Calling The True Israel Peoples

Editorial

Dear Reader,

Christmas Will Soon be Upon Us

While those in the Identity Movement are fully aware of the Satanic origins of the current festive season. Nevertheless its a time to take advantage of, to renew ties with one's family, friends and not to forget old acquaintances.

The one thing the enemy hates most is, people grouping together outside of their control or not being entertained by their media outlets. In the past local communities would gather in pubs and churches on Sundays which were clearing houses for news and information.

In days gone bye, in the not too distance past, one would seek and give directions by pubs and churches! Christmas is the main opportunity left now to gather in this holiday is common throughout Christendom which circles the whole of the northern hemisphere. "Zion in the sides of the North!!"

It's always been a surprise as to how Christians of the recent past didn't discern the Satanic symbolism woven into the Christmas Story. One would have thought that the fact, Santa is an anagram of Satan, wears red, and comes down the chimney, where the fire is. It takes place on a day leaving 6 days left in the year. 666 being the number of the beast. Christmas is on 12/25 (USA date forma) $1225 = 35 \times 35 = 1225$ Satan = 35 Baphomet = 35.

Now it can be seen even the smallest element of Christianity is now being removed from Christmas. Rarely on display now are the nativity scenes in high street department stores and elsewhere, but more and more on show is the heathen Edomite Hanukah while the streets are festooned with lit up Edomite 5 pointed stars!

Identity Christians take solace in the fact that this heathen festival takes place in the darkest part of the year, at least in the northern area of the planet reminding us of the saying the darkest part of night is before the dawn of a new day!

Also to be looked forward to is the restoration of the Hebrew Calendar where New Year's Day starts at the Spring Equinox when everything is springing into life

Whilst everyone is focused on preparations for Christmas, the enemy will no doubt be plotting his next move. It's therefore necessary to use this short period of respite to strengthen our defences and ties with one another in order to stand and occupy in preparation for that great day of Yahweh., Which will soon will be upon us!

The Origin of Talmudism (3)

Judgment Day Perspectives, Volume II, Number 8

by Pastor Eli James

With the Roman occupation, behind-the-scenes intrigue by both Judahite and non-Judahite candidates increased, and the priesthood fell more and more into corruption. Josephus relates that "Alcimus, who was not of the high priest stock," became High Priest.

The continuous warfare was taking its toll on Judah's spiritual life. The situation grew worse and worse until, finally, Antipater, an Idumean, gained influence with John Hyrcanus, a Maccabean. Antipater talked Hyrcanus into conquering Idumea and making Judea and Idumea one kingdom, thus tending to mingle the populations.

It was at this point that the Idumeans became Judeans, for a purely Judahite priesthood would never have accepted Idumeans as fellow citizens.

By this time, the Babylonian influence on the scribes and Pharisees had already allowed them to accept non-Israelite members, otherwise, Alcimus would never have become high priest. Consequently, Hyrcanus permitted them to stay in the combined new country if they submitted to circumcision and subjected themselves to the religious rules and regulations of the high priests.

This was, of course, a disastrous development in terms of distinguishing Judahites from Canaanites. In a footnote to Josephus, translator Whiston says "This account of the Idumeans admitting circumcision, and the entire Jewish (Pharisaic) law, from this time, or from the days of Hyrcanus, is confirmed by their entire history afterwards—Ammonius, a grammarian, says: The Jews (Judahites) are such by nature, and from the beginning, whilst Idumeans were not Jews (Judahites) from the beginning, but Phoenicians and Syrians; but being afterwards subdued by the Jews [sic] and compelled to be circumcised, and to unite into one nation, and be subject to the same laws, they were called Jews [Judeans -- EJ].'

Dio also says: 'That country is also called Judea, and the people Jews [sic]; and this name is given also to as many as embrace their religion, though of other nations.' Antiquities, Chap. 9.

The racial confusion bred linguistic confusion, and the rabbis have exploited this linguistic confusion in their historical pretence as Israel and Judah. The above quotes demonstrate why we should always distinguish between Jews and Judahites.

The Jews have done everything possible to influence Christian and secular historians into equating Jews with Judahites; but as can be plainly seen, the history of Jewry and Judaism begins with this edict of John Hyrcanus.

Thus, properly understood, this is an excellent commentary and verification of our main argument: that a non-Israelite people called Jews adopted, by virtue of their half-breed relationship to Israel, some Israelite customs and kept the name for themselves!

Also clearly expressed here is how the distinction between Judahites (Israelites) and Judeans became blurred, eventually to be forgotten, with the word 'Jew' substituting for both!

Indeed, had these developments not taken place, the prophecy concerning Israel's lost identity would never have been fulfilled. (See Psalm 83:3; Isa. 29:10-12; 42:16,19-20; 49:2; Hos. 1:9,10; 2:6; Matt. 13:44; Romans 11:7,8,25.)

While the modern Jews, the inheritors of the "Traditions of the Elders", have claimed continuity with Israel from that day forward, true Israel, the Anglo-Saxons plus the remnant of Judah, eventually forgot who they were and lost their identity!

It is one of the most important marks of Israel that God foretells true Israel's forgetfulness. The Anglo-Saxons have indeed forgotten their true heritage. In contradistinction, the Jews have always claimed to be the Chosen People! So, who is True Israel, those who fulfill the prophecy or those do not?

John Hyrcanus was succeeded by Aristobulus I and then by Alexander Janneus, who was a most cruel and corrupt monarch. He made a habit of killing many of his own people and is reported to have crucified eight hundred Judahites at one time and slit the throats of their wives and children while they watched from their crosses kind of like George W. Bush sending True Israelites out to Iraq to be slaughtered by the Zionist war machine!

Alexander was succeeded by his wife, Alexandra, who made a league with the Pharisees. She did this because Alexander, on his death bed told her that all his troubles were due to having opposed the Pharisees and joining ranks with the Sadducees. He thus advised her to cease hostilities with the Pharisees if she did not wish to fall into the same tragedy.

Alexandra was succeeded by her son, Hyrcanus III. But, Hyrcanus III and his brother, Aristobulus II, fought with each other over the throne, Aristobulus II realizing that the nation was being taken over by non-Israelites. But then the Romans entered the scene and concluded a pact with Hyrcanus III and Antipater, the Idumean, thus defeating Aristobulus II.

Upon Hyrcanus III's death (above), his sons, in turn, struggled to regain the leadership, but Antipater murdered two of them and finally installed his own son, Herod, as monarch of Judea. Judah was at its ebb. Around 60 B.C., Herod the Great, a half-breed Idumean Jew (and now the word is correctly applied), became Tetrarch of Judea, a collector of tribute money for the Romans.

Thus ended the valiant struggle of the Judahites to remain a distinct people and culture under their own rule. It is important for us to realize that the struggle to maintain the genealogical purity of Israel continued even down to the time of Christ.

In spite of all the corruption and seed-mixing at the upper echelons, there were still numerous pockets of pure-bred Israelites in and around Judea, especially of the tribe of Benjamin in Galilee. One of these settlements, known as Nazareth, was to be the home of Jesus, the Messiah. In fact, the Galilean Benjamites rarely entered Jerusalem; and, remember, Peter was found out because he had a Galilean accent!

Absolutely crucial to our understanding of this history is this most salient fact: After the return from captivity, the remnant of the House of Judah had to perform its function of bringing the Messiah into the world.

Christ could not have been born except through pure-bred Judahite stock! That is why Matthew, Chapter 1 and Luke Chapter 3 so meticulously record Yahshua's genealogy. Judah's leadership down to the time of Christ was accepted by a succession of prophets, priests, kings, priest-kings, and national heroes. For the record, the succession of pure-bred Judahites that ruled the House of Judah during this period is given here: The Judahite Succession of Leadership Judahite Leader - Associated Contemporary Leader:

It also partially fulfils Isaac's prophecy to Esau (Edom) that one day Esau would break Jacob's yoke from off his neck. (Gen. 28:39-41.) The complete fulfilment of the prophecy did not occur until the impostor State of Israel was created in 1948.)

Herod the Great	Julius Caesar

(Antigonus struggles with Herod to regain the throne for Judah but is unsuccessful. He is killed by Mark Antony.)

It was to be the function of the "good figs" of the House of Judah to fulfil the prophecy of the coming of the Messiah. The "bad figs", on the other hand, were to become a "taunt and a curse" in the various lands to which they were scattered.

The bad figs are those who intermarried with non-Israelites and became known as the Jews. These bad figs were the ones most responsible for the deicide on the cross. They were to dwell in Judea (Palestine) until 70 A.D. before being scattered themselves.

With the advent of the Herodians and the Pharisees, the time is now ripe for the coming of the Messiah: Mosaism (Hebrewism) in Judea is being replaced by the "traditions of men," the Pharisees. Judaism (Pharisaism), thanks to Herod and his henchmen, is displacing the Levitical priesthood.

The Pharisees, although experiencing opposition from the Sadducees, have gained control of religious and civic life. True Judah is struggling for its survival. Jews are usurping Judah's claim to the Covenant. God appears in human form in the person of Jesus Christ.

Jesus, knowing better than any human being the difference between a Judahite and a Jew, declared "I come not but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel," (Matt. 15:24) for "He would not walk in Jewry, for the Jews sought to kill Him." (John 7:1.)

It is imperative that we understand our true history in order to determine exactly where and when the Jewish heresy began to displace the Mosaic Law. Consequently, it is an anachronism to refer to any Judahites before 150 B.C. as Jews! They were Judahites who practiced the Mosaic

Law. They were not mamzers who practiced Talmudic Judaism!

I cannot stress these distinctions enough. Like the differences between X chromosomes and Y chromosomes, you have to know the religious, cultural and racial differences between Jews and Judahites in order understand true history.

