More Jewish Lies Exposed!

FOR MORE THAN FIFTY YEARS, SINCE THE END OF WORLD WAR II, THE TALMUDIC, ZIONIST JEWS have sought to manipulate through Jewish Socialization, White Western public opinion by crying, "Poor, persecuted Jew," while systematically victimizing White Christian culture. This constitutes a perfect description of the Jewish Socialization or Jewish Socialism. Both atheistic, Jewish, Socialism and atheistic, Communist, Socialism are ideas predicated upon the practice of engineering society along atheistic and Jewish ideas. This has been the method of operation of the atheistic, Talmudic, Zionist Jew even before the first century or the time of Christ.

Truth at Last: Israeli history textbooks are now being rewritten, reports Ethan Bronner in "The New York Times" (August 14, 1999) as a new generation of historians are replacing myths with facts about the nation's founding. "Schoolchildren have long been taught that Jews have always been surrounded by enemies and that their victory over five Arab states in the 1948 War of Independence was a new miracle of David-and-Goliath proportions." The Times reports. "But—now officially approved textbooks make plain that many of the most common Israeli beliefs are as much myth as fact. The new books say, for example, that it was the Israelis who had the military edge in the War of Independence."

They admit that Palestinians did not voluntarily leave their land, as has been taught, but that they were expelled by Israeli soldiers. One ninth grade text, "Passage To The Past," mentions the 1948 massacre carried out by radical Zionist forces in the village of Deir Yassin. This is from a report of The American Council for Judaism, December 99. In the Councils publication, "Issues," is the surprising admission that "the rise of the Holocaust to the top of the Jewish agenda was by no means a spontaneous development" but rather the "consequence of decisions made by communal leaders in response to their appraisals of current communal needs" meaning the need for support for Israel, as pointed out further in the article: "the Holocaust framework has promoted as well a belligerent stance toward any criticism of Israel."

The article states, "Examples of how the Holocaust has been used as a weapon to promote policies favorable to Israel are extensive." Yet to be published by the Council is the fact that the 6 million figure is a myth, invented in 1945 by Llya Ehrenburg, Stalins Jewish propaganda chief during World War II. Since then the figures have been systematically reduced:

(1) May 7, 1945: The Soviet Jewish anti-Fascist Committee announced that the number gassed at Auschwitz was 4,00,000;

(2) September 1, 1998: Director of Holocaust studies, Yeduha Bauer of Yad Vashem, Holocaust Centre at Jerusalem, set the number of deaths at Auschwitz at 1,600,000;

(3) 1989: Professor Raul Hilberg, Professor of Holocaust Studies in Tel Aviv, Israel, lists the Auschwitz total at 1,250,000;

(4) July, 1990: Polish Historians replaced the plaque at Auschwitz with a new one stating that those who died of all causes and of all nationalities is 1,100,000; and

(5) In 1991: Mikhail Gorbachev opened the KBG archives and gave Elizabeth Dole the complete official German register of all deaths, which totalled 74,000. No gas chamber for the extermination of humans has ever been found at any camp.

The atheistic Jew has relentlessly sought to impose his materialistic, atheistic ideas upon the Western White man, both religious and political. He has systematically invaded the White Man's schools of theology, seeking to destroy any lingering first century ideas of Christianity, and in turn pervert Christianity against itself, enabling the Jew to use Christianity as a tool to destroy the White Race. Thus, Judeo-Christianity is nothing more than Judaized versions of so-called Christianity. This becomes a tool of the Jewish Socialist.

“The Gnostics derived their leading doctrines and ideas from Plato and Philo, the Zend-avesta, the Kabbalah, and the Sacred books of India and Egypt; and thus introduced into the bosom of Christianity the cosmological and theosophical speculations, which had formed the larger portion of the ancient religions of the Orient, joined to those of the Egyptian, Greek, and Jewish doctrines, which the Neo-Platonists had equally adopted in the Occident..It is admitted that the cradle of Gnosticism is probably to be looked for in Syria and even in Palestine.

Most of its expounders wrote in that corrupted form of the Greek used by the Hellenistic Jews—and there was a striking analogy between their doctrines and those of the Judeo-Egyptian Philo of Alexandria; itself the seat of three schools, at once philosophic and religious, the Greek, the Egyptian, and the Jewish. Pythagoras and Plato, the most mystical of the Grecian philosophers (the latter heir to the doctrines of the former), and who had travelled, the latter in Egypt, and the former in Phoenicia, India, and Persia, also taught the esoteric doctrine. The dominant doctrines of Plutonism were found in Gnosticism...

The Jewish-Greek School of Alexandria is known only by two of its chiefs, Aristobulus and Philo, both Jews of Alexandria in Egypt. Belonging to Asia by its origin, to Egypt by its residence, to Greece by its language and studies, it strove to show that all truths embedded in the philosophies of other countries were transplanted thither from Palestine. Aristobulus declared that all the facts and details of the Jewish Scriptures were so many allegories concealing the most profound meanings, and that Plato had borrowed from them all his finest ideas.

Philo, who lived a century after him, following the same theory, endeavoured to show that the Hebrew writings, by their system of allegories, were the true source of all religions and philosophical doctrines. According to him, the literal meaning was for the vulgar alone.—The Jews of Syria and Judea were the direct precursors of Gnosticism; and in their doctrines were ample Oriental elements.

These Jews had had with the Orient, at two different periods, intimate relations, familiarizing them with the doctrines of Asia and especially of Chaldea and Persia—Living nearly two-thirds of a century, and many of them long afterward, in Mesopotamia, the cradle of their race; speaking the same language, and their children reared with those of the Chaldeans. Assyrians, Medes, and Persians, they necessarily adopted many of the doctrines of their conquerors—and these additions to the old doctrine were soon spread by the constant intercourse of commerce into Syria and Palestine...

From Egypt or Persia the new Platonists borrowed the idea, and the Gnostics received it from them, that man, in his terrestrial career, is successively under the influence of the Moon, Mercury, Venus, Sun, Mars, Jupiter, and Saturn, until he finally reaches the Elysian Fields."

The Jews have also systematically invaded the schools of learning. Today, the atheistic Jew continues to Jewish/socialize little, White, Christian children by teaching his atheistic and communistic holocaust (holohoax) propaganda in the American schools, all the while denying White, Christian Americans their freedom of speech and freedom to rebut or dispute the blatant Jewish liars who come to the American school system to tell their demonic lies, and thereby Jewish/socialize our American White children.

"The Jewish Establishment"

In the early 1930's, Walter Duranty of the New York Times was in Moscow, covering Joe Stalin the way Joe Stalin wanted to be covered. To maintain favours and access, he expressly denied that there was famine in Ukraine even while millions of Ukrainian Christians were being starved into submission. For his work Duranty won the Pulitzer Prize for journalism. To this day, the Times remains the most magisterial and respectable of American newspapers. Now imagine that a major newspaper had had a correspondent in Berlin during roughly the same period who hobnobbed with Hitler, portrayed him in a flattering light, and denied that Jews were being mistreated, thereby not only concealing, but materially assisting the regime's persecution. Would that paper's respectability have been unimpaired several decades later?

There you have an epitome of what is lamely called 'media bias.' The Western supporters of Stalin haven't just been excused; they have received the halo of victim hood for the campaign, in what liberals call 'the McCarthy era,' to get them out of the government, the education system, and respectable society itself.

Not only persecution of Jews but any critical mention of Jewish power in the media and politics is roundly condemned as 'anti-Semitism.' But there isn't even a term of opprobrium for participation in the mass murders of Christians. Liberals still don't censure the Communist attempt to extirpate Christianity from Soviet Russia and its empire, and for good reason, liberals themselves, particularly Jewish liberals, are still trying to uproot Christianity from America.

It's permissible to discuss the power of every other group, from the Black Muslims to the Christian Right, but the much greater power of the Jewish establishment is off-limits. That, in fact, is the chief measure of its power: its ability to impose its own taboos while tearing down the taboos of others, you might almost say its prerogative of offending. You can read articles in Jewish-controlled publications from the Times to Commentary blaming Christianity for the Holocaust or accusing Pope Pius XII of indifference to it, but don't look for articles in any major publication that wants to stay in business examining the Jewish role in Communism and liberalism, however temperately."

The holocaust is taught in schools, and the Jew is allowed to come in and teach his religious views in the context of teaching about the holocaust, and he influences our children into believing that Jews are the chosen people of God. In reality, true White Christians are the Chosen People of God. Atrocity propaganda is nothing new to the Jews. It has accompanied every conflict of the 20th century and doubtless will continue to do so. During the First World War, the Germans were actually accused of eating Belgian babies, as well as delighting to throw them in the air and transfix them on bayonets. The British also alleged that the German forces were operating a "Corpse Factory," in which they boiled down the bodies of their own dead in order to obtain glycerine and other commodities, a calculated insult to the honour of the German Army. After the war, however, came the retractions: Indeed, a public statement was made by the Foreign Secretary in the House of Commons apologizing for the insults to German honour, which were admitted to be war-time propaganda.

No such statements have been made after the Second World War (The Jews had obtained absolute control of the news papers, magazines and etc., by the end of the war). In fact, rather than diminish with the passage of years, the atrocity propaganda concerning the German occupation, and in particular their treatment of the Jews, has done nothing but increase its virulence and elaborate its catalogue of horrors. Gruesome paperback books with lurid covers continue to roll from the presses, adding continuously to a growing mythology of the concentration camps and especially to the story that no less than Six Million Jews were exterminated in them.

This study will reveal this claim to be the most colossal piece of fiction and the most successful of deceptions; but here an attempt may be made to answer an important question: What has rendered the atrocity stories of the Second World War so uniquely different from those of the First? Why were the former retracted while the latter are reiterated louder than ever? Is it possible that the story of the Six Million Jews is serving a political purpose; that it is a form of political blackmail?

So far as the Jewish people, themselves, are concerned, the deception has been an incalculable benefit. Every conceivable race and nationality had its share of suffering in the Second World War, but none has so successfully elaborated it and turned it to such great advantage. The alleged extent of their persecution quickly aroused sympathy for the Jewish national homeland they had sought for so long; after the War the British Government did little to prevent Jewish emigration to Palestine which they had declared illegal, and it was not long afterwards that the Zionists wrested from the Government the land of Palestine and created their haven from persecution, the State of Israel.

Massacres Committed by The Jews in Palestine A Partial List

The worst of the massacres were the King David Hotel, the Semiramis Hotel, Deir Yassin, Dawayma, Kibya, Kafr Kassim, the attack against the USS Liberty and the Libyan Boeing 727 Airliner, and the massacres against Sabra and Shatila and other refugee camps in Lebanon. Following are just a few of the many massacres committed by the Jewish/Zionists; specifically the Hagana, Irgun and Stern Gangs of Israel: The Massacre of:—

24. Kahr Kassem, Oct. 29, 1956.
25. Gharandal, Sept. 13, 1956.
26. Gaza Strip, Nov. 1956.

July 2, 1946: The King David Hotel in Jerusalem was bombed. Killing 91 people. Menachem Begin, who was recently given the so-called Nobel Peace Prize (It seems this prize is given to the people who can kill the most Christians and get away with it!), and is the same Begin who planned the destruction of the King David Hotel and the massacre of Deir Yassin. Ex prime minister, Shamir, was originally a member of the Jewish terrorist gang called Irgun, which was headed by none other than Menachem Begin. Shamir later moved over to the even more radical "Stern Gang," which committed many vicious atrocities. Shamir himself has defended the various assassinations committed by the Irgun and Stern gangs on the grounds that "it was the only way we could operate, because we were so small. So it was more efficient and more moral to go for selected targets." The selected moral targets in those early days of the founding of the state of Israel included bombing of the King David Hotel and the massacre of Deir Yassin.

1946: Treaty. President Truman ordered the augmentation of U.S. Troops along the zonal occupation line and the reinforcement of air forces in Northern Italy after Yugoslav forces shot down an unarmed U.S. Army transport plane flying over Venezia Giulia. Earlier U.S. Naval units had been dispatched to the scene. The Irgun Gang murdered almost 100 British by bombing the King David Hotel. Terrorism also was (and still is) routinely practiced against Arabs to stampede them out of Palestine, thereby reducing their demographic strength even as uninvited Jews stream into the country.

The King David Hotel explosion of July 22, 1946, which resulted in the deaths of 92 Britons, Arabs and Jews, and in the wounding of 58, was not just an "extremist act" of "Jewish extremists," but a premeditated massacre conducted by the Irgun in agreement with the highest Jewish political authorities in Palestine, the Jewish Agency and its head David Ben-Gurion. According to Yitshaq Ben-Ami, a Palestinian Jew who spent 30 years in exile after the establishment of Israel investigating the crimes of the "ruthless clique heading the international Zionist movement." "The Irgun had conceived a plan for the King David attack early in 1946, but the green light was given only on July first. According to Dr. Sneh, the operation was personally approved by Ben-Gurion, from his self-exile in Europe.

Sadeh, the operations officer of the Haganah, and Giddy Paglin, the head of the Irgun operation under Menachem Begin agreed that thirty-five minutes advance notice would give the British time enough to evacuate the wing, without enabling them to disarm the explosion."

The Jewish Agency's motive was to destroy all evidence the British had gathered proving that the terrorist crime waves in Palestine were not merely the actions of "fringe" groups such as the Irgun and Stern Gang, but were committed in collusion with the Haganah and Palmach groups and under the direction of the highest political body of the Zionist establishment itself, namely the Jewish Agency.

That so many innocent civilian lives were lost in the King David massacre is a normal part of the pattern in the history of Zionist outrages: A criminal act is committed, allegedly by an isolated group, but actually under the direct authorization of the highest Zionist authorities, whether of the Jewish Agency during the Palestine Mandate or of the Government of Israel thereafter.

It is a remarkable fact that the Jews emerged from the Second World War as nothing less than a triumphant minority. Dr. Max Nassbaum, the former chief rabbi of the Jewish community in Berlin, stated on April 11, 1953: "The position the Jewish people occupy today in the world; despite the enormous losses, is ten times stronger than what it was twenty years ago." It should be added, if one is to be honest, that the strength has been much consolidated financially by the supposed massacre of the Six Million, undoubtedly the most profitable atrocity allegation of all time.

To date, the staggering figure of six thousand million pounds has been paid out in compensation (For a HoloHoax that never happened) by the Federal Government of West Germany, mostly to the State of Israel (Which never existed until after the Second World War), as well as to individual Jewish claims.

Discouragement of Nationalism: In terms of political blackmail, however, the allegation that Six Million Jews died during the Second World War has much far-reaching implications for the people of Britain and Europe than simply be advantages it has gained for the Jews. Here one comes in the crux of the question: Why the Big Lie? What is its purpose? In the first place, it has been used quite unscrupulously to discourage any form of nationalism. Should the people of Britain or any other European country attempt to assert their patriotism and preserve their national integrity in an age when the very existence of nation-states is threatened, they are immediately branded as "new-Nazis."

Because, of course, Nazism was nationalism, and we all know what happened then; Six Million Jews exterminated! So long as the myth is perpetuated, peoples everywhere will remain in bondage to, the need for international tolerance and understanding will be hammered home by the United Nations until nationhood itself, the very guarantee of freedom, is abolished.

A classic example of the use of the "Six Million" as an anti-national weapon appears in Manvell and Frank's book, "The Incomparable Crime" (London, 1967), which deals with "Genocide in the Twentieth Century." Anyone with an ounce of pride in being British will be surprised by the vicious attack made on the British Empire in this book.

The authors quote Pandit Nehru, who wrote the following while in a British prison in India: "Since Hitler emerged from obscurity and became the Fuhrer of Germany, we have heard a great deal about racialism and the Nazi theory of the 'Herrenvolk'...but we in India have known racialism in all its forms ever since the commencement of British rule. The whole ideology of this rule was that of the 'Herrenvolk' and the master race—India as a nation and Indians as individuals were subjected to insult, humiliation and contemptuous treatment. The English were an imperial race, we were told, with the God given right to govern us and keep us in subjection; if we protested we were reminded of the 'tiger qualities of an imperial race.'"

The authors Manvell and Franki then go on to make the point perfectly clear for all: "The White races of Europe and America," they write, "have become used during the centuries to regarding themselves as a 'Herrenvolk.' The twentieth century, the century of Auschwitz, has also achieved the first stage in the recognition of multi-racial partnership."

The Race Problem Suppressed

One could scarcely miss the object of this diatribe, with its insidious hint about "multi-racial partnership." Thus the accusation of the Six Million is not only used to undermine the principle of nationhood and national pride, but it threatens the survival of the Race itself. It is wielded over the heads of the populace, rather a the threat of hellfire and damnation was in the Middle Ages.

Many countries of the Anglo-Saxon world, notably the United States and Britain, are today facing the gravest danger in their history, the danger poised by the alien races in their midst. Unless something is done in America to halt the immigration and assimilation of Africans and Asians into their country, we are faced in the near future, quite apart from the bloodshed of racial conflict, with the biological alteration and destruction of the American people as they have existed here since we have been a nation.

