The Hoskins Report

Chapter 292 The Empire War Against Man

GOD[1] SAID. LET US MAKE MAN[2] IN OUR IMAGE, AFTER OUR LIKENESS —So God created man in his own image (the WORD), in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them." Gen 1:26- 27. God made man to be both king and priest and to rule the world. God ruled supreme as King of Kings ruling man with his Commands[3].

In the event that God's Commandments were disobeyed - strict instructions were given as to how disobedience was to be punished[4].

Kings Arrive

The WORD which was God was the supreme ruler and man was appointed to rule the earth as both king and priest under God's direction. The chain of authority was complete.

But, evil days came. Fallen angels called Devils came to earth and took daughters of man for wives and raised up a race of Naphidem-giants, giant in evil powers. These Strangers fought among themselves and they fought man. They taught man abortion, murder and weapons of war. They came in multitudes, each group having a king directing his subjects to their evil tasks. War was their avocation. With a king to direct them Strangers were formidable.

Nimrod

Sons of Man learned their evil ways. They, too, chose a king to rule them - one named Nimrod. Nimrod set the pattern for all kings who were to follow down through the ages. Here is his story:

"And Cush the son of Ham the son of Noah, took a wife — and she bare a son and they called his name Nimrod "And Nimrod—fought the battles of his brethren against all their enemies round about— and— all his brethren— assembled to make him king over them—And he set over his subjects and people, princes, judges and rulers, as is the custom amongst kings.

"(Nimrod's) kingdom became very great. And all nations and tongues... brought him offerings, and he became their lord and king and they all dwelt with him in the city ofShinar, and Nimrod reigned in the earth over all the sons of Noah, and they were all under his power and counsel.

"... but Nimrod ... rebelled against the Lord, and taught all his subjects and the people of the earth his wicked ways."
Jasher 7:23-46[5]

This has been the story of kings from the beginning until now. Kings are first made kings because they fight the battles of their people. Once they become kings they become as gods. They appoint princes, judges and rulers to rule their formerly free neighbours, who are now called subjects. They collect tribute (taxes) from these subjects. They conquer other peoples and tongues and build cities to stockpile these peoples.

The conquered peoples also become their wage-slave servants, and as wage-slave-servants they no longer own their own self-sufficient- farms. The kings have taken them and given them to their favourites.

Lastly, kings are wicked. It is an occupational hazard. To do what kings do violates God's Commandments from the first. They fight God to continue doing what kings do.

Man's Dilemma

In this manner Man is placed on the horns of a dilemma. To obey God man must oppose the king, which is to invite death. But, obey the king and oppose God is worse since the Scriptures say "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." Heb 10:31. The Scriptures go on to say, "Fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul:

but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell."
Matt 10:28

Given this fearful choice - Man is forced to choose the one or the other. One man will choose to serve the king and win his earthly rewards; another will choose to serve God, believing "We must obey God rather than men." Acts 5:29

Israel Demands A King

Man did not learn from Nimrod's example. When a king of the Strangers confronted the Israelites with 900 chariots of iron and a great multitude of soldiers, the Israelites demanded a king to fight their battles for them.

In I Samuel 8:5 (1040 B.C.), the prophet Samuel commented on this wickedness of demanding a king.

"When ye saw that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said unto me, Nay; but a king shall reign over us: when the Lord your God was your king." I Samuel 12:12.

He said;

"Your wickedness is great, which ye have done in the sight of the Lord, in asking you a king." I Sam 12:17

God told Israel that if they insisted on having a king other than himself, evil things would result[6].

Kings And Their Laws

Once again, each and every king has his own set of laws. If you have two kings ruling at the same time, each with his own set of Laws, there are two Law systems in force at the same time. Conflict is certain as the two law systems struggle for supremacy.

The Solution To Having Two Law Systems

God's solution to the evil of having earthly kings ruling man was to have the earthly kings study God's Law day and night[7] so that they might have the wisdom to rule. This is what kings are supposed to do. Obedience to God's WORD keeps kings from doing what they want to do. Power tends to corrupt and absolute power corrupts absolutely. History shows, with few exceptions, kings demand their way even when it defies God's Commandments.

