

The New Ensign

No. 166 June 2023

This publication is for private circulation only

Calling The True Israel Peoples

Editorial

Dear Readers,

Not All News is Bad!

OVER THE PAST MONTHS AND YEARS true Israel has been subjected to an overwhelming tsunami of bad news and unfounded rumours from the enemy’s massive propaganda machine, for they know worry and stress cause physical illness with the bonus of making the population more subservient to the powers that should not be.

Whilst there are still dangers ahead to be faced, its not all doom and gloom. In many of the English speaking nations, an unseen attack is being made on the beast system to hit it where it hurts most, and that is in its purse - starving the beast of funds, using its own rules as well as Common Law.

These people are becoming a great army working below the radar of the enemy in lawfully not paying fines, reclaiming money paid through the great mortgage swindle, unlawful council tax, direct debits to name a few. More info on this will be provided in the next addition, with a flow chart and description of how the loan fraud works, provided by a subscriber to this magazine.

More good news, Facebook has begun firing its fact-checkers and has admitted that the censorship operation has been a catastrophic failure.

Amid millions of users worldwide abandoning the platform, CEO Mark Zuckerberg has been forced to take drastic action and reverse his pro-censorship stance, including sacking thousands of his fact checkers.

In the USA, the Amish people suffered 30 times less deaths than the rest of the USA, because they did not observe the lockdown rules nor take the job. Lets hope the non Amish people around them take notice of this fact!

More and more people originally supporters of migration on humanitarian grounds are now coming to realise their folly.

Diesel and petrol prices have fallen back recently after dire warnings that they would continue to skyrocket.

More people are deserting the supermarkets for more wholesome locally produced food to remain fit to fight the good fight! All praise to Yahweh for his help!

Editors (editor@newensign.com)

This magazine is for private subscription only and is not in any way connected to The Ensign Message Magazine

Contents		Page
Was Mary a Levite or a Judahite? - Pastor Eli James		3
OT “Word for Word” Exodus Part 17 Pastor Steven H. Anderson		5
The Hoskins Report - America Through Chinese Eyes (2)		10
The Authenticity of The Protocols Affirmed - Review Karl Bergmeister		14
Its A Wonderful Race (Part 3) - James Bronson - Adapted Jack Lewis		17
Harold Stough Notes - The two King Arthurs		21
The Transformation of Diabetes (Part 3)- Arthur Firstenburg		22
Tick-Tock, Tick-Tock - God’s Great Timeline - (Part 3) Danny Schreffler		26
Letters and Views		29
The Jews and The British Empire (Part 2) - L Fry		34
The Blind Age - Willie Martin		35
The Dangers of Talc Powder		38

Was Mary A Levite or A Judahite?

By Eli James

"When he started to teach, Jesus was about thirty years old, being the son, as it was thought, of Joseph, son of Heli, son of Matthat, son of Levi—son of David—son of Judah—son of Adam, son of God." - Chapter 3, Verse 23-38.

MANY CHRISTIAN IDENTITY BELIEVERS HAVE WRITTEN TO ME expressing the opinion that Mary, mother of Jesus Christ, was not of the tribe of Judah but was a descendant of the Tribe of Levi.

In this paper, I am going to do my best to counter this opinion and show the Biblical reasons why it is unsound. Although most of those who have expressed this opinion are concerned Christian Identity adherents, there are also those who wish to throw a monkey wrench into the works of Christianity by suggesting the idea that Jesus was Not of the House of David, and therefore, not a Judahite.

But if Mary was indeed a Levite, then there would be a problem with the prophecy that the Messiah would be of the House of Judah, seed of David. Let's take a look at what the Good Book tells us in Matthew 1:1:

"A genealogy of Jesus Christ, son of David, son of Abraham..."

Here is listed the statement by Matthew that Jesus is, indeed, the son of David. Christ's genealogy is given in a forward historical direction, starting from Abraham and ending with Jesus. Now, of course, this statement alone does not solve our problem because we need two or three witnesses.

The Gospel of Luke also lists Jesus Christ's genealogy, but in a backwards order, from Jesus all the way back to Yahweh, our Father:

Note that in the above quotation, the man, Levi, is mentioned. It is not mentioned whether he is a member of the Levitical priesthood or of the tribe of Levi. He is simply mentioned as Joseph's great-grandfather.)

But since Jesus Christ's true father was the Holy Spirit, not Joseph, then we must concentrate on Mary's lineage in order to show that Jesus was, in fact, a Judahite. If Mary is not a Judahite, then Christianity has a problem. Let's see if we can get to the bottom of this question. Going back to Matthew, we have this list of patriarchs:

"—Eliud was the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matthan, Matthan the father of Jacob; and Jacob was the father of Joseph the husband of Mary; of her was born Jesus who is called Christ." -- Verse 15 & 16.

Since these lists do not contain the same names, many critics of Scripture have claimed that this is one of the famous instances where the Bible seems to contradict itself; but I do not think so.

I think what the New Testament has recorded for us is the separate genealogies of Joseph and Mary, with Matthew giving us Joseph's descent and Luke giving us Mary's line of descent. The important fact is that Both are of the house of David and Judah. In Old Testament times (and the days of the Messiah were not different in this regard), the wife was considered the property of the husband. This custom led to certain idiomatic expressions which are very confusing to those who are not aware of the idiomatic nature of much of the Bible's language.

A great example is the story where Noah curses his grandson, Canaan, for a sin committed by his son, Ham. The sin committed by Ham is described as "Ham saw the nakedness of his father."

The reality is that the idiomatic expression, "nakedness of the father," can also be a reference to the nakedness of the wife because she is his property. Therefore, many Bible scholars interpret this story as being a case of incest in which Ham must have had sexual relations with his mother while both Noah and his wife were in a drunken stupor, presumably celebrating the landing of the Ark.

Noah Cursed Canaan product of Ham's incest

This is why Noah cursed Canaan, not Ham, because Canaan was quite likely the product of incest! Without the knowledge of the idiomatic nature of Biblical Hebrew, this idea is not likely to occur to anyone and the whole incident is a mystery.

The same type of idiomatic interpretation probably applies to Luke 24 which says that Joseph was the son of Heli, but here we have to take the meaning as son-in-law.

The reason for this is that the two genealogies are different and because Matthew expressly identifies Joseph as the husband of Mary, thus giving us the clue that Matthew gives Joseph's side of the family and Luke gives us Mary's side of the family. Since the custom was always to give the genealogy through the father [Jews take note: NOT through the mother!], Joseph is mentioned in both cases.

The Bible is not contradicting itself. It is simply giving us the two different lines of descent of the two parents. Note, however, that, either way, whichever genealogy you choose, Jesus is of Judah and of David, so the claim that Mary is not a descendant of the tribe of Judah and merely of the tribe of Levi just does not stand.

In addition, it is a matter of historical fact that the Tribe of Levi was set apart and not to be considered a distinct tribe anymore:

"Yahweh then set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of Yahweh's covenant, to stand in the presence of Yahweh, to do him service and in his name to pronounce blessing as they still do today [whenever this verse was written!]. Levi therefore has no share or inheritance with his brothers: Yahweh is his inheritance, as Yahweh your God told him." Deut. 10:8,9:

- The Levitical priests were to get their wives from the other tribes, so that the Tribe of Levi would no longer exist as a distinct tribe.
- Joshua 13:14 repeats this testimony.
- "To the tribe of Levi alone was no inheritance given."
- From this standpoint, it is impossible for Mary to be a Levite because the tribe of Levi ceased to exist as a distinct tribe during the forty years wandering in the desert. Yahweh gave them a special mission and they obeyed that part of the mission, about 1400 years before Mary was born.
- In short, the Tribe of Levi was absorbed into the other tribes and was no longer considered a distinct tribe.
- During the time of Christ, the expression, "the sons of Levi," could only be a reference to the Levitical Priesthood, not the tribe of Levi. By this time, this priesthood had the blood of all twelve tribes in its veins. None of this disqualifies either Joseph or Mary from their claim to being of the House of Judah through David. All it means is that they might each carry the genetic material of an original Levite in addition to the genetic material of David himself.

Praise Yah!

The End OS15757

- This fact would make Jesus qualify all the more for His role as Priest, King and Kinsman Redeemer.

Old Testament
“Word for Word” Exodus Part 17
Translation by Stephen Howard Anderson

Chapter 22

1. If a thief is found breaking in, and smitten so he dies, there shall be no blood shed for him.

2. If the sun has risen upon him, there shall be blood shed for him; for he could make full restitution; if he has nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft.

3. If the theft is found in his possession alive, whether it is an ox, or an ass, or a sheep; he shall restore double.

4. If a man causes a field or a vineyard to be eaten, and has let loose his grazing animals, and shall graze in another man's field; then the best of his own field, and of the best of his own vineyard, he shall make restitution.

5. If fire breaks out, and catches in thorns, so that the stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field is consumed by the fire, he that kindled the fire shall make restitution.

6. If a man shall give to another person money or stuff for safekeeping, and it is stolen out of the man's house, if the thief is found, let him pay double.

7. If the thief is not found, then the owner of the house shall be brought to the judges 430, to see whether or not he has put his hand into another person's property 4399.

8. For all manner of trespass 6588, whether it is for ox, for ass, for sheep, for clothing, or for any manner of lost thing that another says is his, the cause 1697 of both parties 8147 shall come before the judges; and whom the judges shall condemn 7561, he shall pay double to the other person.

9. If a man give to another person an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast, for safekeeping; and it dies, or is harmed, or driven away as captive 7617, and no man sees it:

10. then shall an oath of Yahweh be between them both, that he has not put his hand into another person's property; and the owner of it shall accept 3947 it, and he shall not make it good.

11. And if it is stolen from him, he shall make restitution to the owner of it.

12. And if it is torn in pieces by beasts 2963, then let him bring it for witness 5707, and he shall not pay for that which was torn.

13. And if a man borrow 7592 anything of another person, and if it is harmed, or die, the owner not being with it, he shall surely make it good.

14. But if the owner of it is with it, he shall not make it good: if it is a hired thing 7916, it came for his hire.

15. And if a man entice 6601 a virgin 1330 that is not betrothed 781, and lie 7901 with her, he shall surely give a dowry to her 4117 to be his wife.

16. If her father utterly refuses to give her to him, he shall pay money according to the dowry 4119 of virgins.

17. A sorcerer 3784 you shall not let live 2421.

18. Whosoever lies 7901 with a beast 929 shall surely be put to death. [see notes]

19. He that slaughters 2076 to any elohiym except Yahweh only, he shall be utterly destroyed 2763.

20. You shall neither treat violently 3238 nor oppress 3905 a sojourner 1616: because you were sojourners in the land of Mitsrayim.

21. You shall not afflict 6031 any widow 490 or fatherless child 3490.

22. If you afflict them in any way, and they cry out at all to Me, I will surely hear their cry;

23. and My wrath shall grow hot 2734, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

24. If money 3701 you lend 3867 to any of My people that are poor 6041 by you, you shall not be to him a creditor 5383, neither shall you lay upon him usury 5392.

25. If you at all take another person's clothing as a pledge, you shall return it to him by the time the sun goes down.

26. Because that is his only covering, it is clothing for his skin: what shall he sleep in? And it shall be, when he cries to me, that I will hear, because I am gracious.