In short, we are threatened with the irrecoverable loss of our European culture and racial heritage. But what happens if a man dares to speak of the race problem, of its biological and political implications? He is branded as that most heinous of creatures, a "racialist." And what is racialism, of course, but the very hallmark of the Nazi. They (So everyone is told, anyway) murdered Six Mission Jews because of racialism, so it must be a very evil thing indeed. When Enoch Powell drew attention to the dangers posed by coloured immigration into Britain in one of his early speeches, a certain prominent Socialist raised the spectre of Dachau and Auschwitz to silence his presumption.

Thus any rational discussion of the problems of Race and the effort to preserve racial integrity is effectively discouraged. No one could have anything but admiration for the way in which the Jews have sought to preserve their identity through so many centuries, and continue to do so today. In this effort they have frankly been assisted by the story of the Six Million, which, almost like a religious myth, has stressed the need for greater Jewish racial solidarity. Unfortunately, it has worked in quite the opposite way for all other peoples, rendering them impotent in the struggle for self-preservation.

The American historian Harry Elmer Barnes once wrote that "An attempt to make a competent, objective and truthful investigation of the extermination question—is surely the most precarious venture that an historian or demographer could undertake today." In attempting this precarious task, it is hoped to make some contribution, not only to historical truth, but towards lifting the burden of a Lie from our own shoulders, so that we may freely confront the dangers which threaten us all.

German Policy Towards The Jews Prior To The War

Rightly or wrongly, the Germany of Adolf Hitler considered the Jews to be a disloyal and avaricious element within the national community, as well as a force of decadence in Germany's cultural life. This was held to be particularly unhealthy since, during the Weimar period, the Jews had risen to a position of remarkable strength and influence in the nation, particularly in law, finance and the mass media, even though they constituted only one percent of the population. The fact that Karl Marx was a Jew and that Jews such as Rosa Luxembourg and Karl Liebknecht were disproportionately prominent in the leadership of revolutionary movements in Germany, also tended to convince the Nazis of the powerful internationalist and Communist tendencies of the Jewish people themselves.

It is no part of the discussion here to argue whether the German attitude to the Jews was right or not, or to judge whether its legislative measures against them were just or unjust. Our concern is simply with the fact that, believing of the Jews as they did, the Nazis' solution to the problem was to deprive them of their influence within the nation by various legislative acts, and most important of all, to encourage their emigration from the country altogether. By 1939, the great majority of German Jews had emigrated, all of them with a sizeable proportion of their assets. Never at any time had the Nazi leadership even contemplated a policy of genocide towards them.

Jews Called Emigration "Extermination. It is very significant, however, that certain Jews were quick to interpret these policies of internal discrimination as equivalent to extermination itself. A 1936 anti-German propaganda book by Leon Feuchtwanger and others entitled "Der Gelbe Fleck: Die Ausrottung von 500,000 deutschen Juden," presents a typical example. Despite its baselessness in fact, the annihilation of the Jews is discussed from the first pages; straightforward emigration being regarded as the physical "extermination" of German Jewry.

The Nazi concentration camps for political prisoners are also seen as potential instruments of genocide, and special reference is made to the 100 Jews still detained in Dachau in 1936, of whom 60 had been there since 1933. A further example was the book by the German-Jewish Communist, Hans Beimler, called "Four Weeks in the Hands of Hitler's Hell-Hounds: The Nazi Murder Camp of Dachau," which was published in New York as early as 1933. Detained for his Marxist affiliations, he claimed that Dachau was a death camp, though by his own admission he was released after only a month there. The East German Regime issued a Hans Beimler Award for services to Communism.

The fact that anti-Nazi genocide propaganda was being disseminated at this impossibly early date, therefore, by people biased on racial or political grounds, should suggest extreme caution to the independent-minded observer when approaching similar stories of the war period.

The encouragement of Jewish emigration should not be confused with the purpose of concentration camps in pre-war Germany. These were used for the detention of political opponents and subversives; principally liberals, Social Democrats and Communists of all kinds, of whom a huge proportion were Jews such as Hans Beimler. Unlike the millions enslaved in the Soviet Union, the German concentration camp population was always small; Reidinger admits that between 1934 and 1938 it seldom exceeded, 20,000 throughout the whole of Germany, and the number of Jews was never more than 3,000.

Zionist Policy Studied

The Nazi view of Jewish emigration was not limited to a negative policy of simple expulsion, but was formulated along the lines of modern Zionism. The founder of political Zionism in the 19th century, Theodore Herzl, in his work "The Jewish State," had originally conceived of Madagascar as a national homeland for the Jews, and this possibility was seriously studied by the Nazis. It had been the party platform before 1933 and was published by the party in pamphlet form. This stated that the revival of Israel as a Jewish state was much less acceptable since it would result in perpetual war and disruption in the Arab world, which has indeed been the case.

The Germans were not original in proposing Jewish emigration to Madagascar; the Polish Government had already considered the scheme in respect of their own Jewish population, and in 1937 they sent the Michael Lepecki expedition to Madagascar, accompanied by Jewish representatives, to investigate the problems involved.

The first Nazi proposals for a Madagascar solution were made in association with the Schacht Plan of 1938. On the advice of Goering, Hitler agreed to send the President of the Reichsbank, Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, to London for discussions with Jewish representatives Lord Bearsted and Mr. Rublee of New York. The plan was that German Jewish assets would be frozen as security for an international loan to finance Jewish emigration in Palestine, and Schacht reported on these negotiations to Hitler at Berchtesgaden on January 2, 1939. The plan, which failed due to British refusal to accept the financial terms, was first put forward on November 12, 1938 at a conference convened by Goering, who revealed that Hitler was already considering the emigration of Jews to a settlement in Madagascar. Later, in December, Ribbentrop was told by M. Georges Bonnet, the French Foreign Secretary, that the French Government itself was planning the evacuation of 10,000 Jews to Madagascar.

Prior to the Schacht Palestine proposals of 1938, which were essentially a protraction of discussions that had begun as early as 1935, numerous attempts had been made to secure Jewish emigration to other European nations, and these efforts culminated in the Evian Conference of July, 1938. However, by 1939 the scheme of Jewish emigration to Madagascar had gained the most favor in German circles. It is true that in London Helmuth Wohitatz of the German Foreign Office discussed limited Jewish emigration to Rhodesia and British Guiana as late as April 1939; but by January 24th, when Goering wrote to Interior Minister Frick ordering the creation of a Central Emigration Office for Jews, and commissioned Heydrich of the Reich Security Head Office to solve the Jewish problem "by means of emigration and evacuation," the Madagascar Plan was being studied in earnest.

By 1939, the consistent effort of the German Government to secure the departure of Jews from the Reich had resulted in the emigration of 400,000 German Jews from a total population of about 600,000 and an additional 480,000 emigrants from Austria and Czechoslovakia, which constituted almost their entire Jewish populations. This was accomplished through Offices of Jewish Emigration in Berlin, Vienna and Prague established by Adolf Eichmann, the head of the Jewish Investigation Office of the Gestapo. So eager were the German to secure this emigration that Eichmann even established a training center in Austria, where young Jews could learn farming in anticipation of being smuggled illegally to Palestine.

Had Hitler cherished any intention of exterminating the Jews, it is inconceivable that he would have allowed more than 800,000 to leave Reich territory with the bulk of their wealth, much less considered plans for their mass emigration to Palestine or Madagascar. What is more, we shall see that the policy of emigration from Europe was still under consideration well into the war period, notably the Madagascar Plan, which Eichmann discussed in 1940 with French Colonial Office experts after the defeat of France had made the surrender of the colony a practical proposition.

German Policy Towards The Jews After The Outbreak off War

With the coming of the war, the situation regarding the Jews altered drastically. It is not widely known that world Jewry declared itself to be a belligerent party in the Second World War, and there was therefore ample basis under international law for the Germans to intern the Jewish population as a hostile force. On September , 1939 Chaim Weizmann, the principle Zionist leader, had declared war against Germany on behalf of the world's Jews, stating that "the Jews stand by Great Britain and will fight on the side of the democracies—The Jewish Agency is ready to enter into immediate arrangements for utilizing Jewish manpower, technical ability, resources etc..." This was only a reiterating of a state of war which already existed between Germany and the Jews. For the war between the two was first announced "Judea declares War on Germany."

Detention Still Favoured

It is a remarkable fact, however, that well into the war, the Germans continued on implement the policy of Jewish emigration. The fall of France in 1940 enabled the German Government to open serious negotiations with the French for the transfer of European Jews to Madagascar. A memorandum of August, 1942 from Luther, Secretary of State in the German Foreign Office, reveals that he had conducted these negotiations between July and December 1940, when they were terminated by the French.

A circular from Luther's department dated August 15th, 1940 shows that the details of the German plan had been worked out by Eichmann, for it is signed by his assistant, Danecker. Eichmann had in fact been commissioned in August to draw up a detailed Madagascar Plan, and Danecker was employed in research on Madagascar at the French Colonial Office. The proposals of August 15h were that an inter-European bank was to finance the emigration of four million Jews throughout a phased program.

Luther's 1942 memorandum shows that Heydrich had obtained Himmler's approval of this plan before the end of August and had also submitted it to Goering. It certainly met with Hitler's approval, for as early as June 17th his interpreter, Schmidt, recalls Hitler observing to Mussolini that "One could found a State of Israel in Madagascar."

Although the French terminated the Madagascar negotiations in December, 1940, Poliakov, the director of the Centre of Jewish Documentation in Paris, admits that the Germans nevertheless pursued the scheme, and that Eichmann was still busy with it throughout 1941. Eventually, however, it was rendered impractical by the progress of the war, in particular by the situation after the invasion of Russia, and on February 10th, 1942, the Foreign Office was informed that the plan had been temporarily shelved. This ruling, sent to the Foreign Office by Luther's assistant, Rademacher, is of great importance, because it demonstrates conclusively that the term "Final Solution" meant only the emigration of Jews, and also that transportation to the eastern ghettos and concentration camps such as Auschwitz constituted nothing but an alternative plan of evacuation.

The directive reads: "The war with the Soviet Union has in the meantime created the possibility of disposing of other territories for the Final Solution. In consequence the Fuhrer has decided that the Jews should be evacuated not to Madagascar but to the East. Madagascar need no longer, therefore, be considered in connection with the Final Solution." The details of this evacuation had been discussed a month earlier at the Wannsee Conference in Berlin, which memorandum which we shall examine below.

Reitlinger and Poiakov both make the entirely unfounded supposition that because the Madagascar Plan had been shelved, the Germans must necessarily have been thinking of "extermination." Only a month later, however, on March 7th, 1942, Goebbels wrote a memorandum in favour of the Madagascar Plan as a "final solution" of the Jewish question. In the meantime he approved of the Jews being "concentrated in the East." Later Goebbels memoranda also stress deportation to the East (i.e., the Government-General of Poland) and lay emphasis on the need for compulsory labour there; once the policy of evacuation to the East had been inaugurated; the use of Jewish labour became a fundamental part of the operation. It is perfectly clear from the foregoing that the term "Final Solution" was applied both to Madagascar and to the Eastern territories, and that therefore it meant only the DEPORTATION OF THE JEWS

Evan as late as May 1944, the Germans were prepared to allow the emigration of one million European Jews from Europe. An account of this proposal is given by Alexander Weissberg, a prominent Soviet Jewish scientist deported during the Stalin purges, in his book Die Geschichte von Joel Brand (Cologne, 1956). Weissberg, who spent the war in Cracow though he expected the Germans to intern him in a concentration camp, explains that on the personal authorization of Himmler, Eichmann had sent the Budapest Jewish leader Joel Brand to Istanbul with an offer to the Allies to permit the transfer of one million European Jews in the midst of the war. (If the "extermination" writers are to be believed, there were scarcely one million Jews left by May, 1944).

The Gestapo admitted that the transportation involved would greatly inconvenience the German war-effort, but were prepared to allow it in exchange for 10,000 trucks to be used exclusively on the Russian front. Unfortunately, the plan came to nothing; the British concluded that Brand must be a dangerous Nazi agent and immediately imprisoned him in Cairo, while the press denounced the offer as a Nazi trick. Winston Churchill, though orating to the effect that the treatment of the Hungarian Jews was probably "the biggest and most horrible crime ever committed in the whole history of the world," nevertheless told Chaim Weizmann that acceptance of the Brand offer was impossible, since it would be a betrayal of his Russian allies. Although the plan was fruitless, it well illustrates that no one allegedly carrying out "thorough" extermination would permit the emigration of a million Jews, and it demonstrates, too, the prime importance placed by the Germans on the war-effort.

Population And Emigration

Statistics relating to Jewish populations are not everywhere known in precise detail, approximations for various countries differing widely, and it also unknown exactly how many Jews were deported and interned a any one time between the years 1939-1945. In general, however, what reliable statistics there are, especially those relating to emigration, are sufficient to show that not a fraction of six million Jews could have been exterminated.

In the first place, this claim cannot remotely be upheld on examination of the European Jewish population figures. According to "Chambers En cyclopedia" the total number of Jews living in pre-war Europe was,

6,500,000. Quite clearly, this would mean that almost the entire number were exterminated. But the "Baseler Nachrichten," a neutral Swiss publication employing available Jewish statistical data, establishes that between 1933 and 1945, 1,500,000 Jews emigrated to Britain, Sweden, Spain, Portugal, Australia, China, India, Palestine and the United States.

This is confirmed by the Jewish journalist Bruno Blau, who cites the same figure in the New York Jewish paper "Aufbau," August 13th, 1948. Of these emigrants, approximately 400,000 came from Germany before September 1939. This is acknowledged by the World Jewish Congress in its publication "Unity in Dispersion," p. 377, which states that: "The majority of the German Jews succeeded in leaving Germany before the war broke out."

In addition to the German Jews, 220,000 of the total 280,000 Austrian Jews had emigrated by September, 1939, while from March 1939 onwards the Institute for Jewish emigration in Prague had secured the emigration of 260,000 Jews from former Czechoslovakia. In all, only 360,000 Jews remained in Germany, Austria and Czechoslovakia after September 1939.

From Poland, an estimated 500,000 had emigrated prior to the outbreak of war. These figures mean that the number of Jewish emigrants from other European countries (France, the Netherlands, Italy, the countries of Eastern Europe etc.) was approximately 120,000.

This exodus of Jews before and during hostilities, therefore, reduces the number of Jews in Europe to approximately 5 million. In addition to those emigrants, we must also include the number of Jews who fled to the Soviet Union after 1939, and who were later evacuated beyond reach of the German invaders. It will be shown below that the majority of these, about 1,250,000 were migrants from Poland. But apart from Poland, Reitingler admits that 300,000 other European Jews slipped into Soviet territory between 1939 and 1941. This brings the total of Jewish emigrants to the Soviet Union to about 1,550,000. In "Colliers Magazine," June 9th, 1945, Freiling Foster, writing of the Jews in Russia, explained that "2,200,000 have migrated to the Soviet Union since 1939 to escape from the Nazis," but our lower estimate is probably more accurate.

Jewish migration to the Soviet Union, therefore, reduces the number of Jews within the sphere of German occupation to around 3 1/2 million, approximately 3,450,000. From these should be deducted those Jews living in neutral European countries who escaped the consequences of the war. According to the 1942 "World Almanac" p. 594 the number of Jews living in Gibraltar, Britain, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Ireland and Turkey was 413,128.

Three Million Jews in Europe

A figure, consequently, of about a million Jews in German-occupied Europe is as accurate as the available emigration statistics will allow. Approximately the same number, however, can be deduced in another way if we examine statistics for the Jewish populations remaining in countries occupied by the Reich. More than half of those Jews who migrated to the Soviet Union after 1939 came from Poland.

It is frequently claimed that the war with Poland added some 3 million Jews to the German sphere of influence and that almost the whole of this Polish Jewish population was "exterminated." This is a major factual error. The 1931 Jewish population census for Poland put the number of Jews at 2,732,600. Reitingler states that at least 1,170,000 of these were in the Russian zone occupied in the autumn of 1949, about a million of whom were evacuated to the Urals and south Siberia after the German invasion of June 1941.

As described above, an estimated 500,000 Jews had emigrated from Poland prior to the war. Moreover, the journalist Raymond Arthur Davis, who spent the war in the Soviet Union, observed that approximately 250,000 had already fled from German-occupied Poland to Russia between 1939 and 1941 and were to be encountered in every Soviet province. Subtracting these figures from the population of 2,732,600, therefore, and allowing for the normal population increase no more than 1,100,000 Polish Jews could have been under German rule at the end of 1939.

To this number we may add the 360,000 Jews remaining in Germany, Austria and Czechoslovakia (Bohemia-Moravia and Slovakia) after the excessive emigration from three countries prior to the war described above. Of the 320,000 French Jews, the Public Prosecutor representing that part of the indictment relating to France at the Nuremberg Trials, stated that 120,000 Jews were deported, through Reitlinger estimates only about 50,000.

Thus the total number of Jews under Nazi rule remains below two million. Deportations from the Scandinavian countries were few, and from Bulgaria none at all. When the Jewish populations of Holland (140,000), Belgium (40,000), Italy (50,000), Yugoslavia (55,000), Hungary (380,000) and Romania (725,000) are included, the figure does not much exceed 3 million. His excess is due to the fact that the latter figures are pre-war estimates unaffected by emigration, which from these countries accounted for about 120,000 (see above). This cross-checking, therefore, confirms the estimate of approximately 2 million European Jews under German occupation.

