

The New Ensign

No. 137 January 2021

This publication is for private circulation only

Calling The True Israel Peoples

Editorial

Dear Reader,

Happy New Year to All Our Readers

2020 was a year of stupendous events, that caught many unawares, when almost the whole world was locked down, which leads to speculation as to what will unfold in this New Year of 2021!

It has been most heartening to see the draconian measures of the plandemic has caused many to question what really is going on, and that the government (which should be a servant of the people) is working against the interests of those being governed.

Huge numbers of the medical profession in numerous countries, have come out in droves against the covid regulations, which are causing a deterioration of health rather than protection.

Their ultimate aim, is to get all the population vaccinated, hence the military code name of the plandemic - Certificate - Of - Vaccination - Identification. A Vaccine is already being rushed out, with little or no testing. There have been many reports of people dying or becoming extremely ill after taking the shot. One has to be mindful that the enemy will do all in its power to discredit the alternative media, by infiltrating into it false cases of serious harm caused by vaccines, that can be later disproved and thereby destroy the credibility of real cases reported in the alternative media!

Notwithstanding this, the list of ingredients have been published, which best can be described as a witch's brew of evil potions, not to mention other "regular" vaccines. In 2017, Italian researchers reviewed the ingredients of 44 types of so-called "vaccines." They discovered heavy metal debris and biological contamination in every human vaccine they tested. The researchers stated, "The quantity of foreign bodies detected and, in some cases, their unusual chemical compositions baffled us." They then drew the obvious conclusion, namely, that because the micro- and nano-contaminants were "neither bio-compatible nor biodegradable," they were "bio-persistent" and could cause inflammatory effects right away—or later (see this) Aborted foetal tissue, animal tissue, aluminium, mercury, genetically altered materials—and what else?

Yahweh, designed our body to be self-protecting and provided the herbs and trees for our healing—Praise Yahweh!!!

Editor

editor@newensign.co

Contents		Page
Arsenal of Words - (Part 22) Pastor Eli James		3
OT "Word for Word" Deuteronomy Part 15 - Pastor Steven H. Anderson		8
Christian Jews (Part 3) - Willie Martin		10
God's Plan For Germany - Adam De Witt		13
Harold Stough Notes - Greensted Church. Essex		18
Covid Is A Project of The Globalists - Letters and Views		19
Modern Medicine as a Satanic Cult —Dr. John L. Reizer		21
The Dangerous Alliance of The Rothschilds and Pope Francis		27
The Wrong Pandemic - Arthur Firstenberg		29
The 'Star of Bethlehem to Shine Brightest For 800 Years		33
Prehistoric London and Its Mounds (Part 22) E. O. Gordon		34
		35

Arsenal Of Words (Part 22)

A Demonstration of The Deceptive Use of Words

By The Rabbis of Judaism

By Pastor Eli James

One final citation of the exclusiveness of Israel: "And we know that WE are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness." – I John 5:19.

The Judeo-Christians, having abandoned the Law and the Love of God, and thinking themselves to be wiser than God in their all-inclusiveness, have joined the wicked. Like the Jews, they have invented un-Scriptural doctrine, which leads them far away from God's Plan.

(For additional words studies and information relevant to the Exclusiveness of Israel, please see Samuel Marion's Yahweh's Israel Kingdom Basics on our website:

Turning the Tables

The Jews have a corporate consciousness as well; but it is not based on mutual love. The difference is that Judaism is organized AGAINST the White Race and AGAINST Christianity. Thus, the Jewish corporate consciousness is based on hatred and contempt...of Christ and Christians. As long as we buy into their materialism and their culture, we will fail as individuals and as a people.

This is actually a very sinister aspect of the Gospel of Personal Salvation, because it uncritically accepts this current Jewish-dominated economic system as the context within which personal success and fulfilment are to be achieved. But this Beast System, based on Jewish usury, is destined for destruction. By training our people to seek fulfilment in this world, the televangelists are very cleverly keeping our people from seeking the Kingdom. It's like trying to find personal fulfilment on a sinking ship!!! Open your eyes!!! Foolish Christians believe Jewish lies, while never examining the facts of history or the Bible. Hence, they operate in a dream world, unable to see reality. Jesus told us, "By their fruits shall ye know them." We will never understand the children of the Wicked One if we continue to believe their words without investigating their actions.

Everything the Jews do is geared toward preventing our racial consciousness from re-emerging.

Thus "racism" must be demonized, even while they engage in their own, disguised form of racism, which goes by the name of Judaism. While the Zionists engage in genocide against the Palestinian people, the Kosher Press vilifies White "racists," even to the extent of excusing murder committed by non-Whites, blaming it on "White racism."

Thus, we are pronounced guilty of crimes committed by others, while the Master Deceiver laughs at us with scorn. Don't you know that the anti-Christ is an "anti-racist?" If your eyes and ears are open, you will notice that only White people are accused of "racism." This is because only we are the target of their "anti-racist" campaign. Slowly but surely, White people are beginning to sense the Double Standard of the "anti-racist" rhetoric in both politics and religion. The onslaught of the Jewish media juggernaut will fail when we stop buying into their crap.

As John, the Revelator, said, concerning Mystery Babylon, the "Empire of Merchants," "Come out of her, my people." (Rev. 18:4.)

When we have established the Kingdom by separating ourselves from this world's corrupt institutions and vices, then the whole world will rejoice in our success -- except for the Jews! -- for the evil parasite (Edom, Mt. Seir and all Idumea, the Cain-Satanic Seedline) will have been vanquished. (Eze. 35:7-15.)

The rabbis of Judaism, armed with their arsenal of deceptive words, false definitions and quaint slogans, have been prosecuting a relentless campaign of psychological warfare against True Israel for the last 2,150 years, since the days of Herod and the Pharisees. The Pharisees of that day are identical to the rabbinate of modern Judaism. The leopard has not changed its spots. They still teach lies in the Name of Moses. As a result, they have successfully deceived the whole world, especially White Christians. (Rev. 12:9.)

The increasingly belligerent and shrill cry of "Kill the White devils" is being orchestrated, worldwide, by the Jew. Even while they deny that the White Race has a right to be racially exclusive (or even to exist!), they practice a counterfeit exclusivism, which is based on their religion and their culture, neither of which are Scriptural.

It is an ethnic chauvinism of double standards, practiced without regard for the Truth and with no concern as to how many people suffer from this deceit! Throughout history, the Jews have demanded that they be allowed to have their separate religion and culture. Yet, these hypocrites would deny us our own. Should our Faith be judged by hypocrites?

When Jesus overturned the moneychangers' tables, He drove them out of the Temple and accused them of making Yahweh's Temple a house of merchandise. Today, Judaism is still a religion of merchandise and deception, just as it was in those days. Christians must be able to see through the deceptions of modern religion. This will not happen unless they dust off their Bibles and read the Scriptures for themselves, rather than simply relying on the fables and interpretations of the priests of the denominations (demon nations).

The Christian Identity Movement has been in the forefront of exposing Judaism as a fraud; and it has also been the only denomination that encourages people to read the Bible for themselves, without the limitations placed upon them by an editorial priesthood. Judaism is religious con artistry, par excellence; and Judeo-Christianity is a close second. In spite of the fact that Judaism's Talmud denies, revokes and overrules the Law of Moses, the fields of theology, academia, and history simply accept anything a rabbi says as being authoritative and true, while these consummate con artists perpetually get away with scam after scam. The reality is that these charlatans are the literal children of the devil; and their religion deserves nothing but ridicule, contempt, and exposure. The priesthoods of Catholicism and modern Protestantism are no better, for these are also charlatans with their own agenda. None of their denominations accept the whole Bible. As a consequence, anyone who follows their lead will be utterly confused by Scripture, learning only half-truths or a few Scriptural truths that give only a partial picture of God's Word.

An Identist, on the other hand, is a White Person who holds the Bible in one hand, a Concordance in the other, and possesses a glossary (arsenal) of true, precise definitions between the ears. Possessed of these weapons, the sincere Bible student can then begin to understand the KJV, despite its numerous flaws.

Without this arsenal, much of the KJV is a collection of c o n t r a d i c t o r y, incomprehensible gibberish. Thus able to see through the patently deceptive and often ridiculous translations and interpretations of the false priests of Judaism and Churchianity, Christian Identity has proven to the world that we hold the Key of David. Being of his Family Tree, we hold the correct understanding of the Scriptures, which is the Exclusivity of True Israel.

No other denomination teaches this; and none of the other denominations can refute it.

Speaking of the New Jerusalem, the Holy City: "And there shall in no wise enter into it anything that defileth, neither that worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life." (Rev. 21:27.)

"Blessed are they that do His commandments, that they may right to the Tree of Life [the immortality of the Shekinah Glory!], and may enter in through the gates into the City. For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie." (Rev. 22:13-14.)

Let's see, no liars allowed! That means: No rabbis!!!

The rabbis of Judaism, armed with their arsenal of deceptive words and false definitions, have been masquerading as Israel, beginning with the Pharisees, who are a product of the illegal mixing of Adamite DNA and Idumean DNA. For 2,000 years, they have been engaged in a relentless campaign of psychological warfare against us, since the days of Herod, when that antichrist empowered the Pharisees and tried to murder the Messiah, while Jesus was yet a child. Not satisfied with murdering the Messiah, they are determined to murder His Family.

Share This Knowledge With White Folk

From all of the foregoing, the reader can appreciate that there is a VAST CHASM of ideological difference between Christian Identity and both Judaism and Judeo-Christianity, the latter being a bastard child of the former. It is absolutely critical that this Scriptural understanding be presented to all White people, so that they can understand the true nature of religious deception that is prevalent today.

Without this knowledge, the White Race will continue to be hopelessly lost in a maze of confusing terminology. They have no idea of how the language of the Bible has been distorted, blindly following their trusted "shepherds," who are in fact leading them astray. It is high time for the sheep to awaken to their true destiny and fulfill their Divinely ordained role as the "Kingdom of Priests," who can only emerge from the people of True Israel, the Covenant People of the Bible, the Adamic, White Race.

The physical, social and spiritual damage that has been done by religious deceivers is incalculable. If this situation were to continue, it would result in total chaos; but Yahshua Messiah told us, "You shall know the Truth, and the Truth shall set you free." (John 8:32) Free from what? Free from religious deception.

Understanding how we have been deceived by false religion, we can also now appreciate how we have been deceived by political hacks, who are no better than these lying priests. Con artists rarely work alone!!!

At John 7:33, Jesus informs the Pharisees that they shall seek Him but not find Him. Wondering what Jesus could have meant by that enigmatic statement, they huddled together, "Then said the Jews [The word is correctly used here because it is a reference to the Judean Pharisees, who were Judeans of Idumean descent] among themselves, Whither will he go that we shall not find him? Will he go unto the DISPERSED [this is the actual word in the text!] among the Gentiles [Race/Nations], and teach the Gentiles [Race/Nations]?" (Verse 35.)

Farrar Fenton gives us this rendering:

"The Judeans, therefore, remarked to one another thus: 'Where will this fellow go that we cannot find him? Surely he will not go to the Dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks?'"

Whichever translation we read, this verse provides us with ABSOLUTE PROOF that the Pharisees knew that the so-called "Gentiles" were the ISRAELITES OF THE DISPERSION. Of course, no rabbi will admit this today, because they pretend that the "Lost" Tribes disappeared, never to be found again! Such an admission would blow their whole charade. The devil's rabbis will never voluntarily remove the Mask.

I repeat. The word ethnos NEVER MEANT "non-Jew." And it still does not have that meaning today. The rabbis have very cleverly implanted that false definition in our minds, in order to maintain their masquerade as Israel. In addition, the theologians of Judeo-Christianity have done Christianity incalculable harm, for their failure to scrutinize Jewish distortions of God's Word.

Armed with the honest and accurate definitions provided in this document, I encourage you, one and all, to 1) read your Bibles with this Arsenal in mind, and 2) reach out to your White or Christian friends and relatives and show them what the Bible really teaches.

We must end the persecution of the White Race by teaching them the truth of the Exclusivity of Israel. Armed with accurate definitions and the proper usage of words, the Bible, even the King James Version, can be readily understood. Double meanings and vague definitions will be replaced by precise language; and your heritage will be revealed to you as never before.

The prophet, Zephaniah predicted that near the Day of Judgment, honest speech would return to the people of the world:

"Yea, at that time will I change the speech of the peoples to a pure speech, that all of them may call on the Name of Yahweh." (Zep. 3:9.)

The resistance, coming from our deceived brethren as well as from the Jews, to this Identity message has been phenomenal. Because of confused speech, the Judeo-Christians worship evil, warmongering Jews, merely because they claim to be "Israel." By peeling away the layers of deceit, which have been invisibly superimposed upon Scripture, Christian Identity is returning Biblical exegesis to pure speech, untainted by vagueness, double meanings, lies and delusional fantasies.

