Calling The True Israel Peoples

Editorial

Dear Reader,

Glastonbury Town Hall Seized

Unreported in the mainstream controlled media, Glastonbury Town Hall was lawfully seized by a group of local residents and other supporters under article 61 of Magna Carta, with the backing of the Duke of Rutland, head of the Baron's committee.

This event took place at 19:45 hrs, on 14th October 2014, but as yet no further information has been received.

It is poignant that this event, which could be the start of something much larger, should have happened at Glastonbury, a town so well known in identity circles across the world, with its association with Christ's and Joseph of Arimathea's coming to the British Isles.

It should also be remembered that back in the roaring 60's & 70's the local authority connived with a local land owner in setting up the annual Glastonbury Festival in 1970 and with the de-generate music and depravity associated with it, which tarnished the atmosphere and ambience of Glastonbury, a site of pilgrimage for true Israelites. At the same time they blocked free access and view of the ruins of Glastonbury Abbey by erecting a wall between it and the car park and at the same time charging an exorbitant amount to enter this site.

More and more people are coming aware that we are being ruled by a criminal alien Zionist Occupational Government - ZOG = GOG!

We praise Yahweh for the successful warning shot across one of the enemies citadels and trust it portends a quickening of his people to their origin and that great day, when the tares will be gathered up into bundles and burnt. Praise Yahweh and may that day come soon!!

"The Earth Is The Lords" (3)

THE LAND THAT IS GOD'S IS A FIXED PLACE

THE land that is God's is a fixed place, and is not described as that land in the possession of His holy people when outside of the Promised Land. God cares for wherever Israelites dispersed to in order to care for His people, and He responds to their repentance both individually and nationally.

We read about of setting land boundaries ("bounds") for His people where His people should live "alone", or be separate from other races.

Deuteronomy 32:8-9 When the most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel. For the LORD'S portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.

Numbers 23:9-10 "The people shall dwell alone, and shall not be reckoned among the nations".

The word "lot" has to do with land, and it appears that this relates to the land promised to Jacob. To "dwell alone" indicates an area or areas with boundaries around them, with only the one race within these boundaries. No other people than "Jacob" are ever spoken of as being "the lot of His inheritance".

The first part of 2 Chronicles 7:14 is very well known. "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attent unto the prayer that is made in this place. For now have I chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually".

But how often do we hear the latter part "That My name may be there for ever" quoted? Ask yourself, "where is this".

Jesus came to one people and to one land.

(Note: Acknowledgement is made here to R. N. Phillips of Australia to parts of the next two paragraphs).

On this the Bible is clear; Jesus came to that part of the globe that belonged to Him.

John 1:11,12 "He came unto his own, and his own received him not. But as many as received him, to them gave he the power to become the sons of God", ...

The word "own" appears twice in the verse – but in the first clause it is neuter gender while in the second it is masculine gender. Therefore John is referring to two different things. The first clause states that Jesus came to His own possessions [neuter gender] – His land, His Kingdom,

His city, His temple. In the second clause the term "His Own" is the Greek term oi idios [masculine gender] that means, literally, the members of one's own household. In this case it refers only to those who had authority over His Kingdom, city and Temple. (The vast majority of Israel were scattered abroad in the Dispersion and, at that time, were still classed as "not my people".)

Hosea 1:10-11 "In the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God".

Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: "for great shall be the day of Jezreel".

The place where Hosea spoke this was in the Promised Land. Israel will "come up out of the land" where they were with both Houses having "one head" and return to the Promised Land. See below who this "one head" is.

Jer 23:3 "And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again unto their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase".

V5 "Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will raise up unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgement and justice in the earth."

V6-8 "In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, The LORD Our Righteousness. Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; But, The LORD liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land".

So how could the place Israel was driven to be their final destination if they are to be gathered from there to go back to their "own land"?

Some like to say that this applies to Jesus' time, but Jesus did not reign and prosper as a King at the First Advent. Paul confirms, "And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God"- (Rom. 9:26). Jezreel was a place of much historic judgment, and at the Second Advent, "the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ" – (2 Thess. 1:8). God's people need to be much aware of, "Great shall be the day of Jezreel" instead of hiding behind smooth doctrines.

"TO THEM WHO DID RECEIVE HIM".

Going back to John 1:11, before we can complete the translation of verse 11, we have to look at the beginning of verse 12. The Greek text of verse 12 begins "but to those who did receive Him". In this clause and the last clause of verse 11, we have another instance of the AV translating two different Greek words as one English word – in this case, "received". The last clause of verse 11 states, in effect, those who were ruling over His possessions neither received nor accepted Him [as the owner]. It points to outright rejection, not through ignorance [which is covered by the phrase does not recognise Him in verse 10], but by wilful refusal to accept Him as the rightful owner. However, in the first sentence of verse 12 the word "received" has the meaning of to welcome or to accept willingly. Hence, while the Judean Nation rejected Him at a national level, there were individuals in that Nation who did both recognise and receive Him gladly.

Verses 11 and 12 read in the Greek text:

V11 He comes unto his own [possessions] but The people [ruling over His possessions] refuse to accept Him [as the rightful owner].

v12 But to those who welcome Him, to The ones believing in His name, to them He gives authority to [make themselves] become [because of their beliefs] children of God [again].

They were not everyone on earth who were born of bloods [plural in Greek] or by the will of the flesh [John 1:10-13]. Jesus came to His household who were born by the will of God.

Thayer's Lexicon says, "Household is used as stock, race, descendants of one".

The phrase translated the sons of God in verse 12 of the AV is quite wrong. The Greek phrase is "tekna theou" which means "children of God". Immature children, no doubt, but it does not mean sonship; for sonship points to growth and ultimate maturity. It is only "children" = teknon (of Israel) who have the potential to become "sons" = huios of God.

Nor does it have anything to do with the false doctrine of "adoption". On the contrary, the phrase forcefully asserts:

- a. the natural genetic relationship of a child with its true father and, hence,
- b. those children of God are the biological descendants of God Himself.

Note that John 1:13 states:

Which were born, not of blood [plural], nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

Verse 13 states that those who were given the right to become children of God [again] were those [begotten]:

a. not out of bloods - which is of ordinary human descent,

b. nor out of [the] will of the flesh - which was Sarah's demand to have children by Hagar and Keturah,

c. nor out of [the] will of a man - which was Abraham's desire for an heir, but out of God are begotten.

The Greek verb "begotten" is plural in this verse and so cannot be limited to the birth of Jesus. Isaac was not born of Abraham's will. Abraham was past that. Isaac was begotten by God's will when He regenerated Abraham and Sarah's ability to have a child and to give that child an individually incorruptible spirit. Isaac was thus begotten from above, as are Isaac's descendants from the time of their conception. In this portion of John 1 we find the origin of those who can believe in Jesus. Also we find where they did not [and do not] come from! Jesus came only [alone] to those begotten from above by God. He is shown to be the Redeemer of only His Kinsmen.

Misconceptions About Josephus, The Judean (5) Or, How To Tell the Difference Between a Jew and an Israelite! By Pastor Eli James

Confusion About the Historical Josephus

I could write many books on this subject of false teaching alone; but today I will focus on Josephus, who was neither a Jew, nor a Judeo-

Christian. Ethnically, he was an ISRAELITE of the House of Judah. Thus, he could not have been a Jew, for most Jews, as we should know, can easily be identified just by looking at them; they are of mixed racial heritage. "For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against Yahweh, to provoke the eyes of his glory. The shew of their countenance doth witness against them." (Isa. 3:8-9) The facial features of a half-breed are instantly recognizable. This trespass of mixed seed has always been emphasized in Scripture, yet no Judeo-Christian minister takes any heed.

The only possible definition of a Judahite is one who is of a singular racial stock, namely, a genetic descendant of the patriarch Judah. A male Judahite can choose his wife from any of the other twelve tribes or from the rest of the Adamic/Caucasian stock, which is, of course, the White Race. All other marriages are forbidden. NO ONE ELSE COUNTS AS A JUDAHITE. Since the Jewish people have never obeyed this law, they cannot be Judahites.

Now, we have two major discrepancies between Jews and Judahites. These discrepancies are covered up or glossed over by the word 'Jew.' It is part of the rabbinical deception that we have accepted the word 'Jew' to be synonymous with 'Judah.' If you cannot see through this deception, you will continue to think inside the box of their False Dichotomy. Remember, we have been pre-programmed to think Jewish thoughts 24 hours per day, 365 days a year, and this theme is reinforced every moment we watch toiletvision. The sales pitch is relentless.

Returning to the First Discrepancy mentioned above, namely, that Judahites are of a distinct genetic heritage, we see that we are the household, family, progeny, descendants, seed, children of Judah. Contrast this with the fact that the vast majority of Jews have always been of mixed-race descent. The Second Discrepancy is that the Judahites practiced the Law of Moses while the Jews have always practiced Pharisaism. The Law of Moses is the Religion of Truth but Pharisaism is the Religion of Lies. There is a vast chasm of irreconcilable differences between these two theologies! Yet, modern Judeo-

Christianity glosses over these differences as if they did not exist. The inevitable result of such glossing over is that the Religion of Lies will outwit the Religion of Gullible Christianity every time! Thus we have what is called "Judeo-Christianity," a religion which is built upon a Mountain of Lies, Jewish posturing and numerous false dichotomies.

Here is what Paul has to say about these interlopers:

"But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek [Titus was an Israelite of the Dispersion, not a non-Israelite, as you have been led to believe. If you know our history, you know that that Greece was founded by the tribe of Zarah, son of Judah]...Let me start over here so you can get the complete thought: "But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. [None of the Israelites of the Dispersion had practiced circumcision since 745 BC when they were deported to the Caucasus by the Assyrians. Hence, they were uncircumcised Israelites.] And because of false brethren unawares brought in [the Edomites of Idumea under Hyrcanus II], who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Jesus Christ, that they might bring us into bondage." (Gal. 2: 3-4.)

If you know the difference between a Judahite and a Jew, this statement by Paul is a perfect summary of our state of subjection to the Jewish impersonators ("false brethren") who had begun conspiring to deprive us of our liberty from 150 BC until today. They are still privily among us pretending to be us.

For 2,150 years, the Jews have been masquerading as the people of the Book, the Bible. But this association is a false one because the Jews are not the people with whom Yahweh made His Covenants. These Covenants were made EXCLUSIVELY with the FLESH AND BLOOD Israelites of the Twelve Tribes and their DIRECT, UNMIXED descendants.

In addition, the Covenant People followed the Law of Moses.

The Jews do not fit either description. They are neither Israelites nor have they ever followed the Law of Moses. These are simple, historical facts that cannot be disputed, once the Jewish bluff is challenged. These two simple, historical facts stand in opposition to 2,150 years of Jewish propaganda to the contrary. But propaganda is not truth. Propaganda is/are lies that are told to you by your enemy who wants you to believe he is your friend. Once you believe this propaganda, you naturally let your guard down; and when you do, that's when he strikes you with all his force. The most recent strike was 9-11-2001. Now, we are dying in another Jew-promoted war. This is how the Jews operate. Keep in mind that Judeo-Christianity is just one front in this Jewish battle against True Christianity today. "Jews For Jesus" is another aspect of this deception.

With the exception of those today who are sounding the warning against Judaism and Zionism, the world has been totally deceived by this monster. (Rev. 12:9)

In the final analysis, it is Truth versus Lies. It is Honour versus Deception. It is the Bible versus the Talmud. It is God versus Satan. It is Christian Identity versus Judeo-Christianity. It is GOOD versus EVIL. It is Jesus versus the Pharisees. These are the REAL DICHOTOMIES that must be addressed; but these dichotomies are ignored or shelved in favour of the false dichotomies.

In order to gain clarity about the true nature of any false dichotomy, we have to clear up the confusion inherent in false definitions. One of the best ways to do this is to take someone else's writing on a subject and expose the false dichotomies that are part of the writer's assumptions. I do not intend to vilify or embarrass this particular author. The fact is that these false ideas are pervasive throughout Christianity. But once someone puts his or her ideas out for public consumption, then those statements are fair game for criticism. I just want it to make it crystal clear that this is constructive criticism from the Christian Identity point of view. I hope it is taken as such.

Was Josephus a Jew or a Judahite?

Now, I know that there are many well-intentioned people within CI who doubt that Josephus was a Judahite, just as many within CI doubt that Paul was a Benjamite. I would simply suggest to these doubters, that, for starters, unless you can provide evidence to the contrary, we have no choice but to take the author at his word. In addition, I would proffer that an author's internal consistency is evidence of his sincerity and believability, if not total accuracy. Few historians can claim total accuracy. That is why we have to compare accounts by different historians. Then we do archaeology, geology, anthropology, etc., to find out whose account is backed up by the physical evidence.

From all evidence at hand, I can come to only one conclusion. Josephus is what he says he is, namely, a Judahite whose family comes from the Twenty-Four Courses. But if you are still thinking inside the Judeo-Christian box, you will make the false assumption that Josephus was a Jew. He was not. He was a Judahite. There are major differences between these two groups, as I explained in the earlier glossed-over discrepancies and as I will detail below.

