

The Saxons (Hoskins Report)

Chapter 298

SAXON Saxon Slaughter

NEMMERSDORF (ABOVE), IN EAST PRUSSIA, fell to the Red Army for only 48 hours in October 1944, and was then recaptured by the German Army. All villagers had been murdered in the most brutal manner. Women and children were gang raped and then killed. Some had been nailed, naked and in cruciform position to bam doors.

The American historian and diplomat George Kennan wrote: "The disaster that befell this area with the entry of the Soviet forces has no parallel in modern European experience. There were considerable sections where, to judge by all existing evidence, scarcely a man, woman or child of the indigenous population was left alive after the initial passage of Soviet forces... The Russians swept the native population clean in a manner that has no parallel since the days of the Asiatic hordes."

East Europe was ethnically cleansed of between 17 to 19 million Saxons with over 3 million dying in the process. Saxon cities built centuries ago are now inhabited by Strangers. Two million were ethnically cleansed from Rumania, Hungary and Yugoslavia. Three million from Germany's Sudatenland. A total of up to 12 million were starved or died of disease after WWII ended in a holocaust planned before the war started.

Even before the beginning of WWII there were atrocities such as the Bromberg Bloody Sunday Massacre of defenceless German citizens. "Hardly a house in the German district of Bromberg can be found which has not lost 2 or 3 family members to the murderers ... More dead are still being found. ... German residents were attacked on the streets by mobs and beaten to death. Their bodies were later mutilated. Their limbs and hands were broken, ears, noses and tongues cut off-- In Schwersenz, German victims were found disembowelled and castrated by their assailants[1]." Now, the land of captive Germans has been Hooded with Strangers to destroy them through intermarriage.

In Russia, 30,000,000 Russian Saxons died in Gulags during the late teens and twenties after being conquered by the Turk/Slav alliance.

In South Africa, the entire land was burned by the British Empire - homes, barns - everything. The livestock, sheep and cattle were shot down in the fields - entire herds. There was almost nothing left alive for hundreds of miles except smoking ruins. Boer women and children were rounded up by the soldiers and herded into concentration camps and starved.

A large part of all the Saxon women and children in the land died there. Now, Blacks have been put in power to rule the Saxons and finish the job of destroying them either through intermarriage or the sword.

The American South was invaded and torched to destroy their Self-Sufficient Farm system that made Southerners free and independent of the International Trade Cartel (ITC)[2].

Some Southern Saxon states lost a quarter of their male population. The land was systematically looted. Again, women and children starved. Defeated, they were deprived of the vote and Blacks were put over them to rule, making their lives a living hell. Allowed a breathing spell, Southern Saxons were released so that they could help destroy their Saxon-German brothers. Now they are again being subjected to ethnic cleansing and the ITC is Hooding the land with Strangers to destroy the Saxon through intermarriage or the sword.

What We Have Done Wrong

Saxons have meant well - they have tried to do that which was right. But, they made a tragic mistake. They listened to Strangers and as a consequence they don't know who they are. And, not knowing who they are they can't know who their God is. As a result of not knowing their God they have been unable do what their God has commanded them to do - the only thing that will save them from their enemies.

SAXONS

Re Map Above. Vikings, who were known by the Romans as Germans, and the entire race known to history as Goths. Saxons and Scythians - trace their ancestry through the recorded genealogy of their kings to the Israelites taken into captivity by the Assyrians in 721 BC. By the 1st century AD they represented an immense number, but only a comparatively few remained in Galilee in Palestine (see arrow) The cross checked area represents Saxons who had been taken captive These are the Greeks who were early captured by Asoka's Dharma The Greeks then spread the Dharma plague to the Romans who spread it to other free Saxon lands.

The Turks, the endemic carriers of the Dharma virus that came from India, are in the south. The Slavs are shown as one great mass while in fact they were relatively weak and scattered among the Saxons over the vast area of today's Russia.

