Calling The True Israel Peoples

Editorial

Dear Readers,

Has Russia Already Won? Is it “Game Over” for the City of London Empire?

Reports are just coming in of the Ukraine being near to a state of total collapse with Zelensky having invited in Poland to assist militarily and also in the administration of the Ukraine. With the huge amount of armaments that have been supplied to the Ukraine and lost which, if continued at the same rate, will have serious consequences for the EU and USA defence capabilities.

While Russia is mainly concerned with securing its own borders within its former territory of the Ukraine, and for that reason no war has been declared.

Russia is also targeting the huge number of Bio weapon laboratories in the Ukraine, which are considered a grave threat and where also the C vaccines are produced.

Large areas of the Ukraine’s best black earth agricultural land, is owned by a large USA Corporation with another being owned by the Chinese. The elite are rattled because of the unexpected Russian advance which is preventing the removal of their ill-gotten gains out of the Ukraine, since the Russian capture of major ports on the Black Sea.

Poland is moving into Ukraine with the objective of recovering lost territory, Belarus, Hungary (which all formerly occupied parts of the Ukraine) and Romania are preparing for war. This could have a snowball effect with all European nations being drawn in unless diplomatic responsibility prevails! This seems unlikely at the moment!

The hidden hand needs this conflict as a cover and excuse for the reduction of food and fuel supplies, since the plandemic and lock-down did not go as well as had been expected, although nonetheless devastating, through death, serious illness including destruction of medium and small businesses. For this reason war and famine are being conjured up to reach their objectives.

However, they haven’t reckoned on Yahweh destroying the devils in our midst - Praise Yahweh!

The Chronicles of the Migrations of the Twelve Tribes of Israel From The Caucasus Mountains Into Europe (3)

By Pastor Eli James

Chapter Two: The House of Israel Rebels

NOW THAT WE UNDERSTAND THAT THE EXPRESSION, “House of Israel,” refers to the Ten Northern Tribes, excluding Judah and Benjamin, we can trace their history and migrations.

The names of these Tribes are Ephraim, Manasseh, Dan, Assher, Zebulun, Reuben, Gad, Naphtali, Issachar, and Simeon. This is the Ten-Nation House of Israel. The Bible often refers to this House as “Ephraim,” because Ephraim was the leading tribe; but “Ephraim” is never used to represent the House of Judah.

The Tribe of Levi had ceased to be a separate Tribe. The Levites were still the main priests, serving all twelve tribes, so some Levites remained with the House of Judah. Other Levites went with the House of Israel.

1 Kings 12 explains how Ahijah’s prophecy to Jeroboam was fulfilled in Samaria. Samaria was the capital city of the Ten Northern Tribes. The Bible goes into great detail as to how the Ten Northern Tribes became a separate Kingdom.

25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built Penuel.

26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David:

27 If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah.

28 Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he set the one in Bethel, and the other put he in Dan.

30 And this thing became a sin: for the people went to worship before the one, even unto Dan.

31 And he made an house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of Levi.

32 And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is in Judah, and he offered upon the altar. So did he in Bethel, sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made.

33 So he offered upon the altar which he had made in Bethel the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the children of Israel: and he offered upon the altar, and burnt incense. - 1 Kings 12:25-33

These verses tell us that the first thing that Jeroboam did was to institute pagan practices instead of Yahweh’s law. He also picked unworthy men as priests.

33 After this thing Jeroboam returned not from his evil way, but made again of the lowest of the people priests of the high places: whosoever would, he consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places.

34 And this thing became sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the earth. - I Kings 13: 33-34.

Unfortunately, this type of disobedience was practiced by all of Jeroboam’s successors. One of his successors was King Omri. King Omri was known to the Assyrians and other nations as Gomri and Khumri.

King Khumri was the king that the non-Israelite nations new best. During the reign of Omri, the House of Israel was known as the House of Omri and these Israelites were called Khumru, or Kimmerians, after King Khumri. The English version of this word is Cimmerians.

When it became apparent that the Assyrians were going to invade Israel, a branch of the Khumru people left Israel by sea. They settled in Wales. The Welsh people still refer to themselves as Khumru today; and the Welsh language is virtually identical to Hebrew, because they brought this language with them directly from Israel.

This little-known fact is confirmed by many professional linguists, such as Charles Edwards (1675), LGA Roberts (1919), Sir Charles Marston, Professor Stephen Langdon, and many others.

From the works of Yair Davidy, a Jewish author who has traced the linguistic connections between Welsh and Hebrew:

A writer who signed his name "Glas" submitted a list of Welsh words with Hebrew origins in 1832. The writer remarked that, "But the best proof of the Eastern descent of the ancient British is the close resemblance and connection existing between the Welsh and Hebrew languages, even at this day.

As a proof of this we have extracted the following vocabulary of words in both tongues, so closely resembling each other in sound and sense as to leave no doubt whatever on the subject.

Many of these words, it will be found, have been transmitted from the Welsh, through the Anglo-Saxon into our modern English. It would be easy to swell their number. Examples:

Welsh	Meaning	Heb.	Eng.
Aeth	He went, he is gone	Athah
Aml	the earth	Hamale	ample
Ydom	the earth	Adamah
Awye	air, sky	auor, or	air
bu	it came to pass	bo	be
boten	belly	beten
brith	bright	barud	bright
Cas	hatred	caas (anger)
dafnu	distil by drops	nataph, taph
Gael hedd	heap of testimony	Galaed
Bagad	A troop cometh	Bagad
Anudon	Without God	Aen Adon

One can see in this small sample that many of the words are perfectly identical in the Welsh and Hebrew, with some of these Hebrew words even surviving into English. In my opinion, fully one quarter of the common English vocabulary in usage today is derived from the Hebrew.

“For with stammering lips and Another Tongue will he speak to this people.” - Isa. 28:11.

Virtually all of the Anglo-Saxon world today speaks English, if not as their first language, then as their second language. This Yahweh’s doing. The Jewish people had nothing to do with the development of the English language.

The common language of the Jewish people is Yiddish. Yiddish is primarily German. German is also an Israelite language, as I will show later. The Jews, as a non-Israelite people, speak Our languages, not vice-versa, which proves that the Anglo-Saxon Israelites are the leaders of civilization.

But Yahweh has seen fit to preserve Hebrew in the Welsh language.

From an article entitled, "Was English Derived From Hebrew?":

The idiomatic likenesses between English and Hebrew were noticed by Tyndale when he translated the scriptures. He said, "The properties of the Hebrew tongue agreeth a thousand times more with the English than with the Latin. The manner of speaking is in both one, so that, in a thousand places, there needest not but to translate the Hebrew word for word."

Canon Lyson found 5000 Hebrew Roots in the English language (Our British Ancestors); other authorities put the figure still higher. The Welsh is so much like the Hebrew that the Same Syntax may be used for both.

The old Saxon language is said to be eighty percent Hebrew. The oldest poems in the Celtic language are in the "Book of the Dun Cow" (1106 A.D.) and are "not unlike the poetical passages in the Old Testament" (5:626, Encyc. Brit. 11th).

Later, we will find that the other Anglo-Saxon languages have remarkable affinities to Hebrew as well. This means that the current academic separation of Hebrew from the "Indo-Aryan" language group is defective. The Israelites clearly brought their language with them as they migrated.

Since Welsh and Hebrew are virtually identical, there is no doubt that the Welsh people are Hebrew Israelites. Currently, there is a revival of Welsh and Gaelic occurring in the British Isles. Few of these people realize they are speaking Hebrew.

Ahab and Jezebel

King Omri's son was King Ahab. Ahab is more famous to us because he married Jezebel, the daughter of a Sidonian king. The Bible devotes many pages to their story. Jezebel replaced the Israelite priests with the pagan priests from her native country. It was the prophet, Elijah, who challenged these priests to a "duel of the gods." Yahweh won easily! All of these Baal priests were destroyed by Yahweh, and so was Jezebel, who was thrown out of a window to her death.

Life in the House of Israel continued this way, king after king, until Yahweh decided that he had had enough. Thus, He used Assyria to punish the House of Israel for their sins.

The first deportations of the Northern Tribes began in the year 745 BC. In 745 B.C., Tiglath-Pileser, king of Assyria, began the first invasion against Israel in the reign of Menahem (2 Ki.15:19-20). In this year, the Assyrians captured and deported half the Tribe of Manasseh, the half which lived on the eastern side of the Jordan River.

This event began the process of deporting the Ten Northern Tribes away from Palestine, who were then resettled in northern Media, just south of the Caucasus Mountain Range.

Putnam's Dictionary Of Events, copyright 1927, page 6, states, "745, Accession of Tiglath-pileser III of Assyria, who wages war against Chaldea, Syria, and the kingdom of Israel." (Tiglath-Pileser is called "Pul" in the Bible -- 2 Kings 15:19; 1 Chr.5:26).

King Sennacherib

These deportations, under various Assyrian kings, continued until about 712 BC. One other very important fact about these deportations is that King Sennacherib of Assyria later attacked and captured all of the cities of Judah, except for the city of Jerusalem itself. This story is told in Isaiah 36 and 37. Sennacherib would have defeated the City had not an angel of Yahweh intervened by slaughtering 185,000 of Sennacherib's men. (Isa. 37:36.)

The Taylor Prism, which resides in London's British Museum, states, "As for Hezekiah, the Judahite who did not submit to my yoke, forty-eight of his strong walled cities, as well as the small cities of their neighborhood—by escalade and bringing up siege engines, by attacking and storming on foot, by mines, tunnels and breaches, I took 200,150 people, great and small.

Sennacherib also refers to a people called the Mannai, which are probably the Tribe of Manasseh. This archeological evidence confirms that members of all twelve tribes were deported from Palestine and placed in Media, a large area just south of the Caucasus Mountains.

History books will tell you that the Caucasian people came from the Caucasus Mountains around 700 BC, but rarely do they pursue the previous history of the Caucasian people to their True Source: the Israelites of Media!!!

There are two reasons for this: 1.) Most academic historians hate the Bible and want to refute its history. Unfortunately for them, modern archeology confirms the vast majority of the Bible's history. Having no interest in verifying what the Bible teaches, they simply ignore it. 2.) The rabbis of Judaism teach that the House of Israel disappeared into oblivion, never to be heard from again!

As you can now see, They Are Both Wrong!!!

The Seven Times Prophecy

13 I am the Lord your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen; and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go upright.