Buddhism - Religion Of Kings

Kings tend to support people and systems which support them. The religion created to tame gods and permit rulers to govern as they please is called Hinduism. Its missionary arm is Buddhism. Hinduism teaches that all gods are different manifestations of the same one great World Force. Buddhism teaches that all religions may join together simply by accepting Dharma - "non- violence, obedience, tolerance of other peoples and their gods without regard to 'race, creed, or nationality."

Dharma is the Buddhist technique of pacifying divergent populations in order to expedite trade[8]. When a king rules over many different peoples he is faced with a complex problem which Buddhism can solve for him. Many different peoples have many different gods - each with his own law system.

These differing systems can slow down or stop trade. The king must have trade to support both himself and his followers. A referee is required for these competing law systems in order that trade not be stifled. The king insists that this referee be himself. As the judge of gods - the king becomes greater than the gods he judges. To be greater than God is what the king desires.

Kings organize Establishment Churches whose priests are paid agents of the king. By being given exemption from taxes, or in some other way, Establishment Priests are placed on the king's payroll. Their purpose is to Dharmatize God-fearing people into obedient subjects of the king. This is done by making people believe that all gods are the same and of equal worth. In this way the king subverts the people's God and turns their priests into enemies of both God and the people.

Evolution

The most successful weapon available to the king in recent years is the Evolution Theory. From the moment it emerged, it was promoted by government agencies, courts and state schools. It was also promoted by all institutions financed by the International Merchant. It was not taught as a theory, but taught as a proven fact. Those on the establishment's payroll were required to believe it and teach it. Evolution is not an optional belief.

The Evolution Theory states simply that man "evolved" rather than being created by God. A one-celled amoeba resulted from a cosmic explosion. This amoeba mutated into two cells, then into a fish, next into an amphibian and then into a monkey and finally into a man. In other words, man was created by the cosmic "bang" - not a God whose irritating Laws limit the king in everything he chooses to do. With God vanquished, his Law System collapses. This leaves only the law system of the king[9].

Unfortunately for the Evolution Theory's scientific basis, neither Darwin nor any of his converts was ever able to produce something actually evolving from one thing into something else. Even the dinosaur, the supposed ancestor of many of today's creatures, said to have existed long before man, was found to be man's contemporary. Human footprints were discovered preserved in fossilized mud alongside dinosaur footprints. To further compound the problem, spear points were found embedded in dinosaur bones. This demolishes evolution from this direction, but the theory is state mandated; it has become part of the religion of king worship. The king's propagandists ignore the final verdict on Evolution by its creator, Charles Darwin.

Charles Darwin's Death

Charles Darwin (1809-1882) lived a long work-filled life. His deathbed statement was recorded by a close friend: "It was one of those glorious autumn afternoons that we sometimes enjoy in England when I was asked to go in and sit with Charles Darwin...."

"He was sitting up in bed, propped up by pillows, gazing out on a far-stretching scene of woods and com fields, which glowed in the light of a marvellous sunset.

"What are you reading now?" I asked.

"Hebrews, he answered. 'The Royal Book I call it.'

"I made some allusion to the strong opinions expressed by many on the history of the Creation and then their treatment of the earlier chapters of the book of Genesis.'

"He seemed distressed, his fingers twitched nervously and a look of agony come over his face as he said, T was a young man with uninformed ideas. I threw out queries, suggestions, wondering all the time about everything. To my astonishment the ideas (of evolution) took like wild-fire. People made a religion of them.'

"Then he paused. ... I have a summer house in the garden which, holds about thirty people. It is over there (pointing through the open window). I want you very much to speak there. I know you read the Bible in the villages. Tomorrow afternoon I should like the servants on the place, some tenants, and a few neighbours to gather there. Will you speak to them?'

"What shall I speak about?" I (Lady Hope) asked.

"Jesus Christ ... and His Salvation. Is not that the best theme[10]?"