27. You shall not revile 7043 the judges, nor curse 779 the leader 5387 of your people.

28. You shall not delay 309 to offer the first of your ripe fruits 4395, and of your liquors 1831: the firstborn of your sons you shall give to Me.

29. Likewise shall you do with your oxen, and with your sheep: seven days it shall be with its dam 517; on the eighth day you shall give it to Me.

30. And you shall be consecrated 6944 men to Me: neither shall you eat of any flesh that is torn of beasts 2966 in the field; you shall cast 7993 it to the dogs 3611.

Chapter 22 Notes

This entire chapter is full of common-sense laws of personal responsibility concerning private property. It is clear, without all the "legalese" we have in our current laws today. If these laws were followed today, crime would be rare, and the dealings between people would be far more respectful and polite. Note verse 18, because 929 also refers to two-legged beasts. "Beast" is a derogatory term for non-adamic peoples in Hebrew. This covers race-mixing as well. Race mixers were killed back then. Usury, the charging of interest, especially at the horrendous rates of today, would be forbidden. Attorneys would not exist, and all the behind-the-scenes crooked dealings would never happen either. When Yahshua Messiah returns, all this perfect law will come to be, and right-ruling will prevail.

Verse 8 - Lev. 6:3,4;

Verse 15, 16 - Deut. 22:28,29;

Verse 17 - Deut. 18:10,11;

Verse 18 - Lev. 18:23; 20:15,16; Deut. 27:21;

Verse 19 - Deut. 17:2-7;

Verses 20,21 - Ex. 23:9; Lev. 19:33,34; Deut. 24:17,18; 27:19;

Verse 24 - Lev. 25:35-38; Deut. 15:7-11; 23:19,20;

Verse 27 - Acts 23:5;

Verse 30 - Lev. 17:15

Chapter 23

1. You shall not carry 5375 deceitful 7723 rumors 8088: put not your hand with the wicked 7563 to be a witness 5707 of violence 2555.

2. You shall not follow 310 a multitude 7227 to do evil 7451; neither shall you answer 6030 in a dispute 7379 and incline your mind 5186 to pervert justice 5186 following many 7227.

3. Neither shall you show unjust bias toward 1921 a poor man in his dispute 7379.

4. And if you encounter 6293 your enemy's ox or his ass wandering about 8582, you shall surely return it to him.

5. If you see the ass of a person that hates you lying down because of his burden, and would stop 2308 to help him 5800, you shall surely help with him.

6. You shall not pervert 5186 the judgement 4941 of the poor in his dispute 7379.

7. Distance yourself 7368 from a false 8267 matter; and the innocent 5355 and the righteous 6663 do not slay: because I will not declare righteous 6663 the wicked 7563.

8. And you shall take no bribe 7810: because the bribe blinds 5786 those who see 6493, and perverts 5557 the words of the righteous 6662.

9. Also you shall not oppress 3905 a sojourner 1616: because you know the heart of a sojourner, because you were sojourners in the land of Mitsrayim.

10. And six years you shall sow 2232 your land, and shall gather in the fruits of it:

11. but in the seventh year you shall let it rest 8058 and be left alone 5203 so that the poor of your people may eat: and what they leave the beasts of the field shall eat. In a like manner you shall deal with your vineyard, and your olive-yard.

12. Six days shall you do your work, and on the seventh day you shall rest 7673: so that your ox and your ass may rest 5117, and the son of your concubine 519 and the sojourner, may be refreshed 5314.

13. And in all things that I have said to you be watchful 8104: and remember not the name of other elohiyim, neither let them be heard out of your mouth.

14. Three times a year you shall keep a feast to Me:

15. You shall keep the Feast of Matsoth 4682: you shall eat matsoth seven days, as I commanded you, in the appointed time of the month Abiyb; for in it you came out of Mitsrayim: and none shall be seen in My presence empty handed 7387:

16. and the Feast of Harvest 7105, the firstfruits 1061 of your labors, which you have sown in the field: and the Feast of Ingathering 614, which is in the going out of the year, when you have gathered in your labors out of the field.

17. Three times a year all your males shall be seen in the presence of the Lord 113 Yahweh.

18. You shall not slaughter 2076 the blood of My slaughtering 2077 with chamets 2557; neither shall the fat of My feast remain until morning.

19. The first of the firstfruits of your land you shall bring into the House of Yahweh Eloheycha. You shall not boil 1310 a kid 1423 in its mothers milk 2461.

20. Behold, I send a messenger 4397 before you, to watch over you on the journey, and to bring you into the place which I have prepared 3559.

21. Be careful 8104 in his presence, and listen to his voice, grieve 4843 him not; because he will not pardon your transgressions: for My Name is in him.

22. But if you indeed listen to his voice, and do all I speak; then I shall be an enemy 340 to your enemies 341 and an adversary 6696 to your adversaries 6887.

Exodus 23:23 WEB

For my angel shall go before you, and bring you in to the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Canaanite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; and I will cut them off.

23. Because My messenger shall go before you, and bring you to the Emoriy, and the Chittiy, and the Perizziy, and the Kenaaniy, the Chiwwiy, and the Yebusiy: and I shall destroy 3582 them.

24. You shall not bow down to eloheyhem 430, nor serve them, nor do after their works: but you shall utterly destroy 2040 them, and break in pieces 7665 their sacred pillars 4676.

25. And you shall serve Yahweh Eloheychem, and He shall bless your food, and your water, and I will take sickness 4245 away from the midst of you.

26. There shall nothing miscarry 7921 young, nor be barren 6135 in your land: the number of your days I will fulfill.

27. I will send the fear 367 of Me before you, and will confuse 2000 all the people to whom you shall come, and I will cause to flee 6203 all your hated enemies from you.

28. I shall send hornets 6880 before you, which shall drive out the Chiwwiy, the Kenaaniy, and the Chittiy from before you.

29. I will not drive them out from before you in one year; lest the land become desolate 8077, and the living creatures of the field multiply against you.

30. Little by little I will drive them out from before you, until you have increased 6509, and inherit the land.

31. And I will set your boundaries 1366 from the Sea of Reeds unto the sea of the Pelishtiyy, and from the wilderness 4057 to the river 5104: because I will give the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and you shall drive them out before you.

32. You shall make no covenant with them, or with eloheyhem 430.

33. They shall not dwell in your land, lest they make you sin 2398 against Me: because if you serve eloheyhem, it will surely be a trap 4170 for you."

Chapter 23 Notes

Verse 1- plainly tells us not to carry false tales, and not to go along with wicked men and lie in court for profit. Ex. 20:16; Lev. 19:11,12; Deut. 5:20

Verse 2 - finishes what started in verse 1. If we obeyed this today, many of our troubles would not exist.

Verse 3 - Lev. 19:15

Verses 4, 5 - even if the animal is your enemy's, take the high moral ground, and help him. Yahshua Messiah taught this type of behavior. Deut. 22:1-4

Verses 6-8 - have to do with honesty in legal matters, which is lacking today. Lev. 19:15; Deut. 16:19

Verse 9 - a sojourner is a traveler, or temporary resident of the land. It may be a man of Yisrael, or a man of another race. You are not to oppress them because Yisrael sojourned in Mitsrayim for many years, and in the end, they were horribly oppressed. Yisrael is not to do as was done to them. Ex. 22:21; Lev. 19:33,34; Deut. 24:17,18; 27:19

Verses 10-12 - the Shabbath being kept is repeated. The land is to have a Shabbath in the seventh year, to let it refresh itself. Lev. 25:1-7

Verse 12 -Ex. 20:9-11; 31:15; 34:21; 35:2; Lev. 23:3; Deut. 5:13,14

Verse 13 - Not even the names of the false gods are to be remembered or spoken. The days of the week in the Gregorian calendar are the names of false gods of the Norse. Easter (Ishtar) is a perversion of the name of the goddess of fertility, and the mother of the sun-god Mithra. We must rid ourselves of all paganism, and obey Yahweh's Torah before it is too late. Stop worshiping on sun-day, and go back to the Shabbath of Yahweh.

Verses 14-18 - are rules for Feast Days, also repeated in Leviticus and Numbers.

Verse 15 - Ex. 12:14-20; Lev. 23:6-8; Num. 28:17-25 4682 is unleavened bread.

Verse 16 - Lev. 23:15-21, 39-43; Num. 28:26-31

Verse 18 - Chamets is leaven, or here leavened bread.

Verse 19 - a new food law is given, not to boil a kid in its mothers milk. Ex. 34:26; Deut. 14:21; 26:2. This does not say not to eat meat and milk in the same meal. This is a rabbinic tradition invented by followers of the Babylonian Talmud, one of many that the jews have come up with.

Verses 20, 21 - the messenger, not "angel", that goes before Yisrael is assigned a specific task. The warning not to provoke this being is clear, as he is a killer there to protect them. He will forgive no sins, as Yahweh's name is in him - the exact meaning of which is much discussed by scholars. I will state no opinion upon it here, just give what it says in Scripture. The little word IF comes into play again in several verses, making them conditional upon certain behavior by Yisrael. These are in 22 and apply also to 25, the taking away of sickness. As we still have sickness, we must not be obeying in the manner described by Yahweh. It tells us to destroy all places of worship of false "gods" in verse 24, but now we are allowing new ones to be built in our land. Reap what you sow, as we have been warned.

God will drive out the nations with hornets

Ex 23:28; Deut 7:20; Josh 24:12; Ps 118:12 Isa 7:18
www.bible.ca

Verse 28 - It talks about hornets, as they are a particularly vicious insect. Anyone that has been chased by hornets will understand. The old expression about "stirring up a hornets' nest" rings true here.

Verse 29 - common sense prevails again, because if the land were suddenly empty, all the dangerous wild animals would multiply quickly, and be a problem to dispose of later.

Verse 31 - Yahweh sets boundaries for their land, and again warns not to have dealings with the cursed seedline peoples.

To be continued

The Hoskins Report

Chapter 162 (Part Two)

America Through Chinese Eyes

5 - Kevin Mitnick - Hacker

KEVIN MITNICK is the renowned computer hacker used as an example of tomorrow's hero. He is the one who played the mischief with American business computers and found no difficulty breaking into government computers.

This top spot no doubt might be occupied today by the 16 year old Austrian hacker (above) who more recently shut down the computers of eastern Europe - and in so doing largely shut down eastern Europe itself.

The government has hired many of the best hackers and has used them to break into the systems of Islamic militants to destroy, change, or plant bugs. However, the number of computer viruses created by the private sector are expanding at an unbelievable rate and can be used against the state and the Cartel by any number of malcontents.

It is the belief of some computer experts that in the future entire finance, manufacturing, or transport of a country will come under computer attack. Entire countries could become immobilized by hackers and their computer viruses. In essence, an individual, or a handful of people, can conceivably hold entire countries, or even groups of countries, for ransom.

The Weak's Last Ditch Defence

In the Chinese opinion, America, in the process of conditioning its people for constant war, instilled in them the erroneous belief that its worldwide military escapades would take place without casualties. This, the Chinese believe, is its weak point.

The counter to this strategy one must do whatever is necessary to kill as many American soldiers as possible. War must be waged - not to gain strong points, strategic positions, or tactical advantage - but simply to kill individual American soldiers. This will turn American public opinion against the war.