14 But if ye will not hearken unto me, and will not do all these commandments;

15 And if ye shall despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant:

23 And if ye will not be reformed by me by these things, but will walk contrary unto me;

24 Then will I also walk contrary unto you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins.

27 And if ye will not for all this hearken unto me, but walk contrary unto me;

28 Then I will walk contrary unto you also in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins.

33 And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

43 The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy her Sabbaths, while she lieth desolate without them: and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity: because, even because they despised my judgments, and because their soul abhorred my statutes.

44 And yet for all that, when they be in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them: for I am the Lord their God.

45 But I will for their sakes remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the Lord.

46 These are the statutes and judgments and laws, which the Lord made between him and the children of Israel in mount Sinai by the hand of Moses. - Leviticus 26:13-46

Before the Ten Northern Tribes rebelled, Yahweh had issued this warning that, if the Israelites do not obey His Laws, He will cast them away for a period of Seven Times!

What does this mean? Various Bible scholars have concluded from other fulfilled Scriptural prophecies that a “time” equals 360 prophetic years. Thus “7 times” = 7 * 360 = 2520 years.

Observe very closely and you will see the Divine fulfilment of this prophecy. The deportations of the House of Israel began, as cited earlier, in 745 BC. This is established, historical fact. From 745 B.C. we add 2520 Years (Seven Times).

Now, 2520 – 745 = 1775. We are very close to the year in which America was founded, aren't we? But, close only counts in horseshoes, right? Wait a minute! There is no such thing as a Year Zero!!

The BC calendar goes directly from 1 BC to 1 AD! Unlike regular math, there is no zero! Therefore, in order to account for this lack, we have to add 1 year!

Guess what? The correct answer is the Year of Our Lord, 1776, the very year the American Declaration of Independence was signed.

America, the world's First Christian Republic (not a monarchy like Britain) was founded Seven Times after the First Deportation in 745 BC! Imagine that! What a coincidence! Not in God's Plan, it isn't!

There are no coincidences with Yahweh. His hand guides all of prophecy and history. Since all of the European nations were founded by Israelites, and representatives of all of these nations migrated to America, America is the regathering place of All Twelve Tribes.

This amazing prophecy was fulfilled by the United States of America, the USA, which is destined to be the future headquarters of God's Kingdom, the New JerUSAlem, right here on earth!

Are you now beginning to understand how important it is to correlate these prophecies with the True History of the Israelite people?

The Gog Prophecy of Ezekiel 38:11 states that Gog's army would attack a land of un-walled villages. This cannot be Palestine or the Israeli State, for the Jewish State is Not a land of “un-walled villages.” Far from it! In fact, the Jews are building even more walls around their villages as we speak!! But America has always been a land of un-walled villages.

Chapter Three:

Tracing the Migrations From the Iberian Caucasus To the Iberian Peninsula

Moreover I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as beforetime, - I Samuel 7:10.

All historians agree that the bulk of these people never returned to Palestine, but they are wrong in asserting that these people either died off or intermarried with the other peoples of Mesopotamia.

The fact is that one small contingent of them did return later to Palestine, when they were known as “Scythians.” (Above) Knowing that they were Israelites, they returned to Palestine and founded a small town called “Scythopolis.” That town still exists today.

What really happened is this: The Israelites, having become a captive people, were being used by the Assyrians to perform slave labour and were also forced to fight battles for them (“Kill or be killed”) as unwilling mercenaries. Having been evicted from Palestine by Yahweh for their pagan practices, they were without a land of their own for the first time. Hence, they were referred to by new and different names as they migrated through the territories of other peoples.

These new names were spoken and recorded in the languages of their captors and in the languages of the historians who chronicled their locations and migrations. These new names will be detailed later.

Ultimately, these migrating Israelites would become known by a single, new name. This eventuality was prophesied in various places, such as Isa. 62:2, Isa. 65:15, and Hosea 2:1.

These are the exact words of Isa. 62:2: “And the nations shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of Yahweh shall name.” That new name, by which we are still called today, is “Christians,” and the “righteousness” being referred to is Christian jurisprudence, which was and is the foundation of Christian civilization.

The Dariel Pass

Recalling that Isaiah prophesied that the children of Israel would have a second exodus from Assyria, we can now pinpoint that “highway” as the highway that leads through the Dariel Pass.

There is ample witness from various documents that these tribes maintained their tribal traditions and continued to exist as a people throughout history, but they eventually forgot their Identity as Israel.

This forgetfulness was prophesied in various Scriptures, such as Isa. 29:10-12, 42:16, 19-20; Hos. 1:9-10, 2:7-23, 3:4-5, and verified by Paul at Romans 11:7-8, 25. In the words of Hosea: “For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice and without an image, and without an ephod and without a teraphim: Afterward shall the children of Israel return and seek Yahweh their God, and David their King and shall fear Yahweh and His goodness in the latter days.” – Hos. 3:4-5.

“Those are the ten tribes, which were carried away prisoners out of their own land in the time of Osea [Hosea] the king, whom Salmasar the king of Assyria led away captive, and he carried them over the waters, and so they came into another land.” - II Esdras 13:40-45.

The “waters” that are here spoken of are the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers, which still flow out of northern Media today.

Esdras also records their determination to flee their captors by going north:

“But they took this counsel among themselves, that they would leave the multitude of the heathen, and go forth into a further country, where never mankind dwelt, that they might there keep their statutes, which they never kept in their own land.

And they entered into Euphrates by the narrow passages of the river. For the Most High then showed signs and wonders [as in the days of the Exodus from Egypt] and held still the flood, till they were passed over. For through that country there was a great way to go, namely, of a year and a half: and the same region is called Arsareth.” – II Esdras, 13:40-45.

Today, it is called Armenia. Note that this passage from the Apocrypha totally verifies Isa. 11:11, which is the “highway” prophecy. So, far from disappearing off the face of the earth, and far from dying out, the so-called “Ten Lost Tribes” are still Very Much Alive.

We are known as the Caucasian people!!! I like to refer to us as Anglo-Saxon Israel.

Having firmly established the Identity of the Israelites of the Assyrian Captivity with the Caucasian people, we can now traces some of the other names by which our ancestors called themselves and by which they were called by other people.

Scythians and Saxons

“In Isaac Shall Thy Seed Be Called.”
– Gen. 21:12.

In addition to the names Cimmerians and Mannai, another name, Iskuza, was applied to a group of people in the same time and place, although historians generally place the Scythians east and north of the Cimmerians. Esarhaddon refers to the Iskuza as being united with the Mannai in battle.

One of the names by which the House of Israel was known was as the House of Isaac. Iskuza is the Assyrian version of the Greek Scythian and the Persian Sacae. In Hebrew, Isaac is pronounced Ish-Ak, with the accent on the second syllable. The Greeks and Persians dropped the first syllable and retained the second.

These same Sacae (also called Sacca or Sakka) were driven out of Media later that century along with the Mannai and Gimira (another variation of Cimmerians or Khumru) when Media and Babylon joined forces to overthrow the Assyrian Empire. In addition to the Caucasus Mountain route, some of these Israelites went west, migrating along the southern shores of the Black Sea, and some went east, along the southern shores of the Caspian Sea and then north along the eastern shores of that same sea into the steppes of southern Russia.

One group of these Sacae stayed in the area of Media, outlasting the Assyrians, Medes and Persians. They became known as the Parthians.

The Parthians became a huge empire, at one point stretching from Armenia all the way down to the Indus Valley.

Their empire lasted well beyond the days of Christ. In fact the Magi were Parthians. The Romans were never able to defeat the Parthians; and it was during a truce period, between the Romans and Parthians, that the Magi were able to travel to Judah. The Magi knew they were the kinsmen of Jesus Christ. That’s why they travelled to Judea when they saw the star.

The Sacae were also referred to as the Saka-Suni, which, literally translated, means “Isaac’s sons.” It is easy to see how Saka-Suni would have been shortened to Saxon. The fact that these Israelites were named after Isaac fulfils the prophecy of Gen. 21:12.

Another variation of Scythian was Scuth, which is the basis of the word Scot, from which the words Scotia and Scotland derive.

The first historical traces of the Scythians in South Russia are dated around 600 BC, about 145 years after the first deportation. From there, the Scythians moved northwest toward the Baltic and west toward Germany. As the Scythians migrated westward, the various sub-tribes developed names of their own.

In a tract on the subject of the Lost Tribes entitled "Our Scythian Ancestors", W E Filmer traces archeological evidence connecting Scythian artefacts with what is known of Hebrew artefacts.

Such objects as the battle-axe, three-edged arrowheads, scabbards and sword handles with a tree-of-life design, etc., all go to show that the Scythians of south Russia migrated from the south and not from the east as many historians have believed. The battle-axe was the favourite weapon of the Israelites.

The migrations of the Scythian Israelites is confirmed by the trail of burial grounds of the Scythians and their kings, which lead up the Dnieper River valley as far as Kiev. The oldest of these artifacts are those closest to Romania, Armenia, and south Russia. Their burial sites spread as far as the Danish Islands and the Jutland Peninsula.

Quoting Filmer, "Now Tacitus and Ptolemy name the region of the River Elbe and the base of the Jutland Peninsula as the places inhabited by the Angles and Saxons before they came to Britain.

According to Roman terminology, this was 'Germany' but it is interesting to note that the British historian, Nennius, in his account of the arrival of the Hengist and Horsa in Thanet, says that 'messengers were sent to Scythia for reinforcements.' The context shows that these came, in fact, from north Germany, so evidently the ancient name of the 'genuine Scythians' persisted long in northern Europe."

The Jutland Peninsula is named after the Jutes, who are of the Tribe of Judah.

Regarding the northerly migrations of the Scythians, M. I. Rostovtsev, in his Iranians And Greeks In South Russia, says "We cannot but recognize that in the fourth and third centuries [B.C.] the Scythians endeavoured to install themselves as a ruling class in the northern regions of their empire, to transform their suzerainty into a real domination, and to extend that domination as far as possible to the north. It will not be denied that this Scythian expansion, hitherto unnoticed, is an historical fact of the first importance." – p. 98.

Pliny, the Elder, in his Natural History, asserts, "The name of the Scythians is everywhere changed to that of Sarmatae and Germans."

The Tribe of Dan obviously left its name in the Danube River, the Danes of Denmark, the Don River, etc. Scan a map of Europe and you will be struck by the names which can be traced to the Tribes of Israel. Dan abode in ships and used those ships to travel up the various rivers of Europe. Since, in all probability, the Danites reached these places first, these Danites (today called Danes) named many of the places and rivers.

