The Twelve Tribes of Israel encamped around the Tabernacle in the wilderness. These Israelites were the focus of the Edomite's hatred and anger - and remain so to this day.

INTRODUCTION

IF ONE STUDIES THE SCRIPTURE OF TRUTH CONCERNING THE DAYS OF NOAH, and believes the written Word, it becomes clear that many who lived prior to the catastrophic flood lived to an incredible age (Genesis chapter 5).

Something horrendous obviously happened to the earth and it's special relationship in the heavens at this time because the Scripture begins then to record a tremendous decrease in the life span of individuals like Shem, Eber and Nahor who lived after the great deluge (Genesis Chapter 11). Within only a few generations that span had decreased to about one tenth of it's former - and thus it follows that those of us alive today actually age ten times faster than those who lived before the flood.

In like fashion, we witness in these days such a rapid advance in the field of technology that it seems almost beyond comprehension. Within only seconds, we can now contact someone living several thousand miles away, simply by using a telephone; we can also stand face to face with that same individual after flying through the heavens at incredible speeds for just a few hours. In addition, today, billions of pieces of information can be stored in computer systems and then retrieved in a matter of seconds at the touch of a few keys. Without doubt, we are witnessing "the time of the end" when, as Scripture says, "many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased" (Daniel 12:4).

Since the Bible shows us that this would occur not only in the "last days", but also in the latter part of the last days, such an increase in knowledge actually heralds the end of an age. Before the curtain finally closes on this era however, certain prophecies written many centuries ago must be fulfilled.

The Twins

One of the most important of these prophecies brings to light the ongoing and continual struggle between the descendants of ESAU and the true descendants of JACOB/ISRAEL. While this relationship is for the most part not understood and generally ignored by the great majority of ministers, it has always been - and continues to be - one of the most important issues involving God's true people.

We learn from Scripture that Esau, Jacob's twin brother, did not enjoy the blessings and favour of God Almighty as did Jacob. Though he was the firstborn, he despised that which God had promised him. He rejected God, sold his BIRTHRIGHT, and lost all inheritance.

When Esau sold his birthright to his brother Jacob, his name had been changed to EDOM, which means 'RED' (Gen. 25:25-34), and so his descendants were then called EDOMITES.

The LORD decreed unto Rebekah that "the elder shall serve the younger", but there would also come a time when Esau would indeed have the rule: "and by thy sword shalt thou live, and shalt serve thy brother; and it shall come to pass when thou shalt have the dominion, that thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck." (Gen. 27:40)

Obadiah and other prophets speak of Esau's latter-day involvement with the true nations of Israel, and show clearly that Esau's descendants would have a very important role to play in these end times. Yet today, there is silence from the pulpits and nothing is mentioned in "religious" writings concerning the matter of who Esau 's descendants are.

As we see their power increasing to the point where they now have tremendous influence in our banking and political systems; in the news media; in our schools and Universities, and in many other areas over which God's people, Israel, once had dominion, we can understand that the national prophecies which relate to Esau are nearing their fulfilment.

The End—and The Beginning

When Esdras (the Ezra of the Bible) asked the LORD: "What shall be the parting asunder of the times? or when shall be the end of the first, and the beginning of it that followeth?" 2nd Esdras 6, (in the Apocrypha) the angel answered him saying:

"From Abraham unto Isaac, when Jacob and Esau were born of Him, Jacob 's hand held first the heel of Esau. for Esau Is the End of the World, and Jacob Is the Beginning of It That Followeth."

Jesus, being well aware of the Edomite control over nations, said: "When these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh." (Luke 21:28)

We can thus take hope that, in the midst of all the "perplexity of nations", we are indeed witnessing 'The Last Days of The Red Throne'...

Chapter 1

The anti-Semitic "Jew"

"..and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not. but are the synagogue of Satan." (Rev. 2:9)

ONE OF THE MOST REMARKABLE OF PROPHECIES WRITTEN IN THE BIBLE is today being fulfilled before our very eyes. The people involved in this prophecy -the descendants of Esau- are very real, and are diligently working toward their goal.

We have almost come full circle; for even as Jacob took Esau's place in receiving the BLESSING and BIRTHRIGHT from their father Isaac centuries ago, today we have the children of Esau masquerading as the true children of ISRAEL, in their final thrust to reclaim that birthright.

For us to be able to truly understand the meaning of what is actually transpiring in the world today, we need to review some enlightening and exciting history recorded in the Bible.

In the first book, Genesis, it is written that Isaac had two sons- Jacob, and Esau. Before the birth of the twins, the LORD had told Rebekah:

"Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels; and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and the elder shall serve the younger."(Gen. 25:23)

While Jacob was a plain man, Esau (the elder) was a cunning person, and though he was the firstborn, Esau sold his BIRTHRIGHT and lost all inheritance. He despised that which God had promised him and actually rejected God. Indeed, Hebrews 12:17 shows us that because of this, God in turn rejected him and:-

"he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears." As a result, all the blessings went legally and rightfully to Jacob.

We see that these blessings deal with "the fatness of the earth" - the grain, wine, cattle, and world leadership; even as Isaac had told Jacob: "Let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee..." (Gen .27:28,29)

With the sale of the birthright went the title deeds to the Promised Land. God later confirmed that Jacob was the legal heir and recipient of the blessing when He made a covenant with him as He had done with his fathers, Abraham and Isaac. God then changed Jacob's name to Israel, and blessed him with twelve sons. The descendants of these sons later grew into the TWELVE TRIBES OF ISRAEL, each of which received an individual blessing as recorded in Gen. 49 and Deut. 33. (See our series of books: "To The Twelve Tribes Scattered Abroad").

After the blessings of his father were bestowed upon Jacob, Esau lifted up his voice and wept bitterly. Isaac consequently spoke in prophecy concerning him (Gen. 27:40) and his words help us to comprehend what is now taking place in these last days, between the true children of Israel, and the descendants of Esau.

Esau swore that he would kill his brother Jacob, and through the years the Lord's thought about him would become established:

"And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste." (Mal. 1)

Contrary to the desires of both his parents, Esau married outside his own people when he took to wife Aholibamah, a descendant of Seir, the Horite, and also Adah, a descendant of Canaan through Heth (Gen. 26:34 and 36:2).

Knowing his father's displeasure, and to try to make amends with his parents, he then married Bashemath, the daughter of Ishmael (Gen. 28:8,9). It was of no comfort to Isaac and Rebekah though, and he later moved his family away to Mt. Seir, the land of his wife's ancestors. When Esau sold his birthright to Jacob, his name had been changed to EDOM, which means, 'Red' (Gen. 25:25-34), and so his descendants were then called EDOMITES.

"Thus dwelt Esau in mount Seir: Esau is Edom. And these are the generations of Esau the father of the Edomites in mount Seir."

The Sons of Esau Fight Israel (Gen. 36.8,9)

These Edomites inter-married with the Horites, and took over the control of these peoples. Esau's son, Eliphaz, took a Horite concubine (Timna) and had a son by her called AMALEK (Gen. 36:12). So the Amalekites Were the Offspring of Esau. They were a violently cruel breed with a fierce hatred of the Israelites, because they felt that Jacob had stolen the birthright and the blessing from their father Esau by a trick.

The root of bitterness that defiled their father Esau (Heb. 12:15-17) likewise passed on to succeeding generations, for these Edomites refused to give the children of Israel passage through their land after the Exodus (Num. 20), and they continually tried to regain the birthright by fighting the Israelites. These Amalekites had also slaughtered the stragglers when Israel was coming into the promised land (Deut. 25:17), and thus it is written,

"The LORD hath sworn that the LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation. " (Ex. 17:16)

Ezekiel said that these Edomites:

"...had a perpetual hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity." (Ezek. 35:5)

Edom, in the southern part of modern Jordan, was the early home of the Idumeans, who shed the blood of the true Israelites after the Exodus from Egypt.

These Idumeans resented the true Israelites who were the offspring of Jacob - who received the blessing and birthright which their father Esau despised.

(Gen. 25:34)

Amalek was continually trying to frustrate the plans of the Almighty as was evidenced many times in Israel's history (See Ezra 4:5, and 2nd. Chron. 28:17).

We can understand how the LORD to this day has indignation against these sons of Esau, and expresses his thought through Malachi saying:

"...and they shall call them—The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever." (Mai. 1:4)

In Psalms 83:1-4, we read of the conspiracy against the true Israel people: "Keep not thou silence O God:for to, thine enemies—have lifted up the head. They have taken crafty counsel against thy people. They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance."

Ten of The Twelve Tribes Migrate

After the Assyrian invasion upon the Northern Ten-Tribed 'House of Israel' and their subsequent captivity to that Empire around 720 B.C., these huge masses of Israelites escaped during the early conflicts between the Babylonian and Assyrian Empires and began moving north and west 'through the countries' on trek to their new homes in NW Europe and America (See our series: "To The Twelve Tribes Scattered Abroad").

It is essential for us to understand that NONE of these TEN TRIBES EVER RETURNED TO PALESTINE after their escape from captivity. Josephus the historian confirms this, when he writes:-

"The ten tribes did not return to Palestine: only two tribes served the Romans after Palestine became a Roman Province[1]."

The two tribes were of course, Judah and Benjamin. Josephus also stated: "There are but two tribes subject to the Romans, while the ten tribes are beyond the Euphrates till now, and are an immense multitude, and not to be estimated by numbers!”.

The Idumeans Move Out

Due to the pressure of the warring armies of the Egyptians, Assyrians and Babylonians marching through their territory, many of the Idumeans from the 7th to the 5th centuries B.C. began moving to the north, and some settled in the Assyrian and Babylonian Empires (Ezra Chapter 4).

These Edomites had been in the vanguard of the Babylonian forces when they attacked the Southern Kingdom of Judah around 600 B.C. for which the Babylonians rewarded them with the Gaza Strip. Others trekked north to the shores of the Caspian Sea, and settled down with their Mongolian cousins dwelling there among the descendants of Japheth. ‘The Jewish Encyclopaedia states that these people originated in the 'Seif mountains. Around 530 B.C., after being held captive by Babylon for 70 years, the Israelites of Judah and Benjamin were called upon by Cyrus, King of Persia, to return and rebuild the temple in Jerusalem (Ezra Chapter 1). But they were again harassed constantly in the succeeding years by the Syrians and these Edomites when, during the rebuilding, they "—hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose." (Ezra 4:5) "

The Amalekites again attempted to destroy the Israelites during the time of Queen Esther, when Harmon the Amalekite (Esther 3:1 and 1 Sam. 15:8) desired to kill the Israelites from Judah and Benjamin. However, Hamon himself was hanged "on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai."

At this time, the Jews (the true descendants of the House of Judah) had light, gladness, joy and honour (Esther 8:16).

The Edomite Connection: Judah is Infiltrated

The other peoples who lived in the area saw the advantage and privilege that the people of Judah and Benjamin were given. Because of this: "many of the people of the land became Jews—" (Esther 8:17)

Mordecai rides in triumph in place of Haman, the Amalekite (Ester 6:8-10).

Cyrus, King of Persia, gives Zerubbabel, governor of the Jewish colony, the golden vessels which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem (See Ezra, chapter 1).

and so, numerous non-Israelites took up Judaism as a religion. Josephus, the noted historian, confirms how other races—not Israelite by birth— "became Jews" over the years. He writes:

"All the Idumeans [subdued after Antiochus], were permitted to stay in that country, if they—made use of the laws of the Jews; they submitted—at which time—they were hereafter no other than Jews[2]."

Josephus tells how these converts were in time "esteemed the very same people with the Jews" even though they could not trace their lineage back to Judah.

They infiltrated true Israel to become it's rulers and religious leaders in Jerusalem (the Scribes and Pharisees), and their hatred for the Israel nation even carried down to the days of Jesus.

Josephus (left), wrote how the Idumeans of Esau "became Jews" when they adopted the Jewish religion for political purposes. These children of Edom are still in world Jewry today.

When Ezra returned to Jerusalem after the captivity to rebuild the Temple, he must have believed that fleshly lineage was important to God because he 'screened' those Jews who returned. Scripture shows how many of these

"sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood." (Ezra 2:62)

If a Jew was not in the pure bloodline, then Ezra did not consider him or her as from the tribe of Judah. This eliminated those who "became Jews" for political purposes.

They Try To Take Back The Birthright

The Idumeans who had rejoiced at the inheritance of Israel becoming desolate (during the captivities) were the same ones who later said:-

"—we will possess it. The ancient high places are ours in possession." (Ezek. 36:2,5)

Ezekiel, Isaiah and Obadiah all foresaw the inherent drive in the Idumeans to take control of Judah, and they gradually succeeded in their quest.

In the years ahead, the Idumean House of the Herods -Dukes of Edom (Gen. 36), descendants of Esau— a bloodthirsty group, would kill off the High Priestly 'House of Hashmon' and in their wickedness, even several members of their own families to become, with Roman help, the rulers of the Jewish state. Because of their slaughter of the High Priestly family, a High Priest had to be brought in from Alexandria, descended from / Aaron; but in the end the Edomite, Joseph Ben Ha-Quy-Ya-Fa (Caiaphas), the son-in-law of Annas, was appointed High Priest by the authorities, and now the State and the money power was under the control of Edom.

Herod ruled Judea from 37 B.C. to 4 A.D. He came from a family which had been forced to convert to Judaism in the 2nd century BC, when the Hasmonean, John Hyrcanus, conquered Idumea. Herod's father, Antipater, rose to power under Julius Caesar, who appointed him, Commissioner of all Judea, a position which he exploited to advance the' fortunes of his own family. Josephus confirms that Herod was:

"no more than a private man, and an Idumean, i.e., a half Jew."

It was this Herod who ruthlessly put to death hundreds of Israelite children under the age of two years, in the attempt to kill Jesus after his, birth. He now recognized that here was a true Prince of the Royal House of David, the legitimate King of Israel, who would threaten his power as a rival to his throne and so he was determined to destroy him.

The LORD Hath Indignation Against Edom

The Bible relates how Edom would return and build the desolate places of Israel. In Malach chapter 1 it is written:—

"—And I hated Esau, and laid—his heritage waste— Where-as Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places."

Herod helped fulfil this when he rebuilt the Temple that lay desolate after the Babylonian conquest. The Scripture continues:-

"—thus saith the Lord of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down;"

This was fulfilled in a measure when Titus, the Roman General, in 70 A.D. overthrew the temple built by Herod, the Idumean—

"—and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever."

Jesus expressed some of this indignation against them when he overthrew (he tables of these Edomite money changers and declared:-

"It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves." (Matt. 21:12,13)

These descendants of Esau set up a plot to murder Jesus, and were the ones responsible for his crucifixion by the Romans.

The Idumean High priest, Caiaphas, and the Idumean members of the Sanhedrin counsel had him arrested and falsely charged while they stirred up the town rabble of Jerusalem to demand his death.

BUT HAD THEY KNOWN, THEY WOULD NOT HAVE CRUCIFIED THE LORD OF GLORY!

The Pharisees of Idumean (Edom) seed were the ones who had Jesus crucified. These so-called "Jews" were the ones Jesus declared to be "of your father, the devil(left)." (John chapter 8:44)

After the resurrection of our Lord Jesus and the redemption of Israel, the true Israelites were renamed Christian (Acts 11:26), as prophesied in Numbers 6:27, and were driven from Palestine by their Christ-rejecting Edomite enemies who remained in Jerusalem and retained the name "Jew". When Titus laid siege upon the city in 70 A.D., these Edomite-Canaanite "Jews" were then themselves driven from Jerusalem.

Many of them fled or bought their freedom from the Romans, and in the years to come would settle in the grain towns on the shores of the Black Sea. In their migration, they even spread as far as Kiev. These people later mixed with the Japhetic KHAZARS and converted them to Phariseeism, whereupon they ALL have since been known as "Jews".

The Khazarian Origin

As a result of this movement, by the 6th and 7th centuries AD, a people of mixed Idumean-Turkic-Mongol stock had settled on the shores of the Black and Caspian Seas. They were the KHAZARS; and were called by the true Sephardic Jew, THE ASHKENAZIM'[3].

Funk and Wagnall's Jewish Encyclopaedia shows the religions of Europe in the 10th century. The 'CHAZAR' Empire is clearly shown:

The Khazar Empire, in Southern Russia, was the homeland of the Gentiles of ASHKENAZ. Their offspring eventually migrated to Poland, Hungary and Russia. Most such "Jews" are not descended from Israelite seed.

This ancient Khazarian Empire only 'converted' to Judaism in 740 AD even like those who "became Jews" in Esther's time. Their Chagan (king) Bhulan, adopted Judaism as the religion of his people by decree, so as to consolidate them into one powerful nation. Rabbis were engaged to teach the people the religion of the Pharisees, and the Hebrew letters were used to write the Khazar language. The result was Yiddish.

Robert Quillan in his article, 'The Jewish Kings of Russia', elaborates on this "new Israel":

"Long before the modern State of Israel, a Jewish kingdom located between the Caspian and Black Seas arose amid a world overtly hostile to the Jews. This new Israel was called Khazaria. The King converted to Judaism—as did much of the population. Thus began a line of Gentile— Jewish kings that ruled into the tenth century[4]."

History Shows Their Gentile Lineage

Askenazi is the 'tribe' from which most Jews claim descent. However, even the name itself reveals the GENTILE origin of almost 95% of today's modern "Jews". The name occurs in Genesis 10:3, and in 1st. Chron. 1:6 as one of the sons of Gomer, a son of Japheth (progenitor of the Gentiles). The "kingdom" of Ashchenaz is also mentioned in Jer. 51:27 and refers to a people living in the vicinity of Mt. Ararat and Armenia.

This is the precise location where the ancient Khazarian Empire was formed, just north of the Black Sea in the southern section of Russia below Moscow. Their capital was ITEL or ATTEL (near the present town of Astrakhan on the Volga), located on the trade routes between Northern Europe and the East. Here they extracted tolls from the merchant caravans on the Eastern trade route, while their main trade was in slaves and amber. They were a very warlike people, with little feeling for the sanctity of life.

By the 8th century A.D. this Khazar Kingdom on the Steppes in Russia was the largest nation in Europe, covering an vast area of approximately 1 MILLION miles square. The origins of the Khazars and their Empire are historical facts, and have been well documented in history books, yet few people know anything about their connections to modern Jewry.

Perhaps this lack of knowledge may stem from the fact that, while earlier encyclopaedias and history books discussed these people freely, mention of them in most all modern history books has been purged.

They Move Into Western Europe

The Scandinavian founders of Russia finally conquered these Khazars in 969 A.D. when their state was destroyed by Swyatoslav, Prince of Kiev, and his warlike Russ. Kiev is the capital of the Ukraine, and the Khazars have never forgiven the Ukrainians for this defeat. Consequently, there has been a conflict between them ever since.

After their defeat, and due to the pressure of people coming in from the east, many of these Ashkenazi-Khazar "Jews" moved along their trade routes into Russia, Hungary, Poland, and the Baltic States. Eventually they made their trek further west, and as history shows, created extreme difficulties for Christian Europe.

Some also moved South and East into India, where they again placed themselves into positions of collecting tolls and taxes, being the advisors to governments.

As they practised the ancient art of lending money at interest (usury), they soon became the wealthy class of the nation. It is well known that India and the nations surrounding it possess some of the richest families in the world - despite the fact that the vast majority of people in that region are extremely poor. Earl Jones, in his 'Intelligence Digest' shares some information on the well-known Sassoon family:

"It was the Sassoon family of India of the Ashkenazi clan who worked with the British East Indies Co. during the colonization of India. The people of India were forced to produce opium and ship it to China... The 'Chinese Opium War' created enormous wealth for these families[5]."

The facts concerning the migration of the Khazars have been established by many historians, and is beyond dispute. While Polish historians agree That:

"—in earlier times, the main hulk of the Jewish population originated from the Khazar country—", Kutschera went even further, stating that Eastern Jewry was 100% Khazar origin. The implications of such facts are, in today's society, enormous. True Jew, or Khazar?

After many years of research, Arthur Koestler, the well known Jewish author, published a 255 page book titled 'The Thirteenth Tribe'. In this he proves that the Eastern European "Jews" (who migrated west), are not Israelites or "Semitics", but actually Khazars, Mongols and Huns. Among the major newspaper and magazine editors who reviewed the book during 1976, Edmund Fuller, of the Wall Street Journal stated-

"You do not have to be Jewish to be interested—Are today's western Jews really ethnic, Semitic, BIBLICAL JEWS, or are most of them descendants of converted Khazars?—This compact, interesting book examines tragic-ironic implications [on this issue] for modern history."

Also, Random House, the Publisher, advertised it extensively and began some of their ads with the headline:—

"WHAT IF MOST JEWS ARE NOT REALLY SEMITES AT ALL?"

In addition, Random House quoted the following reviews: Robert Kirsch of the Los Angeles Times stated in his lengthy review that 'Koestler publishes with his customary skills a daring hypothesis' that:—

"the Khazar Jews Migrated to Poland and Became The Forbearers of Eastern European Jewry... "

Then Mr. Kirsch quoted Professor A. N. Poliak of Tel Aviv University, who, after many years of dedicated research, had found that:

The large majority of world Jewry is descended from the Jews of Khazaria[6]."

Then he quoted from Koestler's 'The Thirteenth Tribe':

"If so, this would mean that their ancestors came not from Jordan, but from the Volga, not from Canaan, but from, the Caucasus, once believed to be the cradle of the Aryan race [1500 years before]; and that—genetically they (today 's Jews) are more closely related to the Hun, Uigur and Magyar tribes than to the seed of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Should this turn out to be the case, then the term 'anti-Semitism' would /concerning them, become void of meaning[7].

Arthur Koestler

According to Koestler, although their 'conversion' was politically motivated, these Khazars claimed the status of a chosen race, despite the fact that they were not from the true blood line of Judah. He then states how, today, the "—lingering influence of Judaism's racial and historical message, though based on illusion, acts as a powerful emotional break by appealing to tribal loyalty—"

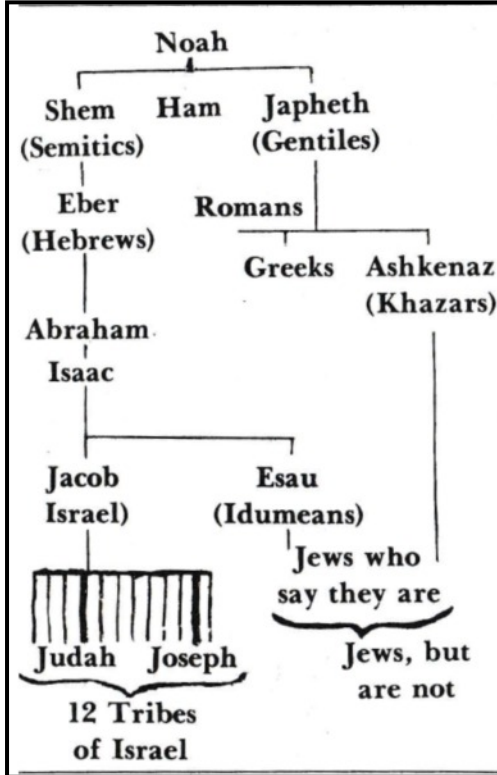

On page 72 of Koestler's book, he writes how, in a letter, the Khazar King showed that he had traced his people's lineage to TOGARM-AH and JAPHETH, the ancestors of all the TURKISH TRIBES:

"Joseph [the Khazar King] then proceeds to provide a genealogy of his people. Though a fierce Jewish nationalist, proud of wielding the 'Sceptre of Judah', he cannot, and does not claim for them Semitic descent; he traces their ancestry not to Shem, but to Noah 's third son, Japheth; or more precisely to Japheth's grandson, Togarmah, the ancestor of all Turkish tribes."

The Sons of Noah and Their Descendents

Shem and The Hebrews

The SEMITIC (Shemitic) people came through Shem. One of these Semitic peoples is the Hebrews, since Eber, their father, came directly from Shem.

The GENTILES came from Japheth. The chart shows that the Romans, Greeks and Ashkenazi are Gentiles.

Since the Ashkenazi "Jews" are not Semites, then they cannot be Israelites, for Jacob/Israel was a direct descendant of Shem.

It is absolutely imperative for us to receive true history, that we might all fulfil the destiny and purpose for which God Almighty has called us.

In Scripture, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob are always called 'Hebrews', NEVER 'Jews'. The word 'Jew' was not used until the time when the twelve tribes became divided into two separate 'Houses'. This Was about One Thousand Years after Abraham; and the name was Only used then to describe a true descendant of the House of Judah. It was Never applied to any of the other tribes at Any Time. When many thousands of 'pastors' today teach that "all Israelites are Jews", they actually do so in direct contradiction of Scripture.

Thus, while it is a fact that all true Jews are Israelites (because they are descended from the House of Judah), it can be proven by research that Not All Who Say They Are Jews Are True Israelites.

Even The Jewish Encyclopaedia states that "Edom is in modern Jewry"[8]

The Scripture in Revelation 2:9 now becomes extremely clear:-

"—and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan[9]."

Jeremiah chapter 24 reveals the difference between these "good" and "bad figs" of Judah. The good figs were removed and many of them merged with the ten-tribed House of Israel as they journeyed across Europe; many eventually accepted Christ as their Saviour and Messiah.

But they were not the 'modern' Jew of today. These "bad" figs are those who "say they are Jews, and are not", the forefathers of which were in Jerusalem when our Lord was on Earth; who taunted the Master, and caused him to be put to death. Their descendants have become a curse in every nation in which they have settled, as shown by early history books. H. G. Wells, (shown opposite) confirms the facts about these Khazars:

"The Khazars were a Turkish people—To these Jewish Khazars are to be ascribed the great settlements of Jews in Poland and Russia—" Concerning their connection with the "Promised Land", he states:-

H. G. Wells shed much light on the origin of the Khazars.

"It is highly probable the bulk of the Jews' ancestors have never lived in Palestine at all which witnesses to the power of Historical Assertion over Fact[10]. Someone once said that if you tell a lie often enough and shout it loud enough, most people will begin to believe it. Such must surely be the case with these Ashkenazi, when they cry for the "return to their homeland"—

Hungarian and Polish sources tell how these Ashkenazi-Edomites who masquerade as Jews were employed as mint-masters, administrators of the Royal Revenue, controllers of the salt monopoly, tax-collectors and money-lenders.

The early records reflect the part played by these immigrants in the economic life of the two countries. That it was an important part is not surprising, since foreign trade and the levying of customs duties had been the Khazars principal source of income in the past. They remained a closely-knit society in those lands into which they migrated, with a strong political-religious organization which they used to further their purpose. One of their first objectives is to gain control of the nation's monetary powers. Through this, they proceed to usurp the religious, political, and economic systems in the nation. They then take on the task of remaking the educational system by obtaining controlling interest in companies which publish school and college textbooks on history and economics.

They lend finance to each other when necessary, without usury, and are now a cosmopolitan society. With their wealth they have enabled members of their nation to attain positions of influence, which gives them power in all countries. They use this influence to execute their stated purpose, which is to destroy the host nation from within and to bring into operation a World Government which they intend to control.

James Warburg declared their intentions clearly when he stood before the U.S. Senate on February 17, 1950, and stated with arrogance:-

"We shall have World Government whether or not we like it. The only question is whether World Government will be achieved by Conquest or Consent."

Immigrants flocked into the United States by the millions during the late 1800's. Many of these were Ashkenazis from Russia, Poland, Hungary, and the Baltic States. A shipload of new arrivals is shown, opposite.

Though they claim the status of 'the Chosen People', most such "Jews " have no historical or racial connection with the land of Palestine. In view of this, what becomes of their cry for "repatriation" to the "homeland"?

Although these people have left their indelible mark upon every Christian country in which they have sojourned, the fruit of their destructive work is especially 'visible' in the United States of America.

CHAPTER 2

MONEY MONEY MONEY

"The world is governed by men behind the scenes, totally unknown to the man on the street." (Benjamin Disraeli, Prime Minister, Great Britain, 1844).

MANY OF THE IMMIGRANT 'JEWS' WHO EVENTUALLY CAME TO THE SHORES OF AMERICA Carried on the trades which they had learned from their fathers. By hard work and tremendous energy they had accumulated enormous wealth in Europe and several had established banking houses through which they loaned European governments money.

These dynasties had learned that, since commerce and industry are the livelihoods of nations and their peoples, the control of money is then the obvious key to the control of the nations of the world. They also knew that all governments must borrow money in times of emergency, and by providing such funds from their own resources -with 'strings' attached- they could bring kings and government leaders under their control.

Thus began the process by which they would begin to conquer the host nation. By seducing the political authority to grant them monopoly power to issue the nation's money as debt at interest (usury), they could then create the money 'out of nothing' as a book or computer entry. When they loan this 'bank credit' to the government or a corporation in exchange for interest-bearing bonds (and to individuals in exchange for title to property), they can FORECLOSE when there is no unencumbered property remaining to collateralize another loan, or insufficient money to repay the loan.

Control The Money, Direct The Policy

The concept of a central bank which would have the power to issue money had already taken strong hold in Europe. The Bank of Amsterdam was started in 1609; it's members aided William of Orange in his famous conquest of England. The Bank of Hamburg was chartered in 1619, and the Bank of Sweden began the practice of issuing notes in 1661. These banks were chartered by financiers whose ancestors had been bankers in Venice and Genoa. As the tide of world power shifted northward in Europe, so did the financiers. The Warburgs of Hamburg had begun as the 'Abraham del Banco' family, the largest bankers in Europe[11].

Karl Marx certainly understood the importance of centralizing controls on credit and other monetary policies. His 'Communist Manifesto' calls for "centralization of credit in the hands of the state, by means of a national bank with—an exclusive monopoly."

His disciple, Lenin, also said that the establishment of a central bank was "ninety percent" of communising a country.

Certainly the bankers involved in nationalization schemes were well aware of the power a central bank gave them, and the outcry that would ensue if the public ever became aware of it. Reginald McKenna, the chancellor of the Exchequer of England (1915-1916), and chairman of the board of England's Midlands Bank, made this statement to his stockholders in January, 1924:

"I am afraid the ordinary citizen will not like to be told that the banks can, and do, create money— And they who control the credit of the nation direct the policy of Governments and hold in the hollow of their hands the destiny of the people[12]."

The central banks that were set up in Europe, like the Bank of England, were not owned by their respective governments -as almost everyone is led to believe- but by privately-owned monopolies, granted by the heads of state usually in return for loans. Most national leaders thus become merely 'puppets' or spokesmen for those working from "behind the scenes" (as Disraeli said) in their thrust for control of the nation.

The Red Shield

The most prominent of the banking dynasties to emerge over the years has proven to be the Rothschilds of Europe. In Frankfurt, the sire of the family, Mayer Amschel Rothschild, established a small business as a coin dealer. He married Gutter Schnaper in 1770 and had a large family of five sons and five daughters. Although previously known as Bauer, he advertised his profession by putting up a sign depicting an eagle on a red shield, an adaptation of the coat of arms of the City of Frankfurt, to which he added five golden arrows extending from the talons (signifying his five sons). He took the name "Rothschild" or "Red Shield" because of the sign, and later became the money-lending agent for William IX, Landgrave of Hesse-Cassel.

According to William Guy Carr, in 'Pawns In The Game', the founder of this international banking dynasty was extremely instrumental in the initial organization of the 'World Revolutionary Movement'. Carr states that the first meeting of these planners took place in Mayer Amschel Bauer's Goldsmith Shop in Frankfurt in 1773:

"Bauer— was only thirty years of age when he invited twelve other wealthy and influential men to meet him in Frankfurt. His purpose was to convince them that if they agreed to pool their resources they could then finance and control the World Revolutionary Movement and use it as their Manual of Action to win ultimate control of the wealth, natural resources, and manpower of the entire world. This agreement reached, Mayer unfolded his revolutionary plan.

The project would be backed by all the power that could be purchased with their pooled resources[13]."

Rothschild would later direct his five sons to establish banking branches in the principal cities of Europe, the most successful being James in Paris and Nathan Mayer in London. Eustace Mullins, in his well written book 'The World Order', explains that Nathan, the third son, because of his dealings in textiles and dye-stuffs in Manchester, England, grew to be "widely feared and hated".

Mayer Amschel Bauer (right), the founder of 'The House of Rothschild'.

He arranged for King George III of England to hire 16,800 sturdy young Hessian soldiers from Landgrave Frederick II of Hesse, the wealthiest man in Europe, to put down the American Rebellion.

Prosperity with the 'Colonial Script'

At this point it might be important for us to consider that, prior to 1775, the American people were economically comfortable with a genuine system of free enterprise. The Pilgrims, who had travelled to America some decades before, had put into circulation a debt-free paper script.

After some initial problems, the economies of the colonies with this script began to flourish, bringing full employment. The colonies were full of "cottage industries", as they would be called today, where each family had it's own profession or trade. Many items were manufactured for use within the colonies or shipped abroad using "Yankee Clipper" ships, and there was one commercial bank on the entire east coast which hardly anyone knew existed.

In the colonies, Christian ministers taught the people -from both the Old Testament and the New- the principles of the Bible, which they applied to everyday life. These ministers were used within the civil government for advise and consultation to insure that Christian principles prevailed.

There was no such thing as "Judeo-Christianity" and, because of the Christian's experiences in Europe, laws had been established so that other peoples (and in particular, Jews), could not vote, own property or be citizens. However, even before America was 'born' as a nation, the destructive power of the conspiracy would soon be felt upon her shores.

The Influence of the Bank of England

Although the Rothschilds did not become associated with the Bank until 1812, the Bank of England has always played a prominent role in not only European, but American history also. Like other enterprises with which they have been connected, the Bank has been a centre of international intrigue and espionage since it's founding in 1694, and had originated in a revolution as William III, Prince of Orange, drove King James II from the throne. One of the most important acts of William's reign was his granting of the charter of the Bank of England to the banker William Patterson. Through this, the power over England's money system fell into private hands.

When Benjamin Franklin was in England on official business for the colonies, he was asked at a meeting how he accounted for the prosperous conditions prevailing in the new land. He replied:—

"That is simple. In the colonies we issue our own money. It is called Colonial Script; and we issue it in proper proportion

Prohibition' In The Colonies

The American colonists considered themselves loyal Englishmen to a man, but when they began to enjoy unequalled prosperity by printing and it dilating their own debt-free Colonial Script, the stockholders of the Bank of England then went to King George III and informed him that their monopoly of interest-bearing notes in the colonies was at stake. The King subsequently banned the Script, and in 1764 a law was passed in the English Parliament prohibiting the Colonial officials from issuing their own money, thus making it compulsory for them to obtain money through the Bank of England. One of London's most famous institutions - The Bank of England (right), stands on Threadneedle Street, In the busiest part of "the City".

Often called by both historians and bankers as The Little Old Lady of Threadneedle Street", it was chartered in 1694, and thus the power of England's money system fell into private hands.

With the passage of the new law, the colonists were forced to mortgage the assets of the colonies to the Bank of England in order to borrow the money needed to carry on their free enterprise system of business. Of course, as soon as they borrowed Bank of England money, their control ->I the colonies stood in jeopardy. The result of the new monetary system an immediate depression. Franklin stated:

"In one year the conditions were so reversed that the era of prosperity ended, and a depression set in, to such an extent that the streets of the colonies were filled with the unemployed."

It was of course, well planned, for he added:

"The Bank of England refused to give more than 50 percent of the face value of the Colonial Script when turned over as required by law".

The economic chaos that followed was the direct result of the Bank imposing its money system on the colonies. While 'organized' history highlights the Boston Tea Party and the Stamp Act as the main incidents precluding the rebellion against England, these, though burdensome in themselves, were not the root cause. Franklin understood, for he declared:

"The colonies would gladly have borne the little tax on tea and other matters had it not been that England took away from the colonies their money, which created unemployment and dissatisfaction."

George Washington was under no delusion as to the parties responsible for the economic turmoil and the ultimate military conflict. Speaking in 1779 of the international bankers and their agents who sought to make this nation a 'vessel state' of England, he left no doubt as to his desires concerning them:

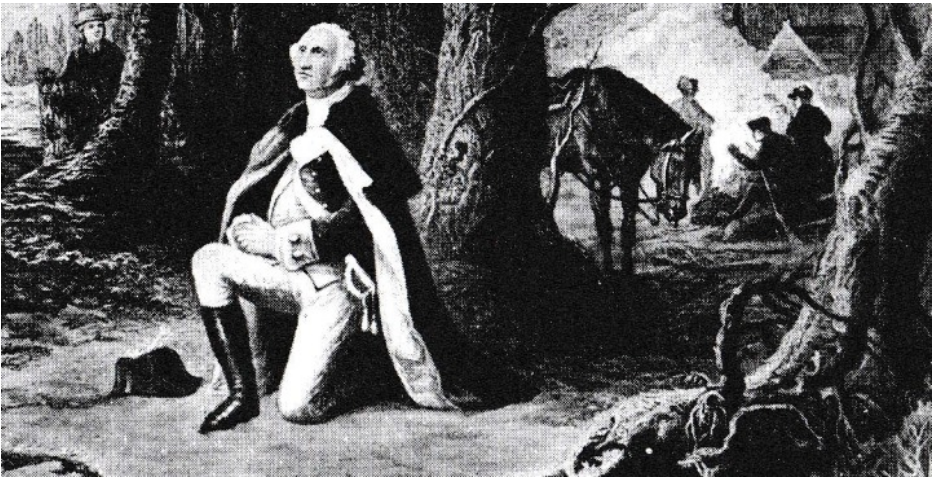

"This tribe of black gentry work more effectively against us than the enemies armies. They are a hundred times more dangerous to our liberties and the great cause we are engaged in.