P.C. Johnson, in an article entitled "It Is Time to Seek the LORD, Part 1," puts it this way:

"The many among us who understand and believe in the identity and existence of [Anglo-Saxon] Israel are at a loss to understand why the majority of people and church organizations reject this divine truth. As a result most of the many descendants of Israel today are unaware of their true identity. In view of the large amount of Scriptural, archeological and other secular corroborative evidence of this truth, it can only be concluded that it may be (for the time being) God's will that true Israel should remain unidentified." -- p. 17, Oct – Dec 2007 Ensign Message.

But, I see a new day! Understanding that Yahweh has given us His Timetable in the Holy Scriptures, we can now prepare and begin the final countdown, as the signs of the times are quite obvious to those who have eyes that see.

"My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them." (Ez. 34:6.)

Contrary to what this verse is telling us, namely, that True Israel can only be found after much seeking, the Jews are RIGHT IN YOUR FACE, SCREAMING, "Here we are! Here we are! We're God's chosen people! We're God's chosen people! We're God's chosen people—ad-nauseam!" No need to search for the Jews. Even if you're not looking for them, they will ask you to seek them out! They will remind you of whom they claim to be! They're on your boob tube, saying it every single day! Yet, the Bible says that True Israel will be ignored!

Having forgotten our Identity as True Israel, few have sought God's Chosen People within the Anglo-Saxon Race; and the Jews have rushed to fill the void. But that is changing, because it is the time of the Harvest. The Jews do not fit the criteria of the Lost Sheep, because they were never hidden or lost. The Jews have always been there, right in plain sight, pretending to be Israel and pretending to be the authorities on Scripture. In fact, when the high priests of Churchianity want advice on Scripture, whom do they seek? The rabbis of Judaism, the synagogue of Satan!

But even this is changing, as truth seekers are steadily turning to the teachings of Christian Identity for answers to Scriptural questions, questions that mainstream pastors cannot answer, either because they are clueless, or because they are themselves paid agents of the Anti-Christ.

Jesus told us, "The harvest is plenteous, but the labourers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the Harvest, that He will send forth labourers into His harvest." (Matt. 9:37-38)

We pray for our sleeping brethren to awaken. We are just now coming out of that deepest darkness, that darkness just before the dawn, but there is finally twilight on the horizon. Gradually, as more of our people rouse, and begin standing upright, like Ezekiel's "dry bones" putting on sinews, muscle, flesh and skin, many of them will become labourers also. Thanks to the hard work of our own missionaries, this message – as of December 2007 -- is finally reaching the German people in the German language. Once they understand that THEY are Israel and the Jews are not, there will be a liberation. That liberation has to occur in the mind before it can become a physical reality.

ZOG's [Zionist Occupation Government] persecution of the Anglo-Saxon people will gradually become obvious to even the most brainwashed of our people. I pity the object of the Saxons' rage, when full cognizance of Jewish treachery is understood by them. The day is coming when the snowball rolling down the hill will become an unstoppable avalanche of Truth. For thirty years, I have been waiting to see this Day. With your help, I will yet see it. You can set up a Christian Identity Home Church of your own, or, if you would like to join this ministry, the Church of the Restoration of True Israel, please contact me and I will send you the relevant materials.

If you are a Caucasian, you must understand that the Adamic, Hebrew, Shemitic, Israelite heritage is YOUR HERITAGE. The stories of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are the stories of YOUR ANCESTORS. They are NOT the heritage of the Jews, who are impostors, posing as Israel in order to deprive you of your inheritance as Israelites. Once you understand that you and your ancestors – not to mention your OFFSPRING – have descended from the Hebrews of the Bible, then, and only then, will you finally understand the mysteries of Scripture, that neither the Jews nor the Judeo-Christians have been able to explain, while demanding your allegiance to their dogma. Without this knowledge of Your True Identity, you will remain blind sheep following blind guides.

Hosea 6:1-2 talks of the Restoration of True Israel: "Come and let us return to Yahweh...after TWO DAYS He will revive us." From I Peter 3:9, we know that one day with Yahweh is as a thousand years for us, so the meaning is clear: After 2,000 years from the REDEMPTION ON THE CROSS, the elect of Israel will be revived. This revival was also prophesied in the Book of Ezekiel, in the "Valley of the Dry Bones" prophecy. (Chapter 37.)

"And the heathen shall know that I YHWH do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore." (Ez. 37:28.) This means that, despite all of the efforts of the false priests to "convert" the world, they will fail, because there is NO WAY that the heathen can become "spiritual Israel." His prophet, Ezekiel, saw a completely different scene: one in which the heathen will witness OUR sanctification!

33 AD + 2,000 = 2033. We know that we are in the Last Days. Jesus told us that these Last Days would be shortened for our sakes (Matt. 24:22; Mark 13:20), so that it will be somewhat less than 2,033. I personally believe that it will be closer to 2012.

In the words of Habakkuk, "For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it [the Bible] shall speak." (Hab. 2:3.) Because of Christian Identity, the Bible is speaking as it has never spoken before!

"Blessed are they that do His commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates of the city." (Rev. 22:14)

That City has TWELVE GATES, one for each of the Twelve Tribes of Israel. The time is now for sincere and enlightened study of Yahweh's Word. Armed with the knowledge of Your Israelite Heritage, your DNA (your "tree of life"), and with this ARSENAL OF WORDS, I hope that the Bible will speak to you as it has never spoken before.

Speaking to the Israelites of the Dispersion, Paul said,

"Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Jesus Christ. That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in US." -- II Tim. 1:13.

I leave you with something to look forward to: "And this is the will of Him who sent Me, that of all [Israelites] He has given Me I lose nothing, but raise it up on the Last Day. For this is the will of My Father, that everyone who beholds the Son and believes in Him, may have eternal life; and I Myself will raise him [you and me] up on the Last Day." (John 6:39-40)

See you in the Kingdom.
Pastor Eli James

The End OS23003

Old Testament
“Word for Word” Deuteronomy Part 15
Translation by Stephen Howard Anderson

Chapter 21

- 1. If there is found one slain 2491 in your land 127 that Yahweh Eloheycha gives you to possess, fallen in the field, and it is not known who smote 5221 him,
- 2. then shall go forth your elders 2205 and your judges 8199, and they shall measure 4058 to the cities that are around he that was slain.
- 3. And it shall be , the city closest 7138 to the slain, that shall take the elders of that city a heifer 5697 of the herd 1241, that has not been worked 5647, that has not drawn 4900 in the yoke 5923;
- 4. and shall bring forth the elders of the city the heifer to an ever flowing 386 wadi 5158, that is neither tilled 5647 nor sown 2232, and shall break 6202 the neck there of the heifer in the wadi.

5. And shall come near the priests, the sons of Lewiy: for has chosen them Yahweh Eloheycha to minister 8334 to Him, and to bless in The Name of Yahweh, and by their word every controversy 7379 and every wound 5061 shall be tried:

6. And all the elders of that city, closest to the slain, shall wash 7364 their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the wadi:

7. and they shall answer 6030 and say, "Our hands have not poured out 8210 this blood, neither have our eyes seen it.

8. Forgive 3722 for Your people Yis'rael, that You have redeemed 6299 O Yahweh, and do not place blood guilt of the innocent 5355 in the midst 7130 of Your people Yis'rael." And forgiven them shall be the blood guilt.

9. And so you shall remove 1197 the blood guilt of the innocent from among you, because you shall do uprightly 3477 in the eyes of Yahweh.

10. When you go forth to war against your hated enemies, and has given them Yahweh Eloheycha into your hand, and you have transported 7617 them into captivity 7628,

11. and you see among the captives 7633 an adamic woman of beautiful 3303 appearance 8389, and become attached 2836 to her, and you would take her to wife;

12. you shall bring her from among them 8432 to your house; and she shall shave 1548 her head, and attend to 6213 her fingernails 6856;

13. and she shall put aside 5493 the mantle 8071 of her captivity 7628 from upon her, and shall remain in your house, and bewail 1058 her father and her mother a month 3391 of days 3117. And after that you shall go in unto her, and be her husband 1166, and she shall be your wife.

14. And it shall be, if you have no delight 2654 in her, then you shall let her go wherever she wills; but you shall not sell her at all 4376/4376 for money, and you shall not treat her as a slave 6014, because you have humbled 6031 her.

15. If a man has two wives, one loved 157, and another hated 8130, and they have born 3205 him children, the loved and the hated; and the firstborn son is of her that was hated 8146:

16. it shall be, in the day of the inheritance of his sons, that it be he may not be able to make 1069 the son of the beloved before the son of the hated, as the firstborn.

17. Because the firstborn son of the hated he shall acknowledge 5234, and give his portion 6310 double 8147 of all that he has found 4672: because he is the beginning 7225 of his manly vigor 202; and is the right 4941 of the firstborn.

18. For it shall be if a man has a son that is stubborn 5637 and rebellious 4784, and does not listen to the voice of his father, and the voice of his mother, when they have chastened 3256 him, and will not listen to them,

19. then shall seize 8610 him his father and his mother, and bring him forth to the elders of the city, to the gate of his place;

20. and shall say to the elders of the city, "This our son is stubborn and rebellious, and does not listen to our voice; and is a worthless 2151 drunkard 5433."

21. And shall stone him 7275 all the men of the city with stones 68 so he dies. So you shall remove wickedness from among you; and all Yis'rael shall hear, and fear 3372.

22. For if it be a man has sinned 2399, and the judgement 4941 is death 4194, and he is put to death 4191, and you hang 8518 him on a tree 6086;

23. shall not remain all night 3885 his dead body 5038 upon the tree, but you shall surely bury 6912/6912 him that day. Because he that is hanged 8518 is accursed 7045 of Elohiym; so that your land is not defiled 2930, which Yahweh Eloheycha gives you as an inheritance.

CHAPTER 21 NOTES

The first part of Chapter 21 has to do with the murder of a man by an unknown assailant, and the discharge of the blood-guilt by breaking the neck of a young ox. Blood-guilt is a serious matter to Yahweh, and punishment of a murderer must follow. We do not follow Scriptural law today, and Yahweh's wrath is becoming more evident in all the punishments coming upon us.

The second part of 21 shows the treatment due a captured ADAMIC woman, and fair treatment for wives and sons. Non-adamics were not taken captive, but were commanded to be slain. A man of Yisrael was not to marry a racial alien, under the pain of death. As to the stoning of the drunken rebellious son; this may be an allegorical and not literal, as a moral example.

The third part of 21 speaks of a man hanged on a tree, and his curse. Yahshua Messiah was hung on a tree, and his "curse" is our curse of death from sin. He died to give us a chance to avoid the "second death" in judgement. Also, in reference to Galatians 3: 13, Yahuda Ish-Kerioth (Judas Iskerioth), meaning Yahudah, man of Kerioth in Hebrew, hung himself after the betrayal of Yahshua, and died in his sins, cursed by Yahweh.

References Chapter 21

Verse 11 – This does not refer to a cursed seedline woman. See 20:14, and Chapter 20 Notes.

Verse 23 – Galatians 3:13.

To Be Continued

Christian Jews? (Part 3)

By
Willie Martin

WHEN STUDYING THE BIBLE THE MOST ESSENTIAL RULE OF ALL is to always consider a verse of Scripture in its context. To violate this rule is to invite errors in deduction which may make an accurate understanding of the whole revelation of the Scriptures impossible. When the term "Israel" is used alone, the context will show whether the House of Israel is meant or whether the Biblical writer had Judah as a part of Israel in mind. As a Bible scholar, Dr. Gartenhaus should be aware of these simple rules which apply in every case where there is a supposed interchange of the names "Israel" and "Judah."

Because Dr. Gartenhaus maintains that there is no Scriptural distinction between the House of Israel and the House of Judah. Isaiah makes it very clear that there is such a separation when he addresses a people dwelling in the "isles." Whether those isles are coastlines or not begs the question; it is obvious that the people who are to receive the message are dwelling in a place far removed from where Isaiah was when he prophesied to them, for he designates them as "ye people from far:"

"Listen, O isles, unto me; and hearken ye people from far--Thou art my servant, O Israel, in which I will be glorified." (Isaiah 49:1, 3)

Here we have a part of Israel addressed as His servants but dwelling in a distant land designated as the isles. That these people are not Jews is made clear by the prophet in his counsel to them:

"Hearken to me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the Lord: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged." (Isaiah 51:1)

The prophet's message is to a section of Israel who have lost the knowledge of their identity and are unaware of their origin. Let it be noted, however, that Isaiah is describing a people who are seeking the Lord and endeavouring to perform works of righteousness. He is calling upon them to recognize who their ancestors are, for he continues:

"Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you."
(Isaiah 51:2)

This is not a message addressed to the Jews, for they have never forgotten their origin, nor allowed world to forget either, nor the fact that they "have Abraham to their father." (Matthew 3:9) Which is true, but at the same time they are a bastard mixed up people who are the result of miscegenation. That this portion of Israel addressed as His servants are not Jews is shown further by Isaiah's contrast of the blessings that would come upon these servants of the Lord with the curses that would come upon the Jews.

