Calling The True Israel Peoples

Editorial

Dear Readers,

Proclamation By The Queen at Windsor 8th
June 2022
Fiat Currency to Disappear by January 2023? All Bank Accounts Emptied?

This currency bombshell has been kept very secret, which was stumbled upon in “Rumble” and posted in Tapnews wire blog, with further information having been discovered and added by “Danceaway”, earlier this month.

Fiat currency is to be removed as a medium of payment in January 2023, at the latest. When fiat currency is removed, all bank accounts will be zeroed. While several countries are doing what is necessary for the people, none of England, Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland is, as yet, doing so, which is typical.

People need to be made aware of who actually owns ALL fiat currency, or debt, before it is too late. People hoard a worthless piece of paper in the belief that they own it. They categorically do not. ALL fiat currency is owned by the central bank that printed it. The people have been given use – and only use – but Never ownership.

What most people don’t realise, is that All fiat currency is to be removed as a medium of payment in January 2023, at the latest.

This time period was agreed upon by the Bank of International Settlements (“BIS”) and governments so that countries had sufficient time to set up their International Trade Bank and a subsidiary Commercial Bank which would allow people standing in the correct jurisdiction – Land and Soil – to claim the credit that has been deliberately hidden from them.

While several countries are doing what is necessary for the people of those countries before the January 2023 deadline, none of England, Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland is, as yet, doing so.

When fiat currency is removed, ALL bank accounts will be zeroed out as a “bail-in.” This is actually the banks taking back their property. So, here in England, the people are facing a frightening outlook of having zero means to pay for rent or mortgage, food, utility bills and medical bills in the very near future.

The thing that masquerades as an English government has no intention of making the people aware. To do so would leave the UK Corporate government unable to access the credit that belongs to every man, woman and child in this country.

There is a false perception that when peoples' bank accounts are zeroed out the banks will compensate them. This agreement that banks have for a set figure only applies while fiat currency remains in existence. It will not apply after its removal.

Those that have savings or hoard debt money under the mattress have two choices:

1. Turn that worthless paper into commodities that shall have value after the financial collapse.
2. Or hold onto it and lose it all with nothing in return.

Twice the BIS has attempted to remove the fiat currency before the agreed January 2023 deadline. This action, if it had been successful, would have resulted in approximately 70% of the world's population dying through starvation. After being hit with huge penalties for any lives lost, the BIS had no choice but to continue with the agreement.

These facts are pointed out to make people aware of the gravity they face through ignorance and the suppression of the facts.

Fiat currency is debt. A promissory note promising to pay a debt at a later time. A debt cannot be paid with debt. Nobody has ever paid a debt using fiat currency. Nobody.

A million of fiat currency in the bank accrues interest on a Daily basis which is removed from the credit ledger that the banks deliberately hide. While the prospect of having bank accounts zeroed out may be frightening for those with such sums of fiat currency in bank accounts, it is actually a good thing. It is debt, and nothing but debt, that is being removed.

Nonetheless, people need to grasp reality before the window of opportunity to prepare for the inevitable collapse closes.

- 1 Fiat money is a government-issued currency that is not backed by a physical commodity, such as gold or silver, but rather by the government that issued it.

Most modern paper currencies are fiat currencies, including the U.S. dollar, the euro, and other major global currencies.

- 2 A bail-in is the opposite of a bailout. Bailouts help to prevent creditors from taking on losses while bail-ins mandate creditors to take losses.

“Technically, deposit holders [“Savers” for example, savings account holders] are the banks’ creditors,” Norbert Häring explained in a 2013 article discussing a planned levy on Cypriot bank savings.

The Royal Mint Llantrisant, Wales

Häring suggested that a small change with very wide-reaching effects would be to make deposits on current accounts, as well as securities, remain the customers’ property and cease to function as involuntary loans to the banks. “The payments system would no longer depend on the banks’ solidarity—[Savers] would be unaffected by bank bankruptcies, so that in case of a crisis, the state would no longer be forced to bailout banks just to safeguard the payments system.”

Scriptures have long warned about the coming collapse of Babylon with the destruction of Edom, when His Law and People will again be The Light on The Hill - Praise Yahweh.

Celts, Cimmerians and Gauls

THE CIMMERIANS
OR CELTS HAVE ALSO BEEN KNOWN AS THE

KELTAE, GELTAE, Galatae, Galatians, Goidels, Gauls and Gaels. Where did these names come from? T he Cimmerians in Armenia were later joined from the southeast by westward-advancing Scythians from Medo-Persia--i.e. Israelites from around Samaria (taken in the second captivity).

However, the Cimmerians were first established as those people who had been carried away in Israel's first Assyrian captivity, known as the "Galilean Captivity," from the northern and eastern regions of the Northern Kingdom – the lands of Galilee and Gilead! (There was a practice of attaching "gilead" as a suffix to places, e.g. Jabesh-gilead and Ramoth-gilead.)
In the Trans-Jordan area was also the tribe of Gad.

Just to the east of the Sea of Galilee we still find the Golan Heights. The Hebrew Golan means
"their captivity" and comes from the word Golah, meaning "captive" or "exile" (Enhanced Strong's Lexicon). Arthur Spier, Jewish author of A Comprehensive Hebrew Calendar, says that "Golah" referred to those Israelite "communities living beyond the confines of Israel" (p. 62).
Galilee, Gilead, Gad, Golan and Golah are all possible etymological roots for Galatae, Goidels or Gauls--the Celtic people!

Remember too that in Spain these people were Celtiberians or just Iberians--as the Israelites living just north of Armenia were also called.
Iber-ia is "land of Iber." Based on what we now know of these people, we can easily see that
"Iber" is almost identical with "Eber" or "Heber"-
-that is, "Hebrew," which sounds very close to "Ibheriu," the ancient name of Ireland (Heb. Ivri = ancient Gaelic Iveriu). The "Emerald Isle" was also known as Ivernia, Hibernia, Iberon, Ierne, Erin, Eire, Ire-land.

Immediately west of northern Scotland, the Hebrews probably gave their name to the islands called the Hebrides. In northeast Spain, the Ebro River was most likely named after them. It is probable that Israelite mariners brought the name
Hebrew to the Iberian Peninsula.

And, since the northern Danites dwelling near the Phoenicians lived in the region of Galilee, they may also have brought such Celtic names
as Galacia (northwestern Spain) and Portugal ("Port of the Gaels"). These names may also have been brought by the transcontinental Celts.

and Britain in Prophecy, by Raymond F. McNair.

Goths, Visigoths, Ostrogoths

The word Goth derives from the word Getae, which we have encountered as a suffix of Massagetae. Visigoth means West Goth and Ostrogoth means East Goth.

What Is The Origin of The Goths?

Paul Siding begins
his history of Scandinavia by saying, "The present inhabitants of Denmark, as well as of Norway and Sweden, are successors of the enormous Gothic tribe

formerly dwelling round about the Black Sea" (page 19, Scandinavian Races). Notice that both the Svear and the Goths came from the area of the Black Sea. At the mouth of the Danube on the western shore is the area of Getae and Dacia in Roman times. According to Procopius, who wrote his history in the fifth century, Romans "say that the Goths are of the Getic race" (Book V.xxiv,30).

The Getae are mentioned in the history of Herodotus (fifth century B.C.). In the translation by George Rawlinson, his brother Sir Henry gives this footnote: "The identity of the Getae with the Goths of later times is more than a plausible conjecture. It may be regarded as historically certain" (Vol.III, page 84, 1862 edition).

Jordanes, the best known Gothic historian, always speaks of the Getae and Goths as one people. He also calls them "Scythae."

We find more evidence in other historical accounts. For example, "The Pictish Chronicle declares that the Scythians and Goths had a common origin" (page 216, The Races of Ireland and Scotland by W. C. Mackenzie).

The evidence also indicates that the Getae were the same kind of people as the Dacians. They both spoke the same language according to Strabo (7.3.13). Pliny says that the Getae were called Dacians by the Romans (Book IV, xxi, 80).

Duchesne, who collected the Norman chronicles in the seventeenth century, has no doubt whatever that the Normans were Dacians and consistently calls them by that name in his preface.

Dudo, who wrote the earliest history of the Normans in the tenth century, also had no doubt that they came from Scythia beyond the Danube. He also said they were Dacians.

- Uncovering Scandinavian Roots, by Robert C. Boraker.

What about the Teuts, or Teutons?

At the time the Teutes/Teutons started to be mentioned in documents and books, Teuste/Tjust saw several settlements abandoned, land grow wild again without any shown signs of resettlements within the nearest areas.

After 200 BC the culture around the Baltic Sea became more or less like each other. This seems to be the case from Bornholm, West-Prussia, Eastern Pommern to Schlesien as in other areas where the East-Germanic tribes had settled. To these tribes belonged the Goths, the Burgunds, the Vandals and other.

The Burgunds

It's during this time, according to some, that the 'Asa-gudar' Norse Gods came wandering up to southern Scandinavia. It's been presumed by some that the 'Asar' (pluralis) were some Gothic God statues, believed to be the Amals Dynasty's Ancestors among the Gods the Goths who arrived came from the Black Sea region of the Balkan Peninsula and up to Crimea. - Teutonic Tribes and Geata / getae/goths, Johansson Inger E, Gothenburg, October 2005.

Recalling that these Israelites had adopted pagan gods and rituals, they carried these traditions with them until they were Christianised.

Covered Wagons

Ukrainian and Polish archaeologists excavated an intact tomb of an ancient Scythian nobleman near Ryzanovka, Ukraine, 145 km (90 mi) from the capital, Kiev, in the summer of 1996. Jan Chochorowski, the director of the Kraków Institute of Archaeology at Jagiellonian University in Poland, and Serhiy Skory, an archaeologist with the Academy of Sciences in Kiev, unearthed the rare 2300-year-old tomb, which contained the remains of a Scythian chief, his servant, a horse, and many gold, silver, and bronze artefacts.

The Scythians were a nomadic people who raised horses, cattle, and sheep. According to ancient Greek historians, Scythians travelled in tent-covered wagons, spoke a form of Persian, and fought with short bows and arrows from horseback. Their empire stretched north of the Black Sea to parts of present-day Ukraine, Russia, and Moldova from the 7th century BC to the 4th century BC. - Encarta Yearbook, Oct. 1996

What other people do you know of that were famous for travelling in covered wagons? We Americans called them Pioneers. Little did these Pioneers realize that their ancestors were once called Scythians. Even less did these Pioneers realize that their ancestors were once called Israel!

“Word for Word” Exodus Part 7

Translation by Stephen Howard Anderson

Chapter 9

1. Said then Yahweh to Mosheh, “Go in to Par’oh, and tell him, ‘Thus says Yahweh Elohey the Ibriym, ‘Let My people go, so that they may serve Me.’”

2. Because if you refuse 3986 to let them go, and will hold them still,

3. behold, the hand of Yahweh is upon your livestock 4735 which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep: there shall be a very grievous pestilence 1698.

4. And shall Yahweh separate 6395 between the livestock of Yis’rael, and the livestock of Mits’rayim: and nothing at all will die that is of the children of Yis’rael.”

5. Appointed Yahweh a set time, saying, “Tomorrow shall Yahweh do this thing in the land.”

6. And did Yahweh that thing on the morrow, and all the livestock of Mits’rayim died; but of the livestock of the children of Yis’rael not one died.

7. And sent Par’oh, and behold, there was not one of the livestock of Yis’rael dead. And the heart of Par’oh was made heavy, and he did not let the people go.

