Romans 3:25; 2 Peter 1:9. The antinomians never quote these two passages!)

Now, as Paul clearly explains, since we no longer have the sacrifices to atone for our sins, we will be held accountable at the Judgment Day!!!! (Hebrews 10:26-29.)

2 Cor 1:5-10 - For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ. And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. And our hope of you is steadfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation. For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life: But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead: Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

The universalists preach that we're on Easy Street, having been "saved at the Cross." There is not one passage of Scripture that states that our "salvation" was "guaranteed at the Cross." This is all mythological interpretation! On the contrary, we must EARN our reward by obeying Yahweh's Commandments.

2 Cor.7:10. For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. So, godly sorrow produces REPENTANCE, which, in turn, works our salvation!!!

Repentance is present tense, meaning we must still repent of our sins. Is there salvation without repentance? I don't think so!

Phil. 2:12; Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

If we were "saved at the cross," what is there to work out? Is there more to salvation than the Apostate Churches teach? "Believing in Jesus" is a meaningless, trivial expression. It amazes me that anyone can argue that all you have to do is "believe in Jesus and you'll be saved." There's much more to it than that. Jesus says, "If you love Me, keep my commandments." Those who "believe in Him" but don't keep His commandments obviously don't love Him!!!

I Th. 5:8-9. But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation. [Hope is not a guarantee!] For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord

If you think you obtained it 2,000 years ago at the Cross, you are sadly mistaken!!

2 Ti. 3:15. *And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. You have to know the Holy Scriptures, don't you? Did not Daniel say that "only the wise shall understand"? The silly, deceived and presumptuous will have a great deal of difficulty with these simple truths!!!

Because modern Christians have allowed the false priests of Judeo-Christianity to preach subtle, bizarre and outlandish doctrines in the name of Christ, the air is thick with APOSTASY; and these priests of Baal will never get you out of trouble. If you keep following them, you will fall right into the ditch, along with them. With their illogical, nonsensical doctrines, they have erased both common sense and moral sense from otherwise intelligent Christians.

A Time for Salvation

1 Peter 1:5-10; Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you."

When does salvation come? 2,000 years ago, or at the Second Coming? Furthermore, THERE IS NO EASY WAY. We must be tried by fire, Children. Don't walk away from your moral responsibilities, as the antinomians do!

2 Peter 3:8-18. Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous: Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing. [Only Israel was promised an INHERITANCE] For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile: Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it. For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil...For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing. For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit.

Did you catch that word, "might." There are no guarantees, Children. We must pursue righteousness in order to demonstrate to Yahshua that we are His. Otherwise, the door to the Wedding Feast will be slammed in our faces!!!!

Put on your White Robes, Israel. The Judgment draweth nigh! True salvation, the kind that you have to work at, is yours if you will but repent and be converted back to righteousness. Don't confuse redemption with salvation, as so many of the Judeo-denominations have done!

Salvation Unto Restoration

A good example of the defectiveness of modern church doctrine is the fact that there is never any discussion of the RESTORATION of Israel. There are two reasons for this: 1.) The word applies exclusively to Israelites; and 2.) It implies a PHYSICAL restoration of Israel in the flesh. Too exclusive! Too many conditions! The churches have been teaching the broad path to "salvation," which actually leads to destruction, for so long that they have become totally APOSTATE!

Psalm 23 - The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

To what will we be restored?

And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought. – Mark 9:12.

John 3. Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

2 Peter 3:10-13. But the Day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night...Nevertheless, we, according to the promise, look for a NEW HEAVENS AND A NEW EARTH.

Rom. 8:14-19. *For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption [huiiothesia = placement as sons, having been redeemed back into the estate of sons and daughters, i.e., heirs], whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we [Israelites] are the children of God: And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. [Do you see the CONDITION: IF we suffer with Him, THEN we “may” be glorified together. Are the Judeos suffering with Him, or are they arrogant, presuming that they’re already “saved”?] For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. [AMEN.] For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

WOW! An entirely new creature are we: GLORIFIED!

1 Cor. 15:50-54. But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come? Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die: And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain: But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body. All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory. So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power: It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual. The first man is of the earth, earthy; the second man is the Lord from heaven. As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. [Get it?]

We will be BOTH earthy and heavenly at the same time, just as Adam and Eve were before they fell, when they had possessed Yahweh’s Holy Spirit within their flesh bodies, which were potentially immortal, as long as they remained sinless! Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood [as we know it] cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. Lord have mercy!!

The dead shall be raised but we will be transformed in place! We (bodies and spirits together, not separated from our bodies), who have fully repented of our sins, will be CHANGED, so that our bodies will no longer be made of corruptible flesh! Corruption will take on incorruption! WOW! What an experience that will be! For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

Do you understand yet? Our bodies will become just like Christ’s glorified body! This is NOT JUST SPIRITUAL!! This is a NEW CREATION: a combination of Spirit and transformed Flesh, which will rule with Yahshua forever and ever!!

So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

GLORY, HALLELUYAH!!!

Our labour is not in vain if we are working for the Kingdom in righteousness. When Jesus returns with His Saints, He will return just as He left: in His glorified body. And the Saints, who have lived and died before us, will also return in their glorified bodies. Now, THAT'S SALVATION.

But there's a special treat for those of us who are alive now: Just as Enoch and Elijah did not taste of death, SOME OF US will be privileged to experience the RESTORATION without having to die. Now, that's unbelievable! True Israel is destined to inhabit that plane between Spirit and Matter, inhabiting both worlds at the same time, having immortal life. It's not just a spiritual "salvation," in "heaven," after death. Rather, Spirit and Matter will be unified in us, so that we will have immortal life in both worlds, as Adam and Eve were intended to be! Now, THAT'S RESTORATION!

The End OS20460

In The Name of Yahweh By Andrew Carrington-Hitchcock Part 5

Genesis 49:27 – Benjamin shall raven [as] a wolf: in the morning he shall devour the prey, and at night he shall divide the spoil.

Benjamin is clearly depicted as a wolf.

As Benjamin placed themselves under the authority of the tribe of Judah, we rarely see any heraldry specific to them.

Genesis 49:28 – All these [are] the twelve tribes of Israel: and this [is it] that their father spake unto them, and blessed them; every one according to his blessing he blessed them.

Comparing Israel's statements in Genesis 49 to present day has found the Israel imagery he described in: England; Scotland; Wales; Northern Ireland; Ireland; Belgium; Canada; Denmark; Finland; Germany; Holland; Iceland; Lithuania; Luxembourg; Norway; Sweden; and the United States.

Notice the imagery is not found in Southern European states such as France, Italy or Spain.

The French Revolution's message of egalitarianism was a codeword for race-mixing and Italy had been a mongrelised nation going back to the world domination of Rome when there were Africans in the Roman army.

Indeed the word catholic (from its Greek roots) means universal, and is therefore a church designed for all races. This would explain the high esteem it's held in amongst the mongrelised blood of Southern Europe.

In other words there is very little of Israel to be found in Southern Europe today.

Interestingly the United Kingdom contains most of the Israel heraldry, and its current queen, Queen Elizabeth II is directly descended from King David.

Unfortunately the queen cannot be classed as of Israel because she is racially impure, having African blood through her ancestor Queen Charlotte.

This mongrelised line has been in existence for quite a while as Queen Charlotte was married to King George III (one of the few kings the royal family have admitted was mad) and was the grandmother of Queen Victoria, which indeed sheds some light on her simian features.

The current queen, Queen Charlotte's great-great-great-granddaughter has carried on this recent tradition of magnetisation in her marriage to Prince Philip, who is widely believed to be Jewish through his great-grandmother Julia Hauke. This could mean the next monarch of the United Kingdom will be both Jewish and Black.

The British Royal Coat of Arms are supported by the lion of Judah and the unicorn of Ephraim, which is representative of the remaining tribes of Israel.

Furthermore The Royal Standard also contains the harp of David referred to when David would play it to King Saul to relax him when he was distressed. See:

1 Samuel 16:23 – And it came to pass, when the [evil] spirit from Yahweh (God) was upon Saul, that David took an harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

I find it difficult to accept this translation of 1 Samuel 16:23 as it insinuates that Yahweh could generate evil spirits. He could certainly punish disobedience, but I dispute that evil would come from Yahweh.

For me it appears that Saul suffered from headaches, and when he was suffering from these, David would ease his suffering by playing music from his harp. The idea that musicians of today could ease the pain of headaches is very difficult to believe. After all, the last thing you'd want when you're laid up in bed with a migraine is Led Zeppelin turning up.

Going back to the Israel imagery, I believe this provides overwhelming evidence that the crown of Israel sits in the United Kingdom today albeit under the auspices of a disobedient, unworthy, and bastardised so-called royal family.

The New Order By The Rev. Dr. Oren Fenton Potito

TODAY we can see evidences on every hand that out of the fog of world confusion and strife there is emerging a new world order, which shall be run by man under the rulership of God, and of its dominion there shall be no end. Today we are living in the most momentous hour of all ages, for before our very eyes God is laying the groundwork for the coming Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Yet it is a shame that the religious world in this, the 20th Century, is making the same mistake our forefathers made over 1900 years ago. When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea, the religious world of that day was looking for a King, one who would rescue them from the yoke of the Roman Government and could establish again in Palestine the Throne of David. When a Saviour came instead, they let the Jews crucify Him.

Today the religious world is looking for the coming of a Saviour, and they would attempt to crucify those who are doing God's work by exposing the Jews and waiting and watching for the coming of the King. They attempt to spiritualise the Word of God so as to make His Kingdom already in existence in the form of the Church, and that Christ is already King reigning in their hearts. They rule out the definite statements by Jesus and His apostles and the prophets of God concerning a literal Throne and Kingdom. One fogbound judaized preacher went so far as to say that the Throne of David was the Cross of Calvary, and that Jesus was the first King to stagger to His Throne.

They take for their argument that the Kingdom already exists within us. They use the portion of scripture found in the 17th chapter of Luke, verses 20 and 21. Now anyone taking the time to analyse this portion of scripture would definitely know that the Kingdom of God, which was one of purity, could not be dwelling within a bunch of Jewish Scribes and Pharisees, for He said on other occasions to them, such as in John 10: 26 ... ye are not of my sheep ... and then in John 8: 44 ... Ye are of your father the devil.... He told this same pack of Jews that they were "whited tombs filled with dead men's bones." He had called them a "generation of vipers," and had said that all the blood of righteous men was upon their heads.

How then on another occasion would He state that the Kingdom of God, which was one of purity was now within them? If one would take the time to look to the original translation, and even in the marginal references, they would note that what Jesus said was, "The Kingdom of God is among you," and truly it was, for the coming King was there ... the Lord Jesus Christ. Not only was the King there, but other Kingdom leaders as well. The twelve apostles of the Lamb of whom He said would sit upon the twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel (Luke 22:29-30). If the Kingdom was already in them, then it would not have been necessary for Jesus to teach the disciples to pray: "Thy Kingdom come, Thy Will be done on earth as it is in Heaven." Now read Matt. 26:29 and Luke 22:16-18. If the Kingdom were already here, Jesus would never had said that! Note very specifically that He uses the words "Shall come." He spake in a future tense.

