Calling The True Israel Peoples

Editorial

Dear Reader,

America (And Other Western Nations) Has Become a Dopeocracy

“For by your sorceries were all nations deceived.” -- Rev. 18:23.

SORCERIES – from the Greek word, pharmakeia, from which we get our English pharmacy and pharmaceutical.

America, we have a problem. In the wake of the mass killing of students and faculty at Sandy Hook in Newtown CT, there has been yet another media frenzy against the Second Amendment. Many Americans believe that these atrocities are actually being staged by the federal government for the express purpose of creating a national campaign against self-defence, with guns, and the Second Amendment, being the target of this campaign. This article is about the media blackout on the legal drugs that have been instrumental in virtually all of the recent mass killings.

I am getting sick of the same old headlines blaming guns, the same old excuses and the failure of the Mass Media to address the real causes of America's ongoing shooting spree. The fact is that the Corporate Government Establishment does not want you to know that virtually every famous case of mass killing in the last twenty-five years involves LEGAL drugs.

The Stephen Kazmierczak case at Northern Illinois University was no exception. On Feb. 14, 2008, Kazmierczak entered a lecture hall and shot 25 people. Six of them died. Stephen Kaczmirczak was taking Paxil.

In virtually every case of these mass killings, in which guns were used, the media focus is on the guns. Rarely do reporters mention the psychotropic drugs that are being used by the killers. If they do mention the prescription drug angle, it is only as an afterthought or a sidelight. The question is always: “How do these people get guns?” instead of “What is the connection between drugs and killing?” Like the Virginia Tech shootings, which also involved a negative reaction to prescription drugs, Northern Illinois University was victimized by Pharmakeia, the Government-Pharmaceutical-Medical Complex, the tyrant that nobody talks about.

A Beast With A Hand? - Jason Blaha	35

Aldous Huxley, in his book, Brave New World, prophetically described a dark society which is perpetually drugged by its own government, a One World Government, by the way! The official drug was called soma. The purpose of this drugging was to keep the people so anaesthetized as to prevent them from awakening to their own oppression.

Today, in order to prevent the citizenry from realizing how corrupt and oppressive the system really is, the authorities increasingly resort to mass drugging of the whole society. If you don't see America's reflection in this characterization, you haven't been paying attention. Either that, or you're one of those who are too doped up to notice what I'm talking about. Of course, the Beast tells us that this all "for our own good."

Huxley's fictional soma is today's real life Prozac.

Here is what Mike Adams had to say, concerning the April 16, 2007 Virginia Tech killings:

The Chicago Tribune reports that Cho Seung Hui, the Virginia Tech shooter who killed 32 fellow students in a shooting rampage, was taking antidepressant drugs. This is not the first time a school shooting rampage has been linked to antidepressants. The infamous Columbine High shootings took place almost exactly eight years ago, and the shooters in that rampage were also -- you guessed it -- taking antidepressant drugs. What is it about antidepressant drugs that provokes young men to pick up pistols, rifles and shotguns, then violently assault their classmates? Clearly, there's something wrong with the mind of anyone who engages in such violent acts. Could the drugs be "imbaling" their minds, priming them for violence?

The answer is a very sobering, "Yes, they could be." As we reported in a previous NewsTarget article on Paxil:

Researchers from Cardiff University in Britain and the Cochrane Centre examined data on Paxil -- or its generic form, paroxetine -- from Glaxo-SmithKline, legal cases and emails from nearly 1,400 patients who responded to a British TV program on antidepressants. The researchers found that 60 out of 9,219 people taking Paxil -- 0.65 percent -- experienced a "hostility event," compared to 20 out of 6,455 patients taking placebo, or 0.31 percent.

In that same article, published in September, 2006, I stated, "This finding helps explain why school shootings are almost always conducted by children who are taking antidepressants. We also know that SSRIs cause children to disconnect from reality. When you combine that with a propensity for violence, you create a dangerous recipe for school shootings and other adolescent violence."

Sadly, that explanation rings true once again with the Virginia Tech shooting. Wherever we see school violence, antidepressant drugs seem to found at the scene of the crime. The correlation is not coincidence. There is a causal link between the two.

The Monster is a Dope-Pusher, Not a Gun

The American people need to understand that there is a monster on the loose: it is a very unhealthy and un-Constitutional relationship between the FDA and the pharmaceutical companies. The Federal government has become their enabler, giving them unrestricted access to our school children, turning children with "Attention Deficit Disorder" into killer zombies. The problem is that about 1-2% of these children (and adults) become psychotic and act out violent scenes from the "Night of the Living Dead." From a statistical point of view, 1-2% is not very bad, unless you're one of the victims. What is often overlooked is the fact that the likelihood of psychotic reactions dramatically increases when other drugs, such as alcohol, marijuana and non-prescription drugs, are combined with antidepressants.

The real culprit in these mass killings is not guns. The real culprit is the pharmaceutical industry and its covert dictatorship by legalized drugs. In last 30 years, virtually every famous mass killing has been perpetrated by someone taking SSRI medications. SSRI stands for Selective Serotonin Reuptake Inhibitors. This class of drugs is legal when prescribed by physicians. The problem is that SSRI's give these physicians a license to kill. This license to kill is especially dangerous in our nation's schools, as SSRI's have replaced discipline with druggery.

The idea that rowdiness and restlessness in school-age children requires a psychological analysis and drug treatment is a recent, very dangerous phenomenon – or, should I say racket. The fact is that virtually none of these school drug programs are necessary.

Indeed, most of the inattentiveness, restlessness and hyperactivity in children is directly related to too much dietary intake of processed sugar and carbohydrates. Rather than restricting sugar intake, the Establishment resorts to dispensing pills. Dispensing drugs to school children is just the pharmaceutical corporations' way of making BIG BUCKS, enforced by the strong arm of the "law," i.e., the Food and Drug Administration. We all know about the Revolving Door between the corporate board room and government "regulatory agencies." This is a marriage made in hell, where ex-drug company execs, now consulting for or employed by the government, routinely advocate more mandatory government drug dispensation programs, from anti-depressants to vaccinations. The profits are guaranteed and the government eliminates the liability risk by giving the drug policy the sanction of "law." This is pure, unadulterated corruption, overflowing with conflicts of interest. The robber barons didn't have it so good!

America has long been focused on the problem of illegal drugs. It's time we faced the fact that LEGAL drugs are tearing our society apart. Consider this report:

Everyone agrees on the question, "How could this have happened in our community?" But the answers vary. Some say, "It's the handguns." While others point to society's moral decay, blaming "too much television, not enough God." But the answers to the recent scourge of violent shootings plaguing America may be found in our medicine cabinets.

Julian Whitaker, M.D., believes there is a direct link between the violent shootings and the increased and indiscriminate use of popular antidepressant drugs. Dr. Whitaker points out that many of the gun-related massacres that have made the headlines over the past decade have a common thread: they were perpetrated by people taking Prozac, Zoloft, Luvox, Paxil, or a related drug.

A documented side effect of these drugs -- known clinically as selective serotonin reuptake inhibitors (SSRIs) -- is akathisia, or physical and mental agitation. Dr. Whitaker says "akathisia is to violence what a match is to gasoline. And this condition has been reported in a significant number of Prozac users." Moreover, the Food and Drug Administration has received over 40,000 reports detailing adverse effects related to Prozac.

This report was written way back in 1999! Is it possible that the government and the drug companies, with their armies of researchers and technicians, are ignorant of these associations? Is the Kept Press ignorant too? Where are the exposes by Dan Blather and Barbara Falter? Since the biggest advertiser, by far, in virtually every medium, - print, TV, radio, newspapers - is Big Pharma, you can only expect more COVER-UP from your usual "news" source. They're not about to run stories exposing their cash cow. So much for "honest reporting"!

Behind the headlines, a huge story is not being told. It is a silent war against America and the world. This silent war is being conducted by Big Pharma and Big Government against the people. In reality, it is the Military-Industrial-Pharmaceutical-Media-Government complex; and there will be no relief to society's ills until the people of America say "Enough!" to this Beast. (See Rev. 17 & 18).

Answers to Objections About Israel Being Exclusive (4) Arnold Kennedy

14. "GO INTO THE HIGHWAYS"

Matt 22:9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

A GAIN, the standard universalistic doctrine teaches this Scripture wrongly in an endeavour to say everyone of every race is included in this call. There is a lot more in these verses than meets the eye.

The servants were told to go to the cross-roads [diex] but instead they went to the ways [hodos]. Both words are translated as cross-roads in the KJV. At the cross-roads there is a separation place, but on the ways, or the path between two places there is no separation place. The consequence of going to the wrong place to invite people to the wedding was to bring in people who were an un-separated mixture of two kinds. In verse 11 there is a man not having on a wedding garment. This suggests that one group does not have on the wedding garments and the consequence is that the evil or the bad guests are to be cast into outer darkness.

Where do the churches go today to preach? Do they go to the hodos or to the diex? Should we be going to the lost sheep of the House of Israel as Jesus commanded His disciples? Should it not be with Israel to whom the New Testament is made? The New Testament still pertains to those who had the Old Testament and direct statements to the contrary cannot be found in Scripture. [Please read Jeremiah 31:31-34 to review the limitation given].

15. ALL MEN JUSTIFIED BY THE FREE GIFT

Romans 5:18 Therefore as by the offence of one, judgement came upon all men to condemnation, even so by the righteousness of one, the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.

Our prime consideration in this verse is the latter part because we are establishing the identity of these all men. In all this book of Romans, the subject people are of the seed of Abraham according to the flesh [Rom 4:1] and so this book is not written to any others than Israelites. The subject people are indicated as "we" in this chapter and these people are identified as being Israelites. If there is any hesitation in acceptance of this statement, the reader should obtain the book, "The Exclusiveness of Israel" and read the sections on the exclusive nature of Israel in the book of Romans. In Romans 4:16 we read that the promise might be sure to all The Seed. It is not to all seeds on earth, but to that particular seed or sperma being addressed.

A similar situation occurs in Romans 7:6 "That we being delivered from the Law". The pronoun "we" only refers to those to whom the Law had been given and the Law was given to Israel only as a covenant. Because of this, the all men in this verse is applicable only to the seed of Abraham through Isaac and to nobody else.

16. “WHO WILL HAVE ALL MEN TO BE SAVED?”

1 Tim 2:4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

The earlier notes on “all” and “every” apply here. That it does not mean a blanket every person on earth is obvious from the fact that all men are not saved. In the following verses there are the words who gave Himself a ransom for all and these words show that the all concerns only those who needed to be ransomed, that is, those who were under the Law which is exclusively Israel.

17. “GO INTO THE HIGHWAYS”

Matt 22:9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

Again, the standard universalistic doctrine teaches this Scripture wrongly in an endeavour to say everyone of every race is included in this call. There is a lot more in these verses than meets the eye. The servants were told to go to the cross roads [diex] but instead they went to the ways [hodos]. Both words are translated as cross-roads in the KJV. At the cross-roads there is a separation place, but on the ways, or the path between two places there is no separation place. The consequence of going to the wrong place to invite people to the wedding was to bring in people who were an un-separated mixture of two kinds. In verse 11 there is a man not having on a wedding garment. This suggests that one group does not have on the wedding garments and the consequence is that the evil or the bad guests are to be cast into outer darkness.

Where do the churches go today to preach? Do they go to the hodos or to the diex? Should we be going to the lost sheep of the House of Israel as Jesus commanded His disciples? Should it not be with Israel to whom the New Testament is made? The New Testament still pertains to those who had the Old Testament and direct statements to the contrary cannot be found in Scripture. [Please read Jeremiah 31:31-34 to review the limitation given].

18. “BUT THAT ALL SHOULD COME TO REPENTANCE?”

2 Peter 3:9: But is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any [that is, any of us] should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

Here we do not have the word “men” mentioned, but in its place we have the indefinite pronoun tis which denotes some or any person or object, any man, whomsoever, or certain men etc, see Strong G5100. Certain men are not all men in general. Thayer [5100] It indicates that the thing with which it is connected belongs to a certain class, or resembles it.