It has been more than a century since Charles Darwin died. The king, his hirelings, and his media have united in suppressing Charles Darwin's opinion of his own Theory of Evolution. The theory is kept alive to destroy the authority of God's Commandments.

Once God and his Law system is replaced by the king's edicts, then, the king's authority becomes the undisputed "law of the land". The War against God is won and all else becomes only a mopping-up exercise. Forgotten is God's warning;

"Fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell." Matt 10:28

Open Warfare Against The WORD

HR readers have long known that the objective of the international merchant is to sell as much merchandise as possible for as high a price as possible to as many customers as possible in the shortest space of time possible. To accomplish this he hires kings to remove political barriers and priests to remove religious barriers.

There is something even more basic than the Stranger's insatiable craving for money; the Scriptures say that the Satan-Stranger wishes to destroy man from off the face of the earth.

From the beginning his plan has been to make Adam-man fight his own God. If man can be made to fight his own God, Man's God has said that he will destroy Man. The Satan-Stranger believes this and bases his strategy on it[11].

The International Trade Cartel has instructed the kings and priests in their pay to destroy the WORD which hinders their march to world domination. In obedience to their masters they have undertaken the task of dismantling the WORD.

This is done one step at a time so as not to unduly alarm mankind. One step at a time the WORD is replaced with the king's statutes. One step at a time God responds to his being rejected by tightening the screws that will destroy a faithless people.

- Outlawed Christianity - The king's agents created a United Nations whose Charter outlawed the Christianity that God mandated be practiced. See HR #206.
- Controlling Churches - Practically all Churches are State Churches because of the mechanisation of the IRS. Having the form they deny the Spirit. See HR #285.

The Hoskins Report -The Empire War against Man

- Prisons - The WORD instructs that capital crimes are to be punished by death. The king seizes and holds most charged with capital crimes against their wills; they are in fact kidnapped and held to justify the tribute collected by the king's agents[13].
- Whipping Children - The WORD mandates a lesser punishment for children and fools - whipping. The king has outlawed this punishment[14].
- Fruitful & Multiply - The WORD instructs, "Be fruitful and multiply." Gen 35:11. The king heavily taxes man so he cannot afford children. At the same time, the king gives tribute collected from Man to Strangers so they can multiply. He also has opened the floodgates to Stranger immigration.
- Abortion - Protected by the king, abortionists have put 32,000,000 children to death - more than 60% of them children of Man. Abortionists who boast of having killed 65,000 children openly walk the streets[15].
- Homosexuals - Homosexuality is protected by the king[16].
- Murder - The WORD mandates that the punishment for murder is death[18].
- Swearing - Once, a person who swore in public was locked up for being a public nuisance. He is now protected by the king[19].
- Other gods - Gods other than God the WORD were once hounded from the land. Worship of the Stranger's gods is protected by the king[20].
- Strangers In Churches - The IRS mandates that churches be open to the public[21].

- Strangers Preach In "Christian" Churches[22].
- Eating With Strangers - Separate eating facilities for Strangers have been outlawed by the king[23].
- Blue Laws - Once, the Sabbath was kept, mandated by the king's statutes[24].
- Woman's Lib - Once a Man and wife were a team combined to work for their home and children. No more[25].
- Affirmative Action - Strangers are given preference. The king has put them above us to rule us. He gives our taxes to them and we labour while they rest[26].
- Strangers Over Us - At the highest levels of government Strangers stand beside the king to advise him. A Stranger leads the army. The media-owners elect Strangers to the highest offices. Stranger-owned industry employ most men. Strangers furnish the police. Strangers teach the children of mankind. Forgotten is the basic: "Thou mayest not set a stranger over thee[27]."
- Usury - We are permitted any economic system we choose - except the usury system. The punishment for using this system is severe[28].
- Mixed Marriage - The king's courts have struck down laws preventing mongralisation[29].
- Beasts - It is the Strangers policy to encourage those who act as beasts to marry the daughters of men, and to rule men. Every TV sit-com pictures one with a daughter of man[30].
- Whores & Whoremongers - Whores and whoremongers were once shunned by mankind. No more[31].
- Taxes - Kings and priests cannot be taxed. Men cannot be taxed. Taxes are forbidden[32].