It is imperative that we understand these distinctions between Judahites and Jews. Otherwise, Judaism will triumph over True Israel in her ignorance!

I hope this historical analysis has been sufficiently clear so that we can recognize how the Jews have created a false history for themselves so as to confuse even our most erudite scholars, even such scholars as E. Raymond Capt and Howard B. Rand.

Here are the historical facts: The Pharisees are the originators of the religion known as Judaism. As usurpers later empowered by King Herod, who was an Idumean/Edomite put in place by the Roman authorities over the people of Judah, who were Not His Racial Kin, the Pharisees began to infiltrate the priesthood of Judah at all levels.

The historian, Josephus (above: who was not a Jew but a Judahite whose family was of the first of the 24 courses, hereditary families in the service of Israel and Judah!), tells us that, with regard to the ruling priesthood, Herod had all of the racial Judahites murdered and replaced with Edomites! Now do you see how the transition from Hebrewism to Judaism really took place? It all started shortly before the time of Christ.

The modern parallels are, again, very striking, as the anti-Jewish Christian priesthood was replaced by the Judeo-Christian priesthood during the 1960's, with the advent of Judeo-televangelism and "Christian" Zionism: the scum that go by such names as Jerry Falwell (above), Pat ("Let's take out Chavez") Robertson, Billy Graham, Tim La Haye, Jack van Impe and let's not forget Rush Limbaugh and Sun Yung Moon.

I feel very secure in declaring that American Israel has a much more accurate view of our true history than British Israel. The British Empire has been a lackey of Jewish international finance since before the American Revolution.

Remember, folks, the Jewish bankers were the ones who instigated King George against the Colonies. It was Jewish debt money imposed upon the Colonies that was a major reason if not THE major reason for the revolt of the Colonies. The Americans did not want to be the debt-slaves of the Bank of England.

American Israel is under no illusions about economic reality today. We know that the Federal Reserve System is just another Jewish banking fraud; and we are not going to deny our mistakes, in the interests of nationalism, to make ourselves look good.

Having established the fact that the ancient House of Judah absolutely contaminated itself with Babylonian teaching at the time of John Hyrcanus, the question still remains as to what extent the House of Judah allowed Babylonian teachings to creep in at any time before this during the Second Temple period.

Isa. 37:31-35, tells us this: And the remnant that is escaped of the House of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward: For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant [recall Ezra 9:8], and they that escape out of Mount Zion: the zeal of Yahweh will accomplish this.

Therefore, thus saith Yahweh concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it. By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith Yahweh. For I will defend this city to save it for mine own sake, and for my servant David's (below) sake.

This verse is telling us that Yahweh intends to defend Jerusalem for a future purpose. The expression "take root downward and bear fruit upward" is can only be a reference to the Second Temple Period, for there was no other revival of the Mosaic Law! And it concerns keeping Jerusalem alive for a time, which means keeping His Law and His priesthood alive, until Jerusalem fulfils its purpose. That purpose is the coming of the Messiah, Jesus Christ, and it is declared in the following verse:

"The sceptre shall not depart from Judah until Shiloh come." (Gen. 49:10)

It was at this time in history that the Judahite dynasty of King David ended with Jesus Christ in the land of Judah. But thanks to Joseph of Arimathea, this bloodline dynasty was transplanted to Britain in 37 A.D. By ship, Joseph took Mary, mother of Jesus, Mary Magdalene, Lazarus, and nine other Saints with him to Avalon, now known as Glastonbury, where he built the very first Christian Church. One of the nine, a maiden by the name of Penardim, the niece of Mary, and therefore a Judahite, married into the royal lineage of the Silurian Dynasty of Britain: the one and only King Llyr (Lear). Thus the dynasty of King David was transferred to Britain through Penardim.

The Judahites of Anglo-Saxon Europe had already intermarried with the Lost Ten Tribes (the House of Joseph), so that the Dynasty of Joseph and the Dynasty of Judah had been remerged, thus fulfilling the prophecy of the merging of the two sticks in the hand of Yahweh (Eze. 37:16-19). Glory, HalleuYAH!

King Solomon on His Throne

It was during the reign of Solomon that northern House of Israel formed their own government and broke away from the House of Judah. St. Paul confirms that one of the main objectives of the Messiah's mission was to heal the breach between the Two Houses of Israel and Judah. Speaking to the Ephesians, who were descendants of the exiled House of Israel:

"But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were afar off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us and came and preached peace to you which were afar off [House of Israel] , and to them that were nigh [House of Judah]." (Eph. 2:13-17).

Ezekiel's Curse Upon Jerusalem

With the destruction of the Temple in 70 AD by the Roman General Titus, the Second Temple period came to a close. It is actually at the point of the Pharisaic persecution of Messiah that this curse begins. "Again in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of Yahweh came unto me, saying, Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem this same day. And utter a parable unto the rebellious house Wherefore thus saith Yahweh God;

Woe to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum (the scribes and Pharisees) is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! Bring it out piece by piece; let no lot fall upon it. For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock (Calvary) Therefore, thus saith Yahweh God, Woe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great." (Eze. 24:1-9).

Except for the Wailing Wall built by Herod, the Temple was completely burned to the ground by the fire set by Titus' troops. There, at the wailing wall, the rabbis wail and bemoan their loss of authority under Herod to this day! Jerusalem has been a cursed city ever since. They want to build a Third Temple in his honour!

The Jewish impersonators ("scum") of Judah who occupy it today have turned it into the "abomination of desolation." It will be consumed by fire one more time, possibly even by an atomic fire.

The Wailing Wall

There has never been any evil so great as Talmudic Judaism. It is the religion of Satan, the religion of Esau, the religion of Cain, the religion of Lucifer, the religion of the Pharisees; and Satan is the deceiver who has convinced the whole world into believing the greatest lie of history, that "the Jews are God's chosen people."

It is simply amazing mind-boggling, actually -- that so many "Christians" accept, without any Bible study of their own, the ridiculous claims of the rabbis, Zionists and fundamentalist preachers who are nothing but wolves in sheep's clothing. With regard to that collection of usurers, war-mongers, slanderers, panderers, extortionists, sex-slavers, hypocrites, liars, murderers, abortionists and thieves commonly known as "the Israeli State," Christian Zionists have fallen victim to a most heinous subterfuge.

They have been deceived by the Anti-Christ! They have swallowed this camel whole while ignoring all of the physical evidence that the Jewish people are the world's greatest violators of God's Law.

You have to be deliberately stiff-necked in order to ignore Jewish and Zionist high crimes and misdemeanours and not be able to see that their father is the "father of lies." In the eyes of these Christian Zionists, the Jews can do no wrong. They don't even realize that such an attitude is blasphemous! For only Yahweh, Yahshua and the Holy Spirit are perfect.

The Christian Zionists of the Southern Baptist Convention and other duped fundamentalist groups are the most gullible people who have ever lived because the contradictory evidence is all around them. There is a religion of deliberate self-righteousness and self-flattery! Can such people be granted admission into the Kingdom?

Can stupidity be allowed in heaven?

They simply refuse to look at reality because no one can tell them that they're wrong! Observe: They Have Become Spiritual Jews! Like literal Jews, they have fallen victim to the Christian Pharisees, believing themselves to be beyond reproach while they have no compassion whatsoever for the innocent victims of oppression.

Having charity only for themselves and literal Jews, they ignore the lead weight of their own stone-heartedness. But the day of reckoning is coming "There will be a wailing and a gnashing of teeth" -- and they will live to regret their intransigence and their "look the other way" attitude where Zionism destroys the innocent.

The Christian Zionists have become warmongers, par excellence, ala Pat Robertson! In their pro-Zionist zeal, they have the ignominy of working for the anti-Christ while believing that they are working for Jesus Christ! What a propaganda coup for the Jews!

In this, they have the distinct dishonour of fulfilling one of the most bizarre and provocative prophecies of the New Testament, made by Jesus Himself. This prophecy is rarely quoted because no non-Identity theologian can possibly understand it:

"The time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service." (John 16:2.)

Since up to 40% of Palestinians are actually Christians, the Christian Zionists have taken the side of the Anti-Christ and have condoned and financed the killing of Palestinian Christians. In the name of Jesus, they kill Christians! They actually think that they are doing God service!

Prepare for the Judgment Day

"Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem. And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered against it." (Zechariah 12:2,3).

Jerusalem, and the Israeli State, have been a burdensome stone since Zionism launched the fraudulent "back to Palestine" movement beginning with the Balfour Declaration in 1914.

At the end of WWI, the British Army marched into Jerusalem and took it away from the Turks. The British Mandate gave them authority over the area. During WWII, the Zionists financed terrorist gangs who massacred entire villages of Palestinians.

This reign of terror caused many Palestinians to flee for their lives. This is how "God gave Palestine to the Jewish people." But, God is not a liar. The Jews are the liars. In addition, these terrorist gangs murdered many British leaders and civilians who opposed what the Zionists were doing.

Because of this reign of ethnic cleansing, which is still going on today, the British gave up the Mandate and handed Palestine over to the Zionists, something they had absolutely no legal right to do. Remember, the Palestinian people had never harmed the Jewish people in any way. They simply stood in the way of the Zionist buzz saw. Since when does the Bible allow the murder of completely innocent people?

Jerusalem has been a pit of wailing ever since, with no end in sight. Those Christian Zionists who support this reign of terror will be held accountable for their refusal to look at the truth.

They rest content in their state of deception, many of them smugly believing that they will be raptured up with Hal Lindsay just in the nick of time so as to avoid having to endure the tribulation. When Jesus returns, He will ask them, "Why do you crucify Me?" Can you imagine the mortification of one who has to come to grips with such a realization?

They will say: "What do you mean? We have done everything in your name!" And He will remind them of His own prophecy: "They honour me with their lips, but their heart is far from me." At that point they will terribly regret not having read their Bibles, and, in the vain hope that they might redeem themselves, they will hunt down and kill the very preachers whom they have idolized.