In this book Peter is writing to the one Holy Nation. He is writing to the strangers of his own blood. Peter again refers to “our Fathers” indicating that the people to whom it was written were the children of the Fathers, and so the “any” is racially exclusive. All men on Earth do not have “The Fathers” Abraham, Isaac and Jacob as their progenitors. In this passage Peter is pointing out that God is long-suffering to “US-ward” and not to “THEM-ward”. Peter is writing to an Holy Nation. He is not writing to “The Church” as a multi-racial group (like below).

19. “SALVATION TO ALL MEN”

Titus 2:11 For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men.

The all men in this passage is the same as that in the passage above. It is again limited by those to whom it is addressed, namely God’s elect [Titus 1:1], and in Titus 2:14 we can see that this again limits the scope of all men to those who were given the law who gave himself for

US, that he might redeem US from all iniquity.

20. “THE KINGDOM NOW INCLUDES EVERYONE”.

Jesus told the disciples where to go and proclaim The Kingdom and that the time was at hand. After His resurrection Jesus spoke to the Apostles about this Kingdom.

Acts 1:3 ... being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the Kingdom of God.

This is the prime message of Jesus and He taught it right up to His ascension. But who is willing to teach this today? We hear much about the gospel of universal salvation, but this is not what Jesus taught. Try to find the gospel of universal salvation in the Law, the Psalms, and the Prophets. Then try to find it in the New Testament as the fulfilment of the Old Testament. “The Church” might seem to be an answer, but the fulfilment still has to be in us their children [Acts 13:32,33]. If this is so, then The Church still has to be racial; the members still have to be the children (descendants) of The Fathers.

The disciples asked Jesus before His ascension, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore the Kingdom TO ISRAEL? [Acts 1:6]. Look again at this. To whom is the Kingdom to be restored? Is there ever a suggestion that any but genetic Israel will be included in that Kingdom? The meaning of Israel includes ruling with God. If Israel was made up from all the nations, then who are the other nations over which Israel is to rule with God? Jesus used the word ‘salvation’ only twice, but no dispute about this. Israel separated into two Kingdoms which were basically:

Consider these expressions:

- The KING Is the King of ISRAEL.
- The REDEEMER Is the Redeemer of ISRAEL.
- The HOLY ONE Is the Holy One of ISRAEL.
- The FATHER Is the Father of ISRAEL [“My Son”].

Look in vain for these titles to apply to other than Israel in the Bible.

21. THERE ARE TWO ISRAEL'S: ONE NATURAL, ONE SPIRITUAL

To say that there is a natural Israel and a spiritual Israel is the only way out of the dilemma some people have in trying to fit their doctrines and prophecy together. Their dilemma arises from the wrong basic traditional teaching that:

[a] The Jews are National Israel, [or “Natural Israel” or “God’s natural people”].

[b] The Gentiles are The Church, [or “Spiritual Israel” or “God’s heavenly people”].

In a chapter of “The Exclusiveness of Israel” it is shown that “The Jews” are not Israel and that “Gentiles” may be Israelites. Obviously there are two groups of peoples concerned. There is no denying this. This is why it is so important to determine exactly who the two groups are. In the Old Testament there is [a] The House of Israel [ten Tribes]. known as Ephraim.

[b] The House of Judah [two Tribes] known as Judah.

These two Houses had enmity between them, and according to prophecy, they retain this enmity until unity is restored under the New Testament that the two Houses receive nationally. The timing of the reunion is at the time of the re-gathering of both Houses of all Israel. Ephraim and Judah are unique identities, through Scripture from the time of the division of Israel into two Kingdoms, until the re-gathering of Israel as a whole. Ephraim was and is the leader of the House of Israel-[ten tribes] whereas Judah was and is the leader of the House of Judah-[two tribes].

Isaiah 11:12,13....and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim.

Here in the Old Testament we find two groups within all Israel which stay two national groups until the time given to once again become one group. They are still the two groups to whom the New Testament was given.

Heb 8:8,9 Behold the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah: not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; There is no record in Scripture of the New Testament being made with any other two groups.

This verse says that they are the same race with which God was involved in the Exodus from Egypt. Again we have definition in the words their fathers. This gives a racial statement of meaning that cannot be spiritualised. The problem that then arises is, that if the covenant people were to be spiritualised into two different groups, one Israelite and the other non-Israelite, then one of the original two national groups would have to have vanished or the two combined before the appointed time.

Despite the fact that this cannot be found in prophecy in the Old Testament, or in the New Testament as fulfilment of prophecy, the belief about Jews and non-Israel Gentiles is still taught as being truth. In order to accommodate all races, another doctrine had to be created and this is actively promoted.

This non-scriptural doctrine pre-supposes that non-Israel races need salvation from a broken law that they were not given to break in the first place. This idea cannot be found as a doctrine in either Testament.

NOTE: No statement about the final destiny of non-Israel races has been made or suggested in this book. The idea about all races needing redemption comes mainly from the misuse of all, whosoever etc in the New Testament. But there is no denial that the non-Israel nations should be made subject to the Law of Christ. Jesus will rule with a rod of iron, and the nations will bring their glory to the New Jerusalem, but we are told that the other nations will be outside that City.

DON'T BE FOOLED
POLITICS IS NO LONGER
It has always been
JEW vs GENTILE

The extra-scriptural doctrine about “Jews and Gentiles” arises from interpretations of the books of Romans and Galatians. But, the racial statements cannot be eliminated from these books, even if it is thought God should have given the covenants to every race on Earth. The expressions, The House of Israel, and The Twelve Tribes still exist through the New Testament. In concluding his argument about the so-called “Jews and Gentiles”, the Apostle Paul says:

Rom 11:26 And so all Israel shall be saved; as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away un-godliness from Jacob.

There is no mention about any but all Israel being saved. None other than the seed of Jacob are included in being turned from un-godliness. Other races can never be part of all Israel or Jacob.

Rom 3:30 Seeing that it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

Those whom God would justify are shown to be:

[a] The circumcision. The House of Judah.

[b] The un-circumcision. The House of Israel.

The House of Israel had become dispersed among the nations and were known as the un-circumcision. They had become as strangers and aliens to the Judeans, but they were still Israelites by race. To the Judeans who had the temple worship, the House of Israel was unclean and was despised.

Rom 4:13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

It is still to Abraham's seed through Isaac that the promises were made. This includes all from Jacob to Jesus who believed God. All Israel was saved by Jesus but it is personal belief in what God says that saves the individual person within that seed. The popular doctrine says the seed is only a spiritual seed which can be made up from all races.

Rom 4:16 ... to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed.

Paul is not talking about other races. It is always to the one seed of Abraham through Isaac and Jacob. These are the children of promise. Prophetically the New Testament is made only with the two Houses, the House of Israel and the House of Judah. Hebrews 8:8 shows the promise of the New Testament concerns only these two Houses. This is the fulfillment of Jer 31:31. Paul sums up the two parties, and declares:

Rom 9:4 Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption?

All the objections in the world are not going to change what pertains to Israel or to the Word of the Lord. This verse says Who ARE Israelites.

Yahweh's Solar Calendar (4)

CHAPTER & VERSE, PART II

God's Appointments with Israel: Memorials and Feasts

convocation, for presenting to Yahweh offerings by fire, burnt offerings and cereal offerings, each on its proper day; besides the sabbaths of Yahweh, and besides your gifts, and besides all your votive offerings, and besides your freewill offerings, which you give to Yahweh. -- Lev. 23:37,38.

These are the appointed feasts of Yahweh, which you shall proclaim as times of holy

{A quick note here: There is no doubt in my mind that Yahweh established these Feasts as a memorial for Israel for perpetuity. But, since Yahshua Messiah offered Himself as the Last Sacrifice, it is no longer mandatory to shed the blood of sacrificial animals for the remission of sins. Otherwise, we are still required to observe the Feasts as a memorial, to study the Law and humble ourselves before Yahweh.}

Abib 1, first day of the year.

In remembrance of the Passover, Yahweh said to Moses: This month shall be for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you. -- Ex.

Passover.

In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month in the evening, is Yahweh's Passover. -- Lev. 23:5.

Feast of Unleavened Bread.

And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread. On the first day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work. -- Lev. 23:6,7. Abib 15 is already a regular Sabbath. It is also a Special Sabbath because it is part of the Feast of Unleavened Bread. The same is true for Abib 22.

Abib 16 is the "morrow after the Sabbath," the day of the Wave Sheaf

(Lev. 23:9) offering. The day before, a Sabbath, is the day from which the countdown to Pentecost begins.

Pentecost (Feast of First Fruits).

Fifty days from Abib 15 is Sivan 5. Sivan 5 is a consecutive Sabbath from Sivan 4. And you shall count from the morrow after the Sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven full weeks shall they be, counting fifty days to the morrow after the seventh Sabbath. -- Lev. 23:15,16.

Feast of Trumpets.

Ethanim 1. The trumpet signals the end of the agricultural year. It also signals the crowning of a new king. Prophetically, the Feast of Trumpets anticipates the First and Second Advents of the Lord Jesus Christ. And Yahweh said unto Moses, Say to the people of Israel, in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall observe a day of solemn rest, a memorial proclaimed with a blast of trumpets, a holy convocation. -- Lev. 23:23.

Commanded Sabbath.

Ethanim 9. This is a special Sabbath, as well as the next day, Ethanim 10. On the ninth day of the month beginning at evening, from evening to evening you shall keep your Sabbath. -- Lev. 23:32.

Day of Atonement.

Ethanim 10. The Day of Atonement is not a regular Sabbath. It is a special Sabbath and day of fasting. And Yahweh said unto Moses, On the tenth day of this seventh month is the day of atonement; it shall be for you a time of holy convocation, and you shall afflict yourselves and present an offering by fire to Yahweh. -- Lev. 23:28.

Feast of Tabernacles.

Ethanim 15. Ethanim 15 begins the week-long Feast of Tabernacles. Israel is to gather in tents or booths. On the fifteenth day of this seventh month and for seven days is the feast of booths to Yahweh. -- Lev. 23:34. You shall keep it as a feast to Yahweh seven days in the year; it is a statute for ever throughout your generations; you shall keep it in the seventh month. You shall dwell in booths, that your generations may know that I made the people of Israel dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am Yahweh your God. -- Lev. 23:41-43.

Feast of Purim.

Adar 14 & 15. And Mordecai recorded these things, and sent letters to all the Judahites who were in the provinces of King Ahaseurus, both near and far, enjoining them that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and also the fifteenth day of the same, year by year, as the days on which the Judahites [of the House of Judah] got relief from their enemies...[the Amelekites and other Canaanites] -- Esther 9:20-22.

(NOTE: This feast was not appointed by Yahweh, but was peculiar to the House of Judah, as one of their own memorials. Since Benjamin and Levi were part of the House of Judah at that time, these tribes might also celebrate Purim. However, the tribes of the House of Israel were not involved in this event, so it is not a national holiday for all Israel. ...the Judahites ordained and took it upon themselves and their descendants and all who joined them, that without fail they would keep these two days according to what was written at the time appointed every year... -- Est. 9:27,28.)

FINAL NOTE: It is a condition of the Restoration of Israel that the nations of Anglo-Saxon Israel return to their God by resuming the practice of the Sabbaths, Memorials, and Feast Days of Yahweh's calendar. All Christian Identity churches and related churches are encouraged to make a study of Yahweh's calendar and to begin observing God's commandments once again. In the final days before the Judgment, we are instructed to "come out of Babylon." It is by opting out of the Beast's economic system and returning to nature, to Yah's Laws, and to Yah's Sacred Calendar that we accomplish this separation.