Russian Jews Evacuated

The precise figures concerning Russian Jews are unknown, and have therefore been the subject of extreme exaggeration. The Jewish statistician Jacob Leszczynski states that in 1939 there were 2,100,000 Jews living in future German-occupied Russia, i.e., Western Russia. In addition, some 260,000 lived in the Baltic states of Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania. According to Louis Levine, President of the American Jewish Council for Russian Relief, who made a post-war tour of the Soviet Union and submitted a report on the status of Jews there, the majority of these numbers were evacuated east after the German armies launched their invasion.

In Chicago, on October 30th, 1946, he declared that: "At the outset of the war, Jews were amongst the first evacuated from the western regions threatened by the Hitlerite invaders, and shipped to safety east of the Urals. Two million Jews were thus saved." This high number is confirmed by the Jewish journalist David Bergelson, who wrote in the Moscow Yiddish paper "Ainikeit," December 5th, 1942, that "Thanks to the evacuation, the majority (80%) of the Jews in the Ukraine, White Russia, Lithuania and Latvia before the arrival of the Germans were rescued." Reitlinger agrees with the Jewish authority Joseph Schechtmann, who admits that huge numbers were evacuated, though he estimates a slightly higher number of Russian and Baltic Jews left under German occupation, between 650,000 and 850,000.

In respect of these Soviet Jews remaining in German territory, it will be proven later that in the war in Russia no more than one hundred thousand persons were killed by the German Action Groups as partisans and Bolshevik commissars, not all of whom were Jews. By contrast, the partisans themselves claimed to have murdered five times that number of German troops.

"Six Million" Untrue According to Neutral Swiss

It is clear, therefore, that the Germans could not possibly have gained control over or exterminated anything like six million Jews. Excluding the Soviet Union, the number of Jews in Nazi-occupied Europe after emigration was scarcely more than 3 million, by no means all of whom were interned. To approach the extermination of even half of six million would have meant the liquidation of every Jew living in Europe.

Nothing better illustrates the declining plausibility of the Six Million legend than the fact that the prosecution at the Eichmann trial deliberately avoided mentioning the figure. Moreover, official Jewish estimates of the casualties are being quietly revised downwards. Our analysis of the population and emigration statistics, as well as the studies by the Swiss "Baseler Nachrichten" and Professor Rassinier, demonstrate that it would have been simply impossible for the number of Jewish casualties to have exceeded a limit of one and a half million.

Doubtless, several thousand Jewish people did die in the course of the Second World War, but this must be seen in the context of a war that cost many millions of innocent victims on all sides. To put the matter in perspective, for example, we may point out that 700,000 Russian civilians died during the siege of Leningrad, and a total of 2,050,000 German civilians were killed in Allied air raids and forced repatriation after (Operation Keelhaul) after the war.

The question most pertinent to the extermination legend is, of course: How many of the 3 million European Jews, under German control, survived after 1945? The Jewish Joint Distribution Committee estimated the number of survivors in Europe to be only one and half million, but such a figure is now totally unacceptable. This is proven by the growing number of Jews calming compensation from the West German Government for having allegedly suffered between 1939 and 1945. By 1965, the number of these claimants registered with the West German Government had tripled in ten years and reached 3,375,000. (Aufbau, June 30th, 1965)

Nothing could be a more devastating proof of the brazen fantasy of the Six Million. Most of these claimants are Jews, so there can be no doubt that the majority of the 3 million Jews who experienced the Nazi occupation of Europe are, in fact, very much alive. It is a resounding confirmation of the fact that Jewish casualties during the Second World War can only be estimated at a figure in thousands.

The New Jewish Religion, The "Supposed" Jewish Holocaust

Today, at this late hour of the history of White Christianity, the Jew has sought to brainwash uneducated and ignorant generations into the misplaced pity and sorrow of what can only be called The Jewish Holocaust Religion. Jews are allowed to teach people to hate Jesus Christ and blaspheme Almighty God, yet they are admired and pitied by most people in the world, while they tell blatant lies about the so-called German "death camps." These lies cannot be proven scientifically and are lies designed only to be cheap, Jewish public relation propaganda to invoke pity for the Jews, while they pick the American White Man's pockets and raid White America like a corporate lawyer.

The pity heaped on them is misplaced pity that should be directed to Jesus Christ, as He was the only innocent person ever to walk the face of the earth, and yet was put to death by the Jewish people. Now, however, even though the Jews believe and teach in their synagogues that Jesus is boiling in excrement in Hell, to call a Jew a Christ-killer is an offense that has put people in jail for much of their lives.

The Holocaust He was first fabricated by the head of the KGB, the Jew Lavrenty Beria. Since then, week after week, for almost fifty years, the television, radio, and media have continued to brainwash the American public with scores of historically inaccurate anti-Nazi and anti-German movies, claiming a German conspiracy to commit genocide against the Jewish people.

Yet, no conspiracy or so-called "Final Solution" has ever been proven to have existed among the Nazi leadership. It is true that hundreds of thousands of people died during World War II, and yes, a small percentage of them were Jews. It is true that thousands died in the internment camps, many of whom were confessed enemies of the national state. Some were gypsies, Communists, Baptists, Masons, homosexuals, Jehovah's Witnesses, Germans, Poles, Czechs and Frenchmen.

The Jews have been exposed to claim that those non-Jews who died in the camps were Jewish in order to further exaggerate the numbers of Jews who died in concentration camps. It is very important, for the sake of truth, to remember that the work or industrial camps were continuously exposed to rampant diseases. At the time that these camps existed throughout Europe, there were no magic drugs like our antibiotics. Most people in the European camps died of dysentery, influenza, or perhaps hepatitis B, tuberculosis, cholera, typhus, or even old age. So it may be said that while the majority of deaths were of natural causes or disease, they were nevertheless premature because of the war.

Talking about numbers let us examine a few here:

- 1). How long does it take to cremate a body? Answer: According to crematory operators today, it takes more about two hours to completely cremate a body.

2). How long did it take to cremate a body during World War II?

Answer: Cremation was a relatively new thing in the early 40's and therefore it took more than four hours to cremate a single body. It would have been impossible to cremate more than one body at a time, for with more bodies the time needed to create the bodies would increase with each body. From one body and four hours to three bodies and eight hours, four bodies and 12 hours and etc.

3). How much residue and ashes are left after a body is cremated?

Answer: Today there is about 10 to 12 pounds of residue, depending upon the size of the body; and that is with the residue being run through a grinder to reduce the larger bone fragments into smaller one. In the 40s there would have been 40 to 50 pounds of residue and no grinding to reduce the larger bone and meat fragments, so there would have no other reduction in the size of the body.

3). How much weight in ashes and bone fragments would it take to fill a box car or hopper car?

Answer: The European rail cars are about ½ the size of the ones in the United States, then and now. So it would have taken about 20,000 pounds of residue to fill a box car.

4). How many men would it have taken to transfer the residue from the ovens to the rail siding where they would have been loaded out on?

Answer: With one man and one wheel borrow which would have held about 50 pounds of residue it would have taken about 200 hundred men to transfer the 20,000 pounds that would fill the box car. These men would have had to move constantly and therefore would have had to be relieved every few hours to let them rest so that they could work again. Thus the number of men would have to be 600 at the rate of 200 men changing shifts every 8 hours.

Now slave labour, as history has shown, is the worst sort of labour; because there is no incentive to produce more and more. Instead the slaves move less and less as time progresses. This would have added another 600 to the work force thus causing the Germans to have use 1200 men for one box or hopper car per day, just to move the residue from the ovens to the rail sidings. Of course we have not taken into consideration the distance that the men would have to travel with their wheel barrow; and thus would have added substantially more men to the work force.

5). How many men would have taken to load the residue in the box or hopper cars after the transfer from the ovens?

Answer: Due to the fact that the European cars are about  $\frac{1}{2}$  the size of American ones, it would have take at least 4 men on each side of the car shovelling the residue up into the car. Then it would have taken 4 men, two on each side to throw the residue from the door to the back of the car. This would have taken at least 8 men, and since they would have to be relieved every few hours that would increase the work forces from 8 to 24 men. Then just as we had to double the work force because of the slowdown in the movement of the slave labour, it would therefore take 72 men to load the cars. Again we are not taking into consideration the sickness and accidents which would necessarily happen because of humans being just that: humans. Which would also increase the work force.

6). How many cars could be loaded at the same time? And how many cars would a siding hold?

Answer: Only about 10 cars could be loaded at one time because if more than that were loaded, the workers would be getting into each other's way, thus causing both a slowdown and additional workers to the work force. Therefore, it would take about 1300 men to load 10 cars in one days 24 hours' time.

7).How many pounds of residue would 4,000,000 bodies produce?

Answer: At the rate of 40 to 50 pounds per body; and we will use the lesser weight of 40 pounds, it would produce  $4,000,000 \times 40$  pounds = 160,000,000 millions of pounds of residue.

8). How many rail cars would it take to move 160,000,000 pounds of residue?

Answer: At the rate of 20,000 pounds per car, and that is really filling the car up because the car would probably not hold more than 15,000 pounds, it would take about 16,000 cars. Which would not have been possible because the allied bombers were bombing everything in sight day and night and would have destroyed that many cars in raids.

9). How long would it take at the rate of 10 cars per day to move 16000 cars?

Answer: It would have taken 16000 days.

10). How many years would it have taken to move these cars at the rate above mentioned?

Answer: it would have taken 16000 days divided by 365 days in a year = 54 years.

Therefore, it would not have been possible to cremate 4,000,000 people and move their ashes and residue in 3 years' time.

The movies give the false impression that only Jews were interned in the work and labour camps. The Jews have claimed hundreds of thousands of non-Jews in order to fabricate their numbers and claim that 6 million Jews purposely were killed at the hands of the SS, simply because they were Jewish. In recent years, whenever a White Christian would speak up to point out the irrefutable and blatant facts about the atheistic Jewish Holocaust Myth. The Jews have done everything they can to stifle the American man's freedom of speech in his own country.

This is a one-sided presentation of World War II that belittles the American fighting man's part in the war and gives undue credit to the Jews and exaggerates the Jewish deaths at the expense of other more deserving minorities such as the Ukrainian people.

As incredible as it may sound, if it can be proven beyond a shadow of a doubt that the Jews themselves were responsible for the excessive and insane bombing policies of the Americans and the British over Germany in World War II, then that would mean that the Jews themselves are directly responsible for the incredible numbers or deaths in the Nazi labour camps. For it is an indisputable fact that what has been called the "atrocities" of the camps did not occur until after the Allied bombers had destroyed the railway systems that shipped food and medical supplies to these camps. If the Nazis had been able to bomb the transportation systems of the Americans and prevent them from shipping medicine and foodstuffs to the Japanese internees and German prisoners of war in American concentration camps, then unsanitary living conditions and malnutrition would certainly have had the same results in extraordinary numbers of Japanese internees dying from dysentery and cholera.

But as of this date, not a single American nor British soldier has been tried for war crimes or crimes against humanity, even though thousands of such incidents did occur in the American victimization of Japanese, Germans and people of other nationalities during World War II.

To fail to present an objective and truthful look at the events of World War II is to fail to learn from the mistakes of that era. Today, Zionist and Talmudic organized Jewry knowingly and wilfully continue to present and perpetuate atheistic, Communist propaganda only because it paints the Jews as the victims of the Nazis. Many courageous Americans such as Senator Taft and many Supreme Court Justices spoke out against the travesty of justice called the Nuremberg War Crimes Trials against the leaders of the German government after World War II.

"World War II was a war to renew Jewish domination of Germany and Central Europe and for the maintenance of the power and glory of the British/Jewish Empire. The conspirators in America, England and France are responsible for the greatest tragedy the world has ever known and their names will be dishonoured and execrated in history.

It never would have started had not Roosevelt and the half Jew Bullitt guaranteed to Britain and France all of America's resources, which meant, first, repeal of our neutrality act and supplying them with munitions and bombers without stint; second, in time the extension of unlimited credit; third the use of our fleet in the Pacific to protect British, French and Dutch interests; if these did not suffice for victory, then our young men as air pilots and our fleet to be sent to Europe; and lastly, if World Jewry and the British/Jewish Empire could not win without them, millions of our lads to die in Europe's babbles.

The premeditated killing of human beings by another, save in self-defence, is murder, a crime against Christianity, morality, humanity, and civilization, and this applies with greatest guilt to the wholesale slaughter by one nation of the people of another who have not attacked or harmed them. After this illegal, secret plot was negotiated, Roosevelt, the Jews and the war-mongers of this country, of England and France sought to overthrow the Chamberlain government and to replace it with the Jews Churchill, Eden, Hore-Belisha and Duff Cooper.

They plotted to get Bonnet out of the French Cabinet and to substitute the Jews Reynaud, Blum and Mandel. The ardent but unsuccessful courtship of Stalin and Soviet Russia was insisted upon by Roosevelt, World Jewry and war-mongers of America, England and France. One of the reasons for the Roosevelt/Eden plot to overthrow the Chamberlain government and remove Bonnet from the French Cabinet was because they would not agree to pay the price Stalin demanded to encircle and defeat Germany. At Roosevelt's and the Jews' insistence, England and France guaranteed the boundaries of Poland in order to encircle Germany and renew Jewish control. This guarantee of the boundaries of Poland was the direct cause of World War II, it knowingly necessitated it."

Many courageous and patriotic Americans knew that the so-called war crimes and the charges against the German government officials were nothing more than Communist propaganda designed to blame the Germans for many Communist atrocities that Stalin had engineered and perpetrated. It is certainly un-American to be afraid of the truth, and no truth-loving American can possibly stand by and watch the Communist propaganda of World War II continue to be taught in our public school systems.

Today, fifty years after Adolf Hitler, there is hardly a week or a day that goes by without an anti-Nazi film or propaganda movie being shown on television channels that one would think they should be no longer political. Moreover, the Jews have made Nazi memorabilia and Nazi member organizations a big business in America. No true American can afford to stand by and allow the Communist, Jewish Zionist, Antichrist Jews to continue imposing their version of history and their atheistic values upon what was once a White Christian Nation.

If the holocaust is to be discussed in our schools as legitimate history, then let it be discussed objectively and truthfully, based upon fact instead of Jewish fiction that is designed only to protect the reputation of Joe Stalin and the Jews behind the Bolshevik revolution of world Communism. To insist upon fair play is truly an American idea. If we must hear the Jews side, let us also hear the Arabs' side. We Americans are innately hateful toward anyone who seeks to rob us of our freedom of thought, but today that is exactly what the atheistic, Communistic Jews, and Hollywood one-worlders are seeking to do.

Stifling freedom of speech through their Communist tactic of so-called political correctness, they seek to brainwash the next generation of Americans through drug abuse and relentless Communist propaganda. They seek to create a police state wherein freedom of speech is completely stifled, and when freedom of speech is a crime, soon freedom of thought also becomes a crime.

The Jews, through the ACLU and other Communist Jewish front groups have, when it is convenient, defended freedom of speech as long as it is a Communist or a dissenter seeking to tear down White America. But when the shoe is on the other foot, they will not defend the rights of White, Christian Americans, which our forefathers fought for and embodied in the Bill of Rights and the Constitution. The Jews are currently using federal and state money that they have conned from the American people to fund their one-sided Communist views of World War II. So, in effect, every state sponsored holocaust program is but another Jewish con game designed to rob the working man and the American tax payer, while enslaving these White people's children into Jewish Socialism.

Think of this travesty of freedom in these terms. A group of atheistic, Christ-hating, Devil-worshippers comes to your school system and demands the right to teach your children their God-hating, atheistic values while making no secret of their ulterior motives to undermine your Christian values and your authority as a parent. In addition to this, these same Devil-worshipping pagans claim that Nero of Rome was right to burn the Christians on crosses in his nocturnal garden and to slaughter Christian women and children by throwing them to the vicious, man-eating lions of the Roman circus. What if these same people dared to say that the Jews were absolutely correct in putting Jesus Christ to death and viciously murdering Him? Would you, as a God-fearing person speak up against such an obvious abuse of American freedom?

Well, that is exactly what the Jews are doing throughout the school systems of America by sending their Jewish evangelists into your classrooms to preach the establishment of their holocaust religious cult. That is exactly what the Jews have made of the Jewish deaths of WW II. They have used the Nazi work camps as an excuse to extort billions of dollars from the American tax payer, all in support of their Antichrist, world domination philosophy known as Zionism, and all for the purpose of supporting the illegal state of so-called Israel in Palestine. We Americans have no objection to the truth, but we do object to liars and to half-truths being promoted in our school systems for the express purpose of manipulating and brainwashing our children. Let us remember that the school teachers and the Jews who sponsor these programs do not invite the local Neo-Nazis to defend their position, nor do they invite the scholars of The Institute for Historical Review, whose address is POB 1306, Torrance, CA 90505. They only present one-sided arguments based upon fabrications and lies first put forward by the Stalinist Communist regime, namely the Jew head of the KGB Lavrenty Beria, mentioned earlier.