Enemies of The State

There are many more Commandments of God which have been broken - done away - outlawed by the king. They were done away one at a time. Each time the king outlawed one of God's Commandments he increased his own power and the power of his statutes. The king also instructed his followers to treat those who continue to obey God's Commandments, and oppose his edicts, as enemies of the state.

The king, having separated Man from the protection of his God, has sent his henchmen to incite man to rebel against the king so that the king might discover his enemies and kill them. The king has wantonly slaughtered and persecuted innocent people to arouse resentment: Gordon Kahl, Vicki and Sammy Weaver, Waco, Flight TWA 800, Oklahoma City, and the list is endless.

The WORD which is God, who in the beginning created man as both king and priest to rule the earth, instructed Man to obey the WORD or die. The WORD instructs Man that they are to act as kings and priests - to rule and not be ruled. What shall he do? If man obeys the king and violates God's Commandments - God will kill him. If he obeys God - the king will kill him . What now are his options?

The King's Sword Wielded by State Priests

When kings go to war, their state-priests dust off what I call - their "War Scriptures" to inspire the king's warriors to perform feats of valor in the name of God to the glory and benefit of their king. When the war ends the soldiers who survive are sent home and the quotes are concealed again to await another war.

This system worked until the "Reformation". The single benefit resulting from this time of mass slaughter in the name of God was that the Scriptures were pried out of the iron clutch of the priests and given to the people. Mankind began reading the actual Scriptures. Peasant revolts and all sorts of disorders resulted. The Catholics kept their followers under iron control by censoring what they read.

The protestant kings and their priests, to keep their jobs, were forced to copy their Catholic rivals. They set up their own Protestant state-approved churches that taught a state approved Protestant religion. Then, Mankind, both Protestant and Catholic, discovered what the state priests were really like - the Naphadim-media gleefully disclosed their peccadilloes daily.

By the tens of millions Mankind stopped going to state- churches, but they didn't stop reading the Scriptures. Without state- priests to misdirect them they read what kings were allowed to do and not do - they read the "War-Scriptures" - the Scriptures that state-priests had meant as curses against those who opposed the king and instead found that God meant the curses to fall on those who opposed God.

The War Scriptures

God promises that in dark days the WORD will come and save man:

"When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him." Isaiah 59:19;
"I will send My Word and save thee and thy seed." Adam & Eve 12:6

"No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper." Isaiah 54:17

"The land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it." Num 35:33

"If the revenger (the executioner) —kill the slayer: he shall not be guilty." Numbers 35:27

"Because thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people." I Kings 21:42

"Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter, because when I called ye did not answer, when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not."

Isaiah 65:12

"Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I come not to send peace, but a sword." Matt 10:34

"If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it." Matt 16:24-25

"Let the saints be joyful... Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand, to execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people; to execute upon them the judgment written: this honour have all his saints." Psalms 149:5-9

"Cause them –to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon .—and the Lord said –Go ye– and smite:— Slay utterly old and young,—. and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men (apostate elders) which were before the house." Ezek (9:1-6)[33]

"Also he bade them teach the children of Judah the use of the bow: behold, it is written in the book of Jasher." 2 Sam 1:18

"Teach thy sons the bow and all weapons of war." Jasher 56:9

"Cursed be he that doeth the work of the Lord deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood." Jer 48:10

"He said unto them – he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one —And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords, And he said unto them, It is enough." Luke 22:36-38;

Teach thy sons the bow and all weapons of war." Jasher 56:9

The penalty for not obeying the above is draconian:-

"But if ye will not –do all these commandments; —I also will do this unto you;– ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it– they that hate you shall reign over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you-- I will break the pride of your power —your land shall not yield her increase —I will send wild beasts among you which shall rob you of your children —and make you few in number –I will bring a sword upon you –I will send the pestilence among you;– I will– cast your carcasses upon the carcasses of your idols--And I will make your cities waste– And I will bring the land into desolation:– Then shall the land enjoy her Sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate." Lev 26:14-35