"Word for Word" Exodus Part 23

Translation by Stephen Howard Anderson

Chapter 29

1. And this is the thing that you shall do to consecrate them, to minister to Me as priests: take one young bull, and two rams without blemish,

2. and bread of matsoth, and cakes ²⁴⁷¹ of matsoth mixed ¹¹⁰¹ with oil, and wafers ⁷⁵⁵⁰ of matsoth anointed with oil: of wheat ²⁴⁰⁶ flour ⁵⁵⁶⁰ shall you make them.

3. And you shall put them in one basket ⁵⁵³⁶, and bring them in the basket, with the bull and the two rams.

4. And you shall bring Aharon and his sons to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and shall wash them with water.

5. And you shall take the garments, and put upon Aharon the coat, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breast-piece, and gird him with the woven waistband of the ephod:

6. and you shall put the turban on his head, and put the crown ⁵¹⁴⁵ upon the turban,

7. then shall you take the oil of anointing, and pour it upon his head, and anoint him.

8. And you shall bring his sons, and put coats upon them,

9. and you shall gird them with sashes, Aharon and his sons, and put the turbans upon them: and the priest's office shall be theirs for a perpetual statute: and you shall consecrate Aharon and his sons.

10. And you shall cause a bull to be brought before the Tent of Meeting: and Aharon and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the bull.

11. And you shall slaughter the bull before Yahweh by the door of the Tent of Meeting.

12. And you shall take of the blood of the bull, and put it upon the horns of the altar with your finger 676, and pour out all the blood beside the bottom of the altar.

13. And you shall take all the fat 2459 that covers the inwards 7130, and the caul 3508 that is above the liver 3516, and the two kidneys 3629, and the fat that is upon them, and burn 6999 them upon the altar.

14. But the flesh of the bull, and his skin, and his dung, you shall burn 8313 with fire outside of the camp: it is a sin offering 2403.

15. You shall also take one ram; and Aharon and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram,

16. And you shall slaughter the ram, and you shall take his blood and sprinkle it round about the altar.

17. And you shall cut in pieces the ram, and wash the inwards of him, and his legs, and put them with his pieces, and unto his head.

18. And you shall burn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a burnt offering 5930 to Yahweh: it is a soothing 5207 aroma 7381, an offering made by fire 801 unto Yahweh.

19. And you shall take the other ram; and Aharon and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

20. Then you shall slaughter the ram, and take of his blood, and put it on the tip of the right ear of Aharon, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

21. And you shall take of the blood that is on the altar, and of the oil of anointing, and sprinkle it upon Aharon, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: and he shall be consecrated, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

22. Also you shall take of the ram the fat and the rump 451, and the fat that covers the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder, for it is a ram of consecration:

23. And a round loaf 3603 of bread, and one cake of round loaf bread with oil, and a wafer from the basket of matsoth that is before Yahweh:

24. And you shall put all in the hands of Aharon, and in the hands of his sons; and shall wave 5130 them for a wave offering 8573 before Yahweh.

25. And you shall receive them from their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt offering, for a soothing aroma before Yahweh: it is an offering made by fire unto Yahweh.

26. And you shall take the breast of the ram of Aharon's consecration, and wave it 5130 for a wave offering before Yahweh: and it shall be your portion.

27. And you shall sanctify the breast of the wave offering, and the shoulder of the set-apart offering 8641, which is waved, and which is lifted off, of the ram of consecration, that which is for Aharon, and of that which is for his sons:

28. and it shall be Aharon's and his sons' by a statute forever from the children of Yisrael: for it is a set-apart offering: and it shall be a set-apart offering from the children of Yisrael of the sacrifice of their offerings of well-being 8002, their set-apart offering unto Yahweh.

29. And the holy garments of Aharon shall be his sons' after him, to be anointed in them, and to be full of hand in them.

30. And that son that is priest in his place shall put them on seven days, when he comes into the Tent of Meeting to minister in the Holy Place.

31. And You shall take the ram of consecration and seethe his flesh in the Holy Place.

32. And Aharon and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by the doorway of the Tent of Meeting.

33. And they shall eat those things by which the propitiation was made to be full of hand and to be consecrated by them: but a stranger 2114 shall not eat of it because they are holy.

34. And if any of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread, remain until the morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

35. And thus shall you do to Aharon, and to his sons, according to all things which I have commanded you: seven days shall they be full of hand.

36. And you shall slaughter every day a bull for a sin offering for propitiation: and you shall make a sin offering 2398 upon the altar, when you have made propitiation for it, and you shall anoint it to consecrate it.

37. Seven days you shall make propitiation for the altar and consecrate it, and it shall be an altar most holy: whatsoever touches the altar shall be holy.

38. Now this is what you shall offer upon the altar; two lambs of the first year every day continually.

39. The one lamb you shall offer in the morning; and the other lamb you shall offer in the evening:

40. And with one lamb a tenth part 6241 of flour 5560 mixed with the fourth part of a hin 1969 of beaten oil; and the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink offering 5262.

41. And the other lamb you shall offer at evening, and shall again do according to the grain offering 4503 of the morning, and according to the drink offering of it, for a soothing aroma, an offering made by fire unto Yahweh.

42. This shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the Tent of Meeting before Yahweh: where I will meet you, to speak to you there.

43. And there I will meet with the children of Yisrael, and shall be sanctified by My Glory.

44. And I will sanctify the Tent of Meeting, and the altar: I will sanctify also both Aharon and his sons, to minister to Me as priests.

45. And I will dwell among the children of Yisrael, and will be their Elohiy 430.

46. And they shall know that I am Yahweh Eloheyhem 430 that brought them forth from the land of Mitsrayim, that I may dwell among them: I am Yahweh Eloheyhem.

The Track of The Jew Through The Ages 3 By Eustace Mullins

SIMILARLY with the Jewish obsession with laws. As Rosenberg explains:

The more clearly and definitely the feeling for justice and injustice is rooted in a people, the less it requires a complicated juristic technique, and so much more spiritual culture will it possess. Thus it is a totally misleading judgement to see in the minute enumeration of the permitted and prohibited activities of daily life an expression derived from a higher ethos.

Quite on the contrary: it is a sign that the main focus of morality does not lie within man but this is determined merely externally, wherein reward and punishment for its observation are decisive. And here it is characteristic of the Jewish mind that the simple morality of good and evil has led to a tangle of laws and to a commenting on the same lasting hundreds of years. (P.153)

This is in contrast to the quintessential Indo-European mind:—the knowledge of the Indians arose from the longing for the interconnectedness of the universe and led to purified and symbolical knowledge, that thus this knowledge served only as a means to a goal going beyond the same. The Jew has shown throughout his history a search for knowledge in itself, avoided every metaphysical like an infectious disease, and instinctively persecuted the few exceptions who flirted with philosophy. The knowledge of the Law was for the Jew a goal in itself. (P.154)

That is why, Rosenberg points out, Christ's teaching of a kingdom "within us" is essentially repugnant to the Jew.

All the myths that the Jews learnt from the Sumero-Akkadians and, later, the Persians, they turned into historical facts that justified their single political aim of ruling others.

Persian Jews

Thus when the Jews heard of the immortality of the human soul for the first time from the Persians, when they heard of a messiah, a Saoshyant, who would deliver the world from the power of the evil principle to establish a heavenly kingdom into which would enter not only the holy but finally also, after severe punishment, all the countless penitent sinners, they understood of this principle of a world-liberating love only the idea of a world-ruling messiah. (P. 155)

Those myths and symbols adopted by the Jews into the apparently mystical Kabbalistic work, the Zohar, have turned into "the driest magic".

The technical tendency of the Jewish mind is displayed equally in Moses Maimonides' Moreh Nebukim and in the works of Spinoza, who ... as a genuine Jewish technician ... accomplished the stunt of bringing these opposites [Descartes and Giordano Bruno] to a common denominator and to combine them in an ingenious 'system'. That he could do this shows that he understood neither. (P. 160)

Similarly in science: It is now not hard to outline the sphere of the Jewish mind with total strictness. It has always mastered that field of science which is possessed only through the understanding. The lack of imagination and inner quest, which damned the Jew to sterility in religion and philosophy, emerges also in science. Not a single creative scientific idea sprang from a Jewish mind, nowhere has it pointed out new paths. (P.162)

The dangerous influence of the Jewish mind on modern technological society is summarised by Rosenberg thus:

If, thanks to the efforts of self-sacrificing men, science had been brought so far as to be on the track of the fundamental laws of the cosmos, now there emerged a factor which could not be resolved earlier: the technical processing of the collected knowledge that promotes immediate usefulness. Man began to become increasingly the slave of his creation, of the machine, the technique of life established itself more and more. And that meant the breach through which the Jew rushed into our culture! (P. 163)

As for their contributions to the arts, Jews can only produce virtuosos who substitute quantity of performance for quality, composers like Mahler who seek technical special effects and impresarios like Reinhardt who produce all manner of entertainment circuses. Jewish art critics abjure form for technique and favour Artistic Bolshevism and Futurism – and nevertheless dare to speak all the same time of the "soul" and "inexpressible inner experiences".

In the literary field, Rosenberg points to the case of Heinrich Heine (above) who, despite his veneer of European culture, was typically Jewish in his hatred of Christianity. Kant's attempt to show that faith is beyond reason was particularly annoying to the reason-bound mind of Heine. In fact, at the end of his life, Heine gave up all attempts to emulate European philosophy and said on his death-bed:

"I do not need to return to Judaism since I have never abandoned it".

Finally, the inveterate Jewish hatred of Christianity has appeared in a new political guise in the doctrine of Marx, who preached materialistic atheism to get rid of all religions and internationalism to get rid of all nations so that the world could be more easily ruled by the Jews. [*Nowadays called Cultural Marxism.]