There are many honest and competent historians who disagree with the Communist line of propaganda. One outstanding example of orchestrated, modern, Jewish propaganda is the Hollywood versions of the Simon Wiesenthal stories. Mr. Wiesenthal is portrayed by the Jewish Hollywood crowd as the foremost Nazi hunter in the world. He is literally presented as a Jewish hero, and as a wonderful humanitarian, when in fact, the man is a liar and a hypocrite. He has openly lied and confused the truth, but our children have never been taught the truth about this lying Jew agent, who even admitted that he was fighting for the Communists. What our children are taught is that the Simon Wiesenthal Centre was named after this "great man," and that two American presidents awarded this liar with honorary awards for his so-called work in tracking down Nazis.

Our children are not taught that this man has consistency lied in his report about what he saw during WW II. In 1948, this lying Jew testified under oath that from 1939-1941 he was a "Soviet Chief engineer working in Lvov and Odessa." But in his very own biography, he claims that he was a "mechanic in a factory that produced bedsprings" during those same years. This example may seem trivial, but Wiesenthal has lied about far worse than this. For example, Wiesenthal published a book in 1946 in which he presented his view of history, which he supposedly obtained facts from the confession of Mauthausen Commandant Franz Zieris.

In his book, he claimed that four million people were gassed at this camp. Later, he told USA Today in April, 1983, "I was one of 34 prisoners alive out of 150,000 who had been put there." Not only did he lie twice about this number, he lied a third time in his own autobiography, in which he wrote: "almost 3,000 prisoners died in Maunhausen after the Americans liberated us on May 5, 1945."

This is just like a Communist Jew to lie when it suits his needs. Worse, Wiesenthal has been allowed to teach our children these lies, without any questioning. Why has this Jew, who has consistently lied in print, never been questioned? Why have our children not been presented with the fact that this man has been consistently proven to be a liar?

Finally, the most flagrant propaganda that has been spread by Wiesenthal is the "human soap" myth. The myth is that Germans used the fat from dead Jews to make soap. Wiesenthal wrote in Der Neue Weg, an Austrian Jew paper that 900,000 dead Jews were shipped to a factory and used to make soap. Wiesenthal claimed that the letters RIF on German soap made at that time stood for Rein juedisches Fett, which means "Pure Jewish Fat." In fact, the letters stood for Reichstelle Fuer industrielle Fettversorgung or "National Center for Industrial Fat Provisioning." In fact, no historians have ever acknowledged this claim to be true. It was merely a fabrication of Mr. Wiesenthal a proven liar.

One example of this is the difficulties of the historian David Irving, who after once being persuaded of the facts, changed many of his views regarding the history of World War II. Mr. Irving found it virtually impossible to find a publisher to publish his new-found convictions, which contradicted the Jewish version of World War II.

Yet, the hysterical Jewish exaggerations became so blatant that the more sane Jews have found it necessary to admit there could have been no more than 3.5 million Jews to have died in that period of time, and certainly not the exaggerated 6 million. The following is reprinted from the New York Post, March 26, 1992:

Auschwitz death toll is reduced to 1.5M: Warsaw, Poland (UPI) - Newly released documents confirm that 1.5 million victims died at the Nazi concentration camp of Auschwitz-Birkenau during World War II, not 4 million - as claimed by the former Soviet Union; Jewish and Polish officials said yesterday.

Wladyslaw Bartoszewski, a member of the Council for Dialogue between Poles and Jews, said the official account of the number of victims was reduced following verification of archives recently returned by Soviet authorities to Poland. Polish Communist authorities used the 4 million figure because it was established by a post-war Soviet commission on Nazi crimes." This would reduce the total number of so-called victims, even using the 6 million figure to 3.5 million.

Some prominent Jews, when confronted with the indisputable facts, have even admitted that the so-called gas chambers were fabrications of the Russian Communist Jews, just as the number of 4 million dead at Auschwitz was a fabrication. Notice in the above article that the information proving that only 1.5 million died at Auschwitz-Birkenau was found in archives returned to Poland by the 'soviets.

Also, "Polish Communist authorities used the number because it was established by a post-war Soviet commission on Nazi crimes." In addition to this, the soviets have admitted that they "rebuilt" the "original buildings" that were supposedly destroyed by them after "liberation." Even the curator and director of Auschwitz museum has admitted that the "gas chambers" were altered and reconstructed by the Russians after the war. The Communist Soviets provided the figures and held the evidence.

Everyone admits that the Germans were meticulous record keepers, and the actual records of those people that died in the camps were confiscated by the Soviets. When the Soviets finally allowed the Red cross access to the records in 1989, it was revealed in 46 books the names of those that died at Auschwitz and the causes of death. The Total: 70,000. The Soviets did not allow them access to the books for the year of 1944, but those books could account for the remaining dead. Even then, however, it is probably true that the numbers may not even add up to the new 1.5 million figure. Now that this is released, we find that they inflated the number from 1.5 million to over 4 million (Keep in mind that the 1.5 million dead is cited as the number of "victims," not Jews alone).

The Soviets purposely lied about the 4 million dead, and they built the buildings now standing at the camps (This information should come as no surprise, as the Jews have been the absolute rulers of Russia since 1917. And it would be expected that the Jews ruling Russia would help the other Jews of the world to foster and perpetuate their holocaust lie). Most historians agree that it is impossible that six million people were gassed in gas chambers and then burned in a crematorium. The fact shows that it would have taken 68 years to gas 6 million people, and that it would take 35 years to cremate 6 million bodies if the crematoriums at the camps operated 24 hours a day, every day, cremating the maximum number of bodies that they could hold.

Much of the misinformation was fabricated by the Stalin regime of Soviet Russia during the post-war years. Stalin (being Jewish himself) knew how to feed the hysteria of the Russian Jew population. On one hand he backed them with exaggerated holocaust stories, pretending to be in sympathy with their world Zionist cause, which induced the Jews to steal state secrets about atomic energy and even their modern missile technology from the United States to give to the Soviets (And since the Jews are the most traitorous people on earth, it would come natural for them to betray the United States and its people, for they have betrayed every people and nation they have ever lived in and among).

Yet, history shows that whenever a great number of Jews (who were not of the proper lineage or beliefs) began to rise to prominence in the Communist government, Stalin did not hesitate to liquidate them by periodic purges of the intellectual Zionistic Jews in Communist Russia. In the late 1930s Stalin began a campaign against influential members of the Communist Party; even those who had put him in power were murdered. His political enemies were numbered in the "tens of millions."

Since 1945 there have been many conflicting claims concerning the numbers of Jewish people (and others) who died at Auschwitz-Birkenau (Oswiecim, concentration camp). However, it is only recent research and access to hitherto unavailable documents, that these numbers have drastically lowered, possibly indicating that more of our people survive. Perhaps the 6 mills often publicized (though our best figure is 4.3 million) may also need to be revised lower, we hope so.

According to official documents in the French Republic (institute for the Examination of War-criminals) the number that died in Auschwitz was: 8,000,000

According to the French daily newspaper "Le Monde" (20 April, 1978): 5,000,000

According to the memorial plaque on the gas-chamber monument at Auschwitz-Birkenau (later removed in 1990 by the Polish Government): 4,000,000

According to the "confession" of Rudolf Hoess, the last commandant of Auschwitz. G.V. interrogation record and written statement before his "suicide": 3,000,000

According to a statement by Yeduha Bauer, Director of the Institute for Contemporary Jewry at the Hebrew University, Jerusalem: 1,600,000

According to "La Monde" (1 September 1989): 1,433,000

According to Prof. Raul Hilberg (Professor for Holocaust Research, and author of the book, "The Annihilation of European Jewry," 2nd. ed. 1988: 1,250,000

According to Polish historians, G.V. DPA - Report of July 1990 and corresponding public announcements: 1,100,000

According to Gerald Reitlinger, author of "Die Endlbusun": 850,000

In the autumn of 1989 the Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev opened Soviet archives, and the public saw for the first time, the complete register of deaths at Auschwitz - which speaks as a key document of 74,000 dead. There were, no doubt a considerable number of individuals who were put to death as enemies of the German government. Nevertheless, the majority of people who died in the concentration camp labor system died first of natural causes and old age, or secondly, they died of dysentery, dehydration, typhus and other such diseases relating to our caused by malnutrition. Tuberculosis was s contributing factor, and it is to be remembered that we did not have the sophisticated medicines then as we have today. Those in the concentration camps died, just as many Germans, of malnutrition and disease.

The internment camps in the United States that were filled with Japanese internees suffered many of the same problems as the German concentration camps. Japanese internees lost their property, their businesses and a great number of them lost their lives due to natural causes and diseases while interned in the American concentration camps.

It is to be remembered that if the Germans had been able to bomb the American food supply, which usually came by railroad and prevent the Americans from feeding the Japanese concentration camps, the death rate among the Japanese would have been far greater.

It is also to be remembered that if the Japanese had been left in their communities it is more than likely that they would have fallen victim to rioting mobs of Americans, especially after the Bataan death march and the Japanese murders of thousands of defenceless prisoners. A poll taken at that time proves the fact that Americans hated the Japanese. The poll showed that Californians would have voted 10 to 1 against allowing the Japanese in the camps back on the street. Roosevelt may (unwittingly) have saved many Japanese lives by interning them in these camps.

In addition to these facts, while the Japanese interned in American camps were accused of committing no crimes and were legally established citizens of America, the Jews interned in the German camps were convicted criminals. They were guilty of murder, theft, arson, and sabotage. Also, the Jews living in Germany were truly foreigners, as they had not been full citizens of Germany before the war. Why, when a considerably greater injustice was done to the Japanese of America during that time, have not been showered with sympathy and money? Why are there no memorials to these people, when there are fifty Jewish holocaust memorials in America alone? Why were the Americans not indicted for crimes against humanity, as they tore Japanese Americans from their homes and businesses, even though they were charged with no crime, just as it is claimed the Germans did with the Jews? The answer is that the Jews are telling lies and playing on the sympathy of American taxpayers because they know that they are getting all of the ignorant population to fund the creation of the Zionist state they so desire. But more so than this, they know that they are also keeping True White Christians from speaking the truth about the Jew and his ways. No longer can White Christians speak the truth about the Jew without fear of persecution, imprisonment, or death.

If the American government had not interned the American Japanese population, it is more than likely that there would have been no Japanese population at the end of World War II. Much the same argument must be made in regards to the German Jew. Resentment of the materialistic criminal Jew had gained such force in Germany that those Jews who had not fled the country were in danger of systematic murder by the German population who, in most cases, the Jew had personally victimized. It was therefore expedient for the German government, for the sake of protecting the Jew, to place the remaining Jews in controlled surroundings, fundamentally protecting them from the Germans, Polish, Ukrainian populations.

In exactly the same way, it was necessary for the American government to intern the American Japanese population. The difference in the outcome may be seen only in understanding that the Americans and British wilfully bombed the trains of Germany that supplied much needed food and medicine to the internment camp workers and thereby escalated starvation, and those diseases accompanying shortages of food and water.

The record showed clearly that it was the intention of the Germans to feed, clothe and house the detainees until such time as they could be repopulated safely to either Madagascar or the Middle East. When we look at this period of history it is important to remember that Hitler employed an entire division of the German army for the express purpose of collecting and preserving Jewish antiquities during the war.

And so, telling the truth about history is a subject that must never be stifled or prevented in a land that seeks to preserve its heritage of freedom of speech. It is the atheistic Jew who would destroy the Constitution and the Bill of Rights in order to impose his atheistic, materialistic insane values upon the modern world. Thus, the Jew has invented, along with his Jewish Communist brothers, the blatant lie that 6 million holocaust victims were Jews.

Moreover, he has used this lie to create a Jewish hysteria regarding the National Socialist government of Germany, which is based on half-truths and the Zionistic Jewish hysterical point of view. The tragedy is that White Americans, whose armies and nations rescued the Jew from his European fate, are now the ones being charged with hate crimes if they dare to speak the objective truth in their own country. The Jew would have it be a crime to even dare to disagree with the Jew, regardless of one's nationality. Whenever Americans are told that they cannot hold dissenting opinions with world Jewry, then freedom of speech and freedom of thought has ceased to exist in the "land of the free."

While it is possible to lament and feel sorry for the millions of Americans who sacrificed and died during World War II, and it is even possible to have the same sympathy for the millions of Russians and Germans, the Jew would like the American people to only exercise pity and empathy for the Jews who succumbed to dysentery and malnutrition. The Jew would like the White Man to forget about all the Americans soldiers who died fighting the Germans and Japanese and who now lay in hundreds of graveyards on foreign soil. The Jews would like to continue presenting a historically inaccurate view of World War II, so that they might reap a present political advantage in manipulating public opinion to continue taking from the American tax payers billions of dollars for Israel. Let us assume that 3.5 million Jews did die of disease and malnutrition at the hands of the Germans. What is that compared to the tens of millions of Ukrainian Russians who died at the fiendish hands of Stalin and his brother Jews?

The Encyclopaedia Britannica cites that Stalin forced 25,000,000 households of Russian peasants to move onto collective farms. Those who resisted were collected, shot, attacked, exiled, or placed in Russian concentration camps. This system, called collectivism, also resulted in a great famine in the Ukraine. Although Stalin had provisions he could have sent there, he instead decided to export them. The Britannica claims that 10,000,000 perished under the system of collectivism, however the numbers show that the death toll over Stalin's total regime rings closer to 18,000,000. Today, mass graves in Russia are still uncovered monthly, and yet, no mass graves are being discovered in Germany.

Should we not have a Russian Holocaust memorial in Washington, D.C. to remember the millions of Ukrainians starved to death by Stalin and his brother Jews? When asked how many Jews died in the concentration camps, almost everyone will give the number 6 million, even though most historians acknowledge this to be a fabricated number. How many can tell you the number of Ukrainians that perished or the number of Germans, or even the number of American soldiers that died in the war? There are millions of Americans who questioned why American tax payers' money should be used to build a holocaust memorial on American soil. The answer comes back that we should never forget the tragedies of World War II. By that they mean the death of some Jews. If we are looking to commemorate cases of wilful genocide, then there is no more of a clear case of wilful genocide than Stalin's starvation of millions of Ukrainians. Or more recently, Paol pot's murders of millions of Cambodians.

We are forced to ask, "Why is there such special treatment for an atheistic, materialistic people who are self-professed Christ-hating Antichrists and who have done little more in history than act as parasites against the host nations where they have lived?"

"The Jews as outcasts: Jews have been a wondering people from the time of the beginning. History is filled with peremptory edicts, expelling Jews from where they had made their homes. At times the edicts were the result of trumped up charges against the Jews or Judaism, and later proved to be false. At other times they were the consequence of economic situation, which the authorities believed would be improved if the Jews were removed. Almost always the bands were only temporary as below. The culminate impact on the psychic on the Jewish people however, has been traumatic. And may very well be indelible. The following is a list, far from complete. Hardly a major Jewish community has not been expelled by its Host Country. Only to be let back in again, later to be expelled once more."

Some ignorant and naive person may speak the Jewish line that they, the Jews, are God's Chosen People. But this too is a Jewish myth, perpetrated by the atheistic Jews for political advantage. The Christian Scripture declares that it is the True Israelite People who are the Chosen People of Almighty God.

The Scriptures clearly show that the Jews are not to be allowed into your household. Those who speak favourably of the Jews are participating in their evil of denying Christ as the Son of God. And Jesus Himself has already denied the Jews to be the Father for He said: "But whoever will deny me before men, I also will deny Him before my Father Who is in heaven." This also includes those who participate in their evil of denying Christ. It is very strange that when we turn to our Bibles, we begin to get an entirely different perception of world politics than what we are receiving from our television sets. If indeed 3.5 million atheistic, Christ-hating Jews had been systematically murdered by the Nazis, and we remind you that this by no means has been proven to be the case, would that indeed be so great a crime against mankind as was the Jews murdering the Lord Jesus Christ?

Which of the two was innocent and unworthy of death? The 3.5 million Jews, or the Lamb of God, Who was innocent and without a spot or wrinkle? The Jew would like the deceived Christian to believe that the blood of Christ is worthless and meaningless when compared to the blood of an atheistic Jew. But the truth, is, if all the Jews and gypsies and God-hating Communists, put together, were sacrificed upon some pagan altar, all their blood together could not do what one drop of the innocent blood of Christ can do. In other words, there is no comparison between the blood of a billion Christ-hating Jews and the blood of Jesus Christ. In most cases the God-hating wretches reaped what they had sown upon and against White Christian Nations. The Bible does not teach White Christian men and women to feel sorry for the guilty, but only to have pity for the innocent. Anything else is a blatant miscarriage and perversion of the very meaning of justice. Thus, it must be said that too many Christians have taken their eyes off the blood sacrifice of Calvary, and they have allowed the atheistic, Talmudic and Zionistic Jew to manipulate their feelings of compassion and pity away from the Son of God, and to invest that pity in the enemies of God.

In 1936 a speech before the Royal Commission in Jerusalem, Chaim Weizmann, president of the World Zionist Organization and Jewish Agency of long years' standing, 1948 first President of the State of Israel, defined the "Six Million" as a symbolic figure for the Jewish fate. "The world is taciturn, and it was only recently that we heard the Polish Foreign Minister, Col. Beck, say in many interviews in Geneva and in his own country and in Berlin that there were one million Jews too many in Poland...