I cannot hope, in this brief article, to settle the question of Josephus' ancestry to the satisfaction of most skeptics, but I think I can clarify some of the main issues that are completely confused by Judeo-Christianity. The essential fact is that Josephus was a Judahite, not a Jew.

Was Josephus a Pharisee?

To address these issues, I am going to critique the work of Marco Rusterholz, who, in my opinion, is a decent, honest Israelite, but unfortunately, he still thinks inside the box of Judeo-Christianity. He labours under the assumption that he has climbed out of that box; but I will attempt to show that he has yet to find his way out of that matrix of deception, for he is still under the delusion of several false dichotomies which he does not yet recognize. Marco has concluded that Josephus was a Pharisee. Is his conclusion correct?

[My comments will be in brackets [], in italics and post signed: – Eli]

[Marco's words will be in straight-up letters, regular black type. Where Marco quotes other authors, the words will be in regular blue type, and with "beginning and end quotes." -- Eli]

[Here is the beginning of his article. He begins by questioning the validity of the use of the Name, Yahweh, within Christian Identity:]

Josephus: a Pharisee? Yes!

First the pro YHVH crowd have thrown some statements at us – us who hold to the argument that the use of YHVH, and all of its derivatives, is a load of Babylonian hogwash. Or, as Elizabeth Dilling puts it on page 48 of 'The Plot Against Christianity'... "The skeleton letters of Jehova: Y-H-W-H, called the Tetragrammaton, is the "ineffable word" in Talmudic Judaism, being used in weird combinations to evoke the demons. Its use is restricted to the inner circle of Rabbinical Potentates."

[Here, Marco Rusterholz is attempting to link the Yahwist Movement within Christian Identity to the Babylonian Talmudic teachings of the rabbis, suggesting that the use of the Sacred Name, YHWH, is Jewish in origin. First of all, Elizabeth Dilling (left) admits that the use of the Name by Jews is limited to "Rabbinical Potentates." Secondly, Christian Identity cannot be held accountable for how the rabbis of Judaism make sacrilegious use of Scripture. It is important to understand that the Jews are, in fact, practitioners of such sacrilege. And this Marco fully understands. On the other hand, he believes that CI's use and promotion of the Name of Yahweh is "Babylonian hogwash." Nothing could be further from the truth. It is, in fact, Mr. Rusterholz who is teaching Babylonian lies not realizing that he does so. The fact is that the teaching that YHWH (translated as "I AM THAT I AM") is the Name of God comes directly from Exodus 3:13-15. No one, to my knowledge, has ever refuted Ex. 3:14. Even non-Identity scholars agree that YHWH is the True Name of the God of Israel. The Bible plainly states, "This is my name." One of the major lies that White Christendom is subject to is the claim that the "Old Testament was written by the Jewish scribes." If you believe this lie, then you will assume that the Bible is a "Jewish" book. It is NOT a Jewish book. It is a Hebrew/Israelite book. Jews are neither Hebrews nor Israelites, so it is NOT their book.

Although I am a great admirer of Elizabeth Dilling, who was a fellow Chicagoan and a most able critic of Judaism and Jewry, she was NOT aware of the distinction between the Judahites of the Old Testament and the modern Jew. She falsely believed, as do most outside of CI, that the Jews were Judahites who at one time practiced the Law of Moses. Starting with this false premise, Miss Dilling then falsely associates the rabbis with the Levitical priesthood. She does not realize it, but she has associated the wolves with the sheep! Miss Dilling was not aware of the impersonation that occurred at the end of the Hasmonean Dynasty, when Antipater and Herod deposed the true Judahites from their lawful authority over their own people. She is not alone in being confused about this subject, because the rabbis of Judaism have done a masterful job of hiding this history from us. As far as I know, I am the only Christian historian who has ever broached this subject of the exact origin of Talmudism, so I am keenly aware of how the rabbis have deceived the whole world on this score.

Here are the facts: The Levitical priesthood was AN EXCLUSIVELY JUDAHITE PRIESTHOOD, both in terms of racial descent and in terms of their adherence to the Law of Moses. Under no circumstances can the Levitical priesthood be confused with the Pharisees of Yahshua's time. But this is exactly the historical deception which the rabbis have managed to accomplish in our minds. It was these Pharisees who originated the religion called Judaism. The authors of the Bible had nothing to do with that diabolical religion called Judaism. That was started by the Pharisees. Both Dilling and Rusteholz have succumbed to the rabbinical deception that the two derive from the same source or that Judaism derives from the Mosaic Law. Here is the simple fact: Mosaism is Scriptural. Judaism is Babylonian. It is true that Judaism INCORPORATES the Torah into its tradition; but Judaism is far more than the Torah. Judaism is inseparable from the Babylonian Talmud; and the rabbis reserve unto themselves the right to have the Talmud overrule the Torah whenever it suits their agenda. Numerous rabbis have admitted this fact in publications intended only for Jews. Publicly, however, the rabbis have duped virtually everyone into believing Judaism derives from the Mosaic Law and that the rabbis are its lawful or rightful custodians.

An example of this confusion of rabbinism and Judaism with the Mosaic Law can be found in The Interpreter's Dictionary of the Bible, Vol 4. Under the topic of "Simon the Zealot," W.R. Farmer states on p. 938, "In addition to Simon the Zealot, the only other instance of pre-rabbinic Judaism where the cognomen 'zealot' is applied to an individual is found in II Maccabees, where Phineas is referred to as 'the Zealot Phineas' (18:12)."

What Farmer doesn't understand is that there was NO SUCH THING as "pre-rabbinic" Judaism. Judaism was INVENTED by the rabbis of Judaism, the Pharisees. There were no Pharisees during the Maccabean Period. The entire expression, "pre-rabbinic Judaism," is a non-sequitur because it presumes that Judaism existed before the Pharisaic invention. It's like saying "pre-Papal Catholicism." Well, there was no Catholic Church before the Popes declared it. The first Pope who deemed to declare himself the "Universal Bishop," or "Pope," was Boniface III in 607 AD. There was an abundance of Christian history prior to this, but none of the preceding Bishops (Patriarchs) of Christendom either took that title or recognized a "Pope" who had authority over any other Bishop. Catholicism and Popery go together, just as do Judaism and Pharisaism. This anachronistic use of words has given Judaism a false antiquity and a false standing in the eyes of all scholars and Christians who equate Judaism with the Mosaic Law.

Farmer compounds this error by retranslating Gal. 1:13-14, where he substitutes 'Judaism' for "the Jews' religion" as found in the KJV.

Here is the KJV: "For you have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion [Can it be any clearer that Paul regards the Jews' religion as DIFFERENT FROM Mosaism?], how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it: And profited in the Jews' religion above many equals in my own nation, being more exceedingly jealous of the traditions of my fathers."

Here, Paul is telling us that he was raised in the traditions of the Pharisees, as everyone knows. Note that he makes a sharp line of distinction between the "Jews' religion" and that which was of "my own nation." Since Paul was a Benjaminite, he was an Israelite of the Covenants. The fact that he practiced Pharisaism does not change his race from Israelite to Edomite.

Here is Farmer's translation: "You have heard of my former life in Judaism, how I persecuted the church of God and tried to destroy it; and I advanced in Judaism beyond many of my own age among my people, so extremely zealous was I for the tradition of my fathers."

Although Farmer is technically correct in referring to the religion of the Pharisees as "Judaism," the fact is that there was no such name for Pharisaism at that time. His translation is anachronistic and conveys the standard impression that Judaism was a well-established religion before Pharisaism. So, the KJV translation is more accurate because it clearly differentiates between the Jews' religion versus the religion of HIS OWN PEOPLE. Remember, Christianity was still in the process of being developed from Mosaism at this time. Peter and the other Apostles were still operating under the Old Covenant.

Farmer, by using the word 'Judaism,' assumes that Judaism is the same as the Mosaic Law, which it never was. It is precisely such sloppy scholarship which gives credence to the false idea that the patriarchs of Judah practiced "Judaism." The proper understanding of this passage is this: Saul's family of transplanted Benjaminites in Tarsus practiced the religion of the Pharisees. Tarsus was a major centre of commerce where you will always find Edomite Jews in abundance! It was not until his conversion experience that Saul/Paul realized that Pharisaism and the Law were not the same. Saul was zealous for the wrong law! Complicating this factor is the fact that Paul was one of the few who understood that the NEW COVENANT was put into effect at Calvary, thus abolishing the sacrificial priesthood, whether it be Levitical or Pharisaic.

Whatever rituals the Pharisees practiced were either borrowed from the Mosaic Law or invented by them. This combination of expropriation and invention is today known as Talmudic Judaism. The Judahites of Judah never practiced this combination, for this "tradition" was unheard of until the time of the Pharisees, beginning around 150 BC.

At no time does Paul equate Pharisaism with the Mosaic Law. That is simply an assumption scholars have made because the rabbis of Judaism have been saying, for the last 2,000 years, that these two opposites are the same.

The historical fact is that the Pharisees (the first rabbis of Judaism) came into the nation of Judah as the first non-Judahite PRETENDERS. These non-Judahite Pharisees insinuated themselves into the company of Judah with the backing of the military power of the Roman army, because the Roman army was instructed to enforce the policies of one Antipater, an Idumean usurper of Judah's royal throne. Antipater had Rome install his son, Herod, another non-Judahite, as coregent with King John Hyrcanus as Hyrcanus was growing old.

This contrived co-regency presided over the newly combined territories of Judah and Idumea. This combining began in the year 150 BC. (A similar thing is happening today as the Jewish usurpers in America are attempting to combine America, Canada and Mexico into the new nation of Amerexico.) All these facts are given to us by Josephus himself in his writings. Josephus clearly voices his disapproval of these political developments and shows his loyalty to the Hasmonean Dynasty, of which John Hyrcanus was one, although it was not possible for Josephus to be privy to the secret machinations of Antipater and the Canaanite/Idumean merchants (the word 'Canaanite' means "merchant" or "trafficker") he represented. Josephus could only be aware of what happened on the political stage. He would have to deduce what might have happened behind the scenes. Josephus thus describes these events as an alliance between Hyrcanus and Antipater; but, in reality, it was a secret coup against Judah, by these outsiders from Idumea, who used Hyrcanus as their dupe.

The Jews did the same thing to Czarist Russia when they set up the Kerensky government to take a deliberate pratfall for the Bolsheviks. Thus, their imperialistic designs were cloaked by the cover of "democracy." The Jews are doing the same thing to America today. Claiming to be "Americans," they promote wars in our name; they infiltrate our highest offices; they pervert our educational system; they distort our culture with their sick forms of "entertainment," and our people are none the wiser, thinking that "the Jews are just like us," except for their religion, of course, which is presumed to be that of God's "chosen."

Is it possible for a nation to be more thoroughly brainwashed than America is today?

One crucial bit of information is contained in Antiquities, Book XIV, Chapter 9, Paragraph 5:

"But when Hyrcanus saw that the members of the Sanhedrim were ready to pronounce the sentence of death upon Herod, he put off the trial to another day, and sent privately to Herod and advised him to fly out of the city, for that by this means he might escape."

Is this not a classic case of a traitor covering for an infiltrator? Just as Rosenfelt (FDR) covered for Alger Hiss and Harry Dexter White? If Josephus were a Jew pretending to be a Judahite, would he reveal such facts or would he leave them out of his narrative in order to protect the guilty? Clearly, Josephus, the Judahite, is telling us, his kinsmen, that the Idumeans were in league with Hyrcanus. He does not treat these two peoples as if they were the same. It is only the Jews and their modern dupes and mercenaries who treat Judahites and Idumeans as if they were the same ethnic culture.

Now, the scribes were instrumental in getting the Pharisees a foothold in Judah. This is another aspect of history that our people do not know about. It is a fact that the House of Judah and the nation of Judah had employed Edomite scribes as recordkeepers, accountants, copyists, and as helpers since the days of King David. (These official employees are referred to in Scripture as Nethinim. Some Nethinim were Judahites. Others were Edomites.) Some of these Edomite scribes may have been loyal employees, but I guarantee you that most of them were agents of the foreign devils, acting as spies for the Edomites. Just as Jews today are Jews first and Americans last, they are working for their own people, their own agenda, their own religion, their own culture, their own profit, their own Israeli State, and their own god, Satan. Anyone who gives a Jew credit for being an American is thoroughly deceived, for all Jews are Jews first, Americans last, even if a particular Jew may be friendly to a particular non-Jew. This is the Jewish way. Any Jew who deviates from it becomes an outcast with the full force of Jewish excommunication coming down upon him, as Arthur Koestler discovered when he published his book, The Thirteenth Tribe, exposing the fact that 95% of today's Jews are not even Shemites, let alone Judahites or Israelites!!!