Let the critic who insists the Jews represent all of Israel explain how Isaiah the Prophet, under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, could make such a contrast between the servant race and the Jews. But because the Jews had forsaken the Lord, Isaiah prophetically declared:

"Therefore will I remember you (the Jews) to the sword, and ye shall bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted to. Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my servants (Israel) shall eat, but ye (the Jews) shall be hungry: behold, my servants (Israel) shall drink, but ye (the Jews) shall be ashamed: Behold, my servants (Israel) shall sing. for joy of heart, but ye (the Jews) shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit. And ye (the Jews) shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen (Israel): for the Lord God Shall Slay Thee, and call his servants (Israel) by another name (Christians)." (Isaiah 65:12-15)

There is not a statement in the Bible showing any more clearly than this the contrast between the Jews, who rejected Yahshua, and the Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Celtic peoples, the modern House of Israel in the world today, who accepted Him as their Redeemer and have been called by a name other than that of Israel, for they are now known as a Christian people. Dr. Gartenhaus objects to the identified by name, but here is definite Scriptural evidence that the name by which modern Israel was to be called would bear no relationship to that by which their forefathers were known.

Hosea the Prophet confirmed the fact that such a change would take place when he said of latter-day Israel:

"And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people (as it is being said of the Anglo-Saxons, Germanic, Celtic and kindred peoples today by the Editors of The Sunday School Times and Dr. Gartenhaus), there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God (a Christian people)." (Hosea 1:10)

The statement is made that the prophets made no distinction between the House of Judah and the House of Israel; "nor in their future destinies," says the doctor, "which are identical." Yet Jeremiah declared that God divorced Israel and not Judah, a fact that cannot be highly set aside if one is to understand the significance of the "redemption" of Israel (not Judah):

"And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, and went and played the harlot also." (Jeremiah 3:8)

If words mean anything at all, it is certain that Jeremiah makes a distinction here, as he does frequently throughout his book. So do the rest of the prophets when the context is taken into consideration. This identification by context, in order that the people addressed may be properly established, is mandatory if the term "Israel," as used in the Scriptures, is to convey the proper meaning.

When the Doctor states that nowhere in the Bible is there any evidence that the House of Israel became lost to their origin and identity, Isaiah's call to them to awaken to the knowledge of their ancestry becomes meaningless. However, when Yahshua commissioned His disciples to go "to the Lost Sheep of the House of Israel" (Matthew 10:6) He said this because Judah had not been divorced and sent away, that mission was not completed in Palestine, but after the death and resurrection of Yahshua, the disciples did go to the British Isles and there founded the first Christian Church at Glastonbury. This was two or three years after the crucifixion. Thus, at the very beginning of the Christian Era the Gospel was literally taken to the Lost Sheep of the House of Israel.

The Jews had rejected Yahshua and refused to accept the Gospel. The Galileans, who were Benjamintes and therefore a tribe of the House of Israel, accepted Christianity and from this tribe came all of our Lord's disciples except one, Judas the Jew, who betrayed Him.

This move on the part of the disciples to take the Gospel to the Isles fulfilled our Lord's prediction, for, as a result of His rejection by the Jews, He said to them:

"The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof." (Matthew 21:43)

Dr. Gartenhaus accuses us of saying the Jews were disinherited, but it was Yahshua who pronounced this verdict upon them for their rejection of Him, thus fulfilling Daniel's prophecy (Daniel 9:26) as it is given in the alternative translation of the passage in the margin of the King James Version:

"'And (the Jews) they shall be no more his people' or 'and the prince's (Messiah's ) future people.'"

Dr. Gartenhaus' controversy is not with us when we state the Jews ceased to be a part of the chosen people and to possess the Kingdom as a result of their rejection of Christ as their Messiah. His controversy is with Daniel the Prophet and with Christ Himself who declared that the Kingdom would be taken from them and given to a nation that would bring forth the fruits of that Kingdom (and Christ called the Jews the children of the devil in John 8:44) justice, equity, peace and righteousness in administration. As a Christian people that is precisely the mission of the Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Celtic nations, and would have been had it not been for the Jews treachery and treason behind the scenes.

They have not attained perfection in this, largely because of the failure to awaken to the knowledge of their identity and to the necessity to restore the perfect administration of the Law of the Lord. All of this will be overcome, however, when Christ returns as King to reign over His Kingdom. We have the more sure word of prophecy that this is a certainty:

"The Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end." (Luke 1:32-33)

The Stone of Destiny- Society of Antiquaries

Actually the opposition is chargeable with the responsibility they must take for retarding the national spiritual awakening that will come when His people eventually become aware of these great truths. In the concluding paragraph of his article, Dr. Gartenhaus makes an observation which is strangely expressed. He states, "but whether or not the Anglo-Saxons, Germanic, Scandinavian, Celts are the Israelites is of little significance." Is there an intimation here that the Doctor is far from sure of the soundness of the position he has taken?

The Bible makes no provision for such an indifferent attitude toward the revelation of the identity of the House of Israel. The Prophet Ezekiel alone declares the importance of the revealing of the House of Israel to the world, at which time God will move to sanctify them in the sight of many nations:

"Then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there. Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord God." (Ezekiel 39:28-29)

Yet we have no quarrel with Dr. Gartenhaus' concluding remarks, for he says:

"The important question is, Are they with our without Christ? If they are with Christ, they are a holy nation and as such belong to the royal priesthood: 'But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people.' (1 Peter 2:9) If they are without Christ, they are sinners and lost, as are any others without Christ: 'For there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.'" (Acts 4:12)

That Salvation is through Christ is in no way detracts from the essential fact of the redemption of Israel so that the Kingdom may be established upon the earth in perfecting. Its righteous rule will remove forever from the earth poverty, distress, sorrow, sickness; all the direct results of mal-administration. To say that this latter fact is of no significance is to contradict the statement of Christ (Matthew 6:33_) who said, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

The things to be added are the essential needs of life which will bring peace, well-being and happiness to all the people. Dr. Gartenhaus may consider this to be an unimportant aspect of the Gospel, but we doubt that those who are suffering because of the lack of righteousness in administration will agree with him.

Rather than follow the dictums of men, we prefer to believe the words of the inspired writers of the Scriptures that, when the House of Israel is revealed to the world and to themselves, there will come about such a spiritual awakening that the knowledge of the goodness of the Lord and His great works will be recognized not only among His people but by the nations around the earth as well. This revelation will establish the validity and accuracy of the Word of God and the statements of all His prophets, with the electrifying result that will fulfil Paul's appraisal (Romans 11:15) that the restoration of Israel will be as life from the dead.

The End OS14801

God's Plan For Germany (Part 2) Adam De Witt

The Secret

IN THIS BOOK WE WILL INTRODUCE YOU TO an archaeological fact that is kept secret by the establishment. The fact is that the German people are Semitic. Indeed, they are descended from the lost tribes of Israel. No, I did not say the Germans are Jewish. I will give a short history to prove these claims. Before reading on, you must clear your mind and understand that when you read the words: Israelite, Semite, or Hebrews; you are not reading the word Jew.

The establishment has programmed us to think that 'Israelite' means 'Jew', yet it does not and nowhere in the Bible does it mean such.

We cannot understand our ethnic beginnings if we cloud out terms by traditional dogma. Judaism is a religion, just as Catholicism is. When we say Catholic, do we mean Italian? No because we also have German, Irish, Mexican and Filipino Catholics.

So it is with Jews, they are not a race but a religious cult.

The First Tribes

Our schools teach us there were 'Stone age' or 'Cave men' in Europe such as Neanderthal and Cro-Magnon man. Our historians and school teachers are either misinformed or dishonest.

No, I am not arguing whether or not such species existed. I am against these 'learned' people's method of teaching. They tell us of these cave men and then teach us evolution followed by telling us of the Celts and Germanic tribes. They allow (even encourage) us to assume that that the Europeans evolved from these cave men.

Yet, the Celts and Saxons did not evolve from cave men. The 'cave men' died out, they came to an end and did not leave offspring to enable an ongoing population. The Celts, Germanics and Goths migrated into Europe from the East in various waves, not having a link whatsoever with the cave men. The bulk of the cave men died out tens of thousands of years before the arrival of the Celts, Germanics and Goths. Neanderthal men lived between 100,000 to 40,000 BC, the Celts migrated into Europe after approximately 2000 BC, resulting of a gap of at least 38, 000 years!

The Hallstatt Celts

The most well-known group of Celts lived in middle Europe around 800 BC and has been named by archaeologists as the Hallstatt culture. When the Germanics-Saxons or Goths moved into Europe we are wrongly taught to believe the Celts were totally driven out of Europe. We are also wrongly taught that Celts and Germanics are two different races. I will show the two peoples are one and the same.

The reason why the Celts seem to have disappeared is because they were ethnically indistinguishable from the incoming Saxons. The Celtic tongue disappeared because Germanic became the overriding speech. In the same way Latin (in the form of French) replaced the Germanic of the Germanic-Franks in France. Even though the French, who descend from Germanic and Celtic people and now speak a form of Latin, still live on today. The Celts did not die out in Europe. After many battles they simply were 'grafted' into the Kin stock of Germanic tribes.

It is time to trace the Celts back to their "cradle". More and more "authorities" recognise that the Celts came from the Middle East, as pointed out in a lengthy BBC documentary on these people. The word Celt (pronounced Kelt) is found in many forms as in Gelderland (Holland), Galatia (in middle Turkey), Cheltenham (in England), Galia (France), Galicie (Southern Poland), Gallia (a former Roman Province in Northern Italy), Wael (the 'W' in this case once pronounced gutturally) and Wallonia.

Early forms of the word are "Cald" or 'Chald' as found in 'Chaldea' the land of Mesopotamia. Early Chaldeans migrated from the delta region, near what is now Kuwait, up the fertile strip of land along the Euphrates River to the regions along the Mediterranean Coast to found the ancient civilisations such as Egypt.

When we think of the Middle Eastern people today, we tend to picture a brown skinned folk with dark brown eyes. Yet in those early days it was not so. The Arabs, Turks and other darker people moved into the Middle East much later. The Turks for instance do not come from Turkey but rather east from middle Asia.

Originally Turkey was populated by descendants of the Chaldeans and related people, who were fair skinned and blond. Basically, the Turks ethnically cleansed these fair skinned people from Asia Minor. The original Egyptians too, being Kin to the Chaldeans were what we describe as Nordic in appearance. Our earliest records show that the 'Chalds' came from a high land region north of Mesopotamia. Great numbers of these 'Chalds' migrated northwesterly from the highland region of Eastern Turkey and West Iran into Europe to become the proto-Celts.

Those that migrated south into Mesopotamia became known as Chaldeans. Chald literally means 'highlander'. The word Celt is derived from Chald. One of the most famous Chaldeans (or proto-Celts) is Abraham of the Bible. Note, Abraham was not a Jew, he was not even an Israelite, he was however a Chaldean of the city of Ur. He was related to the Celts. His blood was Celtic. We know the Celts were on the whole blond. The Bible tells us that Abraham's wife Sarai was very fair.

The French word for fair is 'Blond'. The Hebrew word used is Yophiy from the root word Yaphah, meaning blond, beautiful or to be bright, or light. Seeing that Abraham loved all of God's laws, including those that forbade marrying those of another nation, it stands to reason that he too would have been of 'Nordic' appearance. Indeed, the Celts were tall about 6 feet or 1.8 m, ruddy and on the whole fair and blond. Abraham and his family left Ur at the time the ethnic make-up of Chaldea was shifting from predominantly fair (blond) Chaldean to the new incoming darker skinned people who changed the entire make up of Chaldea.

Abraham followed the route taken by so many of his kind over the centuries before, to settle in a land where he would live amidst people that the 'Law' approved of. He could have gone into Europe, but he did not need to go that far. In those days, Palestine and Lebanon were populated not by Jews or Arabs, but by Hebrew-Celts, once from the Highland north of Chaldea, a blond folk, his Kin.

From Abraham came Isaac. Isaac was ethnically thus Celtic, not Jewish. From Isaac came Jacob, who was renamed Israel. He too, was ethnically a Celt, not Jewish. This means that all Jacob's children were Celts or Chalds, not Jewish. From this lineage comes King David.

In Samuel 17:42, we read that David was ruddy and fair. Ruddy means his skin was light with a pink complexion and again we see the same word fair meaning Blond. This means Jacob-Israel was also fair. This means all Israelites were ruddy and blondish. This gives a totally different picture than the Hollywood stereotype that the Israelites were swarthy with black hair. But then remember, 50% of what comes from Hollywood is nonsense. The other 50% is fiction. Jacob-Israel, (the Celt) had 12 sons who in turn gave 12 tribes. The tribes took on the name of their respective patriarchs. They are: Reuben, Simeon, Judah, Dan, Naphtali, Gad, Asher, Issachar, Zebulun, Manasseh, Ephraim and Benjamin. All are logically, Celts, not Jewish.

True Meanings

Let's get our terms straight. The word Jew is a corruption of the word 'Yehuwdiy,' from

'Yehuwdah'. Yehuwdah means Judah or of Judah (the person). Therefore, it is ethnically and etymologically wrong to say that descendants of the other 11 sons are of Judah; it is simply impossible. It is equally impossible to say that Jacob, Isaac and Abraham are children of Judah, which the churches do by implication, by calling them Jews. To call any of them Jews is of course utter nonsense, yet all the churches do and most school teachers. Even dictionaries are guilty of this stupidity. Only descendants of Judah can be called Yehuwdiy, which can be corrupted to Jews.