Identity Crisis

Most Americans of British extraction call themselves Saxons. They are told that their ancestors were Anglo-Saxons who came from the British Isles. That's all they know.

Others have studied their ancestry by reading books like the Saxon Chronicles. They discovered that they are also descended to even a greater degree from the waves upon waves of Vikings who arrived from northern Germany and Scandinavia and stormed into the British Isles and settled there. The Angles and the Saxons were merely the first of many waves of these early "Vikings".

Still others have paid attention to what is actually said at the coronation of Europe's kings and queens. At Queen Elizabeth II's televised coronation in 1954, with great pomp her genealogy was read tracing her descent and claim to rule back to the earliest Saxon rulers and beyond.

Many royal genealogies are traced back beyond Charlemagne to Kings Thor and Oden and from there on back to the patriarchs of the Bible - Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

These claims are accepted by the Roman Catholic Church, the England's Episcopal Church and are on file in the Vatican, Edinburgh, London, Belfast, Stockholm, and in the archives of governments and the better libraries throughout the West. The student of such things soon discovers that these genealogies are legal and binding in courts of law[3].

The Saxons

The question arises, why isn't this information general knowledge? The answer is simple. It is! Everyone who is interested knows. It is only the man-in-the-street, the one most affected, who doesn't know. There is a reason that this knowledge has been kept from him; every time this information has become general knowledge and people discover who they are and what their God requires of them, the people have risen and attempted to overthrow their kings. This is why the ancestry of the Saxon nation is information for their kings and nobles and certain others but not for the people on whose collective backs kings and their followers ride.

The Bible

The word "nation" is different from "country". A country is a taxable entity established by kings. A nation is something different - it is a people who have a common ancestry and is established by God. We are a nation - the Saxon nation.

All Westerners are blood kin - that is what is meant by the word "nation". Most people can trace one or more lines of descent from the kings of Scandinavia, Germany, France or Great Britain. In other words, what applies to the kings also applies to the entire nation. If kings of Europe can trace their ancestry back to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob - so can the rest. With this understanding also comes the understanding that the Christian Bible is more than a book of religious instruction, it is a history-book-genealogy of our nation[4].

God's Commandments contained in the Bible were put there to keep his people safe from those who would destroy them. The Bible also contains "covenants" concerning land, marriage, government, ownership and rule. These covenants were made with the patriarchs and their descendants forever. Since we are their descendants, we inherit the benefits of the covenants.

Forbidden Knowledge

The ITC has ruled us for a long time. It is not to their benefit to have Westerners think that this is not as it should be. This is why, in recent years, they have claimed to be us and have claimed our heritage and right of descent. The whole thing would be laughable if the results were not so tragic. The result of telling our people that we are not Israel called by a different name[5], then gives new meaning to Jesus' statement, "I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matthew 5:24. If we aren't descended from Israel it means that we can only understand God through those who call themselves Israel. This takes the Bible from us and gives it to an alien race; it completely and effectively separates us from God the WORD - as it was intended to do.

This is why ITC religious surrogates attack us so ruthlessly for the crime of studying our past. After all, what usurper wants his victim to know that he is really the king and the usurper a thief and a liar? The victim might take strong exception to the deception.

India

Formerly, the international merchant operated in the West through surrogates who were members of Western society. Only recently has the merchant's grip on governments and the media become so powerful that they feel secure in openly sending representatives of their own kind to directly manage their business affairs.

FREE SAXONS - 19th & 20th Century

In the 19th century, Turk surrogates invaded and destroyed the self-sufficient farm system of the American South, opening the area to the international merchant South Africa was invaded twice in the 19th century by the Turk s British surrogates In spite of unbelievable atrocities, the conquest was not completed until the Turk media and Saxon janissaries delivered the S African Saxons into slavery in a bogus 1993 election.