8. And said Yahweh to Mosheh and to Aharon, “Take to you handfuls 4393/2651 of ashes 6368 of the brick furnace 3536, and let Mosheh sprinkle 2236 it toward the sky 8064 in the sight of Par’oh.

9. And it shall become small dust 80 in all the land of Mits’rayim, and shall be a boil 7822 breaking forth 6524 with boils 76 upon adam 120 and upon beast, throughout all the land of Mits’rayim.”

10. And took they ashes of the brick furnace, and stood in the presence of Par’oh; and Mosheh sprinkled it upward toward the sky; and it became a boil breaking forth with boils upon adam, and upon beast.

11. And could not stand the magicians in the presence of Mosheh because of the presence of the boils; because the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the Mits'rayim.

12. And strengthened Yahweh the heart of Par'oh, and he did not listen to them; as had spoken Yahweh to Mosheh.

13. And said Yahweh to Mosheh, “Rise up early in the morning, and stand in the presence of Par'oh, and say to him, ‘Thus says Yahweh Elohey the Ibriym, ‘Let My people go, so that they may serve Me.

14. Because at this time I will send all My plagues 4046 upon your heart, and upon your servants, and upon your people; so that you will know that there is none like Me in all the land.

15. Because now I will stretch out My hand, so that I may smite you and your people with pestilence 1698; and you shall be cut off 3582 from the land.

16. However 199 for this reason 5668/2063 I have made you stand firm 5975, in order 5668 to show 7200 in you My power 3581; and so that My Name may be declared 5608 throughout all the land.

17. And still 5750 you exalt yourself 5549 against My people, that you will not let them go!

18. Behold, tomorrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail 1259, such as has not been in Mits'rayim since the foundation 3245 of it until 5704 now.

19. Therefore send now, and gather your livestock, and all that you have in the field; every adam and beast that is found in the field and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die!”

20. He that respected 3372 the Word of Yahweh among the servants of Par'oh made his servants and his livestock flee into the houses:

21. and he that considered 7760 not in his heart the Word of Yahweh left his servants and his livestock in the field.

22. And said Yahweh to Mosheh, “Stretch forth your hand toward the sky, so that there may be hail in all the land of Mits'rayim, upon adam and upon beast, and upon every herb 6212 of the field, throughout the land of Mits'rayim.”

23. And stretched forth Mosheh the rod toward the sky: and sent Yahweh thunder 6963 and hail, and the fire went along upon the ground; and rained Yahweh hail upon the land of Mits'rayim.

24. So there was hail, and fire mingled 3947 with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Mits'rayim since it became a nation

25. And smote the hail throughout all the land of Mits'rayim all that was in the field, both adam and beast; and smote the hail every herb of the field, and broke every tree of the field.

26. Only in the land of Goshen, where were the children of Yis'rael, was there no hail.

27. And sent Par'oh, and called for Mosheh and Aharon, and said to them, “I have sinned 2398 this time 6471 Yahweh is righteous 6662, and I and my people are wicked 7563.

28. Entreat Yahweh, because it is enough 7227, so that there be no more mighty 430 thundering 6963 and hail; I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer.”

29. And said Mosheh to him, “As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will spread abroad 6566 my hands unto Yahweh; and the thunder shall cease 2308, and there shall not be any more hail; so that you may know that the land is Yahweh's.

30. But as for you and your servants, I know that you will not yet fear because of the presence of Yahweh Elohiym.”

31. Was smitten the flax and the barley: because the barley was in the ear, and the flax was in the bud.

32. But the wheat and the rye were not smitten: because they were not grown up.

33. And went forth Mosheh from the city from Par'oh, and spread abroad his hands unto Yahweh: and the thunders and the hail ceased, and the rain was not poured on the ground.

34. And when saw Par'oh that the rain and the hail and the thunders ceased, he sinned even more, and made heavy his heart, he and his servants.

35. And strengthened was the heart of Par'oh, and he would not let go the children of Yis'rael; as had spoken Yahweh by the hand of Mosheh.

future. As Yahweh gradually humbles the mighty Mits'rayim, the news would be spread abroad through all the land. Par'oh keeps on double-dealing with Mosheh, and Yahweh keeps on hitting him harder and harder. Hail with fire mixed in? Who ever heard of such a thing? Only Yahweh could do that. The land where Yis'rael lived in Goshen was exempt from all these occurrences, and clearly demonstrates the set-apart status of Yis'rael. The wording in some places is a little misleading, as to the livestock dying. All the livestock did not die, but there was death among all the livestock. This is a hard passage to translate, but is cleared up by verses 19 through 25, as remaining livestock was struck by hail if it had not been brought indoors.

ACTS 13:16 THEN PAUL STOOD UP, and beckoning with (his) hand said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give ear. The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

Acts 13:33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David.

Acts 21:28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, that teacheth all (men) every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

Acts 28:20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see (you), and to speak with (you): because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.

♦Rom 9:6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they (are) not all Israel, which are of Israel:

Rom 9:27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

Rom 9:31 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

Rom 10:1 Brethren, my heart's want and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

♦Rom 10:19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by (them that are) no people, (and) by a foolish nation I will anger you.

Rom 10:21 But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

Rom 11:2 God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

Rom 11:7 What then? Israel hath not won that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded.

Rom 11:25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fullness of the nations be come in. And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.

1. Cor 10:18 Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

2. Cor 3:7 But if the ministration of death, written (and) engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which (glory) was to be done away:

2 Cor 3:13 And not as Moses, (which) put a Vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:

♦Gal 6:16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace (be) on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

♦Eph 2:12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:

Phil 3:5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, (of) the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee;

Heb 8:8 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they carried on not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

For this (is) the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people.

Heb 11:22 By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the leaving of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

Rev 2:14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to carry out fornication.

Rev 7:4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: (and there were) sealed an hundred

(and) forty (and) four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

Rev 21:12 And had a wall great and high, (and) had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are (the names) of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

Jewish scholars know they themselves are not Israelites, so as a safety valve, they try and hide behind the lost ten tribe myth, and hope our folk will welcome them as remnants of the 2 tribes. But 2 Kings 17 shows that all 12 tribes were taken by the Assyrians, it was only three towns that could not be taken. (A deW)

THE PRESENT IDENTITY OF ISRAEL AS A FOLK

Four quotes from Jewish sources may personally help those who have been led to believe that the word "Jews" always relates to Israelites, and who might be wondering where they fit in.

1. From Alfred M. Lilienthal's book "What Price Israel". "Here's a paradox: an anthropological fact, many Christians have more Hebrew-Israelite blood in their veins than their Jewish neighbours."

2. The Jewish author Yair Davidy in his book "The Tribes - Israelite Origins of Western Peoples" [Foreword by Rabbi A. Field] tells in much detail that the Saxon folks are Israel, though he pushes the Armstrong and British Israel line of the 10 tribes lost, the 2 tribes being Jews and the Germans as Assyrians.

The Ancient Goths

The reality is that the Germans are mostly Judah and Gad (Goth is short for Gut-thiuda, Gad's troops. Thiuda - troops, Thiuda - Teut - Duit - Deut; Deutsch-Troopfolk, namely of Gad). The Jews today are in fact Assyrians.

3. Jewish author Harry Golden wrote in 1967, "Isaiah the prophet wrote that the remnant of Yahweh's people would be found in the Islands of the sea"

4. Jewish Encyclopaedia Vol. 2, P 250 The Sacae or Scythians (Saxons), are the lost ten tribes of Israel. (Note again the 10 tribe nonsense and that it is a Jewish hearsay)

Who is a liar, but he that denies Jesus is the Christ, ie the Jews and their proselytes. So, even when they confess that Saxons are Israelites they need to lie their way into the picture.

Sorry, an Edomite is still an Edomite by any other name. Caucasia was where the 12 tribed House of Israel had been in captivity. This is where the word "Caucasian" we use today as a racial description began. The migrations towards the British Islands and Europe are well documented.

The Islands mentioned by Harry Golden can be shown as being North and West of Palestine, ie. the United Kingdom. The reader is likely to be Caucasian, Anglo-Saxon, Celtic, or Nordic, who can be shown to be Israelites, apart from the white Japhethic and Edomic content-[Genesis 9:27 and 16:12], and the obvious outlanders, who have moved in amongst them.

In the Divine foreknowledge, true Israelite posterity holds the inherent 'spirit' characteristics with which God purposed should be used to bring peace to the world and the casting down of evil strongholds (namely the triad) over our folk, under the righteous rule of Jesus Christ.

At the start of the chapter it was noted; "The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name forever, and this is my memorial unto all generations." (of Abraham's kin).

We can add: Isaiah 43:3- 7 "For I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour:... Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him."

Rom 9:18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will {have mercy}, and whom he will he hardeneth.

This Biblical discrimination or election and calling on the basis of race, as shown in the last verse, is what the churches fight. This is why the denominations still “find fault” and fight to stick to their interpretation of the 19 out of 150 verses bearing any of the words Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Israel.

Lord Baal

When they pray and call upon the “Name of the Lord”, in their minds they think of God being the Baal (Lord) of all races as the false prophets did on Mt. Carmel. But Elijah called upon the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and the fire swallowed up the offering.

Hence Elijah teaching; teaching the exclusiveness of Israel. Denominations put a made-up meaning upon the word “Gentiles” and hang onto “all the world” as meaning “all the inhabited earth” rather than to the limitation of “all the kosmos of Israel”. The word ‘world’ is not oikoumene! The church is called out of Israel; that is, the huios = ‘sons’ of Israel are called out of the teknon = ‘children’ of Israel. The many of Israel are called, but few are chosen.

Hosea 2:16-17 [speaking of Israel] And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me Ishi; and shalt call me no more Balli. For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

Chapter 15 TO WHOM DOES GRACE ABOUND

Too many folks think that the ‘grace’ that was given us allows us to get off free from correction. Grace, like mercy, means kindness. It is a deed of love. But the Bible points out who he that does not correct his child hates his child. Paul asks, Now that we are under grace (kindness) may lawlessness abound?

He answers ‘God forbid’. Kindness is given as a gift, the gift ought to be taken by returning the favour by being kind to the giver.

How can we be kind to the giver? Jesus said, If you love me, do my will. Obeying the Law does not earn your salvation, but nor does faith. Salvation is a free gift given to you. Salvation was given by a stand-in-our-place lamb. King Jesus, the Lamb, died instead of us, we were lawless, not Jesus. Be washed (baptized) because(for) you have been redeemed.

Baptizing or washing (does not mean dunking as such) is done not to be saved but because you’ve been saved, it’s an after the fact deed. This is brought out in the law of the red heifer.

When a man was slain in the field but the murderer was unknown, the elders of the nearest town had to save the population of their town from God’s anger, as the blood guilt fell upon the town’s folk. To spare their lives a red (Edom) heifer was killed instead, burnt, and the ashes mixed in water and sprinkled over the folk (they were not dunked).

The elders then washed their hands and claimed the blood guilt to be upon the heifer and not on the folk. They were saved not by the actual sprinkling or hands-washing (baptized hands) but rather by the slain heifer.

This pattern was repeated when Pontius Pilate washed his hands. The red heifer law was a fore-shadow of Jesus’ slaying. When Jesus was slain, the blood of heifers was no longer needed as He was it. It means we were saved regardless of baptism.

Baptism was needed to be a sign or ‘zion’ of the New Covenant between the Israelites who said “He is King” and Jesus who became King when the sacrificial system of the Passover Age came to a close in AD 33.

Harold Stough Notes The Origin of the Council of Nicaea Myth of The Lord Causing Canonical Books to be Separated From the Non-Canonical

THE SOURCE OF THIS IDEA APPEARS IN A LATE NINTH-CENTURY GREEK MANUSCRIPT, NOW CALLED THE SYNODICON VETUS, which presents itself as an epitome of the decisions of Greek councils up to that time (see pp. 2-4 here).