William Fowler in his book, End Time Revelations, records the migration of the Scythians east of Media into India as well where blond Scythians invaded and stayed for five centuries, leaving a tradition among the Jats (Jutes?) and Rajputs that they are of Scythian ancestry. Fowler states, "The Saka were the blond people who carried the Aryan language to India." (p. 100). The similarity of the words Aryan, Aramii, Aramaic (the language spoken by Jesus), and Armenian is self-evident.

Strabo, who wrote in the 1st century A.D., says of the Sacae: "Most of the Scythians, beginning from the Caspian Sea are called 'Dahae Scythae', and those situated more towards the east, 'Massagatae' and 'Sacae'; the rest have the common name of 'Scythians', but each tribe has its own peculiar name." In rudimentary form, we can trace in Strabo's account the names of Dan, Manasseh, and Isaac, and even Issachar.

Of the English people, Bede says, "They had come from the three bravest nations of Germany, namely, from the Saxons, the Angles and the Jutes. The Cantuarii (the inhabitants of Kent) are of Jutish origin; and so are the Victuarii, the tribe which inhabits the Isle of Wight.

The East Saxons, the South Saxons and the West Saxons came from the Saxons, ie, from the country which is now called the country of the Old Saxons. Lastly, the East Angles, the Middle Angles, the Mercians, and the whole population of Northumbria—are sprung from the Anglii, from a land which is called Angulus—It lies between the territories of the Jutes and those of the Saxons." - Ecclesiastical History.

So, here is the historical progression of names: Ishak, Sacae, Scythians, Sarmatians, Germans (Saxons, Angles, and Jutes), English.

Old Testament

“Word for Word” Exodus Part 6

Translation by Stephen Howard Anderson

Chapter 8

1. Spoke Yahweh to Mosheh, “Say to Aharon, ‘Stretch forth your hand with the rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Mits’rayim.’”

2. And Aharon stretched forth his hand over the waters of Mits’rayim; and the frogs came up and covered the land of Mits’rayim.

3. Did so the magicians with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Mits’rayim.

4. Then summoned Par’oh Mosheh and Aharon, and said, “Intercede 6279 with Yahweh to remove the frogs from me and my people, and I will let go the people to sacrifice to Yahweh.”

5. Said Mosheh to Par’oh, “Glory 6286 over me: when shall I entreat for you, and for your people, to destroy 3772 the frogs from you and your houses, so that they remain in the river only?”

6. Said he, “Tomorrow.” And said he, “Be it according to your word: so that you may know that there is none like Yahweh Eloheynu 430.

7. And shall depart the frogs from you and from your houses, and from your servants, and from your people; they shall remain in the river only.”

8. Went out Mosheh and Aharon from Par’oh: cried out 6817 Mosheh to Yahweh because of the frogs which He had brought against Par’oh.

9. Did Yahweh according to the word of Mosheh; and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields.

10. Gathered together they them in heaps, and the land stank 887.

11. But when saw Par’oh that there was respite 7309, he made heavy 3513 his heart, and did not listen to them; as had said Yahweh.

12. Said Yahweh to Mosheh, “Say to Aharon, ‘Stretch out the rod, and smite the dust 6083 of the land, so that it becomes a gnat-swarm 3654 throughout all the land of Mits’rayim.’”

13. And they did so; because stretched out Aharon his hand with the rod, and smote the dust of the land, and it became gnats upon adam, and upon beasts; all the dust of the land became gnats throughout all the land of Mits’rayim.

14. Did the magicians their enchantments to bring forth gnats, but they could not: so there were gnats upon adam and upon beast.

15. Then said the magicians to Par’oh, “This is the finger 676 of Elohiym!” And Par’oh’s heart was strengthened, and he did not listen to them, as had said Yahweh.

16. Said Yahweh to Mosheh, “Rise up early 7925 in the morning, and stand in the presence of Par’oh; lo, he comes forth to the water; and say to him, ‘Thus says Yahweh, ‘Let My people go, so that they may serve Me.

17. Because, if you will not let My people go, behold, I will send swarms 6157 upon you, and upon your servants, and upon your people, and into your houses: and the houses of the Mits’rayim shall be full of swarms, and also upon the ground 127 they are on.

18. And I will separate 6395 in that day the land of Goshen, in which My people live, that no swarms shall be there; to the end 4616 that you will know that I am Yahweh in the midst 7130 of the land.

19. I will put a ransom 6304 between My people and your people: this sign 226 shall be tomorrow."

20. Did so Yahweh; and there came a grievous swarm into the house of Par'oh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Mits'rayim: the land was ruined 7843 by the presence 6440 of the swarm.

21. And Par'oh called for Mosheh and for Aharon, and said, "Go you, sacrifice to Eloheychem 430 in the land!"

22. And said Mosheh, "It is not set up 3559 to do so; because we shall sacrifice the abomination 8441 of the Mits'rayim to Yahweh Eloheynu 430: lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Mits'rayim before their eyes, and will they not stone 5619 us?"

23. We will go three days journey 1870 into the wilderness, and sacrifice to Yahweh Eloheynu, as He shall say to us."

24. Said Par'oh, "I will let you go, so that you may sacrifice to Yahweh Eloheychem in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away 7368: entreat for me."

25. And replied Mosheh, "Behold, I go forth from you, and I will entreat Yahweh, so that the swarms will depart from Par'oh, from his servants, and from his people, tomorrow: but let not Par'oh deal deceitfully 2048 any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to Yahweh."

26. And went forth from Par'oh, and entreated Yahweh.

27. And did Yahweh according to the word of Mosheh; and He removed 5493 the swarms from Par'oh, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one.

28. And made heavy Par'oh his heart at this time also, and he would not let go the people.

Chapter 8 Notes

Verse 1-3 - Yashar (Jasher) 80:6 - Yahweh is going to display His power here, and show the ineffectiveness of the "magicians". The trust Par'oh put in these men would be shaken, and the Mits'rayim would suffer for the obstinate behavior of their ruler.

Verse 5, "Glory over me" is obscure, and the exact meaning is unsure.

Verse 12 - gnats is correct, lice is incorrect. Yashar 80:10

Verse 15 - Even the magicians recognize the Godly power at work. Luke 11:20;

Verse 17 - The makeup of the swarm is not given in the Hebrew text. Mosquitoes seem likely to me, as the close proximity of water in the river, and all the pools and backwaters that would be there make this highly likely. My opinion only, but think on it.

Verse 20 - Ruined 7843 is the correct word, as the swarms got into everything, and life was made miserable.

Verse 22 - Abomination 8441 is correct, because the Hebrews were shepherders, and would sacrifice sheep, which was considered an abomination to the Mits'rayim. This was in B'reshiyth (Genesis) in the story of Yoseph.

What's Killing People If There is No Coronavirus? Acidosis and Red Blood Cell Transmutation

By Wayne Lusvardi

sepsis from hospitalisation for ersatz COVID-19 patients.

An answer to the above question in the title to this article can plausibly be found in a 2001 medical book written by Robert O. Young, PhD, D.Sc. Young is an independent medical researcher who had his medical license removed for curing a patient of cancer who sued him for not getting chemotherapy and is still alive.

TO BE HUMAN IS TO LIVE WITH INCONCLUSIVE INFORMATION as to ultimate meaning of things. Ninety government agencies and laboratories have not provided proof that the bugaboo Coronavirus exists when requested by independent biostatistician Christine Massey. Additionally, statistician Genevieve Briand has found that there were no excess deaths (all causes) in 2021 when the death data was adjusted for the bulge of the Baby Boom elderly generation in the overall population. This runs against the government and media created perception of reality that there is a Coronavirus epidemic.

Young is now a naturopathic medical consultant in California who has authored some 50 books, most of them now banned. Young wrote a book in 2001 – Sick and Tired: Reclaim Your Inner Terrain – that describes in technical language the apparent cause of the wave of people who are dying of a blood clotting disease now dubbed COVID-19. He also wrote a shorter book Pathological Blood Coagulation: The Mycotoxic Oxidative Stress Test (2015) that can be found free online here.

But when you mention that there is no coronavirus to the average Joe or Jane, they typically say with absolute certainty that they personally know someone in their family or close associates who had died of Coronavirus. Cognitive dissonance is a social psychological process of doubling down on our beliefs in the face of contradictory evidence or uncertainty. But anecdotal knowledge is not reliable for medical purposes when we are surrounded by contradictory signals that do not interpret themselves.

My curiosity about COVID-19 has been piqued since I lost my twin brother – Bill Sardi, former health investigator at LewRockwell.com. He officially died of hospital-induced sepsis related to pulmonary embolism-pneumonia - hypoxia from an apparent blood clot that was likely generated in his leg on a long automobile trip that migrated to the pulmonary artery in his lung. Of course, the hospital put on his death certificate that the third reason for his death was COVID-19, but he had four consecutive negative PCR tests prior to his death.

Furthermore, there is no research or books that attempt to credibly answer the gnawing question: what is killing people if there is no verifiable Coronavirus? Given the actual uncertainty in the face of monopoly government certitude that COVID-19 exists and is contagious, people seek medical prevention and treatment along social class lines with the Knowledge-Government Class seeking inoculations and the Independent-Working Class seeking Ivermectin - Hydroxychloroquine, neither of which deal with internally induced blood clotting in the lung or

The one positive PCR test came only after he got sepsis after 20 days in the hospital, a bacterial infection for which there is no treatment (a super bug).

So, what is Pathological Blood Coagulation (called Disseminated Intravascular Coagulation) that Young describes? It is “a serious disorder where the proteins that control blood clotting become overactive due to underlying conditions such as infection, cancer, inflammation” or prior surgery such as having a stent placed in a blocked artery. Coagulation or clotting is when blood changes from a liquid to a gel, forming an unwanted clot.

Blood Clotting

Dr. Young writes that to understand pathological clotting one first must understand mycotoxins (fungal toxins), endotoxins (meaning coming from within or internal), exotoxins (meaning outside or external) and tissue (activating) factor (the initiator of blood clotting cascade). These are words for internally produced bacteria, yeast, fungus and mould due to a pervading condition of acidity from one's lifestyle and/or the environment.

Mycotoxins derive from acidification and oxygen deficit that leads to fermentation metabolism carried out by yeast, fungus and mould, whose primary purpose is to decompose the body upon death.

During fermentation, high concentrations of damaging, acidic products of metabolism are produced unless the body halts this process by enzymes such as Nattokinase, or else cells eventually become poisoned.

