QUESTION: it seems that Abraham is a very important person in the Bible, why is he mentioned so many times in the New Testament as well, since we hear that the Old Testament is supposed to belong to the Jews?

ANSWER: Whoa there, who says that the Old Testament belongs to the Jews? Remember there were 165 Scrolls to be considered when the Bible was put together at Nicaea. Of those 165 Scrolls, 153 were inspired. And this number 153 shows up in Pyramidology as the displacement factor, and in the Scripture Jesus had the disciples count the fish in the net, and there were 153. Fish is the symbol for Israel, so this number is connected to you. In the heavens there were 612 illuminaries (stars) of seventh magnitude, this divided into the four quarters is also 153.

Thus these 153 Scrolls had the message for this great Mosaic which we call the Bible. And also the Bible is not a Book, it is a library of facts, many Books bound together for you to study. Of this 153 we have in our Bible 66 Books with two of them being spurious. Thus we have been trying to give you a broader picture of what the Bible contains so that it will come alive for you as it has for us. As to Abraham, when you come down the list of Patriarchs from Adam then to Abraham, this race line comes under the covenant and feeds through one, the son of Sarah and Abraham (Genesis 21:12), Isaac. This is the program of YAHWEH and you can't change it no matter how you misunderstand. As to Abraham being in the New Testament, of course, the people of the New Testament are descendants of the people of the Old Testament. The story is of this same race (Genesis 5:1) all through the Bible.

When you understand why the constant attack upon the Scriptures you are not surprised to find that at the Nicean conference as they decided on the Scriptures to be canonized they were definitely seeking to separate from the selection of Scriptures those doctrines which they could not control. They definitely wanted to eliminate areas of Biblical knowledge which would clearly mark the identity of the enemy, but they did not understand how to obscure all truth. Anything which did not give eternal punishment into the hands of an Eternal Priesthood they sought very carefully to remove.

And they did remove many volumes as we have told you such as 'The Gospel of Nicodemus', 'The Gospel of Thomas', 'all the Books of Enoch', 'The Apocalypse of Paul' and many others. They sought to hide some of these Scrolls which related to the background of the race, and the covenant. But in spite of this your King James Version Bible still contains a great panorama of truth. Moses thus wrote the first five Books of the Bible. Genesis I is very short, for he was only giving you a short history of what happened as the earth at one time, ages ago, was destroyed by a great flood, and then restored Chapter 2 pertains to the Adamic race, their problems getting started in physical bodies and then from Genesis 5:1, goes on with the story of this Adamic race listing the Patriarchal leaders down now to Adam. So we will attempt to fill in the story of Abraham which is laid out for you in the book of Genesis.

You pick up your story from the old Books of Jasher and others, when Nimrod a descendent of Ham was the king of a great Empire between the Euphrates and Tigris Rivers after the sons of Noah had come down into that area. You find that the ruler Nimrod was the descendent of Ham but Terah His Prime Minister was the father of Abraham, but a descendent of Shem, this was the government then of Babylonia.

Mesopotamia is the Greek name given unto the land between the Tigris and the Euphrates River. The southern half of this land was Babylonia, and the northern half was called Assyria according to archaeology findings, and they even find the name of Hammarabi for Nimrod. But Babylonia was a great Empire at the time Abraham was born, and UR of this area was the educational and religious capital while Babylon was the political centre or Capital.

The Emperor or King held court in both cities while in UR was the greatest Library in the world at that time. Archaeology excavations in 1932-34., revealed that UR had a complete system of government, documents in writing were commonly used. That homes were two and three stories high with basements and up to 22 or more rooms. They had bathrooms with indoor plumbing, and the great kitchens and ovens for baking of bread. Each home had a chapel and library, as well as a family burial place in the basement under the chapel area of the home.

Archaeologists found the old city of UR ten miles from where the river runs today. They have found the results of destruction from the flood waters which came down the river at the time of Noah's flood. And they found the home of Terah, the father of Abraham, and its 22 rooms. And they found on the wall of the outer courtyard the name Abram, printed, and decided the writing was of a boy about 12 years of age. But there were no graves (tombs) in the basement of this house. They found that Terah the Prime Minister had something to do with Banking, or managing the economy of the Empire. They found bank drafts signed by Abram.

Thus Chaldea is the Biblical name for a political division in the south of Babylonia, and this area was a great centre of world commerce, and it was also a religious centre and had large and beautiful temples. This is the area then where the white race ruled for some time. But by the time of Abraham, Sumerian was a dead language like Latin is for us today, altho they still taught it in their schools. Archaeologists tells us that the library in each home contained the outline of that family tree, marking the fact that this was very important in their thinking. This then was the city of UR on the night that Abraham was born. Terah being Prime Minister was a very influential and popular man, and men of Nimrod's court came to the home of Terah the Prime Minister the night this son was born to help Terah celebrate the birth of this baby. No where are we told about the mother of this child, but we have wondered if again this was a daughter of Enoch, or rather a descendent of a daughter of Enoch, we just do not find any information. But after the birth of the baby, and as those men of the Court were leaving they were looking at the heavens, and were astonished at what they saw, for a Great Star ran through the heavens and swallowed up 4 Stars from the four corners of the heavens. There were Wise men of the race in this group, and also some soothsayers of the court and all were puzzled as to what this meant. They decided that surely this child born this night to Terah was destined to grow up, be fruitful and multiply, and that his seed would possess all the earth forever, and that they would slay great kings and inherit their land.

The next morning these men assembled and talked over what they had witnessed and decided someone should tell the king lest he find out they had kept this from him and be angry. So the soothsayers told Nimrod that this child should be killed lest he grow up and come against the king and his court.

Now; Nimrod summoned Terah and offered to buy this child with silver and gold. Terah argued with him for a while then asked for three days to consider this matter. Terah informed his household of the kings demand and the people were afraid. Remember Terah had more than one wife, and usually each wife of such a prominent official such as Terah had her own servants and her own household. Immediately plans were made to take Abram, his mother and a nurse to a safe place. Thus at the end of three days, the child of a handmaiden from Terah's household was taken to the king, whereas Abram, his mother and nurse were smuggled out of the kingdom and taken to the home of Noah in the caves near Petria.

There Abram would remain until he was ten years old, and the night of his birth was forgotten in UR of Chaldea. But of course YAHWEH had a hand in all this for he was seeing to the protection of this child who would be the forerunner of the kingdom, much more powerful than that of Nimrod which would in time find its place in the limelight. It was to be known as the 'Stone Kingdom', the 'Eye of YAHWEH'. Nimrod could not head such a kingdom altho he had been a mighty hunter before YAHWEH, and had avenged the killing of the Adamic people before his time. But Nimrod had since then become disobedient, and had broken Divine Law by taking as his Queen a woman from 'the tree' or race line of good and evil. There in the Cave of the Treasury, in Noah's home Abram was taught all the knowledge that Noah possessed. Here were the old Scrolls from the time of Adam and Seth with the stories of what had happened in the Tarim Basin. Abraham learned that the body of Adam had been preserved for a purpose and taken by Shem to the great Pyramid.