Philosophical Dictionary (English translation here) under Councils (sec. I), he says:

This MS was brought from Morea in the sixteenth century by Andreas Darmasius and was bought, edited, and published by John Pappus in 1601 in Strasburg. I give the English translation of the relevant section from the source, linked above:

The council made manifest the canonical and apocryphal books in the following manner: Placing them by the side of the divine table in the house of God, they prayed, entreating the Lord that the divinely inspired books might be found upon the table, and the spurious ones underneath; and it so happened.

It was by an expedient nearly similar, that the fathers of the same council distinguished the authentic from the apocryphal books of Scripture. Having placed them altogether upon the altar, the apocryphal books fell to the ground of themselves. And a little later in sec. III, he adds:

According to the source, the church has its canon because of a miracle that occurred at the Council of Nicaea in which the Lord caused the canonical books to stay on the table and the apocryphal or spurious ones to be found underneath it.

We have already said, that in the supplement to the Council of Nice it is related that the fathers, being much perplexed to find out which were the authentic and which the apocryphal books of the Old and the New Testament, laid them all upon an altar, and the books which they were to reject fell to the ground. What a pity that so fine an ordeal has been lost!

From Pappus's edition of the Synodicon Vetus, this quotation circulated and was cited (sometimes even as coming from Pappus himself, not the Greek MS he edited!), and eventually found its way into the work of prominent thinkers such as Voltaire (1694–1778). In volume 3 of his

Earlier in his article, Voltaire had already mentioned that it was Constantine who convened the council. At the Council of Nicaea, therefore, the fathers distinguished the canonical from the apocryphal books by prayer and a miracle.

The publication of Synodicon Vetus by Pappus’s edition in 1601 and the subsequent citing of the miracle at Nicaea, especially by Voltaire (above) in his Dictionary, appears to be the reason why Dan Brown could narrate the events so colourfully and why many others continue to perpetuate this myth.

Conclusion

Thus this myth of the Council of Nicaea’s role in the formation of the biblical canon was promulgated over the years. Dan Brown did not invent it but certainly exploited it and perpetuated it in this generation. Although the history of the canon of scripture is a bit messy at junctures, there is no evidence that it was established by a relative few Christian bishops and churches such that convened at Nicaea in 325. Christians discussed the canon’s boundaries long before and after this council.

UPDATE: it is possible to read Jerome’s words in the preface to Judith, “But since the Nicene Council is considered (legitur lit. “is read”) to have counted this book among the number of sacred Scriptures, I have acquiesced to your request (or should I say demand!),” as a reference to Nicaea discussing the scriptures, and therefore the beginning of the myth.

I didn’t include it previously because it seems so different in kind from the later myth, and there could have been discussions about “scriptures,” which would differ from a vote on the canonical list and differ further still from the later miracle story.

Since adopters of Nicene orthodoxy such as Athanasius, Gregory of Nazianus, and Hilary of Poitiers do not include Judith in the canon, we need to read Jerome not as referencing the canon but the scriptures.

This interpretation is in line with fourth-century biblical theory. How others read Jerome on this point could have been different, and thus Jerome’s statement, misunderstood, could be the departure for the later myth.

I still have many questions about this conclusion. For more on the Jerome prefaces to Judith and Tobit see the article by Ed Gallagher on the question.

Russia To-Day (Extract From Bible Believers’ Newsletter 1207) By Anthony Grigor-Scott

OUR MAIN ARTICLE THIS WEEK IS AN "OPEN LETTER TO PRESIDENT PUTIN" of the Russian Federation in which we discuss God's Word for this hour. Please pray this will be an encouragement and a blessing to President Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin, his Foreign Minister Mr. Sergey Viktorovich Lavrov and the members of Christ's end-time Bride wherever they reside. It is all too clear that for the neo cons in charge of US foreign policy, the goal has always been a proxy war to bring down Russia. This has not become a proxy war; it has always been a proxy war. Clearly if Russia is 'too strong' to be defeated in Ukraine, it is too strong to be brought down as a superpower . . .

Russia's victory in Syria may be seen as the failure of NATO, the greatest military force in history. Many of Washington's vassal states will break free "in the time of Jacob's trouble" (Jeremiah 30:7) and support Russia as Jesus foretold (Revelation 17:11-18). Their civilian leaders will likely remain mentally oriented toward the West, while their military leaders will turn more quickly toward Moscow and Beijing, the new victors.

Operating out of the Wolfowitz Doctrine taken from a 1992 position paper saying that since the collapse of socialism in Eastern Europe, the US must move towards complete global hegemony, has been the source of a systematic downturn in the status of Washington on the international scene. These same policies since the second Bush administration during the 2001-2009 period have resulted in the further impoverishment of the working class and the oppressed within the capitalist states.

A Map Showing the Present-day Definition of the Donbas within Ukraine

So-called Western democracies are elected dictatorships serving the international usurers of the City of London. Commonsense tells one that Hegelian party politics represent two arms of usury. Presidents, Prime Ministers, Health Ministers and other elected offices behind the Covid hoax in Australia and worldwide mandated the inoculation of diseases by toxic faux vaccines, squandered national treasure to borrow and bankrupt, de-industrialise and depopulate a nation. Characterless men and women, servile puppets of the WEF, UN, billionaire 'philanthropists' and eugenicists aiming for position in Lucifer's world government that Jesus declined two thousand year ago (Matthew 4:8-9).

This Newsletter serves those of like precious faith. Whoever will receive the truth is welcome to feed their soul from the waters of the River of Life. Everything here presented should be confirmed personally in your own Bible.

How Many More Red Lines Can Be Crossed before Armageddon Arrives?

June 5, 2022 — The Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe published on April 15, 2016, more than six years ago, a report on the torture of Donbass Russians by the Ukrainian military and police forces. The report documents horrendous torture and it was done out of racial hatred of Russians. You can read the report here.

Few Westerners, being so poorly educated, are aware that Western Ukraine fought for Nazi Germany during World War II. When Washington overthrew the Ukrainian government in 2014, Washington installed a Nazi government. The Nazi government in Ukraine shelled the Russian residents of the two break-away Donbass republics for 8 years while Washington and NATO trained and equipped a Ukrainian army to retake the breakaway republics.

The Donbass region, always a part of Russia, was put into the Ukrainian province of the Soviet Union by the Soviet government for administrative or other reasons, as was Crimea by Khrushchev in the 1950's. When the US overthrew the Ukrainian government and installed an anti-Russian government, the residents of Crimea and Donbass, being Russians, broke away and voted overwhelmingly to be reunited with Russia.

The Kremlin accepted Crimea but made the strategic blunder of rejecting Donbass, thus resulting in the extreme murder and torture of Donbass Russians for 8 years before the Kremlin was forced to intervene by Russian public opinion and by the appearance of a 150,000 American-trained Ukrainian army and Nazi militias on the Donbass border. It is this army and Nazi militias that the Russian army has been exterminating in Donbass during the last several months. The Western media reports of Ukrainian victories show the total absence of integrity and respect for truth that damns Western journalism.

The extreme torture of the Russian residents of Donbass has been supported by three US presidents, all European states, and the entirety of the whole Western media, a collection of despicable scum.

Instead of reporting the truth, the scum Western media reported fake news of rapes and looting by Russian soldiers, the most disciplined army in the world. The Ukrainians, or perhaps the CIA, have been exposed filming fake battle scenes in which allegedly Russian troops are shown fleeing from combat.

The filming is so sloppy that the director's instructions for the staged act are included and the film crew is itself filmed, indicating that it is a film production and that there is no danger in the situation.

As horrendous as it is that the "free West" underwrites and diplomatically supports torture of Russians by Ukrainians while the despicable Western media covers it up, this horror pales in significance compared to the extraordinary decision of the White House Idiot to place in Ukraine's hands missiles capable of hitting targets in Crimea, the traditional home of Russia's Black Sea naval base.

Washington has said that Washington won't be operating the missiles and is relying on Ukraine's assurance that they won't be used to attack Russian territory. But Ukraine doesn't regard Crimea as Russian territory. Neither does Washington's "world community." The "world community" doesn't acknowledge the Crimean vote for reunification with Russia. Officially for the West, Crimea is part of Ukraine.

So Ukraine can use Biden's missiles to attack the Russian naval base in Crimea—the Biden Idiot and his neo-conservative controllers have turned over to Zelensky, a Jew allied with Nazis, the decision whether there will be Armageddon—

Putin's humanity, his toleration of provocations, his reluctance to use force has encouraged the West to press harder. Sooner or later a red line is going to be crossed from which there is no recovery. Full story.

Comment: On Russian television, the state TV show 60 Minutes, host Olga Skabeeva announced: "I have some unpleasant news— we are methodically destroying the weapons that are being delivered [to Ukraine], but the quantities in which the United States are sending them force us to come up with some global conclusions. Perhaps it's time to acknowledge that maybe Russia's special operation in Ukraine has come to an end, in a sense that a real war has started: WWIII. We're forced to conduct the demilitarization not only of Ukraine, but of the entire NATO alliance."

Vladimir Avatkov, from the Diplomatic Academy of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, said: "You mentioned WWIII and the way Americans and Poles are acting on the territory of Ukraine—indeed, we need to remember the words of Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin, who said that anyone who tries to interfere in the special military operation will pay a heavy price."

Skabeeva interrupted: "We never forget about these words of Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin, but a great number of people are already standing in line, trying to interfere in Russia's special operation on the territory of Ukraine. Turns out, we have to act—but we're yet to figure out how we can act without conducting a nuclear strike."

Just the other day, one prominent Russian politician openly talked about destroying both coasts of the United States with Sarmat intercontinental ballistic missiles (above)—fellow MP and Russian-state mouthpiece Yevgeny Popov— claimed that two of Russia's Sarmat missiles would destroy the entirety of America's east coast— before adding it would take just "two missiles for the west coast" as well. "Four missiles and there'll be nothing left." Full story.

The Invisible Rainbow (Part 2) Porphyrins and The Basis of Life By Arthur Firstenburg

Porphyria Disease

THE ENZYMES OF THE HEME PATHWAY ARE AMONG THE MOST SENSITIVE ELEMENTS OF THE BODY to environmental toxins. Porphyria, therefore, is a response to environmental pollution and was indeed extremely rare in an unpolluted World.

Except for one severe, disfiguring congenital form, of which only a few hundred cases are known in the world, porphyrin enzyme deficiencies do not normally cause disease at all. Human beings are genetically diverse, and in times past most people with relatively lower levels of one or more porphyrin enzymes were simply more sensitive to their environment.

In an unpolluted world this was a survival advantage, allowing the possessors of this trait to easily avoid places and things that might do them harm. But in a world in which toxic chemicals are inescapable, the porphyrin pathway is to some degree always stressed, and only those with high enough enzyme levels tolerate the pollution well. Sensitivity has become a curse.

Because of the way it was discovered, and the lack of synthetic chemicals in the environment at that time, porphyria became known as a rare disease that was triggered in genetically susceptible people by certain drugs, such as sulfonal and barbiturates, which these patients had to avoid.

It was not until another century had passed, in the early 1990's, that Dr. William E. Morton, professor of occupational and environmental medicine at Oregon Health Sciences University, realized that because ordinary synthetic chemicals were far more widespread in the modern environment than pharmaceuticals, they had to be the most common triggers of porphyric attacks.

Morton proposed that the controversial disease called multiple chemical sensitivity (MCS) was in most cases identical with one or more forms of porphyria. And when he began testing his MCS patients he found that, indeed, 90 percent of them were deficient in one or more porphyrin enzymes.