One of these byproducts of fermentation is acetic aldehyde; the same carcinogen in tobacco smoke. We don't have to be exposed to passive smoke from cigarettes because we make our own internal smoke so to speak. Persons undergoing stress or anxiety are more prone to producing the aldehyde toxin.

Antidotes to aldehyde are sulfur amino acids, N-acetyl-cysteine, L-aurine, methionine and glutathione. Chlorophyll, enzymes, vitamin C and sprouts are beneficial. Both fats and minerals are bound to acidic toxins as an attempt to neutralize them. Foods to avoid are nutritional yeast, mushrooms, dairy, alcohol, caffeine, peanuts, corn and smoking.

Red blood cells together with hemoglobin protein carry oxygen into the lung and depends on alkalinity. Not disclosed by modern science, bacteria, mould, yeast and fungus can morph into each other, called Pleomorphism. Bacteria, yeast, fungus, mould produce acids that ferment glucose, proteins and fats that become poisons. Clotting can also occur when positively charged endothelial cells that line most organs are damaged by toxins resulting in exposing negative charged blood to a negatively charged "basement membrane" as part of the chemical bonding process (in chemistry negative charged atoms attract and negative-positive atoms repel each other). This sort of acid-caused "leaky gut" can occur throughout the body.

Oversimplified, we produce our own poisons internally by creating an acidic internal environment, but also by internal electrostatic attraction and other causes, not from contagion or snake venom poison in water or shedding. According to Dr. Young, Hydroxychloroquine is an alkalising agent.

If your liver is infected with influenza from trying to flush out acidic toxins, and you eat protein or carbohydrate, the liver will seek help from the lung resulting in pneumonia (fluid in lung).

Once again, we create our own disease. If hospitalised with serious symptoms of pneumonia, hypoxia, etc., we likely will get infused with more toxic substances vainly trying to treat a virus that doesn't exist for a disease that is not viral induced (such as the antiviral drug Remdesivir). There are viruses but they are detergents that try to flush out internal poisons through the liver. There is no way to get a "bird flu" except by injection. The CDC and FDA never tell us such information.

The Fall and Rise of Abraham's House (Part 15)

By Adam de Witt

THE NEW TESTAMENT VERSES WITH "ABRAHAM" THEREIN

Matt 22:32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

Luke 1:55 As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

Luke 1:73 The oath which he sware to our father Abraham,

Luke 3:34 Which was (the son) of Jacob, which was (the son) of Isaac, which was (the son) of Abraham, which was (the son) of Thera, which was (the son) of Nachor,

Luke 13:28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you (yourselves) thrust out.

Luke 20:37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

Acts 3:13 The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let (him) go.

Acts 7:8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so (Abraham) begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac (begat) Jacob; and Jacob (begat) the twelve patriarchs.

Luke 20:37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

Acts 3:13 The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let (him) go.

Acts 7:8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so (Abraham) begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac (begat) Jacob; and Jacob (begat) the twelve patriarchs.

Acts 7:32 (Saying), I (am) the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

Rom 9:7 Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, (are they) all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.

Rom 9:10 And not only (this); but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, (even) by our father Isaac;

Gal 4:28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

Heb 11:9 By faith he dwelt in the land of promise, as (in) a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

Heb 11:17 By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten (son),

James 2:21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

NEW TESTAMENT VERSES WITH "JACOB" THEREIN

Matt 2:1 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

Matt 1:15, 16 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob; And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

Matt 8:11 And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.

Matt 22:32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

Mark 12:26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I (am) the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

Luke 1:33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

Luke 3:34 Which was (the son) of Jacob, which was (the son) of Isaac, which was (the son) of Abraham, which was (the son) of Terah, which was (the son) of Nachor,

Luke 13:28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you (yourselves) thrust out.

Luke 20:37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

John 4:5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

John 4:12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

Acts 3:13 The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let (him) go.

Acts 7:8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so (Abraham) begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac (begat) Jacob; and Jacob (begat) the twelve patriarchs.

Acts 7:12,15 But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first. And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh. Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls. So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers,

Acts 7:32 (Saying), I (am) the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

Acts 7:46 Who found favour before God, and desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.

Rom 9:13 As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

Rom 11:26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

Heb 11:9 By faith he (Abraham) dwelt in the land of promise, as (in) a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

Heb 11:20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

Heb 11:21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; leaning upon the top of his staff.

New Testament Verses with "Israel" Therein

Matt 2:6 And thou Bethlehem, (in) the land of Judah, art not the least among the princes of Judah: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

Matt 2:20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life. And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

Matt 8:10 When Jesus heard (it), he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

Matt 9:33 And when the evil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

Matt 10:6 But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

Matt 10:23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

Matt 15:24 But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

Matt 15:31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.

Matt 19:28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Matt 27:9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value;

Matt 27:42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

Mark 12:29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments (is), Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord:

Mark 15:32 Let Christ the King of Israel come down now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reviled him.

Luke 1:16 And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.

Luke 1:54 He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of (his) mercy;

Luke 1:68 Blessed (be) the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people.

Luke 1:80 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

Luke 2:25 And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name (was) Simeon; and the same man (was) just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him.

♦Luke 2:32 A light to lighten the nations [ethnos, which is also used of Israel], and the glory of thy people = laos Israel.

Luke 2:34 And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this (child) is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against;

Luke 4:25 But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

♦Luke 4:27 And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian. [This tells where he was from, but not his race].

◆Luke 7:9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. [This centurion can easily be identified as being of Israelite extraction].

Luke 22:30 That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel. But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and besides all this, today is the third day since these things were done.

John 1:31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

John 1:49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel.

John 3:10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

John 12:13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed (is) the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

Acts 1:6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time give back again the kingdom of Israel?

Acts 2:22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

Acts 2:36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

Acts 3:12 And when Peter saw (it), he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

Acts 4:8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

Acts 4:10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, (even) by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

Acts 4:27 For of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the nations, and the people of Israel, were gathered together,

Acts 5:21 And when they heard (that), they came into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

Acts 5:31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand (to be) a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins.

Acts 5:35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

Acts 7:23 And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

Acts 7:37 This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear.

Acts 7:42 Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices (spanning) forty years in the wilderness?

◆Acts 9:15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles [=people, or nations], and kings, and the children of Israel:

Acts 10:36 The word which (God) sent mo the children of Israel preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:)

The England That Once Was By Rev. Dr Peter J. Gadsden

There used to be an England,
Where truth and peace prevailed.
But where Is England in these days?
It's gone, the nation's failed.

WELL THAT IS WHAT APPEARS TO BE THE CASE, for according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica, England no longer exists as a political or social entity. I was speaking to some friends about this and how we should celebrate England's national day, St George's Day (April 23).

One innocently asked, Why celebrate it? In former years this day was celebrated by all the schools. All uniformed youth groups would parade in their respective uniforms, the flag would be raised and we would give thanks to God for our land.

Political traitors have betrayed and destroyed our great nation and its glorious Christian heritage. Spineless leaders of England have kow-towed to their peers in the European Union, whilst here at home they bend over backward to placate all that is unholy, including pagan religious systems.

These politicians, along with the politically correct brigade, do not give a single thought to the principles that once made this nation great, they do not care for the great Christian heritage of England, they are blind leaders of the blind. For nearly 2000 years England has had a good Christian heritage. The true Gospel came to these shores in the first century AD, long before Augustine the Roman Catholic emissary, arrived with another gospel.

As long ago as the second century AD, England was known as a Christian land. Later under Alfred the Great, the laws of the land were prefixed with the Law of the Lord. Despite the dark days of the Middle-Ages when false religion had the upper-hand, the underlying truth of the Christian faith remained imprinted in the souls of Englishmen.

The sixteenth century Reformation restored, England back to its proper roots. Many of the institutions, including education, medical care, social welfare, things that we take for granted, have their origins in Christian thought and action. The great biblical principles that brought these into being have all but been lost today.

We have mass murder in the abortion clinics, alcohol abuse and binge drinking, pornography and sodomy. These useless politicians, rather than standing by our historic and biblically based principles, have weakly succumbed and legislated in favour of these evils. Moral filth, drug abuse and corruption, in all its naked vileness, has defiled this once great country.

The great heritage that is rightly ours and our children's has often been defiled by ignorant politicians and, dare I say it, also Church leaders. What is the answer?

I am convinced that only God in His great mercy has the answer, and that is Revival, bringing both Church and State to its knees in repentance. 'Righteousness exalteth a nation but sin is a reproach to any people' (Proverbs chap. 14 v.

34). England is a nation in sin, rejecting and forfeiting this great heritage.

There used to be an England
Of which I once was proud,
But now it is a godless place
Where sin and vice abound.

Harold Stough Notes The History of Llangelynnin Old Church above Henrydd

Editor: This is another of Harold Stough's large collection of booklets, pamphlets and notes on UK ancient churches confirming the Scriptures that Zion is in the North from whence the word will be published abroad.

Llangelynnin Church Wales

THE CHURCH OF ST. CELYNNIN DATES BACK TO THE 12TH CENTURY and is next to the famous Holy Well of the same name, which is in the corner of the Churchyard. The well is much older, and the water is renowned for its healing powers.

Although it is very remote from where the majority of people live today, down in the Conwy Valley, St. Celynnin used to preach here in the 6th century, because there was a community living in the hills then. Traces of that community can still be seen today, such as the standing stones, hut circles, hill forts, hill tracks and a Roman route. The footings of an ancient inn are also visible, just outside the walls!

Llangelynnin Old Church is dedicated to the local Saint Celynnin who lived in the 6th century. It would have been the first religious settlement on the site. At that time, people used to live in the uplands, before the wooded lowlands were cleared for grazing and the villages that you see today. The hill tracks, that still exist, would have been the main arterial routes in Saint Celynnin's time.

The present Llangelynnin Old Church, which dates from the 12th century, was used for regular worship until 1840.

A new Church was then built down in the valley, to make it easier for the people who were now living in the lowlands to worship God.

In 1932 and 1987, major restorations of the Church were carried out. The latter was under the guidance of the late Mr. Gerald Speechley. Today, Services are held during the Summer and on special occasions, such as the Dawn Communion Easter Service.

The porch is a 15th century addition, with an unusual squint window in the East wall. You may notice that the porch roof has been repaired with purloins of yew, which may have grown in the now almost treeless graveyard.

The threshold and hinges of the door are believed to be 14th century, but the door itself is of a later date.

To the right of the door, there is a Holy Water stoup, which was used well into the 19th century. Worshippers would have used the water to cross themselves as they entered the Church.