The Modern Descendants of Zara-Judah

W. H. Bennet & John D. Keyser

WHEN JACOB (ISRAEL) gave his dying blessing to his twelve sons, he associated each of them with some animal, object or personal characteristic which afterwards became the emblem of the tribe descended from him. Among these the LION, the emblem of Jacob's fourth son Judah, is of special importance. This lion, in a couchant (lying down) position, became the emblem of the tribe of Judah; then, in a passant position, it became the emblem of the Camp or Brigade of Judah. Later, with the addition of a crown, it became the emblem of the Royal House and the throne of Judah. Still later, in a rampant (standing on the hind legs with both forelegs elevated) posture and with a crown, it became the symbol of the two-tribed House and Kingdom of Judah.

Yet this lion, usually portrayed as tawny or golden in colour, is not the only emblem of the descendants of Judah -- or even the only lion!

Zarah and Pharez

In the last four verses of Genesis 38, we find recorded the birth of twin sons to Jacob's fourth son Judah. Notice what these verses say:

Now it came to pass, at the time for giving birth, that behold, twins were in her womb. And so it was, when she was giving birth, that the one put out his hand; and the midwife took a scarlet thread and bound it on his hand, saying, "This one came out first." Then it happened, as he drew back his hand that his brother came out unexpectedly; and she said, "How did you break through? This breach be upon you!" Therefore his name was called Perez. Afterward his brother came out who had the scarlet thread on his hand. And his name was called Zerah [Zarah].

This is one of the most important events recorded in Bible history. The births of a great many other people are recorded in the Bible, but in this one case ONLY are the details given -- why? Why is this particular birth singled out for such special attention?

This birth was a matter of great and special significance because Judah's other sons could not inherit the prophetic promise that from his descendants would come the future Royal Family of the nation of Israel. This was because they were the children of a forbidden union -- their mother was a Canaanite! Therefore, with the older of these two boys destined to be the ancestor of the future Royal Family of Israel, the question of which of them was born first (and therefore the heir) was a matter of very great importance. It was also, as the Bible shows, the basis or beginning of serious family trouble.

In the record of the birth, we find that the hand of Zarah (Zara) appeared first, and that the midwife tied a scarlet thread or cord around his wrist, saying: "This came out first." We then read that the hand was withdrawn, and that the birth of Pharez ensued. Here, indeed, was the seed of family discord. Which boy was the firstborn and, therefore, the heir: Zara with the scarlet cord around his wrist and the pronouncement "This came out first" or Pharez (Perez) whose birth was completed first?

Eventually Pharez was declared the rightful heir, and from him descended the official branch of the Tribe of Judah and the Davidic Royal House. Now how did Zara and his descendants react to what they, undoubtedly, considered a wrong decision that robbed them of their rightful inheritance?

That they did not accept this ruling and that many of them left the main body of Israel during the time of the bondage in Egypt, becomes very clear when we examine the tribal genealogies as recorded in the Old Testament. These record the main lines of descent from Pharez-Judah for a very long period of time -- but the record of the descendants of Zara-Judah apparently ends with the third generation.

Since these genealogies -- and especially those of the chief families in each tribe -- were kept with great care, any omission would indicate that those omitted were NO LONGER in the land when the record was made. As the genealogy of Zara-Judah apparently ceases with the third generation, it naturally follows that most (if not all) of Zara's descendants must have left the main body during the time of Israel's captivity in Egypt -- and therefore BEFORE the Exodus. With this mind WHERE, then, did they go?

Since they were descendants of Judah their emblem was a lion. It is very unlikely that they would give up this emblem of their identity and descent -- even though bitterly resentful towards the rest of the Tribe of Judah. They therefore kept the lion as their emblem, but added their own variations to it to show that they were entirely separate and distinct from the Tribe of Judah in Israel. In their bitterness they would make the difference as great as possible without actually doing away with the symbol. So, instead of a tawny couchant lion, they depicted theirs as both rampant and red. As a result, the Rampant Red Lion became an emblem of the Zara branch of the Tribe of Judah.

The Red Hand

Returning again to the birth of Judah's twin sons as recorded in Genesis 38, we find that the peculiar circumstances of this birth gave the descendants of Zarah (Zara) ANOTHER EMBLEM. Note again verse 28 --

And so it was, when she was giving birth, that the one put out his hand; and the midwife took a SCARLET THREAD and bound it on his HAND, saying, "This one came out first."

Here we have an emblem which is ABSOLUTELY UNIQUE, one which could apply to NO ONE ELSE and one to which the historical record draws special and emphatic attention -- a HAND, RED from the blood of birth, circled by a SCARLET THREAD or cord. In this unique way a Red Hand, or a Red Hand circled by a Scarlet Thread or cord, also became an emblem of the Zara branch of the Tribe of Judah.

Pre-Exodus Migrations

As we have already seen, the descendants of Zara-Judah, or most of them, decided to leave their brethren and flee out of Egypt to some new land (or lands) where they could establish independent kingdoms of their own. History and tradition records that they divided into two or more groups which then fled across the Mediterranean Sea from Egypt in different directions.

One of these groups was led by Calcol -- also known as Cecrops -- a great-grandson of Zara. Calcol and his group fled to Greece and founded the city of Athens. Another group, led by Darda or Dardanus, ended up in the Troad and became the ancestors of the Trojans. Not long prior to the Exodus, Gathelus (Miledh), a son of Cecrops or Calcol, returned to Egypt after killing a man. After assisting one of the pharaohs in his fight against the Ethiopians, Gathelus was given the hand of the pharaoh's daughter SCOTA in marriage. After living seven years in Egypt, Gathelus fled the land at the outset of the plagues and traveled westward to a land known today as Spain, where he settled for a number of years. During their time in Spain, Gathelus and his people founded a city which still bears the name of their ancestor Zara -- Zaragossa.

At this point we should realize that these descendants of Zara were racially Hebrews, being descended from Eber (Heber) through Abraham. Wherever they traveled they left this name like a footprint marking their journey to distant lands. Thus the river on the banks of which they founded the city of Zaragossa is still to this day called the Ebro, and to the land itself they gave the name Iberia -- the land of the Hiberi or Hebrews.

After residing for some time in Spain, Gathelus died and his widow Scota, along with her sons, left the land and voyaged northward to the island we now call Ireland. Once again, they took their name with them, calling their new home Hiberland or Hibernia, and the islands to the north of it, the Hebrides. Then, with Eremon as their king, these descendants of Zara-Judah founded the Kingdom of Ulster shortly after the Exodus, AND FROM THAT TIME UNTIL THE PRESENT, a matter of nearly 3,400 years, the emblem of Ulster has been a Red Hand circled with a Scarlet Cord.

The Red Hand As a Racial Emblem

Not only that, but three of Ulster's six counties (as well as the towns of Bangor and Dungannon) have the Red Hand as a part of their official emblems.

Now it is true, of course, that since the division of Ireland in 1920 the official Arms of Northern Ireland show the Red Hand alone without the Scarlet Cord, but this in no way alters the fact that the ancient and traditional emblem of Ulster was -- and still is -- a Red Hand circled by a Scarlet Cord.

The use of the Red Hand as a racial emblem is not confined to just Ulster -- or even to just Ireland. In Scotland it is found in the Arms of several of the old families and in those of at least fourteen of the Clan Chiefs: Davidson, MacBain, MacDonell, MacIntosh, MacKinnon, MacLean, MacLachlan, MacNeil, MacNaughten, MacPherson, MacGillivray, MacDonald of Sleat, Clanranald, and Shaw of Rothiemurchus. Colour variants of the emblem appear in the Arms of several other chiefs.

Therefore, by their use of the Red Hand, some of the people of Scotland also point to their Israelitish origins as descendants of the Zara branch of the Tribe of Judah.

The Declaration of Arbroath

At this point an interesting question arises -- how is it that the Scots who later invaded what is now called Scotland in 501 A.D. also have among their emblems the Red Hand that has been associated with Ulster since around 1350 B.C.?

Not all of the Scots came solely from Ulster. Their own records state that a large number of them came from Scythia, which is the ancient name of the country to the west and north of the Caspian Sea. Thus, in the Register House in Edinburgh, Scotland there is an ancient document called the Declaration of Arbroath, which consists of an official letter sent to the Pope by the Parliament of Scotland in 1320 A.D. and signed by King Robert the Bruce and some thirty of the Scottish nobles, in which it is clearly stated that this branch of the Scots came directly from Scythia after living for a long period of time in Spain. This document states that they moved from Spain to the country now called Scotland "1200 years after the outgoing of the people of Israel."

It could very well be that this branch of the Scots originally came to Spain with Gathelus (who himself came originally from Scythia) and then elected to stay in Spain when Scota and her sons moved into Ireland. They could have then joined their brethren in Scotland many years later after a long stay in Spain.

However, it could be argued that this "outgoing of the people of Israel" refers to the fall of Israel and the deportation of the Ten Tribes to Assyria, rather than the exodus of Israel from Egypt. If this refers to the Exodus -- which occurred somewhere around the year 1487 B.C. -- then this means that the Scots, if they came into what is now Scotland 1,200 years later, must have arrived there around the year 287 B.C. -- whereas Scottish history shows that they did not arrive until approximately 500 A.D.

If the deportation of Israel to Assyria is meant (which was completed in 718 B.C.) then this branch of the Scots arrived in Scotland in 483 A.D. (or a few more years later as indicated in the 1703 translation of the Declaration of Arbroath), which brings us very close to the year 501 A.D. which Scottish history gives as the date the Scots did indeed arrive.

If, then, this branch of the Scots came from Scythia through Spain directly into Scotland, it seems very unlikely that the Red Hand of Scottish heraldry came solely from Ulster. In support of this we should note that the Red Hand, as it appears in Scottish heraldry, is NOT encircled by a Scarlet Cord as was the ancient Ulster emblem.

However, despite this slight difference, it is obvious that the Red hand (sometimes pink) as it appears in Scottish heraldry and the Red Hand of Ulster are the same emblem.

When we consider the fact that this later branch of the Scots claim they came into Scotland from Scythia and that they mention their stay in Spain, but say nothing of a stay in Ulster, it becomes evident that the Red Hand must have been an ANCESTRAL EMBLEM which both branches of the Scots brought with them from some ancient homeland.

Of even GREATER IMPORTANCE is the fact that the Scots dated the arrival of a later branch in Scotland from an event in the history of Israel. This is something they would be very UNLIKELY to do unless they themselves were Israelites. Further, they say they came from Scythia, which is the place to which the Israel people migrated after their departure from Assyria. In view of the origin of the Red Hand emblem recorded in Genesis 38, and in the fact that a Red Hand thereby became one of the emblems of the descendants of Zara-Judah, we have to conclude that the people who brought the Red Hand to Ulster so long ago, and the Scots who later brought it to Scotland -- though coming at different times -- had a COMMON ORIGIN in the Zara branch of the Israelitish Tribe of Judah.

Finally, in consideration of the heraldic significance of the Red Hand, we should note that, as descendants of Zara-Judah, the first settlers in Ulster were also entitled to use the Rampant Red Lion. In the official Arms of Northern Ireland we indeed see that it holds an important place therein. Another point of interest in these Arms is that the Red Hand has as its background a six-pointed star which is reminiscent of the form of the hexagram. [Editor's Note: The Hexagram on the Ulster flag indicates that the province is under the control of Gog, whose headquarter's is in the City of London, 6 being a component of the number of the beast 666, and for that reason the province's territory was reduced to 6 counties instead of 9 as it was prior to partition, where the red hand was displayed in a shield.]

Dardanus

With these things in mind, let us now turn to that other part of Zara's descendants which fled out of Egypt under the leadership of another of Zara's great-grandsons called Darda. In the Authorized Version of the Old Testament this name is spelled Dara, but in the margin the alternate spelling is Darda -- and the Judean historian Josephus calls him DARDANUS. This is significant because the group which he led went northward across the Mediterranean Sea to the northwest corner of what we now call Asia Minor. There, under the rule of Darda (Dardanus) they established a Kingdom, later called Troy, on the southern shore of that narrow body of water which bears his name to this day -- Dardanelles. Hundreds of years later this Kingdom was destroyed in a war with the Greeks. Some of the survivors fled northward into Europe where their emblem, the Rampant Red Lion, appears in the Arms of some of the nations, provinces and old families in the lands near or bordering the North Sea.

Others fled westward across the Mediterranean to Spain and on to the British Isles where, with some members of other Israelite tribes, they were the first settlers in much of what is now called Scotland. A large group led by Prince Brutus (a direct descendant of Dardanus and Zara) lived in Italy for a while where they founded a royal line before moving on to Britain by way of Spain. They arrived in Britain around the year 1100 B.C.

Although Britain had a considerable population long before the arrival of these Trojans, their coming and the setting up of this transplanted Trojan Kingdom is the ACTUAL BEGINNING of the British nation.