With so much confusion about the true biblical calendar, I believe that Yahweh, in His infinite Mercy, knows our Hearts and judges us accordingly. Even if we cannot keep the Letter of His Law, He does not punish us if we keep the Spirit of His Law. It is not possible for people who work 9-5 jobs to abruptly quit and follow the Sabbath system, which is unrelated to the existing workweek; and I am not suggesting that you drop everything and do so. It is a goal that we must set and pray for. Once He knows you are trying to understand His Word, He will guide you and move mountains for you, if necessary, so do not be dismayed if you are presently unable to follow the Sabbath system outlined herein. But, you must keep the Spirit of the Law by keeping one a day a week separate for rest and worship. This day is for Him, your Creator. That is not too much to ask. If this concept were not important to Yahweh, He would not have said so much about it in Scripture; and He would not have made it one of the Ten Commandments.

Having participated in numerous Feast Day celebrations, I know that many Christian Identity congregations, nationwide, keep the particular Feasts of Passover, Pentecost and Tabernacles on the weekend closest to the actual Solar Sabbath. Since most of our congregants are law-abiding, hard-working citizens who do the 5-days-a-week, 8-hours-a-day routine, they can hardly expect to tell their bosses to sympathize with their newly-discovered, "oddball" religious practices! "Sorry, Boss, I'm not coming to work this week because of the Feast of Tabernacles." That's asking to get fired. Yahweh knows your heart. Keep praying for this deliverance and He will move mountains for you. In the meantime, you have to demonstrate to Him an awareness of His Law, so that you can, ultimately, keep both the Spirit and the Letter of the Law.

But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly polluted: then said I, I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them...I am Yahweh, your God; walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; And hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am Yahweh your God. -- Ezekiel 20:13, 19, 20.

Note: By the above two sections of Josephus' according to Hebrew law (Ex.23:14-17; Lev. 23:34) ALL OF WHICH FEASTS take place in works we see that Rome's tax upon Judea was on late September through mid October.

(Oct. 11th, is the end of these Feasts in fact.) The Westminster Dictionary of the Bible, 1944 edition, page 646 lists these Feasts as corresponding to Sept./Oct. of our calendar.

The Bible declares that this was the season of the birth of Jesus Christ:

"And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed. And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria. And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; because he was of the house and lineage of David: To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered." (Luke 2:1-6)

This time of year (Fall harvest in Jerusalem) is still warm weather (Isaiah 18:4) when the shepherds remained with their flocks in the opened fields, even all night. Such tending of sheep was not done in the winter of December which is especially a cold rainy season in Jerusalem. By then the flocks were taken into shelter. Yet we know that at the time of Christ's birth "there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night." (Luke 2:8)

Therefore, not only does December 25th fail to describe the day of Christ's birth, it doesn't even match the season from the records given to us in our Christian Scriptures and by history!

Heathen Rites and Symbols of Christmas

YULE AND YULE LOG From Midwinter Night's Eve: Yule

"For modern Witches, Yule (from the Anglo-Saxon 'Yula', meaning 'wheel' of the year) is usually celebrated on the actual Winter Solstice, which may vary by a few days, though it usually occurs on or around December 21st. It is a Lesser Sabbat or Lower Holiday in the modern Pagan calendar, one of the four quarter-days of the year, but a very important one. This year (1988) it occurs on December 21st at 9:28 am CST. Pagan customs are still enthusiastically followed. Once, the Yule log had been the centre of the celebration. It was lighted on the eve of the solstice (it should light on the first try) and must be kept burning for twelve hours, for good luck. It should be made of ash. Later, the Yule log was replaced by the Yule tree but, instead of burning it, burning candles were placed on it."

According to Peter Haining in his book 'Superstitions', "The mistletoe, was revered by the ancient Greeks as sacred, yet superstition has it that the reason why it is so lucky to be kissed under it is that the plant once offended the old gods, who thereafter condemned it to have to look on while pretty girls were being kissed!".

(---the explanatory article continues ---
"Mistletoe and The Druid -- The ancient Druids believed mistletoe to be an indicator of great sacredness. The winter solstice, called 'Alban Arthan' by the Druids, was according to Bardic Tradition, the time when the Chief Druid would cut the sacred mistletoe from the Oak. The mistletoe is cut using a golden sickle on the sixth night of the new moon after the winter solstice. A cloth held below the tree by other members of the order to catch the sprigs of mistletoe as they fell, as it was believed that it would have profaned the mistletoe to fall upon the ground. He would then divide the branches into many sprigs and distributed them to the people, who hung them over doorways as protection against thunder, lightning and other evils. The Druids are thought to have believed that the berries of the mistletoe represented the sperm of the gods. When pressed, a semen like substance issues from the white berries. Mistletoe was considered a magickal aphrodisiac. Girls standing under a sprig of mistletoe were asking for a bit more than a kiss, it seems."

NATIVITY FIGURES

"Nativity figures" are pulled out of their closets once each year for use in the religious holiday Christmas, but God's second commandment says, "Thou shalt not make unto thee ANY GRAVEN (SHAPED) IMAGE ---" (Exodus 20:4-8) as related to faith and worship. Yahweh knows that it is far too easy for His people to fall into idolatry by thinking that the statue figurines are in themselves somehow "holy" or attached to "spirits". The use of statues in religion always gives way to the people placing more value on the dead carvings themselves than on obeying the living Word of The Almighty. The Bible tells us that this even happened to the tribe of Judah as they fell into image making idolatry: "And Judah did evil in the sight of Yahweh, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they had committed, above all that their fathers had done. For they also built them high places, and images, and groves, on every high hill, and under every green tree". (I Kings 14:22:23)

In his diligently documented book, Babylon Mystery Religion (1966, 1981 ISBN# 091693800X), Ralph Woodrow explains, ---

"Instead of this day (Dec. 25) being the time of our Saviour's birth, it was the very day and season on which the pagans for centuries had celebrated the birth of the Sun-god! December 25th was the day of the old Roman feast of the birth of Sol—one of the names of the sun-god. In pagan days, this birth of the sun-god was especially popular among that branch of the "mysteries" known as Mithraism. Concerning this we read: 'The largest pagan religious cult which fostered the celebration of December 25 as a holiday throughout the Roman and Greek worlds was the pagan sun worship—Mithraism. This winter festival was called THE NATIVITY—the nativity of the Sun.' And not only was Mithra, the sun-god of Mithraism, said to be born at this time of the year, but Osiris, Horus, Hercules, Bacchus, Adonis, Jupiter, Tammuz, and other sun-gods were also supposedly born at what is today called the 'Christmas' season—the winter solstice!

Says a noted writer: 'The winter solstice was the time at which all the sun-gods from Osiris to Jupiter and Mithra had celebrated their birthdays, the celebration being adorned with the pine tree of Adonis, the holly of Saturn, and the mistletoe... tapers represented the kindling of the newborn sun-god's fire.' Now the fact that the various sun gods that were worshiped in different countries were all believed to have been born at the same season (in the old fables), would seem to indicate that they were but different forms (under different names) of the original son of The Sun-god, Tammuz, of Babylon, the land from which Sun-worship originally spread. In Babylon, the birthday of Tammuz was celebrated at the time of the winter solstice with great feasts, revelry, and drunkenness—the same way many celebrate today!

The ancient celebration spread and became so much an established custom that in pagan Rome and Greece, in the days of the Teutonic barbarians, in the remote times of ancient Egyptian civilization, in the infancy of the race, the period of the winter solstice was ever a period of rejoicing and festivity. When this mid-winter festival came to Rome, it was known as the Saturnalia—Saturn being but another name of Nimrod or Tammuz as The hidden god." -- end quote/book excerpt.

The nativity worship of the sun-god Tammuz was performed with carved idol images that were set up in chamber rooms (manger scene sets) and prayed to. These are mentioned by the prophet of God, Ezekiel:

Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? (that is: "inner rooms of carved idols"; see Strong's Heb.Dict.#s 2315,4906; compare Lev.26:1) "for they say, Yahweh seeth us not; Yahweh hath forsaken the earth. He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do. Then He brought me to the door of the gate of Yahweh's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz." (Ezek.8:12-14)

The figures of the "modern" nativity sets have been given "Christian names" (such as Mary, Joseph, Three Wise men, shepherds, etc) but these are only an evolved corruption of the real representation of Tammuz worship. The Bible in Matthew 2:11-16 has no mention of a "newborn manger scene" nor "three wise men" Roman Catholic Church incorporated into the visiting Mary and Joseph at the time of Christ's story of the birth of Jesus at Bethlehem, which birth. The Scriptures explains that wise men we read about in the Scriptures. came into a house to visit the messiah child Jesus when He was already two years old!

However we find in the ancient Babylonian religion, traditions of beliefs that Baal priests attended the birth of their baby god Tammuz at the time of the winter solstice. It was this heathen figurine Nativity Scene concept which the

What do these clear facts tell us? The use of little statues, the kind used at Christmas season, is a corruption of God's Truth and is a violation of the second commandment warning against religious idol and figure making.

Harold Stough Notes

What The Scottish Brahan Seer Foretold (From an article attached to HS's notebook)

THESSE are the most notable forecasts made by the Brahan Seer, though his reputation was initially founded on large numbers of smaller, local prophecies.

Culloden

"Drummosie, thy bleak moor will be stained with the best blood of the Highlands; heads will be lopped off by the score, and no mercy or quarter will be shown. The mill at Millburn will be turned for 3 days by human blood." In April 1746, the Jacobite forces of Charles Edward Stuart were defeated by an army commanded by the Duke of Cumberland, loyal to the British government.

Highland Clearances

"The clans will become effeminate and flee from their country before an army of sheep." After Culloden, much of the Highland population was forcibly displaced to the Scottish Lowlands and the North American colonies. Landowners exploited the lack of legal protection for tenants, abruptly abandoned the traditional clan system, and carried out many brutal evictions.

Fairburn Tower

"The day will come when the Mackenzies of Fairburn shall lose their entire possessions; their castle will become uninhabited and a cow shall give birth to a calf in the uppermost chamber of the tower." This heralded the demise of the MacKenzies of Kintail and Seaforth. In 1851, the now-ruined tower was being used by a farmer to store hay, and a cow gave birth in the garret. It is believed that the animal, following a trail of hay, entered the tower, climbed to the top, and got stuck. Both the cow and the calf were taken down five days later, allowing enough time for people to come and see the prophecy fulfilled.

Railways

"After four successive dry summers a fiery chariot without horse or bridle shall pass through Muir of Ord." and "Long strings of carriages without horses shall run between Dingwall and Inverness, and more wonderful still, between Dingwall and Skye." and "Soldiers will come from Tarradale on a chariot without horse or bridle, belching fire and steam."

Caledonian Canal

"Full-rigged ships to sail east and west by the back of Tomnahurich." Telford's 19th century Caledonian Canal forks off from the River Ness at the eastern head of Loch Ness (which continues its route through Inverness town centre) and heads north-east "round the back of Tomnahurich", exiting into the Moray Firth at Clachnaharry.

Strathpeffer Spa

"Uninviting and disagreeable as it now is, the Strathpeffer wells shall one day be under lock and key, and crowds of health seekers shall eagerly try to get a draught of its waters." The Strathpeffer Spa took off in Victorian times, c.1819, when the sulphurous springs were declared to be the most healthy in Britain. The railway led to great popularity and the building of the Spa Pavilion, though nowadays the waters are less in vogue, and the smaller Pump Room services health visitors.

Ships in the Sky

"When five spires shall rise in Strathpeffer, ships will sail over the village and anchor to them." In the 1850's it was proposed that an Episcopal church be built. Because there were already four spires in Strathpeffer, a petition was presented to the rector asking that another should not be built. However St Anne's Church was erected with a spire bringing the total to five and shortly after the First World War, a small airship appeared at the Strathpeffer games. It dropped a grapnel that became entangled in one of the spires, and thus anchored to them.

World War II

"When it is possible to cross the River Ness dryshod in five places, a frightful disaster will strike the whole world." In August 1939, the river could be crossed at five bridges, one only being there to assist in the demolishing of the Bridge Street suspension bridge, which had been condemned in 1937. Hitler invaded Poland on September 1st, 1939.