I do not wish to dwell on this subject any longer. I am not going to engage the Commission's time more than necessary in order to describe what is going on in Germany. It is too well known that I would have to go into more precise details. This is the situation of roughly 3,600,000 Jews. Just over three million of them are living in Poland, 600,000 were living in Germany in 1932, but this figure has decreased since.

If we go on and take the Jews of Romania, Lithuania and Austria into consideration, then we have practically the same picture, and it is therefore no exaggeration at all when I say that today six million; I am not talking about the Jews in Persia and Marocco and in such countries which can only give very uncertain information and about which very little is heard nowadays, that in this part of the world six million Jews are condemned to be crowded in places where they are not wanted, human beings for whom the world is divided into countries in which they cannot live and countries which they are not allowed to enter.

Just one word about Russia: There are around three million Jews in Russia. We have only very little contact with them. Russia is at present a closed country. The situation there has, I think, materially improved, namely due to the fact that many people who could not be incorporated into Russia's present society are about to disappear..."

But in the meaning in which the term Jewry is understood by us, it is disappearing in Russia. Zionism is not allowed in Russia, it is regarded as a counter-revolutionary movement, a stooge of British imperialism. From time to time a Zionist escapes from Russia; younger people, and the Commission will perhaps have occasion to see several groups of these young Russian men and women who managed to escape from Russia under great sacrifices and at the risk of their lives. But a regular emigration of Jews from Russia to Palestine does not exist.

With great effort we succeeded in getting one thousand or twelve hundred Zionist families out of Russia, who had been arrested there and were incarcerated in Siberia prisons. We continue to attempt under enormous difficulties to get them out and into Palestine, but in reality a Russian Jewry as part of the World Jewry does not exist...

The six million whom I mentioned before, are condemned to live from hand to mouth; they do not know today what will happen tomorrow, I am not talking about organized anti-Semitism and will assume for a moment that most countries are behaving quite amicably, but there are a number of objective reasons, purely objective reasons, leading to a situation in those parts of the world where the Jewish community is crushed and the Jews are made the flotsam of the world, where they are economically ground to dust.

When saying this to you, I do not wish to involve your emotions, but these things are not widely known. Although it is common knowledge that the situation of the Jews is not a very happy one. I think that the real circumstances are not understood; this is why I have taken the liberty to dwell a little more comprehensively on this subject. This involves, after all, the fate of six million human beings."

On August 25, 1939; before the commencement of the war, the same man handed over to the British government the military declaration of war of the World Jewish Congress on Germany. In his own words this sounded somewhat more subtle as follows: "I took it upon myself to convey to the British government in writing and verbally the resolution of mutual assistance passed by the Geneva conference..."

When war began in 1939, he had a conversation with Winston Churchill: "He received me not only cordially, but he was also full of confidence with respect to the war. His first words, after he welcomed me, were about as follows: 'Well, Dr. Weizmann, we have as good as beaten them already.'

I was not quite of the same opinion at the time, but I did not say so. I just changed the subject, spoke about our own affairs and thanked him for his constant support for the Zionist course. 'You were standing at the cradle of this enterprise,' I said to him, 'and hopefully you will live to see that we have succeeded.' Adding that after the war we would build up a state of three to four million Jews in Palestine, whereupon he implied: 'Yes, go ahead, I am full in agreement with this idea.'

About November, 1945, he said: "The British government refused to believe that six million Jews had been killed in Europe." And this was in November 1945!

This was the first time in his voluminous "memoirs" that he expressed himself on the subject of "extermination of European Jewry by Hitler-Germany." Just as in the memoir-volumes of Nahum Goldmann, the president of the World Jewish Congress and of the American section of the Jewish Agency of long years' standing there is also nothing at all on the so-called "Holocaust" as in Chaim Weizmann's book, nothing about what the Jewish world organizations had learned during the war and how they had reacted on that information. Still in November 1945, the British government did not know anything about this either.

Only later on it was considered necessary in terms of power politics to join the chorus of the other agitators or at least not to contradict them. This total silence on the part of the two decisive representatives of International Jewry in their memoirs concerning the outrageous accusations raised against the German people is highly important evidence in terms of world history!

(Former Governor of the State of N.Y.)

From across the sea six million men and women call to us for help, and eight hundred thousand little children cry for bread. These children, these men and women are our fellow-members of the human family, with the same claim on life as we, the same susceptibility to the winter's cold, the same propensity to death before the pangs of hunger. Within them reside the illimitable possibilities for the advancement of the human race as naturally would reside in six million human beings. We may not be their keepers but we ought to be their helpers.

n the face of death, in the throes of starvation there is no place for mental distinctions of creed, no place for physical differentiations of race. In this catastrophe, when six million beings are being whirled toward the grave by a cruel and relentless fate, only the most idealistic promptings of human nature should sway the heart and move the hand.

Six million men and women are dying from lack of the necessities of life; eight hundred thousand children cry for bread. And this fate is upon them through no fault of their own, through no transgression of the laws of God or man; but through the awful tyranny of war and a bigoted lust for Jewish blood.

In this threatened holocaust of human life....

The Most Debated Question of Our Time -- Was There Really A Holocaust?

By Dr. E. R. Fields

"Since the Second World War, Jews have been treated with silk gloves. Without Auschwitz, there would be no Israel." (by Nathan Goldmann, the Founder of Israel as quoted from Paris Match, December 29, 1979) The "Holocaust" has given Israel a tremendous psychological advantage over the Gentile world, particularly America and Germany. By exploiting the guilt complex instilled in non-Jews, they have obtained: Over $65 billion in aid from Germany. Over $55 billion in aid from America. Israel, a prosperous country, receives $3.2 billion, (or $8 million a day) in foreign aid - more than any other country.

The 45,000 Jewish immigrants from Russia have the highest annual quota after Mexico. They enter as "refugees" without having to prove persecution! As "refugees" they are automatically entitled to full welfare benefits not subject to welfare reform cuts.

Nonstop holocaust brainwashing in schools, TV, movies and books has placed Israel and organized Jewry above criticism!

Official Holocaust Figures Reduced

Immediately after World War II, Allied authorities declared that "Jews had been gassed" in all German concentration camps. It later discovered that the many bodies photographed in the camps died during the waning days of the war; from typhus, cold and starvation.

Simon Wiesenthal, of the "Holocaust Centre" in Los Angeles, stated in Books and Bookmen, April 1975, page 5, "No gassing took place in any camp on German soil." The Jew L.P. Beria headed the Soviet NKVD secret police from 1938 to 1953. In 1945, he announced that they had discovered a "holocaust" of six million Jews. This conveniently occurred only in camps in Poland! Beria would not allow any outside investigators to examine these sites.

The Jewish-owned New York Times reported in 1945 that Soviet Russia supplied the figure of four million Jews having been put to death, "in the gas chambers of Auschwitz." However, in July of 1990, the Polish government reduced this figure to 1.1 million and it was accepted by Jewish groups. Despite this evidence, the "official figure" of six million dead was not lowered to three million! (It should also be noted that Elizabeth Dole, president of the American Red Cross, and wife of former Sen. Bob Dole, revealed that the official death records from Auschwitz had been uncovered in the Soviet Archives. It listed 70,000 deaths from all causes.)

No Holocaust Order Ever Given

The Germans are noted for being meticulous record keepers. There was no attempt made to destroy wartime records, 1,100 tons of which were seized in the U.S. Zone of occupation alone. British Historian, Colin Cross, writes in his biography of Hitler, on page 313: "There does not exist then, anything like a written order signed by Hitler for the extermination of the Jews in Europe."

Madagascar is a vast island off the coast of Africa in the Indian Ocean, then owned by France. Thousands of pages of German documents have been located providing a thorough study of the feasibility of establishing a Jewish homeland on the island of Madagascar. Plans were made for the reimbursement of the 25,000 French citizens who lived there. Even the government of France studied the plan. Theodore Herzl, the founder of Zionism, considered Madagascar a possible site for a Jewish state. He also considered Kenya, Africa, the Sinai from the Suez Canal to the Gaza Strip, and a huge area in southern Poland, but they really wanted Palestine.

The German Foreign Ministry on January 25, 1939 issued a document on the solution to the Jewish problem which stated: "The end policy in regard to the Jews is the emigration of all Jews living in the territory of the Old Reich."

In Auschwitz Notebooks, we read that all of the top German leadership supported this plan. "On November 12, 1938, Goring had mentioned the question of Madagascar. Himmler himself had dreamed of that since 1934, a witness assures us. After the armistice of June 1940 (surrender of France), the idea was propounded by the Foreign Ministry and approved by Himmler as well as by Hitler himself."

For these reasons SS official Reinhard Heydrich organized the Central Office for Jewish Emigration on February 11, 1939. Once the war began, this was no longer possible. Thus Hitler ordered the internment of Jews as enemy aliens and deported them to the east. On January 27, 1942, Hitler said: "The Jews must leave Europe. The best thing is that they go to Russia."

Roosevelt did the same thing as Hitler by ordering 120,000 Americans of Japanese descent living on the West Coast interned in concentration camps. In March 1942 Roosevelt accused them of being "security risks." The Japanese men, women and children were imprisoned behind barbed wire fences and armed guard towers in the blazing hot desert.

The Nuremberg War Crimes Trial heard testimony from Hans Lammers as to what he considered the "Final Solution of The Jewish Problem." Lammers was Chief of the Reich Chancellery and personally close to Himmler and Hitler. Lammers said he asked Himmler what was the "final solution." Himmler replied: "The Jews must be evacuated from Germany!" He said that Hitler told him the same thing. In other words, "The Final Solution" was -- emigration!

When asked, "when did you first learn that five million Jews had been exterminated," Lammers replied that it was "here" at the Nuremberg trials! Herman Goring also told the court that the first time he had heard anything about a holocaust was, "right here at Nuremberg!"

Auschwitz was a massive military-industrial complex of 39 camps of which 19 mainly employed Jews. The factories at the "Monowitz No. 16 Camp" alone employed 126,000 workers. Holocaust expert, Leon Poliakov of Paris, in Breviary of Hate, page 134, in 1979 wrote that the Jewish Warsaw Ghetto was one of the Germans' "most important supply centres. The second in economic importance was the Lodz ghetto because it manufactured all kinds of goods, and, in particular, its textile industries constituted support of great value to the German economy." Heinrich Himmler feared a typhus epidemic in the camps. Eastern European Jews were very unhygienic and were often blamed for the spread of typhus. On December 28, 1942, Himmler ordered that, "the death rate in the camps must be reduced at all costs."

On January 20, 1943, chief inspector of the camps, Richard Glucks, answered Himmler, "Every means will be used to lower the death rates." The death rate had indeed been reduced from 8.5% in July 1942 to 2.8% in June 1943.

On April 17, 1943, Hitler asked Admiral Horthy, regent of Hungary for, "100, 000 Jews to work on a new pursuit plane program."

In May 1944 Hitler personally ordered that 200,000 more Jews be put to work in construction and "other important military works."

The Jews were vital to the German war industry. It would have been counterproductive to exterminate them. In fact, the SS arrested Karl Koch, commandant of Buchenwald, for mistreating and unjustly executing some prisoners. After being found guilty by a military court, Koch was sentenced to death and shot. If there was actually a "holocaust" he would have been honoured instead of executed.

Shindler's List features Commandant Amon Goeth, who in reality did abuse prisoners. However, the film fails to inform viewers that he had been arrested by the SS and was in prison awaiting trial at war's end.

Most of the gruesome pictures of bodies we see in "made for TV" holocaust dramas are those who died of starvation and disease during the final chaotic months of the war. An example is Dachau. Some 54 died in January 1944 and 101 in February 1944.

When food and medical supplies could not be delivered due to Allied bombings, 2,888 died in January and 3,977 in February 1945.

The Impossibility of Mass Gassings Auschwitz had no mass graves. The cremation of four million bodies would have left 15,000 tons of ash which was never found. Many tons of coal would have been necessary for such mass cremations. Initially, the Soviets told conflicting stories about how the six million perished in the camps under their control. At first they claimed that the inmates had been "steamed" to death. On December 5, 1945, a Communist judge issued the following "Accusation No. 6" against defendant Hans Frank at Nuremberg: "A large boiler for the production of superheated steam was injected into the interior of the rooms. The doors are closed hermetically and the long asphyxiation of the victims by the steam begins. At the start, screams came from inside, they die down slowly; after 15 minutes, the executions are completed."

This story was not believable. It was then changed to allege that trucks were backed up to the "death chambers" and carbon monoxide gas was pumped into the rooms. This claim too was "forgotten" and the Soviets then charged that the Germans changed the "steam chambers" into "gas chambers."

The Soviets came up with a novel idea of how the Jews were exterminated at the Belzec camp. "The Jews were ordered to undress as though to take a bath. They were led in fact into a building that could hold hundreds of people. The water was filled up to their necks. Then a powerful electric current was sent into the metal flooring and within a few seconds all the Jews, thousands at a time, were dead."

Soviet prosecutor L.N. Smirnov actually read this accusation into the record at the December 19, 1945, session of the Nuremberg trial. This story finally evolved to execution by "Zyklon B" gas. This was a widely used pesticide to kill lice which was the biggest health threat in the camps. Had the Germans actually wanted to perform mass exterminations, they had products one-thousand times more deadly such as Sarin and Tabun nerve gas!

Austrian Engineer Walter Luftl issued a report in March 1992, in which he found that, "Zyklon B is utterly unsuited for the purposes of systematic mass murder."

Fred Leuchter, America's foremost expert on executions, took a team of investigators to Auschwitz in 1988 and reported: "I traveled to Poland to investigate the alleged execution gas chamber facilities at the three concentration camps of Auschwitz, Birkenau and Majdanek. My forensic analysis and subsequent report proves beyond any shadow of a doubt that there were no gas execution facilities operated by the Nazis at these sites." Leuchter also examined the capacity of the so-called "gas chamber building" at Birkenau. The Nuremberg Tribunal's document No. L-022 stated: "1,765,000 Jews were gassed at Birkenau between April 1942 and April 1944." However, Leuchter found that even if used at full capacity "only 105,688" persons could have been "gassed." His team scraped forensic samples from brick, mortar and concrete to find traces of cyanide compounds which would be present for centuries. They were submitted to the Alpha Analytical Laboratories of Ashland, Massachusetts.

In March 1988, the Alpha report found that no cyanide elements, consistent with what could be expected to be found in a gas chamber, were present.

A retired German judge, Dr. Wilhelm Staglich said: "The extermination thesis stands or falls with the allegation that Auschwitz was a 'death factory.'"

Fred Leuchter's finding: "We have provided the definitive proof that there were no execution gas chambers utilized for genocidal purposes by the Germans at these wartime camps. The simple fact is that the holocaust story is not true."

How Many Jews Actually Died?

The World Almanac for 1947, in quoting figures supplied by the American Jewish Committee states that the world Jewish population in 1939 was 15,688,259. The New York Times of February 22, 1948, stated that the world Jewish population ranged from 15,600,000 to 18,700,000, excluding some 600,000 to 700,000 living in Palestine. How could the Jewish population have increased so rapidly after losing six million during World War II?

Walter Sanning, the author of Dissolution of European Jewry, says that no less than 2,200,000 Jews had emigrated out of Europe leaving 2,847,000 Jews residing there at the height of the German occupation in June 1941. After the war, 3,375,000 Jews, according to the Red Cross, applied for holocaust reparations. This figure included many of the emigrants. Thus, the actual number of those who died at the camps from all causes ranges between 150,000 and 300,000.

"Holocaust" Silences Opposition

Hardly a week goes by without a new holocaust story in the media. Bernard Postal wrote in Jewish Week, July 14, 1979: "Not until the Holocaust, did anti-Semitism become taboo. There was a time when anti-Semitic speeches were an open factor in national (political) campaigns. The Holocaust puts a taboo on overt anti-Semitism among upper-level statesmen and publicists." Zionist spokesmen have often boasted that, "The shattering effect of the holocaust on the Christian conscience results in a feeling of collective indebtedness to the Jews."

The Red Cross issued a massive, three volume, 1,600 page report on the camps after the war, part of which reads: "In the final months of the war, the camps received no food supplies at all and starvation claimed an increasing number of victims." ...Gen. Kaltenbrunner...Allowed the Red Cross to distribute relief packages and one (Red Cross) delegate was authorized to stay in each camp (as an observer). Does this sound like a holocaust?

What About Real Holocausts?

Why doesn't the film industry or news media produce documentaries about the numerous true holocausts during the century such as:

The Soviet Holocaust of Christian Russian Kulak farmers. (1924 - 1930)
- 15 million exterminated!

The Holocaust of the Ukranian farmers, (1930- 1933) - 7 million starved to death.

The Holocaust of Russian political prisoners, (1919 - 1949) - 12 million perished.

The Pol Pot Communist Holocaust in Cambodia (1975) - 2.5 million slaughtered.

Armenian Holocaust by the Turks, (1915) - 1.5 million people killed.

Bear in mind that the Jews are the only racial group with an organization like the World Jewish congress which wields fearsome power! This is just a few of the many reasons that people, around the world, are beginning to deny the "Holocaust." Which brings on the question of just what is a "Holocaust Denial?" For in recent years, more and more attention has been devoted to the supposed danger of "Holocaust denial." Politicians, newspapers and television warn about the growing influence of those who reject the Holocaust story that some six million European Jews were systematically exterminated during the Second World War, most of them in gas chambers. In several countries, including Israel, France, Germany and Austria, "Holocaust denial" is against the law, and "deniers" have been punished with stiff fines and prison sentences.