Jesus then was only laying the groundwork for the Kingdom, which according to the destiny of God, should come at a later date. He had not finished His first task—the one of redeeming Israel, and bringing salvation to mankind by the shedding of His blood on Calvary's Cross. This task was yet to be accomplished. The Kingdom could not reign in the hearts of evil men, and therefore, the Kingdom of God could not have been in the hearts of these Jews.

All things must come in their own due time according to the plan and destiny of God, and the Israelites of Christ's day attempted to run ahead of God's plan and wanted the Kingdom then and there, and when Jesus failed to fulfil their wishes and establish Himself on a literal Throne, they allowed the Jews to crucify Him. The spiritualizers of our day do not look for a literal Kingdom which is to be ruled over by the Lord Jesus Christ, and the body of His saints. They tell us that He will come visibly, and at the same time they tell us He is here in our hearts. How they can reconcile themselves to this contradiction is more than I can understand, for when Christ went away He left the Holy Spirit as His representative, and today the Holy Spirit reigns in the hearts of the born again believer. But Christ told us specifically when He went away that He would come again in like manner and that when He comes, every eye shall behold Him.

The spiritualizers leave the impression that He is going to sneak in, take the dead and those who are alive and saved off to some heavenly abode, there to remain forever, floating on a cloud, spearing honey combs out of the milk filled River Jordan. Then they hold that the whole Jewish nation will be saved in one day and will rule and reign with Christ for 1000 years. In the first place, they cannot prove that the Jewish nation constitutes the whole of Israel, or even a part. They have no historical proof to show the ten tribes were Yids. If the House of Israel was all in Palestine, the apostles would not have spoken of the ten tribes scattered abroad, nor of the dispersion. Jesus would never have said: "Other sheep have I which are not of this fold. Them must I visit also."

There have been many books written by noted men of God and students of world history concerning the Jews that have proven beyond a shadow of a doubt that they do not constitute the House of Israel. Many of the Jews themselves, writing on this subject, such as Alfred Lilienthal, state that the Jews being the House of Israel is a racial myth without facts to substantiate it, and there is no such thing as a Jewish race but that it is a philosophy and religion. Lilienthal states further in his book, "What Price Israel?" on page 223: "Here is a paradox, a paradox, a most ingenious paradox; an anthropological fact, many Christians may have much more Hebrew blood in their veins than most of their Jewish neighbours”

We have traced the ancestry of the modern Jew back to the days of the Khazar Kingdom and proved that they have no racial connection whatsoever with the seed of Abraham spoken of in the Old Testament. Dr. Theodore H. Gaster told the annual conference of the American Council for Judaism that Jews are a religious rather than a racial or ethnic group. He also stated that there has NEVER BEEN A JEWISH RACE!

It is more logical and in accordance with the whole canons of scripture that those who will rule and reign with Christ during the 1000 years would be the believing offspring of Almighty God. If we are to ever be with the Lord then why should we be separated from Him for 1000 years while He reigns here on earth and we are in some far-off heaven? God definitely states in His Holy Word that we will rule in the Kingdom, that true Israel is a Holy Nation, a nation of priests and kings. (Dan. 7:19). This proves that the Kingdom which is to be taken is here upon earth, and that we should rule and reign with Him in this literal Kingdom. Now read Dan. 7:22. Here again we have the saints ruling the Kingdom and NOT THE JEWS! Again Daniel states emphatically that this literal Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour here upon earth shall be our possession and our dominion. (Dan. 7:27). We note specifically in the writings of Ezekiel that when, the day comes that the graves shall be opened, the believing offspring shall not be taken to some far-off heaven but shall repossess the land of Israel. (Ez. 37:12-13). Now read what Jesus Himself said in Matt. 8:11. This Kingdom which the saints shall possess is one that shall be here upon earth for 1000 years. Those who attempt to spiritualise the word of God concerning the Kingdom also attempt to leave the impression that there is no such thing as a literal 1000 year reign of the Lord Jesus Christ here upon earth. Yet in the book of Revelation, which is an open letter from our Lord to John on the Isle of Patmos, we find the following Read Rev. 20:7-9.

The millennium, which is the Kingdom age, is about to burst upon us, and whether the ecclesiastical leaders wish to accept it or not, His coming Kingdom is sure. The planet upon which we live has for almost 6000 years groaned beneath the burden of sorrow and sin. For almost 60 centuries, Satan's children, now known as jews, have made it but a giant graveyard. They have filled man with lust, hatred and murder. All this came about through the fall in the Garden of Eden.

Today we stand on the threshold of the rejuvenating of the earth as spring brings new life after the winter storm. The day is fast approaching when that dayspring from on high will come again which Zacharias, father of John the Baptist, prophesied about. Read Luke 1:78. What we are witnessing at the present time in the shaking of the nations and the trouble and perplexities which are coming upon the earth is the birth pang of the coming of the Sabbath of our Lord. As every birth is proceeded by travail, so will it be with the ushering in of the coming age. Christ definitely spoke of this when He was discussing with His disciples the end of the age and He said: "All these are the beginning of sorrows." (Matt. 24:8). In the literal Greek translation, the word "sorrow" reads "birth-pangs." Almost six thousand years have passed since the first Adam, and now we come to the 7000, which is more a type of the Sabbath of the Lord. He speaks of it, and so do His prophets and disciples as the "earth's last day" (end of this system). This shall be a time of refreshing, as was spoken of by Peter (Acts. 3:19). He makes it more clear that this refreshing will come at the end of the age. (Acts 3:21).

When Jesus shall come in spirit and power we know that the earth shall be refreshed by His presence as the earth is refreshed by the rain, following the troubles and trials and the coldness of the winter. When He comes He shall put the Jew and all enemies under His feet; then shall His glory be displayed and His authority be universal and His enemies be made His footstool. Then He shall reign as King of Kings and Lord of Lords. This title has reference to the personal dominion and majesty of our great Saviour Jesus Christ. Long before Christ came to earth, God made known through His prophets that His Son should be the head of the Kingdom—not a spiritual nor heavenly Kingdom, but a literal and earthly one. Read Zech. 14:9, Rev. 11:15 and Jer. 23:5-6. We know that this prophecy was not fulfilled in His first coming. Now read Dan. 7:14. In that day, praise God, Israel ... America and its companion nations, Judah ... Germany and its companion nations will be united together under one King; Jesus Christ. Read Ezek. 37:16-17 and Ezek. 37:22. The old Testament prophets give us a clear picture of this 1000 year reign of the Kingdom of our God. It will be a reign of peace. Turn to Isaiah 2:4. Not only will it be an hour when we will have universal peace, but it will be a time when the curse of hatred shall be taken out of the hearts of not only men but of wild beasts. Isaiah 65:25 and 11:6-9. Now, no one in his right mind believes that Lions, Wolves and other animals are going to be taken to heaven, but the Bible does say that they will be in the Kingdom, AND THEY WILL BE, for the Kingdom will be HERE ON EARTH!

The attempt of the Jewish created United Nations to bring peace to the earth at the present time we know is mere folly, for they cannot remove from the hearts of men greed and lust which Satan and his agents put there. Only when the spirit of Christ moves in when He comes to reign will perfect peace come to mankind. Another blessing which we shall enjoy in the Kingdom is the fact that the power of the sun shall be restored, and the earth shall be bountiful in its produce. A man will not have to have a large acreage in that day when every man shall sit under his own fig tree and have his own vineyard, for with the return of the sun to its natural power, there shall be a rejuvenating of the earth that it might bring forth abundance. Isaiah 30:26 and Psalms 67:5-6. Now read what Isaiah, the prophet, speaking of this bounty of God during the reign of Christ says in Isaiah 35:1 and 37:7-10. Ezekiel also prophesied concerning the fruitfulness of the earth in that day. See Ezek. 34:27-29, 36:30 and 49:9-12.

We also find in the prophesy of Amos a description of the fruitfulness of the earth in the day of our Lord. Read Amos 9:13. When the Kingdom of our Lord shall come, not only will the earth spring into new life, but we know also that human life shall be everlasting. Satan will be bound and the regenerated offspring of God enthroned in power. There will be no excuse for sin. There will be several types of people on the earth—those who are saints of God who have been changed in a twinkling of an eye, and who shall have bodies like unto His. They will be a celestial people—not earthbound, and will be able to move in the heavenlies if they so desire. These are the spiritual class or 144,000 made up of 12,000 from each of the twelve tribes of Israel. They will be those who shall rule and reign with Him for 1000 years. The others present shall be those raised from the dead, the great multitude with earthly bodies that shall live forever in the Kingdom HERE ON EARTH.

Time and space does not permit me to go into detail concerning these groups of people, because it is a sermon within itself, but what I have established is the fact that there shall be a literal Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour upon the earth. That we shall rule and reign with Him here, and not be floating around on some far off cloud, playing on a golden harp. It is a joyful thing for us to know that we NEED NOT be taken in a so called "RAPTURE" to a mystical beautiful isle of somewhere, but that we shall LIVE AGAIN with our FAMILIES and FRIENDS on a renovated earth which shall be like the garden of Eden. For in this last day, the Lord tells us that the earth shall again be like the garden of Eden, and God will dwell amongst men. I know personally I would prefer to be here WITH CHRIST and the Chosen of Israel, and to enjoy the marvellous presence of the over-comers, for nothing in that hour shall offend and all things shall be beautiful. The tares (Jews and their fellow travellers) will be gathered out and burned, and the good seeds, which are the children of the Kingdom shall dwell with Him. Jesus said: "The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his Kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; And shall cast them into a FURNACE of FIRE: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the Kingdom of their Father." (Matt. 13:41-43). We know that the promise is sure that we shall be with Him. Read the following verses: 2 Tim. 2:12; Heb. 2:5-8; Col. 3:4; Rev. 5:9-10 and 1 Cor. 6:2-3. Note in the tenth verse of Rev. 5, it says: "we shall reign on the EARTH."

It makes one's heart thrill with joy when we realize that the coming of our Lord is at hand, and that His perfect Kingdom is about to be set up on the earth. The death struggle that is taking place among the nations at this time is only as I said before, the birth pangs of the emerging civilization of God. All the Jewish controlled governments of men have failed. They have tried every type of government in the book, and none has brought peace and permanent prosperity. Now there is left only one more government, and that is the jewless Government of Jesus Christ. We are living in God's momentous day when He has been gathering out from every kindred, tongue and people, multitudes which He is bringing into the land of America, and here He is setting up His ensign, and from here He is sending forth the gospel of the Kingdom and the identity of the true Israelites throughout the earth!!!

(Editors Note:) It is absolutely essential to obtain full understanding of this article to open your Bible and look up each verse listed. THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT!!

If My People : Part 2 2 Chronicles 7:14 John Trotter - Winmalee, Australia

IF ISRAEL would carry out the actions as spelt out in Part 1, then God will fulfil His promises: 1. He will hear from heaven, 2. Forgive Israel's sins, and 3, finally heal their land. These 3 promises are to be fulfilled on earth, not in heaven. See also 2 Chronicles 6: 27, 30, 39.

There has always been offered up to God sincere and righteous prayers. With the condition of the world worsening it is natural to ask, "Has God heard our prayers?". As a nation, Israel in the Old Testament had descended to such evil that God was unable to fulfil the prayers that were offered up, even by the separated remnant. I am sure that as the nation of Israel was taken into captivity, many righteous people believed that God had turned His face from them. I am reminded of Proverbs 28:9, "He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination". Like today the people of Israel had forgotten the Ten Commandments and the Statutes.