The Rampant Red Lion

From that time until the coming of the Saxons into South Britain (England) 1,600 years later, a RAMPANT RED LION was the emblem of ALL Britain. With the coming of the Saxons its use in England as a national emblem was discontinued, being replaced by the emblems brought in by the Saxons and Normans. Nevertheless, in North Britain (Scotland) it is the chief emblem -- as found in the Scottish Standard. The fact that the use of the Rampant Red Lion as a clan and family emblem is found in Scotland indicates that many of the Scottish people are descended from Zara-Judah. An examination of the Arms of the Clan Chiefs and other ancient families will show that at least twenty of them contain a Rampant Red Lion. A colour variant of this emblem appears in several more: The Earldom of Fife; Abernethy, Lord Saltoun; Dundas; Duff, Farquharson; Guthrie; Hepburn, Earl of Bothwell; Leslie; Lindsay; MacBain; MacIntosh; MacLachlan; Clanranald; Maitland, Earl of Lauderdale; Moncreiffe; MacDonald of Sleat; Shaw of Rothiemurchus; Spens of Lathallan; Stuart, Marquis of Bute; and Wemyss. It is also important to note that the Rampant Red Lion appears on the Royal Standard and on the shield in the Royal Arms. Further, it was also the ancestral emblem of the Royal Houses of several of the ancient principalities of Wales -- for instance Bleddyn ap Cynfyn who died in 1075 A.D. A colour variant of this emblem appears in the Arms of several of the other ancient Welsh Royal Houses. Even in England it, or a colour variant of it, appears in a few municipal Arms and in a much larger number of family Arms.

Important, too, is the fact that the Rampant Red Lion emblem appears in the heraldry of the Netherlands -- either on the shield or as a supporter -- in the provincial Arms of South Holland, North Holland, Utrecht, Zeeland, Limburgh and Overijssel; and in the municipal Arms of some fifty other places.

In this article we have presented evidence of the ancient usage of the Red Hand as the emblem of Ulster, and its use in much of the rest of Ireland and in Scotland. Also, we noted that the Rampant Red Lion was the emblem of ancient Britain. What the reader may have overlooked, however, is that for at least 1,500 years before the coming of the Saxons into Britain these two emblems of the Zara-Judah branch of the Israelitish Tribe of Judah were the chief emblems of the British Isles -- the RED HAND in Ireland and the RAMPANT RED LION in Britain.

The End

Did God Build A “Nation” Or A “Race”? (Part 2)

By:

Edward Charles Anderson

Gen 24:2 And Abraham said unto his eldest servant of his house, that ruled over all that he had, Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh:

Iwould like to clarify the word “servant” here.

It “can” be used to refer to a “slave” but since there are about eight different meanings to this word, it does not have to mean that this person WAS a “slave.” It can and has been used to show a lower ranked person in reference to a higher ranked person. Also, WHY would a “slave” rule over all Abraham had when Isaac is a SON, and was around 37 years old at this time, an adult, who was fully capable to inherit and rule over his own father’s household!? I contend that this “servant” would be the “firstborn” of Abraham’s concubines and THAT would be a reason why he had “rule” over ALL that he had.

Gen 24:3 And I will make thee swear by the LORD, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell:

Gen 24:4 But thou shalt go unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac.

I have a question for those that espouse the “NATION” theology. My question is: If God was ONLY building a “NATION,” and that would have included ALL of the “servants” of Abraham’s household, then WHY did Abraham send his servant BACK TO ABRAHAM’S FAMILY TO GET A WIFE FOR ISAAC, when all Isaac had to do was just marry one of the servants!!!??? After all, he already was given the Promise of Covenant through his seed/children, so it shouldn’t have mattered if he married one of the “servants” since it is taught / preached / believed that these “servants” were counted as Abraham’s household/NATION!? Answer PLEASE!!! It is apparent that these “servants”

WERE NOT COUNTED AS A PART OF THIS NATION: PLEASE SEE EXODUS 1:5 if you have any doubts about this. We see the same pattern repeated when Rebecca tells Isaac to send Jacob to her family to get a wife, and this again, would have been a moot point if all Jacob had to do was marry one of the “servants” since, it is taught, they were all “intermarrying” among the household of Abraham and Isaac. Ahhh, I don’t think so, and these verses PROVE it!!! Once again, sloppy and flippant studying of the Scriptures.

Gen 27:46 And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth: if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these which are of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me?

Gen 28:1 And Isaac called Jacob, and blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

Isaac COULD have told Jacob, “I don’t want you to take a wife of the daughters of Canaan, you need to take a wife from the “servants” of Abraham my Father, or one of the “servants” that I have acquired, since God is building a “NATION” and NOT a “RACE”!!! THIS is what SHOULD have happened if these “servants” were counted among the “NATION” of Israel, and NOT by RACE, but we do NOT see that in Scripture, we see “RACE” being accounted for here. There is no getting around this in the Scriptures.

Gen 28:2 Arise, go to Padanaram, to the house of Bethuel thy mother's father; and take thee a wife from thence of the daughters of Laban thy mother's brother.

Now, it will become apparent AFTER the sons of Jacob are born, that THEY have some wives that were not of Hebrew ancestry, even as Joseph was given an Egyptian for a wife. I am well aware of these problems, and it can be argued that this “proves” that God built a “NATION” and not a “RACE” but time works ALL problems out. From the Scriptures I will now show, I believe that God has the power to make sure people “interbreed,” if I may be allowed to use that term, to phase out outside genetics.

But one last point in the life of Jacob that can be proven that God was building a “RACE” and not just a “NATION” with Israel:

Gen 32:16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and said unto his servants, Pass over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drove.

This verse proves that Jacob had “servants” as these were the ones that drove the animals that Jacob presented to Esau as gifts, when Jacob was returning to Canaan. Yet, we are told in EX. 1:5 that it was only the people that were directly descended from Jacob that was counted in Egypt. Either a lot of people are dyslexic and can’t read very well or they have a theological bias that they are trying to pass onto the gullible that is not proven by Scripture. It is clearly shown that God was building a “Race” from the descendants of Isaac, the ones that had the Right of the Covenant promised in Gen. 17:19!!! Again, the “servants” from Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob were not intermarrying within the Tribe!!! It was only “direct descendants” that were counted!!!

This is the other major verse that they use to try to prove God was building a “Nation” and not a “Race.”

Exo 12:38 And a mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, even very much cattle.

I have to agree in this instance that this “mixed multitude” had been absorbed into the gene pool by Israel, but by that time, there were around five MILLION Israelites so it would not have affected the gene pool of the Israelites that much. Again, God can get people to pair off that would phase out a lot of outside genetics. A good case in point is that America has had some 300 plus years of immigration and up until 1960; it was still roughly 90% Caucasian. It was only after the “sexual revolution” of the late 1960’s that there has been a heavy occurrence of inter-racial marriages, but even today, in 2014, the majority of the population is still 69% Caucasian. So even if there were a “mixed multitude” in Israel, they were not the majority, and as the case in the US, it has not been proven that this “multitude” all married Israelites or they had that much effect on the gene pool. I am very well aware of Rahab Ai & Ruth, outsiders, marrying into Israel, but as I stated, this was the “exception” and not the norm, and had very little affect on the gene pool. Still, on the matter of the Israelite people intermarrying with all of the countries around them, they were commanded to be a Separate People:

Num 36:6 This is the thing which the Lord doth command concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them marry to whom they think best; only to the family of the tribe of their father shall they marry.

As can be seen from the above verse, even the daughters of Zelophehad had to marry within their own Tribe, they could not marry anyone from outside of it. Again, if God was only building a “Nation” out of Israel and not a “Race” there would not have been a need to prohibit marriage outside of the Tribe. Even the other Israelite Tribes had been forbidden in this instance so this was not a matter of marrying “foreign/pagan” men as some would want to postulate.

We are told in the verse below that God had Separated Israel from ALL of the other Nations of the earth!!! There was no need to do this if any Tom, Dick, or Harry could marry any Israelite man/woman they chose since they would have all been “counted” as an Israelite if God was only building a “Nation.”

1Ki 8:53 For thou didst separate them from among all the people of the earth, to be thine inheritance, as thou spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord GOD. Well, these people who espouse the “Nation” building concept have to twist some Scripture to do it and I have to give them credit for at least being consistent if nothing else. One of the ones that they throw in to “prove” their “Nation” thesis is:

Lev 19:34 But the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

If they would only go back to Gen. 17:19, 21 and remember who that Covenant was made with, there should not be any confusion as to whether God was establishing a “Nation” or a “Race.” If Ishmael and Esau and their descendents, or the children of Abraham with his concubines, who were Direct offspring from Abraham could not get the Covenant, just where do they think Strangers / Foreigners could get it!? This verse was about equality legally, not about having a part of the Covenant. And they even try to twist Rom. 9:6-8 to try to state that these verses are talking about a “remnant” who acquired God’s salvation by Grace and this included the pagans/heathens who accepted Yahweh/Christ. Problem is, if they would have looked at what was stated in Genesis they would have correctly understood these verses in Romans.

Rom 9:6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:

Rom 9:7 Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.

Rom 9:8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

What Paul is saying here is that all of Abraham’s other children either through Hagar, Keturah, or his concubines, plus the strangers in Israel, who were to be counted as “Israelites,” remember Lev. 19:34, are not the ones that received the Covenant/Promises, only those descended from Isaac!!!

The “children of the flesh” were all of Abraham’s other children, but it is to be through Isaac’s line that was to have this Covenant. You have to always go back to the source of Paul’s use of Scripture because he usually convolutes the Scriptures when he states something. I fully understand why Peter had to warn us that Paul was so hard to understand, even for the apostles!!! It took almost a lifetime for me to figure this out myself and I am passing what I learned to any who will look into this. Far from proving Rom. 9:6-8 shows that God was building a “Nation” which anyone could get in on the Covenant/Promises; it once again proves that God was building a “Race” from the line of Isaac!!! Let us look at a few more verses to see if God was building a “Nation” or a “Race.”

Ezr 10:2 And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing.

Ezr 10:3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

Ezr 10:11 Now therefore make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.

Ezr 10:12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do.

If God was only building a “Nation” then there would not have been a problem with the Israelites marrying all of these foreign women. They would have been counted as being a part of that “Nation” just as they try to state that all of these “servants” in Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob’s household were intermarrying with Isaac’s offspring. But it is clear, that the intent was to keep the “bloodline/race” pure. Yes, there will be some that will try to state that the problem with these foreign women was that they were idol worshippers, and that was why they had to be put away. Really!? You mean to tell me that there wasn’t one “Godly” foreign woman in that whole lot!? Not one Rahab; not one Ruth; not one Asenath!? Not one!? Not one!? And the kids had to go!!! Please tell me it ain’t so!!

Let’s look at a few more verses that these “Nation” folks like to throw up to prove that God was building a “Nation” of Israel and not a “RACE:”

Num 31:9 And the children of Israel took all the women of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods.

Num 31:14 And Moses was wroth with the officers of the host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the battle.

Num 31:15 And Moses said unto them, Have ye saved all the women alive?

Num 31:16 Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD.

Num 31:17 Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath known man by lying with him.

Num 31:18 But all the women children, that have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.

As can be seen from the verses above, Moses was angry that they spared the women. There should not have been any Midianite woman alive!!! But Moses takes it upon himself to allow the captive virgins to be allowed to marry into the Tribes without getting any direction from God about what to do with the women. This does not prove God was building a “Nation” of anyone with the Israelites, but only that Moses took it upon Himself to allow these captive virgins to marry into the Tribes. Again, we have to ask ourselves that if God was only building a “Nation” out of Israel, there should not have been a problem with ALL of these women marrying into the Tribes, provided they cease their idolatries.

I have shown that there was no “intermarrying” among the household of Abraham, Isaac, or Jacob (left - Zubaron painting) with the “servants” in their households, I have shown that Israel was to keep themselves separate from the Nations of the world, I have shown that they were to marry with their own Tribes, I have shown that time after time it was always about The Race / bloodline of Isaac and not just a common “Nation” building that was going on with the People of Israel. In closing there are a few more verses I will touch upon to prove the thesis of “Race” not “Nation” and I go to:

Heb 2:16 For surely it is not angels that he helps, but he helps the offspring of Abraham.

This is in the English Standard Version. This is a more modern Version based on better Greek Manuscripts and it shows that “he” (Jesus) helps the “seed” (children) of Abraham, and I have already shown, and everyone who has rightly studied this should know, that it is the children of Isaac who are the inheritors of the Covenant / Promises, No one else!!

Please see my book “With Fury Poured Out” to verify this with more Biblical proof. The world will benefit from the Covenant as they are grafted into the Kingdom of the ones that have that Right of the Covenant. The problem and confusion arises that if the Covenant is based on “Race” and not on a “Nation” then HOW do the people of the world acquire the benefits of the Covenant!?! The answer is the SAME as it was in Lev. 19:34. As long as the foreigners dwell in the Kingdom as an Israelite, they are to be treated as an Israelite and to be counted as one among them. Still, the actual Covenant belongs to the children of Isaac as per Gen. 17:19 and Rom. 9:6-8. As I stated in the beginning of this article, God IS building a "Nation" out of Israel, but He is using a "Race," the descendants of Isaac, to do it. Everyone else benefits as they join themselves to these People.

Isa 14:1 For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.

Eze 47:23 And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord GOD.