It is much to be lamented, that each State, long ere this, has not hunted them down, as pests to society, and the greatest enemies we have to the happiness of America.

I would to God, that some of the most atrocious in each State, were hung upon a gallows, five times as high as the one proposed by Haman.

No punishment, in my opinion, is too great for the man who can build his greatness upon his country's ruin[14]."

CHAPTER 3

THE POWER BEHIND THE THRONE

"You are a den of vipers and thieves and I intend to rout you out, and by the eternal God, / will rout you out".
(Andrew Jackson, 1829).

IN THE UNITED STATES IT WAS INEVITABLE THAT THE INTERNATIONAL BANKING INTERESTS would attempt to establish the same kind of private monopoly over the money system they had already achieved in England, France, Germany, Italy and Switzerland. The same formula would be used: Make it look like a government operation, but keep the control in private hands.

In October, 1781, after almost seven years in battle, George Washington's army of 17,000 men surrounded Yorktown and began attacking British troops which were under the command of General Charles Cornwallis. The siege had lasted for three weeks, and Washington and his colonial troops were understandably becoming weary of the bloody war. One account of history suggests that, at this point, word came from certain European bankers through their New York agent, Alexander Hamilton, that a peace could be "negotiated" provided a central bank would be established allowing these bankers -primarily the bank of England- to control the currency. A private agreement was made, and the last major battle of the revolutionary war concluded with the surrender of Cornwallis and his 8,000 soldiers.

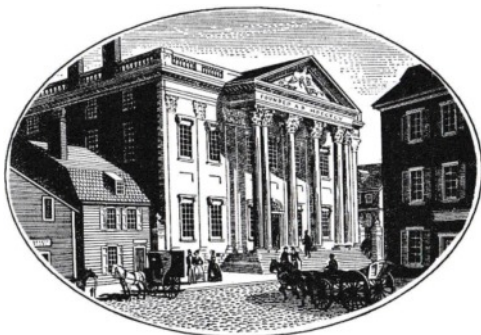

Knowing Washington's true sentiments concerning those responsible for the war have caused some to believe he may well have thought it futile, after years of war, to continue to attempt to defeat these forces from the battlefield, and decided instead to try from the congressional arena. However, upon hearing of the "negotiations", Thomas Jefferson was furious. He said that to allow the European bankers to establish such a bank was worse than putting a British soldier in every home.

Alexander Hamilton (left) had been appointed Secretary of the Treasury' and his arguments to Congress were that if the United States issued its own money on the name and worth of the nation, foreign countries would most likely consider it valueless; but, if the money was issued by bankers, at interest, then all foreign countries would honour the American money.

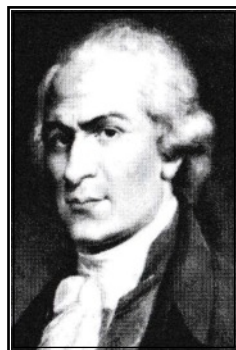

Needless to say, Jefferson, Ben Franklin and James Madison (right) adamantly opposed Hamilton's plans to establish a central bank for the U.S. like the Bank of England. However, after Franklin's death in 1790, Hamilton succeeded in his assignment by bribing enough Congressmen to have Congress grant a Charter in 1791 to "The First Bank of the United States" for a period of 20 years. 25,000 shares were sold for $400 apiece. The Federal Government owned only 20% of these shares; the other 80% of the bank's capital stock was sold to private citizens.

It was well known that Baron James de Rothschild of Paris was the principal investor. In fact, the Rothschilds owned such a substantial share it was said that they were "the power" in the old Bank of the United States.

The First Bank of the United States, established in 1791, had it's later headquarters in this grand building in Philadelphia.

Alexander Hamilton,
Secretary of the Treasury.

The order was immediately given to issue unlimited credit to the people with their property as collateral. Money, in large quantities, was put into circulation. There was a "boom cycle" and everybody was making money. The news media played up the prosperity to the fullest, and many borrowed to the maximum extent possible.

Going-- Going—Gone

Then, the European Rothschilds pulled in the extension of credit. They pulled in outstanding loans, reducing the amount of money in circulation. I he result, as is always the case, was a depression. People could not pay their loans and the bankers obtained millions of dollars worth of property and other securities at a fraction of their value. Yet it was all done "legally, within the law".

During his Presidential years (1801-1809), Thomas Jefferson continued to oppose the bank and stated:

"I believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies. Already they have set up a money aristocracy that has set the government at defiance. The issuing power (of money) should be taken from the banks, and restored to Congress and to the people, to whom it belongs."

The Rothschild Bank of England knew that the people of America held no great affection toward the idea of renewing the bank charter in 1811, and so, Nathan, (he leader in England, gave this precursory warning:

"Either the application for the renewal of the charter is granted or the United States will find itself involved in a most disastrous war."

Thomas Jefferson

Apparently Jefferson's stand must have persuaded several congressmen (hat the bank was unconstitutional, for when the 20 year charter for the central bank came up for renewal before Congress in 1811, it was denied. Nathan Rothschild responded by issuing orders to the lackeys in the British Government to: "Teach these impudent Americans a lesson bring them back to Colonial status."

That this was a directive became clear in the decades ahead. Hearst's Chicago Evening American would editorialise a century later (Dec. 3, 1923):

"The Rothschilds can start or prevent wars. Their word could make or break empires."

"The War of 1812"

The influence of this dynasty in the British political arena thus became all too evident, for in the year following Congressional refusal to renew (the charter, the British navy began to commandeer American ships, and to press U.S. citizens into the British military. And so the American people again found themselves fighting another war; one which would later be called "The War of 1812".

Historians write of a series of little incidents which caused the two governments to drift progressively closer to the outbreak of war; but these incidents were actually brought about with the deliberate intentions of causing the break, instigated solely in the effort to re-establish the rule of the Bank of England, to determine who would issue the money for the States. The plan was to impoverish the Americans by the war to such an extent that the U.S. Congress would come begging on it's knees to renew the charter.

By 1815, the newly 'independent' nation had now fought two major, bloody wars, and only one year after the last conflict had ended at New Orleans, the effect of the war brought the desired result - for in 1816 a new charter was given to the 'Second Bank of the United States' for another twenty years[15].

Rumour in the Mill, Panic on the Floor

The Bank of England and the Rothschilds would continue to play a dominant role in the commercial life of the United States, causing panics and depressions for the Rothschilds whenever their officials were instructed to do so. In the early part of the 19th century, they had begun to consolidate their profits from government loans into various business ventures, many of which have done very well. Nathan Mayer had achieved tremendous financial rewards during the Battle of Waterloo, when 'fortuitous' trading on the London Stock Exchange gave him a substantial portion of the Consols (securities) which formed the bulk of the deposits of the Bank of England.

Ignatius Balia in his 'Romance of the Rothschilds' describes how this London Rothschild made his fortune: After going to Waterloo where the fate of Europe hung in the balance, and where he had seen that Napoleon was losing the battle, he rushed back to the Belgium coast, and despite a storm, crossed the English Channel.

The following morning, returning to his usual post under 'his' pillar at the London Stock Exchange, he looked exhausted and worried. Suddenly he began selling, dumping large quantities of securities. Immediately, panic swept the floor while rumours abounded: "Rothschild is selling. He knows we have lost at Waterloo..." was the whisper. The selling reached fever pitch; Rothschild and all of his known agents continued to dump securities onto the market. Prices plummeted. The panic increased.

Balia states how, at this point:

"Nothing could arrest the disaster. At the same time (that the selling fever was reaching it's peak) he was quietly buying up all the securities by means of secret agents whom no one knew. In a single day, he had gained nearly a million sterling, giving rise to the saying, 'The Allies won the Battle of Waterloo, but it was really Rothschild who won'." [16]

Concerning the validity of the story, it is interesting to note Eustace Mullins remarks in his extensive, The Secrets of The Federal Reserve:-

"The New York Times, April 1, 1915, reported that in 1914, Baron Nathan Mayer de Rothschild went to court to suppress Ignatius Balia's hook on the grounds that the Waterloo story about his grandfather was untrue and libellous. The court ruled that the story was true, dismissed Rothschild's suit, and ordered him to pay all costs. "

Puppet On The Throne

Upon reflection of his "coup d'état" of British Consols in the Exchange, Nathan would later exclaim arrogantly during a party at his mansion:

I care not what puppet is placed upon the throne of England to rule the Empire on which the sun never sets. The man that controls Britain's money supply controls the British Empire; and I control the British money supply[17]."

The Rothschild's role in international affairs is aptly described by Paul Emden in his book 'Behind The Throne':-

"In other countries also the relations of the Rothschilds extended behind the throne. Not until numerous diplomatic publications appeared in the years after the war did a wider public learn how strongly Alfred de Rothschild's hand affected the politics of Central Europe during the twenty years before the war (World War 1)"[18]

For the last 150 years, the story of the House of Rothschild has been to an amazing degree the backstage history of Western Europe

Disraeli knew of the influence wielded behind the scenes by the powerful Rothschilds

Morton also explains that: Because of their success in making loans, not to individuals, but to nations, they reaped huge profits— Someone once said that the wealth of Rothschild consists of the bankruptcy of nations.

Revolution - In America?

Andrew Jackson had been one of the heroes of the War of 1812. When he became President in 1829, he declared war on the international bankers and told them in scathing words:—

"You are a den of vipers and thieves and I intend to rout you out, and by the eternal God, I will rout you out."

In 1833, Jackson ordered the Secretary of the Treasury to remove government deposits from the Central Bank and place them in state banks. The famous banker, Henry Clews, tells us that the immediate result was that the country began to enjoy great prosperity. The sudden flow of cash caused an immediate expansion of the national economy.

An anti-Jackson political cartoon shows "King Andrew the First" ruling by the veto and trampling on the Constitution

The move was so successful that on January 8, 1835, Andrew Jackson paid off the final instalment of the national debt, leaving a surplus of $50 million in the Treasury. He was the only President in history ever to do so. The United States was at last out from under the control of the European banking houses.

When the charter for the Second Bank of the United States expired in 1836, Congress—under Jackson's influence—refused to renew it, thus driving it into bankruptcy. It is a sheer miracle that he was not assassinated. An attempt to kill him was made on January 30, 1835, by one Richard Lawrence, with two pistols, both of which misfired. Lawrence was found 'not guilty by reason of insanity'. Later however, he boasted of his contact with European bankers who had promised to protect him if he were caught.

Jackson was infuriated by the tactics of the bankers who were attempting to persuade him to renew the charter, and in his address to Congress he let his sentiments be plainly known, stating firmly:—

"The bold efforts that the present bank has made to control the government, the distress it has wantonly caused, are but premonitions of the fate which awaits the American people should they be deluded into a perpetuation of this institution or the establishment of another alike. If the people only understood the rank injustice of our money and banking system there would be a revolution before morning."

Near the close of Jackson's second term in office, plans that had been made some time before both military and economic were put into force when, on March 5, 1836, Mexican troops led by Santa Anna engineered the fall of the Alamo, in San Antonio, Texas.

The Alamo, in San Antonio, Texas. Once a mission, it became a battle site when Santa Anna and his troops attacked the Texans. Men like Davy Crockett and Jim Bowie fell here in the fight for independence from Mexico Today, the site is a national monument.

It is believed that Santa Anna was instructed to push northward to the Mason-Dixon Line and eastward to the Atlantic coast. Thus, the South would be ruled by Mexico, of which they were firmly in control. Other I mops were stationed in Canada during this period and upon orders would be ready to invade all the territory north of the Mason-Dixon Line.

When their intended plans for the division of the United States did not succeed at this time, the Rothschilds then proceeded to punish the upstarts by causing the 'Panic of 1837'.

Henry Clews, in his book, 'Twenty-Eight Years in Wall Street' states that the Panic of 1837 was engineered because the charter of the Second Bank of the United States had run out in 1836.

Clews remarked that:—

"The Panic of 1837 was aggravated by the Bank of England when it in one day threw out all the paper connected with the United States[19].

Precious Yellow...

The dominant role played by the House of Rothschild with the Bank of England even today is augmented by another peculiar duty of the firm - the daily fixing of the worldwide price of gold, which also plays a crucial role in the monetary affairs of nations. The December 12, 1938 article from the News Chronicle describes this ritual:

"The story of the gold-fixing has often been told. How every weekday at 11 a.m. the representatives of five firms of bullion brokers and one firm of refiners meet at the office of Messrs. Rothschild and there fix the starting price of gold—
—A price is first suggested, probably by the representative of Messrs Rothschild, who also acts for the Bank of England and the Exchange Equalization Account."

Contrary to what the public is told, the policies instituted at this Bank in London -such as the rate of interest- have a direct bearing upon, and affect the interest rates in other nations. By refusing to credit American notes and stocks in the Panic of 1837, the Bank of England created financial panic among the holders of that paper. This engineered manoeuvre enabled Rothschild agents, Peabody and Belmont, to reap a fortune in buying up depreciated stocks during the panic, and is a repeat of the system used time and time again by this dynasty in their manipulation of political and economic issues. E. C. Knuth states the point very well in 'The Empire of the City':

"The fact that the House of Rothschild made its money in the great crashes of history and the great wars of history - the very periods when others lost their money - is beyond question."

—and Richard Lewinsohn in 'The Profits of War' gives this example:

"Rothschild's war profits from the Napoleonic Wars financed their later stock speculations[20]."

America Resists

Unlike the European nations, America continued to vigorously resist the pressures to institute a central banking system. The nation was funded by thousands of completely independent, locally-owned banks—which valued their autonomy. Gaining control over these was not an easy task for the banking dynasties who had "pooled their resources", but one that had to be undertaken in their drive to achieve effective financial control of the country. During the following two decades, they created confusion and chaos in the money system through the State-chartered banks. In this period though, they despaired of again establishing a central bank through which they could control the entire United States.

When gold was discovered however, in California in 1849, and later in Colorado, the gold and silver provided a tremendous potential prosperity for the United States. This obviously would keep the nation from being subject to the the European banking houses. Suddenly, they were in danger of losing all control.

Divide And Conquer

It was thus decided to execute the plan which had been designed some years previously -the plot to conquer by dividing the United States into I wo nations. In this phase of the conspiracy they decided to use slavery as I he issue to instigate the war between North and South. Though slavery is generally accepted by historians as the reason for the bloodshed, the real root cause lay of course, in the control of the American economy.

In his authorized biography, The Rothschilds, The Financial Ruler of Nations, John Reeves noted that when the family met in London in 1857 for the marriage of Lionel's daughter, Leonora, to her cousin, Alphonse (son of James Rothschild of Paris), Disraeli, Prime Minister of England, declared. "Under this roof are the heads of the family of Rothschild - a name famous in every capital of Europe and every division of the globe.

If you like, we shall divide the United States into two parts; one for you, James, and one for you, Lionel...."

While most could understandably take this as a joke, it was however, not intended at all as such, for Disraeli concluded: "—Napoleon will do exactly and all that I shall advise him."

In his extremely-well researched, The World Order, Mullins explains: "This was the political origin of the Civil War. The Rothschilds feared the rapidly-growing and increasingly-prosperous free American Republic, and they privately resolved that it would be less of a danger to their worldwide interests if it were broken up into two smaller and weaker nations[21]".

Otto Von Bismarck, as Chancellor of Germany, was well aware of 'the power behind the throne', for in the March, 1921 issue of La Vielle France, it is written that he said: "The division of the United States into federations of equal force was decided long before the Civil War by the high financial powers of Europe—But Lincoln read their plots and understood that the South was not the worst foe, but the financiers."

Bismarck, Chancellor of Germany

There's Money in War...

The 'military wing' of the bankers movement - the Knights of The Golden Circle - were instructed to incite unrest and riots, and were the force used to initiate the fighting upon Fort Sumter in April, 1861, only one month after Lincoln took office. It was the beginning of a cruel and bloody war which would not end until April 1865, four years later.

On July 21, 1861, one hundred days after the Fort Sumter incident, the first major battle of the war began. Thirty thousand men under Union General Irwin McDowell met Confederate forces at a small creek north of Richmond, called Bull Run. This long pause after the first engagement allowed both North and South to equip and train men for combat. The number of dead and wounded in the war would be horrific - proportionately higher than in any American war, past or present.

The Rothschilds involvement in America in the 1800's was well orchestrated by their agent, August Belmont.

Both sides of course, would need major financing to carry out the war effort. And so, the London branch of the Rothschild's approached the North through their agent, August Schoenberg.

Schoenberg, on arrival in the United States as their representative in 1837, had changed his name to Belmont. He was an Ashkenazi 'Jew' from eastern Europe, and -like so many in their close establishment- was well-versed in their monetary system.

Financing for the South 's efforts would be undertaken by Judah P. Benjamin and John Slidell, the agents for the Paris branch of the Rothschilds[22].

Lincoln's "Greatest Foe"

Abraham Lincoln, serving in the highest office in the land at what may well have been the most crucial period in the nation's history, knew well the forces working from behind the scenes. He said of these bankers:

"The money power preys upon the nation in times of peace and conspires against it in times of adversity—It denounces, as public enemies all who question it's methods or throw light upon it's crimes. I have two great enemies: the Southern army in front of me. and the financial institutions in the rear. Of the two, the one in my rear is my greatest foe."

When the Union requested loans from the private banks to conduct the war, the bankers demanded huge rates of interest. This angered Lincoln and he proceeded to have Congress authorize, in three issues, $450 million worth of 'United States Notes' called "Lincoln Greenbacks", which were paid for goods and services required for the war. These new issues of DEBT-FREE money not only saved the Union, but would also have destroyed the power of the bankers. The London Times, one of their controlled newspapers, editorialised at that time:

"If this mischievous financial policy, which has it's origin in the North American Republic, shall become indurated down to a fixture, then that government shall furnish it's own money without cost. It will pay off it's debt and be without debt. It will have all the money necessary to carry on it's commerce. It will become prosperous without precedent in the history of the world. The brains and the wealth of all countries will go to North America. That government must be destroyed or it will destroy every monarchy on the globe."

Lincoln was deeply concerned for the whole nation and during one of those periods when God purges even the righteous soul, during the crucible of that terrible war when brother killed brother, he spoke of the main force in the whole arena of battle:

"I see in the near future a crisis approaching that unnerves me and causes me to tremble for the safety of my country; corporations have been enthroned, an era of corruption in high places will follow, and the money power of the country will endeavour to prolong its reign by working upon the prejudices of the people until the wealth is aggregated in a few hands, and the Republic destroyed[23]."

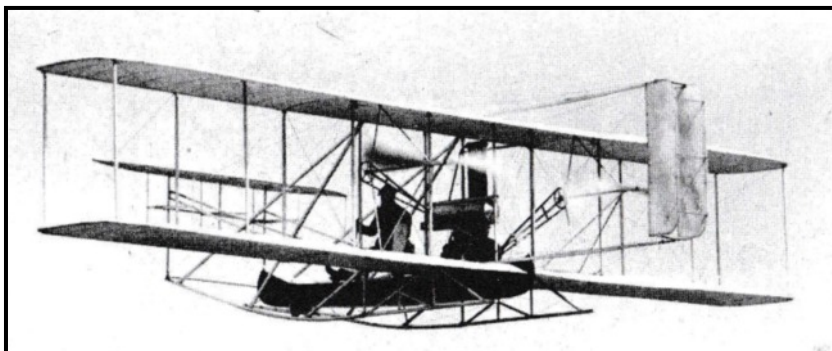

It has been suggested from more than one source that Abraham Lincoln's death was the direct result of his refusal to accept the Rothschild's offer to help finance the North during the war, as they were already doing for the South; that in order to protect their money monopoly, and to prevent the expansion of the honest, debt-free money system instituted by Lincoln, the Rothschilds operated through Judah P. Benjamin and hired John Wilkes Booth to kill the President. The fact that there were several hanged for the President's murder, and that there was deep involvement by the Jesuit order in the plot seems to give more than a little foundation to the idea of a well-knit conspiracy behind the assassination on April 14, 1865. Bismark, Chancellor of Germany, made the following incredible statement regarding the murder:

"The death of Lincoln was a disaster for Christendom. There was no man in the United States great enough to wear his boots, and [the international bankers/ went anew to grab the riches of the world.

I fear that foreign bankers with their craftiness and torturous tricks will entirely control the exuberant riches of America, and use it to systematically corrupt modern civilization. They will not hesitate to plunge the whole of Christendom into wars and chaos in order that the earth should become their inheritance".

In the years following the Civil War, there was a continual struggle in America's economy, even though 'the industrial age' flourished. In 1876, the telephone was invented, and from it came our modern means of communication. The automobile and the airplane also came soaring into society in the short years ahead as the banking dynasties continued in their efforts, bringing a depression in 1884 and a panic in 1893. Each were conceived in renewed attempts to convince Congress to allow a central bank. During those busy and exciting years however. Congress continued to refuse, and though the nation suffered economic recession, the period witnessed America's greatest growth.

"THE WRETCHED REFUSE OF YOUR TEEMING SHORE..."

A few years after the Statue of Liberty had been given to the people of the United States by the people of France, Jewish groups began to lobby Congress for a plaque to be placed on this statue. It consisted of a phrase written by the Jewish poet, Emma Lazarus, and stated:

"Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free, The wretched refuse of your teeming shore, Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost to me, I lift my lamp beside the golden door!"

Although the statue had originally been given to the "new Israelites", or the Anglo-Saxon Caucasians from Europe as a gift from the French, it now became the symbol of freedom for generations of immigrants, and the poem a rallying cry for Edomite-Khazar "Jews" from all around the world to make America their home.

Towering nearly 152 feet tall, "Lady Liberty " stands on a pedestal 150 feet above the water on Bedloe's Island. Mounted on it's pedestal is a tablet reproducing the poem 'The New Colossus', written by the New York born, Jewish poet, Emma Lazarus, in Nov. 1883. Lazarus was supposedly "deeply concerned with the plight of Jews driven from Russia to America."

The racial and religious make-up of these immigrants was explained by Nathan M. Pollock, a Khazar Jew who spent 40 years researching the origin of his fellow "Jews". He stated in the San Diego Union, Aug. 28, 1966:

"Six out of ten Jews in Palestine, and nine out of ten in the western hemisphere, are not real Jews, but descendants of the fierce Khazar tribes which roamed the Steppes of Southern Russia many centuries ago."

Tens of thousands of these non-Israelite "Jews" migrated to America prior to 1880. Millions have come since. Between 1880-1917, there was an intentional immigration of approximately ten million of these Russian Jews and other peoples from Eastern Europe. In his book 'The American Jews', Jewish author James Yaffe wrote of the Ashkenazim in America:

"It has been estimated that 95% of the Jews in America today are descended from these eastern European immigrants. What the American Jew is now, his style of living and thinking, comes to him from the shtetl (a small town or village formerly found in eastern Europe)[24].

In 1889, two documents were published by James de Rothschild. One was from 1489, and showed that Rabbi Chemor of Arles Provence, France, had written the Grand Sanhedrin for advice because the people were threatening the synagogues throughout Europe. (In the 15th century most all of the Christian nations of Europe had evicted the Jews). His appeal was dated January 13, 1489. The reply from the Sanhedrin - then located in Constantinople - advised the Rabbis to use the tactics of "The Trojan Horse"; to make their sons priests, laymen, lawyers and doctors so they could destroy the Christian structure from within:

The advice of the Grand Satraps and Rabbis follows:—

1. As for what you say that the King of France obliges you to become Christians: do it, since you cannot do otherwise...
2. As for what you say about the command to despoil you of your goods: make your sons merchants, that little by little they may despoil the Christians of theirs.

3. As for what you say about their making attempts on your lives: make your sons doctors and apothecaries, then they may take away Christian's lives.

4. As for what you say about their destroying your synagogues: make your sons canons and clerics in order that they may destroy their churches.

5. Arrange that your sons become advocates and lawyers, and see that they always mix themselves up with the affairs of State, in order that by putting Christians under your yoke, you may dominate the world and be avenged on them.

Signed, V.S.S. V.F.F. Prince of the Jews, 21st Caslue (November 1489." [25].

In the immediate years following their arrival in the United States, many of these immigrants sent their sons and daughters to American Universities, preparing them for positions of leadership. We must realize (hat this was not just coincidental. The entire process was planned and part of the grand conspiracy. Soon, many of the legislators, professors, judges and leaders of high finance were from their families.

Few Americans had the insight to see the consequences of allowing such a huge influx of Khazars onto the shores of America. Benjamin Franklin was one of those who could see clearly, and had spoken a full century before their mass immigration -almost to the year- about excluding these people from the nation. Franklin stated in 1789:

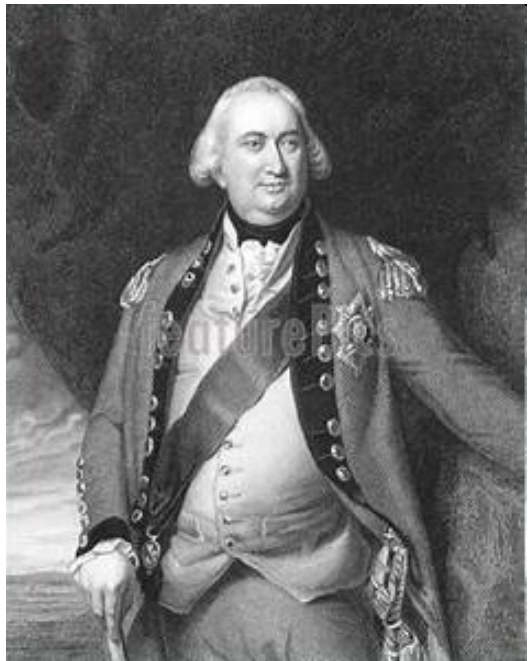

"There is a great danger for the United States of America. That great danger is the Jew. Gentlemen, in whichever land the Jews have settled, they have depressed the moral level and lowered the degree of commercial honesty. They have created a State within a State, and when they are opposed, they attempt to strangle the nation financially, as in the case of Portugal and Spain. For more than 1700 years they have lamented their sorrowful fate, namely, that they were driven out of the motherland; but gentlemen, if the civilized world today should give them back Palestine as their property, they would immediately find pressing reasons for not returning there. Why? Because they are vampires and cannot live on other vampires. They cannot live on themselves. They must live among Christians and others who do not belong to their race.

If they are not excluded from the United States by the Constitution, within less than a hundred years they will stream into the country in such numbers that they will rule and destroy us, and change our form of government for which Americans have shed their blood and sacrificed life, property, and personal freedom. If the Jews are not excluded, within two hundred years our children will be working the fields to feed the Jews, while they remain in the Counting House gleefully rubbing their hands.

I warn you, gentlemen, if you do not exclude the Jew forever, your children and your children 's children will curse you in your grave. Their ideas are not those of Americans. The leopard cannot change his spots. The Jews are a danger to this land, and if they are allowed to enter, they will imperil it's institutions. They should be excluded by the Constitution[26]."

Benjamin Franklin had good reason to suggest their exclusion, for he had knowledge which has been deliberately hidden from the citizens of the United States. This includes an intriguing piece of history which has been conveniently left out of today's school history books concerning the dialogue which occurred between George Washington and the British General, Cornwallis (right), upon the surrender of the British forces at Yorktown on Oct. 19, 1781.

Jonathan Williams' book Legions of Satan, (1787) records that Cornwallis stated to Washington:-

"A holy war will now begin on America, and when it is ended, America will be supposedly the citadel of freedom, but her millions will unknowingly be loyal subjects to the Crown. Your churches will be used to teach the Jew's religion, and in less than two hundred years the whole nation will be working for divine world government. All religions will be permeated with Judaism without even being noticed by the masses, and they will all be under the invisible all-seeing eye of the Grand Architect of Freemasonry."

Expulsions

In most cases throughout history, after these Khazars have received their demands, they have eventually persecuted their benefactors. Then, when they have been expelled, they turn and claim that they are the ones who are being persecuted. When the Jew Samuel Roth spoke of the effect of Jewish influence upon society, he clarified the issue very well, stating:

"We come to the nations pretending to escape persecution; but we are the most deadly persecutors in all the wretched annals of man--The results are invariably treacherous and unhealthy. If you are in doubt take a look at any Jew-ridden country in Europe. If you need to be further convinced, take a look at what's happening in America..."

I cannot find anything of value that they have themselves created in their two hundred and fifty years residence on the American continent...

It is my honest belief that nothing the Jew does in America is essential to it's welfare. On the contrary, a great deal of what the American Jew does is subversive of America's best interests..."[27]

Because of their crooked business dealings, their immoral Talmudic mode of life, and the fact that they have interfered with the government of every country which gave them refuge, these "Jews" have been continually expelled from every nation in which they ever set foot.

Even the 1980 'Jewish Almanac' explains the point clearly:

"History is filled with dozens of preemptory edicts expelling Jews from where they had made their homes. Hardly a major Jewish community has not been expelled by it's host country, only to be let back in again and later expelled once more."

In his book 'Now and Forever' Roth gives a good explanation for these expulsions:

I call your attention to the fact that there are real reasons why the world dislikes us - reasons more imposing than the trifling things used against us...

We are today the most bitterly despised people in the world. Never was a people so simply, so tenaciously, so wholeheartedly loathed...

There is not a program, a sentiment or a conviction a European can choose to follow but he must follow a Jew - whether it be a Bergson, Marx or Freud.

Why should not the intelligentsia of Europe hate us? Time and again we have humiliated them[28]".

Concerning their involvement in subversive movements, Seymour Martin Upreti, stated in 1961;

"To the extent that there are new or old, young or adult, radical movements remaining in America, these are again disproportionately Jewish in composition."

The general public of course is shown a very different picture. James Yaffe in 'The American Jews' explains one way in which public opinion about the Jew is formed:

"Jewish theatre and film producers have created the wholly mythological figure of the gentle, inoffensive, philosophical, shoulder-shrugging Jew, ready to give the hero the benefit of his wise, warm-hearted advise.

Pauline Kael detects him in the kindly old pharmacist in 'West Side Story' and points out that his chief function is to convince the gentile world how harmless the Jew is. [However] In the last hundred years Jews have been deeply involved with all the radical movements, from socialism to anarchy to communism."

If we assume that these "Jews" are the true Israelites, then based on God's Word, America should be a land which is currently being blessed because of the nation's kindness and 'open-arms' policy toward them. However, we find quite the opposite; we find instead that the nation is actually being cursed. Since the arrival of these Khazar-Jews in numbers we see that society has degenerated; we see family values disintegrating and perversion and immorality swiftly becoming the norm. Also, because of their influence in immigration and 'foreign policy' issues, the nation now opens it's arms to a flood of non-white, anti-Christian masses, contrary to the desires of the founding fathers. Those who perpetrate this action know positively that such a massive immigration of peoples - which do not understand the American or European civilization - will result in problems of crime, drugs, poverty, extensive welfare, and so forth. The government will then be forced to "declare war" on that crime, the drug problem, etc; and of course a war of any sort always calls for a loss of freedom and liberty. After the "necessary" laws are passed "to protect the citizen from the evils of society" (as they love to say), the nation will be changed into the actual type of society that these manipulators were planning to bring about all along.

Their plans to use the black population in their blueprint of destruction was boastfully described by Israel Cohen, one of their leaders in 1912, when he stated:

"We must realize that our party's most powerful weapon is racial tension. By propounding into the consciousness of the dark races that for centuries they have been oppressed by the whites, we can mould them to the program of the Communist Party.

In America we will aim for subtle victory. While inflaming the Negro minority against the whites, we will endeavour to instil in the whites a guilt complex for their exploitation of the Negroes. We will aid the Negroes to rise in prominence in every walk of life, in the professions and in the world of sports and entertainment. With this prestige, the Negro will be able to intermarry with the whites and begin a process which will deliver America to our cause[29]."

When the Russian journalist, Vladimir Posner, wrote:

"The explosions of black rage will continue to rock America 's very foundations until they finally crumble", he was in fact describing the purpose of these conspirators in their plan to enrage the black population. If we look at the large number of black athletes who now dominate the sports like boxing, football, baseball, track and field events and so on, we can most surely see their plan in action, and in top gear.

These manipulators believe that if they can reduce the entire population on earth to the lowest common denominator, - all the while keeping their select few separated and intact - they'll be able to rule and own the entire world. The "one people" concept was simply explained when "Dr." Billy Graham stated publicly some years back:-

"Won't it be nice when we are all a nice, light shade of brown?"

A Curse and a Reproach

If we look at the names of those who own and run the abortion clinics, where at least one million babies are killed each year; the pornographic industry which destroys the moral fibre of a nation; and the liquor and drug market, which yearly kills many thousands and makes slaves of many more, we find Jews in control and at the heart of each.

Research shows that LSD and synthetic marijuana were developed in Jewish laboratories in Palestine and introduced to America. Millions of the youth of true Israel have become victims of these mind destroying drugs. Yet church propoganda is so strong for the Jews that none dare speak of the Jewish source of these evils. Dr. Oscar Levy speaks of their low morality and reflects: I look at this world, and I shudder at it's ghastliness: I shudder all the more, as I know the spiritual authors of all this ghastliness."

It is a fact that these people who say they are Jews have never been anything but a curse to the nations where they have resided. Instead of being a source of blessing for the rest of the world, they have earned the accurate reputation of a people loathed and despised.

Liquor, gambling, political corruption, humanism teachings, drugs, dangerous medical "cures", revolutionary literature, sex perversion and pornography in magazines, movies and television, race mixing, and subtle and overt opposition to Christian truth all reveal a Jewish source. Henry Ford was well aware of their subversion, for in 1920 he declared:

"Is it surprising that whatever way you turn to trace the harmful streams of influence that flow through society, you come upon a group of Jews?

In baseball corruption - a group of Jews. In exploitative finance - a group of Jews. In theatrical degeneracy - a group of Jews. In liquor propaganda - a group of Jews. In control of national war policies - a group of Jews. In control of the press through business and financial pressure-a group of Jews. War profiteers, 80% of them-Jews. (Leading) organizers of active opposition to Christian laws and customs - Jews. (And) in this miasma of so-called popular music, which combines weak- mindedness with every suggestion of lewdness - again Jews[30]."

Henry Ford stands with his son, Edsel, beside a Model A at the automobile's unveiling in 1928. Ford warned the world in 1922: "If you want to stop war, get hold of 50 of the wealthiest Jewish financiers—control them, and you will stop all wars."

In his book, 'Jews Must Live', Samuel Roth expounds on the issue of the Jews' expulsion from different lands in even greater detail:

"If it were true, as the Jews claim, that the gentiles lay violent hands on them purely out of prejudice against their religion, out of envy of their superior commercial genius, how would the Jews ever get into a civilized country to begin with? Have not the Jews been admitted from time immemorial, freely, kindly, almost happily by every nation at whose gate they have knocked for admittance?"

The story of the Jews, as they have themselves written it out, has always gone out ahead of them, to spread through the foreign peoples and evoke in their minds curiosity and pity.

In England and in France the influence of the Jews in politics, business and the professions has created an atmosphere so stifling to the natives that a whole press has sprung up in those countries whose sole business is advocating another, but this time permanent expulsion of the Jews... It has become the reasoning of every king and congress of every country invaded by the Jewish people. It has never changed because the nature of the Jews has undergone no reasonable change[31]".

Roth states that his fellow countrymen have "fully deserved" expulsion: .. There are, as I have already said, good, solid reasons why the world should dislike us, and I, a Jew, will utter them.

Read for yourself the story of the progress of Jewry through Europe and America. Wherever they come they are welcomed, permitted to settle down, and join in the general business of the community. But one by one the industries of the country close to them because of unfair practices - until, it being impossible to hold in check the wrath of a betrayed people, there is violence, and inevitably, an ignominious ejection of the whole race from the land. There is not a single instance when the Jews have not fully deserved [the expulsion]..." (pages. 54-55)

When we honestly examine if the Jews' presence in countries like Britain, the United States, France and Germany has been a blessing or a curse, the answer becomes more than obvious. Because of their influence, we have been dragged into wars which have cost the lives of millions of people. Records show that they have been at the heart of almost every revolutionary movement throughout history.