Isaiah 59: 1,2 explains why God did not hear : " Behold, the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither His ear heavy, that it cannot hear. But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid His face from you, that He will not hear". As you read further on, it becomes obvious that the Western Nations are very comparable to the conditions of Israel in the Old Testament period. Read chapter 65.

History will soon reveal that it will be the Un-conditional Covenants and the chosen remnant that will turn the day from misfortune to Divine Prosperity. God is going to bring about events that will cause Him to intervene. In the final points of both the above chapters there is mentioned a remnant who turns from transgression and the Redeemer goes down to Zion (Isaiah 59: 20). In Isaiah 65:17 there is mention of a new heaven and new earth (Revelation 21: 1). In Psalm 34:15 we read, "The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and His ears are open unto their cry".

Just as the white ant eats the timber from within, so the Western Nations have been white anted. From the outside there appears to be no real reason for concern, even though a few see evidence of structural weakness. We, as a nation, have not yet arrived at the same position that David found himself as expressed in 2 Samuel 22. The following verses of this chapter tell of a powerful deliverance that is to be reflected in the Nations of the West. It will be then that God will hear from heaven.

A most overwhelming aspect of God's love for His people Israel is that their sins will be forgiven. Events that are yet to occur are going to bring about this outcome. Hebrews 10:17 says, "And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more" (See Jeremiah 31 :34). It is true that many in Israel will be cast into outer darkness (Matthew 8: 12) but for those who God chooses from within Israel, for the High Calling, will be made ready for the task ahead. Even though this is an Israel issue, this does not mean that individuals of other races do not play a role in Christ's earthly Kingdom.

Hebrews 8: 12 is fulfilled in 2 Chronicles 7: 14. Hebrews 8: 12 says: "For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more ". It is essential to remember that the book of Hebrews is written to the Hebrew people, just like that of James, "to the 12 tribes who are scattered abroad". The New Covenant is only made with the 2 Houses of Israel as spelt out in Hebrews 8: 8.

Hebrews 10: 16 adds to the greater meaning of 2 Chronicles 7: 14 when it says: "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them ". (Jeremiah 31:33). The placing of the Law into the hearts and minds of those who God chooses within Israel is of God's making. He is the potter and we are the clay (Isaiah 64:8). God can do what He likes. We have no part in the decision making when it comes to His plan and purpose. No man cometh unto Christ except the Father draw him (John 6:44). Titus 2: 14 adds to the redemption theme for Israel and the purifying unto Himself a peculiar or special people.

The words of Deuteronomy 7: 6 and 26: 19 have been forgotten. God does have a special people unto Himself. This people is above all people that are upon the face of the earth. Due to the teachings of universalism, the view that we choose God and the acceptance of political correctness inferring a level playing field, the above verses have been discarded. In Revelation 22: 18, 19 we are given a warning to those who add or take away from the words of the Book. Whilst it is another subject, the Western Nations have become the tail and not the head (Deuteronomy 28:44) This is because we have disobeyed the Laws and allowed the stranger (alien or foreigner) with another faith to arise above us. Deuteronomy 28: 12, 13 shows the connection with money. Matthew 5: 19 shows why it is imperative that we must return to the Commandments and Statutes.

We finally read that God will heal the land or earth. To be more specific I believe it refers to the soil from which everything that man makes comes from. Also if the soil is not healthy then diseases can arise. Obedience to God's commandments and disease are both mentioned together in the verse Exodus 15: 26. It is no wonder that in Psalm 24: 1 we read: "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof", that is everything belongs to the Lord.

The Bible provides many Laws that pertain to improving the earth or soil. Such laws are rotation of crops, leaving the soil fallow and not picking the first years fruit and letting it fall to the ground. Maybe during the millennium there will be made available smaller properties for production. Large farms and corporations will be a thing of the past. God has promised that if we obey the Laws then He will provide rain at the right time (Ezekiel 34:26). All the people will be fed with healthy produce.

By placing the Laws into our hearts and minds there will occur the healing of our backsliding or apostasy (Jeremiah 3: 22). The cry goes out today again as stated in Jeremiah 3: 14, 15 : "Turn O backsliding children, saith the Lord, for I am married unto you ; and I will take you one of a city and two of a family and I will bring you to Zion: And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding".

The Western world has to a great extent abandoned its Bible based teachings and as a result we have lost the will to live as stated by Alexander Solzhenitsyn. We are seen as a weak target and therefore been brought low (Deuteronomy 28: 43, 44). This has largely come about due to our disobedience of God's monetary laws. We have forgotten the association between the "love of money and the root of all evil "(1 Timothy 6:10). The question in Luke 18: 8 has to be asked: "...when the Son of Man cometh, shall He find (the) faith or belief on the earth?". This faith or belief was once delivered unto the Saints (Jude 1: 3) during Old Testament times. This message has been mostly lost because much of Scripture that should have a literal meaning has been spiritualised. In Jeremiah 23: 4 we have a wonderful promise: "And I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the Lord". One Shepherd shall rule over all Israel and He will feed His people (Ezekiel 34 :23). Then the healing process will be complete. May that day come quickly?

Ben Zygier-The Man With No Name T. Stokes (London)

Ben Zygier also had info on Benjamin Netanyahu who is believed to have overseen several murders of foreign nationals in their own countries, and from other dissidents who now live in fear of similar reprisals, Moshe Solomons on his radio show recently covered this and its links to the Spy in a suitcase, Dr David Kelly and Princess Diana who was determined to visit Palestine, but most important were implied threats against Iceland.

THIS WEEK'S GOSSIP in intelligence circles is centred mainly on the Killing of Ben Zygier, the man imprisoned in Israel as "prisoner X" the Israeli authorities slipped up badly here because he left word that should he "commit suicide " certain documents and letters would be released, first news of this was from blogger and former insider Colin McCaffrey who put out info on the Jewish active measures against Australia and the USA, the false passports and stolen passports and ID for Israelis to commit crimes against Australia and the USA, also included are Nationals who assisted them, secret Jews who live under false Christian names.

The Devil looks after his own, was an intel code phrase in the 70's, but it appears in this case the devil did not.

In 2009 Icelanders who pelted parliament with rocks demanding their leaders and bankers answer for the country's economic and financial collapse are reaping the benefits of their anger. Since the end of 2008, the island's banks have forgiven loans equivalent to 13 percent of gross domestic product, easing the debt burdens of more than a quarter of the population.

The island's steps to resurrect itself since 2008, when its banks defaulted on $85 billion, are proving effective. Iceland's economy will this year outgrow the euro area and the developed world on average, the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development estimates.

Iceland's approach to dealing with the meltdown has put the needs of its population ahead of the markets at every turn. Once it became clear back in October 2008 that the island's banks were beyond saving, the government stepped in, ring-fenced the domestic accounts, and left international creditors in the lurch. The central bank imposed capital controls to halt the ensuing sell-off of the krona and new state-controlled banks were created from the remnants of the lenders that failed.

Iceland's special prosecutor has said it may indict as many as 90 people, while more than 200, including the former chief executives at the three biggest banks, face criminal charges. That compares with the U.S., where no top bank executives have faced criminal prosecution for their roles in the sub-prime mortgage meltdown. The Securities and Exchange Commission said last year it had sanctioned 39 senior officers for conduct related to the housing market meltdown.

Accusations that Iceland is "Anti-Semitic" for its charges against the banks have been laughed at, but according to new sources whistle-blowing within the Mossad sector of the show biz and newspaper industry, Iceland will soon become the target for an Anders Breivik type attack in revenge, similar in fact to the Norway attacks in 1911 in punishment for siding with Palestinians. Truth radio asked the question, what did this man know? and said thanks to whistle-blowers we know Ben Zygier was going to be the first of several defectors with information devastating to the security of the USA.

Ben Zygier may have been silenced, but his documentation is doing the rounds and this will do Israel no good at all.

Attack On The Fens From Our Lowestoft Correspondent

Sippenhaft Or The Collective Punishment On The Fen Peoples

LOCAL PEOPLE FROM THE FEN AREA OF BRITAIN which encompasses parts of beautiful Cambridgeshire, Lincolnshire and Norfolk have been racially cleansed from the area, by floods of newcomers. Jobs and homes priority goes to foreign nationals and Fenlanders are stigmatised – but how did this come about and for how long was it planned?

Before WWII when Britain and Germany shared intelligence about Soviet expansion intentions, Hitler was seen as a real good guy.

Hitler raised the living wages of all his people but especially those on the bottom of the pay scale, for the land workers farmhands and agricultural labourers, he instigated a super free holiday on the coast for all workers, he asked for the building of a cheap but reliable peoples car or 'folkswagen' and he gave them all free health care with real care not the allopathic stuff we get, and he put the unemployed to work on building proper motorways for the people to travel.

This was the first time the world had ever seen full employment and Germany prospered, but UK land workers were envious of the German pay scales, and in the Fens the English agricultural area there was much envy and when Hitler threw out the bankers and the bankers brought Churchill to power to call a war on Germany, many British farm workers still supported Hitler.

Winston Churchill got wind of this, and the fact that the Queens estate at Sandringham Norfolk in particular had a lot of German supporters, there was gossip that the farm workers were signalling with night time bonfires torches and tractor tyre marks in the earth to German planes and Churchill even planned to bomb his own British farmworkers.

When Harold Wilson was labour Prime minister a plan was implemented which meant the ancient town of Kings Lynn would be redeveloped, this was carried out also during the Conservative government, this saw huge amounts of this ancient town destroyed and sub-standard 60s developments built instead, much of this was achieved by the funny handshake crowd.

This meant that tourists would come by train to Cambridge the next stop Ely, but not the next one which was Kings Lynn because there was almost nothing left to see, the modernisers had ruined the town, Britain's top architect Alec Clifton Taylor refused to visit Kings Lynn and described the town as, "wanton vandalism and more damage being done by planners than by the Luftwaffe."

Winston Churchill's bodyguard Det. Walter Thompson, said "Churchill felt more at risk of assassination from his own people than his enemy" and told Churchill he had relations in Norfolk and that Churchill should hide out the war there. Churchill flew into a rage and told Thompson he would have his revenge on those Norfolk traitors.

The publicity machine says that Churchill spent the war in London, but this was in fact one of his doubles, after refusing to go to Norfolk, Churchill decided to use the huge bunker under Vange Hall in Essex, at the wars end Vange Hall was demolished into the bunker, it was said there were enough empty Brandy and Whisky bottles to build Blackpool tower.

A village church field was found towards the wars end to have a huge swastika cut into the grass by a tractor during the night, the culprits were never caught, but in recent times much anti Churchill graffiti has been uncovered including some at Ely cathedral in the Fens.

Immediately after the war the Norfolk landowner Sir Andrew Fountaine stood as an MP on a ticket to give his land workers economic parity with their German counterparts, the Labour candidate just squeezed in by a very narrow margin, but vote counters said Fountaine actually won by a fair number of votes.