He learned that this body was preserved to show the Adamic race that the ultimate triumph of YAHWEH was to be made manifest with this body, showing that no area of Satanic power would triumph over this race since even the physical shell would be changed in its elements. It would be raised, the soul consciousness of the Celestial being, would be rejoined with it and the shell would be enveloped in Light, thus put on immortality and never die again. The synthesis then of the electronic field, the Celestial field, the Conscious field would be complete. Then Adamic individuals would be able to exist anywhere in creation as in the plane of soul consciousness.

Yes, Abraham lived in the Cave of the Treasury, also called the 'Cave of the Wisdom' and was protected by the household of Noah and Shem who were also guided by YAHWEH himself. But at UR of Chaldea in this great Empire where so long the Adamic race fought and resisted the enemy, things there were slowly deteriorating. The king now older had taken a wife for his new Queen, and she was of the Yehudins, and the son of this union was Satanic, and for this violation of the hand of YAHWEH had turned against him.

Thus after the ten years Abram came back to his fathers house in UR. Abram went to school there according to the archaeologists and there grew to be young man. He formed a household for himself, and lived separate from his father household. Abram was gathering white men and their families of that area who were loyal to him, and of course subordinate to him since he was the son of the Prime Minister. But also they were still worshiping YAHWEH and had not turned to the pagan gods. Abram hunted, and roamed the area following the way of life he had been taught, and he was not paying to much attention to the way this white civilization was deteriorating under the practice of mongrelisation. The king was now under the sway of pagan Priests who had moved in to serve the Queen. And finally Nimrod to keep peace in his family had issued a decree that all men must worship these carved images that men were forming, and now had in the chapels of their homes where they used to worship YAHWEH, these idols were in chapels where each father was the priest of his own family.

When Abram was about twenty years of age he went to visit in his fathers home, and there he found all those idols carved of wood and stone, in the chapel. Abram thought about this abomination, what would YAHWEH want him to do about this? Finally Abraham went out and prepared some small bowls of rice and poured some savoury meat and gravy over the rice and took them and set the bowls out among the idols. Then he took a double blade axe and chopped up all the wooden idols, and used a mallet on the stone ones as well, and what a mess here in the chapel of his fathers home.

Well the servants came running saying: 'What have you done?' Abram I am sure with tongue in cheek replied: 'I have just wrestled this ax out of the hands of this big idol, for he was chopping up all these other idols.' Of course the servants ran to Terah, and he hurried home and surveying the destruction demanded of Abram: 'What have you done, don't you know what you have done to me, your father, for I will lose my job as Prime Minister and possibly my life?'

Then Terah hurried to tell the king because he was sure that others were racing to tell Nimrod as to what had happened. And Nimrod then gave orders for Abram to be brought to the palace, and soon Abram sat before the king and his court there in UR of Chaldea. The king inquired as to what Abram had done, this was a terrible thing, and Abram replied: 'Oh, great king, haven't they told you what happened? I just wanted to do service to my fathers house as I took the gods those bowls of rice and savoury meant, but before the big god could eat the little gods grabbed the food, and this made the big god angry and he grabbed the ax and chopped them all up'.

Now; can't you just see that young man who worshiped YAHWEH telling this story, and now he had the king just where he wanted him. Nimrod said: 'What lies you tell, are not these gods made of wood and stone? They can't do anything, how could one chop the others for they have no power?' Abram looked at this white man sitting there, the king of this great Empire who had turned so far from the true God and Abram said: 'Art thou so silly and ignorant great king that you would worship these idols which you have just admitted are only wood and stone?'

However since they are just wood and stone they are no gods so no one is offended, therefore this is a challenge unto thee. Art thou a wise king, or do you fear wood and stone?' Of course Nimrod didn't want to answer Abram for after all he had issued the order to worship these idols to please his Queen and some of his foreign advisors, so he just had Abram removed from his court. Then immediately the soothsayers gathered around the king and said: 'This must be the child we told you about when he was born, the one we told you should be killed'. So once again Abram had to disappear from that city of UR.

Old records tells us that Abram got into trouble another time for following YAHWEH instead of the gods of UR and Babylon, and that he had a much older brother by the name of Haran who also believed as Abram did only not as strongly. These records say that Abram and his brother were thrown into the fiery furnace, and that Abram walked in the flames for three days and nights, and the only thing that burned was the cords which bound him. But his brother who was 82 years of age perished in the flames.

Now; who did Abram marry? Again we go to the Book of Jasher and we learn that a much older brother of Abram, a child of his father by a different wife had a daughter when Abram was ten years old, and this child was named Sarai meaning Princess, and she was the girl who became Abrams wife (Genesis 20:12), thus 'a daughter of my father but not the daughter of my mother'. In the Zohar we learn that the blessings of YAHWEH were upon Abram and His wife Sarai because they were faithful to the MOST HIGH, and because Abram had chopped up the idols, and preserved his race line. Thus Abram and Sarai were granted perpetual youth, and we see proof of this, for as Abram and Sarai went later to Egypt to dwell because of the famine, then men saw Sarai, and were impressed because she was so beautiful, and they reported this to Pharaoh and he wanted to marry her. This may seem strange as in translation Abram is said to be afraid and told everyone that Sarai was his sister. But the fact is that this was the purpose of showing you that YAHWEH would protect this woman who was in his plan and purpose for the kingdom.

Abram was seventy years of age when he went back to UR for the last time, and took his aged father with him, took all their possessions and their households as he left that land. Mongrelisation was going on in this old land and YAHWEH told Abram to leave here and go to the land he would show him. He said: 'I will make thee a great nation, and I will bless thee and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing to all the families of the earth.'

Verse 3 of chapter 12 of Genesis is used so loosely today, wherein if you do not help the Jews you will be cursed and they read it thus: 'And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee.' These words were not this way in the original Scriptures. So how did they get in the King James Version except through translation over the years, put there to possibly fool Israelites? But in the Ferrah Fenton Bible this same verse reads: 'The Everliving then said to Abram; depart from this your native land, and from the home of your forefathers to the land to which I will direct you, and I will make you a great nation, and I will prosper and ennoble your name, and you shall be a benefactor, and I will bless those who benefit you, and punish those who injure you, and all the nations of mankind shall become benefited from you.'