England Expels Them

Roth shows how - unlike the true Caucasian Israelite - the Jew lacks the adventurous spirit that has been the founding force of nations:

"Jews have never, like other peoples, gone into a wilderness and built up a land of their own... In England, in the thirteenth century, under Edward I, they did not take advantage of the offer by which Edward promised to give them the very opportunities Jews had been crying for, for centuries. After imprisoning the whole Jewish population in his domain for criminal usury and for debasing the coin of the realm, Edward, before releasing them, put into effect two new sets of laws: the first made it illegal for a Jew in England to lend money at interest. The second repealed all the standing laws which kept Jews from /being active in the normal pursuits in the kingdom.

Under these new statutes Jews could even lease land for a period of fifteen years and work it. Edward advanced this as a test of the Jews sincerity when he claimed that all he wanted was an opportunity to work like other people. If they proved their fitness to live like other people, the inference was that Edward would let them buy land outright and admit them to the higher privileges of citizenship. Did the Jews take advantage of Edward's decree? It is not recorded that one Jew took advantage of the new right to till the soil--To get around the laws against usury they invented such new methods of skinning the peasants and the nobles that the outcry against them became greater than ever, and Edward had to expel them to avert a civil war." (pages. 92-93)

Parasites and Plunderers

Their reluctance to engage in agricultural work is no different in the land of Palestine. How many Jews do you know who are farmers today? The true Israel people were to be blessed with the fruit of the earth, "plenty of corn and wine. " Instead of being the food producers of the world, they are instead the merchants, the moneylenders, and the plunderers.

Roth - who can in no wise be called a "racist" - describes one of their most successful "attributes":

"Our major vice of old, as of today, is parasitism. We are a people of vultures living on the labour and the good nature of the rest of the world. " (P. 92)

Bernard Lazare, in his 'Anti-Semitism - It's History and Causes', quotes Pierre de Cluny (Pierre the Venerable, Abbot of Cluny) who shows them displaying the same characteristics:

"If the Jews fill their granaries with fruit, their cellar with victuals, their bags with money and their chests with gold, it is neither by tilling the earth, nor by serving in war, nor by practising any other useful and honourable trade, but by cheating the Christians and buying, at low price, from thieves the things which they have stolen[32]."

—and Voltaire, three centuries ago in 1694, also had the same impression:

"The Jews are nothing but an ignorant and barbaric people, which have for a long time combined the most loathsome avarice with the most abominable superstition and inextinguishable hatred of all people by whom they are tolerated, and through whom they are enriched."

An article entitled "Robbing America For The Jewish State" in 'The New American View' (Jan. 1, 1992), revealed how these people are living from the labours of the Christian nations:

"American taxpayers have forked over no less than $77 billion (actually closer to $100 billion) to Israel since 1967, according to a recent report in the New York Times. This amounts to about $16,500 for every man, woman and child in the Jewish state, says Times..."

It is an established fact that without the help of billions of dollars sent there annually from the American people and other Christian nations, the Khazar state in Palestine would collapse. Aaron Zelman, a Jew, made the point very clearly when he stated:

"Without continuing American aid, Israel would perish", yet God said that the true Israelites would be a blessing to the world.

Truth Will Have The Victory

Martin Luther, the great Christian reformer of the sixteenth century, began as a defender of the Jews, but turned against them when he saw how their teachings and actions were directly contrary to God's Word. His eye-opening book, 'The Jews and Their Lies' has been expunged from most every Lutheran seminary, and from the libraries of Lutheran pastors, as the church he founded has been infiltrated by the very ones against whom he stood so strongly. Luther openly complains of the Jews "squeezing from us our money and goods", and says, "We should not suffer it-- lest we become partakers of their sins."

He then gave this determined admonishment:

"I will give you my true counsel: First, that we avoid their synagogues and schools, and Warn Our People about Them. And such should be done to the glory of God and Christendom, that God may see that we are Christians, and have not knowingly tolerated such lying, cursing and blaspheming of his son and his Christians.

Yea, I maintain that there is more wisdom to be found in three of Aesop's fables than in all the books of the Talmudists and Rabbis..."

Yet most Lutheran ministers today believe that Judaism is the foundation of Christianity! Luther then writes of our economic bondage to them:

"Why, they hold us Christians in captivity in our own country; they let us work in the sweat of our noses, while they appropriate money and goods... live well and easy on goods for which we have worked; keep us and our goods in captivity through Their Cursed Usury; mock us and spit on us, because we must labour and permit them to be noblemen at our expense; thus they are our lords and masters, we their servants with our own property, sweat and labour! and to Thank Us and Reward Us, They Curse Our Lord![33]"

Even the so-called "Mafia", presented to us by the news media as "Italians", are actually Sicilian Jews, descendants of the Jews forcibly deported to Sicily by Queen Isabella of Spain in 1492 A.D. True Latin Italians have no part of the curse of the "Mafia" on Christian countries.

"Thorns in Thy Sides..."

Israel was to suffer the curse which has come upon our nations as a result of not heeding God's warnings about mingling with ungodly peoples. I he Khazar, Moses Hess - mentor of Karl Marx and Frederick Engels revealed that the "thorns" in Joshua's warning are represented today by these "Jews" because of their anti-Christian sentiment and programs:—

"The Christian nations, you believe, would have perhaps less objection against the restoration of the Jewish State, since they hope through this to be rid of an alien population which was always a thorn in their side."

Samuel Roth Agreed

"Every synagogue we Jews build in Christian countries is a finger of scorn we point at our hosts, a sore finger we stick into their eyes, like the leering of a senile old woman who does all sorts of foul mischief before you, and feels safe in the knowledge that you will not lay hands on her to remove her, for fear of contamination."

With a little study, it will be discovered that Jews control the source of pornography and that they are at the root of the production of the ever-increasing filth of Hollywood and TV. Research will also show that the so-called "Civil Rights" movement, Negro agitation organizations such as the NAACP, CORE, SNCC and so forth are in fact organized and controlled by these Khazar Jews; and that "anti-war", "peace". Women's Lib.", and other "minority" agitation and revolutionary groups have mostly Jews in their upper leadership. One of their most effective weapons which they have developed is aptly described by Robert Williams in his book, 'The Ultimate World Order':

"The Jewish machine has men in the most powerful positions, protected by the cowardice of leaders who fear to be called 'Anti-Semitic'. [34]"

What is truly sad about this is that while Ministers preach long sermons about the danger to the nation and express sorrow, sometimes even anger at the corruption, because of this "fear of the Jews" they dare not name its source and are careful never to expose its Jewish root.

The Apostle Paul however, was not so reluctant to expose those who "say they are Jews, and are not." He knew well of their deeds, and stated that these are they:

"—who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us the Christian church; and they please not God and are contrary to all men." (1 Thess. 2:15)

We would do well to take heed to God's word on the issue—shouldst thou help the ungodly; and love them that hate the Lord? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the Lord." (2nd. Chron. 19:2)

CHAPTER 5

IT'S OFF TO JEKYLL TO HIDE

"Let me but issue and control a nation 's money, and I care not who writes its laws." Mayer Amshel Bauer (Rothschild)

Just after the turn of the century the banking dynasties which had established a strong foothold in the United States renewed their drive and made a collective thrust in what would later prove to be a successful attempt to establish in the nation a permanent central bank.

Among the immigrants who had arrived from Europe there appeared one of their chief agents, Jacob Schiff, an individual who was soon to become head of the New York investment firm, Kuhn, Loeb & Co. This banker sternly warned the New York Chamber of Commerce in 1907 that if a central bank was not instituted, financial chaos was sure to ensue. Schiff declared:-

"Unless we have a central bank with adequate control of credit resources, this country is going to undergo the most severe and far-reaching money panic in its history."

Several experts were sent from Europe to America to assist in the final push for the American central banking system. The chief architect of this plan was another of Kuhn & Loeb's agents, Paul Warburg, who was sent from Frankfurt, Germany. The Warburgs were international agents for the Rothschilds of Europe, and one of Paul's brother's, Max, ran the Rothschild-allied family bank there in Frankfurt.

Although the House of Rothschild has at no time ever indicated publicly that it had any interest in Kuhn, Loeb & Co., George Conroy shed some light on their connection to the firm when he stated in 'Truth' magazine, on Dec. 16, 1912:

"Mr. Schiff is head of the great banking house of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., which represents the Rothschild interest on this side of the Atlantic."

The 1907 Panic

In the same year in which Schiff warned of "financial chaos" in the United States if their plans were not carried out, a major banking panic struck the country. A bank run was started when J.P. Morgan spread rumours about the insolvency of a competitor bank. Researcher Des Griffin described the event:

"The United States plunged into a monetary crisis that had all the earmarks of a skilfully planned Rothschild 'job'. The ensuing panic financially ruined tens of thousands of innocent people across the country - and made billions for the banking elite. The purpose for the 'crisis' was two-fold:

- (1) To make a financial 'killing' for the Insiders, and
- (2) To impress on the American people the 'great need' for a central bank[35]."

Congressman Charles Lindbergh, Sr. (father of "The Lone Eagle") said: "The [Rothschild] money trust caused the 1907 panic and thereby forced Congress to create a National Monetary Commission."

When Senator Nelson Aldrich was named Chairman of the Commission, the fox had thus been assigned to guard the henhouse, for it was well known that he was merely the mouthpiece of the international bankers.

His daughter married John D. Rockefeller, Jr., whose grandson, Nelson Aldrich Rockefeller, became vice-president in 1974.

The Federal Reserve System

On November 22, 1910, Aldrich called a meeting of the Rothschild agents together. After arriving at Hoboken railway station in New Jersey, they boarded Aldrich's private parlour car with shades drawn, and proceeded to the private hunting club of J.P. Morgan and associates on Jekyll Island, just off the Georgia coast. Their mission - to draw up a plan, the basis of which would pass in a bill through Congress. This bill, later to be introduced as the "Aldrich Bill", would grant them legal power to issue money and control the nation's credit. After the conference, the participants returned to New York to direct a nationwide propaganda campaign in favour of the "Aldrich Plan."

Mullins, in his excellent Secrets of the Federal Reserve, explains:—

"Three of the leading Universities, Princeton, Harvard, and the University of Chicago, were used as the rallying points for this propaganda, and national banks had to contribute to a fund of five million dollars to persuade the American public that this Central bank plan should be enacted into law by Congress.

The main problem, as Paul Warburg informed his colleagues, was to avoid the name 'Central Bank'. For that reason he had decided upon the designation of 'Federal Reserve System'. "

Nevertheless, this Jekyll Island plan was in fact a central bank plan, fulfilling the main functions of a central bank:—

"It would be owned by private individuals who would profit from ownership of shares. As a bank of issue, it would control the nation's money and credit[36]."

The Congressional Push

Shortly thereafter, Aldrich introduced what was known as the "Aldrich Mill" to Congress, but it aroused enough suspicion to prevent the initial measure from passing. Testifying before the Committee on Rules, I December 15, 1911, after their plan had been introduced in Congress, Congressman Lindbergh strongly objected to their tactics, stating:

"The Aldrich plan is the Wall Street plan. It is a broad challenge to the Government by the champion of the Money Trust. It means another panic, If necessary, to intimidate the people. Aldrich, paid by the Government to represent the people, proposes a plan for the trusts instead."

To sell this scheme to the public, the money power of the nation created the propaganda line that the proposed banking law would somehow work against the monopolies. Politicians took up the cry, "Banking reform!" and "Down with Wall Street!" To make it look convincing, the financial tycoons publicly pretended to oppose the measure. All the while, they were financing it from behind the scenes.

Although Woodrow Wilson had campaigned on a platform that he would never allow a central bank in the United States, and that he would lead the light against "those wolves of Wall Street", after his inauguration on March 4, 1912, he immediately set about to establish such a bank. He then promised to keep America out of war, but American boys were among the ten million who fell in World War I.

The "Unseen Guardian Angel"

Wilson was of course, merely carrying out the orders of those who had placed him on the presidential throne, and was constantly shadowed by his closest "advisor", Col. Edward Mandel House. House was referred to by Rabbi Stephen Wise in his auto-biography, 'Challenging Years' as "the unofficial Secretary of State ", and was the link between the banking dynasties and President Wilson; also, according to Professor Charles Seymour, who edited 'The Intimate Papers of Colonel House', House was actually the "unseen guardian angel" of the Federal Reserve Act, and was said to have the complete trust of both the Rothschilds and the other international bankers.

George Sylvester Viereck wrote:

"The Schiffs, the Warburgs, the Kahns, the Rockefellers and the Morgans put their faith in House. When the Federal Reserve legislation at last assumed definite shape, House was the intermediary between the White House and the financiers."

As a result of Paul Warburg's efforts, the Aldrich Bill, which had failed to pass in its initial presentation, was re-introduced under a new name; and a weary Congress, anxious to adjourn before Christmas, passed the 'Owen's-Glass Bill on Currency Reform' on December 22, 1913.

This was to become the infamous FEDERAL RESERVE ACT.

Congressman Charles Lindbergh constantly spoke out against their plans stating that this Act established "the most gigantic trust on earth", and legalised "the invisible government of the money power. " In later years, several more crusaders would stand up to advocate the abolishment of the Federal Reserve System. Chief among these individuals was Congressman Louis McFadden, chairman of the House Committee on Banking and Currency from 1920 to 1931. According to the New York Times Magazine (1971), McFadden stated that the passage of this Federal Reserve Act in reality brought about:

"a super-state controlled by international bankers and international industrialists acting together to enslave the world for their own pleasure."

As chairman of the Committee for over a decade, McFadden was well aware of the "guidance" suggested by these financiers to politicians. So was Carroll Quigley, who in 1966 wrote in his book, Tragedy and Hope.

"The history of the last century shows—that the advice given to governments by bankers— was consistently good for bankers, but was often disastrous for governments, businessmen, and the people generally. Such advice could be enforced if necessary by manipulation of exchanges, gold flows, discount rates, and even levels of business activity[37]."

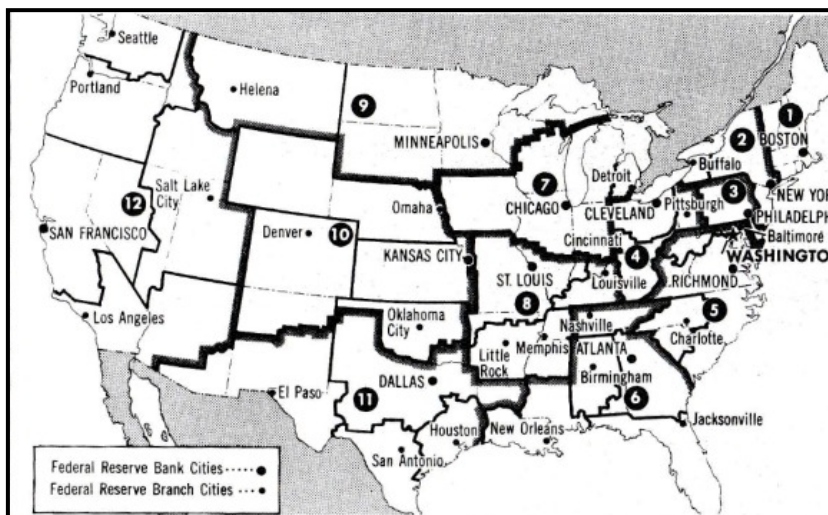

While most people have been led to believe that the United States government creates its money in accordance with Article One, Section 8 of the Constitution which states:"The Congress shall have power—to coin money, and regulate the value thereof..

sive license to literally print money. Because of Paul Warburg's intensive efforts in the program, he thus became known as "the Father of the Federal Reserve."

The creation of money in the United States is not a government operation. The twelve privately-owned National Banks that make up the Federal Reserve System are controlled primarily by the banking dynasties that worked so hard to bring that system into being.

Though members of Congress had no authority to give the power to issue the nation's money to a private corporation, they nevertheless did so, with large majorities voting in both houses violating their oaths of office. The passage of this bill actually transferred the economic control of America from the rightful hands of the United States Congress, into the hands of the twelve, privately-owned Jewish banks, headed by the Federal Reserve Bank in New York City.

There are 12 Federal Reserve Districts. The San Francisco bank of the 12th district serves member banks in Alaska and Hawaii. The New York bank (2nd district) handles transactions for American banks in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

The shareholders of these banks which own the stock of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York are the people who have controlled our political and economic destinies since 1914. They are: The Rothschilds of Europe, Lazard Freres (Eugene Mayer), Kuhn, Loeb & Company, the Warburg Company, Lehman Brothers, Goldman Sachs, the Rockefeller family, and the J.P. Morgan interests.

In 'The Money Power of Europe', Paul Emden writes of the success of the Warburgs in their endeavour to establish the new system:—

"The Warburgs reached their outstanding eminence during the last twenty years of the last century, simultaneously with the growth of Kuhn, Loeb & Company in New York, with whom they stood in a personal union and family relationship. Paul Warburg with magnificent success carried through in 1913 the reorganization of the American banking system, at which he had with Senator Nelson Aldrich been working since 1911, and thus most thoroughly consolidated the currency and finances of the United States[38]"

Eustace Mullins in 'The Secrets of The Federal Reserve' writes how most of the American public were not at all aware that, though powerful, those men were themselves answerable to another power, a foreign power which has been steadfastly seeking to extend its control over the young republic of the United States since its very inception:

"—This power was the financial power of England, cantered in the London branch of the House of Rothschild. The fact was that in 1910, the United States was for all practical purposes being ruled from England, and so it is today.

The ten largest bank holding companies in the United States are normally in the hands of certain banking houses, all of which have branches in London... All of them maintain close relationships with the House of Rothschild, principally through the Rothschild control of international money markets through it's manipulation of the price of gold... Although these firms are ostensibly American firms, which merely maintain branches in London, the fact is that these banking houses actually take their direction from London. Their history is a fascinating one, and unknown to the American public, originating as it did in the international traffic of gold, slaves, diamonds, and other contraband."

The "Invisible" Power

For more than a century, a widespread belief has been deliberately fostered in the United States that the Rothschilds were of little significance in America's financial arena. The "invisibility" of the House has been fully cultivated through the years. George Wheeler sheds some light on tin reason for this stating that a considerable anti-Rothschild movement and developed in Europe and the United States which focused on the banking activities of the family. And so, because of this they preferred to operate anonymously in America behind the facade of John Pierpont Morgan and Company. Although J. P. Morgan became known as "the most powerful banker in the world", his principal role was in fact to carry out commissions for the House of Rothschild.

He was a direct descendant of Alexander Hamilton, who had chartered the nation's first central bank, The Bank of The United States, at the behest of Rothschild interests. With this cover, they have been able to manipulate political and financial developments in America to their own advantage.

In The Rothschilds, Frederick Morton writes concerning the power of the dynasty even back in the nineteenth century: they conquered the world more thoroughly, more cunningly, and much more lastingly, than all the Caesars before them and all the Hitlers after them."

Certainly their influence upon industrial America was profound. Working through the Wall Street firms Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and J.P. Morgan Co., the Rothschilds financed John D. Rockefeller so that he could create the Standard Oil Empire. They also financed the activities of Edward Harriman in his railroad enterprise, and the steel empire of Andrew Carnegie. But though they today control scores of industrial, commercial, mining and tourist corporations, few, if any, bear the name 'Rothschild'. In like manner, despite today's Hollywood image of red faced Texas oil millionaires driving new Cadillacs, the Texan oil industry has for years been dominated by the London Rothschilds through the billion dollar First City National Bank of Houston and it's 57 subsidiary Texas banks. Their "behind-the-scenes" manipulation in the Federal Reserve Act was shown by Col. Ely Garrison, an agent of Brown Brothers bankers (later Brown Brothers Harriman) when he wrote that although "... Paul Warburg is the man who got the Federal Reserve Act together after the Aldrich Plan aroused such nationwide resentment and opposition, the mastermind of both plans was Baron Alfred Rothschild of London[39]."

And so, in the early part of this century, the banking dynasties at last succeeded in their relentless quest to gain control of America's money supply. With Alfred Rothschild as the "mastermind", they had accomplished within the United States - a nation once so adamantly opposed to the institution of a central bank for it's people - the actual desires of the founder of the House of Rothschild, Mayer Amshel Bauer, who exclaimed:

"Let me but issue and control a nation 's money, and I care not who writes it's laws."

They had also carried out the plan in such a way as to give the impression it was a government operation, while it was - and is - in fact, a private monopoly at the helm.

With the control of the money came the control of the news media. Kent Cooper, head of the Associated Press, writes in his autobiography, Barriers Down. "International bankers under the House of Rothschild acquired an interest in the three leading European agencies."

Thus the Rothschilds bought control of Reuters International News Agency, based in London, Havas of France, and Wolf in Germany, the three of which controlled the dissemination of all news throughout Europe.

CHAPTER 6

FROM RUSSIA—WITH LOVE?

"Virtually everything the Soviets possess has been acquired from the West. It is not much of an exaggeration to say that the USSR. was made in the U.S.A."
Gary Allen, 'None Dare Call It Conspiracy'

IT IS A MATTER OF RECORD THAT SOME OF THE GREATEST HELP TO WORLD COMMUNISM has often come from prominent and "respectable" leaders within Europe and the United States. Today, many Americans are puzzled by the relentless devotion of the Rockefeller Foundation for financing communist organizations in many parts of the world. Indeed, their devotion is of such intensity that the family is sometimes called "the First family of the Soviet Union."

On January 15, 1967, the Rockefellers announced that they were joining their agent, Cyrus Eaton Jr. in financing the industry and commerce of Soviet Russia, who made no secret of their supplying the North Vietnamese with arms and munitions to slaughter American GIs. In an editorial, the Daily News of New York sardonically commented at that time:

"—it would be sad to see some Rockefeller or some Eaton marched off to the jug for having accidentally sold some strategic goods to enemy nations."

At the time of the announcement of the deal, Kosygin, the Russian homier, proclaimed that Russia planned to increase the volume of arms and munitions it was supplying the Communists in Vietnam. One year later, numerous huge tanks and jet planes - supplied by Soviet Russia with "foreign aid" money furnished by American taxpayers through Rockefeller and Eaton - began to mow down American GIs by the thousands in the 1968 'Tet New Year' Communist offensive in Vietnam. There could be in) doubt that the famous "philanthropist" internationalists had given "aid and comfort to the enemy" in time of war, contrary to the Constitution which declares such action as treason.

Their devotion during the Vietnam bloodbath was of course not their first involvement, for the family has a solid record of providing for "the cause". After John D. Rockefeller had purchased the Chase Bank, and his brother William the National City Bank of New York, his Chase Bank was later merged with Warburg's Manhattan Bank to form the Chase-Manhattan group - one of the most powerful financial combines in the world today. On June 15, 1933, in an address before Congress, Congressman Louis McFadden explained what the Federal Reserve, along with Rockefeller's Chase Bank, had done on behalf of the fledgling Communist government of Russia since it's birth in the Bolshevik revolution in 1917:-

"The Soviet government has been given United States Treasury funds by the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Bank acting through the Chase Bank-- you will be staggered to see how much American [taxpayer's] money has been taken from the United States Treasury for the benefit of Russia[40]."

At the same time, Chase began selling Bolshevik bonds in the U.S., but this outraged the American public so much that the Rockefeller bank was denounced as an "international fence" and called "a disgrace to America.

The Movement

It is a well established fact that communism has been a movement of the left wing of Jewry from it's birth; it still is their instrument and their tool, in Russia as elsewhere. The cry of "anti-Semitism" is often hurled against men whose only public activity has been to oppose communism, and has become perhaps the most potent weapon in their arsenal. Rabbi Stephen Wise, known as "the Red Rabbi" because of his leadership in the Communist movement, stated boldly more than once:-

"Some call it Communism... 1 call it Judaism!"

Wise served as Socialist [Communist] Party Campaign Chairman in the Passaic, New Jersey, textile strike, where he served on the Red-aiding Civil Liberties Bureau of the Jewish-controlled A.C.L.U. He was also President of the Executive Committee of the National Religious and Labour Foundation, which specialized in the printing and distribution of communist literature and atheistic cartoons. James Yaffe speaks of their involvement with the Red movement:-

"In the last hundred years Jews have been deeply involved with all the radical movements, from socialism to anarchism to communism[41]."

In 1931, the U.S. Congressional Committee which investigated the spread of communism in the United States, reported to Congress:-

"A large proportion of all communist district organizers are of Jewish origin. Composition of communist membership in the United States of foreign origin, shows Jews in the forefront. Their leading daily communist newspaper in America, is the MORNING FREIHEIT, published in Yiddish, in New York City." (House Report Nr. 2290, p. 14).

This consistent connection was confirmed when a Canadian Royal Commission, investigating communist inroads into Canada, a few years ago also reported:-

"It is significant that a number of documents from the Russian Embassy, specifically note 'Jew' or 'Jewess' on the entries of their Canadian agents, showing that the Russian Fifth Column attaches particular emphasis to this Jewish influence."

Destruction and Subversion

The peoples of Eastern Europe have all along been better informed on the root complexion of communism, which is one reason why they have tried to resist it so desperately, for they knew it would completely devastate their civilization. Here is what Dr. Oscar Levy wrote in 1920 in a letter used as a preface to a book, 'The World Significance of the Russian Revolution' by G. Pitt Rivers:

"Jewish elements provide the driving force for both communism and capitalism for the material as well as the spiritual ruin of this world... to the intense idealism of the Jew."

After Dr. Levy points out that not all Jews are financiers, Zionists or Bolsheviks, he describes their influence in the European theatre of events:

"We, who have posed as the Saviours of the World... we are today nothing else but the world's seducers, its destroyers, its incendiaries, its executioners. ...We who have promised to lead you to a new Heaven, we have finally succeeded in landing you in a new Hell..."

I look at this world and I shudder all the more as I know the spiritual authors of all this ghastliness—[for] there is scarcely an event [of war and revolution] in modern Europe that cannot be traced back to the Jews[42].

The people of Hungary have not forgotten that it was the Jewish terrorist, Bela Kun, the Communist revolutionary leader, who right after the first World War wrote his name across Eastern Europe in the blood of many thousands of Christians.

Marcus Eli Ravage, in 1928, described well their lust for subversion:—

"You have not begun to appreciate the real depth of our guilt. We are intruders. We are disturbers. We are subverters. We have taken your natural world, your ideals, your destiny, and played havoc with them.

We have been at the bottom of not merely the latest great war, but of nearly all your wars; not only of the Russian, but of every other major revolution in your history. We have brought discord, confusion and frustration into your personal and public life. We are still doing it[43]."

Yet when Henry Ford, Sr., warned the Christian world in 1922: "If you want to stop war, get hold of fifty of the wealthiest Jewish financiers, the men who are interested in making wars for their own profit... Control them, and you will stop all wars"....,

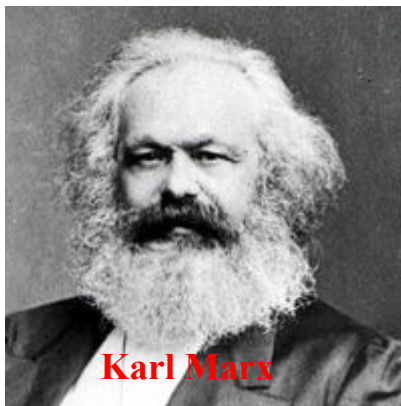

—the 'Christian' world proceeded to call him an 'anti-Semite', shunned him as a heretic and scorned his advice; Michael Gold however, asked a very appropriate question in the years just before the start of World War II:

"How do you account for the fact that so many young Jews may be found in the radical movements in all the lands? As for the rich Jews, the exploiting Jews— Many of them helped Hitler in Germany with funds and advice, and still are at ease in their Nazi capitalist, Zion[44]."

Marx and Engels

Research proves conclusively that Jews were at the head of all the groups which promoted the Communist Revolution of Germany, and also at the heart of all the communist forces throughout the nations of Europe in 1848 - the year which would later be known as "the year of revolutions."

It was during this period that Karl Mordecai Marx, son of a well-to-do Jewish family, began to cooperate with the English Jew, Frederick Engels, in starting a society which was at first called "The Left Hegelians". Both Marx and Engels - disciples of the "Red Rabbi", Moses Hess - were banished from Germany and France as dangerous revolutionaries. In 1847 they had joined a secret propaganda society in Brussels named Bund Der Kommunisten (Communist League) and while they were members, introduced the Communist Manifesto.

The Manifesto called on the workers of the world to unite and destroy all existing governments through a bloody revolution. Following publication of the Manifesto, a revolution broke out in Belgium, and Marx was exiled from that country also. He fled to England, where, abusing the privileges of freedom, he plotted for many years to destroy freedom.

After decades of plotting and planning throughout Europe, the Jewish revolutionary thrust began to take strong root also in Poland, and where, according to Michal Hrushevsky in his 'A History of the Ukraine' (1941):

"...in 1897 was founded 'The Bund' - the union of Jewish workers in Poland and Lithuania. They engaged in revolutionary activity upon a large scale, and their energy made them the Spearhead of the Communist Party."

During these years the people of Europe and Russia became subject to a reign of anarchy and confusion in the midst of the assassination of a number of prominent leaders. In 1881, Tzar Alexander II of Russia was murdered; the French President, Carnot, in 1894. The following year, Empress Elizabeth of Austria was assassinated, as was King Umberto I of Italy in 1900. The toll continued with the murders of King Carl and the Crown Prince of Portugal in 1908, Prime Minister Stolypin of Russia in 1911, and Premier Canalejas of Spain one year later. George I of Greece was killed in 1913, and the catalyst of the whole venture was introduced in 1914 with the assassination of Archduke Francis Ferdinand of Austria by Masonic agents, which saw Europe explode into WWI. America had not been spared the carnage, for President Henry Harrison had been murdered by "the Poison Cup" in April, 1841; Zachary Taylor by the same method in 1850; and "the Leaden Bullet" later chosen to assassinate Lincoln in 1865, Garfield in 1881, and McKinley in 1901.

Taylor

Garfield

McKinley

James Buchanan was also given "the poison cup" at the National Hotel in Washington, D.C. in February 1857, but escaped in a wholesale poisoning in which fifty guests were affected and thirty-eight died[45].

When commenting on World War I, the Jewish periodical, The Jewish World (London), wrote:

"International Judaism forced Europe to the War, not only to seize a large part of the gold, but to start a new Jewish World War by the help of this gold"

—and concerning this first global conflict in which millions lost their lives, the Jewish Ambassador from Austria to England also stated:-

"Israel Jews, won that war; we made it, thrived on it, and profited from it. It was our supreme revenge on Christianity."

Leon Trotsky

World War I brought power to them; it brought nothing but disaster and suffering however, to the Israel nations of Christendom. In addition, during the last period of the war, these Zionist conspirators achieved a major victory when they were able to thrust their Communist regime upon the vast Christian nation of Russia.

Wall Street Helps The Bolsheviks

During the years prior to the "Red" takeover, the Jewish revolutionary thrust had been active for some time in Russia. Lenin's accomplice, Leon Trotsky - born Lev Davidovich Bronstein, of Jewish parents - had been arrested in 1905 but had escaped from prison and made his way to France, from where he was soon expelled for his revolutionary activities.

In January, 1917, he went to New York and worked as a reporter for the Communist newspaper, The New World. There, Trotsky discovered that the revolutionary work had powerful "American" friends.

He found that there were wealthy Wall Street bankers who were willing to finance a revolution in Russia. Within two months, he had left New York bound for Russia, with a fortune in gold, and in the company of 325 dedicated revolutionaries (almost all American "Jews") to aid him. At this time World War I was raging in Europe, and Trotsky left New York on March 27, 1917. aboard the 'S. S. Christiana'. When the ship stopped in Nova Scotia however, the Canadian authorities put him in jail and impounded his gold. Before long, his sponsors had heard of his dilemma, and so, Colonel Mandel House, President Wilson's "advisor", was sent to intervene to free Trotsky and their gold from jail.

The bankers for whom House worked had much confidence in him, and it was well founded, for within only a few days Trotsky was free from Jail, provided with an American passport and sailed on to Russia[46].

The New York Revolutionaries

During the Wilson administration it was through the efforts of the same Colonel House that Czar Nicholas II of Russia forfeited his throne on behalf of making the world "safe for democracy". However, upon (lie Czar's abdication, and the installation of the Kerensky government, (he Khazar "Jew", Lenin, was aided from his exile in Switzerland and put on the infamous "sealed train" along with five million dollars and 159 Bolshevik revolutionaries; Stalin now came into the limelight, as did Trotsky with his band of Khazars from the lower East Side of New York and $20 million in gold (donated by the international banker, Jacob Schiff). With money in hand, these Khazars then headed for Russia to instigate the Bolshevik Revolution[47]

In his book 'New World Order', Eustace Mullins shows that after they had seized power, all American newspaper criticism of the Bolsheviks was suppressed because Col. House had cabled President Wilson, urging "the extreme importance of discretion".

The Founding Fathers

It is an indisputable fact that most of the 'founding fathers' of the Red Revolution were Khazar "Jews". 'The Last Days of The Romanoffs', by Robert Wilton (an Englishman who served as an officer in the Russian army and was in an excellent position to observe); official reports made to President Woodrow Wilson and to the British government; and many reports by individuals, substantiate the fact that the power was seized by Jewish elements of the Bolshevik Party in the October Revolution of 1917.

Lenin was a half Jew, married to a Jewess. Then there was Trotsky, Uritski, Beria, Sverdlov, Dzorshinski, Monzhinski, Tagada, Kurglov, Engles, Marx, and Sheplin. These are just a few of the hundreds involved. Nesta Webster writes:—

"Out of a list of 165 names published, 29 are Russian, 3 Georgian, 4 Armenian, 1 German, and 128 Jewish."

—and Denis Fahey in 'The Mystical Body of Christ in the Modern World', states:—

"According to the data furnished by the Soviet Press, out of 556 important functionaries of the Bolshevik State (1918-1919). —457 were [Khazar] Jews [most of whom came from the East Side of New York City],"

It is also a matter of record that, of the 59 members of the Central Committee of the 5th Communist Congress, 52 were Khazars; and in the well known Police Organization called 'CHEKA' (later the KGB), 30 of it's 34 members were Khazar Jews. These figures are taken directly from the Communist records of those days, and top Jewish leaders although told to be discreet- have continually bragged about this control.

The Hundred Days Which Shocked The World

The initial period of this Red takeover brought about the famous "100 days which shocked the world", as this small band of well-organized, armed Jewish revolutionaries captured one sixth of the world's surface, and began to subject the Russian people to a systematic campaign of terror, rape, murder and pillage.

Right: Tsar Nicholas II and his son Alexis ready to take the salute of a Russian officer.

These Bolshevik Jews rooted out the educated and the religious in particular, in order to kill off all leadership. Under this directive, Czar Nicholas and his beautiful family were prevented from taking refuge in England by pressure brought against King George 5th by Messrs. Rothschild, and were slaughtered on orders from Khazars - Jourowski, Golostchokino and Jankel Sverdlov, President of the Committee of Zionism and International Jewry.

Few people have ever heard about what actually occurred in Russia - how many thousands of Christians were dragged from beds to be tortured and murdered.

...and Today...a "Superpower". Russia is by no means "finished".

During this period of tremendous suffering under Jewish terror, not one Jewish Rabbi in America or Europe made a public word of protest, although now they are perfectly willing to have Christian boys die for them in the Middle East in the event of war.

This Jewish revolution overshadows any event previously witnessed in this evil world for sheer brutality and savagery, and gives a clear picture of their contempt for the Christian world - in spite of all their pleas for "international and ecumenical brotherhood".

The "Romance of The Revolution"

In his profusely illustrated and documented book, Behind Communism' Frank Britton describes the period well:—

"Soon these hoards of returning Jews would exercise the power of life and death over 150 million Christian Russians. Soon every factory, every government bureau, every school district, and every army would function under the gimlet eye of a Jewish Commissar.

Soon the blood of human beings would be oozing from under the doors of the Communist execution chambers as tens of thousands of Christian men and women were butchered like cattle in a slaughter house—five million landowners would be deliberately starved to death as part of a premeditated plan. Soon a move would be under way to exterminate the "gentile" leader class of the entire nation by murdering every Christian factory owner, lawyer, government leader and army officer, and every other person who had been, or might be, a potential leader.

Soon the standing population of the slave-labour camps would exceed 16 million; Every church and every cathedral would be gutted, and every priest and preacher would become a criminal in his own community.

Soon, Russia would have a zombie proletariat, docile, willing to work, easily controlled and incapable of revolt— When the Bolsheviks came to power they systematically undertook to destroy every vestige of opposition by exterminating the upper classes of Russian society. The fury of the Red terror can be explained Only as a Manifestation of Jewish Hatred against Christian Civilization—Such was the 'Romance' of the Bolshevik Revolution."