Piper Alpha

"The one-legged monster will leave Loch Kishorn and will go twice below the water breathing fire and the third time will spell disaster in the German Ocean." and "When the ninth bridge crosses the Ness, there will be fire, flood and calamity." The ninth bridge was built in 1987 and in 1988, the Piper Alpha oil rig exploded killing 167 oil workers (also an American passenger plane exploded over Lockerbie killing a further 279 persons).

Scottish Parliament

"When it is possible to walk dry shod from England to France, England and Scotland will become divided nations again." The Channel Tunnel was opened in 1994. A referendum in 1997 paved the way for the Scotland Act 1998 which established the Scottish Parliament. It reconvened in Holyrood in 1999 after a cessation of 292 years.

The End OS21746

The Jewish Plot Against The Church Unveiled by the "Catholic Gazette" London England, February 1936.

THE monthly organ of the Catholic Missionary Society of England was quoting speeches delivered in a series of secret Jewish meetings in Paris. A few weeks later, then Parisian weekly "Le Revell du Peuple" published a similar account, adding that the statements had been made at a secret convention of the B'nai B'rith (the secret Masonic order in which no Gentile is admitted) held in Paris.

The article in the "Catholic Gazette" read as follows:

"THE JEWISH PERIL AND THE CATHOLIC CHURCH."

That there has been and still is a Jewish problem, no one can deny. Since the rejection of Israel, 2,000 years ago, the Jews have scattered in every direction, and in spite of difficulties, and even persecution, they have established themselves as a power in nearly every nation of Europe. Jacobs in his "Jewish Contributions to Civilisation" glories in the fact that without detriment to their own racial unity and international character, the Jews have been able to spread their doctrines and increase their political, social and economic influence among the nations.

In view of this Jewish problem, which affects the Catholic Church in a special way, we publish the following amazing extracts from a number of speeches recently made under the auspices of a Jewish society in Paris. The name of our informant must remain concealed. He is personally known to us, but by reason of his peculiar relations with the Jews at the present time, we have agreed not to disclose his identity nor to give any further details of the Paris meeting beyond the following extracts which, though sometimes freely translated, nevertheless substantially convey the meaning of the original statements. – Editorial Note ("Le Revell du Peuple").

"As long as there remains among the Gentiles any moral conception of the social order, and until all faith, patriotism, and dignity are uprooted, our reign over the world shall not come.”

“We have already fulfilled part of our work, but we cannot yet claim that the whole of our work is done. We have still a long way to go before we can overthrow our main opponent – the Catholic Church.”

“We must always bear in mind that the Catholic Church is the only institution which has stood, and which will, as long as it remains in existence, stand in our way. The Catholic Church, with her methodical work, and her edifying and moral teachings, will always keep her children in such a state of mind, as to make them too self-respecting to yield to our domination, and to bow before our future King of Israel. “

“That is why we have been striving to discover the best way of shaking the Catholic Church to her very foundations. We have spread the spirit of revolt and false liberalism among the nations of the gentiles so as to persuade them away from their faith and even to make them ashamed of professing the precepts of their Religion and obeying the Commandments of their Church. We have brought many of them to boast of being atheists, and more than that, to glory in being descendants of the ape! We have given them new theories, impossible of realization, such as Communism, Anarchism, and Socialism, which are now serving our purposes. The stupid Gentiles have accepted them with great enthusiasm, without realizing that those theories are ours, and that they constitute our most powerful instrument against themselves . . . “

“We have blackened the Catholic Church with the most ignominious calumnies, we have stained her history and disgraced even her noblest activities. We have imputed to her the wrongs of her enemies, and have brought these latter to stand more closely by our side. So much so, that we are now witnessing, to our greatest satisfaction, rebellions against the Church in several countries. We have turned her Clergy into objects of hatred and ridicule, we have subjected them to the contempt of the crowd. We have caused the practice of the Catholic Religion to be considered out of date and a mere waste of time.”

“And the Gentiles, in their stupidity, have proved easier dupes than we expected them to be. One would expect more intelligence and more practical common sense, but they are no better than a herd of sheep. Let them graze in our fields till they become fat enough to be worthy of being immolated to our future King of the world”

“We have founded many secret associations, which all work for our purpose, under our orders, and our direction. We have made it an honour, a great honour, for the Gentiles to join us in our organisations, which are, thanks to our gold, flourishing now more than ever. Yet it remains our secret that those Gentiles who betray their own and most precious interests, by joining us in our plot, should never know that those associations are of our creation, and that they serve our purpose.”

“One of the many triumphs of our Freemasonry is that those Gentiles who become members of our Lodges, should never suspect that we are using them to build their own jails, upon whose terraces we shall erect the throne of our universal King of Israel; and should never know that we are commanding them to forge the chains of their own servility to our future King of the World.”

“So far, we have considered our strategy in our attacks upon the Catholic Church from the outside. But this is not all. Let us now explain how we have gone further in our work, to hasten the ruin of the Catholic Church and how we have penetrated into her most intimate circles, and brought even some of her Clergy to become pioneers of our cause.”

“Apart altogether from the influence of our philosophy, we have taken other steps to secure a breach in the Catholic Church. Let me explain how this has been done.”

“We have induced some of our children to join the Catholic body, with the explicit intimation that they should work in a still more efficient way for the disintegration of the Catholic Church, by creating scandals within her. We have thus followed the advice of our Prince of the Jews, who so wisely said: 'Let some of your children become canons, so that they may destroy the Church.' Unfortunately, not all among the 'convert' Jews have proved faithful to their mission. Many of them have even betrayed us! But on the other hand, others have kept their promise and honoured their word. Thus the counsel of our Elders has proved successful."

"We are the Fathers of all Revolutions – even of those which sometimes happen to turn against us. We are the Supreme Masters of Peace and War. We can boast of being the creators of the REFORMATION! Calvin was one of our children; he was of Jewish descent, and was entrusted by Jewish authority and encouraged with Jewish finance to draft his scheme in the Reformation."

"Martin Luther yielded to the influence of his Jewish friends, and again, by Jewish authority, and with Jewish finance, his plot against the Catholic Church met with success." Editor NE - while Luther at first accepted help from the Jews, thinking they were "God's Chosen", he soon discovered otherwise and wrote his book "The Jews and Their Lies"

"Thanks to our propaganda, to our theories of Liberalism and to our misrepresentations of Freedom, the minds of many among the Gentiles were ready to welcome the Reformation. They separated from the Church to fall into our snare. And thus the Catholic Church has been very sensibly weakened, and her authority over the Kings of the Gentiles has been reduced almost to naught."

"We are grateful to Protestants for their loyalty to our wishes – although most of them are, in the sincerity of their faith, unaware of their loyalty to us. We are grateful to them for the wonderful help they are giving us in our fight against the stronghold of Christian Civilization, and in our preparations for the advent of our supremacy over the whole world and over the Kingdom of the Gentiles."

So far we have succeeded in overthrowing most of the Thrones of Europe. The rest will follow in the near future. Russia has already worshipped our rule. France, with her Masonic Government, is under our thumb. England, in her dependence upon our finance, is under our heel; and in her Protestantism is our hope for the destruction of the Catholic Church. Spain and Mexico are but toys on our hands. And many other countries, including the USA, have already fallen before our scheming."

"But the Catholic Church is still alive"

"We must destroy her without the least delay and without the slightest mercy. Most of the Press in the world is under our control; let us therefore encourage in a still more violent way the hatred of the world against the Catholic Church. Let us intensify our activities in poisoning the morality of the Gentiles. Let us spread the spirit of revolution in the minds of the people. They must be made to despise Patriotism and the love of their family, to consider their faith as a humbug, their obedience to their Church as a degrading servility, so that they may become deaf to the appeal of the Church and blind to her warnings against us. Let us, above all, make it impossible for Christians outside the Catholic Church to be reunited with that Church, or for non-Christians to join the Church; otherwise the greatest obstruction to our domination will be strengthened and all our work undone. Our plot will be unveiled, the Gentiles will turn against us, in the spirit of revenge, and our domination over them will never be realized."

Let us remember that as long as there still remain active enemies of the Catholic Church, we may hope to become Masters of the World . . . and let us remember always that the future Jewish King will never reign in the world before the Pope in Rome is dethroned, as well as all the other reigning Monarchs of the Gentiles upon earth." – The End OS21468

Bombshell – New Method Of Destructive Vaccine Design Exposed

By Jim Stone

I was contacted by a Doctorate of Pharmacology who revealed a new method of creating brain destroying vaccines, and for a few months I sat on the story because I did not “get it”.

Here is what they are now doing. They are growing brain tissue from stem cells, stripping the proteins off of them and coating the inactive or weakened pathogens that a vaccine normally uses with these proteins. Many people out there know that friendly vaccines contain either dead or weakened versions of the disease they are supposed to prevent. To cause a friendly vaccine to become destructive, all that is needed is to coat these weakened pathogens with proteins, hormones, or whatever else in the recipient’s body you want destroyed, and when the recipient’s immune system reacts to the pathogen, it will recognize the protein or other material you coated that pathogen with as hostile also and then attack it wherever it exists in the body.

Emotional and cognitive neurons are not the same as the neurons that control body function, and their proteins and other components are slightly different from physical control neurons, especially in the synapses. If you start with a stem cell and grow it to only form a blob of emotional or cognitive neurons and then take the proteins and other materials from these stem cells, grown in a culture, and attach them to the pathogens in a vaccine, the recipient’s body will then proceed to destroy the parts of the brain that have proteins that match what was in the stem cell culture.

And this is exactly what we are seeing in the children now, with the outrageously high autism rates. And it’s far worse than that, every child who receives one of these sabotaged vaccines gets a severe emotional and intellect hit, and those who get hit the hardest develop full blown autism. These sabotaged vaccines, whatever the form, were introduced during the same time frame that the aptitude test standards were lowered. These standards were lowered and lowered again and again as the vaccines became worse, the autism rates climbed, and the general intelligence of the population dropped. They had to incrementally lower the test standards to hide the incrementally increased damage from the vaccines. They could not have every kid failing all of a sudden because people would look for the cause.

The smoking gun

Want proof of the world conspiracy? Would you like a simple and easy way to know exactly who the destroyers are? Just take a look at the autism rates in the Jewish community, where they remain the same now as they were in the 70’s when autism rates were below one in 20,000. There are definitely non sabotaged vaccines available today, and the autism numbers in the Jewish community prove it. Take a look at the autism rates in Israel. Google it out. That alone is proof enough of who is sabotaging the vaccines. And the hit pieces done against those who have discovered the truth are only further confirmation of who is doing it, when it comes to the ziopress you hear only the numbers, never the reason.

This harkens back to the 80’s and 90’s with the original anti fertility vaccines distributed by the UN to reduce the populations in the third world. Don’t know about that? surf it out. These vaccines work in exactly the same way, but it was possible to make them without stem cells because the fertility hormones could be manufactured and then used to coat the pathogens. To cause a small girl to become sterile for life, they coated the polio pathogen in the polio vaccine with progesterone. To sterilize women ages 15 – 45, they coated the tetanus pathogen in the tetanus vaccine with prostglandin, the hormone which signals a pregnancy has occurred. If the immune system attacks prostglandin, the woman will proceed to a normal period rather than hold her pregnancy. Prior to this new approach where proteins from stem cells were used, I had other medical professionals tell me that the elite had re designed bacteriophages to attack only the precise neurons in the brain the elite wanted removed. There is an Alex Jones video out there that goes over this very well, go to Youtube and search out “brain eating vaccines”. It will be the 15 minute video titled “media pushing brain eating vaccines” or something similar, just in case the zioscammers put up a bunch of flak to bury the real one.