It may be necessary to suffer many casualties to inflict one single American casualty, but if it will cause the Americans to withdraw - its worth the expenditure. The Vietnamese suffered more than two million casualties while inflicting 58,000 American casualties. As this rate of "wastage" the war could continue indefinitely because Vietnamese births were still greater than their deaths.

The strategy worked and resulted in Vietnam's victory. The casualty ratio in Iraq at this writing is 1,000 American soldiers and 100,000 Iraqi men, women and children. Of course, the later figure includes executed puppet collaborators whom the U.S. has been unable to protect from Iraqi vengeance.

Psychological Warfare - Deception

No one person was given the hero status for media psychological warfare used by one state against another, against individuals, and against entire populations. Such warfare is pervasive and takes place all the time.

Programming Captive Populations

Walter Cronkite

Since the writers of the Chinese intelligence report are themselves members of a captive population they did not delve deeply into the programming of captive populations. Saxons remember that the media icon Walter Cronkite once said; "My job is not to tell the truth, I am an opinion Molder[4]."

The reason Cronkite said this is because people can think only in terms of the information they have in their heads. There is no way to think any other way. The information one receives determines one's reaction.

To provide Cartel-approved information, it is logical that their media "redefine" existing information and current events. Attitudes can be changed by merely changing definitions.

Non politically-correct words may be re-interpreted and branded as "pre-judging", or, "prejudice". The media defines "prejudice as bad - which can lead to the ridiculous: Pre-judging the danger of one's children playing in traffic is guilty of prejudice.

The Cartel's media redefines a sodomite, first as a homosexual, then redefines the homosexual as someone who is gay, and at the last a "gay" is redefined as being just another normal person with a "different lifestyle". Sodomite to "normal" in three steps.

Changing the language of captive populations causes them to lose the ability to communicate with each other. They know that they are being "dumbed-down" but that does not stop the process. Remember the TV sitcom about 3 white women living in the city, one with a pronounced Southern accent, and there was a black male. The black was just there.

The reason for his being there was never given. He had no job. He didn't make sexual advances against the white women - he was just hanging around making an occasional wise-crack. He was always around. One became conditioned to seeing him. He wasn't doing any harm. Why was he there?

The Cartel was conditioning its captive Saxon nation to see blacks in the company of white women as being a thing acceptable - something considered very much against the WORD in days' past[5].

Whites were taught traditionally that white women in the company of blacks were simply Lawless whores. The program was meant to change this attitude. It worked.

Now, the conditioning has progressed to the point that almost every TV advertisement and program has a white woman in company with a black male. TV judges and police chiefs are black - a great many of them black women[6].

Even casual documentaries that show white women speaking have a shadowy black male lurking in the background. Conditioning. It works! The result is that we now see white women with mulatto children[7].

ed hostile nations from far lands and mingled them together and incited them, one against the other, preparing for that day - that final day.

The Serpent sees beyond Esau's Tower to a place where everything is smoking ruin - all is burned - leaving only Nirvana. Nothing! The destruction and end of all things.

We who follow the WORD see things differently. We see the nations of the world - instead of destroying each other in a mad orgy of blood and self-destruction - agreeing to part from each other. We see the fulfilment of prophecy:

"They will each turn to his own people, and each one will flee to his own land. Anyone who is found will be thrust through, and anyone who is captured will fall by the sword. Their little ones will also be dashed to pieces." Isaiah 13:14-16.

The WORD says that in the days to come - one's only safety will be with his own people. Each nation must separate from all other alien nations around him. This is the day God promised.

"Israel then shall dwell in safety alone."
Deut 33:28

Notes

1 Unrestricted Warfare, Qiao Liang and Wang Xiangsui, Beijing: (PLA Literature & Arts Publishing House, 1999)

2 Queen Victoria knighted Albert Sassoon in 1872. Edward Albert Sassoon married Aline Caroline de Rothschild in 1887 linking the Sassoon mercantile franchise with Rothschild's banking franchise.

3 This revives the discussion that man brings life and creativeness and humans bring death and destruction.

4 Crusade for Christ, Special Message For 2002. Col Jack Mohr.

5. "When they heard the Law, they excluded from Israel all the mixed multitude." Neh:13:3; "Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up." Matt 15:13; "Let them marry— only to the family of the tribe of their father." Numbers 36:6; "Thou — shall go — to my kindred, and take a wife." Gen 24:3,4.

6. "Thou mayest not set a stranger over thee." Deut 17:15; "As for my people—women rule over them." Isaiah 3:12

7. "Let all them of our habitations that have strange wives come— till we turn away the wrath of the Lord from us for this matter— All these had taken strange wives they put them away with their children." I Esdras 12-13,36: "Thus ye shall not do from now on and to eternity to defile a daughter of Israel." Jubilees 30:5.

The End

Steven Books
League Enterprises
Suite 3, 3rd. Floor
148 Cambridge Heath Road
London
E1 5QJ

For books by identity authors – Kenneth McKilliam, Ria Splinter and Richard Porter plus many other subjects and difficult to obtain books.

<http://www.stevenbooks.co.uk/category/341/Religion>

Authenticity of Protocols of Zion Affirmed

Review By

Karl Bergmeister

(The World Jewish Conspiracy, 1938)

The following fact moreover cannot be refuted namely, that the political occurrences of the present day, taking place as they do under the influence of Jewish Freemasonry, are developing in exact accordance with the lines laid down in the Protocols, and that more particularly in Soviet Russia, under "the leadership of Jewry, the Protocols have already become an accomplished fact.

Priest faces firing squad in Masonic ruled Mexico

A LITTLE-KNOWN 1938 BOOKLET rejected the 1935 decision of a Berne Court (overturned on appeal) that the Protocols of Zion were a forgery. It foresaw that World War Two was an Illuminati (Masonic) Jewish trap.

"Their world war is a necessity in order that, in the name of indivisible peace, all that portion of mankind who wish to cast off the Jewish yoke, may be laid low."

The Jewish prophets have laid down the political objectives of the Jewish people. Isaiah in particular, in chapters XL to LX promises quite undisguisedly world-domination to the chosen people. The same thing exactly is the aim of the Protocols, which may be said to differ only in the sense that they are a modern strategic plan, drawn up in a manner more suited to present-day conditions.

Countless statements from Rabbinical sources, and by Jewish politicians agree in astonishing fashion with the general lines of the Protocols.

It is only necessary to think of the destruction of the Christian religion as ordered in the Protocols, of the destruction of all estates, of the moral poisoning of youth, and of the undermining of the family, of the enslavement of the working people, and of the famines created in a fashion so conscienceless, of the way in which Moscow organizes agitation and incitement of the masses in all countries, more especially in the case of Spain, of the continuous strikes and economic crises in France, and of the subsidized and controlled revolutionary movements in Mexico and in China, to come to the only possible conclusion namely, that Jewry with the help of Bolshevism, Marxism and Freemasonry, is undeviatingly carrying out what is prescribed in the Protocols, in order to obtain for the Jewish people that world-domination which is promised to them by their God Jehovah.

World Domination

This fight for world-domination has been in full swing ever since Italian Fascism put an end to the destructive activities of Freemasonry, that most dangerous of all Jewish secret societies, and since Germany has declared openly that it is the Jew, and the Jew alone who is the driving force behind the destruction of political order among the different peoples.

In complete accordance with the sense of Protocol 7, the dogs of war are to be let loose against those states who desire to free themselves from the Jewish reign of terror, such states as Germany, Italy, Spain, Portugal and Poland. On the above subject, the following forms an interesting extract from the "Revue internationale des sociétés secrètes, No 7, April 1937:

"A new war in defence of democracy and of alleged law is being prepared in all haste. An alliance of all the Jewish groups is already complete; it bears the official title of the alliance of the three great democracies, the English, the American, and the French.—Israel requires world war and soon! —Israel is positively of the opinion that time is getting short. To the mind, their world war is a necessity in order that, in the name of indivisible peace, all that portion of mankind who wish to cast off the Jewish yoke, may be laid low."

It is just the three countries above mentioned who to-day are completely under Jewish-Masonic control. Practically every member of their respective governments is a Freemason. In their case also in all key positions, men of Jewish origin are to be found, or persons who either as a result of marriage, or of financial obligation, are open to Jewish influence.

I will in general refrain from mentioning names. I should like however to point to one man only, in regard to whom Jewry are always proclaiming that he is not a Jew namely, Stalin. But Stalin in point of fact is married to a Jewess, and his all-powerful Secretary of State is his brother-in-law Kaganowitsch.

Only statesmen completely blind fail to recognize that the fate of the peoples entrusted to their charge no longer depends upon themselves, and that they will most certainly bring their peoples under the Jewish Bolshevik yoke if they do not first of all unite to fight the Jewish world danger.

It is neither from Germany, Italy, nor Japan that danger threatens, but solely and only from the direction of Jewry, who in every country play a pretendedly patriotic role, but at the same time, by means of their international press, incite one country against the other, in complete accordance with the directions of Protocol 7:

"Throughout all Europe, and by means of relations with Europe, in other continents also, we must create ferments, discords and hostility.

—We must compel the governments of the Goyim to take action in the direction favoured by our widely- conceived plan, already approaching the desired consummation, by what we shall represent as public opinion, secretly prompted by us through the means of that so-called "Great Power" - the Press which with few exceptions that may be disregarded, is entirely in our hands."

The Plan Is Apparent

The plan of Jewry as developed in the Protocols, becomes from year to year more clear and more terrible.

Whoever still persists in refusing to recognize it, is either seriously incapable, or else guilty of a crime against his own people.

And once again I will take as my authority a Jew, who unconditionally stands for the authenticity of the Protocols, and who asserts that Jewish mentality alone could draw up a programme like that of the Protocols, so that if only on these grounds, it is not possible to doubt the authenticity of the document.

(Trebitsch, above, a German Jewish writer who opposed the agenda outlined in the Protocols)

The authority referred to is the late Arthur Trebitsch, author of Deutscher Geist oder Judentum, (German Spirit or Judaism) published 1921, on page 74 of which we find the following:

"Anybody who like the author, has long since realized, seen, and heard with ominous dread, all the thoughts, aims and intentions derived from the entirety of our economic, political and intellectual life, and expressed in those secret documents, can with absolute confidence assert that they present the most genuine and unalloyed expression of that versatile spirit which is striving towards world-domination; and that an Aryan mind, however far it might have been driven along the road of forgery and calumny by Anti-Semitic rancour, could never, under any circumstances have devised these methods of action, these underhand expedients and these swindles as a whole."

A Conference of the World Service , the international organization for defence against Jewish aggression in all countries, took place in Erfurt from the 2nd to the 5th of September of this year. Distinguished experts, authors and political leaders, more especially from the following countries, took part: Belgium, Denmark, Germany, Great-Britain, Finland, Greece, Holland, Italy, Yugoslavia, Canada, Lettland, the U.S.A., Norway, Austria, Poland, Russia (Emigration), Sweden, Switzerland, Spain, South Africa, Czechoslovakia and Hungary.

After the commission appointed to inquire into the authenticity of the Protocols had rendered a report of its two years of activity, the Congress unanimously adopted – the following resolution relative to the authenticity of "The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion":

That the verdict given in Berne May 14 1935 to the effect that the Protocols are a forgery is a faulty verdict.