There is a second category of Jews that are not even descended of Judah. After the 12 tribes settled in what became known as the land of Israel, around 930 BC, infighting lead to a rift between the Israelites. The land was split in two, the Northern half became the land of Israel, the Southern half became the land of Judah.

The Assyrians began to invade both rival Israelite lands around 730 BC First the northern land fell, then the southern.

The Twelve Tribes in The Zodiac

The British-Israelites teach the Assyrians only took the Northern land of 10 tribes. This is not true! The Assyrians took all 12 as outlined in II Kings 18. The Assyrians repopulated the land with non-Israelites after the Israelites were deported. However, the City of Jerusalem was not taken.

The only Israelites left in the land were the remnant (i.e. not all) of Judah and Benjamin. Because Jerusalem became the administrative capital of this now Assyrian province, the territory became known as Judea (being also a historical reference to the main tribe of the capital). This meant that dwellers in the Assyrian province became known as Judeans, even though most were non-Judahites. All the non-Israelite people in the land took on the new geographic term, Judeans, as well as the remnant of Judah and Benjamin.

Only the remnant of Judah could rightfully claim racial blood lines to the person of Judah, but the rest (the majority) of the mixed multitude of non-Israelites laid claim by geographic means. Both groups are translated as Jews in all modern Bibles. It therefore takes a trained reader to spot the difference.

Jesus was a Judahite, but he was not a Judean; he was a Galilean. The term 'King of the Jews' is not a reference to being a king of the Geographic Judeans but rather a reference to his Royal descent from Judah. The term 'King of the Jews' does not mean King of religious Jews. Jesus was in essence of Chald or Celtic blood, he was not a religious Jew, even though he was from the tribe of Judah.

Jewish author Alfred M. Lilienthal (above) wrote this, "Here's a paradox, a paradox, a most ingenious paradox: an anthropological fact, many Christians may have much more Hebrew-Israelite blood in their veins than most of their Jewish neighbours." (From the book 'What Price Israel', Chicago Henry Regency Company 1953). Could there be any truth to this? If so, this would mean the greater number of German society and its neighbouring countries have misidentified the people most prominent in the Bible. The 1980 Jewish Almanac's first Chapter, entitled "Identity Crisis," begins with the following admission:

"Strictly speaking, it is incorrect to call an ancient Israelite a 'Jew' or to call a contemporary Jew an 'Israelite' or a 'Hebrew.'" (by Richard Siegel and Carl Rheins, New York, Bantam Books 1980). The 1978 Summer edition of the Jewish Newspaper "United Israel Bulletin" (Vol. XXXXV, 507 Fifth Avenue, New York) admits the following which contradicts Church teachings, "to get to the root of matter ... it is important we clear up one basic misconception held by so many in our society ... to the true definition of the terms Hebrew', 'Israel', and the 'Jew'. Abraham was not a Jew! Don't let this statement shock you. Historically and ethnologically, he was not a Jew. Neither was Joshua nor Joseph".

Today's Jews come under 2 categories, Ashkenazim and Sephardim. The Ashkenazim make up some 90% of all modern Jews. Ashkenaz was the grandson of Japheth. Japheth was a brother of Shem. This means that 90% of all Jews are not Semitic! Semitic means a descendant of Shem. Jacob-Israel descended from Shem. Seeing that the Ashkenazim are not Shem, this means, this group (90% of today's Jews) are not Israelites.

This group is the thrust behind the Zionist movement and are the main occupiers of the modern Jewish state in Palestine. It does not take much to see that this group has taken Palestine under false pretences as they are not Israelites in any shape or form.

The second largest group of Jews are Shephardic. These do have some claim to say their forbearers lived in Judea. BUT, not as Judahites, let alone Israelites. The Sephardim take their name from Sepharvaim or Sephardaim. The Sephardaim were Assyrian people who were placed into the depopulated lands of Israel and Judah after the Assyrian invasion, (see 2 Kings 17:24, 31; 18:34, 19:13; Isaiah 36:19; 37:13) This means only one thing, Today's Jews Are Not Israelites.

Although most may believe they are Israelites, the truth is they are not. I am not being nasty but truthful.

That is why Jesus said in Revelation 2:9 and 3:9 that, "there are those that call themselves Jews, but they are not". In other words, there are those that call themselves Israelites by claiming lineage through the tribe of Judah but they are imposters. When the Bible says the Kingdom was taken away from the Jews, it did not mean taken away from the Israelites but from those that wrongly claim to be Israelites by calling themselves Jews.

The True Heirs

Now that we know that today's Jews are not Israelites, who then are the true Israelites for whom Christ was sent? "*I was sent to the lost sheep (tribes) of the house of Israel, and to Them Alone." (Matthew 15:24).

To find the Israelites, we can see that we need to be looking at a Celtic or at least a Celtic type of people. One of the forefathers of the Celto-Israelites was a person called Eber, from whence we got the term Hebrew. In Phoenician Hebrew, Eber means Coloniser. The Europeans are renown as a colonising people.

The name Heber or its variations appear throughout Europe as in Ebro River (in Spain), Iberia (old name for Spain) and Iverni, (the old name for Ireland, Latinised later by the Romans to Hibernai, then Hibernia). Many Israelites teamed up with the Canaanites and formed the trading Empire called Phoenicia.

This fits the two distinct ethnic elements that made up the Phoenicians: the red haired being the Israelite element while the darker swarthy type being Canaanites. The word Canaanite means merchant or peddler.

The Hebrew-Celtic element did the colonising while the Canaanite element did the trading. Indeed, the Merchant class of Phoenicia called themselves the "Chanai", meaning Canaanite in their dialect.

The Hebrew-Celtic group often called themselves the Barat Phoenicians. According to the Bible. God made special Covenants with Abraham and his folk. They were 'Covenant folk'. Barat comes from the Hebrew B'r't or Berith, meaning 'Covenant'. This word or variations appear in the form of Parth or Parthia (near Afghanistan), Brittany in France, Britain (from Barat-ana: land of the Covenant) and Bruttium (a former southern province of Italy).

The study of the above names seems to suggest a historical path of migrations made by the early Hebrew-Celtics, who are blood Kin of Abraham and his descendants, the Israelites.

We stated earlier that the Assyrians took almost all the Israelites away, other than those in the stronghold town of Jerusalem.

For hundreds of years our most renowned seats of learning, colleges, universities, and theological institutions, have been at a loss to solve the issue as to what became of the so-called "Lost tribes of Israel". The overriding theory held by modern theologians (without proof), is that they simply integrated with the people of the lands of their captivity.

Yet such a theory contradicts the everlasting covenants outlined in Scripture. These writings also tell of both the northern and southern Israelite Kingdoms being taken by the Assyrians with only those of Jerusalem being spared (740-721 BC); the latter being taken in a later Babylonian captivity. These however represented only a small remnant. When the Babylonian banishment ended, less than 50,000 souls returned. An estimated 3 to 6 million Israelites, therefore, were elsewhere.

During the last hundred years, archaeologists have unearthed and published the original records kept by the Assyrians who took the bulk of Israelites captive. These records, housed in the British Museum, reveal vital clues. Assyrian wall reliefs give pictorial details showing the casting asunder of Israelites, their towns and the deportations of those captured, while the Assyrian scribes wrote of the Israelites' stay during captivity. These clay tablets were found in the diggings of the Assyrian Royal Library at Nineveh in 1850 AD. They were translated and published in 1930 by Professor Leroy Waterman of the University of Michigan.

The tablets were in total disorder, hundreds of which were of miscellaneous texts dealing with matters of state. Because of this and the fact that the Assyrians called the Israelites by other names during their captivity, the relevance to the Israelites has been overlooked. Yet a number of these tablets, dated around 707 BC, uncover the hidden lot of the Israelites as they fled from the land of their captivity. These are the "missing links" vital to pinpoint the modern-day descendants of the "lost tribes of Israel"

As outlined above, the forebears of the Israelites were Chaldeans, or we could say proto-Celts. In due course I will demonstrate that a branch of these Celto-Israelites became the Goths and Saxons. If this be so, then it stands to reason that the Saxon invasions into Celtic Britain and Europe did not bring a new race into the area. Instead, it would be more accurate to see the influx as the coming together of tribes of the same ethnicity.

Before translating the clay tablets, it pays to briefly look again at the birth of Chaldea. The Sumerians were an Asiatic people whose tongue was neither Semitic nor Indo-European. Its spoken form ended about 3500 BC to 2050 BC with the influx of Semitic (proto-Celtic) tribes. These Semitic, proto-Celts at that time had no written characters. They simply took the Sumerian script and adapted it to their Semitic tongue.

To Be Continued

Harold Stough Notes Greensted, The Oldest Wooden Church In England

church on this site is thought to have begun shortly after St Cedd began his conversion of the East Saxon people around 654. The archaeological remnants of two simple wooden buildings were discovered under the present chancel floor, and these are thought to have been built in the late sixth or early 7th century.

The church's dedication to St Andrew suggests a Celtic foundation for the original sanctuary. The body of King Edmund the Martyr of East Anglia (who was killed in 870, possibly at Hoxne) is said to have rested there in 1013, on its way to reburial at Bury St Edmunds. There are many tributes to St Edmund in the church itself.

GREENSTED CHURCH HAS STOOD FOR NEARLY 1,200 YEARS. Archaeological evidence suggests that, before there was a permanent structure, there may well have been another church, or a holy place, on the site for much longer, possibly dating back to around the 4th century. Construction of the first permanent

Greensted Church, in the small village of Greensted, near Chipping Ongar in Essex, England, is the oldest wooden church in the world, and probably the oldest wooden building in Europe still standing, albeit only in part, since few sections of its original wooden structure remain. The oak walls are often classified as remnants of a palisade church or a kind of early stave church, dated either to the mid-9th or mid-11th century.

Ancient Woodwork on Greensted Church

The Grade I listed building lies about a mile west of Chipping Ongar town centre. Its full title is The Church of St Andrew, Greensted-juxta-Ongar. It is, however, commonly known simply as Greensted Church. Greensted is still a functioning church and holds services every week. The volume of tourist visits is light, but steady. The church was featured on a British postage stamp issued in 1972.

The Stained Glass Window in Greensted Church Depicting St. Endmond

The End OS23154

Covid Is a Project of the Globalists – Russian Defence Ministry Posted by Weaver

EDITOR: WE'VE BEEN WAITING FOR A STATEMENT SUCH AS THIS, indicating the concerns of Russia over the covid plandemic, which has been fighting tooth and nail to preserve and strengthen itself as a nation state since, probably forever, but certainly since around 1999 when Putin took over from western sell-out Yeltsin.

Putin understood perfectly well what the western elites wanted of Russia – its continued destruction and subservience, to be just an enormous landmass of valuable raw materials for the transnationals to take advantage of, not a functioning, autonomous nation.

Now we get I-lied-for-the-CIA and we're-in-a-live-exercise Deep State favourite Mike Pompeo engaging in evidence-free rabble-rousing about Russia, as it looks like demented Biden and his globalist team may be stepping into the White House next month. Because friends help friends. The alleged cyberattack on US government agencies, as Zerohedge notes, may be an attempt to resurrect the Russiagate narrative in time for Biden's team to step in and up the ante once again.

See Trump Blasts Exaggerated Media Claims Of "Russia, Russia, Russia" In Cyberattack After Seeing Intel. See also US Deep State Preempts Reset In Relations With Russia. Russia has every reason to be concerned.

Andrey Ilnitsky: Covid is a Project of Globalists

Andre Ilnitsky, Special Advisor to Sergei Shoigu, Minister of Defence.

Putin Takes Over From Yeltsin

On December 16th, the Federation Council held a “round table” of the Provisional Commission of the Federation Council for the Protection of State Sovereignty and Prevention of Interference in the Internal Affairs of Russia (Chairman, Andrey Klimov) on the topic “Foreign attempts to use the post-Soviet space/near abroad in order to destabilise the political system of Russia”.

Senators participated in the meeting of the round table, members of the Provisional Commission of the Federation Council: Elena Afanasyeva, Aleksandr Vaynberg, Margarita Pavlova, Vladimir Poletayev, member of the Presidium of the Council for Foreign and Defence Policy and Foreign Intelligence Service Colonel Andrey Bezrukov, member of the Public Chamber of the Russian Federation Maria Butina, Prime Minister of Ukraine in 2010-2014 Nikolay Azarov, Chairman of the Permanent Commission of the House of Representatives of the National Assembly of Belarus Andrey Savinykh, Deputy Chairman of the NGO “Belaya Rus” Aleksandr Shatko, chairman of the Bulgarian party “Revival of the Motherland” (created on the basis of the national movement “Russophiles”) Nikolay Malinov, Director of Communications of “Rossiya Segodnya” Pyotr Lidov-Petrovsky and others.

But the speech of Sergey Shoigu’s adviser, scientist, publicist, member of the Council on Foreign and Defence Policy Andrey Ilnitsky, made the greatest impact.