Remember the kingdom was to come from Abram, through Isaac, and Jacob and that is a blessing to all mankind. Abram then took his wife, his household and his father along with their great library, everything they owned like their herds and so forth, and they went to Haran and stayed there for five years, and then as they left Haran they took Lot the son of his brother with them, as well as all the property Abram had acquired in Haran. Genesis 15:18., of the Ferrah Fenton Version of the Bible says: 'The Ever Living appeared to Abram with a promise, I will give this country to your race, from the river of Egypt to the great River Euphrates'.

And this promise of blessing which the kingdom administration from Abraham through Isaac and then Jacob, and the twelve tribes would bring to all families of the earth, Genesis 12:2. This an Everlasting covenant, and Everlasting Gospel. This is a Gospel in which YAHWEH in HIS Everlasting measures would not only redeem those who were his own household, but also was going to save all flesh, and eventually bring every knee to bow. Eventually all people would acknowledge that HE was the Majesty of YAHWEH embodied in flesh as YAHSUA, Messiah, and we His children would voice that message He had bestowed upon us. Thus this is an Everlasting Gospel, of great magnitude which you are to proclaim.

Now; we have traced the genealogy of Abram and as we move through the Book of Genesis we see that YAHWEH speaks to Abram personally as He tells him about this land from the Nile River to the Euphrates, that it is given to the seed (children) of Abraham. Genesis 15:18. And then YAHWEH makes a covenant with Abram (Genesis 17) and HE says: 'I shall establish my covenant between thee and me, and thy seed after thee, and this is an Everlasting covenant'. This is not on condition that you do this, or I will do that. This is an Everlasting Covenant between 'thee and ME', and I shall be a God unto thee, and unto thy seed after thee.

As the story progresses, then Abram's name is changed to Abraham, and Sarai's name is changed to Sarah. And of course being human and impatient as our race seems to be then Sarai got ahead of the program, and in wanting a child so bad she gave her handmaiden to Abraham and thus Ishmael was born. This didn't work out as she had thought but then it wasn't supposed to. However in the process the Arabs came into the picture and being the seed of Abraham then Ishmael is also blessed, and twelve Princes would come from him.

But Verse 21: My covenant, this an Everlasting covenant with the Everlasting Gospel for a purpose and then moves only through Isaac who was to be born. And Abraham is approaching 100 years of age and Sarah 90 when they learn she will finally have this miracle child. And because they both laughed then Isaac is the child's name, and it means child of laughter. Then in the midst of our story about Abraham came the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah (Genesis 19); those ancient cities where in their cup of iniquity was full, and they were to be destroyed because men of these cities would even molest Angels who came as men to warn Lot to get out of the city before the destruction.

Homosexuality was rampant in these old cities, all kinds of evil, fallen angel offspring lived here, and yet Lot's son-in-laws wouldn't pay any attention to Lot's warning to get out. Undoubtedly they enjoyed living in that city. Even Lot's wife could not quite walk away and not look back, but dear friends what do we find in America today, such as the city of San Francisco for instance. The children of Lots two daughters, Ammon and Moab would scatter, and the Ammonites would go even as far as to China and Japan.

They were white people and they would be a blessing to the lands where they travelled, but then they were not the covenant people, and in time would be absorbed by the world order. Then for the second time, Genesis 20:12; we find that Abraham said of Sarah, 'she is my sister', but Abimelech took Sarah and again YAHWEH showed that he could protect this woman who was to play such a part in his program, and marked this fact by these two instances as witness of that fact.

Incidentally Hagar the mother of Ishmael was a white girl, there may have been a little taint to her lineage, and then again maybe not. The facts were that the covenant moved through Isaac, and this seed line is from 'the tree of life', and this race 'tree' has spirit, soul, and body, and out of this Life of the Tree (race) comes the spiritual stream of Life seed. The Light of this 'tree' or race comes from the spirit of YAHWEH which is the real you. In the New Testament in Galatians 4:22-31., you are told that Abraham had two sons, that one was by a bondwoman who was born after the flesh, and the other was of the free woman (with the spirit of YAHWEH) and by promise.

Then the Apostle Paul went on to say: We Israelites are children of the free woman, and we then go back into the spirit as the shell we dwell in dies. In moving on through the Book of Genesis YAHWEH did tempt Abraham, and we find that Abraham in perfect FAITH which was counted for righteousness proceeded to prepare to even sacrifice Isaac, this promised child. He could not quite understand perhaps why, but he moved in total FAITH because he believed YAHWEH. Abraham had dreamed and thought of all the promises and he could see in the future the fulfilment of YAHWEH'S program for the earth, and he simply obeyed his Fathers instructions thinking that everything would come out right.

At 127 years of age then Sarah died, and according to the old records a great funeral was held for this Lady of our race, and people came from long distances to comfort Abraham on this day. She was then buried in the Cave of Machpelah which Abraham purchased in Hebron in the land of Canaan. The Arabs guard this burial ground even today. It is said that this Cave is beneath a great Mosque and the enclosure surrounding it is 200 feet long, and one hundred feet wide, and fifty feet high. This is the burial place of many of the notables of our race, and someday it will also be a memorial place.

After Isaac became of age then Abraham sent his servant back to the city of his brother for a wife for Isaac. There would be a girl of the same race with close family ties here by the name of Rebecca, and she became Isaac's wife. You may read the story in Genesis chapter 24.

Then Abraham took another wife by the name of Keturah, and she bare him 6 sons. These children grew up and they were of the white race of course, but not of the line of promise and they were sent to the east to dwell. They again became the Brahman of India as had others before them, and for many years they ruled and held their race lines. We are told that some of them even went so far as the China coast, and they would send back to India for brides for their sons to help hold their race line there in the midst of the pagans. Remember that the Taj Mahal at Agra, India, was built by a white man for his wife.

Then Abraham dies and is buried with Sarah in the Cave he purchased, and the story of this seed line now moves on through Isaac, and then Jacob who is renamed Israel, and then the twelve tribes. We have been learning more all the time about our ancient ancestors through Archaeology, however today if they find anything it is quickly declared to be Jewish, since now the Jews claim to be the people of the Old Testament. So Archaeology is now in captivity, and we will have to wait for this to be cleared up.

We know however that as Moses wrote the first five Books of the Bible that he not only wrote under inspiration, but he also had ancient records left in Egypt by Abraham, and found still there by men interested in this science called Archaeology, which has developed into an exact science. For instance they found in Egypt 8 tablets that came from Abraham's family library.