That it only became possible in consequence of the Judge having erroneously based his judgement upon the expertises of the two Swiss experts recommended by the Jewish side C. A. Loosli and Professor A. Baumgarten, after he had heard the 16 witnesses for the Jewish side, and after having refused to hear any single one of the 40 witnesses brought by the Aryan side.

The verdict in Berne has not shaken the authenticity of the Protocols. For their authenticity the following irrefutable fact, among many others, bears witness namely, that Jewry in the social, political, and religious sphere, persistently model all their actions along the lines laid down in the Protocols.

The Protocols of the Elders of Zion are accordingly the authentic programme of Jewish world politics.

First Comment by Tony Blizzard:

As in the statements I wrote which appeared on the back cover of a 1998 Barnes Review edition of "Waters Flowing Eastward," I'm certain that these Satanists, in whatever they may call their organizations today, have periodic meetings wherein the protocols are updated to fit the modern world.

For instance, their remarks on their control of the press in the only copy ever to escape their hands are today obsolete. It is now the media, more importantly, the Internet, wherein, to this time, people such as yourself have been able to counter their agenda, or at least expose it, to a point. It would be interesting to be able to read what their plans are today for denying truth on the Internet in the near future. You can be certain that whatever governments do to quash the truths coming out will be that which has been designed by these same Satanist cabals.

People must realize that it was basically a fluke that over a century ago, one Jew stole these protocols of the conspiratorial speech for the periodic meeting of this satanic/talmudic cabal and sold them to the wife of the Russian legate in Paris. (Whatever his motive, that man paid shortly thereafter in Egypt with his life.) Otherwise the world would never have heard of them. This conspiracy against mankind, against God, has never been static, it continues secretly to work on improvements in method and will do so until finally destroyed.

Basically, what is revealed in the protocols is the devil's battle plan, using those Talmudist fanatics as his myrmidons, in the war on earth between himself and God for the souls of men.

The End OS12345

Its a Wonderful Race (Part 3) By James Bronson Adapted by Jack Lewis

Continued With George Still Looking For a Toilet

I NEED SOME TOILET PAPER. George said. "Toilet paper?" replied the angel. "There—I know. I know. Toilet paper hasn't been invented yet. Just hand me some leaves then!"

Clarence obliged. Then the two of them flew towards the pyramids. George observed: "I don't understand. According to my recollections from Geography class, the great pyramids should be near this very spot. We ought to be able to see them from miles away."

"Well, George, I'm sure your professors at the college never told you this, but the ancient Egyptians were not black or brown, not in the early and peak days of their civilization anyway.

They were Caucasians. The scientists who examined the Egyptian mummies confirmed this fact. Mummies with blonde and red hair are in museums today - in the world that you once knew that is.

Did you know that a 2011 DNA test even proved that Egyptian King Tut shares common ancestry with 70% of British men, and 50% of all European men? Oddly enough, there is NOT a similar DNA match between today's "Egyptians" and King Tut. Egypt's Whites were blended out by Black Nubians."

"So, there are no pyramids in this non-White world George, and no Sphinx either and the later day Carthaginians were also White, as are of the modern day Berbers of North Africa."

"Are you serious? I never heard that before." said George. "Of course you haven't. The truth has been concealed from you. Here, take my laptop.

Google "White Egyptian mummies' if you don't believe me."

If the blonde hair of the Egyptian mummies above was the result of mummification, then why are the statues of the royal Egyptian Pharos and nobility shown with blue eyes?

George looked at the blonde and red haired mummy photos and read the scientific articles. He stood dumb founded with his mouth open. George became pensive. He faced northward towards Europe, turned to Clarence and said "My great grandparents on my mother's side came to America from Holland. On dad's side, grandmom is Italian and French. Grandpop is Scotch- Irish. ....Clarence?"

Yes George."

"What became of Europe?"

Clarence replied: "Europe became populated by Asiatic tribes who pushed westward. They've settled down a bit but life is much the same as it is in North America. A nomadic existence based on hunting and food gathering. No great cities, no science, no buildings, no culture, no fine art - just a hard daily struggle against life and the elements of nature. In a Europe without evil White people, Rome never existed, nor did Greece. There was no Renaissance either. It's a short flyover the Mediterranean Sea, George. Let's go visit shall we?"

"Ah... let's not Clarence! After my experience with Dr. Kinga, I'd rather pass on the unknown." "Take me to Persia then. Surely the great civilization that rivaled Greece will welcome me." George said. Clarence laughed out loud.

"Why are you laughing at me?!" Shouted George. "Aw come on now Clarence! Don't tell me the Persian Empire doesn't exist either!"

"George, George, George. Don't you know that the ancient Persian civilization was established by White tribes originating from the Caucasus Mountain region of central Asia. Where do you think the term "Caucasian" comes from?"

These Indo-European tribes were known as the Aryans. In Farsi (Persian) Iran actually translates into "Land of the Aryan." Iran–Aryan–sounds similar right?"

"Crikey! I never knew that! I always thought Aryans were an invention of the Nazis." Said George dumbfounded. Clarence shook his head in bewildered amusement at the ignorance of his young pupil.

He continued: "George, you mentioned that you are part Irish George. Well, Ireland also translates into "Land of the Aryan." The Irish name "Erin" comes from "Aryan", as does the Greek and Italian "Arianna." So you see George, Northern Europeans and Persians originated from the same people."

"Wait a minute Clarence, I'll grant you the linguistic similarities between the (Persian) and European languages, but Iranians look nothing at all like Northern Europeans."

Clarence replied: "In the north of Iran (Persia), they still look exactly like Europeans. These are the pure descendants of the ancient Persians. Have a look at this pretty White girl George." Clarence then handed his laptop to George.

George could not take his eyes off of the laptop screen.

"Beautiful isn't she George? There are, or should I say, were, plenty more like her in northern Iran George. Some are blonde, some brunette, and some with chestnut colour hair. It would be a shame to erase such beauty from the face of the earth. Don't you think George?"

"Not if I can help it she won't be!" George replied. George handed the laptop back to Clarence. "Clarence, this has all been very educational. I've reconsidered many of my earlier beliefs and I thank to you. But now I want to visit the great civilizations built by non-Whites. Let's explore the Arab civilizations!" said George as he Clarence's coat. "Clarence, To Mesopotamia!"

"Sorry George, but just like Egypt and Persia, civilizations such as Babylon, Assyria, Sumeria, and even the Ottoman Turkish Empire never got off the ground without the influence of evil White men. Have a look at these Arab Caucasians. Though far fewer than they were centuries ago, they are still many Whites in the "Arab world." said Clarence as he again handed his laptop to George.

"Wow who is that?"

"That's Queen Rania of Jordan. Lovely isn't she?" "I'll say. She looks like Cindy Crawford! I always believed that Arabs were all light brown. She's as fair as I am! I can't believe this!"

"I see now that we are really going to have to go far east to see a non White civilization. Said George as he again clutched Clarence's coat tail. "Clarence, to India! One of the richest and most vibrant civilizations the world has ever known." "As you wish George." said Clarence as the two flew eastward. Upon arriving at the banks of the river Ganges, George beheld a horrible sight.

There was a mass of emaciated people wading about in the river, along with dead bodies, animal herds, and human as well as animal waste. Insects buzzed about everywhere as the overpowering stench of the wretched scene filled up George's nostrils.

"All right Clarence. Quit playing games!" Said George. "What do you mean George?" "I know all about the brutal poverty of India's lower classes. That's very unfortunate. But you're being very selective in bringing me to this awful place.

Why not take me to the Taj Mahal, or any of the other splendid palaces of ancient India?"

"Because they don't exist George."

"What?!"

"It was the White Aryan tribes that trekked across Asia and settled in the north of India, and brought high civilization with them. Any Indian schoolchild knows about the Aryan migrations, but somehow you don't! The ancient Indo-Aryan language of Sanskrit is the mother tongue of Latin, Greek, Farsi, and all of the Slavic and Germanic languages of Europe. It was the White Aryans who civilized India, built the Taj Mahal, and established the world's first universities.

Takshila and Nalanda universities educated thousands of scholars from all over the eastern world. Mathematics, science, medicine, philosophy - the Indo-Aryans knew it all and shared their knowledge with other races.

This wonderous Aryan-Indian civilization is what European explorers like Marco Polo, Columbus, and others were searching for. I'm afraid you'll not find any software engineers or doctors in that bunch down by the river George.

Just like Dr. Kinga in Africa, these folks never got their chance because you have so carelessly erased evil White people from the pages of history!"

George shouted: "Clarence. Now you've gone too far! Don't tell me that the ancient Indians were White men! That can't be. In the world I came from, I knew many Indians and they were not White!

North-West Punjabi Sikh Women

South Indian Tamil Hindu Women

People of Southern India are much darker then people of Northern India. People of North India have narrower features, narrower noses, and are more Caucasoid then people of South India. People of North India look similar to people of Afghanistan, or the Middle East, while people of Southern India look similar to the Aborigines of Australia.

Clarence explained: "As centuries passed, the Indo-European Aryans who created Indian civilization intermarried with the native Dravidian majorities who populated the Indian subcontinent. Gradually the evil White people blended out, for the most part along with the advanced civilization they had built. Notice that there are still many fair-skinned Indians and Pakistanis around today, particularly in the north where the Aryans first settled."

George reflected upon Clarence's words.

"Hey. You know what Clarence?"

"What's that George."

"There is this kid in my math class named Sanjay. He is as fair skinned as I am, and he did say that he was from Rajasthan in northern India, and that his family was descended from Kings!

—Wow! You're right Clarence!"

"Aryan genes are rare now, but still present throughout all of Central Asia. Years ago there was a famous photo of an Aryan girl from Afghanistan on the cover of National Geographic." said Clarence.

"That's right! I've seen that image. She was beautiful, and she had these piercing green eyes. Wow this is too weird!"

George became worried. He knew he could never fit into the harsh primitive world he had been thrust into, and he was running out of lands! Suddenly he thought of China.

"China! Yes China! Now you're busted Clarence!"

China's ancient civilization was as advanced as any White culture."

Clarence stared at George, and then smirked silently "Aw come on Clarence! You telling me that China is backwards too now because there of no Whites?"

George sat down on the ground and shook his head. "At this point Clarence, nothing surprises me anymore. Go ahead angel. I'm all ears. Tell me about China. This ought to be good!"

"Absolutely. Not as bad as India, but there is no high civilization there either."

To be continued

Harold Stough Notes The Two Major British Kings Called Arthur From A leaflet in Harold's Library

The deliberate mistake was to weld these two powerful kings into one 250 years old impossible "King Arthur" who fought the Romans and killed their Emperor Gratian at Soissons in AD 383, and who then fought the Jutes, Angles, Saxons, and others in the mid 6th Century.

All this is well recorded and was well known by British scholars, but most modern academics do not grasp these simple foundation facts, because they do not read the ancient manuscripts, and have instead become indoctrinated into a belief system based on incorrect information.

Most people read books written by modern authors and academics, most of whom cite one another without actually going back to check out the earliest sources available for themselves. It is easier for people to believe the "experts" truly know their subject, than to start from scratch by laboriously investigating all the old records themselves.

Well Alan Wilson and Baram Blackett chose to do just that, and this website holds only a fraction of their research.