The Germans revolted against the conquest by Turkish surrogates which brought on WWII The trigger was the Turkish-Slav revolt and extermination of the ruling Russian Saxons during WWI These were the last three free Saxon strongholds left in the world.

Today, Hindu temples are springing up all over the land where few Hindus live. This indicates a tremendous surplus wealth. Today, one sees Indians appearing on TV who are Chief Executive Officers of major corporations. Some are even major televangelists expounding the mysteries of our own Christian religion. The sudden appearance of these people, seemingly out of nowhere, has sparked an interest in India, its history, and its gods:

CAPTIVE SAXON NATIONS

The crosshatched areas represent lands containing captive Saxons * prisoners of the Turk ITC. There are no free lands left. The Slav nation (right slash) has been raped and partially abandoned by the Turk The UN is the Saxon's occupation government. NATO their sword. Janissaries their willing administrators, and collaborating priests willingly preach the 30% of the Christian WORD pertaining to morality and ignore the 70% dealing with government and dealings with Strangers. This gives the Turk license to do as he likes. He pays the co-operating priests with tax-exemption for this service.

The Dharma Weapon

In the second century B.C. King Asoka of India developed the "Dharma" technique of warfare to force India's different races and religions to accept one another so they might be easily governed.

Dharma - "Dharma" teaches Dharma-tolerance; tolerance of all races and religions as being different manifestations of the one great world force god - Brahma. Dharma is taught to prevent religious disturbances and disrupting trade and tax collections in ITC trade areas:-

India's merchants cannot trade India's wares unless they make peace with the gods of that market area. Protection against irate gods must be purchased to make a market area safe. This involves bribing kings who in turn bribe priests.

Bribing Kings

ALL kings in ALL market areas used by the International Trade Cartel (ITC) are in the pay of the ITC. This includes those who are apparently enemies[6]. Otherwise irate gods and irate peoples would have long ago driven the ITC from their lands. The bribery of kings takes place in this manner:-

- Little kings are given gold to buy arms and pay soldiers so that they can become big kings.
- Big kings are promised wealth so that they might become even more powerful.

The Saxons

- Uncooperative kings are replaced by financing and arming pretenders.
- Rebellious kings are overcome by alliances of kings loyal to the ITC.

Bribing Priests - Kings, as ITC agents, give tax-exemption to priests who add "Dharma" to their religious ritual; ie to love everyone "without regard to race, creed or national origin." Once a people are taught by their priests that their god accepts everyone, the merchant can then safely enter and buy and sell.

Dharma has proved itself extremely effective. King Asoka boasted of conquering the world-powerful Greeks even while Greek historians were telling the world that Alexander The Great had conquered India. Here is the story:-

Asoka's Boast

"King Priyarsi (Asoka) considers moral conquest (that is, conquest by Dharma), the most important conquest. He has achieved this moral conquest repeatedly both here and among the peoples living beyond the borders of his kingdom, even as far away as six hundred (yojanas) (about 3000 miles), where the yona (Greek) king Antiyoka rules, and even beyond Antiyoka in the realms of the four kings named Turamaya, Antikini, Maka, and Alikasudara, and to the south among the Cholas and Pandyas (in the southern tip of the Indian peninsula) as far as Ceylon." The Edicts of Asoka, N.A. Nikam & Richard McKeon, Univ Chic Press, Chicago 1959, p. 29[7].

King Asoka reveals more of his system of conquest:-

"King Priyarsi (Asoka) says: My officers charged with the spread of Dharma are occupied with various kinds of services they are empowered to concern themselves with all sects. —Different officials are thus assigned specifically to the affairs of different religions, but my officers for spreading Dharma are occupied with all sects[8]."

Financing Conquests

To finance and continue Dhanna conquest, King Asoka transferred 1000 million gold pieces to the monastery of Kukkutarama for missionary work. This is a stupendous amount of money. In addition, he appointed the Hindu priests to be custodians and managers and bequeathed to them the entire world in which to practice their craft.