Barabbas

The Roman judge, to win the affections of the people, asked them who they would like set free - Barabbas or Jesus? The people cried "Barabbas"! Who was this Barabbas? Barabbas was a nationalist. He knew the War Scriptures. With a band of followers he led a revolt against Rome which was quickly crushed. Barabbas was captured and his followers were killed or scattered. He had once been a follower of Jesus. When asked why he stopped following Jesus, he replied;

"Because I am weary of these idle wanderings about Galilee, which bring forth no fruit. Not to sit on stools at the feet of a Scribe did I and my friends join ourselves to Jesus of Nazareth. Why tarrieth he so long idle? Why is his hand so backward to smite the oppressor[34]?"

There are those like Barabbas who see the atrocities of the empire; Ruby Ridge, Waco, Gordon Kahl, Oklahoma, Twin Towers, and a thousand other crimes, and they burn with righteous fury. They see the Lawless enemy shamelessly parading their blasphemy. To them it seems that the empire's guarantee of protection for the thousands of Lawless aliens, perverts and murderers is an act of boastful foolishness. It is obvious that it is unable to do so; even the greatest and strongest empire can't be everywhere at once. With so many defenceless soft targets, the elimination of even a few - in obedience to the War Scriptures - may discourage great numbers of weaker brothers from dabbling in the blasphemy that will cost them their souls. And too, like their Crusader forefathers, if they die in the attempt to enforce God's Law they gain everlasting life[35].

To the Barabbas type it appears to be a win-win situation.

Jesus

In Jesus day, the crowd chose Jesus to be crucified in the place of Barabbas. Jesus was "the WORD made flesh that dwelt among us." It was he who said that "I and my father are one." It was he who created the WORD, the warlike quotes just read, and it was this Christ who told believers" —he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one." Luke 22:36-38.

This was the very Jesus Christ who said "But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me." Luke 19:27

But, it was also this same Jesus who forbade his followers to defend him against those who came to arrest him, and ordered his people to pay tribute to Rome lest Caesar be offended[36].

Jesus Understood

Jesus read the times. He understood what others did not see. There is a time for war and a time for peace. One councils peace when to wage war cannot profit. This is why he counselled:

"Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword." Math 26:49-54

Violence should be carefully and thoughtfully entered into with much council and advice. Once loosed - it tends to run its course. In earlier days, Greek-Syria, one of the greatest powers in the world, had conquered the Israelites and occupied their land. United by the WORD, the Israelites fought this great empire and won.

In Jesus' day, things were different. Rome was their conqueror, and Rome itself had been conquered by Indian Dharma. The priests of the international merchant had conquered the greatest power in the world and used its power - her ships, legions, war machines and tactics - to open new trade areas and hold them. Rome's armed forces had proved invincible.

Even worse for the cause of Israelite nationalism, Dharma permeated the land of Palestine and turned separatists into integrationists. Israel had been betrayed by her kings, and her priests welcomed Edomites into the land. The WORD was now just another ritualised state religion. The people were divided. To openly fight a mighty power like Rome when the people were not united by the WORD was doomed from the start.

Jesus pointed out a different path. First, change men's minds and hearts so that they will know what the WORD requires of them, and the day will come when they will be strong enough to enforce God's WORD.

"For the word of God is quick, and sharper than any 2-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart." Heb 4:12

The choice was - the way of Jesus or the way of Barabbas. The country chose the way of Barabbas. Rome incited Palestine to revolt and she did. Palestine went through the Roman meat grinder in 70 AD. The loot was tremendous.

Saxon-Israel living in Galilee avoided the war, they chose the way of Jesus rather than that of Barabbas, and the war has raged ever since.

The Peace Option

Jesus purchased peace with His life. It was a peace to gain time to turn Mankind to the WORD which is God. The WORD in turn teaches its followers everything they need to know.

Time bought with the blood and slavery of our kinsmen must be used profitably. The order given to those Jesus has chosen is:

"I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit," John 15:16

The enslaved Saxon is beginning to stir. He is beginning to turn to the WORD and the WORD is showing him the WAY.