They also found the 'Book of Abraham', his story written by Abraham himself. And Moses who was schooled in ON, Egypt, by the white Priests, installed there their lineage going back to the time of Enoch and Job were also an influence for Moses as he wrote the Book of Genesis. But these 8 tablets found by the Archaeologists had the first tablet without any signature. But it began: 'In the beginning' and went on to say that these are the origins of the heavens and the earth. The second tablet is written by Adam himself and describes life after they came out on the surface of the earth. The third tablet is written by Noah, about the situation in the Tarim Basin. The fourth tablet is about the flood of Noah's time. The fifth tablet is about the migrations from the Tarim Basin and is written by Shem. And the Sixth tablet shows the ancestry of Terah, the father of Abraham, connecting him to Shem and it introduces Abraham to the lineage of the Patriarchs.

Number seven is a series pertaining to Abraham, about his life and his two sons Ishmael and Isaac. And tablet number eight consists of a series of records by Esau and Jacob. In this archaeology record we find that Heber (Eber) was of the Shem line as well and Heber had two sons named Peleg and Joktan, and from Peleg came Terah, and Abraham, and these were called the western Hebrews. From Joktan also of this Adamic race came the eastern Hebrews. Later from this line came the Queen of Sheba. And you find in Archaeology even the name changes of Abraham and Sarah, thus Archaeology confirms the Scriptural record. Even Abraham's visit to Egypt is confirmed thus (Genesis 12:10), so they list that the Sennert II of the 12th., Dynasty was on the throne in Egypt at that time, and on his tomb at Benihassin it tells of the visit of Abraham to his courts. Thus Archaeology has its place as it helps unfold history of the race, and it proves that the Old Testament people are also the ancestry of the people of the New Testament, now called Israelites.

QUESTION: The tower of Babel, what is all that about, some say that languages started here as well as the division of the races? Some say that this was where the Garden of Eden was?

ANSWER: Well really the idea that the time of the tower of Babel was the starting of languages is sort of silly. It was never intended for you to secure such an idea from the Scripture of Genesis 11.

Translations have suffered much violence, and changes were made even in the Septuagint. Even the story in the Book of Jasher has been tampered with. The old Aramaic texts which the Essene company had did not contain the story anything like its present form, and of course you now know where Eden was, and where the flood took place, and so forth. Remember also that Adam and Eve came into earth with a written language, but the races before them also had a language, and so did the Luciferians. The Adamites built what was called Zuggernots, these were towers with circular staircases on the outside, from one floor to the other. They were wide at the bottom and of course as each room was set back the width of the stairway then the top floor had a walk way all around the building, but these were places from which to study the stars. And this tower being built here in this great concentration of white people in the land of Mesopotamia was planned as a great observatory to begin with. It would have the map of the heavens on the dome of the top of the building.

The ancient 'ode' to the tower of Babel said of this tower being erected in UR of Chaldea that it would reach to the sky and be higher than the pinnacle erected in Egypt. Thus they knew of the Pyramid in Egypt here after the flood when the Hamites and Shemites were building their tower. But YAHWEH was not going to let this Adamic race settle down here after their migration out of the high country, for this old land between the river Euphrates and Tigris was to be taken over by the mongrelisation practice, and he did not plan for His race to be wiped out. They were to move on in their destiny, for here under Nimrod the society was deteriorating and on this tower were workmen from all over.

They had come from India, from Africa and around the area, from the Steppe people. And to be on the safe side then so that no one would plot against this kingdom it was ordered that only the language of Chaldea was to be used. As far as the catastrophe which hit the tower, it was an earthquake, and Assyrian records tell of what transpired, and why all working men on the tower spoke on language, that was used in UR of the Chaldea. Thus as the earthquake came it twisted the tower and being frightened men then cried out in their mother tongue, and they then fled to escape being beheaded for speaking another language. They hurried back to their own countries. Thus races didn't start here, languages didn't start here, but men speaking languages went back to their own lands.

Don't you see, YAHWEH was just putting a stop to an anticipated one world program in that area at that time. After all he called Abram out of that land because of the mongrelisation going on. He was just moving forward in HIS program, in HIS purpose. We keep wondering what he has in mind to stop this one world program here in our time???

QUESTION: Why the big difference in Esau and Jacob? Scripture says that Esau was hairy, and I have always wondered about that?

ANSWER: Whether some have more hair than some or less that is a factor generally considered as hereditary and of the genes. Some say that Esau and Jacob were twins, but definitely they were not identical twins, if twins at all, but the difference in the two boys is well marked.

A question existed in the background of ancient theology as to the difference in those two sons, especially as to how their natures were so different, and they questioned as to whether they were children from the same father. This is the pattern in the Zohar and other writings where it was thought that they were not full brothers. Scripture translation would have you believe both were in the womb of Rebecca at the same time, but old records do not bear this out conclusively. But even if Esau and Jacob were full brothers with Esau born first, to inherit the birthright, the fact is that at age 40 Esau took a wife who was the daughter of a Hittite, and then another wife, a daughter also of another Hittite. Genesis 26:34.

This was a great grief to Isaac and Rebecca for this stepping out of the race line to take wives was as they knew, a great violation of Divine Law. Esau also in rebellion took another wife who was the daughter of Ishmael (Genesis 28:9) but still this was a violation of Divine Law although some better than the Hittite wives. Esau of course could not now carry on the Adamic race seed line for he had married these two women who were tied back into the Cain lineage, and the Mongolian line from the Steppes of Asia.

Thus the selling of his birthright for a mess of pottage is then symbolic for he chose to break Divine Law and married outside his race, and chose to live with those people. In other words he by this action threw away the inheritance of his children, for he could not produce children for the kingdom, only children of the flesh. Symbolically this transferring of the birthright speaks of the sealing of the transaction with food, but the ancient symbol was the sealing of any transaction by salt, and that made it binding. Literally Esau wanted to roam, he didn't want the narrow restrictions of the birthright so he passed it on to Jacob who desired to walk in the ways of YAHWEH, and he sealed the transaction with salt as was the custom, making it binding.

Some have tried to explain the difference in these two boys by saying Esau was the child of Rebecca but not Isaac, but remember it was Isaac who loved Esau and to whom Esau was always bringing presents. It was also Isaac who was always trying to find excuses for Esau as a father would. Rebecca loved Jacob more, and it was Jacob who responded to the teachings of his mother, who was very jealous for the preservation of the race, very dedicated to the purpose of carrying on the design of the kingdom under Divine instructions. Rebecca and Jacob did not want any of the blessing or anything related to it dispersed to Esau who was now dwelling with the enemy, and no more had anything in common with the Adamic race.

Now; then who did Jacob marry? He loved Rachel and wanted her for his wife, and her father was Laban who was a brother of Rebecca, and she was Jacobs first wife. but what about the two handmaidens for we hear that they weren't even Israelites, so this does away with the importance as to who you are? But a handmaiden in Hebrew means a member of a household, a daughter, or a sons daughter, and always the younger girls worked for the older women. Zilpah then was Leah's handmaiden, And Bilhah was Rachel's handmaiden. So these were girls of the family who produced these children for the 12 tribes of Israel.