Some frantic Jewish community leaders are calling for similar government measures in the United States against defiant "revisionists." In Canada, David Matas, Senior Counsel for the "League for Human Rights" of the Zionist B'nai B'rith organization, says: "The Holocaust was the murder of six million Jews, including two million children. Holocaust denial is a second murder of those same six million. First their lives were extinguished; then their deaths. A person who denies the Holocaust becomes part of the crime of the Holocaust itself.

Often overlooked in this controversy is the crucial question: Just what constitutes Holocaust denial?" Should someone be considered a "Holocaust denier" because he/she does not believe, as Matas and others insist, that six million Jews were killed during World War II? This figure was cited by the International Military Tribunal at Nuremberg in 1945-1946. It found that "the policy pursued {by the German Government} resulted in the killing of six million Jews, of which four million were killed in the extermination institutions."

Yet if that is so, then several of the most prominent Holocaust historians could be regarded as "deniers." Professor Raul Hilberg, author of the standard reference work, "The Destruction of the European Jews," does not accept that six million Jews died. He puts the total of deaths (by all causes) at 5.1 million. Berald Reitlinger, author of "The Final Solution," likewise did not accept the six million figure. He estimated the figure of Jewish wartime dead might be as high as 4.6 million, but admitted that this was conjectural due to a lack of reliable information.

Human Soap?: Is someone a "Holocaust denier" if he/she says that the Nazis didn't use Jewish fat to make soap? After weighing all the evidence (including an actual bar of soap supplied by the Soviets), the Nuremberg Tribunal declared in its Judgment that "in some instances attempts were made to utilize the fat from the bodies of the victims in the commercial manufacture of soap." (IMT "blue series," Vol. 22, p. 496) In 1990, though, Israel's official "Yad Vashem" Holocaust memorial agency

"rewrote history" by admitting that the soap story was not true. "Historians have concluded that soap was not made from human fat. When so many people deny the Holocaust ever happened, why give them something to use against the truth?," said Yad Vashem official Shmuel Krakowski.

Wannsee Conference?: Is someone a "Holocaust denier" if he does not accept that the January 1942 "Wannsee Conference" of German bureaucrats was held to set or coordinate a program of systematic mass murder of Europe's Jews? If so, Israeli Holocaust historian Yehuda Bauer must be wrong, and a "Holocaust denier," because he recently declared: "The public still repeats, time after time, the silly story that at Wannsee the extermination of the Jews was arrived at." In Bauer's opinion, Wannsee was a meeting but "hardly a conference" and "little of what was said there was executed in detail."

Extermination Policy?: Is someone a "Holocaust denier" if he/she says that there was no order by Hitler to exterminate Europe's Jews? There was a time when the answer would have been Yes. Holocaust historian Raul Hilberg, for example, wrote in the 1961 edition of his study, "The Destruction of the European Jews," that there were two Hitler orders for the destruction of Europe's Jews: the first given in the spring of 1941, and the second shortly thereafter. But Hilberg removed mention of any such order from the revised three-volume edition of his book published in 1985.

As Holocaust historian Christopher Browning has noted: "In the new edition, all references in the text to a Hitler decision or Hitler order for the 'Final Solution' have been systematically excised. Buried at the bottom of a single footnote stand the solitary reference: 'Chronology and circumstances point to a Hitler decision before the summer ended.' In the new edition, decisions were not made and orders were not given."

A lack of hard evidence for an extermination order by Hitler has contributed to a controversy that divides Holocaust historians into "internationalists" and "functionalists." The former contend that there was a premeditated extermination policy ordered by Hitler, while the latter hold that Germany's wartime "final solution" Jewish policy evolved at lower levels in response to circumstances.

But the crucial point here is this: notwithstanding the capture of literally tons of German documents after the war, no one can point to documentary evidence of a wartime extermination order, plan or program. This was admitted by Professor Hilberg during his testimony in the 1985 trial in Toronto of German-Canadian publisher Ernst Zündel.

Auschwitz: So just what constitutes "Holocaust denial?" Surely a claim that most Auschwitz inmates died from disease and not systematic extermination in gas chambers would be "denial." But perhaps not. Jewish historian Arno J. Mayer, a Princeton University professor, wrote in his 1988 study "Why Did the Heavens Not Darken?": The Final Solution in History:" "...From 1942 to 1945, certainly an Auschwitz, but probably overall, more Jews were killed by so-called 'natural' causes than by 'unnatural' ones." Even estimates of the number of people who died at Auschwitz, allegedly the main extermination centre, are no longer clear cut. At the post-war Nuremberg Tribunal, the Allies charged that the Germans exterminated four million people at Auschwitz. Until 1990, a memorial plaque at Auschwitz read: "Four Million People Suffered and Died Here at the Hands of the Nazi Murderers Between the Years 1940 and 1945."

During a 1982 visit to the camp, Pope John Paul II (a Jewish Pope) stood before this memorial and blessed the four million victims. Is it "Holocaust denial" to dispute these four million deaths? Not today. In July 1990, the Polish Government's Auschwitz State Museum, along with Israel's Yad Vashem Holocaust centre, conceded that the four million figure was a gross exaggeration, and references to it were accordingly removed from the Auschwitz monument. Israeli and Polish officials announced a tentative revised toll of 1.1 million Auschwitz dead. In 1993, French Holocaust researcher Jean-Claude Pressac, in a much-discussed book about Auschwitz, estimated that altogether about 775,000 died there during the war years.

Professor Mayer acknowledges that the question of how many really died in Auschwitz remains open. In "Why did the Heavens Not Darken?" he wrote: "...Many questions remain open—All in all, how many bodies were cremated in Auschwitz? How many died there all told? What was the national, religious, and ethnic breakdown in this commonwealth of victims? How many of them were condemned to die a 'natura' death and how many were deliberately slaughtered? And what was the proportion of Jews among those murdered in cold blood among these gassed? We have simply no answers to these questions at this time."

Having seen the success of the British propaganda about the Germans using the skins of dead babies as lamp shades in World War I [which the British later apologized for after the end of the war and admitted it was only propaganda to get the troops to fight harder]. They conceived of the "Six Million Jew Lie" and spared no amount of expense to forward this program [They even executed several thousand of the so-called lesser Jews: so as to further their diabolical plans after all what was a few thousand lesser Jews compared to the master plan of World Control!].

The Zionists who have always been very far sighted saw in it a chance to accomplish two things:

(a) To destroy Nationalism by claiming that the Germans killed "SIX MILLION JEWS" in an effort at exterminating them, and the Germans were extremely nationalistic, then it must follow, that Nationalism must be very evil if millions of people can be murdered in its name! [In other words do not be too Patriotic because if you do you will have Six Million or more Dead Jews. And if you don't believe it they will show you another holocaust movie, then another, then another until you do]. Do you see what I am saying?

(b) Their claim to Palestine which came soon after the end of the War has enabled them [the Jews] to replace God and the Lord Jesus Christ and become the Chosen People: a ripple counterfeit, to most of the Christian World!

Thus it is clear for all to see if they will look with any honesty at all America fought World War II so that World Jewry could dominate the Financial Money Markets of the world; Expose any existing opposition to their designs for world conquest and destroy such opposition; destroy Nationalism, Patriotism, in the major countries of the world. Perhaps William Anderson in his Afterword in a book "WAR WAR WAR!" by Cincinnatus describes it best:

How The Jews Forced America Into World War II

In the years before World War II, the American public had no desire to go to war in either Europe or Asia. We, as Americans, had no interest in warring with Germany, Italy or Japan. Yet America was forced to battle the Axis Powers for four long years at the sole behest of International Jewry. In fact, World Jewry commenced its war against Germany in 1933, the year Hitler came to power, even before he had time to begin implementing a program for pulling Germany out of its own economic depression.

Jewry's declaration of a 'holy war' against Germany was issued by Samuel Untermyer of the World Jewish Federation, who said in the New York 'Times' August 7, 1933, that it would be means of an 'economic boycott that will undermine the Hitler regime and bring the German people to their senses by destroying their export trade on which their very existence depends.'

The Toronto 'Evening Telegram' February 26, 1940, quotes Rabbi Maurice Perlzweig of the World Jewish Congress as telling a Canadian audience that 'the World Jewish Congress has been at war with Germany for seven years' [i.e. 1933]. Jews were obviously willing to back up their threats, for the London 'Sunday Chronicle' of January 2, 1938, reported that 'leaders of International Jewry' had met in Geneva, Switzerland to set up a $2.5 BILLION fund to undermine the economic stability of Germany.

However, Jewish boycotts against Germany failed to bring that nation to its knees as [because] Hitler had already freed Germany from dependence on Jewish usury. Since economic pressure by World Jewry could not break the back of Germany, it was determined that an actual war would be necessary to destroy Hitler [the German People for they had thrown off the control of the International Banks]. This desire to decimate Germany is understandable when one recognizes that Jews are a parasitic race and as parasites will fight to the death when the host attempts to expel them.

The Jewish desire for war was admitted by Rabbi Felix Mendelssohn in the Chicago "Sentinel" of October 8, 1942, where he states: "The Second World War is being fought for the Defence of the Fundamentals of Judaism." Thus, Rabbi Mendelssohn flatly expresses the view that WW II was a Jewish War. This Jewish scheme came to fruition in 1939, Germany invaded Poland. Britain and France, under Jewish domination, then declared war on Germany, conveniently ignoring the fact that the Soviet Union [Under Jewish Rule] also invaded Poland.

Think about it Damn it -- use your head -- if England and France declared war on Germany just because they invaded Poland then why did they not also declare war against Russia, as they also invaded Poland when Germany did?

James Forrestal, later to become Secretary of Defence in his diary of December 27, 1945, notes that he played golf with Joseph Kennedy FDR's Ambassador to Britain, who told him that ex-Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain 'stated that America and the world Jews had forced England into war.' For his candour and later opposition to the bandit state of Israel, Forrestal was murdered in 1949 [ruled a 'suicide']. Jews throughout the world screamed that Germany was intent on ruling the world, but General George C. Marshall admitted after the war, in testimony before Congress [it is recorded in the Congressional Record], that No Proof could be found that Hitler Planned any Conquest of the World.

In fact, Hitler's actions against Czechoslovakia over the Sudetenland and Poland over Danzig were just part of Hitler's long stated desire to re-acquire the territory taken from Germany after WW I in the Treaty of Versailles [is that not what the Jews claim to be doing in Palestine at the present time?].

While stones are being cast, it should be recalled that after Germany took back the Sudetenland from Czechoslovakia, Poland seized the territory of Treschen from the Czechs which it had no claims toward it. So, after the Jews had ignited a war in Europe, it was found to be necessary to draw America into that war as France had fallen and Britain tottered on the brink of defeat.

To bring the U.S. into this Jewish war, International Jewry had the services of a master at corrupt politics -- the one and only Franklin Delano Roosevelt [Who will without doubt, someday go down as the greatest traitor America has ever known]. Interestingly enough, Col. Curtis Dall who was once FDR's son-in-law accused Roosevelt of being partly Jewish. In any event, Roosevelt was surrounded by plenty of Jew advisors such as Bernard Baruch, S.I. Rosenman, Sidney Weinburg, Sidney Hillman and Felix Frankfurter.

For the first time, Jewry had a President who was totally subservient to them and they spared no effort to keep him in office. For example, when it appeared that Senator Huey Long would defeat Roosevelt for the 1939 Democratic nomination, he was assassinated by Dr. Carl Weiss, a Jew. Nevertheless, American public opinion was overwhelmingly opposed to any involvement in WW II. Many Americans realized they had been duped into WW I and were not interested in losing the lives of their loved ones in a war that offered no benefits to the U.S.

In effect, Americans were heeding the advice of George Washington in his 'Farewell Address' [that is why the current campaign to discredit our founding fathers is being waged, so that we will disregard their God given advice -- just as the Prostitute Clergy of Organized Religion of today are bringing disgrace and shame upon the name of the Lord Jesus Christ -- so that the younger generations will disregard the teachings of the True Men of God] where he warned that Americans must not become involved in entangling alliances with foreign nations.

Those Patriots who followed Washington's sound advice were disparagingly referred to as 'isolationists,' but they were, in actuality, neutralists. Thus Congress, acting on the will of the people, passed the Neutrality Act of 1935 which embargoed any U.S. arms from being sent to a warring nation.

About three years later, in 1938, Representative Louis Ludlow of Indiana introduced a resolution requiring a public vote of support of any declaration of war by Congress. Roosevelt and the Jews knew this measure could easily destroy their efforts, so an all out attack on the resolution was launched. As a result, the Ludlow bill was narrowly defeated. The Jews had good reason to block the resolution for the American Institute for Public Opinion [AIPO] released at that time a poll showing 83% of the citizens opposed to U.S. intervention in an European war.

Moreover, in April 1939, during the height of war fever, a whopping 95% opposed American entry into a war against Germany. That's right, virtually every citizen was soundly against the U.S. involving itself in a foreign war [but unfortunately this fact has been forgotten as a result of a deluge of false propaganda by our controlled news media]. As a result, Congress strengthened the Neutrality Act by barring commerce and travel, as well as arms, to any belligerent power.

At this point, the Jews began to show signs of desperation but these wily manipulators of world events still had a few tricks up their collective sleeve. So, in 1939 an immense propaganda campaign, the likes of which had never before been seen, was launched. No stone was left unturned in Jewry's assault on the minds of the American people. One was bombarded with the most outlandish lies about Hitler and Germany from all sides -- in newspapers, magazines, books, radio and motion pictures. FDR also unleashed the powerful, persuasive techniques of the federal government in the blitz to 'hate Germany.'

To get an idea of just how far this propaganda attack went, one should note that Jew Theodore Kaufman wrote a book entitled 'Germany Must Perish,' which outlined a plan to exterminate Germans by sterilizing 48 million of them. Believe it or not, this call for genocide by a Jew was well received in many influential circles. Conversely, Germany never carried out a 'holocaust' against the Jews, but after the war, was accused of doing so any way. This 'holocaust' hoax trumped up by Jewry has been used since WW II to divert attention from their own machinations to plunge America into the maelstrom of yet another war.

The Jew orchestrated assault of hate against Germany was successful in cowering Congress into lifting the arms embargo and allowed the free flow of weapons to Britain and later to the Soviet Union. This action made U.S. ships carrying the arms fair targets for German subs; but no attacks occurred [but American submarines were attacking German shipping in violation of the Neutrality Act], which is certainly odd behaviour for a 'madman' [Hitler] bent on 'world rule.'

While Congress succumbed to the barrage of hate propaganda, the public remained totally against the war. For instance, in October 1940 about 83% polled were opposed to U.S. involvement. In April 1941, it was 85% against and in July 1941, opposition was pegged at a healthy 79%. Not surprisingly, the pollsters quit asking the question at this point, as FDR and Jewry had all but gotten war officially declared.

By 1940, Roosevelt had rammed through Congress a draft and conscription although polls indicated at least 50% of the public was against such a move. By now it should be perfectly obvious that World Jewry had begun planning for U.S. entry into the war at least three years before Pearl Harbour, despite overwhelming opposition.

Speaking of Pearl Harbour, it is important to understand the complete facts surrounding the 'surprise attack.' While 95% of all respondents were opposed to war in 1939, about 90% indicated they were willing to fight if directly attacked. Operating on this information, Jewry did everything possible to goad either Germany or Italy into attacking America. However, the bait was refused as Hitler was attempting at that time to negotiate a peace with England, which was flatly rejected by the Jew lackey Churchill.

Thus Jewry's attention turned toward Japan, which had a mutual defence pact with Germany and Italy. Japan had been engaged in a war with China which FDR and the Jews tried to use as an excuse for American intervention, even though the events in Asia were of no concern to America. Jewish, not American, interests however were what concerned Roosevelt and in July 1941, he froze Japanese assets in the U.S. and embargoed trade.

This was reason enough to declare war, but Japan humbly proposed to sit down and negotiate U.S.-Japanese differences. Instead of accepting the offer, FDR insulted Japanese Ambassador Nomura and refused to meet with Prime Minister Konoye. As a result, Konoye and his 'peace party' were replaced by General Tojo and his 'war party,' yet Japan continued to make peace overtures only to have them all flatly rejected. Finally, on November 26, 1941, Roosevelt sent an ultimatum to Japan which amounted to a virtual Declaration of War. This ultimatum, according to Professor Harry Elmer Barnes, was actually drafted by the Jew Harry Dexter White [Weiss] in collaboration with Jew Treasury Secretary Harry Morgenthau. It was this ultimatum, penned by two Jews, that forced Japan to attack or else 'lose face,' which to Oriental thinking is a fate worse than death.

The final, sorry episode of this disgusting chain of events is that Washington knew of the impending attack on Pearl Harbour at least 12 hours before the blow fell, but refused to warn military officers there [What other name could this be known other than Treason]. The U.S. had been forewarned since the Japanese message code had been broken and America was thus able to monitor Japanese dispatches. No word was sent to Pearl Harbor by FDR and the Jews as the messages revealed that the attack should be called off if it appeared that the Americans were prepared.