As can be seen from the above verses, when the children of Israel are returned to the Land of Israel when Jesus returns to set up His Messianic Kingdom, the people who do not have a Right to the Covenant are called strangers among the Tribes!!! This is one of the strongest proofs that God is building a nation from the Race of Isaac, and not from all of the people of the world!!! I could add a lot more verses and proofs than I have so far, but the article would have to be a book; and I have written such a book to prove a "Race" and not just a "Nation" that included all of the other people of the world through "Jesus." But surely one ought to be able to understand that God built a Nation from the Race of the children of Isaac, as promised, and with no one else, as per Jer. 31:31 and restated in Heb. 8:8-10. The other non-inheritors of the Covenant benefit as they adhere to the children of Isaac as per IS. 14:1, and the Laws of that Israelite Kingdom.

The Jew, The Talmud, And The Language From Pastor Dan - USA

R A B B I
M O R -
R I S N.
K E R T Z E R
reveals the following concerning the Talmud, the Jew, and the language. "The Talmud consists of 63 books of legal, ethical and historical writings of the ancient rabbis.

It was edited five centuries after the birth of Jesus. It is a compendium of law and lore. It is the legal code which forms the basis of Jewish religious law and it is the textbook used in the training of Rabbis." Published in "Look" magazine, June 17, 1952. Morris goes on to say: "From the birth of Jesus until this day there have never been recorded more vicious and vile libellous blasphemies of Jesus, or Christians and the Christian faith by anyone, anywhere or anytime than you will find between the covers of the infamous '63 books' which are 'the legal code which forms the basis of Jewish Religious law' as well as the 'textbook used in the training of rabbis.'" Rabbi Morris continues:

"As to the origin of the present "Jews" in Palestine he states that those Jews derived from Eastern Europe are not descendants of the Khazars, a nation most people do not even know of." Morris goes on to say: "The so-called or self-styled "Jews" in Eastern Europe in modern history cannot legitimately point to a single ancient ancestor who ever set even a foot on the soil of Palestine in the era of Bible history. Research also revealed that the so-called or self-styled "Jews" in Eastern Europe were never "Semites," are not "Semites" now, nor can they ever be regarded as "Semites" at any future time by any stretch of the imagination.What secret mysterious power has been able for countless generations to keep the origin and the history of the Khazars and Khazar Kingdom out of history text-books and out of class-room courses in history throughout the world?"

The origin and history of the Khazars and Khazar Kingdom are certainly incontestable historical facts." The Khazars were an Asiatic nation (The Jewish Encyclopaedia states) that converted to Talmudic Judaism and that had conquered a vast area of Eastern Europe which was in turn later conquered by the Russians in the 10th-13th Centuries. Rabbi Morris writes: "After a historic session with representatives of the three monotheistic religions King Bulan (7th Century) decided against Christian and Islam and selected as the future state religion, the religious worship then known as "Talmudism," and now known and practices as "Judaism." They adopted the Hebrew alphabet and "The Khazars adapted words to their requirements from the German, the Slavonic and the Baltic languages," this language was known as "Yiddish." Yiddish uses the Hebrew alphabetic characters but is not Hebrew." In accordance to this history the religion of the modern state of Israel is based on Cabalistic and Talmudic traditions and is far removed from the Biblical worship of Yahweh.

Harold Stough Notes

Bardsey Island Or Ynys Enlli

The island is also known as the island of the currents and the saints. There are said to be the graves of 20,000 saints interred on the island. As well as being the burial place for monks and saints, it is said to be the final resting place of Merlin, who sleeps in a cave guarding the treasures of Britain, waiting for a time when he is needed again.

The island was colonized by St Cadfan in 516, and was the home to an Augustinian Abbey. A place of pilgrimage for many years three trips here was said to equal one trip to Rome. The actual trip over to Bardsey Island was very treacherous due to the unpredictable currents within Bardsey Sound; the pilgrimage must have been a hair-raising experience.

The isle is said to be haunted by ghostly monks, sometimes seen on the shore at night. Their appearance is said to foretell misfortune in the area.

Directions: The island lies off the Llyn Peninsula. There is a motor boat service from Aberdaron to Bardsey when the sea is not too rough

The Welsh Holy Island

When we consider the fame and the sanctity of the Isle of Bardsey and its monastery, but two miles off the end of the Llyn Peninsula in Gwynedd, it is surprising to find how little is known of its history. There is plenty of legend and fable, but facts are disappointingly few.

The Name

The island is known to the Welsh as Ynys Enlli. This is usually interpreted as "Isle of the Currents" or "Tide-Race Island," in reference to the treacherous waters of Bardsey Sound. It may, however, be a slightly corrupted form of Ynys Fenlli, "Benlli's Island". Benlli Gawr (the Giant) is said to have been an Irish warlord who conquered the Kingdom of Powys. He was deposed, from his fortress on Moel Fenlli, by St. Germanus (Garmon) around AD 447.

The island's English name, Bardsey, must be Scandinavian and we may imagine the island to have been the home of a Viking named Bard or Berd. There is a Bardsey in the West Riding of Yorkshire. A more obvious and romantic, though possibly groundless, interpretation would have the place as "Isle of the Bards," a sacred place of the ancient Celtic druids of pre-Roman Wales. Ancient legends tell that Merlin the Magician is buried here and some identify the island as Avalon where King Arthur died.

Foundation of the Monastery

The foundation of the well-known monastery on Bardsey is ascribed to King Einion of Lley, great-grandson of Cunedda Wledig, in conjunction with St. Cadfan. Einion, or Engan, is commemorated in the neighbouring Church of Llanengan. He lived in the first half of the sixth century. He also established the College of Penmen on Anglesey, of which his brother, Seiriol, was the principal.

Cadfan, at the head of a large company of Saints, arrived in Britain from Brittany, about AD 546, having been driven from his territories by the Franks. He appears to have been a person of distinction and his companions were men of princely blood. They included SS. Tydecho, Cynllo, Cynan, Dochdwy, Mael, Sulien, Tanwg, Eithras, Llywen, Llyfab, Tegwyn, Padarn, Trunio and Maelrys. Later arrivals were Gwyndaf, Sadwrn and Hywyn. They all gave their names to various Churches across North Wales.

The Early Celtic Church

Before the Norman Conquest, the principal churches in Britain were in the hands of communities of Clergy, with an Abbot at their head and a "Clas" of Canons. The monks lived in separate cells or huts surrounded by a wall. In Wales, this formed the "Llan" which also contained the Church, the Abbot's Cell and the hospice, all built of timber and wattle. The monks at first were supported out of the monastery lands which they tilled themselves, but other endowments came later and then degeneration tended to set in.

In the early period, the monks went about preaching or they might be sent out to found a new community; and, in the days when ascetic fervour was at its height, it was their ambition to discover some desert island in which they might live the life of self-denial. Thus the isles of the Atlantic coast in Ireland and Scotland came to be the "Isles of the Saints," and thus may have arisen the first settlement of the islands of Bardsey, St. Tudwals and Priestholm

Behind the Balfour Declaration (2) Britain's Great War Pledge To Lord Rothschild By Robert John

The Great War

UNTIL MID-1914, the surface of European diplomatic relations was placid, reflecting successfully negotiated settlements of colonial and other questions. But certain British journalists were charged by their contemporaries "that they deliberately set out to poison Anglo-German relations and to create by their scare mongering such a climate of public opinion that war between the two Great Powers became inevitable." (The Scaremongers: The Advocacy of War and Rearmament 1896-1914,

A. J. A. Morris, Routledge & Kegan Paul, 1984)

Were they paid or pure? Every anti-German diatribe in British newspapers added to German government concern as to whether it was part of a policy instigated or condoned by Downing Street. Further, there were groups in every major European country which could see only in war the possible means to further their interests or to thwart the ambitions of their rivals. This is why the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand, heir-apparent to the Austro-Hungarian throne, on 28 June in Sarajevo, soon set Europe crackling with fire, a fire which naturally spread through the lines of communications to colonial territories as far away as China.

On 28 July, Austria declared war on Serbia. Germany sent an ultimatum to Russia threatening hostilities if orders for total mobilization of the Russian army and navy were not countermanded.

A telegram dated 29 July 1914 from the Czar Nicholas to the Emperor Wilhelm, proposing that the Austro-Serbian dispute should be referred to the Hague Tribunal, remained unanswered. At the same time Germany sent a message to France asking if she would remain neutral; but France, which had absorbed issue after issue of Russian railroad bonds in addition to other problems, was unequivocal in supporting Russia. Amid mounting tension and frontier violations, Germany declared war on Russia and France.

The French Chief-of-Staff, General Joseph Joffre, was prepared to march into Belgium if the Germans first violated its neutrality [38] which had been guaranteed by Britain, France, Prussia, Austria and Russia. German troops crossed the Belgian frontier (on 4 August at 8 a.m.) and the United Kingdom declared war on Germany.

First Pledge

Lord Kitchener, who had left London at 11:30 on the morning of 3 August to return to Egypt after leave, was stopped at Dover and put in charge of the War Office. [39] At the first meeting of the War Council he warned his colleagues of a long struggle which would be won not at sea but on land, for which Britain would have to raise an army of millions of men and maintain them in the field for several years. [40] When the defense of Egypt was discussed at the meeting, Winston Churchill suggested that the ideal method of defending Egypt was to attack the Gallipoli

Peninsula which, if successful, would give Britain control of the Dardenelles. But this operation was very difficult, and required a large force. He preferred the alternative of a feint at Gallipoli, and a landing at Haifa or some other point on the Syrian coast.

In Turkey, the Sultan had taken the title of Khalif-al-Islam, or supreme religious leader of Moslems everywhere, and emissaries were dispatched to Arab chiefs with instructions that in the event of Turkey being involved in the European hostilities, they were to declare a jihād, or Moslem holy war. A psychological and physical force which Kitchener of Khartoum, the avenger of General Gordon's death, understood very well. Kitchener planned to draw the sting of the jihād, which could affect British-Indian forces and rule in the East, by promoting an Arab revolt to be led by Hussein, who had been allowed by the Turks to assume his hereditary dignity as Sherif of Mecca and titular ruler of the Hejaz. Kitchener cabled on 13 October 1914 to his son, Abdullah, in Mecca, saying that if the Arab nation assisted England in this war, England would guarantee that no internal intervention took place in Arabia, and would give the Arabs every assistance against external aggression.

A series of letters passed between Sherif Hussein and the British Government through Sir Henry McMahon, High Commissioner for Egypt, designed to secure Arab support for the British in the Great War. One dated 24 October 1915 committed HMG to the inclusion of Palestine within the boundaries of Arab independence after the war, but excluded the area now known as Lebanon. This is clearly recognized in a secret "Memorandum on British Commitments to King Hussein" prepared for the inner group at the Peace Conference in 1919. (See Appendix) I found a copy in 1964 among the papers of the late Professor Wm. Westermann, who had been adviser on Turkish affairs to the American Delegation to the Peace Conference.

The Second Pledge

As the major ally, France's claim to preference in parts of Syria could not be ignored. The British Foreign Minister, Sir Edward Grey, told the French Ambassador in London, Mr. Paul Cambon, on 21 October 1915, of the exchanges of correspondence with Sherif Hussein, and suggested that the two governments arrive at an understanding with their Russian ally on their future interests in the Ottoman Empire.

M. Picot was appointed French representative with Sir Mark Sykes, now Secretary of the British War Cabinet, to define the interests of their countries and to go to Russia to include that country's views in their agreement.

In the subsequent secret discussions with Foreign Secretary Sazonov, Russia was accorded the occupation of Constantinople, both shores of the Bosphorus and some parts of "Turkish" Armenia. [K] France claimed Lebanon and Syria eastwards to Mosul. Palestine did in fact have inhabitants and shrines of the Greek and Russian Orthodox and Armenian churches, and Russia at first claimed a right to the area as their protector. This was countered by Sykes-Picot and the claim was withdrawn to the extent that Russia, in consultation with the other Allies, would only participate in deciding a form of international administration for Palestine.

The Sykes-Picot Agreement was incompatible with the pledges made to the Arabs. When the Turks gave Hussein details of the Agreement after the Russian revolution, he confined his action to a formal repudiation.

Like the Hussein-McMahon Correspondence, the Tripartite Agreement made no mention of concessions to Zionism in the future disposition of Palestine, or even mention of the word "Jew." However it is now known that before the departure of Sykes [L] for Petrograd on 27 February 1916 for discussions with Sazonov, he was approached with a plan by Herbert Samuel, who had a seat in the Cabinet as President of the Local Government Board and was strongly sympathetic to Herzl's Zionism. [41]

The plan put forward by Samuel was in the form of a memorandum which Sykes thought prudent to commit to memory and destroy, Commenting on it, Sykes wrote to Samuel suggesting that if

Belgium should assume the administration of Palestine it might be more acceptable to France as an alternative to the international administration which she wanted and the Zionists did not. [42] Of boundaries marked on a map attached to the memorandum he wrote, "By excluding Hebron and the East of the Jordan there is less to discuss with the Moslems, as the Mosque of Omar then becomes the only matter of vital importance to discuss with them and further does away with any contact with the bedouins, who never cross the river except on business. I imagine that the principal object of Zionism is the realization of the ideal of an existing centre of nationality rather than boundaries or extent of territory. The moment I return I will let you know how things stand at Pd." [43] However, in conversations both with Sykes and the French ambassador, Sazonov was careful not to commit himself as to the extent of the Russian interest in Palestine, but made it clear that Russia would have to insist that not only the holy places, but all towns and localities in which there were religious establishments belonging to the Orthodox Church, should be placed under international administration, with a guarantee for free access to the Mediterranean. [44]

Czarist Russia would not agree to a Zionist formula for Palestine; but its days were numbered.