They were girls of pure lineage. Going further in tracing them then Rebecca, the wife of Isaac had a nurse by the name of Deborah, and she had a brother born on the same day as Rebecca. This brother's name was Rothens, and he was of the household of Abram in Chaldea. He was free born and noble, of the Adamic race, but was taken captive some way, and then ransomed by Laban. And then Laban gave his handmaiden to Rothens for a wife, and those two were the parents of Zilpah, and Bilhah. So you see both girls were of the race, but being younger they had worked as maids for the older girls of Laban's household. This way of life in those times was to protect the race stream, girls did not go out to work in the World Order.

Now; the names of the twelve sons of Jacob whose name was changed to Israel were: From Rachel-Joseph and Benjamin. From Leah, Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar and Zebulon. From Bilhah, Dan and Naphtali. And from Zilpah- Gad and Asher. Benjamin was the youngest of the 12 brothers and Rachel died when Benjamin was born. YAHWEH appeared to Jacob-Israel (Genesis 36) and promised that a 'called out' people are these descendants of Jacob. That they will become a nation, and a company of nations. And since Jacobs name was changed to Israel then his descendants are now called Israelites. Here the name of 'ISRAEL' is brought into view of the world, but the Adamic race has been YAHWEH'S Israel, Issue ruling with HIM, since Adam. Seth knew the race was Israel, but now it is recorded and in official view of the world.

Before he dies then Jacob-Israel also placed both names of the sons of Joseph in the leadership promised to Joseph. This makes 13 tribes as both take the place of their father. Genesis 48. But 12 is the Divine number and YAHWEH then chose the Levites to be Priests and helpers, and the marching order of Israel then stays at 12. But the number 13 belongs to Manasseh and to these United States in symbolism, and that position is our nation in destiny.

You find in the Book of Genesis for instance in chapter 36., that when Esau and his families moved to Mount Seir, as to their distinction. Today Jewish records claim that Edom was connected to Esau and his two Hittite wives would be listed in Jewry today, for both were connected back to Cain. Actually the Bible is one of the most important Books on Ethnic study. If you understand the Bible then you will understand the difference in people, and YAHWEH'S plan and purpose for the redemption of the earth and its people.

Now; a testament means the assured WORD of YAHWEH, and the Old Testament is basically what YAHWEH PROMISED in the beginning, the things he declared to the Patriarchs and such. Basically supreme Blaspheme in the Old Testament was race mixing, or mingling of the Holy Seed. In the New Testament supreme Blaspheme is imputing the work of YAHWEH as YAHSHUA to the devil. Thus the only comparable Blaspheme is the mingling of the Holy Seed. This means that the children of a mixed union cannot inherit the kingdom in any area of authority, power or administration, and that household has to be cast out of the household of the kingdom.

You are then denying the program and the purpose of YAHWEH for the earth. We then have a whole Book concerning your genealogy and it is quite obvious that one thing you will find is the Scripture teaching a preservation of an uncontaminated seed line, that is one of the greatest of responsibilities of a society, and one of the greatest heritages you can pass on to a child. We don't find the family trees as well kept today as our ancestors did, but we have a sort of built in antenna that prevents us from mongrelizing and which gives us a racial self-respect. This is one thing our Father uses to keep his people separated, instead of integrated. The WORD OF YAHWEH stands without any ability to be reputed from one end of the Bible to the other. It calls for racial purity, racial self respect, and the law of YAHWEH in place. The greatest curse then is on mongrelisation than any single transgression in Scripture.

In fact in the Zohar it says that he who would contaminate his race with any of the unfit of earth was Blaspheming YAHWEH whose seed (child) he was, and whose body was the temple. In other words they thought that the supreme Blaspheme again YAHWEH was the mongrelizing of this race which carried His Spirit, termed the Holy Seed. It was found in the knowledge of the ancients that he who would mutate his race line knowing that this was the vessel through which the Holy Seed was propagated was Blaspheming against THE MOST HIGH for the pleasure of the flesh.

Therefore if he knowingly violated Divine Law, and mongrelized his race, knowing this law was given to protect the race, that it was his responsibility to preserve the seed of his race, then this person was Blaspheming in the face of YAHWEH and the entire program of the kingdom, the household of YAHWEH, and HIS purpose and plan. You now understand why Isaac and Rebecca were so upset when Esau married outside of his race, and why YAHWEH even in foreknowledge chose Jacob to carry on the covenant. Most of you are well acquainted with the story of Joseph in Egypt and we will not cover that, but the time came when Jacob was to die and he gathered his sons, and in symbolism told them what would befall them. Genesis 49.

We have outlined before as to where the symbols of these tribes mark their location today, and you still find them in their marching orders outlined so long ago. There is still mystery in this Book of Genesis, and it is still in 'This Tree of Life' which is this race of consciousness, the offspring of the MOST HIGH. And until you understand this you cannot understand what your Bible is all about, or what this Book of Genesis is all about, for it is tracing a race of people, tracing the leadership of this people as they stumble along the way to their destiny. As you come to the end of this Book of Genesis you should realize that YAHWEH in His plan of redemption, of restoration, sent His spiritual children into the flesh bodies of the Adamic race for a purpose, and He moves us forward in that destiny.

Even tho we stumble and fall HE picks us up and moves us forward until prophecy has been fulfilled, keeps being fulfilled as the Great Mosaic is filled in like a giant Jig-saw puzzle.

One little lady said: I wish you would get into the New Testament for there is where I want to ask some questions. But really if you do not understand the Old Testament you cannot understand the New Testament which is found in the Old Testament. But we will try to go a little faster from now on and skip much of the Old Testament, and try to give you some interesting things you might wish to know.

QUESTION: Please explain Exodus 4:24-25 and 17:16, and is there any proof other than the Bible that God delivered the Israelites and they wandered so many years in the desert??

ANSWER: Now; anytime some higher critic ridicules the Scripture you can turn to Archaeology and confirm the Biblical story. Sir Flinders Petrie in the 1800's did much work in the Sinai Peninsula to confirm the Exodus story. You can turn to Archaeology and confirm there were Hyksos, or White Shepherd Kings who came into Egypt and ruled Egypt for some time.

You can find there the name of the Pharaoh who ruled Egypt at the time Moses was born, and his daughter was his first born, and she was not a clinging vine type girl, but was very athletic. You find that when Moses was born to a Hebrew woman, that he was put in a basket of bull rushes and placed in the water. And the Princess who found him and raised him was the daughter of this Pharaoh who was of royal blood as was her mother, they were white, of the Adamic race. Moses then was schooled at the city of ON under that White Priesthood. And this Princess who raised Moses became Queen Hatshepsut. Her reign was a very prosperous one, and at that time Egypt was a beautiful land, a dream land in its beauty.