So International Jewry by going through the 'back door' had successfully ensnared America into WW II; a war that would cost millions of lives and billions of dollars. The bottom line of the war would be a world under the total subjugation of Jewry through its twin arms of Communism and Zionism. These facts have been covered up and ignored in the mass media, Charles Lindberg, for one, recognized where the finger of proof pointed. In his 'Wartime Journals,' he states that 'the Jews, the Roosevelt administration, and British sympathizers combined to encourage the U.S. to enter World War II.'

Lindberg and other patriots sought to stop Jewry's war plans by setting up the America First Committee. The committee found widespread support, but could not overcome the billions spent by Jews to brainwash the public into accepting war after Pearl Harbour. And it is Jewry which best recognized why the U.S. entered WW II. 'The American Hebrew,' in an editorial of July 24, 1942, declared that; "Whenever an American or a Filipino fell at Bataan or Corrugator or at any other of the now historic spots where MacArthur's men put up their remarkable fight, their survivors could have said with truth: The real reason that boy went to his death was because Hitler's Anti-Semitic movement succeeded in Germany. [can you not see it? World War II was because Germany and its people were being successful in their attempts to throw off the International Jewish Bankers Rule of their country -- God what does it take for America to understand?]."

The above quotation from a Jew newspaper is an admission that the U.S. entered WW II only at the behest of World Jewry - a war Jewry declared all the way back in 1933!!! Of course, this admission was intended only for consumption by a Jewish audience to keep them in the know, which tends to make it all the more revealing. Any American involvement in a foreign conflict should be judged as to whether it is in the best interest of the American nation; yet the U.S. entered WW II because it was in the best interest of International Jewry. Thus, the Jews forced the U.S. into war against the public's will in 1941 and the $64 million question is will it happen again? Events are already pointing towards a build-up of war hysteria. Without a doubt, Jewry is leading America by the nose towards war in the Middle East on behalf of the bandit state of Israel. Will we learn from the lesson of the past or will we once again find ourselves forced into war for the benefit of World Jewry?

The Biggest Lie: The biggest lie in modern times has been told by the controlled propaganda machine. It has to do with the number of Jews who died during World War II. Jewish periodicals and periodicals controlled by them usually set the figure between six million and nine million.

A research student, who has given the matter much thought, explodes this lie with some very devastating logic and statistics. The following is a summary of his research. "Tabu," or "taboo" implies that certain persons or things are unsafe for casual contact and are not to be lightly approached, and this definition of the ancient custom of many savage tribes made by the Encyclopaedia Britannica describes most exactly the attitude of practically all American "media" toward the fantastic figure of the "Six Million Jewish Victims" who, allegedly perished in Nazi concentration camps of Buchenwald, Sachsenhausen, Auschwitz, etc. During the past years this "tool" was so much used, and abused, by the World Jewry and its mouthpieces that it began to lose its cutting edge, and many bitter complaints were voiced that the world had "swept those poor 'victims' under the rug" and does not want to remember them anymore. The Eichmann Trial gave a splendid opportunity to brush off the dust from the ghosts of those "victims," and the world press did it really with a vengeance; every day one could read the screaming headlines about the killer of those "Six Million Jews" and this sacramental figure was repeated "ad Nauseam" in all possible combinations.

Let us dare, however, to approach this sacred "Taboo" without prejudice, fear and trepidation. Let us treat it rather as a simple arithmetic problem using for our calculations only such data which nobody who is of a sane mind can call as being "Anti-Semitic" in origin.

Returning back to the same Encyclopaedia Britannica, we find there in Vol. XIII, p. 63-B, [1953 Ed.] such an interesting, if somewhat ambiguous, sentence about those "victims": "If but a fraction of the atrocities reported were accurate, then many thousands of defenceless Jewish non-combatants, men, women and children were butchered after September 1939." The authors of this article mention thousands and not millions of the possible "victims," and put a cautious "IF" at the beginning of the sentence. Had they some ground to put in doubt the veracity of those reports? Apparently yes, and this can be proved by the following revealing information: "Dr. Aaron Ohrenstein, Chief Rabbi of Bavaria, was sentenced to one year in prison for fraud, falsification of sworn statements of the non-existent 'victims' of Nazi terrorism."

We don't know, unfortunately, how many phony "dead souls" this honourable doctor included in his report, and how many other doctors and common mortals did follow in his steps but were not caught in the act. It is safe to guess, however, that this Rabbi was not alone, because only by concentrated and highly organized efforts of many willing collaborators could it be possible to create and to sustain such an absurd myth. Just for the sake of comparison it might be mentioned here that Japan which fought for many years was mercilessly bombed and was the victim of the first two atomic blasts, lost in dead during the past war was 3.1 million "only." Right from the start of our investigations we are confronted with such a puzzling problem: WHICH of the figures of "victims" mentioned by the American press is the exact one: four million? six million? nine million? or still more?

Time Magazine once dared to publish the lowest figure of four million.

The Los Angeles Mirror in an article of April 19, 1961 tells us as follows: "The actual [?] count exceeds 6 million victims."

Newsweek Magazine assured quite a few times its credulous readers that the number of "victims" should be at least seven million.

Rabbi Schultz of New York adds to the six million Jews killed by Nazis 3.4 million of the Soviet Jewry liquidated during the post-war purges thus bringing the total to the staggering figure of 9.4 million "victims." The generally admitted number, as every child in America knows, is Six Million, which is easy to remember and to repeat. But the so-called "official" estimate released once by the joint Anglo-American Committee fixes with a surprising accuracy the number of "victims" at exactly 5,721,000! Let us admit for a moment that this is the correct answer to our question, and let us see how the Jewish-owned statistics comply with it.

Total number of the World Jewish population in 1938 as per information of the Jewish statistical Bureau in the U.S. - 15.7 million

Natural increase in two decades

Information of, the Jewish World Congress -1.0 million Total - 16.7 million. Less the "victims" - 5.7 million. Should be now [May 1974] - 11.0 million. But in accordance with the data supplied by the same Congress there are:-

Jews in the Soviet Union - 2.0 million
Jews in the U.S. - 5.2 million
Jews in other countries - 4.6 million
Or a total of - 11.8 million

It is already 0.8 million MORE than it should be in accordance with the first calculation. Consequently the World Jewish Congress itself tacitly agrees that the number of "victims" cannot be even 5.7 million, but should be about 4.9 million. Since it would be quite difficult for us to check up on the number of Jews now residing all over the world outside the Soviet Union and the U.S., let us admit the figure of 4.6 million as given by the Congress is the correct one.

But according to the last Soviet census of population the number of Jews living there is slightly above 3 million, and NOT 2 million as claimed by the Congress. Subtracting this "lost" millions of Jews "found" now in the USSR from the above number of "victims" we shall get our second "corrected" figure: 4.9 million, minus 1 million, equals 3.9 million.

But if the said Congress could "adjust" the Soviet Jewish population by one third, should we admit without questioning the suspiciously low figure of 5.2 million Jews now, allegedly, residing in the United States?

According to the figures released once by the American Jewish Committee the Jewish population of the U.S. was in 1917 3.27% of the total; in 1927 3.58%; and in 1937 3.69%. Everybody knows that besides the normal natural increase there was during the last two decades a tremendous influx of Jewish immigrants, both legal and illegal, to the hospitable American shores.

But, surprisingly enough, the relative proportion of Jews to other populations of the U.S. registered a sharp DROP and is now, if we have to believe the Congress estimate, only 2.9% of the total. [5.2 million of 180 million]. HOW could such a "miracle" happen?! Would it not be more logical to suppose that this ever-increasing in the past years percentage should be now somewhere between 4.5%-5%, [i.e. 8-9 million of Jewish population], but by no possible means could it drop BELOW the 1937 level?

Let us approach the same question from another angle. Time, (October 31, 1960), quoting the Yearbook of American Churches for 1960, reported that there are 5.5 million of "practicing" Jews in the States. Or, in other words, since the total officially admitted number of Jews is only 5.2 million in America, more than a hundred percent of the Jews are registered with their religious communities?! HOW could such a second "miracle" happen?

That not all the Jews residing in the States are the "practicing" ones proves the footnote in the same Time Magazine of February 11, 1957 where it is stated that only 10.6% of the New York City population profess Jewish Faith, although the TOTAL percentage of Jewry in that City is about 28%. So, admittedly, more than one half of the N.Y.C. Jews are religiously indifferent and are not registered with their synagogues. According to the statistics, out of 100 Americans 62 belong to one or another church group.

Assuming that other Jews residing in the States are more religious than their New York confreres, we shall apply that average rule to the whole American Jewish community. Then, if there are 5.5 million of "practicing" Jews [62%], there should be besides a balance of about 3.3 million [38%] of those who are not "practicing." Adding those two figures together we get 8.8 million which should be, approximately, the actual number of Jews now residing in the States.

This figure, being about 4.9% of the total American population, is in accord with our first calculation based on the percentage. It is, without any doubt, far more plausible than the ridiculously low figure of 5.2 million as given by the Congress. This excess of the Jewish population in the States, [8.8 million, minus 5.2 million, equals 3.6 million], gives us the full right to cut down drastically the number of the "victims" for the third, and last, time because, as it is quite obvious from the above calculations, the number of the American Jews was also "adjusted" by more than one third. Otherwise it would be simply impossible to sustain for so many years the myth of the millions of Jewish "victims."

And thus, finally, we get: 3.9 million, minus 3.6 million "found" in the States equals: 0.3 million -- which is the actual approximate number of Jews who "probably" perished in Europe during the last war. It might happen, of course, that we are here a few tens of thousands "victims" off the mark, but, in all probability, the figure cannot exceed 0.4 million and should be between 200 and 400 thousand. Consequently the world Jewish population at present should be such:—

World Jewish Population
In the Soviet Union 3.0 million
In the U.S. 8.8 million
In other countries 4.6 million
Total 16.4 million

As an additional, if indirect, proof of the massive forgery of the number of "victims" let us quote here a few revealing passages taken from the pages of the American press:

Reuter, (Sept. 13, 1958), reported that in the famous Buchenwald camp where, allegedly, MILLIONS of Jews alone perished, a memorial was dedicated to the 56,000 prisoners of all nationalities who died there during the war. How is it possible for millions of Jews to have died there when only 56,000 of all nationalities: which would have included the Jews who said to have died there???

Newsweek, (Oct. 27, 1958), said that a certain Sorge Schubert, who was in charge of the Sachsenhausen camp, was accused of murdering 198 Jews and 10,000 Russians. Isn't it amazing the Jews claim millions died at Sachsen-Hausen but Newsweek reports that only 198 Jews died there.

Time, (March 23, 1959), stated; "Erich Koch, (Gauleiter of Ukraine)...stood accused of responsibility or complicity in gas-chamber and concentration camp death of 4,000,000 Russians, 160,000 Jews and 72,000 Poles."

The director of Auschwitz has been filmed on video-tape admitting that the so-called gas chambers, there, was constructed after the war. In a dramatic and unprecedented filmed interview, Dr. Franciszek Piper, senior curator and director of archives at the Auschwitz State Museum; admits on camera that "Krema I," the alleged "homicidal gas chamber" shown off to hundreds of thousands of tourists every year at the Auschwitz main camp, is, in fact, a reconstruction, fabricated after the war by the Soviet Union: apparently on the direct orders of dictator Joseph Stalin. What Piper said, in effect - and on camera - was that the explosive Leucher Report was correct: No Homicidal Gassings took place in the buildings designated 'homicidal gas chambers' at Auschwitz!

Ironically, for someone to even suggest such a thing could bring a jail sentence in more than one country, including enlightened nations like France, Canada and German. {Just ask British historian David Irving}. The videotape on which Piper makes his revelations was taken in mid-1992 by a young Jewish investigator, David Cole. It has just been released, on January 1, 1993, although Cole announced his project at the 11th International Revisionist Conference at Irvine, California last October.

Like most Americans, since his youth Cole had been instructed in the "irrefutable fact" that homicidal gassings had taken place at Auschwitz. The number of those so executed - also declared irrefutable - was 4.1 million. Then came the Leuchter Report in 1988. This was followed by a "re-evaluation" of the total deaths at Auschwitz {down to 1.1 million}. As a budding historian, and a Jew, Cole was intrigued.

Previous to 1992, anyone who publicly doubted the 4.1 million "gassing" deaths at Auschwitz was labelled an anti-Semite, neo-Nazi skinhead {at the very least}. Quietly, because of revisionist findings, the official figure has lowered to 1.1 million. No mention of that missing 3 million.

In the words of Dr. Wilhelm Staglich, another internationally known historian, "The extermination thesis stands or falls with the allegation that Auschwitz was a 'Death Factory.'"

With the Leuchter Report in mind, Cole took his video equipment to Auschwitz and interviewed official personnel there. Piper was the most important of these interviewees. Following his comment that the "homicidal gas chambers" were fabrications, Piper reveals, on camera, how walls were knocked down, holes made in the ceiling and "Zyklon B induction chimneys" installed on the roof so that the building could be exhibited to tourists from all over the world as proof of the "final solution."

And Piper doesn't stop there. He describes other "proofs" of the "final solution," which are also "reconstructions." He discusses the routine use of Zyklon B to delouse buildings and the personal effects of internees, and he admits, on camera, that the Leuchter Report's findings concerning Zyklon B residues in the alleged gas chambers at Auschwitz are right. He then, paradoxically, affirms his belief, not only in homicidal "gassing chambers," but also in the "human soap" tales and the stories about "human skin" lampshades, both of which allegations which long ago have been totally debunked. And the revelations go on.

In the video, you tour Auschwitz with Cole and hear him being told that the main camp "gas chamber" {Krema I} is in its "original state." You will see the undaunted Cole ask so many questions about the obviously ridiculous nature of this "gas chamber" that the guide feels it necessary to call her supervisor over to answer the young historian.

The Cole videotape proves that the people who run the Auschwitz State Museum had made a practice of fabricating "proofs" of homicidal gassings. Keep in mind that over the years, millions of tourists have been told that Krema I is in its original state, while the officials knew that this "original state" was/is a lie. The political, religious, financial and historical ramifications of this proof of no gas chambers at Auschwitz cannot be measured. Coupled with the Leuchter Report, the Cole videotape proves that what every Western Government has taught since World War II is a lie.

We believe, all that is stated above should be more than sufficient to prove that the cautious approach of the Encyclopaedia Britannica to the number of Jewish "victims" was, indeed, quite understandable. We are also inclined to agree with this usually reliable source of information that the total number of those Jewish "victims" should be expressed in THOUSANDS and NOT IN MILLIONS which are the result of the most shameless and arrogant Jewish propaganda machine which increased the actual number of Jews who perished during the last war at least fifteen-fold! (This article was written when all American press supported the Jewish myth that there are only 5.2 million Jews residing in the States; finally on Jan. 13, 1964, the Jewish-owned Newsweek Magazine in its article "Only WASHS?" admitted the actual number of American Jews in the following sentences: 'By contrast, Jews make up about 5 percent of the population [in the States] and more than 8 percent of all college graduates.' Which is exactly the same percentage which we calculated above)

This is but one of three problems which have plagued the propagandists who want to claim that Hitler exterminated the Jews of Central Europe, "Six Million" of them: The second is that despite snooping all over Europe and elsewhere they have not found any Third Reich order to exterminate the Jews; the third is that the "Six Million" exterminated Jews nowhere left any skeletons, not even any ashes. Even if the six million had been cremated they would have piled up a mountain of 60,000 metric tons [2240 lbs. per metric ton] of ashes. When the Soviet-Bolshevik-Jewish-Russians murdered the Polish POW's at Katyn, a few years later the corpses of 4,200 were found with a bullet in their necks. But of the six million allegedly "gassed Jews" No remains, no graves, no bones, no ashes, no fragments of any kind have been found!!!

Where the Jews of Central Europe Went: But what has been found is hundreds of thousands of Jews in countries where they had not been in 1939. On June 11, 1973, the International Tribune, a Jewish-controlled paper, boasted that; "About 500,000 of Israel's 2.6 million Jews had been in a Nazi concentration camp."

Obviously if there had been a Hitler order to exterminate the Jews their bones [or their ashes] would be in Central Europe. Some other examples: in 1939, France had 200,000 Jews, but now it has 900,000; Great Britain then 300,000, now 600,000 Canada then less than 150,000, now 400,000; Argentina then 200,000, now 800,000.

In the U.S. where there were perhaps five million, there are now, according to what Ben Gurion, while he was alive, estimated, from nine to twelve million, so many in fact that the Census Bureau has been forbidden to count them, as the sheer numbers of them would be embarrassing for the Jews, and would completely destroy the "Six Million" MYTH! The fact is Jewish casualties during the war can only be compiled by equating the Jews in the various countries of the world now [or in 1950] with those in 1933-1939. Instead propagandists subtract the Jews in Central Europe after the war from those there before and call the difference "massacred."

Even reputable historians, as for example John Gunther, fall into this elementary fallacy: of dishonesty. He wrote: "Of the 3,500,000 Polish Jews who lived in that country before the war, not less than three million were murdered by the Germans. The total number of Jews surviving in Poland is only between 70,000 and 80,000."