The octagonal font at the rear of the Church is either 13th or 14th century. Like many in this area, it is a low font, only 27 inches tall. There is another font in the Church, that came from the Victorian Church of Llangelynnin, which closed in the 1980's.

The nave, which is the oldest part of the present Church, dates back to the 12th century. Hanging on the South wall of the nave, there is a bier, that was used to carry the remains of the dead to their final resting place.

The benches in the Church date from the 19th century. One bench is inscribed with the initials R.O.B., for Reverend Owen Bulkeley. He was the former Rector and benefactor of the parish and died in 1737. A terrier of 1742 lists "one church bench which is made use of when women come to church". No others are mentioned.

The chancel, with the remains of a boarded barrel roof, is probably 14th century.

The East window is an elaborate example of 15th century work. It has a flat lintel, which was a common feature of Churches in this area. It breaks into a 14th century niche, which probably contained an image of the Blessed Virgin Mary or Saint Celynnin. No doubt the earlier window contained only two lights.

The twisted baluster altar rails and the altar reredos screen are of the 17th century.

The remains of the 14th century rood screen, which is in front of the comparatively modern lectern, is an interesting feature. It separated the nave from the chancel and it is made from horizontal boards, containing two small triangular holes, which may have been used to spy on the priest during Lent! The upper part of the screen was likely to have been veiled during the period of Lent.

It is likely that the beam and parapet of the old rood loft were used to form the front of the Western gallery. The beam can be seen to the rear of the Church, but the gallery itself has been demolished. Traces of the rood loft can be seen on the walls. The rood loft supported a crucifix. The box adjoining the remains of the rood screen is thought to be the remains of a pew for the Rector's family.

The reader's desk is thought to be Elizabethan, but the door is a later date. At one time, a pulpit stood on the North side of the altar. When it was removed, some inscriptions were exposed on the East wall. Whitewash on the remaining inscriptions was removed to expose the Creed, the Lord's Prayer and the Ten Commandments, all in Welsh, as well as the elaborate scroll work and inscription "Fear God and honour the King" over the East window.

Location of Llangelynnin Church

These inscriptions are thought to date from the Restoration. The Lord's Prayer on the window sill can no longer be seen.

The 15th century Men's Chapel Capel Meibion forms the North transept, where until the 19th century, the men would sit or stand in it during the Services. The women and children would sit in the main nave. Today, there is no segregation. We all sit together.

You will notice that the floor at the rear of the Men's Chapel is of earth, which would have been strewn with rushes, meadowsweet or some other pleasant smelling leaves. This would have been the case for the floor in the nave, before it was paved. The window at the North end of the Men's Chapel is post Reformation.

The unusual spellings of Rebecka Joens and Owen Joens are on the memorial next to the altar. The two memorials on the West wall of the Men's Chapel are also interesting, because they show the Welsh patronymic system of naming. The lower memorial shows the son with the surname Roberts, because his father's Christian name was Robert and can be seen on the upper memorial.

At one time, Capel Eirianws used to exist South of the altar. It was probably named after Eirianws Farm, which was located along the B5106 road. Eirianws means Plum Orchard in Welsh. According to a terrier of 1742 "Owen Holland of Conwy, Esqre and Humphrey Roberts of Bryn-y-Neuadd Esqre have equal Claim and Title to the sd. chapel and repair the same upon their own proper cost and charges”.

During the middle of the 19th century, the Chapel was demolished, but its foundations can still be seen outside. It is believed that the Chapel was built in Elizabethan times by the owner of Eirianws Farm.

The Church bell has the inscription “1822”.

In the South West corner of the Churchyard, there is a well called Ffynnon Celynnin, which is Celynnin’s Well in Welsh. The water is known to have healing powers and was noted for curing sick children. Around the walls of the well, which at one time was roofed, there are stone benches. The well dried up during the drought of 2018!

Outside the Churchyard, near the well, was a circular building, which according to the 1742 terrier, was used as a stable.

There used to be an inn to quench the thirst of weary travellers. It was located in the South East corner, just outside the Churchyard. The inn was demolished at the beginning of the 19th century.

Russia

Sir ____, Below is an interesting item received via an e-mail last week:—

Russia is the Last Remaining Christian Country, thus under Attack by the Forces of Satan.

December 29, 2021 — At his year-end press conference, Russian President Putin said that "a woman is a woman and a man is a man," and he expressed his confidence that the religious denominations of the Russian Federation would have the moral fibre to resist the intrusion of the corrupted and degenerate values of the Western world.

Alas, the Western World has no such moral fibre. The West has cut itself off from its past and is tottering on the premise that it can survive by acculturating its youth to disbelieve in the West. The purpose of Western education is the deracination of Western youth and their alienation from Western culture.

That is what insouciant families pay taxes and tuition for. Every year in my Christmas column I point out that the voices that connect us to the past have been demonised and cut off, leaving us in a country without a foundation.

Moreover, Hollywood, TV, media, Internet, and educational systems at every level in every state are working openly or surreptitiously to rewrite the history of Western culture as a white racist enterprise that must be overthrown.

The purpose of public schools has been converted to brainwashing children into a guilt complex due to the colour of their skin and to installing a sense of entitlement into the minds of BIPOC children. Parents protest but ideological anti-white school boards pay no attention. In other words, what education does in the Western world is to deracinate the white ethnicities and elevate the immigrant-invaders. . . Full story: Comment: The answer is Genesis 3:16, described by a three letter acronym. Yours truly, Gavin Scott, Norfolk UK.

Allegation of Serious Crime Against The People of The Uk!!!!

Copy of Open Letter - Allegation of Serious Crime

Prime Minister,

Unlike you, I worked hard for 54 years. I paid income tax, employee tax, employer's tax for the entire working life. I am retired now and I pay income tax on my state pension, which following the high level of taxation over my working life, is all I and my wife have to exist. Despite all of this money paid over to the exchequer Money-bags Sunak has no understanding of the disgustingly small amount actually returned to the pensioners. But, of course, why should he? Or you?

But you will no doubt understand why, when I see you are giving fully equipped ambulances to Ukraine and massive amounts of money that the People have a right to be absolutely seething with rage at you and your absurd and misplaced decisions.

Why Are You Giving Our Money Away like This? How dare you and the Exchequer divert this money when we have people dying in This Country Waiting for an ambulance and people struggling to find money for food and heating!!!! I pay taxes on just about everything I do. What I do Not Do is to pay taxes to the Exchequer just so you can give it away to a criminal government. How dare you subvert these funds!!! How Bloody Dare You!!!! You should be put in jail you totally corrupt bastard, Prime Minister.

Russia has been complaining to the international community that Russian speaking Ukrainians in Donestk and Luhensk were being systematically murdered by units of the Azov militia for 8 years, a militia that Ukraine has taken into its army and which they send to murder innocent Russian speaking people in the above regions.

The world went to war with Hitler and placed his senior military and civil people on trial for their genocide of the Jews. Why is it wrong to commit genocide against the Jews but not wrong to commit genocide against Russian speaking Ukrainians ????

What, and Where, is your authority to give away ambulances and military equipment to an international criminal like Zelenskyy?

Who gave you, or Parliament as a whole, the authority to give away vast amounts of British taxpayers' money to criminal foreign causes? Our taxes are paid to build and maintain the infrastructure of Her Majesty's ancient Kingdom and to supply an NHS that has all the equipment and personnel it needs for Our care and well-being.

We are led to believe that following the so-called Covid pandemic and the billions wasted upon a foolish and hopelessly managed 'track and trace' project, plus all of the foolish wasted billions on furlough, plus all of the wasted billions on NHS equipment through corrupt orders placed with ministers' friends which have finished up in incinerators, that there is now a financial crisis.

No mention of the billions now saved in Pensions and NHS costs. Not to mention the billions that were not spent on women's pensions at age 60 which were disgracefully unpaid on the grounds that it would cost too much, despite the Government having extracted and being duty bound to provide these State Pensions and were not subject to being cancelled by the Exchequer or anybody else. And not to mention the millions upon billions wasted by the MoD, the NHS wastage and Foreign Aid over this period.

By supporting Ukraine, Boris, you support genocide. And That Prime Minister makes you a criminal, one who should be placed before the international court in The Hague. Russia has never made any moves to harm Her Majesty's Kingdom or indeed any of Her subjects. Russia is acting perfectly lawfully in preventing genocide of the Russian speaking Ukrainians.

Your actions, goaded by President Biden and his satanic Deep State, are illegal and immoral.

Your highly contentious decision, taken without Parliament's sanction, of sending all this equipment to assist Zelensky a comedian in Ukraine, is nothing short of theft of Her Majesty's subject's money.

This Money is money collected in taxes from Her Majesty's subjects to be used to benefit Her Majesty's subjects. By aiding genocide, You are not only an international criminal but a thief Prime Minister. Tax money does not belong to you or Parliament. It belongs to the people of the United Kingdom who pay their taxes.

I am copying this to my MP and to the Commissioner of the Metropolis with my request the police investigate your theft of tax payer's money. The definition of theft being to dishonestly appropriate property belonging to another with the intention of permanently depriving them of it. You have Given, not sold, these ambulances and military equipment and that has deprived Her Majesty's taxes collected to be used Only for the benefit of United Kingdom.

And by supporting Ukraine, a rogue state which practices genocide on its own subjects and your vociferous condemnation of President Putin whose only alleged "crime" is to go to the assistance of the victims of genocide, you have demonstrated your support of Ukraine's genocide against the Russian speaking citizens of Ukraine contrary to UK and International law.

Respectfully Submitted: Yours truly, NKC [with grateful thanks to Albert Burgess original]

The Ukraine - An Open Letter To My MP

Sir__, Below is a copy of a letter sent to my MP Regarding supply of weapons to the UK.

Mr Howell, You told me at a surgery a long time ago that now you were elected you did what you want, not what the electorate want.

We now have a situation where this government has decided to support Ukraine, the acknowledged most corrupt country on the planet, and a government which for eight years President Putin has been asking the West to help stop Ukraine from murdering thousands of its own Russian speaking citizens. Even speaking Russian has been made illegal. The West has steadfastly ignored Russia's plea to stop the genocide of these Russian speaking Ukrainians, which is in essence no different from Hitler's genocide of the Jews?

By supplying Ukraine with weapons you are doing three things:-

- (1) You are condoning genocide
- (2) you are prolonging the fighting causing the death toll or as the military say, the butchers bill of many thousands of otherwise innocent people to die and
- (3) you are alienating a major nuclear power and potential threat to the UK by supplying arms to kill Russian service men.