Then after Moses was 40 years of age he killed an Egyptian because of mistreatment of the Hebrew people, and Moses then fled to the east to the land of the Midianites. And these people were a white Shepherd group in the Peninsula of the Sinai. They were kindred people of the Adamic race and there Moses spent 40 years. Some of these people were Cushites, and they were of the Hamites. Much has been found about Moses in the Sinai according to Archaeology, for he was governor of that country and superintendent of the Mines.

He had been schooled the first 40 years of his life and spent the next 40 years arranging, classifying and surveying the information he had obtained until he made it a part of himself. In those second forty we find that Moses surveyed the Sinai Peninsula, and the Archaeologists discovered the map of the area that Moses made. Makes you wonder doesn't it as to why he was mapping the Sinai before he went back to Egypt to lead the Israelites out of there? But this map even today is in perfect condition, and it shows every road, route, and trail, and was drawn of papyrus. Archaeologists have also found statues, some life sized of Queen Hatshepsut, and they tell us that she was a very beautiful woman, and that she belonged to the white race, and now you understand why Moses was schooled at the city of ON, and why he would be able to survey the and so forth, as he moved forth in destiny already laid out for him.

Yes, we know who Moses married as we have told you earlier, and the question as to Exodus 4:24-25; 'It came to pass by the way, in the Inn that the LORD met Moses and sought to kill him. And that Zipporah took a sharp stone and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet and said, surely a bloody husband art thou to me'. In spite of all the mistranslation this is a detail of the covenant, for Moses was chosen of YAHWEH to be a leader of His people as they were brought out of bondage. There were certain details of the covenant that had to be observed and YAHWEH was just seeing that Moses confirmed the covenant.

Here in Exodus the translation has suffered much violence, but the intent of the words was that this demonstrated much force, so it is translated as: 'YAHWEH intercepted and stood before Moses because of this violation of the covenant law'. These same words were used once before meaning to strike a blow, or to give a deadly cleft, so they translated it as 'The LORD stood before him and sought to kill him'. But you know that if YAHWEH had wanted to kill Moses HE wouldn't have had to bother to even wave His little finger. But what YAHWEH did was to force the fulfilment of the law of the covenant, of circumcision. This was something that was very necessary because here was Moses being prepared to assume the leadership responsibility. Just as it was necessary for Abraham and his household, so also was it necessary for Moses and his household to fulfil the instructions of the covenant.

But Moses would sometimes get bogged down in detail, and would by-pass something important for his leadership position. There was much about this in the Zohar as to the requirements of leadership. Archaeologists can tell us the place where Moses came to the Burning Bush of Exodus 3:13, and since the Israelites had forgotten the name of God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob thus Moses was to remind them that, .I AM YAHWEH. The rod of YAHWEH is given to Moses (4:17) and it would be as a great power in his hand as he goes back to lead the Israelites out of Egypt. Remember that the conditions of life in Egypt for the Hebrews had steadily deteriorated after the white Queen died. Her brother, only a 1/2 brother, was not of pure lineage, and the Israelites came under heavy pressure under his rule. The idea that Moses stuttered came in translation because Moses did not speak fluent Hebrew, but Aaron his brother was chosen to help him overcome this difficulty.

Now; from Archaeology we have found under the signature of Queen Hatshepsut that Moses did exist a flesh and blood man, and she confirms the second chapter of Exodus. Archaeology confirms the first forty years of the life of Moses very easily. The land of Goshen has been found, the city of Pithon has been found, and this was not a city as such but a great storage place. Today we would it a city of grain elevators, only this was underground storage. The storage walls were indeed made with chopped straw in the bricks, and then without straw, and this can still be seen in the walls of the pits of these grain elevators.

Archaeologists found two maps of Egypt, and on them are the boundaries of the land, the lines clear and distinct, and they list the area of Goshen. They tell us also that not all the Israelites went out in the Exodus, and some of them had even gone out before the Exodus. However the time came when the Israelites were to go out in the Exodus and the power play between the Pharaoh and Moses and Aaron began. Great Plagues struck the Egyptians until the Pharaoh decided the Israelites must leave in a hurry or there would not be an Egyptian left. Remember that the Egyptians were effected by the Plagues but the Israelites living in Goshen were not. So the details of the Exodus were worked out, and then using the 'Rod of YAHWEH' Moses led the Hebrew-Israelites out across the sea on dry ground about where the city of Suez is today, and the waters closed in behind them and destroyed the Egyptian Army which was in pursuit.

The complete Biblical account of the Hebrew-Israelite Exodus is scattered through six Books of the Bible, but here in the Book of Exodus then Moses led his people first to Mt. Sinai, and they camped there for 11 months. Mount Sinai we find is not one peak but three, and all are about the same height, and that about 1/2 way up the Mountain is a shelf along the whole face of the Mountain, from which you can look down and see the whole great plain. Moses stood, or could have stood on this shelf looking down when he brought the ten commandments, and found the people building the golden calf.

And incidentally it was not a calf, but the image of Apis, or the bull, which was a form of worship in Egypt. And they even had temples there for this animal, and his worship. There was trouble makers at work in the camp of the Israelites, and they continued to make trouble until the last one died in that 40 year journey. Now; some have suggested that our deliverance today will be as it was with our ancestors coming out of Egypt at the Exodus, so notice carefully the actions of these people as they were led by Moses, and under the protection of YAHWEH, who even fed them on heavenly food, manna and yet they even got tired of that. But remember also this 'mixed multitude' with them always, and it was not until they died out and were exposed as to who they were that Israel marched without trouble.

Of course YAHWEH knew by foreknowledge how the people would react, and He was not going to wash His hands of His people, or let them disappear from the face of the earth anymore than HE will allow us today to let the devil and his children win. We may not like the chastisement but it will continue until we as a nation turn back to His laws and do what we are supposed to do as His battle-axe and weapons of war, and get rid of the 'mixed multitude' in our midst.

During the eleven months there at Mount Sinai where even according to Biblical records the Earthly kingdom was set in place with the ritual of sacrifice, the ceremonies of the Tabernacle service, the work of the Ark of the Covenant, and all these things these people were prepared to march, and the Tabernacle was then taken up and the march began.

From Mount Sinai they went to the headwaters of the Gulf of Akaba, from there to Kadesh- Barnea, and from there to Ababa, and finally Jericho. The sum total of distance Moses was to lead them was eleven hundred miles of the most difficult travelling on the face of the globe. It was a desert of the worst character, where nature is more niggardly in regard to both food and water supply. We would think that the cattle taken along probably were only sufficient number to supply the demands of sacrifice.