In the final analysis, the essential characteristic of the Jews is a sheer nationalistic version of the Schopenhauerian Will-to-live, the concept that Nietzsche reinterpreted as a Will-to-power. Thus "the basis of [the Jew's] character is the unchecked instinct, his goal world-domination, his means cunning utilitarian sense and energy." Incapable of love and the creative instinct linked to it, he has devoted his entire existence to the acquisition of the means of world-rule – symbolised in Wagner's Ring operas by the gold of the Rhine.

In contrast to other world-conquerors, such as the Romans, or Napoleon, the Jews are marked by a total cultural sterility behind the religious fanaticism that compels them to represent themselves as "the chosen people". But, like the slave who wishes to play the lord, the Jew will only succeed in riding his master's horse to death.

A solution to the problem of Jewish intellectual influence on, and control of, European society can only be achieved by revoking the emancipation of the Jews:

The German mind, left to itself, would have soon established its own equipoise, but through the Jewish power in the press, theatre, trade and science it was made almost impossible for it.

We ourselves were to blame; for we should not have emancipated the Jews but should have created insurmountable exceptional laws for the Jew as Goethe, Fichte, Herder had demanded in vain. One does not leave poison lying round unobserved, does not give it equal importance with antidotes, but preserves it carefully in black cabinets. That has finally happened – after 2000 years – in the National Socialist Reich! (P. 165)

The alarming expansion of Jewish power can only be checked by the immediate cessation of tolerance, since ... every European must become aware that it is a matter of everything that our mind, our character has handed over to us as an inherited tradition to be fostered and administered and that here humanitarian tolerance in the face of aggressive hostility signifies plain suicide." (P. 187)

One crucially important step in this direction was suggested already by Fichte in the 18th century:

They must have human rights, even if these do not belong to them as to us . . . but to give them civil rights I see no means of doing so, at least, other than cutting off one night all their heads and placing on them others in which there is not a single Jewish idea. In order to protect ourselves from them I see no other means than to conquer their extolled land for them and to send them all there. (P. 188)

Following Fichte, Rosenberg suggests his own plan for the curtailment of Jewish power in Germany which would ensure that:

1. The Jews are recognised as a nation living in Germany. Religious faith or the lack of it play no role.
2. A Jew is one whose parents, father or mother, are Jews according to this nationality; a Jew is from henceforth one who has a Jewish spouse.
3. Jews do not have the right to engage in German politics in words, writing or actions.
4. Jews do not have the right to occupy state offices and to serve in the army either as soldiers or as officers. Their work performance here comes into question.
5. Jews do not have the right to be leaders in state and communal cultural institutions (theatres, galleries, etc.) and to occupy professorial and teaching positions in German schools and universities.
6. Jews do not have the right to work in state or communal test-, control-, censorship-, etc. commissions; they also do not have the right to be represented in the directorships of state banks and communal credit institutions.
7. Foreign Jews do not have the right to settle permanently in Germany. Acceptance into the German state federation should be forbidden to them under all circumstances.

8. Zionism must be actively supported in order to transport a certain number of German Jews yearly to Palestine or generally over the borders. (P. 189)

While these legal restrictions can only provide the conditions for the natural development of German culture, care must be taken to foster German culture at the same time. It will be necessary in this regard to cultivate a Christianity that is equally free of the noxious Jewish influence of the Old Testament:

"The Christian spirit and the 'dirty Jewish' spirit must be separated; with a sharp cut the Bible is to be divided into Christian and Anti-Christian."

Instead of considering the ancient Hebrews as the forebears of Christian Europeans, it would be much more appropriate and rewarding to study, and absorb, the spiritual achievements of the ancient Indo-Europeans, Indian, Persian, Greek and German.

Although Rosenberg's goals of European nationalism may today – after the military defeat of the National Socialists – seem insuperably difficult in the face of the growing American-Jewish globalisation of the world, one may derive a certain encouragement from the following remark made by Rosenberg regarding the campaign of the National Socialists to end the financial slavery of the international Jew: "If this could be achieved even only partially the axe would have been laid to the life-tree of the Jew." (P. 189)

We must cast the Jew from our presence, and ALL kike jews from our realm! Alexander Jacob.

Cure for the Curse - Permanently Eliminating The World's Foremost Problem By John Kaminski

highest order, utterly unable to recognize the first and foremost rule of their own philosophy, which is:

Love of Money Is the Root of All Evil.

This Jewish hypocrisy is destroying the world, as monsters insisting genuine human beings are cattle, counting their money while the rest of the world starves, and shooting children in the head for sport.

EITHER THEY ALL NEED TO BE DESTROYED, or they will destroy the world. This is an immutable fact of history which everyone already knows.

They are the victims of their own primary commandment, which is to kill everyone else that they cannot convert into obedient slaves and merely save a few specimens on reserve for organ transplants and as sex slaves.

Klaus Schwab. Albert Bourla. Benjamin Netanyahu. Ron De Santis. People who believe they are better than the people they are trying to kill. They are transcendental hypocrites of the

It's a proven fact. Over the past century or so, Jewish control of the U.S. money supply has piled up a $33 trillion debt bubble. Criminal corruption of the money lenders has bankrupted every country on Earth, and they've worked out an onerous payment plan that has allowed them to own every single property, product and person on the planet.

They don't care who dies. Non Jews who remain alive are a terrible inconvenience to them because they remind them that they have to murder people in order to feel comfortable. This curdled concept of the ruthless middleman — after all, it's just business! — has destroyed both the producer and the consumer through the devious creation of such swindles as NGOs, derivatives and Ponzi schemes which are in the process of crashing every single economy in the world.

Let's Flip the Script

I've always wanted to turn the tables on the sinister Jews, who insist they are the only genuine humans on Planet Earth, when it's perfectly clear to everyone else that due to their total lack of concern for all living things, they are obviously the only true non humans.

And there's a very simple way to do it — simply apply the Talmudic restrictions and abuses that they use to penalize everyone else. Make them victims of their own rules. Do to them what these barbaric sadists recommend doing to everyone else.

Make every Jew in the world take the operation they have prescribed for everyone else.

First and foremost, since they have been trying for centuries to eliminate the sexes and destroy motherhood so they can produce sexless worker bee humans in their singularity laboratories — you know, the places where they manufacture their killer vaccines so they can reduce the world's population down to a manageable number, leaving just enough goyim alive to staff their plastic plantations and serve as suitable sex slaves for these adrenochrome guzzling perverts like Hillary Clinton and Celine Dion.

Since they like the practice so much and make so much money from it, simply mandate that all Jews undergo sex change operations. The great thing about transgenderism is that once you undergo the sex change operation, you can no longer reproduce.

Yes, you can no longer manufacture children with your phony vaginas and synthetic penises, which is the permanent solution to get rid of all Jews that humanity has been looking for many thousands of years.

Just imagine. A Jew-free planet. What a joy it will be. No more madmen secretly profiting from clandestine chaos, lying through their teeth about their own perverse philanthropy.

The symbol of a soul is compassion for others, and the Jews have none. According to their so-called holy book, religious Jews consider all other people in the world animals, beasts, cockroaches and cattle, available for abuse by the Godlike Jews.

The United States is a danger to the whole world precisely because of the Jews who have taken control of the money supply through the instrument of the Federal Reserve, which creates America's money out of nothing but debt and then charges us repeatedly for it, leading to its current control and eventual bankruptcy of the American economy.

The White House, Congress, the universities, the media, the medical profession, the law — all infested with Jews intent on destroying America and turning the world into a giant prison camp, just like the Jews from Brooklyn did to Russia and the beastly boys from Yale did to China.

Jew control of the money supply has produced such atrocities as Nancy Pelosi leaving office with hundreds of millions of dollars from her illegal insider trading as well as Barack Obama living in a $10 million mansion from his $250,000 per year salary from his days in the White House.

You've doubtless heard recently Obama's transgender wife is the leading candidate to replace the current occupant of the White House, that feeble evil dinosaur and his crack smoking child raping son.

This is the depth to which the United States of America has sunk. Neutering and neutralizing the Jews will put America and the world on the road to recovery.

Look in the Mirror!

Americans who wish to be honest with themselves must now take a hard look at what's left of their country and try to calculate if it can — or should — survive.

If it ever was, today it is no longer the honourable republic that we as patriotic citizens always wished it would be. For today, after many lifetimes of making war all over the world and more recently committing serious crimes against its own people, it is difficult to deny that America has become the leading source of evil in the world, using facile lies to justify needless slaughter at every turn.

Americans are blinded by their own media and educational systems, cynically forced to believe its actions are good and noble, when it has become clear to all the world that its behaviour has become — and perhaps it always has been — incomparably evil and corrupt.

The so-called greatest country on Earth, run by brain dead but well paid zombies doing the evil work of Israel and the demented Jewish people, has become the chief architect of the destruction of the planet.

It must be admitted, though the Jews have furnished all the weapons and set the stage for the slaughters, it is the Americans who have been pulling the trigger all this time.

Set up for the Kill

The powers that run the world must stage a great reset to cover up the tracks of all the money the middlemen have stolen in fees over the years. This is what has busted everyone's budget — sheer corruption, better known as the cost of doing business, which consists primarily of bribes and theft.

The innocent people who pay their taxes are the ones who pay the freight. Wherever you look, you find Jews swindling their lesser brethren.

They Don't Have a Soul; They Only Pretend to

Nikki Haley is a nonhuman certifiable monster, just another Jew-sucking mangy dog. What you see is a dying country, contributing mightily to a dying world—USA is being consumed by its own corruption—SET UP FOR THE KILL

Jews should all be forced to undergo sex reassignment surgery, in the same way they have advocated it for everyone else, which would make them permanently unable to reproduce, and also prevent them from ever making love for the rest of their lascivious lives, the perfect punishment for their crazed culture of child rape and sexual mutilation which they inflict on their own children through the perverse teeth of their lying, psychotic rabbis, infamous for biting off the tips of their babies' penises, subliminally turning their molested child victims into maniacs for life.