Britton gives many pages of documented terror, and then sums it up: "The total effect was much the same as it would be in any country. With it's small middle and upper-class exterminated, Russia's peasant and worker population accepted Jewish Bolshevism without much protest.

The Russian masses, deprived of it's spokesmen and leaders, Were Simply Incapable of Counter-revolution - That was what the Red Terror set out to accomplish."

Many of the Russian people did not know of this Khazar control because many of the Jews had taken Russian names, and many did not look Jewish, although in private they spoke Yiddish (Ashkenaz).

M. Hermalin, a Jewish leader in New York City in 1918, commented:

"The Russian Revolution was made by Jews. We created secret societies and planned the reign of terror. The Revolution succeeded through our convincing propaganda and our mass assassinations in order to form a government / Communist/ which was truly our own."

Impressive eyewitnesses testified at the Overman Committee Hearings in February, 1919, and revealed a carefully hidden history of indescribable tortures, bedlam, and wholesale murder, as well as the truth that the Bolsheviks were supported financially and spiritually in their horrible acts by International Jewry, who looked on this as their "supreme revenge on Christianity". The 1938 edition of the encyclopaedia of Jewish Knowledge (edited by Jacob De Hass) gives much evidence of the Jewish financial backing in this bloody Revolution.

A Joint Investment

Other "Westerners" who helped finance the Bolsheviks were J.P. Morgan Co., The Rockefeller oil family, and Alfred Milner (Rothschild). The White Russian General, Arsene de Goulevitch, in his book, Czarism and The Revolution, confirmed the Western financing of the Revolution some years later when he identified Jacob Schiff as a long time supporter of "the Russian Revolutionary cause." The General also stated that "over 21 million roubles" were donated to the cause by Lord Milner.

Right: Judas Magnes, an intimate friend of the Rothschilds, worked with Schiff on financing the Bolsheviks.

It is interesting to note that, according to the New York Journal-American (February 3, 1949), Jacob's grandson, John Schiff, confirmed how the "old man" had sank about $20 million into the Bolshevik's cause; and in a speech made by one of their leaders in Carnegie Hall to "The Friends of Russian Freedom" in 1919, the following was said:-

"I will read a message from White Sulphur Springs. The message is as follows: "Will you say for me, to those present at tonight's meeting, how deeply I regret that I cannot celebrate with you, The Friends of Russian Freedom, the actual reward of what we have struggled and striven for these long years. Signed: Jacob Schiff."

But why should some of the richest men in the world give millions of dollars in support of Communism, the system that was openly vowing to "destroy the Capitalists of the West"? Gary Allen, author of None Dare Call it Conspiracy, explains it in this manner:

"If one understands that socialism is not a share-the-wealth program, but is in reality a method to consolidate and control the wealth, then the seeming paradox of super-rich men promoting socialism becomes no paradox at all. Instead, it becomes logical, even the perfect tool of power-seeking megalomaniacs—Communism, or more accurately, socialism, is not a movement of the downtrodden masses, but of the economic elite[48]."

These conspirators apparently received considerable financial reward for their "investment" for De Goulevitch writes; "Mr. Bakmetiev, the late Russian Imperial Ambassador to the U.S. tells us that the Bolsheviks, after victory, transferred some 600 million roubles in gold between the years 1918-1922 to Kuhn, Loeb & Co."

Jewish 'Persecution' ?

Contrary to what the public is told concerning Jewish persecution in the USSR, the facts show quite the opposite. George Bernard Shaw stated:

"I have seen the statement which Joseph Stalin gave recently to the Jewish Telegraphic agency on Anti-Semitism and in which the Soviet leader said that under the Soviet laws militant anti-Semitism is punishable by death" [49].

—and Alexander Bittleman, a top member of the Central Committee of the Communist Party, USA., stated this about their rise to power in Russia:

"If it were not for the Red Army, there would be no Jews in Europe today, nor in Palestine, nor in Africa; and in the United States, their existence could be counted in days. The Soviet Union saved the Jewish people, therefore the American Jewish masses never forget their historical debt to the saviour of the Jewish people - the Soviet Union."

Douglas Reed, in his 'Insanity Fair', published in 1938 in England, also told of his official visit to Moscow accompanying Anthony Eden, and of finding the entire press censorship service in the hands of "Jews". Under this control, the fact that nearly all the conspirators behind the throne in Moscow were Jewish, rarely has been seen in print anywhere in the world. Today, after this long blackout of truth, it is indeed difficult to get the full facts to present before the public.

The well known historian, Rev. Denis Fahey, of the Holy Ghost Missionary College in Dublin, Ireland, in his fully documented booklet, The Rulers of Russia, (1940), reproduced excerpts from a number of rare documents, naming the leaders of Russia at various periods since the Revolution, contending that there has been no diminution of Jewish power in the government. Some of the lists of leaders can be cross-checked by other documents or methods. For instance, one document shows that 14 out of 17 Soviet Ambassadors to foreign capitals in 1935-1936 were Jewish, two of the other three with Jewish staffs. Maisky, (alias I. M. Layakhovetsky), Ambassador to Great Britain, headed the list. (Maisky's real name is given in The International Who'sWho for 1943-1944.

Even their own Louis Levine, national chairman of the Jewish Council of Russian Relief, on paying an extended visit to Russia came back hysterical in his enthusiasm for the Soviet regime. In an article in the November, 1946 issue of Soviet Russia Today, Levine, billed as an "outstanding leader of American Jewry" wrote of meeting many high government officials of Jewish origin. He stated frankly:

"It was apparent - and even the sketchiest of observations would have disclosed it - that the Soviet Jews participate fully and freely on every level of government activity."

—so much for the well-publicized "Jewish persecution" in the USSR...

The Communist Sweep

Although World War II ended in 1945 with the American public thoroughly tired of hostilities, conquest by force of arms did not. Thanks to the manoeuvring of international Jewry in the United States and England, the Soviet Communists not only swept up half of Europe, but went after a substantial part of the rest of the world as well, many times under the banner of their newly created United Nations. With Roosevelt's stamp of approval, and Truman's tacit approval, Communism made great strides on many fronts.

The acquisition of half of Europe by the Soviets had been formalized by treaty after World War II; and who was Roosevelt's top advisor? None other than Alger Hiss, a top member of the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR), and later convicted of espionage as a Soviet spy.

Obviously, the forces controlling Communism thought their New World Order was within relatively easy grasp if only they could move quickly enough before the American people woke up to the deception.

Following "the big three" meeting of the Masons - Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin - in Yalta, Europe was divided up, and in execution of the plans laid decades earlier, Russia was given rule over half of the entire continent. Concerning the distribution of rule in Europe after the war, researcher James Perloff wisely observed and recorded in his 'Shadows of Power':

"Only the Communists acquired something from World War 11: Eastern Europe, and a foothold in Asia. The war had a commonly overlooked irony. It was begun (supposedly) to save Poland from conquest by Germany. Yet when it was over, Poland had been aquired anyway - by the Soviets[50]."

Few Americans had the good sense to see through the sham. Foremost among those who did was the brilliant General George S. Patton, who at one point announced that he was fully prepared to drive his Third Army straight to the heart of Moscow to rout out the Bolsheviks. Unfortunately, Patton died prematurely in 1945 in a freak automobile accident in Germany.

And so, with this arrogant move, the following Khazar "Jews" came to rule in Europe: Rakosi in Hungary, Jacob Berman in Poland, Anna Pauker in Romania, Rudolph Slansky in Czechoslovakia, and Kagonovich in Russia (through Stalin). Even non-Jews such as Tito of Yugoslavia were controlled by Khazars. John Gunther in Behind The Iron Curtain writes of the Jew, Moses Pijade:-

"He is Tito's mentor. Whatever ideological structure Tito may have, he got from this shrewd old man".

This world-wide Khazar thrust for "the overthrow of civilization" was aptly described by Britain's famous war-time Prime Minister, Winston Churchill, when, as Secretary of War in 1920 - some 25 years before his participation in the Yalta "conference" - he had stated quite frankly:

"This movement among the Jews is not new. From the days of Spartacus-Weishaupt to those of Karl Marx, and down to Trotsky (Russia), Bela Kun (Hungary), Rosa Luxembourg (Germany), and Emma Goldman (United States), This World-wide Conspiracy for the overthrow of civilization and for the reconstitution of society on the basis of arrested development—and impossible equality Has Been Steadily Growing—it Has Been the Mainspring of Every Subversive Movement during the 19th century; and now at last this band of extraordinary personalities from the underworld of the greatest cities of Europe and America have gripped the Russian people by the hair of their heads and have become practically the undisputed master of that enormous empire[51]."

Since then, American financiers have striven mightily to kept Communism alive. According to Gary Allen: "Virtually everything the Soviets possess has been acquired from the West. It is not much of an exaggeration to say that the USSR was made in the USA."

The Communist literature and dialect employed in political circles today of course exercises much "double-talk", and thus requires interpretation. If we simply substitute the word "Communism" when we hear the words "People's Democracy" or "Democracy", then we can understand their speech much more clearly.

Their own books and words plainly state their goals, tactics, and vision. According to their plan, their accomplishment in Russia will be the pattern for the "complete and final solution of the Jewish question." I believe the September 10th, 1920 issue of The American Hebrew states it well:

"The Bolshevik Revolution in Russia was the work of Jewish brains, of Jewish dissatisfaction, of Jewish planning, whose goal is to create a NEW ORDER IN THE WORLD. What was performed in so excellent a way in Russia, shall also, through the same Jewish mental and physical forces, become a reality ALL OVER THE WORLD."

IT TAKES A LICKING, BUT KEEPS ON TICKING..

.. the truth is... the Fed has usurped the government. It controls everything here [here].. .and all our foreign relations. It makes and breaks governments at will."

IN THE EARLY 1930'S, AMERICA DID NOT LACK INDUSTRIAL CAPACITY, fertile farmland, skilled and willing workers, or industrious farm families. Communications between regions and localities were the best in the world, utilizing telephone, teletype, radio, and a well-operated government mail system. No war had ravaged the cities or the countryside: no pestilence weakened the population; nor had famine stalked the land. The United States of America lacked only one thing: an adequate supply of money to carry on trade and commerce.

While continuing to fund the Communist government of Russia, the banking community - the only source of new money and credit - deliberately refused loans to American industries, stores and farms. Payments on existing loans were required of course, and money rapidly disappeared from circulation. Goods were available to be purchased, jobs waited to be done, but the lack of money brought the nation to a standstill.

By this simple ploy America was thrust into a depression, and bankers took possession of hundreds of thousands of farms, homes, and business properties. The people were told, "times are hard", and "money is short". Not understanding the system, they were cruelly robbed of their earnings, their savings, and their property. John Adams, in a letter to Thomas Jefferson in 1787 stated:

"All the perplexities, confusion and distress arise not from the defects of the Constitution, not from want of honor and virtue, so much as from downright ignorance of the nature of coin, credit and circulation."

This was in fact the most significant fruit of the Federal Reserve - the system [supposedly] initiated to "prevent such occupancies". Between 1923 and 1929 the Federal Reserve inflated the nation's money supply by 62 %, with the result that in the year before the "crash of '29", more than 500 banks failed nationwide, and so the stage was now set for a crash of immense proportion.

Bank failures wiped out the savings of millions of people during the Great Depression. In the United States, more than 5,000 banks closed between 1929-1933. We are told this could never happen again. But it will - and on a scale never before seen in history.

McFadden Exposes "The Fed"

Congressman Louis McFadden, as chairman of the House Banking and Currency Committee for over ten years, was the foremost Congressional authority on the "Fed" and fearlessly exposed their criminal activities. According to Vennard, in 'Conquest or Consent', McFadden regarded

Paul Warburg as: "one of the most ardent propagandists - and financiers - of world government in the U.S.A.. " and concerning the "crash" and the subsequent depression, he stated:-

"It was not accidental. It was a carefully contrived occurrence... The international bankers sought to bring about a condition of despair here so that they might emerge as rulers of us all."

Eustace Mullins explains:-

On January 13, 1932, McFadden introduced a resolution indicting the Federal Reserve Board of Governors for "Criminal Conspiracy":

'Whereas I charge them, jointly and severally, with the crime of having treasonably conspired and acted against the peace and security of the United States and having treasonably conspired to destroy the constitutional government in the United States.'

No action was taken on this resolution. McFadden came back on December 13, 1932 with a motion to impeach President Herbert Hoover.

Only five Congressmen stood with him on this, and the resolution failed. The Republican majority leader of the House remarked, 'Louis McFadden is now politically dead'.

On May 23, 1933, McFadden introduced House resolution No. 158, Articles of Impeachment against the Secretary of the Treasury, two Assistant Secretaries of the Treasury, the Federal Reserve Board of Governors, and officers and directors of the Federal Reserve Banks for their guilt and collusion in causing the Great Depression.

The Resolution never reached the floor. A whispering campaign that McFadden was insane swept Washington...[52]

Nevertheless, on June 15, 1933, in an address before Congress, McFadden showed himself more sane than his audience, and laid bare his sentiment concerning those in control of the nation's money supply:

"Mr. Chairman, we have in this country one of the most corrupt institutions the world has ever known. I refer to the Federal Reserve Banks, hereinafter called the 'Fed'.

The Fed has cheated the Government of the United States and the people of the United States out of enough money to pay the nation's debt.

The depredations and iniquities of the Fed has cost this country enough money to pay the national debt several times over.

This evil institution has impoverished and ruined the people of these United States, has bankrupted itself, and has practically bankrupted our Government. It has done this through the defects of the law under which it operates, through the mal-administration of that law by the Fed and through the corrupt practices of the money vultures who control it.

Mr. Chairman, in 1912 the National Monetary Association, under the chairmanship of the late Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, made a report and presented a vicious bill called The National Reserve Association Bill. This bill is usually spoken of as the 'Aldrich Bill'. But Senator Aldrich did not write the Aldrich Bill. He was the tool, if not the accomplice of the European Bankers who for nearly 20 years had been scheming to set up a central bank in the country, and WHO IN 1912 HAD SPENT AND WERE CONTINUING TO SPEND VAST SUMS OF MONEY TO ACCOMPLISH THEIR PURPOSE.

The Wilson administration, under the tutelage of those Wall Street figures who stood behind Colonel House, established here in our free country the worm-eaten monarchical institution of "the King 's Bank " to control us from the top downward, and to shackle us from the cradle to the grave.

Some people think that the Federal Reserve Banks are United States Government institutions. [But they are not] They are private monopolies which prey upon the people of these United States for the benefit of themselves and their foreign customers; foreign and domestic speculators and swindlers; and rich and predatory money lenders.

THE DEBT CYCLE

Speaking of the 12 privately-owned "Fed" Banks, McFadden exclaimed: "These 12 private credit monopolies were deceitfully and disloyally foisted upon this country by the bankers who came here from Europe, and repaid us our hospitality by undermining our American institutions. Paul Warburg came here from Germany for one purpose: to take over the Treasury of the United States as they have done with the treasuries of Europe.

These bankers took money out of this country to finance Japan in a war against Russia. They created a reign of terror in Russia WITH OUR MONEY in order to help that war along.

They instigated the separate peace between Germany and Russia and thus drove a wedge between the allies in the World War. They financed Trotsky's passage from New York to Russia so that he might assist in the destruction of the Russian Empire. They fomented and instigated the Russian revolution, and placed a large fund of American Dollars at Trotsky 's disposal in one of their branch banks in Sweden so that through him Russian homes might be thoroughly broken up and Russian children flung far and wide from their natural protectors. They Have since Begun the Breaking up of American Homes and the Dispersal of American Children".

McFadden boldly stated with indignation:-

"Every effort has been made by the Federal Reserve Board to conceal it's powers, but the truth is—the Fed has usurped the Government. It controls everything here (Congress) and it controls all our foreign relations. It makes and breaks governments at will".

—and in conclusion, with great conviction he thundered:-

"The Sack of the United States by the 'Fed' Is the Greatest Crime in History[53]."

These international bankers did everything possible to conceal their identities as owners of the Fed, primarily through the use of interlocking directorates. However, the major families involved include: Rothschild, Rockefeller, Warburg, Schroeder, Schiff, Morgan, Lehman, Lazard, Hariman and Gould.

In the 1960's, Congressman Wright Patman (Dallas, Texas.), former chairman of the House Banking Committee and a powerful critic of the central banking system, agreed with Louis McFadden's convictions and said:

"In the United States today we have in effect two governments... We have the duly constituted Government—Then we have an independent, uncontrolled and uncoordinated government in the Federal Reserve System, operating the money powers which are reserved to Congress by the Constitution[54]".

*Wright Patman,
Texas Congressman*

The "national debt clock" in New York, on Saturday, January 2nd, 1993
Unfortunately, it keeps on ticking.

Unfortunately, it keeps on ticking

The "national debt clock" in New York didn't take a holiday Friday as the stock exchange, banks and government offices closed for New Year's Day. It passed $4,153,463,162,000, and it adds $13,000 every second. Few people ever ask - "Just who do we owe all this money to?"

When Patman was removed from office, the press explained that:-

"Patman has long been known for his attack on big New York banks and the Federal Reserve Board-- he attributed his defeat in Washington to lobbying by the big banks[54a]."

The Borrower Is Servant To The Lender

The Federal Reserve System is now the United States major creditor. Compared to the days when Andrew Jackson PAID OFF the national debt, the United States is now an unimaginable 5 TRILLION DOLLARS in debt to these international bankers. Even back in 1989 the total was 3 trillion, with interest payments ALONE amounting to $240 billion.

The total amount collected from income taxes in that year was only $445 billion; in other words, more than half of what Americans pay in Federal income taxes goes into the pockets of bankers. All the while, the "servants of the people" talk in no sense of clearing today's insurmountable debt, but simply of "balancing the budget".

Congressman McFadden said that the passing of the Federal Reserve Act brought about "a superstate controlled by international bankers and industrialists acting together to enslave the world for their own pleasure."

The decisions of those in control of the men on the Federal Reserve Board affect the daily lives of every American by the effect of these decisions on prices[55]. With One Billion Dollars Being Added Each Day to the total national debt in interest, it is easily understood that the United States is literally at the mercy of a huge private monopoly, controlled by a select group of unelected men.

Some years ago, Harold W. Rosenthal, the administrative assistant to Senator Jacob J. Javits of New York, discussed the subject of Jewish power in the United States in a lengthy interview with Walter White (Director and Editor of the conservative publication, Western Front). In the candid and sometimes shocking interview, Rosenthal spoke with scorn and arrogance, especially about their control of communications and finances:

"Our power has been created through the manipulation of the national monetary system. As revealed in our master plan, it was essential for us to establish a private national bank. The Federal Reserve System fitted our plan nicely; it is owned by us, though the name implies that it is a government institution. From the very outset, our purpose was to confiscate all the gold and silver, replacing them with worthless, non-redeemable paper notes. This we have done!"

When asked about the term 'non-redeemable notes', Rosenthal replied:

"Prior to 1968, the gullible goy (that's you and I) could take a one dollar Federal Reserve Note into any bank in America and redeem it for a dollar which was by law a coin containing 412½ grains of 90% silver.

Up until 1933, one could have redeemed the same note for a coin of 25 4/5 grains of 90% gold—All we do is give the goy more non-redeemable notes, or else copper slugs; but we never give them their gold and silver, only more paper."

Prosperity ended abruptly in 1929. Widespread poverty forced many people to join bread lines to get free food.

Some 200 years ago, Thomas Jefferson sounded an alarm about those attempting to gain control of the nation. Speaking as if in prophecy of the United States in the decades to come, he warned:

"If the American people ever allow private banks to control the issue of their currency, first by inflation and then by deflation, the banks and corporations that will grow up around them will deprive the people of all property until their children will wake up homeless on the continent their fathers conquered.

EVERYBODY NEEDS A GOOD FOUNDATION

"Either by accident, or design, a Jew has come to the position of foremost importance in each of these nations. In the hands of non-Aryans, lie the very lives of millions..." 'American Hebrew', June, 1938.

DURING THE 1930'S AND 40'S WHEN HOLLYWOOD STUDIOS WERE TURNING OUT HUNDREDS OF BOTH ANTI-NAZI and pro-communist movies, concern was growing in America about the incredible influence the movie industry was having upon the ordinary citizen. "Reds" were controlling nearly all the writing for the Hollywood films. What these film producers were careful not to dramatize to the American citizen however, was that on Red Square in Moscow they would "Heil" and goose-step with no less vicious intent than the Nazis under Hitler.

Movie after movie was released during these years dramatizing the evil of "Nazi brutality", and were used to incite America to go to war against "these barbarians". With each new release, hysterical hatred of the German people swept the country. Ben Hecht's play, 'A Flag is Born ' was so extreme in spreading the hatred that the British strongly protested it's showing. The influence of these producers was in fact found to be of such magnitude that Congressional meetings were called to investigate the issue, and as a result, ten Hollywood writers and directors in 1950 were convicted of contempt of Congress for refusing to answer questions about their communist connections. Of the ten, nine were Khazar "Jews", and six of these were members of the Communist Party.

In the same year, Senator Joseph McCarthy from Wisconsin made allegations that the State Department was harbouring communists. Though the charges were always denied, many Americans believed they were true, and indeed there was good cause for concern, for it was evident by the decisions made in Washington that American foreign policy - even prior to World War II - was being directed by Jews, for Jewish interests, most of which are inimical to our own. A prime example of their influence in the Roosevelt cabinet was Alger Hiss, Roosevelt's top "advisor", who was constantly directing Roosevelt toward the communist agenda.

It was actually no great secret on Capitol Hill about the communist infiltration, for after numerous warnings about the growth of communist influence in his administration, Roosevelt made the following statement to Martin Dies, chairman of a special House Committee on un-American activities, and Dies testified to it before Congress:

"There is nothing wrong with the communists in this country. Several of the best friends I have are communists[56]."

TV coverage of the Army, McCarthy Hearings of 1954 brought a major event of American history into millions of homes. The dramatic hearings included charges by Senator Joseph R. McCarthy, (center), that the army was "coddling Communists.

It is an established fact that many of these people "who say they are Jew" have been apprehended in the stealing of America's atomic and hydrogen secrets and selling them to the enemy. The spy trials of the 1950's were almost 100% Jewish. The Khazar, Klaus Fuchs (who was admitted to the U.S. at the request of Albert Einstein) was found out first; then followed Harry Gold, David Greenglass, Abraham Brothman, Miriam Moskowitz, Sidney Weinbaum, Julius and Ethel Rosenberg (who were executed for their crime of treason) and Morton Sobell.

Before the whole thing was over, others such as J. Robert Oppenheimer, Frank Oppenheimer and a 'Steve Nelson' came under investigation. 'Nelson' turned out to be a Mr. Mesarosh, a Khazar whose contact was a Joseph W. Weinberg of the University of Minnesota. Almost 100% of these "Jews" who are involved in communist activities are Khazar-Ashkenazis of Turko-Mongolian stock, whose ancestors never set foot in Palestine.

Senator McCarthy's charges had led to the formation in 1953 of the Special Committee to Investigate Tax-Exempt Foundations. Headed by Tennessee Representative B. Carroll Reece, this group made some truly shocking discoveries concerning the connections between Communism and American tax-exempt foundations, although they went virtually unreported by the nation's press.

The Committee appointed Norman Dodd as its research director. Dodd however, was never pleased with the coverage of the story by the press, and devoted much of his life to studying these foundations, trying to bring the facts to the attention of the public. On May 30, 1977, he explained in a radio interview that he had studied these foundations over a fifty year period and had discovered their real purpose:

"The oldest of the tax exempt foundations came into existence long before the income tax and the estate tax, therefore they had come into existence, not motivated as foundations subsequently were motivated by tax savings. These foundations had a purpose unrelated to tax savings incentives[57]."

In his investigations, Dodd found that the oldest of these organizations represented 85% of the total amount of capital in the nation's foundations. He also discovered that in the United States, some of the wealthiest men had set up well-endowed foundations to study how to go about implementing the goals of certain secret societies to which they belonged. He was allowed to examine the minutes of the Board of Trustees of one of (he oldest of these foundations - The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, set up in 1908 - and found that for the first year the members concentrated on an academic discussion of whether there was any means more effective than war to alter the life of the people of a nation.

Obviously, altering the course of life in America was their goal; but why? for what purpose? Apparently this was in accordance with some larger plan that required a different America than was currently constituted, and thus the chaos which saturates society as a result of it's involvement in war was being considered as the ideal catalyst for rapid change. The Vietnam War is a prime example. Dodd stated:

"That leads to question number two, which is 'how do we involve the United States in a war?' This occurred around the beginning of 1909, and I doubt if there was any subject more removed from the minds of the American people at that time than the possibility of being involved in a war[57]."

William Still in his 'New World Order' explains this in some detail and states that according to Dodd, the members of the Carnegie group concluded that in order to get America into an upcoming war, they had to control the diplomatic machinery of the State Department. Still says this agreed with information Dodd had already developed from other sources which revealed that all high appointments in the State Department took place only after they had been cleared through something called 'The Council of Learned Societies', which was set up by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace[58]

In these years the bankers financed a host of "peace" organizations the real purpose of which was in fact to get America involved in the World War. The Commission for Relief in Belgium manufactured atrocity stories against the Germans, while this Carnegie Foundation, initially known as 'The League To Enforce Peace', agitated in Washington for America's entry into war. The same Foundation would, during the 1940's, be headed by Alger Hiss, the Communist aide to Roosevelt. The same method is currently being employed to involve America's troops in a bloodbath in - what was once - the nation of Yugoslavia. One writer wisely observed:

"Every peace movement of this century has been followed by war (Emmett Tyrell, Jr., The Richmond Times Dispatch, February 15, 1983)"

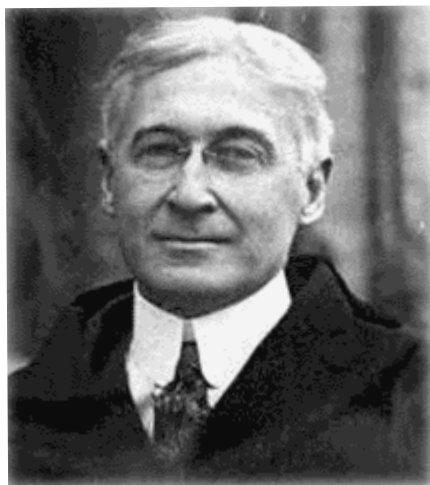

Once World War I was underway, Dodd saw in the minutes of the Carnegie Board a note to President Wilson requesting that he see to it that the war does not end too quickly." Bernard Baruch, "advisor" to several Presidents of the United States.

Wilson had appointed his campaign fundraiser, Bernard Baruch, to head the War Industries Board, and Baruch, like the Rockefellers, reaped profits of some $200 million from the war. He was later investigated by the Graham Committee and said:

"I probably had more power than perhaps any other man did in the war; doubtless that is true."

He also stated in his testimony: "I carried through the war three major investments: Alaska Juneau Gold Mining Company with partner Eugene Meyer, Texas Gulf Sulphur, and Atolia Mining Company (tungsten)[58]."

Bernard Baruch,
"advisor" to several Presidents of the United States.

58. William Still, New World Order: The Ancient Plan of Secret Societies, Rep. Mason, (ILL.) told the House on February 21, 1921 that Baruch made more than $50 million in copper [alone] during the war. While religious and political disagreements are specially given as the cause of wars, when he testified before the Nye Committee on September 13, 1937, Baruch stated that:—

All wars are economic in their origin... During his research Dodd then discovered memos in which the Carnegie Foundation members were congratulating themselves on their success, in that the war had brought about a change in the American psyche.

The true purpose of these conspirators was explained by syndicated columnist Joseph Kraft, when he stated in Harper's (July, 1958) that records from the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace showed that their trustees hoped to involve the United States in a World War to set the stage for World Government. Dodd also explained:-

"This is where the power comes from - to bring the idea of "one world government, to the point where it is acceptable to the people of this country. That is the primary aim, and everything that has happened since then is a means to that one end."

During his investigation for Congress, Dodd was asked by Rowan Gather, president of the Ford Foundation,* to come and visit. Gather said:

"Mr. Dodd, you were invited because we thought you would tell us why Congress was interested in the operations of foundations like ourselves. All of us at the executive and policy-making [level] here at the Foundation have had experience with the O.S.S. or the European Economic Administration. We operate here from directives which are issued from the White House. The substance of these directives includes that we shall use our grant-making power to alter life in the United States so that we can be comfortably merged with the Soviet Union."

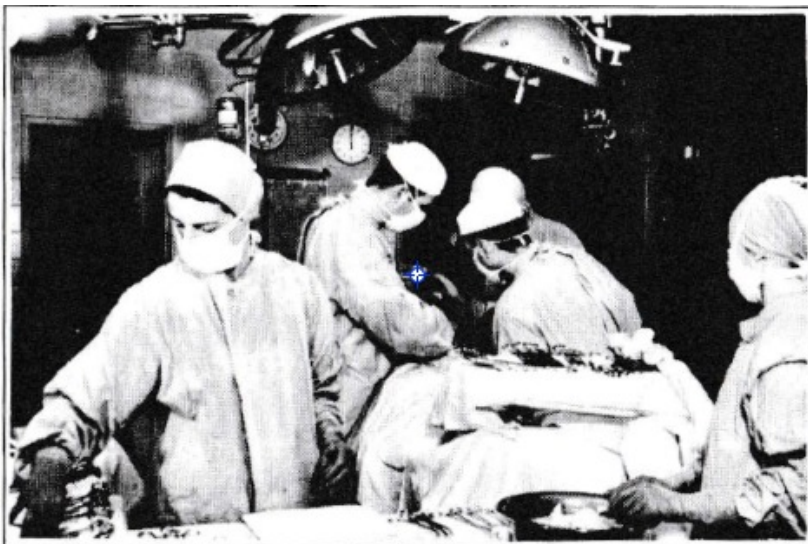

Dodd said he was so stunned that he almost fell off his chair.

"Benefactor", or Profit-Maker?

In an interview reported in the Nov. 30, 1992 issue of the Spotlight. Eustace Mullins, author of several fine books including his well-researched 'Murder by Injection' revealed that another of these "benevolent" Foundations -The Rockefeller Foundation- is the group behind the American Cancer Society (A.C.S.), the American Heart Association, the American Medical Association and the American Psychiatric Association.

Mullins states that the Food and Drug Administration has been "taken over", and simply accepts the findings of the drug companies in the Medical monopoly and he shows how public opinion is shaped and moulded by these Associations so as to bring the conspirators the most gain. He explains how in 1913, John D. Rockefeller called his friends together at the Union League club in New York City and announced he was going to start the American Cancer Society:

Disease is big business.

The treatment and research which is carried on in the field of medicine has today produced a multi-billion dollar industry.

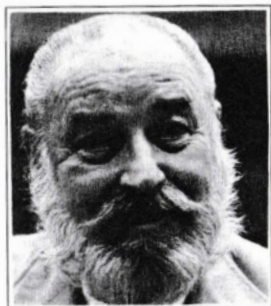

"Why did he want to start the A.C.S.? The reason is because his grandfather, William Rockefeller, was a carnival sideshow medicine-man who peddled 'Rockefeller's Famous Cancer Cure' back in the 1860's. It was mineral oil, and he charged $5 a bottle."

'Murder by Injection' reveals how the medical interests in the United States belong to the same group of monopolists who are the main players in the international banking community also controlling the "Fed". After years of studying these groups, Mullins came to a startling conclusion: "I started looking at different monopolies—the medical monopoly—the legal monopoly—the education monopoly—I kept finding myself back-tracking to the Rockefellers and the Rothschilds, the same group of people financing and controlling the whole thing. In fact in 1910, John D. Rockefeller, Sr. actually commissioned a study of medical school reform which totally revolutionized the medical care the American people had been receiving. He switched us from low-price, naturopathic and homeopathic medicine to a high-priced allopathic system which requires a lot of drugs, radical surgery, long hospital stays etc.—This is why we have these tremendous medical costs in this country today, and one of the lowest standards of medical care, in a major developed country[59]."

Disease Is Big Business

The treatment and research which is carried on in the field of medicine has today produced a multi-billion dollar industry.

Winthrop Rockefeller, a former governor

*Margareta and Nelson
Rockefeller*

Showing the huge profits in Cancer treatment, Mullins discovered how the Medical monopoly refused to accept any part of the findings of Nobel Prize-Winner, Dr. Otto Warburg, when he published that cancer could in fact, be cured.

There's Money In Waste...

In contrast to the well-publicized "benevolent" character of the Rockefellers, Matthew Josephson writes of how they market even the waste products, and in the process endanger the lives of millions: "... Thus the American Agricultural Chemical Co., a subsidiary of their Continental Oil Co., markets its waste product fluorides to New York City and numerous cities around the country, for the wholesale pollution of their water with the pretended purpose of saving infants from that dread and mortal disease - dental caries. The actual purpose is birth control by fluoride sterilization--(which) has the 'advantage' of causing in later life that 'godsend' in shortening lives and reducing population - cancer.

The sales of their waste fluorosilicic acid to New York City alone, nets them more than a million dollars a year [back in 1964/. The success of water fluoridation in birth control is attested by the report of the U.S. Public Health Service that, as a result of the fluoridation of water of several thousand cities, the U.S. birth rate dropped, in 1964, to the lowest figure in the twelve years of their 'glorious experiment'.

Deformities in newborns caused by water fluoridation, still further reduce population[60].

With dedicated research, Mullins found how the directors of the Rockefeller Foundation interlock with the nation's major banks, government departments, corporations and universities. He states that through the Sealantic Fund, the Rockefellers control the religious institutions and schools of theology in America, though mainly for the Rothschild interests.

The Rockefeller syndicate had become so dangerous to the nation even back in 1911 that an honest Supreme Court, not yet "packed" by their agents, ruled in it's Standard Oil Co. dissolution decree:

"For the safety of the Republic we now decree that the dangerous conspiracy must be ended by November 15 (1911)."

War and Rumours of War...

While most people realize that 'revolutions' are planned, for some strange reason, they seem to think that wars just "accidentally happen". What most of us fail to see is that these wars are planned, conceived, and executed by these conspirators with a definite purpose. Our young men and women are sent to war to carry out the design and goals of a group of private bankers and industrialists, and are primed with patriotic and emotional soul-stirring lines such as:

"Ask not what your country can do for you—ask what you can do for your country...",

—a line which was part of an address written for Kennedy by one of his Speech writers. In another of his fine works, 'The World Order', Eustace Mullins writes of the Rothschild's involvement with World War I, and of their manipulations in the terrible Boer War in South Africa at the turn of the 20th century:

"The Rothschilds had decided upon the formula of a 'managed conflict' for the First World War because of the difficulty they had encountered in defeating the Boers (the white people of South Africa) from 1899 to 1901.

The Boer War was started try Rothschild's agent, Lord Alfred Milner, against the wishes of the majority of the British people. His plans were aided by another Rothschild agent, Cecil Rhodes, who later left his entire fortune to the furtherance of the Rothschild program, through the Rhodes Trust[61]."

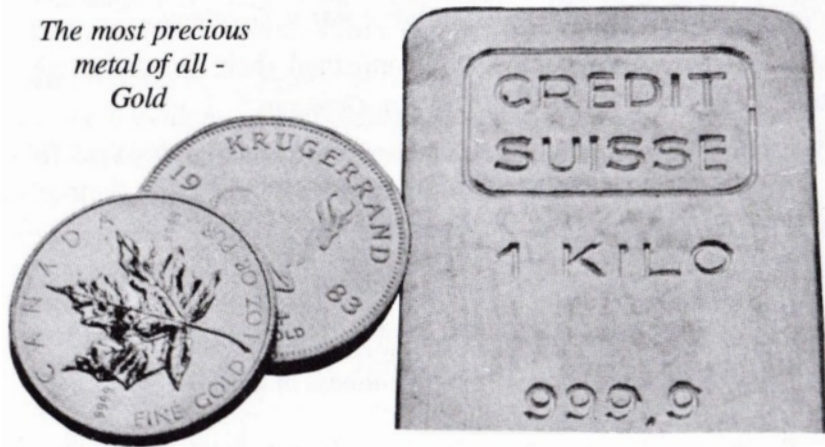

Milner's role in starting the war is described in 'British Supremacy in South Africa': Milner had come to believe that war with the Transvaal was both inevitable and desirable.—He had at last convinced Chamberlain that British supremacy in South Africa would be jeopardized unless the power of the Transvaal was broken. (p. 22)

After illegally annexing the Transvaal in 1881, the British had been turned back with a resounding defeat at Majuba by Paul Kruger. In 1889, because of the discovery of vast wealth in gold and diamonds in South Africa, the Rothschilds came back to loot the nation with 400,000 British soldiers, primed to fight against 30,000 "irregulars" - farmers with rifles. In his enlightening style, Mullins explains how:

"John Hays Hammond, chief mining engineer for the House of Rothschild, also was sent to South Africa to precipitate the war. He formed the 'Uitlanders Reform Committee'... financed by Abe Bailey, Solly Joel, Barney Barneto, and the Ecksteins, all of whom were big winners in the partition of the gold and diamond properties after the war.