Destabilizing the economies and health systems of national states is the main task of the coronavirus project, which has been success- fully done, said Andrey Ilnitsky, adviser to the Russian Defence Minister.

Democracy should be established all over the world – of course, in the form that is of interest to the organisers of the venture. And those who want to preserve their nation states should be deprived of any benefits: “We will not allow the return of the pre-coronavirus world, we will pose questions to politicians ...” And who are we? Transnational corporations. They will pose questions about deterrence measures, from which it follows that “covid is not the threat, but the measures that are being taken around the world”, Ilnitsky explained.

According to Ilnitsky, western multinational corporations consider coronavirus as their own project. The task is to have a large-scale impact on states around the world and completely transform people’s lives through strict anti-coronavirus restrictions.

Andre Ilnitsky included in his report points indicating attempts to put pressure on our country and other countries of the world that decided to preserve their sovereignty. Among other things, he talked about the well-known closed forum in Davos, where they talked about the implementation of the globalists’ plan. It was openly announced that the coronavirus pandemic should become a tool for a “global reset” and no one should return to their former life..

He recalled the combat formula of the virus in biological warfare. The main indicator of the virus in the biological attack of the enemy is virulence, i.e. the ability to infect the human body. The theses outlined by Ilnitsky are contained in the book of Klaus Schwab “Covid-19: The Great Reset”. Schwab, it must be said, organised the Davos Forum. In his book, he calls for a world ruled by corporations.

“And in this world there will be no place for nation states. They are not there. Quote: ‘If democracy and globalisation expand, then there will be no place for a nation state’. Of course, there will be no place for sovereign Russia there in the first place. The covid project has put fear in people, demolished the Donald Trump administration, stirred up nation states, placed a strain on their health systems—It has fulfilled its task. By the way, the combat formula of the virus, and it did not become known today—It is not a killer virus. The main feature of the virus is virulence, it has to destabilize the enemy’s health systems. And after it the killer viruses are launched. This is simply just information —So, to continue dismantling the old world, globalists need platforms.”

In particular, such platforms should be the “green agenda,” digitalisation and various kinds of ideological simulators – from LGBT to BLM, which will “enter” nation states and take root.

The expert pointed out the danger posed by transnational corporations in relation to independent states. Ilnitsky called on deputies and senators of the Federation Council to reject draft laws that may even contain a potential threat to Russia’s national security. Source

The End

Letters and Views

Care Homes -Restriction of Visits to Loved Ones To all Chief Constables

Sir/Mam, We have a situation in Her Majesty’s Kingdom where people in care homes are being refused visits by the care home they are in. These people are old in many cases frail and in great need of the love and comfort of their families.

I respectfully submit that this amounts to cruel and inhumane treatment of Her Majesty’s most vulnerable subjects.

But this is something which you can do something about, as holders of the office of constable. We all of us, are required to preserve life. I believe this includes the quality of life of the elderly and sick in care homes and this must include children’s homes as well.

I attach below, reports from national newspapers on rulings of the family division Court of Protection in the High Court. Two of Her Majesty’s High Court Judges have made separate rulings in two cases before them. In both these cases both Judges ruled people in care homes must be allowed visits by their families. These are now cases stated and a part of English Common Law.

I most respectfully request that in line with English Common Law as made by these two Justices of the High Court of England and Wales that you contact every care home in your police area and instruct them that they must allow family visits in conformation of two rulings by the High Court of Protection and that failure to allow family to visit in the normal way is contravening High Court rulings for which they are liable to prosecution under English Common Law and the Human Rights Acts right to family life. Respectfully submitted, Albert Burgess

Reports

Being allowed to die surrounded by your nearest relatives is a fundamental part “of any right to private or family life”, a senior judge has ruled. Delivered in the middle of the coronavirus crisis, the court of protection ruling could have an immediate effect at a time when families have been deterred from saying goodbye to people dying in care homes and hospitals due to fears over spreading the infection.

In her judgment, in a case involving a terminally ill woman who has since died, Mrs Justice Lieven said: “The ability to die with one’s family and loved ones seems to me to be one of the most fundamental parts of any right to private or family life —It would seem to me self-evident that such a decision by the State that prevents someone with a terminal disease from living with their family, must require a particularly high degree of justification.” The case was brought earlier this year by the daughter of the elderly woman, who had been living in a care home for almost 10 years. The woman was diagnosed with advanced terminal ovarian cancer and admitted to hospital in January. She later returned to her care home.

The court of protection deals with cases where individuals are not able to represent their own interests.

After the daughter applied to the court for her mother to be allowed to move in with her, the local authority argued that no immediate order should be made for leaving the home, and asked for further assessments.

But the judge (above) ruled that the woman, who cannot be identified, should be able to “spend her last days with her family”. In her decision, Lieven said she had started with the “basic proposition that most people would strongly wish to die with their family around them”.

The ruling comes at a time of concern over deaths linked to Covid-19 in care homes. Many homes have banned visitors due to the risk of passing on the virus.

The judge noted that if the woman were to remain at the care home the “need to minimise the spread of the virus” and current government guidance would mean that “the most contact that she would be likely to have would be one short visit from one family member at or around the time of her death”.

In a postscript to the judgment, Lieven said that the woman died two days after she moved to live with her family. “I do not know what she died of and whether she had, indeed, contracted Covid-19,” she said.

In a statement after the judgment was published, the woman’s daughter said: “Although I am very distressed at the loss of my mother, it gives me some comfort to know that she could see the family at the end of her life. She was surrounded by our love when she died. I should not have had to fight so hard for this basic human right.”

A senior judge has said friends and family can legally visit their loved ones in care homes, in an apparent challenge to recent government policy that has in effect banned routine visits in areas of high Covid-19 infection.

Mr Justice Hayden, vice-president of the court of protection which makes decisions for people who lack mental capacity, said courts are concerned about the impact on elderly people of lock-downs. He has circulated a memo that sets out his analysis that regulations do “permit contact with relatives” and friends and visits are “lawful”

He was responding to guidance from the Department of Health and Social Care (DHSC) last month telling thousands of care homes in England that visiting should be stopped in areas with tier 2 and tier 3 lockdown restrictions, apart from in exceptional circumstances such as the end of life.

It triggered blanket prohibitions by some councils and sparked anguish from relatives who warn a lack of contact is leading to misery and early death.

It was not clear if any of the other residents at the home had Covid-19, and it was not said whether the woman had the virus, but this was a possibility, the judge said, “given some accounts of her current symptoms”.

That was important, the judge added, because the judgment was “solely” about what was in the woman’s best interests “in circumstances where she had terminal cancer and her family wanted her to die at home with them. From: Albert Burgess. Sent: 22 December 2020.

Marconi, Blasting, Blasted on the Isle of Wight

Sir ___, I came across this interesting snippet while reading a review of a fascinating book called “The Invisible Rainbow”, with masses of evidence how many illnesses, such as flu are caused by electrical magnetic frequencies. See below:

"The truth was that, after a year and a half of experimenting with radio transmitters in full health at the age of 22, Marconi began to develop fevers. These attacks continued for the rest of his life. In 1904, while working on setting up a transmitter powerful enough for transatlantic communications, these fevers became so intense that they were thought to be malaria.

In 1905, he married Beatrice O'Brien and after their honeymoon, they settled on the island close to a transmitter. As soon as Beatrice had settled in, she began to complain of tinnitus. After three months, she fell ill with severe jaundice. She had to return to London to give birth to a baby who only lived for a few weeks and died of “unknown causes.”

During the same period, Marconi spent several months suffering from fever and delirium. Between 1918 and 1921, he suffered suicidal depression while working on a shortwave transmitter. In 1927, while on his honeymoon from his second marriage, he collapsed with chest pain and was diagnosed with serious cardiac disorders. Between 1934 and 1937, while he was developing microwave technology, he had nine heart attacks – the final one killing him at the age of 63.

"On the same island, at Osborne House, Queen Victoria suffered cerebral haemorrhages and died on the evening of January 22nd 1901, just as Marconi was putting a new transmitter into operation less than 13 miles away. "In 1901 there were “only” two transmitters, while in 1904 there were four, making this island the most irradiated place on the planet, leaving bees no room for survival.

In 1906, a survey revealed that 90% of the bees had completely disappeared for no apparent reason. New colonies were brought to the island, but these likewise died within a week. Yours truly, Robert Shaw, Wimborne, UK.

---

White Man's Technology Can save The White Race

You will have to learn Internet warfare. Study technology. Learn how to use this tool called a computer. It is More Important than an AR15.

This thing is a Weapon. Learn to use this Weapon. Computer Technology, the Internet—these are Weapons.

I've been using them for 20 years and its helped me to get a message out from South Africa that otherwise could never have been got out.

They've hacked me, and blocked me in 1001 different ways. It Never Stops.

Think of the Internet like this: In WWII you had radio. So the other side listens in on your radio. The other side then tried to Jam Your Radio. You then develop counter measures.

That is Exactly how the Internet, email, websites, social media, websites work. Except, with technology, we have many many many options for Endless Guerilla Warfare. Endless guerilla warfare.

As long as we keep learning and adapting we can fight these people via the Internet for the next 100 years. I've been doing this for long and I've written my own computer programs since I am a computer programmer. I've observed the enemy, I've beaten them many many times.

They Cannot Stop You. You Cannot Be Stopped. Learn Guerilla warfare. Change your identity, try new tricks, infiltrate, etc. Just Do Not Quit. Don't Quit. Never Give Us.

We have been fighting billionaires and Jews and —we're still in action and our numbers have grown massively over the years. Guerilla Warfare Works and on the Internet the possibilities are Infinite.

I Know My Technology.

The younger whites have even infiltrated game servers, set up secret meeting rooms and spread the word about Hitler, Nazis, Jews, Holochoax while infiltrating big companies! It did not cost them a cent.

But if you go to the website level, then you have even more possibilities.

We have endless possibilities and now that our numbers are growing, and technology is advancing we have even more possibilities.

We are better off now than 10 years ago.

The White Man's Technology Can save the White Race. Learn to use it!!

This is More Important than an Automatic Military Rifle. It is much more powerful.

Watch videos, ask questions. You can even ask me questions.

They've stopped my email, they have removed me from multiple platforms, hacked my websites and tried all kinds of tricks and I'm still in the game.

As a computer programmer I repeat: The possibilities are Endless. Learn any white technology, learn the power that comes from the minds of our people and Use It.

I did a video a long time ago where I said: White Labour will fight Jewish Capital. That's where we are. Use it, and you'll see what we can do.

Using the Internet is as important as learning to shoot - it's even more important actually.

This is the Only Tool that can save us all. Don't be afraid of it. I've used this tool non-stop for 20 years, and it's the only tool they could not stop.

The computer guys, generally, Hate Being Controlled and the technology is so advanced now, like you cannot believe.

The computer guys are Way Ahead of the Jews. Way Ahead of Them.

If We Cannot Speak and We Cannot Communicate We All Die. We Will All Be Destroyed.

This is just like Radio and Radar warfare in WWII. Except we have to do it ourselves.

The possibilities are endless, and new ones are coming online.

Do Not Be Afraid of the White Race's Technology. This Is the Best Weapon We Have and It Is Unstoppable. Use It!

Point It at the Edomites—And Press the Button!!! Yours truly. Jan South Africa.

Edomites in the Church: Documents Link Prominent Edomites to the Southern Baptist Convention

Sir __, Those who have read my book, The Sword of Christ, will be familiar with the spectacular collapse of that last bastion of Christian Biblical orthodoxy, the Southern Baptist Convention, into Satanic Jewish Leftism. The SBC's Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission, led by the snake Russell Moore, was the vehicle through which much of this subversion was made. Though Christian Zionists captured the Southern Baptists long ago, the Convention continued for decades to hold the line on traditional social issues and, with only a few exceptions, refrained from demonising its almost wholly White congregants.

That changed during the past decade, with a sharp acceleration after the Charlottesville Unite the Right rally. Russell Moore led the charge. The Southern Baptists are now in the process of renaming themselves the "Great Commission Baptists," a decision that Convention President J. D. Greear declared is "essential" to supporting Black Lives Matter. Greear also took it upon himself to insist that "Our Lord Jesus was not a White Southerner but a brown-skinned Middle Eastern refugee."

New documents reveal Moore and the rest of the Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission, to be hired guns directed by the prominent international Jews George Soros and Paul Singer. It is thus unsurprising that the ERLC recently claimed that "there has been no evidence that voter fraud has been occurring," and that "widespread election fraud is difficult, if not impossible, to pull off at the presidential level."

Russell Moore's name also appeared in the Podesta emails released by WikiLeaks in 2016. These documents are not smoking guns, but they are highly suggestive, and provide rare physical evidence of the active Jewish subversion of American Christianity. White Christians must build our own Church, cleansed of the Jew—our Enemy from the start. Yours truly, Giles Corey.