The millions of Jews who retreated into Soviet-Russia and who fled into other countries Gunther simply writes off as "massacred." In 1930 there were 2,488,000 Germans in East Prussia.

When by 1946 the Soviet-Russians and Poles got finished raping and looting and terrorizing, only a few thousand East Prussians were left there. Do the likes of Gunther conclude that the Russians and Poles "massacred" the other two plus million East Prussians??? They do not. Even though in fact over 200,000 were murdered by the expulsionist Poles and Russians, they blithely pass over these and assume all the 2,488,000 are safe in Germany!

What happened to the Germans of East Prussia, Silesia, Sudetenland?: The propagandists, who call every Jew no longer in Central Europe "exterminated," do not call the 4,558,041 Germans no longer in Silesia after the Poles terrorized them in 1945-1946 murdered, though twenty percent of them were; they smugly call them "transferred" to Germany; so with the 1,895,015 Pomeranians, the 407,500 Danzigers; and the 3,912,849 Germans of the Sudetenland, of whom 210,000 were clubbed and raped to death, and only 100,000 remain in the Sudetenland!

But when the 600,000 Jews in Germany in 1933, only some 30,000 were found there in 1945, the propagandist scream that the other 570,000 had been exterminated! When in fact, they were in most cases all the while collecting indemnities from the West German people, safely in New York, Israel and Argentina! For more than thirty years hordes of official and official snoopers have sniffed at every document of the Third Reich, and they have cross-examined and threatened and blackmailed every possible German in the search for some document or order in which Hitler ordered the extermination of Jews. And the more they scratched around the more they came up with the opposite. At least three historians in the last few years may be thought to have unwittingly frustrated the last hope of finding any Third Reich order to exterminate the Jews.

Historians find no third Reich order for "exterminating" the Jews: Dr. John Lukacs, writes; "No document, no written or even spoken evidence connects Hitler directly to the Wannsee decision."

Nor does he anywhere else cite any such document. And in fact the Wannsee Conference, held January 20, 1942, itself does not at all contemplate extermination, but the deployment of "the Jews capable of work," like road-building, in the East, but "It is not intended to evacuate Jews over 65 years of age" nor "Jews who are serious war-wounded cases and Jews with war decorations" [presumably from World War I].

As for the block-busting Hoax of the Twentieth Century, so the Los Angeles Herald, June 11, 1977, reports, it "presents the massacre of six million Jews...(as) a myth perpetrated by Jews to elicit sympathy" for a Palestine homeland. The latest to frustrate all hope of finding a document authorizing the massacre of Jews is Professor David Irving's Hitler's War (Viking Press, N.Y. 1977, 926 pages).

Irving writes categorically: "...the incontrovertible evidence is that Hitler ordered on November 30, 1941, that there was to be 'no liquidation' of the Jews"

And, in October, 1943; "Hitler was still forbidding liquidations..."

Gas Chambers: What about denying the existence of extermination "gas chambers?" Here too, Mayer makes a startling statement: "Sources for the study of the gas chambers are at once rare and unreliable."

While Mayer believes that such chambers did exist at Auschwitz, he point out that: "...most of what is known is based on the depositions of Nazi officials and executioners at postwar trials and on the memory of survivors and bystanders. This testimony must be screened carefully, since it can be influenced by subjective factors of great complexity."

Höess Testimony: One example of this might be the testimony of Rudolf Höess, an SS officer who served as commandant of Auschwitz. In its Judgment, the Nuremberg International Military Tribunal quoted at length from his testimony to support its findings of extermination.

It is now well established that Höess' crucial testimony, as well as his so-called "confession" which was also cited by the Nuremberg Tribunal, are not only false, but were obtained by beating the former commandant nearly to death. Höess's wife and children were also threatened with death and deportation to Siberia. In his statement, which would not be admissible today in any United States court of law, Höess claimed the existence of an extermination camp called "Wolzek." In fact, no such camp ever existed. He further claimed that during the time that he was commandant of Auschwitz, two and a half million people were exterminated there, and that a further half million died of disease. Today no reputable historian upholds these figures. Höess was obviously willing to say anything, sign anything and do anything to stop the torture, and to try to save himself and his family.

Forensic Investigations: In his 1988 book, Professor Mayer calls for "excavations at the killing sites and in their immediate environs" to determine more about the gas chambers. In fact, such forensic studies have been made. The first was conducted in 1988 by American execution equipment consultant, Fred A. Leuchter, Jr. He carried out an on-site forensic examination of the alleged gas chambers at Auschwitz, Birkenau and Majdanek to determine if they could have been used to kill people as claimed. After a careful study of the alleged killing facilities, Leuchter concluded that the sites were not used, and could not have been used, as homicidal gas chambers.

Furthermore, an analysis of samples taken by Leuchter from the walls and floors of the alleged gas chambers showed either no or minuscule traces of cyanide compound, from the active ingredient of Zyklon B, the pesticide allegedly used to murder Jews at Auschwitz.

A confidential forensic examination (and subsequent report) commissioned by the Auschwitz State Museum and conducted by Institute of Forensic Research in Krakow has confirmed Leuchter's finding that minimal or no traces of cyanide compound can be found in the sites alleged to have been gas chambers.

The significance of this is evident when the results of the forensic examination of the alleged homicidal gas chambers are compared with the results of the examination of the Auschwitz disinfestation facilities, where Zyklon B was used to delouse mattresses and clothing. Whereas no or only trace amounts of cyanide were found in the alleged homicidal gas chambers, massive traces of cyanide were found in the walls and floor in the camp's disinfestation delousing chambers.

Another forensic study has been carried out by German chemist Germar Rudolf. On the basis of his on-site examination and analysis of samples, the certified chemist and doctoral candidate concluded: "For chemical-technical reasons, the claimed mass gassings with hydrocyanic acid in the alleged 'gas chambers' in Auschwitz did not take place--The supposed facilities for mass killing in Auschwitz and Birkenau were not suitable for this purpose..."

Finally, there is the study of Austrian engineer Walter Lüftl, a respected expert witness in numerous court cases, and former president of Austria's professional association of engineers. In a 1992 report he called the alleged mass extermination of Jews in gas chambers "technically impossible."

Discredited Perspective: So just what constitutes "Holocaust denial?" Those who advocate criminal persecution of "Holocaust deniers" seem to be still living in the world of 1946 where the Allied officials of the Nuremberg Tribunal have just pronounced their verdict. But the Tribunal's findings can no longer be assumed to be valid. Because it relied so heavily on such untrustworthy evidence as the Höess testimony, some of its most critical findings are now discredited.

Therefore, we can clearly see why so many scholars continue to challenge the Holocaust story. Such scholars as Dr. Arthur Butz of Northwestern University, Professor Robert Faurisson of the University of Lyon in France and best-selling British historian David Irving, have been vigorously challenging the widely-accepted extermination story.

They do not dispute the fact that large numbers of Jews were deported to concentration camps and ghettos, or that many Jews died or were killed during the Second World War. Revisionist scholars have, however, presented considerable evidence to show that there was no German program to exterminate Europe's Jews and that the estimate of six million Jewish wartime dead is an irresponsible exaggeration.

As presented above, the revisionists point out that the Holocaust story has changed quite a lot over the years. Many extermination claims that were once widely accepted have been quietly dropped in recent years. In early 1995, CNN quietly reported, during one of the many Jewish propaganda campaigns, stated that only one million Jews died in Auschwitz, Birkenau and Majdanek, thinking no one would notice the change in numbers, and most Americans did not.

At one time it was alleged that the Germans gassed Jews at Dachau, Buchenwald and other concentration camps in Germany proper. But that part of the extermination story proved so untenable that it was abandoned more than twenty years ago. No serious historian now supports the once supposedly proven story of "extermination camps" in the territory of the old German Reich. Even famed "Nazi hunter" Simon Wiesenthal was forced to acknowledge in 1975 that "There were no extermination camps on German soil."

In addition, more and more striking evidence has been presented in recent years which simply cannot be reconciled with the allegations of mass exterminations at these camps. For example, detailed aerial reconnaissance photographs taken of Auschwitz-Birkenau on several random days in 1944 (during the height of the alleged extermination period there) were made public by the CIA in 1979. They show no trace of the piles of corpses, smoking chimneys and masses of Jews awaiting death, all of which have been alleged and would have been clearly visible if Auschwitz had indeed been an extermination centre. At one time it was also seriously claimed that the Germans exterminated Jews with electricity and steam, and that they manufactured soap from Jewish corpses. For example, at Nuremberg the United States charged that the Germans killed Jews at Treblinka, not in gas chambers, as is now claimed, but by steaming them to death in "steam chambers." These bizarre stories have also been quietly abandoned in recent years.

Disease Claimed Many Inmates: The Holocaust extermination story is superficially plausible. Everyone has seen the horrific photos of dead and dying inmates taken at Bergen-Belsen, Nordhausen and other concentration camps when they were liberated by British and American forces in the final weeks of the war in Europe. These people were unfortunate victims, not of an extermination program, but of disease and malnutrition brought on by the complete collapse of Germany in the final months of the war. Indeed, if there had been an extermination program, the Jews found by Allied forces at the end of the war would have long since been killed.

In the face of advancing Soviet forces, large numbers of Jews were evacuated during the final months of the war from eastern camps and ghettos to the remaining camps in western Germany. These camps quickly became terribly overcrowded, which severely hampered efforts to prevent the spread of epidemics. Furthermore, the breakdown of the German transportation system, as a result of the carpet bombing of the allied forces made it impossible to supply adequate food and medicine to the camps.

Captured German Documents: At the end of the Second World War, the Allies confiscated a tremendous quantity of German documents dealing with Germany's wartime Jewish policy, which was sometimes officially referred to as the "final solution." But not a single German document has ever been found which even refers to an extermination program. To the contrary, the documents clearly show that the German "final solution" policy was one of emigration and deportation, not extermination.

Consider, for example, the confidential German Foreign Office memorandum of August 21, 1942. "The present war gives Germany the opportunity and also the duty of solving the Jewish problem in Europe," the memorandum notes. The policy "to promote the evacuation of the Jews

(from Europe) in closest cooperation with the agencies of the Reichsführer SS {Himmler} is still in force." The memo noted that "the number of Jews deported in this way to the East did not suffice to cover the labour needs."

The document quotes German Foreign Minister von Ribbentrop as saying that, "at the end of this war, all Jews would have to leave Europe. This was an unalterable decision of the Führer {Hitler} and also the only way to master this problem, as only a global and comprehensive solution could be applied and individual measures would not help very much."

The memorandum concludes by stating that the, "deportations {of Jews to the East} are a further step on the way of the total solution...The deportation to the {Polish} General Government is a temporary measure. The Jews will be moved on further to the occupied {Soviet} eastern territories as soon as the technical conditions for it are given."

This unambiguous document, and others like it, are routinely suppressed or ignored by those who uphold the Holocaust extermination story.

Unreliable Testimony: Holocaust historians rely heavily on so-called "survivor testimony" to support the extermination story. But such "evidence" is notoriously unreliable. As one Jewish historian has pointed out, "most of the memoirs and reports {of Holocaust survivors} are full of preposterous verbosity, graphomaniac exaggeration, dramatic effects, overestimated self-inflation, dilettante philosophizing, would-be lyricism, unchecked rumours, bias, partisan attacks and apologies."

Hitler and The "Final Solution": There is no documentary evidence that Adolf Hitler ever gave an order to exterminate the Jews, or that he knew of any extermination program. Instead, the record shows that the German leader wanted the Jews to leave Europe, by emigration if possible and by deportation if necessary.

A document found after the war in the files of the Reich Ministry of Justice records his thinking on the Jews. In the spring of 1942, State Secretary Franz Schlegelberger noted in a memorandum that Hitler's Chief of Chancellery, Dr. Hans Lammers, had informed him: "The Führer has repeatedly declared to him {Lammers} that he wants to see the solution of the Jewish problem postponed until after the war is over."

And on July 24, 1942, Hitler emphasized his determination to remove all Jews from Europe AFTER the war: "The Jews are interested in Europe for economic reasons, but Europe must reject them, if only out of self-interest, because the Jews are racially tougher. After this war is over, I will rigorously hold to the view...that the Jews WILL HAVE TO LEAVE AND EMIGRATE to Madagascar or some other Jewish national state."

Himmler's SS and The Camps: Jews were an important part of Germany's wartime labour force, and it was in Germany's interest to keep them alive. The head of the SS camp administration office sent a directive dated December 28, 1942, to every concentration camp, including Auschwitz. It sharply criticized the high death rate of inmates due to disease, and ordered that "camp physicians must use all means at their disposal to significantly reduce the death rate in the various camps." Furthermore, it ordered: "The camp commandants.—The camp doctors are to see to it that the working conditions at the various labour places are improved as much as possible."

Finally, the directive stressed that, "The Reichsführer SS {Heinrich Himmler} has ordered that the death rate absolutely must be reduced."

The head of the SS department that supervised the concentration camps, Richard Glücks, sent a circular letter to each camp commandant dated January 20, 1943. In it he ordered: "As I have already pointed out, every means must be used to lower the death rate in the camp."

One-Sided "Holocaustomania": Even after more than forty years, the stream of Holocaust films and books shows no sign of diminishing. This relentless media campaign, which Jewish historian Alfred Lilenthal calls "Holocaustomania," portrays the fate of the Jews during the Second World War as the central event of history. There is no end to the heavy-handed motion pictures, the simplistic television specials, the vindictive hunt for

"Nazi war criminals," the one-sided "educational courses," and the self-righteous appearances by politicians and celebrities at Holocaust "memorial services."

Britain's chief rabbi, Immanuel Jakobovits, has accurately described the Holocaust campaign as, "an entire industry, with handsome profits for writers, researchers, film-makers, monument builders, museum planners and even politicians." He added that some rabbis and theologians are "partners in this big business."

Non-Jewish victims just don't merit the same concern. For example, there are no American memorials, "study centres," or annual observances for Stalin's victims, who vastly outnumber Hitler's.

Who Benefits?: The perpetual Holocaust media blitz is routinely used to justify enormous American support for Israel and to excuse otherwise inexcusable Israeli policies, even when they conflict with American interests. The sophisticated and well-financed Holocaust media campaign is crucially important to the interests of Israel, which owes its existence to Massive annual subsidies from American taxpayers.

As Professor W.D. Rubinstein of Australia has candidly acknowledged: "If the Holocaust can be shown to be a 'Zionist myth,' the strongest of all weapons in Israel's propaganda armoury collapses."

Jewish history teacher Paula Hyman of Columbia University has observed: "With regard to Israel, the Holocaust may be used to forestall political criticism and suppress debate; it reinforces the sense of Jews as an eternally beleaguered people who can rely for their defence only upon themselves. The invocation of the suffering endured by the Jews under the Nazis often takes the place of rational argument, and is expected to convince doubters of the legitimacy of current Israeli government policy."

One major reason that the Holocaust story has proven so durable is that the governments of the major powers also have a vested interest in maintaining it. The victorious powers of the Second World War, the United States, the Soviet Union and Britain, have a stake in portraying the defeated Hitler regime as negatively as possible. The more evil and satanic the Hitler regime appears, the more noble and justified seems the Allied cause. The Soviet Union and the Jews also benefit, because the "Six Million" HoloHOAX hides the millions of Christians murdered by the Jews after the Bolshevik takeover of Russia in 1917.

For many Jews, the Holocaust has become both a flourishing business and a kind of new religion, as noted Jewish author and newspaper publisher Jacob Timerman points out in his book, "The Longest War." He reports that many Israelis, using the word Shoah, which is Hebrew for Holocaust, joke that "There's no business like Shoah business." The Holocaust media campaign portrays Jews as totally innocent victims, and non-Jews as morally retarded and unreliable beings who can easily turn into murderous Nazis under the right circumstances. This self-serving but distorted portrayal greatly strengthens Jewish group solidarity and self-awareness.

A key lesson of the Holocaust story for Jews is that non-Jews are never completely trustworthy. If a people as cultured and as educated as the Germans could turn against the Jews, so the thinking goes, that surely no non-Jewish nation can ever be completely trusted. The holocaust message is thus one of contempt for humanity.

Holocaust Hatemongering: The Holocaust story is sometimes used to promote hatred and hostility, particularly against the German people as a whole, eastern Europeans and the leadership of the Roman Catholic church.

The well-known Jewish writer, Elie Wiesel, is a former Auschwitz inmate who served as chairman of the official U.S. Holocaust Memorial Council. He received the 1986 Nobel Peace Prize. This dedicated Zionist wrote in his book, "Legends of Our Time": "Every Jew, somewhere in his being, should set apart a zone of hate-healthy, virile hate-for what the German personifies and for what persists in the German."

If a non-Jew were to write such a thing about the Jews, one would be able to hear them scream from the earth to the furthest reaches of the universe, and their propaganda arm, the mass media in America would fill the world with hundreds of thousands of pages of anti-Semitic hate mongering.

“One of the finest things ever done by the mob was the Crucifixion of Christ. Intellectually it was a splendid gesture. But trust the mob to bungle the job. If I'd had charge of executing Christ, I'd have handled it differently. You see, what I'd have done was had him shipped to Rome and fed him to the lions. They could never have made a saviour out of mincemeat!”