Strait Is The Gate - Matthew 7:13-14

John Trotter - Winnalee, Australia,

MANY years ago I came to the conclusion that if the majority, or even a large minority of people believed what I believed, then I would have to reconsider my beliefs. Over the decades it has become obvious that my views on many subjects have been the same as a very insignificant number of people: that is a remnant.

Whilst searching for the Truth on many matters, even outside the scope of Scripture, you soon realise that very few are prepared to be in the minority. The Bible is very clear that Truth is more difficult to accept than some scandal or baseless opinion. Truth has fallen in the street (Isaiah 59:14).

Because we do see through a "glass darkly" (1 Corinthians 13:12) we at times have to not only leave the door slightly open to someone's point of view, but also at times rethink our own thoughts. By doing the above we not only appreciate humility but we will value TRUTH when it is clearly presented.

Before I proceed with any comments the following are taken from 3 translations of verse 14. "For narrow is the gate and being afflicted is the way, the one leading unto the life and few are the ones finding it"(The Apostolic Bible Polyglot). "Because narrow is the gate, and constricted is the way leading away into Life, and few are those finding it" (Anointed Standard Translation). "How narrow the gate, and difficult the path, that leads to life! And they are few who find it!" (Ferrar Fenton).

It would appear from the above translations, as well as from Bullinger's Commentary that the more correct word for "strait" is narrow. As for the word "narrow" it is better to use the word straitened. One dictionary I have says that the word straiten can mean, "to cause to experience difficulties or distress, particularly financial hardship".

Strong's Concordance says "strait" (4728) means, narrow or obstacles standing close. As for the word "narrow" (2346) it means, to crowd, afflict, suffer tribulation, or trouble. The word "find" as used in the King James Version, means more than just finding something by accident when walking down the street. The deeper meaning is to deliberately go searching. It is true that very few have that type of intent and determination to search out something that has some hidden value. Not many search to understand the many hidden treasures that are in the Bible.

It is when we put effort and time into our search, that we then can value the prize. It is not too often that God grants us something for nothing. Once we have accepted the gifts from God that make us free, our faith is then often tested to prove our worth. It is this testing and tribulation that refines us and prepares us for honour that will be bestowed upon us if we are found worthy. The words of 1 Peter 1:6,7 say, "Wherein ye greatly rejoice though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ...."

In 1 Peter 4:12,13 we are requested to rejoice during times of suffering. It is no wonder so few want to find or search out the strait way. This is especially the case when you look to other religions when they portray life and meaning as being peaceful, harmonious, loving one another and any other phrases that cause you to think they have better things to offer. Walking with Christ can be very lonely especially when you separate yourself from the world.

The idea of safety in numbers is not the case when you take up your cross and follow Him. Fame and fortune is not the goal of "followers of the Way". When you stand for the faith once delivered unto the Saints you will soon realise it is not a popularity contest.

When you search for the Truth, separation from the masses will soon become obvious. You will be outside the realms of consensus of opinion. If you are willing to be a free thinker , question and analyse what is spooned up to us on a daily basis, the strait or narrow gate will be more acceptable even to the septic of accepted religion. But for those who seek the strait gate of Scripture will find their hope in Romans 15:4 where it says: "For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope".

During this time of apostasy and lukewarmness we must accept the fact that being in the minority is in accordance with Scripture. Even Israel was chosen because she was one of the smallest nations (Deuteronomy 7:7) . Jesus chose only 12 Disciples. The election process is structured on the basis that many are called but few are chosen. It is when we concentrate on studying the Word, that walking along the way will have more meaning and understanding ; that times of tribulation will be seen as not only character building but help us to understand that the narrow gate will lead us to the meaning of life.

The Undeniable & Self-Evident Edomite Creation Of The EU

<http://eurofolkradio.com/category/general>

A conclusive report on the undeniable & self-evident Jewish creation of the EU

One cannot completely and totally oppose the EU, without mentioning its anti-European agenda, the origins of which are undeniably and self-evidently Jewish, as are the staunchest promoters of a dysgenic, anti-European: 'United States of Europe', today and historically.

The way the EU is set up in terms of internal policy creation results intentionally in a situation whereby interest groups have more influence on the actions of the European Commission than do the national interests of each member state, this is openly admitted in academia.

This means groups like the European Jewish Parliament, European Jewish Congress, the international ADL and numerous other Jewish-centric organisations and lobby groups led by singular individuals such as Moshe Kantor (co-author of the policy suggestion paper 'Model statutes for the promotion of Tolerance') have more influence than any singular nation state on the formation of EU Commission policy.

The democratic deficit (technocratic dictatorship) inherent in the EU is also openly admitted within academia, not only is it admitted, it is stated that the lack of democracy was a deliberate part of the European Union, up until the formation of the European Parliament in 1979 this is self-evident, as from 1953-1979 the predecessor of the European Parliament was not even directly elected, neither was any part of the EU as a whole in its prior formations, showing that the project for a federalist Europe, pushed by Jewish-Supremacists, was designed initially and intentionally without any direct democratic accountability, so that it could literally ignore and over-rule the opinions of the people of Europe to push 'integration' and the destruction of each unique European state and its people quicker.

Like it still does to this day, in the same fashion that the Judeo-Bolshevik government of Russia and Ukraine ruled without any democratic accountability, resulting in the genocide of well over 100 million of its European population, including upwards of 7-18 million deaths in the Gulag-Achipelago and upwards of 14.5million deaths caused by deliberate periods of artificially created starvation or 'socially fair economic policies’, particularly engineered by agricultural collectivisation and regulations.

The real death camps, Jewish-Bolshevik
Gulag Locations in the USSR

Not dissimilar to the end-goal envisioned by Jewish-Supremacists for the CAP (Common Agricultural Policy), which has already resulted in the economic closure of thousands of farms in the UK since 1973 and the destruction of tens of thousands of farms in Germany, France and all over the European continent since 1962.

Only Jewish-Supremacists intent on using a governmental structure to deliberately exterminate the people within its borders through demographic warfare deliberately constructs its own governmental structure to go against public opinion, as was the project for a federal Europe from the start.

In addition to this, by definition, creating a “single European identity” is genocide, what is not often stated is that this European identity, is designed to include no ethnic European element and thus pave the way for an actual genocide, that will make the Judeo-Bolshevik holodomor and USSR Gulag exterminations look insignificant in comparison.

The Jewish ‘founding fathers’ of the genocidal-by-definition concept of the EU

Jean Monnet is considered the intellectual father of the European Union, he is also quite evidently Jewish, having been born into a Jewish merchant family, living in France, Jean Monnet spent his early life travelling around between trading centres for his families company and the rest of his life espousing and promoting a European federal state, with the aim of destroying the European people, he is openly called an ‘internationalist’ in academia.

The Jewish international pressure to enforce anti-white (masked as anti-racist) legislation into a future European federal state and the very idea to found a European federal state were clearly evident from as early as 1940, where Jews who “had been putting pressure on the Roosevelt Administration on this very point” (Fransen. F, “The Supranational Politics of Jean Monnet: ideas and origins of the European Community”, Greenwood publishing, 2001, pp.54) were holding meetings with various future heads of state, such as post-war French Prime Minister De Gaulle, to force the acceptance of the idea of a European federal state into the political elite before they were even in government, in the same way academia forces pro-EU sentiments into future politicians when they are still students, except the minority of aware students like myself or past figures such as Margaret Thatcher.

The Jewish attempts to create a singular European state are although much older, dating back to the founding purpose of the entirely Jewish: League of Nations, which also was the same governmental body (alongside our traitorous monarchy) which marked out the Mandate of Palestine. As always the genocidal ambitions of the Jewish people are clear and obvious for all to see in relation to Europeans and Palestinians alike

Richard Coudenhove-Kalergi (1894–1972) was an anti-European racist, he espoused that the founding purpose of a European federalist state would be to destroy the European people, not simply through reducing internal differences but through destroying Europeans entirely and replacing us with “a mixed race of Asians and Negros”.

This quote is a horrific revelation, one that has been covered up by the mainstream media and academic, even though Kalergi-Coudenhove is mentioned in lectures on the origin of the European Union, the majority white Politics students who study the EU in today’s universities are evidently never told this fact, that the very same people they are taught advocated for a European federal state as early as 1925, did so for the primary, malicious, abhorrent, criminally genocidal aim of destroying the European people themselves, directly. Coudenhove-Kalergi founded the 1922 pan-European movement, with the support of B’nai B’rith, the Jewish international support agency for Jewish political interests, B’nai B’rith helped push Coudenhove-Kalergi and his vile, anti-European racist ideology into the political mainstream and the top of political circles. In 1932 Richard Coudenhove-Kalergi composed a preface for a Notably President Van Rompuy, otherwise known as the “Damp Rag” was awarded this prize.

The Communist-East German educated Chancellor Merkel (a Christian-Democrat) was also awarded this prize in 2010.

Proving that Jewish international lobby groups and awards groups use such prizes and international manipulation to force heads of states to work in accordance with fundamentally Jewish genocidal plans. This is beyond dispute.

Alteiro Spinelli (31 August 1907 – 23 May 1986) is another inborn communist who is known as one of the “Founding Fathers of the European Union”, it is no surprise that he was a member of the Italian communist party, he and another communist subversive Ernesto Rossi wrote what is known as the Ventotene Manifesto, which advocates a United States of Europe, in order to hold Germany down, under the facade of preventing war and overcoming the so-called ‘German problem’ (the problem from the Jewish perspective that Germany is innately pure and brilliant and its existence has in the past prevented Jewish power over Europe).

World War 2 is used as the excuse for the expansion of the EU, under a facade of preventing war, in actual fact it is simply about preventing individual European nations, especially Germany and England from rising up against Jewish power as we have done throughout our histories, by dragging us down and attempting to destroy our very existences, as Coudenhove-Kalergi’s book “Praktischer Idealismus” outlines and admits in its genocidal hubris.

Like the legacy of Coudenhove-Kalergi, Spinelli’s communist legacy is still worshipped and followed by Jewish subversives to this day, in the form of the Spinelli group in the European Parliament, led by subversives like Daniel Cohn-Bendit and Guy Verhofstadt. Spinelli’s aftermath also lingers like a foul anti-european odour in intellectual discussions within academia, although it is not often taught that Spinelli was a Communist subversive who was imprisoned for his communist subversion.

Deutsche is another one of the Jewish Founding Fathers of the EU:

“Karl Wolfgang Deutsch \(1912–1992\) was born in Prague in 1912 to Jewish parents”

His mother was a Czech Jew elected to Parliament who was known for her anti-Nazi rhetoric and activities (or anti-germanic racism, because she as a Jew did not want Germanic folk to have a government that cares about our existence).

Deutsche himself was disallowed to return to university due to his vile anti-Germanic activism. Not only was the manipulatively named Karl ‘Deutsche’ a proponent of the anti-Germanic and anti-European federalist idea of a United States of Europe, he was also a participant in the San Francisco conference that was crucial in the founding of the United Nations in 1945.

Karl Deutsche is also appealed to as a Jewish ‘political scientist’ on the subject of the EU, who also spent considerable effort in defiling nationalism in his time in academia. Jews like Deutsch partook in the academic manipulation of public opinion (through manipulating the opinions of students) on subjects such as the EU and the UN.

David Mitrany is another Jewish so called intellectual who’s modern teachings (that lie about and hide the true, genocidal reasons for) explaining EU expansion have been instrumental in ensuring pro-EU support of the political and academic classes.

“David Mitrany’s strong internationalism, and ability to feel at home in Germany, Britain and the United States, was probably the result of being born Jewish”

David Mitrany (1888–1975) was a so called leading scholar in Political theory, specialising in explaining how the EU came into being and continues to expand, under a school of thought called ‘international functionalism, (“This internationalist tradition favoured integration ...and the development of international, rather than national, institutions as a solution to the human problems of want and war”)which attempts to diagnose the reasons why the EU was founded and has since expanded to include 28 states and continues to grow in its domination of legislation (the EU produces 80% of all our legislation) and blame a complex series of abstracts functional reasons and factors rather than the obvious reason: Jews pushing and promoting the EU for over a century, as is clear and obvious to anyone who can look outside the controlled academic ‘debate’ (or facade) on the EU.

Ernst Bernard Haas (1924 – March 6, 2003) is a Jewish academic, who founded the 'neofunctionalist' approach to the EU in an effort to divert away from the Jewish origins of the concept and genocidal plan for a federal European union, Haas was "born in Frankfurt, Germany, in 1924 to a secular Jewish family" (like the majority of the founding teachers at the infamous Frankfurt school) he believed in undermining European states, especially Germany, for the intention of destroying and controlling them, out of sheer anti-European racial bigotry and supremacist delusions.