The Referendum Party was set up by banker and asset robber James Goldsmith, to spoil the Conservative vote and allow in Israeli asset Tony Blair who had promised a war on Iraq, one of the seats acquired by New labour was the Kings Lynn seat and this was taken by new labour MP George Turner, and Just as Tony Blair allowed into Britain many Russian mafia billionaires, George Turner was one of those whom Mafia figures Viktor Solmokov and Ivan Lukaszewski said were 'on their payroll'

This meant George Turner allowed swathes of ex-Soviet bloc peoples to flood the Norfolk area, among which were many Russian criminals on fake Polish passports.

So if you wonder why Boston in lincs is now listed as a Russian town, and other places as such as Holbeach and Spalding Polish; it was revenge on the area for supporting Hitler. The strange thing is that parts of Shropshire were far more supportive of Hitler yet were never punished..

History of the Bible (Part 3) From The Primitive Baptist's Library

Waldensian Bible Translations

FOUR BIBLES produced under Waldensian influence touched the history of Calvin: namely, a Greek, a Waldensian vernacular, a French, and an Italian. Calvin himself was led to his great work by Olivetan, a Waldensian. Thus was the Reformation brought to Calvin, that brilliant student of the Paris University. Farel, also a Waldensian, besought him to come to Geneva and open up a work there. Calvin felt that he should labor in Paris. According to Leger, Calvin recognized a relationship to the Calvins of the valley of St. Martin, one of the Waldensian Valleys. (Leger, History of the Vaudois, p. 167.)

Finally, persecution at Paris and the solicitation of Farel caused Calvin to settle at Geneva, where, with Beza, he brought out an edition of the Textus Receptus, the one the author now uses in his college class rooms, as edited by Scrivener. Of Beza, Dr. Edgar says that he "astonished and confounded the world" with the Greek manuscripts he unearthed. This later edition of the Received Text is in reality a Greek New Testament brought out under Waldensian influence. Unquestionably, the leaders of the Reformation, German, French, and English, were convinced that the Received Text was the genuine New Testament, not only by its own irresistible history and internal evidence, but also because it matched with the Received Text which in Waldensian form came down from the days of the apostles.

The other three Bibles of Waldensian connection were due to three men who were at Geneva with Calvin, or when he died, with Beza, his successor, namely, Olivetan, Leger, and Diodati. How readily the two streams of descent of the Received Text, through the Greek East and the Waldensian West, ran together, is illustrated by the meeting of the Olivetan Bible and the Received Text. Olivetan, one of the most illustrious pastors of the Waldensian Valleys, a relative of Calvin, according to Leger, (Leger, History of the Vaudois, p. 167) and a splendid student, translated the New Testament into French. Leger bore testimony that the Olivetan Bible, which accorded with the Textus Receptus, was unlike the manuscripts of the Papists, because they were full of falsification. Later, Calvin edited a second edition of the Olivetan Bible. The Olivetan in turn became the basis of the Geneva Bible in English, which was the leading version in England in 1611 when the King James appeared.

Diodati, who succeeded Beza in the chair of Theology at Geneva, translated the Received Text into Italian. This version was adopted by the Waldenses, although there was in use at that time a Waldensian Bible in their own peculiar language. This we know because Sir Samuel Morland, under the protection of Oliver Cromwell, received from Leger the Waldensian New Testament which now lies in the Cambridge University Library. After the devastating massacre of the Waldenses in 1655, Leger felt that he should collect and give into the hands of Sir Samuel Morland as many pieces of the ancient Waldensian literature as were available. It is interesting to trace back the Waldensian Bible which Luther had before him when he translated the New Testament. Luther used the Tepl Bible, named from Tepl, Bohemia. This Tepl manuscript represented a translation of the Waldensian Bible into the German which was spoken before the days of the Reformation. (Comba, Waldenses of Italy, p. 191.) Of this remarkable manuscript, Comba says:

When the manuscript of Tepl appeared, the attention of the learned was aroused by the fact that the text it presents corresponds word for word with that of the first three editions of the ancient German Bible. Then Louis Keller, an original writer, with the decided opinions of a layman and versed in the history of the sects of the Middle Ages, declared the Tepl manuscript to be Waldensian. Another writer, Hermann Haupt, who belongs to the old Catholic party, supported his opinion vigorously. (Comba, p. 190.)

From Comba we also learn that the Tepl manuscript has an origin different from the version adopted by the Church of Rome; that it seems to agree rather with the Latin versions anterior to Jerome, the author of the Vulgate; and that Luther followed it in his translation, which is probably the reason why the Catholic church reproved Luther for following the Waldenses. (Comba, p. 192.) Another peculiarity is its small size, which seems to single it out as one of those little books which the Waldensian evangelists carried with them hidden under their rough cloaks. (Comba, p. 191, Note 679.) We have, therefore, an indication of how much the Reformation under Luther as well as Luther's Bible owed to the Waldenses.

Waldensian influence, both from the Waldensian Bibles and from Waldensian relationships, entered into the King James translation of 1611. Referring to the King James translators, one author speaks thus of a Waldensian Bible they used:

It is known that among modern versions they consulted was an Italian, and though no name is mentioned, there cannot be room for doubt that it was the elegant translation made with great ability from the original Scriptures by Giovanni Diodati, which had only recently (1607) appeared at Geneva. (Dr. Benjamin Warfield, Princeton Univ., Collection of Opinions and Reviews, Vol. 2, p. 99.)

It is therefore evident that the translators of 1611 had before them four Bibles which had come under Waldensian influences: the Diodati in Italian, the Olivetan in French, the Lutheran in German, and the Genevan in English. We have every reason to believe that they had access to at least six Waldensian Bibles written in the old Waldensian vernacular.

Dr. Nolan, who had already acquired fame for his Greek and Latin scholarship, and researches into Egyptian chronology, and was a lecturer of note, spent twenty-eight years to trace back the Received Text to its apostolic origin. He was powerfully impressed to examine the history of the Waldensian Bible. He felt certain that researches in this direction would demonstrate that the Italic New Testament, or the New Testament of those primitive Christians of northern Italy whose lineal descendants the Waldenses were, would turn out to be the Received Text. He says:

The author perceived, without any labour of inquiry, that it derived its name from that diocese, which has been termed the Italic, as contradistinguished from the Roman. This is a supposition, which receives a sufficient confirmation from the fact that the principal copies of that version have been preserved in that diocese, the metropolitan church of which was situated in Milan.

The circumstance is at present mentioned, as the author thence formed a hope, that some remains of the primitive Italic version might be found in the early translations made by the Waldenses, who were the lineal descendants of the Italic Church; and who have asserted their independence against the usurpations of the Church of Rome, and have ever enjoyed the free use of the Scriptures. In the search to which these considerations have led the author, his fondest expectations have been fully realized. It has furnished him with abundant proof on that point to which his inquiry was chiefly directed; as it has supplied him with the unequivocal testimony of a truly apostolical branch of the primitive church, that the celebrated text of the heavenly witnesses was adopted in the version which prevailed in the Latin Church, previously to the introduction of the modern Vulgate. (Dr. Frederick Nolan, Integrity of the Greek Vulgate, pp. xvii, xviii.)

How the Bible Adopted by Constantine Was Set Aside.

Where did this Vaudois Church amid the rugged peaks of the Alps secure these uncorrupted manuscripts? In the silent watches of the night, along the lonely paths of Asia Minor where robbers and wild beasts lurked, might have been seen the noble missionaries carrying manuscripts, and verifying documents from the churches in Judea to encourage their struggling brethren under the iron heel of the Papacy. The sacrificing labors of the apostle Paul were bearing fruit. His wise plan to anchor the Gentile churches of Europe to the churches of Judea, provided the channel of communication which defeated continually and finally the bewildering pressure of the Papacy. Or, as the learned Scrivener has beautifully put it:

Wide as is the region which separates Syria from Gaul, there must have been in very early times some remote communication by which the stream of Eastern testimony, or tradition, like another Alpheus, rose up again with fresh strength to irrigate the regions of the distant West. (Scrivener's Introduction, Vol. 2, pp. 299, 300.)

We have it now revealed how Constantine's Hexapla Bible was successfully met. A powerful chain of churches, few in number compared with the manifold congregations of an apostate Christianity, but enriched with the eternal conviction of truth and with able scholars, stretched from Palestine to Scotland. If Rome in her own land was unable to beat down the testimony of apostolic Scriptures, how could she hope, in the Greek speaking world of the distant and hostile East, to maintain the supremacy of her Greek Bible? The Scriptures of the apostle John and his associates, the traditional text, the Textus Receptus, if you please, arose from the place of humiliation forced on it by Origen's Bible in the hands of Constantine and became the Received Text of Greek Christianity. And when the Greek East for one thousand years was completely shut off from the Latin West, the noble Waldenses in northern Italy still possessed in Latin the Received Text.

To Christians preserving apostolic Christianity, the world owes the Bible. It is not true, as the Roman Church claims, that she gave the Bible to the world. What she gave was an impure text, a text with thousands of verses so changed as to make way for her unscriptural doctrines. While upon those who possessed the veritable Word of God, she poured out through long centuries her stream of cruel persecution. Or, in the words of another writer:

The Waldenses were among the first of the peoples of Europe to obtain a translation of the Holy Scriptures. Hundreds of years before the 37 Reformation, they possessed the Bible in manuscript in their native tongue. They had the truth unadulterated, and this rendered them the special objects of hatred and persecution. . . . Here for a thousand years, witnesses for the truth maintained the ancient faith. . . . In a most wonderful manner it (the word of truth) was preserved uncorrupted through all the ages of darkness.

DEDICATION

This little work is lovingly dedicated to the memory of Brother Junior Dittmer, one of the founding trustees of The Primitive Baptist Library of Carthage, Illinois. He was deeply interested in the history of the Waldenses, and had expressed an interest in seeing their history republished so that our people might be better informed on this subject. The End OS13410

Dundugan Fort - Louth - Ireland

A Plan of DUNDUGAN FORT, in the County of Louth, in Ireland.

This ancient and unusual Irish fort has been removed both physically and from the history books, save for a description in a letter to The Gentleman's Magazine of 1752, from which the above illustration is reproduced and letter below:

THIS uncommon fort is encompassed with three wet concentric sluices, which communicate with the river Dundugan, as represented in the plan!

Great part of the central mount, the fort having been long destroyed has been cut away to form a new channel for the river, which is always very deep, and subject, during the floods, which are very frequent, to overflow all the adjacent pasture and meadow-ground, so as to form a considerable lake for several months, especially in the winter season.