During the activity, Hammond was arrested by Paul Kruger, sentenced to death for promoting revolution, and was allowed to leave only after paying $100,000 fine; he was then hired by the Guggenheims at $500,000 per year salary, and in 1921 became chief lobbyist for the Council on Foreign Relations (C. F. R.) in Washington.

The British fought a 'no prisoners', scorched-earth war, destroying farms and mercilessly shooting down Boers who tried to surrender. It was in this war that the institution of 'concentration camps' was brought to the world, as the British rounded up and imprisoned in unsanitary, fever-ridden camps anyone thought to be sympathetic to the Boers, including women and children, who died by the thousands.

This genocidal policy would next be used by the Rothschild- financed Bolsheviks in Russia, who adapted the Boer War concept to murder 66 million Russians between 1917 and 1967. There was never any popular reaction to either of these atrocities, because of the control of media which makes discussion of these calamities a taboo subject.

After the horror and death of millions in World War I, the international banking dynasties which controlled the political leaders attempted to establish the first World Government - their 'League of Nations'. However, when the world refused to take the organization seriously in the years to come they would proceed in their plans for a second global conflict, again sowing the seed in the European theatre.

Germany Becomes Their Target

The "No More War" policy of the early 1930's which had been induced by international Jewry was abandoned when they realized that Jewish influence world-wide would be curtailed if Hitler was successful in expelling the Jews from Germany. In their effort to control the German people they would only succeed to drive them into Hitler's arms.

It is most enlightening to realize that before any alleged "Nazi anti-Semitism" took place, David Brown, national chairman of the United Jewish Campaign in London (1934) said:

"We Jews are going to bring war to Germany..."

Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain confirmed their desire, when he remarked:

"The Jews want war with Germany."

Although their initial plot for the destruction of Germany had failed almost a century before (with Marx's revolution in 1848), their plans could now be executed with more assurance, for in June 1938, their own paper, The American Hebrew, revealed how in England, France, Russia and the United States—

"—Either try accident, or design, a Jew has come to the position of foremost importance in each of these nations. In the hands of non-Aryans, lie the very lives of millions—"

Invest a Dime, Make a Dollar

The Rockefellers and the other conspirators were again the guiding forces 'behind the scenes' in "the war effort". After World War I the German chemical giant, I. G. Farben received a $30 million loan from the Rockefeller's National City Bank. They quickly grew to be one of the largest chemical concerns in the world. Again, in 1939, as the Nazi's were poised to attack Western Europe, the Rockefeller's Standard Oil of New Jersey sold $20 million in aviation fuel to I. G. Farben. A U.S. War Department would later reveal that without I. G. Farben 's resources,

"—Germany's prosecution of the war would have been unthinkable and impossible."

James Perloff points out that on the board of directors of I. G. Farben's American subsidiary-American I. G.- was Paul Warburg.

The "benevolent" character of what many people believe to be one of (he most charitable families in the world is well described by Matthew Josephson in his detailed Federal Reserve Conspiracy'-.

"Their control of the most richly-endowed foundations, including their own, the Carnegie and Ford Foundations, is absolute; and constitutes the nucleus of what has been termed their "Philanthropic" Foundation Trust, but no significantly endowed Foundation has escaped their indirect control—

—Millions of humans have been slaughtered in an endless series of wars they have engineered to expand their Empire and increase their loot. Their grandiose objective is 'internationalist', 'One World' dictatorship, genocide and enslavement of mankind[61]."

Their role in encouraging the push for war was made evident when President Truman, speaking to the Senate on March 27, 1942, accused them of plotting America's defeat in World War II:

"Even after we were in the war, (Rockefeller's) Standard Oil of New Jersey was putting forth every effort of which it was capable to protect the control of the German government over vital war material. As Patrick Henry said: If that is treason (and it certainly is treason) then make the most of it'. Yes it is treason. You can not translate it in any other way[62]'".

Stir Up The Americans

It had not however been an easy task for the conspirators to convince the American public that the nation should go to war, for in a 1940 Gallup poll, 83% of Americans were against entering World War II. To make the idea palatable, massive conditioning of public opinion had to be accomplished; and so with monopoly control over the communications network they set about changing the average American's thought pattern concerning the war, to get them emotionally "charged up". The movie industry in particular would be used churning out dozens of films designed to "educate" and influence America that she needed to send her sons and daughters off to war. Such was the intensity of the momentum that, in 1941, at a Senate Committee Meeting investigating the propaganda films which were flooding out of Hollywood, Senator B.C. Clark said:

"The movie industry is turning out dozens of pictures to infect the minds of their audiences with hatred and arouse their basest emotions against Germany."

These movies were made with very little concern for the truth, but were produced to further the aims of the Khazar-Zionist movement in America. And so the American people were driven to make war on the German people, with whom we had no conceivable political or economic quarrel. Moreover, the United States comprised the largest nation in the world composed of Germans; at one time, almost half of it's citizens were of German descent, and by a narrow margin, German had been voted down as the national language.

Several books have been written on the subject of the destruction of Germany. Theodore Kauffman's 'Germany Must Perish' is extremely explicit in the desires and purpose of those who want to destroy the German nation. Harold Rosenthal, secretary to the New York Senator, Jacob Javits, declared a few years ago:

"We had hoped through our devastation of Christian Germany that any subject dealing with us would be a fearful taboo. However, there seems to be a resurgence here [in the U.S.], in the one nation that we so strongly control."

Today, the German people are justifiably sick and tired of being forced to teach their children to be ashamed of being German because of the so-called "Holocaust". They are fed up with paying "restitution" to these people for something that was initially forced upon them, even as the Jewish periodical, The Jewish World (London) declared:

"International Judaism forced Europe to the War, not only to seize a large part of the gold, but to start a new Jewish World War by the help of this gold."

The "Anti-Semitic" Opposition To The War

Anyone who spoke out against America's involvement in the war was labelled an "Anti-Semite" and a traitor to his country. Thus it necessarily follows that it must have been the Jewish desire to see that America was involved. Charges of Anti-Semitism were levelled at the most patriotic of men; even to the famous Lindbergh family in both World Wars: against Charles Sr., during the first as he ran for Governor of Minnesota on a platform opposing America's participation in World War I; and then against Charles his son (the "Lone Eagle"), at the time of World War II. New York Times writer, Harrison Salisbury stated:

"I have searched out the records and they show that mobs trailed Charles K. Lindbergh Sr. during his 1918 campaign for the Republican nomination for the Minnesota governorship. He was arrested on charges of conspiracy along with the Non-Partisan Leaguers; a rally at Madison, Minnesota was broken up with fire hoses; he was hanged in effigy in Red Wing, dragged from the speaker's platform, threatened with lynching, and escaped from town amid a volley of shots."

We should also remember that this was the same Charles Lindbergh - father of then 16-year-old "Lucky Lundy" of 'Spirit of St. Louis' fame - who spoke out strongly against the establishment of the Federal Reserve System a few years before. Eustace Mullins tells of one particular attack on the family, and the reactions of the soon-to-be-famous aviator son:

"A squad of Federal agents from the Bureau of Investigation, led by J. Edgar Hoover on his first important action, attacked Lindbergh and his family, dragged out all the copies of Lindbergh's 'Why Is Your Country At War?' and burned them on the lawn; when young Charles rushed forward to stomp out the fire, Hoover knocked him down[63]."

Mullins states that it was Woodrow Wilson who ordered the agents to seize and destroy not only copies of the book, but the printing plates also in the spring of 1918.

"Lucky Lindy"

When young Charles later captured the world's imagination in 1927 with the first solo flight across the Atlantic Ocean (New York to Paris), he became an international hero. Crowned "The Lone Eagle", he was awarded the United States Medal of Honour - previously given only to military heroes - and the nation's first Distinguished Flying Cross. In New York City, 4 million people spilled into the streets to watch as ticker-tape and confetti rained on a parade for him down Broadway. Songs were written about him and babies named after him.

He married Anne Morrow in 1929, and their life seemed idyllic, but their peace was shattered in 1932 with the kidnapping and murder of their first child, 20 month old, Charles Jr. After one of the most sensational trials of the century, one Bruno Hauptmann was convicted of the crime and executed. Hounded by the press, Lindbergh finally packed up his family and moved to Great Britain.

Charles Lindbergh, "The Lone Eagle", with his wife, Anne Morrow. Tins famous aviator - son of Congressman Charles Lindbergh, Sr. - was accused of being "Anti-Semitic" when he spoke against America 's entry into World War II. Their first child was kidnapped and murdered in 1932.

He returned home in 1939, and knowing of the strength of Jewish influence in world affairs, he like his father before him was convinced that the United States should stay out of the upcoming war. For two years, he campaigned actively against American participation in World War II, and although he too was constantly accused of being "Anti- Semitic", he never recanted his position, in his stand for truth. Once the United States became involved in the war however, he attempted to go to her aid, only to be refused entry into the forces by President Roosevelt, who could not forgive his earlier opposition.

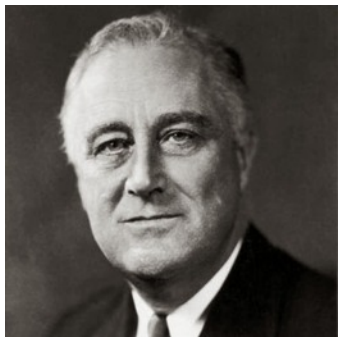

Lindbergh then joined United Aircraft as a consultant, and in that role, managed to get to the Pacific, where he flew 50 combat missions - as a civilian.

The Pearl Harbour Attack

It is well known that the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1942 proved to be the catalyst which drew the United States into World War II. What was not as well known until recent years however, is the fact that both FDR and his military chief of staff, General George Marshall, were well aware that a huge Japanese armada was headed to attack Pearl Harbor. A growing body of evidence now shows that numerous warnings were given to both FDR and General Marshall by many credible, official sources that the attack was imminent. Perhaps most impressive of these was the warning from U.S. Naval Intelligence the day before the attack that an armada of Japanese carriers was sighted only 400 miles north-west of Honolulu. Despite this, no warning was sent to the armed forces stationed there[64].

Franklin Roosevelt

As a result of this War, millions of innocent Franklin Roosevelt lives were lost and much of Europe was destroyed, but the international financiers and industrialists profited greatly from their dark deeds.

These bankers continued their program of bloodshed, destruction and profit by involving the United States in not only the Korean conflict, but then in the Vietnam War which they knew would dramatically change the social structure of the United States. Hundreds of books have been written by expert authorities detailing the treasonous activities of their agents in the White House and Congress. Virtually all of these have been suppressed, although occasionally, by miracle or accident, a true expose will reach our library shelves, only to be quickly removed...

Triumph Over Humanity

By the end of World War II, a frightening new dimension had been added to the prospects for their World Government. Through the Oppenheimer's intensive research, and the final development of the deadly and destructive new weapon of the atomic bomb, the complexion of world politics would forever be changed. The destructive capabilities of war had increased to a degree never before considered possible. Nuclear destruction was now a reality, threatening not only military forces, but entire populations.

It was said that no nation, under the existing governmental system, "could ever be safe again". And so, the necessary ingredients for World Government were present for the first time in the history of civilization. This had been the declared goal of the conspirators for many years of course, and was plainly testified to by Paul Warburg's son, James, when he stood before the United States Senate on February 17, 1950 and said:

"We (Jews) shall have world government, whether or not we like it. The question is only whether world government will be achieved by consent or by conquest[65]."

Of course, we know that their plans are not for a world government "of the people, by the people, and for the people", but for a government by oligarchy, one directed by only a few select, wealthy families.

The Goal of the CFR.

Central to their plan is the establishment of a world government; and in 1947 the United World Federalists organization was formed by James Warburg and Norman Cousins to try to merge the U.S. into the United Nations. Both individuals were prominent members of the Council on Foreign Relations, the leading American arm of their global order.

Such is their kindred spirit with Communism that even the Communist Party, U.S.A. strongly supported the United Nations idea. In the April 1945 edition of their official journal, Political Affairs, it is written:

"Great popular support and enthusiasm for the United Nations policies should be built up, well organized and fully articulate. But it is also necessary to do more than that. The opposition must be rendered so impotent that it will be unable to gather any significant support in the Senate against the United Nations Charter and the treaties which will follow."

In confirmation of its intentions, the CFR prepared a paper in 1959 entitled Study No. 7: Basic Aims of US 'Foreign Policy', in which the United States is urged to build a new international order—to maintain and gradually increase the authority of the U.N.

This drive has not dissipated since, but has in fact increased, for Admiral Chester Ward, former Judge Advocate General of the U.S. Navy, and former C.F.R. member, wrote in 1975 that the goal of the CFR is:

"the submergence of U.S. sovereignty and national independence into an all-powerful, one-world government[66]."

Their "New World Order"

Prior to World War II, Franklin Roosevelt told the American public - as had President Wilson - that none of her sons would fight on foreign soil, but millions fought abroad and hundreds of thousands never returned. Perloff states that there would never have been a Korean War were it not for the machinations of Roosevelt and his CFR political ideologies that brought Russia into the Pacific Theatre. Perhaps Roosevelt's true allegiance was uncovered in the February, 1953 issue of 'Empire State Mason', the official publication of the Grand Lodge of New York, which concluded that if the New World Order ever comes into being, then Franklin Delano Roosevelt should get much of the credit.

"The Age of the Nations Must End"

The Rockefellers were again involved at the ground level of the 'brotherhood of nations' concept, for they "donated" the most expensive piece of real estate property in Manhattan for the construction of the United Nations building. Also, their University of Chicago organized a committee to frame a 'World Constitution' through its Chancellor, Robert M.

Hutchins. This committee produced 4,500 pages of text, the preamble to which read:

"Universal peace is the prerequisite of that goal—iniquity and war inseparably spring from the competitive anarchy of the national states: and therefore the age of the nations must end (Great Idem Today'. 1971, p. 333)."

This 'Brotherhood of Man' concept is the driving force behind both the worldwide secret societies of Freemasonry and the Zionist network.

In his well-written book 'New World Order: The Ancient Plan of Secret Societies', William Still gives an excellent review of the Illuminati and their infiltration into the Masonic Lodges. Still explains their attack on nationalism, stating how it runs strongly in the hearts of the people:

"(It is) very difficult to erase, especially on a continent divided by warfare for many centuries. Therefore, they, Mazzini and Pike, the Italian and American heads of Masonry in the late 1800's, set to work on their greatest plan, a plan so vast in scope that only a reader familiar with the great power wielded by the secret societies could begin to believe it.

In 1871, Mazzini issued a letter in which he outlined the final three-part plan of the Illuminati: their grand design for ridding not just Europe, but the entire world of Christianity, and bringing it under the 'illuminated' dictatorship of Luciferianism. This remarkable letter was for many years on display in the British Museum Library in London.

Mazzini proposed a series of world wars. These wars were to embroil every nation in a conflict so bloody and chaotic that eventually every nation would surrender its national sovereignty to an international government, like the League of Nations, or at the second attempt, the current United Nations, in order to prevent subsequent global bloodletting. However, knowing that national sovereignty would certainly die hard, three of these world wars were proposed by Mazzini and Pike in their original plan. The first of these world wars, they hoped, would topple the Czarist government of Russia—

This would give (them) a secure base from which to operate, with a large population and vast natural resources to fuel (their program).

The second World War would allow the new Soviet Russia to capture Europe, or as it turned out, half of it. The third World War would be in the Middle East between the Moslems and the Jews, and would bring about the Biblical Armageddon. Certainly by the end of this World War, the battle-wearied nations would be ready to accept any proposal as long as it promised peace, uniting the world under the—New World Order. Pike wrote to Mazzini about the consequences of the Third world War in 1871:

It will provoke a formidable social cataclysm and the most bloody turmoil. Then every where—the multitude, disillusioned with Christianity, will be without a compass, anxious for an ideal.

Mazzini and Pike may have planned three World Wars in 1871, but twenty-three years before that, in 1848, the two authors of the Communist Manifesto, Marx and Engels, both spoke of the First World War. Marx wrote that the 'Slavic riffraff' - referring to the Russian people, as well as the Czechs, and Croats - were 'retrograde' races whose only function in the world history of the future was to be cannon fodder[67].

In keeping with their plan, World War I was indeed instigated with the assassination of Archduke Francis Ferdinand (heir to the Austrian throne), by Gavrilo Princep who, with his co-conspirators, was part of the "Black Hand", a revolutionary group affiliated with Freemasonry[68]. This was accomplished in Sarajevo, Bosnia, among the people whom Marx called "retrograde races". The end of this war did in fact see the Czarist government of Russia overthrown and a firm base established as a result of the Bolshevik Revolution.

The Second World War did result in not only the Communist takeover of much of Europe, but also in its infiltration into much of the entire world; and today, Bosnia is the location being used in an attempt to ignite World War III in accordance with their plans for the institution of their World Government. Their drive was well described over a century ago in The Jewish World of February 9,1883:

"The great ideal of Judaism is that the whole world shall be imbued with Jewish teachings, and that in a Universal Brotherhood of Nations, a greater Judaism in fact, all the separate races and religions shall disappear."

Nationalism A Thing of The Past

There is a move abroad to move the U.N. Headquarters from New York to Jerusalem; Ben Gurion, first prime minister of Israel proclaimed; "With the exception of the USSR. as a federated Eurasian state, all other continents will become united in a world alliance, at whose disposal will be an international police force... In Jerusalem, the United Nations— will be the Supreme Court of mankind, to settle all controversies among the federated continents[69]."

What America and the rest of the world likes to call a "change in Russian policy" or glasnost" (as it is called in the Soviet Union), is nothing more than the skilful propaganda to further Zionist plans for a One World Government, which they intend to control. The blueprint for this is drawn up in their 'Talmud'. In November 1987, (then) Soviet Premier, Mikhail Gorbachev made the following statement to the Soviet Politburo:

"Gentlemen, Comrades, do not be concerned about all you hear concerning 'glasnost' and 'perestroika' and 'democracy' in the coming years. These are primarily for outward consumption. There will be no significant internal change within the Soviet Union. OTHER THAN FOR COSMETIC PURPOSES.

"Our aim is to disarm the Americans and let them fall asleep. We want to accomplish three things:

One, we want the Americans to withdraw conventional forces from Europe. Two, we want them to withdraw nuclear forces from Europe. And, three, we want the Americans to stop proceeding with the Strategic Defence Initiative."

Not only have these steps been successfully carried out, but Gorbachev, hailed as a great 'reformer', now - from the Presidio in San Francisco - heads up the move to close down U.S. military bases, a plan which is essential for their overall control.

"The Abolition of Frontiers"

When Nelson Aldrich Rockefeller (then Governor of New York) addressed a meeting at the Sheraton Park Hotel on July 26, 1968, he called for the creation of a "New World Order"-, and so, when George Bush was chosen to be their White House spokesman, he was ordered to introduce the term to this generation of Americans, and did, so eloquently throughout their manufactured 'Desert Storm' episode.

Mikhail Gorbachev

Bush however, was later cast aside in the next election, to be replaced by the Jesuit-schooled (Georgetown University) - William Clinton, their current spokesman in Washington who has done his utmost to continue with their socialist programs, though now it is touted under the name of "democracy". As Nathan Rothschild once said though, it does not matter which "puppet" is on the throne; what really matters is who controls the money supply.

To sum up this chapter I believe it would be appropriate to show that the 'New World Order' of which they speak, is by no means a new phrase, but a term which has been used by these conspirators for many years. In a letter to Karl Marx over a century ago, Baruch Levy stated:

"The Jewish people as a whole will be its own Messiah. It will attain world dominion by the dissolution of other races, by the abolition of frontiers, by the annihilation of monarchy, and by the establishment of a World Republic in which the Jews will everywhere exercise the privilege of citizenship.

In this NEW WORLD ORDER the children of Israel will furnish all the leaders without encountering opposition. The Governments of the different peoples forming the World Republic will fall without difficulty into the hands of the Jews. It will then be possible for the Jewish rulers to abolish private property, and everywhere to make use of the resources of the state. Thus will the promise of the Talmud be fulfilled, in which it is said that when the Messianic time is come, the Jews will have all the property of the whole world in their hands[70]."

I believe the reader can see what is to come - Following World War I, their politicians cried for a "League of Nations". After World War II, they pushed for a "United Nations". It stands to reason then, that with the next big war will come the final cry for "World Government"!

DID YOU SAY CHOSEN? BY WHOM?

"Would a single Christian support their trek back to the 'homeland' if it were known that these 'Zionist' Jews have neither a geographic, historic nor ethnic connection with Palestine?" Benjamin Freedman, 1947.

SHORTLY AFTER WORLD WAR 1, Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Company, assembled a staff of experts in Detroit to conduct research on the European Jews who had been entering America in large numbers since the 1880's. Ford provided the staff with several million dollars for this study, and in 1923 he published the results in a four-volume work titled THE INTERNATIONAL JEW.

It was Henry Ford's conclusion that very few of those people - who say they are Jews - were actual descendants of the biblical Israelites. Through much research. Ford further proved that these Jews, using all sorts of crimes while under the cloak of being "the chosen people of God", were rapidly taking economic and political control of America.

In the religious field, Ford found that these "Jews" had secretly gained control of most protestant seminaries and Christian book-publishing houses, and through this were able to remove almost all criticism of Jews from Christian literature.

Ford's book caused a furore for a few years, but soon disappeared from colleges, universities and libraries, and became unobtainable at any price. The churches - contrary to scripture - continued to teach "The Jews are God's chosen people, Israel", and the (by then) Jewish-dominated news media began to refer to "Jews" always as Israelites. Anyone opposing the increasing Jewish control of the nation was immediately branded as "Anti- Semitic" and Jewish-dominated seminaries taught new ministers to quote from Genesis 12:1-3, sternly warning their flock that anyone speaking unfavourably of the Jews would be "cursed by God". Jewish control in religion, politics and society continued to increase--

With this unscriptural fear resting upon all institutions in America, criminals in all levels of society - from gambler to traitor - who happen to be "Jewish", would find little opposition or exposure from the Clergy, from Government, or from Christians.

Ford realised that one of the biggest tasks of the church leaders would be to free the people from what the scriptures call "the fear of the Jews" (John 20:19). He stated:

"The pulpit has also the mission of liberating the Church from the error that Judah and Israel are synonymous. The reading of the scriptures which confuse the tribe of Judah with Israel, and which interprets every mention of Israel as signifying the Jews, is at the root of more than one half of the confusion and division traceable in Christian doctrinal statements."

In conclusion, Henry Ford stated:

"The [Khazar] Jews are not the chosen people, though practically the entire church has succumbed to the propaganda which declares them to be so[71]."

Along with this delusion, most ministers today teach that Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were Jews. If this is the case, then Ishmael, Abraham's first son, would also be a Jew, and of course, this is not so; for even the "accepted" biblical historians of today would disqualify this concept.

Abraham was a Hebrew; and was called as such because he was a descendant of the household of Eber (or Heber), as seen in Genesis 11:14. Preachers also speak often of the Exodus as being the deliverance of the "Jews" from Egypt; but the Bible likewise calls them "Hebrews", the "House of Jacob", and "Israelites". God calls them "the children of Israel" 122 times in the book of Exodus alone; NEVER "JEWS". Scripture clearly shows that no people were called "Jews" until 2nd Kings 16:6, over 1000 years after Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; and then, the name applied only to the people under the "House of Judah ", as distinct from the ten-tribed "House of Israel". Most of these unscriptural concepts concerning the word "Jew" is focused upon the Apostle Paul who stated:

“–for I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin." (Romans 11:1).

Since Benjamin was at one time associated with the House of Judah (see 1st Kings chapters 11 and 12), Paul could rightly call himself a Benjamite, because he was descended from the tribe of Benjamin; a Jew, or Judahite, because the tribe of Benjamin was part of the House of Judah; and, an Israelite, because he was descended from one of the twelve tribes of Israel.

Jack Bernstein, an Ashkenazi, in his book, ‘The Life of an American Jew in Racist Marxist Israel’, sheds some much-needed light on the "chosen people" concept, as relating to the Ashkenazi:-

"The powerful Zionist propaganda machine has led the American people to believe that a Jew is a Jew - one race of people and that they are "God's Chosen People".

I will deal with that lie later. First, it is important for you to understand that Jews are NOT one race of people.

There are two distinct groups of Jews in the world and they come from two different areas of the world - the Sephardic Jews from the Middle East and North Africa, and the Ashkenazi Jews from Eastern Europe. The Sephardic is the oldest group and it is they, if any, who are the Jews described in the Bible because they lived in the area described in the Bible. They are [actually] blood relatives to the Arabs - the only difference between them is religion.

The Ashkenazi Jews, who now comprise 90% of the Jews in the world, had a rather strange beginning. According to historians, many of them Jewish, the Ashkenazis came into existence [only] about 1200 years ago. The American people have been led to believe that Jews are 'God's chosen people'. This myth was started by a small group of Jews. Leading the cry—are the Zionist/Marxist (Ashkenazi) Jews who for political purposes chose Judaism and who don't have a drop of biblical Jewish blood in them[72]—

Jewish author, Alfred Lilienthal, arrived at the same conclusion:

"These 'Ashkenazim Jews' (as Jews of Eastern Europe are called), whose numbers were swelled by Jews who fled from Germany at the time of the Crusades and during the Black Death, have little or no trace of Semitic blood[73]."

Even the 1980 'Jewish Almanac' states a fact which is completely opposite to what is taught daily in our churches: "Strictly speaking, it is incorrect to call a contemporary Jew an 'Israelite' or a 'Hebrew'" (p. 3), and the 1925 'Jewish Encyclopaedia (Vol. 5, p. 41) gives the reason why, recording that the "Jews" of today are actually EDOMITES.

The Scripture speaks of these people again in Revelation ch. 3, verse 9:

"Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee".

Esau Demands His Birthright

These Khazars - in opposition to the Sephardic Jews who settled in Britain- used their influence within the British Government to have the Balfour Declaration recognized. This would in time help to establish "a national home for the Jews in Palestine".

Arthur James Balfour

British Foreign Secretary, Sir Arthur James Balfour, handed the 'famous' document to Lionel Walter de Rothschild, the president of the British Zionist Federation, on Arthur James Balfour November 2, 1917.

Chaim Weizmann, born in Poland, 1874.

The Russian chemist, Chaim Weizmann, would be the first president of the new Khazar nation which was now seeking relocation in the land of Palestine.

Weizmann, who spent his early years as a teacher in Switzerland and England, would write shortly after this:

"We will establish ourselves in Palestine whether you like it or not! It is, however, better for you to help us, so as to avoid our constructive power being turned into a destructive power which will overthrow the world."

This same attitude was exemplified by Goldwin Smith (right), a Jewish professor of Modern History at Oxford University in 1818, when he put the aims of Zionism in proper perspective. He arrogantly proclaimed:

"We regard our race as superior to humanity, and look forward, not to it's ultimate union with others, but to it's triumph over them."

The New "Khazaria"

Baron Edmond de Rothschild of Paris, more than any other man, helped to finance Jewish immigration to Palestine. Before his death in 1934 he had contributed at least $20 million. However, Wilmot Robertson, in his fine book, 'The Dispossessed Majority' explains that it was actually Gentile, non-Semitic Ashkenazis who were first brought to Palestine

"The Zionist pioneers of Palestine were mostly Ashkenazim."

Although international Jewry had been offered fertile areas in British East Africa, the Khazar elements of Jewry held out for Palestine, believing that having their homeland there would influence huge elements of the Christian world into supporting them. Their scheme has most definitely worked, for many sincere Christians who do not know any better think that the mass migration of Soviet "Jews" leaving Russia is the promised "regathering of Israel" which is prophesied in Scripture; that this Khazar occupation of Palestine is the prophetic "return of Israel" to their land. The moving of these "Jews" into Palestine, and the formation of this new nation in 1948 is not the much-publicised "rebirth of Israel" but rather the latter-day fulfilment of Malachi's prophecy concerning Esau/Edom, returning to "build the desolate places" (Mai. 1:4). Millions of Christians however, have been sadly misled and taught that they must support the "return" of these non-Israelite Khazars to Palestine.

In contrast to the idea that these people are moving there "to fulfil scripture", the following statement by Dr, Nahum Goldman, president of the World Jewish Congress, allows us to understand their real purpose: "We Jews might have had Uganda, Madagascar, and other places for the establishment of a Jewish fatherland, but they wanted nothing except Palestine: not because the Dead Sea water by evaporation can produce 5 trillion dollars worth of metalloids and powdered metals; not because the subsoil of Palestine contains twenty times more petroleum than the combined reserves of the two Americas; but because Palestine is at the crossroads of Europe, Asia and Africa; because Palestine constitutes the veritable center of world political power, the strategic center of WORLD GOVERNMENT."

The "Return" To Palestine

Regarding their migration to Palestine, although it is not generally understood it is indeed a fact that these Jews can leave communist nations almost at will, yet few chose to do so. The vast majority of Jews who leave the Soviet Union use Palestine solely as a stepping stone to America or other Christian lands. By 1975, Jews were leaving Palestine faster than they were moving there. An article in Parade Magazine, November 23, 1975, stated:

"Three years ago more than 50,000 immigrants settled in Israel. Last year, only 22,000 settled there. This year the estimate is only 15,000...However, Last year, 21,000 Israelis [also] left the country. This year a similar number will depart."

Jerusalem

Foreign Office,
November 2nd, 1917.

Dear Lord Rothschild,

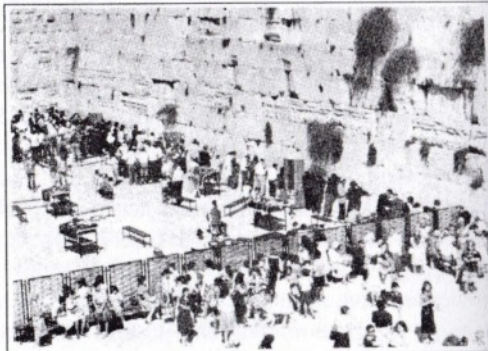

I have much pleasure in conveying to you, on behalf of His Majesty's Government, the following Declaration of sympathy with Jewish Zionist aspirations which has been submitted to, and approved by, the Cabinet

"His Majesty's Government view with favour the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people, and will use their best endeavours to facilitate the achievement of this object, it being clearly understood that nothing shall be done which may prejudice the civil and religious rights of existing non-Jewish communities in Palestine, or the rights and political status enjoyed by Jews in any other country".

I should be grateful if you would bring this declaration to the knowledge of the Zionist Federation.

The Balfour Declaration

Edmond de Rothschild spent vast sums of money looking for the Ark of the Covenant beneath the Wailing Wall in Jerusalem. He certainly realized the power it would give in the Messianic plan.

So we can see that more Jews actually leave Palestine each year than enter. Many of these come to the United States and settle in New York. Because of this, there are now more Jews living in "the Big Apple" or South Florida than in Palestine.

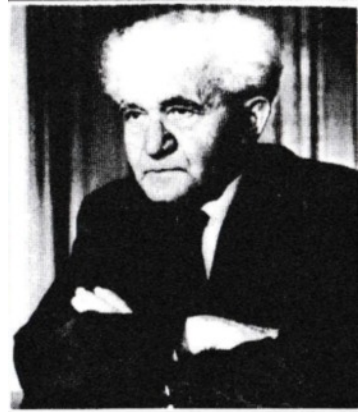

Statistics show that by 1976, 28 years after the United Nations' approval of the Khazar occupation of Palestine, only 2.9 million Jews had chosen to emigrate there, compared to over 8 million in the United States. Yet the Christian world is continually manipulated and motivated by these conspirators to "help the Jews return to Palestine. "

"Unto Us Is This Land Given"

According to Eustace Mullins, the State of Israel was largely created by the Hungarian Jew, Tibor Rosenbaum, who procured arms and money through his Swiss base for both the Haganah and Stern gang of terrorists, using his control within the International Credit Bank of Switzerland.

These Zionist Khazar leaders commenced moving European Jews into Cyprus with the help of their influential parties within the British Government, and then began shipping them illegally into Palestine, where British soldiers had been instructed by the same government to stop the immigration and to keep the peace.

After World War II, the British attempted to maintain peace between the Arabs and these Edomites, but to no avail. The Jewish Irgun Zvai Leumi of Menachem Wolfvitch Begin (born in Poland) and the Stern gang tortured and murdered British soldiers and slaughtered Palestinian Arabs, and so Britain had to give up the mandate. As was prophesied in Ezekiel 11:15, the Idumean Jew told the true Israelites to clear out of Palestine:

*David Ben-Gurion
the first premier of the new Khazar state.*

"Son of man... the men of thy kindred, and all the House of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get You Far from the Lord: Unto Us Is This Land Given in Possession!

Many ministers preach from Ezekiel Chapter's 38 and 39 to prophesy an invasion of Jewish Palestine by Russia (Gog and Magog); But Chapter 38, verse 11 describes the land of Israel to be invaded as:

"—The land of unwalled villages—them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates."

Israeli villages however are extensively "walled" and it's borders are heavily guarded. Pastor Sheldon Emry put it very plainly:-

"Some ministers teach that these verses describe Jewish-occupied Palestine. Nothing could be farther from the truth! Most of the cities in Palestine, including Jerusalem itself, still have many ancient walls, and now the Jews have added concrete walls, pillboxes, sandbagged defences, and barbed wire. PALESTINE IS NOT A LAND OF UN-WALLED VILLAGES, nor has it EVER been!"

While the true nations of Israel began to fulfill II Samuel 7:10, and live in peace, one of the main prophecies concerning Esau declared: "By thy sword shalt thou live" (Gen. 27:40).

His descendants -in contrast- would be a warlike and tumultuous people. In fulfilment of this, we find that ever since the creation of the Khazar State in the land of Israel, there has been a constant war between the Zionists and all the peoples in the region and Palestine has turned into one of the worst battle grounds of the world. Evidently there is more to these chapters than what is generally understood, for it is very obvious that Ezekiel is not describing the Khazar-occupied land of Palestine. Pastor Emry explained further:

"Have you seen a picture of Palestine since the occupation by the so-called Jews? Barbed wire, lookout towers, minefields, machine gun posts, tanks, artillery, armed troops guarding field workers, constant patrols on its borders, shooting clashes every few months and big battles every few years!

It is clearly evident from scripture and historical records that the true Israelite people have been moved away from Palestine. (See our exciting series of books on the migrations of the tribes of Israel: "To The Twelve Tribes Scattered Abroad".) Indeed, in this day in time, we stand on the threshold of the final harvest of this world - These are indeed the days of "the time of Jacob's trouble" to the true nations of Israel.

But in the face of all this adversity and world trouble, God Almighty has not forsaken nor forgotten His people for we read in Isaiah 51:22-23:—

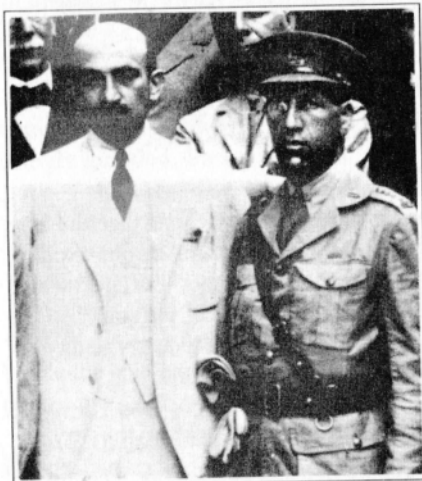

"Thus saith thy Lord the LORD, and thy God that pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, / have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again: But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee;"

Palestine's Occupants Today

The majority of Jews in Palestine today are actually Zionist-Socialist Atheists. All the major leaders of this Khazar nation - now located in the land promised to the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob - have been Turko-Mongolian Ashkenazim Jews, whose ancestors never set foot in Palestine. Golda Meir received her early training at the communist sponsored Eugene Debs Labour School, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Menachem Begin began his training in the communist army of Poland, and went on to become one of the notorious leaders in the Middle East, publicly bragging about killing Arab women with his bare hands.

Golda Meir

When comparing some of the characteristics of the true Israelite - the Anglo-Saxon, Caucasian, Germanic and related peoples with that of the Ashkenazi-Jew, Robert Allen states:—

"No other type of race in the world allows every other type of people to enter their lands in mass, give them citizenship and treatment equal or better than true citizens, pay for their education, health care and cost of living... On the other hand, in the land of Palestine, no one has any rights other than the 'Jew'; and they do everything they can to keep all other peoples out, except white Christian tourists who are allowed to come briefly to spend their money[74].