This new approach, where the white blood cells themselves become programmed to eat the brain rather than a bacteriophage is the new preferred mode of action, because a mutation which made the bacteriophage capable of going airborne would make it so that the elite were not safe from their own weapon. Having the child’s own immune system destroy that child is a far safer method for the elite, because it ensures their own weapon will never become something that can destroy them, and the ignorant parents won’t ever realize that the “immune system malfunction for a baby that was genetically susceptible to the vaccine” that caused their child to start spinning in a circle like a chimpanzee was actually intentionally inflicted.

Just Google autism spinning.

Got a goy baby there? Ha, the Goy get the green and red striped vial, the blue one is for the Jew. Nope, the Jews are not one bit smarter than us, until they use their control of the medical system to make it that way. Welcome to the new future, where babies look like chimpanzees, the young children hardest hit behave and spin like chimpanzees and the Jews are the best at everything. To get your child vaccinated safely, go to a Jewish medical centre, say you are Jewish, and things will likely be fine if no controls are in place to confirm if you are Jewish or not. I never looked at this angle of it, but there has got to be a way to get a safe vaccine and you can bet they know. Perhaps there are kosher and non-kosher. It’s that way, even with soap.

It is not the mercury anymore, though the mercury was bad, the new vaccines are so much worse that mercury could not possibly do that much damage without killing the child every time. This new mode of action kills only the part of the brain the “elite” want killed, and leaves the body control functions untouched in the vast majority of cases. It’s an intentional well calculated down grade of the non-Jewish population, after all, the kid was stupid anyway don’t you know! Your race is devolving in intelligence rapidly, don’t you know? you are a worker drone.

Israel In The Book Of Revelation

By Dr. Oren Fenton Potito

IN other issues, I have traced for you some of the many references to Israel in the New Testament, showing that the New Testament is as much an Israel book as is the Old Testament. In this issue, I want to examine the Book of Revelation, to show you that this, too, is an Israel book.

No book in the whole Bible is as little understood as the Book of Revelation. It is a prophetic book: history pre-written. But it is much more difficult to understand than any other prophetic book, because it is written principally in symbols.

The period of time covered by the Book of Revelation is the entire Christian Era—and even beyond, into the beginnings of Eternity. When the prophet Daniel wrote his prophecies, those were not for his own times, but for the remote future; so the angel told Daniel, "But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words and seal the book, even to the Time of the End: Go thy way, Daniel, for the words are closed up and sealed till the Time of the End." (Daniel 12:4, 9)—In contrast to this, the angel told John, in Revelation 22:10, "Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand." So the Book of Revelation prophetically covers all time from John's own day onward.

No one can hope to understand this book unless he knows that it is an Israel book, and that most of its symbols are Israel symbols. When we recognize this, many of the difficult passages become fairly clear. In the fourth chapter, John is given a vision of the throne of God and in verses 6 and 7 he describes its surroundings: "And in the midst of the throne and round about the throne were four living creatures ... and the first living creature was like a lion, and the second living creature like a young bullock, and the third living creature had a face like a man, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle."—In the first chapter of Ezekiel, that prophet also beheld the throne of God, and likewise saw that it was surrounded by four living creatures whose faces were, respectively, those of a man, a lion, a bull, and an eagle. What is the meaning of these four living creatures on the four sides of the throne? This was THE CAMP OF ISRAEL, formed in a hollow square, with the Tabernacle of God in the center, as described in the second chapter of the Book of Numbers. The Tribes were commanded to form their encampments in a hollow square, protectively surrounding the Tabernacle in the center. On the east side of the square camped the three tribes of Judah, Issachar and Zebulun, under the leadership of Judah, whose banner was a LION. On the south side were camped the tribes of Reuben, Simeon and Gad, led by Reuben, whose banner was a MAN. On the west side camped the tribes of Ephraim, whose banner was a BULL. And on the north, camped Dan, Asher and Naphtali, led by Dan, whose banner I was a FLYING EAGLE. This should not surprise you, for the symbolism is both clear and logical: where should the throne of God be found but in the midst of the camp of His People, Israel?

Around God's throne, John saw twenty-four lesser thrones, on which sat 24 elders wearing crowns. In the fifth chapter, these elders sing, "Thou ... hast made us unto our God, KINGS AND PRIESTS: and we shall reign on the earth. This again identifies them as Israel, for we read in the nineteenth chapter of Exodus that God said, "Ye shall be unto Me a kingdom of priests and an holy nation"—something never said about anyone but Israel. There were 24 of these "elders," two for each of the Tribes. We are not told directly how these twenty-four are selected. But a logical explanation would be that 12 of them are the original patriarchs, the twelve sons of Israel; as to the other 12, Jesus told the Apostles, "Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed Me, in the regeneration when the Son of Man shall sit in the throne of His glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve Tribes of Israel."—Remember this, they are not going to judge the Methodists and the Catholics, the Episcopalians and the Baptists, but "the twelve Tribes of Israel."

In the seventh chapter of Revelation, John saw four angels holding back the four winds, so that the great storms of war and conflict could not overwhelm the earth until the Seal of God's protection was placed upon His servants.

John heard the angel command. "Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed THE SERVANTS OF OUR GOD in their foreheads." (Rev. 7:3)—God's servants, of course, are His people Israel. In Isaiah 44:21-23, God says, "Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for thou art My servant: I have formed thee; thou art My servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of Me. I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and as a cloud, thy sins: return unto Me: for I have redeemed thee. Sing, O ye heavens: for the Lord hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth; break forth into singing, ye mountains. O forest and every tree therein: for the Lord hath redeemed Jacob and glorified Himself in Israel."

Therefore, when John witnesses the sealing of God's servants, he tells us, "And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand of ALL THE TRIBES OF THE CHILDREN OF ISRAEL" (Rev. 7:4)—Then the seventh chapter goes on to list different tribes which were so sealed. All the Tribes except Dan are mentioned, and Dan was omitted for a good reason.

The "world" of which this Book is speaking, when it describes the various plagues which are to come upon the world as the consequences of the people's wickedness, is the Roman "world," the portion of the earth then occupied by the various "beast" nations of the Babylonian Succession of World Empires. By the time John wrote the Book of Revelation, the Tribe of Dan had already migrated out of this area, partly by sea through the Straits of Gibraltar into the British Isles and beyond, partly across Europe through the Danube Valley to the Baltic Sea and to the peninsula of Denmark. Therefore, the Tribe of Dan did not need special protection from the plagues which were about to fall upon the whole Roman World Empire.

Next, in the eleventh chapter, we find that John was given a reed, like a measuring rod, and was told, "Rise, and measure the Temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein. But the court which is without the temple, leave out, and measure it not for it is given to the gentiles."—The prophet Ezekiel was similarly told to observe the measurement of the temple of God, in Ezekiel chapters 40 through 43.

This, of course, was exclusively an Israel institution, for no other race or nation has ever had it. It was always true that the Temple was exclusively for Israelites, and others were forbidden to enter the Temple proper. Thus, we find God saying in Ezekiel 44:6-9, "O ye House of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations, in that ye have brought into My sanctuary strangers, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My sanctuary, to pollute it, even My house

And ye have not kept the charge of Mine holy things Thus saith the Lord God: No stranger, uncircumcised in heart nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into My sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the Children of Israel." Consistent with this rule, John was told in Revelation 11:2, "But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not: for it is given unto the gentiles." Thus we see that even in the prophetic future, the separation of God's people Israel from all other nations and races is kept clear. The Bible is an Israel Book throughout.

The twelfth chapter of Revelation begins thus: "And there appeared a great wonder in heaven: a woman clothed with the SUN, and the MOON under her feet, and upon her head a crown of TWELVE STARS."—This reference to the sun, moon, and twelve stars is old Israel symbolism, first used in Genesis 37:9-11, where the boy Joseph tells his father Israel of his dream. "And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it to his brethren, and said, 'Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and behold. the SUN and MOON and the eleven STARS made obeisance to me':

And he told it to his father and to his brethren: and his father rebuked him and said unto him. 'What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth?' And his brethren envied him: but his father observed the saying." Israel himself correctly interpreted the dream: the sun was himself, the moon was his wife, and the eleven stars were Joseph's brothers (Joseph himself made the twelfth).—So we see in Revelation 12:1 that the symbolic woman clothed with the sun, having the moon under her feet, and wearing a crown of twelve stars, symbolizes the race of Israel.

The following verses make this immistakably clear: "And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered. And there appeared another wonder in heaven: and behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God and to His throne." Obviously the man child destined to rule all nations with a rod of iron is Jesus Christ, for Revelation 19:11-16 clearly says so: "And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and He that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He doth judge and make war

And out of His mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it He should smite the nations: AND HE SHALL RULE THEM WITH A ROD OF

IRON: and He treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God, And He hath on His vesture and on His thigh a name written, King of Kings and Lord of Lords."—Again, we know the Israel symbolism to be correct, for it was God's people Israel who gave birth to Jesus Christ. In Romans 9:4-5, it speaks of Israelites: to whom pertaineth the adoption and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises; whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came."

So we see correctly symbolized God's people Israel giving birth to Jesus, while the red dragon stood waiting to devour Him as soon as He was born. We know that the Edomite Jew, King Herod, did try to murder Jesus within a few days after His birth. Revelation 12:5 tells us that the woman's Child "was caught up unto God and His throne." We know that Jesus, after His resurrection, did ascent to heaven, where He sits on the throne of God.

Rev. 12:6, 13-17 further confirm the Israel identity: "And the woman fled into the wilderness where she hath a place prepared of God." The peoples of Israel spent centuries migrating through the wilderness to their new homes in northern and western Europe, far beyond reach of the evil powers of the "beast" nations.

These verses further say, "And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child."—Yes, this the dragon did, from the very beginning. Read these verses of the Book of Acts, and you will see that it was the Jews who persecuted the Christians: Chapter 4, verses 1-3, 16-21; 5:17-18, 27-33; 6:8 to 7:60; 9:22-23; 12:1-4; 13:44-45, 50; 14:2, 19; 17:5, 13; 18:12; 20:1-3; 21:27; and 23:12.

But God never abandoned His people, for Rev. 12:14 tells us, "And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place."—Again, this is familiar Israel symbolism, for in Exodus 19:4, God tells His people, "Ye have seen .. how I bore you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto Myself." To Be Continued

What Can I Do To Help Stop The NWO?

and become aware of what is happening in the world we often hear them say “but what can I do about it,

I’m only one person” or “I’ll start voting for this party” or “I will send a donation to that organisation to help them.” More determined people want to get involved and do something and most turn to political parties to vent their anger. Some people work very hard with their respective party and have literally become hooked in the belief that they will be able to effect change. There are instances of people and groups seemingly making breakthroughs and hopefully getting somewhere only for their hopes to be dashed at the last minute and that of their followers as the inevitable splits and troubles occur.

This often appears as utter madness to those involved, especially as those arguing supposedly want what is best for their nation and its people. I do not believe these splits are coincidences and it is my belief that all of these parties are controlled by agents of the state - whether that is by the use of blackmail or by being willing accomplices is for people to come to their own conclusions. Politics is just another divide and conquer tactic to split us all up. Put simply this attitude, although mostly well meaning is not helping and as the past decades have proven beyond doubt this has not really stopped the elite moving forward with their plans for global enslavement.

Many people are just drifting along at the moment waiting for the next Cromwell to come along so they can get behind him/her. As happened to JFK, Princess Diana and many others, real leaders in opposition to this worldwide police state often don’t last very long, so are we wise to wait for some patriot that may not come? I believe there is an alternative choice that every person in the world can play their own part in, which needs very little “leadership” (that could be subverted by the state). People have to start to take back control of their own lives again, just like our forefathers had to do to survive years back. We need to go back to basics but with a 21st century slant on it.

Below is a simple list that every person can at least have a go at if they wish. This is in no way complete or in any particular order, just my initial brief thoughts (each heading warrants its own full article). It may be more difficult than what you are now used to but in the end it will be very beneficial for you and others, but at the same time will throw a big spanner in the works of the banksters and their useful idiots trying to control our every thought and movement.