A few years ago on digging a grave in the churchyard of Dunbulloge, about four miles north of Cork, a crypt was discovered, which on excavating a few days after, I was rewarded by finding two bee-hive compartments, connected by a low passage. I could just stand up in the chambers, which were very regularly constructed of small stones placed endways in some kind of cement like soft earth; a long passage covered with flags ran upon a westerly direction from the inner chamber, which may originally have been the entrance; the ruins of the church stood just over the crypt. The Church of Kilbrogan in this town was built on the site of one of these forts, and was the first church built in Ireland for Protestant worship." Kitos War

Sir—, The 4th century Christian historian Paulus Orosius records that the violence so depopulated the province of Cyrenaica that new colonies had to be established by Hadrian:

"The Jews ... waged war on the inhabitants throughout Libya in the most savage fashion, and to such an extent was the country wasted that, its cultivators having been slain, its land would have remained utterly depopulated, had not the Emperor Hadrian gathered settlers from other places and sent them thither, for the inhabitants had been wiped out." [2]

Dio Cassius states of Jewish insurrectionaries:

"Meanwhile the Jews in the region of Cyrene had put one Andreas at their head and were destroying both the Romans and the Greeks. They would cook their flesh, make belts for themselves of their entrails, anoint themselves with their blood, and wear their skins for clothing. Many they sawed in two, from the head downwards. Others they would give to wild beasts and force still others to fight as gladiators. In all, consequently, two hundred and twenty thousand perished. In Egypt, also, they performed many similar deeds, and in Cyprus under the leadership of Artemio. There, likewise, two hundred and forty thousand perished. For this reason no Jew may set foot in that land, but even if one of them is driven upon the island by force of the wind, he is put to death. Various persons took part in subduing these Jews, one being Lusius, who was sent by Trajan." [3]

The original 1906 Jewish Encyclopaedia cited this about the Cyrene massacres:

"By this outbreak Libya was depopulated to such an extent that a few years later new colonies had to be established there (Eusebius, "Chronicle" from the Armenian, fourteenth year of Hadrian). Bishop Synesius, a native of Cyrene in the beginning of the fifth century, speaks of the devastations wrought by the Jews ("Do Regno," p. 2)."[4]

Egypt

Then Lukuas, leader of rebel Jews, moved towards Alexandria, entered the city, which had been abandoned by the Roman troops in Egypt under the leadership of governor Marcus Rutilius Lupus, and set fire to the city. The Egyptian temples and the tomb of Pompey were destroyed. Trajan sent new troops under the praefectus praetorio Quintus Marcius Turbo, but Egypt and Cyrenaica were pacified only in autumn 117.

Cyprus

In Cyprus a Jewish band under a leader named Artemion took control of the island, killing thousands of civilians. The Cypriot Jews participated in the great uprising against the Romans under Trajan (117), and are reported to have massacred 240,000 Greeks.[3][6] A small Roman army was dispatched to the island, soon re-conquering the capital. After the revolt had been fully defeated, laws were created forbidding any Jews to live on the island.

My comment: After behaving like this, the Jews now demand reparations for being cast out of all nations they behaved like this in that are still in existence. Spain now "owes them" over a trillion USD! Yours truly, Monica Stone.

10 Roles of the Modern-day Police Officer

Sir—, All of these are intrinsically connected

- 1/. Primarily to protect the JCN and it's minions. Effectively working as a private judaic security firm.
- 2/. To conceal and suppress the Truth and uphold duplicity.
- 3/. To fleece us goyim of our possessions. Through fines, penalties, house possessions (all corporate theft).
- 4/. To enforce more jewelian legislative control, acting within the capacity of someone of the sea (officer), not of the land. Under contract/admiralty/maritime (shipping) laws, not God's law, natural law or common law for the people of the land.
- 5/. To further enforce more separatism. Them and us mindset. Divide and rule.
- 6/. To assist the other unconscious useful idiots who are also blindly protecting and assisting the evil unlawful deeds of the JCN. The child-snatching social workers, thieving bullying bailiffs, the corrupt local councils and courts, etc.

7/. To act as a pseudo-military element to help enFORCE the JWO agenda.

8/. To uphold a mindset and illusion that other people who wear fancy costumes (black occult uniforms) and have a badge, are somehow better than us and have presumed authority over us.

9/. To uphold and support the ludicrous parade of parasitic leaches called the British monarch/royalty.

10/. To further irritate us with their annoying screeching sirens, throbbing helicopters to further destroy our peace, serenity and sense of stability.

These are reasons why the modern-day officer of the sea has no longer has respect from the public. This is why this has to be one of most distasteful roles in the whole JWO agenda.

This is why this entity and unconscious mindset has to be brought down along with this whole JWO. Yours truly, J. Allen, Edinburgh.

Letter In Defence Of Germany

Sir—, I have watched the informative video "Gaza, Iraq and 9/11 Episodes with Christopher Bollyn." Thank you for the work you are doing. Outspoken people like you and Mr. Bollyn make my heart leap for joy. There is one thing, though that troubles me, which I will explain further down in my letter.

You are marginalized and criminalized and harassed and have been arrested, you say. You truth speakers are called terrorists, defamed, hindered and threatened, and I would like to tell you that this has been going on for over 100 years "in the West" (and actually much longer) under the control of the same people, the Jews. [Particularly since 1688 when Jews from Amsterdam invaded and conquered England]. To understand why it is possible for this to go on today, and to comprehend how the Jews get away with what they are getting away with for over a century, one has to look at the history of Europe, and especially the history of Germany.

The Germans had been called murderers, torturers of children and many other things already in 1871 by the Jewish-British press to rouse Europe against the Germans. [1871 was the year in which the strategy to achieve global hegemony by three world wars followed by worldwide revolution was settled. Our false history does not tell us that the so-called Jews claimed a German holocaust of six million Jews in World War I (since revised to zero); a second holocaust or extermination of six million Jews by Jew-controlled Soviet Russia (actually the real slaughter of sixty-six million Christians); and third, a German holocaust of six million Jews in World War III (another hoax)].

The peaceful and successful German Empire was an economic threat to rogue state Britain [as today's peaceful and successful Russian Federation is a moral and economic threat to the US rogue state]. Germany was always envied for its successes, so it was easy to instil hate in the people of other countries by spreading defamation. The purpose was to destroy the Germans, the leaders in almost all areas of culture in Europe. As the Talmudic law goes, "Kill the best gentiles." And then the next best become the best, and so you kill them, too, and on down the line until all good people are gone and only the decrepit ones stay alive, namely the Jews.

Up to 1945, when the Jew-Americans stole Germany, it had always been a German trait to be honourable, honest and hold the highest standard of ethics. This was amplified in so-called Nazi Germany. By defaming the "Nazis" and destroying Germany, the heart of Europe, the Jews' power has immensely increased not only in Germany but in all the countries of Europe and the world. Germany would have led the nations into freedom from the Jews. I know this sounds untrue to those who have been brainwashed by the mainstream media, but it is not. There is evidence on this website, and here. We have been fed a false history; and this was accomplished by gagging the Germans under the Jews-Allies. Whoever speaks up against the crimes of the Jews-Allies in Germany will be publicly "lynched," fired from their career position, will never get a decent job again, might be physically attacked—including his family, might be bombed or murdered by having an "accident," heart attack, or by becoming suddenly ill with cancer.

As I mentioned before, the Jews had a grip on Europe already by 1871 with their media, and actually much sooner. Of course, their main power was banking which afforded them to own the press. After WWI, the Jews had almost all German papers under their management. Again, starting in 1871, when the German kingdoms united into one empire, the Jews in Britain started the defamation of the Germans and the planning of WWI to tear the German Reich apart again, as England wanted to be the only great empire. England issued a statement to that effect in the newspapers. Furthermore, the Jews had infested many of the small German (and European kingdoms) and, like parasites, were sucking the wealth and lifeblood out of them. Now, with the kingdoms coming under one reign in Germany, the Jews knew they would be losing their grip.

You said: "Hitler invaded other nations" and you mentioned the Nuremberg Trial—I think you insinuated that the trial was just. The Nuremberg trial was a crime. No evidence was allowed by the Germans to defend against certain false accusations.

All they had to do is sign statements written by the Allies under torture (having their testicles smashed beyond repair). The Jewish Holocaust was considered obvious and no defence against this accusation was allowed by the Germans. This "obvious" "proof" was no proof at all but hearsay from a handful of Jewish story tellers who got certain benefits for it. Our great and noble intelligentsia was murdered by the thousands in cold blood to get rid of witnesses and to make Germany weaker.

"All" Germans after about 1959 were already trained in kindergarten to believe and say that the Jewish holocaust is true. The ones who say 'it is not true' or even just doubt it, are sitting in German prisons. Hundreds of thousands have been put in prison for decades for either asking questions about the holocaust or not believing it happened. The current most prominent man jailed is Horst Mahler, a German attorney, who was not allowed to defend his client who doubted certain Holocaust accusations. Mr. Mahler got over 10 years of prison, even though he is of advanced age.

That is US-Jewish occupation power in Germany! Germany is not sovereign, in case you wonder. It is a colony of the USA [which is itself a colony of the City of London]. This is how Germany has been gagged, and this is how "German" leaders can fall on their knees before Jews and hit their fist against their breast saying: "By my fault, by my fault, by my ever greater fault." Most of them are not German at all but actors, Communists, Poles, Jews; and if German by blood, shameless traitors!

About your comment regarding Adolf Hitler invading other countries and implying that this was a terrible crime: The question is "why did he" and "how did he." I would like to tell you the facts about this here. First, let's be clear, unlike the invasion by the Allies, the German 'invasion' did not consist of raping, robbing, torturing and murdering as all the allies did.

Hitler did not start WWII. Britain and France did when they declared war on Germany on, I think, Sept. 3, 1939. 58 nations around the world also declared war on Germany, almost all of them countries that have never been threatened or invaded by Germany. Isn't that odd?! This shows how many countries the Jews already had in their pocket. Hitler was in a LOCAL conflict with Poland. He was extremely patient, generous and accommodating with the Poles, but the Poles were continuously aggressive against Germany for decades and murdered thousands of ethnic Germans in Poland just before the war broke out, not to mention the millions that they had driven out. They pursued these fleeing Germans all the way to the German border still shooting at them and killing them. And then there were the bestial torture death the Poles have committed on the Germans by the tens of thousands. The Poles have attacked the German border patrol many times without the Germans fighting back. On the day the war broke out between Poland and Germany, the Poles had actually pursued (purposely to instigate) the fleeing ethnic Germans by entering German territory for the first time.

Naturally, the German border patrol then fought back. Hitler said in his grave speech to the German people that morning: "Since early this morning, we are shooting back." Shooting back means to defend an attack. It does not imply starting a war. There was no reason for a WWII!!! Britain wanted it. France wanted it. Russia wanted it. Germany did not. I have many proofs for that, too.

As far as Hitler invading Russia goes, the Russians were lined up by the German border. Hitler discovered that and made a pre-emptive strike. If he had not done this, the Soviets would have invaded Germany, then France, and then the rest of Europe and all would have fallen to the Jewish Communists in 1941.

There would have not been a Europe as it has been the last 70 years. Well, it has been undermined by a different type of war; nevertheless it is not as severe as it would have been. "Half of Europe" would have been dead because "kill the best Gentiles" would have been applied by the Talmudic law of the Jews in every single country (Talmud minor tractate Soferim 15, Rule 10; Kiddushin 66c; Funk and Wagnalls' 1907 Jewish Encyclopaedia "Gentile," p. 617). All the intelligentsia of Europe and the wealthiest and even the farmers (to cut off food supply so people would starve to become obedient) would have been slaughtered. Because the Russians were lined up to attack, they were not ready for a defence and were so surprised that the Germans took 3.5 Million Russian prisoners in those first few weeks! Rumour has it, the Russians did not want to fight for the Soviet Jewish Killing machine and that's why they surrendered so massively. In case you do not know, the Jews have usurped Russia starting in 1906 but took full control of it in 1917 with the "Russian"—really Jewish—Revolution.

There were other countries Hitler invaded but not like a murdering warrior. He had to invade these countries to set up a barrier against the British and the Russians along the coast and in the North, as for example Finland and the Benelux countries. Furthermore many of those countries had already declared war on Germany because they were coerced by Jewish and British power. I am sure you know that the British monarchy is partially of Jewish blood. Maybe now all of it is.