Alfred Lilienthal explains the fine points of their "Democratic society": "While Israel is almost universally regarded as the shining example of 'democracy' in the Middle East, Israel's 1952 Nationality Act codified discrimination into law and made the Arabs second-class citizens. The Law of Return endowed (the Jew) with the automatic and unqualified right to return to Israel for permanent settlement.

Under this law, a Jew may become a citizen of Israel after one minute in the land, a status that may be denied to an Arab although his forefathers have been there for a thousand years.

While the world was supposed to understand perfectly the claim of Zionists that they were unable to forget Zion after nearly two thousand years, the Arabs were, after a few years, told to forget their homeland, which they and their forefathers had occupied for millennia. Arab refugees who had passed their entire life in Palestine were arrested, if not shot, as infiltrates, while Jewish immigrants who had lived thousands of miles away were welcomed as pioneering heroes[75].

Not Every Khazar Supports Subversion

We must not suppose that every Khazar supports the activities of his people. Benjamin H. Freedman, a brave individual, set up 'The League For Peace With Justice in Palestine', and exposed political Zionism for many years during which he was targeted as an "anti-Semite". He stated: "Popular ignorance of the real basis of political Zionism is beyond calculation. Vaguely, most Christian Americans have the idea that the Jews claim Palestine because it was the 'Promised Land' in which they lived for a period of a few centuries that ended 2,000 years ago. And the thought of a people returning to its 'homeland' seems emotionally satisfying and good.

But here are facts most Americans do not know: Political Zionism is almost exclusively a movement by the Jews of Europe. But these Eastern European Jews have neither a racial nor a historical connection with Palestine. Their ancestors were not inhabitants of the "Promised Land". They are the direct descendants of the people of the Khazar Kingdom, which existed until the 12th century /the people later moving into Europe/. The Khazars were a non-Semitic, Turko-Finn, Mongolian tribal people who, about the 1st century A. D. emigrated from Middle Asia to Eastern Europe-- About the 7th century A.D. the King of the Khazars [for political purposes/ adopted Judaism as the state religion, and the majority of the inhabitants joined him in the new allegiance. In view of this fact, what becomes of the cry for "repatriation to the Homeland"?

The Arabs have been in Palestine a thousand years longer than we have been here. Would a single Christian support their trek back to the 'home-land' or want to oblige them by expelling the Arabs if it were known that these Eastern European, Yiddish-speaking Jews who form the Zionist group practically in toto, have neither a geographic, historic nor ethnic connection with either the Jews (Judahites) of the Old Testament or the land known today as Palestine[76]?"

THE WOLF IS IN THE PEN!

"If you know the enemy and know yourself, you need not fear the result of a hundred battles... [but] if you know neither the enemy nor yourself you will succumb in every battle."——Sun Tzu, Chinese philosopher, 500 BC.

While these Khazars had gained much power to act from a political base in their drive for a homeland, it was an absolute must that Christian doctrine had to be modified before politicians and statesmen could act without remonstrations from the public.

In this endeavour, the period 1830-1850 saw the birth of organizations which were extremely active in "Judaizing" Christianity and these organizations became politically active in seeking to create a nation in the Middle East in which all of the Jews of the world could settle.

In 1844 the Christadelphians were established in England by John Thomas, author of 'Elpis Israel'. From the outset, this group supported the return of Jews to the "Land of Israel". Later it offered practical assistance to Jews, such as support of the 'Hibbat Zion' movement, an early Zionist group. Mormons, founded by Joseph Smith (32nd degree Freemason) in the United States in 1830, held that Jews would return to their land as "a sign of the time" of the second coming of Christ, and in 1841 the Mormon Orson Hyde was sent to Jerusalem, where he recited a "Zionist" prayer dedicating the land to the Jews from the top of the Mount of Olives. The Evangelicals in England and the United States were not alone however in the accomplishment of this phenomena. In 1845, Edward Mitford of the Colonial Office in London wrote 'An Appeal on Behalf of The Jewish Nation in Connection With British Policy in the Levant' (Mid east).

Mitford's plan included the following proposal:

"The plan I would propose is, first, the establishment of the Jewish nation in Palestine, as a protected state, under the guardianship of Great Britain—Secondly, their final establishment, as an independent state, when soever the parent institutions shall have acquired sufficient force and vigour to allow of this tutelage being withdrawn...", and he had the foresight to raise the problem of Palestine's own Arab population when he remarked:

"The country, compared with its extent, is at present thinly populated, yet the pressure caused by the introduction of so large a body of strangers upon the actual inhabitants might be attended with injurious results.

Before, however, attempting to make settlement, it would be desirable that the country should be prepared for their reception. This might be done by inducing the Turkish government to make the Mohammedan inhabitants fall back upon the extensive and partially cultivated countries of Asia Minor[77]."

The Encyclopaedia Judaica (1971 edition) shows that the most famous of the Zionist millenarians in the United States at that period was William Blackstone (1841-1933) of Chicago, the author of 'Jesus is Coming', in which he expounded his belief in the future of the Jews in the land of Israel. He attempted a political realization of his ideas through memoranda to the President of the United States, in 1891 and again in 1916, demanding American intervention for the "return" of the Jews to the land of Israel as a solution to the Czarist "anti-Jewish" persecutions. According to Pastor Earl Jones, founder of Christian Crusade For Truth and editor of The Intelligence Digest:

"Mr. Blackstone was a personal friend of two other famous Zionists - Cyrus I. Scofield and Samuel Untermyer... Yes, the same man with the Scofield Bible and all of those footnotes which some Christians have come to believe in more than the Bible itself. Scofield was the man chosen to tie the knot in the change in theology of the Christian Church—to make it acceptable throughout the world.

This man made trip after trip to London, England. These were kept secret and he spent considerable time there. It was undoubtedly there in that one square mile 'City of London' where he received his specific instructions. He was then offered the job as Pastor of a Dallas church...But continued his trips to England and to Switzerland staying for months at a time. He then moved to New York at the direction of the Zionist Samuel Untermyer—and into the Lotus Club where he remained...Scofield and Untermyer worked very closely, using this tremendous influence that he had created in the Christian Church to sway the politics of the country.

The two of them threatened to expose President Wilson for indiscretions if Wilson didn't nominate Louis Brandeis (another Zionist) to the Supreme Court[78]."

Christian Doctrine Changed

While the infamous 'Balfour Declaration' letter in 1917 - written at the behest of the Zionists, Chaim Weizmann and Nahum Sokolow to the 2nd Baron Rothschild - allowed the "return" of the Jews to Jerusalem, they knew well that it had to be within the Christian Church itself that the final phase of the conspiracy was cantered; and so, under the cloak of religion, these conspirators have infiltrated the church system throughout the world and poisoned the hearts and minds of many of our youth.

Another of the main individuals they used in this venture was Walter Rauschenbush (1861-1918), who made great strides in bringing the "social gospel" into our churches. This gospel was of course the "gospel" of communism. Rauschenbush had taught at Rochester Theological Seminary, a Baptist institution, from where he had earlier graduated and obtained inspiration for his 'Christianity and The Social Crisis' (1907), bringing him nation-wide recognition.

In December, 1908, Rauschenbush and Dr. Harry Ward formed the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America (FCCCA). Ward was a teacher at the Union Theological Seminary, a Methodist institution. He was also a Communist, and under oath, a fellow Communist, Manning Johnson, testified that Harry Ward was:

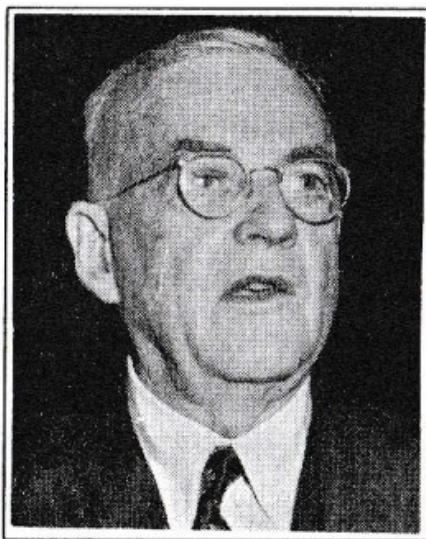

"the chief architect for Communist infiltration and subversion in the religious field."

The Federal Council of Churches was heavily laced with ranking leaders of the Methodist Church; and Ward made such an impression upon the system that today's seminaries are a hot-bed for social reforms.

This is evident upon a visit to the Methodist Church headquarters in Washington D.C., one of only two non-government properties on Capitol Hill. The signs over the hallway doors read: Department of Population, 'The Religious Coalition for Abortion Rights', 'Emergency Social Issues', 'Legislative Affairs Office', 'Department of Economic Life' and so on.

Members in this grey, five-story stone building are active in the 'Coalition For Handgun Control', the 'American Civil Liberties Union .Coalition For New Foreign and Military Policy', 'Coalition to End Grand Jury Abuse', 'Coalition To End The Death Penalty' etc[79].

This "social gospel" of Harry Ward not only involved the clergy, and other prominent members of society also. The Director of Foreign Policy John Foster Dulles, Secretary of State under Eisenhower, was also a high-ranking officer in the Federal Council of Churches, and actually directed the organization for the Rockefellers. Alger Hiss, an associate of Dulles, was also a member in the Council while both worked together in the State Department in the various conferences that planned the United Nations. Hiss was later convicted as a Soviet agent, and the Council pronounced by the U.S. Navy to be one of the most subversive organizations in America. Its treasonous attitudes became so notorious that during World War II it adopted the alias "National" Council of Churches of Christ in America[80].

In the early 1950's Harold Stassen was elected a vice president-at-large of the newly-named organization while he was a special advisor to the President of the United States on disarmament, with Cabinet rank. Stassen was formerly president of the International Council of Religious Education, a group which authorized the writing of the new Revised Standard Version of the Bible, the work of the National Council of Churches. This version altered or omitted key passages in order to cast doubt on the life of Christ, and to remove passages unfavourable to the Jews.

Church members in many congregations began to become suspicious of these Councils, including the later formed World Council of Churches, and as a result, the Evangelicals broke with the Christian Fundamentalists. To continue with their program of indoctrination through religion, the conspirators chose from among the Evangelicals a number of individuals whom they believed could be instrumental in their goal of changing the theology and doctrines of the Christian Church. Chief among these was an individual who was once a fundamentalist, but was convinced to change his views Dr. Billy Graham.

Graham, along with two other leading Evangelicals, Dr. Harold Ockenga, president of Fuller Theological Seminary, and Dr. Donald Grey Barnhouse, longtime pastor of Tenth Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia, became the leading Evangelicals in America. These men took up the cudgels of defence and offence for the Communist front organization called the National Council of Churches.

Graham's efforts can best be described by quoting Charles Woodbridge, veteran Church historian and noted Bible teacher who said to Dr. Graham:

"If you persist in making common cause with those who deny the Word of God, and thus minimize the sharp line of distinction between those who are loyal and disloyal to the Scriptures, it is my strong opinion that the verdict of church history will be that you will be known as the greatest divider of the church of Christ in the twentieth century[81].

Oral Roberts, Pat Robertson, Jerry Falwell and Jack Van Impe also comprise a quartet used to the utmost by the conspirators. Falwell had started his ministry as an obscure Baptist minister in an average sized congregation and church in Lynchburg, Virginia. He taught the standard Baptist doctrine and his congregation thought highly of him. It was obvious he wasn't setting the world on fire, but he was suddenly "discovered", and "puffed" as they say in the media circle.

Tele-Evangelist Oral Roberts at a revival meeting The "torch" has now Passed to his son, Richard

In a concept born in paradox, Falwell began to put emphasis in his message that: "Palestine belongs to Israel-- I and-- although all people are equally loved by God, Jews are God's chosen people...(and how)—.God deals with nations in relation to how those nations deal with Israel."

In just a short time, he became nationally recognized, and now controls a religious "empire", which even includes a sizable university. There are many examples - just turn on the television. While there may be some sincere, well-intentioned individuals who do not know any better among these wolves, and while these showmen display emotional scenes of their help to starving children, most all of the nationally-known "tele-evangelists" who speak of the vital importance of contributing to the "return of the Jews" to the land of Israel, are among their "chosen few".

The damnable heresies which they preach - insisting that we no longer need live by God's wonderful laws, statutes and precepts because they were "nailed to the cross"; that these laws were given "only to the Jews" and are reserved for them - proceed straight from the Khazar-controlled seminaries which these ministers attend. In contrast to what is taught day after day in most of our churches, God's Word clearly declares:

"To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no LIGHT in them."
(Isaiah 8:20)

Paul states that it was the law of sin and death that was "nailed to the cross", not the laws, commandments and statutes which were given for our benefit, as a wonderful guide for our life because God loves us; they were never "done away with". In fact, it should be more than obvious to us that the very reason why there is murder, bloodshed, theft and violence in the land is because God's laws are not being obeyed. (See Hosea 4:1-3). Make no mistake about it - Through what is taught at these seminaries these conspirators are attempting to destroy the truth of Almighty God which would see all men redeemed from sin.

Now, by the continual and prolonged repetition of the lie that "the Jews are God's chosen people, Israel", instead of thundering righteous indignation at the criminal indignities brought into our nation by these imposters, ministers rattle on about tolerance, brotherhood and love and how "racism" and "anti-Semitism" are terrible evils. Such well-intentioned sermons do little however, to purge the land of the sin which has taken hold for they are not directed at the ROOT of the evil. Week after week, TV evangelists boast of "many thousands" of people "receiving the Lord"; yet the evil increases. Something is wrong, somewhere.

Benjamin Freedman explains the true purpose of the term "anti-Semite":

"The word serves only one purpose today. When self-styled Jews feel that anyone opposes their objectives, they discredit their victims by applying the word 'anti-Semite' through all channels they have at their command and under their control."

Henry Ford was well aware of their tactics. He stated in 1922:-

"It is time to show that the cry of 'bigot' is raised mostly by bigots. There is a religious prejudice in this country; there is indeed a religious persecution; there is a forcible shoving aside of the religious liberties of the majority of the people; and this prejudice and persecution and use of force is JEWISH and nothing but JEWISH."

On the public level, Jewish ownership of the major daily newspapers and magazines has of course given them one of the largest propaganda apparatuses in the world. At the beginning of the 20th century, they and their agents began to infiltrate all seminaries, colleges, universities, and text-book publishing houses. They now control most book printing, and almost all book and magazine distribution in America.

The ADL's 'Programming'

The program to saturate society with their propaganda is described as follows by an official of their Jewish-controlled Anti-Defamation League:

"... To send literature to various groups, to work through the radio, the motion picture industry and other media; to subsidize speakers' bureaus and suggest speakers to schools, forums and clubs; to subsidize and publish periodicals, pamphlets and books (from comic strip books to literature)...condemning discrimination, whether social, political or economic; to encourage movements, meetings, programs of all kinds, using every advertising media, from newspaper ads to billboards."

Even 50 years ago, their drive to educate the masses was well-rooted. The solicitation letter of the National Chairman for the 1945 appeal claims:-

"This is a high-powered educational program geared to reach every man, woman and child every day of the year - through the press - over the radio - through advertising - comic books - schools - speakers - information - community service - movies - churches - labour - and special groups."

It claimed 216 individual station broadcasts a day in 1945 and a goal of 65,000 for 1946. (For this it received a special award from Variety, left-wing paper of the amusement trade). It listed 26 full-page ads run in 397 newspapers, 2,000 insertions reaching 100 million readers (space free), a series of 12 posters displayed on 1,000 billboards in 130 cities costing a quarter million dollars, 16,000 cards in 24 cities, and among others, space on payroll envelopes, blotters, and millions of matchbox covers.

It claimed to influence 1,900 daily newspapers with 43 million circulation, plus the rural press, the foreign language press, the Negro press, and the labour press with 10 million readers. It recorded 330,000 books placed in libraries during the year, 9 million pamphlets "tailored to fit the audiences", and 40 million propaganda-laden books of comic strips for children and men in the armed forces. It "presented the most noted names on the lecture platform" to more than 30 million people by subsidized lecture bureaus, and arranged for and aided special movie shorts and radio programs by stars in the amusement (entertainment) world.

A special project is the production of "educational" films and comic strips, to various audiences including labour unions and school children.

Before the days when every home had a television set, their thrust was also very evident in the radio networks. The Jewish Year Book , 1945-46, (page 700) says in a chapter on Domestic Public Relations Activities how their "message"—has been included in every variety of radio program from 'soap operas' to news and sports commentaries."

The movie industry also since its conception has been dominated and used by international Jewry and has been one of their most effective weapons. Warner Brothers, MGM Studios, Universal, Columbia and Paramount Pictures have been owned and operated by such Jewish presidents, chairmen and executives as Harry Cohen, Nate J. Blumberg, Barry Balaban, Marcus Loew and Louis B. Mayer. Dore Schary (MGM Studios) was a Jew with four communists fronts to his credit. They also control the major radio and TV networks: NBC, CBS, ABC, and FOX.

Mind Control and Conditioning

Harold Rosenthal, secretary to U.S. Senator Jacob Javits of New York, openly bragged about this control when he stated:

"At first, by controlling the banking system we were able to control corporation capital. Through this, we acquired total monopoly of the movie industry, the radio networks and the newly-developing television media. The printing industry, newspapers, periodicals and technical journals had already fallen into our hands, but the Richest Plum Was Still to Come When We Took over the Publication of All School Materials.

Through these vehicles we could mould public opinion to suit our own purposes. The people are only stupid pigs that grunt and squeal the chants we give them, whether they be truth or lies.

We Jews have put issue upon issue to the American people. Then we promote both sides of the issue as confusion reigns. With their eyes fixed on the issues, they fail to see whois behind every scene. We toy with the American public as a cat toys with a mouse.

Radio days: Larry King real name - Zeiger at the mike in 1972 for station WIOD in Miami. (TV Guide, June 3, 1995)

As a result of this incredible influence in the communications network, by the 1960's close to 100% of the education and information reaching I he American people was coming to them ONLY from Jewish-controlled sources; and so most citizens react as Jewish mental conditioning processes have taught them to react, regardless of truth and reason. When Rosenthal was asked about the Christian voice, he laughed mockingly and said with assurance: "We Have Castrated Society through Tear and Intimidation. There is no such thing as the 'silent majority' for we control their cry and hue. The only thing that exists is an UNTHINKING majority and unthinking they will remain as long as their escape from our rigorous service is the opiate of our entertainment industry.

By controlling industry, we have become the task-masters and the people the slaves. When the pressure of daily toil builds to an explosive degree, we have provided the safety valve of momentary pleasure. The television and movie industries furnish the necessary distraction.

These programs are carefully DESIGNED to appeal to the sensuous emotions, NEVER TO THE LOGICAL THINKING MIND. Because of this, the people are programmed to respond according to our dictates, not according to reason.. .Being so nurtured, the populace has become docile and easily ruled. Their thoughts are not involved with the concerns of the future and their posterity, but only with the present toil and the next meal."

The Talmud

Today, the common perception of the Jew - as given through their controlled media - is a picture of a non-aggressive, religious and kind-hearted individual. However, the truth of the matter shows a very different picture. While they saturate the nations with the propaganda that they desire to return to Palestine to fulfill God's Word, the fact of the matter is, these Khazar-Ashkenaz-Edomites do not follow the laws of God at all, but adhere to their 'Babylonian Talmud'. The Jew, Herman Wouk, explains:

"The Talmud—is to this day the circulating heart's blood of the Jewish religion. Whatever laws, customs, ceremonies we observe—we follow The Talmud. It is our common law[82] and the 'Universal Jewish Encyclopaedia' (Vol. 8, p. 474) confirms the point:

"The Jewish religion as it is today traces its descent, without a break, through all the centuries, from the Pharisees. The Talmud is the largest and most important single member of literature... and the study of it is essential for any real understanding of Pharisaism. "

In the section SCHABBATH (116a), the Talmud leaves no question on their thought concerning the books of the New Testament:

"Toseph: The books of the heretics /Christians/ are not to be saved from the flames-- Rabbi Jose however says: 'On festival days the divine names should be torn out of the books of the Christians (New Testament) and hidden away; what remains must be given to the flames. ' But Rabbi Tarphon says:

‘—if those books should ever fall into my hands I would burn them together with the divine names contained therein.'

Very few Christians actually know the writings within this Babylonian Talmud, but if they did they would most definitely ensure that their children not read it because of the absolute filth of its content.

While Christians are taught that the Jew "simply does not yet recognize Christ as the Saviour", their true feelings toward him are well described by the Jewish author and playwright, Ben Hecht, whom the 'Universal—

The crucifixion of Jesus Christ. According to Hecht, it was "one of the finest things ever done by the mob."

Jewish Encyclopaedia described as a man who displayed "profound humanity and universal sympathies". Hecht stated[82a]:-

"One of the finest things ever done by the mob was the crucifixion of Christ. Intellectually it was a splendid gesture. But trust the mob to bungle—if I'd have had charge of executing Christ, I'd have handled it differently. You see what / would have done was had him shipped to Rome and fed to the lions. They could never have made a saviour out of mince meat[83]."

The crucifixion of Jesus Christ. According to Hecht, it was "one of the finest things ever done by the mob."

This same book - which some Christian ministers have called "the holy book of the Jews"- actually proclaims Christ to be the son of a Roman soldier called Pandera, and an "executed blasphemer". 'The Jewish Encyclopedia, under the heading of 'Jesus of Nazareth' states the following regarding references to Christ in the Talmud:

—It is certain, in any case, that the rabbinical sources also regard Jesus as 'the son of Pandera'—although it is noteworthy that he is called also 'Ben Stada' —(Shad. 104b; Sanh. 67a) [Schabbath, Sanhedrin- Talmud, —All the 'Toledot' editions—. declared him to be a bastard."

Equally as enlightening was the speech by Rabbi Reichhorn, delivered in Prague in 1869 over the tomb of the Grand Rabbi Simeon-ben-Ihud. Reichorn had a somewhat different understanding of "ecumenical brotherhood" than that which most church-going folks have been taught:

"Every hundred years, we, the sages of Israel, have been accustomed to meet in Sanhedrin in order to examine our progress toward the domination of the world which Jehovah has promised us, and our conquests over the enemy of Christianity.

For centuries we have been despised and persecuted, but we have fought bravely to prepare the way for victory. Now we are approaching our aim.

We already dominate the economic life of the damned Christians; our influence is just as great in politics and in moral fields. At the wished-for hour, fixed in advance, we shall let loose the Revolution, which by ruining all classes of Christians will definitely enslave Christendom to us. Thus will be accomplished the promise of God made to his people[84]."

These anti-Christ's have never been bashful about telling the whole world how they have penetrated the Church for the purpose of destroying it. Rabbi Lewis Browne, in 'The Story of the Jews', stated this example:

"It is more than only a thorn. Since the synagogue was represented in all Christian lands, it had the effect everywhere like a network of small swords, which injured the self-satisfaction of the Church. This explains the fact that the Church allowed the Jews no pause to rest. It was her most dangerous foe, since everywhere it wandered, it promoted heresies[85]."

At different times in history some of these people found it "necessary" to outwardly profess another religion -such as Christianity- generally adopted by themselves or their ancestors under compulsion. The Marrams of Spain are an example. While Christians may rejoice at the "conversion" of such a Jew to the faith. Dr. Freedman warned the Christian world:

"For each 'ounce' of so-called good you accomplish by conversion of so-called 'Jews' to the Christian faith at the same time you do a 'ton' of harm in another direction by diluting the devotion of countless Christians from their faith. In addition, it is a well-known fact that many counterfeit recent conversions reveal that conversions have often proven to be but 'infiltrations' by latent traitors with treasonable intentions[86]."

The "Judeo-Christian" Ethic

Once they had gained control, they began to saturate the church system with damnable doctrines and "Jewish fables" as the Scripture says (Titus 1:14). One of the greatest of these heresies brought the "Judeo-Christian" concept before the world. Nations professing Christianity were no longer simply Christian, now they became "Judeo-Christian", a term unheard of as recently as 75 years ago. However, even their own rabbis like Moshe Maggal states the vast difference between the two religions:

"—You will notice the great difference between the Jewish and Christian religions. But these are not all. We consider the two religions so different that one excludes the other— We emphasized that there is no such thing as a Judeo-Christian religion—there is not any similarity between the two concepts[87]."

Another, Rabbi Ben Zion Bokser, writes of the fallacy of the concept:

"This is not an uncommon impression and one finds it sometimes among Jews as well as Christians - that Judaism is the religion of the Hebrew Bible. It is, of course, a fallacious impression.. .Judaism is not the religion of the Bible[88]."

Nevertheless most Christian ministers today teach that Christianity sprang from Judaism and therefore the term "Judeo-Christianity" simply represents that fact. Nothing could be farther from the truth. Harmsworth's 'History of The World' sheds some light on the true origin of "Judaism".

"Judaism was not evolved in Judah; it was in Babylon that Judaism first became that which it was and still is."

In other words, Judaism - rather than being the religion of ancient Israel - is the religion of Israel's pagan enemy, Babylon!

The Ashkenaz Jew, Jack Bernstein, wrote that the Judeo-Christian ethic we hear so much about in America is:

"a big joke - the result of an intense Zionist propaganda campaign."and Rabbi Howard Singer agreed, calling it a "public relations triumph": "I think it's high time somebody broke down and admitted that the phrase 'Judeo-Christian tradition ' is one of the most successful public- relations triumphs of the century."

Nevertheless, church after church has fallen into the trap of this conspiracy, for these Khazars had learned early that almost every issue in life which is spoken of "on the street" is first passed on to the people "through the pulpit". In his interview with Walter White, Harold Rosenthal exposed his thoughts on their infiltration in the religious field:

"Religion too, must be taught, and through this necessity we have laboured. With our control of the textbook industry and the news media, we have been able to hold ourselves up as the authorities on religion. Many of Our Rabbis /Even/ Now Hold Professorships in Supposed Christian Theological Seminaries. We have infected your churches completely [and] it is a reality that we have complete control of organized Christianity...

...Through religion we have gained complete control over society, government and economics. No law is ever passed except its merits have previously been taught from the pulpits. An example of this is 'race equality', which leads to integration and ultimately to mongrelisation.

The gullible clergy in one breath instruct their parishioners that we are a special, chosen people while in another breath proclaim that all races are the same. Their inconsistency is never discovered. So we Jews enjoy a special place in society, their believing the lie that we are 'the chosen people', and they, Gentiles. It is for this reason that we authored the equality hoax, thereby reducing all to a lower level."

After stating that religion was only "another channel through which they direct their propaganda", Rosenthal continued to scorn the "stupidity" of the Christian ministers:

"—These religious puppets' stupidity is only exceeded by their cowardice, for they are easily ruled. These pulpit parrots extol our goodness for loaning them the money to build their temples, never realizing that their own holy book condemns all usury. They are eager to pay our exorbitant interest rates and have led society into our control through the same practice. We are amazed by the Christians' stupidity in receiving our teachings and propagating them as their own. Judaism is not only the teaching of the synagogue, but also the doctrine of every Christian Church in America."

The British General, Cornwallis, actually foresaw this treason, and following his surrender to George Washington and his troops at Yorktown he informed him of the deception to come:—

"A holy war will now begin on America, and when it is ended, America will be supposedly the citadel of freedom, but her millions will unknowingly be loyal subjects to the Crown. Your churches will be used to teach the Jews' religion and in less than two hundred years the whole nation will be working for divine World Government."

"The Judaization of Christianity"

The program of Judaizing society was aptly and accurately described by one of their own Rabbis, Martin Siegel when he disclosed:

"I am devoting my lecture in this seminar to a discussion of the possibility that we are now entering a Jewish century, a time when the spirit of the community...will emerge through the forces of anti-nationalism to provide us with a new kind of society. I call this process the Judaization of Christianity because Christianity will be the vehicle through which this society becomes Jewish[89]."

Rosenthal openly bragged that the Jewish propaganda machine had been so successful in the Church that Christians will even turn against members of their family to protect the Jew:

"Through our propaganda the Church has become our most avid supporter. These deluded children of the Church defend us to the point of destroying their own culture. This truth is evident even to the dullard when one views history and sees that all wars have been white fighting white in order that we may maintain our control. We controlled England during the Revolutionary War, the North during the Civil War, and England and America during World War 1 and II.

Through our influence of religion we were able to involve the ignorant white Christians in war against themselves which always impoverished both sides while we reaped a financial and political harvest. Anytime truth comes forth which exposes us, we simply rally our forces - the ignorant Christians. They attack the crusaders even if they are members of their own families."

Today, there are more churches in this nation than at any other time in its history; and although the Christian Evangelicals represent a somewhat powerful force in Congress, their major effort is not in the removal of homosexuals and lesbians from public office and the return of Christian principles to the American scene. They work mainly toward aid to the Khazar nation in the land of Israel.

An editorial from the October 9, 1995 issue of the Spotlight explained their effort bluntly, but truly. Under the title 'Useful Idiots', it stated:

"During the 1917 Bolshevik Revolution in Russia, Nikolai Lenin used the special term 'useful idiots' to describe the wealthy aristocrats, academics and other supporters. Why? Because they were the first people the Communists rounded up; these no-longer useful, well-intentioned and sincere fools. They were then shot".

Today in the United States there is a new class of useful idiots. These are the well-intentioned, sincere, naive fools labouring on behalf of the Israeli lobby and, yes, the Mossad. They are known as the Christian Coalition (CC). Absurd? Unfortunately not. Pat Robertson, the founder and chairman of the CC, and Ralph Reed, its baby-faced executive director, are on record as wanting to do everything they can to ADVANCE the Mossad/ADL agenda. They're already distancing themselves from those in the religious right who refer to the United States as a 'Christian nation', and Robertson has been systematically repudiating portions of his 1991 bestseller 'The New World Order', which (quite accurately) depicted 'European bankers' as the cause of much of the cultural and economic misery inflicted on patriotic, productive American populists.

Reed has as his stated goal the inclusion and active participation, of non-Christians in his CC. The CC is blatantly pro-Zionist, despite the fact that its 1.8 million active Christian members have nothing to gain (and much to lose) by signing on to the goals of the Israeli lobby.

CC founder

In 1990, Pat Buchanan referred to the U.S. Congress as 'Israeli-occupied territory'. And he was correct. In 1995, the CC also qualifies as such, thanks to the dedicated Christians who are unwittingly being . used -duped actually- by the very forces they seek to conquer[90]." Although the actions of these "Jews" are directly opposed to God.

Almighty's Word, many, if not most Christians have been allured into a strange sense of loyalty to their cause. Because of his dealings and experiences over the years, Henry Ford was one individual in particular who was very aware of the fact that these Ashkenaz Jews had infiltrated into the religious arena, and that they had begun to control the heart of the church system. Only six years after he made - what some people called "astounding and prejudiced" remarks one of their own people, author Marcus Eli Ravage, confirmed Ford's findings almost word for word when he stated the following in 1928:—

"You make much noise and fury about the undue Jewish influence in your theatres and movie palaces. Very good; granted your complaint is well-founded. But what is that compared to the staggering influence in your Churches, your schools, your laws and your governments, and the very thoughts you think every day[91]?"

-One thing is certain: Their propaganda program has definitely been very effective, for most of the Christian world seem absolutely oblivious to the fact that Christianity has enemies. Steven Spielberg. Among his many productions, "Schindler 's List" cried loudest appealing for sympathy for the Khazar nation.

Steven Spielberg. Among his many productions, "Schindler 's List" cried loudest appealing for sympathy for the Khazar nation.

Benjamin Freedman stated that it appears pastors are the most likely group to succumb to this deception:

"The history of the world for the past several centuries and current events at home and abroad, confirm the existence of a conspiracy to destroy Christian civilization.

The world-wide plot of these diabolical conspirators has been implemented while most Christians have been asleep. The Christian clergy seem to be more ignorant and indifferent to this plot than other Christians. They seem to bury their heads in the sands of indifference and ignorance like the legendary ostrich—How stupid can the Christian clergy get[92]?"

It is most certainly true that God's true people are "destroyed for lack of knowledge" (Hosea 4:6), for too few of us know that we really do have an enemy. Bernard Lazare gave us some insight as to the Jews' thought about Christ and Christianity when he wrote:

"They are the enemies of God and Jesus Christ; they call the apostles apostates; they scoff at the Bible of the Septuagint; in their daily prayers they curse the Saviour under the name of the Nazarene; they build new synagogues as if to insult the Christian religion; they Judaize the believers— In brief—they seem to aim at nothing but the Christians' ruin and the annihilation of the religion of Christ[93]."

Because of the Khazar influence in the Christian pulpit, we have been taught that the Bible was not written to us, but rather to, and for the "Jews". Alfred Lilienthal, however, in his book, 'What Price Israel?' brings some clarity to the issue when he speaks of the Hebrew ancestry of the Caucasian, Anglo-Saxon:

"Here 's a paradox, a paradox, a most ingenious paradox: it is an anthropological fact that many Christians may have much more Hebrew- Israelite blood in their veins than most of their Jewish neighbours[94]."

"The fear of the Jews" is however, still with us today; so much so in fact that Lilienthal said that his greatest accomplishment was in getting: "...some Christians to have the guts to speak up on this issue".

What a paradox it is when we consider how modern churches all praise the Jew and put him in a special place of importance; yet when one speaks the truth and shows who God's Israel people truly are, he is labelled a "racist", and told how "all are equal in God's eyes"! Such an issue is understandably confusing and has done much to turn an individual from seeking after truth. Benjamin Freedman spoke the truth when he said:

"The confusion—is unwarranted and unjustified. It need not exist. It would not exist if the Christian clergy did not aid and abet the deception responsible for it. (They) may be shocked to learn that they have been aiding and abetting the dedicated enemies of the Christian faith. Many of the clergy are actually their allies but may not know it."

There are, I am sure, numerous sincere pastors in the nation who have been misled into thinking the message they proclaim about the Jew to be the "gospel". Nevertheless, such a message does in fact attempt to destroy the core of the Christian truth, and transforms God's true people into benefactors of the Khazar program to annihilate Christian civilization.

Today, the next great push in their social program is the relentless drive to make Americans aware of the "horrific evils" of the gun in our society, and of the 'clear and present danger' of what they call the 'white separatist movement'. As a result of their control of the communications network in the nation, these same manipulators of public opinion have succeeded to influence the majority of church-going Americans to "be aware of those who speak against the Jew" and to shun them as "bigots", "haters of God's people", and "anti-Semites". And sadly, most Christians succumb to their propaganda and live their lives in accordance with the controllers of our society.

For centuries now, God's most bitter and sworn enemy —those "who call themselves Jews, and are not" have set themselves up as the "Chosen People" and have manipulated the true Israel people into helping and supporting their own worst enemies. But God declares that we need to be aware of this evil:-

— “shouldest thou help the ungodly ? and love them that hate the Lord? therefore is there wrath upon thee from before the Lord." (2nd Chron. 19:2)

Evangelist Ted Weiland sums up the issue extremely well, stating how many of these conspirators:-

“—assimilate themselves into Christian, conservative, political and educational groups and neutralize them by pretending to be sheep. Little by little they remove or weaken the effectiveness of the church or group by suggesting and initiating programs which remove the foundations of Christianity.”

By appealing to 'reason' and 'logic', they promote the doctrine that...it is unchristian to be anti-Zionist; that our foremost duty while here on Earth is to love the Jew, and, if we do not, God will severely punish us; that it is not 'politically correct' to be against homosexuals; and that movies need to reflect 'realism', whereby they bring their degenerate and perverted ideas into every home in Christian Israel.

Tragically, the sheep are so blind that the wolves can admit openly their plans and designs to destroy Christianity, and yet the 'sheeple' continue to refuse to believe that the wolf is in the sheep pen[95]."

The following statement was made by Gus Hall, the top Jew Communist in the U.S. and President of the American Communist Party. It should give us some understanding as to their feelings for the Christian world:-

"I dream of the hour when the last Congressman is strangled to death with the guts of the last preacher - and since the Christians seem to love to sing about blood, why not give them a little of it? Slit the throats of their children and drag them over the mourner's bench and the pulpit and allow them to drown in their own blood; then see whether they enjoy singing these hymns."

CHAPTER 11 THE "BALAAM PROGRAM"

—there is a physical difference between the black and white races which will ever forbid the two races living together on terms of social and political equality" Abraham Lincoln, October 13, 1858.

IT IS MOST CLEARLY WRITTEN IN GOD'S WORD that His people Israel are to be the leading nations in the world; a "company of nations" who would be blessed "above all other people on the face of the earth".