He then investigated a number of their family trees, looking for the same trait, and succeeded in demonstrating a genetic basis for MCS—something no one had attempted before because MCS had never before been connected to a testable biological marker.

Morton also found that most people with electrical sensitivity had porphyrin enzyme deficiencies, and that electrical and chemical sensitivities appeared to be manifestations of the same disease.

Porphyria, Morton showed, is not the extremely rare illness it is currently thought to be, but has to affect at least five to ten percent of the world's population.

Morton was courageous, because the rare-disease world of porphyria had come to be dominated by a handful of clinicians who controlled virtually all research and scholarship in their small, inbred field. They tended to diagnose porphyria only during acute attacks with severe neurological symptoms and to exclude cases of milder, smouldering illness.

They generally would not make the diagnosis unless porphyrin excretion in urine or stool was at least five to ten times normal. "This makes no sense," wrote Morton in 1995, "and would be analogous to restricting the diagnosis of diabetes mellitus to those who have ketoacidosis or restricting the diagnosis of coronary artery disease to those who have myocardial infarction.”

The higher numbers reported by Morton agree with the numbers reported over a century ago—the proportion of the population that became ill when they took the sleeping medication sulfonal. They are consistent with the finding, in the 1960’s, of “mauve factor,” a lavender-staining chemical, not only in the urine of patients diagnosed with porphyria, but in the urine of five to ten percent of the general population.

Mauve factor was eventually identified as a breakdown product of porphobilinogen, one of the porphyrin precursors.

Morton also found, in agreement with recent reports from England, the Netherlands, Germany, and Russia, that persistent neurological problems occur during the chronic, smouldering phase of every type of porphyria—even those types which were previously supposed to cause only skin lesions.

Hans Günther, the German doctor who, in 1911, gave porphyria its name, stated that “such individuals are neuro-pathic and suffer from insomnia and nervous irritability.” Morton has brought us back to the original view of porphyria: it is not only a fairly common disease but exists most often in a chronic form with comparatively mild symptoms.

And its principal cause is the synthetic chemicals and electromagnetic fields that pollute our modern environment.

Porphyrins are central to our story not only because of a disease named porphyria, which affects a few percent of the population, but because of the part porphyrins play in the modern epidemics of heart disease, cancer, and diabetes, which affect half the world, and because their very existence is a reminder of the role of electricity in life itself, a role which a few courageous scientists have slowly elucidated.

As a child, Albert Szent-Györgyi (pronounced approximately like “Saint Georgie”) hated books and needed a tutor’s help to pass his exams. But later, having graduated from Budapest Medical School in 1917, he went on to become one of the world’s greatest geniuses in the field of biochemistry. In 1929 he discovered Vitamin C, and during the next few years he worked out most of the steps in cellular respiration, a system now known as the Krebs cycle. For these two discoveries he was awarded the Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine in 1937.

(1893-1986)

He then spent the next two decades figuring out how muscles function. After emigrating to the United States and settling at Woods Hole, Massachusetts, he received the Albert Lasker Award of the American Heart Association in 1954 for his work on muscles.

But perhaps his greatest insight is one for which he is least known, although he devoted almost half his life to the subject. For on March 12, 1941, in a lecture delivered in Budapest, he boldly stood up before his peers and suggested to them that the discipline of biochemistry was obsolete and should be brought into the twentieth century.

Living organisms, he told them, were not simply bags of water in which molecules floated like tiny billiard balls, forming chemical bonds with other billiard balls with which they happened to collide. Quantum theory, he said, had made such old ideas invalid; biologists needed to study solid state physics. In his own specialty, although he had worked out the structures of the molecules involved in muscular contraction, he could not begin to fathom why they had those particular structures, nor how the molecules communicated with one another to coordinate their activities.

He saw such unsolved problems everywhere he looked in biology. “One of my difficulties within protein chemistry,” he bluntly told his colleagues, “was that I could not imagine how such a protein molecule can ‘live.’ Even the most involved protein structural formula looks ‘stupid,’ if I may say so.”

The phenomena that had forced Szent-Györgyi to face these questions were the porphyrin-based systems of life. He pointed out that in plants, 2,500 chlorophyll molecules form a single functional unit, and that in dim light at least 1,000 chlorophyll molecules have to cooperate simultaneously in order to split one molecule of carbon dioxide and create one molecule of oxygen.

He spoke about the “enzymes of oxidation”—the cytochromes in our cells—and wondered, again, how the prevailing model could be correct. How could a whole series of large protein molecules be arranged geometrically so that electrons could wander directly from one to the other in a precise sequence? “Even if we could devise such an arrangement,” he said, “it would still be incomprehensible how the energy liberated by the passing of an electron from one substance to the other, viz., from one iron atom to the other, could do anything useful.”

Szent-Györgyi proposed that organisms are alive because thousands of molecules form single systems with shared energy levels, such as physicists were describing in crystals. Electrons don’t have to pass directly from one molecule to another, he said; instead of being attached to only one or two atoms, electrons are mobile, belong to the whole system, and transmit energy and information over large distances. In other words, the stuff of life is not billiard balls but liquid crystals and semiconductors.

Szent-Györgyi’s sin was not that he was incorrect. He wasn’t. It was his failure to respect the old animosity. Electricity and life were long divorced; the industrial revolution had been running full bore for a century and a half. Millions of miles of electric wires clothed the earth, exhaling electric fields that permeated all living things. Thousands of radio stations blanketed the very air with electromagnetic oscillations that one could not avoid. Skin and bones, nerves and muscles were not allowed to be influenced by them. Proteins were not permitted to be semiconductors. The threat to industry, economics, and modern culture would be too great.

So biochemists continued to think of proteins, lipids, and DNA as though they were little marbles drifting in a watery solution and colliding with one another at random. They even thought of the nervous system this way. When forced to, they admitted parts of quantum theory, but only on a limited basis.

Biological molecules were still only permitted to interact with their immediate neighbours, not to act at a distance. It was okay to acknowledge modern physics only that much, like opening a small hole in a dam for knowledge to leak through one drop at a time, while the main structure is reinforced lest a flood demolish it.

Old knowledge about chemical bonds and enzymes in a water solution must now coexist with new models of electron transport chains. It was necessary to invent these to explain phenomena that were most central to life: photosynthesis and respiration.

Large porphyrin-containing protein molecules no longer had to move and physically interact with one another in order for anything useful to happen. These molecules could stay put and electrons could shuttle between them instead. Biochemistry was becoming that much more alive. But it still had a long way to go. For even in the new models, electrons were constrained to move only, like little messenger boys, between one protein molecule and its immediate neighbour. They could cross the street, so to speak, but they couldn't travel down a highway to a distant town.

Organisms were still pictured essentially as bags of water containing very complex solutions of chemicals.

The 911 of the Middle Ages – Important Information You Must Know

The Planned Great Fire of London in 1666 Enabled The Cestui Que Vie Act to be Passed, declaring all lost at sea and therefore dead. Thereby Most of the World would eventually become enslaved to the City of London.

A brief Look at the far reaching implications of this dastardly Act with hints on how to break the shackles:

London in 1666, during the black plague and great fires of London, Parliament enacted an act behind closed doors, called Cestui Que Vie Act 1666.

The act being debated was to subrogate the rights of men and women, meaning all men and women were declared dead, lost at sea/beyond the sea. (back then operating in Admiralty law, the law of the sea, so lost at sea).

The state (London) took custody of everybody and their property into a trust. The state became the trustee/husband holding all titles to the people and property, until a living man comes back to reclaim those titles, he can also claim damages.

When CAPITAL letters are used anywhere in a name this always refers to a legal entity/fiction,

Company or Corporation no exceptions. e.g. John DOE or Doe: JANE

- 1) CESTUI QUE TRUST: (pronounced setakay) common term in New Zealand and Australia
- 2) STRAWMAN: common term in United States of America or Canada

These are the legal entity/fiction created and owned by the Government whom created it. It is like owning a share in the Stock Market, you may own a share... but it is still a share of the Stock.

Legally, we are considered to be a fiction, a concept or idea expressed as a name, a symbol. That legal person has no consciousness; it is a juristic person, ENS LEGIS, a name/word written on a piece of paper. This traces back to 1666, London is an Independent, City, State, just like Vatican is an Independent City State, just like Washington, DC is an Independent City State.

The Crown is an unincorporated association. Why unincorporated? It's private. The temple bar is in London, every lawyer called to the "bar" swears allegiance to the temple bar. You can't get called without swearing this allegiance.

Our only way out is to reclaim your dead entity (strawman) that the Crown created, become the executor and then collapse the called Cestui Que Vie trust and forgive yourself of your debts and then remove yourself from the admiralty law that holds you in custody.

When London burned, the subrogation of men’s and women’s rights occurred. The responsible act passed... CQV act 1666 meant all men and women of UK were declared dead and lost beyond the seas. The state took everybody and everybody’s property into trust. The state takes control until a living man or woman comes back and claims their titles by proving they are alive and claims for damages can be made.

This is why you always need representation when involved in legal matters, because you’re dead. The legal fiction is a construct on paper, an estate in trust. When you get a bill or summons from court it is always in capital letters, similar to tomb stones in grave yards. Capital letters signify death. They are writing to the dead legal fiction. A legal fiction was created when someone informed the government that there was a new vessel in town, based upon your birth.

Birth Certificates are issued to us by the Doc. just as ships are given berth Certificates at the Dock. It’s about commerce. We come from our mothers waters. Your mother has a birth canal just like a ship. The ship moves by the sea current just as we are able to move by the currency.

All this information relates to how the general public are still legally tied through Maritime Admiralty Law. Through this ancient legal construct we can be easily controlled and duped. Learning about your legal fiction helps you to unlock yourself. Otherwise you are just an empty vessel floating on the sea of commerce. Parents are tricked into registering the birth of their babies.

In about 1837, the Births, Deaths and Marriages act was formed in UK and the post of registrar general was established. His job was to collect all the data from the churches which held the records of birth.

Regis from Queen or Crown

All people are seen to be in custody of,” The Crown”. This allows people to function in commerce and to accept the benefits provided by state. We have to understand who we are as men and women and how we can relate in the system. The City of London is a centre for markets, where merchants work. Then there is Mercantile Law. It comes from Admiralty Law. Look at the symbols in your City Courts that relate to Admiralty.

So where you have commerce and money, you also have “justice” and “injury”. You need to understand the bankruptcy before you can understand the judiciary. We have accepted the claim to accept the summons, yet ONLY the dead can be summoned. There is an obligation to accept any liability which has been created.

We Are Operating in Admiralty

A not guilty plea, or ANY plea admits jurisdiction. The strawman, aka legal fiction is always guilty. Barristers and solicitors make a living out of creating controversy. By creating a controversy you become liable for the case.

Honour and Dishonour

To remain in honour you have to accept a claim and settle (discharge) it. Then you add conditions, ie. “I accept on proof of claim and proof of loss”. This gives the liability back to them. The legal fiction is always guilty.

Only in the High Court, can the real man or woman appear. Games are played on courts, hence the name ‘court’. It is a game with actors (acting on acts). It has to be treated as a game and just business. Court room dramas are misinformation.

In the public, we’re operating in bankruptcy and you receive benefits. It takes a lot of time, effort and study to understand and use these tools. You have to be prepared to go fully through the process, get the right tool out of your toolbox at the right time.

People need to learn how to act as a creation of God rather than a creation of Man!

What Doctors Say about Drinking Distilled Water

chemicals (and minerals from tap water) into our bodies.”