This research is very unwelcome to the entrenched academic, political, and religious establishment in Britain, and should give the reader some idea of the mass array of other similar criminal frauds that English academics have dutifully perpetrated on behalf of their Political and Religious masters for three hundred years.

The End

KING ARTHUR I (ABOVE) OF THE LATE 4TH CENTURY AD, and King Arthur II of the 6th Century AD, were both very real, very powerful, and remarkably successful Kings of Britain.

One was Arthur son of Magnus Maximus and Ceindrech daughter of Rheiden, who was born around AD 344 and who died around AD 400.

This Arthur conquered all of Western Europe between AD 383-388, and captured Paris, the stronghold of the Lady St Genevieve - who becomes the Lady Guinevere of the confused Romantic Arthurian tales we have all come to know.

The other was his direct sixth generation descendant Arthur II son of King Meurig (Maurice) and Queen Onbrawst, born c AD 503 and died AD 579. Both copiously recorded.

The Invisible Rainbow

The Transformation of Diabetes (Part 2)

By Arthur Firstenburg

this. In fact, before the discovery of insulin in 1922, some doctors, including Elliott Joslin, successfully treated severe cases of diabetes with a near starvation diet. They radically restricted their patients' intake of not just sugar, but all calories, thus ensuring that glucose entered the bloodstream at a rate no faster than the cells could deal with.

After a several days' fast normalized the blood glucose, first carbohydrates, then proteins, then fats were gradually reintroduced into the patient's diet. Sugar was eliminated. This saved many people who would have died within a year or two.

WE RECALL FROM THE LAST CHAPTER that exposure to electromagnetic fields interferes with basic metabolism. The power plants of our cells, the mitochondria, become less active, slowing the rate at which our cells can burn glucose, fats, and Protein.

Instead of being taken up by our cells, excess fats accumulate in our blood and are deposited on the walls of our arteries along with the cholesterol that transports them, forming plaques and causing coronary heart disease. This can be prevented by eating a low-fat diet.

In the same way, excess glucose, instead of being taken up by our cells, also backs up and accumulates in our blood. This increases the secretion of insulin by our pancreas. Normally, insulin lowers blood sugar by increasing its uptake by our muscles. But now our muscle cells can't keep up. They burn glucose as fast as they can after a meal, and it's no longer fast enough.

Most of the excess goes into our fat cells, is converted to fat, and makes us obese. If your pancreas becomes worn out and stops producing insulin, you have Type 1 diabetes. If your pancreas is producing enough, or too much insulin, but your muscles are unable to use glucose quickly enough, this is interpreted as "insulin resistance" and you have Type 2 diabetes.

Eating a diet free of highly refined, quickly digested foods, especially sugar, can prevent

But in Joslin's (left) time the very nature of this disease underwent a mysterious transformation. Insulin resistance—which accounts for the vast majority of diabetes in the world today—did not exist before the late nineteenth century. Neither did obese diabetic patients.

Almost all people with diabetes were insulin-deficient, and they were universally thin: since insulin is needed in order for muscle and fat cells to absorb glucose, people with little or no insulin will waste away.

They pee away their glucose instead of using it for energy, and survive by burning their stores of body fat.

In fact, overweight diabetics were at first so unusual that late-nineteenth century doctors couldn't quite believe the change in the disease—and some of them didn't. One of these, John Milner Fothergill, a prominent London physician, wrote a letter to the Philadelphia Medical Times in 1884, in which he stated:

"When a corpulent, florid-complexioned man, well-fed and vigorous, passes sugar in his urine, only a tyro would conjecture that he was the victim of classical diabetes, a formidable wasting disease.”

Dr. Fothergill, as it turned out, was in denial. A corpulent, florid-complexioned man himself, Fothergill died of diabetes five years later.

Today the disease has changed entirely. Even children with Type 1, insulin deficient diabetes tend to be overweight. They are overweight before they become diabetic because of their cells’ reduced ability to metabolise fats.

They are overweight after they become diabetic because the insulin that they take for the rest of their lives makes their fat cells take up lots of glucose and store it as fat.

Diabetes is Also a Disorder of Fat Metabolism

Nowadays, all blood that is drawn from a patient is sent right off to a laboratory to be analysed. The doctor rarely looks at it. But a hundred years ago the quality and consistency of the blood were valuable guides to diagnosis.

Doctors knew that diabetes involved an inability to metabolise not just sugar but fat, because blood drawn from a diabetic’s vein was milky, and when it was allowed to stand, a thick layer of “cream” invariably floated to the top.

In the early years of the twentieth century, when diabetes had become epidemic and was not yet controllable with any medication, it was not unusual for a diabetic’s blood to contain 15 to 20 percent fat.

Joslin even found that blood cholesterol was a more reliable measure of the severity of the disease than blood sugar. He disagreed with those of his contemporaries who were treating diabetes with a low-carbohydrate, high-fat diet.

“The importance of the modification of the treatment to include control of the fat of the diet is obvious,” he wrote.

He issued a warning, appropriate not only for his contemporaries but for the future: “When fat ceases to be metabolised in a normal manner no striking evidence of it is afforded, and both patient and doctor continue to journey along in innocent oblivion of its existence, and hence fat is often a greater danger to a diabetic than carbohydrate.”

The linked failure of both carbohydrate and fat metabolism is a sign of disordered respiration in the mitochondria, and the mitochondria, we have seen, are disturbed by electromagnetic fields. Under the influence of such fields, respiratory enzyme activity is slower.

After a meal, the cells cannot oxidize the breakdown products of the proteins, fats, and sugars that we eat as quickly as they are being supplied by the blood. Supply outstrips demand. Recent research has shown exactly how this happens.

Glucose and fatty acids, proposed University of Cambridge biochemist Philip J. Randle (above) in 1963, compete with each other for energy production.

This mutual competition, he said, operates independently of insulin to regulate glucose levels in the blood. In other words, high fatty acid levels in the blood inhibit glucose metabolism, and vice versa. Evidence in support appeared almost immediately.

Jean-Pierre Felber and Alfredo Vannotti at the University of Lausanne gave a glucose tolerance test to five healthy volunteers, and then another one a few days later to the same individuals while they were receiving an intravenous infusion of lipids. Every person responded to the second test as though they were insulin resistant.

Although their insulin levels remained the same, they were unable to metabolise the glucose as quickly in the presence of high levels of fatty acids in their blood, competing for the same respiratory enzymes.

These experiments were easy to repeat, and overwhelming evidence confirmed the concept of the “glucose-fatty acid cycle.” Some evidence also supported the idea that not only fats, but amino acids as well, competed with glucose for respiration.

Randle had not been thinking in terms of mitochondria, much less what could happen if an environmental factor restricted the ability of the respiratory enzymes to work at all. But during the last decade and a half, finally some diabetes researchers have begun focusing specifically on mitochondrial function.

Remember that our food contains three main types of nutrients—proteins, fats, and carbohydrates—that are broken down into simpler substances before being absorbed into our blood.

Proteins become amino acids. Fats become triglycerides and free fatty acids. Carbohydrates become glucose. Some portion of these is used for growth and repair and becomes part of the structure of our body. The rest is burned by our cells for energy.

Within our cells, inside tiny bodies called mitochondria, amino acids, fatty acids, and glucose are all further transformed into even simpler chemicals that feed into a common cellular laboratory called the Krebs cycle, which breaks them down the rest of the way so that they can combine with the oxygen we breathe to produce carbon dioxide, water, and energy.

The last component in this process of combustion, the electron transport chain, receives electrons from the Krebs cycle and delivers them, one at a time, to molecules of oxygen. If the speed of those electrons is modified by external electromagnetic fields, as suggested by Blank and Goodman, or if the functioning of any of the elements of the electron transport chain is otherwise altered, the final combustion of our food is impaired. Proteins, fats, and carbohydrates begin to compete with each other and back up into the bloodstream. Fats are deposited in arteries. Glucose is excreted in urine. The brain, heart, muscles, and organs become oxygen deprived. Life slows down and breaks down.

Only recently was it proven that this actually happens in diabetes. For a century, scientists had assumed that because most diabetics were fat, obesity causes diabetes. But in 1994, David E. Kelley (above) at the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine, in collaboration with Jean-Aimé Simoneau at Laval University in Quebec, decided to find out exactly why diabetics have such high fatty acid levels in their blood. Seventy-two years after insulin was discovered, Kelley and Simoneau were among the first to measure cellular respiration in detail in this disease.

To their surprise, the defect turned out not to be in the cells' ability to absorb lipids but in their ability to burn them for energy. Large amounts of fatty acids were being absorbed by the muscles and not metabolised.

This led to intensive research into all aspects of respiration at the cellular level in diabetes mellitus. Important work continues to be done at the University of Pittsburgh, as well as at the Joslin Diabetes Center, RMIT University in Victoria, Australia, and other research centres.

What has been discovered is that cellular metabolism is reduced at all levels. The enzymes that break down fats and feed them into the Krebs cycle are impaired. The enzymes of the Krebs cycle itself, which receives the breakdown products of fats, sugars, and proteins, are impaired. The electron transport chain is impaired. The mitochondria are smaller and reduced in number.

Consumption of oxygen by the patient during exercise is reduced. The more severe the insulin resistance—i.e., the more severe the diabetes—the greater the reductions in all these measures of cellular respiratory capacity.

In fact, Clinton Bruce and his colleagues in Australia found that the oxidative capacity of the muscles was a better indicator of insulin resistance than their fat content—which threw into question the traditional wisdom that obesity causes diabetes. Perhaps, they speculated, obesity is not a cause but an effect of the same defect in cellular respiration that causes diabetes.

A study involving lean, active young African-American women in Pittsburgh, published in 2014, seemed to confirm this. Although the women were somewhat insulin resistant, they were not yet diabetic, and the medical team could find no other physiological abnormalities in the group except two: their oxygen consumption during exercise was reduced, and mitochondrial respiration in their muscle cells was reduced.

In 2009, the Pittsburgh team made an extraordinary finding. If the electrons in the electron transport chain are being disturbed by an environmental factor, then one would expect that diet and exercise might improve all components of metabolism except the last, energy-producing step involving oxygen.

That is exactly what the Pittsburgh team found. Placing diabetic patients on calorie restriction and a strict exercise regime was beneficial in many respects. It increased the activity of the Krebs cycle enzymes. It reduced the fat content of muscle cells. It increased the number of mitochondria in the cells.

These benefits improved insulin sensitivity and helped control blood sugar. But although the number of mitochondria increased, their efficiency did not. The electron transport enzymes in dieted, exercised diabetic patients were still only half as active as the same enzymes in healthy individuals.

In June 2010, Mary-Elizabeth Patti, a professor at Harvard Medical School and researcher at the Joslin Diabetes Center, and Silvia Corvera, a professor at the University of Massachusetts Medical School in Worcester, published a comprehensive review of existing research on the role of mitochondria in diabetes.

They were forced to conclude that a defect of cellular respiration may be the basic problem behind the modern epidemic. Due to “failure of mitochondria to adapt to higher cellular oxidative demands,” they wrote, “a vicious cycle of insulin resistance and impaired insulin secretion can be initiated.”

But they were not willing to take the next step. No diabetes researchers today are looking for an environmental cause of this “failure to adapt” of so many people’s mitochondria. They are still, in the face of evidence refuting it, blaming this disease on faulty diet, lack of exercise, and genetics.