This illustrates the power, influence and wealth that the Hindu priests and merchants were and are now able to put into their missionary movement. It explains how multimillion dollar temples are erected in areas of the West virtually devoid of Hindu followers, and multi-billion dollar corporate buyouts of Western companies appear from nowhere.

Asoka's efforts bore fruit within his lifetime. The conquering Greeks were themselves conquered by Indian Dharma- tolerance. The Greeks added foreign gods until they too worshiped a galaxy of gods just as in India, and they accepted and mixed with strangers just like India and became lost to our nation just as India had become lost to our nation many years before.

Jesus

Israel was taken into captivity almost 700 years before the time of Jesus[9]. Only a fraction of her people were left in Palestine and these were rapidly accepting Dharma and tolerating the gods of the Greeks and Romans[10].

Jesus brought the WORD back to a nation dying for the lack of it. He spoke with authority and not as the preachers of that day. Once his listeners heard the WORD, they learned that their nation was ordered by God the WORD not to trade with, live with, or follow the gods of strangers[11]. This is the WORD that Jesus Christ brought to his people and the religious hierarchy killed him to stop it. But, the WORD spread and impacted the trade and profits of the Roman empire.

Rome's State Religion

The ITC demanded that Rome's emperor protect their business interests. Emperor Constantine pre-empted Christianity and made it a state religion. He appointed his own priests. They taught what they were told to teach and concealed what they were told to conceal.

- * processions
- * parading relics
- * body parts for relics
- * incense
- * shaven heads
- * celibate priests
- * pointed hats
- * works for merit
- * robes
- * idols
- * rosaries
- * integration
- * tax exemption
- * monasteries & convents
- * missionaries
- * holy water
- * male & female priests
- * saints
- * auricular confession
- * pilgrimages

The Thirty Percent Religion

The priests of the new empire church taught the people parables that they selected from the newly proscribed Bible dealing with personal improvement. This consists of 30% of the Bible. The remaining 70% dealing with government they considered to be the government's business and so it was concealed from the people. From this time, the teaching of only 30% of the Bible became the trademark of ITC Christianity.

Episcopal Rites

This censorship of God's Commandments left a great void in the WORD which was filled with ritual in an attempt to give substance to the state religion. The new religion adopted the rituals shown to the right.

Many Westerners believe that it is no coincidence that these are the same rituals used by the Hindus in India, the home of the international merchant. All episcopal religions the world over utilize combinations of these rituals.

Charlemagne

A powerful king, Charlemagne, was commissioned to conquer peoples lying outside the control of the Roman Church. He conquered the northern Saxons. Those he conquered were forced to convert to the new episcopal religion and believe that the teachings of the priests were God's own word. They also had to pay tribute (taxes). The tribute was split between King Charlemagne and the church.

The WORD Causes Revolt

As long as God's Commandments remained suppressed the people remained in bondage and peacefully laboured for their oppressors. Whenever God's Commandments became known to the people - they revolted. There were many such revolts.

One of the most memorable occurred in 1381. There was a disagreement between the English king and Rome over the division of tithe and tax money collected from the people. The king needed God on his side so he allowed a Catholic priest, John Wycliffe, to print and distribute the Bible. The people quickly learned that God's Commandments said that they were free of taxes and that the land didn't belong to the king and his nobles, but was to be divided among the people and never sold. Suddenly, 40,000 men in their manorial militias were marching on London. It was a near thing. The king and the church quickly became friends again, and together they beat the people back into servitude and hanged their leaders. Once again the Bible was banned.

This revolt was followed by that of Huss (1372-1415) and Zwingli (1481-1531). Both of whom died in a sea of blood.

Again there was a dispute over the division of the people's tithes and taxes and the church land-monopoly. This time the disagreement was between German kings and the Roman Church. The kings wanted to keep church land they had seized and needed God on their side. They allowed their supporter, the Catholic priest Martin Luther (1483-1546), to translate and print the Bible in German.