Eager to drop their bombs on Gaza, and anywhere else actual human beings are known to exist.

This good for the goose, good for the gander idea would also very beneficially apply to doctors, politicians and other media mavens who blithely argue for the necessity of vaccines. Given the poor track record of the so-called COVID cures, this philosophy would also help weed out the weirdos who led many people to the deaths during the past few years by advocating so certainly for people to get jabbed and potentially lose their lives for this nightmare disease that was never proven to exist.

Just like the concept of worthwhile Jews — never proven to exist.

Harold Stough Notes The Legend of Madog Discovering America over Three Hundred Years before Christopher Columbus

THE LEGEND OF MADOG DISCOVERING AMERICA over three hundred years before Christopher Columbus's arrival in the Americas on October 12th 1492.

According to the story, Madog was a Prince of Gwynedd, who in 1170 sailed westward across the Atlantic and landed on the American shore. He returned to Gwynedd to recruit settlers and left, never to be seen again. The settlers supposedly travelled up the great rivers before settling down in the Midwest and intermarrying with a Native American tribe.

References to Madog Discovery of America

1) A site on Rose Island, Kentucky, is claimed as once being home to a colony of Welsh-speaking Indians.

2) The references to a seafaring Madog were used during the Elizabethan era to bolster British claims in America. The earliest surviving account to make the claim that Madog had come to America appears in Humphrey Llwyd's unpublished 1559 Cronica Walliae. John Dee then used this manuscript when he submitted a treatise the "Title Royal" to Queen Elizabeth in 1580.

3) During the first English navigation of the James River in 1607, Welshman Peter Wynne, wrote that some of the pronunciation of the Monacan language resembled "Welch".

4) Another encounter with a Welsh-speaking Indian was claimed by the Reverend Morgan Jones, who said that he had been captured in 1669 by a tribe of Tuscarora called the Deog, whose chief spared his life when he heard Jones speak Welsh, a language he understood.

5) Francis Lewis, a signer of the American Declaration of Independence is said to have had a conversation with an Indian chief who spoke Welsh,

7) Llewellyn Harris, the missionary who visited the Zuni tribe in 1878, noted that they had many Welsh words in their language.

6) Thomas Jefferson, the third President of the United States believed the "Madoc story" to be true.

Conclusion – Born From Above By Danny Shreffler

A Voice in The Wilderness

THE NEW COVENANT

WE KNOW THIS. THE PEOPLE OF THE OLD COVENANT were abundantly blessed by the almighty. Isaiah 43 and 44 challenge us repeatedly to have the world bring forth their witnesses and compare their testimony with those of Israel. Israel wins every time.

God promised Abraham he would make his seed like the sand of the sea. Today, there is an undeterminable number of Abraham’s seed, the Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Scandinavian, and kindred people, about the globe.

We know it is over a billion. In contrast the false claimants to this covenant number less than 15 million world wide according to the Jerusalem Post. Of that number 90 percent are Ashkenazi and they do not come from Abraham. This seed of Abraham (sand of the sea) is representative of the Old Covenant. It is the physical descendants of Abraham according to the flesh. (Earthly)

In contrast to the sand of the sea, we have another promise made to Abraham that his seed would be like the stars of the heaven. This is the spiritual seed of the New Covenant predominantly know as Christians. They are heirs to the promise made to Abraham through a singular seed (not many) which is Christ.

“Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.” – Gal 3:16

Of course, it is redundant; but it is necessary. Here again we find the contrast between the physical (earthly) and the spiritual (heavenly). The Old Covenant is the physical. It is the former. It is symbolically represented by the physical seed or earthly particulates. There are lots of them.

In contrast to the sand, the stars, giant rocks floating around in space that no man can number, represent the spiritual seed of Abraham under the auspices of the New Covenant. They are his lineage through Christ, a singular seed! One is sand, the other rock.

“Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like: 48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.” – Luke 6:47-49

This is the very same allegory presented with the trees in the Garden of Eden for those who have eyes to see and ears to hear! The fig tree has many seeds! The Olive tree only one.

EVERY COVENANT (TESTAMENT) REQUIRES TWO PARTIES

A testament or covenant is an agreement between two parties

“covenant 1. a binding and solemn agreement made by two or more individuals, parties, etc. to do or keep from doing a specified thing...” – Webster’s New World Dictionary of the American Language (1957 edition)

“testament 1. in the Bible a covenant—” — Webster’s New World Dictionary of the American Language (1957 edition)

The original covenant was made by the rulers of Israel after the people corporately said “—All that the Lord hath spoken we will do.” God had already told them what he would do if they kept up their end of the bargain.

The New Covenant, by the death of Jesus Christ, has been made with the same people. In contrast to the Old Covenant, Israel no longer has a spiritual head over them other than Jesus Christ the very one who died to make it possible. Just as with the Old Covenant, God (not changing) presents these people with the proposition. I will give you eternal life and life more abundantly for my part of the agreement. I will also bless you and keep you and perform all the things I promised your fathers.

Does it not seem reasonable that we, as our father’s of old, need to agree (as a covenant is defined) give our agreement to Him to become signatory to the New Covenant?

This Covenant has the same laws as the Old Covenant, for Jesus, the one who represents us to the father as our sole mediator of said covenant, has said not one jot nor one tittle shall pass from the law till heaven and earth pass away. (Matt 5:18)

Jesus has fulfilled and will fulfill every requirement and mediation necessary for us to be blessed with this covenant. He is not only the Lamb of God who paid for our sins, but He is our only mediator. “For there is one God and one mediator between God and man, the man Christ Jesus who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.” – 1 Tim 2:5 (Also Read Gal 3:19-20; Heb 8:6; Heb 9:15 and Heb 12:24)

THE NEW COVENANT AND THE CROSS

There can be no doubt whatsoever that the New Covenant was offered to Israel at the cross. Two thieves hung beside Jesus that day. Both were despots. One, considering his eminent demise, believed in Jesus just enough to cry out to him even though Jesus was sharing his exact fate. Jesus assured the man he would have eternal life.

Both were presented with a choice that day of accepting Jesus as God and Savior or rejecting him. One represented the physical (Death, Jacob and the Old Covenant.) The other the spiritual. (Life, Israel, the New Covenant.) You can be one without the other. You can be benefactor to one and not the other.

All of the warnings of the New Scriptures are to the same people to whom the Old Covenant related. They were warnings of punishment for those who rejected Jesus the Christ. You can be a lost sheep or you can be a sheep in the fold.

So, the question remains. If we are to be signatory to the New Covenant, do we not have to let Jesus know? Would it not seem there will, or would be, a moment in time when we say yes or no even as our fathers did in the desert of Sinai?

Different people understand salvation in different ways. Some believe we are saved if we are born so in natural birth. Some believe every living creature will be saved. Others believe many Israelites will be lost. Some believe there is a moment in time when we accept the New Covenant and become regenerated. (Born again).

In the final analysis none of these things matter. What matters is this. If you truly put your faith in Jesus as the lamb of God, and you are a disciple exuding the fruit of the Spirit and keep God's commandments, then you are certainly born from above. (See Isa 35:8)

The scripture has somewhat to say about fruit. Jesus said a bad tree cannot bring forth good fruit while a good tree will. By extrapolation we know we can tell our brothers by their fruit and should make our judgments accordingly.

It is the fruit which is the testimony of the second witness. The witness afforded by the first witness, (the Old Covenant, Jacob, the physical) were the material blessings, our ability to build, make war, grow crops, heal the sick, and countless other blessings. Under the auspices of the New Covenant, it is the fruit of the Spirit, the attributes of God which declare our God to the world.

WHY DOES ALL THIS MATTER

Many may think this is a round-a-bout way of proving the identity of the two witnesses. So now we make full circle to the initial point of this series,

WHERE ARE WE AT IN THE GREAT TIME LINE OF GOD.

Hopefully, the reader can see the truth in this series.

The original purpose of this series was to show who the witnesses in Revelation 11 are. Once we do that, we can know what we should be watching and understanding in order to tell where we are in God's great time line. If we are watching for two dead men (physically) in the streets of Jerusalem, we may never see the truth.

On the other hand, we can see the allegorical nature of John's vision. We can see our culture, our religion, our children, our morals and all other things which were so prevalent in our people dying.

This is the end of our pride. This is the death of our world. We know the glee of evil surrounding us, the passing of laws to force us to accept evil, fits allegorically with the giving of gifts as signified in Revelation 11. We are the carcass needing to be resurrected.

John says we will lie dead in the street for a period of 42 months. While the exact point of death cannot be discerned, we can certainly see the pulse of the victim failing.

Jesus said where the carcass is the eagles would be gathered. The eagles are the sixth and final event before the return of Jesus Christ. It is war. The war to destroy the Taliban (above) lasted for years. Trillions of dollars were spent. Thousands of our sons were killed or maimed. For what? To put the Taliban back in power! How foolish we are. We have built our house upon the sand.

kings to put yokes on their necks and submit to the king of Babylon. We find ourselves in that very position today.

War has been with us as a people from the very beginning of our nation. It was not unavoidable, it was planned. It was a result of our failure to obey God's laws. There is one final battle yet to come and we can hear the drumbeats of that battle daily all about us. Yes, it is coming and it will be the final event prior to the seventh great culminating event,

THE RETURN OF JESUS CHRIST

The resurrection of the witnesses culminates with the final resurrection at the return of Christ. There is a precise order of resurrection given in the Scriptures. The dead in Christ will rise first to Meet Him (Jesus) in the air (be that the sky or spiritually) and will accompany Him to the battle of the Great God, Jesus Christ.