Another Neo-functionalist manipulator was Leon Lindbergh, among other manipulators who divert discussions of the EU away from the obvious international Jewish lobbying and intellectual and governmental corruption causes are Stanley Hoffmann and Andrew Moravcsik, who all espouse a federalist EU, and who deliberately divert the discussion of the origins of the EU into pointless academic circular discussions about economic causal factors, when the reality is visibly and undeniably as a result of Jewish lobbying, intellectual and governmental corruption efforts, motivated by sheer anti-European and especially anti-Germanic racist, in-fact genocidal hatred, that emanates from these Jewish 'scholars' and 'intellectuals', who terrorized and pressured European academia and therefore all future (mainstream) government officials into accepting their account of the history and rationale behind the EU.

The entire academic facade on the EU has been controlled by Jewish Supremacists, David Mitrany himself is an ethnic Jew of Romanian origin, it is clear that this control of the EU debate ensures all elected politicians (as they all go through the same pro-EU classes at university as I am going through right now) leave university with the same world-view of the EU and are taught that EU expansion is natural and good, when in fact, as history has proven, and this article details, it is un-natural, and is enacting an un-deniable genocide of the European people.

The Jewish control of academic discussion through the Jewish self-promotion or creation of 'leading-scholars' on the subject, whose artificial authority is then used to dominate all discussion on the EU, prevents students from finding out the truth about the EU, through discovering its self-evident Jewish origins and then contrasting that with the fact that the EU is destroying our race, nation, economy, military, environment, history and culture.

The academic false-dichotomy between the Jewish theory of international functionalism or neo-functionalism and the Jewish theory of inter-governmentalism is set up to deliberately deny students the possibility of discovering the genocidal, and anti-democratic truth behind the EU, and the fact that these theories exist only as a facade to prevent students from seeing the truth about the EU.

This is important as it is the fundamental reason as to why our entire political establishment supports the EU, as they have all been educated in the Kalergi-Coudenhove, Jean Monnet or David Mitrany schools of thought about the processes and purposes of further genocidal EU expansion.

The reality of expansion of the EU and its origins cannot be explained in either the Neo-functionalist, international functionalist or inter-governmentalist approaches, why? -Because all of these theories cannot work because they ignore the single biggest causal factor: Jewish international lobbying, and the systematic and generational corruption of politics through academia by these 'Jewish-intellectual' appointed 'Jewish Intellectuals'.

The reason academia cannot analyse and come to an agreement or even a coherent theory about how the EU has maintained so much support as a concept through all of the Political class and then as a reality since the 1950's, is because academia, through Jewish activism in literally occupying academia as much as Jews occupy Palestine, is part of that reason why the EU retains political support and why it even had support as a concept back in the 1920's.

Academia is also disallowed, by the Jewish intellectual and physical occupation that exists within it, from discussing the self-evidently and undeniably ethnically Jewish ideological founding fathers of the federal European Union and their racist anti-European motivations and anti-German ethnic obsessions, thus the mainstream arguments analysing why the concept of a European federal state was created in the first place, why the EU now exists in the form it does, why it finds so much support in the political elite and decreasing support among the general public are prevented from getting near the truth, by being diverted by the false dichotomy that exists in academic, between two Jewish ideological schools of thought: neo-functionalism and inter-governmentalism.

In essence: The Jewish-authored theories dictate the type of question asked about the EU and thus dictate the type of answer that academia is allowed to find.

The Jewish ideological anti-Germanic and thus anti Noble-European sentiment is clear, as it is openly admitted that the EU was about containing the 'German problem'.

The racist double standards of the liberals in academia is obvious, in that if instead of the 'German problem', German was replaced with Jewish ('Jewish problem'), all these liberal academic staff would complain and call it anti-Semitism, but when Jewish-Supremacist lecturers and tribally-appointed lecturers have manipulated the entire debate into literally focusing and legitimizing anti-Germanic racial political ideas, they do not even notice, let alone complain.

At its core the EU is anti-Germanic, anti-Nordic-European, this is the truth, all these Jewish theory's divert around, in order to maintain generational support for the EU in wave after wave of student, who then go on to become political staff and politicians who take this Jewish created false-dichotomy to Westminster or Brussels with them, resulting in the horrific, culturally and racially genocidal expansion of the EU, despite even periods of so called 'Euro-sclerosis' or natural public increases in Euro-scepticism.

The EU as an undemocratic anti Noble-European institution.

The Council of ministers drives through legislation, at the behest of interest and lobby groups, regardless of the opinions of national states and their population, with the rubber stamp parliament of the European Parliament doing nothing but debating in futility on legislation it cannot substantially alter if the council of ministers so desires. 'Supra-national actors' play a major role in the formation of EU policy, and Jewish supra-national (above national or 'international') actors indeed created the entirety of the EU, and every prior format it existed as and the very concept of a United States of Europe as early as the 1920s, arguably even since 1866 with the creation of the failed 'Latin monetary union', again driven by Jewish-Surpemacists, which collapsed in 1927, which coincided with the main start of efforts to establish a Europe wide federal state as articulated in genocidal terms by the likes of Coudenhove-Kalergi, as aforementioned.

The ECSC was designed not in order to benefit the economies of Europe, but in reality, as admitted in academia, it was an effort to remove the control of core industries essential for heavy industry and to 'place them in the hands of international agents', especially the German Ruhr coal mining area.

This was enacted under a facade of preventing war, by 'confiscating' resources essential for war, and putting them in the hands of impartial international-governmental bodies, in order to literally make it impossible for European nations to go to war, not just against themselves but against the newly formed Jewish state, a line of anti-European 'logic', that is followed today with institutions like the IMF (International Monetary Fund) and World Bank which can crush an European nations finances within hours, as it routinely does to Greece, it also set up a system of redistribution from the wealthy Germany, Sweden,Denmark, UK and France to the proportionally less productive (wealth is a measure of productivity) mediterranean EU countries.

The European Court of Justice and European Court of Human rights, are instrumental to the anti-European European Union, under the facade of human rights and 'justice', they rule in accordance with the EU constitution and European convention on Human rights, not in accordance with real natural rights or real justice, they in their effect do nothing other than rule against governments and individual groups that attempt to slow down or obstruct further expansion of the political hegemony of the EU.

They care nothing for rights or justice and are legal bodies that ensure the destruction of European rights and European nation states and the people within them, gradually ruling by ruling. Every aspect of the EU and in all its prior formats from the ECSC and EEC have sought to do nothing other than to pursue the anti-European ideology of their Jewish founding fathers.

Timeline of the expansion of the creation and expansion of the anti-European genocidal EU:

1948: The European union of Federalists, led by Jews and their corrupted European followers outlined the 'need for a European union' following on from prior private meetings.

1948: US Marshall Aid program put as one of its requisites: that European states seek further integration.

1948: Israel declared as a state, Jews then have their own homeland, from which they can freely spite Europe without regard for the conditions internally within European states.

1949: Council of Europe convened its meeting and the “Schuman proposal was issued”

1949: Israel recognized as a state by the Jewish-Supremacist dominated US government, that also pushed for the creation of European internal integration efforts.

1951: The European Coal and Steel community came into existence after the 1951 treaty of Rome, which openly states its aim was to create a ‘technocratic revolution’:

“to lay the foundations for an ever closer union among the European peoples. By establishing a common market and progressively approximating the economic policies of member states”

"We [Jews] intend to turn Europe into a mixed race of Asians and Negros ruled over by the Jews"

Jewish EU 'founding father' Richard Coudenhove-Kalergi in 'Praktischer Idealismus' 1925

The treaty of Rome sought to remove barriers to the Marxist degeneration plan of ensuring free movement of peoples, capital and goods inside Europe to undermine the homogeneity of Europe ensuring a dysgenic situation and slowing down technological and scientific development by reducing competition between states that had previously been the engine for the success of European innovation.

1957: Treaty of Paris, outlining what Winston Churchill* advocated: “a United States of Europe”

*It is well known that Winston Churchill’s financial debts were written-off by Jews after a substantial Griffin-like debt accumulation in the 1930's, resulting in his obedience throughout the rest of his life, Winston Churchill also wrote in his autobiography, near the end that “the Jews always get what they want in the end”, Winston Churchill was a depressed, stroke-afflicted pessimist, warmonger and war-criminal, who betrayed the English people and all European people by advocating for a “United States of Europe”

1965: the EEC (prior version of the EU) pushed for control of its own budget, showing its tyrannical objectives, this was defeated by the French President De Gaulle resulting in the ‘Empty chair crisis’

1967: De Gaulle Vetos the UK EEC application, saving us from so much damage that would have occurred had we joined the EEC that early instead of in 1973

1973: UK, Denmark and Ireland join the EEC, under a manipulated pro-EU political class, all at the same time after international Jewish lobbying, starting the destruction of North-West Europe inside the EEC

1987: Single European Act: creation of a single market, a further removal of trade duties

1992/3: Treaty on European Union /Maastricht Treaty: created a singular European security and Foreign policy, overriding national interests and created the Euro, replacing gradually the native currencies of successive member states of the EU

1995: Schengen Agreement: the removal of immigration controls in numerous EU member states

1997: Treaty of Amsterdam: preparation for the genocidal expansion of the EU, bringing in South Eastern European nations into common borders with Germanic, Nordic and Frankish Europe.

2001: Treaty of Nice, enforcing the CFSP (Common Foreign and Security Policy)

2004: Treaty establishing a Constitution for Europe (TCE); rejected for its totalitarian measures of establishing an EU constitution by the French and Dutch in 2005, it never passed.

2009: Treaty of Lisbon (Reformed treaty) A version of the EU constitution re-packaged from the failures of the TCE in 2004/5, enforcing an effective EU constitution by stealth. The EU now makes 80% of laws and has increased immigration inside the EU to genocidal levels by over 2800% (by removing all of the internal borders of each of the 28 member states, now including Romania and Bulgaria).

2011: The European Jewish Parliament established

2013: The rise of UKIP and majority anti-EU sentiments all over Europe

2014: 'British' Jews launch formal 'Jewish EU Manifesto'

The English Constitution

Ref Statements made in your court.

My Lord,

I am a retired Special Constable who since December 2006 has been researching the English Constitution.

In your court you said there is a Queens Bench Division but not a Queens Bench, this is akin to saying we have an armoured division but it has no tanks. You referred to it as a superior court, its courts are though Queens Bench Courts and all matters of constitutional importance must be heard by the Queens Bench.

You also said you took the judicial oath but neglected to say you also took an oath of loyalty to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. These two oaths bind you to the law and Her Majesty.

But more worrying is your assertion that Parliament has sovereignty, even if it were a properly constituted Parliament it would not be sovereign. Sovereignty lies with Her Majesty as the anointed Sovereign.

Parliament is not properly constituted in the way our forefathers designed it to be, with its built in safeguards, since 1420 the House of Commons was granted the right to originate legislation, at least since that date we can trace the power grab the commons has been on. In 1609 the Commons wrote to the Lords describing themselves as the Knights Burgess's and Barons of the High Court of Parliament. The Lords replied that they would never accept them as Barons of Parliament and without the Lords they were no court at all. A ruling by Patterson J giving the opinion of eight other judges in Stokedale vs. Hansard 1839 confirmed the opinion of the House of Lords that the Commons was in no way shape or form a court of law. Going so far as to state the common man must be able to sue the commons in any of the ordinary courts of the land for any wrongs done to him by the actions of the Commons.

In 1667 the Commons told the Lords they could not amend a money bill. There is no valid constitutional claim for this, and a ten year argument followed and in 1677 the Lords gave way.

As a direct result of this when Asquith put forward a budget in 1909 the Lords believing erroneously they could not amend it and so they rejected the budget. Asquith told them he was putting a bill forward to remove the right of the Lords to reject a bill, and if they did not pass the bill he would put 500 new Peers into the house who would vote for its closure. The words Blackmail and Duress spring to mind. The Lords again gave way and the bill was placed before King Edward VII who rejected it on the grounds it was unconstitutional, and removed a protection from his subjects and he ordered Asquith to go to the country. Which he did, he and his ministers went around the country lying about the reason the Lords had rejected the budget and the Lords felt it beneath them to tell the public the truth, Asquith was re-elected and during the Kings Speech King Edward VII said the only reason he was putting the Parliament Act forward was because his ministers told him he had too.

At this time Parliament ceased to be a properly constituted Parliament and as such constitutionally it became void. The 1949 Parliament Act and the 1999 House of Lords Act are also unconstitutional and void.

One of Asquith's ministers told King George V on his inheriting the Crown that he kept all his prerogatives but could not use any of them without the backing of a minister, this was for government to usurp the Royal Prerogative a clear act of treason contrary to the 1351 Treason Act

Now let us deal with the Crown you are the Queens Remembrancer and as such you have a greater duty of loyalty than a lot of others.

Up until the death of Queen Anne all our Kings and Queens attended Parliament indeed it was not a Parliament if they were not there hence the term the King/Queen in Parliament.