Americans have been especially brainwashed regarding WWII because the Jews are the most represented in the USA, but more and more so in Europe too, now. I do not blame you for your lack of knowledge in this area. I only discovered these facts by two years of intense research which I have exposed on my website.

Here is my great concern as far as your speech goes: If you continue to spread the false information that Hitler was "the bad guy" then it follows that he has caused a Jewish Holocaust and from that it follows that the Jews are the victims, and so everyone has to give them a handicap score and treat them with special regard. Well, quite the opposite is true: The Jews are not victims but aggressors against all mankind. [Jewry has claimed three holocausts or exterminations of six million Jews in the 20th century. "The bad guys" were Jewish traitors Winston Churchill, Josef Stalin, F. D. Roosevelt, and Dwight D. Eisenhower].

95% of the mainstream stories about the Germans and about Hitler are nothing but lies and deception. The real killers go unpunished and are even elected as presidents. Jew Eisenhower starved nearly 6 Million (recognize this number?) German civilians to death [after the war]. Dwight Eisenhower also murdered over 1 Million German POWs on the Rheinwieslager, Germany, out in cages on open land by starving them to death. There is so much more I could tell you about the crimes committed by the Jewish-USA, it is overwhelming. As you know, the USA has been fighting Geneva Convention-defying wars since 1914. The US and its military, for decades, did not subject itself to the ICC. As you know, the US is the bully, run by the Jews. What the Jewish-USA does to the Palestinians is not new; it's a continuation of what they did to the Germans, especially via their satellite, the Soviets: Rape, Rob, Torture, and Murder.

banking scams in Germany. The fact is, if Hitler had won, we would not have the problems we have today, including the ones you are talking about on this video.

Please consider what I am writing. As you know, the world is not what we are told it is and this applies to Germany, WWI and WWII as well. As a German, the main purpose in my life now is to get the truth about Germans out and to expose the crimes of the Jews and the Allies. Please visit my website if you want more detailed information. Yours truly, Theresa (germanvictims.com)

Hitler wanted the Jews out of Europe. He had the courage to confront them. He stopped their

The End

My Russian/Ukrainian Trip - Part 4

By Louis Beam

The trip to Vladikavkaz, would require a sixty hour train ride from the north of Russia to the far south, then east into North Ossetia. We could have flown there in three or so hours by jet. Yet it was our intention from the start of the trip to get to know the Russian people and their country. This could be better done by crossing their nation on rail than by plane. Still it was with some foreboding that I boarded the train for that trip of over two days, as I still suffer from Mexican Train Ride post-traumatic-stress: MTRPTS.

WITH a far greater understanding of Russia and its history we left for a very long journey by train for a special meeting to be held in the city of Vladikavkaz, North Ossetia, Russia, and to meet for the very first time, what I consider to be one of the truly great minds of modern Russia produced by the common folk of that country:

Alexander Mezentsev, a descendant of the Cossacks. He will most surely object to my thoughts about his great intellectual abilities, for he, like myself, considers himself nothing more than a common man of the people and is happy to be so.

Another long journey begins from the tip of the north to one of the most southern parts of Russia

We shared a private cabin with a Russian couple who soon became our friends, as did most of the other people in our car before the trip ended.

Once you get past the doubt and fear Russian people have as to Americans being part of the “putting-them-in-body-bags” crowd, the people are almost always friendly and curious as to what it is like to be an American, and endless gestures of hospitality from them then ensue.

By the time we reached the first stop at a small rail station in the countryside, Max and I were friends with many of the people, and they were buying us food, ice cream, and giving Max cigarettes, which is a Russian sign of friendliness to those whom they like (was there anyone in Russia besides me who did not smoke?).

Even the children who seem to be quite shy in general were coming up to me on the rail car and wanting to try their hand at communicating with the “American.” In hopes of creating better international relations, I made it a point to always explain that I was a Texan first, and an American second. Texas is known all over the world by people in general, and my experience from Thailand to Costa Rica is that Texans are greeted with a smile and friendliness. No doubt this is in part a result of cowboy movies and Texas culture in general than any real knowledge of the people there.

There were seven or eight soldiers on the car with us who were on the way to their homes on leave from military service. When they first heard there were Americans on board they were less than friendly toward us. Max French in his usual manner would not bode them thinking poorly of us, and went to them explaining our reason for being in the country they were sworn to defend. Soon Max was smoking with them at stops along the way and one of them who heard I was in search of a bottle of water brought me a soft drink and placed it in my hand with a big smile of friendliness. They had been convinced by Max, and by the other passengers who had already met us that we were there for good intentions, and they too desired to welcome us. From then on these young soldiers were smiling at us as they passed in the car, requiring me to refuse their offer of endless smokes.

The sixty hour trip to Vladikavkaz was a long ride, yet I would not trade that ride instead for a jet plane. For it was on this lengthy trip, living closely next to the Russians in our cabin, and sharing a train car with people from all walks of life, that I came to have a better comprehension of their character and mannerisms. When our new found friends, who were travelling a shorter distance than we were, began to exit at their final destination, they would come to us and say goodbye often throwing in a hug to boot.

Such are the Russian people.

As we approached our final destination in North Ossetia it was with great interest that I looked forward to meeting Alexander Mezentsev for the first time in person. For over ten years I had corresponded with him by email about the political affairs of his country and mine, history, archaeology, anthropology, great writers and books and most other subjects that students of mankind and his existence on this place we call earth want to know and understand. Now, I was to meet the person behind the phenomenal knowledge he so often displayed. He is an enigma to me in many ways. A man placed by nature in that faraway place in Ossetia, in what appears to me as a foreigner to that land, to be a remote outpost of civilization and culture. I had often wondered why such a man was not teaching in a major university in Moscow or Saint Petersburg where he would no doubt be a delight to his students and their quest for an understanding of the world around them.

Yet, there Alex was, just north of the Caucasus Mountains of both fame and lore, happily living his life doing research, working for a major cultural institution and studying the people of the world. At the very least this man should be on a consulting contract for the Russian government for his great knowledge of mankind and their predisposition to misunderstand each other. He demonstrates an innate ability to clear such matters up quickly.

Our meeting was that of long lost friends with repeated handshakes and embraces of friendship.

Gazing upon him I could not help but think of someone out of 1950's America. Something about him made me think of those who I had known in earlier years of my life. We were all comfortable with each other from the beginning, and that only increased as time went by. We were to meet for friendship, understanding and hopes of creating a better understanding between his people and mine. Many discussions followed about American history, political matters and the culture of both countries, and the great need to avoid conflict between our respective nations.

Socializing with him, and soon his friends, was to leave me with the firm belief that there could never be a reasonable reason for hostilities between the Russian people and American citizens. If the politicians want to fight, then let them. To the senators, presidents and members of governing bodies of both countries who want war, let us issue Rambo machine guns, grenades, knives and a canteen full of water, and let them have at it.

For the rest of us--- Russian vodka and American apple pie, together as one.

The Serpent Seedline: (Continued from Issue 75 Part 2) Edomite Jews and the Sons of Cain

By
Sherry Shriner

Esau, the Serpent Seed

THERE are two different groups of people throughout the Bible and our past, present, and future. Those who are elected to grace while the other is elected for wrath and destruction. These are two specific groups with two specific elections and only they can hold these elections, no one else is like them.

It is a specific seedline? No. Although it may sound like it means just that, it does not mean that all. That would be like saying all those born into a cursed seedline are doomed for hell and all those born into Yahweh's chosen seedline are awarded heaven.

There are three major aspects that come into play at all times in regarding all things. The choices Yahweh makes, the choices Lucifer are allowed to make, and the individual choices we make.

Esau was born of a good seedline but he chose to go the way of the wicked. Just as those born of cursed seedlines can choose to go the way of the righteous. Do we choose or are we chosen ahead of time to do exactly what we do? Yahweh knows the end from the beginning and He knows those who are His and those who are not because He knows exactly what is going to happen. And He places His chosen vessels of honour anywhere He wants to, good or bad seedline. And Lucifer will do the same thing, except his vessels are of dishonour.

Some say the whole war started with Jacob and Esau, when it actually goes back to Cain, and in these last days it is going to culminate as the seedlines of Cain through the Antichrist will try to destroy and annihilate the seed of Jacob.

Remember it was Esau who married into the cursed Cain race, corrupting his seed and offspring. He wasn't born into a cursed seedline, he tur ned his back on his good seedline and went the way of the wicked.

The seed of Jacob is both the House of Judah and the House of Israel, the 14 tribes. We (America) are part of Israel folks. Now don't go off into the British Israelism theory because it is flawed and serves the purposes of the Illuminati who are trying to claim the British throne goes through King David when it's been sabotaged over the years and especially the only ones on the throne there now are imposters.

If you look at much of the scattered tribes of Israel today they include Germany, France, Britain, America, and others.. the predominant white races of the world. America itself contains a mixture of all the tribes of Israel here and many of us are linked to one of the sons. Manasseh is dominate in America, the 14th tribe of Israel while Britain is Ephraim. Reuben is France, Dan is Greece, etc..

The Gentiles relate to the House of Judah and the House of Israel as those who have converted to Yahweh (for those who do). The entire last days war puts the gentiles (other races) in the middle of a war between Satan's people and Yahweh's people. It is a war to see who will rule from Mt. Zion in Jerusalem with Satan working through his seedline and Yahweh working through His to see who wins. Well if you have jumped to the back of the book you know who wins, Yahweh does. But Satan will be allowed to attempt to rule the world for 42 months before he is utterly demolished by the Second Coming of Jesus Christ.

If you read in Genesis 25:21-23 the war started back in the womb of their mother, Rebekah:

"And Isaac entreated the Lord for his wife, because she was barren: and the Lord was entreated of him, and Rebekah his wife conceived.

And the children struggled together within her; and she said, If it be so, why am I thus?

And she went to enquire of the Lord. And the Lord said unto her, Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels; and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and the elder shall serve the younger."

The twins in her womb were Jacob and Esau. They were already at war with each other then, fighting in the womb, for the Lord had ordained them as two different types of people that would be at war with each other. One would be stronger than the other and the elder would serve the younger. Esau, being born first, would serve Jacob.

And if you read the story of Esau and Jacob, Esau selling his birthright to Jacob for a bowl of red (Edom) pottage (lentil beans) it was because the birthright meant nothing to Esau, he despised it. What was the birthright? Bringing forth through his seedline the redeemer of Adam, Jesus. Esau did not care about it and Jacob was willing to deal and deceive to get it, it meant everything to Jacob.

Esau despised his birthright, and Yahweh despised him. Esau was determined to go his own way and do his own thing and that is what he did. In Genesis 26:34-35 we read how he committed his own seedline to eternal ruin and becoming "Sons of Perdition," even as Judas who betrayed Jesus was. Not only did he give his birth-right away to Jacob, he broke the hearts of both Isaac and Rebekah by taking Hittite women as his wives. The Hittites were descendants of Heth, and Heth was one of the sons of Canaan, a cursed seed. Canaan was a son of Ham, and father of all Canaanites including the Hittites. These people were a cursed seed because of what Ham did to his father, Noah.