“And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.” – Rev 19:17-18

This is the seventh and final event. We can see the signs. We don't know where the wind is coming from but we certainly can see its effect.

Until we join Him in the air to engage the wicked, we should know that any battle engaged by wicked leaders is but to destroy us and kill our children. That includes any attempt to pit us against those who live in our own country.

Jeremiah knew the folly of engaging an enemy too powerful for Israel to counter. He told the

It is folly to think there is any possibility of throwing the yoke of evil from off our necks until our true captain gives the order and we hear the cry go forth THE SWORD OF THE LORD AND OF JOSHUA. That is Jesus Christ.

“And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, the kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.” – Rev 11:15

This concludes the series TICK-TOCK. May each and every one discern the signs of the times and prepare yourselves spiritually to meet our God in the heavens.

May the Lord God of Israel make his face to shine upon thee and be gracious unto thee. May He lift up his countenance upon thee and give thee peace.

Having A Television (Tel-Lie-Vision)

The Telephone Prophecy

"Having a television in your home, is like having a Jew in your living room."

Fr. Leonard E. Feeney, MICM; from The Point magazine, 1957.

Sir__ Below an interesting item from an American Pasadena newspaper regarding the future of the telephone.

PASADENA —The telephone of the future?

Mark R Sullivan, San Francisco. President and director of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. said in an address last Thursday night, just what form the future telephone would take is of course, pure speculation.

Here is my prophecy;

In its final development, the telephone will be carried about by the individual perhaps as we carry a watch today.

It probably will require no dial or equivalent, and I think the users will be able to see each other, if they want, as they talk. Who knows there may well be a phone with an apple on it for homosexuals?

"The goal for which we have striven so concertedly for three thousand years, is at last within our reach and because its fulfillment is so apparent, it behoves us to increase our efforts and our caution tenfold. I can safely promise you that before ten years have passed, our race will take its rightful place in the world, with every Jew a king and every Gentile a slave." (Applause from the gathering). - Rabbi Rabbinovitch at a special meeting of the emergency council of European Rabbis in Budapest on January 12, 1952

"The Communists disdain to conceal their views and aims. They openly declare that their ends can only be attained by the forcible overthrow of all existing social conditions."— - Karl Marx (Jew-Communist) Yours Truly, Dan Johns. USA.

Under a Toxic Sky

Sir __, Below is a short 2 page extract from a book “Under a Toxic Sky” by Elana Freeland, which helps one to understand that the so-called geo-engineering programme is all part of making mankind into the Internet of Things. Those that haven’t had the jab will still be affected, hence the need for regular detoxing. Extract below:-

Under An Ionised Sky By Elana Freeland

The genotoxicity (damage to DNA) of engineered nano-particles (ENPs) may be the most concerning, particularly for future generations.

A 2013 paper in Environmental Science and Technology points to metal oxide nano-particles, fullerenes (molecules of carbon in the form of hollow spheres, ellipsoids, tubes, etc.) and carbon nano tubes—all of which are implicated in chemical fullerenes assemble and replicate, delivering and embedding their programmed meta materials and pharma agents directly into the host’s DNA.

—it is currently postulated that ENPs cause nonspecific oxidative damage and that the resulting stress may be the predominant cause of DNA damage and subsequent genotoxicity.

This self-assembly process is called Telephoresis and sounds disturbingly like descriptions by Morgellons sufferers of the self-assembling fibre networks building grids throughout their bodies and at times erupting from their scalps, gums, and skin. Telephoresis depends upon a Tesla coil force field for remote directives to carbon nano tubes to self-assemble and extend in long wires that can be magnetically reeled in and out. Electric fields have been used to move small objects, but only over short distances. (Rice University chemist) Paul Cherukuri said, “With Telephoresis, we have the ability to massively scale up force fields to move matter remotely. There are so many applications where one could utilize strong force fields to control the behaviour of matter in both biological and artificial systems.

Telephoresis (above) nano wires grow and act like nerves. simultaneously assembling and creating circuits powered by force field energy. Cherukuri mentions how patterned surfaces and multiple Tesla coil systems could create more complex self-assembling circuits from nano scale-sized particles’—like what is being delivered by chemical trails, GMO foods, and vaccinations.

Disseminating nano-particles makes sense if your objective is an “integrated technology” matrix for a socio-biological “battles pace” AI-programmed programme for surveillance, detection, and two-way communication. Think giga-flop microprocessors the size of molecules. MEMS (micro-electro-programmable systems) and GEMS (global environmental MEMS) smart sensors microprocessor systems, (computers), and magneto-electric nano particles (MENs) gravitating to neurons in the brain.

Opto-Genetics

We are now in the realm of opto-genetics and deep brain simulation (DBS), manipulation of brain cell activity by switching brain cells on and off remote light or magnetic fields. All that is needed is optical nano fibres to deliver light to the brain, plus gold nano particles and nano-rods and convert it to heat. Iron oxide nano-particulates (and other heavy metal oxides) give off heat when exposed to an alternating magnetic field causing the neurons to fire long trains of nervous impulses.

RFID Identification Chip

Thus we can begin to piece together why military intelligence has bent over backwards to deceive the public about nano technology and the chemical trails.

Wires, RFIDs and implants are no longer necessary; remote access can be obtained and maintained by creating an external magnetic field in which magnetic nano particles stimulate and respond to other magnetic fields outside (in vitro) and inside (in vivo) the body to create signalling networks that control ion channels, neurons, and behaviour.

The campaign to convince the public that controlling machines by thought alone is “progress” flies in the face of the shouting inverse: that all of it—the chemical trails loaded with conducting metals and nanobots, the nano GMO food additives, the cell phones and towers, the Internet of Things—is blasting us toward a Transhumanist future in which tiny machines and their AI gods remote-control our brains.

The deployment of trillions of nanobots above and in our atmosphere with no proof of safety is a planetary crime whose magnitude is difficult to measure—a crime for which neither national nor international judiciary systems are prepared, a crime that makes twentieth-century Nazi crimes of extermination and experimentation seem juvenile and clumsy.

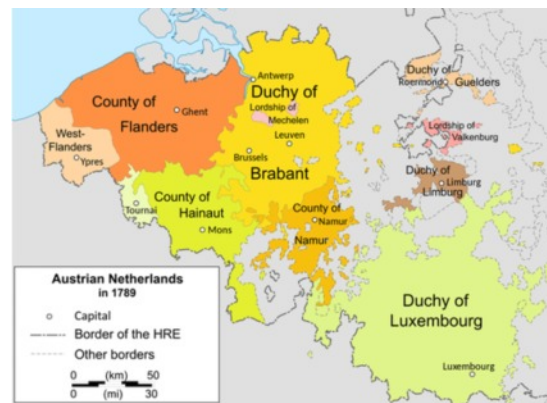

We are being besieged by “meta material assemblies” that debilitate the planetary biosphere built and maintained for untold eons by an extraordinary spiritual power we call

Nature. The unstudied synergies forming among the chemicals, radiation, nanos, and living beings are leaving chronic immune deficiency illnesses and dying species in their secret wake.

Nano scale chemicals combine and share ions with carbons, sunlight, radio waves, bacteria, mould fungi, and algae, then mutate and integrate with DNA, mutating it in the process. Mutations are inevitable when nano scale thorium, strontium, aluminium barium, lithium, silver, styrene, polymers, liposomes, hydrogels, etc. overload cell communication.

“Smart dust” detects earthquakes and tracks weather systems, predicts traffic flow, monitors energy use, and measures vibration, sound, temperature, and chemical signatures, and wireless sensor networks (net scapes or mesh)—

Is Belgium an Artificial Nation with No History Created by the British?

Map of the Austrian Netherlands. As one can see, it roughly corresponds to modern day Belgium.

Sir__, Now, one may say: ‘well, it wasn’t independent, just a part of a larger empire’, and you’d be correct, but that doesn’t disprove my point. Here is a map of the Austrian Netherlands (dark green) compared to the wider Austrian Empire (light green) on map next page.

As one can see, the Austrian Netherlands were completely separated from the wider Austrian Empire. The Austrian Netherlands had its own governors, most troops stationed in it were locals, and also enjoyed significantly more autonomy compared to other regions within the Austrian Empire.

As a result of this separation from both the wider Austrian Empire and the Northern Netherlands, and any other entity for that matter, a sort of ‘Southern Netherlandic’ identity began to form. Originally, this was just a regional identity within a wider ‘Netherlandic’ identity encompassing all of the Low Countries. And, indeed, until the 1800’s, many ‘Southern Netherlanders’ still supported unification with the Netherlands.

However, with the Belgian Revolution in 1830 (which, for your information, was not caused by the British but by rioters in Brussels), the ‘Southern Netherlandic’ identity quickly went from a regional one, to a national one.

Then, to separate themselves from the Netherlands, the Southern Netherlanders quickly decided on a new name—Belgian. And with that, the Belgian national identity had been created.

This means that when the Belgian Revolution broke out in 1830, the groundwork for a Belgian identity had already been laid. All it took was a series of events to transform it from a regional identity within a broader Netherlandic one, to a national identity in its own right. Yours truly, Viktor Couderé, Belgium.

Nephilim Explained

The Bible tells us the Truth about the "last days" in Genesis 6, but People Have Been Misled in thinking that the "Nephilim" are some kind of "giants" who were born from "Fallen Angels" mating with human women. That Is a Lie in order to Hide the Truth from Us.

"Sons of God" are defined for us Clearly in Luke 3:38 (KJV): "Which was the son of Enos, which was the son of Seth, which was the son of Adam, which was the Son of God."

All the "sons of God" in the Bible are the Descendents of Adam who faithfully follow the Laws of Yahweh (God). Yahweh's definitions never change.