John Howell MP

None of the people who elected you did so for you to support genocide. Nor were you elected to cause the incineration of the British electorate because government policy has brought down nuclear devastation on us. Government, I know have shelters to run to and hide in. But sooner or later you will have to come out to a country saturated with radiation which will kill you slowly and painfully.

You will, however, have starved to death before then as all the farmers and farm animals will also be dead. But never mind. The radiation or lack of food the nuclear winter caused by blocking out the Sun will see you freeze to death.

You were elected to serve the electorate. To be our voice in Parliament to work only for the electorate's best interests. Getting us all killed so that Boris can look good and earn brownie points on the world stage is not what you were elected for. We are told about Russian war crimes but there is no verifiable evidence to support those allegations.

On the other hand there is ample evidence that Russian prisoners of war were crucified on tank traps, tortured and murdered by Ukraine. Ukraine claimed the sailors on the island were murdered by the Russians. But Russia returned them to Ukraine alive and unharmed.

The Russians left Bucca and when Ukrainian troops got there they claimed the Russians had murdered 400 people. Russia denies these murders. The likelihood is they were murdered by Zelenskyy's men to tear at the West's heart strings, so to keep the western weapons coming. Russia has said any of these weapons fired into Russia will receive an immediate response and they will also take out the supply.

RAF Brize Norton, given a small nuke would destroy the RAF's ability to supply our own forces world wide with loss of British personnel operating in other theatres around the world. Russian missiles have eighteen independently targeted warheads so with one missile they could destroy us as a military power.

I require an answer what are you going to do to stop the Government's head long rush into nuclear devastation. Yours truly, Albert Burgess, Oxfordshire, UK.

If—

Rudyard Kipling - 1865-1936

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,

But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or, being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too
wise;

If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;

If you can think—and not make thoughts
your aim;

If you can meet with triumph and disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools;

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on";

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings—nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you;
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run—
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

It was interesting that NATO was discussing the supply of sea skimming missiles like Harpoon to Ukraine, but was also concerned about Russia then attacking NATO's weapons depots.

The hit on RAF Welford where the USAF and RAF store their weapons on April 14th and many other Russian missile hits on Britain (Oldham, Redditch) have obviously made NATO commanders think.

There may have been others but as the media always covers up, how would we know?

Flights to and from Geneva Airport have been disrupted after a major fire broke out just beyond the perimeter fence.

Images appear to show evidence of a blast at Switzerland's second-busiest airport, where black smoke could be seen spewing into the sky from the site.

'There is a building – the new reception centre for asylum-seekers – which was under construction... it is on fire. It is outside the airport perimeter,' said airport spokesman Ignace Jeannerat.

‘It is creating a lot of smoke,’ he added.

Most of ‘my ideas’ come from outside and are given to us, I believe after a lifetime of ideas happening, and finding events cannot easily be explained in any other way. If we listen and act, ‘they’ meaning benign spiritual forces tell us what to do. Most people have no idea there is a spiritual dimension and as they are not listening, the spirits give up talking and manifesting. That’s how the world will be saved – when humanity awakens to the spirit world.

Newsign says: Yes indeed Tap, spiritual forces are at play here, both good and evil. There are literal devils (The Nephilim) amongst us masquerading as “God’s Chosen”. Like chameleons, they blend in with the local populous to whom their crimes are assigned and have been busy destroying us down the centuries by causing dissension particularly amongst the nation states of the Caucasian race. People are conditioned to see the enemy as external – not as being within the gates! As it is said, “My people are destroyed for a lack of knowledge!”

Just another comment on your remarks on the Newbury incident, I noticed on one of the MSM news reports stated the M4 had to be closed to remove debris (hide the evidence of munitions?) from the road. Considering the distance, I don’t think happens with other fires any chemical containers tend fly up and fall locally.

The Invisible Rainbow Porphyrins and The Basis of Life By Arthur Firstenburg

Porphyrins: The Colours of Life

I SEE LITTLE HOPE TO BE ABLE TO EXPLAIN the subtle difference between a normal and a sick cell as long as we do not understand the basic difference between a cat and a stone. Albert Szent-györgyi

Strangely Enough, “porphyrin” is not a household word. It is not a sugar, fat, or protein, nor is it a vitamin, mineral, or hormone. But it is more basic to life than any other of life’s components, because without it we would not be able to breathe. Plants could not grow.

There would not be any oxygen in the atmosphere. Wherever energy is transformed, wherever electrons flow, there look for porphyrins. When electricity alters nerve conduction, or interferes with the metabolism of our cells, porphyrins are centrally involved.

As I write this chapter, a dear friend has just died. For the last seven years she had had to live without electricity, hardly ever seeing the sun. She seldom ventured out in the daytime; when she did, she covered herself from head to foot in thick leather clothing, a broad-brimmed leather hat hiding her face, and glasses bearing two layers of dark lenses concealing her eyes.

A former dancer who loved music, nature, and the outdoors, Bethany was virtually abandoned by a world in which she no longer belonged.

Her condition, probably caused by her years of work for a computer company, was a classic example of an illness that has been known to medicine only since 1891, its emergence at that time being one of the side effects of the sudden worldwide expansion of electrical technology.

Its connection with electricity was discovered a century later. Although it is now considered an extremely rare genetic disease, affecting as few as one person in fifty thousand, porphyria was originally thought to affect as many as ten percent of the population. Its supposed rarity is due in large part to the ostrich-like behaviour of the medical profession after World War II.

In the late 1940’s, medical practitioners were staring at an impossible contradiction. Most synthetic chemicals were known poisons. But one of the legacies of the war was the ability to manufacture products from petroleum, easily and cheaply, to substitute for almost every consumer product imaginable.

Now, thanks to the fledgling petrochemical industry, bringing us “Better Living Through Chemistry,” synthetic chemicals were going to be literally everywhere.

We were going to be wearing them, sleeping on them, washing our clothes, our hair, our dishes, and our homes with them, bathing in them, insulating our houses with them, carpeting our floors with them, spraying our crops, our lawns, and our pets with them, preserving our food with them, coating our cookware with them, packing our groceries in them, moisturizing our skin with them, and perfuming our bodies with them.

The medical profession had two choices. It could have attempted to study the health effects, singly and in combination, of the hundreds of thousands of new chemicals that were kaleidoscoping over our world, a virtually impossible task.

The attempt itself would have put the profession on a collision course with the mushrooming petrochemical industry, threatening the banning of most new chemicals and the strangling of the economic boom of the next two decades.

The other alternative was for the profession to bury its collective head in the sand and pretend that the world’s population was not actually going to become poisoned.

Environmental medicine was born as a medical specialty in 1951, founded by Dr. Theron Randolph (Above). It had to be created: the scale of the poisoning was too great to go completely ignored. The sheer numbers of sickened patients, abandoned by mainstream medicine, produced an urgent need for practitioners trained to recognize at least some of the effects of the new chemicals and to treat the resulting diseases.

But the specialty was ignored by the mainstream as though it didn’t exist, its practitioners ostracized by the American Medical Association. When I attended medical school from 1978 to 1982, environmental medicine wasn’t even on the curriculum.

Chemical sensitivity, the unfortunate name that has been given to the millions of poisoned patients, was never mentioned in school. Neither was porphyria, arguably a more appropriate name. It still isn’t mentioned, not in any medical school in the United States.

Heightened sensitivity to chemicals, we recall, was first described by New York physician George Miller Beard, who considered it a symptom of a new disease. The initial electrification of society through telegraph wires brought with it the constellation of health complaints known as neurasthenia, two of which were a tendency to develop allergies and a drastically reduced tolerance for alcohol and drugs.

By the late 1880’s, insomnia, another prominent symptom of neurasthenia, had become so rampant in western civilization that the sale of sleeping pills and potions became big business, with new formulations coming on the market almost every year. Bromides, paraldehyde, chloral, amyl hydrate, urethane, hypnol, somnal, cannabion, and other hypnotics flew off pharmacists’ shelves to satisfy the frustrated urge to sleep—and the addiction that so often followed the long term use of these drugs.

In 1888, one more drug was added to the list. Sulfonal was a sleeping medication that had a reputation for its prompt effect, its non-addictive nature, and its relative lack of side effects. There was just one problem, which only became widely known after three years of its popularity: it killed people.

But its effects were quirky, unexpected. Nine people could take sulfonal, even in large doses and for a long time, with no untoward effects, but the tenth person, sometimes after only a few or even one small dose, would become critically ill. He or she would typically be confused, so weak as to be unable to walk, constipated, with pain in the abdomen, sometimes with a skin rash, and reddish urine often described as the colour of port wine.

The reactions were idiosyncratic, liable to affect almost any organ, and the patients were apt to die of heart failure without warning. Between four and twenty percent of the general population were reported to be subject to such side effects from taking sulfonal. (See Below)

During the ensuing decades the chemistry of this surprising disease was worked out.

Porphyryns are light-sensitive pigments that play pivotal roles in the economy of both plants and animals, and in the ecology of planet Earth. In plants a porphyryn bound to magnesium is the pigment called chlorophyll, that makes plants green and is responsible for photosynthesis.

In animals an almost identical molecule bound to iron is the pigment called heme, the essential part of hemoglobin that makes blood red and enables it to carry oxygen. It is also the essential part of myoglobin, the protein that makes muscles red and delivers oxygen from our blood to our muscle cells.

Heme is also the central component of cytochrome c and cytochrome oxidase, enzymes that are contained in every cell of every plant, animal and bacterium, that transport electrons from nutrients to oxygen so that our cells can extract energy. And heme is the main component of the cytochrome P-450 enzymes in our liver that detoxify environmental chemicals for us by oxidizing them.

In other words, porphyryns are the very special molecules that interface between oxygen and life. They are responsible for the creation, maintenance, and recycling of all of the oxygen in our atmosphere: they make possible the release of oxygen from carbon dioxide by plants, the extraction of oxygen back out of the air by both plants and animals, and the use of that oxygen by living things to burn carbohydrates, fats, and proteins for energy.

The high reactivity of these molecules, which makes them transformers of energy, and their affinity for heavy metals, also makes them toxic when they accumulate in excess in the body, as happens in the disease called porphyria—a disease that is not really a disease at all, but a genetic trait, an inborn sensitivity to environmental pollution

Our cells manufacture heme from a series of other porphyryns and porphyryn precursors in a series of eight steps, catalysed by eight different enzymes. Like workers on an assembly line, each enzyme has to work at the same rate as all the others in order to keep up with the demand for the final product, heme.