1) BANKING Boycott banks, draw your money out (just keep in what you need for direct debits and bills for now), cause runs on the banks to cause them problems. You can buy silver, gold and other commodities that will hedge against hyperinflation/deflation and the coming currency defaults. The banks stole money from the Cypriots, so it can happen anywhere. Your Money is NOT safe in a bank and can be stolen from you at any point they deem fit. Watch the Keiser Report on RT (Channel 85 on freeview) for more information.

2) HEALTH Your doctor is mostly following orders set down by the awful World Health Organisation. They give you vaccinations - mmr vaccines cause autism in children and chemotherapy poisons the body as an example. Get a book on old remedies of yesteryear – they really do work like Granny said. There are good alternative cures for most ailments. Boost your immune system by taking Vitamin D so you don’t get the flu (I haven’t had flu for 5yrs now!). You can then stop paying out for prescriptions, save money and feel a lot better. Brits are overweight and we need to get fit again. Start training. There are many good doctors and nurses, so go with your gut instinct but do research the horrid pharmaceutical companies.

3) FOOD Boycott Supermarkets. This is very hard as they are convenient but people have already successfully made the change.

Supermarkets do not label Genetically Modified foods. You can start by buying your meat from a local British butchers, it might cost more but is worth having less meat but a lot more quality. Get a cook book and do proper food, not microwave meals (microwaves should also be chucked in the bin as they alter the food). Use your money on the small people – the ones selling produce outside their homes, car boot sales, markets, farm shops. Buy in bulk (with other people also) to save money. Bags of potatoes are back down to £5/bag this year direct from the farmer. Pasta and rice can be bought in large bags from the warehouse type stores and last for a long time – good for emergencies too. Buy organic where possible. Promote this to other friends and family, get them involved too. Remember Supermarkets scan in products and one day in the future you will not be able to purchase food without a bar-code or microchip - that is where it is heading so we must organize alternatives, (unless you are happy for this to happen to your children)

4) DRINK Mad I know but you should not be drinking water from your tap as it contains fluoride and other contaminants like lithium. Fluoride affects your brain/memory, causes cancer and hardens your blood arteries. Only a reverse osmosis water filter will remove this – the little ones you have in the fridge are no good. Water should be stored in clean glass bottles – plastic is bad. Buy a juicer and do proper nutritional drinks. Have a supply of drink for emergencies.

5) ALCOHOL they clearly want to ban this but we must fight back. If the pubs go under we then need our own supply and we should use our houses as the next pub with homebrew and invited friends. They may then call it prohibition but we shall I believe always have some pop no matter what they throw at us. Buy kits from your local supplier and have a go. 40 pints for £15 or 6 bottles of wine for £10 -show me a supermarket that can beat that! Learn how to brew.

6) GROW YOUR OWN – there is no excuse. You can have herbs on a windowsill, carrots in a window box, strawberries in a pot, tumbling tomatoes in a hanging basket, a veg patch, a cold frame, a greenhouse, an allotment or right up to a small holding if people can pitch together to help with the workload, whilst sharing the produce. Use organic seed (avoid F1 hybrids). Hard work but very worthwhile and guards against rising food prices and food shortages. Let some plants go to seed and collect. Younger people need to help the older folk in a team effort. Aquaponics needs looking at. My food bill is approximately £50/month – yes that does say a month.

7) FORAGING You should get a book about what foods you can eat from the land. This food is all around you, but do not be greedy and take the lot, leave some for others. Note you have to be extremely careful and know what you are doing when it comes to mushrooms & fungi. Watch River Cottage for some inspiration of what you can achieve with a bit of effort.

8) FUEL & ENERGY

Independent solar panels (not on grid) can charge 12v batteries which can in turn be used to charge mobile phones (communication), MP3 players (entertainment), laptops etc. This is what caravans, camper vans and boats use. You can use inverters to power larger items like fridges but you will need bigger panels to maintain charge. Use small wind turbines to help generate your own energy. Coppice trees to grow your own wood & collect scrap wood for a log burner. Back boilers can run radiators. Get off grid one step at a time – stop funding corporations. New technologies are being suppressed but engineers are working on alternatives. A back-up generator & fuel is a good idea. The 3 bar gas heaters are good too.

9) RESEARCH Possibly the most important item as with research you can understand the problems and then do something about it. The Internet is a good start.

10) DON'T VOLUNTEER Don't help their system, boycott it. You probably haven't realised but you are making £'s for their control mechanism by recycling your waste for the councils – is your council tax bill going down? Are they clamping down on your freedoms? Save the metal cans and take them to the scrap yard yourself to earn a few quid. Takes up space and they aren't worth a lot but you may be surprised when you add in the aluminium ones (not magnetic) and the other stuff you would normally chuck away. Failing that leave them outside for the gypsies - rather than the council! Save the bottles for homebrew and jars for your pickles and preserves or pass to people who would use them. Don't fill in the endless questionnaire forms from councils, doctors, dentists etc. Refuse to have a smart meter installed in your house – it is your right.

11) MEDIA Boycott the media by completely ignoring it. Do not buy any national newspapers, do not watch news on BBC, Sky News, Channel 4 etc and don't look at their websites – its all propaganda. Starve them of money and viewing numbers. Watch Russia Today and buy UK Column & Sovereign Independent (you can take out subscriptions) newspapers. Watch the alternative media and share with friends & family to inform them. Watch and make DVD copies of films & documentaries and hand them out. Spread the word everywhere. Produce leaflets (ask us for templates), print and hand out, put on notice boards, send to Parish Councillors.

12) PURCHASING GOODS We all know a Walker off Dads Army who could get what you needed on the black market. Do you need to buy a brand new item or can you buy a quality secondhand one or can you make it or know someone who can? As an example I made my front gate from reclaimed wood and saved £100. This is boycotting the likes of B & Q. Buy quality British items that were made to last rather than buying cheap imports that soon break.

13) BARTERING & ALTERNATIVE CURRENCY Bartering is a great way to do business. A few of us locally have an informal social where we get together and bring things with us to trade outside the banking system where no money changes hand. A friend has chickens/eggs, another grows cucumbers & chillies, I bring homebrew beer and veg plants, homegrown pickles & preserves, home made bread. We put on a table and then swap foods round. We need more doing this so there is a greater range. For people with no work but plenty of spare time they can use Time Banking (being used in Greece). This is where a person say puts time in for a friend and cuts his lawn in return for a meal or something. The Amish are an example of a united people who help each other build their houses, have their own cattle etc.

14) CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE It is our duty to freedom and to those who gave the ultimate sacrifice for us during 2 world wars to oppose the current tyrannical regime. It is up to you to decide how you can do your bit.

15) EXPOSURE/ALTERNATIVE MEDIA The elite remain in the shadows but after you have done your research you can start to expose them to friends and family by way of a leaflet, newsletter or word of mouth. We should all start our own alternative media with leaflets, newspapers, websites, radio shows, videos, DVD's and cd's etc We need to get the message out to every household in Britain (which isn't happening at the minute as it needs to). Keep writing to your MP and local councillor, they always put their foot in it. Use that information to expose them and do not give in. It is interesting when you confront your MP in front of others with what they said in the past.

16) EDUCATION If you do not like what your children are being taught (i.e sex education to very young children which is a United Nations agenda), complain with other parents. Don't be afraid it is they who are wrong. We need to stand up for our morals and principles. If nothing happens start petitioning other parents and boycott the school. Home schooling is growing in popularity and there is plenty of help available.

17) COMMUNICATION & NETWORKING It is essential you have alternative forms of communication. There is some very good information going round at present that need to be practiced and put in use prior to any "event" they might throw at us to fully take control of the airwaves. If all else fails, leaflets and notes are a good way of spreading the word. Know who your friends and trustworthy people are and beware of the collaborator (the true meaning of that word!). We already have a leaderless resistance network via email that would need to be maintained following a clamp down so the information spreads quickly and not rumours/disinformation. Note your mobile phone & sat nav are actually tracking devices.

18) OPPOSE BIOMETRIC I.D You should never willingly give up your biometric i.d as this is the next stage of their Orwellian nightmare to control us. Schoolchildren are being fingerprinted for their meals, they are introducing iris scans for school buses, it is being used to enter building sites. It will be on public transport and in shopping malls, banks etc. You need to oppose at all costs and group together for safety. This is why we must live outside their system so they cannot control us. This in reality is why all the elf and safety legislation was brought in so we conform to their rules.

19) RESTORE COMMON LAW/TRIAL BY JURY researchers have proved that the Magna Carta 1215 could never be repealed unless done by the people, which, to this day has never happened, despite the lying politicians saying there are only a few clauses relevant today. We need to keep exposing secret courts, closed hearings, trial by corrupted judges, white collar crime and the use of psychiatric clinics to shut up whistleblowers. Keep calling for trial by jury. A form of exposure would be if we all dressed up as Kangaroos and stood outside the Royal Courts of Injustice with placards to expose the sham that goes on inside. What say you skippy?

20) T R E A S O N

Researchers have proved beyond doubt that sedition and treason has been committed (not to mention war crimes and genocide) by British Governments. This now needs to be forced through by the people as the Police and Courts refuse to act and will keep protecting those at the top. Most of the public don't know this, so help spread this information and join a coordinated Treason campaign, which so far has not been tried.

CONCLUSION

People need to just stop for 5 minutes and ask what they are achieving and has it worked so far? I stopped voting in 2010 and became unregistered as there is no democracy left in this country, there is only an elected dictatorship of which political parties are just a part. Even if you are involved in politics and wish to remain so, you can at least still have a go at the above too (best not put all your eggs in one basket).

We do not need leaders or organisations to make changes for us, we must all do that ourselves and gradually change the way we live and do business, to help each other survive what is coming, if we are to be free and independent. On our own this would not achieve much to stop the New World Orders plans but can you imagine if we had 1 million determined people doing the above? There would be a massive drop in profits for supermarkets and corporations, less money going to privatised energy & utility companies, less money going to councils etc. We would have a stronger, fitter, more self sufficient, more resilient, more united and a lot wiser nation.

At the moment individuals who refuse to pay their taxes are easy pickings for the state, however, once working together, we can then start linking up better and then having large boycotts/civil disobedience on certain days, we can pass knowledge to each other better. Whilst it is good we inform each other via emails, we should spend less time moaning about what is wrong and actually do something positive – think what can I do today to become more self sufficient, how can I help the old folk up the road, who else can I get to trade with or how can I throw a spanner in the works today?

Organise parties to try out your new homebrew, exchange ideas of what you did or can do and have a laugh with friends to counteract the states agenda to demoralise us all. Be aware of subversives and trust your instincts – those who appear too good to be true, often are! The good news is that two instances showed us how we can oppose the states agenda without any real leadership and just using the truth as our weapon - the Swine Flu vaccine and the census. They were boycotted by millions of us despite the latters attempts to force us into submission by using paid census Gestapo (useful idiots) coming round. It didn't work.

People say this isn't possible or that isn't possible but I say what is in the best interests of Britain is always possible – Enoch Powell.

We need to now grow the resistance - over to you.

Trip Highlight John Trotter (Winmalee Australia)

Editor: We are pleased to pass on this report from John Trotter who is a regular contributor to this magazine and we praise Yahweh for his safe return.

Joseph of Arimathea in a small boat, was a truly memorable moment. On the pillar nearby was the story of the tradition that relates to this almost insignificant story.

SOME weeks ago my wife and I visited England and Europe. We have many wonderful memories. As for Europe it was a crash course in history, architecture and cuisine. There were many “wow” moments as we looked up at the manmade monuments both religious and secular.

Yet is it so insignificant ? Whilst it is true that tradition and myths can confuse history, there is overwhelming evidence in history to show that during the first 100 years of church expansion , Christianity had spread to those areas where Israel had been scattered. Centuries later , the Anglo-Saxon people benefited greatly with the Truth of Christianity and many of these people helped in the spreading of this message.