---

The Edomites And Europe

Sir __, I came across this interesting item in a privately circulated Scottish Magazine:

Jewish Scholar Oscar Levy says; 'There is scarcely an event in modern Europe that cannot be traced back to the Jews. We Jews are today nothing else but the World's seducers, its destroyers, its incendiaries, its executioners.' "Jewish history has been tragic to the Jews and no less tragic to the neighbouring nations who have suffered them.

Our major vice of old as of today is parasitism. We are a people of vultures living on the labour and good fortune of the rest of the world." Samuel Roth, Jews Must Live, page 18.

We are intruders. We are subverters. We have taken your natural world, your ideals, your destiny, and played havoc with them. We have been at the bottom not merely of the latest great war (WWI) but of nearly all your wars and revolutions in your history.

We have brought discord and confusion and frustration into your personal life. We are still doing it. No one can tell how long we shall go on doing it. Who knows what great and glorious destiny might have been yours if we had left you alone." By the Jew, Marcus Eli Ravage, Century Magazine, Vol. 115, No.3, Jan. 1928, pages 347,348. See Here

“They are (The Jews), all of them, born with raging fanaticism in their hearts, just as the Bretons and the Germans are born with blond hair. I would not be in the least bit surprised if these people would not some day become deadly to the human race.” - Voltaire’ Yours truly, Jeff Boland.

---

Brexit Deal

Worried about a Brexit deal? Well so am I , but this is covering up a bigger issue. Compared to the EU control of this country the globalist control is worse.

Effectively the Globalists are already controlling this country because they control parliament and number 10 Downing Street. The Lockdown laws are not a result of government over-reaction to the covid disease or their supposed incompetence. It is planned and aims to bring this country to its knees to make the control by this evil force even easier.

You, dear reader, has allowed Parliament to operate outside of the law for some time now. They pass such laws as the hate crime law which the now infiltrated police use to silence any dissent.

These laws were and still are against our common law but you did nothing to stop it. OK you might have moaned to like minded people but that surely did not or will not change things. Now we read that the Freedom of Information unit has an office in Downing Street which stops embarrassing revelations covering up Globalist corruption.

The scandal of contracts costing more than the NHS Budget being awarded to those companies who administer covid regulations are being covered up using secrecy laws.

Guess what folks? It's still not too late if you, I mean you yourself dear reader if you expose your MP in this corruption. You might think that (s)he is a good person; perhaps misguided, but his/her heart is in the right place. You could not be more wrong. (S)he knows that parliament operates outside of our laws. This is confirmed when someone does challenge parliament in the Supreme court.

The Supreme court DOES take account of our common law. This is why they declared Boris Johnson's proroguing of parliament unlawful.

This is why on February 12th this year they declared that," Ordering someone to stay in their own home is unlawful imprisonment".

Even those MPs who speak against the lock-down laws will not use the killer weapon to stop these unlawful so-called laws. They could ask the speaker to declare the lock-down laws unlawful. This is why they are corrupt. OK! They may not receive back-handers , but they value their reputation for following the Party line more than seeking truth and justice. (For party line read Globalist control).

I expect that you, dear reader, will straight away write to or 'phone your MP. to let him know that you know that he is a cowardly corrupt person. Silly me!. I was dreaming. I ignored the fact that your English reservedness or innate fear stops you doing that.

Anyway you've got the washing up to do or you've got to buy some Christmas decorations or some other far more important consideration. You console yourself by doing such moral things as buying a poppy for November 11.

You then think that the people who write such stuff as above are very rude and have no manners. You might even consider writing to the scribbler and telling him how rude he is.

He might reply that if you have the time to write to him then you had the time to write to your MP. Happy Christmas. Your's truly John Evans.

The End

Modern Medicine as Satanic Cult

By

Dr. John L. Reizer

HOW COULD A LARGE SEGMENT OF THE MEDICAL PROFESSION COLLUDE WITH THE ILLUMINATI BANKERS IN BRINGING SOCIETY TO ITS KNEES? Modern medicine is a branch of the Illuminati, a satanic cult which controls and exploits society by making people sick. See how the profession is ruled on pain of losing their medical licence. In this 2019 article, Dr. Reizer compares modern medicine with a “religion.”

Although a small minority of us don't think of them and their vocation in this way, medical doctors and the profession of medicine are perceived by the vast majority of people as priests working in a church. The entire structure of the medical profession has been intentionally designed to mirror a religious experience.

When you walk into a house of worship, you enter a domain that is considered sacred by the members of the congregation. Inside a church, temple, synagogue or any other religious chamber, there are specific rules that are generally understood and followed by its members.

Out of respect for the belief system, any types of criticism, skepticism or questions concerning the veracity of the organization's major premise are off limits. In other words, members of religious congregations can never publicly question the church about anything.

In medicine, the doctor (priest, minister, rabbi) customarily wears a white gown (robe) that absolutely identifies him as the high priest in the congregation (practice). Within that practice there are nurses (nuns) that assist the doctor in taking care of patients (members of the congregation) when they become ill (possessed by evil microbes). Patients do not usually question a doctor's (minister's) advice.

There are a variety of techniques (rituals) the profession of medicine uses to rid the body of diseases (evil spirits). Some of these techniques include introducing synthetic drugs (holy water) in patients, mass produced by petrochemical companies. In other situations, doctors cut out diseases in the body by performing surgeries (exorcisms) in an effort to remove infected tissues and organs (possessed body parts).

Question the intentions or integrity of the medical man and his large support group of medical personnel, and you will be looked upon by the citizens of most communities as a nut job (the devil). Question the medical protocols (biblical passages) that have been written by the petrochemical corporations and firmly established within the base curricula of every medical school program in the world, and you will be labelled as a charlatan, a quack or a pseudo-scientist.

The petrochemical companies secretly overseeing prestigious medical journals, the publishers of supposed peer-reviewed research, make certain doctors opposing the allopathic paradigm (drugs are the only way to achieve and maintain health) are always viewed by the vast majority of people as being unscientific. In the Catholic Church, they teach parishioners that a young soul, entering the world, is compromised by original sin (a weakened immune system). It predisposes that vessel (body) to a life of demonic possession (sickness). The baptismal holy waters of the church (vaccination programs) are the only sure way to wash away the sins (childhood diseases) and set the soul right (create immunity against germs) so that it can enjoy an existence on Earth that is free from Satan's temptations (bacteria and viral microbes).

I understand there will be plenty of people incensed over what I have written in this article. A person that writes content questioning a particular religion's philosophy or integrity will not win any popularity contests. And make no mistake; the medical profession is a powerful religion with many followers. That, in itself, is a sad fact, but also the major reason why so many people are walking around sick and don't understand why.

"The pediatrician serves as the recruiter for the medical profession. He/she indoctrinates your child from birth into a life-long dependancy on medical intervention. The first stage of indoctrination is the "well-baby" visit. The well-baby visit is a cherished ritual of the pediatrician that enhances their income and does nothing constructive for your child. It's a worthless visit. "

Dr. Robert Mendelsohn, M.D.

The faith and trust we have collectively invested, as a society, in medicine is based upon blind faith and not the profession's ability to get sick people well.

There are some pretty screwed up concepts that medical dogma is based upon and when one takes a close look at these ideas, their flaws become very apparent. It is because of this fact that the profession has been cleverly structured and marketed, by its engineers, to appear as a religion.

As a religion, medicine remains off limits from would-be critics and avoids important questions. These questions have needed to be answered for years, and yet they continue to be ignored by medicine's leaders. Instead, we continue to hear and read about, walkathons, parades and fundraisers that supposedly benefit research for future eradication of diseases that the medical profession and petrochemical corporations have no intention of ever eliminating!

It's not a coincidence that so many hospitals in the United States and around the world have been named after religious organizations and saints. Let's face facts, there aren't any medical facilities named "The Charles Manson Center for Burned Victims". Medical institutions have been designed and branded in such a way that they are presently perceived, by the masses, as places of worship. Even the doctor's classic, white lab coat has been designed to instil, in the psyche of health care consumers, a sense of purity when they think of physicians.

Getting people to believe in the value of medicine has been the long-term goal of pharmaceutical companies. Their relentless commitment to this self-serving campaign has turned the public sector into a massive congregation of cheerleaders that ritualistically praise the medical industry. Communities throughout America and around the world regularly donate large amounts of money attempting to build and maintain hospital centres. These organizations are now the centre points of all modern communities.

THE CHURCH OF ALLOPATHY

"I no longer believe in Modem Medicine. I believe that despite all the super technology and elite bedside manner----the greatest danger to your health is the doctor who practices Modem Medicine. I believe that Modem Medicine's treatments for disease are seldom effective, and that they're often more dangerous than the disease they're designed to treat. I believe more than 90% of Modem Medicine could disappear from the face of the earth-doctors, hospitals, drugs and equipment—and the effect on our health would be immediate & beneficial Modem Medicine can't survive without our faith, because Modem Medicine is neither an art nor a science. It's a religion."

Dr Robert Mendelsohn, M.D.

Don't get me wrong, there are plenty of good medical doctors and surgeons in the world and some medical practice objectives can be helpful in saving lives. But most of the successes that can be attributed to modern medicine usually come in the form of emergency based care and not from the area of managing diseases and restoring health to the human body.

If we ever hope to improve the health of human beings and raise the overall quality of healthcare that's practiced in the United States and other locations throughout the world, we will need to break the stranglehold petrochemical corporations have on the medical profession. These giant companies have hijacked medicine and made it sick. We need to turn our attention away from figuring out ways to pay for medical care and start concentrating on ways to fix the profession so that it stops making people sicker than they already are.

In the future we must evaluate medicine as a profession and not blindly praise its false accomplishments that have, ultimately, been fabricated by drug companies and later promoted in peer-reviewed journals that are owned and operated by the same companies. It's time for the members of the congregation (the general public) to get off their knees and begin holding traditional medicine (the church) accountable for its actions!
Source.

The End OS23161

The Dangerous Alliance of Rothschilds and The Vatican of Francis Posted By Weaver

ER. Editor: We are publishing a recent article of F. William Engdahl along with a 30-minute video discussion of the same by Catholic commentator Dr. Taylor Marshall of the Complicit Clergy site. His Youtube channel can be accessed here. Both sources complement each other.

IN DR. MARSHALL'S VIDEO (ABOVE) in which he unpacks this alliance of elites centred around the Pope and Lynn Forester de Rothschild, he raises the following troublesome issues and facts:-

- Religion is being linked to the new buzz-phrase of 'inclusive capitalism' and environmentalism
- How can the Pope condemn usurious capitalism in his latest book, then become allied with some of the worst of them in order to push a new agenda? This is contradictory
- Lynn Rothschild has been involved intimately with Bill Clinton's and Hillary Clinton's political campaigns since 1992. She then became a supporter of John McCain when Hillary lost to Obama in 2008. Pope Francis is her new partner.

- The CEO of Mastercard (Ajay Banga), who is a Sikh, is telling us all religions have to come together – this is the essence of globalism. But religions cannot come together because they're fundamentally Different. Why is a Sikh speaking for the religious aspect of this project?
- The heads of the Ford Foundation and Bank of America, for example, are pushing for social justice and a just society based on a new capitalism.
- It is the Vatican Council that has named these figures as 'guardians' of inclusive capitalism. (see list). This was put together officially on December 8th, the feast of the Immaculate Conception, a special saints' day. Are we getting trolled with this?
- Francis has assembled some of the most powerful and wealthy people on the planet. If you look at his statements, he is 100% on board with the Great Reset. He invokes freedom and equality and now fraternity (ER: which were the values of the French Revolution and the rallying cry of the Freemasonic Illuminati at the time, which has since set about the systematic destruction of the Catholic Church).
- The Pope is not acting as a Catholic; he is on the wrong team.

Dangerous Alliance of Rothschild and Vatican of Francis F. William Engdahl

HOLY Moly! The most globalist and interventionist Pope since the Crusades of the 12th century has formalised an alliance with the largest figures in global finance led by none other than that noble banking family, Rothschild. The new alliance is a joint venture they call ‘Council for Inclusive Capitalism with the Vatican.’

The venture is one of the more cynical and, given the actors, most dangerous frauds being promoted since Davos WEF guru and Henry Kissinger protégé, Klaus Schwab, began to promote the great reset of the world capitalist order. What and is behind this so-called Council for Inclusive Capitalism with the Vatican?

On their website they proclaim in a typical UN doublespeak, ‘The Council for Inclusive Capitalism is a movement of the world’s business and public sector leaders who are working to build a more inclusive, sustainable, and trusted economic system that addresses the needs of our people and the planet.’

A more sustainable, trusted economic system? Doesn’t that sound like the infamous UN Agenda 21 and its Agenda 2030 daughter, the globalist master plan? They then claim, ‘Inclusive capitalism is fundamentally about creating long-term value for all stakeholders — businesses, investors, employees, customers, governments and communities.’

They continue, ‘Council members make actionable commitments aligned with the World Economic Forum International Business Council’s pillars for sustainable value creation — people, planet, principles of governance, and prosperity — and that advance the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.’

In announcing the deal with the Vatican, Lynn Forester de Rothschild declared, ‘This council will follow the warning from Pope Francis to listen to “the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor” and answer society’s demands for a more equitable and sustainable model of growth.’