A slowdown by any one enzyme creates a bottleneck, and the porphyryns and precursors that accumulate behind the bottleneck get deposited all over the body, causing disease. Or if the first enzyme is working harder than the rest, it produces precursors faster than the enzymes down the line can handle, with the same result.

Their accumulation in the skin can cause mild to disfiguring skin lesions, and mild to severe light sensitivity.

Their accumulation in the nervous system causes neurological illness, and their accumulation in other organs causes corresponding illness. And when excess porphyryns spill into the urine, it takes on the colour of port wine.

Because porphyria is assumed to be so rare, it is almost always misdiagnosed as some other disease. It is fairly called “the little imitator” because it can affect so many organs and mimic so many other conditions. Since patients usually feel so much sicker than they look, they are sometimes wrongly thought to have psychiatric disorders and too often wind up on mental wards.

And since most people don't carefully examine their own urine, they usually fail to notice its reddish hue, particularly since the colour may be evident only during severe disabling attacks.

environmental toxins. Porphyria, therefore, is a response to environmental pollution and was indeed extremely rare in an unpolluted world.

The enzymes of the heme pathway are among the most sensitive elements of the body to him “where you prove, with evidence, that [he’s] wrong.”

Here is a summary video of the two most recent surveys I did which show the vaccines increase cancer, cause excess deaths comparable to Covid deaths, and dramatically increase miscarriage rates.

If you only watch one video this year, that is the one to watch. Click HERE to watch the video on Rumble.

Posted by Weaver

STEVE KIRSCH HAS RECENTLY SENT OFF EIGHT DIFFERENT SURVEYS TO HIS READERS TO GET A SENSE OF WHAT THE REALITY IS OUT THERE. What he found was consistent with everything he has been saying for more than a year now, namely, the Covid “vaccines” are too unsafe to use and especially deadly for children.

Also recommended is another 17-minute summary video that has the highlights from 8 surveys I recently did earlier. Click HERE to watch the video on Rumble.

The surveys are of my readers and some people believe my readers give biased results to these questions. Of course they do. All surveys are biased. That’s why you should repeat these surveys yourself with your friends.

“The blue pillers would argue, ‘That’s a biased survey because your readers are all anti-vaxxers with an agenda’. Oh really? Great hand-waving argument, but where is your evidence that the responses were wrong? If you are a fact-checker or work at HHS, I’m happy to give you the full data under NDA so you can actually look at the data before you make your accusations.

The point of this article is to summarise the results to date from my readers. Even with biases, it would be hard to overcome a signal this large.

For example, how do you explain an embalmer where over 90% of her cases had severe blood clots if the vaccines are perfectly safe. How do you explain that?

After all, that should be the proper order, right? Evidence before accusation?” Kirsch wrote, “I am also happy to discuss the survey results on a live video call that is recorded and streamed. After all, I have nothing to hide.”

The survey results need to be consistent with reality.

Kirsch invites any vaccine expert who believes they can successfully argue any of the points he made in his article to a recorded discussion with

If people weren't dying, I'd wait for the survey results on a broader audience (which we began on 23 May 2022 using a third party polling organisation). The precautionary principle of medicine compels me to publish these preliminary findings now.

The preliminary findings from these polls show:

1. The vaccines have already killed about the same number of Americans as Covid has.

2. For kids 5-11, the 5-11 death report data indicates we are killing 336 kids for every child we might save from COVID if the vaccine was 100% perfect in protecting against death.

3. The second shot is the most dangerous and appears to increase all-cause mortality (ACM) over the next 30 days by approximately 8X, the first and third shots raise ACM by approximately 6X and 4.8X respectively. Even to me, this seems too high to believe, but that's what the numbers say.

4. It appears that the true number of Covid deaths, vaccine deaths, and annual deaths from heart attacks are relatively comparable with each other (within a factor of 2) since January 2020 to the present. This suggests that only around 700,000 people actually died from COVID and a comparable number from the Covid vaccines. This is in line with our VAERS minimum estimate of excess deaths caused by the vaccine: 12,000 VAERS excess deaths in the US * 41 (the minimum under-reporting factor) = 492,000 deaths which we knew was a minimum.

5. For people who did not die, if you have cancer before the shot, 55% of the people had their cancer got dramatically worse after the shot. In 20% of the cases, the cancer remained the same. Nobody's cancer got better after the shot. 0%. That is really stunning. How will the CDC explain that one? Check it out, especially the comments to the poll.

6. Miscarriages aka spontaneous abortions increased dramatically since 2021. Over 80% of the women who miscarried were vaccinated. This should not be a surprise at all since VAERS shows the #1 elevated symptom post-vaccine is heavy menstrual bleeding which is elevated at 8,800 times normal. We've known that for a long time, but the CDC won't admit it. Don't take my word for this. Check out this Gab poll I just did.

7. The VAERS under-reporting factor for deaths could easily be 100 or more. Of the vaccine deaths that were reported, fewer than 1% were reported to VAERS. However, not all these people were familiar with all details of the death.

What we can say is that it appears that at least 0.7% of all deaths and vaccine - related miscarriages were reported to VAERS. None of the 15 deaths of kids 18 and under was reported to VAERS. In other words, the VAERS URF for deaths is highly likely less than 142.

8. These are all estimates, but the numbers are so absurdly high that even if you factor in survey biases, nobody should be taking these vaccines, especially kids. It's unethical.

9. All surveys have biases and confounders. We are certainly open to hearing from anyone who thinks that they have a more accurate survey or analysis method. Instead of shooting holes in the survey, it's more constructive to show us the "right" way or the "objective" audience for the survey. In order to attack this research, you need to attack the data or the methodology or both using data to prove we got it wrong, not hand-waving arguments.

10. This work will never be published in a medical journal because it is counter-narrative. Starting on 23 May 2022, it will be "peer-reviewed" by hundreds of thousands of people who will be looking for an error and they will post it here. Check the comments if you want to see the "peer review."

11. I encourage you to replicate the surveys yourself if you don't believe me and publish them.

We are in the process of repeating these questions with a randomly selected group of people with the survey being done by an independent polling company.

We should have the results by 27 May 2022. Note that some of the survey firms want to change the questions so that they are biased in favour of making the vaccine look safe.

Wow. This is why we encourage you to do it yourself.

As I mentioned earlier, the statisticians I work with tell me the signals observed here are too large to be explained by bias and they are also very consistent with previous estimates.

For example, I've walked into several large venues I've never been in before and asked the audience "how many people do you know who died from any cause right before they were going to get their first vaccine dose? How many after?"

The results are always stunning. It's the quickest way to wake up a group to be receptive to the possibility that they've been misled.

If you think that people are primarily honest and answer objective questions honestly, you should keep reading. Also, if you are willing to survey your own followers, keep reading as well.

Revelation of The Method By Dustin Broadbery

CIA DIRECTOR, WILLIAM CASEY IS REPUTED TO HAVE SAID TO RONALD REAGAN 'We'll know our disinformation is complete when everything the American public believes is false.'

Fast forward thirty years, and there's no piece of fiction the masses will not swallow.

From Woke to COVID to the war in Ukraine, people no longer make their own ideological pilgrimages to the truth – the truth is served oven-ready by their political betters.

Nowadays, there's little distinction between the two hemispheres: reality and illusion. It's not so much that people have been robbed of their ability to decipher between these two, it's that facts have been reoriented into fiction and fiction into facts. It's a degradation of epistemology so momentous, that people don't even know that they don't know that they don't know what's happening. To quote one former anarchist.

In the grand scheme of things, humanity has perjured themselves and life as we know it has morphed into a sort of science-fiction, soap-opera with few common ancestors to reality. Even right-thinking folks require the equivalent of a cerebral chainsaw to hollow out the slew of implausible narratives into something remotely resembling reality. It goes beyond fiction to predictive programming. They're not just deceiving you; they're showing you that they're deceiving you.

What is neither here nor there to the deceived is the track record of their deceivers. Before the ink dried on the newsprint proclaiming the crisis in-waiting, the falsifications of COVID were buried under the falsehoods of war, Zelensky's standing ovation at Westminster knocked Pfizer data's release off the rostrum and those formerly joined at the hip to COVID got hitched to their Ukrainian brides.

This entire fiasco holds water because what people think they know for sure, that just ain't so, is a consensus. A preponderance of fabrications, falsehoods and false prophets governs the spiritual milieu. People worship the prosaic and glorify artifice. Our moral choices are guided by platitude and not virtue, anecdote and not evidence.

To complicate matters, what was formerly held sacred has become profane and what was formerly profane has become sacred, to quote Robert Sepehr.

There's a war raging, alright, but you will find its theatre of operations inside the human psyche. It is a war on consciousness, an atrophy of culture and its stark consequences is the spiritual malaise of humanity. Freemasons, for one, understood that information was power. Concealing beyond the prying eyes of the lower orders, the esoteric mysteries of the universe.

Then as now, it's not enough for these people to hold a monopoly over knowledge, they must deprive everyone else of its illumination, or go one further and spread ignorance. It goes beyond censoring counter arguments to fomenting falsehoods,

It's not so much societal breakdown but self-immolation. People are being misinformed and stupefied and sent out as agents of disinformation to further deconstruct what's left of an already deconstructed reality.

To make matters worse, precisely zero lessons have been learned these past two years. People flounder from one crisis to the next. Walk aimlessly from quarantine camp to air-raid shelter into whichever direction their political higher-ups point them, to deride whoever is nominated as the scourge of society, de jour. The great national pastime is to gather at the pillories and hurl cabbages at anti-vaxxers, Russians, (insert your antihero: here).

The Infowar

If all this sounds remarkably like an info-war, then it probably is.

The battle for hearts and minds has moved online. Our divine spark of life is being overhauled to data. Something of divine proportions compels us to the Internet, to data – our daily bread (and circuses), our digital avatars living richer, more meaningful lives than their truant owners.

What ceases to be worth the candle is the epistemology of our data. It doesn't matter which side of the fence you're on – a card carrying member of the great awakening or useful idiot on the lock-down left, you're still part of the same problem. You have been taken hostage by a series of narratives laid on with a shovel by the predator class and designed for the sole purpose of keeping you rapt and not informed, sedentary and not spirited. In the world of algorithms everyone is created equal, and data is just data, there's no morality to it.

These events play out as a nail-biting who dunnit, but the reality is, they're not supposed to be solved. There's no answers nor restitution, it's your awareness and not your belief systems which is being harvested.

What these hellhounds want is for you to pick your side, choose your battle, but make sure your battle-lines are social media, and that you're not throwing Molotov cocktails at the Tower of Babel.