And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without. And Noah awoke from his wine, and KNEW WHAT his younger son had done unto him. And he said, cursed be Canaan Gen. 9:22, 24-25.

Another event covered up by figurative language. The actual sin was, Ham had sex with Noah wife's and then laughed about it to his brothers. When Noah awoke from his drunken state, he "knew" what Ham had done to him and cursed not Ham himself, but his offspring Canaan.

The Hittites were the power brokers in the known world, much as today.

They controlled most of the economics (money) and merchandising (corporations) and were a very powerful influence.

They were worshippers of Satan and had much wealth. When Esau married Hittites he created high treason against the Most High by adulterating his holy seed with the serpent and cursed seed. He sold his birthright for red pottage, mixes his seed with the serpent seed, and by doing so condemns himself and his entire offspring to the Lake of Fire (tares).

Judas who betrayed Jesus was of the serpent seedline as well. He and the Antichrist are both called "Sons of Perdition." Perdition means eternal ruin. All of Esau's descendents were sons of perdition, sons of eternal ruin. Jesus said that Judas was a devil (John 6:70). Sons of Perdition are Satanic spirits sent to this earth by their father Satan. They were prepared and chosen for destruction through their Election before they were even born.

The end of the story of the birthright blessings for Jacob and Esau are rather prophetic and an overall picture of the last days. Esau, realizing there was money to be had from being the firstborn included in the blessing, runs off to prepare meat for Isaac who is going to give him his birthright (nevermind he had promised it to Jacob when he realized there was money involved. He was going to go back on his promise with Jacob). But Rebekah heard what was going on and helped devise a plan to where Jacob could deceive Isaac into believing he was Esau and give him the blessing that Esau had traded Jacob for over a bowl of red pottage. After realizing

Jacob had already received Isaac's blessing, Esau begged for a blessing as well, as part of his blessing Isaac told him:

"And by the sword thou shalt live, and shalt serve thy brother; (be under his authority) and it shall come to pass thou shalt have dominion, that thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck" Genesis 27:40.

And the war continued between Jacob and Esau. In Genesis 27:41 we read:

"And Esau hated Jacob (enmity) because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then will I slay my brother Jacob."

Jacob was determined to kill Jacob. Jacob had hit Esau where it hurt the most. Jacob got the wealth as part of the birthright he had taken away from Esau. That is probably why Esau married Hittite women, because of his lust for power and wealth. And that seed is the same way today. They control the money around the entire world.

They are called Edomites because of Edom, the colour red, which is what the bowl of pottage was. Esau was also very red/ruddy and hairy. And to this day it is still their mission to kill Jacob. Esau never succeeded in killing Jacob, but to this day the war continues and the seed of Esau, the Edomites seek to get rid of Jacob's descendents, which are primarily today's Christians and believers in Yahweh. Jacob's descendents became known as Israelites.

Esau's descendents also became known as Reds, which is also seen as the symbolic colour of Communism. All of the "isms" were created by the serpent seed such as Socialism, Nazism, Humanism, Liberalism, etc.. and are the backbone of the first beast of Revelation 13 which is the same scarlet coloured beast mentioned in Revelation 17 with seven heads and ten horns.

Also notice the prophecy that Isaac gave Esau that he would live by the sword and take dominion over the earth. In Rev. 13:10 we read the first beast lives by the sword, will take dominion over the earth, and will die by the sword. Same seedline.

It is the New World Order and Zionism that carries the serpent seedline today. It is ruled in the background by the Illuminati families of the Serpent's seedline. It is Satan's master plan to bring the entire world under a global government through the New World Order so he can rule.

Satan's seed will make war against the Lamb's seed (believers, Israelites and Judahites) "these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire." Rev. 17

Today, the world banking Edomite / Hittite / Canaanite / counterfeit Jews under Satan's rule control the world's economy and preparing the world for global government and the rise of their master, Satan as the Antichrist.

In the book of Obadiah there is a prophecy written to the serpent seedline of Esau for the last days.

The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock (they hide themselves away from public view with their underground bases), whose habitation is high (world authority, political authority); that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground (arrogance of their power and strongholds)? (verse 3)

Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle (Illuminati symbol), and though thou set thy nest among the stars (space stations and planetary bases), thence will I bring thee down, saith the Lord. (verse 4)

How are the things of Esau searched out! How are his hidden things sought up! (Esau is working through deception and lies and keep their real plans hidden from public view). (verse 6)

Shall I not in that day, saith the Lord, even destroy the wise men out of Edom (the Learned Elders of Zion, which rule behind the scenes), and understanding out of the mount of Esau? (authority) (verse 8)

And thy mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that they may be cut off by slaughter (the Lord's judgment on them when He returns). For the violence against thy brother Jacob shall cover thee (war on the saints), and thou shalt be cut off forever..(verse 9)

But, upon mount Zion shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau; for the Lord hath spoken it. (verse 18)

And saviours (judges) shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount (authority, government) of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the Lord's. (verse 21)

Yahweh wins!

Today the battle rages on between the physical and spiritual. Cain's seed vs. Yahweh's seed. It may look like Yahweh's seed is losing during the Antichrist's War on the Saints but we know that Yahweh Himself will have the last act on the stage called Earth.

Furthermore, we know the future of the final two characters to come to earth to lead the battle against Yahweh's people.. the False Prophet and the Antichrist. In Revelation 19:20 we read:

And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

And what happens to their master Lucifer Satan? His fate is foretold of in Revelation 20:

And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

And he laid hold of the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years.

And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

Lucifer is chained and cast into the abyss for 1000 years then loosed for a little while to wage one last final attempt against the Most High. After he loses yet another attempt to overcome the Most High, he is thrown in the lake of fire to stay there forever.

In Revelation 20:10 it says: And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and false prophet are and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

Yahweh told me this in regards to mixing of the seedlines:

Daughter,

The mixture of My children with the serpent's seed was something I allowed to serve My own purposes. Just as I allowed Satan to defile My garden, I allowed him to defile my people.

The way to truth and righteousness is through Me. It always has been and it has not changed. My priests served the people, they did not sanctify them or make them whole. I alone can do that.

Today's priests seek to save which they cannot. They lead My people to errors and doctrines of man that cannot save them, nor do they honor or please Me.

Tell them I am the door. There is no other. Those who want Me must walk through My door to Me. There is no other way.

They worship Baal and call him their god thinking I am the one they worship. My judgment will come on this carnal and wicked system of religion. It is not of Me. Religion profits man, worship and sacrifice profits Me. Sacrifice the cares and wants of this world for the cares and wants in Me only and you will never be unsatisfied. I can give you your heart's desires. This world cannot fulfill you. This world is an endless form of greed and want. Never satisfying, it waxes worse and worse, evil and more evil. Yes Mithra has hidden through the ages behind every god and he will ultimately rise again to counterfeit Me and My Word. I will reveal this to you because you seek My face, you seek Me, and I will reveal great things to you because you are humble and faithful.

I love you child. Tell them the world had run its course, it's almost time for all the prophecies of old to be fulfilled. Many will never be ready. But stay in Me for I have many things for you to accomplish before the time. Time is short. Daily seek Me so I can use you. I have shown you many things in just a short amount of time. I will show you even more.

I love you My child. If you could only see how much you make Me smile and know how much I do love you, you would never feel or want for anything again of this world. You're almost there child. Yet you still have things of Me to do in a short time. Be faithful. Be still and hear My voice. I love you, your Father, the Most High.

Not only has there been a defiling of our seedlines with Satan's seed, but with other fallen angels as well. Interbreeding has been going on since the beginning of our creation with the Watchers who fell described in Enoch chapters 6 through 10 and Genesis 6:4. They fell before the flood and after.

Was Adam The First Man? (Part 2)

By
George Udvary

Those who are of Satan— Gen. 3:15; Matt. 13:38, 23:33; John 8:44, 47, John 10:26; 2 Cor. 11:15; 1 John 3:10, 12; Rev. 17:8

There are people from the giants— Gen. 6:4, 5

And, people who are of God, the children of Yahweh through Adam, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, Gen. 3:15 (the woman); Psa. 95:7, Psa 100:3; Ezk. 34:30; John 1:12, 13, 10:27, 28; Rom. 9:5,26; 1 Pet. 1:23; 1 John 3:1, 9, 4:6, 5:18.

The genealogy listed in the scriptures dates the formation of Adam at approximately six to seven thousand plus years ago. From Adam to the birth of Jesus (Yahshua) is 4,004 years. When we add 2007 years (at this writing) to the year of Yahshua's birth, the total is 6011 years. However science and archeology have shown that the earth was already here with a large population of people hundreds of thousands of years ago (some say millenniums ago) much longer than the six or seven thousand years recorded in biblical history about Adam and his family. (see notes at Gen. 5:1 in this chapter). Written history goes back approximately 10,000 years in ancient Chinese and Egyptian dynasties.

Then there are archeological findings in Africa using Carbon 14 dating. These go back 80,000 years thus proving mans' existence that long ago. Some people say one cannot rely on Carbon 14 dating because of its questionable accuracy. But if we allow a generous 10% variance, there is still a 72,000-years' time period that doesn't need more proof. If Adam were the first man, how could all those people exist thousands of years prior to him, since he lived only six or seven thousand years ago? The fact is one cannot be older than one's own father.

THERE ARE PEOPLE who are of the world— Psa. 17:14; John 15:19; Rom. 16:18; 1 Cor. 2:14; Col. 2:8; James 4:4; 1 John 4:5.

If Adam and Eve were the first man and woman, as even some renegade Identity ministers advocate, then why did Yahweh have to take a rib out of Adam to find him a suitable mate. Genesis 1:27 and 28 clearly declare that Yahweh had already concurrently created, then blessed man with his mate to be fruitful and multiply, a long time before Adam was ever mentioned. Shouldn't we then wonder why the controversy, since the entire first chapter of creation is not only written in past tense, but the Bible states just four verses later in the second chapter that there was no man to till the ground?" Note here, it did NOT say that there was no man, only that there was no man to till the ground.

Please compare Gen. 1:31 and Gen. 2:5 and 2:20-22. Asserting that the second chapter of Genesis is simply a continuation of the first chapter is evident. However to claim that it is a broader explanation of the creation of Adam and Eve (supposedly created in Genesis 1:27-28), is unconscionable. Missing the word of truth by such a large margin should disqualify every minister or teacher who alleges such fallacy. They are deceivers, trying to block others from exposing the ages-long hidden truths in the written word of Yahweh.

Gen 1:21 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

Gen. 1:22 And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.

Gen. 1:23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

Gen. 1:24 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

Gen. 1:25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and everything that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

Gen. 1:26 And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

Gen 1:27 So God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them.*

* Recently some zealots claimed that the people created here could not be heathen or "pre-Adamic" races because verse 27 says those people were "created in the image of God" The problem here is not with the translation, but with the void of understanding of the critics. They cannot understand that the word "image" only means something or somebody is in the likeness of someone else, or that a person's shadow, silhouette, or reflection projected on to something, is only the image of that person, not the person itself That is why a heathen can also be a creation in the image of God, who also had a head and body with limbs, can walk and talk, like was Yahshua was while on earth.

Gen 1:28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moved upon the earth.

Gen 1:29 And God said, Behold, I have given *you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat.