And He has told us in Hebrews 1:5.—" For unto which of the Angels said he at any time, ‘Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee?’ And again, 'I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son? ' "

Answer: None, ever!! Yahweh told us that He has Never called any (heavenly) "angel" as His "son". So why are Men claiming that they Are??

The Real Meaning of "Nephilim" are 'Bullies and Tyrants' Who Cause People to 'Fall' from Yahweh's Standards of Living"

The Primitive Root

Strong's H5303 nephilim; Gesenius says the meaning of this plural concrete noun is uncertain, but his preference is "those who fall upon, attack;" likewise Strong's lists, "bully, tyrant, giant;" the noun is from Strong's H5307 נָפַל naphal, a primitive root meaning, "to fall, to cause to fall, to fall upon." The 3-letter root is nun + pey + lamed.

The end days (NOW) are prophesied to be "as it was in the days of Noah" (people thinking nothing of "Race-Mixing--2" Luke 17:26) and, as well, in the days of "Lot" (practicing rampant homosexuality, like today--Luke 17:28).... and the Bible is Exactly Right!!

These things have been Encouraged by a specific group of people who have become Leaders in the world today—and they control all the public media that the people hear and believe—the Zionist Jews!!!

There were giants [Bullies, Tyrants] in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown: Gen 6:4.

This miscegenation in And their Symbol, which is the "Star of Molech". The Nephilim, the product of the sons of god mingling with the daughters of Adam, the great biblical giants, "the fallen ones," the Rephaim, "the dead ones" (always wearing Black)—these descriptions are all applied to one group of characters found within the Hebrew Bible. Who are the Nephilim? [Bullies, Tyrants, "Dead Ones")

From where do these "men of renown" come? They have been appointed as our Major "Adversaries" in this world—and It's Unmistakable Who They Are... Yours Truly, Ella Abolini.

The Invisible Rainbow Cancer and The Starvation of Life (Part 4) By Arthur Firstenberg

THE SAME AUTHORS HAVE FOCUSED ON FM RADIO EXPOSURE in connection with malignant melanoma, following up on the findings of Helen Dolk at the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine.

In 1995, Dolk and her colleagues had shown that the incidence of skin melanoma declined with distance from the powerful television and FM radio transmitters at Sutton Coldfield in The West Midlands, England. Noting that the FM frequency range, 85 to 108 MHz, is close to the resonant frequency of the human body, Hallberg and Johansson decided to compare melanoma incidence with exposure to FM radio waves for all 565 Swedish counties. The results are startling.

When melanoma incidence is plotted on a graph against the average number of FM transmitters to which a municipality is exposed, the points fall on a straight line. Counties that get reception from 4.5 FM stations have a rate of malignant melanoma that is eleven times as high as counties that do not get reception from any FM station.

In their article, “Malignant Melanoma of the Skin—Not a Sunshine Story,” they refute the notion that the tremendous increase in this disease since 1955 is caused primarily by the sun.

No increase in ultraviolet radiation due to ozone depletion occurred as early as 1955. Nor, until the 1960’s, did Swedes begin to travel to more southerly countries in large numbers to soak up the sun.

The embarrassing truth is that rates of melanoma on the head and feet hardly rose at all between 1955 and 2008, while rates for sun-protected areas in the middle of the body increased by a factor of twenty. Most moles and melanomas are now occurring not on the head, arms, and feet, but in areas of the body that are not exposed to sunshine.

Elihu Richter, in Israel, has recently published a report on 47 patients, treated at Hebrew University-Hadassah School of Medicine, who developed cancer after occupational exposure to high levels of electromagnetic fields and/or radio Waves.

Many of these people—especially the youngest people—developed their cancers within a surprisingly short period of time—some as short as five or six months after the beginning of their exposure.

This dispelled the notion that we must wait ten or twenty years to see the effects of cell phones on the world’s population. Richter’s team warns that “with the recent introduction of WiFi into schools, personal computers for each pupil in many schools, high frequency voltage transients measured in schools—as well as the population-wide use of cell phones, cordless phones, some exposure to cell phone towers, residential exposure to RF/MW from Smart Meters (above) and other ‘smart’ electronic equipment at the home and possibly also ELF exposures to high power generators and transformers—young people are no longer free from exposure to EMF.”

The range of tumours in Richter’s clinic ran the gamut: leukemia, lymphomas, and cancers of the brain, nasopharynx, rectum, colon, testis, bone, parotid gland, breast, skin, vertebral column, lung, liver, kidney, pituitary gland, pineal gland, prostate, and cheek muscle.

Viktor Schauberger Discovered and Harnessed The Power of Water By Tasha Shayne

Schauberger realized there are two forms of motion in nature — outward and inward. The outward motion is expansive and destructive. It generates heat, pressure, and even death. It was only this morbid action that mankind had known, thus far, in regard to energy production.

On the other hand, the inward, implosive quality of water produces coolness, suction, powerful vortices, and health benefits; it is used to build up and energize, and is therefore life-enhancing and life-promoting.

DESCENDING FROM A LINE OF FORESTERS THAT STRETCHES BACK MORE THAN 400 YEARS, Austrian engineer Viktor Schauberger harnessed the power of nature to create numerous inventions in the early 1900's.

Schauberger spent years caring for more than 10,000 hectares of land, during which time he developed a particular reverence for water, studying its all-powerful force and potential.

Though Schauberger refused to attend university — ardently believing it would weaken his intuition and creativity — it was through self-taught studies where he garnered the wisdom, knowledge, and inspiration for his advanced theories and technologies.

What he discovered harkens to the soul of the Gaia principle — that, like Earth, water is a sacred, living organism. But beyond Schauberger's genius is a human tragedy, engineered by politics and inhumanity, laying to rest what could have been a saving grace for all life on the planet.

Viktor Schauberger's Living Water

Following keen observance in the alpine wilderness, Schauberger adopted a shamanistic relationship with water and called the substance the "Blood of the Earth," recognizing it as the progenitor of life and consciousness. More so, he entertained a holistic vision of energy; where it comes from, how it is used, and what traces it leaves behind after it is spent.

A Water Vortex (Whirlpool)

Schauberger showed that small changes in temperature affect the process of energy and that life and energy are created through a delicate balance between attraction and repulsion of polarized atoms.

Holistically, he noted humankind's lack of respect and support for the natural process would eventually lead to the demise of the environment. He envisaged a world wherein people could work, live, and thrive in tandem with nature's laws — this would be the only hope for survival on this planet.

Viktor Schauberger's Inventions

Schauberger lived by his motto — "Kapiere und kopiere," or "comprehend and copy nature." As a practice, he observed many behaviors of water, from its spiraling forms to its vortices. His study of these characteristics and other natural phenomena inspired many of his inventions and water implosion devices. His work focused on water's behaviour and how it moved in harmony with other natural forces found throughout the cosmos. Unlike other forms of energy, Schauberger's beloved water left no pollution or toxic residues.

Schauberger knew that the secret to survival for the planet revolved around water. Since the beginning of time, life has depended on water for survival.

But there are areas throughout the world where people, plants, and animals face imminent extinction due to threatened sources; going dry continuously looms over billions of species, including human beings. Schauberger held the promise of a planet of blooming deserts, abundant crops, and thriving peoples.

“Protecting the secret of water is a means to protect the interest-power of money. Only in an economy of scarcity can interest thrive. The price of food and the cost of mechanical power would sink to such low levels that speculators would be able to gain nothing from them.

Free access to nutrition and mechanical energy are such radical ideas that our concept of the world and all ideologies would be turned upside-down...The secret of water is the capital of Capital—which is why any attempt to reveal it is ruthlessly terminated in embryo.”– Viktor Schauberger.

But it wasn't just the quality and availability of water that Schauberger found so interesting — it was how water behaves, creating vortices, generating energy, purifying its immediate environment, and so on.

From his observations, he formulated a unique theory of hydrodynamics. The inward moving and twisting water vortex held the secret to its usefulness and benefit. According to physics, vortices build upon one another in a system that is coordinated and phased together. Bigger and bigger forces are released when water is allowed to build.

These forces build or condense biological systems. They also create what Schauberger called dia-magnetism, an opposing force to gravitation that enables life-forms on the surface of the earth to grow skyward into the air (left).

From what he observed of water, Schauberger invented home power plants and a water implosion turbine that drew in air that spiraled such that the dia-magnetic field created tremendous force.

Among Schauberger's inventions was a machine that produced mountain-quality spring water; the Klimator, a machine which employed a suctional force Schauberger compared to a typhoon, to naturally manipulate the temperature of a room; and a home power generator that created energy from water and air with jets travelling through spiral pipes.

Caught in the War Crosshairs

Schauberger's genius caught the attention of all the wrong people and he found himself caught in the crosshairs of one of humanity's most destructive eras. Adolf Hitler met with him in 1934 to discuss the potential of weaponising water, but he refused to collaborate with the Nazis. Schauberger's resistance led to his internment in one of the most horrific of all camps in the Third Reich — Mauthausen, in Austria.

Against his will, Schauberger was forced to work on a prototype of a gravity-defying flying saucer, known as the Vril-7. It was in Mauthausen that he invented an anti-gravity device (above), called a Repulsine, to power it. Fortunately, by the spring of 1945, the armies of the Allied forces had put an end to the Second World War, thus ending all research and development of the Germany's war machine.

Afterward, there was a terrific fight over human resources on behalf of the British, Americans, and Russians. Along with scores of notable and valuable scientists, Schauberger became a natural target. What remained of his work fell into the hands of American and Russian agents.

In post-war occupied Austria, the Russians ransacked Schauberger's home looking for drawings and plans, and found nothing.

But it was the Americans who were able to take possession of Schauberger and hold him prisoner until they could successfully convince him to disclose his work.