Everyone has a dog in the fight. Particularly, those baying for the blood of the unvaccinated or calling for violence against Russians, who do so, according to Voltaire, because those who can make you believe in absurdities, can make you commit atrocities.

It's quite simple really. If a person's psyche is under siege and they don't designate an enemy to scapegoat, they might get wise to who's really attacking them, and that simply wouldn't do.

In this theatre of the absurd people acclimatize to fiction because it's easier than confronting uncomfortable truths. But under these fertile conditions any version of reality, no matter how precarious, will wash. That's where the Great Reset enters the fray.

Once you desecrate a person's moralistic and cultural maps of the world, their place in it becomes increasingly untenable. People lose touch with reality and what it means to be human. The ensuing crisis of identity leaves them susceptible to hostile takeover. Amongst other things that could possibly go wrong is the eventual micro-chipping of the population and brain machine interfaces.

Predictive Programming

But there are even stranger things brewing. Predictive Programming is the theory of a hidden hand operating the levers of reality. A sort of reality adjustment bureau obfuscating real world events through film, literature, and media manipulation.

The fundamental principle here is psychological conditioning that reduces people's resistance to the acceptance of planned future events and encourages them to swap concrete reality structures for static constructs, until eventually, our inherited world view is replaced by mythos and archetypes.

That we are living through the objectification of the predator class is no moot point. That's their messiah complex imprinted onto the collective consciousness and projected back onto the real world. By their own volition, the masses are breathing life into these grotesqueries and blotting the social fabric.

REVELATION OF THE METHOD

But it runs even deeper than predictive programming. Some call this Revelation of the Method.

According to Michael Hoffman: first they suppress the counter argument, and when the most opportune time arrives, they reveal aspects of what's really happened, but in a limited hangout sort of way.

We were told the vaccines were harmless, until Pfizer debased their own safety claims, but not before the entire world had been vaccinated. Lock-down Apologists across the corporate media are now almost unanimous that lock-downs do more harm than good. This is no arbitrary volte-face, but rather a carefully planned sequence of disclosures when the time is ripe.

Michael Hoffman suggests that the ruling elite are giving notice of their supremacy. Declaring themselves virtuoso criminal masterminds, above the law and beyond reproach. But most of all, they are telling you, in no uncertain terms, that you are without recourse, these events are beyond your control, as is your own destiny for that matter. Eventually a sense of apathy and abulia engulfs humanity, demoralizing us to the point of conceding defeat to a system we are powerless to change.

Not that you would ever have restitution. The house is not designed to do its own housekeeping. Buried deep within their rule of law, is a hidden constitution that states: nothing happens without your consent. In this version of contract law, once the truth is hidden in plain sight, you have agreed to it. There exists someplace an unsigned contract with your un-sworn oath on it.

In the end, we're all victims of the same masterstroke, whether keyboard evangelist or state-apologist, everyone is being royally screwed, and it's not so much that they're laughing at you, it's that you're laughing at yourself.

Dustin Broadbery (above) is a writer and researcher from London trying to make sense of the New Normal these past two years. Particularly the ethical and legal issues around lock-downs and mandates, the history and roadmap to today's bio security state, and the key players and institutions involved in the globalised takeover of our commons. # The Hidden History of the Incredibly Evil Khazarian Mafia (Part 3)

By

pre-planted in the Naval Intel wing, which was newly hardened to no avail.

The Israeli Mossad front company, Urban Moving Systems, was used to transport the mini-nukes made from the stolen W-54 nuclear pits from Pantex (and originally made at the Hanford processing plant), where they were stored in the Israeli Embassy in NYC and transported to the Twin Towers for detonation on 9-11-01.

THE ROTHSCHILD KM CHIEFTAINS decide that it is time to use America to complete their final take-down and occupation of the Whole World by instituting a major False-Flag attack inside America to blame on the Islamics whom they want America to wrongly attack their behalf:

So the KM Chieftains use their top Israeli-American “Israeli-first” dual citizens living in America (aka, the PNACers and top Neo-Con Cutouts) to plan a major nuclear attack on America on 9-11-01.

Bibi Netanyahu, the operational head of the KM, deployed the Mossad and these Dual Citizens to set up and institute this attack on America which was to be blamed by the CMMM on Muslims.

They informed their top Rabbis and “Friends of World Zionism” not to fly on that day and to stay out of NYC, as did “Larry Silverfish”, one of the primary men involved in the operation.

They used their main cutout in the DOD to lure the Able Danger investigators to the Pentagon Naval Intel meeting room, where they would be assassinated by a Tomahawk cruise missile that was fired from an Israeli Dolphin class Diesel submarine bought from Germany.

Thirty-five of the Able Danger investigators who were investigating and tracking the Israeli theft of 350 decommissioned W-54 Davy Crockett nuclear pits out of the backdoor at Pantex in Texas were murdered by this Tomahawk hit, which was timed with the detonation of bombs

Above: Abel Danger’s (Field McConnell) Website

Baal aka Moloch, Lucifer, Satan. Take your pick it’s the same evil spirit that wants to mass-murder all humans. In exchange for doing his “dirty work,” he rewards those who allow him to snatch their souls by giving them incredible riches, fame, and power. This is the secret blood contract called “selling one’s soul.”

The incredibly Evil Secret Agenda of the Khazarian Mafia (KM) is now revealed publicly for the very first time by Veterans Today’s own Gordon Duff. We now know that Bibi Netanyahu (above) ran the nuclear attack on America on 9-11-01 and did it as an ### overall Khazarian Mafia (KM) Agenda.

Hold on to your chair, this is a very big secret and explains a lot of what has been going on inside America, all caused by Israel and the Khazarian Mafia (KM) which has infiltrated almost all of America's institutions of Government and society.

Now for the first time ever, the very specific secret incredibly Evil Agenda of the Khazarian Mafia (KM) is going to be revealed, thanks to an interview that Mike Harris had with Veterans Today Senior Editor and Director Gordon Duff on his talk show "The Short End of the Stick" on 3-10-15.

I have heard a lot of shocking insider's secrets over the years but this one really takes the cake and explains exactly what Israel and its minions in America have been to us on behalf of the Rothschild Khazarian Mafia (KM) that has screwed up almost every aspect of our lives creating a poor economy, lots of unemployment and underemployment, massive crime, alcoholism and drug, screwed up schools that dumb down the kids, various eugenics programs like fluoride in the public water and toothpaste, and mercury in vaccines which are a big fraud, and rampant political corruption.

This interview is now sending shock waves around the world and when you consider the content that Gordon Duff disclosed for the first time anywhere publicly, you will be shocked. And you will understand that Bibi Netanyahu is the Operational Head of the Khazarian Mafia (KM) and was the one that ordered and supervised the Israeli Nuclear Attack on America on 9-11-01.

In this interview, Gordon Duff disclosed from a written transcript of what was said at a meeting between Bibi Netanyahu and an American traitor and some other spies in 1990. Gordon Duff disclosed that Netanyahu was a KGB spy like Jonathan Pollard. And we know now that Israel was started as a satellite of Bolshevik Russia and was quite unhappy when the Soviet Union fell.

Benjamin Netanyahu was meeting at Finks bar in Jerusalem, a well-known Mossad watering-hole. Here is what he said as taken directly from the transcript of the recording which was witnessed and has been 100% fully authenticated:

"If we get caught they will just replace us with persons of the same cloth. So it doesn't matter what you do, America is a Golden Calf and we will suck it dry, chop it up, and sell it off piece by piece until there is nothing left but the World's biggest welfare state that we will create and control. Why? Because it's god's will and America is big enough to take the hit so we can do it again, again and again. This is what we do to countries that we hate. We destroy them very slowly and make them suffer for refusing to be our slaves."

This is exactly what the Rothschild Khazarian Mafia (KM) has been doing to America since it successfully infiltrated and hijacked America in 1913.

Knowledge of what Bibi said on behalf of the Rothschild Khazarian Mafia (KM) should make us all furious and get motivated to drive these evil creatures out of America and take our great Republic back.

The Great Owl in Bohemian Grove, Florida, USA

When Bibi Netanyahu mentions god's will, the god he was referring to is Baal (also known as the Great Owl or Moloch), the god these Khazarians believe requires them to worship him by constant bloodletting and painful human sacrifice and mass-murder and that if they “sell their souls” to Baal (aka Lucifer or Satan) do this they will be rewarded with incredible riches, fame, and great power.

The Illuminati

When they “sell their souls” what actually happens is that their souls are snatched away and they become inhuman or soulless and take on the characteristics of Baal, that is they become increasingly psychopathic and evil.

What Bibi Netanyahu was discussing was the upcoming nuclear attack on America on 9-11-01, and when he mentioned “they will just replace us” he was referring to the top Circle of Twelve, the group he answers to that Veterans Today’s own Columnist and talk show host Stew Webb disclosed to the World by identifying 11 of the 12 who call themselves the “Illuminati” or “Disciples of Satan.” These men do semi-annual child sacrifices in Denver and eat the hearts of children, drink their blood after they paedophile them.

Folks, we must get this information out to everyone we can, then unite and drive these soulless Baal worshipping scum out of every nook and cranny of America and bring them all to justice and final judgment for all their incredible evil.

Anyone who understands what Bibi Netanyahu thinks of Americans as a golden calf to asset strip and slaughter should be enraged and driven to community organizing, and political action against Israeli espionage inside America through the Federal Reserve System, AIPAC, JINSA, the Defence Policy Board, the CFR and the like.

The Rothschild KM planted has 25 nukes in major American cities and other major cities in Europe in order to blackmail the associated government. This is referred to as their Samson Option, and was first discovered and disclosed by Seymour Hersh:

The Rothschild KM also gained some S-19 and S-20 Warheads from a corrupt Member of Congress assigned the task to buy up Ukrainian Mirvs on behalf of the USG in order to decommission them. Instead, he sold them to the Israelis and split the money with other key Congressmen involved.

This is high treason and a capital offence punishable by execution. Right after their attack on America, the Rothschild KM told the US Administration that they would detonate city-buster sized nukes in some American cities, including DC if the Administration refused to allow Israel to create their own large police state occupation force inside America, based on the consolidation of all American Law Enforcement and alphabets under one central Israeli control.

This new Israeli occupation force called Homeland Security (DHS) was initially run by dual citizens and perverts. Former DHS Director Janet Napolitano is being sued for sexual harassment of men working at DHS whom she ordered to move their offices into the men’s lavatory.