* Note: Yahweh is talking to people here, who are His creation but are NOT ADAMITES. People who were here on earth for ages already, after the fall of Satan and His flunky (fallen) angels, but before Yahweh formed Adam, breathed His own spirit into him to bring God's seed to rule the earth. Though the heathen may not like it, reading Genesis 17:1-9 will show you Yahweh's plan for His seed on earth beginning with Adam followed by choosing Abraham. What more proof do we need to verify that God approves discrimination? Who dares to say God is wrong?

Gen. 1:30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to everything that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

Gen. 1:31 And God saw everything that He had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

Gen. 2:5 And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for Yahweh God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a *man to till the ground. * It does not say that there was no man, just no man to till the ground

Gen. 2:7 And Yahweh God formed (Adam) man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

Gen. 2:8 And Yahweh God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there He put the man whom He had formed.

Gen. 2:15 And Yahweh God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it.

Gen. 2:16 And Yahweh God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat

Gen. 2:18 And Yahweh God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him.

Gen 2:22 And the rib, which Yahweh God had taken from man, made He a woman, and brought her unto the man.

Gen 3:20 And Adam called his wife's name Eve; because she was the mother of all living.

Gen 5:1 This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made He him;

The Hebrew word here for generations (in plural only) is towledah, meaning families, "races," genealogy, pedigree, as in Gen. 5: I .(See Gesenius' Hebrew Lexicon to the Old Testament, page 859). This is a unprecedented written proof that the Bible is exclusively about, for and to, the descendants and progeny of the Adamic race of people, (today known as Caucasians), not everybody.

Gen. 5:2 Male and female created He them; and blessed them, and called their name *Adam, in the day when they were created.

* This is a perversion of the original. The translators and some modern churches suggestion that possessed both genders by rendering the text for Adam in plural. Using both nouns— male and only unscriptural but ludicrous. To depict a unisex Adam is clear evidence of tampering with scripture by desperate translators who have conspired to mock God's creation, clearly verifiable with James 3: 16 and 2 John: 7.

Gen. 5:3 And Adam lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, after his image; and called his name Seth:

* Notice here that the Adamic seed went from Adam to Seth, without mentioning either Cain or Abel The reason for Cain not being listed in the chronology of Adam is because he was not the seed of Adam but of the serpent. (See Gen. 3:12 and Gen. 4:1) Abel is not counted either because he had to die for he was born from the polluted womb of Eve.

Gen. 5:4 And the days of Adam after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years: and he begat sons and daughters:

Gen. 5:5 And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years: and he died.

* These last three verses show that after the murder of Abel, there were no children born to Adam and Eve for 130 years when they begot a son, Seth. Then they had more children for the next eight hundred years, when the scriptures state that Adam beget more sons and daughters. Adam lived 930 years. It is evident that the suggestion of Cain taking his own sister for a wife and building a city in Gen. 4:17 is false, (In spite that it is so rendered in the Book Jasher).

Gen. 5:6 And Seth lived an hundred and five years, and begat Enos:

Gen. 5:7 And Seth lived after he begat Enos eight hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.

Deut. 7:6 For you are a people holy to Yahweh your God. Yahweh your God has chosen you out of all the peoples on the face of the earth to be His people, His treasured possession.

Deut. 7:7 Yahweh did not set His affection on you and choose you because you were more numerous other peoples, for you were the fewest of all peoples.*

* This is due to the fact the pre-Adamic races were here for ages, where Adam's race had just begun.

Deut. 10:15 Yet Yahweh set His affection on your forefathers and loved them, and He chose you, their descendants, above all the nations, as it is today.*

* The Adamic race's destiny on earth is to rule for Yahweh and for humanity's sake.

Deut. 14:1 You are the children of Yahweh your God. Do not cut yourselves or shave the front of your heads for the dead.

Deut. 14:2 for you are a people holy to Yahweh your God. Out of all the peoples on the face of the earth Yahweh has *chosen you to be His treasured possession.

* He has chosen the Adamic race, not Cain's. The Jews are not the chosen because they of Cain Matt. 13:39; 23:35; John 8:44; 1 John 3:12.

Deut. 26:19 He has declared that He will set you in praise, fame and honor high above all the nations He has made and that you will be a people holy to Yahweh your God, as He promised.

Deut. 28:10 Then all the peoples on earth will see that you are called by the name of Yahweh, and they will fear you.*

* As all white nations were of the world until their recent decline due to sin.

Deut. 28:13 Yahweh will make you the head, not the tail. If you pay attention to the commands of Yahweh your God that I give you this day and carefully follow them, you will always be at the top, never at the bottom.

Josh 24:15 But if serving Yahweh seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your forefathers served beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve Yahweh.

1 Chr. 1:1 Adam, Seth, Enosh,*

* That short list is not in error. No Cain or Abel mentioned in Adam's chronology in the Bible. (See note at Luke 3:38)

Isa 42:1 Here is My servant, whom I uphold, My chosen one in whom I delight; I will put My Spirit on him and he will bring justice to the nations.

Isa 43:1 But now thus saith Yahweh that created thee, O Jacob, and He that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art Mine.

Isa 44:21 Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for thou art My servant: I have formed thee; thou art My servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of Me.

Isa 49:5 And now, saith Yahweh that formed me from the womb to be His servant, to bring Jacob again to Him, Though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of Yahweh, and my God shall be my strength.

Jer 1:5 Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou came forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

Luke 3:38 Which was the son of Enos, which was the son of Seth, which was the son of Adam, which was the son of God.

* See note at 1 Chr. 1:1.

1 Cor 15:45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

1 Cor 15:46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

1 Cor 15:47 The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is Yahweh from heaven.

1 Cor 15:48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

1 Cor 15:49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

1 Tim 2:13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

1 Tim 2:14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

Jude 1:14 And Enoch also, the *seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, Yahweh cometh with ten thousands of His saints,

* If Cain had been of Adam, Enoch would have been referred to as the ninth from Adam.

Rev. 22:11 He that is unjust, *let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

* Let him be . . . The emphasis here is on Yahshua's command to let evil alone because it is in His plan that He should defeat Satan, his children and all evil, not men. Thus, movements or people trying to save America or the world are against His will.

Rev. 22:12 And, behold, I come quickly; and My reward [is] with Me, to give every man according to his work shall be.

The bottom line is, whether or not it is considered racially offensive and/or religiously incorrect. Yahweh is the creator and the giver of law and life; His son Adam could not have been the first mini to exist on earth. If this isn't clear to you after studying this article, then pray for more understanding.

1. Note here that his descendants were called Israelites. The Hebrew word Israel (Ish-raw-el,) means "to rule and govern with the Issue of God."

St. Govan's Chapel - Pembrokeshire From Our Cardiff Correspondent

Tucked away in a cleft in the rocks on the south coast of Pembrokeshire near the village of Bosherton is one of Wales' most magical buildings. It is a tiny chapel dating from perhaps the 13th century, though it may stand on the foundations of something much older. It marks the site where St Govan, a 6th century hermit, chose to live a religious life, with only the sea birds for company.

Nobody knows the real identity of St Govan. Was he Gobhan, the abbot of a monastery near Wexford in Ireland? Or might Govan really be Covan, the widow of an Irish king who chose to retire from her regal lifestyle to spend her last years in this lonely spot? Perhaps, as one story tells us Govan was none other than Sir Gawain who, after the death of King Arthur, came here to follow a life of contemplation and prayer.

Whatever the true identity of St Govan, the chapel is shrouded in legend and the tales begin before you even step inside it. To reach it from the cliff top you must make your way down a flight of steps polished smooth by the feet of generations of visitors. Take your time and count the steps carefully. Then do the same when you return. A long established tradition says that you will never reach the same total.

When you reach the doorway to the chapel, look carefully at the stones of the door frame to your right. You should be able to make out the sign of a fish, a symbol of Christianity carved there many centuries ago.

The interior of the chapel is dark and mysterious. The roof above you is vaulted and to your right, another doorway leads down to a rocky inlet. To your left, a narrow rectangle in the floor marks one of the holy wells for which the site was famous. It is dry now but in past centuries it was treated with great respect, for the waters healed many ailments. Those seeking a cure would scoop up the water with a limpet shell and drink it and it was commonly thought that the spring never overflowed to flood the floor of the chapel.

The second well, of which more later, can be found outside the chapel overlooking the shore line.

An ancient altar still exists in the chapel and just behind it and to one side is a narrow cleft in the rock. Enter it carefully and peer into the crevice on the left. You should spot some strange, rib-like markings on the rock face. These have a legendary origin.

They mark the spot where St Govan took refuge from a group of marauding pirates who were landed in the cove below intent on stealing the silver bell that Govan used in his daily service of prayer. The saint had spotted the approaching vessel and squeezed himself into the crevice, offering up fervent prayers that he would not be discovered. Miraculously, the rock closed protectively about him and he was never found. It must have been a tight fit, however, for the rocks have born the imprint of his ribs ever since. It is said that if you manage to fit yourself into the crack and can turn round three times without touching the rock face, you will be granted a wish.

Although the pirates didn't find St Govan, they did steal his silver bell. There are many versions of what happened next. One story is that a mighty storm arose and sank the pirate ship. The bell was lost with it, or became embedded in a rock on the seabed and can now be heard chiming out during rough weather.

Alternatively, Govan received in compensation a wonderful stone that, when struck, rang out with a chime identical to that of the lost bell. A third legend is that the bell itself was magically transported to the edge of the second well that exists outside the chapel, where it was embedded in a stone that rings out when tapped.

As strange as these stories may seem to be, they only emphasise the reverence in which this building was once held - and still is by many people. You will often find flowers on the altar, left as a mark of respect to St Govan, who is said to lie beneath the altar.

The second of the healing wells of St Govan can be found below the chapel, halfway down to the shoreline. Sadly now dry, it still retains its stone canopy. In past centuries pilgrims came here in the certainty that they would be cured of illnesses such as rheumatism, failing eyesight and lameness. The water of the well could be drunk or was used to bathe the affliction. It could even be mixed with red clay from the surrounding cliffs to form a poultice. Whichever method was chosen, it seems to have worked for even as recently as the end of the 19th century it wasn't unusual to see a pile of cast-off crutches beside the well, or heaped up on the altar within the chapel.

To end with, I can do no better than to quote the poem written many years ago by A.G. Pryse-Jones. It is still a favourite of many people and seems to sum up all that is special about this much loved spot:

St Govan, he built him a cell
By the side of the Pembroke sea,
And there, as the crannied sea-gulls dwell.
In a tiny, secret citadel

He sighed for eternity.
St Govan, he built him a cell
Between the wild sky and the sea,
Where the sunsets redden the rolling swell
And brooding splendour has thrown her spell
On valley and moorland lea.
St Govan still lies in his cell,
But his soul, long since, is free,
And one may wonder - and who can tell -
If good St Govan likes Heaven as well
As his cell by that sounding sea?
The End

IF THE TRUTH BE KNOWN

CD 127 minutes [\[Listen to audio clip\]](#) $16.00

Here you will find the ignored story of the massive deportations of the German peoples from Eastern Germany, Poland, the Baltic States, and the Sudetenland and its attendant horrors.

The entire library of many more audio programs is available as a bundle. All told, this is nearly 14 hours of great historical commentary! Plus, you realize a savings of $20 dollars. For full details and to purchase go to the website:—