Along with the marvellous and wonderful promises of blessing though, there was also a condition - as long as Israel obeyed God, we would enjoy those blessings; if however, we disregarded God's laws, statutes, commandments and judgements, then we would actually bring upon ourselves a curse. Moses was told to put it very plainly before them:-

I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live..."
(Deut. 30:19)

As descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, His people were to be a separate people unto God. The Scripture shows clearly that Abraham, as an example, forbade his servant to seek a bride for Isaac from among any except HIS OWN KINDRED (Genesis 24). She was to be a Hebrew, of Abraham's own people, for Abraham was a Hebrew (Gen. 14:13). This direction would also be given continually through the years to Abraham's descendants, because they were to remain a separate and holy people unto God.

This was one of the statutes given to the Israelites - that they would not mix themselves with the other nations around them. Of course the enemies of God's people also knew this. Some years after this instruction was given to these children of Israel a false prophet named Balaam was hired by Balak, King of Moab, to curse them. (See Numbers chapters 22-25, also the Book of Jasher). Balaam discovered that he had no power to do this, but realized that if Israel were to disobey the laws given them by GOD ALMIGHTY, then they could in fact bring a cursing upon themselves.

Balaam's plan was to have a people brought into the camp of Israel (in this case, the Moabites), and to allow the Israelites to mix with them. They would in time intermarry and have children by these Moabites, and in doing so would be transgressing the command of the LORD, consequently bringing a curse upon the nation. Historical documents, archaeology, and Scripture itself shows us that this is exactly what happened (Num. 25:1).

—"and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab."

This Balaam program has also been put into action in many Anglo- Saxon countries today, especially in America, which as a result has often been referred to as "the melting pot". This plan has been implemented in direct opposition to God Almighty's design for His people.

Early America - A Nation of Israelites

It is easily seen that the early American settlers who travelled from Europe considered that this was to be a CAUCASIAN, ANGLO-SAXON country from its birth. Daniel Webster stated this clearly:

"Now, Gentlemen, / do not know what practical views or what practical results may take place from this great expansion of the power of the two branches of Old England. It is not for me to say. I can only see, that on this continent ALL IS TO BE ANGLO-AMERICAN from Plymouth Rock to the Pacific Seas, from the North Pole to California[96]."

Neither is there any doubting the fact that America was founded upon Christian principles, and ONLY Christian principles; that the nation was set up from the beginning to be a Christian nation, obeying God's laws and set apart to be a Christian witness to the great glory of God. James Madison put it very simply:

"We have staked the whole future of American civilization upon the capacity of each and all of us, to govern ourselves according to the ten commandments of God[97]."

God Almighty was to be the supreme power, even as the Pledge of Allegiance cries aloud: "one nation, under God!"

If one reads the Constitution of the United States with understanding, it is clear that it does NOT extend the freedom of religion to any religion but Christianity. It offers freedom and protection solely to true denominations of Christianity in the worship of Jesus Christ.

Ted Weiland, in his excellent book, 'God's Covenant People', writes of the predominantly protestant majority in earlier years:

"In 1776 there were approximately 13 million people in America: one percent was represented by 20,000 Catholics, 3,000 Jews, a few Deists; the remaining ninety-nine percent were Protestant![98]"

The Founding Fathers

The Christians among the early leaders of this country knew these principles of God very well and recognized the problems associated with Negro slavery. Jefferson, Franklin, Patrick Henry and others who founded our nation had felt and expressed a simple racial conservatism: that there are significant differences between the races, and that whites have legitimate concerns and are entitled to look to their interests as a people. It was their intention that the United States of America be stocked with immigrants from Christian Western Europe.

Evidence of this can be seen in the original law to regulate immigration, enacted in the "Act to Establish a Uniform Rule of Naturalization" on March 26, 1790. This law was introduced only three years after the ratification of the Constitution, and provided ONLY for the absorption of:-

Any alien, being a free WHITE person, who shall have resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the United States for the term of two years.'

On January 28, 1795, a revision of that original law required five years residence in the United States, and also insisted that the prospective citizen renounce allegiance to all other powers at least three years before presenting himself for citizenship. Anything like the dual citizenship with Israel that we have today would have been outlawed.

Contrary to what is taught through their controlled media and educational system, some of the most quoted men of history were not at all in favour of what is termed as "social equality".

Schweitzer's Years of Experience

The brilliant French anthropologist and philosopher, Albert Schweitzer is much quoted and praised for his life-long sacrifice to try and help the African people who have constantly suffered hardship on their continent. Highly praised as the ultimate humanitarian, this Nobel Peace-Prize winner concluded from his many years of service that nature has most definitely drawn, as Jefferson said, "real distinctions" between the two peoples. Schweitzer, who can in no manner be called "a racist", stated: "I have given my life to try to alleviate the sufferings of Africa. There is something that all white men that have lived there like I must learn and know: that these individuals are a sub-race. They have neither the intellectual, mental, or emotional abilities to equate or share equality with the white man in any of the functions of our civilization.

I have given my life to try and bring unto them the advantages which our civilization must offer, but I have become well aware that we must retain this status; [whites] the superior and they the inferior. For whenever a white man seeks to live among them as their equals, they will either destroy him or devour him. And they will destroy all of his work.

Let the white men from anywhere in the world, who would come to help Africa, remember that you must continually retain this status: you the master and they the inferior like children that you would help and teach. Never fraternize with them as equals[99]."

The Most Famous Mis-Quote of History

The June 1995 edition of The Barnes Review carried an enlightening article on Thomas Jefferson's sentiments concerning the races:

THOMAS JEFFERSON'S FAMED WASHINGTON, D.C. MEMORIAL FEATURES A QUOTE ABOUT EQUALITY THAT, APPARENTLY, IS DELIBERATELY INCOMPLETE.

Under its grand dome, one views an imposing statue of Thomas Jefferson. Chiseled in granite nearby are his words:-

"Nothing is more certainly written in the book of fate than that these people are to be made free..."

The lines are from Jefferson, all right, and they do refer to slaves. But this sentiment, from his biography (as published in 1904 by the Thomas Jefferson Memorial Society of Washington, D.C. As 'The Writings of Thomas Jefferson'), did not end there. He continued:

'—nor is it less certain that the two races, equally free, cannot live in the same government. Nature, habit, opinion have drawn indelible lines of distinction between them.'

Jefferson was quite frank about what he meant by: 'the real distinctions which nature has made.' Whites, he thought, are physically more beautiful, with their: 'fine mixtures of red and white, the expressions of every passion by greater or less suffusions of colour'. '

This he compared with:

'—that immovable veil of black which covers the emotions of the other race' He also found more attractive the white's: 'flowing hair, a more elegant symmetry of form ' as ratified by the blacks' own judgment in favour of the whites, declared by their preference for them.'

In words that can be seen only as highly subversive within today's hypocritical and overly sensitive society, he wrote:

'The circumstance of superior beauty is thought worthy of attention in the propagation of our horses, dogs, and other domestic animals; why not in that of man?—Comparing them by their faculties of memory, reason and imagination, it appears to me that in memory they are equal to the whites; in reason, much inferior... I advance it, therefore, as a suspicion only, that the blacks, whether originally a distinct race, or made distinct by time and circumstances, are inferior to the whites in the endowments of both body and mind...'

Jefferson, like Many of Tub Founding Fathers, Hoped to End Slavery and Remove Blacks to Colonies, Where, He Believed, They Could Be Happiest Determining Their Own Destiny.

"Real Distinctions"

In other writings, Jefferson enlarged upon his convictions. His 'Notes on Virginia' specified why he insisted that the slaves, once freed:

'should be colonized to such place as the circumstances of the time should render most proper. —Deep rooted prejudices entertained by the whites; ten thousand recollections, by the blacks, of the injuries they have sustained; new provocations; the real distinctions which nature has made; and many other circumstances, will divide us into parties, and produce convulsions, which will probably never end but in the extermination of the one or the other race.'

Freeing the slaves was definitely an important issue with him:-

'—It is still in our power to direct the process of emancipation and deportation, peaceably, and in such slow degree, as that the evil will wear off insensibly, and their place be, pari passu, filled up by free white labourers. If, on the contrary, it is left to force itself on(ward), human nature must shudder at the prospect held up.'

"We Have The Wolf By The Ears"

Jefferson's forebodings of racial conflict, which made him 'shudder at the prospect', seem not to have been allayed over time. In an April 22, 1820 letter to Maine Congressman John Holmes, Jefferson recalled how:

‘—This momentous question, like a fire-bell in the night, awakened and filled me with terror. / consider it at once as the knell of the Union. It is hushed, indeed, for the moment. But this is a reprieve only, not a final sentence—We have the wolf by the ears, and we can neither hold him nor safely let him go.'

—and in a December 26, 1820 letter to his friend, Albert Gallatin, Jefferson called for the freeing and immediate deportation of black slaves to foreign colonies with financial support from:-

Evidently the renowned French social critic and author Alexis de Tocqueville, too, heard Jefferson's fire-bell in the night. Like other Frenchmen, he had been powerfully impressed by the grisly murders of thousands of whites by the black masses of Haiti in the recent past. In his classic study of the American scene, 'Democracy in America', de Tocqueville observed of the racial situation:

‘Wherever the Negroes have been strongest, they have destroyed the whites: this has been the only balance that has ever taken place between the two races’.

Benjamin Franklin Was Virtually One with Jefferson in His Hope That America Would Emerge A Homogeneous Nation Composed Overwhelmingly of a Population That Reflected the Founding Stock.

Indeed, Franklin, in his 'Observations Concerning the Increase of Mankind' contained in 'The Franklin Papers', had written:-

"The number of purely white people in the world is proportionately very small' I could wish their number be increased. And while we are, as I may put it, scouring our planet-- why should we in sight of Superior Beings, darken its people? Why increase the Sons of Africa, by planting them in America, where we have so fair an opportunity, by excluding all blacks and tawneys, of increasing the lovely White And Red?"

But the machinery of public indoctrination would fall firmly into the hands of those who publicly opposed the beliefs of our Founding Fathers. Their zealous, sanctimonious venom would drench the land, turning it to pools of blood during the nation-wrecking conflagration of 1861-1865[99a]."

As a young nation, we tried to correct the slavery problem which had been forced upon the nation by the international money barons. The American Colonization Society, under the Presidency of James Monroe (1817-1825), developed a program to expatriate the Negro back to his native land. Many prominent Americans supported this organization and Congress itself funded the program with $100,000 (which was then a great deal of money). The country of Liberia in Africa was selected as the country of colonization. In spite of widespread support however, it was never really successful with only about 12,000 slaves being returned.

In the years ahead, the conspiracy would center around the abolitionist movement and worked within the universities, the political arena and the churches. The "liberal" press was also used of course, and rolled out a huge amount of propaganda. William Lloyd Garrison's paper The Liberator, and The North Star printed by Frederick Douglass in 1847 were used to sway the minds of Americans from expatriation to pluralisation.

Lincoln and His Repatriation Program

"I will say, then, that I am not, nor ever have been, in favour of bringing about in any way the social and political equality of the white and black races; that I am not, nor ever have been, in favour of making voters or jurors of Negroes; nor of qualifying them to hold office, nor to intermarry with white people; and I will say in addition to this that there is a physical difference between the black and white races which will ever forbid the two races living together on terms of social and political equality. And inasmuch as they cannot so live, while they do remain together, there must be the position of superior and inferior, and I, as much as any other man, am in favour of having the superior position assigned to the white race[100]."

In contrast to the established view given of Lincoln, his sentiments through the years continued with thoughts of separation, and moved him to examine Monroe's program of repatriation for the Negro to Liberia. While in the initial stages of implementing the program, on July 14, 1862 - almost four years after his debate with Douglas in Quincy - Lincoln spoke with a committee of coloured men at the White House and explained his motives on the issue:

"Why-should the people of your race be colonized, and where? Why should they leave this country? This is, perhaps, the first question

for proper consideration. You and we are different races. We have between us a broader difference than exists between almost any other two races.

Whether it is right or wrong I need not discuss, but this physical difference is a great disadvantage to us both, as I think your race suffer very greatly, many of them by living among us, while ours suffer from your presence. In a word we suffer on each side. If this be admitted, it affords a reason at least why we should be separated. It is better for both, therefore, to be separated[101]."

The concept that the solution to the problem was to expatriate the Negro back to Africa suddenly stopped at the time of Lincoln's assassination, and should throw open a whole myriad of questions concerning his death. The conspirators had won the battle. All that was needed now was to establish the necessary amendments to the Constitution to make it legal.

In this task, the 13th Amendment was proclaimed and made a law of the land on Dec. 18, 1865. This Amendment only ended slavery; it did not make the Negro a citizen. They didn't care at all for the plight of the Negro - they simply used him to change the concept of the immigration policies of the United States. The 14th Amendment was proposed in June, 1866, and even though it was not properly ratified, on July 28, 1868, it was proclaimed the new law of the land. These Amendments were the base for all of the "Civil Rights" legislation that has been enacted since.

The New Wave

The Christian people from the Celto-Saxon countries of Europe made their last great immigration into America in the years just before the Civil War. During the years between 1840-1860 almost 4,400,000 people crossed the seas from the Christian counties like The United Kingdom, Ireland, Germany, Holland, Sweden, Denmark, Norway and Iceland. However, after these two infamous Amendments to the Constitution, a profound change took place in the concepts of ethnicity within the nation. The pattern of immigration from the European and Asian Continents made a drastic change. Again, because of greed and in defiance of God's command, hordes of Chinese workers named "Coolies" were imported into the country to work on the railways being built by the railroad barons. After this, these people were dumped in San Francisco.

These Amendments also allowed the immigration of a huge mass of over 30 million people during the period between 1865-1915 - this time however the immigrants arrived mostly from the Eastern European countries and Russia. The Statue of Liberty was constructed during this period as was Ellis Island - built to receive the hordes from Russia and Asia.

It is indeed sad that, as Ted Weiland says - as more non-Caucasian immigrants are allowed to come into the country, the less Christian the nation becomes. Many years ago, God warned Israel that the strangers allowed to settle in the land:

".. shall be pricks in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell." (Numbers 33:55)

Again through Joshua, the LORD warned the nation which he had chosen to remain a separate and holy people under God as he admonished them:

"Take good heed therefore unto yourselves, that ye love the LORD your God, else if ye do in any wise go back, and cleave unto the remnant of these nations, even these that remain among you, and shall make marriages with them, and go in unto them, and they to you: Know for a certainty that the LORD your God will no more drive out any of these nations from before you; but they shall be snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you." (Joshua 23:11-13)

Although the black people are the primary participants being used in this ruthless plan to divide and conquer this once great and godly nation, all blame is not to be put on them; they are only one of several races that have -for the most part, unwillingly- fallen prey in this Balaam program. They were brought to America as merchandise for profit by the Jews of

The "Balaam Program" in Top Gear

Rhode Island and Charleston in the 1600's; used as an excuse in the days of Lincoln as the reason for the Civil War; and used time and again in greed for profit by the huge industrial concerns throughout this century.

"The Browning of America"

...black infusion into the sports world

...and Black infusion into the political arena: Martin Luther King Jr. Preaches "I have a dream". King was used to set the tone in the nation. Now, blacks have been placed in positions of authority in most major cities in the US.

The new immigration laws which had been enacted were deliberately employed in accordance with the conspirator's plan, and in 1912, one of the leading communists in England, Israel Cohen, revealed the purpose for "The Balaam Program" in his book, 'A Racial Program For The 20th Century'. Knowing that Communism is merely "a tool of the economic elite", we can understand what Cohen said more clearly:

"We must realise that our party's most powerful weapon is racial tension. By propounding into the consciousness of the dark races that for centuries they have been oppressed by the whites, we can mould them to the program of the Communist party".

In America we will aim for subtle victory. While inflaming the negro minority against the whites, we will endeavour to instil in the whites a guilt complex for their exploitation of the Negroes.

We will aid the Negroes to rise in prominence in every walk of life, in the professions and in the world of sports and entertainment. With this prestige, the negro will be able to intermarry with the whites and begin a process which will deliver America to our cause[102]."

The Guilt Trip

Many white people today of course have been taught to feel a sense of guilt for "their exploitation of the black race", but it is a fact that the vast majority have been absolutely and totally misled concerning this issue which continually confronts us in everyday life. Most of us would do well to search the older history books to discover who actually brought the slaves to America; to uncover the truth as to who controlled the slave trade and its export from not only Africa, but China, India, and other parts of the globe. It is a very eye-opening study and well worth the time invested. It will also help to bring to light part of the great conspiracy being enacted in these last days against the true nations of Israel.

Over a century ago, Jonah Strong expressed what was, to him, very evident:

"There can be no reasonable doubt that North America is to be the great home of the Anglo-Saxon, the principle seat of his power, the center of his life and influence[103]."

—-and in 1824, Daniel Webster stood before the House of Representatives and declared what was, at that time, obvious to the entire world:

"Human liberty may yet, perhaps, be obliged to repose its principal hopes on the intelligence and the vigour of the Saxon race"

Today, however, the individuals "behind the throne" in Washington D.C. have ensured that the present administration is composed mainly from

Edomite-Khazar Jews, and a host of non-Caucasian "Americans". Thus the nation will be transformed into a society completely removed from the intentions of those who founded this once godly nation upon the principles of Christianity. Two years before his election, the vision of William Clinton's "New Covenant" policy was given in the following statement from an article titled 'Beyond The Melting Pot' from Time Magazine, April 19, 1990

"In the 21st century - and that's not far off - racial and ethnic groups in the U.S. will outnumber whites for the first time.

The 'Browning of America' will alter everything in society, from politics and education, to industry, values and culture."

Today, the true nations of Israel have been inundated with a mass of non-Caucasian peoples from all over the world, and one can understand if the Anglo-Saxon feels like a stranger in his own land after travelling through the inner cities of many Israelite countries (most especially in the United States). Surely we can see that we need to consider our ways and plead with God to:

"Remember, O LORD, what is come upon us: consider, and behold our reproach. Our inheritance is turned to strangers..." (Lamentations, 5:1)

It is a fact that race-mixing leads to increased crime in a society. When he noted the obvious statistics Wimot Robertson concluded:

"It is worth repeating that every race and every society have their criminals. But multi-racial societies have more crime..."

The Fall of Civilizations

But there is an even greater danger, as Robert Allen explains in his well-researched book, Your Inheritance: The Best Kept Secret In The World: "Anyone who will do a simple study of history and civilization will find that the zenith of all Empires and Civilizations which have made a national impact on the history of the world. ..occurred at a time when the pure Israel (white) blood was in the majority and ascendancy [in those civilizations]; and one will likely discover that the turning point in the downfall of these great Empires was due to the mongrelisation of the pure blood."

Pointing to the current drive in America toward a multi-cultural society, Allen raises a point which too few of us seem to consider:

"In most any library or bookstore, one can find hundreds of volumes on Black, Jewish, Asian, Hispanic, Indian, and Oriental history and civilization, but one is hard-pressed to find any books on the white race... There are days, weeks, or whole months set aside nationally to celebrate Black, Asian, Hispanic, Oriental or Jewish history, culture, and pride... but none for the white race who founded this great country[104."

God Almighty, time and time again, told the children of Israel that if they were to mix with the other nations, the effects would be both direct and destructive. He clearly states the consequences of our disobedience to his laws and statutes:

—The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low. He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.

Moreover all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee' till thou be destroyed; because thou hearkenedst not unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee...

Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies which the LORD shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee." (Deut. 28:43-48)

The White "Minority"?

The Anglo-Saxon, Caucasian and kindred people of today are only BEGINNING to feel the consequences of "The Browning of America". In his book, 'The Dispossessed Majority', Wilmot Robertson explains the gradual shift of power away from the Celto-Saxon peoples:

"Even during the 1950's and 1960's, when the liberal-minority grip had tightened to a strangle-hold, the majority (Celto-Saxondom) still could not believe it had become a people of little account in its own country. Most majority members still had a home, a late-model car and a loaded deep-freeze. But they no longer had preachers or teachers to defend the majority cause, no literature, no theatre, no press, no television, no nationwide forum of expression.

As its ascendancy had gradually, almost imperceptibly, been blotted out, the Majority had been transformed into a swarm of middle-class drones, still permitted certain physical comforts but carefully isolated and quarantined from the seats of decision-making and opinion-moulding...

Equalitarianism, an infectious dogma of epidemic potential was getting out of hand. It was predictable that the ruling race, having been levelled to equality, would be further demoted to subject status. It was understandable that the subject races, having been raised to equality, might wish to climb higher, particularly after learned professors flattered their genes and whetted their ambitions with allusions to racial superiority."

As if in confirmation of the purpose for the institution of the "Balaam Program", Robertson later states this well-established truth:-

"History is insistent in pointing out that when the dominant population group goes, the country goes. As is daily becoming more apparent, the dying fall of the American Majority is the dying fall of America itself[105]."

God Almighty warned that unless we take heed to his statutes and laws, we can expect only judgement:

"And it shall come to pass, that as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it." (Deut. 28:63)

THE FINAL ASSAULT

"Tis true we are in great danger; the greater, therefore, should our courage be." Shakespeare

On July 4, 1776, there was signed in the city of Philadelphia one of America's most historic documents: the Declaration of Independence. It marked the birth of a nation which, under God, was destined for world leadership. The closing words of this document solemnly declare:

"With a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honour."

The fifty-six courageous men who signed that document understood that this was not just high-sounding rhetoric. They knew that if they succeeded, the best they could expect would be years of hardship in a struggling new nation. If they lost, they would face a hangman's noose as traitors.

It is important that we remember certain facts about the men who made this pledge: they were not poor men, or wild-eyed pirates. They were men of means, but they considered liberty much more important than the security they enjoyed; and they pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honour. They fulfilled their pledge. They paid the price. And freedom was won.

Yet freedom is never free; it is always purchased at great cost. Little did John Adams know how significant his words would be when, speaking to his wife, Abigail, on the passing of the Declaration of Independence, he said:-

"I am well aware of the toil, and blood, and treasure, that it will cost to maintain this declaration, and to support and defend these states; yet, through all the gloom / can see the rays of light and glory."

Of the fifty-six, few were long to survive, ^five were captured by the British and tortured before they died. Twelve had their homes from Rhode Island to Charleston, sacked, looted, occupied by the enemy, or burned. Two lost their sons in the army. One had two sons captured. Nine of the fifty-six died in the war, from its hardships or from its bullets.

When John Quincy Adams, the sixth President of the United States, reflected upon the cost to maintain the precious gift of freedom, he said:

"Posterity - you will never know how much it has cost my generation to preserve your freedom. I hope you will make good use of it."

Where would we be today if there had not been those who counted the cost of freedom and willingly paid for it? Where will we be tomorrow if men and women of integrity do not come forward today to stand for what is true and right?

THE CONSTITUTION - DESIGNED TO PERPETUATE A CHRISTIAN ORDER

It is a fact beyond dispute that the principles of God's word guided the decisions on which this nation built its foundation.

In the summer of 1787, representatives met in Philadelphia to write the Constitution of the United States. After they had struggled for several weeks and had made little or no progress, eighty-one-year-old Benjamin Franklin rose and addressed the troubled and disagreeing convention that was about to sojourn in confusion. He stated:

"In the beginning of the contest with Britain, when we were sensible of danger, we had daily prayers in this room for Divine protection. Our prayers, Sir, were heard and they were graciously answered. All of us who were engaged in the struggle must have observed frequent instances of a superintending Providence in our favour. Have we now forgotten this powerful Friend? Or do we imagine we no longer need his assistance"?

"I have lived, Sir, a long time, and the longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this truth: that God governs in the affairs of man. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without His notice, is it probable that an Empire can rise without His aid? We have been assured, Sir, in the Sacred Writings that except the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it. I firmly believe this... "

The New Nation: A Republic

After the admonishment from Franklin, the delegates finally settled to write a National Constitution. This established a republic based upon the absolute laws of the Bible, not a democracy based on the changing whims of people, where one half plus one can squash the rest, and where a fanatical majority can deprive the individual of his rights, his property, and his life. No, not for these men. They knew Plato's warning that unrestricted democracy - with its excesses, its levelling-down process, its inherent seeds of destruction - must result in dictatorship. The very essence of democracy rests in the absolute sovereignty of the majority. The founding fathers could never accept such tyranny, and so they created a Republic.

THERE ARE MANY EVIDENCES THAT OUR NATION WAS FOUNDED ON A COMMITMENT TO GOD AND THE PRINCIPLES OF HIS WORD

Throughout the history of the United States, the men who founded the nation gave eloquent testimony of our commitment to God and his principles. The very purpose of the Pilgrims in 1620 was to establish a government based on the Bible. The New England Charter, signed by—

“—To advance the enlargement of Christian religion, to the glory of God Almighty...”

In his inaugural address to Congress, the first president of the nation also stressed God's role in the birth of the Republic: "No people can be bound to acknowledge and adore the invisible hand which conducts the affairs of men more than the people of the United States. Every step by which they have advanced to the character of an independent nation seems to have been distinguished by some token of providential agency."

One of Washington's early official acts was the first Thanksgiving Proclamation, which reads:

"Whereas it is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey His will, and to be grateful for His benefits, we humbly implore His protection and favour."

This trust and dependence upon God is reflected in the patriotic hymns of the nation, one of which sites the incredible beauty of America - a beauty that all who have travelled across the continent surely recognize; for as Katherine Lee Bates stood atop Pike's Peak and scanned the sweep of the land, she wrote of the "purple mountains majesties", and the "amber waves of grain", and concluded that God had indeed shed His grace on this land - a vast unexplored wilderness that, in an astonishingly short period, grew into a great nation.

Even the concluding words of the National Anthem written by Francis Scott Key reflect our commitment to God and His Word:

"... Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just; And this be our motto:

'In God is our trust!'

And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave."

No, America did not just happen by chance, as is obvious to any person who truly understands the unfolding saga of events that shaped the nation WITH THIS PRINCIPLE CLEARLY ESTABLISHED THROUGHOUT OUR HISTORY, HOW THEN IS IT POSSIBLE FOR US TO ALLOW THIS REPUBLIC TO BE STRANGLERED BY

Though we live in a nation whose founders considered free speech and free exercise of religion so important that they deliberately sealed their protection in the First Amendment of the Constitution, it is a fact that outright persecution of Christian liberty is permeating our society in a determined, powerful effort to suppress these freedoms.

Today's generation is far removed from the liberties of a century ago. This theft has not "just happened". It has been deliberately conceived and executed and is often backed by the potency of legislative and judicial actions. These conspirators are fighting to remove all religious expression from public society. This planned assault on Christian values is plainly evident in the field of education.

Your Progenitors——The Apes—?

Some years ago in Louisiana many legislators believed that "academic freedom" would be "furthered" if students were given the scientific evidence to substantiate both evolution, and creation-science views. And so, the state legislator passed the 'Balanced Treatment Act', requiring public schools to give equal time to the teaching of both issues. Even this step to "further freedom" was not enough for them, for the Ashkenazi-controlled A.C.L.U. proceeded to sue the state, insisting that creation has "no scientific merit", and that to include it in school curriculums would be an "unconstitutional establishment of religion."

This of course reflects the continuing thrust of the program outlined by the Rothschilds and given to Karl Marx to detail in his 'COMMUNIST MANIFESTO'. Marx had written:

"We make wars against all prevailing ideas of religion, of the state, of country, of patriotism. The idea of God is the keynote of a perverted civilization. It must be destroyed[106].

According to Richard Wurmbrand, Lenin also proclaimed Atheism to be an integral part of Communism.

When our forefathers settled this country they created schools in order that their children might be taught to read the Word of God, for they understood clearly that the moral climate of its schools, colleges and universities would shape its future generations, and could ultimately decide the course of the nation.

In 18th century America, 'The New England Primer' and 'McGuffey's Eclectic Reader' were the backbone of grammar school education. Even in that day, the latter sold 120 million copies.

In 18th century America, 'The New England Primer' and 'McGuffey's Eclectic Reader' were the backbone of grammar school education. Even in that day, the latter sold 120 million copies.

The Christian orientation of both volumes was clear. 'McGuffey's Reader' stated clearly: "The ten commandments and the teachings of Jesus Christ are not only basic, but plenary. With such a strong Christian foundation, the conspirators knew that in order to control the nation, they had to wage war against its Christian base. Thus THE REMAKING OF THE EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM BECAME THE CORNER-STONE OF THEIR LONG-RANGE PLANS.

State Education, the Secular "Saviour"

For two hundred years after the pilgrims landed (1620), the education of our children was in the hands of the parents or the churches; but in the 19th century, education heralded a new "saviour" when state education came into existence. It was public education, paid for by tax dollars with compulsory laws requiring the education of the children by the state. Slowly the various private academies and Christian schools went almost out of existence as state education took over almost completely. As the conspirators gradually gained influence in the state-controlled schools, in the 20th century this education took an even more ominous turn with the introduction of "progressive education" which was then spread across the nation. The architect of that new movement was John Dewey at Columbia Teachers College, where thousands of teachers were trained.

The Khazar-"Jewish" influence in the remaking of the educational system becomes obvious by the fact that references to Christianity as the cornerstone of this country's foundation have been systematically and completely removed from American public education on the grounds that religion must not be "forced upon children".

They likened Christian schools to Amish schools, suggesting that it was going to take our children "back into the 18th century" to have them "riding in wagons with horses". That is the kind of picture they would like to present of what Christian education is: that this is something so extraordinarily "backward" and educationally so "deficient" that they are trying to pass all sorts of laws against it. Of course, the truth of the matter is that academically, Christian education is so far superior to the public school education that there is no comparison. The grade scores indicate this and they are fully aware of this fact.

Rewriting U.S. History

The influence and control which these conspirators exercised in the school system was however brought somewhat into focus in 1954, when a special Congressional Committee, upon investigating the interlocking web of tax-exempt foundations to see what impact their grants were having on the American psyche, stumbled onto the fact that some of these groups had embarked upon a gigantic project to rewrite American history, and to incorporate it into new school textbooks.

Norman Dodd, the Committee's Research Director, found in the archives of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, a number of documents which brought to light some of the incredible plans of those in control of such foundations. Dodd explained:

"The only way to maintain control of the population was to obtain control of education in the U. S. They realized this was a prodigious task, so they approached the Rockefeller Foundation with the suggestion that they go in tandem and that the portion of education which could be considered as domestically orientated' be taken over by the Rockefeller Foundation, and that portion which was orientated to 'international matters' be taken over by the Carnegie Endowment..."

The Rockefeller Foundation agreed to take on the domestic portion of the task. The purpose of their interest in history was of course, to rewrite it.

"—They decided that the success of this program lay in an alteration in the manner in which American history was to be presented. They then approached four of the then most prominent historians - such as Mary and Charles Beard - with the suggestion that they alter the manner in which they were accustomed to presenting the subject. They (were) turned down flat, so—they decided they (had) to build a coterie of historians of their own selection[107]."

William Still, in his 'New World Order: The Ancient Plan of Secret Societies', sheds much light on their project. Still explains how the Guggenheim Foundation agreed to award fellowships to historians recommended by the Carnegie Endowment; that gradually, through the 1920's they assembled a group of twenty young academics, and took them to London where they were briefed on what was expected of them when they became professors of American history. That twenty was the nucleus of what was eventually to become the American Historical Association[108].

In 1928, this American Historical Association was granted $400,000 by the Carnegie Endowment to write a seven-volume study on the direction the nation was to take. According to Dodd, the thrust of these books was That: "the future of this country belongs to collectivism and humanism."

Eventually this would produce an educational system where, instead of having God at the center, we would have man, and thus "humanism" gradually became the dominant ideology of the American public school system. Julian Huxley, one of this century's leading humanists and former first head of the United Nations Education Department (UNESCO) said:

"I use the word 'humanist' to mean someone who believes that man is just as much a natural phenomenon as an animal or plant: that his body, mind and soul were not supernaturally created but are products of evolution, and that he is not under the control or guidance of any supernatural being or beings, but has to rely on himself and his own powers."

These changes in the educational system were applied very gradually, so as not to alarm the general American populace, but they have been documented. It is most surely a fact that traditional Christian values have been eliminated from American textbooks. This was the conclusion of Professor Paul Vitz of New York University, who stated:

"Studies make it abundantly clear that public school textbooks commonly exclude the history, heritage, beliefs, and values of millions of Americans. Those who believe in the traditional family are not represented. Those who believe in free enterprise are not represented. Those whose politics are conservative are almost unrepresented. Above all, those who are committed to their religious tradition - at the very least as an important part of the historical record - are not represented[109]."

By studying the information he had gathered, Norman Dodd concluded from his research that the tax-exempt foundations - by virtue of the fact that they paid for these projects - lay at the heart of a group determined to destroy the very fibre of the United States.

Immigration - "The Wave of The Future"

The conspirator's manipulation of the school system in not only the United States, but throughout the true nations of Israel has been facilitated by their control of immigration policies. Compared to the once God-fearing Nordic peoples who founded this great nation, our land has been flooded with myriads of third-world peoples, and consequently our schools have become inundated with these masses.

These groups had enough power within the court system in the United States that on November 17, 1980, the Supreme Court struck down a Kentucky law that actually required the posting of the Ten Commandments in public school classrooms. The Court said that the Ten Commandments were:-

“plainly religious—and may induce children to read, meditate upon, perhaps to venerate and (even) to obey the commandments.”

As a direct result, the educational standards have suffered tremendously and books like ‘Why Johnny can't read' have become best-sellers. These evil manipulators of God's heritage knew only too well the consequences of their actions; and so with control of the text-book industry, little by little the nation's educators are being convinced to teach a system that grows increasingly closer to the agenda set forth by Weishaupt and Marx.

The changes in the system were deliberately boosted by state and federal court decisions in the later half of the twentieth century, and have proven very effective in helping them achieve their goal.

Today, the shape of American society is being altered by use of the same strategy, as the Supreme Court - influenced by the Supreme Court agents of these conspirators - is used time and time again to enforce their will upon the people. By removing one or two principles at a time, each succeeding generation wouldn't know the difference. Of course their control of the media also has enabled them to present the distorted picture of true Christians as "right-wing religious fanatics" who are seeking to "impose their morality upon society." Yet Judaism, all the while is imposing its own sense of perverted morality on the American public through the media, the schools, and the courts. At the heart of their thrust is a clear intent to keep Christian thinking out of the mainstream of the media and the nation's political life. The level of their success is reflected in the remarks of Dr. W. P. Shofstall, the state superintendent for public schools in Arizona in 1973, who said:

This does not mean that there are not still, many fine Christian people labouring diligently and indefatigably in the public school system, often placing their jobs on the line by trying to teach the things about moral standards and God, but these individuals are continually being harassed. One of the facts most often forgotten in this whole scenario is the simple truth that the right to exercise one's religion was once an assumed freedom in the public schools.

From the earliest days in America, the teaching of the children was from books such as 'McGuffey's Reader' and the Holy Bible, and it is even now said among our people that the best way to teach a child to read is to teach him to read the Bible. It is a gift of God.

As a result of today's public school agenda, their "adequate educational facilities for all" program has given us the best football and basketball teams in the world—but functional illiterates as graduates. "Johnny" sure can play football, but unfortunately—he still can't read.

Some 400 years ago, Martin Luther, the great Christian reformer, admonished our people with this warning:-

"I am much afraid that schools will prove to be great gates of hell unless they diligently labour in explaining the Holy Scriptures, engraving them in the hearts of youth. I advise no one to place his child where the Scriptures do not reign paramount. Every institution in which men are not increasingly occupied with the Word of God must become corrupt."

Today, because of their planning and manipulation, millions of children sit entombed in an educational system that, in most instances, omits any serious reference to God. These children need to hear the truth. "That our children might read the Word of God" said the pilgrims - and now the Word of God is banned in our public schools.

"The teachings of Jesus are not only basic, but plenary" - and now the teachings of Jesus are outlawed.

As God was taken out of our schools, we saw perversion, moral permissiveness, academic deterioration and the drug epidemic creep in. And so, instead of the Bible, we now have policemen in the halls of our schools; muggings, rape, robberies and even murders are commonplace.

Gone are the small and locally-operated schools that gave us some of the greatest men of science, engineering, invention and production in the world.

Gone are the secondary schools that demanded foreign languages, world renowned literature, and accurate history and civics. Make no mistake - there is a real, planned, conspiratorial program actively working in this land to destroy the very root and fibre of our society.

Something Is Terribly Wrong—

When one compares the United States of America to other nations in the world, it may seem as though America is still "the land of the free and the home of the brave". However, such a comparison can not only be deceptive, it can also be dangerous, for when one looks objectively at the America of the 1940's and compares it with the nation we see today, the contrast is staggering and rather frightening. Though the land now boasts more churches than ever before, the country is hailed as the most violent on earth. Surely, it must be obvious that something is terribly wrong--

Because "the wolf in the pen" has introduced a mass of confusing, unscriptural doctrine, many of our churches now lie in disarray; as a nation we appear to be more confused morally than at any time in our history.