“When distilled water enters the body, it leaves no residue of any kind. It is free of salts and sodium. It is the most perfect water for the healthy functioning of the kidneys(83% water). It is the perfect liquid for the blood(83% water), the ideal liquid for the efficient functioning of the lungs(86% water), stomach, liver(85% water) and other vital organs. Why? Because it is free of all inorganic minerals.

THERE ARE A LOT OF LIES AND DECEPTION ABOUT THE HEALTH OF DRINKING DISTILLED WATER, such as, it strips minerals from the body and may cause death. What Is the Truth?

It is so pure that all liquid drug prescriptions are formulated with distilled water. Dr. Paul Bragg, N.D. Ph.T., from his book: “The Shocking Truth About Water”

Here is what Dr. Allen Banik says...

Here is what Dr. James Balch says...

“Distilled water is the greatest solvent on earth. (It is) the only water that can be taken into the body without damage to the tissues.

“There is only one water, and that is clean, steam distilled water. No other substance on our planet does so much to keep us healthy and get us well as water does.” Dietary Wellness; 1993 Dr. James Balch, M.D.

What we as scientists and the public have never realized is that minerals collected in the body from water are all inorganic minerals, which cannot be assimilated (digested) by the body. The only minerals that the body can utilize are the organic minerals (from fruits and vegetables). All other types of minerals are foreign substances to the body and must be disposed of or eliminated.

Here is what Dr. C.W. DeLacy Evans says...

Today, many progressive doctors prescribe distilled water to their patients. All kidney machines operate on distilled water.” – Allen E. Banik, M.D. Author, “The Choice is Clear”

“Used as a drink, distilled water is absorbed directly into the blood, the solvent properties of which it increases to such an extent that it will keep in solution salts already existing in the blood, prevent their undue deposit in various organs and structures, favour their elimination by the various excreta, and tend to remove these earthy compounds which have already accumulated in the body . . .

Here is what Dr. Paul Bragg says

“The greatest damage done by inorganic minerals (hard water)—plus waxy cholesterol and salt—is to the small arteries and other blood vessels of the brain (75% water). Hardening of the arteries and calcification of blood vessels starts on the day you start taking inorganic

There is no doubt as to the high value of distilled water used freely as a retarder of the ossifying conditions which appear to constitute the condition of old age.”

—C. W. DeLacy Evans, M.D., in his book, How To Prolong Life.

Here is what Dr. Teofilio de la Torre says...

“Instead of drinking the hard water of springs or the chlorinated water of the cities, it will be to our advantage to drink distilled water . . . to prevent calcification of the body.”

Here is what Dr. Charles McFerrin says...

“Distilled water is 'empty' water – a hungry water, a water capable of absorbing body poisons. You have had the experience of trying to use an old post office blotter on the desk. Everybody had used it and it is so full of ink that it will not suck up any more. So it is with a 'full' water, a water full of chlorine, aluminum, etc. Such water does not have the capacity of absorbing body impurities.” —Dr. Charles McFerrin, writing in the July 1955 issue of Nature's Path

Here is what Dr. Alexander Graham Bell says...

Dr. Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, recognized the health value of distilled water, and claimed that its daily use prolonged his life. Afflicted and bed-ridden with sciatica, Dr. Bell could find no relief for the pain. The attack came just as he was investigating the deposit of salts in the human system.

A well-known scientist had written a book in which he said that old age came from such deposits, and that the ills of advanced years were due to the lack of their elimination. He believed that when such deposits went to the joints, man had rheumatism. When they went to the kidneys, he had kidney trouble and stones in the urinary organs; and when they lodged in the arteries, they produced what is called hardening of the arteries. In the same way when such deposits coated the nerves, they caused sciatica.

Dr. Bell wrote: “I knew that distilled water was pure. I thought that if I drank plenty of it, I could get rid of some of the salts that were covering my sciatic nerves. I tried drinking it and it worked like a charm. I have kept up my drinking of distilled water and I attribute my almost perfect health largely to it.” —Dr. Alexander Graham Bell (Above)

Here is what Dr. Robert W. Flinchbaught says...

“The evidence that distilled water acts as a solvent within the body, dissolving the inorganic mineral deposits, is very important. A growing body of evidence suggests that distilled water dissolves and removes these disease – causing minerals and flushes out the hundreds of dangerous chemicals that have been taken into the body as well. Distilled water is not only free from pollutants, but it apparently helps remove them as well from the cells of the body, thus purifying the body so that it can function as it should. —Dr. Robert W. Flinchbaught, from “Pure Water is Life”

Here is what Dr. David C. Kennedy says

“Even tap water invariably contains a variety of poisons such as chlorine, chloramine, asbestos, pesticides, fluoride, copper, mercury, and lead. The best way to remove all these contaminants is by distilling.” —David C. Kennedy, D.D.S.: ‘How To Save Your Teeth: Toxic-Free Preventative Dentistry’

Here is what Dr. Robert D. Willix, Jr. Says

“If you decide on bottled water, make sure it’s distilled, (however), in the long run you’ll save money if you clean your water at home. It's more convenient than hauling gallon jugs from the store. The 'gold standard' for purifying your water is a system that distills your water and filters it. You have the comfort of knowing there is no chlorine, fluoride, bacteria, viruses, pesticides, or lead. You get nothing but H2O." —Robert D. Willix, Jr., M.D.: 'Maximum Health'

Here is what Dr. John Yiamoyiannis says...

"The home distiller is the best method and also the best way to get distilled water. It is the only reliable home water purification for taking fluoride out of the water."—

John Yiamoyiannis, Ph.D.: 'Fluoride: The Aging Factor'

Here is what Dr. Charles Mayo says...

"Water hardness (inorganic minerals in solution) is the underlying cause of many, if not all, of the diseases resulting from poisons in the intestinal tract. These (hard minerals) pass from the intestinal walls and get into the lymphatic system, which delivers all of its products to the blood, which in turn, distributes to all parts of the body. This is the cause of much human disease." —Dr. Charles Mayo of the Mayo Clinic

Here is what Dr. Peter A. Lodewick says...

"The only type of water that seems to be fit for consumption is distilled water, which is water that is absolutely free of any minerals or chemicals. Distilled water is made pure by first being heated to the point of vaporization, so that all of the 'impurities' are left behind. Then, the water vapor is condensed. The process results in water that is in its purest form. Distillation is the single most effective method of water purification." —Peter A. Lodewick, M.D.: 'A Diabetic Doctor Looks at Diabetes'"

Forgotten History - Assassination of Ralph Cairns
From Our West Midlands Correspondent

RALPH CAIRNS WAS A BRITISH POLICE OFFICER who was the commander of the Palestine police criminal investigation department until he was assassinated by Irgun in 1939.

Rumours and propaganda spread throughout the Zionist communities calling for Cairns' assassination after his promotion to inspector. Cairns' colleague had the same role within the police but in a different location to him, his name was Ronald Barker.

Both Cairns and Barker (Left) were jointly assassinated by a landmine planted by Irgun on the 26th of August 1939.

In April he investigated the deaths of two civilians and two British Police officers who were murdered in a bomb attack on a train .

Cairns managed to break through to the community and traced this attack back to Avraham Stern whom at the time was still a member of Irgun. (Who would later set up the Irish IRA) This, however, was the first time Stern's name had come to the attention of the Police.

Cairns left behind a pregnant fiancée at the time of his death who held a memorial every year on the anniversary of his death up until she passed in 2001.

Spanish Flu

Sir ____, Some observations on the so-called Spanish Flu:

The ‘Spanish Flu’ of 1918, did not actually originate in Spain. Spain was simply the first country to report on it.

In preparation for WWI, a massive military vaccination experiment involving numerous prior developed vaccines took place in Fort Riley, Kansas- where the first “Spanish Flu” case was reported.

The fledgling pharmaceutical industry, sponsored by the ‘Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research’, had something they never had before – a large supply of human test subjects. Supplied by the U.S. military’s first draft, the test pool of subjects ballooned to over 6 million men.

Autopsies after the war proved that the 1918 flu was NOT a ‘flu’ at all. It was caused by random dosages of an experimental ‘bacterial meningitis vaccine’, which to this day, mimics flu-like symptoms. Fearing that soldiers coming home would spread diseases to their families, the U.S.

government pushed the largest vaccine ‘fear’ campaign in history. They used the human population as a research and development lab to field test experimental vaccines.

Tens of millions of civilians died in the same manner as did the soldiers.

Instead of stopping the vaccines, doctors intensified them, calling it the great “Spanish Flu of 1918”. As a result, Only the Vaccinated Died.

Sounds familiar? Let’s hope history does not repeat itself! Yours truly, Malcolm Parker, Loe, Cornwall. UK.

Atmospheric Spraying and 5GHz Wi-Fi Disrupting Oxygen

Sir ____, I came across an interesting letter a reader has written to the Exposé, describing how he overcame lethargy which he believes was caused by particulates from atmospheric spraying in combination with 5GHz Wi-Fi. See below:-

I’m contacting you because I think I’ve made an important discovery which I’d like to share. It’s not quite on topic for your website but certainly part of the same anti-human conspiracy. That is of possible interaction happening between some chemicals used in atmospheric aerosol spraying and 5GHz Wi-Fi radiation.

Ever since a major geo-engineering aerosol spraying (with clear weather/climate effects) over my town of residence, I've been feeling very lethargic, apathetic and powerless. It's been like the air got harder to breathe and I've had to open several windows or else it's felt like I was going to choke.

I did figure it was due to the spraying but now I've figured out that there's more to the story. You see, I got the idea that perhaps Wi-Fi is unhealthy and to test I turned off the higher frequency, 5GHz, signal. Almost right away I began feeling more alert, energised and motivated. It started feeling easier to breathe as well.

I told someone else about it as well and was allowed to turn off her 5GHz Wi-Fi signal to test. She then experienced the same as I did, that it got easier to breathe. Before shutting it off it was stuffy even with the balcony door open, after it became airy even with it closed.

So, what I figure is that something in the aerosol spray must be interacting with 5GHz radio signals and distorting or in some other way harming the oxygen.

I'm sure it's not a placebo effect as these two days since shutting off 5GHz I've gotten more done than I did in over a month before. It's like a night and day difference. As well, as I wrote above, another person experienced it the same.

Thanks for all your hard work in informing and raising awareness. It's thanks to people like you that we might still stand a chance. Anyway, I hope you find this interesting and useful. To me, it seems like a truly vital piece of info to share.

Also, it may be a good way to jolt people awake, since the results are evident even to those not awake. Anyone living in an area that's subjected to aerosol sprayings and experiencing the symptoms I described should notice almost instant relief after shutting off 5GHz and benefit immensely from it.

I'm also thinking that possibly some of the increased illness can be attributed to this, in addition to the vax, as oxygen deprivation weakens the immune system. I'm sure it causes lots of other health problems as well, though I don't know specifics. I certainly was feeling weaker than I ever had and had terrible headaches as well. Now no More Lethargy, Yours truly, Weaver, Sweden

Letter to MP Re UK Interference In The Ukraine

This Kingdom is sending longer range missiles to Ukraine with the stated aim of pushing the Russian navy out of the Black sea. President Putin has said if that happens he will take out British cities.

With modern propulsion systems and more powerful conventional explosives the damage and loss of life will be astronomical. Unlike you I was alive in WWII and a V1 took out the house we lived in and a lot of the Road.

For Guy Fawkes night we built our bomb fires where a complete street had been, where people had lived and died in the hundreds. Has the government even thought about the damage and death Russian conventionally armed missiles can and will cause extensive damage, I require government estimates of the extent of the damage and the predicted loss of life and serious injury? I for one would not play poker with President Putin he will not loose. Yours truly, Albert Burgess.