This in spite of the fact that, as Dan Hurley noted in his 2011 book, Diabetes Rising, human genetics has not changed and neither diet, exercise, nor drugs has put a dent in the escalation of this disease during the ninety years since insulin was discovered.

To be continued

TICK-TOCK, TICK-TOCK PART III

God's Great Time-line, By Danny Shreffler

A Voice in the Wilderness

THE LITTLE BOOK CONTINUED

A brief interlude. It was October 1957. Wednesday night service at our church dismissed and a family of our friends decided to join us at Ottos in Odessa, Texas, for ice cream. Ottos was but a short distance from our house and the family came over to our house and visited for a bit before going home.

As a child, I quickly realized the sombre atmosphere was about more than our family moving away and losing closeness with friends. Russia had just launched Sputnik. My family and their friends were talking about the event, and in those days that was an unheard-of accomplishment. They spoke of the scriptures mentioning signs in the heavens and viewed this as a possible heralding of last days.

They as generations and generations before them hoped to see the return of Jesus to the earth. Even in the time shortly after Jesus left, his disciples expected to see him return. That is called The Doctrine of Imminency.

The conversation further evolved to discussions of other prophetic writings. These things always intrigued me and I listened, seen but not heard as was the norm in those days. By 1957, the teaching that there would be a personal anti-Christ, a one-world government, one world religion and a one world currency was well ensconced in churchdom and accepted as truth. Today, that very case is proving to be true[1].

Today we are living it. We are seeing it happen. This week, it was made known that the Illuminati held its very first international meeting in India. Heretofore it was regional and primarily divided between three continents, Europe, Asia and North America. It is being reported that an announcement made at that meeting declared 2023 to be the first year of the New World Order (NWO)[2].

In conjunction with the announcement that the world will (this year) come under a one world digital currency. Americans should recognize something. The banking kerfuffle, all of the so-called stupidity, ineptitude and disregard for the constitution, is nothing more than the magicians 'saying look over here!' while they are going right along with the NWO plans they embrace.

The new government about to take place over the entire globe is Communism. It is the chosen form of government of the Kazarrian mafia. Their economic system is socialism. Their religion is anything but Christianity. As long as it is anti-Christ; it is fine and dandy. Anybody but Jesus.

In Abu Dhabi, a structure has been erected called The Abrahamic Family House. It has been embraced as a 'beacon of peace' by the heads of Catholicism, Islam and Judaism in a ceremonial skit with two young boys and a young girl performing. Many suppose this to be the likeness of the Madonna and the father (the older boy) and son (the younger) symbolizing the Babylonian trinity and sun god worship[3].

In any case, as stated above, we know the chosen form of government for the one-worlders (specifically the Kazarrian mafia) to be Communism. Their economic system, Socialism and their new world religion anything but Christianity (including atheism). Christianity will be forbidden and under the Noahide Law.

One of those laws says anyone saying Jesus is God will be convicted of blasphemy. The subscribed penalty for blasphemy under the code, is death by beheading[4].

So, there you have it. A government created by man (6); a religion created by man (6); and an economic system created by man (6); all designed to take a throne that can never be theirs.

This writing is, of course, being written in order to get people to see where we are in God's great time line. It is meant to show what the Bible truly says. This author's studies have revealed several things which are not taught by churches. In fact, several preachers have tried to discourage me from writing about Revelation. They are the enemies of Jesus, not men seeking to know the truth nor unveil his office of Christ, AS KING[5].

The entirety of Revelation is about that one thing. The entirety of Revelation is about that one thing. There is no rapture. There is no hope for voting in the 'right man' and there is no salvation to be accomplished by the sword. Not this time.

The book clearly shows the NWO will from all appearances, succeed in taking over every government on earth. It is during the sixth trump when John begins to talk about the two witnesses. Recognizing who they are tells us clearly, the witnesses be dead in the street (silenced) for a period of 42 months[6].

We have shown year 27 AD to be the year of the anointing of Jesus and most likely the same year he spoke in the temple and declared that year to be the Jubilee. That very week began the 70th week of Daniel and according to what we see as the Biblical time line, the 4000th year from Adam's placement in the garden of Eden. The Messiah was cut off (killed) right in the middle of that week, on Wednesday, not Friday[7].

Two thousand years from that date (27 AD) brings us to 2027 AD. From where I sit today that seems like a long, long ways off. Hopefully, I am wrong. Hopefully Klassen is right. Even better we can hope the sign of Virgo in 2017 and the its accepted meaning of the return being in 2024 is even better! Better yet – Lord, how about today?

He is already my king of choice and all we have left for Revelation to be completely and fully finished, is to see him crowned at his very own wedding. The kingdom will be HIS gift from the father. Until that day we must persevere and obey His instruction "Occupy till I come!" This word does not mean, as many suppose, to do war and conquer. It means to maintain our comportment as a disciple and do what is necessary to function in a world that is not our home. It means to engage in the daily routines of our life. Look it up[8].

So, let us ask the question David, a former great king and type of Jesus himself asked:

"Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take council together, against the Lord and against his anointed saying, let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us!"

Now George Soros, Klaus Schwab, Mitch McConnell, Nancy Pelosi, Linsey Graham and all of you who fancy yourselves as luciferins, here is an announcement for you!

YOU LOSE! Do you see how you only have hold by the tips of your fingers? Can you feel it slipping away even before you have a good grip? You will be given your way for but a moment and then just look at what the true king says to YOU:

“He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.

Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure.

Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.

I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.

Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

Kiss the Son<sup>[9]</sup>, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.”

Mixed with amusement and disdain, one can almost hear the laugh! Believer the Son IS your king! Daily rise giving HIM praise, glory and honour. Put on the whole armour of God! Steel yourselves as we prepare to go through the fire. Yes, we will.

While the story of Daniel is most often admired for its obviously accurate prophecies, it should also be seen as a story of great hope.

The three men best known for their Chaldean names, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, never abandoned the character represented by their Hebrew names. (Hananiah: grace and mercy the gift of the Lord; Mishael: sought of God, and Azariah: He who the Lord hears.)

Bible names are adjectives and are intended to denote the character of the bearer. True to character these men undoubtedly bore the name of God upon their foreheads. That is what will see us through the days ahead; the seal of our God upon our foreheads. It will not be the might of arms, the precautions we have made, nor the wisdom or prowess of our minds which will save us. It will be only Jesus and what He has done to purchase us and make us his own.

As true Christians, our focus, our prayer, our desire, our goal, and our determination should be (and will be if you have fully given yourself to him) to live our lives in a way that will exemplify our king. We need to be about laying out the red carpet (I speak as a man) and prepare the way of the Lord.

Notes

1. A flesh and blood being fulfilling the scriptural definition of anti-Christ, may happen. In this author’s mind it is doubtful. There would seem to be at least two better explanations.

2. This is interesting because if it is indeed the first year of the final Beast system (the 8th; even one of the 7—meaning part and parcel of the 7) and that system is to continue 42 months; then it would end in 2027. 2027 is of course the 120th jubilee. It is the 6000th year! It is the final jubilee! (More on that later).

3. See Rev 20:4

4. The only office of Christ (anointed) not yet finished.

5 The witnesses in type have lain dead (silenced) in the streets for 3500 years. In the anti-type it will be an actual 42 months. If we could discern the actual start date of the 42 months, we would know what day to bake the cake!

6 The Sabbath the Jews were wanting to keep from profaning was the first day of Unleavened Bread, an annual Sabbath, not the weekly Sabbath. It fell on Wednesday exactly as did the Passover. He was in the grave 3 nights (Wednesday, Thursday and Friday) and 3 days (Thursday, Friday and Saturday.) The women could not go to the tomb on Saturday because it was the weekly Sabbath. By the time they got there on the first day of the week; they found him gone!

7. World as the reigning order of things, not the earth.

8. KISS – given to kings as a sign of fealty, subservience and honour.

To be Continued OS23444

Letters And Views

Your “pushing the team” for Cameron did not go unnoticed and we are watching your big donors - including so called oligarchs.

The expansionist policies of EU and NATO are more likely to cause unrest and war, than preserve the peace - but you keep denuding us of munitions, needed for our defence.

At around £120 per household pa the green levy will take 833 years to raise the £3 trillion to decarbonise the Grid. You have no idea of how that will be funded.

In the meantime China emits as much CO2 in 12 days as the UK. does in a year and it's CO2 emissions keep rising. You are causing fuel poverty for negligible gain.

Taxes are at their highest level for many years with little reduction in government overheads and companies are leaving.

We continue to carry the great millstone of EU regulations, while UK judges are overridden by ECHR rulings and the ECJ.

The flow of illegal migrants into our country, continues unabated, with HR lawyers thwarting their deportation. Many hate politicians who constantly make excuses for the perpetrators of crime because of ethnicity. They hate to see

Immigration - Letter To UK Prime Minister Rishi Sunack

Sir ____, This is a copy of my letter to the UK PM following an article on immigration that appeared in the Telegraph recently. (See Here)

"Dear Rishi Sunk" (Ed .....I like it - but I hope it's a typo...!)

You still seem unable to grasp the concerns of so many and why you received another Election thrashing. So here are some clues.

Your subservience to global puppet masters such as the IPCC, UN, the WEF etc, is against your primary duty to the people. It has led to draconian 15 minute cities and net zero.

genuflection to undemocratic pressure groups with little defence of democracy, law and order.

They hate the undermining of Police powers, which are meant to protect the majority and to see leaders kneeling to undemocratic minority groups.

Most do not want Woke and cancel culture and they do not want to be talked down to and labelled racists.

They hate that our culture and our history is being rubbished and attacked, with freedom of speech threatened by those who fear that someone might be offended.

They have heard more than enough that you followed the science - using worst case predictions, to keep them cowed.

Many believe that the lockdown and vaccines may have caused more loss of life years than Covid, but you have failed to carry out and open review.

Racing Labour to the bottom doesn't endear you to those who voted for small government, low taxation and for control to be taken back.

Your Party is on the road to oblivion and if you want to reverse that, then you must stand up and lead, very soon. When will you begin standing up for the people Mr Sunak?

If you can't stand tall then (citing Cromwell) in the name of God go and make way for someone who can.

Hopefully you will respond positively to those challenges, very soon. Yours truly, Roger, UK.

A Letter to The Archbishop of Canterbury The Rev Justin Welby

Ref THE CORONATION OATH

Sir ___ Herewith a copy of my letter to Welby re The Coronation Oath.

My Lord Arch Bishop

The 1559 Act of Supremacy placed Queen Elizabeth I as head of the Church of England. Every Sovereign since then has been required to lead the Church of England and every Sovereign has been required by law to place the protestant reformed religion (the Church of England) before all other religions.

I understand HRH Prince Charles, who aspires to hold the office of King, wishes to swear to be defender of faith rather than THE Defender of THE Faith (the Church of England) as laid down by the 1688 Coronation Oath. Any deviation from this is contrary to established English law.

Any attempt to place other religions on a par with the Church of England as Established by law removes the applicant's right to ascend the throne of England. I note over the years small adaptations of the 1688 Coronation Oath have gone unchallenged. But the one constant has been the adherence to the supremacy of the Church of England over all other religions.