Their reference to Klaus Schwab’s World Economic Forum is no accident. The group is yet another front group in what is becoming a globalist bum’s rush to try to convince a sceptical world that the same people who created the post-1945 model of IMF-led globalisation and mega-corporate entities more powerful than governments, destroying traditional agriculture in favour of toxic agribusiness, dismantling living standards in industrialised countries to flee to cheap labour countries like Mexico or China, will now lead the effort to correct all their abuses? We are being naïve if we swallow this.

Rothschild and Pals

FIRST off, it is useful to see who are the ‘inclusive’ capitalists joining forces with the Pope and Vatican. The founder is a lady who carries the name Lady Lynn Forester de Rothschild. She is the wife of the 90-year old retired mega-billionaire head of London’s NM Rothschild’s Bank, Sir Evelyn de Rothschild. Lady Lynn, however, is from ‘commoner’ roots, born into a US working class family in New Jersey whose father, as she tells it, worked two jobs to put her and her brothers through law and medical schools.

She seemed to have had some influential mentors, as she went to Wall Street, then to telecoms including Motorola, and made reported tens of millions before hooking up with Sir Evelyn and his reported $20 billion in assets. (ER: Shouldn’t this be TRILLIONS given how many centuries the Rothschilds have been around in the most influential of positions?) Reports have it that Henry Kissinger played a personal role in encouraging the Transatlantic union of the two.

Lady Lynn is interesting as well beyond her famous husband. According to the list of names of those who flew on the private jet of convicted child sex trafficker and reported Mossad operative Jeffrey Epstein, one name that appears is 'de Rothschild, Lynn Forester.'

It is interesting to note that the same Lynn Forester in 1991, before she took Sir Evelyn as her husband, generously let a British friend have full use of one of Lynn's Manhattan apartment properties, following the apparent murder of the woman's father, British media tycoon and Mossad agent, Robert Maxwell.

The British friend of Lynn, Ghislaine Maxwell, today is awaiting trial for complicity in child sex trafficking as the partner of Jeffrey Epstein. Maxwell reportedly maintained the Manhattan address of Lady Lynn until very recently to register a bizarre non-profit called Terramar that she and Epstein set up in 2012, allegedly aimed at saving our oceans. When Epstein was arrested, she quickly dissolved the non-profit. One of the donors to Ghislaine's TerraMar was something called the Clinton Foundation, which leads to the next friend.

Lady Lynn has another long-time friend named Hillary Clinton, whose husband, Bill, was also logged on Epstein's Lolita Express private jet, around two dozen times. Lynn and her new husband, Sir Evelyn, in fact were so close to the Clintons that, in 2000, the Rothschild newlyweds spent part of their honeymoon as guests at the White House of the Clintons. Lady Lynn after that became a major fund-raiser in 2008 and again in 2016 for a possible Hillary bid for president, called a 'bundler.' She also advised Hillary on her economic programme, a free market one based on Adam Smith as she described it once in an interview.

Lady Lynn's 'Guardians'

THE Rothschild venture with the Vatican at this point, in addition to co-founder Lady Lynn Forester de Rothschild, includes hand-picked money moguls and their select foundations who pompously call themselves the 'guardians.' That's a term sounding more like a south side Chicago gang or some kind of mafia overlords. They call themselves the moral guardians, together now with their new friends at the Vatican, for reform of capitalism.

The guardian member list includes Rajiv Shah, the chief executive officer of the Rockefeller Foundation, and former partner of the Gates Foundation's AGRA scam to introduce Genetically Modified Organism seeds in Africa. The Rockefeller Foundation has been involved in promoting a pandemic 'lockdown' since 2010, and is a core part of the WEF great reset agenda. He just released a Rockefeller report, 'Reset the Table: Meeting the Moment to Transform the US Food System'.

Rothschild's guardians also include Darren Walker, the chief executive officer of the Ford Foundation. Those two foundations, Ford and Rockefeller, have done more to shape an imperial American foreign policy than even the US state department or the Central Intelligence Agency, including the funding of the failed Green Revolution in India and Mexico, and the creation by Rockefeller funds of GMO crops.

The head of DuPont, a GMO giant and chemicals group is another guardian as well as scandal-ridden vaccine and drug companies, Merck and Johnson and Johnson. Merck lied about the risks of its arthritis drug Vioxx until more than 55,000 users died of heart attacks. Johnson and Johnson has been involved in numerous frauds in recent years including around negative effects of its anti-psychotic drug Risperdal, illegal presence of cancer-causing asbestos in its baby powder, and potentially thousands of legal actions for its role as a leading supplier of the opioid in Purdue Pharma's deadly prescription painkiller OxyContin.

Other guardians include CEOs of Visa, Mastercard, Bank of America, Allianz insurance, BP. In 2016, Visa along with the United States Agency for International Development was behind the catastrophic Modi experiment to introduce a cashless economy in India.

Notable also is guardian Mark Carney, former Bank of England head and also advocate of cashless digital central bank currencies to replace the dollar. Carney is now United Nations special envoy for climate action and finance.

Carney is also a board member of the World Economic Forum, the public promoter of the global reset of capitalism to impose the dystopian Agenda 2030 ‘sustainable’ economy. In fact several of Rothschild’s guardians are on the WEF board, including billionaire Marc Benioff, founder of cloud computing Salesforce, and OECD head Angel Gurría. And ex-Credit Suisse CEO, Tidjane Thiam is on the International Business Council of the World Economic Forum.

Other guardians of the inclusive capitalism transformation include the head of Bank of America, which bank was sued by the US government for fraud connected with the 2008 US subprime mortgage crisis, as well as for laundering money for the deadly Mexican drug cartels and Russian organised crime. The select guardian list also includes Marcie Frost, the controversial head of CalPERS, the huge fraud-ridden California state pension fund managing over $360 billion.

The head of State Street Corporation, one of the world’s largest asset management companies with $3.1 trillion under management, is another guardian. In January 2020 State Street announced it would vote against directors of companies in major stock indices that do not meet targets for environmental, social and governance changes.

This is what is called ‘green investing’, as part of so-called ‘socially responsible investing’. The WEF strategy, pushed also by WEF board members like Larry Fink of Black Rock, reward companies that they deem ‘socially responsible.’ This is the key to the inclusive capitalism agenda of not just Rothschild’s inclusive capitalism guardians, but also the WEF. Their website claims that the guardians manage more than $10.5 trillion dollars and control companies that employ 200 million workers. Now a brief look at their new Vatican partner. Vatican morals?

IRONICALLY, or maybe not, Pope Francis, the partner chosen to give Rothschild’s group of mega-capitalists ‘moral’ credibility, is himself embroiled in what could be the largest financial scandals, fraud and misuse of church funds in the modern history of the Vatican. This despite the fact Pope Francis declared as new Pope in 2013 that one of his main tasks would be to clean up the scandal-ridden Vatican finances. That has hardly taken place even after more than six years. Some Vatican observers even claim the financial corruption has worsened.

Pope Francis

The unravelling scandal revolves around now-disgraced Cardinal Angelo Becciu, who until 2018 was de facto chief of staff to the Pope and regular confidante. Becciu was Substitute for General Affairs in the Secretariat of State, a key position in the Roman Curia until June 2018 when the Pope elevated him to Cardinal, ironically enough, responsible for the Congregation for the Causes of Saints. Becciu, clearly no saint, was able to invest hundreds of millions, even billions, over years of church funds, including donations for the poor in Peter’s Pence, into projects he chose with a former banker from Credit Suisse.

Projects included a 150 million euro share in a luxury London real estate complex and $1.1 million into a film, Rocketman, about the life of Elton John. That comes to light as the ongoing Vatican child sex scandals caused Pope Francis to defrock Cardinal Theodore McCarrick of Washington, the first Cardinal to fall in the church’s deep sexual abuse charges.

Italian press reports that the Pope knew about the dubious investments of Becciu and even praised them before the depth of the scandals broke. In November 2020, Italian police raided the residence of Becciu’s former Vatican accountant and found 600,000 euros in cash and evidence the Vatican employee received $15 million in fake invoicing over years.

With a background like this, the new Council for Inclusive Capitalism with the Vatican of Lynn de Rothschild warrants close scrutiny as they clearly plan big things along with Klaus Schwab’s World Economic Forum to ‘reform’ the world economy, and it won’t be nice or moral we can be sure.

The End OS 23163

The Wrong Pandemic

Arthur Firstenberg – Newsletter Dec 29, 2020

You see them everywhere. Men and women walking down the street, all of them with masks on their faces and cell phones in their hands. People jogging, with masks covering their faces and cell phones in their hands. Mothers wheeling their babies with one hand, holding a cell phone in the other hand, with a mask covering their face.

The World Has Gone Insane

Back in May, the President of Tanzania announced that a goat, a quail, and a papaya had tested positive for COVID-19. People did not stop eating papayas. But when farmed minks began testing positive, the response has been to kill them all.

After a few minks in the Netherlands tested positive in April, 570,000 minks were slaughtered. Minks started testing positive and being killed in Denmark in June, and on November 4, Denmark announced it would destroy the rest of its 17 million minks. Sanity finally broke out in that country, and the eradication campaign stopped after only 2.5 million minks were slaughtered. But minks have also been killed in Spain, Sweden, Greece, France, and the United States.

Lions, Tigers and Leopards in Zoos Have Tested Positive.

People have been testing their dogs and cats, and lo and behold, some of them have tested positive, and on May 6, the Centres for Disease Control created a web page titled “What to Do if Your Pet Tests Positive for the Virus that Causes COVID-19.”

This is what you are supposed to do: “Isolate the pet from everyone else, including other pets.”

“Keep your pet at least 6 feet away from other pets and people.” “If you have a private backyard where your dog can go to the bathroom, do not take them for walks.” But, the CDC warns, “Do not wipe or bathe your pet with—hand sanitizer,” and “Do not try to put a mask on your pet.”

It is becoming obvious that no matter what you test — minks, lions, dogs, papayas, people, or anything else — you will get positive results, and that the results mean nothing. Just wait until someone tests a cow. Kill all the cows, and no more meat or dairy products! Vaccinate every pet and farm animal in the world! Do contact tracing for every pet that comes in contact with an infected pet!

We have a pandemic, all right, but it is a pandemic of insanity, not COVID-19. The world — the entire world, not just a few people or a few countries or a few cultures — has forgotten what life is. Life is community. It is social contact, touching, breathing, sharing. It is oxygen. People are dying because their masks are making them hypoxic. Cancer cells thrive in the absence of oxygen.

If you have cancer, and you wear a mask, you are making your cancer grow. And life is bacteria and viruses. Ninety-nine percent of all bacteria and viruses are beneficial and necessary — necessary for life, and necessary for evolution. If you disinfect the surface of the earth, you will put an end to life. We did not disinfect the world for smallpox, influenza, measles, or tuberculosis. But we are doing it for “COVID-19.”

And we are blaming every symptom known to man on “Covid-19.” Covid-19 is a respiratory virus, closely related to the common cold. But we have made a caricature of it. Suddenly a coronavirus is a magical piece of RNA, created by Dracula, that will damage your kidneys or your heart or give you a stroke.

There is another, very real pandemic that is out of control: a pandemic of radiation. A pandemic that does cause kidney and heart damage and strokes, in addition to pneumonia. The radiation is produced by cell phones. The cell phones with which mothers are irradiating their babies, and joggers are irradiating their hearts. The cell phones with which 7 billion people are irradiating the birds, insects and flowers around them. The radiation that will kill all 7 billion of us, unless we put an end to it.

TAKE BACK YOUR HEALTH
CONFERENCE, JANUARY 23-24, 2021

I will be speaking about these issues at the 2021 Take Back Your Health (TBYH) Conference. This year's conference, featuring doctors, immunologists, environmental experts, and others, is titled Our Global Microbiome: Understanding Our Relationship with the Viruses, Bacteria and Moulds Around Us.

The conference will be held online January 23 and 24. Details and registration information are here:

The End

'Star of Bethlehem' to Shine Brightest For 800 Years as Jupiter and Saturn Align
From Our Irish Correspondent

THE FABLED STAR OF BETHLEHEM FOLLOWED BY THE THREE WISE MEN will make a rare real-life appearance this Christmas - shining brighter than it has in 800 years.

For the rest of this month, Jupiter and Saturn will align to create what astronomers believe inspired the Christmas star in the nativity story.

They will appear to nearly collide on December 21 - the date of the winter solstice - to create a rare 'double planet' phenomenon in the sky.

'Spectacular to the Naked Eye'

The event, named a 'great conjunction', will be the closest - and brightest - the two largest planets in the solar system have appeared to be since the 13th century. Nasa said the conjunction will be 'spectacular' to the naked eye, and the best time to spot it will be just after sunset.

In 1614 the famed German astronomer Johannes Kepler documented his belief that the phenomenon is what was referred to as the Star of Bethlehem in the nativity.

Others have proposed that the three wise men could have referred to a 'triple conjunction' of Jupiter, Saturn and Venus. But it is unknown if the 'Christmas Star' was a real astronomical event or simply part of a story.