Comment

If Putin is threatening UK cities, I have no wish to see that happen but it would be the only thing that would get UK politicians' attention.

They are otherwise not listening to anyone or anything. Rex.

'This is Africa': Mob Sexually Assault Girls, Cause Havoc in Italian Towns

Sir __,: This is Africa': Mob Sexually Assault Girls, Cause Havoc in Italian Towns.

A wonderful reader--thanks DH--sent this Breitbart article to me.

We saw something like this in Germany, or maybe some Scandinavian country, a few years ago.

Obviously something like this is highly organized and I think it's overall intent is to test the waters and see if the native people in Italy are strong-willed enough to stand up to them. Considering that Italy has allowed all kinds of "poor, pitiful refugees" into their country over the last decade, I'm doubtful the Italians will stand up against this--I hope I'm wrong, I just don't see it happening. After all, they don't want to be called..... raaaaaacists by the JMSM and woke culture that has captured not just Italy but most of Europe.

Coming to America.....'This is Africa': Two Thousand-Strong Mob Sexually Assault Girls and Cause Havoc in Italian Lakefront Towns.

A mob of an estimated two thousand or so young men, mostly from migrant backgrounds according to reports, terrorised towns along with Lake Garda in northern Italy, with reports of women being sexually assaulted, shop windows smashed and police attacked.

The incidents took place last Thursday between the towns of Peschiera and Castelnuovo along Lake Garda and saw the mob of youths, mostly aged between 16 and 20 with some as young as 12, harass and cause havoc. Some were claimed to have shouted during the rampage, "We came to reconquer Peschiera. This is our territory, Africa must come here." Yours truly, KH. West Midlands, UK.

Guns Dangerous?

1. Eleven teens die each day because of texting while driving. Maybe it's time to raise the age of "smartphone" ownership to 21.
2. If gun control laws actually worked, Chicago would be Mayberry, USA.
3. The Second Amendment makes more women equal than the entire feminist movement.
4. Legal gun owners have about 300 million guns and probably 2 trillion rounds of ammo. Seriously, folks, if we were the problem, you'd know it.
5. When JFK was killed, nobody blamed the rifle.
6. The NRA (National Rifle Association) murders 0 people and receives $0 in government funds. Planned Parenthood kills 350,000 babies every year and receives $500,000,000 from taxpayers annually.

7. I have no problem with vigorous background checks when it comes to firearms. While we're at it, let's do the same when it comes to immigration, Voter ID, and candidates running for office.

8. Folks keep talking about another Civil War. One side knows how to shoot and probably has a trillion rounds. The other side has crying closets and is confused about which bathroom to use. Now tell me, how do you think that would end?

Russia and The West The Clown Show Continues

Like I keep saying even I as a trained strategist make mistakes but my main thrust is now being proved daily. Putin and Russia are now top of the world power food chain. As I stated two years ago, we are seeing a slow burn Cannae strategy that has now destroyed the West and the Globalists, now exposed for the simple human haters and gangsters they are— Christianity-Russian Orthodox will flow out of Russia and take Europe by storm. The Western Church like the countries of the West ate themselves alive.

Red China is actually a distraction for the Russian Bear to play with its remarkable advances in weapons.

Lawyers like Putin play chess well like the excellent lawyers they are. The Globalists fell into the Croesus Paradigm as I warned they would and continue to throw pointless arms and money at a lost cause.

Why does an old fart like me have to teach these basic lessons to modern so called generals and western strategists. yet again? The technology might change but the tactics of war do not. This is why my team and I are here....

If the morons like Health Ranger and others stopped their fear mongering and observed deeper, they would see quickly what I have suspected all along. China too is in the brown stuff and by Christmas and into the New Year the CCP will have collapsed. Yours truly, Agricola, Legion VIII Hispana.

The Hidden History of the Incredibly Evil Khazarian Mafia (Part 4)

By

worldwide Internet, the world's new Gutenberg Press. What the Rothschild KM did not understand was the power of the Internet and how truth nuggets published and broadcast on it resonate with the people of the world and spread like wildfire, at the speed of light. Truth is being diffused to the masses everywhere.

Soon mainstream America will know that Bibi Netanyahu and his Likudist Party deployed the attack on America on 9-11-01 on behalf of the Rothschild KM.

DUAL CITIZEN TRAITOR MICHAEL CHERTOFF, (a name translated from Russian as “son of the devil”), was the criminal mastermind that set up DHS, along with the former head of the East German Stasi, Marcus Wolfe, who was hired as a special consultant and died mysteriously as soon as his mission was completed.

The Rothschild KM never thought they would get exposed for their nuclear attack on America on 9-11-11, but they made one of the biggest tactical mistakes in history and overplayed their hand from excess hubris, based on too much easy success due to their extreme money power in the past.

They thought that they had complete control over the CMMM and could prevent any of the secret IAEA and Sandia Labs investigations from ever being released to the American public.

They made a serious tactical error because now the truth about their role in the 9-11-01 attack on America is being published on the

This incredible tactical error by the KM is so great that it will actually doom them to the complete exposure and eventual complete destruction they deserve. Bibi Netanyahu's order to proceed and deliver the nuclear attack on America on 9-11-01 will go down in history as one of the KM's biggest mistakes, and the one that will be blamed for their exposure and destruction by the world that is now ganging up against them.

The Russians have now leaked the IAEA and Sandia Labs and Able Danger files are given to them by Edward Snowden. Soon all of these files will be provided to all Americans and the world via the Internet, and this cannot be stopped.

A number of Russians in the High Military Command in Russia, and in the highest positions of leadership in the Russian government realize that it was the same Organized Crime Cabal that organized the Khazarians into Bolsheviks to mass-murder 100 million innocent Russians — and these men want payback.

That is why they are making sure that the Rothschild banksters will be put out of business, which will decapitate the Khazarian Mafia from its endless, elastic counterfeit money supply. This is why the BRICS Development Bank was created — to replace the US Petro Dollar as the world's reserve currency, but this one, unlike the US Petro Dollar is backed by gold, silver, and real commodities, with NO counterfeiting allowed.

The CMMM is failing, and most Americans no longer believe any of their prime-time national stories, especially the under-thirty crowd, who cherry-pick facts from the Internet and construct their own beliefs.

So many Internet users now reject the CMMM that the truth about the Israelis attacking America on 9-11-01 is becoming easier each day to believe. Soon all of mainstream America will know that Bibi Netanyahu and his Mossad and dual citizens did the 9-11-01 attack on America.

The American Military High Command knows that Bibi Netanyahu ordered his Mossad and stateside Dual Citizens to attack America using nukes on 9-11-01 on behalf of the Rothschild Khazarian Mafia (KM):

Various deep cover covert operations are now being deployed globally to expose and decapitate the Rothschild KM from their endless, elastic money supply.

Their days of anti-human power are now limited. The secret, incredibly well-trained US team called the “Nuclear Snake-Eaters” is now hard at work searching all incoming Israeli diplomatic pouches and shipments; driving by and flying over synagogues and Israeli embassies and Mossad safe-houses with high tech gamma-ray and helium-3 neutron detectors, and using ultra-high-tech custom-tuned and -focused satellites to search for any stored nuclear pits, as well as working hard to recover all stolen nuclear pits by the Israelis anywhere in the world outside of Israel.

This super-elite team was alerted by Michael Shrimpton's phone call to MI-6 notifying them that an Israeli “City Buster” was planted near the Olympic stadium. This call wrongly has landed him in jail. The City Buster was recovered by the “Nuclear Snake-eaters”, who entered England and recovered and disarmed a large city buster. Sadly MI-6 wanted this nuke detonated in order to gain more power for the Khazarian Mafia in England — their home base inside the City of London Financial District — since it has been losing power fast.

A secret name for these KM Chieftains which run much of the world out of the City of London is Gog and Magog, despite what so many historians believe is the secret name of Russia which it is not. It is the secret name of the top KM and apparently represents where they originally came from.

The secret team of super-elite “Nuclear Snake-eaters” is ready to be deployed to Israel anytime, should the nation collapse after most European corporations divest from Israel, and the US cuts off all aid, in order to comply with American law.

It is illegal to give aid to a nation that has nukes, and which has not signed the Nuclear Non-proliferation Agreement. Israel has nukes detectable from satellite-based Helium-3 sensors and has never admitted it, nor has it signed the Nuclear Non-proliferation Agreement. We must all demand that our Congress and Administration obey the law and immediately cut off all aid monetary and military aid to Israel, and arrest all Israeli espionage front directors of AIPAC, JINSA, the Defense Policy Board, the “Joint” in NYC, and the ADL, etc.

It is unknown but suspected that a significant number of these stolen nukes have been already recovered. It has been reported by insiders that a very solemn message was communicated to Bibi Netanyahu and his Likudists, as well as all top members of Israeli espionage fronts in America, like AIPAC, JINSA, the Defence Policy Board, the ADL and the like.

What was this serious warning? If insider reports are accurate, these folks were told that if there is one more Israeli-based false-flag attack, those who ordered it or were involved will be hunted down under American National Security and eliminated, and the Israeli defence structures associated with such will be turned to dust.

Rothschild Wealth Is Greater Than 75% Of The World

The rest of Rothschild KM history will likely be determined by YOU:

The future of the Rothschild KM will likely be determined by Veterans Today readers and We The People who learn the secret, forbidden history of the Khazarian Mafia that was excised from the history books and libraries by the KM to protect their evil history that no one would accept if it was known.

So share this story with your family, friends, and associates and take it viral. Be clear about this — unless the KM is able to operate in abject secrecy, it will be attacked from all sides and destroyed forever. So take away their secrecy by exposing their hidden history for all Americans to know and understand.

That is why they have worked so hard to buy up and control the CMMM and public mass education including colleges and universities, to make sure the people of the world would never find out about their secret evil, which is so inhuman, so homicidal that the whole world would gang up on them and attack them from all sides at every level they exist at.

The big question remains: Was the true cause of leaders of the Khazarian Mafia’s incredible evil and savagery toward the human race a byproduct of nature or nurture?

Some believe that this gross parasitism and inclination to mass-murder, engagement in paedophilia and child bloodletting, and child sacri-ifice is due to a toxic culture, best described as malignant Tribalism, characterized by a paranoid group racial superiority delusion.

Others think the leaders of the KM are the bloodline of Cain, that is, “children of Cain”, that are the Devil’s own and have absolutely no soul or human conscience but are pure predators like a wild beast — while at the same time being incredibly two-faced, that is able to put on a good con and a nice face on the outside. Perhaps it could be both factors. In any case, it is time to expose this evil, the greatest evil the world has ever experienced. It is time for the world to work together to eradicate this problem now and forever, by whatever means necessary.

Mike Harris is the Financial Editor of Veterans Today, a radio host, a former GOP Finance Chairman, a Gubernatorial Candidate for Arizona, and a Senior Vice President of Adamus Defence Group, Switzerland.

Mike is an expert in full-contact mixed martial arts. His long-term expertise in such has gained him a lot of respect and the nickname “Iron Mike”. Mike was a part of the Veterans Today group that attended the Damascus Conference to Combat Terrorism and Religious Extremism. Mike gave about twenty-five televised interviews that were broadcast to millions of viewers in Syria, Iraq, Lebanon, and Iran.

In these interviews, Mike emphasized and supported the historical declaration by Keynote Speaker, Veterans Today Senior Editor, and Chairman Gordon Duff that the real problem behind World Terrorism is a large Organized Crime Syndicate.

For those who have time and interest in the Head of the Khazarian Mafia (KM) Snake.