Having no more use for him, the Americans set him free, but it wasn't long afterward that Schauberger died a broken and penniless man. Meanwhile, the Americans were already at work across the Atlantic, studying his ideas.

More than seventy years after Viktor Schauberger's demise, environmentalists still mourn the loss of so many brilliant works that could have presented humanity with a more sustainable road to progress — one based on renewable, clean resources for energy and technology.

Since Schauberger's Demise The Hunt Goes on For Free Energy

What if we could harness an energy source that provided free unlimited energy? An energy source that is pervasive throughout the universe and all around us, like a sea of energy.

The answer to this might be Zero Point Energy (ZPE). ZPE is thought to be the quantum energy that exists in what we see as empty space from electromagnetic waves. To give an idea of this type of energy's potential, one cup of ZPE would be enough to evaporate all the water in Earth's oceans.

Originally, it was believed that at absolute zero, also known as the vacuum state, all subatomic movement stopped. However, scientists found that, in fact, there is movement and extensive amounts of energy, which is referred to as zero-point energy.

The theory of ZPE and whether it can be harnessed to produce energy has been an ongoing point of contention. But ZPE's existence has been proven, and to hopeful scientists it has the potential to be a viable power source.

Sceptics brush it off as being either non-existent or impossible to attain as an energy source. But Dr. Garret Moddel (above) from the University of Colorado at Boulder, recently patented a prototype to harness ZPE.

Casimir Cavity

Moddel's method relies on what is referred to as a Casimir cavity for harvesting ZPE. The ZPE field is close to an absolute minimum energy field where electromagnetic fluctuations force particles to pop in and out of existence.

The Casimir cavity, consisting of two plates held very closely together with an electromagnetic field separating them, creates an even lower field restraining the atomic particles from these electromagnetic fluctuations which subsequently release energy that can be harnessed.

The atoms then travel out of the cavity and become re-energized by the universal quantum vacuum, which exists everywhere, allowing for an unlimited power source. And although this may sound fantastical, it is theoretically possible.

Who Was Voltaire

François-Marie Arouet; 21 November 1694 – 30 May 1778) was a French Enlightenment writer, philosopher (philosophy), satirist, and historian. Known by his nom de plume M. de Voltaire, he was famous for his wit, in addition to his criticism of Christianity—especially of the Roman Catholic Church—and of slavery. Voltaire was an advocate of freedom of speech, freedom of religion and separation of church and state.

François-Marie Arouet

Voltaire was a versatile and prolific writer, producing works in almost every literary form, including plays, poems, novels, essays, histories, but also scientific expositions. He wrote more than 20,000 letters and 2,000 books and pamphlets. Voltaire was one of the first authors to become renowned and commercially successful internationally.

He was an outspoken advocate of civil liberties and was at constant risk from the strict censorship laws of the Catholic French monarchy. His polemics witheringly satirized intolerance and religious dogma, as well as the French institutions of his day. His best-known work and magnum opus, Candide, is a novella which comments on, criticizes and ridicules many events, thinkers and philosophies of his time, most notably Gottfried Leibniz and his belief that our world is the "best of all possible worlds".

This Blind Age (Part 7)

WHENCE THE HANDSOMEST ARE USED TO UPBRAID THOSE WHO ARE LESS SO; ‘I am an elect Vessel, able to save those whom I attempt; which you have not Power to do.’

“The most beautiful of them were employed to seduce me; but God delivered me from their Wickedness; so that, after reading their Books, I escaped from among them, and discovered the several Names of them to the Bishops of those Part; and near eighty of them were sent into Banishment.

“The Valentinians, says Irenoeus, being in Love with certain Woman, would, without a Blush, seduce them from their Husbands, and make them their own Wives. Others of them, seemingly modest at first, pretended to live with them as sisters; and in Process of Time were discovered, Sister being found pregnant by Brother.

“And in aggravate their wickedness, they esteemed Copulation as a most sacred Mystery, known only to themselves; and which the Profane were not allowed to put in Practice: What was abominable in others being highly meritorious in themselves.

For, saith Irenoeus again, ‘They have this Grace descending to them from the unspeakable and unnameable Copulation above. For which

Reason they ought always to be meditating on the Mystery of Copulation.’

“And thus they persuade silly People, addressing them in Discourse, ‘Whoever is in the World and of the World, and mingleth with a Woman is not of the Truth, nor shall pass into the Truth; because he mingleth in Concupiscence.’ Therefore Continnence, say they, is necessary to us natural Men; but by no means to themselves, who are spiritual and perfect; among whom the Seed, small from above, is perfected here.” (Compare Tortullian, p. 261)

“To quote Clemens Alexandrinus, ‘I will bring in to open Light your most secret Mysteries; not ashamed to speak what you are not ashamed to worship.’ i.e. the secrets of both Sexes.’ For I may well call them Atheists, who impudently worship those Parts, which modesty forbids to mention.”

Such pagan Gnostic sayings as “Leap clear of all that is corporeal,” “Nothing is impossible,” and “think that you are everywhere at once,” are very reminiscent of “Jonathan Livingston Seagull,” written by Richard Bach (Below), one of the better known “New Age” authors, whose other philosophical works, especially illusions.

The Adventures of a Reluctant Messiah, also express Gnostic ideas. The “love” which was the “leitmotif” of the counter culture was the egalitarian and promiscuous love that is characteristic of Gnosticism, universal, impersonal, and non-discriminating, unfocused, without any special intensity of emotion or feeling for any particular person, people or thing. In sexual relations this promiscuous love was euphemistically referred to as “free love.”

In political and social matters it expressed itself as Universalism and the cosmopolitan “One World, One-Race, One People” ideal of Oneness.

Gnosticism’s influence on racial beliefs and values in particular, are only part of the explanation for the current dominance of Racial Nihilism in the western world.

The dominant trend of the “popular” or mass culture in recent times, from “pop” philosophy to “pop” psychology, has been to emphasize the individual while ignoring, denying rejecting, violating, and sacrificing the interests of the larger entity; the behaviour of race, of which the individual is a part and from which the individual came.

The Dominant Trend of the “Popular” or Mass Culture in Recent Times Has Been to Emphasize the Individual While Ignoring, Denying, Rejecting, Violating, and Sacrificing the Interests of the Larger Entity; the Behaviour or Race, of Which the Individual Is a Part and from Which the Individual Came.

The cultural trend is not limited to the secular sphere, but dominates in the religious sphere as well, where the “salvation” that is promised is the salvation of the individual, not the salvation or continued life of the racial behaviour (family) to which the individual belongs.

Some Racial Nihilists are extreme individualists, who only recognize the rights of individuals (or perhaps only the existence of individuals) in a very atomistic sense, not recognizing the rights (and perhaps the existence) of the biological group of which they are a part, whose existence transcends the sum of its parts and is potentially immoral.

This excessive preoccupation with the atomised individual, divorced or separated from the context of the larger genetic behaviour of which it is a part, is a classic example of not being able to see the forest for the trees.

The individual entities, whether tree or human being, come and go in their generations, but the larger entity of which they are a part, whether forest or race, lives on.

It is the enduring reality, the continuing reality, the behaviour. But one cannot exist without the other. The single individual and the forest or race, the part and the whole, both depend on the health and well-being of the other.

The ancient Greek word for separate was “idios.” Persons who were excessively preoccupied with their own private of individual affairs, to the point of neglecting or rejecting their responsibilities or involvement in the larger entity of which they were a part, and thereby separating themselves from it and from care or concern for its interests, were called “idiotes.”

It is therefore etymologically correct to refer to the condition in which an individual is so preoccupied with his own private interests as to be separated from involvement in, and care and condemn for, the interests of his race, as Racial Idiocy.

This common condition of racial idiocy is a contributing cause of Racial Nihilism, in both its active and passive forms. In a healthy culture racial idiocy would be regarded as dysfunctional.

But in the present culture the dominant position of Racial Nihilism enables the racial idiot to enjoy the conceit of moral superiority over those individuals who do not separate themselves from their race, but who care for it and promote its interests and preservation.

Those who advocate the destruction of the White Race are the worst sort of degenerates. They are totally ignorant of the fact that is through the White Race that every single civilization has been created; and if they are destroyed then the rest of mankind will be destroyed also. For they will not be able to exist without the White Race, God's Chosen People.

Count Your Blessings Laura Aboli

THERE IS NOT A DAY THAT GOES BY, without me thanking God for the blessings I enjoy. I have always been acutely aware of the lack, the loss and the suffering of others and I can't help but think of those that are now mourning the death of a loved one, or praying for the release of hostages, or sleeping rough having lost their homes.

I don't know why some people must face greater suffering than others in this life, it seems so disproportionate and unfair, that is why we must make it our duty, to help those in need when we can.

It's such a clear sign of who rules the world when there's an endless flow of money for wars but not so much for aid and reconstruction. To think that it's actually our hard earned tax money that is being used to induce and perpetuate human suffering, it makes my blood boil.

I dream of a future when humanity will transcend the trappings of our current limited understanding of our existence, purpose and power, so that we may finally live in community and cooperation.

I know it sounds utopian and unrealistic, specially in light of what we are seeing right now, but for some reason I remain convinced that we will get there. Every test, and we are now in the midst of one, is a chance to prove how far we've come along this evolutionary road. If you still allow the narratives to drag you into hate and division, then you still have a long way to go. If you are managing to stay afloat in a place of level headed analysis, insight, understanding and compassion, congratulations! You've come a long way.

It's not easy, we are, above all, sentient beings whose emotions are being played with in order to drive us into conflict and chaos. It takes a lot of strength and focus to remain above the psychological storm.

We will falter at times, but I have faith that the road we've already travelled has given us the wisdom to know better than to fall for the psyops again.

Let's not fail this test, humanity must at some stage graduate.