Now; remember YAHWEH was with His people, but so were this mixed multitude of complainers, and although He fed them on Manna from heaven, still some remembered the meat they ate in Egypt and complaining began. The next stop they made was where the Quails were sent for meat for them to eat, and the fireplaces are still there according to Archaeologists, this is where they cooked their food, and soot is still upon the fireplaces because it never rains in that place, and there is no dew even in that locality, besides the graves are also still there of the people who died of the plague engendered from eating the Quail. But what was the 'Rock' which Moses struck to get water in the desert? We say it was the Jacob Stone which Israel always carried with them from the time when it was Jacob's pillow. And the Rod of YAHWEH was used by Moses to strike the Rock as he was told to do.

Now; the Amalekites came to fight against Israel. These people were of the Edomites, and were descendants from Esau, and we are told that YAHWEH will have war with Amalek from generation to generation. Exodus 17:16. But the old record of translation says: 'With your hand upon the throne (Stone) of Jacob fight Amalek for YAHWEH from age to age'. So remember that Esau married outside his race, and his sons are thus tied back to Cain in lineage, who was the son of Lucifer. We would call your attention to Psalm 83; 'The enemy has taken crafty council against the hidden people (Israel) and said: Come let us cut them off from being a nation, that the name of Israel be no more in remembrance'. Today they have not only accomplished this, but have taken the name for themselves. Now; Moses had left his wife and sons with her father as he prepared to lead Israel out of bondage, but after the Israelites are delivered and are camped in the wilderness then Jethro, the Priest of Midian and father of Zipporah, came to the Israel encampment bringing the wife of Moses and his two sons. Jethro although an Adamite of the white Shepherd line was not of the 12 tribes, of Israel as such, but he was still 'Issue ruling with YAHWEH', still Israel, and he was able to help Moses set up a chain of command to relieve Moses of some of the details of leadership.

For even though there was not a lame, blind, or sick person among the Israelites still they had brought this mixed multitude from along their way and always they try to move with Israel, and we even have them today, but they were always complaining and Moses was always busy trying to settle arguments. Exodus 18. Remember the Presence of YAHWEH was with these people day and night, just as He is today in your heart, but when you listen to the World Order around you then that muffles the sound from within, and Israelites became more in tune with the World Order than the voice inside.

Even after the commandments were given for the conduct of their society, the laws of the kingdom set in place, the worship service established still Israel had trouble obeying, and those high in the work even let their ego get in the way, and they tried to lead even tho YAHWEH had ordained Moses for that job. You must remember that you don't work for the righteousness of YAHWEH, you don't earn this, HE gives it to you. In other words you work to keep the law and the ritual of the law was given until Israel as a task master to bring her to YAHSHUA (The Christ), but in the areas of the individual, YAHWEH imputes righteousness to the individual because of your belief, FAITH.

In the New Testament the Apostle Paul talks about justification of FAITH, not by debt. In other words our Father Abraham was not justified by works but by FAITH because he believed YAHWEH, and that was counted to him for righteousness. YAHWEH told Abraham that He was going to make of him a great nation, and He told him this before HE gave the law to the descendants of Abraham. He told him this before Moses led the Israelites to Mount Sinai. According to the Archaeologists it was at Mount Sinai that the Israelites went for the sacrifice ritual even before they left Egypt. That in the days of Queen Hatshepsut even the temple at Mt. Sinai was rebuilt, perhaps getting ready for the coming of the Israelites? In symbolism then YAHWEH is the Great Eagle and Israel the Eaglets, and at Sinai His people promised 'All that YAHWEH hath spoken we will do'. They even reaffirmed it for the third time, but we find that because of the mixed multitude with them that these tares among the wheat were always causing Israel to forget her destiny. Today the tares are still among the wheat always causing Israel to forget her destiny. Today the tares are still among the wheat but they are turning red, so the harvest is about ready, but as long as they remain among the wheat, Israel is led astray.

The commandments (Exodus 20) were given for a way of life for the kingdom. Keep them, and it is much easier to follow this path of destiny, but the word adultery in verse 14 is race mixing, cohabiting with other races, while verse 17 contains the 'shalt not' for adultery as the term is used today. Also Israel was not to make any covenants with the people of the land they would pass through, or those of the land they would settle in because if others dwell in your land then you have a tendency to be tolerant of other people, and their gods and then they become a snare to you, and you sin against YAHWEH, Exodus 23:31-33.

Now; remember that Israel had now been through the great worship service where the kingdom was established, and others of Israel had gone up the Mountain with Moses to the Presence of YAHWEH, and this great cloud of Shekinah Light covered the Mountain and all Israel saw this great Light. They knew this was the Light of YAHWEH.

They knew that Moses had been allowed to see the back of YAHWEH, and they knew that the Face of Moses had shown as he came down off that Mountain until he had to cover himself because the rest of Israel could not now stand the radiation coming off the face of Moses, and yet as they moved in their migration the people grumbled, and the family of Moses even had a family quarrel about the leadership position. The next stop in the migration was at Hazeroth according to Archaeology, and this was a beautiful Oasis (Numbers 11:35), the last station before entering the wilderness of Paran which formed the great central plateau of the Sinai Peninsula. They remained here seven days because of this family quarrel between Moses, Aaron, and Miriam (Brothers and sister). Probably human ego got in the road of clear thinking because Miriam wanted a more influential part in the leadership. They also quarrelled about the fact that Moses had not married a girl of the close lineage of the 12 tribes. They did not stop to think that YAHWEH was in control, and that they were just to be walking under His guidance. But for her part in this quarrel Miriam was stricken with Leprosy and they camped for seven days until she was well again, but for this Miriam was to die here in the desert and the Archaeologists can show you her tomb.

Finally this great company reached Kaddish-Barnea about 50 miles south of Hebron. Again the water supply had failed and the agitators were stirring up trouble. This time Moses was commanded to SPEAK to the Rock, not to strike it as he had earlier with the Rod of YAHWEH. Moses no doubt aggravated with these complaining people was very human for a moment and he struck the Rock twice, instead of Speaking to it as he was commanded to do. Oh, the water came out but Moses would not be allowed to be the leader to guide Israel into the promised land.

According to Archaeology there are no rocks at Kadesh, thus the ROCK according to Biblical records was again the Jacob Throne (Stone) they had carried always with them. Here at Kadesh-Barnea the Israelites spent the next 38 years, being whipped into a great fighting machine. This area was the centre of their activities although they spread out over the adjacent territory. The ruins of their works in terraces, walls, and reservoirs are still seen today. Here the generation that left Egypt all died except Moses, Aaron, Joshua, and Caleb. Only the younger Israelites were now left to become this great fighting army which would be necessary to take the land of Canaan from those who now held it.

