THE SHOOTING WAR OF 'OPERATION DESERT SHIELD' IS ABOUT OVER, let us pray that we do not allow the powers behind the scene to cause us to lose the Peace.

Ten members of the 26 members of the Congressional Black Caucus either opposed or voted present on the resolution supporting President Bush and the troop battling in the Gulf. On February 16-House Speaker Tom Foley played fast and loose with our National Security by filling 4 out of 5 vacancies on the Super Sensitive House Intelligence Committee with members from the FAR LEFT WING of his party. He named them to a six year term on this panel, and one of them especially was Ron Dellums of California who is considered as the biggest risk by our Security experts.

Daniel Ortega of Nicaragua flew to Bagdad just before war broke out to show his support for Saddam Hussein, as did Black Muslim leader Louis Farrakhan, and of course Jesse Jackson who was paid $125,000 for his inter- view with Saddam.

Peter Arnett who represents CNN in Bagdad was, in the Vietnam War a reporter who was very Anti-U.S.A. Was this why he was chosen to remain behind in Bagdad?

According to U.S. News and World Report, it is the Soviet Union that has been providing Iraq with critical gulf war intelligence. Soviet advisors still in Bagdad have advised the Iraqi as to when and where the Satellites travel and how the on-board Camera's work. Thus helping them to hide their Scud Missile bases, yet even this did not help them to victory.

From the magazine Insight: it is being called the philological scandal of the century. We are talking about the controversy still raging around the Dead Sea Scrolls. In 1947 a vast library was found in the Caves near the Dead Sea which provided invaluable insight into the nature of Judaism and Christianity, two religions and the people who proclaim them.

In these 40 years since their recovery, Religious Scholars trying to study them and publish their findings have been side-tracked. Since the Israeli took Old Jerusalem in their six day war in 1967 with Jordan, the Scrolls have been almost inaccessible to Western Scholars.

Now; the allegations of anti-Semitism has been added to this controversy. John Strugnell of the Harvard Divinity School and also the Editor -in-chief of the Scroll Project gave an interview to the Israeli Newspaper. In this interview of October, 1990, Strugnell, a 60 year old Roman Catholic originally from Britain, had worked on the Scrolls Project since 1953. However he had never made a secret of his position to Zionism, and finally he spoke out. This is just a bit of what he had to say which now brands him as Anti-Semitic. (quote)

'Judaism is a Horrible Religion, it is racist and should have disappeared long ago. The Jewish reporter then said: we have not managed to convert, and we should have managed long ago. Then he went on to say that he deplored the existence of Israeli as a State because it is founded on a lie.' Unquote Needless to say John Strugnell was dismissed from his job, and was then quietly hospitalized in Boston Mass. They say he was ill when he did the interview.

In all, about 800 Scrolls, most of them leather, and parchment, and one of copper are written in Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek of those found in Qumran. In 1952 more Scrolls were found, and two more caves remain to be explored. John Strugnell in his interview stated that he had tried to buy a previously unknown Scroll from a Kuwaiti Merchant. It seems that those working on the Scrolls have staked their reputations on the untenable hypothesis that the Scrolls make up the library thought to be of a Jewish sect, but the TEXTS DO NOT FIT INTO THIS SECTARIAN HYPOTHESIS, in particular, namely because they represent things not known, from the Bible understanding of today. These were the Scrolls assigned to John Strugnell for study, and none of his findings have been published.

To explain these unpublished Scrolls, it has been suggested that these texts represent the writings of the Jewish people as a whole in an age when Judaism was undergoing change, rethinking, and often turbulent developments ,but this explanation also does not satisfy a multitude of people.

Robert Eiseman professor of Religious Studies at California State University of Long Beach, has also been critical of the Scroll team. In 1989 he threatened to sue for access to those Scrolls, in the Israeli High Court of Justice. These later Scrolls are said to be of events which happened in the 40's and up through the 60's and to revolve around the character known in the New Testament as James the brother of Jesus. The worrisome question today is what will happen to these Scrolls as Israeli now says they have more concerns to think about such as life and death from their enemies, therefore the question of the Scrolls and who can see them is put on hold. The question of the use of these Scrolls by Scholars of Christendom is now buried.

Many of our people seem to think that President Bush and the Coalition partners are trying to help the Zionist set up a One World Government in little Israeli, this they say is Bush's New World Order. The Scripture says that there will be a New World Order, based on LAW., and that this will be set in place even while the enemy is trying to establish their One World Order, which seems to be collapsing. I do not think that most people realize how much we have been under that One World Government of the enemy for some time. The U.N. of today is now under control of the U.S. and the Western World along with most of the Arab Nations, which is a big switch since in the beginning it was controlled by Communists of the Soviet Union. Thus we watch events with much interest.

As finally the stories of the atrocities come out then we think that the people will get a better picture of what has been happening at the other end of the Old Promised Land, and will understand better what is going on. As this 'Arch of Triumph' built by the orders of SADDAM is revealed, as well as the other 'Totalitarian Kitsch', called 'ART, then people are going to realize that this was simply propaganda which tells a lie, celebrating a non-existent victory, and if this man remains in power the Soviet Union will have at least scored a small victory, after all he is their puppet, although he does not obey orders all the time. Still he was the man to accomplish what they had in mind.