Return to Bomb Alley: 40 Years on, and The Falklands War Remains Shrouded in Mystery

Author Paul Cardin

Book Review

Author Paul Cardin, who served during the conflict, says there are many unanswered questions.

FORTY YEARS AGO, an Argentinean invasion of the Falkland Islands in early April 1982 was followed by 74 days of hostilities and an eventual British victory.

I was always politically aware, served in the Royal Navy and I am a veteran of this conflict. Aged just 22 at the time, my ship HMS Yarmouth found itself anchored in San Carlos bay (Bomb Alley) for a fortnight and here I saw ships being bombed and sunk, and my mates being injured and killed.

As a Leading Radio Operator, I saw all the messages that were being passed between ships and CINCFLEET HQ in Northwood, UK, and I was ideally placed to know what was going on as the events unfolded around me. Although this book contains my diary - including a daily timeline of events, written on location - it's very different from the usual military memoir.

It has the feel of documentary journalism and is written from a dedicated, enquiring perspective. The Falkland Islands are very distant, were not well-known to UK citizens in 1982, and were of uncertain or even limited value. At the time, some serious questions were forming in my mind about the circumstances of the invasion, the lightning-fast creation of a huge task force, and what exactly could have been going on behind the scenes to pressurise Margaret Thatcher into organising such a powerful military response so quickly.

This book is not one of those 'Here I am, pull up a chair, and here's a long list of what I did during the war' offerings. Instead, it poses a number of serious, probing questions from a neutral perspective, aimed at highlighting what may have been under discussion in Whitehall and Buenos Aires in the lead up to the invasion, during the fighting, and in the immediate aftermath. The main spotlight is focused on what decisions were being made and why in the action areas around the islands.

1. Why was it never reported by the BBC and UK media that 90 per cent of Falkland Islands land, including the vast sheep farms, was owned by absentee landlords, resident in the UK, and that Falkland Islanders were actually working tenants? So, just how 'paramount' were the islanders' interests, as claimed by Margaret Thatcher?
2. On the day when ARA General Belgrano was sunk, killing 368 Argentine sailors, why had it allegedly taken 17 hours for an urgent telegram, containing the full details of the Peruvian peace plan, to reach 10 Downing Street?
3. Was it right for task force leader Admiral Sandy Woodward to suggest that the Belgrano was part of a pincer movement and therefore represented an imminent threat to Britain's aircraft carriers?
4. Why was public access to all incoming telegrams sent during the Falklands conflict embargoed until 2052, or a further 40 years?
5. Pre-invasion, why did Foreign Office Minister Nicholas Ridley hold clandestine meetings in secret locations with senior members of the Argentine junta, where trade deals, Falkland Islands sovereignty and a 99-year leaseback deal were all on the table?

6. Why was Britain still selling arms to the fascist Argentine junta just four days before the invasion?

7. In the face of high-level protests, why were sweeping defence cuts to UK forces being made in the South Atlantic area in late 1981, and did these reductions leave the Argentine junta with the impression that an invasion of the islands would stand uncontested?

8. What was the 1,000 lb bomb that I heard rumours of during the conflict - a bomb that was regularly being passed from ship to ship? Was it a tactical, nuclear depth charge, the possession of which breached the South American nuclear-weapon-free-zone” treaty?

9. Were any ships containing the 1,000lb bomb sunk during the conflict, creating a ‘Broken Arrow’ situation?

10. Had Britain’s junior ranking soldiers and marines been operating with an unspoken, socialist, brothers-in-arms ethos in order to better harness their bravery and loyalty?

11. How could Argentine forces’ volunteers serve a fascist military junta which had spent years kidnapping, disappearing and murdering thousands of their own citizens?

12. Has the Falkland Islands Government now lost credibility and stature by investing heavily in extremely difficult to recover gas and oil as part of a ‘fortress’ economy heavily reliant upon fossil fuels?

I have accessed and reproduced many of the official documents that had been hidden away at the time by the Conservative government. I have signposted and summarised these events from my own perspective, which gives readers a better insight into government evasions, the lies that were told at the time and why.

After the conflict, no matter how hard they tried, the British public couldn’t get to see what was happening behind the scenes. They were constantly drip-fed gushing media stories about political and military courage and the glory of the Falklands victory.

I have never doubted that there was plenty of courage on display, from fighters on both sides.

In 1982, and with all the sensitive cabinet documents under lock and key for the next 30 years, the UK government and media had granted themselves the perfect opportunity to gaslight the electorate into voting for a Conservative government; one that went on to enjoy a landslide election victory just a year later in June 1983.

Return to Bomb Alley – the Falklands Deception’ will be published on Mar 28. See Amazon Kindle, Apple Books, Barnes & Noble, Nook, Kobo, and others. Source

Return of The Lock-down Next Month (August) in Australia and Elsewhere? From Our West Midlands Correspondent

AN AUSTRALIAN spoke to a very high level lawyer last night. He told me in absolute confidence that his people high up in government have told him privately that end of August they are bringing in Stage 5 restrictions, not stage 4, but stage 5!

With martial law and government food rationing. There will be food shortages and army in the streets.

So many of the army in Darwin right now are training and preparing for this. You've got less than two months to prepare.

I've got a friend who owns a massive security company in Perth he has 300 employees. He deals with the government a fair bit: a lawyer from the government told him by the end of August we will be at level 5 lock down which hasn't been seen before: everything closed no one leaves home without a special permit from the government. There will be military on streets protecting food supplies and there will be food shortages. I found this out ore week ago before the first case popped up. This is all planned on a global scale as part of a global take over Share this info around with everyone you know to wake up!

Better start stocking up discreetly on food and other essentials??

Better to have it and not need it, than not have it and need it!!

The Venetian Conspiracy By Webster G. Tarpley, Ph.D

Address delivered to the ICLC Conference near Wiesbaden, Germany, Easter Sunday, 1981 on his book of the same name; (appeared in Campaigner, September, 1981)

PERIODS OF HISTORY MARKED, LIKE THE ONE WE ARE LIVING THROUGH, by the convulsive instability of human institutions pose a special challenge for those who seek to base their actions on adequate and authentic knowledge of historical process. Such knowledge can come only through viewing history as the lawful interplay of contending conspiracies pitting Platonists against their epistemological and political adversaries.

There is no better way to gain insight into such matters than through the study of the history of the Venetian oligarchy, the classic example of oligarchical despotism and evil outside of the Far East.

Venice called itself the Serenissima Republica (Serene Republic), but it was no republic in any sense comprehensible to an American, as James Fenimore Cooper points out in the preface to his novel The Bravo. But its sinister institutions do provide an unmatched continuity of the most hideous oligarchical rule for fifteen centuries and more, from the years of the moribund Roman Empire in the West to the Napoleonic Wars, only yesterday in historical terms. Venice can best be thought of as a kind of conveyor belt, transporting the Babylonian contagions of decadent antiquity smack dab into the world of modern states.

The more than one and one-half millennia of Venetian continuity is first of all that of the oligarchical families and the government that was their stooge, but it is even more the relentless application of a characteristic method of statecraft and political intelligence. Venice, never exceeding a few hundred thousand in population, rose to the status of Great Power in the thirteenth century, and kept that status until the Peace of Westphalia in 1648, thanks to the most highly developed system of embassies, of domestic and foreign intelligence, and related operational potentials.

As the following story details, Venice was at the centre of the efforts to destroy the advanced European civilization of the eleventh and twelfth centuries, and bears a crushing burden of guilt for the ascendancy of the Black Guelphs and the coming of the black plague.

The Venetians were the intelligencers for the Mongol army of Ghengis Khan and his heirs, and had a hand in guiding them to the sack of Baghdad and the obliteration of its renaissance in the thirteenth century.

The Venetians were the mortal enemies of the humanist Paleologue dynasty in Byzantium. They were the implacable foes of Gemisthos Plethon, Cosimo de' Medici, Leonardo da Vinci, Niccolo Machiavelli, and the entirety of the Florentine Golden Renaissance, which they conspired – successfully – to destroy. Venetian influence was decisive in cutting off the Elizabethan epoch in England, and in opening the door to the lugubrious Jacobean era.

Venetian public relations specialists were responsible for picking up the small-time German provincial heretic Martin Luther (above) and raising him to the big-time status of heresiarch among a whole herd of total-predestination divines. Not content with this wrecking operation against the Church, Venice was thereafter the “mother” for the unsavoury, itinerant Ignatius of Loyola and his Jesuit order.

After the Council of Trent, Venice was also the matrix for the Philosophe-Libertin ferment of the delphic, anti-Leibniz Enlightenment. Venice beat Thomas Malthus and Jeremy Bentham to the punch in inflicting British political economy and philosophical radicalism on the whole world.

Although Napoleon Bonaparte had the merit of forcing the formal liquidation of this loathsome organism during his Italian campaign of 1797, his action did not have the effect we would have desired. The cancer, so to speak, had already had ample time for metastasis – into Geneva, Amsterdam, London, and elsewhere.

Thus, though the sovereign political power of Venice had been extinguished, its characteristic method lived on, serving as the incubator of what the twentieth century knows as fascism, first in its role as a breeding ground for the proto-fascist productions of Wagner and Nietzsche, later in the sponsorship of fascist politicians like Gabriele D'Annunzio and Benito Mussolini.

The Venetians ran a large chunk of the action associated with the Parvus Plan to dismember Russia, and may well have been the ones who surprised everyone, including London, by unleashing World War 1 in the Balkans.

Most important, Venice is today through its Cini Foundation and its Soci t  Europeenne de Culture the think tank and staging area for the Club of Rome and related deployments. Venice is the supranational homeland of the New Dark Ages gang, the unifying symbol for the most extreme Utopian lunatic fringe in the international intelligence community today.

Get to know Venice. Then look back to the monetarist imbecility of Paul Volker, at the ideological fanaticism that radiates forth from the Bank of America, Chase Manhattan, the Bank for International Settlements and he rest. You will recognize the unmistakable putrid stench of a Venetian canal (above), where the rotting marble palaces of generations of parasites are corroded by the greatest cynicism and cruelty the world has ever known.

The Origins

In the Middle Ages the Venetians were known as the archetypes of the parasite, the people who “neither sow nor reap.” For the Greeks, they were the hated “frogs of the marshes.” In Germany, a folk tale describes the merchant of Venice as an aged Pantaloon who makes his rounds robbing men of their human hearts and leaving a cold stone in their place.

Closer to the essence of Venice is the city’s symbol, the winged lion of St. Mark, bearing the misleading inscription, Pax Tibi Marce, Evangelista Meus (“Peace be with you Mark, my evangelist.”) The chimerical winged lion comes out of the East, either from Persia or from China. The symbol is thus blatantly pagan, with St. Mark being added as an afterthought because of his alleged visit to the Venetian lagoons. To buttress the story, the Venetians stole St. Mark’s body from Alexandria in Egypt, and Tintoretto has a painting celebrating this feat.

The point is that Venice looks East, toward the Levant, Asia Minor, central Asia, and the Far East, toward its allies among the Asian and especially Chinese oligarchies which were its partners in trade and war. This is reflected in a whole range of weird, semi-oriental features of Venetian life, most notably the secluded, oriental status of women, with Doges like Mocenigo proudly exhibiting a personal harem well into modern times.

Venice today sits close to the line from Lubeck to Trieste, the demarcation between NATO and Warsaw Pact Europe, roughly corresponding to the boundary between Turks in the East and Christians in the West, and still earlier between the Holy Roman and Byzantine Empires.