For me the highlight of the trip was to visit a small church in Pilton, Somerset England . The church is Church of England and is named “The Parish Church of St. John the Baptist”(below). The history and traditions of Christianity in this area go back to the time of Joseph of Arimathea, who is mentioned in the New Testament.

One day the truth of the early church in Britain will be made known. In a recently written book by Vishal Mangalwadi, an Indian Christian preacher, he says that the Biblical revival of the C19th helped to restore the Bible position to that of “the Book of books of the Anglo-Saxon peoples”. The name of the book is “The Book That Made Your World”. I would highly recommend this book .

Through out my life I have held the belief that Jesus Christ as a young child or young man visited this area. Even Augustine 6Cth referred to Christ going to Britain and helped to build a church for the Salvation of His people. There are many other quotes and information that show Christianity had reached those shores soon after the death and resurrection of Christ.

Whilst the darkness of this world will become darker, the Light of His Truth, will be revealed to those who are chosen for the High Calling. The command by Christ to His disciples to “go rather to the lost sheep of the House of Israel” (Matthew 10:6), and preach the Word, is of the same urgency today as when uttered nearly 2000 years ago.

To walk into that church and see the banner depicting the young child Jesus with His uncle

The purpose of those who are “called out” (ecclesia) will be soon revealed. This revelation will be surely the greatest of all “highlights” , to His Glory. Amen.

The End

Letters And Views

Edward Heath

Sir—, A secret kept from the public, due to lack of media interest, is that every Government since 1972 has committed treason against the state. This ignorance has been maintained due to the media's lack of knowledge on Constitutional matters.

When Heath took the UK into the EEC, he lied to Parliament and to the British people saying that there would be no loss of sovereignty. After forty years we now know this to be untrue. This has caused a great deal of damage to the country. Sadly there are two generations of people who think this is normal. It is only people of my generation, who are in their 60's or more, who know differently.

The treason was allowing a foreign power (the EU) to interfere in the internal affairs of this country. This is expressly forbidden by 'The Statute of Treason, Provisors and Praemunire 1351' and the 'Bill of Rights 1689', incorporating the 'Declaration of Rights'. These were anti-papal laws designed to keep foreign interference out of England. An attempt was made to illegally repeal the 1351 Treason Act. Why would anyone want to repeal a law that protects us from foreign interference and treason? Also we do not need a new 'Bill of Rights' which the Government is currently proposing. There are many other Constitutional laws that have been violated as a result of EU membership, too numerous to include here.

There is a campaign in operation in which allegations of treason against past and present Government Ministers have been reported to every police force in the country. Eight of these police forces have recorded them and passed them on to the Metropolitan Police for investigation. As yet the MET are doing what they do best and sitting on them, since nobody is calling anyone a 'Pleb'. The incredible thing is that it is these same people who are trying to also destroy the police!

The public can do a lot more to bring this out into the open by helping report the treason to their local police force. Check this website for treason allegation downloads: Yours Truly, Rex

No Check or Balance on Unsupervised Politicians

Sir—, Recently I had the pleasure of being a guest at a friend's house where I met other British (Ish men of the covenant). While there I read an email which stated that when Edward Heath signed us into the common market – now the Eurination (European Union) – he had committed high treason also as did subsequent persons acting as Prime Minister are traitors likewise.

This is something we all knew but seeing this in print caused me to consider the matter further.

Our head of state is Elizabeth II. When a party is elected into power, she grants authority to the leader to act as Prime Minister – her servant and the servant of us at all. If this creature commits high treason she has the power to stop it – all the Armed Forces and police swear loyalty to her, not to the Prime Minister. (Ed. This is no longer the case – the word Sovereign has been removed from the oath)

By not doing so she has proved her disloyalty to the Crown and to all her subjects. Treason by the monarch is the highest form of high treason (e.g. the Treaty of Dover between Charles 2nd and Louis 14th). She has thereby dethroned herself.

Meanwhile all true Brits remained loyal to the Crown.

And now for some cheerful news the public are learning that they are being lied to by the media.

In August 1914 the public mind with few exceptions, had been completely bent by the media of the time, being the enemy's disinformation, propaganda and mind-bending service.

Berlin and London were full of cheering crowds which soon turned to tears. On our side many thousands of young men said they would be home by Christmas. Instead nearly all lie in Flanders Fields where poppies now grow. They lie in a foreign field that was never England.

My eldest son will have nothing to do with any ceremony on 11th November, nor will he wear a poppy. Why? This date is of great rejoicing for our enemies (usually spell this word as NMI) for this word will be obsolete in the coming new age. For so many men of the covenant nations killed each other. And the national "debts" of all belligerents rose remarkably. Our enemies were the only beneficiaries of World War I and the later ones. Dr MacRais' poem caused us to wear poppies. This again is very satisfactory for the enemy (now only partially hidden) whose wealth has come from the drug trade.

I must thank my son for his information and very correct opinion of 11.11 (a parenthetical dispensation here. I have no enemies whatsoever, but there are persons with strange imaginations who think they are my enemy. I will not honour them by considering them as such, for God only allows them to exist for my learning)

One exception to the mind-bending was Harry patch, a sanitary engineer who considered the war had nothing to do with him, but was finally called up in the trenches he never shot at people's bodies but only at their feet. He was the last survivor of our men in the trenches and gave us the correct definition of war for the English dictionary – "all war is organised murder." The scholars sitting in their ivory towers in the groves of academia they do not live in a real world and would not be able give us this definition.

Other unbent people were recorded by my mother's uncle, John Brown, who was in the trenches. "The bravest of the brave were the stretcher bearers". These were honourable pacifists who would not lift a rifle to kill.

September 1939 was a fateful month – I went to school and the country went to war. Still ringing in my ears are the words of every adult – "I do? Not again!" In despair we are learning!

The next illustration of public learning is due to Blair-Blare. It took him considerable time to precipitate his war, a great satanic art. During the period there was a great parade of protests by 2 million people in London. B-B heeded not the voice of the people and had the impudence to call itself a Democrat!!!

Further developments of this type are highly desirable. Of all the recent wars in the near East and North, none appear to be in the interests of Great Britain.

The only beneficiary apart from the banksters and armaments manufacturers appears to be the Israeli state or Jewish occupied Palestine as the Arabs say. In this matter we must speak quite impartially.

When British interests are not involved, while the politicians are attempting to precipitate a war, the senior officers of our Armed Forces should not order the men to march. They can also resign their commissions en mass. The action of honourable men.

And the fifth development?

Back to those miserable specimens called politicians. They are lying like flatfish again when they say we have no written constitution. There are four high officers of state upholding the throne. These are hereditary positions because Jacks in office like politicians cannot be trusted. The first is the Lord high steward, whose duty is to check all Acts of Parliament to see that they conform to common law before the King may sign them into use. He was unlawfully set aside in the "restoration" in 1660 and this important check and balance on the rabble in Parliament was lost, contrary to our written constitution.

The second is the Lord high Constable, in command of the Kings Horse and foot. When mobile horse artillery was invented in the reign of Henry VIII he placed this under the command of the captain general of artillery to prevent the Constable having too much power. Elizabeth II holds this title, not a distinguished army officer. Prior to this invention cannon were enormous engines for destroying castle walls and could not be used for battles in the field. In our written constitution the Constable is a crucial check and balance on the power of the king, for the King is not allowed to declare war. This is the Constable's duty. One incident was the start of the Hundred Years War, caused by the King of France sending over to our king a gift of tennis balls. The insult is obvious and the Constable had no hesitation or difficulty doing his duty. The frogs could never get rid of us until they followed a great lady Joan of Arc. So much for the French generals.

I have not yet discovered when the Lord high Constable was unlawfully set aside. And since when, we have unlawfully entered many wars. The politicians are aware of this. We all suffer a great prime ministerial tension when the specimens acting as such says "a state of war now exists" there is no check or balance on them. Which is so essential in any sane system of government.

It is all very well for army officers to study the technicalities of war at Sandhurst and Camberwell. But in the staff College at the latter they must also study our written constitution, which will hold firm in any court of law. (E.g. Magna Charta is an agreement between the king and the barons (landowners) of England. No third party may alter it. But the crazy house of Parliament pretends to). For the officer's studies a mediaeval Latin expert is necessary. Pray that such a gentleman is soon appointed.

Hugh Thornton executed the office of Lord high steward. Before the coronation Hugh and the Lord High Steward went to London but the establishment would not recognise the steward and thereby acted unlawfully.

Only two high officers remain in position – the Lord great Chamberlain and the Earl Marshal. Hugh Thornton brought me much of the above. When he visited Parliament he told the parliamentarians that the throne is like unto a chair with two legs. And a two-legged chair cannot stand, so Elizabeth II is seated very dangerously. All the Queen needs to do for the safety of Great Britain (and the Empire too) her Dynasty and herself is to insist on the written constitution. Yours truly in His service, an Ancient Mariner.

The 1945 Sinkings of the Cap Arcona and the Thielbek

Allied Attacks Killed Thousands of Concentration Camp Inmates

Sir–, Your reader's might be interested in this item I came across, By Mark Weber. KH

All prisoners of German wartime concentration camps who perished while in German custody are routinely regarded as "victims of Nazism" -- even if they lost their lives as direct or indirect result of Allied policy. Similarly, all Jews who died in German captivity during World War II -- no matter what the cause of death -- are counted as "victims of the Holocaust."

This view is very misleading, if not deceitful. In fact, many tens of thousands of camp inmates and Jews lost their lives as direct and indirect victims of Allied action, or of the horrors of the Second World War. For example, the many thousands of Jews who perished in the notorious Bergen-Belsen camp during and after the final months of the war in Europe, including Anne Frank, were primarily victims not of German policy, but rather of the turmoil and chaos of war.

Among the German concentration camp prisoners who perished at Allied hands were some 7,000 inmates who were killed during the war's final week as they were being evacuated in three large German ships that were attacked by British war planes. This little-known tragedy is one of history's greatest maritime disasters.

The Cap Arcona (above), launched in May 1927, was a handsome passenger ship of the "Hamburg-South America" line. At 27,000 gross registered tons, it was the fourth-largest ship in the German merchant marine. For twelve years -- until the outbreak of war in 1939 -- she had sailed regularly between Hamburg and Rio de Janeiro. In the war's final months she was pressed into service by the German navy to rescue refugees fleeing from areas in the east threatened by the Red Army. This was part of a vast rescue operation organized by the German navy under the supervision of Grand Admiral Karl Dönitz. All but unknown in the United States today, this great undertaking saved countless lives. The Thielbek, a much smaller ship of 2,800 gross registered tons, was also used to transport refugees as part of the rescue operation.

In April 1945, Karl Kaufmann, Gauleiter of Hamburg and Reich Commissioner for merchant shipping, transferred the Cap Arcona and the Thielbek from naval command, and ordered them to Neustadt Bay in the Baltic Sea near the north German city of Lübeck.

Some 5,000 prisoners hastily evacuated from the Neuengamme concentration camp (a few miles southeast of Hamburg) were brought on board the Cap Arcona between April 18 and 26, along with some 400 SS guards, a naval gunnery detail of 500, and a crew of 76. Similarly the Thielbek took on some 2,800 Neuengamme prisoners.

Under the terrible conditions that prevailed in what remained of unoccupied Germany during those final weeks, conditions for the prisoners on board the two vessels were dreadful. Many of the tightly packed inmates were ill, and both food and water were in very short supply.

On the afternoon of May 3, 1945, British "Typhoon" fighter-bombers, striking in several attack waves, bombarded and fired on the Cap Arcona and then the Thielbek. The two ships, which had no military function or mission, were flying many large white flags. "The hoisting of white flags proved useless," notes the Encyclopedia of the Third Reich. The attacks were thus violations of international law, for which -- if Britain and not Germany had been the vanquished power -- British pilots and their commanders could have been punished and even executed as "war criminals."