After the death of Queen Anne. We inherited King George I who spoke no English so there was no point in him going to Parliament or cabinet meetings, government got used to the idea of managing without a King. King George II spent his reign complaining his ministers were Kings in his Kingdom. King George III had a twenty year battle with the Commons as to where sovereignty lay with him as the anointed King, or with the Commons as the elected House. After an impassioned speech by William Pitt who asked where is the benefit in changing one despot for hundreds of despots? The King won the vote. Since then no other vote on Sovereignty has been taken, that being the case Queen Elizabeth II is the fully Sovereign Queen of England from which all her other titles, superiorities, and pre-eminences stem. Superiorities and Preminences you are required to support.

The government claim the 1689 Bill of Rights transferred Sovereignty from the King to the Commons as the elected House. Any reading of this major constitutional document will not substantiate this claim, there is nothing in the 1689 Declaration or Bill of Rights which in any way reduces the authority of the King. It merely reiterates those things England's Kings have never been able to lawfully do.

Parliament claim to rule by Henry VIII powers, these powers were illegal when Henry VIII used them, when he ordered that Richard Rose the cook to the Bishop of Rochester who had been annoyed by the Bishop and poisoned the meal killing seventeen people was to be boiled alive at Smithfield Market.

The Parliament Acts and House of Lords Acts, constitute a treason against the constitutional arrangements for Parliament, and Her Majesty's subjects. These are acts of treason contrary to sec 3 of the 1848 Treason Felony Act by the Commons over awing the House of Lords. In fact they breached the Common Law Cognisance of the Lords to conduct their own business in their own way and that includes who sits in the Lords.

You and I have both taken oaths to uphold the law, I would welcome the opportunity to discuss this with you. Respectfully submitted, Albert Burgess

Dear Sir/Madam, Thank you for your Letter dated 28th March 2014 and addressed to Master Leslie who replies as follows:

"I note what he says. I have no time to engage in jurisprudential or any discussions concerning constitutional matters. If he seeks guidance or directions concerning litigation in which he is involved in this Court he may see me in Practice."

Reply 1/6/14

My Lord, I was not seeking advice I was giving you a history and English Constitutional Law lesson, I am amazed but not at all surprised that one of Her Majesty's Judges can not find the time to discuss the constitution.

It is my personal belief that knowledge of the constitution, which must include its history if its purpose is to be understood, is sadly lacking in the legal profession. Which is why its members refuse to engage in a general discussion about it. Not wishing from their positions of high authority to demonstrate an ignorance of a subject which should to all English men and women be our very life's blood.

Our Judges and police officers have a particular duty which they have taken upon themselves to uphold the laws of England, yet they steadfastly ignore treasons which smack them in the mouth every time they look out of the proverbial window.

A case in point is the 2002 Police Reform Act which has removed Her Majesty's style and honour as a fully Sovereign Queen by removing the words Our Sovereign Lady from the oath both contravening the 1848 Treason Felony Act, and by imagining Her Majesty's death as a fully Sovereign Queen the 1351 Treason Act.

It goes on to allow the IPCC to grant dispensations to the police against investigating criminal allegations against police officers. When the 1689 Bill of Rights major constitutional law specifically refuses all dispensations from the penalty for a crime. A treason against the constitution, which a properly constituted Parliament may not over ride.

A bye product of this treason is that every one who has taken this new oath has taken part in an act of treason, and as such is barred for life from ever holding the office of constable. Every such officer who has brought a case to court has presented evidence as a constable he was not in a position to gather legally, because legally he is only impersonating a constable. You can appreciate the difficulties this places before the criminal justice system.

John Major

Not to mention of course the treason at Maastricht where John Major, Douglas Hurd and Francis Maude attempted the constitutional impossibility of making Her Majesty a citizen of Europe. Yet not a single one of Her Majesty's Judges issued a Bench Warrant for their arrest for treason contrary to the 1351 Treason Act.

We all of us have a clear duty to uphold and defend the constitutional and common law of this ancient Kingdom, those of us who have taken oaths before God and to our Sovereign Lady the Queen have an even greater duty thrust upon us which should have us striving to the very best of our abilities to defend both Her Majesty's lawful authority, and Her Majesties law.

Only by doing this can we defend Her Majesty's subjects and protect them from all harm. This is the purpose of the Coronation Oath and the oaths we have taken.

I understand the term the Royal Courts of Justice! I do not understand the term Royal

Courts of Justice Group this sounds as though G4S or some other private company is administering justice now, this I would like explained as justice is far too important to be put out to tender or more likely sold to bolster party funds. Respectfully Submitted, Albert Burgess

Communism

"In order to have complete control of the individual, we must limit in timely gradations the ability of the individual to move from point A to B. Our control of the same must be absolute- every desire, feeling, thought, must be controlled even before they emerge in the subject's consciousness- indeed we must form those thoughts for it. It must be totally subservient to our will. As for movement the subject will be confined to its pen like the cattle in reality it is. It will exist solely on our sufferance, on our permit alone- its every thought and action policed from birth to grave. We are the true gods of the proletariat and we are its opium for its masses. We the collective superior intellect of enlightened Socialism-

Our remit is to care for the subject classes- all will bend to our will- a superior will unseen nor witnessed before in Mankind for whom we are destined to care for in totality- such is the burden of natural divine destiny of the Socialist" Antonio Gramsci 1937 From Rex.

F.A.O Stephen Phillips MP

Dear Sirs, I am sure you know but the west instigated regime change in Ukraine has succeeded. Now, resistance to "democracy" in the south and east of former Ukraine is being targeted for annihilation by the Poroshenko (puppet) "government." This has included bombing of civilians, killing men, women and children by use of the Ukrainian armed forces and they have even used air force jets.

As you have already mentioned in previous correspondence to myself you were in favour of punitive action against the "Assad regime" (legitimate government in reality) for using his own military to allegedly bomb civilians in Syria, will you now be asking the "British government" to intervene for the sake of people in Donetsk etc?

I might also add, that the alleged chemical attack in Syria by Assads forces has been proved to be a complete lie and false flag event supported by the propagandist BBC - how surprising!

Please also give me the "British governments" stance on Crimea, i.e will you be approving a Ukrainian attempt to bring back Crimea under the new "government" which will inevitably bring Russia back in to the conflict?

Whilst on please confirm if you are member of the Conservative friends of Israel. Yours faithfully, Michael Clayton

Lord Beaverbrook

S i r _ _ ,
Beaverbrook although a simple colonial gentleman from Canada as illustrated below, was a great newspaper man. He was the first to have an astrologer to work for his paper, who predicted that air travel was dangerous just in time for the R101 crash (Genesis 1: 14) "Signs".

The Beaver was dining with the great and the good in the 1920's. He turned to the lady beside him and asked. "Would you sleep with me for £1,000,000?" "Yes", she replied.

"Would you sleep with me for ten shillings?" "Certainly not! What do you think I am?"

"We know what you are dear. I am just finding out the price!"

The chap did know the difference between a prostitute and a demi-mond !!! Such as Jennie Winston Churchill's mother! Yours truly, An Ancient Mariner.

Growing Resistance In Belfast To The Flood Of Non-White Immigrants

The blue 'New Order Knights' flag was pictured flying from a lamp post off Island Street in Ballymacarrett on Tuesday morning, displaying the words "Ku Klux Klan"- an emblem which clearly denotes racism and white supremacy.

It has since been taken down.

East Belfast Alliance MP Naomi Long hit out at those behind it, saying it added an "even more sinister edge" to recent race-related incidents.

Mrs Long said she had received a number of complaints from constituents regarding the flags, which she passed to the PSNI for action.

"Yet again we see those who wish to bully anyone different from them use flags and emblems to assert dominance and control over a community. To do so at all is to be condemned but to put up these flags in broad daylight shows just how brazen the culprits are," she said.

"To use flags hailing a hate group such as the KKK is sickening and lends a further menacing element to recent events."

UVF

Last year 982 racist incidents were reported to the PSNI – an average of up to three every day.

Police have said the loyalist paramilitary group the Ulster Volunteer Force (UVF) has been orchestrating racist attacks in south and east Belfast.

But only 12 people have been successfully convicted for the 14,000 hate crimes reported in Northern Ireland in the last five years.

Three homes were attacked in the Roslyn Street area of east Belfast.

Graffiti saying 'locals only' and 'get out' was scrawled on walls of the properties.

A 28-year-old Polish woman who lives in one of the homes, said she and her nine-year-old child were considering leaving the area because of the incident.

And on April 30 a Romanian man had faeces thrown at him as he cycled along the Newtownards Road.

The Authorities Shaken by The Irish stance Against Immigration

The PSNI said it would not be taking the flag down and that it would instead adopt "a multi-agency approach" - but it has since been removed.

When asked if a crime had been committed or not, a police spokesman said he could not comment.

"No single body or agency has the answer to all of the issues surrounding the flying or the removal of flags in Northern Ireland," he said.

"The experience within policing shows that the approach most likely to provide for public safety and prevention of disorder is based on the principles of engagement between local communities working with agencies including local police and resulting in local decision-making.

Naval Ensigns, Flags & Pennants Since 1992

NAVAL ENSIGN • THE ANDREW FLAG

IN 1992 the naval ensigns and flags of the Soviet Union were officially abolished, and the historic Andrew Flag was readopted as the naval ensign of the Russian Federation. The former tsarist jack and fortress flag was also readopted, but otherwise the new range of flags follows the previous Soviet pattern with the Cross of St. Andrew or the white-blue-red Russian tricolour replacing Soviet symbols. Exceptions are the Guards ensign and the honorary ensign for the cruiser Aurora, which continue to display the Soviet-era Guards Ribbon and Order of the Red Banner.

Guard command flags are based on the ensign. Government vessels serving on fishery protection duties fly an ensign with a red field, a canton of the Russian tricolour and crossed yellow anchors in the lower fly.

Jack And Naval Fortress Flag

The flag of the Commander-in-Chief of the Navy is the Andrew Flag charged with the state arms of Russia within a wreath; the same flag but with the arms replaced by crossed red "Admiralty" anchors, is flown by the Chief of Staff of the Navy. The other naval rank flags are the same as those used by the USSR, but with the Andrew Flag as a canton. Other senior officials and officers have appointment flags based on the appropriate ensign or jack.

Justice Denied People Persecuted For Political Reasons Must Be Defended

BUTLER - SLOSS sister of the Attorney General who helped bury the Dickens Dossiers and closed down the investigation into Elm Guest House, to chair abuse inquiry??

The Government are wheeling out Establishment figures, intelligence insiders and child abuse apologists to orchestrate another child abuse white-wash with the People paying the bill

Who does Theresa May and Cameron appoint to chair the National child abuse Inquiry but the sister of one of the men who buried the Dickens dossiers!!

Baroness Butler-Sloss is sister to Robert Michael Oldfield Havers, Baron Havers, QC who along with others was responsible for burying the Dickens Dossiers.

Havers an MI6 insider was Attorney General from 1979 to 1987. He was a bitter opponent of Geoffrey Dickens being the Official responsible for not prosecuting Paedophile Sir Peter Hayman M16 and suppressed evidence against paedophile traitor Geoffrey Prime of Elm Guest house notoriety. In fact Havers closed down all inquiry and investigation into Elm Guest House.

Then he was called in to "examine complaints" against several British newspapers by Elm Guest House's lawyers. Resulting in the papers dropping the Elm Guest House story. Havers had managed to effectively bury the story which allowed the VIP paedophile network's activities to continue without being bothered by press coverage.'

Not only did he bury the Dickens dossiers and other child abuse evidence that came his way he was the CPS barrister responsible for the most horrific miscarriage of justice in the UK as we reported two days ago where it was found the prosecution suppressed evidence.

Havers represented the Crown in two of the most notable miscarriages of justice in British judicial history: the trial and appeal of the Guildford Four and also of the Maguire family (known as the Maguire Seven), all of whom were wrongfully convicted. Collectively, they served a total of 113 years in prison and one of the Maguire Seven, Giuseppe Conlon, died in prison, convicted on the basis of discredited forensic evidence

He set-up these innocent people, with-held evidence from the defence and the jury which resulted in appalling suffering to 11 innocent people and allowed the real terrorists (who are known but have never been arrested) to escape home and free.

Havers and Butler-Sloss are establishment figures of magnitude. They came from a long line Establishment insiders. Their father Sir Cecil Havers was the evil judge who condemned to death a battered woman who was hanged because he would not allow the jury to hear about her physical and sexual abuse at the hands of the man who died.

And it gets worse! Baroness Butler-Sloss's husband is a paedophile, another of our great judiciary His Honour Joseph Butler-Sloss admits 'using' prostitutes in England and in Kenya. What even the News of the world did not print was that he did not care how old they were and many were child prostitutes Butler-Sloss said "It's not at all expensive. You pay 300 Kenyan shillings (£10) and they ask you for ten bob (30p) for the white man" He could not give a dam about exploiting poor black children.

Finally Baroness Butler-Sloss, as is self evident, is a member of the House of Lords the same Westminster House connected by a corridor to Parliament. The very Westminster House who's members she would be investigating. If that is not enough she once stood as a Conservative candidate for election to Parliament.