The Statesmanship of Moses has never been surpassed in history although several have tried in modern times to imitate him. He took this rising generation and trained them in the way YAHWEH wished them to go. Remember the Israelites had been numbered. A Family Tree was established to begin with (Numbers 2) and they still continue today as you locate them by their symbols. Thus from a spoiled group who came out of Egypt with Moses, he had developed them into a hardy desert race ready to endure hardship without a murmur, and to make their place in destiny. Thus at the end of this time Moses had the greatest military machine that the world had beheld up to that time. And because they were only 50 miles from the border of the country they wished to enter, still because of INTERNATIONAL LAW, they had to make a great detour.

They must go back to the Gulf of Akaba, then East and Northeast through some of the roughest country of that area. They had to traverse the second largest canyon in the world, the largest being our own Grand Canyon. This canyon was named for Aaron for he is stripped of his Priestly garments, and they were put on his son, and Aaron died and was buried atop a mountain there. His tomb is one of the outstanding landmarks of that country. The Monastery of St. Catherine is in the vicinity of his tomb.

The people of Israel mourned for Aaron, and then again some lamented at not being back in Egypt. But Joshua and Moses led the children of Israel across the great canyon and on to the North. Remember how Moses lifted up the 'Broken serpent on the staff?' Some translations would have you think that it was a 'brazen serpent' which is also true but still Moses is symbolizing that only with the serpent broken, and removed from their midst can Israel walk in the way YAHWEH has lined out for them to walk. Some would have you believe that if they touched the serpent that Moses lifted up then the people were healed.

NO, not true Dear people, Moses was exposing the tares who were in the midst, and only by getting rid of the tares (serpents) in their midst would they be able to move forward in their destiny. The Israelites could not have taken the land of Canaan with the 'tares' in their midst. The lesson for America today is that only as we fulfil our destiny and soar like Eagles, and resist the power of the serpent, the dragon over our Nation, only then can we reach our destiny. The broken serpent, the serpent with its head cut off had its origin as an emblem way back in the beginning of the ancient Mosaic foundation of the Wisdom Schools, and in the lore of our people.

It was there back in the days of Enoch and Job and it goes on back even further to the days of our father Adam who remember was to war against the serpent until seven times be fulfilled. Always the enlightened of our race has carried such an emblem. A warrior with a flaming sword in one hand, and the flaming cross in the other hand, and dropping from the edge of the sword was the head of a serpent neatly taken off. No wonder such an emblem strikes fear in the hearts of our enemy today for they realize what this means, although so many of our race are blind to this symbol of the striking Eagle, and the beheaded serpent. But in this battle against the serpent which was outlined in Genesis 3:15; then always YAHWEH raised up warriors, some are appreciated and some are not, as they march down through their patterns of history. Some became casualties in the battle, but they sent out their literature and they called attention to the enemy, and thus fulfilled their destiny.

But here in EXODUS the journey for Moses was drawing to a close. He was instructed to climb Mt. Pisgah and there standing on that peak the entire land of Palestine is seen in panorama. You are told in the Scripture that Moses died and God buried him, but we are sure that Moses never wrote that, and the Archaeologists have ever looked for the tomb of Moses and none have ever found it.

Moses is next seen on the Mount of Transfiguration where Jesus was in the physical, as He showed the disciples some of the Glory of the Spirit, but Elijah was there also in his transformed body, and Moses, he was there, so think about that. Also how could Moses write that Moses died????

The children of Israel now stand on the other side of the Jordan River where the Allenby Bridge now stands, and they could look across the river at the great fortress which blocked their way, this was the fortress city of Jericho. They had sent scouts into the land of Canaan to see what it was like, and what type of people lived there. The men were gone 40 days and when they returned to camp they reported that it was a great land with much food, but the cities were walled cities, and even the Amalekites lived there as well as Hittites, Jebusites, Amorites, and Canaanites, and that great giants were in that land.

Then there stood this great and formidable military fortification, the greatest in that part of Asia which was the key to the whole military operation which Joshua as leader of the Israelites must undertake to break. It also had to be taken first, then each part of the country could be conquered separately. But there stood Jericho so impregnable to the then known military tactics. But remember that YAHWEH was still guiding His people. This was the fighting force that Moses had whipped into place, and Joshua as well as those who now followed him moved in FAITH, and they followed instructions to the letter. The tares are now gone from their midst, they had died out, and the people were following the law, the rituals of worship, and even the food laws. Leviticus 11. And they did not eat the swine, and one reason this is not to be eaten is that the hog is not a strictly created animal for your food. It takes much more energy to digest pork than it does of any of the allowable animals. And thirdly there is something about Pork, especially fresh Pork that if any remains in your body, and you take a scanner test for cancer then it shows positive whether you have cancer or not.

Most doctors of today will deny this, but this is an established fact, and has been known for years. But here on the far bank of the Jordan River this cleansed and prepared fighting army of Israel stands ready to cross. Some like 1/2 of the tribe of Manasseh are to find their position on the East side of the river, but their fighting men will join the rest of Israel to take the land of Canaan. Why then did YAHWEH tell them they were to wipe out every man, woman, and child of that land which they were not to enter? You hear people say this God of the Old Testament is a Fearsome God, they like the God of the New Testament better for He preached Love.

The reason they say this is from misunderstanding of the Scripture because the God of the Old Testament is YAHWEH, and the Jesus of the New Testament is YAHWEH come in the flesh, and He preached the Gospel of the Kingdom, but they are one and the same. Remember there were giants in this land who came from the mixing of fallen Angels with the races of earth. There were Steppe Mongols here and descendants of Cain, and still there was another reason for wiping them out, for their cup of iniquity was full.

But long before this when Enoch and Job and their great company left this old land now called Palestine, and went into Egypt for their work of building, then these ancient hill country people came in and killed the remnant of the Adamic people, those of Gods household left in this old land. These Adamic people were not a war like people, they were a people of science, and wisdom and knowledge, they were a part of YAHWEH'S household in earth, to be a blessing to the world, but Satanic forces destroyed them as they had done so many times in the past.

This is the situation as these Israelites came back into this old land, and here under the leadership of Joshua they were to come into the same sort of situation, even like the situation in the Tarim Basin where the Satanic forces were waiting to destroy them. But this time it would not be allowed, and Joshua was told that the Israelites were to destroy them all. In fact this would be only kindness on the part of our Father, this would put them in another dimension and He would deal with them later. Here in the physical they had sunk so low, that there was no hope for them in that direction.

Now; the story of the history of the Israelites continues in the Book of Joshua, who moving totally under FAITH would deliver his people.