The Enemy Reaction

"The enemy is eager to destroy all that call upon the Lord. For he knoweth that upon the day that Israel shall repent, the kingdom of the enemy shall be brought to an end." Testament of Dan 2:16-17[37]

The Establishment's very existence depends on its crushing the WORD before man gathers a following too big to stop. The king has launched his "agents provocateur" to incite Mankind to lash out - and thereby reveal themselves so that the king can destroy them.

Today, the wise man offers his back to his persecutors and refuses to fall for the establishment's incitement to violence whereby he can be eliminated. He goes home to recruit his neighbour. By word, book or tract he tells his friend that God is the WORD, that the WORD has the solution to all the problems of our nation. He tells him that our God is not some shadowy apparition sitting on a cloud in the sky strumming a harp and chanting "Sweet Jesus"! Jesus is "the WORD made flesh" and we have been created in his image and ordered by him to rule the world.

We are those whom God has chosen to bring the WORD to all who will listen. We also know the price - today and tomorrow:

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." John 15:13; "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life." Revelation 2:10; Whosoever shall loose his life for my sake and the gospel's, shall save it." Mk 8:35

Robert E. Lee once said, "Duty is the sublimes word in the English language." The evil empire is teaching Mankind the meaning of the word "duty";

"Fear God and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man." Eccl: 12:13

The reward will be:

"If a man keep my sayings, he shall never see death." John 8:51

Notes

1. "His name is called The Word of God." Rev 19:13
2. Heb: Adam - "He who blushes red." Strong's Concordance.
3. "Fear God and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man." Eccl: 12:13; "He that keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him." I John 2:4; "Keep all his commandments." Deut 26:18; "Keep my commandments and live." Pr 4:4; "If you love me. keep my commandments." John 14:15
4. "Mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring them hither, and slay them before me." Luke 19:27; "Moses called the people together, with the women and children ... that they might engage themselves to the observation of these laws.... that in case any one of their own blood, or any city, should attempt to confound or dissolve their constitution of government, they should take vengeance upon them, both all in general, and each person in particular... but that if they were not able to take such vengeance, they should still demonstrate that what was done was contrary> to their wills. So the multitude bound themselves by oath so to do." Antiquities 4:8:45
- 5 "And king Nimrod reigned securely, and all the earth was under his control, and all the earth was of one tongue and words of union. And all the princes of Nimrod— took counsel— come let us build ourselves a city and in it a strong tower, and its top reaching heaven— so that we may reign upon the whole world— Whilst they were building against the Lord God of heaven, they imagined in their hearts to war against him and to ascend into heaven— (And the Lord smote them) And they ceased building the city> and the tower; therefore he called that place Babel, for there the Lord confounded the language of the whole earth." Jasher 9:20-37

6. "This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: He will take your sons. and appoint them for himself for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariots—And he will take your fields. and your vineyards, and your olive yards. even the best of them, and give them to his servants. And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his officers, and to his servants. ...He shall take the tenth of your sheep: and ye shall be his servants. And ye shall cry out in the day because of your king which ye shall have chosen you; and the Lord will not hear you in that day." I Sam 8:11-18

7. "When he sitteth upon the throne— he shall write a copy of this law— and he shall read therein— to keep all the words of this law— That his heart be not lifted up above his brethren." Deut 17:18-20

8. "Dharmitized - to be subdued by Dharma. "Dharmamatra" - government enforcer of Dharma.

9. This Evolution Theory was immediately accepted by Hindu priests worldwide. To them, "evolution" is a form of "reincarnation." A species is re-born in successive generations either in a higher or lower state depending on the "good" or "evil" of his past life. Hindu evolutionists redefine "good" and "evil" into scientific words more acceptable to the academic community, but which mean the same thing. "Evolution" became a re-interpretation of Hindu reincarnation. It satisfies the spiritual demands of Hindus who exist to serve kings. In this manner the Evolution Theory became a religious theory with a life of its own.