Astronomer Patrick Hartigan, of Rice University in Texas, said: 'Alignments between these two planets are rather rare, occurring once every 20 years or so.'

'This conjunction is exceptionally rare because of how close the planets will appear to one another. You'd have to go all the way back to just before dawn on March 4, 1226, to see a closer alignment between these visible objects in the sky.'

Jupiter and Saturn have been approaching one another since the summer. Between December 16 and 25, the two will be separated by less than the diameter of a full moon. Though the best viewing conditions will be near the equator, the event will be observable anywhere on Earth - weather permitting.

Stargazers in Britain will need to look to the south west, and the planets will be very close to the horizon.

Those with a telescope, or a camera with a big lens, are likely to see Jupiter's four moons lined up as well.

The last conjunction, which took place in the year 2000, was not visible to most because of the Earth's proximity to the sun.

And anyone fearing a galactic disaster can relax - Nasa was keen to point out that although Jupiter and Saturn may appear close, in reality they are hundreds of millions of miles apart.

The Stellar Double Act

- Jupiter does much of the work to create the 'Star' - it shines 12 times brighter than Saturn
- Unlike twinkling stars, Saturn and Jupiter shine steadily because of their relative closeness to Earth
- The Star of Bethlehem appears in the nativity story in the Gospel of Matthew

- The three wise men, or three kings, were religious scholars known as magi, which can mean astronomer

- Other theories for the Star of Bethlehem's origins include that it was a supernova - an exploding star - visible to the naked eye

- The phenomenon will be matched again relatively soon, on March 15, 2080, but after that it will be the year 2400 before they next appear as bright.

The End OS23160

Prehistoric London Its Mounds And Circles By E. O. Gordon ( Published 1946 ) Part 22

THE NORTH-EAST TURRET OF THE PRESENT NORMAN STRUCTURE HAS FROM TIME IMMEMORIAL BEEN USED AS AN OBSERVATORY, and only ceased to be used as such when Charles II removed the Royal Observatory (above) to his royal demesne in Greenwich Park. Tower Hill as a place of National Assembly, like Parliament Hill, carries on to this day its traditions. Seldom a dinner hour passes without a crowd assembling to listen to some popular demagogue.

A few years since a band of Macedonian gypsies settled down upon Tower Hill with their caravans, secure in their traditional knowledge that it was common ground; and special legal measures had to be adopted before they could be removed. Surely in this unprecedented action of these poor foreigners may be traced the imperishable traditions of an ancient kinship.

Is it a mere coincidence, we wonder, that the summit of the British Gorsedd should retain its sanctity as a consecrated place of worship to this day, crowned as it is by the Conqueror's Norman chapel, dedicated to the Midsummer Saint John Baptist?

Here William of Normandy and his Queen are said to have knelt in prayer, and there for well-nigh a thousand years Divine Service has been celebrated within the walls of this chapel. Immediately under the roof, from the time of Henry Beauclerc to Charles II, it was the ancient custom of the kings of England to assemble before proceeding to Westminster to be crowned.

On the even of their coronation, the ministers and nobles met in council to nominate the sovereign. The following morning all assembled in the chapel on the topmost storey of the building, and there the procession was formed which conducted the king in state through the city to the royal scat at Westminster, where within the Abbey, the ancient site of the Druidical circle, the anointing and crowning took place.

May not this be a survival of the Kymric custom practised on Silbury Hill and Abury, where after that by the "voice of the people" the king had been elected and lifted by the "elders in council" to a stone seat or chair, the religious ceremonial of anointing took place within the precincts of the Circle.

From Roman to Norman times, with but one exception in the sixth century, we can find no mention whatever, either in history or tradition, of the White Mound. But that it was a royal stronghold in King Arthur's time, we gather from Book XXI of Sir Thomas Malory's Morte d'Arthur, in which he relates—

“How Sir Mordred presumed and took on him to be King of England, and would have married the Queen, his Uncle's wife. Wherefore Sir Mordred made a parliament, and called the lords together, and there he made them to choose him King; and so was he crowned at Canterbury, and held a feast there, fifteen days; and afterwards he drew him into Winchester, and there he took the Queen Guenever, and said plainly that he would wed her which was his uncle's wife.

And so he made ready for the feast and a day prefixed that they should be wedded; wherefore Queen Guenever was passing heavy. But she durst not discover her heart, but spake faer, and agreed to Sir Mordred's will. Then she desired of Sir Mordred for to go to London, to buy all manner of things that longed unto the wedding. Any by cause of her faer speech Sir Mordred trusted her well enough and gave her leave to go. And so when she came to London she took the Tower of London, and suddenly in all haste possible she stuffed it with all manner of victual, and well garnished it with men, and so kept it.

Then when Sir Mordred wist and understood how he was beguiled, he was passing wroth out of measure. And a short tale to make, he went and laid a mighty siege about the Tower of London, and made many great assaults thereat, and threw many great engines unto them, and shot great guns. But all might not prevail Sir Mordred, for Queen Guenever would never, for faer speech nor for foul, trust to come on his hands again—

Then Sir Mordred sought on Queen Guenever by letters and sondes, and by daer means and foul means, for to have her to come out of the Tower of London; but all this availed not, for she answered him shortly, openly and privily, that she had lever slay herself than to be married with him. Then came word to Sir Mordred that King Arthur had araised the siege for Sir Lancelot, and he was coming homeward with a great host to be avenged on Sir Mordred. . . .”

The above account of Queen Guenever taking refuge in the Tower of London, we may be sure, was no flight of Sir Thomas Malory's fancy, but was founded on fact. For Margaret of Richmond, the most learned lady of the day, and the patroness also of learning at the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, had specially employed the old Welsh knight, at her own cost, to collect, sift and garner material for writing the Morte d'Arthur from Welsh MSS. then extant, traditions and legends in Wales and Cornwall, and historical data, wherever he could find it concerning the British King Arthur, “the first of the most Christian worthies of the world” (see Caxton’s preface to the Morte d'Arthur), from whom her son Henry Tudor, the heir-presumptive to the throne, was lineally descended.

As directress of the education of the young princesses, this astute lady was residing at the time at the Court of Edward IV at Westminster, and we find indications that she took a personal interest in the printing of the Morte d'Arthur in the Almonry of the Abbey.

The one object Lady Margaret had in view was the future advancement of her son, and in no better way could this be done, she conceived, than by kindling an interest in the fascinating and romantic history of the Keltic King among the chivalry and nobility of the Court—men who would have it in their power, if ever the opportunity offered, of supporting her son’s claims to the throne of his forefathers.

No book ever achieved its purpose better or contributed more to make a cause popular. Malory’s zeal and his love of “King Arthur and his noble Knights of the Round Table” was infectious, and stirred both the imagination and the hearts of all who read in his beautiful English prose (valued to this day for its style) the character sketches of the “goodly fellowship” men whose ardour in redressing human wrongs has set the standard for all time of British manhood.

So that when in the mysterious dispensation of Providence a few years later the time came that the Keltic monarchy was once again restored in the person of this illustrious lady’s son Henry VII, the imperishable ideals of the Round Table lent a peculiar and special glamour to the prophesied return from his long exile in Brittany of the representative of the ancient line of British kings, the “Dragon of the great Pendragonship” of Wales.

We now turn to the consideration of the royal Gorsedd beside the ford and ferry in the West—namely, the Tothill, Westminster. This has retained much longer than the Bryn Gwyn its royal associations. Preeminently the “Great Seat” of Royalty in London here from time immemorial British kings have held their courts and their councils. An old map in the British Museum shows the site of the prehistoric Tot, or sacred Pile on Tothill fields, of which no trace remains, though its memory survives to this day in the names of the old tournament ground and in Tothill Street.

Old Palace Yard

The ancient royal palace is reputed to have been a magnificent and extensive pile fronting the river, in part covering the ground now occupied by the two large areas or courts known as Old Palace Yard and New Palace Yard. It consisted of a great number of buildings destined to various purposes.

On the site of the original Great Hall of the British King’s palace William Rufus built the present Hall, and the site of the crypt under the Chapel of St. Stephen’s, tradition says, was originally the Oratory of Edward the Confessor.

Westminster was the favourite residence of this saintly monarch. It was not until the ancient palace had been almost wholly destroyed by fire that Henry VIII bought Whitehall from Cardinal Wolsey—a purchase which put an end to most of the royal glories of Westminster. But as the seat of the High Court of Parliament, and of our legal tribunal the traditions of Druidic and British legislation have survived in unbroken continuity.

The earliest historical account that has reached us of the Gorsedd Mound of the Tot-hill and the circle on Thorney is in connection with the British King Lleuwer Mawr in the second century A.D. On the site of the Druidic circle Lucius, the Latinised name of the British king, erected a church; and the Druidic College in connection with the services of the Gorsedd he is said to have converted to the use of the Christian clergy.

The existence of the Druidical College may have given rise to the title of Westminster Abbey as the “Collegiate Church.” Dean Buckland held that the Druidical College stood on the site of the present College Gardens. It may have been on account of this organized community of Druids and Bards that King Lucius not only built a church, but “by his free grant, ordained freedom of sanctuary as a means to allure his people to the true worship of God,” assured that his subjects would be well looked after and kept from doing further harm by those wise and learned administrators of law and order.

The privileges of this ancient Sanctuary one thousand years later were renewed by Edward the Confessor, in a charter in which it is recapitulated that Lucius had previously established a sanctuary by royal charter. Notwithstanding its royal patrons, it was swept away at the time of the Reformation, and only the memory of the site survives in the name of the sanctuary in the Broadway, Westminster.

We find in a note in Stanley’s Memorials of Westminster, (above) a pathetic account of how Fackenham, the last of the Abbots, convinced of the righteousness of his cause, armed with a royal charter under each arm and accompanied only by one monk, in February 1555, pleaded in the House of Commons for the retention of the Sanctuary about to be abolished by Henry VIII. In his eloquent address we have documentary proof that Lucius was the founder of the first Church at Westminster:—

“And first, for the antiquity of Sanctuary at Westminster. It may please you to have consideration how it is no less than 1,400 years since Sanctuary was there first ordained: for Lucius, the first Christian King of this realm who, about 100 years after Christ, received the Christian faith from the holy Pope of Rome and martyr Eleutherius, by the ministry of the holy monk Fagan (whom some call Fagan and Damian), immediately after that he was by the said holy monk baptized, and instructed in the true profession of Christ’s religion, did destroy the Temple that then stood here at Westminster dedicated to the idol Apollo, and in place thereof erected a new Temple to the honour of the True

God, our Saviour Jesus Christ, and of St. Peter, from whose sanctity he received the benefits of Christianity: and there he, by his free grants, ordained Sanctuary.

—He, I say, made proclamation that whoever would resort thither, and worship the True God and embrace the true faith (which he had then received) should enjoy free pardon and immunity from all offences by them committed—The Cursed Danes that over-ran this realm, as we read in histories, they destroyed faith and Sanctuary: and so stood it dissolved till the time of the holy King St. Edward.

He restored faith and Sanctuary: he revived again the freedom and privilege there, and not only revived the same, but confirmed them also with his most ample charter.—”

To be Continued

Steven Books
League Enterprises
Suite 3, 3rd. Floor
148 Cambridge Heath Road
London
E1 5QJ

For books by identity authors –
Kenneth McKilliam, Ria Splinter and Richard Porter plus many other subjects and difficult to obtain books.

<http://www.stevenbooks.co.uk/category/341/Religion>

IF THE TRUTH BE KNOWN

CD 127 minutes (listen to Audio Clip on site)
$16.00

Here you will find the ignored story of the massive deportations of the German peoples from Eastern Germany, Poland, the Baltic States, and the Sudetenland and its attendant horrors.

The entire library of many more audio programs is available as a bundle. All told, this is nearly 14 hours of great historical commentary! Plus, you realize a savings of $20 dollars. For full details and to purchase go to the website:—

<http://www.untoldtales.net>

Eurofolk Radio

Is now on air!

24 hr streaming of items of interest to identity believers including live broadcasts on matters of national interest and much more!!

TUNE IN NOW!

<http://eurofolkradio.com/category/general/>

Pastor Eli James
Sundays 16.00 hrs
(British Summer time)

Live on Eurofolk Radio and Eurofolk YouTube - Tune in and join in the chat

<http://eurofolkradio.com/category/general/>

This long sort after book is now available!

Click on image for details

A Magazine For Patriots

For further details click HERE

Announcements

[In The Name Of Yahwey auf
Deutsch - Für
weitere
Informationen, auf
das Bild auf der rechten klicken Sie
bitte](#)

The Chronicles Of The Migrations Of The Twelve Tribes Of Israel
From The Caucasus
Mountains Into Europe
By
Pastor Eli James

CLICK HERE

www.theflameuk.com

Contact

Tel: 07984 775937

E-mail HERE

Christian Order of The British Isles

Website

E-Mail

A fraternal Identity Christian organisation for men and women of European descent.

GERMANY'S OWN IDENTITY MAGAZINE

CONTACT

pia-6@t-online.de

Die Banker Satans

Aktualisiert Erweitert Unzensur
von
Carrington Hitchcock, Andrew