This is a War Invasion. These people will later be armed, uniformed, and informed they can take your life and your property. Folks who have followed my war work for many years know that I do not write flippantly or inaccurately. And that I am careful with my words. You. Are. At. War. Lethal war. Ultimate consequences. Including genocide.

My Lord Archbishop, if you have one job in life it is to uphold the religion established by English law and whose highest clerical office you hold. I respectfully suggest that you have no option but to refuse to accept ‘defender of faith’ as a lawful choice of words and unless this pretender to the Crown of England swears to be THE Defender of THE Faith, the Church Established by law, you must refuse the Crown. Yours truly, Albert Burgess, Thame, UK.

---

Be Happy Despite All

Sir__, I wish I could tell you to ignore all of this, to live your lives, go about your business and be happy, but that’s exactly what got us here, and if we keep ignoring things, we will end up owning nothing, and no, we won’t be happy, and no, I don’t like bugs, and no, I don’t want to be a serf on a miserable universal income.

The time of ignorant bliss is over, they kept us entertained with nonsense so we wouldn’t see what was really happening, but little by little, inch by inch, we were being encircled, trapped, poisoned, brainwashed and hypnotized to think things had to be this way.

There’s no more time for ignorance, the music must be faced, the realities confronted, and the walls of our mental prison must be brought down just like Joshua did in Jericho. We must blow our trumpets loud and clear, not just 7 but 7 billion of us, and the walls of the matrix will come down in an instant.

This battle is won with knowledge, with awareness, with consciousness, with courage and faith. It is won with righteousness, with conviction, with determination and with love.

We can no longer afford to hide our heads in the sand, we can no longer pretend others will fight for us and we can no longer assume things will be ok if we don’t do our share.

We can and we must contribute to positive change by changing ourselves, by speaking out, by not complying, by saying ‘no’, by claiming our sovereignty, by shining our light and by living in tune with the symphony of the creator.

Those that chose to believe the lies, that took the easy route of compliance, that allowed fear to guide them, that ignored their better judgement, that did not listen to their intuition, now have poison running through their veins and a tougher journey to take. Let’s help them heal, let’s warn others and let’s save the children. The time is now.

We have a mission, we have a duty, we have to gain the knowledge to save ourselves and everyone around us. Keep planting the seeds, keep shining your light and keep singing the song of life, of love and freedom. Yours Truly, Laura Abolichanne.

---

Affidavit to King Charles

Sir__ I have this weekend had my affidavit witnessed and endorsed by a solicitor.

It calls upon the King to refuse to give Royal Assent to Bills currently before Parliament which infringe our civil liberties and attempt to:

- Restrict our freedom of movement
- Restrict our right to protest
- To educate our children as we think fit
- To choose our religious beliefs
- To own land and grow our own food
- To speak freely as long as this causes no direct harm to others

The affidavit is our means under Common Law to advise the King, Parliament and Judiciary that we do not consent to their attempts to repress us and is the first step towards challenging their dictatorship.

It's an initiative of Edward Fitzgerald who wrote "Smoke and Mirrors" (downloadable). It's currently travelling around the South. Yours truly, Tonuspole, UK.

---

The Coronation Oath - Copy of a Letter to King Charles

His Majesty, the King,

I am truly grateful for the courage and dignity displayed by Queen Elizabeth II during an historic reign and I wish you well in taking up the Monarch's mantle.

As the Coronation approaches it might be appropriate to remind your global audience of the enormous sacrifices - which have been made in defence of government for the people by the people - and of the vital importance of your Coronation Oath.

Sadly many believe that Parliament is sovereign and you have a rare opportunity to correct that view by emphasising that your coronation Oath is to the People – not to Parliament. By virtue of their Oath to the Monarch, MPs are also accountable to the Sovereign People.

Thus MPs must respect embedded Constitutional Law, which you will I believe, undertake to uphold and you may want to emphasise that our Constitutional and Common Laws take precedence over Statutes passed by Parliament.

Indeed you could undertake to withhold Royal Assent from any legislation which threatens to contravene our Constitutional Law - possibly eroding our sovereignty - which would need to be approved by the Sovereign People.

Neither of the referendums in 1975 and 2016 on our relationship with the EU, asked if the people were happy to see their sovereignty ceded to a foreign entity, when rulers in Brussels were and are, bent on ending the era of the nation state. You may recall that Sir John Major lauded the fact that your mother had become an EU citizen as a result of the Maastricht Treaty, which he passed without consulting the people.

Why is this important? Because In the absence of a Codified Constitution you are all that stands between our subjugation to foreign entities, many of whom have little interest in the welfare of your subjects.

I hope that you will take the comments above in the spirit intended, so that future generations can benefit from the sacrifices of their brave and steadfast forebears. I am assuming that you are able to influence the framing of your Coronation Oath.

I have the honour to be, Sir, Your Majesty's humble and obedient servant. Yours truly, J. A. Roger.

---

Destruction of True Israel

Sir___, The destruction of Jacob-Israel, the white race, has been the “goal” of Esau-Edom for the past “three thousand years,” as indicated by Rabbi Rabinovich. Whether killed in war or lured into the snare of interracial marriage the life blood of the white man comes to an end.

Note that the “end of the white man” is necessary in order for the Jewish race to “rule over the earth” or to gain complete dominion in it. The Jews also recognize the existence of a “struggle” with the white race, a struggle which goes back to Genesis chapter 25.

If we look at the trend in movies and television it is clear that interracial mixing and marriages are more and more being promoted. Jews have dominated the motion picture industry from its very inception. Movies and TV shows which show interracial marriages in a favourable light are either written, directed or produced by Jews.

It was Marxist Jews who were behind the anti-white "civil rights" movement in America to breakdown the natural barrier between the white and coloured races. It was the Jew Joel Spingarn who had founded and headed the National Association for the Advancement of Coloured People in 1909. After his death his son Arthur headed the NAACP until 1965. The Vice President was another Jew, Rabbi Solomon. In 1965 another Jew, Kevie Kaplan, took over the organization. Two long standing Jewish lawyers for the NAACP were Andrew D. Weinberger and Jack Greenberg.

Weinberger and Greenberg had filed briefs of amici curiae in the U.S. Supreme Court, on behalf of the NAACP, to strike down a Virginia statute which prohibited interracial marriages, in the case of Loving V. Virginia, 388 U.S. 1 (1967). Two Jewish lawyers, Bénard S. Cohen and Philip J. Hirschkop argued the case for the appellants (the interracial couple). The Virginia law was held to violate the Equal Protection Clause of the 14th Amendment. The Jews won!
Yours truly, Alex Thoms, Perth, Scotland.

---

Book - Under Orders - Kaufman

Sir__, The last four paragraphs of the Preface of Kaufman's book of his treatment by the Israeli State, the German State (Under Orders) and Mossad.

When, during the forties and in the land of Israel, I accepted Christ, I knew that the days ahead would not be easy. Since then, constant persecution has led to constant pondering of such questions as 'why' and 'what's behind it all'.

The main result of these pondering years is that the Jew is not just different racially. The chief, spiritual difference is of far greater import. For mankind - including the church seems to have forgotten that it was the Jews who crucified Jesus and that Jesus himself called them the sons of the devil.

The fact that Judaism is about to win the battle for world domination is closely linked to the fact that the non-Jewish world has become non-spiritual and faithless. For the strong negative impetus of Judaism is immune from anything but the positive impetus of the Godly spirit. This has nothing to do with evangelism, it is a scientific fact that the world does not consist of mere material and that things aren't moved by physical force alone.

These old but forgotten thoughts, revived in years of suffering, might as well stand right at the beginning of this book. As mentioned, they are the outcome. But they may also have been the rabbis' motive for imposing their Cherm.

I read this some 15 years ago since when I have realised that the word 'cherem' can be best translated as 'cancelled'. Yours truly, Alisdair L., UK.

---

The Word Jew

Sir__, Before The Year 1775 The Word "JEW" Did Not Exist In Any Language

The Greek word "Ioudaious" always referred to "Judean" or "Judahite", meaning someone from Judea or a descendant of Judah, before this. It never referred to the satanic descendants of the Pharisees who we call "Jews" today. Those who practice Pharisaism/Judaism.

Regarding the word "Jew," Jewish-born historian Benjamin H. Freedman explained:

"When the word 'Jew' was first introduced into the English language in the 18th century (1775) its one and only implication, inference and innuendo was 'Judean'. During the 18th, 19th, and 20th centuries a well-organized and well-financed international 'pressure group' created a so-called "secondary meaning" for the word 'Jew' among the English-speaking peoples of the world.

This so-called 'secondary meaning' for the word 'Jew' bears no relation whatsoever to the 18th century original connotation of the word 'Jew'. It is a misrepresentation."

As it stands, the adherents of Pharisaim or Rabbinists not only hijacked the word Judaism, but they also misappropriated the word Jew.

However, over time and as it pertains to Christianity, the word Jew was completely hollowed out of its "Judean" or "Judahite" meaning because those who hijacked it were not of the tribe of Judah. In fact, in many Christian circles today, that word causes quite the confusion.

"The present generally accepted 'secondary meaning' of the word 'Jew' is fundamentally responsible for the confusion in the minds of Christians regarding elementary tenets of the Christian faith," continued historian Benjamin Freedman.

"It is likewise responsible today to a very great extent for the dilution of the devotion of countless Christians for their Christian faith. The implications, inferences and innuendoes of the word 'Jew' today, to the preponderant majority of intelligent and informed Christians, is contradictory and in complete conflict with incontestable historic fact.

Christians who cannot be fooled any longer are suspect of the Christian clergy who continue to repeat, and repeat, and repeat ad nauseam their pet theme song 'Jesus was a Jew'. It actually now approaches a psychosis.

"Countless Christians know today that they were brainwashed by the Christian clergy on the subject 'Jesus was a Jew'. (They) are also becoming more and more alerted day by day why the so-called or self-styled 'Jews' throughout the world for three centuries have spent uncounted sums of money to Manufacture the Fiction that the 'Judeans' in the time of Jesus were 'Jews' rather than 'Judeans', and that 'Jesus was a Jew'." Yours truly, A Concerned Christian, Totnes, Devon, UK.

To Be Continued

The Jews And The British Empire (Part 3) By L. Fry (Part)

Honest Merchants' Warning

TOO LATE BRITAIN IS LEARNING that not she was the ruler of the League of Nations, but the government which she mistook for her own since the days of Disraeli.

And as an echo bridging the distance of centuries comes the complaint of those English merchants, true Britons who in 1684, soon after the Jewish invasion of England under Cromwell, in a case connected with the East Indies Company, said:

"Those Jews are aliens, infidels and perpetual enemies of the British Crown."

The End

This Blind Age

By

Willie Martin

Solomon's death, it was he who undermined the foundation of Israel's Divine Law and faith for generations to come.

First Solomon Defied God's Basic Law of Segregation in Israel. Read the sordid story in 1 Kings 11, and note that it begins only five sentences after the remarkable tribute to the king quoted above from the tenth chapter of 1 Kings.

EVERY PERIOD OF UPHEAVAL AND DESTRUCTION, RECORDED IN THE BIBLICAL HISTORY, was preceded by an era of blindness in regard to Divinely-related truth and its inherent obligations. It was so in the days of Noah. It was so in the days of Solomon.