The Thielbek, struck by rockets, bombs and machine gun fire, sank in just 15-20 minutes. British planes then fired on terror-stricken survivors who were struggling in rescue boats or thrashing in the cold sea. Nearly everyone on board the Thielbek perished quickly, including nearly all the SS guards, ship's officers and crew members. Only about 50 of the prisoners survived.

The burning Cap Arcona took longer to go under. Many inmates burned to death. Most of those who were able to leap overboard drowned in the cold sea, and only some 350-500 could be rescued. During the next several days hundreds of corpses washed up on nearby shores, and were buried in mass graves. Having sunk in shallow water, the wreck of the capsized Cap Arcona remained partially above water as a grim reminder of the catastrophe.

A German reference work, Verheimlichte Dokumente, sums up:

A particularly barbaric Allied war crime was the bombing on May 3, 1945, by British Royal Air Force planes of the passenger ships Cap Arcona and Thielbek in the Lübeck bay, packed with concentration camp inmates. Among the many 'nameless' victims were many prominent political figures, a fact that is hushed up today because the fact that concentration camp inmates, many of them resistance fighters against Hitler, perished as victims of the terror of the 'liberators' does not conform to the portrayal of the 'reeducators'.

Another reference work, Der Zweite Weltkrieg (1985), notes:

A unique tragedy is the end on May 3, 1945, of the 'Hamburg-South' passenger steamship Cap Arcona (Interior above) and the steamship Thielbek, both carrying concentration camp prisoners on board who believed that they were saved, but who were now bombed in the Neustadt Bay by Allied air planes. On the Cap Arcona alone, more than 5,000 perished -- ship personnel, concentration camp inmates, and SS guards.

The deaths on May 3, 1945, of some 7,000 concentration camp prisoners -- victims of a criminal British attack -- remains a little-known chapter of World War II history. This is all the more remarkable when one compares the scale of the disaster with other, much better known maritime catastrophes. For example, the well-known sinking of the great British liner Titanic on April 15, 1912, took "only" 1,523 lives.

Actually, among the greatest naval disasters in history are the Baltic Sea sinkings of three other German vessels by Soviet submarines in the first half of 1945: the Wilhelm Gustloff, on January 30, 1945, with the loss of at least 5,400 lives, mostly women and children; the General Steuben on February 10, 1945, with the loss of 3,500, mostly refugees and wounded soldiers; and, above all, the Goya on April 16, 1945, taking the lives of some 7,000 refugees and wounded soldiers.

A Beast With A Hand? By Jason Blaha

GREETINGS to you in YHVH/Yahshua! In this Bible study, it is my intent to clarify what the Scriptures say on the subject of "man and beast". It is of the utmost importance that we make the distinction between man and beast, and learn how the Scriptures pertain to these two forms of beings, separately, as well as their relationship with each other. Those of you within the Identity community will readily accept what the Bible tells us of this subject, and you may have already found this knowledge on your own. On the other hand, those who do not study the Scriptures in the same detail as those of us who "hold the Key of David" and call upon the name of our Father Yahweh may not be as receptive to this crucial understanding of the Scriptures. If this be the case for you, then I ask that you put aside the teachings and doctrines of men that you have been taught in the "Establishment Churches", and open your heart and your mind to the Holy Spirit, and Word of Jesus Christ/ Yahshua [Father, Son, and Holy Spirit all in one being]. As always with all of my writings, you will notice that this Bible study uses the word "YHVH" in the place of "The Lord" in all of the Bible quotes. This is not meant to confuse those who are unfamiliar with this word. Those who study Hebrew, know that placing the words "the Lord" in place of the name of God [YHVH] in the English translations of the Scriptures was a big mistake, considering that the name does not actually mean "Lord". By changing Yahweh to "the Lord" we reduce the name of the one true God, to a mere title, and one must also bear in mind that the name Ba'al means "Lord or master in Hebrew". You can confirm these facts for yourself.

While reading the story of Moses and the Mount, you may have come across something strange.

Exodus 19:13: "There shall not an hand touch it [Mount Sinai], but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount."

A beast with a hand? Perhaps you are thinking this is a mistranslation, or perhaps it means touch in general rather than with an actual hand. Well, let us see what Hebrew word "hand" was translated from. It comes from the Hebrew word "yad" [Strong's #3027], which means an open hand, as opposed to a closed one.

How can a beast have a hand? To answer that, let us go to the book of Genesis, in which the entire foundation of both the Old and New Testament is laid.

Genesis 1: 20-25: "And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and the fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven."

21: "And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind [in other words, bluebirds did not nest with mocking birds, and sperm whales did not mate with blue whales, etc.]: and God saw that it was good."

22: "And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth."

23: "And the evening and the morning were the fifth day." (Let us bear in mind that these days are not literal days, but periods of time in which Yahweh created the heavens and earth)

24: "And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so."

25: "And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good."

Let us take a closer look at this phrase "beast of the earth". It is translated from the Hebrew words chay kiy 'erets, except for verse 25, in which it is chay kiy 'adamah. 'Erets meaning "country, earth, field, ground, nations, land, wilderness, etc [Strong's #776]". 'Adamah meaning "country, earth, husbandry, or land [Strong's #127]". Take a look at this word chay [Strong's #2416], which means "alive, or a living creature." Now we will further explore Genesis, and find out what YHVH did after [much later], He created these "chay kiy 'erets".

Genesis 1: 26-28: "And God said, Let us [yes, it says us, but that is the topic of another study] make man [Strong's #120, 'adam, a human being, from the root #119 also written as 'adam, to show blood (in the face), flush or turn rose] in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth."

27: "So God created man ['adam] in His own image, in the image of God He created Him; male and female created He them."

28: "And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth."

Once you start looking at the Scriptures in the original tongue they were written in, it puts a new spin on things. We have been taught, from the time we are old enough to sit in the pews at church, that ALL two-legged, speaking beings are descended from Adam and Eve.

However, what the average Christian fails to recognize is that through careful research of the Scriptures, one can determine how long ago Adam was created. The greater majority of Biblical scholars, agree that this was somewhere between 5500 and 6000 years ago. Don't you find it interesting that Scientist [surely you've even heard Louis Fahrakan speak of this] and archeologist can prove that the Negroid race is over 40,000 years old? Or that the great nation of China documents itself as being 8,000 years old, and in fact documents the "great flood" [which was in fact a localized flood, which we will address before we are done with this study] that Biblical scholars estimate as being between 2300 and 2400 BC that almost reached their land? There are only three basic races of "humanity" according to most scientist: Negroid

[A f r i c a n s] , Mongoloid [Asiatic and most American Indians ... by the way the Navajo Indians recorded in their history, that around the same time as the great flood, that the water level rose dramatically in their land, but did not wipe them out], and Caucasoid. All others are either variation or sub-tribes of these three, or are mongrelized mixtures of them. If the Negroid race is at least 40,000 years old, and the nation of China is 8,000 years old (the creators of it would have to be much older), and Adam was formed only 6,000 years ago, that leaves only you and I, the Caucasoid race. Please note the meaning of 'adam and its root meaning of the same spelling, but slightly different pronunciation. If one takes the time to do a minute amount of research, one can easily conclude that only the Caucasoid race, or part-Caucasoid mongrels have the ability to blush.

For most of their lives, the average church-going Christian has been taught by their pastors and ministers, that after the Great Flood, Noah and his sons repopulated the earth, and that all the "races" descended from Noah's three sons. As we well know, YHVH does not break His own laws of nature, as He always describes such things as abomination in His Word. Can a white woman give birth to an African or Asian baby? Not unless she has been fornicating with a Negroid or Asian. In such a scenario, the child is not a Negroid or an Asian, but rather a mongrel, bearing the DNA of both races. Can a Negroid woman give birth to a pure Caucasian or Asian child?

Not without such an embryo being implanted by a physician. Did not our Father, in Genesis, see that His creations had multiplied kind after kind, and say that it was good? Despite the laws of nature that our Father has so beautifully created, these preachers and ministers would have you believe that in less than 4,500 years, all three of these races have "evolved" from a common source. Tell an anti-Christ evolutionist that the three basic races have evolved from a common source, with their different bone and muscle structures, in less than 4,500 years and see what type of reaction you get from him.

If Adam and Eve were the first bipedal, thinking creatures, then look at the following Scriptures, bearing in mind that only Adam, Eve, Abel [who was now dead], and Cain were named as existing at the time.

Genesis 4: 14-15: "Behold, thou has driven me [Cain] out this day from the face of the earth [...hmm the entire earth...or the immediate area? The word earth is translated from 'eretes which we will touch upon later]]; and from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass that every one [who is this everyone?] that findeth me shall slay me. And YHVH said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And YHVH set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him."

Genesis 4: 17: "And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare Enoch: and he builded a city, and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch."

If Adam, Eve, and Cain were the only human beings, using a modern definition of the term, how do we account for his wife? At this point Eve had only brought forth Cain and Abel from her womb. Thus we cannot say that a matured daughter of Adam departed from the land of Eden, to marry Cain. Shortly thereafter, Cain built his city, and had roughly as many generations of children as Adam before the deluge.

Where did Cain find enough people to construct a city, which he named and obviously ruled? The answer is simple if you think of the Scriptures in the simplicity that our Father has written them in. From among the pre-Adamic peoples from whom he took a wife. He took them from among the chay kiy 'erets.

At this point, you may be wondering about the Great Flood. Most pastors and ministers have been taught enough about the Scriptures, and have access to enough resources, to know that this "global flood theory" is based upon a mistranslation, and know full well how that mistranslation occurred. Is this to say that the Word of God is in error and cannot be trusted? God forbid! The error is not in the original divinely inspired text, but rather in the imperfection of the flesh. Hands of flesh translated these Hebrew and Greek documents; fallible flesh. This being said, let us remember that the Word of God is never in error, only the translations of the flesh. These pastors and ministers continue to teach the global flood, with little or no archeological evidence.

Watch the Trinity Broadcasting Network, or one of the other fake Christian channels, and observe their "amazing proof", and you will get the idea. There are even some circles of Identity which teach that both the serpent seed, and the beasts of the field from all over the world survived this "global flood" on board the ark. These so-called "Identity Teachers", as it is said in the Scriptures, heap coals upon their own heads. Let us see what the Scriptures have to say on the subject. We shall start with a short look at Noah, and his story.

Genesis 6: 1-3: "And it came to pass, when men [adam...blushing men] began to multiply on the face of the earth [erets...land or field], and daughters were born unto them, that the sons of God [Strong's 430 'elohiym] saw the daughters of men [adam] that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose. And YHVH said, 'My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh; yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years."

Stop and take a look at this word "flesh." It is translated from basar [Strong's #1320], which means "flesh (from its freshness); by extension body, person, also the pudenda of a man." In other words, it is not speaking of the flesh of a beast when basar is used. Make a note of this.

Genesis 6: 4 "There were giants [Strong's #5303 nephiyl, meaning a bully, tyrant, or a giant] in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God [angels, who sinned against YHVH by this act] came in unto the daughters of 'adam, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty [Strong's #1368, gibbor; powerful, warrior, tyrant, champion, chief, excel, giant] men which were of old, men of renown."

Don't worry, we shall deal with post-flood giants later. First we must deal with the matter at hand. Good things come to those with patience.

Genesis 6:5: "And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth [erets, the land that man dwelt in thus far...obviously he was not covering the entire sphere yet], and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually."

Genesis 6:6: "And it repented YHVH that He had made man on the earth, and it grieved Him at His heart."

This is just as it grieves His heart today when men do not follow the path of righteousness. You will note that in some of the latter verses, I have replaced the English translations with the original Hebrew words. You can confirm the validity of them on your own.

Genesis 6:7: "And YHVH said, I will destroy 'adam whom I have created from the face of the 'erets; both 'adam, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them."

Genesis 6:8: "But Noah found grace in the eyes of Yahweh." We shall see why shortly.

Genesis 6:9: "These are the generations [Stong's 8435 towledah, a plural form of the word, meaning descent, i.e. family history - birth, or generations] of Noah: Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations [towledah again], and walked with God."