The people learned God's Commandments and instead of supporting the kings, they took back their own land that had been taken by the church and the German "peasant revolt" (1524-1526) began. It was suppressed by the kings in an unbelievable blood bath and their leaders were hanged. The German kings seized the land taken by the people and for 30 years (30 Years War 1618-1648) they fought supporters of the Roman Church to determine its ownership.

When it was over the kings appointed their own protestant episcopacy priesthood who carefully censored Biblical teachings before teaching the people, and the Catholic ban on Bible reading remained as firm as always. With God's Commandments again carefully suppressed the peace of the slave returned to Germany.

Tyndale (1494-1536) printed the Bible and was burned at the stake for doing it.

Calvin (1509-1564), Knox (1514-1572), and other reformers translated and printed the Bible in far away Switzerland. These Bibles were smuggled into England and Scotland. Again, the people learned God's Commandments and they rose and overthrew the king.

Their protestant leader, the turncoat Oliver Cromwell, seized power for himself, gave the land to his own followers, suppressed dissent, and put the reformation on "hold" for his lifetime. His successor, Charles II went after the English Puritans and Scottish Covenanters with a vengeance. Presbyterian preachers were hunted down and shot on the spot or tried and hanged; entire church congregations holding services in fields and woods were killed or taken captive and thrown in prison. God's Commandments were again suppressed and the serfs peace returned to the land.

The Saxons

A few renegade presbyterian preachers escaped to America where their teachings revealed things the king's Episcopal Church had long gone to great trouble to conceal - and America broke into revolution.

It has only been in the last 50 years that the last teachings of the WORD by these valiant and self-sacrificing preachers have been stamped out. Now, once again, the teaching of only 30% of the Bible is tolerated by the king's edict. The rest, the 70% that tells of the government that God wants his people to have is banned. As a result of apostate heathen in the pulpits of the land, the country is sinking into a morass of disbelief and the punishment promised those who reject God's teachings is settling on the land[12].

The Guru

In India there are no laws or commandments other than general admonitions to do right. Therefore, to reach Nirvana one must find a teacher to reveal god's will, and then he must give to that teacher, his "guru", the respect and veneration that Westerners reserve for their God.

This places the ITC approved preacher on a pedestal. When others come teaching all of God's Commandments these Western copy-cat gurus become offended - their opinions are being challenged.

Today Is Like Yesterday

Today is like yesterday. Once again we have no leader and can see nothing but troubles. But, we have read the operating manual; we know who we are and know how the story ends:

"Thus saith the Lord which giveth the sun ... and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars ... If those ordinances depart... then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before Me." Jeremiah 31:35-36.
"When thou art in tribulation ... even in the latter days, if thou turn to the Lord thy God, and shall be obedient to his voice... he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which he sware unto them." Deut 4:30-31.

Conclusion

With the discovery of his true identity the Saxon discovers his God. When he discovers his God he will discover what his God requires of him; then he will be saved from those who would destroy him.

"I will send my word and save thee and thy seed."

The Protocols say, 'The aristocracy of the peoples, as a political force, is dead ... but as landed proprietors they can still be harmful to us from the fact that they are self-sufficing in the resources upon which they live. It is essential therefore for us at whatever cost to deprive them of their land... At the same time we must intensively patronize trade and industry ... what we want is that industry should drain off from the land both labour and capital and by means of speculation transfer into our hands all the money of the world ...'"

"Karl Marx in his Communist Manifesto exactly followed this formula. True he declared that Communism might be summed up in one sentence, 'abolition of private property', but subsequently he qualified this dictum by restricting actual confiscation to land and implying that other types of private property were to remain intact. (In the later Marxist event, of course, all private property was confiscated, but I speak here of the strict parallel between the strategy laid down before the event alike by the Protocols and Marx)." The Controversy of Zion by Douglas Read, Noontide Press, Newport Beach, CA, 1985. p. 219.