The proximity of two such contrasting pictures of a man seem to emphasize the short span which may lie between an hour of triumph and the day of ignominious defeat. Solomon's violation of God's law of racial segregation is recorded in the first two verses, and reads as follows in Dr. James Moffatt's translation:

Noah's contemporaries were not in darkness as to the will of God, for it had been made known to them just as it had to Noah. The total blindness and depravity which characterized their era was due to the delusion that they could defy God's specific commands with impunity. Such laws as non-mixing of the various races. This fateful error spread until the day of reckoning, then there was no other recourse. The Lord said,

"Now king Solomon was a lover of women; he had seven hundred royal wives, and three hundred mistresses. He married many foreign women:— Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Phoenicians, and Hittites - belonging to nations against whom the Eternal had warned the men of Israel, 'You must not mix with them, nor let them mix with you, for they will be sure to seduce you to follow their gods.' Solomon clung to these women in love."
(1 Kings 1-2, Moffatt's Translation)

"I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth." (Genesis 6:7)

Another blind age of far-reaching consequences began during King Solomon's reign over all Israel. Solomon received from his father David a kingdom already united and prosperous. For a time he not only maintained the standard of his father but, by the genius of his own personality, his wisdom and dedication, he led the kingdom to still greater heights of wealth and renown:

Next, Solomon is charged with departing from faith in the true God to whom he had prayed with such fervour and devotion at the dedication of the temple. The record of Solomon's defection continues with facts so shocking as to seem almost incredible. The Moffatt version reads:

"So King Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom. And all the earth sought to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart." (1 Kings 10:23-24)

"When he grew old, he had no undivided mind for the Eternal, his God, as his father David had; his wives seduced him to follow foreign gods. Solomon did what was evil in the eyes of the Eternal; he did not follow the Eternal faithfully, as his father David had done.

Although the division of the Kingdom and the scattering of its people did not occur until after

For he put up shrines for Astarte, the goddess of the Phoenicians, and for Milkom, the detestable idol of the Ammonites, and for Kemosh, the detestable idol of Moab, on a hill to the east of Jerusalem. He did the same for all his foreign wives, burning incense and offering sacrifice to their gods." (1 Kings 11:4-8)

It is written, furthermore, that the Lord was angry with Solomon for his defiance of the God of Israel, who had twice appeared to him and given him this order, that he was not to follow foreign gods. Nevertheless, Solomon continued his rebellious course and unwittingly sealed the fate of his beloved kingdom; for God said of his evil decision:

"Since this is your mind, since you have not obeyed my compact and the rules I laid down for you, I will tear the kingdom from you and give it to your servant." (1 Kings 11:11, Moffatt Translation)

What madness possessed the soul of Solomon! What blindness engulfed his mind and heart as he dared to defy God's racial law and build altars for the worship of false gods! Solomon's one-man "united nations" and "fellowship of faiths" led to his own undoing and, eventually, to the break-up of the once glorious Kingdom of Israel.

When Jesus Came to Visit and Redeem His People, He Found Them Scattered and Steeped in Spiritual Blindness. At That Time a Small Segment from the Former Judah Kingdom Occupied Palestine.

This Fact Is Generally Known. But It Is Equally Important to Know That the Main Body of the Covenant Race, from Both Judah and the Northern Kingdom of Israel, Had Been in the Process of Migration from Their Captive Lands, and Were Then Living in Various Centres All the Way from Babylon to Asia Minor, and on Westward across the Mainland of Europe to the British Isles.

In the thirteenth chapter of his Gospel, Matthew tells how Jesus sat by the seaside and spoke to great multitudes in parables. Then the disciples came and asked why He spoke to the people in parables. Jesus replied:

"This is why I speak to them in parables, because for all their seeing they do not see and for all their hearing they neither hear nor understand. In their case the prophecy of Isaiah is being fulfilled: 'You will hear and hear but never understand, You will see and see but never perceive. For the heart of this people is obtuse,

Their ears are heavy of hearing, their eyes they have closed, Lest they see with their eyes and hear with their ears, Lest they understand with their heart and turn again for me to cure them.'" (Matthew 13:13-15, Moffatt Translation)

The Jewish Edomite the Pharisees

The most scathing language in all the Scriptures was used by Jesus in His denunciation of the blind Jewish leaders who opposed His every word and step. Let those who think He spoke only soft, sweet words read all of Matthew's twenty-third chapter and note the authority and finality in His statements.

Here are a few of them, lest we forget:

"But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees (Jews), hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men—ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation—Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!

Ferrar Fenton

Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?—Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell (Ferrar Fenton:

'the fury of hell')— Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation. ..Behold, your house is left unto you desolate."

Thus ended the generation that sought to put out the Light of the world by crucifying the Lord of life and glory, sinful man's only Savior and wandering Israel's Redeemer. Fortunately for us, the atrocious deeds of evil men are powerless to stop the onward march of God's plan for His people.

The death of Jesus ended, not in defeat, but in the wonder of His Resurrection and the inauguration of a new, world-changing Christian Age. This marvellous era is to culminate in the personal return of Christ as King, according to the angel Gabriel's statement to Mary:

"And the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom thee shall be no end." (Luke 1:32-33)

What, now, shall we say of the present state of affairs in the modern house (or nations) of Jacob, to whom Christ gave the custody of the Kingdom of God when He took it from official Jewry? (Matthew 21:43) Despite the Gospel's shining light for almost twenty centuries, the condition is blindness, deplorable blindness.

In fact, Christians of the Western world are so blind today that they do not even suspect that they are God's chosen Israel. They are wholly ignorant of plain statements in Jeremiah, Hebrews, and elsewhere, which declare that the New Covenant, like the Old, was made with the House of Israel (See Jeremiah 31:31-34; Ezekiel 37:26; Hebrews 8:8-12; 10:15-17).

One must be blind indeed when he cannot see that, if we were not the true Israel of the covenants, we would not be the leading Christian peoples of the world today.

Jesus, the Savior and Redeemer, came to a remnant of Israel in Judea, as the prophets had written centuries before. To the faithful few who received Him, Jesus gave the great commission to go forth as His witnesses and take the Gospel to all the world. But note particularly that He had already laid upon His disciples the necessity of taking the Gospel first to the wandering Israelites in other lands, the beloved sheep of His pasture. For love of them, Jesus said to His disciples:

"But Go Rather to the Lost Sheep of the House of Israel—i Am Not Sent but Unto the Lost Sheep of the House of Israel." (Matthew 10:6; 15:24)

The apostles understood what Jesus meant by "the lost sheep." Christ Was Not Referring to Jewry, but to the Dispersed Multitudes of All the Israelitish Tribes. That they so interpreted His meaning is evidenced by the fact that soon after His Resurrection and Ascension, when the great missionary enterprise began, they went immediately to various centres in Asia Minor and Europe, where the "twelve tribes" were "scattered abroad." (James 1:1; 1 Peter 1:1-2)

These people never returned to Palestine after the Captivities. They were never called Jews. They were so blinded by their pagan surroundings that they had forgotten they were Israel, (Hosea 1 and 2) and sometimes referred to themselves as Gentiles, exactly as their Christian descendants are doing now.

It was customary in the time of the apostles to call any uncircumcised person "a gentile." In that sense the twelve tribes scattered abroad were "gentiles," for they were them, and remain to this day, an uncircumcised people. Paul's Epistle to the Romans cannot be elucidated until one learns that it was written to Israelites who, in the main, had lost their identity and became paganised. Doubtless Paul and Barnabas had this meaning in mind when they said to the Jews at Antioch in Pisidia:

"It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you (a Judah segment of Israel, he is not talking to the Israelites, but to Jews): but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles." (Acts 13:46)

The woeful plight of the Anglo-Saxon-Germanic peoples at the present time is the direct result of ignorance concerning their Israel lineage and heritage. For some years now the two great Christian nations, the United States and Britain, have been surrendering their leadership in world affairs to Zionist Jews, in the foolish belief that these anti-Christian schemers are God's chosen people. What a break for international gangsters who are taking full advantage of the situation!

Masquerading as the holy people of the Bible, and recognized as such by the leaders and laity of Christian Churches, they are getting away with every conceivable type of lying propaganda and usurpation all over the globe.

Unless Christians wake up and wrest control of government and finance from the hands of these destroyers, they will soon be writhing in the coils of a worldwide satanic dictatorship.

Isaiah gives a vivid picture of conditions in Christian Israel lands at the present moment: "Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent?—But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore.

Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken and hear for the time to come?

Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the Lord, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law." (Isaiah 42:19-24)

To be continued

Why Could Talcum Powder Be Dangerous? From Our Health Correspondent

TALCUM POWDER IS MADE OF FINELY GROUND TALC, a mineral which forms underground as a clay like rock.

Talc is often mined from the same place as asbestos, a mineral known to cause lung disease.

Non-contaminated talc is completely safe. But if tainted with asbestos, there is a risk it could be damaging to health. Tests have in the past found traces of asbestos in talcum powder products.

Asbestos is made up of six minerals that form together as tiny crystallised fibres. The minerals on their own aren't dangerous, but together they are a recognised cause of cancer.

About eight out of 10 people with mesothelioma – a type of lung cancer – have been exposed to asbestos. When asbestos fibres are breathed in, they travel to the ends of small air passages and reach the membranes of the thorax and lungs.

They can cause inflammation and scarring, damage cells' DNA, or cause changes that result in uncontrolled cell growth.

If swallowed, these fibres can reach the abdominal lining, where they can cause mesothelioma.

Ovarian cancer is another cancer asbestos is believed to be linked to.

The End

IF THE TRUTH BE KNOWN

CD 127 minutes (listen to Audio Clip on site)
$16.00

Here you will find the ignored story of the massive deportations of the German peoples from Eastern Germany, Poland, the Baltic States, and the Sudetenland and its attendant horrors.

The entire library of many more audio programs is available as a bundle. All told, this is nearly 14 hours of great historical commentary! Plus, you realize a savings of $20 dollars. For full details and to purchase go to the website:—

<http://www.untoldtales.net>

Eurofolk Radio

Is now on air!

24 hr streaming of items of interest to identity believers including live broadcasts on matters of national interest and much more!!

TUNE IN NOW!

<http://eurofolkradio.com/category/general/>

Pastor Eli James
Sundays 16.00 hrs
(British Summer time)

Live on Eurofolk Radio and Eurofolk YouTube - Tune in and join in the chat

<http://eurofolkradio.com/category/general/>

This long sort after book is now available!

Click on image for details

A Magazine For Patriots

For further details click HERE

Announcements

In The Name Of Yahwey auf
Deutsch - Für
weitere
Informationen, auf das Bild auf der rechten klicken Sie
bitte

The Chronicles Of The Migrations Of The Twelve Tribes Of Israel
From The Caucasus
Mountains Into Europe
By
Pastor Eli James

CLICK HERE

www.theflameuk.com

Contact

Tel: 07984 775937

E-mail HERE

This website is dedicated to those who have an open mind and question the official Government narratives about COVID19 and the lockdown measures.

<https://judgeforyourself.co.uk>

GERMANY'S OWN IDENTITY MAGAZINE

CONTACT

pia-6@t-online.de

Die Banker Satans

Aktualisiert Erweitert Unzensur von
Carrington Hitchcock, Andrew