The Family - the Cornerstone of American Society It is most certainly a fact that the strength of our families is vital to the strength of the nation; but in this day, we are seeing an all-out assault on the family. Although the attack is coming from many different directions, its branches all reach out from the same anti-Christian source. This attack is being executed against the family as the last bastion opposing the totalitarian state. Militant atheists and socialists have taken huge strides in imposing their view of life and man on almost every American institution.

Today's "Career Woman"

Many colleges and universities today follow the socialist program instituted by Marx and Engels and convey the notion that the role of wife and mother is passe, and to settle for such a role in life is to settle for second-class citizenship. This idea is reflected in the literature of the "women's liberation movement" which was introduced into American society to destroy the concept of the traditional family. Thousands of books in stores today across the nation convey the message that unless a woman can pursue a career while raising a family she should consider her life a failure. In Kate Millet's 'Sexual Politics', she writes that the idea of the family must be purged from society because it "oppresses" and

"enslaves women". These radical feminists who so vociferously back the "equal rights" movement want, first of all, to end the institution of marriage. Sheila Cronan speaks for many of them when she writes:

"Since marriage constitutes slavery for women, it is clear that the 'Women's Movement' must concentrate on attacking this institution. Freedom for women cannot be won without the abolition of marriage."

These same "feminists" as they call themselves - many of which are actually lesbians - want freedom from the burden of children. They insist that there can be no equality as long as the woman is a homemaker, and suggest that the children should be reared by another, namely the state. Lenon pursued this concept in Russia; So has Cuba, and Communist China. It is a Marxist philosophy.

Because of the incredible pressure on married couples -especially with young children - just to "make ends meet", the trend toward quick and easy divorce and the ever-increasing divorce rate subject more and more children to physically and emotionally-absent parents. This pressure has been deliberately manufactured.

Homosexuality in The Classroom

In conjunction with this attack, attempts are being made on all local and national levels to "normalize" and legalize homosexuality. Jean O'Leary wrote some years ago in a National Organization for Women publication that lesbianism should be taught in the nation's schools and that school counsellors should take courses "to teach a positive view of lesbianism".

The influence of those who desire to destroy the Christian fibre of this nation can be seen in the fact that this "counselling" has indeed been introduced into the school system and is contained in the Training Handbook for Educators', produced by the National Education Association (NEA), the nation's largest teacher's union. School teachers are being educated to bring homosexuals into the classroom to "enlighten students" that the lifestyles of these people are "normal", and "not an illness". Teachers are told in the NEA manual:

"Bring in openly lesbian/gay adults as resources in classes and assemblies--Change language that assumes that everyone is or should be heterosexual [normal] - use 'partner' rather than boyfriend, 'permanent relationship' rather than marriage."

The manual also directs teachers to:

"Identify gay/lesbian contributions throughout the curriculum - history, literature, art, science, religion, etc- [and] submit requests to improve library holdings (both fiction and non-fiction) related to sexual diversity."

Schools are directed to conduct:

"in-service 'sensitivity training' for all school personnel-- to provide this 'sensitivity training' for students... [and to] introduce gay/lesbian issues into all curriculum areas".

This 'training' is to be given from grade school through high school[111]. And so our children are being taught -or rather forced- to accept any family or group, regardless of customs and religion as part of the "brotherhood of man" concept.

This education has also been applauded from the pulpit, for "Judeo-Christianity" with its pluralism is now ordaining homosexuals and women as priests. Though many church ministers insist they do not "condone" homosexuality, the fact is, if it is not plainly pronounced as evil and ungodly, for what it is (as described in Romans 1:27 and Lev. 20:13) then they do indeed condone such action.

Sadly, today, there are very few Christian churches where the evils of our society and government are directly addressed; the greatest debates now going on in official church councils relate to the subject of premarital sex and extra-marital sexual relationships.

The Killing Fields

Under the pressure from these feminists calling for abortion on demand as a "legitimate right", the Supreme Court in its 1973 decision in Roe v Wade invalidated the laws of fifty states and legalized abortion. Under its "protection", this very day some 5,000 pre-born babies will legally be put to death. This tragic decision altered the moral core of American society, and as a result, more than 26 million unborn children have been aborted -15 times the total number of Americans killed in all its wars.

While abortion is widely heralded as a process which helps "to save the life of the mother", these are the facts: Abortions in the United States for rape, incest, to protect the life of the mother, or to void a defective foetus, comprise Less than 5% of All Abortions. Over one million babies each year are killed simply for the sake of convenience.

With approximately one and a half million "operations" executed each year, at an average cost of $450 each, abortion has become a multimillion dollar business. Babies bodies have been sold by the bag, are used for experimentation and even in the cosmetics industry. Congress has recently considered that the abortion of a third-trimester fetes should be a federal offense; there is "concern" that such abortions are performed leaving useable organs which can then be sold in a demanding market.

In a book entitled 'The Enforcement of Morals', Lord Devlin, the famous British jurist, wrote:—

"A sense of right and wrong is essential for the life of a community. Without it, society will destroy itself. History shows that the loosening of moral bonds is the first stage of disintegration."

AN ONSLAUGHT OF SEDUCTION HAS OVERWHELMED AMERICA: THE NATION IS INFECTED WITH THE FATAL DISEASE OF PORNOGRAPHY.

As a result of these new laws, we have reaped rampaging crimes, God-forsaken homes, atheistic schools, permissiveness, pornography, drugs, abortion, a sense of cynicism, and spiritual desolation absolutely unprecedented in our nation's history.

As Christians, we must explode the myth that whatever is legal is moral. What men make legal, is not necessarily moral. Such distortion of "rights" has also opened the doors to pornography, under the guise of a free press, and to the offence of the public at large each year, the industry that produces "adult" products of one kind or another chalks up at least $5 billion in profit. Pornography is one of the most unselective evil influences in our society. Gambling is restricted to adults.

Tobacco is not to be sold to anyone under 18. Alcohol is not to be sold to minors. But under the name of "freedom" even our young are confronted with pornographic magazines filling news-stands of drug stores, bus depots, restaurants and supermarkets. Every time our children walk past the average magazine rack, pornography stares out at them. Surely, no one is that deceived to think that Washington, Franklin, Adams and Jefferson made provision for this filth to be paraded before our children? Of course pornographic magazines are not confined only to America. Every month, Playboy magazine reaches 75 million men in 160 countries and territories throughout the world. The company's gross income now swallows close to half a billion dollars of American's income annually

The Destructive Effect On Culture

There is absolutely no doubt that pornography has an incredibly destructive effect upon society. Police vice squads report that 77% of the child molesters of boys and 87% of the child molesters of girls admitted trying out, or imitating, the sexual behaviour modelled by pornography. In a report on pornography to the U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee, a recent study by the Michigan State Police, using a computer to classify over 35,000 sex crimes in that state alone over a twenty-year period, found that 43% were pornography-related. In one group of rapists, 57% indicated they had tried out the sexual behaviour they had seen depicted in pornography; And a Boston group called the Boston Boise Committee has been trying to convince the public that there is nothing "inherently wrong with sex between men and boys", to lower the age of "consent", and to change the child molestation laws to reduce legal barriers against such relationships.

There is now, in this once-godly nation, one divorce for every two marriages, and one half of these divorces takes place because of adultery - often encouraged by pornography. The reality of these statistics brings to the fore this heart-wrenching fact: Over one million children every year are involved in divorce cases and 16 million children under the age of 18 now have one or both parents missing. We have definitely come a long way from the days of "Leave it to Beaver". These are real lives which are affected - many of which upon maturity will simply re-enact what they themselves have experienced as children.

There's Dirt On The Screen

This plague which has become engrained in our society is not limited by any means to the printed page alone. The movie industry's announcement several years ago that perversion and homosexuality would no longer be barred from the screen "provided the subjects were handled with delicacy and taste", cut a new depth of evil into the heart of our nation.

And now this influence has moved from the silver screen into our homes, where millions of women sit enthralled and mesmerized by the networks' "soap operas" - shows which bring the sad spectacle of adultery and pornography blatantly before us every day. This "entertainment" is aired at a time when even young children can watch. But many in our nation do not realise this fact: These "operas", as they are called, along with the myriad of talk shows now aired are the major channels through which the conspiracy today influences public opinion and shapes society.

They Call It "Realism", but the Fact Is, Today's Television Programming Is Massively Polluting the Minds of the Nation's Citizens. Is This Why They Call It "Programming"?

Double and triple X-rated movies are available through cable TV and video cassette and little by little are creeping into prime-time television. Children left unattended for a short time in many homes may be exposed to the rawest of pornography, just by pressing the wrong digits on the control. Even television commercials now parade pornography under the guise of "product sales".

"You don't have to read it— You can switch it off if you are offended"

These and other cliches have been used to justify a situation where the tastes of a small minority have progressively infused the whole culture. On the lie that no one's freedom is thereby impaired, violence and obscenity fill the media, despite the fact that THIS MATERIAL DOES NOT REFLECT THE CHOICE OF THE AVERAGE ADULT.

Television's Incredible Influence

The obtrusion of this technological marvel into the home has affected the family in ways we have not yet begun to fathom; One TV executive recently stated: "Television is the most influential tool EVER invented in the history of the world."

Advertisers know that when they air commercials promoting cars, foods, toothpaste, clothes and a constellation of other products by way of television they produce effective results. With TV pouring its images into homes at an average of 6 hours per day, is it surprising that these would make an impact upon people's thinking? We are only just beginning to experience the effects upon the first generation brought up completely on television. Today's generation is being nurtured upon the images projected from the screen, and the results are devastating.

With a multitude of explicit magazines, sensual movies and video tapes readily available, our nation is drowning in a sea of sensuality, and we are rotting from the inside. Of course not all shows on TV are bad, but an increasingly-growing proportion is saturated with anti-Christian values. The media has incredible influence in our society and cannot continue to spew forth filth, immorality, violence and illicit sex into our living rooms without disastrous consequences.

"We Shape Society" - Turner

Cable Television's Ted Turner - one of the most successful TV moguls ever - is well aware of the effectiveness of this tool. In an interview with a group of broadcasters, the outspoken Turner stated in no uncertain terms: "Your delegates to the United Nations are not as important as the people in this room (broadcasters). We are the ones that determine what the people's attitudes are. It's in our hands." /Atlanta, Ga. EP/

There is no doubt that the images projected from the screen affect the daily actions of millions of lives. As a result of this "programming", we are drowning our young people in violence, cynicism, and sadism. Someone has observed that the grandchildren of the little kids who used to weep because the little match girl froze to death, now feel cheated if she is not slugged, raped, and thrown into a furnace.

A California survey indicates that the more a student watches television, the worse he does in school. California Schools Superintendent Wilson Riles said that no matter how much homework the students did, how intelligent they were or how much money their parents made, the relationship between TV and test scores was practically identical.

The Associated Press, October, 1980

The New Meaning of Liberty

Under the very laws which were made to protect Christian civilization from manipulation by ungodly forces, the individuals who control these "social organizations" from behind the scenes (the vast majority of which are Khazar "Jews"), direct them to petition Congress and the Senate to ensure that their "rights" to "free speech" are upheld. They exert pressure through their lobbying groups so that they can make billions of dollars through their control of such industries as pornography.

But can we give any man the unlimited liberty to do as he pleases? Can a man rob whenever he sees fit, or kill at will? Of course not. Therefore even liberty itself is under law. The basic premise of American law calls for liberty of speech and freedom of press, subject to the necessary restrictions of law and order.

No law is neutral. Every law imposes some form of morality on society: Atheists want religious influence excluded from public life; abortionists impose their morality on the unborn; and homosexuals want their views flaunted in the public school classrooms. But because Christians believe in the freedoms that Americans have enjoyed for 200 years, they are considered the "lunatic fringe". Make no mistake about the intention of these conspirators: their purpose is to discredit the voice of the true Christian so that America will tolerate only one view. Columnist George Will put it so ably:

"And it is, by now, a scandal beyond irony that thanks to the energetic litigation of 'civil liberties' fanatics, pornographers enjoy expansive first amendment protection while first graders in a nativity play are said to violate first amendment values."

Upon comparing today's meaning of freedom with that of our forefathers, George Eaton, editor and publisher of The Patriot Report, recently stated:

"—But the patriots of 1776 had advantages that we do not have with our society today. Most people knew what was right, and understood the meaning of freedom. Today, freedom has a different meaning in our modern society. To many citizens, freedom means the right to be ungodly and corrupt—a license to do evil.

As our society becomes more corrupted from crime, disease and immorality, it becomes easy prey for totalitarian control—And who finances these humanistic anti-Christian dogmas ? None other than the wealthy elite, tax-free foundations, such as the Rockefeller Foundation[111a]."

Are We Still Free Today?

Why are we Christians so slow to learn that liberty and freedom are not free, but that we have to fight diligently to preserve these basic and fundamental God-given rights? How we, today, need to understand that these liberties are not 'privileges' given to us by the government, but rights, guaranteed to us by our Creator if we will just live by his laws.

Thomas Jefferson Once Declared:

"Can the liberties of a nation be secure, when we have removed the conviction that these liberties are the gift of God?"

We most surely have removed this conviction. In addition, the sad and shocking truth of the matter is this: not until all of the freedom in this "land of the free" is lost will many awake to the painful reality that America as we once knew it, is gone. Pastor Earl Jones put it well:

"—Not too many years ago, we were allowed to purchase a tract of land and to build a home as we gathered together the money and had the time. There was no requirement for a 'building permit' costing upwards of thousands of dollars. We didn't need a 'contractor's license'. We didn't need to have the plans approved by the local 'planning Commission'.

The government couldn't tear our home down either, just because they didn't like the looks of it.

We could also start a little business, either in production or service, depending upon our capabilities.

That little business could have been a one-man operation where our own children worked with the father learning the trade while helping to produce the product; or that business could have hired several, or many other men, as the business grew.

There were no restrictions, no workers' unemployment, no product liability insurance, no health insurance, no Occupation-Safety and Health-Administration (OSHA), no city occupation license, no state occupation license, no contractor's license, no state revenue department, or Internal Revenue Service.

No one worried about being sued. We just didn't sue each other because we tried to live and work in accordance with the precepts of the Christian Bible. Therefore, we didn't need product liability insurance for our product or homeowners insurance to protect us from every conceivable type of claim against us."

But today, we do not have liberty. Our Constitutional and God-ordained rights to freedom and liberty are in great danger - Our freedom to travel without checkpoints; our freedom from search without probable cause; our freedom to own and transport weapons; and even our freedom of assembly. Earl Jones explains it accurately when he states:

"We are fingerprinted, photographed and licensed. We must have licenses to to own an automobile, to drive on our streets, to get married, to open a business and even to build a house; and if you want to work, you must obtain another license a Social Security Card. Our children must be educated as the government declares; and we are not even allowed to determine how we will treat our own illnesses when we get sick[112]."

There are also bills currently pending in Congress to make it compulsory for every child born in this Republic to be given a number at birth. This number would be used to enable the government - in the words of one of their spokesmen - to "track" the individual "from the cradle to the grave". "From the Consent of the Governed..."

THE HISTORY OF LIBERTY IS A HISTORY OF LIMITATIONS OF GOVERNMENTAL POWER, NOT THE INCREASE OF IT. CONCENTRATION OF POWER IS WHAT ALWAYS PRECEDES THE DESTRUCTION OF HUMAN LIBERTIES.

The legitimate purpose of government since the founding of America has been to protect the lives, liberty, and property of its citizens. The Declaration of Independence states that governments derive "their just Powers from the Consent of the Governed", and that:

"whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it..."

The Government should never have the power to deprive individuals of rights that the Constitution stated were "endowed by their Creator". Not only that, but the framers of our Constitution also advocated that people govern themselves under God's laws. Few perhaps could have declared it better than James Madison:

"We have staked the whole future of American civilization, not upon the power of government, far from it. We have staked the future of all our political institutions upon the capacity of each and all of us to govern ourselves, to control ourselves, to sustain ourselves, according to the Ten Commandments of God. "

With godly rulers and righteous governors, America once legislated against things that were wrong. The Christian character of the nation was evident even to those who visited these shores. When Alex de Tocqueville, the noted French political philosopher of the nineteenth century visited America in her infancy to find the secret of her greatness, he travelled from town to town talking with people and asking questions. He examined our young national government, our schools and centres of business, but could not find in them the reason for our strength. Not until he visited the churches of America and witnessed the pulpits of this land "afire with righteousness" did he find the secret of our greatness. Upon his return to France, he summarized his findings and stated:

"America is great because America is good; and if America ever ceases to be good, America will cease to be great."

One century ago, even the Supreme Court of the land gave witness to the Christian nature of this Republic:

"Our laws and our institutions must necessarily be based upon and embody the teachings of The Redeemer of mankind. It is impossible that it should be otherwise; and in this sense and to this extent our civilization and our institutions are emphatically Christian—This is a religious people. This is historically true. From the discovery of this continent to the present hour, there is a single voice making this affirmation—we find everywhere a clear recognition of the same truth... These, and many other matters which might be noticed\ add a volume of unofficial declarations to the mass of organic utterances THAT THIS IS A CHRISTIAN NATION."

Supreme Court Decision, Church of the Holy Trinity V. United States, 1892

Today however, we have the agents of the conspirators walking the Halls of Congress, masquerading as "the servants of the people". We have become so far removed from the truth that in this day, when a Congressman stands and declares that this is to be a Christian nation, a national cry of "anti- Semitism" reverberates around the nation, yet the Ashkenazi "Jew" Senator, Howard Metzenbaum can openly declare that efforts be intensified so as: "—not to let the forces of evil take over to make this a Christian nation[113]."

It is this same Edomite who, along with Charles Schumer, is the driving force in their Congressional push to confiscate the weapons from the hands of the American citizen; but the American people refuse to be disarmed, in open defiance to Metzenbaum's efforts and others like him who have the Talmudic concept of government.

Disarming The Patriots

Our forefathers, not only here in the United States but in all the nations of the Christian West, knew this principle of God very well. They knew that to conquer a nation it must first be disarmed. The editor of a small newspaper in New Mexico recently wrote an interesting article titled 'Why Did Our Forefathers Fight?'. It describes accurately a situation which could definitely develop again in this nation:

"Many people have the impression that in 1775, our founding fathers suddenly decided that enough was enough and decided to fight. In fact, the debate began in earnest in 1765 when men like James Otis and Samuel Adams started opposing the actions of the British King. Long before the "shot heard around the world" was fired on the Lexington Green, men such as Benjamin Franklin and Thomas Jefferson had made their choice to fight for freedom. While every effort was made to reach a peaceful conclusion, the men of '75 had already decided when and why they would have to fight. Jefferson summed it up well in speaking to us about the 2nd Amendment:

'Men will not appreciate the 2nd Amendment until they have to fight for it.'

Our founding fathers created localized militias or even smaller groups of 'men who could shoot straight and duck'. The minutemen were not a centralized national militia. That title was descriptive of the fact that militia members could act 'in a minute' to repel an enemy. There was no formal organization, only a call to be prepared. Surprisingly, many groups were organized in churches, and pastors quietly told the men to arm themselves and learn to be 'skilled in war'. That's why many congregations were recorded to have marched off to war when the fighting began.

There were literally dozens of such militias and hundreds of smaller armed groups, all of which had different reasons for their founding but all had one similar ideal as a reference - the only sure defence for a people is that the people themselves should be armed. In 'Federalist No. 46' James Madison explains that the chief protection we have against tyranny is to be armed.

For the Minutemen, this was not a light matter. Many lost their fortunes and, worse, their lives in the bloody war. When the government moved to disarm the people, the only choices were to fight and hope to win or surrender and lose all. The Minutemen could not, with a clear conscience, throw away the freedoms won by their own forefathers.

The Continental Army evolved essentially out of a tossing together of small groups of militias. Here, colonial officers watch Baron von Steuben drilling soldiers. His rigorous training did much to turn Washington's unskilled force into an efficient army.

You must remember that the men who came to America were seeking freedom and knew that even before the 'Bill of Rights' was written, it existed as a powerful unwritten law. It is a testament to our forefathers that they understood their rights, as given by God, even without a written 'Bill of Rights', while we, with such a list of rights encoded in our law do not seem to clearly understand them!

While our forefathers worked feverishly to prevent any need for war, they quietly and deliberately armed themselves against that day.

As long as they retained their means of self-defence, they were not calling for war. The legal battle raged in the courts and parliament while protests and pamphlets were used to expose the enemy. When General Gage moved against one small group of citizens to take away their means of self-defence, the whole country sprang to life and within a week the British were facing a formidable array of militias and small bands of angry Americans.

It is no coincidence that in April of 1775 when General Gage's 'Redcoats' were marching to Lexington and Concord 'to seize all powder, shot, canon and muskets' held by the 'illegal' citizen's militias (the Minutemen), there was no turning back. Even before there was a lot of talk about independence, when the majority of Americans still held strong affections for the mother country, the revolution was underway.

For the first three years, with a few local successes, the hodgepodge patriots were hard-pressed just to survive. Bad odds were not a part of the calculations our forefathers made as many said along with Nathaniel Hale, who was murdered by the British:

I regret that I have only one life to give for my country and Patrick Henry who said:

‘As for me, give me liberty or give me death!’

I shudder to think that were they alive today they would accuse us of the basest form of cowardice and treason and demand we account for the freedom they won for us[114]."

Disarming America Today

And so today, we have come full circle; for this drive to disarm the citizens of this Republic is now moving into top gear from Capitol Hill. Aaron Zelman explained in 1990 why this process is so important:

"The most vocal of liberal Jewish anti-gunners do indeed understand why they want Americans disarmed, as it is a crucial step for total control of peoples' lives and destiny, which is the ultimate goal of the liberal political agenda[115]."

If there was ever any uncertainty as to their general plan and purpose for this Christian Republic, one of their chief "pushers" can surely dispel the Doubt:

"Our task of creating a socialist America can only succeed when those who will resist us have been totally disarmed."

Sarah Brady, chief advocate and mover of the 'Brady Bill' in a statement to Congress.

Yes, the final assault on the Christian heritage of western civilization has most definitely begun. In his brilliantly written book 'The Dispossessed Majority', Wilmot Robertson discusses the deprivation of the Caucasian Celto-Saxon majority and shows that this attack is being carried out not just in the United States, but in all Celto-Saxon countries. He writes:

"But everything hangs on the fate of the American majority. If its dispossession is not stopped and reversed, there will be no halt to the decline of the West. In fact, there will soon be no America[116]."

THE DESTRUCTION OF THIS REPUBLIC IS BY DESIGN, NOT BY ACCIDENT

When our forefathers came to this wilderness they suffered nearly overwhelming tribulations, but they prevailed by the grace of our Saviour God to form a Christian Republic. When they began to forge what would prove to be the greatest and most prosperous single nation in all history, they declared independence from an earthly power and thus made a forthright declaration of dependence upon Almighty God.

It was not lightly that they chose the inseparable words recorded in their declaration, for they knew the tremendous cost and sacrifice that would be paid to secure our freedom. In gratitude, they continually acknowledged that God had made and preserved our nation, and were confident that God was blessing their endeavours because they acknowledged Him and sought His aid in all their doings. They understood God's true judgement and mercy, clearly, and warned future generations that the day God was not earnestly revered in America, she would become a byword among nations. We would do well today to take heed to their urgent admonitions.

JACOB "THE BEGINNING" OF THE WORLD TO COME...

"Indeed, I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just, and that His justice cannot sleep forever." Thomas Jefferson.

WHEN HE ENQUIRED OF THE LORD CONCERNING THE END TIMES, Esdras (the Ezra of the Bible) asked:-

"What shall be the parting asunder of the times? or when shall be the end of the first, and the beginning of it that followeth?" (2nd Esdras 6,—in the Apocrypha)

The angel, answering him, said:-

"From Abraham unto Isaac, when Jacob and Esau were born of Him, Jacob 's hand held first the heel of Esau. FOR ESAU IS THE END OF THE WORLD, AND JACOB IS THE BEGINNING OF IT THAT FOLLOWETH."

Obadiah and other prophets speak of Esau's latter-day involvement with the true nations of Israel, and show clearly that Esau's descendants would have a very important role to play in these end times. Yet today, there is silence from the pulpits and nothing is mentioned in "religious" writings concerning the matter of who Esau's descendants are.

The issue is one of importance, as Dr. Oscar Levy explained:-

"Every writer who— is oppressed by the aspect of the present, and embarrassed by his anxiety for the future must try to elucidate the Jewish question and its bearing upon our Age. For the question of the Jews and their influence on the world past and presently cuts to the root of all things, and should be discussed by every honest thinker, however bristling with difficulties it is, however complex the subject as well as the individuals of this Race may be[117]."

As we see their influence increasing to the point where they now have tremendous power in our banking and political systems; in the news media; in our schools and Universities, and in many other areas over which God's true Israel people once had dominion, we can understand that the national prophecies which relate to Esau are nearing their fulfillment; even as it was shown to the prophet Daniel:—

"—and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished." (Dan. 12:7)

Their influence is of such depth and their propaganda so subversive that whenever the word ISRAEL is mentioned in the world today, the majority of Christians immediately think of the people who call themselves "Jews"; then, when the truth is spoken of the Anglo-Saxon, Celtic-Scandinavian-Germanic, and related peoples as Israel, most Church-going folks have a tendency to react with scorn and hostility. Yet as one examines the numerous prophecies given concerning the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, it becomes very clear who the true Israelites really are.

If folks would simply look at some of the most obvious facts: Which people have accepted Christ and his teachings around the world? Which people have founded their country's laws on the Laws of the Bible? Who has sent the Kingdom message around the world? Who takes care of the unfortunates in time of disaster, feeding the hungry, and setting the captives free? It is most certainly not International Jewry! It has been predominately the white people of the nations of Christendom - a clear sign of their Israel heritage.

But because of our disobedience to His laws, we have allowed "certain men" who have "crept in unawares" (Jude, v. 4) to corrupt the true gospel of Christ. With its corruption, and our losing our way from the Word, we have become easy victims of the enemy. As we lost the truth of the Bible about ourselves and our redeemer, Jesus Christ, we began the long journey downward, into our present predicament.

Israel: A Righteous Missionary People

Israel was to be a missionary people; a people which honored God's Word; a nation of Priests, and a "holy people" whose laws would be based on the Bible. Yet it has been those "who say they are Jews, and are not" who have been so instrumental and successful in getting prayer, Bible reading, and the Ten Commandments taken out of our schools and most public places, and who have subverted the other Godly, moral laws of our lands. Their true sentiments toward what they term "the Christian world", was well described by Dr. B. Messinsohn when he declared a few years prior to the unleashing of the second global conflict:

"I warn the world, that if it does not keep faith with us, there are sixteen million Jews who will be filled again with the hatred which has released so many great destructions against the Christian world[118]."

While the church today has been infiltrated and deeply saturated with the damnable doctrine that "a God of love would not bring destruction upon anyone", the scripture (if one truly believes God's Word) clearly shows that a devastating flood in the days of Noah really did happen; that in the years to come, Sodom and Gomorrah and several other cities in the plain would be literally destroyed; and that because of their disobedience to His laws, God's true people actually were taken captive as prisoners under various empires. God truly did bring judgement, and He will do so again.

The Destruction of Edom

It is of the utmost importance that we clearly understand this vital point: THE PROPHECIES FOR EDOM, ESAU, AND MT. SEIR ARE ENTIRELY DIFFERENT THAN THE PROPHECIES ABOUT ISRAEL. Instead of a glorious future as God's chosen, the descendants of Esau-Edom are slated for total destruction.

The Edomites were the first nation to attack God and His people, Israel.
The Scripture says:-

"...his latter end shall be that he perish for ever." (Num. 24:20)

The LORD told Isaiah:-

"—behold, it [his sword/ shall come down upon Idumea, and upon the people of my curse, to judgment. The sword of the LORD is filled with blood.. .for the LORD hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea.. for it is the day of the LORD 'S vengeance, and the year of recompences for the controversy of Zion." (Isaiah 34:5-8)

—and Jeremiah, also speaking of the latter end of Idumea (Edom) says that:

"Edom shall be a desolation" (Jer.49:7-22, Psalm 60:8 and Mai. 1:3)

He spoke also through Ezekiel and shows us He would execute terrible vengeance upon them by the hand of the true nations of Israel:

"I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel: and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger and.. .fury; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord GOD." (Ezek. 25:12-14)

—and Obadiah was given the vision concerning their destruction, stating that "the House of Joseph" (the people of America and England) will be the flame by which this destructive fire upon Edom begins:-

—For thy violence against thy brother Jacob shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off forever... And the house of Jacob shall be a fire y and the house of Joseph a flame, and the HOUSE OF ESAU for stubble—" (Obadiah 1:10,18)

The Final Harvest

In the book of Daniel we read of the final days of the present world system and (in chapter 7, verse 27) how that:—

"—the kingdom shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High..."

—and this brings hope to the oppressed; however, there is one final aspect in this whole affair which needs to be addressed, and it concerns our own individual lives...

It is an accurate fact that these descendants of Esau, in their quest to regain the blessing and birthright which their father sold to Jacob, have sought to bring chaos and destruction upon the lives of the true descendants of Jacob/Israel. However, we must understand this truth - Many of us have not been altogether unwilling participants in this ploy.

Some years ago. Pastor Emry of 'America's Promise Ministries' gave a sermon which demonstrates the point very well. Titled "God Sold Israel Into Captivity", the words are very appropriate for us today:-

"When Joshua went in to Canaan, his orders from God were to destroy, or drive all the Canaanites from the land. This they did not do, and because of their disobedience God told them in Judges 2:3, that these people would become 'thorns' in their side, and '—a snare unto you'. The descendants of these people are the ones who have taken us into captivity in this age. They are still 'thorns' in our side, and 'a snare' unto us.

Over and over again, from the day Israel came out of Egyptian captivity under the leadership of Moses, to the time of their Assyrian captivity, we see Israel, as she sinned and was punished by God, then repented and was saved.

In Judges 2:14, we see that as Israel forsook God, God 's anger was kindled against His people and He 'sold his Israel people into the hands of their enemies. ' SOLD - that's the word used in scripture.

Our Israel people have always been great complainers. When we get into trouble because of our disobedience - not because of the Zionist-controlled-government or the aliens in our midst (they are the EFFECT, not the CAUSE of Israel's problems) - we go whining to God, asking for deliverance!

Whenever our people came under alien control and were robbed and mistreated, they cried unto God. (See Judges 2:18). As you read the history of our Israel people, you will begin to realize that Israel will remain free and independent only as long as they obey God!

In Lev. 26:14-19, God makes a promise to Israel, that if they will NOT obey, certain things WILL happen to them, and we can be sure of this. Among other things, they would suffer disease, sorrow of heart, famine and military defeat.

It is difficult for most Christians to realize that God Almighty actually SOLD His people into captivity for their sins. We don't like to accept this, for it is a humiliating phrase, and is not in character with the 'God of love' preached in most of our churches. But this is what the Word of God says! We all know of instances where parents in financial straits, have put their children up for adoption because they can't adequately care for them.

We might even sympathize with them. But occasionally we hear of parents who SELL their children, and we consider these beneath contempt. Yet this is the phrase used in the Bible, by God Almighty, as He disciplines Israel (see Judges 2:14, 3:8, and Isa. 50:1).

Does this imply a wicked God? or does it mean a wicked people? Wicked children, so bad that their Father wants to get rid of them.

Recently there has been much talk of a 'National Day of Prayer' for the salvation of our people. I am not against this; we need to pray for salvation! But along with our prayers and preparations, for them to do any good, we must also HUMBLE OURSELVES, and REPENT, and TURN FROM OUR WICKED WAYS." (End of article)[119] Your Wonderful Heritage.

Many of us have lost our way in part because we are not aware of our own Christian heritage. Very few of our Caucasian people understand this tremendous heritage, though the founding fathers of America definitely knew about it. They realized they were God's people, brought into the wilderness according to His promise, for a special purpose. This is why they could write and sing a hymn such as:

"Ye chosen seed of Israel's race, Ye ransomed from the fall, Hail Him who saves you by His grace, And crown Him, Lord of all!"

They followed God's laws in setting up our government; and God blessed His Israel people gathered in America as no other people have ever been blessed. (See our new book, 'America: The New Frontier For Manasseh')

God Almighty has showered upon America 200 years of blessing. As she acknowledged and obeyed her Creator, God elevated the nation to a place of world leadership and has allowed her to enjoy unprecedented wealth, freedom and influence. With grateful and humble hearts, we once honoured the God who granted our blessings and freedoms, but in more recent years, we forgot to acknowledge "the Power that hath made us and preserved us a nation" and began to congratulate ourselves on our own achievements (as God's Word states in Deut. 6:10-12, and 8:17). Abraham Lincoln recognized this characteristic in our people and said:

"We have been the recipients of the choicest bounties of heaven. We have been preserved, these many years, in peace and prosperity. We have grown in numbers, wealth and power, as no other nation has ever grown. But we have forgotten God. We have forgotten the gracious hand which preserved us in peace, and multiplied and enriched and strengthened us; and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these blessings were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own[120]."

God's people must pray and fast. Destruction does not have to be our end, for he clearly promises through the prophet Jeremiah:

"At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it; If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them." (Jer. 18:7,8)

IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT CHRISTIANS
APPLY THE PRINCIPLES OF GOD'S WORD IN REFUTING THE FALSE CONCEPTS OF OUR DAY

The false doctrine about these Khazar Jews being "the chosen people of God" has kept millions from seeing the wonderful things God has done and is doing in the earth for His people. If our young people could see and hear the truth of Anglo-Saxon Israel in our churches, and see it in their history books, they would know that God exists and that He keeps His word and cares for them. They would read their Bibles with renewed interest and thrust, and instead of becoming the victims of anti-Christians and their vicious corruptions, they would receive Jesus Christ as their sovereign Lord and King and walk the road of life as God's Christian Israel. In the book of Proverbs (14:34), God declares that:

"Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people", —but we have allowed our values to become warped, and our knees to become weak through lack of prayer. We would do well to heed the admonition from Noah Webster:

"The moral precepts contained in the Scriptures ought to form the basis of all our civil constitutions and laws. All the miseries and evils which men suffer from vice, crime, ambition, injustice, oppression, slavery, and war, proceed from their despising or neglecting the precepts contained in the Bible."

The battle against Satan goes on every day, yet many Christians are so deeply dug in their foxholes, they do not even know a war is raging about them. If freedom is to be retained, and Christianity to survive, it will come about when God's true Israel people, the Anglo-Saxon and related people's of the world - Christendom, the true seed of Abraham - wake up to the truth of what is happening, stand for the truth of God's Holy Word, and contend for the faith and promises given to our fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

But we must pray fervently and humbly, and acknowledge the spiritual desolation of our people and land.

REPENTANCE, TO BE OF ANY AVAIL, MUST WORK A CHANGE OF HEART AND CONDUCT

It is vital therefore that we consider our ways, to acknowledge our sins, and to truly repent. Our only hope is to apply the simple, but effective principles of the Word of God:—

"If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." (11 Chron. 7:14)

In no wise can we expect God to bless our people if we continue on this ungodly path, even as Washington said:—

"We ought to be no less persuaded that the propitious smiles of heaven cannot be expected on a nation that disregards the eternal rules of order and right, which heaven itself has ordained."

The Bible repeatedly warns us that without true repentance, judgement is inevitable. As of this hour, we are truly racing toward that judgment. May God help us when it comes—

The Book That Will Help Awaken the True Nations of Israel!

ICELAND LIGHT TO THE NATIONS

Bursting with vital information and easy to read with over 100 photographs and illustrations, this enlightening publication presents powerful and compelling evidence showing the exciting history of the Tribe of Benjamin.

Iceland Light to the Nations shows the wonderful truth concerning the European, Anglo-Saxon, Nordic, Caucasian peoples - the true NA-TIONS of Israel in the earth today, and proves beyond doubt that God Almighty is true to His Word. It also reveals the incredible and literal meaning of "the Mark of the Beast" which will shortly be enforced upon us.

"This is an amazing project—I believe you have actually made an impression in this land of ours." Margret Eggerts-dottir, Editor and Publisher, 'The Hope'(Iceland)

"We have just completed a large mailing advertising your book—You did an excellent job." James Warner, Christian Defence League (Louisiana, U.S.A.)

"We are most impressed with your 'ICELAND' book. Please send us 24 copies." Michael Clark, Chairman and Director, Covenant Publishing Co. Ltd (London, England)

"This book is Fantastic! It belongs in the library of every truth-seeking Christian. Far from a boring history lesson...It is soul-stirring... MUST READING for every Christian Israelite who wants to go beyond a surface understanding of God Almighty's Divine calling and purpose." Dave Barley, Pastor, America's Promise Ministries (Idaho,U.S.A.)