Into this part of the northern Adriatic flow the rivers of the southern side of the Dolomites and the Julian Alps. The greatest of these is the Po. These rivers, around 300 A.D., made the northern Adriatic a continuous belt of marshes and lagoons about fifteen kilometres wide, and extending from the city of Ravenna around to the base of the Istrian Peninsula, where the Italian-Yugoslavian border lies today.

In the centre of this system was Aquileia, starting point of an important north-south trade route across the Brenner Pass to the Danube Valley and Bohemia. Aquileia was the seat of a patriarch of the Christian Church, but its tradition was overwhelmingly pagan, and typified by rituals of the Ancient Egyptian Isis cult.

For a time after the year 404, Ravenna and not Rome was the capital of the Roman Empire in the West. After the extinction of the western empire, Ravenna was the seat of government of Theodoric the Ostrogoth, the court visited by Boethius. Later Ravenna was the capital of a part of Italy ruled by the Byzantines.

The islands of the lagoons provided an invulnerable refuge, comparable to Switzerland during World War II, for Roman aristocrats and others fleeing the paths of Goth, Hun, and Langobard armies. Already between 300 and 400 A.D. there are traces of families whose names will later become infamous: Candiano, Faliero, Dandolo.

Legend has it that the big influx of refugees came during the raids of Attila the Hun in 452 A.D. Various areas of the lagoons were colonized, including the present site of Torcello, before the seat of administration was fixed at a group of islands known as Rivus Altus (“the highest bank”), later the Rialto, the present location of the city of Venice. The official Ab Urbe Condita is March 25, 721 A.D. Paoluccio Anafesto, the first ruler of the lagoon communities, called the doge (the Venetian equivalent of Latin dux or Florentine duca/duce, meaning leader or duke), is said to have been elected in the year 697.

The most significant fact of this entire period is that the whelp of what was later to become Venice survived and grew thanks to its close alliance with the evil Emperor Justinian in Constantinople, an alliance that was underlined in later years by intermarriage of doge and other leading Venetian oligarchs with the nobility of Byzantium, where a faction embodying the sinister traditions of the Roman Senate lived on for a thousand years after the fall of Rome in 476.

Venetian families are divided into two categories. First come the oldest families, or Longhi, who can claim to prove their nobility substantially before the year 1000. The Longhi include many names that are sadly familiar to the student of European history: Dandolo, Michiel, Morosini, Contarini, Giustinian (perhaps related to the just-mentioned Byzantine emperor), Zeno, Corner (or Cornaro), Gradenigo, Tiepolo, and Falier.

These old families held a monopoly of the dogeship until 1382, at which time they were forced to admit the parvenu newcomers, or Curti, to the highest honour of the state. After this time new families like Mocenigo, Foscari, Malipiero, Vendramin, Loredano, Gritti, Dona, and Trevisan came into the ascendancy.

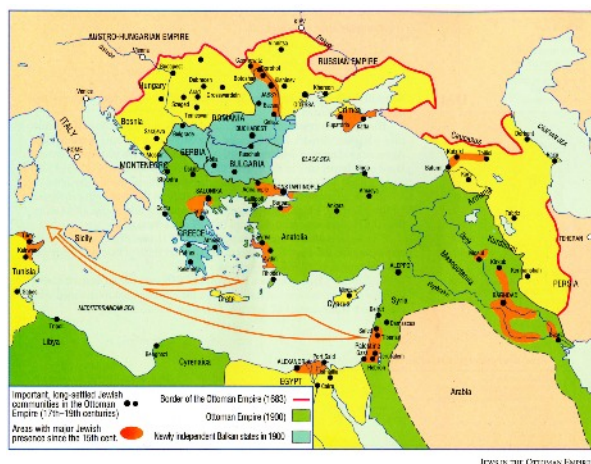

These families and the state they built grew rich through their parasitising of trade, especially East-West trade, which came to flow overwhelmingly through the Rialto markets. But there is a deeper reality, one which even derogatory stories about spice merchants are designed to mask. The primary basis for Venetian opulence was slavery.

This slavery was practiced as a matter of course against Saracens, Mongols, Turks, and other non-Christians. In addition, it is conclusively documented that it was a matter of standard Venetian practice to sell Christians into slavery. This included Italians and Greeks, who were most highly valued as galley slaves. It included Germans and Russians, the latter being shipped in from Tana, the Venetian outpost at the mouth of the Don, in the farthest corner of the Sea of Azov. At a later time, black Africans were added to the list and rapidly became a fad among the nobility of the republic.

The Political Economy of Slavery

During the years of the Venetian overseas empire, islands like Crete, Cyprus, Corfu, Naxos, and smaller holdings in the Aegean were routinely worked by slave labour, either directly under the Venetian regime, or under the private administration of a Venetian oligarchical clan like the Corner, who owed their riches to such slavery.

In later centuries, the harems of the entire Ottoman Empire (above), from the Balkans to Morocco, were stocked by Venetian slaves. The shock troops of the Ottoman Turkish armies, the Janissaries, were also largely provided by Venetian merchants. A section of the Venetian waterfront is still called Riva Degli Schiavoni – slaves’ dock.

Around 1500, the Venetian oligarch Cristoforo da Canal, the leading admiral of the Serenissima Repubblica at that time, composed what he described as a Platonic dialogue concerning the relative merits of galley slaves: the Italians the worst, Dalmatians better, the Greeks the best and toughest of all, although personally filthy and repulsive. In the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Venice had treaty relations with other states, like Bavaria, by which convicts were delivered to the Serenissima to work as life-long galley slaves.

Indistinguishable from slave gathering operation were piracy and buccaneering, the other staples of the Venetian economy. Wars with Genoa or with other powers were eagerly sought-after opportunities to loot the enemy's shipping with clouds of corsairs, and victory or defeat usually depended more on the success of the privateering than on the direct combat of the galleys, cogs, and soldiers of the battle fleets.

Piracy shades over imperceptibly into routine commerce. Through decades of treachery and mayhem, the Venetians were able to establish themselves as the leading entrepot port of the Mediterranean world, where, as in London up to 1914, the vast bulk of the world's strategic commodities were brought for sale, warehousing, and transshipment.

The most significant commodities were spices and silks from India and China, destined for markets in Central and Western Europe. Europe in turn produced textiles and metals, especially precious metals, for export to the East.

Venetian production from the earliest period until the end was essentially nil, apart from salt and the glass manufactures of Murano. The role of the Venetian merchant is that of the profiteering middleman who rooks both buyer and seller, backing up his monopolization of the distribution and transportation systems with the war galleys of the battle fleet.

A Venetian Galley

The Venetian approach to trade was ironically dirigistic. Venice asserted a monopoly of all trade and shipping in the northern Adriatic. The Serenissima's own functionaries organized merchant galley fleets that were sent out one or two times a year to key ports.

The galleys were built by the regime in its shipyards, known as the Arsenal, for many centuries the largest factory in the world. They were leased to oligarchs and consortia of oligarchs at a type of auction. Every detail of the operation of these galley fleets, including the obligation to travel in convoy, was stipulated by peremptory state regulation.

In the heyday of Venice, galley fleets were sent to Tana and to Trebizond in the Black Sea, to Crete, Rhodes, and Cyprus on the way to Beirut in the Levant, to Tunis, Tripoli, Algiers, Oran, and Alexandria in North Africa, as well as to Spanish, French, and west coast Italian cities. Especially well-served was "Romania," the area roughly corresponding to modern Greece. Another galley route passed through Gibraltar on the way to Southampton, London, Antwerp, and Bruges.

Many of these galley ports correspond to continuing Venetian influence today. In every instance the Venetians sought to skim the cream off the top of world trade. Their profit margins had to be sufficient to cover a "traditional" twenty percent interest rate, the financing of frequent wars, and maritime insurance premiums, in which they were pioneers.

The Venetian State

The tremendous stability of the Venetian state has fascinated historians. How is it possible to maintain the great power of Venice for more than a millennium and a half without being conquered from the outside, and without significant upheavals from within?

Venice remained impervious to foreign invasion from the first settlement until 1797. The monolithic iniquity of Venetian state institutions was seriously disturbed no more than a half dozen times from within the city, and such incidents were speedily terminated by bloodbaths that restored stability rather than spurring more violence. This feature of the Venetian oligarchical system contrasts sharply with that of its rival, Genoa, where each regime from 1300 to 1500 had the life expectancy of an Italian government today. It contrasts sharply with the papacy, where the highest office was up for grabs every dozen years or less, and where humanist factions could sometimes prevail.

In Venice, the bloody resolution of internal faction fights within the oligarchy was suppressed to a minimum, and these energies were effectively sublimated in the depredation of the outside world. The raging heteronomy of each oligarch was directed outward, not at his factional rivals. In the typology of Plato's Republic, Venice is an oligarchy, "a constitution according to property, in which the rich govern and the poor man has no share in government," "the rule of the few, constitution full of many evils."

This oligarchy has a residue of timocracy, of rule based on honour. But at the same time the Venetian regime was perversely aware of Plato's description of the swift transition from oligarchy to democracy and thence to tyranny, and against this evolution the patriciate took measures.

Plato notes in Book VIII of The Republic that a "change in a constitution always begins from the governing class when there is a faction within; but so long as they are of one mind, even if they be a very small class, it is impossible to disturb them." The threat of factionalisation is located in the "storehouse full of gold, which every man has," and which "destroys such a constitution."

The oligarchs "lay a sum of money, greater or less, according as the oligarchy is more or less complete, and proclaim that no one may share in the government unless his property comes up to the assessment. This they carry out by force of arms, or they have used terror before this to establish such a constitution."

Venice lasted as long as it did because of the effective subordination of the oligarchs and families to the needs of the oligarchy as a whole, by the ironclad delimitation of noble status to those already noble in 1297 and their male descendants, and by continuous terror against the masses and against the nobility itself.

All male members of the approximately one hundred fifty noble families had the permanent right to a seat in the Gran Consiglio, or Great Council, which grew to 2000 members around 1500 and thereafter slowly declined. The seat in the Gran Consiglio and the vote it brought were thus independent of which faction happened to be calling the shots at a given moment. The ins might be in, but the outs were sure of their place in the Gran Consiglio, and this body elected the key governing bodies of the regime. The first of these were the one hundred twenty members, or Pregadi, of the Senate, the upper house which oversaw foreign affairs by choosing the Venetian ambassadors. In the middle of the fifteenth century, Venice was the first and only power which regularly maintained permanent legations in all principal courts and capitals. The Senate also chose five war ministers, five naval ministers (all called Savi), and six Savii Grandi, ministers of still higher rank.

The Gran Consiglio elected a Council of Forty, (above) which was first devoted to budget and finance matters, later more to criminal prosecution. The Gran Consiglio chose three state prosecutors, who could and did sue any official of the state for malfeasance, although the doge was accorded the privilege of being tried after his death, with his family paying any fines levied.

The Gran Consiglio also elected the doge himself, through an incredible Byzantine procedure designed to assure a representative choice. First, thirty members of the Gran Consiglio were chosen at random, using colored balls whose Venetian name is the origin of the American word ballot. These thirty drew lots to cut their number down to nine, who then nominated and elected a new group of forty electors. These were then cut down by drawing lots to a group of twelve. This procedure was repeated several times, terminating with a group of forty-one electors of whom twenty-five could nominate a doge for the approval of the Gran Consiglio. Somewhat less complicated procedures were used to select a group of six advisors for the doge.

Most typical of the Venetian system is the Council of Ten, established in 1310 as the coordinating body for foreign and domestic political intelligence operations. Meeting in secret session together with the doge and his six advisors, the Ten had the power to issue a bill of capital attainder against any person inside Venetian jurisdiction, or abroad.
